2. (C) ADDRESSEE POSTS MAY DRAW ON THE POINTS BELOW WHEN DISCUSSING THE MONDALE VISIT TO JAKARTA WITH HOST GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS.

-- THE UNITED STATES AND INDONESIA HAVE A STRONG, LONG STANDING RELATIONSHIP. INDONESIA IS AN IMPORTANT TRADING PARTNER AND WE APPRECIATE THE IMPORTANT CONTRIBUTIONS IT HAS MADE TO THE SECURITY AND PROSPERITY OF THE REGION AND

THE LEADERSHIP ROLE IT HAS IN BOTH ASEAN AND APEC.

-- PRESIDENT CLINTON HAS BEEN ENGAGED PERSONALLY ON THE FINANCIAL INSTABILITY CONFRONTING EAST ASIA AND INDONESIA, AND HAS BEEN IN REGULAR CONTACT WITH THE LEADERS OF THE REGION, INCLUDING PRESIDENT SOEHARTO.

-- MR. MONDALE WILL BE VISITING JAKARTA TO FOLLOW UP ON DISCUSSIONS PRESIDENT CLINTON HAS HAD WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO. THE DISCUSSION WILL REVIEW ONGOING EFFORTS TO RESTORE FINANCIAL STABILITY AND ECONOMIC GROWTH IN INDONESIA AND THE STEPS NEEDED TO REESTABLISH MARKET CONFIDENCE.

-- MR. MONDALE WILL UNDERSCORE OUR BELIEF THAT A STRONG DEMONSTRABLE COMMITMENT TO FULL IMPLEMENTATION OF THE ECONOMIC REFORMS AGREED TO WITH THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND (IMF) OFFERS THE BEST PROSPECTS FOR RESTORING FINANCIAL STABILITY AND ECONOMIC GROWTH. THE SUCCESS OF THIS EFFORT WILL DEPEND ON PRESIDENT SOEHARTO PLACING THE FULL AUTHORITY OF HIS OFFICE BEHIND THE ECONOMIC REFORMS AGREED TO WITH THE IMF AND EXERTING THE POLITICAL WILL TO ENSURE SUSTAINED IMPLEMENTATION OF THESE MEASURES TO COMPLETION.

2. (S) SUMMARY. AMBASSADOR MONDALE AND PRESIDENT

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: CHARLES E LAHIGUERA
DATE/CASE ID: 30 APR 2008 200502960

SOEHARTO MET FOR ONE HOUR ON MARCH 3 WITH ADVISERS PRESENT, FOLLOWED BY A 30 MINUTE PRIVATE MEETING (SEPTEL). SOEHARTO REVIEWED IN DETAIL INDONESIA'S DEVELOPMENT, THE CAUSES OF THE CURRENT ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL CRISIS, AND THE NEED TO PRESERVE THE GAINS OF THE PAST QUARTER CENTURY. HE REITERATED HIS COMMITMENT TO THE IMF-SUPPORTED REFORM PROGRAM AND STATED HIS VIEW THAT INDONESIA WAS CONSISTENTLY AND SERIOUSLY IMPLEMENTING THE LETTER OF INTENT. HOWEVER, STABILIZATION OF THE RUPIAH WAS ESSENTIAL; HE WAS NOT WILLING TO RISK WORSENING CONDITIONS FOR THE INDONESIAN POPULATION. HE REPEATED THE APPEAL TO THE REST OF THE WORLD IN HIS MARCH 1 ACCOUNTABILITY SPEECH TO PROVIDE ALTERNATIVES. HE CONCLUDED WITH A BRIEF OVERVIEW OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION AND THE ONGOING PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) SESSION.

3. (S) AMBASSADOR MONDALE EMPHASIZED PRESIDENT CLINTON'S CONCERN ABOUT THE SEVERITY OF THE ECONOMIC CRISIS INDONESIA WAS EXPERIENCING. THE FACT THAT THE IMF WAS MOVING TOWARD A DETERMINATION THAT INDONESIA WAS OUT OF COMPLIANCE WITH ITS PROGRAM MADE THE CRISIS DOUBLY DANGEROUS. HE STATED THAT IT WAS URGENT TO FIND SOLUTIONS TO RESTORE STABILITY. ABOVE ALL, INDONESIA NEEDED TO IMPLEMENT ITS UNDERTAKINGS TO THE IMF, A NECESSARY CONDITION TO OTHER GOVERNMENTS' AND INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTIONS' PROVIDING THE SUPPORT INDONESIA NEEDED. AREAS OF CONCERN INCLUDED MONETARY POLICY, STRUCTURAL REFORMS, AND APPOINTMENT OF KEY PERSONNEL TO IMPLEMENT THE PROGRAM. END SUMMARY.

PARTICIPANTS

4. (S) ON MARCH 3, AMBASSADOR MONDALE AND PRESIDENT SOEHARTO MET FOR ONE HOUR IN AN EXPANDED SESSION, FOLLOWED BY A HALF HOUR PRIVATE SESSION (REFTEL). OTHER INDONESIAN PARTICIPANTS IN THE EXPANDED SESSION WERE FOREIGN MINISTER ALI ALATAS, STATE SECRETARY MOERDIONO, AND ECONOMIC ADVISOR WIDJOJO; A NOTETAKER WAS ALSO PRESENT. PRESIDENTIAL INTERPRETER WIDODO TRANSLATED IN BOTH DIRECTIONS COMPLETELY AND ACCURATELY. OTHER U.S.

PARTICIPANTS WERE TREASURY UNDER SECRETARY DAVID LIPTON, ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR EAST ASIA AND THE PACIFIC STANLEY ROTH, AMBASSADOR ROY, AND ECONCOUNS (NOTETAKER). THE EXPANDED SESSION BEGAN WITH AN EXTENDED PHOTO OPPORTUNITY. THE TWO MEETINGS CONCLUDED WITH A PRESS AVAILABILITY ON THE VERANDA, DURING WHICH AMBASSADOR MONDALE MADE A STATEMENT AND TOOK QUESTIONS.

PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S OPENING REMARKS

5. (S) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WARMLY WELCOMED AMBASSADOR MONDALE AS PRESIDENT CLINTON'S EMISSARY AND THANKED HIM FOR THE VISIT. HE EXPRESSED DEEP APPRECIATION FOR PRESIDENT CLINTON'S ATTENTION TO INDONESIA IN THIS TIME OF CRISIS AND NOTED THAT THEY HAD HAD SEVERAL TELEPHONE CONVERSATIONS. HE SAID THAT THE LAST CALL HAD TAKEN PLACE WHEN SOEHARTO WAS IN SOLO, CENTRAL JAVA; AT THAT TIME, PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD SAID HE WOULD SEND AMBASSADOR MONDALE. THIS WAS AN HONOR FOR SOEHARTO. HE TOLD PRESIDENT CLINTON IT WOULD BE A PLEASURE FOR HIM TO RECEIVE AMBASSADOR MONDALE AND THAT THE VISIT WAS AN OPPORTUNITY FOR HIM TO EXPLAIN OPENLY AND FRANKLY TO

AMBASSADOR MONDALE THE CURRENT SITUATION.

6. (S) THE CRISIS BEGAN ABOUT SIX MONTHS AGO. EVEN WHILE INDONESIA WAS CELEBRATING ITS INDEPENDENCE ON AUGUST 17, THERE WERE SIGNS OF MONETARY TURMOIL IN SOUTHEAST ASIA CAUSED BY CURRENCY CRISES VIS-A-VIS A STRONG U.S. DOLLAR. MONEY HAD BECOME MORE THAN AN INSTRUMENT OF PAYMENT; IT HAD BECOME A TRADED COMMODITY. THIS WAS WHAT THE LEADERS AT THE VANCOUVER APEC MEETING HAD ENTRUSTED TO PRESIDENT CLINTON: THAT IS, DISCUSSING WITH MINISTERS OF FINANCE, THE IMF, AND THE WORLD BANK HOW TO DEAL WITH CURRENCY AS A TRADED COMMODITY. IT WAS CLEAR, SOEHARTO SAID, THAT CURRENCY TRADING OCCURRED FOR MORE THAN JUST PROFIT; IT WAS ALSO FOR SPECULATION, AND SOUTHEAST ASIA COULD NOT WITHSTAND HEAVY SPECULATIVE ATTACKS.

7. (S) THE RUPIAH SHOCK WORSENED THE SITUATION OF INDONESIA'S PRIVATE COMPANIES, WHICH HAD BORROWED ABROAD

BUT COULD NOT REPAY THEIR LOANS AFTER THE DEPRECIATION. COMPANIES WERE ALSO AT FAULT FOR HAVING BORROWED SHORT TERM FOR LONG TERM PROJECTS. GOVERNMENT DEBT, SOEHARTO SAID, AS NEVER A PROBLEM. INDONESIA ALWAYS HAD AND

WOULD CONTINUE TO PAY SOVEREIGN PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST OBLIGATIONS ON TIME. THE EFFECT OF THE RUPIAH'S DEPRECIATION ON THE INDONESIAN POPULATION WAS SERIOUS. THERE WAS A LOSS OF PUBLIC CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH WHICH CREATED ADDITIONAL DEMAND FOR DOLLARS. THE PUBLIC WITHDREW FUNDS FROM THE BANKING SYSTEM, WHICH LED TO A LOSS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE BANKS.

8. (S) THE GOVERNMENT WAS FORCED TO SEEK A SOLUTION IN ORDER TO PRESERVE THE DEVELOPMENT GAINS OF THIRTY YEARS. THERE WAS CONVINCING EVIDENCE THAT SUBSTANTIAL GAINS HAD BEEN MADE: GDP GROWTH HAD AVERAGED 7 PERCENT OVER THE PAST TWO TO FIVE YEARS; INFLATION HAD BEEN CURBED FROM 650 PERCENT TO UNDER 10 PERCENT A YEAR; GDP PER CAPITA HAD RISEN FROM USD 70 TO USD 1,150; EXPORTS HAD JUMPED FROM LESS THAN USD 1 BILLION TO ALMOST USD 50 BILLION A YEAR; THE COMPOSITION OF EXPORTS HAD SHIFTED FROM PREDOMINANTLY OIL AND GAS TO PREDOMINANTLY NON-OIL AND GAS PRODUCTS; IN 1984, INDONESIA HAD BECOME SELF-SUFFICIENT IN RICE AND OTHER FOODS; THE SHARE OF POPULATION BELOW THE POVERTY LINE HAD SUNK FROM 60 PERCENT TO 11 PERCENT. ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT HAD BEEN ACCOMPANIED BY SOCIAL ADVANCES: COMPULSORY EDUCATION HAD BEEN EXTENDED FROM SIX TO NINE YEARS; HEALTH SERVICES HAD BEEN BROUGHT CLOSER TO THE RURAL POPULATION. THE GOAL THROUGHOUT HAD BEEN NOT JUST GROWTH, BUT EQUITABLE DEVELOPMENT ACCORDING TO THE TRILOGY OF DEVELOPMENT (NATIONAL STABILITY, ECONOMIC GROWTH, EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION OF THE FRUITS OF DEVELOPMENT).

9. (S) THESE ECONOMIC FUNDAMENTALS MEANT THAT THE MONETARY CRISIS COULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO JEOPARDIZE PROGRESS. THEREFORE, INDONESIA HAD ASKED THE IMF TO HELP OVERCOME THE CRISIS. THIS WAS IMPORTANT BECAUSE THE CRISIS COULD AFFECT OTHER COUNTRIES IN SOUTHEAST ASIA AND EVEN SPREAD TO EAST ASIA.

10. (S) INDONESIA HAD REACHED CONSENSUS WITH THE FUND ON REFORMS. INDONESIA HAD AND WAS NOW IMPLEMENTING THOSE REFORMS. THEY INCLUDED: REVISION OF THE STATE BUDGET; ADDRESSING SHORTCOMINGS AND INEFFICIENCIES IN THE BANKING SECTOR; AND EXTENDING THE GOVERNMENT'S GUARANTEE TO ALL BANK PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS. OTHER STEPS INCLUDED ELIMINATING MONOPOLIES WHICH, HE EXPLAINED, INDONESIA DID NOT WANT EITHER, BUT WHICH WERE JUSTIFIED IN THE CONSTITUTION IF THEY BENEFITTED THE PEOPLE AT LARGE. THE NATIONAL LOGISTICS AGENCY (BULOG) FIT THIS CATEGORY. THE IMF INSISTED ON THE REMOVAL OF ALL BULOG MONOPOLIES EXCEPT RICE. THIS CAUSED PROBLEMS, WHICH INDONESIA HAD EXPECTED, BECAUSE THE PRIVATE SECTOR HAD NOT YET DEVELOPED TO THE POINT WHERE IT COULD PROCURE AND DISTRIBUTE THE HUGE AMOUNTS OF OTHER COMMODITIES BULOG HAD FORMERLY HANDLED. THE MAIN PROBLEM WAS THE VOLUMES INVOLVED. SINCE THE PRIVATE SECTOR WAS INCAPABLE OF TAKING OVER BULOG'S ROLE, SCARCITIES HAD RESULTED AND PRICES HAD RISEN. THIS HAD CAUSED UNREST AND PEOPLE STARTED TO HOARD. TO PREVENT THE SITUATION FROM DETERIORATING FURTHER, THE GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN FORCED TO BEGIN IMPORTING BASIC COMMODITIES THROUGH BULOG AGAIN. SINCE IMPORTS REQUIRED FOREIGN EXCHANGE, THE PRICES WERE HIGH AND PEOPLE STILL COULD NOT PURCHASE

SECRET

THE BASIC GOODS. SO THE GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN FORCED TO PROVIDE SUBSIDIES. THIS WAS PART AND PARCEL OF THE IMF'S INSISTENCE ON REMOVING MONOPOLIES. THE RESULTS HAD BEEN COUNTERPRODUCTIVE. THE IMF DID EVENTUALLY AGREE TO THE SUBSIDIES.

11. (S) OTHER STEPS HAD BEEN THE ELIMINATION OF THE CLOVE TRADING MONOPOLY AND OF SPECIAL PRIVILEGES FOR THE NATIONAL CAR AND AIRCRAFT. TARIFF REDUCTIONS HAD BEEN AMONG OTHER REFORMS TAKEN. OUT OF ALL THESE STEPS, THE EXPECTED IMPACT WAS STABILIZATION OF THE RUPIAH. ON THE CONTRARY, IT WEAKENED FURTHER. AS THE RUPIAH WEAKENED, COMPANIES COULD NOT PAY THEIR DEBTS OR IMPORT RAW MATERIALS AND SPARE PARTS. THEY HAD TO REDUCE THEIR ACTIVITIES AND SOME CLOSED. UNEMPLOYMENT WENT UP. THIS WOULD CAUSE UNREST. THE GOVERNMENT TOOK PROMPT ACTION THROUGH THE CREATION OF LABOR-INTENSIVE PROGRAMS TO PROVIDE INCOMES TO NEWLY UNEMPLOYED UNSKILLED WORKERS.

12. (S) SOEHARTO SAID THAT INDONESIA HAD TO SEEK ALTERNATIVES. THE ENTIRE IMF PACKAGE HAD NOT HAD THE EXPECTED RESULTS, ESPECIALLY ON THE EXCHANGE RATE. A SINE QUA NON WAS RUPIAH STABILITY. WITHOUT IT, IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR COMPANIES TO CALCULATE COSTS AND MAKE PLANS. A CURRENCY BOARD WAS ONE OF THE SYSTEMS IN THE WORLD USED TO CREATE CERTAINTY. SOEHARTO HAD BEEN STUDYING THE POSSIBILITY AND MAKING PREPARATIONS TO APPLY A CURRENCY BOARD IN INDONESIA. THE IMF HAD INDICATED ITS DISAPPROVAL AND EVEN WARNED THAT INDONESIA WOULD NOT RECEIVE ADDITIONAL IMF TRANCHES OR FUNDING FROM OTHER SOURCES IF A CURRENCY BOARD WERE INTRODUCED. THIS WAS CONVEYED IN A LETTER ADDRESSED TO HIM, BUT IT WAS LEAKED AND THE RUPIAH DROPPED.

13. (S) SOEHARTO STATED THAT HE HAD TOLD PRESIDENT CLINTON AND OTHER HEADS OF STATE THAT, IF THEY REALLY DID NOT AGREE WITH A CURRENCY BOARD, THEY SHOULD SUGGEST ALTERNATIVES. THE MOST IMPORTANT THING, HE SAID, WAS A STABLE RUPIAH. HE COMMENTED THAT THE PRECONDITIONS FOR A CURRENCY BOARD WERE ALSO STRINGENT AND THAT A CURRENCY BOARD ENTAILED GREAT RISK, WHICH INDONESIA WAS CALCULATING. IT REQUIRED FOREIGN EXCHANGE TO COVER MONEY IN CIRCULATION. A BOARD WOULD MEAN THE END OF THE CENTRAL BANK'S FUNCTION AS LENDER OF LAST RESORT.

14. (S) AS HE HAD NOTED IN HIS MARCH 1 ACCOUNTABILITY SPEECH TO THE MPR, INDONESIA HAD NOT ABANDONED THE IMF. HOWEVER, AN ALTERNATIVE -- "IMF-PLUS" -- WAS NEEDED. HENCE, HE HAD APPEALED TO THE IMF, WORLD BANK, G-7 AND OTHERS TO PROVIDE ASSISTANCE. IF THE ECONOMY COULD NOT BE STABILIZED, INDONESIA FACED NOT JUST ECONOMIC SETBACK, BUT ECONOMIC COLLAPSE.

15. (S) IN ADOPTING ANY MEASURE, THE GOI RELIED UPON THE SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE. INDONESIA WAS AT THIS MOMENT EXERCISING DEMOCRACY THROUGH THE PEOPLE'S REPRESENTATIVES IN THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR). SOEHARTO NOTED THAT INDONESIA HAD HELD SUCCESSFUL ELECTIONS, WHICH HAD CHOSEN THE MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT. THE MPR WAS IN THE PROCESS OF ADOPTING IMPORTANT DECREES, INCLUDING THE "BROAD OUTLINES OF STATE POLICY" FOR THE NEXT FIVE YEARS. IT WOULD ELECT THE NEW PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT ON MARCH 11.

16. (S) SMALL GROUPS WERE OPPOSED FROM THE BEGINNING

TO THE NEW ORDER, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID. THEY STYLED THEMSELVES CHAMPIONS OF DEMOCRACY, BUT THEY WERE REALLY UNDEMOCRATIC AND SOME EVEN VIOLATED THE LAW. IF THERE WERE DIFFERENCES OF OPINION, THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT TAKE ACTION AGAINST THEM. HOWEVER, IF THEY BROKE THE LAW (INCITING, MAKING HOME-MADE BOMBS, ENDANGERING PUBLIC SAFETY), THE GOVERNMENT ACTED. THE ARMED FORCES (ABRI) REMAINED UNITED AND SO DID THE PEOPLE. THIS MEANT THE SITUATION COULD BE KEPT UNDER CONTROL. THERE HAD BEEN GROUPS TRYING TO MAKE THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY THE MONTH OF BLOOD IN JAKARTA -- THEY HAD FAILED. THEY WOULD CONTINUE TO TRY DURING THE ENTIRE MPR GENERAL SESSION, BUT THE LAW AND ORDER AUTHORITIES WOULD BE ABLE TO HANDLE THEM. THE MOST IMPORTANT TASK WAS TO OVERCOME THE ECONOMIC CRISIS, IN PARTICULAR THE LOSS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH.

SECRET

17. (S) SOEHARTO CLOSED HIS INTRODUCTORY REMARKS BY AGAIN EXPRESSING HIS GREAT APPRECIATION TO PRESIDENT CLINTON FOR HIS INTEREST AND FOR SENDING AMBASSADOR MONDALE.

AMBASSADOR MONDALE'S OPENING REMARKS

18. (S) AMBASSADOR MONDALE EXPLAINED THAT HE HAD HAD A LONG CONVERSATION WITH PRESIDENT CLINTON. HE CONVEYED PRESIDENT CLINTON'S BEST WISHES AND RELAYED HIS INTEREST IN HELPING PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AND INDONESIA WORK THEIR WAY OUT OF THE CRISIS. AMBASSADOR MONDALE HOPED THAT HIS VISIT WOULD BE RECEIVED IN THIS SPIRIT.

19. (S) PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS VERY CONCERNED ABOUT THE SEVERITY OF THE CRISIS IN INDONESIA. THIS MORNING'S PRESS HAD NOTED THAT INFLATION (12.76 PERCENT IN

SECRET

FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESERVES HAD DIMINISHED TO DANGEROUSLY LOW LEVELS. IT WAS CLEAR THAT THE CRISIS WAS SERIOUS AND THAT THERE WAS URGENCY TO FINDING SOLUTIONS TO RESTORE STABILITY.

20. (S) AMBASSADOR MONDALE NOTED HIS UNDERSTANDING THAT THE IMF WAS OF THE OPINION THAT INDONESIA WAS NOT IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE PROGRAM AND THAT THERE WAS A STRONG POSSIBILITY THAT THE SCHEDULED TRANCHE COULD NOT BE DRAWN. IF THAT WERE THE CASE, THE CRISIS WAS DOUBLY DANGEROUS. IT WOULD SEND A MESSAGE TO THE WORLD ABOUT THE SEVERITY OF THE CRISIS INDONESIA WAS UNDERGOING.

21. (S) PRESIDENT CLINTON BELIEVED THAT A PROFOUND COMMITMENT TO A STABILITY-ENHANCING STRATEGY WAS CRUCIAL. WHEN SOEHARTO CONFRONTED THE ECONOMIC PROBLEMS OF 1966, HE DID TOUGH THINGS LIKE RAISING INTEREST RATES AND OPENING MARKETS. THESE TAMED THE PROBLEM AND LAID THE FOUNDATION FOR GROWTH. PRESIDENT CLINTON BELIEVED THAT THE SAME COMMITMENT TO A STABILITY STRATEGY WAS NEEDED NOW. THE ESSENTIAL ELEMENT WAS IMPLEMENTATION OF INDONESIA'S UNDERTAKINGS TO THE IMF. AMBASSADOR MONDALE STATED THAT HE UNDERSTOOD HOW INDONESIA WAS SUFFERING. HOWEVER, IMF OFFICIALS BELIEVED THAT INDONESIA WAS ESSENTIALLY NOT IN COMPLIANCE, WHICH MEANT THERE WAS A CONFIDENCE PROBLEM TO BE DEALT WITH -- HOW TO RESTORE NOT ONLY THE IMF'S SUPPORT FOR THE IDEA THAT CHANGES WERE BEING MADE, BUT ALSO THE MARKETS' SO THAT THEY WOULD CONCLUDE THAT RUPIAH AND OTHER INDONESIAN ASSETS WERE VALUABLE AND WORTH INVESTING IN.

SECRET

22. (S) PRESIDENT CLINTON WISHED THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WOULD REVIEW AGAIN INDONESIA'S IMF IMPLEMENTATION AND PROCEED ON A PATH THAT WOULD PRODUCE THE STABILITY THAT WOULD RESTORE CONFIDENCE. THERE WAS NO QUESTION THAT THE RUPIAH'S VALUE MUST CHANGE. BUT THE VIEW OF PRESIDENT CLINTON, THE IMF, AND MOST SCHOLARS WAS THAT INDONESIA HAD TO DEAL WITH THE FUNDAMENTAL ISSUES THAT BEAR ON THE RUPIAH.

23. (S) IN ONE OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S SEVERAL CONVERSATIONS WITH PRESIDENT CLINTON, SOEHARTO HAD DESCRIBED INDONESIA'S PROBLEMS. PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD CALLED BACK WITH SOME VERY SPECIFIC SUGGESTIONS ON HOW THE UNITED STATES, THE G-7, THE IMF, REGIONAL COUNTRIES, AND OTHERS COULD HELP IF THE IMF PROCESS WERE PROCEEDING IN A CREDIBLE WAY. IN SOEHARTO'S MARCH 1 SPEECH, HE SPOKE OF IMF-PLUS. IF THE IMF PROGRAM WERE REALLY BEING IMPLEMENTED, THEN ENORMOUS IMF RESOURCES COULD COME TO BEAR. WITH FIRM IMPLEMENTATION, IT WOULD BE EASIER FOR OTHER COUNTRIES TO COME IN BEHIND (THE IMF) TO PROVIDE THE EXTRA HELP NEEDED. BUT WITHOUT FUNDAMENTALS FOR STABILITY IN PLACE, IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT FOR OTHER FORMS OF ASSISTANCE TO COME FORWARD. THEREFORE, PRESIDENT CLINTON ASKED THAT SOEHARTO LOOK AGAIN AND TAKE A BOLD APPROACH SO THAT HE COULD GET THE NECESSARY ASSISTANCE.

24. (S) ON THE POLITICAL SIDE, THE WORLD ALSO NEEDED TO BE REASSURED THAT THE RIGHT PEOPLE WERE IN PLACE AND INDONESIA'S PRO-STABILITY MESSAGE CLEAR.

25. (S) SOEHARTO EMPHASIZED THAT HE WAS IN THE PROCESS OF IMPLEMENTING THE PROGRAM. THERE WERE NO DIFFICULTIES OF IMPLEMENTATION BECAUSE "INDONESIA WAS CARRYING THE PROGRAM OUT PRECISELY." THE PURPOSE OF THE PROGRAM WAS TO REINFORCE ECONOMIC FUNDAMENTALS. WHATEVER MASURES THE GOI TOOK TO COMPLY WITH ITS IMF PROGRAM, IT DID NOT WANT TO CREATE GREATER HARDSHIP FOR THE PEOPLE. IMPLEMENTATION HAD NOT BROUGHT IMPROVEMENT -- TO THE CONTRARY, THE BURDEN ON THE PEOPLE WAS HEAVIER. THE IMF NEEDED TO GIVE THE PEOPLE GROUNDS FOR HOPE SINCE THE PEOPLE NOW SAW THEMSELVES AS WORSE OFF THAN BEFORE THE PROGRAM. THE IMF BELIEVED THAT INDONESIA WAS NOT SERIOUSLY CARRYING OUT THE PROGRAM, BUT THERE HAD BEEN LEAKS FROM THE IMF WHICH HAD WEAKENED THE RUPIAH FURTHER. INDONESIA WAS DEALING WITH THE FUNDAMENTAL ISSUES.

26. (S) SOEHARTO SAID THAT THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN 1966 AND NOW WERE VAST. THEN, PEOPLE HAD BEEN VICTIMIZED BY POLITICAL INSTABILITY AND ALL HAD SUFFERED. ANY GOI EFFORT HAD FULL PUBLIC SUPPORT. TWENTY-FIVE YEARS LATER, PEOPLE DID NOT WANT A SETBACK FROM THE PROGRESS OF THE PAST QUARTER CENTURY. IT WAS NOT EASY TODAY TO TAKE INDISCRIMINATE STEPS BECAUSE PEOPLE'S DEMANDS WERE VERY DIFFERENT. IF THE GOVERNMENT TOOK A WRONG STEP, IT FEARED THAT REVOLUTION WOULD BREAK OUT. THERE WERE MANY SMALL GROUPS WHICH INCITED PEOPLE TO ANGER. IF THAT HAPPENED, NOT JUST INDONESIA, BUT ALL SOUTHEAST ASIA WOULD FEEL THE IMPACT.

27. (S) SOEHARTO ASKED AMBASSADOR MONDALE TO REASSURE PRESIDENT CLINTON THAT HE WAS COMMITTED TO THE PROGRAM AND WOULD CONTINUE TO IMPLEMENT IT. HOWEVER, HE WOULD NOT TOLERATE THE PEOPLE'S SITUATION WORSENING.

AMBASSADOR MONDALE'S CLOSURE

28. (S) AMBASSADOR MONDALE SAID HE WOULD REPORT TO PRESIDENT CLINTON, WHO WAS ANXIOUS TO LEARN ABOUT THE MEETING AND PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S VIEWS. HE CONCURRED THAT THE SITUATION WAS MORE COMPLEX TODAY THAN IN 1966, BUT SAID IT WAS TRUE THEN AND NEEDED TO BE TRUE NOW THAT SOEHARTO GAVE STABILITY CENTRALITY OF PLACE AND COURAGEOUS LEADERSHIP. TO OVERCOME THE DIFFERENCE OF VIEWS ON IMF COMPLIANCE, CRUCIAL AREAS WERE: MONETARY POLICY; STRUCTURAL CHANGES; AND KEY PERSONNEL, ESPECIALLY AS SOME OF THE PEOPLE WITH WHOM THE IMF HAD WORKED WELL WERE BEING REPLACED. PROBLEMS IN THESE AREAS DEFEATED THE STABILITY-SEEKING THRUST OF THE PROGRAM. THE LARGE DIFFERENCE OF PERCEPTION NEEDED TO BE ADDRESSED BECAUSE CLOSING THE GAP COULD TRIGGER RESOURCES TO ASSIST INDONESIA AND TELL WORLD MARKETS

THAT STABILITY WAS ON THE WAY AND THAT THE RUPIAH WAS VALUABLE. WITHOUT THAT, INDONESIA WAS IN THE UNCOMFORTABLE POSITION WHERE NEITHER ALTERNATIVE WAS ATTRACTIVE. HOWEVER, NOT FACING UP TO THE PROBLEM WOULD BE WORSE THAN FACING UP TO IT, EVEN THOUGH THAT WOULD BE DIFFICULT.

29. (S) SOEHARTO CONCURRED THAT THERE SHOULD BE AN EFFORT TO RECONCILE DIFFERENCES AND TO REACH A COMMON VIEW WITH THE FUND. HE ASSURED AMB MONDALE THAT THE INTENTION OF THE SELECTION OF THE NEW TEAM WAS TO IMPROVE ITS EFFECTIVENESS. HE THEN INVITED AMBASSADOR MONDALE TO A PRIVATE MEETING (SEPTEL).

CRITICAL STEPS TO RESTORE FINANCIAL CONFIDENCE

A. TAKE KEY SYMBOLIC ACTIONS:

TAKE DECISIVE ACTION ON IMPORTANT PROJECTS, SUCH AS THE NATIONAL CAR PROJECT, THE NATIONAL PLANE PROJECT AND CERTAIN POWER PLANTS AND BANKS. THESE HAVE TAKEN ON A SYMBOLIC IMPORTANCE AND ARE BEING WATCHED EXTREMELY CLOSELY BY THE MARKETS.

B. RESTORE A CREDIBLE CURRENCY:

DIRECT MONETARY POLICY AT THE OBJECTIVE OF EXCHANGE RATE STABILITY AND RAISE INTEREST RATES AS NECESSARY.

THE BUDGET MUST BE BACKED BY CREDIBLE AND TRANSPARENT ASSUMPTIONS.

C. ASSURE THE STRENGTH OF THE BANKING SYSTEM:

NEED TO GUARANTEE RUPIAH DEPOSITS THROUGHOUT THE BANKING SYSTEM.

NEED DRASTIC RESTRUCTURING IN WHICH MANAGERS AND EQUITY

OWNERS OF FAILED INSTITUTIONS PAY A PRICE.

D. IMPROVE PRESENTATION OF ECONOMIC POLICY:

DIRECT PRESIDENTIAL INVOLVEMENT IS CRUCIAL.

IMPROVE TRANSPARENCY: MAKE PUBLIC THE REVISED LETTER OF INTENT WITH THE INTERNATIONAL MONETARY FUND.

THE ECONOMIC TEAM MUST HAVE A CLEAR LEADER EMPOWERED TO ACT AS A CREDIBLE INTERLOCUTOR WITH THE IMF AND THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL COMMUNITY.

CONVERSATION BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND SOEHARTO, PRESIDENT OF INDONESIA ON JANUARY 15, 1998. I ASK THAT YOU NOT PERMIT COPIES TO BE MADE OF THIS MESSAGE, AND THAT YOU NOT DISTRIBUTE IT OUTSIDE OF THE MISSION'S EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

3. (U) BEGIN TEXT:

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT: TELECON WITH SOEHARTO, PRESIDENT-OF INDONESIA

PARTICIPANTS: SOEHARTO, PRESIDENT OF INDONESIA

INTERPRETER: DAN FIETKIEWICZ
NOTETAKERS: JAMES SMITH, JEFFREY RATHKE, LYLE HARRISON, ROBERT FORD, JAMES GAGNON

DATE, TIME AND PLACE: JANUARY 15, 1998, 11:27 - 11:36 A.M. EST OVAL OFFICE

4. (U) THE PRESIDENT: HELLO, MR. PRESIDENT.

5. (U) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: GOOD MORNING, MR. PRESIDENT. THANK YOU FOR THIS OPPORTUNITY TO TALK TO YOU ON THE TELEPHONE.

6. (U) THE PRESIDENT: I AM GLAD TO HEAR YOUR VOICE. THANK YOU AGAIN FOR TAKING TIME TO MEET WITH TREASURY DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS.

7. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: THANK YOU VERY MUCH INDEED. THE LAST TWO DAYS OF DISCUSSIONS WITH DEPUTY MANAGING DIRECTOR STANLEY FISCHER OF THE IMF HAVE BEEN VERY GOOD INDEED. THESE DISCUSSIONS WERE FOLLOWED BY A MEETING WITH THE MANAGING DIRECTOR OF THE IMF, MICHEL CAMDESSUS. THIS MORNING, I SIGNED A LETTER OF INTENT AND PRESENTED THE LETTER TO THE MANAGING DIRECTOR. AND SOON AFTER THAT, MR.

CAMDESSUS HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE AT WHICH HE MENTIONED HIS VERY GOOD IMPRESSION WITH THE AGREEMENTS THAT HAVE BEEN REACHED.

8. (C) AS A FOLLOW-ON TO IMPLEMENTATION OF THE AGREEMENT, I HAVE ESTABLISHED A COUNCIL OF NATIONAL ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL RESILIENCE OVER WHICH I WILL PRESIDE. I WILL BE ASSISTED BY DR. WIDJOJO NITISASTRO WHO WILL BE THE SECRETARY GENERAL. THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL WILL COME FROM THE ECONOMIC MINISTRIES AND HAVE TWO REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE PRIVATE SECTOR. THEY WILL IMMEDIATELY BEGIN TO CARRY OUT THE TASK OF IMPLEMENTING PLANS AND PROGRAMS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LETTER OF INTENT THAT I PRESENTED TO MR. CAMDESSUS THIS MORNING.

9. (C) WITH THE VIEW OF MAINTAINING BETTER CONTACT BETWEEN INDONESIA AND THE IMF, I HAVE REQUESTED THE MANAGING DIRECTOR TO ASSIGN A SENIOR IMF OFFICIAL TO

JAKARTA TO ASSIST ME IN IMPLEMENTING THE PROGRAM. MR. CAMDESSUS HAS APPOINTED TEMPORARILY THE DIRECTOR FOR ASIA PACIFIC AFFAIRS OF THE IMF. HE WILL BE SUCCEEDED LATER BY A MORE SENIOR IMF OFFICIAL. EVERY THREE MONTHS, WE WILL CONDUCT A REVIEW OF THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PROGRAM AND PLAN WHAT IS TO BE DONE.

10. (C) I WOULD LIKE TO TAKE THIS OCCASION TO EXPRESS MY GRATITUDE FOR YOUR ASSISTANCE, YOUR EXCELLENCY, AND I BELIEVE IT APPROPRIATE TO ASK YOU TO MAKE A STATEMENT TO THE WORLD THAT INDONESIA AND THE IMF HAVE REACHED AN AGREEMENT. I ALSO MET WITH THE DEPUTY SECRETARY, MR. SUMMERS, AND RECEIVED YOUR MESSAGES, YOUR EXCELLENCY. AT ALMOST THE SAME TIME, I RECEIVED THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES. THESE TWO HIGH-RANKING OFFICIALS OF THE UNITED STATES WERE BOTH ABLE TO SEE CLOSE UP THE REAL SITUATION IN JAKARTA.

11. (C) THE PRESIDENT: WELL, THANK YOU VERY MUCH MR. PRESIDENT. FIRST OF ALL, I THINK THE AGREEMENT IS GOOD, BUT I AM MOST ENCOURAGED BY THE EXPLANATION OF HOW IT WILL BE IMPLEMENTED. THAT IS THE NEXT BIG STEP. INVESTORS WILL BE LOOKING AT THIS. YOU OBVIOUSLY HAVE A VERY GOOD PLAN FOR DOING THAT. I WILL RELEASE A STATEMENT SAYING YOU CALLED ME AND THAT I WELCOMED THESE STEPS, AND I AM ENCOURAGED BY THEM. WE INTEND TO CONTINUE OUR INVOLVEMENT AND TO WORK WITH YOU IN THIS DIFFICULT TIME. I HOPE THE STATEMENT WILL HAVE A POSITIVE EFFECT.

12. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: THANK YOU VERY MUCH, YOUR EXCELLENCY. THE MOST IMPORTANT THING IS IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS PROGRAM; THE WORLD IS ANXIOUSLY WAITING TO SEE WHAT WILL HAPPEN. THE MOST IMMEDIATE ACTION WILL BE THE REVISION OF THE STATE BUDGET I PRESENTED TO THE PARLIAMENT SEVERAL DAYS AGO. SECONDLY, WE ARE COMMITTED TO THE REFORM

OF THE BANKING SYSTEM, NOT ONLY THE CENTRAL BANK AND STATE BANKS, BUT ALSO PRIVATE BANKS.

13. (U) THE PRESIDENT: THANK YOU. THIS IS VERY GOOD NEWS. WE WILL KEEP WORKING WITH YOU. GOODBYE.

DEAR PRESIDENT JIANG:
YOU WILL RECALL THAT DURING OUR MEETINGS AT THE WHITE HOUSE LAST OCTOBER, WE DISCUSSED AND AGREED ON OUR SHARED INTERESTS IN THE STABILITY AND PROSPERITY OF EAST ASIA AND THE IMPORTANCE OF CLOSE CONSULTATIONS BETWEEN OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS ON THE FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES IN THE REGION. WE

BOTH HAVE BEEN FOLLOWING CLOSELY SINCE THEN THE PROBLEMS EXPERIENCED BY A NUMBER OF COUNTRIES.

BECAUSE OF OUR CONCERN OVER DEVELOPMENTS AND OUR DETERMINATION TO HELP THE ECONOMIES OF THE REGION RESTORE FINANCIAL STABILITY AND HIGH LEVELS OF SUSTAINED GROWTH AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, I AM DISPATCHING OUR DEPUTY SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY, LAWRENCE SUMMERS, TO THE REGION TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS AND EXPLORE SOLUTIONS WITH OFFICIALS AT EACH STOP. CONSISTENT WITH OUR AGREEMENT TO CONSULT CLOSELY, I AM ASKING MR. SUMMERS TO VISIT BEIJING AS WELL. MR. SUMMERS, ALONG WITH SECRETARY RUBIN, HAS GUIDED OUR RESPONSE TO THE

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY AMB. J. STAPLETON ROY; REASON 1.5(D)

DELIVERY OF MUNOZ LETTERS

2. (U) ON JANUARY 15, AMBASSADOR ROY PERSONALLY DELIVERED OPIC PRESIDENT MUNOZ' LETTER ALERTING GOI OFFICIALS TO THE POTENTIAL CONSEQUENCES OF A DETERMINATION THAT AN OPIC-INSURED CONTRACT HAD BEEN ABROGATED TO INDONESIAN PLANNING MINISTER GINANDJAR KARTASASMITA. THE EMBASSY DELIVERED THE LETTERS FOR MINES AND ENERGY MINISTER SUDJANA, FINANCE MINISTER MAR'IE MUHAMMAD, ELECTRIC UTILITY PLN PRESIDENT DIRECTOR DJITENG MARSUDI, AND STATE OIL COMPANY PERTAMINA PRESIDENT DIRECTOR SOEGIANTO BY FAX AND BY HAND.

OTHERS TO WHOM MESSAGE CONVEYED

3. (C) IN HIS JANUARY 15 MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO, EXIMBANK PRESIDENT JAMES HARMON INCLUDED IN HIS REMARKS THE IMPORTANCE OF TRANSPARENCY AND CLARITY

FOR PROJECT SELECTION. HE ALSO MADE THIS POINT CLEAR AND UNDERLINED THE URGENCY OF DEVELOPING AND PUBLICIZING THE CRITERIA QUICKLY AND APPLYING THEM FAIRLY AND TRANSPARENTLY IN HIS MEETINGS LATER THE SAME DAY WITH MINES AND ENERGY MINISTER SUDJANA AND PLN DIRECTOR DJITENG. IN ADDITION, WE DISCUSSED THE PROBLEM WITH WORLD BANK RESIDENT DIRECTOR DENNIS DE TRAY WHO SAID WE COULD REPORT TO SENIOR INDONESIAN OFFICIALS THAT THE WORLD BANK ALSO STRONGLY SUPPORTS THE DEVELOPMENT AND PUBLICATION OF CLEAR PROJECT SELECTION CRITERIA AND THAT

THE BANK IS RIGHT NOW WORKING WITH THE GOI ON THIS AND WITH PLN ON THE SPECIFIC CRITERIA FOR POWER PROJECTS.

GINANDJAR'S RESPONSE

4. (C) MINISTER GINANDJAR IMMEDIATELY GRASPED THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE OPIC LETTER'S MESSAGE CONCERNING THE POTENTIAL CONSEQUENCES OF UNILATERALLY ABROGATING CONTRACTS. HE SAID THAT HE WOULD BRING THE LETTER TO THE ATTENTION OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO IMMEDIATELY. THE AMBASSADOR STRONGLY PRESSED THE POINT OF THE IMPORTANCE OF THE GOI'S DEVELOPING AND PROMPTLY ISSUING FAIR, TRANSPARENT, AND OBJECTIVE GUIDELINES ON PROJECT SELECTION. THE AMBASSADOR REPORTED THAT THE WORLD BANK IS WORKING ON SUCH GUIDELINES WITH PLN. HE NOTED THAT, IF THE REVIEWS UNDER THE GUIDELINES ARE CONDUCTED IN A FAIR, OPEN, AND TRANSPARENT MANNER, THIS WILL BOOST THE RETURN OF INVESTOR CONFIDENCE IN INDONESIA. [redacted] B1

MY CALL AT SUCH AN EARLY HOUR.

7. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: THANK YOU, MR. PRESIDENT, FOR YOUR KIND ATTENTION TO THE MONETARY TURMOIL NOT ONLY IN INDONESIA BUT ALSO IN OTHER SOUTH EAST ASIAN COUNTRIES, AS WELL.

8. (C) THE PRESIDENT: I HAVE LONG VALUED OUR FRIENDSHIP,

AND I JUST WANTED TO TALK TO YOU PERSONALLY.

9. (U) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: WELL INDEED, YOUR EXCELLENCY.

10. (C) THE PRESIDENT: I HAVE BEEN FOLLOWING CLOSELY THE FINANCIAL SITUATION IN INDONESIA. I KNOW HOW PAINFUL THE CURRENT PROBLEMS MUST BE FOR YOU AND ALL INDONESIANS. AMERICA VALUES THE CRITICAL AND CONSTRUCTIVE ROLE INDONESIA PLAYS IN THE REGION. IT IS BECAUSE WE APPRECIATE INDONESIA'S IMPORTANCE THAT THE UNITED STATES HAS BEEN SUPPORTIVE OF YOUR REFORM PROGRAM WITH THE IMF. INITIALLY THERE WAS A POSITIVE REACTION BY MARKETS TO YOUR COMMITMENT TO REFORM, BUT NOT ANYMORE BECAUSE OF A PERCEPTION THESE COMMITMENTS ARE NOT GOING TO BE IMPLEMENTED. YOU HAVE ALWAYS SHOWN GREAT COURAGE AND LEADERSHIP. I THINK IT IS VITAL NOW THAT YOU USE THOSE POWERS TO PROVIDE THIS SUPPORT FOR ECONOMIC REFORM. I BELIEVE THIS IS THE BEST WAY TO PRESERVE YOUR IMPRESSIVE ECONOMIC LEGACY IN INDONESIA AND TO GET OUT OF THIS DIFFICULT SITUATION.

11. (C) I KNOW IT IS DIFFICULT TO DO, BUT AMONG OTHER THINGS, INTEREST RATES SHOULD BE KEPT HIGH UNTIL THE RUPIAR

STABILIZES. THE SITUATION IS, I THINK, VERY SIMILAR TO THE SITUATION FACED BY KOREA AND PRESIDENT KIM BEFORE THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION THERE. I UNDERSTAND IMF MANAGING DIRECTOR CAMDESSUS WILL BE IN JAKARTA SHORTLY, AND I URGE YOU AND YOUR ECONOMIC TEAM TO WORK CLOSELY WITH HIM. WE ARE IN CLOSE CONTACT WITH YOUR TEAM. I KNOW YOU HAVE VERY CAPABLE ADVISORS, AND WE WANT TO BE IN TOUCH WITH THEM. I WOULD LIKE TO SEND DEPUTY SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY LARRY SUMMERS TO CONSULT WITH YOUR ECONOMIC TEAM. HE HAS WORKED CLOSELY WITH ME ON THE KOREAN AND MEXICAN SITUATIONS. HE IS PREPARED TO TRAVEL TO THE REGION IMMEDIATELY, AND I WOULD LIKE YOU TO SPEND SOME TIME WITH HIM TO DISCUSS THE CURRENT ECONOMIC SITUATION. HE WILL BE ABLE TO TELL YOU FIRST HAND HOW I VIEW IT.

12. (C) I ALSO INTEND TO RELEASE A STATEMENT IN THE NEXT FEW MINUTES REITERATING THE IMPORTANCE OF THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN OUR COUNTRIES AND TO MAKE IT ABSOLUTELY CLEAR THAT WE SUPPORT YOU AND THAT WE WILL STAND WITH YOU THROUGHOUT THESE DIFFICULT TIMES.

13. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: THANK YOU VERY MUCH FOR YOUR VIEWS. THESE ARE VERY IMPORTANT NOT ONLY TO ME, BUT TO THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE. INDEED IN A SHORT TIME, JANUARY 15TH, THE MANAGING DIRECTOR OF THE IMF IS GOING TO MEET WITH ME, MR. PRESIDENT. I WOULD ALSO LIKE TO EXPRESS MY APPRECIATION FOR SENDING YOUR MISSION AND YOUR EFFORTS FOR RESOLVING THE PRESENT ECONOMIC CRISIS AND YOUR SUPPORT OF THE INDONESIAN ECONOMY IN GENERAL.

16. (C) THE SITUATION FACED BY INDONESIA IS DIFFICULT TO OVERCOME HERE, AS WELL AS IN OTHER COUNTRIES OF SOUTH EAST ASIA. AS FAR AS IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PROGRAM IS CONCERNED, I CAN ASSURE YOU THERE IS NO PROBLEM, AS THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE ARE WILLING TO SACRIFICE TO ENSURE A BENEFICIAL RESULT. THANK YOU VERY MUCH MR. PRESIDENT FOR ALLOWING ME TO MAKE THESE POINTS.

17. (C) THE PRESIDENT: THANK YOU, MR. PRESIDENT. IF I COULD SAY ONE OR TWO WORDS IN RESPONSE TO THE VERY HELPFUL SUMMARY YOU'VE GIVEN ME. FIRST, I KNOW HOW MUCH AN IMPACT

CURRENCY SPECULATION CAN HAVE; WE SAW THIS IN GREAT BRITAIN A COUPLE OF YEARS AGO. ONCE THEY GET STARTED IN ONE DIRECTION, IT1S HARD TO STOP IT. BUT I THINK THE WHOLE QUESTION IS ONE OF CHANGING THE PSYCHOLOGY OF THE SITUATION TO RESTORE CONFIDENCE IN THE CURRENCY. IT'S OBVIOUS THAT THE PEOPLE OF INDONESIA HAVE AN ENORMOUS PRODUCTIVE CAPACITY; ONE HAS ONLY TO LOOK AT THE PROGRESS OF THE LAST FEW YEARS TO SEE THAT.

18. (C) SO IN RESPONSE TO YOUR BRIEFING, I HAVE ONLY TWO OBSERVATIONS. FIRST, I THINK WHAT YOU ARE TRYING TO DO WITH PRIVATE LOANS; TO GET AS MANY AS POSSIBLE ROLLED OVER IS A GOOD THING. I'VE BEEN TALKING TO EXPERTS HERE, AND THEY HAVE TOLD ME SEVERAL THINGS. WHEN THE COMPANIES NEGOTIATE LOANS, THEY MUST MAKE SURE THE RECORDS OF THE LOANS ARE ACCURATE SO THE BANKS CAN GET A TRUE PICTURE OF THE STATUS OF THE COMPANY. I HOPE THAT WHEN MR. CAMDESSUS AND MR. SUMMERS COME THEY CAN ADVISE YOU ON THIS. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT. THE ONLY OTHER OBSERVATION I HAVE IS THAT SOMETIMES SMALL THINGS CAN MAKE A BIG DIFFERENCE. FOR INSTANCE, WHEN SEVERAL BANKS WERE CLOSED IT MADE A BIG DIFFERENCE FOR THE INVESTORS, BUT WHEN SOME WERE REOPENED UNDER NEW NAMES IT HAD A HUGE INFLUENCE ON THE PSYCHOLOGY OF INVESTORS HERE. I THINK ANYONE CAN SYMPATHIZE WITH NOT WANTING TO END SUBSIDIES FOR FUEL OIL THAT WOULD HURT THE PEOPLE OF INDONESIA, BUT YOU NEED TO SEE IF THERE ARE SOME SMALL STEPS THAT COULD HELP PSYCHOLOGICALLY TO DEAL WITH THE SITUATION AND TO RESTORE CONFIDENCE IN THE REFORM PLAN FOR THE ECONOMY OF INDONESIA. MEANWHILE, I WILL ISSUE MY STATEMENT AND SEND MR. SUMMERS AND WE WILL WORK FOR THE BEST AND HOPE FOR THE BEST.

19. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: THANK YOU VERY MUCH YOUR EXCELLENCY FOR YOUR INTEREST. YOUR DEMARCHE WILL BE VERY VALUABLE. [redacted]

B1

20. (U) THE PRESIDENT: THANK YOU VERY MUCH, MR. PRESIDENT. GOODBYE.

21. (U) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO: GOODBYE.

SUBJECT: CALENERGY CHRONOLOGY: JANUARY 20

REF: GEITHNER/FERGIN TELCON 1/20/98

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY ECONCOUNS JUDITH R. FERGIN; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (U) BELOW FOR EASY REFERENCE IS THE CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS SURROUNDING CALENERGY'S PATUHA GEOTHERMAL PROJECT:

3. (U) SEPTEMBER 23, 1997

-- AS PART OF THE EFFORT TO REDUCE BUDGETARY OUTLAYS AND CONTAIN THE CURRENT ACCOUNT DEFICIT, THE GOI RELEASED A PRESIDENTIAL DECREE LISTING PROJECTS BEING UNDERTAKEN BY OR IN CONJUNCTION WITH STATE-OWNED ENTITIES. THE PROJECTS WERE DIVIDED INTO THREE GROUPS: CONTINUED, POSTPONED, AND UNDER REVIEW. THE DECREE SUSPENDED PROJECTS BEING UNDERTAKEN BY SEVERAL U.S. FIRMS -- CALENERGY, DUKE, ENRON, MOBIL, COASTAL, UNOCAL, AND AMOSEAS (AKA CHEVRON/TEXACO) (97 JAKARTA 5846).

4. (U) NOVEMBER 1, 1997

-- A PRESIDENTIAL DECREE DATED NOVEMBER 1 BUT ISSUED

SEVERAL DAYS LATER REVIVED 15 INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECTS, INCLUDING 8 POWER PROJECTS. AMONG THEM WAS CALENERGY'S PATUHA GEOTHERMAL PROJECT. SOME OF THE PROJECTS, LIKE CALENERGY'S, APPEARED TO FIT THE GOI'S CRITERIA FOR BEING PERMITTED TO PROCEED (I.E., THEY WERE UNDER CONSTRUCTION OR HAD REACHED SOME FORM OF FINANCIAL CLOSURE), BUT OTHERS SUCH AS THE PRESIDENTIAL FAMILY-CONNECTED TANJUNG JATI C PROJECT WERE CONTROVERSIAL. SHORTLY AFTER THIS DECREE GAVE THE PROJECT ITS GREEN LIGHT AGAIN, CALENERGY DREW DOWN ON A USD 100 MILLION COMMERCIAL LOAN FOR PATUHA (97 JAKARTA 6621).

5. (SBU) DECEMBER 12, 1997

-- REPRESENTATIVES FROM CALENERGY BRIEFED AMBASSADOR ROY AND EMBASSY STAFF ON THE FIRM'S PLANS TO MEET WITH U.S. GOVERNMENT AGENCIES AND THE IMF IN WASHINGTON TO ASK THESE ENTITIES TO PRESSURE THE GOI TO HONOR ITS POWER CONTRACTS IN LIGHT OF THE MINISTER OF MINES AND ENERGY'S CALL FOR RENEGOTIATION OF CONTRACTS. CALENERGY ALSO SAID THE FIRM FACED CONSIDERABLE FINANCIAL LOSSES IF SOME OF ITS PROJECTS DID NOT PROCEED (97 JAKARTA 7262).

6. (U) JANUARY 10, 1998

-- PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SIGNED A DECREE, REPORTEDLY HASTILY DRAFTED BY STATE SECRETARY MOERDIONO, WHICH RETURNED TO PROBATIONARY STATUS THE 15 INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECTS REVIVED IN THE NOVEMBER 1 DECREE (E.G., STATUS QUO ANTE -- THIS DECREE MERELY CANCELED THE NOVEMBER 1 DECREE). THEY REJOINED THE APPROXIMATELY 100 PROJECTS BEING UNDERTAKEN BY OR IN CONJUNCTION WITH STATE-OWNED ENTITIES WHICH HAD BEEN PLACED ON REVIEW OR POSTPONED STATUS IN SEPTEMBER (JAKARTA 163).

7. (U) JANUARY 11, 1998

-- PER CALENERGY'S REQUEST, EMBASSY DELIVERED A LETTER TO VISITING TREASURY DEPUTY SECRETARY LAWRENCE SUMMERS REQUESTING A MEETING WITH TREASURY ON THE PATUHA PROJECT.

-- OPIC PRESIDENT AND CHAIRMAN GEORGE MUNOZ CALLED AND TALKED TO RESOURCES OFFICER TO GIVE US THE HEADS UP THAT THE GOI JANUARY 10 DECISION TO RETURN TO PROBATIONARY STATUS CALENERGY'S PATUHA GEOTHERMAL PROJECT COULD TRIGGER A "DOMINO EFFECT" WHICH COULD CULMINATE IN ACTIVATION OF CALENERGY'S OPIC INSURANCE COVERAGE. PRESIDENT MUNOZ ADDED THAT OPIC WAS IN THE PROCESS OF ALERTING THE GOI ON THIS MATTER.

-- CALENERGY PRESIDENT FOR ASIA DONALD M. O'SHEI ALSO CALLED RESOURCES OFFICER TO SAY THAT STATE SECRETARY MOERDIONO'S STAFF HAD TOLD CALENERGY THAT THE GOI WAS WILLING TO MAKE CHANGES IN THE STATUS OF THE PATUHA PROJECT IF THE GOVERNMENT WERE NOT "PUNISHED" FOR TAKING SUCH AN ACTION. MOERDIONO'S STAFF TOLD CALENERGY THAT THE GOI WAS LOOKING FOR A "SIGN" THAT THE USG SUPPORTS SUCH AN ACTION.

-- CALENERGY WENT PUBLIC IN THE ENGLISH-LANGUAGE DAILY

"JAKARTA POST" PROTESTING THE GOI'S DECISION TO PUT ITS PATUHA PROJECT BACK ON THE POSTPONED LIST (COPY FAXED TO EAP/PIMBS).

9. (U) JANUARY 13, 1998

-- AMBASSADOR ROY RECEIVED LETTERS FROM NEBRASKA CONGRESSMEN JON CHRISTIANSEN AND DOUG BEREUTER ON BEHALF OF CALENERGY.

-- EMBASSY RECEIVED A COPY OF A LETTER FROM SENATE MAJORITY LEADER TRENT LOTT ADDRESSED TO PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ON PATUHA PROJECT.

-- EMBASSY RECEIVED A COPY OF A LETTER ADDRESSED TO GOI MINISTERS FROM HOUSE SPEAKER NEWT GINGRICH ON PATUHA PROJECT.

10. (U) JANUARY 14, 1998

-- EMBASSY DUTY OFFICER RECEIVED A CALL FROM CONGRESSMAN CHRISTIANSEN'S OFFICE ASKING THAT THE EMBASSY SET UP A MEETING BETWEEN CALENERGY AND IMF. ECON COUNSELOR SPOKE TO CALENERGY BRUCE LUNDSTROM, WHO SAID HE WOULD CALL CALENERGY'S WASHINGTON OFFICE SO THEY COULD LET THE CONGRESSMAN'S OFFICE KNOW THAT THE LOOP HAD BEEN CLOSED IN TERMS OF THE EMBASSY'S HAVING RECEIVED THE MESSAGE. ECONCOUNS WAS UNABLE TO REACH THE IMF PARTY WHICH WAS COMPLETING NEGOTIATIONS ON THE REVISED LETTER OF INTENT IN ANTICIPATION OF MANAGING DIRECTOR CAMDESSUS' MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SCHEDULED FOR THE MORNING OF JANUARY 15.

-- EMBASSY RECEIVED COPIES OF LETTERS FROM NEBRASKA SENATORS CHUCK HAGEL AND ROBERT KERREY ADDRESSED TO IMF MANAGING DIRECTOR MICHEL CAMDESSUS ON PATUHA PROJECT.

-- AMBASSADOR RECEIVED A LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA CONGRESSMAN VIC FAZIO ON BEHALF OF CALENERGY.

11. (C) JANUARY 15, 1998

-- IN HIS MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO, EX-IM BANK CHAIRMAN AND PRESIDENT JAMES HARMON INCLUDED IN HIS REMARKS THE IMPORTANCE OF TRANSPARENCY AND CLARITY FOR PROJECT SELECTION. HE ALSO MADE THIS POINT CLEAR AND UNDERLINED THE URGENCY OF DEVELOPING AND PUBLICIZING THE CRITERIA QUICKLY AND APPLYING THEM FAIRLY AND TRANSPARENTLY IN HIS SUBSEQUENT MEETINGS WITH SENIOR INDONESIAN OFFICIALS (JAKARTA 237).

-- EX-IM CHAIRMAN HARMON AND AMBASSADOR ROY MET WITH MINISTER OF MINES AND ENERGY IDA BAGUS SUDJANA LATER IN THE MORNING. MR. HARMON ASKED ABOUT THE GOI'S JANUARY 10 DECISION TO PUT BACK ON HOLD THE EIGHT PRIVATE POWER PROJECTS. (NOTE: THIS MEETING TOOK PLACE BEFORE THE IMF REVISED LETTER OF INTENT WAS ANNOUNCED. THE LETTER OF INTENT AND IMF/MD CAMDESSUS' 11:30 A.M. PRESS STATEMENT SAID THAT THE GOI HAD CANCELED "12" INFRASTRUCTURE PROJECTS REINSTATED EARLIER, INCLUDING TANJUNG JATI C. END NOTE.) IMPLYING THAT HE HAD NO ROLE IN THE DECISION, MINISTER SUDJANA ASKED THAT MR. HARMON RAISE THE ISSUE DIRECTLY WITH FINANCE MINISTER MAR'IE MUHAMMAD. MR. HARMON REPLIED THAT HE WOULD RAISE THE ISSUE WITH THE FINANCE MINISTER ON JANUARY 16 (JAKARTA 256). MR. HARMON SAID HE HAD DISCUSSED THE ISSUE WITH BANK INDONESIA GOVERNOR SOEDRADJAD WHERE MR. HARMON STRESSED THE NEED TO ACT CONSTRUCTIVELY TO ENCOURAGE THE FLOW OF CAPITAL INTO INDONESIA (SEPTEL).

-- IN HIS MEETING WITH PLN PRESIDENT DIRECTOR DJITENG MARSUDI, EX-IM CHAIRMAN AND PRESIDENT HARMON RAISED THE ISSUE OF THE EIGHT POWER PROJECTS LISTED AS CANCELED IN THE GOI'S LETTER OF INTENT. DJITENG, WHO HAD NOT YET SEEN THE LIST OR THE LETTER OF INTENT, AGREED WITH MR.

HARMON THAT THE GOI NEEDED TO DEVELOP TRANSPARENT CRITERIA FOR EVALUATING THE NEED FOR THE POWER PROJECTS (SEPTEL).

-- AMBASSADOR ROY AND ECON COUNSELOR DISCUSSED THE PROBLEM OF THE CANCELED PROJECTS WITH WORLD BANK RESIDENT DIRECTOR DENNIS DE TRAY. DE TRAY SAID WE COULD REPORT TO SENIOR INDONESIAN OFFICIALS THAT THE WORLD BANK ALSO STRONGLY SUPPORTS THE DEVELOPMENT AND PUBLICATION OF CLEAR PROJECT SELECTION CRITERIA AND THAT THE BANK WAS THEN WORKING WITH THE GOI ON THIS AND WITH PLN ON THE SPECIFIC CRITERIA FOR POWER PROJECTS (JAKARTA 258).

-- AMBASSADOR ROY MET WITH PLANNING MINISTER GINANDJAR

KARTASASMITA AT 2:00 P.M. AND PERSONALLY HANDED HIM OPIC PRESIDENT MUNOZ'S LETTER ALERTING THE GOI TO THE POTENTIAL CONSEQUENCES OF A DETERMINATION THAT AN OPIC-INSURED CONTRACT HAD BEEN ABROGATED. GINANDJAR ASKED FOR TIME TO SORT OUT THE ISSUE OF PROJECTS AND SAID HE HOPED TO RESOLVE THE QUESTION OF THE 12 PROJECTS WITHIN "A WEEK OR TWO." HE SAID HE WOULD RAISE THE PROBLEM WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO (JAKARTA 226).

-- ECON COUNSELOR OVER THE PHONE EXPLAINED TO IMF RESREP CALENERGY'S INCREASINGLY PRESSING PROBLEM AND FAXED A COPY OF OPIC'S LETTER TO THE RESIDENT REPRESENTATIVE'S HOME. SHE ALSO CONVEYED CALENERGY'S REQUEST TO TALK TO THE MISSION. THE RESREP SAID HE WOULD TALK TO HEAD OF MISSION AGHEVLI ABOUT THE MEETING REQUEST.

BACKGROUND ON THE PROJECT

15. (U) THE PATUHA GEOTHERMAL PLANT IS LOCATED IN WEST JAVA. TO DATE, CALENERGY AND ITS LOCAL PARTNER (PT ENERSINDO SUPRA ABADI) HAVE INVESTED USD 360 MILLION IN THEIR THREE GEOTHERMAL PROJECTS IN JAVA AND BALI AND HAVE BUDGETED ANOTHER USD 660 MILLION IN 1998. AFTER CALENERGY RECEIVED THE GO-AHEAD FROM THE GOI TO MOVE FORWARD ON PATUHA IN NOVEMBER THEY DREW DOWN ON A USD 100 MILLION COMMERCIAL LOAN. THE FUNDING PROCESS FOR GEOTHERMAL PROJECTS IS DIFFERENT THAN FOR A CONVENTIONAL POWER PLANT -- UPFRONT INVESTMENT GOES INTO FINDING THE STEAM AND "DEVELOPING THE BOILER." FINANCING AND CONSTRUCTION OF THE ACTUAL POWER PLANT ARE THE LAST STAGES.

16. (U) CALENERGY'S POWER PURCHASE PRICE (PPA) FOR PATUHA AND ITS OTHER GEOTHERMAL PROJECTS IS HIGHER THAN PPA'S FOR COAL-FIRED PLANTS. THIS TAKES INTO ACCOUNT HIGHER DEVELOPMENT COSTS WHICH ARE BALANCED BY ECONOMIC AND ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS FROM USING STEAM OVER COAL. ALTHOUGH OTHER U.S. COMPANIES HAVE PROJECTS ON THE REVIEW/POSTPONED LIST, ONLY CALENERGY HAS OPIC INSURANCE AND ITS FINANCIAL OUTLAY IS SUBSTANTIALLY LARGER THAN THE OTHER COMPANIES'.

AGREED IN NOVEMBER. MANY OF THE OTHER PROJECTS IN THE GROUP WERE AT ADVANCED STAGES OF DEVELOPMENT. IT SEEMS LIKELY THAT IT WAS EASIER TO HANDLE THEIR RE-POSTPONEMENT AND SUBSEQUENT CANCELATION AS A GROUP. WHILE WE AGREE WITH GOI AND WORLD BANK ASSESSMENTS THAT DEMAND FOR ELECTRICITY WILL BE REDUCED DURING THIS ECONOMIC DOWNTURN, POWER PROJECTS HAVE A LONG GESTATION PERIOD. ASSUMING ECONOMIC RECOVERY, INDONESIA WILL EVENTUALLY NEED MORE POWER. A PROPER REVIEW WOULD SHOW IF ANY OF THE POWER PROJECTS CANCELED UNDER THE LETTER OF INTENT SHOULD BE CONTINUED. AN UNFORTUNATE ASPECT OF THE JANUARY 15 ANNOUNCEMENT AND THE WORDING OF THE LETTER OF INTENT IS THE ABSENCE OF A TRANSPARENT PROCESS WHICH LED UP TO IT.

20. (C) THE SPOTLIGHT FOR THE MOMENT IS ON CALENERGY'S PROJECT BECAUSE OF ITS OPIC COVERAGE. HOWEVER, WE HEAR THAT THE GOI ALSO PLANS TO CANCEL OTHER (MAYBE ALL) REMAINING PROJECTS THAT ARE ON THE GOI'S REVIEW/POSTPONED LISTS. THIS ACTION WOULD TRIGGER CLAIMS FROM COMPANIES IN THE BILLIONS OF DOLLARS AND, IF COMPENSATION WERE NOT PROMPT, EFFECTIVE, AND ADEQUATE, FURTHER DAMAGE INVESTOR CONFIDENCE IN INDONESIA. TO PREVENT SUCH A OUTCOME, THE AMBASSADOR AND ECON STAFF HAVE NOTED IN ALL OUR CONTACTS WITH THE GOI, IMF, WORLD BANK, AND PRIVATE U.S. COMPANIES THE NEED FOR THE GOI TO DEVELOP A FAIR, OBJECTIVE, AND TRANSPARENT PROCESS FOR EVALUATING THE PROJECTS WHICH WOULD THEN BE OPENLY AND TRANSPARENTLY APPLIED. U.S. COMPANIES WOULD GLADLY JOIN IN THE PROCESS OF DEVELOPING THE CRITERIA, AS WE HAVE NOTED TO PLN PRESIDENT DIRECTOR DJITENG AND THE WORLD BANK.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 30, 1997

Dear Mr. President:

I enjoyed the opportunity to talk with you at the APEC meeting, although I wish we could have had more time to share ideas. I thought the leaders' meeting went well this year and your leadership within ASEAN is an important element of APEC's success. I know how disappointed you must have been when your doctors advised against traveling to Kuala Lumpur for the informal ASEAN summit. After your hectic travel schedule over the past several weeks, I hope you are getting the rest you deserve.

As I mentioned in Vancouver, I am pleased we have been able to combine our efforts in fighting the devastating fires in your country. I understand the annual monsoon rains have begun providing some welcome relief to the region. The Vancouver initiative to begin joint planning for responding to natural disasters will help us react more efficiently in future disaster situations.

The financial difficulties facing Indonesia and others in the region are proving to be formidable challenges. Your willingness to undertake the far-reaching reforms negotiated with the IMF was a critical first step toward economic recovery. I want to encourage you to implement fully the letter and spirit of the IMF program as it represents the type of strong action needed to re-establish financial stability. Acting decisively and publicly affirming your commitment to implementing the IMF guidelines will be essential ingredients to restoring market confidence.

I have great admiration for the many contributions you have made to enhance economic prosperity in Indonesia and throughout Southeast Asia. I look forward to your continuing leadership and to building closer U.S.-Indonesia ties.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

DECEMBER 30, 1997

DEAR MR. PRESIDENT:

I ENJOYED THE OPPORTUNITY TO TALK WITH YOU AT THE APEC MEETING, ALTHOUGH I WISH WE COULD HAVE HAD MORE TIME TO SHARE IDEAS. I THOUGHT THE LEADERS' MEETING WENT WELL THIS YEAR AND YOUR LEADERSHIP WITHIN ASEAN IS AN IMPORTANT ELEMENT OF APEC'S SUCCESS. I KNOW HOW DISAPPOINTED YOU MUST HAVE BEEN WHEN YOUR DOCTORS ADVISED AGAINST TRAVELING TO KUALA LUMPUR FOR THE INFORMAL ASEAN SUMMIT. AFTER YOUR HECTIC TRAVEL SCHEDULE OVER THE PAST SEVERAL WEEKS, I HOPE YOU ARE GETTING THE REST YOU DESERVE.

AS I MENTIONED IN VANCOUVER, I AM PLEASED WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO COMBINE OUR EFFORTS IN FIGHTING THE DEVASTATING FIRES IN YOUR COUNTRY. I UNDERSTAND THE ANNUAL MONSOON RAINS HAVE BEGUN PROVIDING SOME WELCOME RELIEF TO THE REGION. THE VANCOUVER INITIATIVE TO BEGIN JOINT PLANNING FOR RESPONDING TO NATURAL DISASTERS WILL HELP US REACT MORE EFFICIENTLY IN FUTURE DISASTER SITUATIONS.

THE FINANCIAL DIFFICULTIES FACING INDONESIA AND OTHERS IN THE REGION ARE PROVING TO BE FORMIDABLE CHALLENGES. YOUR WILLINGNESS TO UNDERTAKE THE FAR-REACHING REFORMS NEGOTIATED WITH THE IMF WAS A CRITICAL FIRST STEP TOWARD ECONOMIC RECOVERY. I WANT TO ENCOURAGE YOU TO IMPLEMENT FULLY THE LETTER AND SPIRIT OF THE IMF PROGRAM AS IT REPRESENTS THE TYPE OF STRONG ACTION NEEDED TO RE-ESTABLISH

Dear Mr. President:

I was pleased that we were able to meet during this year's APEC summit to reaffirm the partnership between our countries, and I found our discussion of trade valuable. I also appreciate your comments regarding U.S. support of your efforts to combat the forest fires and address to the financial crisis in the region.

I also want to thank you for the copy of Green Indonesia. It is a thoughtful reminder of the occasion and of the friendship between our two nations.

Mrs. Clinton joins me in sending best wishes to you.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

WASHINGTON

January 14, 1998

Dear Mr. President:

Thank you for receiving Deputy Secretary Summers during his recent trip to Jakarta. I appreciate that you found time to discuss your economic program with Deputy Secretary Summers in such detail. He has given me a full report of your meeting.

I thought it would be helpful for you to have the enclosed non-paper, which summarizes the key points Mr. Summers made on my behalf. I offer these as key steps necessary to restore financial confidence, as part of the comprehensive proposals you are developing with the IMF.

As I mentioned in our telephone conversation last week, we know how difficult the current situation must be for the Indonesian people and are standing with you in these difficult times.

Sincerely,

Bill Clinton

His Excellency Soeharto

CRITICAL STEPS TO RESTORE FINANCIAL CONFIDENCE

1. Take key symbolic actions:

- Take decisive action on important projects, such as the national car project, the national plane project and certain power plants and banks. These have taken on a symbolic importance and are being watched extremely closely by the markets.

2. Restore a credible currency:

- Direct monetary policy at the objective of exchange rate stability and raise interest rates as necessary.
- The budget must be backed by credible and transparent assumptions.

3. Assure the strength of the banking system:

- Need to guarantee rupiah deposits throughout the banking system.
- Need drastic restructuring in which managers and equity owners of failed institutions pay a price.

4. Improve presentation of economic policy:

- Direct Presidential involvement is crucial.
- Improve transparency: make public the revised Letter of Intent with the International Monetary Fund.
- The economic team must have a clear leader empowered to act as a credible interlocutor with the IMF and the international financial community.

MEMORANDUM OF TELEPHONE CONVERSATION

SUBJECT:	Telecon with Soeharto, President of Indonesia (C)
PARTICIPANTS:	Soeharto, President of Indonesia Interpreter: Dan Fietkiewicz Notetakers: James Smith, Jeffrey Rathke, Lyle Harrison, Robert Ford, James Gagnon
DATE, TIME AND PLACE:	January 15, 1998, 11:27 - 11:36 a.m. EST Oval Office

The President: Hello, Mr. President. (U)

President Soeharto: Good morning, Mr. President. Thank you for this opportunity to talk to you on the telephone. (U)

The President: I am glad to hear your voice. Thank you again for taking time to meet with Treasury Deputy Secretary Summers. (U)

President Soeharto: Thank you very much indeed. The last two days of discussions with Deputy Managing Director Stanley Fischer of the IMF have been very good indeed. These discussions were followed by a meeting with the Managing Director of the IMF, Michel Camdessus. This morning, I signed a letter of intent and presented the letter to the Managing Director. And soon after that, Mr. Camdessus held a press conference at which he mentioned his very good impression with the agreements that have been reached. (C)

As a follow-on to implementation of the agreement, I have established a Council of National Economic and Financial Resilience over which I will preside. I will be assisted by Dr. Widjojo Nitisastro who will be the Secretary General. The members of the Council will come from the economic ministries and have two representatives from the private sector. They will immediately begin to carry out the task of implementing plans and programs in accordance with the letter of intent that I presented to Mr. Camdessus this morning. (C)

With the view of maintaining better contact between Indonesia and the IMF, I have requested the Managing Director to assign a senior IMF official to Jakarta to assist me in implementing the program. Mr. Camdessus has appointed temporarily the Director for Asia Pacific Affairs of the IMF. He will be succeeded later by a more senior IMF official. Every three months, we will conduct a review of the development of the program and plan what is to be done. (C)

I would like to take this occasion to express my gratitude for your assistance, Your Excellency, and I believe it appropriate to ask you to make a statement to the world that Indonesia and the IMF have reached an agreement. I also met with the Deputy Secretary, Mr. Summers, and received your messages, Your Excellency. At almost the same time, I received the Secretary of Defense of the United States. These two high-ranking officials of the United States were both able to see close up the real situation in Jakarta. (C)

The President: Well, thank you very much Mr. President. First of all, I think the agreement is good, but I am most encouraged by the explanation of how it will be implemented. That is the next big step. Investors will be looking at this. You obviously have a very good plan for doing that. I will release a statement saying you called me and that I welcomed these steps, and I am encouraged by them. We intend to continue our involvement and to work with you in this difficult time. I hope the statement will have a positive effect. (C)

President Soeharto: Thank you very much, Your Excellency. The most important thing is implementation of this program; the world is anxiously waiting to see what will happen. The most immediate action will be the revision of the state budget I presented to the parliament several days ago. Secondly, we are committed to the reform of the banking system, not only the central bank and state banks, but also private banks. (C)

The President: Thank you. This is very good news. We will keep working with you. Goodbye. (U)

The President: Since we spoke several weeks ago, I have followed developments in Indonesia closely. I wanted to stay in touch and am calling now because I am concerned about the financial situation. (C)

Your personal leadership has produced unprecedented economic growth and prosperity for Indonesia and its people. I am convinced you can get through this present difficulty. (C)

I share your desire to see rapid economic recovery and want to do what I can to work with you. I understand one of the proposals under consideration is establishment of a currency board. I have studied this proposal and have serious concerns about it that I want to share with you. (C)

I have consulted with the IMF and G-7 countries and everyone seems to believe that if you implement a currency board you could put at risk all the progress you have achieved. (C)

If markets go after the board, it could create a run that seriously depletes Indonesia's reserves and complicates the efforts of the IMF and the international community to provide support. It could drive up interest rates, lead to the collapse of banks and the banking system and make it easier for speculators to move against the rupiah. When speculators make a run, it can drive down a country, even as it did Great Britain, and this would worsen the situation for you. (C)

I know these currency boards seem to have worked in a couple of other countries, but everybody I know thinks it will not work for Indonesia. It seems a better course would be to focus on strengthening the banking system, resolving private sector debt and continuing to implement the IMF reforms. (C)

I want to work with you and with the IMF in supporting efforts to stabilize the exchange rate. We are mobilizing a multilateral effort to help restore trade finance lines to Indonesia, working with the IMF and the G-7. We also have a substantial program of food assistance to offer just to help you meet the temporary shortfall you now face. (C)

Mr. President, the task of restoring market confidence also has a political component and that is why it is important to implement the IMF reforms with a leadership team that commands broad public support and respect. And as you and I have discussed many times now, it is important to maintain openness and broad public participation in the political system to maintain growth and your impressive record of accomplishments. It seems to me that in order to complete the difficult economic adjustments you will need public support. Allowing a broad range of viewpoints to be heard will act to help generate that support. (C)

Mr. President, I believe in your leadership record and the fundamental strength of your country. I will do what I can to help. That's why I felt moved as a friend to share with you my concern about this currency board idea. (C)

President Soeharto: Thank you very much for your interest and I appreciate that you are a close friend of Indonesia and are paying close attention to the situation here. (C)

The problem is that after January 15, when I gave the letter of intent to the IMF, and even since November when the IMF started to provide assistance, the situation has gotten worse. (C)

I am trying to implement precisely the letter of intent. First, the state budget is being revised even though some in Parliament are reluctant to do so. Second, we are taking appropriate steps on banking reform, including merging banks and appointing new personnel. Eventually, there will be only three state banks. Third, we have established a restructuring program for private banks. The task is to see that mergers take place. In order to restore confidence in the banking system, the government is guaranteeing savings and deposits. But we are not going to liquidate any more banks because we believe this would be disadvantageous. We will set up new rules about minimum accounts and banks that cannot meet those rules will be out of business. (C)

The problem is that despite all this, the decline in the exchange rate continues. The rupiah was at 15,000 to one dollar; now it is at 10,000. Companies have stopped their work, which has caused layoffs and unemployment and unrest. (C)

To stop this fall in the exchange rate, the government has intervened repeatedly and we have used $10 billion of our reserves to shore up the rupiah. Continuing to intervene will jeopardize our limited reserves, which are needed to import goods for industry, for example spare parts. If we continue to intervene, we will exhaust our reserves. (C)

One IMF requirement is expediting trade liberalization. I have done that, but a consequence has been that many companies cannot distribute basic goods. There is a scarcity of foodstuffs and supply and demand has driven up prices, which in turn has produced unrest. The public has called on the government to remedy the problem. But because of the continued decline of the rupiah, it is difficult to calculate how much we need to import, even of such items as medicine and powdered milk, which also now are in short supply. Unless we take control and try to stop the fall of the rupiah, I fear all companies will stop all business, even as we are in the process of reforming the banking system. (C)

At the moment we are contemplating introduction of a currency board system. But I share your view that there is a great risk in doing this. I fear, however, that unless we take this step all manner of things will get worse and there will be a great effect on the rest of Southeast Asia. (C)

If the currency board is not introduced, what is the alternative? How do we stop the rupiah's fall? I appeal to you to approach the G-7 and ask them to pay attention to the situation in Indonesia. I will not insist on a currency board in Indonesia. If there is a better alternative, I would be happy to apply it. (C)

So this is the situation in Indonesia now. I appreciate your help regarding our food shortages. (C)

The President: I hear your message and I understand your frustration. If the rupiah falls, you will lose your reserves. And if the currency board is caught short and falls, you will lose the reserves as well, just quicker. (C)

I want to go back to the G-7 and the IMF and talk to them about alternatives. I want this to work out and am worried the currency board will be an open target. I am worried about collapse. I will talk to the others and get back to you in a few days. (C)

President Soeharto: Thank you for your pledge. We need to make a decision soon as the people are demanding that their President do something to fix the situation and save the country. The Indonesian people see the IMF as a savior too late. (C)

The President: Thank you. I will get to work on it. (C)

President Soeharto: Thank you. (C)

The President: Mr. President, thank you for taking my call at such an early hour. (C)

President Soeharto: Thank you, Mr. President, for your kind attention to the monetary turmoil not only in Indonesia but also in other South East Asian countries, as well. (C)

The President: I have long valued our friendship, and I just wanted to talk to you personally. (C)

President Soeharto: Well indeed, your Excellency. (U)

The President: I have been following closely the financial situation in Indonesia. I know how painful the current problems must be for you and all Indonesians. America values the critical and constructive role Indonesia plays in the region. It is because we appreciate Indonesia's importance that the United States has been supportive of your reform program with the IMF. Initially there was a positive reaction by markets to your commitment to reform, but not anymore because of a perception these commitments are not going to be implemented. You have always shown great courage and leadership. I think it is vital now that you use those powers to provide this support for economic reform. I believe this is the best way to preserve your impressive economic legacy in Indonesia and to get out of this difficult situation. (C)

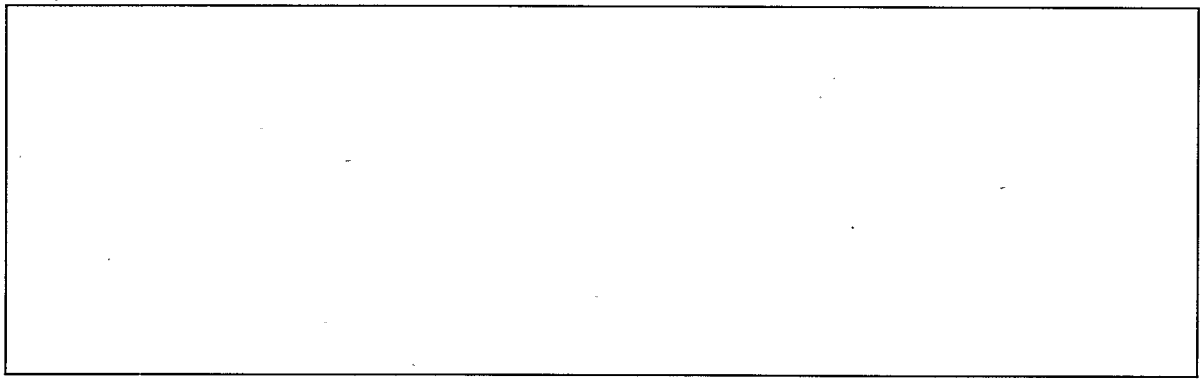
I know it is difficult to do, but among other things, interest rates should be kept high until the rupiah stabilizes. The situation is, I think, very similar to the situation faced by Korea and President Kim before the presidential election there. I understand IMF Managing Director Camdessus will be in Jakarta shortly, and I urge you and your economic team to work closely with him. We are in close contact with your team. I know you have very capable advisors, and we want to be in touch with them. I would like to send Deputy Secretary of the Treasury Larry Summers to consult with your economic team. He has worked closely with me on the Korean and Mexican situations. He is prepared to travel to the region immediately, and I would like you to spend some time with him to discuss the current economic situation. He will be able to tell you first hand how I view it. (C)

I also intend to release a statement in the next few minutes reiterating the importance of the relationship between our countries and to make it absolutely clear that we support you and that we will stand with you throughout these difficult times. (C)

President Soeharto: Thank you very much for your views. These are very important not only to me, but to the Indonesian people. Indeed in a short time, January 15th, the managing director of the IMF is going to meet with me, Mr. President. I would also like to express my appreciation for sending your mission and your efforts for resolving the present economic crisis and your support of the Indonesian economy in general. (C)



B1

[redacted] B1

The situation faced by Indonesia is difficult to overcome here, as well as in other countries of South East Asia. As far as implementation of the program is concerned, I can assure you there is no problem, as the Indonesian people are willing to sacrifice to ensure a beneficial result. Thank you very much Mr. President for allowing me to make these points. (C)

The President: Thank you, Mr. President. If I could say one or two words in response to the very helpful summary you've given me. First, I know how much an impact currency speculation can have; we saw this in Great Britain a couple of years ago. Once they get started in one direction, it's hard to stop it. But I think the whole question is one of changing the psychology of the situation to restore confidence in the currency. It's obvious that the people of Indonesia have an enormous productive capacity; one has only to look at the progress of the last few years to see that. (C)

So in response to your briefing, I have only two observations. First, I think what you are trying to do with private loans; to get as many as possible rolled over is a good thing. I've been talking to experts here, and they have told me several things. When the companies negotiate loans, they must make sure the records of the loans are accurate so the banks can get a true picture of the status of the company. I hope that when Mr. Camdessus and Mr. Summers come they can advise you on this. It is very important. The only other observation I have is that sometimes small things can make a big difference. For instance, when several banks were closed it made a big difference for the investors, but when some were reopened under new names it had a huge influence on the psychology of investors here. I think anyone can sympathize with not wanting to end subsidies for fuel oil that would hurt the people of Indonesia, but you need to see if there are some small steps that could help psychologically to deal with the situation and to restore confidence in the reform plan for the economy of Indonesia. Meanwhile, I will issue my statement and send Mr. Summers and we will work for the best and hope for the best. (C)

President Soeharto: Thank you very much Your Excellency for your interest. Your demarche will be very valuable.

DATE, TIME AND PLACE: November 24, 1997, 9:40 - 10:40 a.m. PST
Vancouver, Canada

The President: When did you arrive in Vancouver? (U)

President Soeharto: I arrived last night at 11:00 p.m. The flight from South Africa took almost twenty-two hours. There is progress in South Africa but it still needs assistance from other countries. (C)

Let me thank you for the great oppcrtunity to meet with you here at APEC. On behalf of the people of Indonesia, I would like to thank you for the assistance with the fires. We are suffering from the fires and the unusually long dry season. One third of our forests are supposed to remain untouched; one third are industrial forests with selective cutting to ensure continuing development; and one third are being converted to palm oil rubber and being used for slash and burn agriculture. (S)

Most of the converted land has deep peat soil. So if we try to extinguish the fire it causes a great deal of smoke and smoldering. The effects of the smoke have been felt in Malaysia, Singapore and Brunei. We are expecting rain but there has been a delay. (S)

I want to thank the United States for the three Hercules aircraft. They have been very helpful in extinguishing the fires on the island of Java. Rains came two days ago so I hope the fires will be extinguished. (S)

I also want to thank you for helping Indonesia in the monetary crisis that has hit not only Southeast Asia but has spread to other parts of Asia such as Korea. (S)

If you look at the economic fundamentals, the Indonesian economy is relatively strong. But the effect of the speculators was too difficult to overcome. You will recall the financial crisis started in Thailand. In Indonesia, the situation worsened when loans came to maturity and had to be repaid. Government loans were under control but the private sector had to buy dollars to repay loans. While the private sector tried to buy dollars, the people also rushed to purchase dollars, weakening the rupiah. The Indonesian public has lost confidence in the rupiah and it has been difficult to restore confidence. In order to overcome this problem, we have tightened the monetary supply; rescheduled huge projects; and taken other measures to strengthen the rupiah. Also included in our plan submitted to the IMF for evaluation was reforming the banking system. The IMF has approved a $10 billion loan; the World Bank $4.5 billion and the Asian Development Bank (ADB) $3.5 billion for a total of $18 billion. Other Asian countries also have demonstrated solidarity by providing contributions -- Singapore, Malaysia, Brunei and Japan. (S)

Of course, I understand you yourself played a personal role in making possible a positive evaluation by the IMF. The Indonesian economy will require consolidation; economic growth this year will decline to 6 percent. With IMF lending and standby loans we will be able to import materials that will enable us to experience relatively high economic growth. The question remains how to find ways to identify the causes of financial disruption to guarantee that it does not happen again. (S)

We need to think about an emergency fund that would overcome financial turmoil before IMF help comes forward. If we rely on the IMF alone, we prolong the suffering. The fund would serve as a complement to the IMF. I hope the fund will supply the capital needed to prevent layoffs or unemployment. In export industries, the fund would help maintain continued export earnings. There will be a process of consolidation, because the won crisis has caused the rupiah to weaken after it had strengthened. (S)

The government of Indonesia did intervene some to defend the rupiah, but unlike Thailand we did not exhaust our reserves. We instead allowed the rupiah to float. (S)

Coming back to natural disasters, we can't totally prevent El Nino, but we need to focus on how to overcome it and to better identify this phenomenon. Indonesia is an ideal place to monitor climatic changes like El Nino but we don't have the resources or technology to do it. If chosen as a site for this research, Indonesia would cooperate in enhancing monitoring. (S)

I am reminded that you not only played a role with the IMF but provided assistance that helped Indonesia face its financial crisis as well. (S)

The President: I believe I have a strong bilateral and personal relationship with you. We were pleased to help with the financial crisis and the fires. We also have a deep strategic role and interest in Indonesia and the whole region. I agree the underlying fundamentals of Indonesia are impressive. We need to build on them through the trade opening APEC provides. (S)

Your leadership in Bogor led to the International Telecommunications Agreement (ITA). This year we will be opening nine different sectors which will give a lot of growth to the region. (S)

As to the financial crisis, the Manila framework established a three step strategy -- each country is to implement responsible macroeconomic policies; the IMF is to be supportive, recognizing the nature of the economies may not require the same measures as twenty years ago; and back-up support by the United States and other countries. I have a slightly different view on what we need to do next. I think we should wait until Finance Ministers meet before deciding. I understand meetings are planned in Kuala Lumpur and Japan. However, I think the solution agreed to in Manila will work. (S)

With regard to the fires, I took great personal interest in the hurt and suffering experienced by the Indonesian people. I am pleased that you are interested in joint planning for natural disasters. If the scientists are right, there will be more natural disasters, because there is more global warming occurring now than in the last 1,000 years. In the United States, severe weather events have increased significantly. It seems a lot of this is due to climate change. This makes the climate change conference in Kyoto important. The United States is the largest cause of global warming because with Europe and Japan we produce the most greenhouse gases. For this reason, we have committed to accept specific targets for reducing emissions to 1990 levels by 2010. (S)

Big questions remain on whether there should be participation by developing economies. Those against developing country participation claim implementation would hurt economic growth and opportunities. Those in favor point out that if developing countries do not participate, emission savings by developed countries will be offset by increased emissions by developing countries in thirty years. The increase in greenhouse gases has been dramatic. Therefore, we have sought to involve developing countries in a way that doesn't require them to sacrifice growth. We know a lot more about energy than we did twenty years ago and can be more efficient now than the United States has been in the last fifty years. It is far cheaper for a country to build energy efficient plants in the first place than to convert inefficient ones. We have developed a partial credit plan that gives developing countries access to technology and companies. Many people in Latin America are working with us on this, but in Asia not many are interested because of concerns about the effect on growth. We have sought to redesign the program so that it doesn't affect growth. I would ask you to reconsider and support this program. (S)

We very much value the security arrangement with Indonesia and want to support you with military equipment and training, with the understanding that it will not be used to put down unrest or destabilize the region. I think we have had that understanding. (S)

We have some differences on human rights, East Timor and Mr. Pakpahan. I understand from a discussion between our respective foreign ministers that you are going to permit foreign doctors to visit the imprisoned labor leader Pakpahan. (S)

I would like to take a moment to discuss this cluster of issues. For thirty years you have overseen development in Indonesia and have guided your country as it has made astonishing gains. The size and diversity of Indonesia and its accomplishments will make it one of the world's most important countries in the next century. (S)

But I also believe that the nature of a modern society requires accommodations for order and stability versus individual liberty and national versus individual identity. Failure to have the right balance can lead to tensions within a country's society and problems with its neighbors. Most disruptions stemming from expressions of free speech are only minor matters with which we have to deal. I say not only as the President of the United States but as a friend that I think you will have an incredible legacy when you complete your work. But in this world of universal literacy, provision for local concerns as opposed to national concerns is important and the political and economic costs significantly less than those incurred in maintaining rigid controls. For example, there has been an enormous positive response when you said you intended to investigate the shooting of the university students in East Timor. (S)

President Soeharto: In 1945, a conference adopted the Indonesian constitution that stipulates how Indonesia behaves with other countries in the world in order to have peace with social justice. Of course, not all citizens in Indonesia favor the government. Those who commit offenses or defy the people entrusted to uphold the constitution and those who violate the constitution will be brought to court to face the rule of law. This is what Indonesia has been doing for years and outsiders do not understand. Thank you. (S)

PUT CALENERGY'S PATUHA GEOTHERMAL PROJECT ON HOLD (THIS WAS ONE OF THE 15 PROJECTS PUT BACK ON PROBATIONARY STATUS LAST SATURDAY).

OPIC PRESIDENT AND CHAIRMAN GEORGE MUNOZ SPOKE TO PAT ON JANUARY 13 TO GIVE US A HEADS-UP THAT THE GOI JANUARY 10 DECISION TO RETURN TO PROBATIONARY STATUS CALENERGY'S PATUHA GEOTHERMAL PROJECT COULD TRIGGER A "DOMINO EFFECT" THAT COULD CULMINATE IN ACTIVATION OF CALENERGY'S OPIC INSURANCE COVERAGE. MUNOZ STRESSED THE "COULD" BUT ADDED THAT OPIC IS IN THE PROCESS OF ALERTING THE GOI ON THIS MATTER.

CALENERGY CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER FOR ASIA DONALD M. O'SHEI ALSO CALLED PAT THIS MORNING TO SAY STATE SECTRETARY MOERDIONO'S STAFF TOLD CALENERGY THAT THE GOI IS REPORTEDLY WILLING TO MAKE CHANGES IN THE STATUS OF THE PATUHA PROJECT IF THE GOVERNMENT IS NOT "PUNISHED" FOR TAKING SUCH A STEP. MOERDIONO'S STAFF TOLD CALENERGY THAT THE GOI IS LOOKING FOR "A SIGN" THAT THE USG SUPPORTS SUCH AN ACTION. O'SHEI FAXED US A COPY OF A LETTER FROM NEBRASKA CONGRESSMAN CHRISTIENSEN TO THE GOI (WHICH HE WANTED SUMMERS TO HAND OVER TO MOERDIONO) THAT SUPPORTS THE PROJECT. PAT ALSO MET WITH CALENERGY STAFF ON THE AFTERNOON OF JANUARY 13 WITH A LETTER FOR DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS. WE GOT THE LETTER TO SUMMERS IN TIME FOR HIS MEETING WITH INDUSTRY AND TRADE MINISTER TUNKY ARIWIBOWO. CALENERGY GAVE US A COPY OF A SIMILAR LETTER TO IMF STANLEY FISCHER. (PAT FAXED COPIES OF ALL THE LETTERS TO VIRGINIA.) THE EVENING OF JANUARY 12, CONGRESSMAN CHRISTIENSEN CALLED AMBASSADOR ROY, AND ON JANUARY 10 PAT FIELDED A CALL FROM NEBRASKA CONGRESSMAN BEREUTER ON CALENERGY. CALENERGY IS BASED IN OMAHA, NEBRASKA AND ACCORDING TO CONGRESSMAN BEREUTER EMPLOYEES ABOUT 5,000 PEOPLE. WE EXPECT TO ALSO GET A CALL FROM SENATOR CHARLES HAGEL.

BACKGROUND: THE PATUHA GEOTHERMAL PLANT IS LOCATED IN WEST JAVA. TO DATE, CALENERGY HAS INVESTED USD 360 MILLION IN ITS THREE GEOTHERMAL PROJECTS IN JAVA AND BALI AND HAS BUDGETED ANOTHER USD 660 MILLION IN 1998. AFTER CALENERGY RECEIVED THE GO-AHEAD FROM THE GOI TO MOVE FORWARD ON PATUHA IN NOVEMBER THEY DREW DOWN ON A USD 100 MILLION COMMERCIAL LOAN. THE FUNDING PROCESS FOR GEOTHERMAL PROJECTS IS DIFFERENT THAN FOR A CONVENTIONAL POWER PLANT -- ALL THE INVESTMENT GOES INTO FINDING THE STEAM AND "DEVELOPING THE BOILER." FINANCING AND CONSTRUCTION OF THE ACTUAL ELECTRICITY PLANT ARE THE LAST STAGES. WHILE CALENERGY'S POWER PURCHASE PRICE (PPA) FOR PATUHA AND ITS OTHER GEOTHERMAL PROJECTS IS HIGHER THAN PPA'S FOR COAL-FIRED PLANTS, THERE ARE ECONOMIC AND ENVIRONMENTAL BENEFITS FROM USING STEAM OVER COAL.

CALENERGY HAS MADE THE CASE THAT ALTHOUGH OTHER U.S. COMPANIES HAVE PROJECTS ON THE REVIEW/POSTPONED LIST (UNOCAL, AMOSEAS, DUKE, ENRON AND COASTAL), ONLY CALENERGY HAS OPIC INSURANCE AND ITS FINANCIAL OUTLAY IS SUBSTANTIALLY LARGER THAN THE OTHER COMPANIES. FOR THIS REASON, THEY ARE CALLING FOR SPECIAL TREATMENT.

OTHER COMPANIES ARE NOT PURSUING CALENERGY'S DRIVE FOR SPECIAL TREATMENT. PAT HAS SPOKEN TO BOTH UNOCAL AND ENRON WHICH ARE DEEPLY CONCERNED ABOUT THE CONTINUED DELAY IN PROJECTS. THE COMPANIES HAVE ALSO EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT CALENERGY HAS BEEN "SO VOCAL" IN THE LOCAL PRESS ABOUT ITS PROJECT AND FEAR THAT IT COULD HAVE NEGATIVE RAMIFICATIONS ON OTHER POWER PROJECTS.

PLEASE SHARE THIS MESSAGE WITH TREASURY. ANDREW VELTHAUS ALSO

3. (C) SUMMERS' JANUARY 13

DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS MET FOR 90 MINUTES WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO. THE VIBES WERE NOT QUITE AS UPBEAT AS THOSE FROM THE ECONOMIC TEAM MEMBERS WITH WHOM HE MET YESTERDAY OR THOSE THAT EMANATED FROM IMF DEPUTY MD STANLEY FISCHER'S MEETING WITH SOEHARTO YESTERDAY. YESTERDAY'S CONVERSATIONS INDICATED A STRONGLY DETERMINED, COMMITTED PRESIDENT WHO WAS PREPARED TO TAKE VERY BOLD STEPS SUCH AS ELIMINATING THE FUEL PRICE SUBSIDY IN ONE GO IN FEBRUARY (OR AT LEAST AFTER RAMADAN). TODAY'S FACE-TO-FACE WITH THE PRESIDENT INDICATED THAT HE WAS VERY CONCERNED ABOUT THE TIMING AND IMPACT OF SUCH MEASURES. THE DEPUTY SECRETARY WAS A BIT CONCERNED THAT THE PRESIDENT, WHILE IN COMMAND OF A REMARKABLE RANGE OF DETAIL, WAS MORE COMMITTED AT THE BIG PICTURE LEVEL THAN AT THE NITTY-GRITTY LEVEL, THE LATTER BEING NECESSARY FOR THE BIG ACTIONS WHICH WOULD SPARK CONFIDENCE.

THAT SAID, THE GOI FOLLOWED UP IMMEDIATELY ON SUMMERS' MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT. MOERDIONO TOLD THE AMBASSADOR AND WIDJOJO

TOLD SUMMERS THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD SUMMONED THE TWO OF THEM FOR A POST-SUMMERS MEETING. ACCORDING TO THE SENIOR OFFICIALS, SOEHARTO ASKED THEM FOR A WRITTEN REPORT ON SUMMERS' PRESENTATION, INCLUDING THE FINER POINTS. THEY ASKED US FOR

SUMMERS' BRIEFING PAPER. SINCE HE DID NOT FOLLOW THE BRIEFING PAPER STRICTLY, WE HAVE TYPED UP THE AMBASSADOR'S COMPLETE NOTES AND ARE URGENTLY SEEKING THE PARTY'S CLEARANCE ON RELEASING THEM TO MOERDIONO AND WIDJOJO. MOERDIONO ALSO INDICATED THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD TWO QUESTIONS OF DETAIL: DOES THE USG WANT THE CANCELLATION OF THE NATIONAL CAR PROGRAM OUTRIGHT OR THE ELIMINATION OF THE SPECIAL PROTECTION FOR IT (SUMMERS' BRIEFING PAPER SAID CANCEL THE WHOLE THING, BUT THE CONVERSATION DID NOT REACH THAT LEVEL OF SPECIFICITY). SECOND, WHAT IS THE USG POSITION ON THE TIMING OF THE ELIMINATION OF THE DOMESTIC FUEL SUBSIDY? WE WILL RELAY SUMMERS' RESPONSE AS SOON AS WE GET IT.

IN SUMMERS' FOLLOW-UP MEETING WITH WIDJOJO, WIDJOJO AND ACCOMPANYING INDUSTRY AND TRADE MINISTER ARIWIBOWO SAID THAT STANLEY FISCHER WOULD BE MEETING AGAIN WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO TONIGHT, JANUARY 13. THEY WOULD DISCUSS THE NEW DRAFT LETTER OF INTENT AT THE MEETING. WIDJOJO REPEATED THAT THIS LETTER WOULD BE ISSUED AND PUBLISHED ON THURSDAY.

AS SUMMERS WAS LEAVING TODAY'S MEETING WITH WIDJOJO, HE SPOTTED STANLEY FISCHER ENTERING MINISTER OF FINANCE MAR'IE'S OFFICE. SHAKING OFF HOT PRESS PURSUIT, THE SUMMERS PARTY HOTFOOTED IT INTO MAR'IE'S SUITE. SUMMERS AND FISCHER TALKED IN THE MINISTER'S OFFICE FOR ABOUT 20 MINUTES WHILE THE MINISTER JOINED THE REST OF US WHO WERE UPSTAIRS IN HIS, THE MINISTER'S, WAITING ROOM. IN THE MEANTIME, THE 30 OR SO DEMONSTRATORS WERE DOWNSTAIRS PROTESTING THE IMF PROGRAM. SINCE THE WIDJOJO STOP HAD BEEN UNSCHEDULED, THE DEMONSTRATORS COULD NOT HAVE BEEN THERE FOR SUMMERS. IN ANY EVENT, THEY DID NOT FOLLOW THE MOTORCADE VEHICLES WHEN THEY MOVED TO THE REAR EXIT OF THE BUILDING.

5. (C) BRIEFING GOH

SUMMERS BRIEFED SINGAPORE PRIME MINISTER GOH FOR HALF AN HOUR BY PHONE TODAY ON HIS MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO. HE PROVIDED A SUMMARY OF HIS MAIN POINTS FOR GOH'S REFERENCE. INTERESTINGLY, YESTERDAY DR. WARDHANA GAVE SUMMERS A COPY OF THE TALKING POINTS USED BY FISCHER IN HIS MONDAY, JANUARY 12 MEETING WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO. THEY ALL SEEM TO BE SINGING IN HARMONY.

6. (C) POLITICAL SHORT-TAKE

ALL OF THESE CONCENTRATED ECONOMIC COMINGS AND GOINGS ARE DEFLECTING ATTENTION FROM THE ONGOING POLITICAL DEVELOPMENTS ARISING OUT OF THE ECONOMIC CRISIS. ALTHOUGH THE SMART MONEY IS STILL BETTING SOEHARTO WILL MAKE IT THROUGH TO MARCH (AND EVEN BEYOND), HE IS CERTAINLY GOING TO BE GOVERNING A MUCH DIFFERENT COUNTRY IN HIS SIXTH TERM. THE PRESS, FOR EXAMPLE, IS HAVING A FIELD DAY REPORTING INTERNATIONAL AND DOMESTIC CRITICISM OF HIS LEADERSHIP AND THE NUMEROUS CALLS THAT HE STEP DOWN. OPPONENTS LIKE MEGAWATI ARE ALSO DEVELOPING A REAL TASTE FOR SOUNDING OFF IN PUBLIC (AND SEEING THEIR REMARKS ON THE FRONT PAGES). MAYBE IT'S TOO SOON TO SAY FOR SURE, BUT IT'S BECOMING INCREASINGLY DIFFICULT TO IMAGINE HOW A RE-ELECTED SOEHARTO WILL BE ABLE TO SHUT EVERYTHING DOWN ONCE HE'S INTO HIS NEXT TERM. ROY

BEGIN TEXT:

4. (C) SUMMARY. TREASURY DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS MET WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO FOR NINETY MINUTES ON JANUARY 13 TO DISCUSS THE CURRENT STATE OF INDONESIA'S ECONOMY AND THE STEPS IT IS TAKING TO RESOLVE THE CURRENT CRISIS. SOEHARTO RECOUNTED INDONESIA'S 30 YEAR HISTORY OF ELIMINATING POVERTY AND EXPRESSED DEEP CONCERN THAT THE MONETARY TURMOIL WAS NOW HINDERING EFFORTS TO IMPROVE INDONESIA'S STANDARD OF LIVING. ACCORDING TO SOEHARTO, THE CURRENT CRISIS WAS SET OFF BY SPECULATORS AND EXACERBATED BY RUMORS. HIS OWN ILLNESS WORSENED THE SITUATION AND CREATED A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH. INITIALLY INDONESIA ATTEMPTED DIRECT INTERVENTION TO PROTECT ITS CURRENCY, BUT AS THAT STRATEGY FAILED, THE COUNTRY ATTEMPTED OTHER REMEDIES WHICH WERE INSUFFICIENT TO SOLVE THE CRISIS.

5. (C) BECAUSE OF WEAKNESS OF THE DOMESTIC BANKING SECTOR, INDONESIA PLANS TO CONSOLIDATE STATE-OWNED BANKS AND HAS ENCOURAGED PRIVATE BANKS TO MERGE. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ELABORATED ON THE DIFFERENCES IN THE KOREAN CASE WHERE WEAKNESS RESULTS FROM LOANS TO PRIVATE BANKS AND THE INDONESIAN CASE WHERE PROBLEM LOANS COME FROM PRIVATE CORPORATIONS. THE PRESIDENT INDICATED THAT INDONESIA COULD CONTINUE TO SERVICE ITS NATIONAL DEBT AND FELT THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT BANKS WHO GAVE LOANS TO THE PRIVATE SECTOR RECOGNIZE THAT THEY ARE PARTLY TO BLAME FOR THE CURRENT FIASCO.

6. (C) INDONESIA AND THE IMF, THE PRESIDENT SAID, ARE

CONFIDENTIAL

IN FULL AGREEMENT. THE ONLY ISSUE IS TIMING. SOEHARTO GAVE STRONG ASSURANCES THAT HE IS COMMITTED TO CUTTING FUEL SUBSIDIES IN A WAY THAT WILL AVOID CREATING SOCIAL UNREST. BULOG MONOPOLIES, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED, WILL REMAIN INTACT, AT LEAST FOR SUGAR AND RICE, BECAUSE RICE PRICES ARE TOO IMPORTANT TO BE LEFT TO MARKET FORCES.

7. (C) DEPUTY SECRETARY EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA SUFFERS FROM A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH AND

THE BANKING SYSTEM. TO SOLVE THAT CRISIS, INDONESIA SHOULD LEARN FROM MEXICO'S EXPERIENCE BY ACTING STRONGLY AND QUICKLY. SPECIFICALLY, SUMMERS EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA MUST BUILD CREDIBILITY BY CANCELING THE NATIONAL CAR AND AIRPLANE AND OTHER INVIABLE PROJECTS AND TO ELIMINATE CERTAIN MONOPOLIES. TO STRENGTHEN THE CURRENCY, A REALISTIC BUDGET, BASED ON CREDIBLE AND TRANSPARENT ASSUMPTIONS, AND A STRONG BANKING SYSTEM WOULD BE NEEDED. RENEWED CONFIDENCE IN INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC POLICY WAS NEEDED, SUMMERS CONTINUED. ACCORDINGLY, HE SAID, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO MUST BE SEEN AS PERSONALLY LEADING EFFORTS TO ELIMINATE THE CURRENT CRISIS. OTHER IMPORTANT STEPS INCLUDE INCREASING TRANSPARENCY AND EFFECTIVELY PRESENTING POLICY TO MARKETS AND THE PUBLIC ARE ALSO ESSENTIAL IF INDONESIA IS TO RAPIDLY REBUILD THE CONFIDENCE THAT ITS POLICY PROCESS, CURRENCY, AND BANKING SYSTEM NEEDS. END SUMMARY.

8. (U) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AND TREASURY DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS MET FOR NINETY MINUTES ON JANUARY 13. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WAS ACCOMPANIED BY SENIOR ECONOMIC ADVISOR DR. WIDJOJO NITISASTRO. EAP ASSISTANT SECRETARY STANLEY ROTH AND AMBASSADOR ROY PARTICIPATED IN THE MEETING ON THE U.S. SIDE.

9. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO OPENED THE MEETING BY WARMLY WELCOMING DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS TO INDONESIA. HE EXPRESSED HIS GREAT APPRECIATION FOR PRESIDENT CLINTON'S DECISION TO SEND THE DEPUTY SECRETARY AS HIS SPECIAL ENVOY TO THE REGION, AS HAD BEEN DISCUSSED DURING THE TWO PRESIDENTS' JANUARY 8 TELEPHONE CALL. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID HE BELIEVED THAT, AT THE PRESENT JUNCTURE, THE VISIT WAS VERY CRUCIAL AND BENEFICIAL TO INDONESIA'S OVERCOMING ITS FINANCIAL TURMOIL.

10. (SBU) THE TURMOIL IS NOT JUST AFFECTING INDONESIA, HE SAID, BUT OTHER COUNTRIES TOO. NOTING THAT THE DEPUTY SECRETARY HAD DISCUSSED THE CURRENT FINANCIAL SITUATION WITH DR. WIDJOJO, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO PROVIDED

A DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE BACKGROUND OF INDONESIA'S

52 YEARS AS AN INDEPENDENT COUNTRY. AFTER REVIEWING THE POST WORLD WAR II EVENTS WHICH CULMINATED IN INDEPENDENCE, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO DESCRIBED THE CHAOS AND HARDSHIP WHICH LED TO THE 1965 REBELLION AND ULTIMATELY TO THE NEW ORDER GOVERNMENT. THE THREE LINKED GOALS OF THE NEW ORDER'S DEVELOPMENT TRILOGY ARE STABILITY, ECONOMIC GROWTH, AND EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION; THESE ARE IMPLEMENTED THROUGH THE FIVE-YEAR DEVELOPMENT PLANS AND ENSHRINED IN THE BROAD OUTLINES OF STATE POLICY APPROVED BY THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR), THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED.

11. (C) THE RESULTS OF THE FIRST 25-YEAR LONG-TERM DEVELOPMENT PLAN WERE ENCOURAGING. INDONESIA HAS ESTABLISHED THE FOUNDATION FOR DEVELOPMENT IN ALL SECTORS. INDICATORS OF HOW SOLID DEVELOPMENT HAD BEEN INCLUDED A 7 PERCENT AVERAGE GROWTH RATE, INFLATION REDUCTION FROM OVER 650 PERCENT IN 1969 TO SINGLE DIGIT LEVELS, 1996 PER CAPITA GDP OF USD 1115, EXPORT GROWTH TO ABOUT USD 50 BILLION/YEAR, SELF-SUFFICIENCY IN RICE, EXTENSION OF COMPULSORY EDUCATION FROM SIX TO NINE YEARS, AND PROGRESS IN HEALTH SERVICES. THE PRESIDENT PROVIDED DETAILED STATISTICS ON PROGRESS IN POVERTY ALLEVIATION AND THE IMPROVEMENTS IN INDONESIA'S 66,000 VILLAGES.

12. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT THE MONETARY TURMOIL WAS DEEPLY AFFECTING EFFORTS TO ERADICATE POVERTY AND RAISE LIVING STANDARDS. HE SAID THAT SOUTHEAST ASIA'S MONETARY TURMOIL HAD BEEN SPARKED BY FOREIGN CURRENCY TRADING, SPECULATORS AND GAMBLERS. HE NOTED FURTHER FACTORS SUCH AS FOREIGN BANKS' COLLUDING WITH SPECULATORS, AND SPREADING POLITICAL RUMORS. THE FINAL BLOW WAS SOEHARTO'S ILLNESS. RUMORS ABOUT THE ILLNESS LED TO A WEAKENED RUPIAH, FIRST BECAUSE OF SPECULATORS AND THEN BECAUSE LOCAL COMPANIES THAT HAD INCURRED SHORT-TERM DEBT FOR LONG-TERM PROJECTS RUSHED TO BUY DOLLARS NEEDED TO PAY MATURING LOANS.

THIS RUSH WEAKENED THE RUPIAH FURTHER AND CAUSED PEOPLE TO FEAR FOR THE VALUE OF THE RUPIAH. THE RESULT WAS A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH.
CONFIDENTIAL

13. (C) FIRST, THE PRESIDENT SAID, THE GOI TRIED INTERVENTION TO PREVENT FURTHERING WEAKENING OF THE CURRENCY, BUT BECAUSE OF THE STRENGTH OF FORCES PUSHING THE RUPIAH DOWNWARD, INTERVENTION PROVED USELESS AND THE RUPIAH CONTINUED TO WEAKEN. IF FOREIGN EXCHANGE WAS EXHAUSTED, HE SAID, THE COUNTRY COULD NOT IMPORT ITEMS NEEDED FOR BASIC INDUSTRY, RESULTING IN LAY OFFS AND UNEMPLOYMENT. THIS SITUATION MADE INDONESIA TRY TO CONTROL THE QUANTITY OF RUPIAH IN CIRCULATION WITH A TIGHT MONEY POLICY. RUPIAH WERE WITHDRAW FROM PENSION AND SOCIAL SECURITY FUNDS TO PREVENT THEM FROM BEING USED FOR SPECULATION. THE RESULTS WERE NOT ENCOURAGING, AND IT TURNED OUT THIS WAS NOT A GOOD IDEA.

14. (C) AS THE CRISIS PROCEEDED, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED, ASSETS WERE WITHDRAWN FROM BANKS, CAUSING A LIQUIDITY CRUNCH AND MAKING BANKS BECOME INSOLVENT. THY ENCOURAGED DEPOSITS WITH HIGH INTEREST RATES,THAT ALSO AFFECTED PRIVATE COMPANIES. RUPIAH NLY CIRCULATED WITHIN THE BANKING SYSTEM RATHER THAN THROUGH CREDIT LINES TO COMPANIES, WHICH WERE FORCED TO LAY OFF WORKERS.

15. C) THE GOVERNMENT NEXT ATEMPTED TO CARRY OUT REFORMS TO BOOST EXPORTS. SINCE STATE REVENUES DECLINED, THE GOVERNMENT HALTED LARGE PROJECTS. THE GOVERNMENT ALSO REFORMED STATE ASSETS, HE SAID, SO STATE-OWNED COMPANIES COULD BE PRIVATIZED AS A SOURCE OF CAPITAL. INDONESIA HAS, THE PRESIDENT SAID, 160 STATE-OWNED ENTERPRISES OF WHICH 100 WERE HEALTHY. THESE

HEALTHY COMPANIES COULD BE PRIVATIZED.

16. (C) THE PRESIDENT ACKNOWLEDGED THE WEAKNESS OF CONTROL AND SUPERVISION IN THE DOMESTIC BANKING SYSTEM AND THE FAILURE TO ENFORCE RULES CONTROLLING PRIVATE SECTOR BORROWING, RESULTING IN AN ACCUMULATION OF SHORT-TERM DEBT THAT COULD NOT BE REPAID. TO STRENGTHEN THE BANKING SECTOR, HE SAID, THE GOVERNMENT ENCOURAGED CONSOLIDATION THROUGH MERGERS AND TOOK THE INITIATIVE BY ANNOUNCING A PLAN TO MERGE FOUR OF THE SEVEN STATE-OWNED BANKS. TWO WERE HEALTHY, AND THE OTHER WAS THE CENTRAL BANK. THEY ALSO HOPED TO MERGE THE 240 PRIVATE BANKS INTO A SMALLER NUMBER OF GROUPS. THE PRESIDENT NOTED THAT INDONESIA HISTORICALLY HAD STRICT RULES GOVERNING THE CREATION OF NEW BANKS. IN THE INTEREST OF EQUITY, THOUGH, THE REGULATIONS WERE ODIFIED TO ALLOW MORE BANKS TO FORM. THE NUMBER OF NEW BANKS MUSHROOMED BEYOND CONTROL AND EXCEEDED THE NUMBER NEEDED. DURING THE PRESENT CRISIS, HE SAID, THE GOVERNMENT LIQUIDATED

SOME BANKS WHICH WERE NOT SOLVENT, BUT THIS CREATED OTHER PROBLEMS, SO THE GOVERNMENT IS NOW ADVISING BANKS TO MERGE THEMSELVES. IF THE BANKS CANNOT MERGE AND MEET REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS, THEY WILL BE LIQUIDATED. ONCE BANKS ARE HEALTHY AND SOLVENT, THEY WILL BE ENCOURAGED TO FIND FOREIGN PARTNERS TO HELP WITH CONSOLIDATION. IN SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, IT IS IMPORTANT TO CARRY OUT DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS, ESPECIALLY THOSE TARGETING POVERTY ALLEVIATION, BY PROVIDING AID FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT AND FINANCIAL AID TO VILLAGES.

17. (C) STARTING 32 YEARS AGO WITH 100,000 RPS PER VILLAGE, TEN DOLLARS AT TODAY'S EXCHANGE RATE, THE PRESIDENT RECOUNTED, THE GOI HAS ENCOURAGED THE DEVELOPMENT OF RURAL AREAS. NOW, 6.5 MILLION RPS ARE GIVEN TO EACH OF THE COUNTRY'S 66,000 VILLAGES. 2/3 OF

THESE VILLAGES CAN BE CLASSIFIED AS DEVELOPED; ONLY 1/3 ARE CLASSIFIED AS LEAST DEVELOPED. TO ASSIST THESE ESPECIALLY POOR VILLAGES, SOEHARTO EXPLAINED THAT THE GOVERNMENT PROVIDES ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE: EACH VILLAGE CLASSIFIED AS LEAST DEVELOPED RECEIVES 20 MILLION RPS PER YEAR FOR 3 YEARS, TOTALING 60 MILLION RPS PER VILLAGE AS REVOLVING CAPITAL FOR DEVELOPMENT. THE PRESIDENT ADDED THAT THE LEAST DEVELOPED VILLAGES ARE NOT THE ONLY PLACES WHERE PEOPLE LIVE BELOW THE POVERTY LINE, 11.5 MILLION ARE PRESENT IN DEVELOPED VILLAGES AS WELL.

18. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA HAD MANY PROGRAMS TO REDUCE POVERTY. THOSE POLICIES INCLUDED FAMILY PLANNING TO ENSURE THAT CHILDREN COULD GET AN EDUCATION AND THAT FAMILIES COULD MEET THE BASIC NEEDS OF THEIR CHILDREN. THERE WERE ALSO PROGRAMS TARGETING WOMEN. WOMEN AND MOTHERS, THE PESIDENT EXPLAINED, FREQUENTLY HAD SIDE BUSINESES TO INCREASE INCOME. THE GOVERNMENT TRAIND THEM IN HANDICRAFTS, FARMING, SEWING AND OTER TRADES SO THAT THEIR PRODUCTS COULD BE SOL TO SUPERMARKETS IN BIG CITIES.

19. (C) THE GOVERNMENT HAD TRIED TO ENCOURAGE HOMES TO SAVE MONEY, SOEHARTO EXPLAINED. 2,000 RPS WAS THE MINIMUM AMOUNT REQUIRED TO OPEN A BANK ACCOUNT. 2,000 RPS WAS NOT SO MUCH MONEY, THE PRESIDENT SAID, SO THE GOI APPEALED TO BIG BUSINESS TO INVEST. SO FAR, 23 BILLION RPS HAD BEEN COLLECTED TO HELP THE 11.5 MILLION BELOW THE POVERTY LINE IN THE DEVELOPED VILLAGES. BY SAVING 2,000 RPS, PEOPLE COULD BORROW 10 TIMES THAT AMOUNT, OR 20,000 RPS. ONCE THIS MONEY WAS REPAID, THE BORROWER HAD TO PUT ASIDE 2,000 RPS MORE FOR A TOTAL OF 4,000 RPS. THEN, WITH 4,000 RPS IN THE BANK, 40,000 RPS COULD BE BORROWED. THE CYCLE WAS REPEATED AND THE CAPITAL REVOLVED. WHAT WAS IMPORTANT IN THIS PROGRAM, THE PRESIDENT SAID, WAS THE DEVELOPMENT OF LOW INTEREST LOANS.

20. (C) ANOTHER INITIATIVE, THE PRESIDENT SAID, WAS

THE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM. COMPANIES WITH AFTER TAX PROFITS ABOVE 100 MILLION RUPIAH PUT ASIDE 2 PERCENT OF THEIR NET PROFIT FOR THE POOR. COMPANIES EARNING BELOW 100 MILLION RPS AFTER TAX PROFIT WERE NOT REQUIRED TO CONTRIBUTE. FUNDS COLLECTED IN THIS WAY WERE USED FOR THE PROMOTION OF WHT RESDET SOEHARTO DESCRIBED AS PROSPEROUSFAMILY PROGRAMS, WITH LOANS AVAILABLE AT SIX PERCENT. BY JOINING WITH SMALL TRADERS ELIGIBLE FOR LOW INTEREST LOANS FROM STATE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS AT 14, THESE GROUPS CAN GET CREDIT AT AN AVERAGE 12

21. (C) REFERRING TO THE ONGOING CRISIS, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID THAT INDONESIA WAS TRYING TO OVERCOME ITS CURRENT CHALLENGES BY REFORM AND RESTRUCTURING. THE ESSENCE OF THE PROBLEM, HE ADDED, WAS THE SHORTAGE OF USD. INDONESIA IS ASSURED OF SOME DOLLARS THROUGH OIL

AND GAS EXPORTS BUT MUST BOOST NON OIL/GAS EXPORTS, WHICH HAVE BEEN EARNING 3-4 BILLION USD. BY PROTECTING THESE REVENUES AND AUGMENTING INCOME FROM PLANTATIONS INDONESIA HOPES TO WEATHER THE STORM.

22. (C) IN THE CONTEXT OF RESTRUCTURING THE BANKING SYSTEM, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA SOUGHT IMF COUNSEL AND WAS ALSO TRYING TO SAVE THE ASSETS OF STATE-OWNED COMPANIES AMOUNTING TO 370 TRILLION RPS. AT THE APEC MEETING IN VANCOUVER, THE HEADS OF GOVERNMENT REALIZED THAT DEVELOPING COUNTRIES COULD NOT FACE THE CURRENT CRISIS ALONE. ALL APEC MEMBERS ASKED PRESIDENT CLINTON TO HEAD A TEAM WITH THE IMF TO DEAL WITH THE CURRENCY CRISIS AND TO OVERCOME THE LOSSES INCURRED BY THE PRIVATE SECTOR. IF CREDITORS DID NOT HELP, THE BURDEN WOULD BE MORE THAN THE PRIVATE SECTOR COULD BEAR.

23. (C) THE PRESIDENT EMPHASIZED THAT THE SITUATIONS IN KOREA AND INDONESIA WERE DIFFERENT. IN KOREA, THE

BORROWING WHICH LED TO THE CURRENT CRISIS WAS BY PRIVATE BANKS, NOT THE PRIVATE SECTOR. THE CREDITOR BANKS WERE IN JAPAN, EUROPE, AND THE UNITED STATES, AND IT IS IN THEIR INTEREST TO AID FAILING BANKS IN KOREA.

24. (C) IN INDONESIA, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED, BORROWERS WERE FROM THE PRIVATE SECTOR, SO THE GOVERNMENT COULD NOT TAKE OVER THE LOANS WHICH TOTAL USD 65 BILLION. STATE BORROWING, HE SAID, TOTALS ONLY 50 BILLION. IN CARRYING OUT DEVELOPMENT, SOEHARTO

EXPLAINED, INDONESIA REQUIRED LOANS. THE RESULT OF DEVELOPMENT, THOUGH, WAS THE ABILITY TO REPAY THOSE LOANS SO THAT, OVER THE YEARS, INDONESIA HAS HAD NO DIFFICULTY WITH DEBT SERVICE PAYMENTS. THIS YEAR THE NATIONAL BUDGET EARMARKS 33 TRILLION RUPIAH FOR DEBT SERVICE. AT A RATE OF 4,000 RPS TO THE DOLLAR, THIS EQUALS 7.5 BILLION USD.

25. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO BELIEVES THAT THE BLAME FOR THE CURRENT CRISIS LIES PARTLY ON CREDITORS AND PARTLY WITH THE INDONESIAN PRIVATE SECTOR. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO HOPES THAT THE UNITED STATES CAN HELP CREDITORS REALIZE THAT THEY ARE PARTLY TO BLAME FOR THE CURRENT FIASCO.

26. (C) REFERRING TO THE IMF PACKAGE, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID THAT INDONESIA AND THE IMF ARE IN FULL AGREEMENT ON THE REFORMS TO BE CARRIED OUT. THE ONLY QUESTION IS TIMING. A CASE IN POINT IS THAT OF SUBSIDIES. THE GOVERNMENT IS FIRM IN ITS DECISION TO ELIMINATE FUEL OIL SUBSIDIES. IN THE STATE BUDGET, SUBSIDIES FOR FUEL COSTS ARE ALLOTTED AT 10 TRILLION RUPIAH. SAVINGS AMOUNT TO 15 TRILLION RUPIAH. IF WE REMOVE THE SUBSIDIES AND ADD THIS TO THE SAVINGS, HE SAID, WE GET 25 TRILLION. REMOVING THE SUBSIDIES IS A SINE QUA NON. LOW FUEL PRICES RESULT IN WASTE, DISCOURAGING USE OF ALTERNATE FUELS AND SMUGGLING TO OTHER COUNTRIES. INDONESIA ORIGINALLY PLANNED TO REMOVE SUBSIDIES MONTHS AGO, BUT SEVERAL PROBLEMS INTERVENED--FIRST WIDE-SPREAD FOREST FIRES, FOLLOWED BY A LONG DROUGHT REDUCING AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION. THESE CRISES FELL CLOSE TO THE CHRISTMAS, NEW YEAR, AND RAMADAN

HOLIDAYS, SO THE GOVERNMENT MUST TAKE CARE IN REMOVING THE SUBSIDIES SO THE RESULT IS NOT BAD PSYCHOLOGICALLY. BECAUSE THE REMOVAL OF SUBSIDIES WILL DRIVE TRANSPORTATION COSTS AND ELECTRICITY PRICES UP, HE SAID, RAISING FUEL OIL PRICES WILL CREATE DISILLUSIONMENT AND SOCIAL UNREST. ULTIMATELY, HE SAID, THE IMF MIGHT BE BLAMED.

27. (C) THE PRESIDENT SAID HIS CONVERSATION WITH FISCHER HAD BEEN OPEN AND WIDE-RANGING. THERE WERE NO DIFFERENCES OR MISUNDERSTANDINGS. THERE WAS FULL AGREEMENT TO CARRY OUT THE PROGRAM. THE QUESTION WAS TIMING SO AS TO PRODUCE THE MOST FRUITFUL RESULTS AND TO ENSURE STABILITY. THE ARMED FORCES WERE UNITED AND COHESIVE, ALTHOUGH ATTEMPTS WERE BEING MADE TO INFILTRATE AND SPLIT THEM. MEMBERS OF ARMED FORCES WERE AWARE OF THE PLIGHT OF THE PEOPLE. THEIR OWN NEEDS WERE NOT BEING GIVEN DUE PRIORITY BECAUSE OF DEVELOPMENT PRIORITIES. BUDGET ITEMS THAT REQUIRED USD FINANCING HAD BEEN SCRAPPED. BECAUSE OF THE CURRENT CRISIS AND THE NEED FOR DOLLARS, THE ARMED FORCES HAD THEMSELVES DECIDED TO POSTPONE PURCHASES. WE FACE DIFFICULTIES, THE PRESIDENT SAID, BUT WE ARE CONVINCED WE CAN OVERCOME THEM. THIS COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED EVEN BETTER WITH SUPPORT FROM FRIENDLY COUNTRIES.

28. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ASKED DEPSEC SUMMERS TO REPORT TO PRESIDENT CLINTON ON HIS RETURN THAT THE RUSH OF PEOPLE TO BUY COMMODITIES SUFFICIENT FOR WEEKS OR EVEN MONTHS HAD LASTED ONE DAY ONLY. HE EXPLAINED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS COMMITTED TO PROVIDING BASIC

COMMODITIES. STOCKS WERE MORE THAN ADEQUATE. BASIC COMMODITIES WERE MANAGED BY BULOG, WHICH HAD THE ATTRIBUTES OF A MONOPOLY. IN ACTUALITY, BULOG WAS AN INSTRUMENT TO STABILIZE THE PRICES OF BASIC COMMODITIES. NOW JUST TWO REMAINED: SUGAR AND RICE. BULOG PROTECTED CONSUMERS AND PRODUCERS BY SETTING CEILING AND FLOOR PRICES. IF THE PRICE WAS BELOW THE BULOG PRICE, BULOG BOUGHT. IF THE PRICE ROSE ABOVE THE CEILING, THE GOVERNMENT RELEASED GOODS FROM STOCKS. RICE WAS AN IMPORTANT COMMODITY, AND FLUCTUATIONS IN THE RICE PRICE AFFECTED OTHER COMMODITIES AND COULD DESTABILIZE THE NATION. BECAUSE OF THIS, HE SAID, RICE PRICES COULD NOT BE LEFT TO MARKET FORCES.

29. (C) CONTINUING, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID IT WAS EASIER TO CONTROL SUCH MATTERS IN A PLACE LIKE SINGAPORE. BUT INDONESIA WAS A VAST ARCHIPELAGO WITH OVER 17,000 ISLANDS AND CONSISTING TWO-THIRDS OF WATER. WHEN WAVES WERE HIGH, IT WAS DIFFICULT TO DISTRIBUTE

RICE, AND THE COSTS WERE HIGH. WHAT PRIVATE COMPANY WOULD BE WILLING TO DO WHAT BULOG DID? SO, BULOG WAS NEEDED TO ENSURE SUFFICIENT RICE WAS DELIVERED TO LOCAL PEOPLE BEFORE BIG WAVES MADE THIS DIFFICULT. IT HAD LOCAL DEPOTS FOR THIS PURPOSE. THE BULOG APPROACH WAS BASED ON MILITARY LOGISTICS CONCEPTS. MANY OPPOSED THE USE OF MILITARY JARGON, SO THE WORD "COMMAND" WAS CHANGED TO "AGENCY" (BADAN). THE PURPOSE WAS THE SAME. IT WAS NOT SO MUCH A MONOPOLY AS A MEANS OF SERVING STATE INTERESTS, AS PROVIDED FOR IN THE CONSTITUTION

(NOTE: A PRESUMED REFERENCE TO ARTICLE 33 (2) OF THE CONSTITUTION, WHICH PROVIDES THAT "BRANCHES OF PRODUCTION WHICH ARE IMPORTANT FOR THE STATE AND WHICH AFFECT THE LIFE OF MOST PEOPLE SHALL BE CONTROLLED BY THE STATE). PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WOUND UP HIS PRESENTATION WITH THE HOPE THIS WOULD PROVIDE A BETTER PICTURE OF CONDITIONS IN INDONESIA.

30. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS THANKED THE PRESIDENT FOR HIS EXPLANATION OF THE INDONESIAN PERSPECTIVE. HE EXPLAINED THAT HE HAD BEEN SENT BY PRESIDENT CLINTON, WHO HAD ENORMOUS RESPECT FOR PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S ACHIEVEMENTS

OVER THE PAST THIRTY YEARS IN AREAS SUCH AS ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, POVERTY REDUCTION, AND THE BUILDING OF A BETTER LIFE FOR INDONESIA'S CHILDREN. SUMMERS RECALLED HIS EARLIER EXPERIENCE WORKING WITH DR. WIDJOJO AND ALI WARDHANA 20 YEARS AGO, DURING WHICH HE HAD SEEN FIRST HAND THE COUNTRY'S REMARKABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS. PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD BEEN PROFOUNDLY IMPRESSED BY PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S DESCRIPTION OF INDONESIA'S PROGRESS DURING THEIR MEETING AT THE APEC SUMMIT IN 1994. HE AND HIS DELEGATION WERE HERE AS A REFLECTION OF PRESIDENT CLINTON'S STRONG FEELING FOR PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AND OF THE UNITED STATES FOR INDONESIA. IF HE SPOKE FRANKLY, IT WAS BECAUSE OF PRESIDENT CLINTON'S GREAT RESPECT FOR PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS.

31. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS SAID HE BELIEVED THAT INDONESIA FACED A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE. ECONOMISTS WOULD LONG STUDY HOW IT STARTED AND WHY IT HAPPENED. THESE ISSUES DID NOT MATTER RIGHT NOW. WHAT MATTERED WAS RESTORING

CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH AND IN THE BANKING SYSTEM. THE SITUATION WAS FRAGILE. IF THE PROBLEM COULD BE SOLVED WITH MORE IMF OR U.S. MONEY, WE WOULD PROVIDE IT. IF IT COULD BE SOLVED BY CALLING UPON A BANK TO EXTEND CREDIT, WE WOULD DO IT.

32. (C) BUT IN THE JUDGMENT OF THOSE WHO HAD STUDIED THE PROBLEM, SUMMERS SAID, THE ONLY SOLUTION LAY IN THE STEPS PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WAS PREPARED TO TAKE. THE PROBLEMS NEED TO BE ADDRESSED VERY QUICKLY. THERE WAS LESS CONFIDENCE TODAY THAN ONE MONTH AGO. THINGS HAVE BEEN A LITTLE BETTER IN THE PAST FEW DAYS BECAUSE PEOPLE THOUGHT THERE WOULD BE DRAMATIC CHANGES AS A RESULT OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S DISCUSSIONS WITH THE IMF, PRESIDENT CLINTON, AND OTHERS. OTHERWISE, THE CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE WOULD OCCUR AGAIN.

33. (C) SUMMERS RECALLED THAT PRESIDENT ZEDILLO OF MEXICO HAD TOLD PRESIDENT CLINTON ABOUT THE LESSONS HE HAD LEARNED FROM MEXICO'S RECENT CRISIS. FIRST, WHEN MARKETS OVER-REACTED, POLICIES HAD TO OVER-REACT IN

RETURN. TO REGAIN CONFIDENCE, ONE HAD TO REACT DRAMATICALLY AND QUICKLY. OTHERWISE, THE SITUATION WOULD BECOME CHAOTIC. JUST AS INDONESIA HAD BEEN TESTED WHEN OIL PRICES FELL AND AT OTHER TIMES, SO TODAY IT FACED A PROFOUND TEST. IF THE PRESIDENT ACTED PROMPTLY AND STRONGLY, THIS WOULD PROVIDE THE BEST CHANCE OF PRESERVING HIS LEGACY OF THIRTY YEARS AND PROJECTING IT INTO THE FUTURE SO THAT ALL OF INDONESIA'S MANY VILLAGES COULD BE MODERNIZED.

34. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS STRESSED THAT IN PRESIDENT CLINTON'S PERSPECTIVE, THERE WERE FOUR CRITICAL THINGS THAT THE UNITED STATES FELT IT WAS IMPORTANT FOR INDONESIA TO DO:

-- ADDRESS A SET OF PARTICULAR ECONOMIC ISSUES THAT HAD GREATER SYMBOLIC THAN ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE. THIS INCLUDED THE NATIONAL CAR, THE NATIONAL AIRPLANE, CERTAIN POWER PROJECTS, AND CERTAIN BANKS THAT HAD BEEN CLOSED AND REOPENED IN A CERTAIN WAY. RIGHTLY OR WRONGLY, THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY FELT THERE NEEDED TO BE A CLEAR UNDERSTANDING ON THESE SYMBOLIC ACTS THAT HAD CREATED CONCERN OVER THE PAST TWO MONTHS. HE RESPECTED THE PRESIDENT'S EXPLANATION ABOUT BULOG, BUT THERE WAS AN IMPORTANT QUESTION ABOUT REPLACING IMPORT MONOPOLIES WITH DISTRIBUTION MONOPOLIES.

-- IMPLEMENT MEASURES TO RESTORE THE RUPIAH'S CREDIBILITY. HIGH INTEREST RATES WERE PAINFUL FOR

BUSINESSES AND BANKS, BUT AS LONG AS MONEY WAS TOO FREELY AVAILABLE, THE VALUE OF THE RUPIAH WOULD GO DOWN. IT WAS NO USE TO BLAME SPECULATORS. THEY WOULD ALWAYS BE THERE. HE HAD HEARD STORIES OF INDONESIANS' CHANGING THEIR RUPIAH INTO DOLLARS AND SENDING THEM TO SINGAPORE. PROSPECTS FOR AVOIDING CHAOS WOULD NOT BE GOOD UNLESS THAT PSYCHOLOGY WAS CHANGED. INDONESIA NEEDED A MONETARY POLICY WITH A STABLE VALUE FOR THE CURRENCY AND THAT ACCEPTED THE PROBLEMS THAT POLICY WOULD BRING. THERE HAD TO BE CONFIDENCE IN THE CURRENCY. INDONESIA

HAD SHOWN OVER THE YEARS THAT THE MORE DETERMINATION YOU DEMONSTRATED, THE SHORTER THE TIME NEEDED FOR PEOPLE TO BELIEVE. TO BE STRONG, THE CURRENCY HAD TO BE BACKED BY A TIGHT MONEY POLICY AND A BUDGET BASED ON CREDIBLE AND TRANSPARENT ASSUMPTIONS. THE BUDGET PRESENTED HAD CAUSED CONCERN. IT WAS IMPORTANT FOR INDONESIA TO SHOW THAT THERE WOULD BE AN APPROPRIATE BUDGET.

-- RESTORE A STRONG BANKING SYSTEM. PRESIDENT CLINTON SAW THIS AS IMPORTANT. IT WAS IMPERATIVE FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO ACT DECISIVELY TO ASSURE THAT DEPOSITORS IN INDONESIAN BANKS WOULD GET THE FULL VALUE OF THEIR DEPOSITS, THAT RUPIAH DEPOSITS WOULD BE REPAID IN FULL. IT WAS ALSO NECESSARY TO RECOGNIZE THAT THOSE WHO HAD NOT RUN BANKS WELL MUST ACCEPT THE CONSEQUENCES. THIS WAS NOT A QUESTION OF WHAT THE IMF OR THE UNITED STATES WANTED; IT WAS A QUESTION OF MARKET CONFIDENCE. ABSOLUTE DEPOSIT PROTECTION WAS NEEDED. A GOOD CURRENCY WILL BE BASED ON TIGHT MONETARY POLICY.

-- BUILD THE CREDIBILITY OF INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC POLICY. THIS WAS A DIFFERENT KIND OF ISSUE. THERE WAS A SAYING IN THE MARKETS THAT IT CAN TAKE TWENTY YEARS TO BUILD A REPUTATION AND ONE WEEK TO DESTROY IT. CREDIBILITY IS RENTED, IT CANNOT BE OWNED. INDONESIA NOW FACED A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE AFTER A REMARKABLE THIRTY YEARS. THREE STEPS WERE OF CRITICAL IMPORTANCE: FIRST, PRESIDENT CLINTON BELIEVED THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO MUST BE SEEN PERSONALLY AS TAKING CHARGE OF THE ECONOMIC POLICY PROCESS, AS PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD DONE WITH THE U.S. BUDGET IN 1993, THUS LAYING THE BASIS FOR LATER

CONFIDENTIAL

ECONOMIC SUCCESS. SECOND, TRANSPARENCY WAS NEEDED. THE AGREEMENT WITH THE IMF NEEDED TO BE MADE PUBLIC SO THERE WOULD BE NO MISUNDERSTANDING AND SO THE WORLD COULD SEE INDONESIA WAS KEEPING ITS WORD ON THE IMF PROGRAM. THIRD, POLICY PRESENTATION NEEDED TO BE MORE EFFECTIVE. PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD MADE THE POINT THAT THERE NEEDED TO BE AN ECONOMIC TEAM, UNDER PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S LEADERSHIP, WITH ONE OR TWO CAPTAINS WHO COULD INTERACT WITH THE MARKETS AND BE SEEN AS STRONG AND CREDIBLE. TREASURY SECRETARY RUPEN SERVED AS SUCH A CAPTAIN IN THE UNITED STATES. THERE SHOULD BE ONE OR TWO PERSONS OTHER THAN PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WHO WERE TRUSTED IMPLEMENTORS OF POLICY.

35. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS STRESSED THAT IF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO COULD AGREE ON GOING FORWARD WITH SUCH A PROGRAM IN HIS MEETING WITH CAMDESSUS, IT QFER A STRONG CHANCE OF REGAINING THE CONFIDENCE THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S REMARKABLE RECORD ENTITLED HIM TO. FROM PRESIDENT CLINTON'S PERSPECTIVE, THIS WAS A MOMENT OF GREAT CONCERN BECAUSE OF WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN THE REGION. RAPID, BOLD ACTION WOULD BE WHAT MARKETS TESTED INDONESIA BY. PRESIDENT CLINTON CONVEYED HIS GREAT RESPECT. THESE STRONG STATEMENTS REFLECTED THE URGENCY OF THE NEED TO GET INDONESIA'S ECONOMY OUT OF THE INTENSIVE CARE UNIT.

36. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO EXPRESSED THANKS FOR THIS COUNSEL AND ADVICE ON THE PART OF PRESIDENT CLINTON. HE WOULD CONSIDER CAREFULLY THE SUGGESTED MEASURES, INCLUDING THE SYMBOLIC ACTS THAT THE WORLD CONSIDERED

CONFIDENTIAL

NECESSARY. IN FACT, THE GOVERNMENT HAD ALREADY TAKEN SOME STEPS WITH RESPECT TO VARIOUS MEGA-PROJECTS, SUCH AS POWER PROJECTS. OTHER MEASURES WOULD ALSO BE TAKEN IN ACCORD WITH INDONESIA'S CIRCUMSTANCES. THERE WERE QUESTIONS OF TIMING INVOLVING, BUT WE WERE IN ACCORD ON BASIC PRINCIPLES. HE ASKED THAT HIS WARM GREETINGS BE CONVEYED TO PRESIDENT CLINTON.

37. (C) IN CLOSING, DEPSEC SUMMERS EMPHASIZED THAT PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS VERY ENGAGED IN FOLLOWING THE SITUATION IN INDONESIA. AS PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ACTED, PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS WILLING TO BE SUPPORTIVE. HE BELIEVED THAT ACTIONS OVER THE NEXT TWO TO THREE WEEKS, INDEED DURING THIS WEEK, WOULD HAVE A GREAT DEAL OF INFLUENCE ON WHETHER CONFIDENCE RETURNED. HE URGED THAT RESTORING CONFIDENCE BE THE TOP PRIORITY. PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS WATCHING CLOSELY AND WANTED TO HELP.

38. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID THAT HE HAD ASSIGNED

2. (C) SUMMARY. TREASURY DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS MET WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO FOR NINETY MINUTES ON JANUARY 13 TO DISCUSS THE CURRENT STATE OF INDONESIA'S ECONOMY AND THE STEPS IT IS TAKING TO RESOLVE THE CURRENT CRISIS. SOEHARTO RECOUNTED INDONESIA'S 30 YEAR HISTORY OF ELIMINATING POVERTY AND EXPRESSED DEEP CONCERN THAT THE MONETARY TURMOIL WAS NOW HINDERING EFFORTS TO IMPROVE INDONESIA'S STANDARD OF LIVING. ACCORDING TO SOEHARTO, THE CURRENT CRISIS WAS SET OFF BY SPECULATORS AND EXACERBATED BY RUMORS. HIS OWN ILLNESS WORSENED THE SITUATION AND CREATED A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH. INITIALLY INDONESIA ATTEMPTED DIRECT INTERVENTION TO PROTECT ITS CURRENCY, BUT AS THAT STRATEGY FAILED, THE COUNTRY ATTEMPTED OTHER REMEDIES WHICH WERE INSUFFICIENT TO SOLVE THE CRISIS.

3. (C) BECAUSE OF WEAKNESS OF THE DOMESTIC BANKING SECTOR, INDONESIA PLANS TO CONSOLIDATE STATE-OWNED BANKS AND HAS ENCOURAGED PRIVATE BANKS TO MERGE. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ELABORATED ON THE DIFFERENCES IN THE KOREAN CASE WHERE WEAKNESS RESULTS FROM LOANS TO PRIVATE BANKS AND THE INDONESIAN CASE WHERE PROBLEM LOANS COME FROM PRIVATE CORPORATIONS. THE PRESIDENT INDICATED THAT INDONEIA COULD CONTINUE TO SERVICE ITS NATIONAL DEBT AND FELT THAT IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT BANKS WHICH GAVE LOANS TO THE PRIVATE SECTOR RECOGNIZE THAT THEY ARE PARTLY TO BLAME FOR THE CURRENT FIASCO.

4. (C) INDONESIA AND THE IMF, THE PRESIDENT SAID, ARE IN FULL AGREEMENT. THE ONLY ISSUE IS TIMING. SOEHARTO GAVE STRONG ASSURANCES THAT HE IS COMMITTED TO CUTTING FUEL SUBSIDIES IN A WAY THAT WILL AVOID CREATING SOCIAL UNREST. BULOG MONOPOLIES, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED, WILL REMAIN INTACT, AT LEAST FOR SUGAR AND RICE, BECAUSE RICE PRICES ARE TOO IMPORTANT TO BE LEFT TO MARKET FORCES.

5. (C) DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA SUFFERS FROM A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE

RUPIAH AND THE BANKING SYSTEM. TO SOLVE THAT CRISIS, INDONESIA SHOULD LEARN FROM MEXICO'S EXPERIENCE BY ACTING STRONGLY AND QUICKLY. SPECIFICALLY, SUMMERS EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA MUST BUILD CREDIBILITY BY CANCELING THE NATIONAL CAR AND AIRPLANE AND OTHER INVIABLE PROJECTS AND TO ELIMINATE CERTAIN MONOPOLIES. TO STRENGTHEN THE CURRENCY, A REALISTIC BUDGET, BASED ON CREDIBLE AND TRANSPARENT ASSUMPTIONS, AND A STRONG BANKING SYSTEM WOULD BE NEEDED. RENEWED CONFIDENCE IN INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC POLICY WAS NEEDED, SUMMERS CONTINUED. ACCORDINGLY, HE SAID, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO MUST BE SEEN AS PERSONALLY LEADING EFFORTS TO ELIMINATE THE CURRENT CRISIS. OTHER IMPORTANT STEPS SUCH AS INCREASING TRANSPARENCY AND EFFECTIVELY PRESENTING POLICY TO MARKETS AND THE PUBLIC ARE ALSO ESSENTIAL IF INDONESIA IS RAPIDLY TO REBUILD THE CONFIDENCE THAT ITS POLICY PROCESS, CURRENCY, AND BANKING SYSTEM NEEDS. END SUMMARY.

6. (U) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AND TREASURY DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS MET FOR NINETY MINUTES ON JANUARY 13.

PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WAS ACCOMPANIED BY SENIOR ECONOMIC ADVISOR DR. WIDJOJO NITISASTRO. EAP ASSISTANT SECRETARY STANLEY ROTH AND AMBASSADOR ROY PARTICIPATED IN THE MEETING ON THE U.S. SIDE.

7. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO OPENED THE MEETING BY WARMLY WELCOMING DEPUTY SECRETARY SUMMERS TO INDONESIA. HE EXPRESSED HIS GREAT APPRECIATION FOR PRESIDENT CLINTON'S DECISION TO SEND THE DEPUTY SECRETARY AS HIS SPECIAL ENVOY TO THE REGION, AS HAD BEEN DISCUSSED DURING THE TWO PRESIDENTS' JANUARY 8 TELEPHONE CALL. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID HE BELIEVED THAT, AT THE PRESENT JUNCTURE, THE VISIT WAS VERY CRUCIAL AND BENEFICIAL TO INDONESIA'S OVERCOMING ITS FINANCIAL TURMOIL.

8. (SBU) THE TURMOIL IS NOT JUST AFFECTING INDONESIA, HE SAID, BUT OTHER COUNTRIES TOO. NOTING THAT THE DEPUTY SECRETARY HAD DISCUSSED THE CURRENT FINANCIAL SITUATION WITH DR. WIDJOJO, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO PROVIDED

A DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE BACKGROUND OF INDONESIA'S 52 YEARS AS AN INDEPENDENT COUNTRY. AFTER REVIEWING THE POST WORLD WAR II EVENTS WHICH CULMINATED IN INDEPENDENCE, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO DESCRIBED THE CHAOS AND HARDSHIP WHICH LED TO THE 1965 REBELLION AND ULTIMATELY TO THE NEW ORDER GOVERNMENT. THE THREE LINKED GOALS OF THE NEW ORDER'S DEVELOPMENT TRILOGY ARE STABILITY, ECONOMIC GROWTH, AND EQUITABLE DISTRIBUTION; THESE ARE IMPLEMENTED THROUGH THE FIVE-YEAR DEVELOPMENT PLANS AND ENSHRINED IN THE BROAD OUTLINES OF STATE POLICY APPROVED BY THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR), THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED.

9. (C) THE RESULTS OF THE FIRST 25-YEAR LONG-TERM DEVELOPMENT PLAN WERE ENCOURAGING. INDONESIA HAS ESTABLISHED THE FOUNDATION FOR DEVELOPMENT IN ALL SECTORS. INDICATORS OF HOW SOLID DEVELOPMENT HAD BEEN INCLUDED A 7 PERCENT AVERAGE GROWTH RATE, INFLATION REDUCTION FROM OVER 650 PERCENT IN 1969 TO SINGLE DIGIT LEVELS, 1996 PER CAPITA GDP OF USD 1115, EXPORT GROWTH TO ABOUT USD 50 BILLION/YEAR, SELF-SUFFICIENCY IN RICE, EXTENSIONOF COMPULSORY EDUCATION FROM SIX TO NINE YEAR, AND PROGRESS IN HEALTH SERVICES. THE PRESIDENT PROVIDED DETAILED STATISTICS ON PROGRESS IN POVERTY ALLEVIATION AND THE IMPROVEMENTS IN INDONESIA'S 66,000 VILLAGES.

10. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO EXPRESSED CONCERN THAT THE MONETARY TURMOIL WAS DEEPLY AFFECTING EFFORTS TO ERADICATE POVERTY AND RAISE LIVING STANDARDS. HE SAID THAT SOUTHEAST ASIA'S MONETARY TURMOIL HAD BEEN SPARKED BY FOREIGN CURRENCY TRADING, SPECULATORS AND GAMBLERS. HE NOTED FURTHER FACTORS SUCH AS FOREIGN BANKS'

COLLUDING WITH SPECULATORS, AND SPREADING POLITICAL

RUMORS. THE FINAL BLOW WAS SOEHARTO'S ILLNESS. RUMORS ABOUT THE ILLNESS LED TO A WEAKENED RUPIAH, FIRST BECAUSE OF SPECULATORS AND THEN BECAUSE LOCAL COMPANIES THAT HAD INCURRED SHORT-TERM DEBT FOR LONG-TERM PROJECTS RUSHED TO BUY DOLLARS NEEDED TO PAY MATURING LOANS. THIS RUSH WEAKENED THE RUPIAH FURTHER AND CAUSED PEOPLE TO FEAR FOR THE VALUE OF THE RUPIAH. THE RESULT WAS A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH.

11. (C) FIRST, THE PRESIDENT SAID, THE GOI TRIED INTERVENTION TO PREVENT FURTHERING WEAKENING F THE CURRENCY, BUT BECAUSE OF THE STRENGTH O FORCES PUSHING THE RUPIAH OWWARD, INTERVENTION PROVED USELESS AND THE RUPIAH CONTINUED TO WEAKEN. IF FOREIGN EXCHANGE WAS EXHAUSTED, HE SAID, THE COUNTRY COULD NOT IMPORT ITEMS NEEDED FOR BASIC INDUSTRY, RESULTING IN LAY OFFS AND UNEMPLOYMENT. THIS SITUATION MADE INDONESIA TRY TO CONTROL THE QUANTITY OF RUPIAH IN CIRCULATION WITH A TIGHT MONEY POLICY. RUPIAH WERE WITHDRAW FROM PENSION AND SOCIAL SECURITY FUNDS TO PREVENT THEIRBEING USED FOR SPECULATION. THE RESULTS WERENOT ENCOURAGING, AND IT TURNED OUT THIS WAS NOT A GOOD IDEA.

12. (C) AS THE CRISIS PROEEDED, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED, ASSETS WERE WITHDRAWN FROM BANKS, CAUSING A LIQUIDITY CRUNCH AND MAKING BANKS BECOME INSOLVENT. THEY ENCOURAGED DEPOSITS WITH HIGH INTEREST RATES, THAT ALSO AFFECTED PRIVATE COMPANIES. RUPIAH ONLY CIRCULATED WITHIN THE BANKING SYSTEM RATHER THAN THROUGH CREDIT LINES TO COMPANIES, WHICH WERE FORCED TO LAY OFF WORKERS.

13. (C) THE GOVERNMENT NEXT ATTEMPTED TO CARRY OUT REFORMS TO BOOST EXPORTS. SINCE STATE REVENUES DECLINED, THE GOVERNMENT HALTED LARGE PROJECTS. THE GOVERNMENT ALSO REFORMED STATE ASSETS, HE SAID, SO STATE-OWNED COMPANIES COULD BE PRIVATIZED AS A SOURCE OF CAPITAL. INDONESIA HAS, THE PRESIDENT SAID, 160 STATE-OWNED ENTERPRISES OF WHICH 100 WERE HEALTHY. THESE HEALTHY COMPANIES COULD BE PRIVATIZED.

14. (C) THE PRESIDENT ACKNOWLEDGED THE WEAKNESS OF CONTROL AND SUPERVISION IN THE DOMESTIC BANKING SYSTEM AND THE FAILURE TO ENFORCE RULESCONTROLLING PRIVATE SECTOR BORROWING, RESULTING IN AN ACCUMULATION OF SHORT-TERM DEBT THAT COULD NOT BE REPAID. TO STRENGTHEN THE BANKING SECTOR, HE SAID, THE GOVERNMENT ENCOURAGED CONSOLIDATION THROUGH MERGERS AND TOOK THE INITIATIVE BY ANNOUNCING A PLAN TO MERGE FOUR OF THE SEVEN STATE-OWNED BANKS OF WHICH TWO WERE HEALTHY AND TO REFORM THE CENTRAL BANK. THE GOI ALSO HOPED TO THAT THE NUMBER OF PRIVATE BANKS, NOW ABOUT 240, WOULD BE REDUCED. THE PRESIDENT NOTED THAT INDONESIA HISTORICALLY HAD STRICT

RULES GOVERNING THE CREATION OF NEW BANKS. IN THE INTEREST OF EQUITY, THOUGH, THE REGULATIONS WERE MODIFIED TO ALLOW MORE BANKS TO FORM. THE NUMBER OF NEW BANKS MUSHROOMED BEYOND CONTROL AND EXCEEDED THE NUMBER NEEDED. DURING THE PRESENT CRISIS, HE SAID, THE GOVERNMENT LIQUIDATED SOME BANKS WHICH WERE NOT SOLVENT, BUT THIS CREATED OTHER PROBLEMS, SO THE GOVERNMENT IS NOW ADVISING BANKS TO MERGE THEMSELVES. IF THE BANKS CANNOT MERGE AND MEET REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS, THEY WILL BE LIQUIDATED. ONCE BANKS ARE HEALTHY AND SOLVENT, THEY WILL BE ENCOURAGED TO FIND FOREIGN PARTNERS TO HELP WITH CONSOLIDATION.

15. (C) IN SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, IT IS IMPORTANT TO CARRY OUT DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS, ESPECIALLY THOSE TARGETING POVERTY ALLEVIATION, BY PROVIDING AID FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT AND FINANCIAL AID TO VILLAGES. STARTING 32 YEARS AGO WITH RP 100,000 PER VILLAGE, TEN DOLLARS AT TODAY'S EXCHANGE RATE, THE PRESIDENT RECOUNTED, THE GOI HAS ENCOURAGED THE DEVELOPMENT OF RURAL AREAS. NOW, RP 6.5 MILLION ARE GIVEN TO EACH OF THE COUNTRY'S 66,000 VILLAGES. TWO-THIRDS OF THESE VILLAGES CAN BE CLASSIFIED AS DEVELOPED; ONLY ONE-THIRD ARE CLASSIFIED AS LEAST DEVELOPED. TO ASSIST THESE ESPECIALLY POOR VILLAGES, SOEHARTO EXPLAINED THAT THE GOVERNMENT PROVIDES ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE: EACH VILLAGE CLASSIFIED AS LEAST DEVELOPED RECEIVES RP 20 MILLION PER YEAR FOR 3 YEARS, TOTALING RP 60 MILLION PER VILLAGE, AS REVOLVING CAPITAL FOR DEVELOPMENT. THE PRESIDENT ADDED THAT THE LEAST DEVELOPED VILLAGES ARE NOT THE ONLY PLACES WHERE PEOPLE LIVE BELOW THE POVERTY LINE, 11.5 MILLION ARE PRESENT IN DEVELOPED VILLAGES AS WELL.

16. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA HAS MANY PROGRAMS TO REDUCE POVERTY. THOSE INCLUDED FAMILY PLANNING TO ENSURE THAT CHILDREN COULD GET AN EDUCATION AND THAT FAMILIES COULD MEET THE BASIC NEEDS OF THEIR CHILDREN. THERE WERE ALSO PROGRAMS TARGETING WOMEN. WOMEN AND MOTHERS, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED, FREQUENTLY HAD SIDE BUSINESSES TO AUGMENT INCOME. THE GOVERNMENT TRAINED THEM IN HANDICRAFTS, FARMING, SEWING AND OTHER TRADES SO THAT THEIR PRODUCTS COULD BE SOLD TO SUPERMARKETS IN BIG CITIES.

17. (C) THE GOVERNMENT HAD TRIED TO ENCOURAGE HOUSEHOLDS TO SAVE MONEY, SOEHARTO EXPLAINED. RP 2,000 WAS THE MINIMUM AMOUNT REQUIRED TO OPEN A BANK ACCOUNT. RP 2,000 WAS NOT SO MUCH MONEY, THE PRESIDENT SAID, SO

THE GOI APPEALED TO BIG BUSINESS TO INVEST. SO FAR, RP 23 BILLION HAD BEEN COLLECTED TO HELP THE 11.5 MILLION BELOW THE POVERTY LINE IN THE DEVELOPED VILLAGES. BY SAVING RP 2,000, PEOPLE COULD BORROW 10 TIMES THAT AMOUNT, OR RP 20,000. ONCE THIS MONEY WAS REPAID, THE BORROWER HAD TO PUT ASIDE RP 2,000 MORE FOR A TOTAL OF RP 4,000. THEN, WITH RP 4,000 IN THE BANK, RP 40,000 COULD BE BORROWED. THE CYCLE WAS REPEATED AND THE CAPITAL REVOLVED. WHAT WAS IMPORTANT IN THIS PROGRAM, THE PRESIDENT SAID, WAS THE DEVELOPMENT OF LOW INTEREST LOANS.

18. (C) ANOTHER INITIATIVE, THE PRESIDENT SAID, WAS

THE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM. COMPANIES WITH AFTER TAX PROFITS ABOVE 100 MILLION RUPIAH PUT ASIDE 2 PERCENT OF THEIR NET PROFIT FOR THE POOR. COMPANIES EARNING BELOW RP 100 MILLION AFTER TAX PROFIT WERE NOT REQUIRED TO CONTRIBUTE. FUNDS COLLECTED IN THIS WAY WERE USED FOR THE PROMOTION OF WHAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO DESCRIBED AS PROSPEROUS FAMILY PROGRAMS, WITH LOANS AVAILABLE AT SIX PERCENT. BY JOINING WITH SMALL TRADERS ELIGIBLE FOR LOW INTEREST LOANS FROM STATE FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS AT 14 PERCENT, THESE GROUPS CAN GET CREDIT AT AN AVERAGE 12 PERCENT.

19. (C) REFERRING TO THE ONGOING CRISIS, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID THAT INDONESIA WAS TRYING TO OVERCOME ITS CURRENT CHALLENGES BY REFORM AND RESTRUCTURING. THE ESSENCE OF THE PROBLEM, HE ADDED, WAS THE SHORTAGE OF U.S. DOLLARS. INDONESIA IS ASSURED OF SOME DOLLARS THROUGH OIL AND GAS EXPORTS BUT MUST BOOST NON OIL/GAS EXPORTS, WHICH HAVE BEEN EARNING USD 3-4 BILLION (PER MONTH). BY PROTECTING THESE REVENUES AND AUGMENTING INCOME FROM PLANTATIONS INDONESIA HOPES TO WEATHER THE STORM.

20. (C) IN THE CONTEXT OF RESTRUCTURING THE BANKING SYSTEM, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED THAT INDONESIA SOUGHT IMF COUNSEL AND WAS ALSO TRYING TO SAVE THE ASSETS OF STATE-OWNED COMPANIES AMOUNTING TO RP 370 TRILLION. AT THE APEC MEETING IN VANCOUVER, THE HEADS OF GOVERNMENT REALIZED THAT DEVELOPING COUNTRIES COULD NOT FACE THE CURRENT CRISIS ALONE. ALL APEC MEMBERS ASKED PRESIDENT CLINTON TO HEAD A TEAM WITH THE IMF TO DEAL WITH THE CURRENCY CRISIS AND TO OVERCOME THE LOSSES INCURRED BY THE PRIVATE SECTOR. IF CREDITORS DID NOT HELP, THE BURDEN WOULD BE MORE THAN THE PRIVATE SECTOR COULD BEAR.

21. (C) THE PRESIDENT EMPHASIZED THAT THE SITUATIONS IN KOREA AND INDONESIA WERE DIFFERENT. IN KOREA, THE BORROWING WHICH LED TO THE CURRENT CRISIS WAS BY PRIVATE BANKS, NOT THE PRIVATE SECTOR. THE CREDITOR BANKS WERE IN JAPAN, EUROPE, AND THE UNITED STATES, AND IT IS IN THEIR INTEREST TO AID FAILING BANKS IN KOREA.

22. (C) IN INDONESIA, THE PRESIDENT EXPLAINED, BORROWERS WERE FROM THE PRIVATE SECTOR, SO THE GOVERNMENT COULD NOT TAKE OVER THE LOANS WHICH TOTAL USD 65 BILLION. STATE BORROWING, HE SAID, TOTALS ONLY 50 BILLION. IN CARRYING OUT DEVELOPMENT, SOEHARTO EXPLAINED, INDONESIA REQUIRED LOANS. THE RESULT OF DEVELOPMENT, THOUGH, WAS THE ABILITY TO REPAY THOSE LOANS SO THAT, OVER THE YEARS, INDONESIA HAS HAD NO DIFFICULTY WITH DEBT SERVICE PAYMENTS. THIS YEAR THE NATIONAL BUDGET EARMARKS 33 TRILLION RUPIAH FOR DEBT SERVICE. AT A RATE OF RP 4,000 TO THE DOLLAR, THIS EQUALS 7.5 BILLION USD.

23. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID HE BELIEVES THAT THE BLAME FOR THE CURRENT CRISIS LIES PARTLY WITH CREDITORS AND PARTLY WITH THE INDONESIAN PRIVATE SECTOR. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO HOPES THAT THE UNITED STATES CAN HELP CREDITORS REALIZE THAT THEY ARE PARTLY TO BLAME FOR THE CURRENT FIASCO.

24. (C) REFERRING TO THE IMF PACKAGE, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID THAT INDONESIA AND THE IMF ARE IN FULL AGREEMENT ON THE REFORMS TO BE CARRIED OUT. THE ONLY QUESTION IS TIMING. A CASE IN POINT IS THAT OF SUBSIDIES. THE GOVERNMENT IS FIRM IN ITS DECISION TO ELIMINATE FUEL OIL SUBSIDIES. IN THE STATE BUDGET, SUBSIDIES FOR FUEL COSTS ARE ALLOTTED AT RP 10 TRILLION. SAVINGS AMOUNT TO RP 15 TRILLION (NOTE: IN GOI BUDGETARY TERMS, SAVINGS REFER TO THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN REVENUES AND CURRENT EXPENDITURES. END NOTE). IF THE GOI REMOVES THE SUBSIDIES AND ADDS THE FUNDS TO SAVINGS, HE SAID, THE RESULT IS RP 25 TRILLION. REMOVING THE SUBSIDIES IS A SINE QUA NON. LOW FUEL PRICES RESULT IN WASTE, DISCOURAGING USE OF ALTERNATE FUELS AND SMUGGLING TO OTHER COUNTRIES. INDONESIA ORIGINALLY PLANNED TO REMOVE SUBSIDIES MONTHS AGO, BUT SEVERAL PROBLEMS INTERVENED -- FIRST WIDE-SPREAD FOREST FIRES, FOLLOWED BY A LONG DROUGHT REDUCING AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTION. THESE CRISES FELL CLOSE TO THE CHRISTMAS, NEW YEAR, AND RAMADAN HOLIDAYS, SO THE GOVERNMENT MUST TAKE CARE IN REMOVING THE SUBSIDIES SO THE RESULT IS NOT BAD PSYCHOLOGICALLY. BECAUSE THE REMOVAL OF SUBSIDIES WILL DRIVE TRANSPORTATION COSTS AND ELECTRICITY PRICES UP, HE SAID, RAISING FUEL OIL PRICES WILL CREATE DISILLUSIONMENT AND SOCIAL UNREST. ULTIMATELY, HE SAID, THE IMF MIGHT BE BLAMED.

25. (C) THE PRESIDENT SAID HIS CONVERSATION WITH IMF

DEPUTY MANAGING DIRECTOR STANELY FISCHER HAD BEEN OPEN AND WIDE-RANGING. THERE WERE NO DIFFERENCES OR MISUNDERSTANDINGS. THERE WAS FULL AGREEMENT TO CARRY OUT THE PROGRAM. THE QUESTION WAS TIMING SO AS TO PRODUCE THE MOST FRUITFUL RESULTS AND TO ENSURE STABILITY. THE ARMED FORCES WERE UNITED AND COHESIVE, ALTHOUGH ATTEMPTS WERE BEING MADE TO INFILTRATE AND SPLIT THEM. MEMBERS OF ARMED FORCES WERE AWARE OF THE PLIGHT OF THE PEOPLE. THEIR OWN NEEDS WERE NOT BEING GIVEN DUE PRIORITY BECAUSE OF DEVELOPMENT PRIORITIES. BUDGET ITEMS THAT REQUIRED USD FINANCING HAD BEEN SCRAPPED. BECAUSE OF THE CURRENT CRISIS AND THE NEED FOR DOLLARS, THE ARMED FORCES HAD THEMSELVES DECIDED TO POSTPONE PURCHASES. WE FACE DIFFICULTIES, THE PRESIDENT SAID, BUT WE ARE CONVINCED WE CAN OVERCOME THEM. THIS COULD BE ACCOMPLISHED EVEN BETTER WITH SUPPORT FROM FRIENDLY COUNTRIES.

26. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ASKED DEPSEC SUMMERS TO REPORT TO PRESIDENT CLINTON ON HIS RETURN THAT THE RUSH OF PEOPLE TO BUY COMMODITIES SUFFICIENT FOR WEEKS OR EVEN MONTHS HAD LASTED ONE DAY ONLY. HE EXPLAINED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS COMMITTED TO PROVIDING BASIC COMMODITIES. STOCKS WERE MORE THAN ADEQUATE. BASIC COMMODITIES WERE MANAGED BY BULOG, WHICH HAD THE ATTRIBUTES OF A MONOPOLY. IN ACTUALITY, BULOG WAS AN INSTRUMENT TO STABILIZE THE PRICES OF BASIC COMMODITIES. NOW JUST TWO COMMODITIES REMAINED UNDER BULOG'S JURISDICTION: SUGAR AND RICE. BULOG PROTECTED CONSUMERS AND PRODUCERS BY SETTING CEILING AND FLOOR PRICES. IF THE PRICE WAS BELOW THE BULOG PRICE, BULOG BOUGHT. IF THE PRICE ROSE ABOVE THE CEILING, THE GOVERNMENT RELEASED GOODS FROM STOCKS. RICE WAS AN IMPORTANT COMMODITY, AND FLUCTUATIONS IN THE RICE PRICEAFFECTED OTHER COMMODITIES AND COULD DESTABILIZE THE NATION. BECAUSE OF THIS, HE SAID, RICE PRICES COULD NOT BE LEFT TO MARKET FORCES.

27. (C) CONTINUING, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID IT WAS EASIER TO CONTROL SUCH MATTERS IN A PLACE LIKE SINGAPORE. BUT INDONESIA WAS A VAST ARCHIPELAGO WITH OVER 17,000 ISLANDS AND CONSISTING TWO-THIRDS OF WATER. WHEN WAVES WERE HIGH, IT WAS DIFFICULT TO DISTRIBUTE RICE, AND THE COSTS WERE HIGH. WHAT PRIVATE COMPANY WOULD BE WILLING TO DO WHAT BULOG DID? SO, BULOG WAS NEEDED TO ENSURE SUFFICIENT RICE WAS DELIVERED TO LOCAL PEOPLE BEFORE STORMY SEAS MADE THIS DIFFICULT. IT HAD

LOCAL DEPOTS FOR THIS PURPOSE. THE BULOG APPROACH WAS BASED ON MILITARY LOGISTICS CONCEPTS. MANY OPPOSED THE USE OF MILITARY JARGON, SO THE WORD "COMMAND" WAS CHANGED TO "AGENCY" (BADAN). THE PURPOSE WAS THE SAME. IT WAS NOT SO MUCH A MONOPOLY AS A MEANS OF SERVING STATE INTERESTS, AS PROVIDED FOR IN THE CONSTITUTION (NOTE: A PRESUMED REFERENCE TO ARTICLE 33 (2) OF THE CONSTITUTION, WHICH PROVIDES THAT "BRANCHES OF PRODUCTION WHICH ARE IMPORTANT FOR THE STATE AND WHICH AFFECT THE LIFE OF MOST PEOPLE SHALL BE CONTROLLED BY THE STATE). PRESIDENT SOEHARTO CONCLUDED HIS PRESENTATION WITH THE HOPE THIS WOULD PROVIDE A BETTER PICTURE OF CONDITIONS IN INDONESIA.

28. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS THANKED THE PRESIDENT FOR HIS EXPLANATION OF THE INDONESIAN PERSPECTIVE. HE EXPLAINED THAT HE HAD BEEN SENT BY PRESIDENT CLINTON, WHO HAD ENORMOUS RESPECT FOR PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S ACHIEVEMENTS OVER THE PAST THIRTY YEARS IN AREAS SUCH AS ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, POVERTY REDUCTION, AND THE BUILDING OF A BETTER LIFE FOR INDONESIA'S CHILDREN. SUMMERS RECALLEDHIS EARLIER EXPERIENCE WORKING WITH DR. WIDJOJO AND ALI WARDHANA 20 YEARS AGO, DURING WHICH HE HAD SEEN FIRST HAND THE COUNTRY'S REMARKABLE ACCOMPLISHMENTS. PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD BEEN PROFOUNDLY IMPRESSED BY PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S DESCRIPTION OF INDONESIA'S PROGRESS

DURING THEIR MEETING AT THE APEC SUMMIT IN 1994. HE AND HIS DELEGATION WERE HERE AS A REFLECTION OF PRESIDENT CLINTON'S STRONG FEELING FOR PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AND OF THE UNITED STATES FOR INDONESIA. IF HE SPOKE FRANKLY, IT WAS BECAUSE OF PRESIDENT CLINTON'S GREAT RESPECT FOR PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS.

29. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS SAID HE BELIEVED THAT INDONESIA FACED A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE. ECONOMISTS WOULD LONG STUDY HOW IT STARTED AND WHY IT HAPPENED. THESE ISSUES DID NOT MATTER RIGHT NOW. WHAT MATTERED WAS RESTORING CONFIDENCE IN THE RUPIAH AND IN THE BANKING SYSTEM. THE SITUATION WAS FRAGILE. IF THE PROBLEM COULD BE SOLVED WITH MORE IMF OR U.S. MONEY, WE WOULD PROVIDE IT. IF IT COULD BE SOLVED BY CALLING UPON A BANK TO EXTEND CREDIT, WE WOULD DO IT.

30. (C) BUT IN THE JUDGMENT OF THOSE WHO HAD STUDIED THE PROBLEM, SUMMERS SAID, THE ONLY SOLUTION LAY IN THE STEPS PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WAS PREPARED TO TAKE. THE PROBLEMS NEED TO BE ADDRESSED VERY QUICKLY. THERE WAS LESS CONFIDENCE TODAY THAN ONE MONTH AGO. THINGS HAVE BEEN A LITTLE BETTER IN THE PAST FEW DAYS BECAUSE PEOPLE THOUGHT THERE WOULD BE DRAMATIC CHANGES AS A RESULT OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S DISCUSSIONS WITH THE IMF, PRESIDENT CLINTON, AND OTHERS. OTHERWISE, THE CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE WOULD OCCUR AGAIN.

PRESIDENT SOEHARTO, JANUARY 13

31. (C) SUMMERS RECALLED THAT PRESIDENT ZEDILLO OF MEXICO HAD TOLD PRESIDENT CLINTON ABOUT THE LESSONS HE HAD LEARNED FROM MEXICO'S RECENT CRISIS. FIRST, WHEN MARKETS OVER-REACTED, POLICIES HAD TO OVER-REACT IN RETURN. TO REGAIN CONFIDENCE, ONE HAD TO REACT DRAMATICALLY AND QUICKLY. OTHERWISE, THE SITUATION WOULD BECOME CHAOTIC. JUST AS INDONESIA HAD BEEN TESTED WHEN OIL PRICES FELL AND AT OTHER TIMES, SO TODAY IT FACED A PROFOUND TEST. IF THE PRESIDENT ACTED PROMPTLY AND STRONGLY, THIS WOULD PROVIDE THE BEST CHANCE OF PRESERVING HIS LEGACY OF THIRTY YEARS AND PROJECTING IT INTO THE FUTURE SO THAT ALL OF INDONESIA'S MANY VILLAGES COULD BE MODERNIZED.

32. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS STRESSED THAT IN PRESIDENT CLINTON'S PERSPECTIVE, THERE WERE FOUR CRITICAL THINGS THAT THE UNITED STATES FELT IT WAS IMPORTANT FOR INDONESIA TO DO:

-- ADDRESS A SET OF PARTICULAR ECONOMIC ISSUES THAT HAD GREATER SYMBOLIC THAN ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE. THIS INCLUDED THE NATIONAL CAR, THE NATIONAL AIRPLANE, CERTAIN POWER PROJECTS, AND CERTAIN BANKS THAT HAD BEEN CLOSED AND REOPENED IN A CERTAIN WAY. RIGHTLY OR WRONGLY, THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY FELT THERE NEEDED TO BE A CLEAR UNDERSTANDING ON THESE SYMBOLIC ACTS THAT HAD CREATED CONCERN OVER THE PAST TWO MONTHS. HE RESPECTED THE PRESIDENT'S EXPLANATION ABOUT BULOG, BUT THERE WAS AN IMPORTANT QUESTION ABOUT REPLACING IMPORT MONOPOLIES WITH DISTRIBUTION MONOPOLIES.

-- IMPLEMENT MEASURES TO RESTORE THE RUPIAH'S CREDIBILITY. HIGH INTEREST RATES WERE PAINFUL FOR BUSINESSES AND BANKS, BUT AS LONG AS MONEY WAS TOO FREELY AVAILABLE, THE VALUE OF THE RUPIAH WOULD GO DOWN.

IT WAS NO USE TO BLAME SPECULATORS. THEY WOULD ALWAYS BE THERE. HE HAD HEARD STORIES OF INDONESIANS' CHANGING THEIR RUPIAH INTO DOLLARS AND SENDING THEM TO SINGAPORE. PROSPECTS FOR AVOIDING CHAOS WOULD NOT BE GOOD UNLESS THAT PSYCHOLOGY WAS CHANGED. INDONESIA NEEDED A MONETARY POLICY WITH A STABLE VALUE FOR THE CURRENCY AND THAT ACCEPTED THE PROBLEMS THAT POLICY WOULD BRING. THERE HAD TO BE CONFIDENCE IN THE CURRENCY. INDONESIA HAD SHOWN OVER THE YEARS THAT THE MORE DETERMINATION YOU DEMONSTRATED, THE SHORTER THE TIME NEEDED FOR PEOPLE TO BELIEVE. TO BE STRONG, THE CURRENCY HAD TO BE BACKED BY A TIGHT MONEY POLICY AND A BUDGET BASED ON CREDIBLE AND TRANSPARENT ASSUMPTIONS. THE BUDGET PRESENTED HAD CAUSED CONCERN. IT WAS IMPORTANT FOR INDONESIA TO SHOW THAT THERE WOULD BE AN APPROPRIATE BUDGET.

-- RESTORE A STRONG BANKING SYSTEM. PRESIDENT CLINTON SAW THIS AS IMPORTANT. IT WAS IMPERATIVE FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO ACT DECISIVELY TO ASSURE THAT DEPOSITORS IN INDONESIAN BANKS WOULD GET THE FULL VALUE OF THEIR DEPOSITS, THAT RUPIAH DEPOSITS WOULD BE REPAID IN FULL. IT WAS ALSO NECESSARY TO RECOGNIZE THAT THOSE WHO HAD NOT RUN BANKS WELL MUST ACCEPT THE CONSEQUENCES. THIS WAS NOT A QUESTION OF WHAT THE IMF OR THE UNITED STATES WANTED; IT WAS A QUESTION OF MARKET CONFIDENCE. ABSOLUTE DEPOSIT PROTECTION WAS NEEDED. A GOOD CURRENCY

WILL BE BASED ON TIGHT MONETARY POLICY.

-- BUILD THE CREDIBILITY OF INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC POLICY. THIS WAS A DIFFERENT KIND OF ISSUE. THERE WAS A SAYING IN THE MARKETS THAT IT CAN TAKE TWENTY YEARS TO BUILD A REPUTATION AND ONE WEEK TO DESTROY IT. CREDIBILITY IS RENTED, IT CANNOT BE OWNED. INDONESIA NOW FACED A CRISIS OF CONFIDENCE AFTER A REMARKABLE THIRTY YEARS. THREE STEPS WERE OF CRITICAL IMPORTANCE: FIRST, PRESIDENT CLINTON BELIEVED THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO MUST BE SEEN PERSONALLY AS TAKING CHARGE OF THE ECONOMIC POLICY PROCESS, AS PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD DONE WITH THE U.S. BUDGET IN 1993, THUS LAYING THE BASIS FOR LATER ECONOMIC SUCCESS. SECOND, TRANSPARENCY WAS NEEDED. THE AGREEMENT WITH THE IMF NEEDED TO BE MADE PUBLIC SO THERE WOULD BE NO MISUNDERSTANDING AND SO THE WORLD COULD SEE INDONESIA WAS KEEPING ITS WORD ON THE IMF PROGRAM. THIRD, POLICY PRESENTATION NEEDED TO BE MORE EFFECTIVE. PRESIDENT CLINTON HAD MADE THE POINT THAT THERE NEEDED TO BE AN ECONOMIC TEAM, UNDER PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S LEADERSHIP, WITH ONE OR TWO CAPTAINS WHO COULD INTERACT WITH THE MARKETS AND BE SEEN AS STRONG AND CREDIBLE.

TREASURY SECRETARY RUBIN SERVED AS SUCH A CAPTAIN IN THE UNITED STATES. THERE SHOULD BE ONE OR TWO PERSONS OTHER THAN PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WHO WERE TRUSTED IMPLEMENTORS OF POLICY.

33. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS STRESSED THAT IF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO COULD AGREE ON GOING FORWARD WITH SUCH A PROGRAM IN HIS MEETING WITH CAMDESSUS, IT WOULD OFFER A STRONG CHANCE OF REGAINING THE CONFIDENCE THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S REMARKABLE RECORD ENTITLED HIM TO. FROM PRESIDENT CLINTON'S PERSPECTIVE, THIS WAS A MOMENT OF GREAT CONCERN BECAUSE OF WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN THE REGION. RAPID, BOLD ACTION WOULD BE WHAT MARKETS TESTED INDONESIA BY. PRESIDENT CLINTON CONVEYED HIS GREAT RESPECT. THESE STRONG STATEMENTS REFLECTED THE URGENCY OF THE NEED TO GET INDONESIA'S ECONOMY OUT OF THE INTENSIVE CARE UNIT.

34. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO EXPRESSED THANKS FOR THIS COUNSEL AND ADVICE ON THE PART OF PRESIDENT CLINTON. HE WOULD CONSIDER CAREFULLY THE SUGGESTED MEASURES, INCLUDING THE SYMBOLIC ACTS THAT THE WORLD CONSIDERED NECESSARY. IN FACT, THE GOVERNMENT HAD ALREADY TAKEN SOME STEPS WITH RESPECT TO VARIOUS MEGA-PROJECTS, SUCH AS POWER PROJECTS. OTHER MEASURES WOULD ALSO BE TAKEN

IN ACCORD WITH INDONESIA'S CIRCUMSTANCES. THERE WEREQUESTIONS OF TIMING INVOLVING, BUT WE WERE IN ACCORD ON BASIC PRINCIPLES. HE ASKED THAT HIS WARM GREETINGS BE CONVEYED TO PRESIDENT CLINTON.

35. (C) IN CLOSING, DEPSEC SUMMERS EMPHASIZED THAT

PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS VERY ENGAGED IN FOLLOWING THE SITUATION IN INDONESIA. AS PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ACTED, PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS WILLING TO BE SUPPORTIVE. HE BELIEVED THAT ACTIONS OVER THE NEXT TWO TO THREE WEEKS, INDEED DURING THIS WEEK, WOULD HAVE A GREAT DEAL OF INFLUENCE ON WHETHER CONFIDENCE RETURNED. HE URGED THAT RESTORING CONFIDENCE BE THE TOP PRIORITY. PRESIDENT CLINTON WAS WATCHING CLOSELY AND WANTED TO HELP.

36. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID THAT HE HAD ASSIGNED PROFESSOR WIDJOJO TO COORDINATE MEETINGS IN JAKARTA. ON SOME OCCASIONS, HE WOULD TAKE ACTION HIMSELF, BUT SOMETIMES THIS CREATED THE IMPRESSION THAT HE DID NOT TRUST HIS ASSISTANTS. IN FACT, THE CURRENT CABINET ONLY HAD ONE A HALF MORE MONTHS IN OFFICE. ON MARCH 1 THE PROCESS WOULD BEGIN OF SELECTING A NEW PRESIDENT AND CABINET. IT WAS CONSTITUTIONALLY DIFFICULT TO DO ANYTHING BEFORE THEN. BEING A FREEDOM FIGHTER, HE WOULD NOT HESITATE TO TAKE WHATEVER STEPS WERE NECESSARY TO SERVE THE COUNTRY.

37. (C) DEPSEC SUMMERS NOTED THAT THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY HAD GREAT RESPECT FOR PROFESSOR WIDJOJO. HIS ROLE, UNDER PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S GUIDANCE, WOULD BE AN IMPORTANT STEP IN RESTORING CONFIDENCE. ROY

JAKARTA, Nov 29 (Reuters) - A drought-related famine in Indonesia's Irian Jaya province will cause thousands of deaths if emergency food supplies do not arrive soon, an International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) delegate said on Saturday.

Speaking from the town of Timika, ICRC doctor Ferenc Myer told Reuters local people would be at risk from crop failure for up to six months, [illegible]ttered rains have started to fall in the province,

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

After visiting a number of highland villages in the Mimika and Jayawijaya regencies, Meyer said the death rate was increasing in badly affected villages.

In some up to 90 percent of the children were in the advanced stages of malnutrition, he added.

``I really hope people will understand the seriousness of the situation and help will come,'' Meyer said by telephone.

``Thousands will die,'' if help does not come, he added.

Indonesian authorities have said 528 people have died from drought-related illnesses in the regencies of Jayawijaya, Merauke and Puncak Jaya. Meyer said in Mimika regency he had learned of at least 40 more deaths since October.

The Jayawijaya regent has estimated more than 90,000 people are at risk in his district because of the drought, caused by the El Nino weather pattern in the Pacific Ocean.

Meyer said the joint ICRC-Indonesian Red Cross operation was designed to supplement efforts by local authorities and international bodies such as World Vision.

The ICRC originally made an appeal to foreign governments, answered by Switzerland and Australia, for $2 million over the next six months to help Irian Jaya, more than 4,000 km (2,500 miles) east of Jakarta.

But, after extensive visits to the Mimika and Jayawijaya regencies as well as calls for help by church leaders in Merauke, Meyer said the problem required funds closer to $5 million.

Hiring helicopters and buying food for villagers in the highlands, where there are no roads, would push the price up.

``Sixty percent of the children in Mapunduma are suffering malnutrition,'' Meyer said of the village which he visited on Friday. The village was the site of a hostage crisis involving Indonesian, British, Dutch and German researchers last year.

``I am convinced we will find worse outside of Mapunduma. If we leave the people as they are now, in one month they will start to die one after the other. It might be even three weeks,'' he said.

``It is a famine and the last stage of the famine as the people are starting to die,'' he said.

In their weakened state and without access to medicine, he said diseases such as cerebral malaria, respiratory infections and skin diseases were the main killers.

The ICRC hopes soon to have a second helicopter capable of carrying up to one tonne of supplies at a time. It also hopes to obtain highly nutritious ``Compact Food'' biscuits to ward off starvation and blankets to keep the weakened tribespeople warm.

Some were worried that the local people, many of whom still have a stone-age lifestyle, would prefer bulky rice or low-energy instant noodles to food supplements.

``But the small children ate (the compact food) because they are hungry,'' Meyer said, referring to a feeding at Mapunduma.

same story, but additional details:

2. Red Cross finds another 103 drought casualties in eastern Indonesia

JAKARTA, Nov 29 (AFP) - The death toll from diseases linked to the severe drought in Indonesia's easternmost province of Irian Jaya has risen to more than 600, with a further 103 casualties reported, reports said Saturday.

A team from the Indonesian Red Cross and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) visited three isolated villages in the Mimika district and found that 103 people had died of drought-related ailments since October 11, the Antara news agency said.

ICRC's Ferenc Meyer said the victims had died of ailments such as diarrhoea and malaria.

He said the health of some 1,000 people in the three villages of Alama, Ngim and Mvbua Jigi was very poor and more deaths were likely if no immeddiate relief was given.

The Red Cross team was providing medical help and also had a tonne of rice to distribute, Meyer said.

More drought victims may be found in other isolated villages in the area which authorities have yet to contact because of their isolation.

Officials in Jayawijaya, PuncakJaya and Merauke districts have already spoken of more than 500 drought-related deaths.

The drought that has hit Indonesia since May has wiped out the local yam harvest on which the tribes of Irian Jaya are highly dependent.

At least 90,000 tribesmen in Jayawijaya are threatened by a serious food shortage, the Jayawijaya district head J.B. Wenas has said.

The local tribes' high dependence on yam had left the population very susceptible to changes in the weather, and malnutrition greatly weakened their resistance to various ailments.

Relief operations have been forced to rely on a limited number of aircraft as most of the central range of Irian Jaya is only accessible by air.

The air relief has however been hampered by bad weather and the thick smoke from forest fires in the area during the dry season.

Notes on Irian Jaya drought

The following is based on discussions with Oliver Humber-Droz of ICRC on Timika, various staff of WVI and MAF in Sentani (Jayapura) and Wamena, GOI officials in Timika, Jayapura and Wamena, and a visit to the Satlak (Persatuan Pelaksanaan) for the disaster relief effort in Wamena.

1. The relief effort. ICRC and WVI/MAF appear to be coordinating their relief efforts quite well to avoid duplication but provide maximum coverage. There is currently a question on how Mapenduma is to be covered - it is in ICRC's area, but CIDA has provided funds to WVI for this area and it appears the GOI prefers WVI to serve this area rather than ICRC. WVI has already deployed a nutritionist to Mapenduma to survey the area. ICRC and WVI feel that they have adequate supplies or commitments to provide food to their areas until May or June, when the sweet potato crop comes in. However, the GOI's emergency food supply, for those villages it supplies directly (through) MAF is nearly empty and no government resupply has occurred in January. Satlak staff expect BAPPENAS to allocate funds for resupply within the next few days.

2. USAID's program. WVI reports that packaged seed will leave Jakarta by sea on Friday (January 17) and arrive in Jayapura the following Friday. It should require only one day for air shipment to Wamena via Hercules and distribution will begin immediately after. An agronomist from the Surabaya seed company and WVI agriculture staff will begin Monday to advise villagers on proper preparation of fields and planting of seed.

3. The hunger situation. Both ICRC and WVI are satisfied that sufficient food is being distributed to meet at least half their calorie requirements through getting food from the airstrips to distant villages remains difficult because villagers have been weakened by their hunger. Rice is the primary staple supplied by the GOI and most donors (except ICRC) and it is being accepted and eaten-though not liked. ICRC's nutritions biscuits have been well received, particularly by children-who need the nutrition the most. Earlier fears that food distribution would encourage highland villagers to stay near the feeding points and neglect their fields have reportedly not materialized. Though people travel-sometimes a day's journey or more - to get their two-week allocation of food, they return to their villages. Since rains began several weeks ago, new crops of sweet potatoes and other vegetables, including corn, are in the ground. The fields are now green, but the new crop will not produce sweet potatoes until June. WVI feels confident enough about availability of food in the highland areas to have downgraded several villages from Category IV (100% dependent on emergency food supplies) to Category III (75% dependent). Nonetheless, relief workers and missionaries in these areas remarked that what little remains of last season's crop is nearly gone, and the primary food available locally is sweet potato leaves. Few livestock remain (apparently many pigs died in the drought). Continuation of emergency food supplies for at least the next three to six months is considered essential.

4. Complications. ICRC is working in the region where OPM took hostages in 1996 and the GOI is still concerned about possible OPM activity in the area. ICRC notes that there is a military presence in every village and that villagers are not allowed to go out to their fields without military permission. This may mean crop production for the June crop will suffer, and dependence on outside food supplies may remain in this area for some time longer.

5. Health. According to official statistics, 447 people have died from the drought. Malaria remains the biggest concern, since highland villages which have not experienced malaria in the past have very strong reactions. In a few villages, estimates are as high as 90% of residents with the disease. Pneumonia has also appeared in a dozen or so villages, primarily in the southern highlands.

6. Some comments/notes

- MAF seems to be doing a superb job, though they lack the right types of aircraft to reach some areas MAF complains that coordination (especially on the government side) has been inadequate, leading the some inefficiencies. However, this is apparently improving.

- I visited Pasema, a 12 minutes flight from Wamena. People living near the airfields are in pretty good shape.

- WVI has a number of questions:

- Is our grant to MAF just to transport WVI seed, or for their general operations? It makes a difference as to how WVI finances these flights.

- What are USAID's reporting requirements; how often, to whom, what format and info?

Recommendation:

1. Go out in mid Feb, see the seed planting program, stay overnight in village.

2. Yusak - check out with BAKORNAS to make sure food got delivered to Wamena

NOTE TO MYSELF

- Remember the two health duties

Ray/Ron:

We are sending in the cable today.

The cable includes recommendations for funding support for World Vision, MAF and the ICRC appeal. We received the WVRD proposal on Monday, 12/1/97. An analysis has been completed by our in-house agricultural staffer re: seeds, type selection, and in-country vendor/supplier. No major issues have been identified with regard to seeds and type. The vendor identified by WVRD is Tani Jaya in Bogor. This is a reputable company and can provide the quality and quantities of seeds required.

On the administrative side we have a small snag which Ron knows about (LIbby/Hubbard telecon 12/9/97 - JKT time) regarding WVRD/Indonesia's registration with USAID. Ms. Lynn B. Sauls is correct. WVRD/Indonesia is not registered and therefore, we will need to process the grant thorough WVRD/Washington. A letter has been prepared and faxed to WVRD/W requesting that they submit a formal proposal. A copy of the proposal submitted by WVRD/Indonesia is attached for their reference.

I strongly agree, time is of the essence. Our meeting with ICRC last week where they reported on their assessment of conditions in Irian Jaya confirmed everyone's fears and concerns, the situation is starting to deteriorate. ICRC reports that the mortality rates (based on overall population numbers) is running as high as an estimated 10% in certain areas (NOTE: this data is based on one village data sample from within the area assessed). ICRC's assessment of the situation is critical. Based on their assessment ICRC has revised its proposal in terms of the components of services and appeal funding level as follows:

Transportation
-- one large helicopter for 3 months @ $450k
-- one small helicopter for 6 months @ $420k
Food
-- ICRC is proposing to procure 30,000 tons of "compac food" from some where in Europe @ 1.2 million Swiss Francs.
Staff - Expats.
-- one doctor, nurse, and nutritionist for 6 months @160k Swiss Francs.
Indonesia Staff
- Health worker, nutritionist, and agronomist. No cost where discussed for the Indonesian staff.

Bottom line, the ICRC funding appeal request is 3,736,821 Swiss Francs or $2.6 million. Henry Fournier, Head of Delegation is awaiting Geneva approval on his revised proposal and budget. He also mentioned that Geneva normally tries to keep appeal amounts amounts at or below the two million dollar mark. Mr. Founier is definitely looking to USAID for funding assistance on their appeal.

Peter,

Today, Ron Libby and I discussed the debrief on his field trip to Indonesia and Papua New Guinea, which will be held tomorrow afternoon. I know that you must be very busy and are no doubt still obtaining answers to some of the issues which I raised in my e-mail to you last Friday. I hope to hear from you by e-mail or phone by my tomorrow morning. Ron has expressed some concern about the proposed WVRD seeds proposal. He feels that if there is not an executed grant for the WVRD seeds activity within the next week or so, it will be too late to be effective. Ron hopes to call you this evening (your morning) to discuss the matter.

Once again, here are the general activities and funding levels that we have informally discussed for an OFDA response in Indonesia, if requested and justified in a cable by USAID/Jakarta:

MAF (Air Transport Support)	$100,000
WVRD (Seeds Project)	200,000
ICRC (Agriculture and Health)	150,000
Total	450,000

Within the total figure there will probably be room to increase the dollar

funding of one or two of the activities, if one of the activities is reduced or dropped. But, the critical point is that the USAID must be strongly supportive of the activities which it does finally recommend. Also, it is now getting rather late, following the technical advisor's field visit, to still be discussing the proposed disaster response. I am sure that you feel the same way. We need to take some action or agree that one or some of these activities will fall out. If the definitive cable requesting OFDA funding that we discussed last week is now in draft, could you fax it to me so I will know where we stand at this point in time. Thank you for your continued good efforts.

Best Regards,

Ray

Ron LIbby will discuss his month-long field visit to Indonesia and Papua New Guinea to assist both posts in thinking through the fire and drought-related problems that both countries are facing relative to this year's El Nino events. The meeting will be held in the OFDA Operations Center from 2:30PM to 4:00PM on Tueasday, 12-9-97. Interested staff are welcome to attend.

Ray:

Happy New Year! I hope that you and your families enjoyed the holidays.

The USAID/Indonesia Mission Director recently travelled to Irian Jaya The first of what follows are her observations and report on activities in Irian Jaya.

1. Update: Irian Jaya

A FootNote: We have learned GOI supplies to Irian Jaya are not being provided consistent with the areas needs. In fact, central staging areas in Irian Jaya are reported to be empty without hope in sight due to the countries current economic condition.

Recommendations and Resouce Requirements:

1. AirServe has submitted a proposal, which I believe you have been copied on, for OFDA funding in the amount of $50k for an ANG Twin Otter from the Redstone Arsenal. I met yesterday, Thursday, January 29, 1998, with AirServe and MAF's Jakarta representative Robert Breuker to discuss their proposal.

USAID/Indonesia supports the AirServe's proposal, however, we are uncertain as the whether the twin otter aircraft is still available.

I would like to discuss this in more detail. Item number one on my agenda for our telcon.

2. Drought Impact - East Timor:

USAID/Indonesia and the U.S. Ambassador have received a report on the drought conditions in East Timor from CARE and the conditions decribed in 10 to 13 villages areas discussed in the CARE report is not good at all.

USAID/Indonesia is hereby requesting and recommending that $25k be approved/authorized by OFDA for disaster relief assistance for East-Timor. The U.S. Ambassador to Indonesia will be travelling to the area next week would like to personally present the $25k grant of relief funds from the USG during his upcoming visit to East Timor.

Urgently need to discuss the details and specifics on a rapid response to the Ambassador's request.

Ray, please call me as soon as you have read this message. My home phone number is [redacted] B6

ASSESSMENT OF THE CRISIS IN INDONESIA

A report prepared by USAID for the Senate Appropriations Committee in response to a request for a comprehensive assessment of the situation in Indonesia. The report is based on extensive interviews by USAID staff, analysis of assessments and analyses included in the bibliography, and recent appraisals of the financial crisis in Asia preparatory to development of the Accelerating Economic Recovery in Asia Initiative.

The Crisis and its Consequences

"No country in recent history, let alone the size of Indonesia, has suffered such as dramatic reversal of fortune."
-- The World Bank, 1998

Indonesia's economic collapse is without recent precedent. The national economy is expected to contract by 15 percent this year, following three decades of annual growth exceeding six percent. The rupiah is now worth roughly 30 percent of its value a year ago and inflation may exceed 80 percent by the end of 1998. Banks have ceased lending--commercial banks haven't made a loan since September 1997, and two-thirds of the corporations on the Jakarta Stock Exchange are bankrupt. Forty percent of the population now live near or below the poverty line, a figure expected to swell to 65 percent by early next year. Unemployment, now estimated at 20 million, grows by the thousands daily. What began as an economic crisis has quickly developed into a crisis of complex social and political dimensions with dramatic humanitarian implications.

THE IMPACT

Poverty and unemployment: Indonesia has seen a remarkable increase in "newly poor." Where last year annual per capita income was $1,200, this year it is estimated to be $400. The International Labor Organization estimates by the end of the year as many as 80 million people will be earning less than one dollar a day; unemployment could rise to 20 million and underemployment far higher. Nearly a third of Jakarta's workforce is unemployed.

Food: For the first time in years food availability has become a major concern. The problem is not so much supply as ability to buy. Inflation, unemployment, growing poverty, and the disruption of traditional distribution systems have reduced access to food, particularly in urban and peri-urban areas. Rice scarcity and price hikes contribute to social unrest. Prices spiked in September, triggering riots and burning of rice in a number of small towns, particularly on Java.

Health: Growing poverty has meant that people eat less. The government estimates that as many as 60 million Indonesians may not be able to meet their minimum food requirements. Recent surveys are showing disturbing signs of increasing anemia (particularly on Java), and cases of kwashiorkor and marasmus are beginning to appear in urban hospitals. UNICEF estimates that eight million infants are undernourished. Helen Keller reports a significant drop in young women's bodyweight and growing signs of vitamin A and iron deficiencies. The government's health budget, already one of the world's lowest, has been cut by 15-20 percent, and the government cannot afford the increased costs of imported pharmaceutical and family planning commodities. The private sector, responsible for servicing 50 percent of health needs, is at risk. Nearly 100 of 224 pharmaceutical manufacturers are technically bankrupt. for example, and three out of ten of the largest distributors.

Education: Poverty has begun to affect school enrollments as parents can't afford school fees. The government estimates that nearly three million students are at risk.

Political: Demonstrations and riots forced Suharto to exit in May, unleashing a political reform movement of unquantifiable dimensions. There has been a flowering of debate and new institutions to carry the debate forward: more than 140 new newspapers and dozens of radio stations, 11 new unions, and more than 90 political parties. New election laws are being debated, and, for the first time since 1955, the government has pledged to hold free and open elections.

At the same time, the dramatic change has brought great uncertainties and concerns about a backlash as political groups and interests vie for power in an environment where new rules of the game are not yet established or even agreed-upon. Continued ethnic tension, a long-delayed investigation of last May's events targeting Indonesia's ethnic Chinese, the recent attack on a legal aid organization, and the "ninja" killings of 160 muslims in East Java, all support these concerns.

Economic: The collapse of the rupiah, growing inflation, mounting unemployment, failed companies, closed banks, all revealed clearly the institutional weaknesses of Indonesia's financial sector. The crisis did not affect all parts of the economy equally, however. Certain sectors--such as agriculture and natural resource-based exports--have profited from the rupiah's weakening, and certain parts of the country, particularly on the outer islands where coffee, copra, cocoa, palm oil and logging are important, continue to do reasonably well. Real recovery, in terms of significant new investment, awaits some confidence in reasonable security and a resolution of political uncertainties. In the meantime, however, the depth of the crisis has ushered in new interest in reform and remarkable opportunities for restructuring the financial sector and working out corporate debt while attacking major areas of weakness relating to governance, institutional supervision and accountability.

Environment: The economic crisis has brought new pressures on natural resources and the environment. Desperation among the rural poor has provoked rising conflict over access to land and other natural resources. In urban areas, increasing costs of energy and deteriorating urban infrastructure have added to the misery of the newly unemployed. But the crisis has also opened doors to democratic discussion and the possibility of improving transparency and governance in natural resources management--an area where corruption has been particularly severe.

THE RESPONSE

The international donor community has mounted a major rescue effort for Indonesia. Under the leadership of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), a $40 billion economic reform and recovery package, to be disbursed over three years, includes: IMF stand-by credits of $10.14 billion, $3.5 billion from the Asian Development Bank (ADB), $4.5 billion from the World Bank (WB), and pledges from bilateral donors as follows: Singapore, $10 billion; Japan, $5 billion; the U.S., $3 billion; and Australia, Hong Kong, Taiwan, and Malaysia, $1 billion each. The program is to stimulate domestic demand by careful deficit spending; restart the shattered financial sector; resolve corporate sector debt issues and assist restructuring efforts and strengthen economic governance. Given the magnitude of Indonesia's crisis, with more than $60 billion in private sector debt alone, the donors' financial package provides an important lifeline, but not the answer to Indonesia's recovery.

In addition, donors are seeking to mitigate the impact of the crisis through programs focused on social safety net concerns. The World Bank and ADB are financing labor intensive works public works. The World Bank is funding a stay-in school program and has restructured its health program to help the GOI preserve basic health family planing services. The ADB is providing loans to decentralize and manage social services for the most vulnerable sections of the population, women and children, and Australia's aid to support the IMF, to help with labor intensive public works, and to provide drought relief. Many of the other donors are involved in programs related to the drought or to the last year's fires in Kalimatan.

Since the fall of Suharto and the announcement of elections, a growing number of donors are expressing interest in work related to the elections. Few have actually begun any work on the ground, but several, including USAID, the European Union, France, Germany, Norway, the United Kingdom, and Australia, are discussing future assistance as part of an ongoing donor forum on elections under the aegis of the UNDP.

USAID'S STRATEGY AND PROGRAM

USAID's strategy responds to the immediate humanitarian needs of ordinary Indonesians through work on the social safety net--food, health and jobs--while simultaneously using the new opportunities offered by the momentum for reform to build foundations for a healthier, more productive and democratic Indonesia. It includes a large food program and works with the government, NGOs and donors to maximize the effectiveness of the government's relief efforts. It reshapes USAID's urban program to support NGOs and local governments in creating labor-intensive public works. It develops a new health program targeting the most vulnerable--mothers and children. It provides technical assistance aimed at economic recovery--to help Indonesia unravel corporate debt and failed banks and to put in place the policies, laws and institutions required to assure confidence in a restored system.

At the same time, it recognizes that although external factors played a role, fundumental problems of governance accrederated sharply exacerbated Indonesia's oasis. Systematic misgovernance and abuse of power created the conditions for economic collapse and the potential for a humanitarian disaster. The fall of Suharto and the impetus to democracy offers an opportunity for improvement. The upcoming elections and the wave of reform represent a remarkable opportunity to create a new consensus on how Indonesia is to be governed. Such a consensus is key to the restoration of confidence in Indonesia's future which will allow economic recovery to begin. The development of strong civic institutions to demand improved governance is critical if economic recovery is to be sustained.

Because the political transition scheduled for this year is so crucial and so uncertain, the strategy puts civic and community participation--elections support and free and open debate on critical issues--at the center of its program. USAID has been and will continue to be one of the largest and most active donors in civic and community participation (democracy and governance sectors). The USAID Program, more than any single donor program, has been instrumental in laying the groundwork for political reform and will continue to support and facilitate the active engagement of donor groups in strengthening democratic reforms. It will coordinate closely with other donors because the task of preparing 100 million voters on 17,000 islands across a 3,000 mile archipelago is so vast. A broad and active support from international donors will be important in responding to concerns about sovereignty and impartiality. Our work in this area will involve more than 200 new partners, Indonesian NGOs, political parties, media, legal authorities, academics and civic organizations.

We are currently developing a proposal with the support of the State Department and Department of Treasury for a five-year, $520 million program, "Accelerating Economic Recovery in Asia," AERA, for which work in Indonesia will be a central part. AERA's focus will be on job creation, better targeting of social safety net instruments and strenthening of the foundations for a sustained economic recovery.

Finally, because of continued USG interest in global issues such as biodiversity and global climate change and Indonesia's unique role in these issues, we will maintain an active presence in natural resource management. We will respond to crisis-related pressures on the environment and new-found opportunities for reform to focus on decentralization and support for community-based management of natural resources, including forests and coral reefs. The objective will be to strengthen NGOs advocating community-based management and reform of natural resources management.

USAID's strategy responds to the immediate needs of the crisis while simultaneously using new opportunities to build foundations for long-term, sustainable development. The program has two phases. Phase I (FY 1999 through FY 2000) the core of the strategy, responds to the immediate crisis. It focuses on immediate needs--the social safety net through food, jobs and health, while placing at the center of its program as its major emphasis, work with NGOs on the development of civic institutions and preparation for carrying out, monitoring and building on free and fair elections. At the same time, it initiates long-term work on economic reform, particularly corporate debt and bank restructuring, and maintains a strong base of support for natural resources management and the environment. During Phase II (FY 2001 to FY 2003), the strategy emphasizes recovery, long-term programs for economic growth, the strengthening of civil society, health and family planning and protection of the environment.

We have already made distinct shifts in our program strategy and are requesting budget changes to reflect them. We are asking to increase our allocation for civic and community participation (democracy and governance) to more than 40 percent of our budget. To support social safety net activities, we are adding funds for technical assistance on food policy and for monitoring, increasing our emphasis on health and designing a new program for women and children, and realigning our urban program to focus on job creation. We are requesting a doubling of our allocation for economic reform to take advantage of new opportunities for major changes in key economic policy areas.

USAID is using a variety of sources of funding and mechanisms to implement its activities. They include development assistance, food assistance, economic support funds, international disaster assistance, and urban environmenal credits. We are employing grants, cooperative agreements, experimental combinations of contracts and grants, umbrella arrangments and are working with more than 200 local NGOs. Through US NGOs and contractors, we are working extensively with indigenous groups, including muslim and community-based organizations engaged in activities ranging from primary health care and feeding programs to protection of natural resources.

Humanitarian and Social Concerns

A social safety net is critical to ease the effect of the crisis on the most vulnerable and to allow time to build consensus on political and economic reforms necessary to achieve sustainable and broad-based growth. USAID's response to the humanitarian and social dimensions of the crisis includes technical assistance, commodities and training to create jobs, increase access to food, and provide critical health and family planning services, specifically:

Poverty and Unemployment

- o $25.5 million in urban environmental credit to the GOI for emergency public works programs, creating jobs and building urban infrastructure.

- o Technical assistance to municipal governments and local NGOs to develop public works. (220,000 person-days work created since March; an estimated 7,600,000 person-days of employment by March 2000.)

Food

- o $50 million in PL 480 Title II food through the World Food Program (WFP) and US NGOs working with Indonesian NGOs on the eastern islands, Kalimantan and central Java; nearly 10,000 tons have been delivered; 10,000 more is en route. The food is for food-for-work programs, supplementary feeding of vulnerable groups and targeted feeding for the poor.

- o Support to an Indonesian NGO to monitor food delivery to five major cities.

- o Planning with USDA on distribution or monetization of up to 1.5 million tons of wheat through WFP and NGOs.

- Work with Donor Food Group to maximize effectiveness of GOI food program.

Health and Family Planning

- Support for NGOs and local health providers on delivery of health and family planning services to meet crisis priority needs.

- Technical assistance to the Ministry of Health for its new crisis planning and response center and to the National Crisis Response Center for crisis impact monitoring.

- Donation of medical supplies and contraceptives.

- Fortification of wheat with iron.

- Support for midwives including emergency supplies, contraceptives, training and operational support.

- Support to NGOs and GOI working on prevention of sexually transmitted infections, including HIV/AIDS.

Civic and Community Participation

Indonesia's most urgent political challenge at present is to hold free and fair elections that bring into office leaders committed to continuing the process of political and economic reform. Significantly, much of the current reform movement has flourished largely because of President Habibie's political weakness prevents him from resisting change. Should a 'strongman' take the Presidency, the reforms made to date could be summarily reversed. (Such turnabouts are not unknown in Indonesian history. The country did experiment with democratic reform under Sukarno in the 1950s, an endeavor that was sharply curtailed with the then-President's move to 'Guided Democracy' in 1957). Delays in holding elections would also afford the current administration time to consolidate its power base.

A free, transparent election is also essential to maintaining the public enthusiasm currently buoying 'Reformasi'. The continuing economic hardship may sap much of this enthusiasm as the benefits of political reformation are slow to manifest themselves in the economic realm. A tangible achievement within the political arena, namely a free election, will be vital to maintaining the momentum of the reform movement. In Phase I, USAID will encourage transparent, inclusive, and legitimate parliamentary and presidential elections. USAID's Office of Transition Initiatives (OTI) plays a special role during this period with short-term activities, including support for the media, voter education, human rights, and civil-military relations. In Phase II, USAID will develop responsive public institutions, stronger civil society organizations and effective mechanisms for oversight and accountability. USAID's response includes:

- o Support to 45 advocacy NGOs working on elections and political reforms. (This should grow to 150 to 200 in the run-up to the elections.)
- o Grants to NGOs for democracy, civil society, human rights and work related to the elections.
- o Establishment of NGO and donor working groups on the elections.
- o Voter education, independent media and election management and administrative needs assessments.
- o Support to groups working on human rights and violence against women, with specific reference to the rapes of Indonesian Chinese women in May.
- o Support for NGOs working on investigating human rights abuses in Irian Jaya, E. Timor, and Aceh.
- o Support for election law reviews and discussions on election laws, procedures, and regulations to the GOI, NGOs and political partieis.
- o Development of the nationwide public service announcement on interfaith tolerance.
- o Support to media groups developing or reviewing laws governing freedom of expression.
- o Expanded support to Indonesian umbrella organizations working on political reform.

Economic Reform

USAID is focusing on providing U.S. technical expertise to support achievement of the economic and financial reform agenda set under the IMF/GOI agreement and supported by all members of the Consultative Group for Indonesia. In the financial and corporate sectors, this allows Indonesia to benefit from U.S. experience related to such situations as resolution of the U.S. S&L crisis of the mid-80's and U.S. support to economic and financial restructuring in eastern Europe. Given the strength of the U.S. economic system, provision of U.S. expertise related to corporate governance, economic law and regulation, and macroeconomic policy, is also especially appropriate. The program is carefully coordinated with other involved U.S. institutions, such as the U.S. Treasury, as well as the IMF and the other multilaterals. It includes:

- o Bank restructuring in a joint activity with the US Treasury hrough advisors working at Bank Indonesia (central bank) and the Indonesian Bank Restructuring Agency.

- o Strengthening of Bank Indonesia's system of bank supervision.
- o Corporate restructuring through technical assistance on laws relating to bankruptcy, competition, secured transactions, arbitration.
- o Support for debtor-creditor negotiations under the Jakarta Initiative.
- o Training and technical support to the new commercial court.
- o Assistance in developing the new independent competition agency (Federal Trade Commission) required to implement the new competition law.
- o Support to the GOI, civic organizations, NGOs, university groups, and think tanks working on the removal of barriers to trade and investment, focusing on obstacles to free and open trade and fair competion for small businesses.
- o Technical support to Bank Indonesia on monetary policy and exchange rate regimes heavily affected by the crisis, in coordination with the IMF and US Treasury.
- o Technical support to the Ministry of Finance to deal with changes in fiscal policy and tax reform to respond to the crisis and its impact.
- o Support partnerships between US NGOs and Indonesian universities, think tanks or NGOs to encourage discussion and debate on key reform issues.

Environment

The economic crisis has brought new pressures on natural resources and the environment. Desperation among the rural poor has provoked rising conflict over access to land and other natural resources. In urban areas, increasing costs of energy and deteriorating urban infrastructure have added to the misery of the newly unemployed. But the crisis has also opened doors to democratic discussion and ushered in a wealth of opportunities for debate on policy and regulatory issues with broad implications for Indoensia's economic recovery and the future of its environment. During Phase I, USAID will strengthen local capacity to manage natural resources, and restructure and reform the energy sector. This work will serve as a foundation for USAID's Phase II efforts to preserve Indonesia's biodiversity and reduce the generation of greenhouse gasses.

- o Support and strengthen 15 Indonesian NGOs working to redress human rights abuses stemming from confiscatory land use practices.
- o Technical assistance to local governments and NGOs to identify, articulate and arbitrate local resource conflicts.

- Provide assistance to NGOs working on efforts to rewrite laws affecting natural resource use and management in an effot to eliminate sources of corruption and misdirected exploitation of natural resources.

- Assist local communities in developing alternative income sources in coastal areas hardest hit by the economic recession and drought.

Cross-cutting Issues: There are four cross-cutting issues common to most activities in USAID's portfolio: transparency in decision-making and anti-corruption, women in development, the role of NGOs, and decentralization. USAID is actively exploiting synergies between activities to emphasis impact on these issues.

I. HUMANITARIAN CONSEQUENCES, NEEDS AND RESPONSE

A. Humanitarian Consequences of the Crisis

The ILO has estimated that by mid-1998, 75 million Indonesians were living below the poverty line--37 percent of the population. The number is expected to grow to 100 million by year end, and by the end of 1999, two of every three Indonesians--140 million people--will be living in poverty (see figure 3.1). These numbers represent a serious set-back for Indonesia which by 1997 had managed to reduce poverty to about ten percent of the population, down from fifty percent in 1970. The rise was caused mainly by a dramatic increase in unemployment and high inflation--which drove food and medicine prices beyond the reach of many. The crisis was exacerbated by droughts caused by El Nino, which devastated last year's rice crop.

Food Shortages: Last year, El Nino's extremely dry weather, particularly in eastern Indonesia, caused widespread crop failures and delayed rice planting. El Nino, together with reduced food imports due to financial straits, diminished Indonesia's food supply late in the summer. By October 1998, however, although isolated shortages existed, there appeared to be adequate food supplies in-country (see fig. 3.2).
In early 1998, a sharp currency devaluation and rumors of price rises created a food rush that depleted stocks of staples such as rice, sugar, and cooking oil temporarily. Many households began hoarding food, fearing that these staples would not be available in the future at affordable prices.

Fears of food shortages--and the sharp increase in inflation--led to soaring food prices. The depreciation of the rupiah and the collapse of the Indonesian banking system hindered food imports, as many international banks refused to accept letters of credit (LCs) issued by Indonesian importers. To respond, the government set up a financing mechanism to guarantee food imports using international reserves.

The riots in May 1998 damaged distribution chains and destroyed stores that provided daily supplies. While distribution infrastructure appears to be in working order, the psychological impact of the riots continues to affect distribution. Consumers and farmers hold larger-than-normal stocks in anticipation of a breakdown of law and order, future shortages and increased prices. Traders limit the size of their stock, fearful of being charged with hoarding, an offense with heavy penalties, or out of concerns about looting of food stocks, which continues in isolated incidences, often with little protection from police. Thus, little food moves, and while adequate food stocks exist in-country, food prices remain high.

Food availability: Despite conflicting reports, an FAO September assessment estimated the rice crop deficit at 5.14 million tons for the period April 1998 to March 1999. By mid-September, Indonesia's national logistics agency had imported 2.42 million tons and contracted another 525,000 tons. Food pledges from donor countries added a further 765,000 tons, leaving a shortfall of 1.43 million tons to be secured on commercial terms or through grants.

Prices: The crux of the crisis is not food supply, but prices and consumers' ability to pay. Spot shortages still exist, but the main problem is access to food. Inflated prices and growing unemployment have put a large portion of Indonesia's population out of the reach of sufficient food. Inflation is expected to reach 80 percent this year and food prices have risen even faster. The FAO reports that the Indonesia Food Price Index has more than doubled between August 1997 and July 1998.

Basic Food Staples
(Rp per kg)

	Jul 97	Apr 98	Nov 98
sugar	1,550	1,800	3,590
cooking	1,700	3,600	3,600
eggs	3,000	5,200	7,000
milk	19,409	31,150	32,000
flour	-	1,150	3,500
beef	-	16,000	23,000

Production: The 1998 rice crop is estimated to fall by eight percent this year to 45.38 million tons–the smallest harvest since 1991. The reduction is caused by a delay in planting due to the drought, pest attacks, and a dramatic reduction in fertilizer and pesticide use (due to rising costs). Planting started in October for the next major harvest in March. Other food crops seem to have increased their outputs over the past year, including corn, up nine percent; soybeans, which increased eight percent, and cassava, which rose eight percent. Soaring prices of imported feed have created severe shortages in the supply of livestock products. Poultry output is estimated to have fallen by 30-50 percent.

The drought did not hit the country uniformly. Unfortunately, some regions which experienced the largest decrease in rainfall, such as East Timor, East Nusa Tenggara, and Irian Jaya, are also among Indonesia's poorest. Even before the crisis, the number of poor households in these provinces was three times the national average (see fig. 3.3). In general, the outer islands have the highest incidence of poverty, but Java with about 120 million people or 60 percent of the population, has the largest absolute number of poor (See fig 3.4) and the largest absolute number of unemployed. Food insecurity and malnutrition will have a different impact in urban areas than they do in rural areas, where alternative, less expensive foodstuffs may exist.

Mid-year reviews show regions producing and selling dollar-earning commodities faring better than others. Areas with export crops such as shrimp, coffee, rubber, cocoa, seaweed, etc. are experiencing unprecedented increases in income, which have generally outpaced food price increases. The government has tried to ensure supplies of basic foods at affordable prices across the country through direct subsidies, export taxes on food commodities and bans on their export. This has led to smuggling of subsidized foods to countries where they can be sold at international prices, a problem which may have diminished as the rupiah strengthens.

The future is unclear. Rice prices may fall by the end of the year. A recent World Food Program assessment, for example, suggests that the demand for rice in the urban sector may, in fact, have fallen more than the supply. WFP officials noted the conflict between this finding and continued high prices which they attributed to farmers' keeping stock on hand and flaws in distribution. The end of the year could produce a steep rice price decrease as farmers begin to release stocks in anticipation of a healthy harvest.

Unemployment rises: The Ministry of Manpower estimates that as a result of the crisis, the number of unemployed will reach 20 million by the end of the year. Measuring Indonesia's unemployment has always been a difficult task. Although official unemployment was fairly low (less than 10 percent) before the crisis, combined with underemployment, the total now approaches 40 percent. Combined unemployment and underemployment was estimated at more than 30 million as of February 1998 (see fig 3.13).

Underemployment, defined as work in ill paying jobs to earn enough to survive and/or working less than 35 hours a week, has always been extremely high in Indonesia. In 1996, 37 percent of the workforce was underemployed. The crisis has increased this figure because so many formerly full-time employees now share underemployment opportunities to avoid open unemployment.

Indonesians have displayed an impressive resilience in times of crisis and hardship. Extended families and entire communities pull together to weather tough times. In the past, in times of rural hardship, they have sought urban opportunities and in times of urban crisis, they have returned to the village to ride out the storm. In this crisis, Indonesians have had to cope with twin shocks—financial crisis and drought, so neither cities nor villages provided the traditional safe haven, and customary strategies for dealing with unemployment are not functioning normally. The repatriation of Indonesians working overseas has blocked a third option in times of hardship. Malaysia, also in a deep conomic crisis, is sending home increasing numbers of the 250,000 Indonesian workers there.

Labor intensive projects: Although labor-intensive projects can help some to cope, the GOI has been overwhelmed by the growing number of unemployed. With the support of World Bank, ADB and other organizations, the GOI has begun several labor-intensive projects for village improvement and public works, but the programs have been unable to absorb the huge number of newly unemployed nor to accomodate the recently unemployed white-collar employees.

Women are as affected by the crisis as men. While the majority of lay-offs for men occur in construction and manufacturing sector, women bear the brunt in the trade, hotel, and restaurant sectors as well as sub-sectors like textiles industry (see table 3.6). Unfortunately, the government's labor intensive projects are failing to create opportunities for females, leaving unemployed and destitute women vulnerable to commercial sex.

"There is indeed some merit to the view that employment of women should be given preference, because income in their hands tends to increase household welfare more than if it were in the hands of men." - The World Bank (3.9)

There are regional variations of unemployment according to the National Statistics Agency (BPS). The highest unemployment rates in 1998 are in Jakarta (32.7 percent), North Sulawesi (24.6 percent), and Riau (23.9 percent), while the biggest increase in unemployment rates since 1996 are found in some of the outer islands such as West Nusa Tenggara (533 percent), Jambi (521 percent), and South-East Sulawesi (405 percent).Health, Population and Nutrition Health costs: The impact of the crisis on health is largely due to increasing unemployment, the drop in real income and purchasing power, and inflated prices due to the depreciated rupiah and a shrinking government budget. Many families simply lack funds to pay for goods and services essential to health, such as food, medicine--vaccines, contraceptives and other medical supplies--and health care. A survey quoted in the World Bank's Indonesia in Crisis indicated that in Jakarta and West Java, drug prices have increased two-to-three-fold since the crisis started. A shortage in drug supplies has forced some health centers in more remote areas to close. Indonesia's national health budget, just two percent of GDP, has long been one of the world's lowest. Further reductions could cut into critical public services.

Despite a previous objection, medical subsidies have been allowed to offset the soaring cost of medicine, which has high import content. The rising price of imported medicines and medicine components weighs heavily on the local pharmaceutical sector. According to the Indonesian Pharmaceutical Association, 100 of 224 pharmaceutical producers are technically bankrupt, three out of the ten of the largest distributors are beyond salvation, and 600 of 1,200 small, regional distributors are bankrupt.

Increasing maternal and infant mortality: Reductions in purchasing power have reduced the likelihood that mothers will use preventive health services, such as immunizations. Pregnant women seem likely to turn to untrained traditional midwives to reduce prenatal care and delivery costs. This would raise health risks for mothers and babies, possibly increasing Indonesia's already high maternal and infant mortality rates. Maternal mortality, already the worst in ASEAN, was estimated at 334 deaths per 100,000 births in 1995. Recent data from urban hospitals in East Java indicate that maternal deaths may be increasing and UNICEF estimates that by 1999 the rate could double (see fig 3.5). Infant mortality rates are now 53 deaths per 1000, with two-thirds of all infant deaths occurring within the first month of life. The rates are expected to rise 20 percent by 1999, based on current projections (see fig 3.6).

Reduced contraception: Family planning statistics show that the usage of modern contraceptives declined five percent between January 98 and June 1998, despite the GOI's efforts to ensure availability of sufficient stocks of injectable and oral pill contraceptives. This means at least 1.5 million women have ceased using contraception and are now using traditional herbal or rhythm methods, cheaper but less effective, as alternatives. The usage of oral contraceptives could drop more than 60 percent and injections 37 percent among current users due to shortage of supplies and price increases. This could push the Total Fertility Rate (TFR) up nearly 25 percent over the 1997 rate. Some experts are even expecting a future baby boom as families struggle to cover the costs of daily necessities, including birth control. The result--unwanted births and abortions. Although comprehensive data on the abortion rate is not available, social workers believe abortions are on the rise..

"...if they have to make a choice between buying food and birth control devices, they will certainly prioritized food," Former Chairman of the Indonesia Planned Parenthood Association. (Jakarta Post Oct 18, 1998)

Commercial sex: Reduction in real incomes and unemployment, particularly among females, have resulted a doubling of prostitution. Indonesia now has an estimated 650,000 prostitutes, including 150,000 registered sex workers. By comparison, there were 72,000 registered prostitutes in 1995. Many of these prostitutes are new to the trade with little or no understanding on sexually transmitted diseases (STDs). Social workers worry that the rising number of prostitutes could spark an explosion in STDs and abortions. Before the crisis, 10 percent of family planning clients in Surabaya carried sexually transmitted infections. Today, it is three times that.

Malnutrition: Reduced food consumption has led to reduced average calorie consumption and lower quality diets. As a result of low quality diets, acute nutritional deficiencies are making a comeback. Research conducted by Helen Keller International up to June of this year found significant reoccurrence of malnutrition in Central Java. The prevalence of maternal malnutrition increased from 15.1 percent to 17.5 percent (see fig 3.10). The average bodyweight among women of reproductive age fell by about one kg between June-August 1996 and June-August 1998. The Body Mass Index (BMI) of these same women dropped by 0.45 kg/m^2 almost equivalent to the 0.50 kg/m^2 achieved over the last 30 years. Lower BMI can lead to increased morbidity and mortality, greater risk of pregnancy complications, and reduced quality of breast milk.

Vulnerable infants and children especially feel the impact of the health crisis. According to UNICEF, there are 8 million undernourished infants who face threats from diseases that had previously been drastically reduced if not alleviated. Social workers have found reoccurrences of severe protein malnutrition--kwashiorkor and marasmus--unseen in Indonesia for years.

Despite the fact that the percentage of malnourished children is highest in the Eastern Islands, the absolute number of malnourished children is seven to ten times higher in Java, and three to five times higher in Sumatra than on other islands (see fig 3.7 & 3.8). A study in 1998 by Helen Keller International (HKI) and University of Diponegoro showed a dramatically reduced intake of micronutrient-rich foods such as eggs, meat, and milk due to the increase in the price of basic commodities and reduced purchasing power of the population. The reduction is especially drastic in South Kalimantan, South Sulawesi, East Java, and Central Java. Across the country, more than four million children are affected.

The study showed a significant increase in mothers and children who had not been drinking milk during the crisis because it was too expensive. In Sulawesi, the occurrence of mother and children not drinking milk rose from around 40 percent in 1996 for both to almost 80 percent in 1998. In Kalimantan the figures for not being able to afford milk rose from less than 20 percent to more than 40 percent. Such changes in diet, especially Vitamin A, increase vulnerability to disease and increase mortality. (see fig 3.9)

There are alarming signs that micronutrient deficiencies are on the rise--in particular Vitamin A Deficiency (VAD) which can cause blindness and damage to the immune system--and iron deficiency which can cause anemia. Vitamin A is naturally found as retinol in breastmilk and foods from animal sources, and as carotene in foods from plant sources. (Graph on Childhood blindness and maternal blindness). Before the crisis, VAD in children over the age of one was no longer considered a public health problem in most provinces in Indonesia. Over the last 30 years, the country has successfully alleviated the VAD threat among pregnant women and children. Data shows that the incidence of childhood blindness in Central Java jumped from less than 10 percent in June 1996 to more than 20 percent in June 1998 (see fig 3.11).

Anemia is an increasing concern. Results of the 1995 National Household Health Survey found that 40.5 percent of under-five children suffered from anemia. Approximately 30 percent of female workers and 24 percent to 35 percent of school children were found to be anemic. Overall, as many as 50-70 million out of Indonesia's total population suffered from IDA. IDA impairs immunity and reduces the physical and mental capacities of population. In infant and young children, even mild anemia can impair intellectual development. Anemia in pregnancy is a significant cause of maternal mortality. Infants born to anemic mothers often suffer from low birth weight and anemia themselves. (HKI Bulletin 2, Issue 3, 1998). The post-crisis survey indicated that anemia in children in Central Java has increased from 40 percent in June 1996 to about 65 percent in June 1998. The prevalence of anemia among women of reproductive age has increased from 20 percent to 30 percent in 1998. These numbers are expected to rise further as the crisis continues (see fig. 3.12).

Children born into families that cannot afford micronutrient-rich foods due to the crisis may become a 'lost generation', sowing the seeds of today's problems to be reaped in an uncertain future. - Helen Keller International, Oct 98

Education

School leavers: The Minister of Education projected in June that at least 30 percent to 40 percent of all pupils will drop out of school due to the crisis. To cope, many households have pulled their children out of the school, both to save on educational expenditures and to get their children earning additional income. Government estimates suggest that about 6 percent of primary school students and 13 percent of junior secondary school students are at risk of dropping out (approx. 1,650,000 and 1,100,000 student respectively). While an additional 400,000 primary school students are unlikely to continue onto junior secondary school, the drop-outs among female students are expected to be higher.

"Evidence from other developing countries suggests that parents' decisions to send girls to school are more price sensitive than for boys." – the World Bank (3.8)

The government, with WB and ADB support, is launching a nationwide campaign to reduce the number of drop-outs this school year. WB and ADB have agreed to fund a nearly $400 million program to help an estimated 25 million children to stay in school. A national scholarship program has been launched to target children most at risk of dropping out of junior secondary school based on poverty criteria. Nationally the program will cover 17 percent of the enrollment of 9.7 million during the first three years of the program. One of the many criteria of the program is that female students will constitute at least 50 percent of total recipients. (Tempo)

For the GOI, education is not only a matter of economics but of culture as well. For many years the GOI has put an emphasis on the need and importance of education. Still, in many areas of rural Indonesia, education has never been a priority. Parents in poor households would rather their children contribute toward the families' livelihood than go to school. Therefore, the Minister of Education is convinced that educational issues are intertwined with cultural issues.

Social Problems

Social tensions: Ethnic tension has been growing for years. Indonesians of Chinese descent account for 3-to-4 percent of the population yet they are dominant players in the economy. During the Suharto years, tension was exacerbated through blatant favoritism and cronyism. Recent hardships, continuing uncertainties, and a dramatically more open society have encouraged a surfacing of anger and frustration. Sporadic unrest, often targeted at ethnic Chinese, has become a common occurrence. It peaked during the May riots in Jakarta and Solo which produced an exodus of an estimated 100,000 ethnic Chinese--some of whom have yet to return.

The May riots produced in a heavy loss of life, widespread damage to property and businesses, and a dramatic drop in public confidence, both domestic and foreign. The National Human Rights Commission estimated that 1,188 people died, many looters trapped in fires set by rioters at shopping centers. Property damages have been officially estimated at almost $400 million. More importantly, a critical part of the population--ethnic Chinese Indonesians and expatriate managers--has yet to return to business, posing a real obstacle to recovery of Indonesia's commercial sector..

Political riots: The joint fact-finding team established by the government concluded in their report released November 3 that the May riots were not spontaneous but organized by Suharto's son-in law in support of a political agenda. The team reported that the riots had a clear political objective--to secure extraordinary powers for President Suharto to overcome a temporary emergency situation. The report states that preparation for the riots, including the shooting of four students at Trisakti University, was made at "the highest decision-making level." The report mentions Suharto's son-in-law, Lt. Gen. Prabowo, and then-Jakarta military commander, Maj. Gen. Sjafrie Sjamsoeddin, as the probable organizers but mentions that further investigation is needed.

Protests and demonstrations: Since Suharto's resignation, unrest across Indonesia has increased in two basic forms: organized protest, often involving students and professionals against government officials who have allegedly been involved in corruption; and spontaneous disturbances, often driven by economic desperation. Typically this involves land occupations, commonly by people who have been displaced by projects associated with Suharto and his friends or family. Other participants include those who, after losing jobs in the city, have returned to rural areas to find the situation there no better.

Lawlessness: Indonesia has seen a general breakdown in law and order, including sporadic occurrences of looting and robbery--some organized with political motivation, as poverty grows, the military and police reexamine their role, and political interests begin to vie for power. The main target has often been businesses such as shrimp farms, coffee plantations, and food warehouses, linked to the skyrocketing price of goods and unemployment. Other incidents, however, such as the recent spate of mysterious killings in East Java, carry a darker, more political tone to them. The response of police and armed forces to declining law and order is unpredictable--they are often unable or unwilling to assert control.

B. Humanitarian Needs Arising from the Crisis

A viable social safety net includes:

1. Affordable supply of food:
- o supplying basic food commodities to hard hit areas;
- o monitoring to identify the changing needs and location of the poorest, giving priority to the hardest hit areas;

- o timely food imports and distribution, especially to remote areas;
- o halting illegal exports of subsidized commodities;
- o coordinating activities between various relief agencies and the government.

2. Provide access to basic health care services:

- o supporting the distribution of basic medical needs;
- o increasing access to affordable contraceptives to maintain family planning and preventing STDs in the commercial sex industry;
- o providing education to encourage the use of health services despite rising costs;
- o enhancing the capacity and efficiency of private sector suppliers of medical supplies, to reduce the reliance on imported drugs;
- o establishing a nationwide monitoring organization to identify the areas with greatest need for medical supplies;
- o continuing pilot projects on a private nationwide health care system.

3. Maintain current educational enrollment levels:

- o reducing the current drop-out rate and encouraging new enrollment;
- o improving public awareness on the value of education;
- o establishing a nationwide program of scholarship and grants to offset the cost of tuition;

4. Create employment generating activities:

- o developing labor intensive projects aimed at creating a large number of jobs;
- o giving special attention to ensure that women benefit equally from these programs.
- o developing credit mechanisms to stimulate job creation.

C. The Response

Food Availability: The USAID response to Indonesia's food crisis focuses on two areas: strengthening the GOI's food policy and management and improving accessibility to food. USAID responded quickly to Indonesia's drought-induced food crisis with $53 million in emergency food aid. Approximately 84,842 tons of commodities is being distributed through food for work and vulnerable groups feeding programs, targeting 982,620 beneficiaries, primarily in the eastern islands. As the crisis has developed, however, food insecurity has grown more severe in highly populated areas in and around cities, particularly on Java. We have begun to shift our food program to these areas, beginning in November with a feeding program in central Java. There will be a need for continued assistance to meet the needs of "the new poor" in Indonesia's urban areas.

Because the government's food program is so much larger than that of the donors, it is important that donors work with the government to increase its effectiveness. USAID is playing a strong role within the Donors' Food Group coordinating aid to the government and to NGOs monitoring the government's program. We will also provide technical assistance to the GOI to strengthen GOI policies and management systems for food prices and food stocks, targeting methodologies for subsidized food programs, and internal and independent program and nutritional monitoring capabilities.

Other donors continue to play an important and varied role in Indonesia's food crisis. Food donations, principally the U.S. World Food Program, Japan, Canada and Australia are sizeable. Data, provided by WFP, on the current commitments of food aid from other donors is as follows:

	Commodity	Quantity (MT)
WFP	Rice	114,664
(Total) Wheat		214,900
	Blended Foods	17,000
Japan	Rice	60,000 (donation)
		500,000 (concessional sale)
UNICEF	Blended Food	8,500
Others:	Various	7,000

The World Bank, in coordination with USAID and other donors, has begun work to strengthen GOI food policy. This work is being done in conjunction with the Bank's planning efforts for a large agriculture structural adjustment loan that seeks varied reforms in GOI food policy. The Bank, with USAID, and AusAID support, has started a nation-wide early warning system (the Social Monitoring and Early Response Unit) to collect, monitor and analyze previously unavailable information on food prices, availability and affordability, in addition to nutritional indicators, on a monthly basis. With this information and in coordination with USAID and other donors, UNDP is helping the GOI identify additional areas of greatest need in the country, and match these with future GOI and donor programs for all crisis-related activities, including food.

Health, Population and Nutrition: USAID and its partners are working to ensure that key primary health care services continue to be available throughout the crisis. This is accomplished through: attention to the nutritional status of key populations; ensuring that public health service outlets continue to function; maintenance of service quality; keeping private service providers operational, ensuring availability of products and services; and maintaining high demand for family planning and other primary health care interventions.

With USAID support, the GOI and NGOs play an active role in collection, analysis and dissemination of data required for crisis monitoring and surveillance. Policy-makers and program managers use these comprehensive crisis monitoring and surveillance data to mount appropriate responses. Over the long term, ad hoc assessments will take on less importance, and be supplanted by reliance on more functional, less frequent, and more streamlined monitoring mechanisms.

USAID interventions will contribute to reversing trends of lower demand for family planning and basic health services and eventually restore positive trends in utilization. Health workers, policy makers and the media are being mobilized to reinforce health messages. Knowledge among poor families about appropriate nutrition and cost-effective options will increase. As the crisis subsides, families will also have comprehensive information about service availability in the private sector.

Other Donors

ADB	Through two loans ($300 million) to finance a Social Protection Sector Development Program (SPSDP), the ADB aims to alleviate projected deficiencies in government provision of health, education and nutrition services, particularly among the poor. The loan package will provide: basic health education materials to six provinces; medical supplies in eight provinces, including a $14 million loan for contraceptives; block grants to health centers to cover operational costs and to cover high-risk mothers requiring hospital services; and block grants to village midwives to cover operational costs for pre and post natal care for poor women, including iron tablet distribution for pregnant women and vitamin A capsules for children 6-60 months.
Australia	As part of a $17.3 million humanitarian assistance programme coordinated by Australia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs, $2.6 million in essential drugs, medical supplies and equipment is provided to NTT, NTB, Maluku, South and Southeast Sulawesi. We understand that Australia intends to announce a $200 million economic governance package at APEC in mid-November.
Canada	The CIDA will donate $3 million worth of oral pills to the GOI.
EU	The EU procured $17 million worth of contraceptives (injectables, oral pills and implants) for Indonesia.
Finland	The Finnish Government has approved a loan for $29 million for Norplant implants.
Japan	JICA assists the GOI in maintaining essential blood bank and transfusion services in Sulawesi. JICA contributes to the SPSDP program in Sulawesi and NTT (See ADB). Early this year, JICA provided a donation of about $16 million to the MOH for medicines and disposable medical supplies.
UNFPA	UNFPA donated $3 million worth of contraceptives (injectables and implants) for nationwide distribution to prevent shortages of contraceptive supplies which would interrupt and severely hinder the national family planning. UNFPA provides assistance to strengthen blood supply management and improve the availability of and access to emergency obstetric care in 77 district hospitals.
UNICEF	UNICEF initiated a child feeding program. Cereal, fortified with micro-nutrients, will be distributed at low cost to poor children through integrated health posts at the village level. The program will begin in seven provinces and will expand to other provinces depending on the level of assistance from other donors. UNICEF will also continue the Universal salt iodization program and food fortification for wheat. UNICEF will assist the GOI in coordinating a household food security and nutrition surveillance program in 9 districts. UNICEF will continue to play an important role in coordinating donor crisis response efforts for the GOI.

WHO — WHO assists the GOI to coordinate crisis response efforts, particularly those related to safe motherhood.

World Bank: The World Bank provides loan support to the SPSDP (see ADB above) in 19 provinces.

Unemployment

Employment Generation Activities: According to a mid-October 1998 Citibank report, 2.7 million people are being added to Indonesia's 95 million labor force this year. The increase is dramatic: in early 1997 4.9 percent of the workforce was unemployed; by the end of 1998, it will be about 20 percent. Because most factory, bank, and service-industry workers who lost their jobs have stayed in the cities, the most volatile areas of unemployment are in urban and suburban areas. Through both donor (Asian Development Bank, World Bank and OECF) loan funds and state revenue, the Government of Indonesia has targeted more than Rp 6 billion through 20 different programs to urban employment generation in the next 18 months. More than half of the funds remain unspent mainly due to difficulties in identifying good employment generation projects and in matching good projects with funds. We are working with municipal governments and local community groups to identify appropriate projects.

The USAID response has been to:

- shift existing project resources for decentralized financing of urban infrastructure projects to work with local governments and community groups to identify employment generation projects and secure Government of Indonesia funding;
- assist NGO's to work with local governments to stimulate community participation in planning and implementing small urban infrastructure projects to be funded by Government of Indonesia programs;
- provide technical assistance to marry donor and Government of Indonesia funds with good projects;
- use technical assistance to expand the institutional capacity of local governments and NGO's to design and implement job creating public works projects;
- work with BAPPENAS to implement, manage and monitor donor and government-financed employment generation programs.

Preserving Urban Water Supplies: The Government of Indonesia realizes that the provision of piped water is as important to the urban poor as the provision of rice, cooking oil, soybeans, and sugar. Skyrocketing costs of inputs such as electricity and chemicals, combined with fixed tariffs have produced a cash crunch making almost one-third of Indonesia's 300 municipal water enterprises insolvent. As a last-ditch measure, some are putting untreated water through the water mains. The closing of water enterprises can result in poor sanitation, acceleration of poverty, and rise of epidemic diseases. The Government of Indonesia has established a Water Enterprise Rescue Team to target subsidy CGI-committed funds tied to management reforms in ailing water enterprises. But the enterprises are spread all over the country, and financial data available in Jakarta is unreliable.

The USAID response is to:

- o provide teams of water efficiency experts to visit ailing water enterprises and recommend solutions to keep the water flowing through increased efficiency and accessing foreign assistance Water Enterprise Rescue funds;
- o through the water efficiency teams, help the Government of Indonesia to recommend policy steps and preconditions for releasing tranches of assistance for water enterprise development in a program loan being prepared by the World Bank for approval in 1999.

Other Donors

World Bank There are three major new initiatives including the Kecamatan Development Program (KDP), $225 million, Urban Poverty Alleviation Program(UPAP), $100 million and resources from the Integrated Urban Infrastructure Development Program (IUIDP) $60 million. KDP is a national program which targets communities at the Kecamatan level for small enterprise, public works and other community activities. UPAP targets communities at even lower levels of government (RW level). IUIDP provided reprogrammed loan funds for investment in employment generating infrastructure projects. The Village Infrastructure Program is a $140 million employment generation program over five years targeted for rural areas.

ADB There is one major program called the Community and Local Government Support Program, a sector development program amounting to a program loan of $200 million to finance grants to local governments for public works projects. There was a re-allocation from four urban sector projects amounting to $40 million in resources to jump-start employment generation activities.

OECF The Japanese government is providing an additional $80 million for public works beyond the $40 million that had been allocated. The emphasis is on financing labor intensive projects with a 70 percent labor content. The first phase focused on directing resources through the Ministry of Public Works while the second phase will be directed to local governments where investment, planning and implementation decisions will be made.

II. ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES, NEEDS AND RESPONSE

A. Economic Consequences of the Crisis

Macroeconomic impact External and Internal factors: When the Asian currency crisis first appeared in Thailand in July 1997 and began spreading to other Asian countries, few people imagined that the regional crisis would be the beginning of Indonesia's economic collapse. Analysts cited Indonesia's sound macroeconomic indicators: high annual growth, large foreign exchange reserves, strict fiscal stance, and inflation rates long held to manageable levels (figure 1.1-1.6). Over the previous three decades the country had achieved rapid growth, political stability, self-sufficiency in rice, and a large reduction in poverty. A slow-down had been predicted by some observers, but not the total collapse of a seemingly sound economic system.

Before the crisis began, the central bank had been keeping the rupiah within an eight percent trading band. In July 1998, in response to increasing downward pressure on the currency, the band was widened to 12 percent. On August 14, the currency was floated, completely free of the trading bands. With the flotation, the internal and external factors that had been pressuring the rupiah set off a prolonged devaluation over the remainder of the year. By December 1997, the rupiah had plunged by 110 percent, an extreme drop, but roughly equivalent to the decline of other Southeast Asian currencies. Then in mid-December and early January 1998, political and economic uncertainty sent the rupiah plummeting, leaving other regional currencies far behind (figure 1.7).

Many factors have contributed to Indonesia's currency crisis, including external factors. Disinvestment by foreign financial institutions, caused by regional financial problems, put considerable pressure on the rupiah. The growing strength of the U.S. dollar against most other global currencies added to this pressure. The contagion effect from the fall of other regional currencies also exacerbated the currency's decline. Internal factors contributing to the rupiah's weakness included perceptions of growing political risk in Indonesia, rampant corruption, substantial bad loans by Indonesian banks and financial institutions.

Investor panic: The rupiah's initial decline was accelerated when panicked foreign investors, many of whom had insufficiently studied the risks of investing in Indonesia, began rapidly withdrawing capital. The currency's decline was further propelled as Indonesian companies, many with massive unhedged foreign short-term borrowing, rushed to buy dollars to service dollar-denominated loans.

A subsequent series of political and economic missteps by the Indonesian government, some made under the guidance of international finance institutions, further eroded confidence in the rupiah. The closing of 16 ailing banks as part of the initial IMF agreement in November 1997 sparked a massive loss of public confidence in the banking system. Many Indonesians realized that the number of troubled banks was far higher. Concerns over the banking system were exacerbated by memories of the nationalization of bank funds under President Sukarno in the 1960s. Such concerns, combined with the already tenuous condition of most Indonesian banks, induced many individuals and businesses to convert savings to dollars held in foreign banks or to hold cash.

Perceptions of President Suharto's failing health and the looming question of Presidential succession added to the atmosphere of high political risk. The May 1998 riots in Jakarta, Solo, and other cities sent the currency to an all-time low on May 19 of Rp 17,000 against the dollar, a massive overshoot in real terms. In addition, El Nino brought unusually dry weather that caused crop failures, creating a need to import food supplies, especially rice, and increasing the possibility of social unrest due to food shortages. (Specific details of the food shortages are covered in Section II– Humanitarian Consequences of the Crisis.)

As of the end of October 1998, the rupiah has strengthened somewhat to Rp. 8,000 – Rp. 9,000 to the dollar. Volatility remained a concern, however, as the daily volume on the rupiah foreign exchange market was so thin that even a million-dollar transaction could move the rate considerably. In addition, uncertainty regarding the short-term feasibility of the government's reform agenda added to the risk of future currency fluctuations. Analysts have suggested that the lack of supporting institutions make implementation of the economic reform agenda difficult. In addition, there are still many factions in the government resistant to economic liberalization.

Inflation: The rate of inflation soared to 75.5 percent between January and September 1998. Rates have been driven upward by the currency depreciation, as well as by an increase in the real money stock. From November 1997 until February 1998, the central bank, acting as a lender of last resort, had been providing money for a range of crisis-related activities, including liquidity assistance for ailing banks. This excess liquidity fueled inflation as it was not being soaked up by the main government money market instrument, Bank Indonesia Certificates (SBI), despite rates of up to 70 percent.

The consumer price index (CPI) peaked in June and July of 1998 after riots and looting the previous month paralyzed the distribution system. (Chinese-Indonesian merchants, who are central to Indonesia's distribution industry and who were one of the chief victims of the riots, have in many cases chosen not to reopen businesses, fearing further attacks) (figure 1.8). The biggest contributors to price increases have been clothing, food and processed food, drinks, cigarettes and tobacco. It is the widely acknowledged that the CPI is not catching the full scale of price rises, especially for middle income household expenditures. Surveys conducted by various newspapers suggest that for part of the year prices rose much faster than was stated in the official figures.

There is still significant government intervention holding down the price of key commodities in order to provide assistance to the poor. A tax on the export of crude palm oil, for example, has kept the local price artificially low. Other foodstuffs still receive targeted government subsidies that keep their prices below market rates. The timing for halting such intervention and allowing these prices to return to market rates is a key strategic decision facing the government.

The distribution system damaged during the May riots is largely back in working order. Many economists estimate that inflation will soon stabilize at around 20 percent per year.

The energy sector has experienced particularly high price increases, owing to its heavy dependence on dollar based inputs. The IMF-mandated repeal of subsidies on fuel and electricity prices in May 1998 is widely thought to have contributed to the unrest and riots in that month. The government subsequently reinstated those subsidies, although they are being gradually reduced. Despite subsidies, electrical power tariffs have nearly doubled from the pre-crisis rates. (Even after doubling, the current tariffs are still substantially below market rates).

Inflation has declined substantially since September 1998, and the government projects monthly rates of under three percent for the rest of the year. The decline is attributed to the fact that earlier currency spikes, most extreme in January 1998 and May 1998, have made their way through the economy. In addition, the exchange rate has been relatively stable for the past month. The government's tightening of the real money stock since February 1998 has also contributed to bringing inflation under control.
The required adjustment through inflation is by no means complete. Although initial shocks have passed through the economy, more than 50 percent in additional inflation shock remains to pass through the economy in the next 18 months to two years, even if the real exchange rate stabilizes.

Interest rates: High interest rates are another factor reining in inflation. In an effort to support the rupiah and reduce inflation, the central bank has increased the rate of SBIs several times since early this year, reaching a high of 70 percent and currently averaging 55 percent (figure 1.9). High interest rates are also considered necessary to induce businesses and individuals to hold savings in Indonesian banks and to compensate for Indonesia's country risk premium. The government sees high interest rates as necessary until the exchange rate stabilizes, at which time rates can be gradually reduced. In real terms, interest rates have remained negative, as they lag the current 80 percent year-on-year inflation rate. Nonetheless, recent expectations of lower inflation seem to have made the current interest rates more attractive, and many individuals and businesses have begun to move funds into rupiah savings accounts.

Many economists have stated that the current tight monetary policy has contributed significantly to the rupiah's recent stability. Stern criticism, however, has been sounded from private businesses, which claim that the high rates inhibit the access to finance needed to restart economic activities. Balancing the macroeconomic benefits of tight monetary policy with the business-side advantages of lower interest rates will be one of the greatest challenges facing decision-makers in the months ahead.

For many years before, and throughout the crisis, small finance institutions (SFIs) have played a valuable role in delivering credit to small businesses. SFIs are small, often village-based, lending institutions that make loans to small business and entrepreneurs at competitive rates. SFIs are capitalized both by individual deposits and by a regulation that requires commercial banks to make 25 percent of their loans to banks engaged in micro-finance. Active for over three decades, small finance institutions have been a leading source of credit to small-scale business in Indonesia.

Evidence indicates that many SFIs have continued to perform reasonably well amidst the current financial turmoil. Bank Rakyat Indonesia (BRI) reports that in its microfinance units there has been during the crisis have a 97 percent payback rate (down from 99 percent before the crisis) and a mild increase in nominal saving deposits. This minor increase is a substantial decline in savings in inflation-adjusted terms. SFIs serving urban areas and making larger loans seem to be having more difficulty than rural and village SFIs.

GDP growth: With the exception of the early 1980s when the price of oil dropped suddenly, Indonesia has maintained a consistently high economic growth rate over the past three decades. This growth, averaging 6-7 percent a year, transformed Indonesia from a lower-income country in the 1960s to a middle-income country with estimated income per head of almost $1,055 in 1996.

Manufacturing has led GDP growth since the mid-1980s, expanding from a low base of eight percent of GDP in 1965 to 25 percent of GDP in 1996 (see figure 1.10 & 1.11). Manufacturing taxes have increasingly contributed to government coffers, reducing the past reliance on depleting oil resources and the mining sector. This initial acceleration in the manufacturing sector created a need for better infrastructure development that, in turn, stimulated further growth in construction, utilities and supporting services. In order to perpetuate this virtuous circle, the government made increasing non-oil exports a key priority.

The government predicts that GDP will shrink by 15 percent in 1998. GDP per capita is expected to decline to below $500 by the end of this year. The swing is largely due to a drop in domestic demand, corporate bankruptcy and debt problems and weak regional and worldwide demand. (see figure 1.12)

USAID-sponsored analysis of national levels of electrical power usage suggests evidence that the actual contraction of GDP may be modestly lower than the government projection. The analysis found that as of August 1998 industrial electricity usage was only 5.5 percent lower than the previous year's level. Because industrial production is closely tied to electrical consumption, these findings suggest that industrial activity may have declined substantially less than anticipated. Even after adjusting the data for factors such as private power generation, the study still found evidence that industrial activity in the first three quarters of 1998 had declined only 6-9 percent from the 1997 level.

The change in GDP has been far from uniform across various sectors. The biggest losers this year have been manufacturing, construction, hotel & restaurant, and financial services. The agricultural sector, meanwhile, remained relatively resilient and did not contract even in the wake of El Nino. (Despite El Nino's devastating effect on rice production, many other agricultural areas grew significantly, offsetting the poor rice harvest. Plantations' output for example, rose by 6.5 percent, while forestry grew by 2.5 percent growth and fisheries by 6.7 percent.) Some export-oriented industries, including a few areas of manufacturing, have also fared well, buoyed by the weaker rupiah.

In general, the industries hardest hit by the crisis are the ones that developed more recently (and were less established), that were most dependent on foreign inputs, or that were dependant on domestic demand without options for export. The biggest winners of the crisis are industries that generate dollar revenues and require minimal imported inputs.

Because of this varied sectoral impact, the economic effects of the crisis have been quite diverse in different regions of Indonesia. Heavily industrialized areas in Java, particularly West Java and Jakarta, seem to be the hardest hit, while some agrarian regions in the outer islands have been less affected. Areas such as North Sumatra and North Sulawesi, which export agricultural commodities, have experienced mini-economic booms.

USAID-sponsored analysis of national electrical power data indicates that a substantial disparity indeed exists between the current economic activity in various regions. This analysis examined regional levels of industrial, commercial, and domestic power usage. The results indicated that industrial and commercial electrical usage in 1997 and 1998 dropped most significantly in Jakarta, followed closely by West Java. East Java experienced a more moderate decline. In the rest of the nation, power usage for commercial and industrial activities actually increased (Figure 1.13 & 1.14). While electrical power is only one factor contributing to regional GDP, these figures suggest that the crisis has had widely varying consequences for economic activity in different parts of the archipelago.

Current account: The government projects a current account balance surplus this fiscal year of US$ 1.4 billion, up from last year's deficit of US$ 1.7 billion. The surplus is due mainly to a higher balance of merchandise trade surplus driven by the steep decline in imports. Some private economists estimate that the surplus may now be substantially higher than the government projection.

Capital account: The capital account has been in deficit since the last half of fiscal year 1997/98 when net inflows of official capital were not sufficient to compensate for a hemorrhage of private capital fleeing the country. The capital account went deeper into deficit after the riots in May 1998 accelerated capital flight and temporarily stopped the inflow of IMF aid.

Real incomes: The rupiah's depreciation and the subsequent high levels of inflation have caused a collapse of real incomes and purchasing power within Indonesia. As noted, income per head is thought to have declined to below $500, from a 1996 level of $1,055. The decline in real incomes, combined with rising unemployment and uncertainty over the country's future economic course, have resulted in a substantial reduction in domestic demand. The continuing tight money policy has also affected interest-sensitive sectors such as the property and automotive sectors, which have been largely paralyzed by the interest rate hikes.

Regional variations in GDP growth (see above) are reflected in the fact that the crisis has not affected real incomes uniformly across the country. As noted, agrarian areas of Indonesia, traditionally the poorest regions, have generally suffered the least economic slow-down, and hence the smallest contraction in real income. It is important to note, however, that several poor areas, notably sections of East Nusa Tenggara, East Timor, and Irian Jaya, bore the brunt of last year's drought and have experienced some of the greatest drops in real income.

FINANCIAL SECTOR IMPACT

Private banking: Following the deregulation of the banking sector in October 1988, the number of private banks operating in Indonesia expanded rapidly. With limited banking expertise and weak regulation from the central bank (BI), many private banks were already in serious financial trouble by 1997. Even before the crisis, many of the 200-plus commercial banks were either undercapitalized or insolvent. The financial turmoil in Japan's banking sector exacerbated this situation as the Japanese banks began calling in their loans in Indonesia.

Following the closure of 16 insolvent banks by Bank Indonesia in early November 997, many depositors began to lose confidence in the private banking sector. The ensuing withdrawal of deposits compelled the government to provide liquidity support to keep many banks afloat. (This support was finally curtailed in February 1998 amid concerns over the risk of high inflation.) Additional deposit withdrawals occurred following the May riots and the government's suspension of an additional 54 private banks considered to be near insolvency (figure 1.15 & 1.16).

Under the Suharto regime, the central bank held little actual authority to enforce banking regulations, especially in cases involving politically well-connected banks. Consequently, the banking sector was rife with delinquency and banking regulations were openly flouted. Political pressure was regularly applied to state banks to make loans to politically-connected businesses. BI itself was often pressured not to investigate or intervene in collusive lending practices.

Financial sector reform is essential to sustainably restore the flow of credit which is now largely stopped to the productive sector of the economy. Observers have identified four basic flaws that helped send Indonesia's banking system into crisis:

-the credit supply had expanded very rapidly with a concentration on short-term private debt;
-BI's practice of classifying loans by repayment performance rather than collectability masked the actual condition of loan portfolios;
-accounting and provisioning rules did not keep pace with the changing banking system;
-inadequate enforcement of BI regulations meant that rules covering intra-group lending, loan concentration, creditworthiness criteria, transparency, were regularly violated.

IBRA: The Indonesian Bank Restructuring Agency (IBRA) was set up in January 1998 to supervise and manage the restructuring of the banking sector. Banks with liquidity support from the central bank beyond certain levels are required to surrender their management to IBRA in successive stages. IBRA is empowered to restructure the banks placed under its control in order to remove bad assets. Non-performing assets are removed from these banks and placed in the Agency's Asset Management Unit. In addition to eliminating bad assets, IBRA is tasked with recapitalizing banks and eliminating old management as well as old equity partners. Non-salvageable banks are to be dissolved, and their assets sold at market rates, or merged with other banks under IBRA.

Since the inception of IBRA, all Indonesian banks are undergoing due diligence audits and 54 insolvent banks have been put under the Agency's supervision. Several concerns regarding IBRA have already been voiced, including the risk that corruption and political pressure may compromise the Agency's impartiality in restructuring or disposing the substantial assets set to come under its control.

Another worry is that, with virtually all private Indonesian banks in financial trouble, the entire private banking sector may come under IBRA's control, leaving no banks operating on a private, independent basis. It is important to recognize the difficulty and magnitude of the task undertaken by IBRA. While the Agency has drawn criticism for its generally slow start, most critics recognize that, given the challenges organization faces, it may require some time to begin operating efficiently.

The Jakarta Stock Exchange: Prices on the Indonesian capital markets have fallen sharply during the crisis. From a historic high of more than 700 in early 1997, the Jakarta Stock Exchange (JSE) Index has plummeted to around 300 in recent month (figure 1.17). The markets have been affected by a massive loss of confidence in Indonesia as well as by the depreciation of the rupiah, which has increased the losses in dollar terms. The market capitalization of the JSE has fallen from about US$ 100 billion in June last year to about US$ 11 billion in the early October. The Jakarta market was heavily dependent on foreign investors. Many of these investors had only a limited understanding of Indonesia, which may explain the 'herd-like' exodus from the market. Bearish regional markets also put pressure on Indonesian bourses. Herd-like withdrawal of capital from the JSE is not unique to Indonesia but has occurred in many emerging bourses around the world. Much of the continuing debate about reforming global financial systems centers managing on this problem of swift and unpredictable capital flight. By mid-1998, almost 80 percent of the listed companies, especially those in property and banking, were technically bankrupt. Under current supervisory rules, an estimated 88 percent of active stocks may be de-listed next year, dealing a harsh blow to some of Indonesia's most important companies.

There has been some mild interest in the market lately, as the price of underlying assets has become extremely low in dollar terms. Most local investors prefer to keep their money in the banks, however, which currently pay up to 55 percent for time deposits. The government plans a gradual reduction of time deposit rates, which may eventually generate renewed local interest in the stock markets.

Corporate sector: Before the crisis, Indonesian companies found overseas borrowing an attractive source of finance. The vast differences or spreads between domestic and international interest rates made it more desirable to borrow overseas, where large projects funds were more readily available. Meanwhile, the predictable policy of the government to devalue the rupiah at around five percent per year made hedging the currency risk appear to be an unnecessary expense (figure 1.18). Overseas lenders were eager to loan to Indonesia, often without proper risk assessment, as the country was perceived as a very lucrative market. Recognizing the dangerous exposure created by excessive offshore debt, the government sought in 1995 to restrict large-scale overseas borrowing, but well-connected businesses were able to skirt this restriction.

When the rupiah began to plummet, the potential losses from unhedged overseas borrowing became glaringly obvious. Downward pressure on the rupiah was heightened as Indonesian companies rushed to buy dollars to service their interest and principal due and also to purchase needed foreign inputs. By the beginning of 1998, most corporations were unable to continue servicing overseas debts, and creditors became unwilling to continue extending loans to Indonesian companies. Growing perceptions of political and economic risk in Indonesia made capital scarcer still.
The crisis has left the corporate sector with a considerable debt overhang. According to official figures, private corporate debt stood at $65.5 billion in July this year, about $20 billion of which comes due this year. Total amortization payments falling due for calendar year 1998 are estimated at US$32bn (before any restructuring) (figure 1.19). Although not an immediate concern, an underlying problem facing the private sector is the lack of access to long-term capital. Some pension and life insurance funds were started recently and acquired significant assets over the past five years, but such funds are expected to be stagnant in the current crisis environment. Few other financial instruments exist in Indonesia for financing long-term debt. This raises the danger of companies continuing to borrow short-term funds for long-term projects, a practice partly responsible for the current debt overhang.

New bankruptcy law: One of the first new laws to be implemented, in line with IMF directives, is a new Bankruptcy Law which was enacted on August 20th. The law modifies the previous bankruptcy code based on the 1905 Dutch insolvency ordinance, which had been deemed too outdated and inefficient in resolving contemporary commercial cases. Until now there has not been any effective mechanism to help creditors recover their outstanding debts. Under the new law, companies entitled to call upon a 270-day suspension of payment period during which time they could work with receivers to develop a plan or composition, including an offer to pay creditors in full or in part. The rush of new bankruptcy cases is being handled through a new commercial court system set up for this purpose. The Ministry of Justice has provided training for lawyers, receivers, and judges to make the new system run. The new law is intended to bolster investor confidence in Indonesia, although early signs are not good. The court's first verdict in October 1998 was met with a hail of criticism from bankruptcy lawyers who faulted the judge for being inconsistent in implementing the proceedings. Modernland, a property developer with assets of about Rp. 1 trillion, was declared bankrupt for the relatively small claim of Rp. 94.13 million (about US$ 11,750). One other early decision has also attracted criticism as the judge set the fee for the court-appointed administrator of the assets at five percent of the defendant's total assets or Rp. 65 billion (about US$ 8.1m). This administrator's fee was four times higher than the disputed amount and an additional burden to a company already in trouble. The bankruptcy law has also drawn stern criticism for its lack of a US-style "Chapter 11" provision that would encourage work-outs to take place prior to legal action.

Jakarta Initiative: The Jakarta Initiative was launched by the government in September 1998 to serve as an umbrella organization under which to structure the overall effort to respond to corporate sector problems. The Initiative also serves to help debtors and creditors to come to agreement over restructuring financing through out of court settlement. The restructuring process is expected to involve debt forgiveness, extended maturity periods, debt-for-equity conversion and swap of assets. Under the framework, debtors will be required to reorganize their companies under an appointed advisor and to provide accurate and timely financial information. In return creditors will extend working capital and agree to "standstill" and not charge default interest and other penalties while restructuring negotiations are occurring. The plan assumes that, upon reaching an agreement, debtor companies will apply to INDRA (see below) in order to buy dollars at subsidized rate in order to begin debt repayments.

There does seem to be some initial interest from the corporate sector although creditors will have to be willing to write off some of the loans and debtors will have to show more intent to pay the loans. Previously, the government had set up the Indonesian Debt Restructuring Agency (INDRA), under central bank supervision, to bear the exchange rate risk by selling foreign exchange to debtor companies at a favorable rate. The Frankfurt Agreement, signed on June 4, 1998 by the government and 13 foreign banks with extensive outstanding loans in Indonesia, establishes a framework for Indonesian companies and their creditors to reschedule loans by up to eight years (Box 1 on Frankfurt Agreement).

As became clear once the initial euphoria over the agreement subsided, these terms are of little help to the many indebted companies now on the verge of bankruptcy. The agreement requires companies to continue making interest payments and makes no provision for debt discounts or write-offs. These problems are exacerbated by the weak rupiah.

Undoubtedly, many companies are facing bankruptcy. Factors such as weak domestic and export demand, difficulty in obtaining credit, and many other factors mentioned previously have been contributing factors. On top of this, some production activities are disrupted by sporadic riots and labor strikes demanding wage increase to make up for high inflation. It has been suggested that some companies would not be inclined to pay debts even if they were financial capable to do so. The seeming ineffectiveness of the bankruptcy law has induced many firms to continue operating without making provisions for debt repayment.

Exports: Early expectations of an export-led recovery have not yet been realized. Overall exports are expected by the government to increase by just 0.7 percent in dollar value in 1998/1999 based on a 18.6 percent dollar-value fall in oil and gas exports and a 5 percent rise in the value of non-oil exports. Export demand from Japan, South Korea, Singapore, and other Asian countries which typically account for approximately 50 percent of total exports, have declined drastically due to the regional economic crisis (figure 1.20). Flagging worldwide demand projected for 1999, combined with the risk of more protectionist policies in Europe (Indonesia's third largest trading partner), may further inhibit export growth next year. As a percentage of GDP, net exports (defined as exports minus imports in GDP terms) have risen some 500 percent. While the real rate of growth next year remains in doubt, it seems clear that export industries will continue to be a vital contributor to GDP growth. In addition, the limited rise in exports is largely due to the substantial drop in oil and gas exports, which resulted mainly from external factors, particularly oversupply on the world market. The fact that non-oil exports managed to rise even amidst last year's turmoil suggests that this area may become a stronger contributor to the country's economic recover.

Exports with limited imported inputs in industries such as agriculture and natural resources have brought a windfall to several areas of the country. However, many of Indonesia's export industries, notably manufacturing, are heavily import-dependent. With the rupiah's depreciation, the cost of importing raw materials has risen sharply. Obtaining trade financing to purchase these inputs is problematic as overseas banks have refused to recognize letters of credit (LCs) from Indonesian banks. Indeed, US banks are barred by law from having financial dealings with foreign banks whose international credit rating falls below certain levels. At present, no Indonesian banks meet the minimum credit rating for dealing with US lending institutions. Under the Frankfurt debt-restructuring agreement, foreign banks were asked to maintain trade finance lines at current levels (estimated around US$ 2-3bn) provided Indonesian banks repaid the US$1.2bn in overdue credit lines which has been done. The scheme is backed by the central bank.

Natural resources: Indonesia is endowed with substantial natural resources, including oil and gas, a wide range of minerals, marine resources, and tropical forests. Its forests and biological diversity also hold an important place in global ecosystem. Indonesia has the most extensive forest reserves in Asia, representing ten percent of the world's tropical rainforests and harboring biodiversity among the richest in the world. The country's waters harbor over 8,500 species of fish, or 25 percent of the world total. In addition, there are 1,600 bird species in Indonesia. Many species of plants and animals are endemic to the archipelago, appearing nowhere else on earth.
Natural resource sectors have traditionally contributed significantly to the Government's revenue. The three natural resources related industries (agriculture, forestry, and fisheries) account for approximately 20 percent of non oil GDP and for over 36 percent of non-oil export earnings. The current economic crisis following the collapse of rupiah has highlighted the importance of the natural resource sector as a major dollar earner. Fears have been voiced that increased reliance on natural resources as major revenue generation may further reduce forest cover due to an expansion of agricultural lands, expansion in mining areas, and increased timber cutting. Strong export demand gives incentives for government to expand the agricultural sector, potentially threatening forest cover further.

Mining, like agricultural exports, is very attractive during the crisis because most of its revenue is in dollars while the operating costs are largely in rupiah. The Ministry of Mines and Energy has stated that its top priority at present is to improve the investment climate in order to boost the government's earnings from this sector.
Meanwhile, international demand for Indonesian plywood is expanding due to reduction on Chinese log supply. Recently, Chinese government implemented a new policy requiring that logging in China be reduced by 60 percent. To fulfill the international demand for plywood, many Indonesian logging and processing companies have started to hire back workers.

Further pressure on Indonesia's natural resources has come from the return of many recently unemployed workers to agricultural activities. Research indicates that the number of small-holder plots in several areas has grown substantially in the last year. Many fear that this largely uncoordinated expansion of farming activities will pose significant dangers to the ecosystem.

Last year and early this year, Indonesia was plagued by devastating forest fires with as much as 264,000 ha of forest lands burned to ashes in 1997 alone. In 1998, up to September, another estimated 515,000 ha were burn down. Many of these forests are actually production forest and reserves forests. Financial losses from the fires have been estimated at US$4.4 billion alone, excluding the indirect health, transportation, and reforestation costs (Tempo, 11/2/98) (Figure 1.21).

Environmental NGOs: On the positive side, the growing political openness has allowed more freedom to NGOs, many of which are active in environmental issues. Increased assertiveness of environmental NGOs in demanding greater accountability and transparency from civil servants and private business has accelerated and deepened the process of redressing long-standing governance and corruption issues which have constrained responsible management of Indonesia's natural resources.

Environmental policy changes under the IMF agreement include :

- Increasing timber stumpage fees;
- Creating new resource rent taxes on timber resources;
- Reducing land conversion target to environmentally sustainable levels and implementing a system of performance bonds for forest concessions;
- Incorporating the reforestation fund into national budget so that it is used solely for reforestation purposes.

The Habibie government has promised to limit the size of timber concession management units to 39,000 ha. At present, there are nine ownership holding companies that have total concession in the range of 1.3 to 3.5 million hectares. Timber concessions that have been obtained through collusive practices will be cancelled and no new forest concessions will be awarded in order to prevent further deterioration. The government will seek to return reforestation funds previously loaned to politically connected interests. In addition, proposals have been made to extend the duration of forest concessions above the current 30-year lifespan. Extended ownership of concession lands is expected to encourage concessionaires to pursue long-term reforestation programs.

Public sector impact: One of the key conditions of the IMF agreement is to promote pro-competition policies. The IMF program specifically targeted several high profile monopolies and cartels granted to relatives and friends of President Suharto.
It is not clear to what extent these moves have resulted in the creation of free markets. There is evidence that the cancellation of the clove monopoly has led to a boom in cloves sales in certain areas. Sales of sugar, previously monopolized, also seems to have expanded. However, a close colleague of Suharto, still appears to retain considerable influence over the plywood industry. Other monopolistic practices have been able to avoid public scrutiny because their owners operate as cartels rather than as formal monopolies and can therefore claim to be operating in a deregulated environment. The cement industry is a case in point, being overwhelmingly dominated by three well-connected companies. Politically, the most serious problems facing the country relate to the production and distribution of food. From the point of view of consumers, the reforms thus far announced have had little practical impact on the market. Potential competitors in the wheat milling industry are reluctant to invest in new plant and equipment in the current monoplistic environment.

Anti-monopoly: In October 1998, the House of Representatives began deliberation of an anti-monopoly practices bill which would outlaw monopolies, cartels, vertical integration and other kinds of market distorting practices. The bill advocates the establishment of a Commission for Business Competition that would investigate and advise on the monitoring of the laws' implementation. Passing the legislation is just the first step however, as the implementation of the law will require a strong base of human resources, including trained judges, lawyers and legal, and economic experts.

A danger has emerged that the anti-monopoly movement could be directed specifically against Chinese-Indonesian businessmen, who control many of the largest monopolies. The Minister of Cooperatives has proposed that control of some Chinese-controlled monopolies be transferred to the cooperatives system, which is dominated by indigenous Indonesian businessmen or pribumi. Some observers fear that such sentiments may result not in the dismantling of monopolistic practices, but rather in the re-distribution of the old monopolies to a new group of business interests.

A group of NGOs have submitted an alternative version of the anti-monopoly law to the House of Representatives. The group has requested that some of its suggestions be incorporated into the official bill. The suggestions include the establishment of an independent commission to oversee enforcement of the anti-monopoly law and strict sanctions against monopolistic practices.

The budget: The government budget for 1998/99 has been set at Rp. 263.9 trillion, roughly double the 1997/98 budget of Rp. 131.5 trillion and over three times the 1996 level of Rp. 95 trillion. This year's spending increase will be covered by a substantial rise in international donor aid, which is projected to total Rp. 127.8 trillion (US$12 billion at a projected exchange rate of Rp10,600:$1). The level of international aid is more than triple last year's figure of Rp. 32.3 trillion ($5.4 billion at an average exchange rate of Rp.6,000:$1). (In the face of year-on-year inflation approaching 80%, the real budget increase is closer to a doubling of last year's level.)

Despite the higher budget, the government has encountered significant difficulties in delivering services amidst the crisis environment. The ongoing policy reform process, preparations for the upcoming elections, and sporadic social unrest have slowed official efforts to put in place crisis-related programs. The government initially projected a budget deficit in 1998/99 of 8.5% of GDP. The deficit was to be totally covered by the increased international aid. Because spending programs have been slow the start, however, the budget has remained in surplus.

To mitigate the worst consequences of the crisis on the poor, government plans to continue targeted subsidies on essential commodities. Most subsidies will, however be gradually reduced over the coming year in accordance with the IMF agreement. The government has scrapped all budgetary and non-budgetary support for controversial projects such as state aircraft maker, IPTN, as well as bringing some off-budget funds into the budget, which in the past had been a vehicle for spending on questionable practices. The funds of many government bodies, however, remain off-budget.

Economic laws: In return for international financial support, the Indonesia government has committed itself to the wholesale restructuring of its existing economic and commercial laws and policies. These laws have long been criticized as being outdated, unclearly written, or inadequate to the needs of modern, global business transactions.

As noted, modification to the existing Bankruptcy law was one of the first legal reforms to be completed. In addition to the pro-competition law, a secured transactions law and a contracts law are being debated. While the political commitment to passing these laws seems strong, fears have been voiced that the changes made by the new laws may not be comprehensive enough to achieve the sweeping change needed in the area of economic law. Other concerns include the worry that the government may lack the technical expertise to develop laws that are in keeping with the demands of a modern, global economy.

Privatization of state enterprises: The economic collapse has severely limited the scope for raising tax revenue. Partly to compensate for this shortfall, the government's agreement the IMF calls for additional funds to be raised by the partial privatization of state enterprises. The minister responsible for the state enterprises revealed on April 20 the privatization program involving increased divestment of state equity in the five firms already listed in the stock exchange and the partial sale on the government stock of seven other firms drawn up for 1999. These sales are expected to yield revenue of Rp 15 trn, which will be used to cover budget deficits and to restructure the troubled banking sector.

Progress on the privatization program has been slow and early work was mired by accusations of unfair competition. Existing regulations which give the government exclusive rights to manage key sectors such as resources and infrastructure, have been hampering progress. Another barrier is the current bearish sentiment of the capital markets, which has caused several privatizations to be postponed. The Minister of Empowerment of State Enterprises has stated that the government will retain the national telephone company stock until the market improves. The government also needs time to restructure the firms and check for the presence of corrupt or collusive contracts made within any of the companies. The seven state enterprises planned to be privatized by March 1999 include : two port management companies, a steel company; a toll road company, a plantation firm, a mining firm, and a airport operator.

B. ECONOMIC NEEDS OR CHALLENGES

Macro Economic Challenges: Reestablishing macro economic stability will be the first step toward a sustained economic recovery. The most important challenges in this area are:

Stabilizing the rupiah by:

-Clearly demonstrating government commitment to political and economic reform and good governance;
-Minimizing social unrest through social safety net programs;
-Maintaining positive real interest rates on rupiah-based savings accounts, which increases the attractiveness of holding rupiah. This policy, however, must be balanced with the need to eventually reduce interest rates in order to make finance more easily available to the private sector.)

Controlling inflation by:

-Strengthening the rupiah beyond its current level (Rp. 8,000 – Rp. 9,000 to the dollar) and achieving currency stability:
-Reducing the real monetary stock by continuing the tight monetary policy begun in March 1998:
-Continuing targeted government subsidies of key commodities while beginning a gradual phase-out period;

Stimulating economic activity by:

-Achieving the projected government deficit of 8.5 percent of GDP. (As noted, the 1997/98 budget, despite calling for an 8.5 percent deficit, is currently in surplus due to delays in launching many government programs. Delayed programs should be launched as quickly as possible in order to help 'kick-start' the economy.)
-Continuing to lower interest rates to make finance more easily available. It is critical, however, that interest rates remain relatively high until the rupiah has stabilized. (There have been some market indications that interest rates are prepared to drop below the October 1998 level of 55 percent. Determining the rate at which interests rates will be lowered is one of the most challenging macroeconomic decisions facing the government of Indonesia)

Financial Sector Challenges: Indonesia's financial sector is largely paralyzed and, some argue, on the verge of collapse. Resuscitating this sector and reestablishing an effectively flow of finance will be critical to beginning the country's economic recovery. At the same time, structural reforms need to be put into place to ensure that the sector can perform effectively in the future and that past mistakes are not repeated.

The greatest challenges in reforming the financial sector are:

Ensuring more stringent enforcement of banking sector regulations. This goal can be achieved by:

-Expanding BI's power to adjudicate delinquent banks. (As noted, Indonesia is generally considered to have reasonably sound banking regulations. The major problem has been that the regulations were weakly and inconsistently enforced;
-Reducing corrupt and collusive practices in the banking sector by strengthening BI's oversight capacity;
-Enhancing the technical capacity of BI personnel to identify deliquent banking practices;
-Increasing the independence of BI from other government agencies;
-Increasing the accountability of Bank Indonesia to ensure that it polices the banking sector fairly and equitably;
-Adopting within Indonesia improved standards for accounting and risk analysis;
-Increasing BI's accountability and transparency in order to prevent corrupt and collusive practices

-Increasing the capacity of the Indonesia Bank Restructuring Agency to efficiently restructure the banking system. This goal can be achieved by:

-Enhancing the technical capabilities of personnel inside IBRA;

-Ensuring the Agency's independence from other government agencies. Such independence is critical. If the Agency is to restructure the banking sector effectively, it must operate on sound financial and economic principles, free from political influence

-Increasing the Agency's accountability and transparency in order to minimize opportunities for corruption;

-Developing oversight systems to ensure that new, competent management is introduced into restructured banks;

-Improving the capacity of the banking sector itself by:

-Increasing the ability of banking professionals to assess and manage risk;

-Developing more stringent standards for banking professionals.

-Improving access to trade finance for exporters. This can be achieved by:

-Reviewing the existing facility for government guarantees of L/Cs to identify the reasons it is being underutilized;

-Amending the program or developing an alternative facility.

Corporate Sector Challenges: The greatest challenge in the corporate sector is corporate debt overhang. Several efforts have been launched to help Indonesian corporates restructure their corporate debt, including the Frankfurt Agreements and the Jakarta Initiatives. In addition the finance sector must be reformed in order to sustainably restore the flow of credit which has now largely stopped in the corporate sector. Several further steps are also needed including:

Increasing the technical capacity for effectively restructuring corporate debts. This can be accomplished by:

-Utilizing the Jakarta Initiative to reach deals between debtor and creditor companies before restructuring packages are brought to INDRA;

-Enhancing the technical capabilities of personnel inside INDRA;

-Ensuring the Agency's independence from other government agencies, allowing it operate in a rational, disinterested way;

-Increasing the Agency's accountability and transparency in order to minimize opportunities for corruption.

-Stablilizing the real value of rupiah. This would help Indonesian companies to repay dollar denominated loans. (See 'Macroeconomic Challenges' subsection above.)

C. USAID AND OTHER DONOR RESPONSE

USAID is focusing on providing U.S. technical expertise to support achievement of the economic and financial reform agenda set under the IMF/GOI agreement and supported by all members of the Consultative Group for Indonesia. In the financial and corporate sectors, this allows Indonesia to benefit from U.S. experience related to such situations as resolution of the U.S. S&L crisis of the mid-80's and U.S. support to economic and financial restructuring in eastern Europe. Given the strength of the U.S. economic system, provision of U.S. expertise related to corporate governance, economic law and regulation, and macroeconomic policy, is also especially appropriate. The program is carefully coordinated with other involved U.S. institutions, such as the U.S. Treasury, as well as the IMF and the other multilaterals.

The international donor community has mounted a major rescue effort for Indonesia. Under the leadership of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), a $40 billion economic reform and recovery package was formulated for Indonesia. This package, to be disbursed over three years, include: IMF stand-by credits of $10.14 billion, $3.5 billion from the Asian Development Bank (ADB), $4.5 billion from the World Bank (WB), and pledges from bilateral donors as follows: Singapore, $10 billion; Japan, $5 billion; the U.S. , $3 billion; and Australia, Hong Kong, Taiwan, and Malaysia, $1 billion each. The goals of this program are: the stimulation of domestic demand by supporting a carefully managed program of government deficit spending; restarting the shattered financial sector; resolving corporate sector debt issues and assisting associated restructuring efforts; and strengthening economic governance.

The World Bank: A $1 billion structural adjustment loan is in place which, among other topics, contains an agenda focused on financial sector restructuring. In support of this program, the Bank is providing $20 million being used primarily to support accountancy work to establish the financial condition of many banks prior to restructuring. The Bank is also planning to provide $30 million to support corporate restructuring efforts.

The Asian Development Bank: The ADB also has a structural adjustment loan focused on finance, which includes $50 million in support for development of a secondary mortgage facility, and $50 million in technical support for the banking sector. Most of this $50 million is being used again for accounting services to determine the financial status of banking institutions. The ADB is also planning a $3-400 million SAL oriented toward trade and industry and small business development. This loan has been closely coordinated with USAID and other donors.

Other Bilateral Donors: Japan is the major bilateral donor to Indonesia. It does provide some technical assistance, such as to the Planning Ministry (BAPPENAS). However, most of its financing is lending in support of the IMF/GOI package, infrastructure development, or trade credits. Australia is providing AU$70 million is support of the strengthening of economic institutions, including support for the development of the new bankruptcy mechanism. The EC is supplying ECU15 million to ASEM Trust Fund of the World Bank to support technical assistance in economic and financial reform.

Trade Credits: In recognition of the major banking difficulties faced by the country, both the GOI and many international donors have established special facilities to support trade finance. The GOI has placed $1 billion in foreign exchange with ten foreign banks as collateral to confirm letters of credit from Indonesian banks. A guarantee program for up to 80% of the value of Indonesian letters of credit up to $1.5 million is also being planned by the GOI. Other such facilities include: Japan EXIM: $1 billion (operational); U.S. EXIM: $1 billion (under negotiation); Singapore $5 billion (planned); Canada: $30 million; Germany: $250 million; and Netherlands: $500 million (planned).

III. POLITICAL CONSEQUENCES, NEEDS AND RESPONSE

A. Political Consequences of the Crisis

New opportunities: Perhaps the most palpable consequence of the Indonesian crisis has been to open unprecedented opportunities for reforming the country's political process. During President Suharto's 32 years of rule, Indonesian society acquiesced to a corrupt, and authoritarian regime in exchange for the benefits of economic growth. The economy's sudden reversal beginning in mid-1997 brought increasingly vocal calls for political change, including explicit calls for Suharto to step down. These calls sounded not only from activists and student groups, but ultimately from elements of the bureaucratic elite, including the political party, Golkar, Suharto's long-time power base. This movement culminated in Suharto's resignation on May 21, 1998.

Suharto's successor, B.J. Habibie, appears on the surface to support the growing calls for political reform. In his inaugural speech, President Habibie explicitly accepted the agreement reached by his predecessor with the IMF, which calls for no less than 117 different measures of reform over the next 18 months. A flurry of reform-oriented legislation has been launched under Habibie's rule.

There is lingering concern, however, about the genuineness of Habibie's commitment to reform. As a protégé of Suharto, Habibie raises concerns that the authoritarianism and cronyism that defined the previous regime may live on.

Elections: The government has taken some significant steps toward reform. Shortly after taking office, Habibie called for elections to be held in 1999. Legislation was launched to establish new electoral regulations that would replace the existing system, which is widely considered corrupt and subject to official manipulation. Conducting open, equitable elections will be no small task. Under the current system, popular elections are held every five years to elect the national House or Representatives (DPR). In the same year as the House elections, the People's Consultative Assembly (MPR), formally the highest authority of government, convenes to sanction the guidelines of state policy and elect the president and vice president for the next five years. The Assembly is comprised of the 500 members of the House of Representatives and an additional 500 members appointed by the Executive. Traditionally, the President's power to appoint half of the Assembly seats virtually ensures his re-election. This privilege was one of the main tools Suharto used to perpetuate his seven consecutive terms in power.

Legislation is presently being debated to amend these serious shortcomings in the electoral system. Under the proposed legislation, the number of Executive appointees in the Assembly will be reduced to less than 30 percent of the body's total membership, thereby reducing the President's influence over the Assembly. Proposals have been made to reduce the number of appointees from the Armed Forces from 75 to 55, beginning the retreat of the military from the political realm. Critics have argued the presence of any appointees compromises the Assembly's accountability as an elected body, the proposed legislation does constitute a vital step towards more representative government.

Legislation is also in the works to move the electoral process for the House Of Representatives from a system of proportional representation to one more heavily weighted towards district-based constituencies. Under the former system, each province's seats in the DPR were held by members of the political party that district elected, but not necessary by MPs who hailed from that district. The proposed district-based constituency system is expected to reduce the influence of political parties and strengthen the accountability of elected representatives to their constituents. Legislators will now for the first time be bound by a domicile rule stating they must live in the district they represent. Under the proposed system, 428 MPs will directly represent a district while only an additional 67 MPs will be elected on a proportional basis to represent the party.

Political Parties: For most of the Suharto period, party politics were tightly controlled. After 1972, only two political parties existed legally, the Muslim United Development Party (PPP), and the nationalist Indonesian Democratic Party (PDI). Both were overshadowed by the government-controlled Golkar, which held the status of a 'supra-party' dedicated to defending 'national prosperity'. As such, it was not subject to the same restriction on campaigning as the PDI and the PPP. Golkar's electoral successes (in the last general election it polled 74 percent of the vote) rested heavily on the mandatory support of the armed forces and the bureaucracy.

Shortly after assuming the presidency, Mr. Habibie announced that the party system would be opened. This announcement led to an explosion of new parties. Concerns surfaced that these parties were harbingers of either political fragmentation or political sectarianism, either of which could end in a return to authoritarianism. By June 1998, some 30 parties had emerged, included workers parties, religiously based parties, and at least two Chinese parties. The following month, a more reassuring political environment seemed to be emerging in which large parties, often in alliance with each other, would dominate the scene. Nonetheless, as of October 1998, some 90 parties had been officially registered.

Legislation is being debated to ensure fair competition among political parties. Under the proposed 'political parties law' many special privileges enjoyed by Golkar will end. Civil servants, for example, will no longer be obliged to vote for Golkar. The civil servants' association, Korps Pegawai Negeri (Korpri), will no longer form part of Golkar and its members will not be required to campaign for the party. In addition, all political parties will be recognized by the government provided they meet a list of conditions (See below).

While the proposed law does much to create a fair campaigning environment, concerns have been voiced about some of the law's proposed statutes. For example, to be officially recognized, all parties will be required to have 13 provincial branches as well as sub-branches in at least half of the regencies of any province. If a party fails to meet the above requirements, it must have at least one million signatures from its prospective constituents, complete with names, addresses and copies of their identification cards. Some observers argue that such stringent requirements would be too demanding for many emerging parties and would cement the position of a well-established Golkar.

Another concern surrounds the bill's proposal to limit campaign contributions to Rp 5 million (US$ 600) on individual donations and Rp 50 million (US$ 6000) on donations from corporations. Such a stipulation would clearly benefit the already well-financed Golkar and hinder the myriad of fledgling opposition parties.

The government is also proposing to maintain its 'floating mass' policy which the Suharto regime used to effectively bar political parties from establishing branches or campaigning at the sub-district or village level. Golkar is excluded from this restriction as it is not considered a political party but rather a 'functional group'.

A final point of concern relates to the government's stance on the 'schism' within the PDI. The Suharto government was widely accused of engineering a rift in this increasingly popular party headed by Megawati Sukarnoputri. Mrs. Megawati was removed from the official party leadership in June 1996 in what was considered a government-orchestrated campaign. By continuing to recognize Mrs. Megawati's rival as the official party leader, the Habibie government has cast some doubt on its commitment to pursuing a 'hands-off' approach to party politics.

It must be recalled that all of the above legislation is still under deliberation with the final shape of the laws yet to be determined. Significantly, the legislation will ultimately be decided by MPs brought into office under the old, corrupt electoral process, many of whom stand to lose their office under a more open system. The steps the final legislation takes toward a clean, transparent electoral system will send a strong signal regarding the government's commitment to real reform.

The timing of elections also remains unclear. President Habibie has announced the possibility of a delay in the previous timetable, which called for House elections in May 1999 and an Assembly session the following December to elect the president and vice president. It is not clear whether the proposed delay is due to the purely technical reasons of running an open election for the first time.

The power of the Executive: The economic crisis has also brought about calls for improved institutions of governance and increased accountability and transparency of government institutions. Probably the loudest calls have been for limitations on the power of the Executive. Indonesia's constitution does call for a strong President. Indeed, the constitution gives the President the power to issue Presidential Decrees (INPRES and KEPPRES) which have the same legal force as laws enacted by the House and which do not require House approval.

Despite this substantial constitutional power, Suharto in his three decades of rule incrementally expanded the power of the Presidency until it effectively overshadowed all other parts of the government. For example, while Indonesia's constitution empowers the House to reject legislation proposed by the Executive, the House of Representatives under Suharto never blocked an Executive-sponsored bill and proposed no original legislation of its own. Most observers agree that there is a strong need for the Presidency to be limited to its original powers granted in the constitution.

The House: With the resignation of President Suharto, there have been several signs that the House of Representatives is prepared to assume a more active role in governance. In June, the House proposed original legislation for the first time in 32 years. It has also actively contested several bills proposed by the Executive. In addition, all major factions of the House of Representatives recently recommended that the president and vice president be limited to two five-year terms in office. This proposal is expected to pass during the working sessions of the Assembly in November. Under this proposal, the President would also be required to address the Assembly every year instead of every five years.

The political rules of the game: It is still difficult to assess the political forces that will influence the future of the policy process under the new Habibie government. For over thirty years, policy was directed almost exclusively by a single man: President Suharto. Even influential ministers were reluctant to take political action without first seeking Presidential approval. The political process, while unrepresentative, was clear and predictable.

The sitting President holds a much narrower power base than his predecessor. Consequently, the number of influential political players, and the ability of these players to sway policy, has grown markedly. Table One provides an overview of the major power centers in the Habibie government. Many forces outside the government – NGOs, political parties, religious organazation, cooperatives – have also assumed a more active role in influencing policy decisions. The future of Indonesia politics will be strongly influenced by how the various political actors fill the power vacuum created by Suharto's departure.

Corruption: One of the loudest calls for reform this year has been for a reduction of corruption, collusion and nepotism. Indonesia ranked 80th out of 84 countries on the Transparency International's 1998 Corruption Perception Index. Under the previous administration, abuses by government officials and well-connected individuals, notably Suharto's own family, were widely known and generally went unpunished. Demands to reduce corruption were hushed amidst the climate of political repression. Since Suharto's resignation, the expanded media freedom has turned the spotlight on corruption. In addition, there is growing recognition among Indonesian society that the economic distortions created by corruption practices were partly responsible for the country's economic collapse.

Some observers have suggested that President Habibie is unlikely to move quickly to reduce corruption. Throughout the Suharto years, most of the earnings of the Timsco Group (Habibie's family business) came from government supply contracts, particularly from state-owned entities within Habibie's ministerial portfolio in research and strategic industries.

The Armed Forces seem equally unlikely to take action against corruption. General Wiranto's public promise on May 21st to protect the Suharto family was widely understood to include its wealth. The replacement in late June of attorney-general

Sudjono Atmonegoro by Major-General Ghalib, an active army officer, suggested to many observers that Mr. Habibie had been pressured to slow the investigation into the Suharto family wealth.

The investigation into Suharto's wealth has assumed as high profile among Indonesian society, as it is symbolic of the previous regime's corrupt practices. Failure to reclaim at least some of Suharto's reported billions of dollars, will send a negative message to Indonesian society regarding the current administration's commitment to reform, a message that could add to the already growing social tensions.

Decentralization: The economic crisis has also increased calls for more local self-governance. Under the current political system, mayors and regents are selected in an election process that is heavily influenced by the Ministry of Home Affairs. As a consequence, 75 percent of current mayors and regents are active or retired military member, most with strong allegiances to the central government. Despite substantial progress in fiscal decentralization, approximately 70 percent of the funding for the local government expenditures still originates from central government grants and transfers.

The current political environment presents a potential watershed for political decentralization in Indonesia which can be translated into accelerated technical decentralization. Political will is emerging for legislation that could result in substantial authorities being delegated away from the central level.

Several outlying provinces have gone beyond calls for decentralization, demanding greater levels of political autonomy or even outright independence. East Timor, for example, has put forward a proposal to hold a referendum on self-determination. Little evidence has emerged, however, of a fundamental shift in the government's position on Timor. Ali Alatas, Indonesia's Foreign Minister, outlined a partial autonomy plan that would give an East Timorese government control over all political matters except foreign affairs, defense and monetary and fiscal policy. This would go beyond the very limited "special status" already granted to a few areas of Indonesia such as Yogyakarta and Jakarta. Initial reactions suggest that East Timorese regard the proposal as inadequate.

It is important to recall the potentially fractious nature of Indonesian Republic. The archipelago comprises hundreds of different ethnic and linguistic groups, many of which feel minimal allegiance to the nation. There is resentment in many regions toward the island of Java and the capital city Jakarta, which have developed much faster than the other islands and are believed to have received disproportionately high levels of development aid. Resentment is particularly strong in resource-rich areas, which have regularly seen profits from resource-based industries returned to Jakarta, where most mining, forestry, and petroleum companies are based.

Civil Freedoms

Freedom of expression: One of the most visible effects of the Indonesian crisis has been an explosion of public expression not seen for decades. In the waning months of Suharto's rule, Indonesian society became much more aggressive and open in its calls for change. After an initial crackdown, the Military seemed reluctant to attack the growing number of demonstrators. It is unclear if this stance signals growing support among the armed forces for increased freedom, or, if the military is simply trying to improve its public image in the wake of the unrest in May 1998.

The position of the government is less clear. On October 22 the House of Representatives passed a new freedom of expression law that expanded rights to demonstrate in public places. Under the new law, protests cannot be staged within a certain radius of strategic locations, such as the presidential palace and military installations, and organizers are required to notify the police at least three days before a planned protest. The police are obliged to protect demonstrators as long as they have met all the legal requirements.

While the bill is considered an improvement on previous freedom of expression laws, critics argue that the registration requirements leave too much room for the government to prevent demonstrations from occurring. It is also significant to note that prior to the current bill's passage, President Habibie had proposed what was considered a much more repressive law on public gatherings.

The government has also taken steps to protect freedom of association. The bill on public protests passed through the House in just 20 days at a time when members were behind schedule on their debate of the new electoral laws. The swift passage of this law suggests that the government afforded it a high priority. During debate on the final draft of the bill, members of the House managed to convince the Executive to drop the condition that protesters must be granted a police permit before holding a protest of more than 50 people. Regular protests against the bill by students and NGOs at the House may have also influenced the government's decision to drop this controversial clause.

The media: In early June 1997, the new Information Minister rescinded the controversial 1984 Press Law which allowed him to unilaterally revoke press licenses from publications. The process to obtain a publishing license has also been cut from 16 conditions and three permits to just three conditions. Publishing companies no longer need government approval to appoint or change their editorial boards.

The government has also stated that the Indonesian Journalists Association (PWI) will no longer be the only organization allowed to represent journalists. Private radio stations are now allowed to produce and manage their own news and are only required to relay four news broadcast a day from the state-run Radio Republic Indonesia, down from the previously required 14 broadcasts.

Critics worry that these changes are insufficient. The Information Minister, for example, still retains the right to revoke licenses for an unspecified period of time.

Many consider this a dangerous power, as license revocation was one of the main tools used by Suharto to control the media. President Habibie has also proposed the possibility of requiring journalists to be accredited and licensed, a requirement which could be closely controlled by the government.

Despite increased openness, it is important to recall that publishers and broadcasters, like many businesses in crisis-stricken Indonesia, will be struggling to survive in the face of falling revenues and rising costs. Almost all publications have had to reduce the number of pages they print or otherwise downsize operations. The price of newsprint rose almost 600 percent in rupiah terms from July 1997 to July 1998 (figure 2.1). In addition, advertising revenues have fallen substantially as the market for many products has sharply contracted. (see figure 2.1)

Labor unions: Within days of becoming President, Habibie signed the International Labor Organization (ILO) convention No. 87, which guarantees workers the right to organize. One month later, the Minister of Labor issued a decree formally granting freedom to workers to form unions as long as they register with the government. The new decree also allows unions to form federations and confederations in order to strengthen their bargaining power. The Ministry of Manpower is currently drafting a new law on labor unions which is says will strengthen further the legal basis for labor organizations in the future.

These moves are a significant departure from the government's previous labor policy. Under the Suharto regime, workers could only form unions at the company level and these unions had to be affiliated with the government-sanctioned All-Indonesia Workers Union (FSPSI). In a highly publicized case, one union, the Indonesia Prosperous Labor Union (SBSI), founded in 1992 by lawyer Muchtar Pakpahan, was outlawed and several of its leaders, including Pakpahan, were jailed. SBSI has since been given official recognition and Pakpahan has been released from jail. Some 12 other independent unions have been established in the wake of the government's more liberal stance.

Several other key ILO Conventions, notably No. 105 on migrant workers, No. 111 on discrimination in employment and No. 138 on minimum wages, have yet to be signed by Indonesia. Officials at the Ministry of Manpower have said the government is studying these conventions before reaching a decision.

A concern has arisen that labor activities are growing at exactly the time when Indonesian companies are least able to provide improved terms and benefits for workers.

In July 1998 a group of factory workers in Bandung, West Java held a demonstration demanding a 75 percent wage increase. When company management proposed an increase of 35 percent, claiming the firm could bear no greater hike, the demonstrators flew into a rage, destroying factory facilities and equipment

NGOs and civil society: The recent change of administrations has also allowed NGOs and institutions of civil society to expand their activities. Under Suharto, the government attempted to control or marginalize most civil society institutions and forced activist NGOs to operate at the fringes of the policy and political arena. In the new atmosphere of political openness, these institutions are enjoying new liberties.

Many civil society organizations and NGOs have played a significant role in responding to the ongoing crisis in Indonesia. When political activists disappeared earlier this year, the Indonesian Legal Aid Foundation (YLBHI) was instrumental in identifying and tracking the phenomenon, as well as providing advice and legal assistance to the families. They and other NGOs publicized the disappearances and kept the issue alive. A number of organizations have continued to publicize the issue of the sexual assaults in Jakarta during the May riots and a few have been included in the official investigation into the riots.

Other organizations are working with the press to support the free and open flow of information in an effort to maintain the momentum for reform. In October, a South Sumatran regional court found two logging concession holders guilty of starting forest fires. The companies had previously blamed the fires and the subsequent pollution last year on local slash and burn farmers. Using satellite photos as evidence, the Indonesian Forum on the Environment (Walhi) and the local Legal Aid Foundation were able to successfully identify the source.

The role of the military: The role of the Indonesian military has also come under close examination. The May riots in Jakarta are widely suspected to have been sparked by a military shooting of four student protestors at a local University. Since then, widespread criticisms have been sounded about the military's lack of professionalism and disregard for human rights.

Increased scrutiny of ABRI has also drawn into question the military's role in politics. At present, the military has a legally sanctioned political role, formalized in the doctrine of dwifungsi or "double function". This policy guarantees the military a set number of seats in both the House of Representatives and the Assembly. Many observers claim that under Suharto, dwifungsi came to mean not just military participation in House and the civilian bureaucracy but also the covert manipulation and suppression of political activity in general. The covert role usually involved a range of activities from gathering political intelligence, to orchestrating the elections of recognized political parties, to use of terror against political dissidents.

In the wake of Suharto's resignation there have been powerful voices within ABRI itself hinting about the need to reduce the political role of the military. While such calls are generally viewed as a favorable development, they do run the risk of exacerbating rifts in the already fractious military.

Calls have also been sounded for the military to abandon its extensive business activities. ABRI currently operates 64 major companies in Indonesia. This business role is considered necessary in order to complement the military's rather limited government funding. (Capital spending on defense averages only 2-4 percent of the total yearly government budget.) Because ABRI's business revenues are off-budget, however, they open substantial opportunities for abuse. Complaints have also been heard for years that the military uses intimidation and threats, and sometimes outright violence, to strong-arm its suppliers and competitors.

LEGAL PROCESS AND RULE OF LAW

New laws proposed: With the opening of the doors to political reform, unprecedented opportunities have emerged for reforming Indonesia's legal system. Analysts have for years insisted that a thorough overhaul of the country's legal system would be necessary for Indonesia to fully integrate into the global economy. Most of the legal code and legal institutions in place in Indonesia today originated from the time of the Dutch East Indies and have changed little since the middle of the 19th century. Significantly, many of the laws drafted since independence, including those issued during the Suharto era, continue the colonial legal policies of emphasizing national stability at the expense of individual liberties.

There has been a flurry of new bills drafted since President Habibie took office in May and it seems that the current Minister of Justice, Muladi, is indeed committed to pursuing legal reform in a proactive manner. The most high profile are the laws addressing freedom of expression, the elections, and political parties (see pages 2-3). Economic and commercial laws have also assumed high priority (see Section II).

Legal Institutions: Calls for new and better laws have been accompanied by growing public outcry for more independent legal institutions. Most frequently cited is the need for an independent and impartial judiciary. Under the present political system, the judiciary, as part of the Ministry of Justice, is strongly influenced by the Executive branch. Critics argue that because judges are appointed and can be fired directly by the Justice Minister, their impartiality is compromised. Adi Andojo, a former Supreme Court Judge who was sacked by Suharto after exposing acts of corruption within the Supreme Court has stated that money and power often prevail over justice.

To date, the government has taken no clear steps to reform this important area. Establishing the judiciary as an independent 'branch' of government, outside the Executive, would require a constitutional amendment. It is unclear if the current administration is prepared to go to these lengths.

The police: One of the results of the growing public demand for accountability from the Armed Forces is a new role for the 177,000-strong national police force. There has been increasing public criticism of the police for failing to impartially enforce the law and for violating human rights. Amidst this storm of criticism, Minister of Defense and Armed Forces Commander Wiranto announced in October that the National Police Force will be separated from the Armed Forces starting in April 1999.

Supervision of the police force will initially be transferred to the Ministry of Defense. After a six month interim, this responsibility will be handed over to the Ministry of Home Affairs or to the President, or possibly kept within the Ministry of Defense. The Defense Minister explained that the shift was intended to change in the police force's philosophy from one of being military-oriented officers to public-oriented civil servants.

HUMAN RIGHTS

Human Rights issues: One of the effects of the crisis was to turn the world spotlight on Indonesia, especially during the international broadcast of the May riots in Jakarta. Increased press coverage has raised international concern over the issues of human rights violations in Indonesia. Indonesian citizens and NGOs have also begun to speak out more actively on these issues amidst the liberalized atmosphere of expression.

The government has responded by making several significant human rights gestures. In June, President Habibie officially launched a five-year National Action Plan on Human Rights. The President set the ratification of human rights conventions, the dissemination of information and education on human rights principles as targets to be met by 2003.

Indonesia has only ratified four of the 24 UN conventions on human rights. The government has yet to ratify the prime convention, the International Bill of Human Rights, as well as two main covenants: the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights.
At least 50 political prisoners have been released in a blaze of publicity at various times since Habibie took power, although an estimated 120 anti-government activists still remain in jail.

The government-affiliated National Commission on Human Rights has pledged to increase its independence and authority. The rights body, which was established in 1993 based on a presidential decree, has traditionally been permitted only to make recommendations from the results of its findings in the field. It holds no authority to carry out investigations on its own or to compel authorities to take action against human rights abuses.

Vice Chairman Marzuki Darusman has stated that negotiations are on-going with the government and the House of Representatives to draft a law expanding the commission's authority in defending human rights. This stronger legal base would give the rights body the authority to investigate human rights violations on their own initiative and to promote legal action against violators.

The Jakarta riots in May resulted in a considerable loss of human life, caused heavy damage to property and businesses, and eroded confidence in the country. The National Human Rights Commission estimated that 1,188 people died, many in fires set by rioters at shopping centers while looters and others were trapped inside. Property damages have been officially estimated at almost $400m. The commission also concluded that an "organized group" was involved.

The Commission's report indicated that 168 women, most of whom were Chinese Indonesian, were sexually assaulted during the May riots in Jakarta, and that 20 died during or after the assaults.. More difficult to count is the intangible losses such as the forfeiture of international confidence and the exodus of ethnic-Chinese Indonesians, who play a pivotal role in the country's commercial life.

The military conducted its own investigation and was unable to locate any rape victims or evidence of an organized group behind the May riots. The military has also issued stern warnings to activists publicizing the assaults. Victims and NGO activists have reported numerous instances of military harassment and intimidation. In mid-October, an 18-year old girl who had been counseling the rape victims was found murdered in her home under mysterious circumstances. Other volunteers saw this as a threat one week before their planned trip to the United States to testify before the U.S. Congress.

On July 23rd the government set up a Joint Fact-Finding Team (TGPF) to look into the shooting of four students at Trisakti University, the Jakarta riots, and the reported rape of ethnic Chinese women. On the team were several independent figures, including representatives of respected NGOs, officials from the human rights commission and army officers.

Presenting its results on November 3rd, the TGPF team confirmed that the riots were engineered for political reasons with "preparations behind this having started at the highest decision-making level." Team Chairman Marzuki Darusman stated that the whole process had clear political dimensions aimed at securing extraordinary powers based on an existing decree which would have given President Suharto extra-constitutional powers to overcome any temporary emergency situation. The report mentions Suharto son-in-law Lt. Gen. Prabowo and then-Jakarta military commander Maj. Gen. Sjafrie Sjamsoeddin, as the probable organizers. The team also found physical evidence of 66 rapes during the riots, the majority of which were gang rapes while the majority of the victims were ethnic Chinese women.

Since September, a series of mysterious killings has occurred in East Java has left more than 150 dead under unexplained circumstances. Abdurrahman Wahid, the head of the country's largest Muslim social organization Nahdlatul Ulama (NU) has suggested that the someone in the cabinet is behind the killings in an effort to split a growing alliance between NU and Megawati of the PDI, both of which have power bases in East Java. The head of the Armed Forces General Wiranto also admitted the deaths were politically motivated. In the weeks since these statements, little progress has been made in uncovering the truth or stopping the killings. Minister of Co-ops Adi Sasono has denied reports that he and extreme Islamic groups are behind the killings.

Although the fall of Suharto has led to calls to open past cases of abuses by the government and ABRI, the new Habibie government has not been eager to investigate. The possible complicity of higher-ups, including Suharto, and the prospect of growing clamor for investigation into the long list of other abuses-in East Timor, Aceh, Irian Jaya, and against Muslims-allegedly committed by the military may also explain it. Many of the implicated organizers of these abuses still remain in power within the Habibie government.

The change of government has opened up the debate on East Timor. After its invasion and annexation in 1975-76 East Timor became a permanent impediment to Suharto's hopes for international respectability. The incorporation of East Timor as Indonesia's "27th province" was never recognized by the UN, which regards Portugal as administering power. Low-level armed guerrilla activity has continued. Since the late 1980s the main resistance to central authority has come from the urban youth. The Roman Catholic Church has played the difficult role of mediator and protector.

There have been separatist stirrings in Irian Jaya. One focus of the protests in Irian Jaya has been human rights abuses by the military. A church-sponsored report released in May describes an indiscriminate rampage by troops in the highlands last year, following the release of European and Indonesians hostages taken by Organisasi Papua Merdeka (Free Papua Organization).

Similar revelations have been coming-out about Aceh, the North Sumatran province where Muslim tinged-separatism has regularly flared-up over many years. At the end of July, a House fact-finding team was reported to have found mass graves, containing thousands of skeletons, suggesting that the scale the abuses was far larger than previously thought. The National Commission on Human Rights exhumed several mass graves and confirmed that 781 people were killed during the nine-year military operation. The Aceh NGOs forum recently estimated the number of casualties in several mass graves to range from 1,165 to 1,800. Again witnesses implicated Kopassus.

B. POLITICAL NEEDS AND CHALLENGES

Challenges of free and fair elections

Specific challenges in holding free, fair elections include:

Developing new laws that support open, transparent elections that are freely contested by all political parties. As noted, new laws on elections and political parties are currently being debated. Sound regulations in these areas will be crucial to free, fair elections. In timing the completion of these laws, the government must strike a delicate balance. It must avoid rushing the electoral legislation, which could compromise the effectiveness of the final laws. At the same time, it should avoid further postponements of the elections, as such delays have raised suspicions regarding the official commitment to electoral reform.

Developing the capacity of political parties. The over 90 political parties that have sprung up in the past six months are in general poorly organized, inexperienced at campaigning, and devoid of clear, lucid platforms. These parties need support in clarifying their agendas and planing organized, professionally managed campaigns. Support is also needed to ensure that women participate substantively in party activities.

Strengthening the capability civil society institutions to serve as vehicles for political participation and expression. It must be recalled that the vast majority of voters in any democracy do not actively participate in political parties; political expression is more common through civil society institutions. Under the Suharto regime, civil society institutions were strongly discouraged from playing any political role. To begin to play an active political role, civil society institutions need legal recognition of their political activities. They will also need to develop their institutional capacity in order to allow them to operate effectively after years of political hibernation. Special attention should be given to ensure that women are included in the structure and activities of civil society institutions.

Encouraging public understanding and debate of political issues. Even with effective laws in place, there is a pressing need to encourage social dialogue on political issues in order to develop an informed electorate. Public discussion and debate, a practice discouraged under the Suharto regime, needs to be fostered among all segments of society.

Monitoring the election. One of the greatest challenges ahead is ensuring that the election is conducted in an equitable, transparent manner. This is no mean task in a nation of 210 million spread across some 13,000 islands. Well-planned, nationwide monitoring will be crucial to ensuring that the voting is fairly conducted. (Monitoring activities should be designed to ensure that both women and men are able to participate freely in the election.) Equally important, the fairness of the election (assuming that is the outcome) needs to be publicized to all segments of Indonesian society. After decades of tainted elections, Indonesians are ill inclined to acknowledge any election as clean. For the elected government to gain legitimacy in the eyes of its constituency, the fairness of the election needs to be documented and broadcast by respected sources.

Challenges of Good Governance: While fair elections are Indonesia's most pressing need, good governance is a more long-term, arguably more important challenge. International confidence in Indonesia will not return until a clear agenda is established for developing an open, accountable system of governance. Without the return of international confidence, and the attendant return of investment, Indonesia will be unable to being a sustained economic recovery.

In addition to the shoring up international confidence, good governance is required to effectively guide Indonesia's future development. The system of patronage and corruption under Suharto caused enormous economic distortions and created a high-cost, high-risk economy. In boom times, with annual growth rates exceeding six percent, such economic problems could be largely overlooked. In the lean years ahead, however, Indonesia must establish sound systems of governance if it is to develop a healthy, growing economy. Finally, without taking concrete steps toward better systems of governance, Indonesian may run the risk of losing the stream of international aid that now forms the basis of the country's social safety net programs.

Specific challenges in the process of improving governance include:

Expanding the independence, capacity, and accountability of the House. As noted previously, the House of Representatives recently proposed legislation for the first time in 32 years. The House of Representatives needs to continue assuming a more active role in the policy process. At the same time, it needs to develop technical capacity to develop, analyze, and debate legislation. (Many current members of the House hold only high school degrees, with no formal training in the fields they must address. MP offices are also notoriously understaffed and lacking in resources.) The House of Representatives also needs to enhance its communications and constituency relations capacity in order to make it more accountable to voters.

Expanding the independence, capability, and accountability of the judiciary. A more autonomous court system dedicated to impartially enforcing the law will be crucial to supporting good governance in Indonesia. The judiciary needs to be granted greater autonomy from the Executive branch, possible by being separated from the Ministry of Justice. The capabilities and accountability of judges also need to be expanded to ensure laws are applied effectively and impartially.

Increasing the accountability and transparency of government bodies. As discussed previously, few systems exist within the Indonesian government for monitoring and adjudicating delinquent political bodies. Monitoring systems – both government and non-governmental -- will need to be developed to ensure official bodies operate in a clean, open way. Special attention should be given to increasing the accountability of the Executive, owning to this office's disproportionate influence on policy (see page four).

Reduction of corrupt practices within the government. This endeavor will clearly constitute a long-term process, as the system of corruption and patronage developed by Suharto is entrenched in most branches of the government. A concerted, well-planned, and transparent program for exposing and eliminating corrupt practices will be needed if progress is to be made in this area.

Decentralizing power from central government to regional and local government. Indonesia needs to achieve a better balance between the power afforded to central government and that of regional and local governments. Decentralization of power will give a greater voice in government decisions to citizens. It can also increase the government's efficiency in delivering services by ensuring that local voices influence policy and decision-making. An unprecedented opportunity for decentralization has opened, as the current administration seems to recognize the limitations of central government to deliver services throughout the archipelago. Steps should be taken to capitalize on this opportunity and make progress toward increasing to power and responsibilities of regional and local governments.

Challenges of freedom of expression, association and information: Freedom of expression and free access to information are essential to any democratic government. While Indonesia has taken some steps towards liberalizing these areas over the past months, further measures are needed. Specific challenges include:

Developing stronger, more comprehensive laws to protect freedom of expression and freedom of association. While recent laws in these areas clearly improve on past regulations, most observers agree that the new laws are still incomplete and leave opportunities for government restrictions on freedoms. The government will need to give high priority to drafting more comprehensive laws as soon as its legislative agenda permits.

Increasing the freedom and capability of the media. Indonesia also needs to nurture its newly independent media, which can serve as a watchdog on government and can also stimulate public debate on political issues. Most important in this area is the drafting of clearer laws to protect media freedom. There is also a need for the media to enhance its professional capacity so that it can more effectively inform the public.

Increasing the ability of labor organization to promote workers' rights. Labor is another vitally important area. The leadership of most of the newly formed unions has little or no experience in lobbying government and championing labor rights. The unions clearly need to develop their capacity for lobbying, communications, and organization if they are to effectively advocate the rights of their members. Clearer, more comprehensive labor laws are also needed to ensure that the current environment of openness toward organizing labor is not curtailed or reversed in the future. Special attention should be given to ensure that women actively participate in labor unions.

Providing improved protection of human rights. Indonesia needs to take additional steps to improve its tarnished human right record. Better protection of human right can send a strong message, to Indonesian society and to the world, that the government is serious about reform. It will also be vital to maintaining the international and domestic support necessary to leading the country to recovery. The government needs to developing clearer policies and regulations to protect human rights, as well as better monitoring systems to report human right violations. Efforts to improve human rights protection should be designed to ensure that they provide equal protection to both women and men.

C. USAID AND DONOR RESPONSE

USAID has been and will continue to be one of the largest and most active donors in civic and community participation (democracy and governance sectors). The USAID Program, more than any single donor program, has been instrumental in laying the groundwork for political reform and will continue to support and facilitate the active engagement of donor groups in strengthening democratic reforms. The assistance requirements within the DG sector are enormous and no one donor will have sufficient resources to address the wide number of democracy and governance issues. Furthermore because of sovereignty and impartiality concerns, broad and active support from international donors is highly important and useful.

During the past ten years, USAID has actively supported the development of civil society groups in advocating for reforms. This support, joined with other donor programs has been instrumental in limiting powerful status quo groups which have acted with impunity and without regard for the rights and interests of the broader population. Our approach has been to strengthen a solid institutional base and encourage support and assistance from other donors to extend coverage and programs to civil society and reform groups. In highly sensitive areas of support we have established working groups among other donors and to identify gaps and areas of collaboration and coordination. Both of these approaches have extended the coverage and effectiveness of programs and flagged the resolve of the international community to support the political reform. During the next six months, our focus will be centered particularly on the work required to support free and fair elections.

Elections Support: The UNDP has agreed, at the request of the Government of Indonesia, to provide overall coordination and facilitation of support for the elections planned in May 1999. We have worked closely with the UNDP to assist their coordination and share information and analyses of the USAID supported election assistance work already underway. Our support at this critical time has been to provide feasibility and assessment analyses in such areas as election management assessments, media, voter and civic education needs, and the status of public information and to encourage other donors to identify programs in these areas.

Regrettably, most of the donor elections programs are at the identification and feasibility stages and we should expect a period of consolidation and review before more defined activities and programs are developed. However, a few activities have been initiated and some level of program interest has been identified. We will work closely with the UNDP to encourage additional support.

Other Donors

Australia	Provided training to elections officials and has indicated an interest in supporting election management.
Japan	The Japanese Government has indicated that they are willing to provide election commodities such as ballot boxes and perhaps indelible voter identification ink.

Germany — The German Government and the UNDP are providing assistance on electoral reform and assistance to NGOs.

Many other donors have indicated an interest in supporting the election and we have met with the Swedish Aid (SIDA), British Aid, Danish AID (DANIDA)and other donor groups to support their programs.

Other Democracy and Governance Programs

In other democracy sectors, USAID has also been the most active and largest donor. There are encouraging signs that other donors will expand their assistance.

- CIDA and AUSAID are providing assistance to the National Human Rights Commission, and they are providing assistance for human rights training, community advocacy, election assistance, and are contemplating funding some programs with the national parliament. AUSAID is also reviewing a parliamentary support program and assistance to the Supreme Court.

- The WB has announced a comprehensive program of good governance and the elimination of corruption and support for legal reforms. They are actively seeking the support of civil society groups.

- The Canadian and German Foundations are providing media assistance especially print media.

- DANIDA, is extending some support to NGOs. They have indicated that they will fund seminars on electoral reforms and competition. The DANIDA has also informally indicated that they may be interested in supporting the political transition in East Timor.

USAID/INDONESIA POSITION DESCRIPTION

FOOD AID MONITOR FOR PL 480 TITLE II EMERGENCY FOOD SUPPORT ACTIVITY (TEFSA) IN INDONESIA

SCOPE OF WORK

INTRODUCTION

The Food Aid Monitor for PL 480 Title II Emergency Food Support Activity (TEFSA) in Indonesia is a local Personal Service Contractor (PSC) who guides and monitors in-country use of U.S. agricultural commodities provided under Title II of Public Law 480, as amended, to combat food insecurity in Indonesia. The functions of the Food For Peace Program are outlined in Handbook 9 and AID Regulation 11.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this contract is to ensure:

- Effective daily monitoring and management of food aid resources allocated by USAID's Bureau for Humanitarian Response, Office of Food For Peace (BHR/FFP), and USAID/Indonesia DA funds in support of the PL 480 Title II emergency program (TEFSA) in Indonesia.

- The achievement of results expected from the expenditure of those resources.

BACKGROUND

BHR/FFP and USAID/Indonesia have invested significant resources for the PL 480 TEFSA program in Indonesia. In order to ensure adequate monitoring and management of Title II resources in Indonesia, and in conformity with management for results, a position of a Food Aid Monitor under a Personal Services Contract (PSC) is created in Indonesia. The incumbent is hired by USAID/Indonesia and is responsible to the Mission Director.

The incumbent of this position will liaise with USAID/Indonesia and BHR/FFP and will be responsible for the daily monitoring and management of the Title II emergency response activities in Indonesia under the TEFSA program.

ARTICLE I - DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Provides overall oversight of the PL 480 TEFSA program in Indonesia, monitors TEFSA's implementation by the Cooperating Sponsors and updates the program's food response and cash inputs levels.

2. Reviews grantee proposals and program implementation ensuring that they are consistent with the program's commitments under the PL 480 Title II Transfer Authorizations (T.A.) and USAID/Indonesia DA Grant Agreements pledged to all Cooperating Sponsors (CSs) under the TEFSA program.

3. Obtain and review commodity call forwards, arrivals, losses/damages, financial reports and other required reports from the Cooperating Sponsors (CSs) and coordinate any action taken with BHR/FFP.

4. Liaise with representatives of the voluntary agencies, World Food Program and other Cooperating Sponsors (CSs) to keep fully informed of the development of the food supply situation in the country and to discuss and resolve mutual problems with them.

5. Attends meetings with PVOs, GOI agencies, UN agencies and other private organization on matters related to the PL 480 TEFSA program.

6. In conjunction with USAID/Indonesia, reports to BHR/FFP on a wide range of implementation issues related to the management and use of Title II food aid resources by the Cooperating Sponsors (CSs).

Factor 1. Knowledge Required by this Position

1. Familiarity with the legislative requirements of the U.S. Government's food aid programs as they refer to emergency assistance.

2. Demonstrated ability to work effectively with personnel from various agencies on the resolution of problems connected with emergency food aid programs.

3. Professional knowledge and skills to generate and apply new concepts in planning and implementing projects for the solution of complex food security goals, or solutions to problems faced in implementing emergency food aid projects for vulnerable populations.

Factor 2. Supervisory Controls

The USAID/Indonesia Mission Director (or designee) will provide program policy direction. BHR/FFP will provide technical and general food aid policy direction. The incumbent works independently on implementing projects and coordinating with other personnel. Problems and issues of implementation consistent with the constraints which may affect the TEFSA program are resolved with USAID/Indonesia in concert with BHR/FFP. Project accomplishments are reviewed for compliance with USAID policy and in the context of achievement of intended results.

Factor 3. Guidelines

Guidelines consist of laws and legislative initiatives, and Agency and Bureau rules and regulations (USAID Regulation 11 and Regulation 2), governing the transport and use of the U.S. food assistance.

Factor 4. Complexity

The work requires the application of knowledge of managing food aid programs. Issues are often characterized by unusual demands of the vital role that food aid plays in meeting the emergency and short-range needs of food crisis condition. The contractor evaluates CSs' performance, develops a range of alternatives for the solution of problems, and coordinates with USAID/Indonesia personnel in the accomplishment of oversight and monitoring of TEFSA's implementation.

Factor 5. Scope and Effect

The purpose of the work is to assure that USAID's food aid response achieves its objectives, and that resources are well-managed and protected. The position requires a high degree of initiative, originality, foresight and judgement and organizational skills to assure effective implementation.

Factor 6. Personal Contacts

The Contractor works closely with USAID/Indonesia and regional FFP personnel; Bureau and Agency staff; host government officials and agencies; other donor agencies; U.N. agencies, CSs; and IO/NGO representatives. Contractor works with CSs, IOs/NGOs, and officials of the Indonesian government on the monitoring, implementation, and management of Title II emergency food aid. Some contacts with specific individuals are recurring since the Contractor functions in a monitoring and coordinating capacity. Other contacts may be characterized by their unstructured settings and by the flexibility of approach and breadth of subject matters.

Factor 7. Purpose of Contacts

The purpose of contacts is to assure that USAID's food assistance programs, guidelines, and procedures are effective; and to provide technical guidance in identifying, developing and evaluating various methods of improving implementation od TEFSA.

Factor 8. Physical Demands/Work Environment

Work is a combination of office and field settings. The requirement for field trips to visit food aid programs may expose the Contractor to difficult surroundings and security risks. Travel will be approximately 30%.

Factor 9. Relationships and Responsibilities

The Contractor will coordinate daily with the Mission Director or his/her designee. The Mission will provide intermediate supervision and support on issues of the country's food aid concern. BHR/FFP will provide direction and orders as necessary. Contractor performance will be evaluated by USAID/Indonesia.

ARTICLE II - PERIOD OF SERVICE

The effective date of this contract is ..... through .....

The contractor's period of service shall be approximately 15 months in Indonesia.

ARTICLE III - CONTRACTOR'S COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT IN U.S. DOLLARS

A. USAID/Indonesia shall pay the Contractor compensation after it has accrued and reimburse him/her in U.S. dollars for necessary and reasonable costs actually incurred by him/her in the performance of this contract within the categories listed in paragraph C, below, and subject to the conditions and limitations applicable thereto as set out herein and in the attached General Provisions (GP).

B. The amount budgeted and available as personal compensation to the Contractor is calculated to cover a calendar period of approximately 12 months (with the option for contract extension. up to 15 months) which is to include (1) vacation, sick, and home leave which may be earned during the Contractor's tour of duty (GP Clause No.5), (2) 4 days of authorized travel (GP Clause No. 10).

C. Allowable Costs

1. Compensation (base salary) is at a rate of $ ..... per annum (GS Class ..., step ...). Adjustments in compensation (pay) for the periods when the Contractor is not in compensable pay status shall be calculated at the rate of $ .... per hour.

2. Contractor shall work 40 hours per week. Unless specifically authorized in the schedule of this contract, no overtime hours shall be allowed.

D. Maximum U.S. Dollar Obligation

In no event shall the maximum U.S. Dollar obligation under this contract exceed $ ..... per year, including $..... of in-country support costs allotted for support of the PSC. The Contractor, in consultation with USAID/Indonesia Mission Director's designee, shall keep a close account of all obligations incurred and accrued hereunder and promptly notify the Contracting Officer whenever, in their opinion, the said maximum is not sufficient to cover all compensation and costs reimbursable in U.S. Dollars anticipated under the contract.

ARTICLE IV - COSTS REIMBURSABLE AND LOGISTIC SUPPORT

A. Costs Reimbursable

1. Method of payment of local Currency Costs: Once each bi-weekly period, the Contractor will submit to the paying office stated on the cover page of this contract a completed time sheet indicating hours worked and leave taken. This time sheet will be signed by the Contractor, approved by USAID/Indonesia Director's designee, and submitted in accordance with notices from the paying office. Required documentation may be changed from time to time by notice from the paying office.

2. Final Payment: A final payment voucher shall be submitted by the Contractor promptly following completion of the duties under this contract but in no event later than 120 days from the date of such completion. The Contractor's claim, which includes final settlement of compensation, shall not be paid until after the performance of the duties required under the terms of this Contract has been approved by the Contracting Officer or his/her designee.

B. Logistic Support

USAID/Indonesia will provide office space, office supplies and (what is normal?).

ARTICLE V - PRECONTRACT EXPENSES

No expense incurred before execution of this contract will be reimbursed unless such expense was incurred after receipt and acceptance of a precontract expense letter issued to the Contractor by the Contracting Officer, and then only in accordance with the provisions and limitations contained in such letter. The rights and obligations created by such letter shall be considered as merged into this contract.

ARTICLE VI - ADDITIONAL CLAUSES

A. Emergency Locator Information

Upon start of work, the Contractor shall provide the following information to the Contracting Officer, USAID/Indonesia:

1. The Contractor's name, home address, and telephone number, including any after-hours emergency number (s),

2. The name, address, and telephone number (s) of Contractor's next of kin, and

3. Any special instructions pertaining to emergency situations, such as power of attorney designees or alternate contact persons.

B. Medical Clearances

In accordance with GP 3, "Physical Fitness and Health Room Privileges", the Contractor is required to be examined by a licensed doctor, and the Contractor shall obtain from the doctor a certificate that, in the doctor's opinion, the Contractor is physically able to engage in the type of activity for which he is to be employed under the contract and is physically able to reside in the Cooperating Country. A copy of the certificate shall be provided to the Contracting Officer prior to the Contractor's departure for the Cooperating Country, and the Contractor shall provide the certificate before he starts work under the contract.

C. Medical Evacuation (Medevac) Services

In accordance with GP 27 "Medical Evacuation (Medevac) Services" the Contractor is required to obtain Medevac coverage from the USAID Medevac service indicated below, unless exempted in accordance with paragraph (b) of this provision.

Corporation (Medex) of Timonium, MD. under Contract No.FAO-0000-Q-00-2041-00. Applications for coverage should mention the above number and be made directly to:

MEDEX Assistance Corporation
P.O. Box 5375
Timonium, MD 21094-5375
Tel: (800) 537-2029 (toll free)
(410) 453-6301 (MD)
Fax: (410) 453-6301

D. Option to Extend Term of Contract

a. USAID/Indonesia may extend the term of this contract by written notice to the Contractor, provided that USAID/Jakarta shall give the Contractor a preliminary notice of its intent to extend at least fifteen (15) days before the contract expires. This preliminary notice does not commit USAID/Jakarta to an extension. The contract extension will be effected through a contract modification signed by both parties to the contract.

b. If USAID/Jakarta exercises this option, the extended contract shall be considered to include this option provision.

c. The total duration of this contract, including extensions under this option clause, shall not exceed 15 months.

CN FOR USAID/INDONESIA DA SUPPORT FOR TITLE II EMERGENCY FOOD ASSISTANCE

Program:	Indonesia
Title:	Title II Emergency Food Support Activity (TEFSA)
Funding Source:	Development Assistance (DA)
Number:	497-0392
New/Continuing:	New
Prior Reference:	None
Proposed FY98 Obligation:	Up to $3 million DA
Life of Project Funding:	Up to $6 million DA
Initial Obligation:	FY 1998
Estimated Final Obligation:	FY 1999
Estimated Completion Date:	FY 1999

Purpose: To increase food availability to the neediest rural populations affected by the drought in Indonesia through support for Food For Work and vulnerable groups feeding programs. USAID/BHR/FFP has committed up to $25 million in FY 1998 Title II emergency food commodities to help assist drought victims in Indonesia. USAID/Indonesia is creating the Title II Emergency Food Support Activity (TEFSA) to support the PVOs managing and administering the distribution of these food commodities through Food For Work and vulnerable groups feeding programs.

Background: An El Nino-related drought, the worst in 50 years, has caused widespread crop failure in Indonesia, resulting in shortages of staple foods in many areas. During October 1997 to January 1998, rainfall was 70% below normal levels in the hardest hit eastern island provinces of Nusa Tengara Barat (Lombok and Sumbawa), Nusa Tengara Timur (Sumba, Flores, and West Timor) and East Timor. In these islands, failed and delayed harvests have caused food shortages and taxed traditional coping mechanisms, risking the food security of the poorest families. Combined with the country's economic crisis which has caused the price of staples to soar, and expected further price increases as subsidies are removed in accordance with the IMF agreement, external assistance is needed to enable these families to survive the next twelve months. While the Government of Indonesia (GOI) is implementing subsidized market schemes and free distribution of rice in some areas, GOI resources and coverage are limited and are assessed to be insufficient to meet the immediate and near future needs of the poorest families. The GOI has acknowledged this need in its appeal to the World Food Program on February 27, 1998.

A food needs assessment has been carried out by USAID/BHR/FFP, which determined that FFP will make available up to $25 million in food commodities for drought victims in Indonesia, focussing on the eastern islands. USAID/Indonesia and BHR/FFP have received proposals from PVOs to utilize these food commodities to establish Food For Work and vulnerable groups feeding programs. FFP has food commodities available to respond to these proposals, but does not have funds to support the administrative costs of the PVOs. USAID/Indonesia is creating TEFSA to support these PVO costs.

Project Description: TEFSA will fund the administration, monitoring and related support costs of the PVOs utilizing the Title II emergency food commodities for Food For Work and vulnerable groups feeding programs. These programs will supplement the nutritional needs of families in the hardest hit drought areas of the eastern islands. The primary focus will be Food For Work activities in the poorest villages. The activities will provide work/income opportunities for rural subsistence farmers whose crops have failed and who have few or no other income opportunities. Beyond providing food for employment, prioritization will be given to Food For Work activities which will be of longer term benefit to the food security of the area by teaching skills and addressing issues related to access to markets (roads and bridges), improved farming capacity (irrigation, land reclamation) and increased access to potable water (wells, water catchments). In all activities, participation by women will be maximized. The proposed grain ration of rice will provide approximately 45% of the total caloric need for a family of five (2 kg./person/day x 20 days/month = 40 kg./month).

To provide extra protection for the most vulnerable members in the same targeted populations, children under five and pregnant/lactating mothers, a ration of 4 kg./month of wheat soy blend (WSB) will be provided through certain institutions such as local health posts (Posyandu). This ration would provide 100% of the protein needs of a child under five and 45% of the protein needs for pregnant/lactating mothers. Also incorporated into the vulnerable groups feeding program will be health education aimed at improving mother/child health practices and reducing the risk of related illness.

Beneficiaries: The PVOs will target 250,000 beneficiaries or 50,000 families per month in the eastern islands. Data has been collected by the PVOs to ensure that these food programs benefit the neediest populations.

Donor Coordination: The World Bank and UNDP have established a coordination body that includes donors and PVOs/NGOs assisting drought victims in Indonesia. Through close coordination the group seeks to avoid overlap and prevent gaps in responding to the drought.

Expected Results: Expected results during the first year of operation include: 1) to supplement caloric intake among 50,000 of the neediest, drought-affected households in the eastern islands, helping to stabilize their nutrition levels during this critical period of drought and resulting food shortages; 2) to increase the capacity of villagers in target areas through infrastructure built or rehabilitated by Food for Work activities that will have long-term benefits to the community; 3) to provide up to 12,000,000 person days of employment to otherwise unemployed vulnerable groups; and 4) to increase the capacity of target households in the affected communities in livelihood skills training that will allow households to increase income and improve coping mechanisms for the future.

Principal Contractors/Grantees/Agencies: Catholic Relief Services, CARE, WFP.

U.S. RESPONSE TO DROUGHT IN INDONESIA

BACKGROUND: In late 1997/early 1998, the El Nino effect was the trigger mechanism for drought, forest fires and related food shortages and health problems throughout Indonesia. The U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) has received three seperate disaster declarations in 1998 in response to the wide-ranging impacts of El Nino.

In response to a disaster declaration in October 1997, USAID's Office for Foreign Disaster Assistance (BHR/OFDA) sent an assessment team to Irian Jaya and subsequently funded three relief projects. In late 1997, BHR/OFDA provided $248,200 to World Vision Relief and Development (WVRD) for a seeds distribution program on Irian Jaya. Short growing season seeds (carrots, beans, corn, cabbage, etc.) were flown into the isolated interior and passed to the indigenous areas by missionary groups working with WVRD, thus reducing the need to fly bulk food into the drought stricken areas later in the year. BHR/OFDA also provided $100,000 to Mission Aviation Fellowship (MAF) to fly food, seeds, and other relief materials into the disaster affected region. This funding provided additional airlift capacity to both support the WVRD seeds program and ensure that MAF was able to continue other drought-related relief missions in Irian Jaya. Further, a $150,000 BHR/OFDA grant to ICRC provided medical supplies to targeted vulnerable populations in Irian Jaya.

International organizations, U.S. private and voluntary agencies (PVOs) and USAID carried out food need assessments in Indonesia in January-February, 1998. The assessments confirmed that the drought has been most severe in Sulawesi and in the eastern island provinces of Nusa Tengara Barat (Lombok and Sumbawa), Nusa Tengara Timur (Sumba, Flores and West Timor) and East Timor. In these islands, failed crops and delayed harvests have caused food shortages and have overtaxed traditional coping mechanisms, risking the food security of nearly 140,000 vulnerable families (or about 700,000 people based on an average family size of five). In response, the U.S. Ambassador declared a disaster for East Timor on February 2 and BHR/OFDA provided $25,000. These funds were provided via a grant to CARE to enhance their ongoing drought assistance program on East Timor.

On April 27, 1998, Ambassador Roy issued a third disaster declaration in Indonesia in response to drought and fires in East Kalimantan. BHR/OFDA responded with $22,500 to a consortium of indigenous NGOs for the purchase of rice seed. These seeds were distributed to affected populations for planting upon the resumption of rains.

In addition to these rapid relief efforts, USAID/Indonesia and USAID's Office of Food for Peace (BHR/FFP) created the Indonesia Emergency Food Support Activity (TEFSA) for the vulnerable groups most severely affected by the drought. BHR/FFP initially committed $25 million in Title II emergency food aid resources for TEFSA and the mission allocated $6 million in Development Assistance (DA) resources for administrative support and related costs. In May 1998, it became clear that the civil unrest in many parts of the country had exacerbated the situation for the country's most vulnerable drought-affected families. In response, BHR/FFP increase the Title II allocation from $25 million to $35 million. CARE, Catholic Relief Services (CRS), the Church World Service (CWS), Adventist Relief and Development Agency (ADRA) have submitted Title II proposals and all five have been approved and funded.

Description of Approved Title II Activities
Resources Allocated: $35 million
Resources Committed To Date: $32 million
Total Beneficiaries Targeted Under Approved Activites: 629,000
Tonnage of Commodities Committed To Date: 55,842 MT

CARE/Atlanta: USAID approved the programming of 18,200 MTs of commodities with an estimated value of $10.9 million (commodities- $6.6 million, ocean freight- $2.3 million, and Internal Transport, Storage and Handling costs (ITSH)- $2.0 million). CARE's 12-month intervention will assist the most vulnerable drought-affected groups (about 125,000 people) in East Timor and West Flores via food-for-work (FFW) activities during June 1, 1998 - June 1, 1999. CARE's FFW activities will largely be concentrated on the rehabilitation of rural roads, and water and sanitation systems.

CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES (CRS)/Baltimore: USAID approved the programming of 13,540 MTs of FY 1998 Title II emergency commodities with an estimated value of $7.7 million (commodities- $5.0 million, ocean freight- $1.7 million, and ITSH- $1.0 million) to Catholic Relief Services (CRS). CRS will carry out a 12-month emergency food aid program in West Timor, East Sumba, Sumbawa, East Flores, Lombok and South Sumatra. The CRS intervention will begin at the end of June and will reach 25,000 families (about 125,000 people based on an average family size of five) via the following three activities: (a) food-for-work for drought-affected communities (rice); (b) supplemental feeding for children under five and lactating and pregnant mothers (WSB); and (c) emergency food distribution (rice) in other areas when needed. The general distribution component is for up to 500 MTs of rice and will be undertaken only if requirements can be reconfirmed through follow-up assessments.

CHURCH WORLD SERVICE (CWS)/New York: This 12-month CWS intervention will supplement the nutritional needs of 37,000 drought-affected people in the Sulawesi districts of Jeneponto, Takalor, Enrakany and Tana Torja. BHR/FFP committed a total of 3,582 MT of rice at an estimated value of $2.4 million (commodities- $1.3 million, ocean freight- $0.55 million and ITSH- $0.55 million). CWS will partner with the Communion of Churches of Indonesia (PGIW) as well as the Church of Tana Toraja and the Church of Central Sulawesi to facilitate the assessment, planning, implementation and evaluation of the community based public works activities undertaken through food-for-work (FFW). The FFW activities will be concentrated in the areas of road and bridge repair, water conservation, construction of water catchment systems, tree planning and terracing.

Adventist Development and Relief Agency (ADRA)/Silver Spring: BHR/FFP This 12-month ADRA intervention will supplement the nutritional needs for up to 30,000 drought-affected people in Pasir District of East Kalimantan (one of the most severely drought-affected districts in Kalimantan). BHR/FFP has committed a total of 3,520 MT of commodities with an estimated value of $2.0 million (commodities- $1.3 million, ocean frieght- $0.54 million and ITSH- $0.16 million). ADRA proposes to implement a two-pronged emergency initiative comprised of FFW (rice) and supplemental feeding (CSB) activities. The activity will provide work for 5,000 individuals (i.e., with an average family size of five the FFW will have an impact on nearly 25,000 people). The focus of FFW will be roads and bridges construction or repair. Additionally, ADRA will provide supplemental feeding for pregnant and lactating women and children under five years of age. Working together with the health service from the district and subdistrict level as well as the village midwife from 29 at-risk villages, ADRA will target nearly 800 pregnant and lactating women and nearly 2,000 children under five.

World Food Program/Rome: There are three components in WFP's $88.2 million Indonesia Emergency Operations Project (EMOP): (a) nutritional support to pregnant and lactating mothers and children under five (17,000 MT of blended foods for 312,000 beneficiaries), (b) a food-for-work activity (179,000 MT of rice for 771,000 beneficiareis), and (c) a general food distribution activity (30,000 MT of rice for 475,000 beneficiaries). BHR/FFP agreed to fully fund the nutritional support for vulnerable groups component at a level of 17,000 MT with an estimated value of $9.0 million (commodities- $6 million, ocean freight- $2.7 million, and ITSH- $0.3 million). The distribution of blended food will be through village health centers. Targeting at the sub-district level will be undertaken locally using information on food security, prevalence of malnutrition in under five children and levels of employment. Beneficiaries will be

U.S. ASSISTANCE TO INDONESIA IN ECONOMIC CRISIS DURING FY 98

HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE:

$50 million in PL 480, Title II: grant food aid to be provided through the World Food Program and international and Indonesian NGOs. Food will be used for job creation and infant feeding programs. This program will provide approximately 88,000 metric tons.

$40 million in PL 480, Title I: concessional loans (five-year grace period) used to buy rice, wheat and soybeans. This program will provide approximately 170,000 metric tons.

$3 million in grants to handle administration of these programs.

$10.5 million in grants for medical supplies and contraceptives.

$850,000 in grants for nutrients to fortify flour provided by UNICEF for maternal health programs.

$550,000 in grants for disaster relief in Irian Jaya, East Timor, and East Kalimantan.

OTHER U.S. BILATERAL ECONOMIC AID DURING FY 98:

$1 billion for Ex-Im Bank short-term trade financing.

$400 million in credit guarantees for purchase of wheat and other designated commodities.

$100 million in credit guarantees for purchases of foodstuffs, breeder livestock, and agricultural equipment and services.

$69.2 million in ongoing USAID development assistance in the areas of economic growth, health, population and HIV/AIDS, environment, urban infrastructure, and strengthening civil society.

CRS STARTS EMERGENCY PROGRAM IN THREE PROVINCES IN INDONESIA

Jakarta, July 22 --- In response to the recent major drought in several parts of Indonesia, Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is joining with seven local agencies to implement an $8.5 million emergency food program through the assistance of the U.S. Government (USAID) donation of 12,500 MT of rice and 1,040 MT of wheat-soy-blend.. The seven partners are Lembaga Karya Bakti (Lampung, Sumatra), Komisi Pembangunan Sosial Ekonomi Keuskupan Agung Ende (Ende, Flores), Yayasan Swadaya Membangun (Mataram, Lombok), Yayasan Sosial Santo Yoseph Keuskupan Atambua (Atambua, Timor) Yayasan Cinta Sesama (Maumere, Flores), Yayasan Tananua Sumba (Waingapu, Sumba), and Yayasan Pengembangan Sosial Keuskupan Agung Kupang (Kupang, Timor).

Each month CRS will provide 125,000 people (25,000 families) with up to 50 kilos of rice per family. In addition, 21,000 pregnant and lactating women, as well as children under five will be provided with four kilos of wheat-soy-blend per month. The project covers 225 villages in 69 sub-districts of East Nusa Tenggara, West Nusa Tenggara and Lampung Provinces.

In the Food for Work program, the target population is one able-bodied household member per family. Working 20 days a month, each will received 2.5 kilos of rice a day. The program is also aimed at contributing to long-term food security by providing a foundation through activities which enhance rural infrastructure, promote improved farming practices, increase access to water for farming and consumption, and improve nutritional knowledge and monitoring.

The situation in Lampung area is especially grim. According to a recent report, more than nine thousand families are seriously affected by the food shortage; more than three thousand families live in an area whose harvest has failed during the last 12 months. Almost seven thousand families live in an area with poor harvest during the last six months.

Indra Karya I is one of the villages hit the hardest. About 700 families in the village are suffering from food shortage. Mrs. Aminah, a mother of a one-year-old baby, explained that the harvest had failed for the last three consecutive seasons. Like other villagers, she and her husband planted "gogo rancah" rice, which relied on rainwater instead of irrigation system. Because the rainfall was minimal last year, the rice harvest suffered and 70 percent of their field was cultivated. Starting last year, Mrs. Aminah's husband abandoned the rice field and changed to another job as a day worker at a nearby rubber plantation. But as the economic situation worsened the plant closed.

CRS has operated in Indonesia providing emergency relief and social and economic development programs since 1957. It works with local organizations in rural areas to strengthen poor people's capacity to earn a decent living and care for their families. CRS provided food assistance for development in Indonesia until 1995, when Indonesia was declared self-sufficient in its staple food commodities. Food assistance resumed this year due to the drought caused by "El Nino." At the same time, Indonesia's economic crisis has caused the price of staples to soar, and outside assistance is required to enable poor families to survive the next 12 months.

CRS is the official overseas relief and development agency for the United States Catholic Church. With an annual budget of $218 million, it operates in more than 80 countries worldwide. It provides assistance solely on the basis of need, not creed.

416(B) SUMMARY

AT THE INDONESIA CONSULTATIVE GROUP MEETING (CGI) HELD IN PARIS ON JULY 30, THE USG ANNOUNCED THAT 500,000 MT OF WHEAT WOULD BE MADE AVAILABLE TO INDONESIA WITH UP TO 1 MILLION MORE TONS TO BE MADE AVAILABLE IF CONDITIONS WARRANT AND AFTER CONSULTATIONS WITH OTHER WHEAT SUPPLIERS TO THE INDONESIAN MARKET. A JOINT FAS/USAID REVIEW OF CURRENT NEEDS WAS CONDUCTED IN JAKARTA AUGUST 10-22. THE RESULTS OF THAT REVIEW ARE DESCRIBED BELOW.

CONCLUSION ON HUMANITARIAN NEED: FOOD SECURITY IS OF INCREASING CONCERN TO INDONESIA'S POPULACE AS BUYING POWER ERODES. GOVERNMENT AGENCIES ESTIMATE THAT OVER 40 MILLION PEOPLE NOW LACK THE EARNING POWER TO ADEQUATELY PROVIDE FOR THEIR BASIC HUMAN NEEDS. UNICEF TEAMS NOTE RISING RATES OF PROTEIN DEFICIENCY AFFECTING THE URBAN POOR. THE GOVERNMENT IS ENGAGING ON PROGRAMS OF CASH AND FOOD-FOR-WORK, INCREASING FOOD SUBSIDY PROGRAMS BY OFFERING SUBSIDIZED RICE PACKAGES, AND IS ACTIVELY LOOKING FOR WAYS OF GETTING MONEY TO THE POOR. IBRD AND ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK SUPPORT FOR INCOME GENERATING PROGRAMS HAS DRAMATICALLY RISEN OVER THE YEAR. HOWEVER, THE PROGRAMS STILL CANNOT REACH ALL THE URBAN AND RURAL POPULACE.

THE WHEAT DONATIONS FROM THE U.S. CAN COMPLEMENT THE ONGOING DONOR AND INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT EFFORTS, ALTHOUGH WHEAT PRODUCTS ARE NOT ADVOCATED BY THE GOVERNMENT (BAPPENAS) FOR ITS SCHOOL FEEDING PROGRAMS BECAUSE WHEAT IS NOT INDIGENOUS TO INDONESIA. THE ONLY SIGNIFICANT DIRECT DISTRIBUTION PROGRAM WHICH COULD BE IMMEDIATELY SUPPORTED BY WHEAT WOULD BE INSTANT NOODLE DISTRIBUTION. AS A RESULT, THE MAJOR BENEFITS OF U.S. WHEAT DONATIONS ARE SEEN AS INDIRECTLY SUPPORTING THE POOR BY OFFSETTING OTHER PRODUCT COSTS THROUGH "SWAPS", PRIMARILY IN LOCAL CURRENCY, FOR RESOURCES NEEDED TO SUPPORT SOCIAL SAFETY NET PROGRAMS.

THE WHEAT DONATIONS FROM THE U.S. SHOULD BE STRUCTURED AROUND THE THEME OF INDONESIA'S "FOOD SECURITY". THROUGH THIS THEME, U.S. DONATIONS SHOULD HELP THE INDONESIAN POOR INCREASE THEIR ACCESS TO FOOD THROUGH FOOD-FOR-WORK AND CASH-FOR-WORK EFFORTS; THROUGH RURAL MICRO-CREDIT SUPPORT; PROVISION OF SUPPORT TO SMALL FOOD PROCESSORS OR STREET VENDORS; AND SUPPORT TO PERI-URBAN COMMUNITY GROUPS. U.S. DONATIONS CAN ALSO BE SHOWN TO INCREASE THE AVAILABILITY OF FOOD FOR THE POOR BY SUPPORTING AGRICULTURAL RECOVERY ACTIVITIES IN THE DROUGHT-STRICKEN EASTERN ISLANDS; ASSISTING THE PRIVATE SECTOR'S EFFORTS AT DISTRIBUTING LOW-COST INSTANT NOODLES TO POOR NEIGHBORHOODS; AND ASSISTING UNICEF'S EFFORTS AT MAKING NUTRITIOUS CEREALS AVAILABLE TO RURAL HEALTH POSTS FOR SMALL CHILDREN. FURTHER IMPROVEMENTS IN HOUSEHOLD NUTRITION CAN BE SUPPORTED BY USING A PORTION OF THE DONATION TO OFFSET COSTS OF IMPORTING MICRONUTRIENTS TO NATIONALLY FORTIFY WHEAT FLOUR AS, CURRENTLY, INDONESIA HAS NO FORTIFICATION METHOD

AND IRON DEFICIENCY IS ENDEMIC.

UNICEF'S NUTRITIONAL INDICATORS SHOW THAT MALNUTRITION IN CHILDREN IS GROWING, AND ALL GOVERNMENT AND NGO REPORTS CLAIM FRAGILE ACCESS OF THE POOR TO FOOD. THE INITIAL TRANCHE OF FOOD AID WILL NOT PROVIDE SUFFICIENT SUPPORT FOR THE RECOVERY OF THE INDONESIA POOR UNLESS ECONOMIC CONDITIONS IMPROVE RAPIDLY, AN UNLIKELY SCENARIO. A SECOND TRANCHE OF FOOD AID MAY BE NEEDED FOR NOVEMBER/DECEMBER PROCUREMENT WITH A FURTHER TRANCHE BY MARCH/APRIL 1999 IF LOCAL EFFORTS AT JOB CREATION FAIL.

RECOMMENDATIONS: INITIAL ABSORBABLE DONATIONS ARE ESTIMATED AT 450,000 METRIC TONS (MT) BY USAID. FAS AND USAID BELIEVE THAT ADDITIONAL DONATIONS CAN BE IDENTIFIED AS THE COUNTRY'S POOR FACE FURTHER INCOME EROSION IF INDONESIA FOLLOWS THROUGH ON ITS PLEDGE TO LIFT ITS WHEAT SUBSIDY.

-- WE CAN IMMEDIATELY PROVIDE 170,000 MT TO THE WORLD FOOD PROGRAM (WFP) FOR ITS FOOD-FOR-WORK ACTIVITY. ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS UNDER DISCUSSION ARE:

-- A 50,000 MT INSTANT NOODLE DISTRIBUTION PROGRAM THROUGH INDOFOOD AND MINISTRY OF SOCIAL WELFARE WHERE U.S. WHEAT WOULD BE DONATED TO COVER PRODUCT AND DISTRIBUTION COSTS;

-- SUPPORT OF UNICEF'S PROGRAM FOR FORTIFYING CEREAL FOR INFANTS (40,000 MT).

-- SUPPORT OF UNICEF'S WORK AT THE NATIONAL LEVEL TO FORTIFY DOMESTIC FLOUR (40,000 MT).

-- AN "UMBRELLA" GRANT WITH INTERNATIONAL NGOS BY MONETIZING 115,000 MT OF WHEAT FLOUR (150,000 MT WHEAT EQUIVALENT) FOR RESOURCES TO ADDRESS THE FOOD SECURITY OF THE POOR. USAID/JAKARTA HAS ASKED THE NGOS TO FURTHER INVESTIGATE OPTIONS FOR DIRECT FOOD DISTRIBUTION PRIOR TO CONSIDERATION OF THIS PROGRAM.

USAID HAS ENTERED INTO DISCUSSION WITH MUSLIM NGOS FOR FOOD DISTRIBUTION PROGRAMS. THESE DISCUSSIONS ARE LIKELY TO RESULT IN ADDITIONAL FOOD INTERVENTIONS FOR THE URBAN AND RURAL POOR VIA NOODLE OR CRACKER/BISCUIT DISTRIBUTION. ADDITIONALLY, USAID IS REVIEWING THE POSSIBILITY OF A CONTRIBUTION TO THE "COMMUNITY RECOVERY PROGRAM", A CONSORTIUM OF INDONESIAN PVOS, WHICH PARTIALLY DEALS WITH FOOD SECURITY.

DISCUSSION: USG DONATION/MULTILATERAL: FAS SHOULD UTILIZE ITS AUTHORITIES TO IMMEDIATELY DONATE 170,000 MT OF WHEAT TO THE WORLD FOOD PROGRAM (WFP) EMERGENCY OPERATION (EMOP #6006) FOR INDONESIA, WHICH IS RECEIVING TITLE II SUPPORT THROUGH USAID. THIS WFP PROGRAM WORKS IN CONCERT WITH THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT TO SUPPORT FOOD-FOR-WORK ACTIVITIES THROUGHOUT JAVA. THIS DONATION WOULD BE "SWAPPED" FOR AN EQUAL FX VALUE OF IMPORTED RICE, ESTIMATED AT 90,196 MT. THE SWAP WOULD ALLOW WFP AND THE GOVERNMENT TO MEET ITS COMMITMENTS IN GENERATING JOBS FOR 4.6

MILLION INDONESIANS WHILE SAVING AN APPROXIMATE $26 MILLION OF FX. THE CURRENT TITLE II AGREEMENT WITH WFP FOR THIS PROGRAM CONTAINS (A) UNIT SUPPORT COST DATA WHICH USDA/FAS SHOULD ALSO PROVIDE FOR THE 90,196 MT OF RICE WHICH WILL BE DISTRIBUTED, AND (B) A FORMAT ACCEPTABLE TO WFP FOR REPORTING ON THE USE OF THE USG DONATION. THIS DONATION TO THE UNITED NATIONS' WORLD FOOD PROGRAM'S MULTILATERAL APPEAL WILL FILL SOME OF THE COUNTRY'S IMPORT GAP AND SAVE FX BY DOING SO.

USAID SHOULD SUPPORT A PRIVATE SECTOR PROGRAM WHICH PROVIDES INSTANT NOODLES TO 20 MILLION POOR, AS IDENTIFIED AT THE VILLAGE LEVEL BY THE MINISTRY OF FAMILY PLANNING AND MINISTRY FOR PEOPLES WELFARE. UNDER THIS PROGRAM, PT INDOFOOD SUKESES MAKMUR IS PROVIDING 400 MILLION 50 GRAM INSTANT NOODLE PACKS ON A REGULAR BASIS TO 20 MILLION PEOPLE. THESE NOODLE PACKS REPRESENT ABOUT 5 PERCENT OF INDOFOOD OUTPUT. THE RECIPIENTS CONTRIBUTE BY PAYING 300 RUPIAH PER PACK, BUT AS DISTANCE FROM JAKARTA INCREASES, THE ABILITY TO PAY 300 RUPIAH DIMINISHES. NOTE: AT CURRENT EXCHANGE RATES, $1.00 APPROXIMATES 12,000 RUPIAH.

IN JOINT USAID/FAS DISCUSSION WITH INDOFOOD, THE PROGRAM CAN BE EXPANDED TO MORE BENEFICIARIES AND CAN PROVIDE MORE NUTRITIONAL IMPACT. 50,000 TONS OF WHEAT CAN PROVIDE SUFFICIENT FLOUR FOR 800 MILLION PACKETS OF NOODLES TO THE 20 MILLION RECIPIENTS (2 KG/PERSON). THE WHEAT DONATION CAN DECREASE THE COST PER RECIPIENT TO BETWEEN 150 AND 200 RUPIAH BY COVERING THE WHEAT FLOUR COST. THE DISTRIBUTION OF 100 GRAM PACKETS (TWO MEALS PER PACKET) COULD HAVE A SUBSTANTIALLY GREATER IMPACT ON A FAMILY THAN THE CURRENT PROGRAM.

OTHER NOODLE MANUFACTURERS AND BAKERS HAVE APPROACHED FAS AND USAID TO SOUND OUT ADDITIONAL PROGRAM PLANS. THESE POTENTIAL PRIVATE SECTOR PROGRAMS, IF SUPPORTED BY THE 416(B) WHEAT DONATION, OFFER THE OPPORTUNITY FOR THE USG TO EXPAND THE DIRECT USE OF WHEAT PRODUCTS AIMED AT THE POOR.

IN THE CASE OF INDOFOOD, THE WHEAT WOULD BE MILLED BY BOGASARI MILLS. BOGASARI WOULD KEEP PART OF THE WHEAT FLOUR TO COVER ITS MILLING COSTS; INDOFOOD WOULD USE THE WHEAT FLOUR AS DONATED PRODUCT WITH ADDITIONAL FLOUR TONNAGE OFFSETTING A PORTION OF ITS PROCESSING AND DISTRIBUTION COSTS. CURRENTLY, FLOUR REPRESENTS 40 PERCENT OF INSTANT NOODLE PRODUCTION COSTS.

USAID AND FAS SUPPORT THE FOLLOWING ACTIVITIES:

INTERNATIONAL NGO FOOD SECURITY PROGRAMS: INTERNATIONAL NGOS HAVE APPROACHED FAS AND USAID WITH A PROPOSAL TO CREATE AN ECONOMIC RECOVERY FUND. PER CONSULTATION WITH WASHINGTON, USAID AND FAS CONCUR THAT FAS/WASHINGTON SHOULD NEGOTIATE AN AGREEMENT WITH THE CONSORTIUM OF INTERNATIONAL NGOS VIA A DONATION OF 115,000 MT OF FLOUR (EQUIVALENT TO 150,000 MT OF WHEAT) TO THE CONSORTIUM FOR AUCTION IN INDONESIA TO GENERATE LOCAL CURRENCY (RUPIAH) PROCEEDS, IF FURTHER USAID/JAKARTA DISCUSSIONS ON DIRECT FEEDING PROGRAMS WITH THE NGOS ARE NOT SUCCESSFUL.

AS WE UNDERSTAND IT, THE PROPOSED TERMS OF THE FAS AGREEMENT WILL REQUIRE THE CONSORTIUM TO TARGET FLOUR TO URBAN WET NOODLE OR OTHER WHEAT-BASED PRODUCTS WHICH ARE TRADITIONALLY MARKETED TO LOWER INCOME GROUPS. WE RECOMMEND THAT THE PROCEEDS BE PLACED INTO A "FOOD SECURITY" FUND TO BE USED FOR REASONABLE ACTIVITIES THAT IMMEDIATELY IMPROVE HOUSEHOLD ACCESS TO FOOD, THE AVAILABILITY OF FOOD TO THE POOR, IMPROVED HOUSEHOLD NUTRITION, OR SIMILAR SOCIAL SAFETY NET ASSISTANCE ASSOCIATED WITH HOUSEHOLD FOOD SECURITY, SUCH AS DIRECT FEEDING PROGRAM SUPPORT.

THE PVO CONSORTIUM IS CURRENTLY COMPOSED OF CARE, CATHOLIC RELIEF SERVICES, AND WORLD VISION. HOWEVER, THE TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT WITH THE CONSORTIUM SHOULD SPELL OUT THAT ADRA (ADVENTIST DEVELOPMENT AND RELIEF), LUTHERAN WORLD SERVICES/CHURCH WORLD SERVICE, SAVE THE CHILDREN, PROJECT CONCERN AND OTHER U.S. RELIEF GROUPS WOULD ALSO HAVE ACCESS TO THE FUND FOR FOOD SECURITY INITIATIVES.

UNICEF PROGRAMS: IT IS PROPOSED THAT 40,000 MT OF WHEAT BE MONETIZED IN INDONESIA TO SUPPORT UNICEF'S ATTEMPTS AT MOVING THE GOI TO FORTIFY WITH MICRONUTRIENTS ALL DOMESTICALLY PRODUCED WHEAT FLOUR. CURRENTLY, NO WHEAT FLOUR IN INDONESIA IS FORTIFIED. IRON DEFICIENCY IS A MAJOR PROBLEM IN INDONESIA AS IS LACK OF MANY MINERALS AND VITAMINS IN LOW INCOME HOUSEHOLDS. UNICEF HAS BEEN WORKING WITH THE GOI TO ESTABLISH A NATIONAL STANDARD FOR FLOUR FORTIFICATION. IT MAY TAKE TWO YEARS OR MORE FOR A STANDARD TO BE APPROVED. IN THE MEANTIME, UNICEF HAS AGREEMENT OF THE GOI TO TEST LOCAL FORTIFICATION OF FLOUR WITH IRON AND TO TEST OTHER MICRONUTRIENT FORTIFICATION. THE COST OF IRON FORTIFICATION FOR INDONESIA'S EXPECTED DOMESTIC CONSUMPTION OF ABOUT 3 MILLION TONS OF WHEAT FLOUR IS SLIGHTLY ABOVE $1.50 PER TON. THE APPLICATION OF THE U.S. WHEAT DONATION TO FORTIFY INDONESIA'S FLOUR WOULD BE A SIGNIFICANT EVENT AND GREATLY CONTRIBUTE TO NUTRITIONAL IMPROVEMENT. BASED ON THE EXPERIENCE GATHERED OVER THE NEXT MONTHS WITH A FORTIFICATION PROGRAM, A SECOND YEAR OF SUPPORT WOULD SEEM LIKELY IF CONDITIONED BY AN AGREEMENT BY THE GOI TO ADOPT A NATIONWIDE STANDARD. SHOULD 416(B) WHEAT NOT BE AVAILABLE AT A LATER DATE, TITLE II PROGRAMMING WOULD BE APPROPRIATE FOR THE SECOND YEAR.

UNICEF IS ALSO SUPPLYING A NUTRITIOUS INFANT CEREAL THROUGH VILLAGE HEALTH POSTS IN AN ATTEMPT TO COMBAT MALNUTRITION IN LACTATING MOTHERS AND YOUNG (AGE 6 - 12 MONTHS) CHILDREN. UNICEF HAS REQUESTED AN ADDITIONAL $5 MILLION IN DONOR FUNDING TO CONTINUE THE PROGRAM WHICH IS SUPPORTED BY AN ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK LOAN. USAID/JAKARTA'S HEALTH OFFICE STRONGLY SUPPORTS THE PROGRAM AND HAS CONTRIBUTED TO ITS START-UP COSTS. MONETIZATION OF 40,000 MT OF THE 416(B) WHEAT (OR ITS "SWAP" FOR INFANT CEREAL FINISHED PRODUCT) WOULD OFFSET PROGRAM COSTS INCLUDING IMPORTED PREMIX COSTS AND ALLOW NATIONWIDE DISTRIBUTION TO BEGIN.

ADDITIONAL FOOD AID OPTIONS: USAID/JAKARTA IS INITIATING DISCUSSIONS WITH INDONESIA'S TWO LARGEST MUSLIM ORGANIZATIONS: NU (NAHDLATUL ULAMA), THE LARGEST MUSLIM GROUP IN INDONESIA, AND

MUHAMMADIYAH, THE SECOND LARGEST MUSLIM GROUP. NU IS ACTIVE IN RURAL COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS AND MUHAMMADIYAH IS ACTIVE IN URBAN SELF HELP PROGRAMS. THE PURPOSE OF THESE DISCUSSIONS IS TO DETERMINE IF DIRECT FEEDING SUPPORT, OR OTHER ACTIVITIES WHICH WOULD CONTRIBUTE TO FOOD SECURITY, CAN BE ARRANGED THROUGH THESE ORGANIZATIONS. IF SO, A PROGRAM MAY BE DEVELOPED FOR A SECOND 416(B) TRANCHE.

USAID/JAKARTA IS ALSO REVIEWING THE POTENTIAL OF SUPPORTING FOOD SECURITY PROGRAMS UNDER THE "COMMUNITY RECOVERY PROGRAM", A SOCIAL SAFETY NET PROGRAM DEVELOPED BY THE GOI (BAPPENAS) WITH THE IBRD (WORLD BANK), AND DONORS TO ASSIST IN RESPONDING TO THE SEVERE IMPACT ON THE POOR OF THE ECONOMIC CRISIS THROUGH LOCAL NGOS. UNDER THE CURRENT STRUCTURE, DONOR FUNDS WOULD BE PROVIDED TO A UNDP-MANAGED TRUST FUND.

MEMORANDUM

Subject : The US Govt. donation of wheat to Indonesia

The US government plan to purchase hundreds of millions of dollars worth of surplus US wheat and donate it to needy countries including Indonesia. The US would begin buying more than 80 million bushels of wheat (2.5 million tons). Under the humanitarian aid plan, the wheat would be given to Indonesia, Ethiopia, Sudan, Eritrea and North Korea.

The attached table shows how this humanitarian aid will affect to the Indonesian food economy. Column 2 depict 3 scenarios of the quantity of wheat that would be donated to Indonesia while column 3 contains the CIF price of wheat grain. The total value of wheat grain is calculated under three scenarios based on the quantity of wheat as shown in column 4 and 5. These magnitude reflects the economic value of the humanitarian aid of wheat. The next column shows the CIF price of rice at the world market, and column 7 is the average price of rice at the domestic market. The last two column are the equivalent value of wheat in terms of rice ex-import procured from the world market and rice ex-local produced domestically.

Suppose that Indonesia will receive 500,000 tons of wheat from the US government. Since wheat need to be milled before it can be consumed, the GOI cannot distribute them directly to the consumers. One possible solution is that the GOI need to conduct swap with BULOG to trade them with rice then distribute them to the consumers. Bulog can take advantage by selling wheat to the flour milling factories such as PT Bogasari, PT Berdikari and so on. Under the assumption that Bulog would swap wheat with the import rice (procured from the world market) then the total quantity of rice that will be traded with wheat would amount to 400,000 tons. Meanwhile, the GOI will save international foreign reserve up to US $ 128 million this fiscal year under the assumption exchange rate is Rp 13,000 per US $1, and no additional import of rice. Total import of rice is held at 3.1 million tons this fiscal year. As a result, total food subsidy will drop by Rp 128 million or Rp 1.64 trillion, meaning that it could lower substantially the state budget deficit for this current fiscal year.

Suppose that Bulog will trade wheat with rice that produced domestically (Ex-Local). Since the average price of local rice in Indonesia is only Rp 1,640,450 per ton, the equivalent value of wheat donated by the US government would amount to 1.01 million tons of rice, which is approximately one-third of the total rice import for this current fiscal year. However, the most likely comparison is with the imported rice because Indonesia faces a deficit rice production.

Another impact of the wheat donation by the US government is that it can lower the demand for wheat grain in the world market, which in turn will lead to sustain the decline of its world price. The world price of wheat has been decreased since February 1997. But it does not help much for Indonesia because rupiah value has plunged since the beginning of the economic crisis, July 1997.

Indonesia Food Announcement
July 30, 1998

Opening Statement by Administrator J. Brian Atwood

The consultative group on Indonesia has just concluded today, and I was delighted to hear the news, that the overall amount of resources that would be made available to Indonesia by the international community is 7.9 billion dollars. This is ... much higher than the world bank had anticipated. It's at the very high end of the spectrum. I think that it is an indication that the international community is responding to the needs of Indonesia. It is a very, very good performance on the part of the international community. We like to think that the United States has offered some considerable degree of leadership in this ...we have... been working around the clock to try and convince other donors that Indonesia is much too important a country to ...allow... to sort of...muddle through a very, very difficult situation. The international community needs to come forward to help in this time of need, especially in reaction to Indonesia's commitment to move or uphold democracy. That point was underscored at the CG meeting in Paris by all of the international donors. I think the Indonesian delegation has gone home understanding that...there is a real expectation that Indonesia will... set and keep to a timetable for elections... as we proceed over the next year. The United States was able to announce... 300 million dollars in new assistance for the Indonesian fiscal year which is April 1998 to April 1999. This... more than doubles what we had been making available to Indonesia in our pledged response to the crisis there through three major funding initiatives... A very large increase in food aid...and an immediate suspension of the requirement that Indonesia contribute 25% of the cost of all of US development programs, and free and immediate increase of 8 million dollars in this year's development assistance programs to deliver desperately needed services and supplies to the people of Indonesia. Indonesia is a country that, in recent years, has received no food assistance from the United States. This year we have already sent 230,000 metric tons and it was announced in Paris that we have allocated 500,000 metric tons of food aid from the Presidential Food Aid Initiative that was just announced last week by the President in his radio address to the country. We will make available up to 1,000,000 additional metric tons of food over the next year subject to the availability of adequate distribution capacity and to the normal consultations with interested parties. This new commitment of food is valued at approximately an [additional] 190 million dollars, depends again on the market value of the food when we purchase it. That of course is in addition to 50 million dollars in Title II Food Aid we've already provided. The new food aid comes in the form of American wheat purchased by the department of Agriculture, United States Department of Agriculture, the program will be administered by USAID. We will use the food, working, obviously through the government, it has to be the government agreement... but... we've already had preliminary discussions with the government and we have identified several issues we want to be sure we can move, we can work with NGO's to distribute this food. We want to be sure we can work through religious organizations... we clearly will have to, in the early days, work through the government distribution system that is set up but there is, we believe, a commitment to begin to dismantle that system and privatize it and we will use ... some of the food for the purpose of working with others to begin private distribution systems within Indonesia. There will be food for work programs, we will have stay in school programs that will encourage children to come to school, and of course maternal and child feeding programs. We've had the irony in the record yield of wheat this year, the US market has surpluses, whereas we have, of course, the people, including the people in Indonesia, who are suffering because of the economic collapse. That was a pleasant irony to have. We were therefore able to purchase some, up to 2.5 million metric tons of American wheat that is in surplus for use in other countries around the world. The countries that have thus far been identified by the President initially are Indonesia and Sudan. I'm pleased to announce that we were, are, increasing this year's funding for Indonesia by 8 million dollars effective immediately. This 8 million dollars has been recaptured from our India program where we were forced, because of the explosion of a nuclear device, to cut off all non-humanitarian development assistance programs in India. We will obviously use this 8 million dollars to facilitate some of the things that I mentioned before. The systems that will be used to distribute wheat and we hope those systems will become permanent systems that would be a benefit to Indonesian society. This increase of 8 million dollars represents an increase of 20% our FY '98 development assistance program for Indonesia at a time when our own development assistance resources are very short. On all funding to Indonesia, the US government has required that Indonesia, as our partner and of course an emerging market, emerging economy (at least until the economic problems), that they provide and economic counterpart contribution of at least 25% of the US dollar costs. We will waive that counterpart contribution for this fiscal year and next, and we've called upon other donors to do the same thing. In addition to redoing funding levels, US objectives in Indonesia have been redressed, re-prioritized to meet the new challenges.

There are four areas that we are going to be concentrating on. One is democracy and elections. It is clear that economic reform cannot happen unless full democratic election where the people feel as though their own views have been expressed, and the government will then have the mandate, the full mandate of the people, to carry out all of the difficult measures to carry out economic reform. We will support anti-corruption initiatives, again, working with the government and NGO's to try to bring about more transparency and more accountability to the economic and financial systems of Indonesia. We of course will create help... work with all of these elements to create a social safety net to meet humanitarian needs during what will be a prolonged economic decline. I said that when I was in Indonesia last, that as our country went through the Great Depression we did not have an international community that was here to help us, our depression lasted a lot longer than it need last in Indonesia so..and finally we'll be providing a... an agreement we have with the Ministry for Planning, a number of technical advisors to help the government and others to reform the banking system and the economic and financial systems so that they ... the ... economy can recover as quickly as possible. Obviously our increased funding is a show of commitment by the American people to the people of Indonesia. Our priority is to strengthen the social safety-net system. The top priority has to be the humanitarian consequences of this problem. Estimates that there may be 100 million people living by the end of the year in extreme poverty in Indonesia. We need to care for the women, the children, the sick and the unemployed and hungry and we plan to make that our top priority. It's only if we can provide that kind of assistance that hope can be restored. There is, there has been a great deal accomplished in terms of development in the last 30 years in Indonesia. Children have been educated, people have had access to family planning services. People have dealt with environmental problems..there still remain problems, but we don't want Indonesia to lose the investment that it has made and we don't want to lose the development investments that we've made. We believe that the people of Indonesia, in particular, if they have the opportunity to elect their own government, will be able to get beyond this crisis a lot sooner, even than the United States did when we had to be faced with the Great Depression. I'd be happy to take questions on this ...on the ....program of course has also been discussed in Paris, of the 7.9 billion dollars, I'm sure that the World Bank has laid out exactly where all of that is coming from. We can only speak for the U.S. side of it.

Q&A

Question about what the $300 million dollar pledge is and why we don't know exactly how much will be needed.

The...The.. The word approximately is used there because we're not sure exactly when the wheat is actually purchased what the wheat price will be. But, here is the way that the development assistance is. The development assistance is 47 million dollars, the disaster assistance, a lot of medicine is being provided there, is 10 million dollars, loan guarantees are 5 million dollars, the Title II Food Aid Program is 50 million dollars, the first 500,000 metric tons of wheat is 63 million dollars, and then, of course, pending discussion of need we are prepared to go up to another million metric tons of wheat and right now we would value that at 125 million dollars. Discussions will be with, of course, Indonesia. We have been seeing that their gap will be something like 5 million metric tons over the coming year... We don't want to disrupt commercial markets We are going to be very careful to do all of the ground-trooping that we need to ensure that we don't disrupt either local production or what would normally be commercial transactions.

On the Food Aid Question, just so I understand this, the 500 million, I'm sorry the 500,000 now, up to 1 million later this year, that's all US wheat under the Presidential Initiative?

-That's Right.

And the up to 1 million that will be from the end of calendar year '98.....

-That's right. Well I'm sure... I'm sorry.. It's up to...what we are doing here is a bit confusing. What we're talking about is the Indonesian fiscal year which goes from April to April.

When will the food arrive?

It hasn't arrived, at least the second 25 million hasn't arrived, at least the 1st 25 million has just been arriving in the past couple of weeks. Mostly that goes to the eastern part of Indonesia.

Question-

... I think that that has been superseded by the CCC program .
Brian, you said that Indonesia was too important a country to allow them to simply "muddle through," could you talk about why Indonesia is such an important country? Also, was there any other re-programming done...?
-No , India was the only programming that was redone. A lot of the resources come from disaster accounts and from the wheat reserves. ..but on the first point... Indonesia is a country of about 200 million people. It is, I think, about the fourth largest country in the world. It has been in that region of... the South Pacific ... East Asia, a real source of stability... has been a very close friend of the United States. We have been probably the most critical of the former government at previous CG meetings, the only government to have raised the issue of democracy. But the potential for a democratic Indonesia to be a real force in Asia is tremendous and... for... while we're in very difficult times there is the prospect that Indonesia can strengthen itself enormously both politically and economically as it goes through this transition... but it has to... it can not obviously fall into anarchy. There are threats to the integrity of Indonesia. There are Independence movements in Irian Jaya that people are aware of. Those problems need to be resolved. The East Timor problem needs to be resolved. ... We support the U.N. process for resolving that. But, if we can resolve these problems over the next few years, and if Indonesians do not lose patience, this country can be a major world force. It has been an important world force, it could be an even more important on in the future as it's economy recovers and if it is able to achieve a stable democracy.
Question-
The first 50 million dollars was primarily rice... the wheat that will be provided will be whole wheat and some milled flour which is used in the noodles that people like to eat in Indonesia as we understand it. We had a good visit from the Indonesian ambassador and there is a growing ...need...appetite for that kind of processed wheat in the form of noodles that go with the food that you usually eat, as I understand it.
(Questions back and forth discussing the difference in cooking energy between noodles and rice, why noodles are more efficient.)
Question discussion the length of recovery-
I don't think that anyone can predict that but ...I think we will be seeing signs of recovery. We've of course made provisions in how a program for the next two years. We've said that we will not .. be asking the Indonesian government to contribute its 25% for the next two years. I think that you will begin to see the signs of recovery in that period. Clearly there is a banking crisis and ... it needs to be resolved through reform. We have a number of technical advisors that are being provided in that area in particular.
- there some process of review that is ongoing with this aid to meet the conditions that you have laid down about democracy and anti-corruption if the full democracy that you have mentioned is not prepared?
I think that... I can't speak for all of the other donors, but all of the other donors did sign the statement that ... was made in Paris that there is an expectation that Indonesia will move toward democracy and its current government has committed itself to do as the people of Indonesia itself expect will happen. It is our belief that if there is not continued movement toward that goal that it will be extremely difficult to see economic recovery. We don't believe that the kind of explicit conditionally you are suggesting by your question is needed now because the commitment seems to be very broad within Indonesia. However, I can tell you that I'm sure that the international community will want to reconsider its position if there is any hesitancy to move in the direction that everyone wants to move in. The main reason that we will hesitate is because there is a very strong feeling here that we can not afford to put all of this IMF money toward all of this grant assistance if there is no prospect of recovery. I think that an Indonesia that does not commit itself to move toward a stable democracy is an inherently unstable nation and we would be basically be throwing good money at the bad if we would continue to do that. What I'm saying is that there will be constant evaluation. The relationship that we want to have with the Indonesian people, those in its current government and all those who aspire to be in its current government is one of partnership and not of conditionally.

Question-

Not yet Tom, there isn't any yet but there is ... a process of assessing the needs now. We have our own Food For Peace office there in Indonesia and we've had the Department of Agriculture there. We've been talking obviously to the Bulog people, to others, looking at how the food would be needed, how the food would be used once it arrives.

Tom Oliver, Food for Peace

We need to work with the local flour mills in terms of what their capacity is ... make that assessment along with the refined needs assessment and I think that ...and I think we can be specific about the amount of flour.

Question about the class of flour-

I don't know in terms of class what I do know is that the Indonesians prefer a higher than usual protein content to their wheat and... so we will be endeavoring to meet that protein requirement if we can. Of course the other side of the coin is that... the objective is to lift US wheat prices so at the same time we can't be too picky as to those things.

In terms of the additional 1 million, I know that you've addressed this but, under what circumstances would that go forward or not go forward.

Well we, first of all, need to do some of the examination that was mentioned here about the first 500,000 but what we always worry about whenever we have a food aid program is that we are not flooding a market with food that could be otherwise produced locally. That's the number one concern. The other concern is whether there are commercial interests that would be purchasing food.. in any case we are not interested in disrupting commercial markets so we would want to be in consultation with the Indonese government and with other Indonese normal suppliers, in particular Australia and Canada who provided food to Indonesia.

Question-

That's right. We've already, in terms of the 1st 50 million dollars worth of food aid have been working... our principle partner happens to be the Catholic Relief Service, the PVO, private voluntary organization operating on the ground. They already have good contacts with various Muslim organizations, Buddhist organizations, and others in Indonesia. We would hope that we could... even help them build capacity even beyond what they now have so that they could be the distributors of much of this food aid. If they are closer to the people, the people trust them. I think there is still a lot of concern in Indonesia. For example, when I was there, I was asked a question at a press conference "Isn't it true that you are going to distribute your food through the Indonesian military?" ...I said no, that is not what we are going to do. I'm not sure that I convinced the person who asked the question. We have no desire to do that. We have to work initially with Bulog which is the government firm that distributes food. There is no better way to get food around that very large country at this juncture. We would hope to create other institutions to do that over time and indeed would like to see aspects of Bulog privatized. I know that from discussion with Minister [-] that the government would like to see that as well.

Well this is something, of course, that does depend on where we deliver it, there are a number of ports in Indonesia where we could deliver the food. We will have to do that examination. You're right, it is complicated we would not be able to say to you today for example that we might not use even military .. facilities to actually move the distribution of food. We certainly wouldn't be using their ships, but there are some islands that are only accessible that way.
Question-
We, I think the purchases have been made. We'd like to get this done within a four month period. Isn't that your goal Tom?
Tom Oliver, Food for Peace
Yes
Question-
The second traunch should be arriving in the next month or so.
Tom Oliver, Food for Peace
We hope for procurement by August the 4th.

SPECIAL REPORTS

BUSINESS PROFILE

PROSPECTS OF WHEAT FLOUR INDUSTRY AND MARKET IN INDONESIA

Introduction

The monetary turmoil that has put countries in this region in a brain racking period of difficult consolidation after major overhauling and reshuffles in their monetary policies, may have been in fact a blessing for the country's wheat flour industry. The turn of event has at least set the industry on a path to a new era free from the unpopular system of trade monopoly. Under a deregulation measure known as November Policy Package issued on November 3, 1997, the monopoly enjoyed by Bulog in wheat flour import was removed. The measure was part of the conditions demanded by the International Monetary Fund (IMF) for a big financial assistance expected to serve as a short term panacea for the big financial problem faced by the country with the steep fall of the national currency.

However, the government has not announced the guideline rules as to how the new measure is to be brought to reality. The implementation regulation is still being discussed by the government.

The new measure has wide impact. It is expected to boost the growth of the wheat flour industry, but it will also bring about new challenge for the industry after being kept under the monopoly of a certain company group. General importers would not find it easy to compete with the powerful group .

The turn of events has prompted Indocommercial to undertake a survey on wheat flour industry. This report has been compiled as a result of the surveys with secondary data available from related government agencies including the Central Bureau of Statistics (BPS), the industry and trade ministry, the finance ministry, the Board of Logistics (BULOG), etc., and primary data collected through interviews with industrialists and traders.

Description of Product

Wheat flour referred to in this report is one extracted from wheat grains. According to the Indonesian Industrial Standard (SII) No. 0074-75, wheat flour has a certain quality standards namely it is allowed only to have a content of water maximum 16.5%, dust maximum 2.2%, silicate maximum 0.1% and acid maximum 4% and it must have a normal smell and taste and it must be free from insect and insect remainders such as eggs, larva, etc and may not contain preservatives and synthetic sweeteners.

In addition to producing flour and semolina pasta from wheat grains, the company produces by products like bran, pollard and industrial flour.

PT Bogasari Flour Mills produces wheat flour in three brands namely Cakra, Kembar and Segitiga Biru. Bran and pollard are used as a raw material for animal feed mostly for export. Its industrial flour with the brand name of Anggrek is used as adhesive material for plywood industry.

Wheat flour it produces is used by the company to produce pasta (macaroni). The company has a unit to produce pasta in Jakarta with an annual capacity of 60,000 tons mostly for export with the brand name of Bogasari. Its macaroni products include long pasta (10-spaghettini, 11-Spaghetti, 12-Vermicelli, 20-Bavette, 30-Linguine, etc.) and short pasta (80-Zitti Tagliati, 81-Penne Zitti, 82-Pennete, 83-Ditali, 60-Sedani, etc.).

The company also has a textile plant in Jakarta with an annual capacity to produce 100 million pieces of textile sacks. The sacks are needed by the company for its wheat flour. It also has three cargo ships for wheat transport with a total carrying capacity of 101,000 tons. The ships are chartered for the transport of wheat grains from the United States, Australia and Canada.

The company has performed well so far posting good profit every year. Based on its audited financial report, the company posted a net profit of Rp 27.6 billion in 1992, up to 89.6 billion in 1993 and to 94.6 billion in 1994.

On may 26, 1995, PT Indofood Sukses Makmur signed a sales contract with PT ITP to wholly take over PT Bogosari Flour Mills at a gross price of Rp 1,860 billion including assets and liabilities. The net selling price after being deducted with liabilities amounted to Rp 1,410 billion.

Industrial sources told CIC, the fund from the sale was used by PT ITP to strengthen its financial position, to pay for special interim dividend in 1995 and to increase investment in cement industry. In line with a decision of the shareholders on business diversification, PT ITP would continue to strengthen investment in food industry through share participation in Indofood and property sector.

The only competitor of Bogasari in wheat flour industry was PT Berdikari Sari Utama Flour Mills, which was set up in January 1970. In the beginning PT Berdikari was a PMA with the name of PT Prima Indonesia set up by Singaporean investors with an authorized capital of US$ 6 million and issued capital of US$ 1.2 million. The founding shareholders were Prima Ltd, a Singaporean company, Mr Cheng Tsang Man, Mr Cheng Chin Cheng and Mr Werner Lutz.

PT Berdikari Sari Utama Flour Mills, which is based in Ujungpandang, South Sulawesi, over a two hectare plot of land, started operation in 1973 with an annual capacity of 300,000 tons of wheat flour and 100,000 tons of wheat flour dust as a by-product.

The three wheat flour companies have a total capacity of 5.4 million tons a year. But based on a survey by CIC, the total installed capacity of the three companies was only 3 million tons or 55% of their total licensed capacity. PT Bogasari has two factories namely PT Bogasari I in Jakarta and Bogasari II in Surabaya with installed capacity of 2.4 million tons a year or 80% of the country's total installed capacity. PT Berdikari has only an installed capacity of 324,000 tons and PT Citra Flour 300,000 tons.

There are two other companies licensed to produce wheat flour. They are PT Amora Restu Flour Mills and PT Sriboga Raturaya. Amora Restu Flour is to build its factory in Samarinda with an annual capacity of 108,000 tons and Sriboga Raturaya in Semarang with an annual capacity of 363,000 tons. But the two companies have not indicated that they plan to implement their project in the near future. If all the projects could be implemented as scheduled, the country would have an annual licensed capacity of 7 million tons. See the following table.

Table - 1.
Wheat flour producers and projects in Indonesia, 1997

Interest in Investment

There is not many investors indicating interest in wheat flour industry. From 1996 to October 1997, there were only two companies seeking investment license in wheat flour industry. They are PT Berdikari Sari Utama Flour Mills in Ujungpandang and PT Corkindo Nusamas in Serang.

PT Corkindo Nusamas plans to build a new factory in Serang with an annual capacity of 1 million tons. The venture will cost about Rp 245 billion. PT Berdikari plans to increase its production capacity by 720,000 tons a year with an investment of Rp 169,499 million. See the following table.

Australia was the largest supplier of wheat grains for Indonesia in 1996. Imports from that country totaled 2.3 million tons valued at US$ 608 million or 56% of the country's total imports in 1996. The second largest supplier was Canada from which imports totaled 1.2 million tons valued at US$ 285 million in the same year, followed by the United States from which imports totaled 540,000 tons valued at US$ 129 million.

In term of production capacity PT Bogasari Flour Mills is the largest producer of wheat flour in the country. The company, which is a subsidiary of the Salim Group, has two factories in Jakarta and Surabaya. In 1995 the two factories contributed 2.4 million tons or 89% to the country's total production. PT Berdikari produced 281,000 tons in the same year from its factory in Ujungpandang.

Development of Wheat Flour Imports

Indonesia still imports wheat flour to make up for the shortage in supply from the local producers. Imports, which are still monopolized until the end of this year) by BULOG, totaled 38,900 tons valued at US$ 8.4 million in 1992. The import volume fluctuated in the following years. In 1996, imports totaled 20,200 tons valued at US$ 4.7 million. See the following table.

Supply of Wheat Flour

According to official records of BULOG and BPS, wheat flour supply which is assumed to be equivalent to production plus import minus export and the balance between stocks in the start and end of the year in 1992 totaled 1.9 million tons. In 1996, the supply rose to 2.8 million tons or an annual increase of 10.4% on the average.

Consumption by Instant Noodle Industry

Among the food industries, instant noodle industry is the largest consumer of wheat flour. Instant noodle industry has been developed in Indonesia since 1968 after PT Lima Satu Sankyu was set up in April that year. Business in instant noodle has flourished. The expansion of the industry was marked with the growing competition among instant noodle producers.

PT Lima Satu Sankyu, which was set up as a joint venture between an Indonesian businessman and Sankyu Shokushin Kabushiki from Japan was later renamed PT Lima Satu Sankyu Indonesia and then PT Supermie Indonesia. Its instant, noodle product is popularly known as SUPERMIE.

In 1970, competition in instant noodle market was brisker with the operation of PT Sanmaru Food Manufacturing, a subsidiary of the Jangkar Jati Group with product known as INDOMIE. In 1982, PT Sarimi Asli of the Salim Group followed with factory in Tangerang. This company came with a product known as SARIMIE.

Since then the market of instant noodle has been tight in competition among large company groups especially after Indofood of the Salim Group merged with PT Sanmaru Food Manufacturing of the Jangkar Jati Group to form PT Indofood Interna Corporation. In 1986, PT Indofood Interna Corporation through its subsidiary PT Lambang Insan Makmur took over PT Supermie Indonesia. The acquisition strengthened the domination of the market by Indofood or the Salim Group. The step did not stop there. In 1992, the Salim Group acquired the entire shares of the Jangkar Jati Group in PT Indofood Interna Corporation. The ambition to dominate the market climaxed when Indofood replaced its distributor PT Wicaksana Overseas with Indomarco (Pebapan). Since then Indofood has virtually dominates the market with its instant noodle products of INDOMIE, SUPERMIE and SARIMIE.

After the success in taking control of the three producing groups, on February 5, 1994, Indofood changed its name into PT Indofood Sukses Makmur. PT Indofood Sukses Makmur was previously named PT Panganjaya Intikusuma set up on August 14, 1990 by Mr Soetoyo Koerniawan and Mr Herryjanto Setiadi. In June 1992, 15% of its shares were taken over by PT Indocement Tunggal Prakarsa.

On February 12, 1994, Indofood merged with 18 companies mostly its subsidiaries or affiliates operating in food processing industry including instant noodle and instant noodle flavors. The merger was aimed at simplifying the legal structure and business activities of the Indofood Group. The merger was made under the method of pooling of interest retroactive as from January 1994.

The 18 companies include 10 subsidiaries of the Indofood Group namely PT Intipangan Persada (instant noodle), PT Karyapangan Intisejati (instant noodle), PT Panganjaya Abadi (instant noodle), PT Karina Saricipta (instant noodle), PT Citrapratama Sentosa (instant noodle), PT Ultrasari Wahana (instant noodle flavors), PT Pandanwangi Nusantara (flavors), PT Asoka Cahaya Indah (flavors), PT Foodtech Utama International (research and development), PT Ciptaloka Bumisarana (central supplier).

The steps taken by Indofood were followed by other instant noodle producers like PT Asia Inti Selera, set up in Jakarta in 1990, and PTNissinmas set up in 1992 by the Rodamas Group (49%) and Nissin Co. Ltd (51%), PT ABC President Feed Enterprise set up in 1994 in Karawang as a joint venture between PT Aneka Bina Cipta Central Food (ABC Group) and Yu Yan Enterprise (Taiwan), and Nan Gai Investment Co. Ltd (Hongkong), PT Supmi Sakti, PT Jakarana Tama, PT Mie Barokah and other instant noodle companies. See the following table for more data.

Consumption by Bakery Industry

Based on a decision of the Drug and Food Supervision (POM) Directorate General No. 02240/B/SK/VII/91, bread or bakery product referred to here is one made of wheat flour fermented with baker's yeast or a mixture of wheat flour with water and yeast or one mixed with cake soda and then baked. In the process of baking, salt, sugar, milk, fat, chocolate and other ingredients could be added with water content normally not more than 40%.

Therefore, bakery or bread manufacturing industry is a major consumer of wheat flour as this industry has also expanded in the country. The growth is indicated by the fast growing production. Bakery products are no longer occasional food but they have become food for breakfast in almost urban people.

The country has many bakeries both small and large. Small scale bakeries include those operating as cottage industries. They are found in almost all areas in the country. According to the POM directorate general, there were 840 bakeries officially registered in the country. The number rose to 1,143 in 1994. See the following table for more data.

The production of cottage industries fluctuate depending on the market demand. Demand will increase during holy day celebrations. Many producers, which normally operate far below their capacities increase production to exceed their capacities during Idul Fitri or Christmas day celebrations.

Estimate of annual production, therefore, could not be based on the production of cottage industries. Estimate could be made based on the production figures of regular producers mainly medium and large scale companies.

In the past 5 years, the country's biscuit production has continued to rise, up 11.8% annually on the average from 85,900 tons in 1992 to 88,900 tons in 1993, 96,900 tons in 1994, 115,300 tons in 1995 and to 133,500 tons in 1996.

There are several types of biscuit produced in the country. Roughly they could be divided into Assorted biscuit, Marie, Crackers, Wafer and Cookies. Lactose is used for cookies.

Consumption by Household Sector

The large number of Indonesian households provide a potential consumers of wheat flour. The number of households grows fast to follow the growing population from year to year.

In 1992, Indonesia has 41.8 million households, up to 42.9 million in 1993 and to 46.3 million in 1996.

The growing population and number of households will guarantee a large market for wheat flour in the country in the future. In addition change in the food pattern in the country tends to contribute to increasing wheat flour consumption in the country.

According to a survey by Indocommercial wheat flour consumption by Indonesian households totaled 282,859 tons in 1992, up to 344,366 tons in 1996.

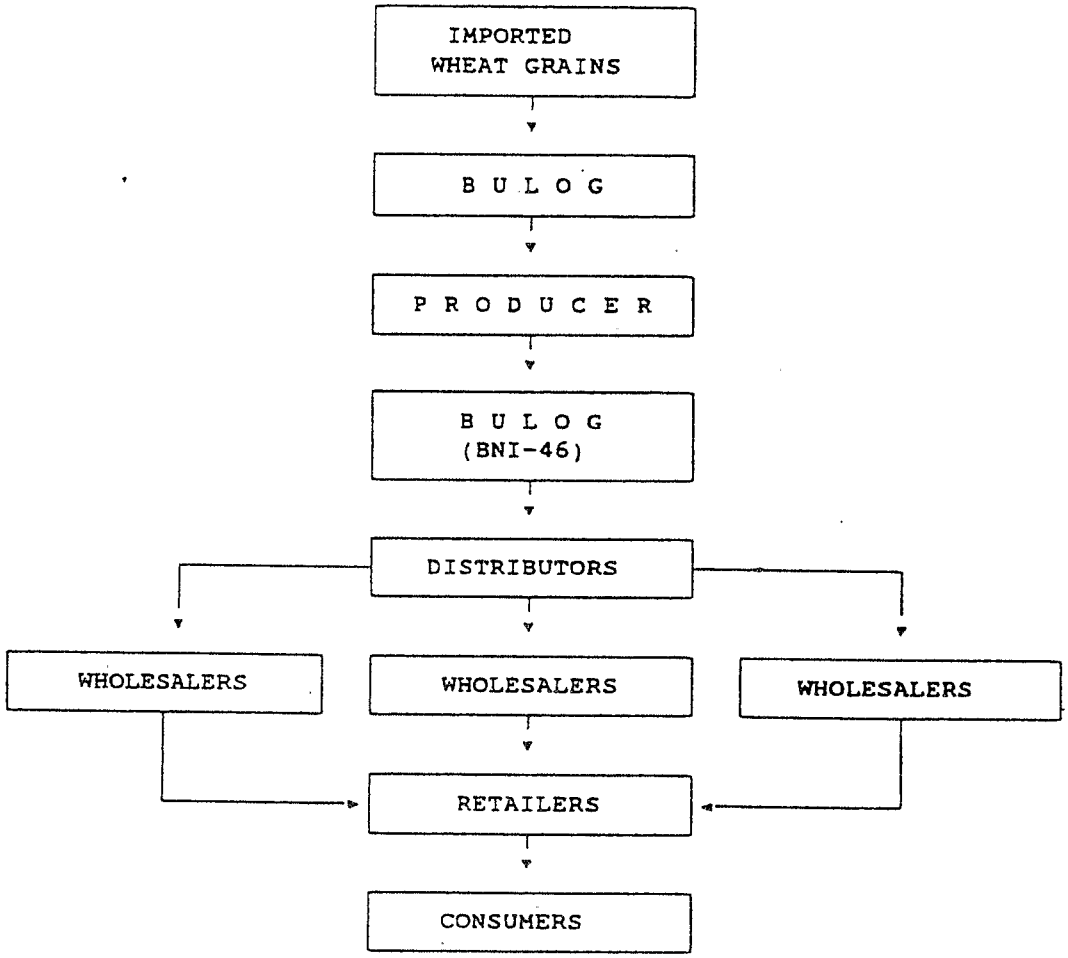
The country's consumption of wheat flour totaled 1.8 million tons in 1992, up to 2 million tons in 1993 and to 2.8 million tons in 1996.

Sectors grouped in "Other industries" are the largest consumers accounting for 39% or 1 million tons of the total consumption of 2.8 million tons in 1996. Instant noodle industry accounted for 22.8% or 628,530 tons of the country's total consumption, bakeries accounted for 21.4% or 588,161 tons, household sector for 12.5% or 344,366 tons and biscuit industry for 3.9% or 106,768 tons.

BULOG cooperates with the state bank BNI-46, which arranges the payment of by distributors.

Diagram - 1
Distribution system of wheat flour in Indonesia



Price

The price of wheat flour is relatively the same and stable in all areas in the country. BULOG itself sets the price, but retail prices vary slightly because of the long distribution line from factories to consumers in some areas. Some of the retail price components are production cost, selling price by distributors, selling price by wholesalers and selling price by retailers.

Late in November in Jakarta, the retail prices of wheat grain ranged from Rp 19,400 to Rp 19,900 per sack of 25 kg. The price was Rp 19,400 for Kunci Biru, Rp 19,700 for Segitiga Biru and Rp 19,900 for Cakra Kembar.

Diversification of foods will also contribute to increasing consumption of wheat flour in the country. More people are expected to consume food made of wheat flour. Wheat flour has gained popularity not only in urban areas but also in rural areas.

Wheat flour consumption in Indonesia is estimated to reach 4.7 million tons in 2001 including 1.3 million tons for instant noodle industry, 1.2 million tons for bakeries and, 179,000 tons for biscuit industry and 1.6 million tons for other industries and 439,000 tons for household sector.

Including the capacity of projects to be built, the country's production capacity of wheat flour will total 8 million tons in 2001 more than enough to meet the domestic requirement.

Subject: 416(b) PVO papers

(b)(6) received a package from CRS for 416(b) programs worldwide. I am faxing the section dealing with Indonesia. While it is essentially the package we saw last Friday, we would request the Mission's written comments on overall concept, specific elements, and your recommendations by the end of the week. They need not be extensive or complicated, just a page or so.

My concerns are:

-- Storage capacity.

-- Any additional feedback from the PVOs re direct distribution.

-- How they would prioritize among the subprograms.

-- The management of the fund.

There seems to be little concern or explanation on how flour would be made available for the small bakeries and venders.

There have been rounds of brief meetings on the Indonesia food program. (b)(6) desire to help remains paramount (1.5 million tons). My take is that program deliveries of 100,000 tons per month should be our goal for a period of 1 year as it would not distort commercial imports and I think, with effort, there is sufficient opportunity to achieve that level.

The schools "food for education" concept probably needs vetting at a level higher than Fazili. After all, The Bappenas's Minister helped accept the US intended donation. I am discussing the issue with (b)(6) in oredr to get feedback on approaching the Minister. If he is approached and rejects the "food for education" idea, we would have another substantive reason for not meeting the 1.5 commitment. I think he would want to save face.

How are things progressing with UNICEF?

Best regards,

Humanitarian Response and Economic Recovery Assistance Program

Introduction

The country of Indonesia is experiencing the worst economic decline of any nation in recent history. This economic crisis is exacerbated by drought in the eastern islands, environmental disasters (fires) on the large islands of Borneo and Sumatra, and an uncertain political transformation in process since the fall of the 30-year Suharto regime. The impact of this crisis has resulted in a severe decline in health and social impact indicators: 20 million people are out of work; 48% of the population will be below the poverty level by the end of 1998 as compared with only 11% before the crisis; school drop out rate is expected to reach at least 20%; 60 % inflation rate at the end of July (8.5%per month); and increasing levels of malnutrition (a recent survey in an eastern island district showed an increase in malnutrition rates to 30%).

Not surprising, the poor and vulnerable groups are especially affected by this crisis. The following concept proposes a collaborative multi-PVO, multi-sector response to this humanitarian crisis that will ameliorate the immediate needs while simultaneously addressing the underlying causes of the crisis.

The Humanitarian Response and Economic Recovery Assistance Program will consist of eight programming components as described below:

Humanitarian Response

The foremost priority will support the social safety net mechanisms to prevent widespread hunger and hunger-related diseases. The situation in Indonesia is tense 98 million people under the poverty level of $1.00 per day. A funding mechanism will be established for local Indonesian NGOs to assist them in their efforts to assist the needy. Special priority will be given to those organizations that are assisting those hardest hit by the crisis – street children, homeless, elderly, hospices, orphanages. Any needy elements of the safety net system will be eligible for this support to help the most effected weather the current crisis. Grant funding will be provided to local groups engaged in programs that address the immediate needs of the poor and that will minimize the negative impacts of loss of income. These include, but are not limited to education, health and nutrition problems, social and political disturbances, inter-religious intolerance, rivalries, and conflicts at the community level.

Agricultural Recovery and Rehabilitation

A large number of the PVOs are engaged in agricultural development activities, primarily in the drought areas of Eastern Indonesia. In these rural areas, specifically in the outer islands such as Flores, Timor and Kalimantan, to program proposes agricultural recovery and rehabilitation projects to follow on the current PVOs emergency food for work programs. Drought and fire have affected crop planting and harvesting cycles; these effects are exacerbated by the economic crisis. Recovery will require new land management practices, crop diversification, and special technical assistance to help small farmers get land back into productive sustainable use. Agricultural rehab projects may include the provision of seeds, inputs, tools, and technical assistance to assure that the tragic effects of successive recent crop failures are mitigated as speedily as possible. Interventions, which improve access to markets, movement from cash crops to food, and the use of new drought resistant crops, are important.

Education of Children

The decreasing school attendance of children is well documented as a direct result of the economic crisis. Children are being taken out of school not only to save on school fees but also to be put to work in seeking family income. There is a strong need to address this serious problem by providing families with an economic incentive to keep their children in school. The consortium will propose a variety of incentive schemes to attract the students who dropped out back to school and to keep others from falling out. Ideas include take-home ration of rice and financial subsidies for school fees and uniforms.

Strengthening Community Micro Businesses through BPRs

The past predominance of crony, monopolistic businesses must be replaced with a system that provides more opportunities and income potential for the poor if Indonesia is to recover from the economic crisis. A viable and healthy micro-business sector is an indicator of community self-development and an indicator of the determination of the poor to challenge economic pressures. The Rural Credit Banks (BPR) in Indonesia have the potential to serve the poor though these micro businesses, but because of the economic crisis, liquidity and inflation have limited their capacity. This BPR system has the capacity to serve 1 million micro-businesses that impact 10 million people.

This proposed program builds on PVO success in supporting the rural banking sector (BPR). It proposes to provide financial assistance to one million small businesses at affordable market rates. It would also provide financial and technical support to 700 rural banks (BPR). This would provide a crucial assistance to the small business sector, which reaches the poorer sector, which are not served by the main banks.

Empowering Small Urban Food processing Co-ops

This component would utilize either the commodity or the funds. The idea is to strengthen cooperative groups of small food processors or street vendors in the urban areas. The basic approach is to give the groups an infusion of capital or resources that they could use to strengthen their ability to compete during this time of high inflation. The GOI Ministry of Cooperatives and Small Businesses would most likely be interested in collaborating with the PVOs in such an activity.

A meeting with the Minister has been requested to discuss the program possibilities.

Urban and Peri-Urban Small Enterprise Development

In urban and peri-urban areas of Indonesia the consortium proposes to target populations hardest hit by the economic collapse. Drawing on its expertise in SEAD and micro-credit methodologies, the consortium proposes a variety of incomes generating scheme in selected urban and peri-urban settings. Small working capital loans, for instance, of from $250 to USD $3000, can help the poorest of the economically active weather the effects of formal unemployment, as they seek alternative ways to generate income and provide the basic needs of their families. These projects are geared to those who otherwise have little access to credit from formal financial institutions; instead borrowers form solidarity groups of three to five members to guarantee each other's loans. The projects are also designed to generate their own operating expenses, and include business training and technical assistance to small entrepreneurs.

Nutrition Education and Outreach

The economic crisis, coupled with the severe environmental/climactic and social disturbances, is directly affecting the nutritional and health status of the entire population, with particular impact on the poor and vulnerable groups such as pregnant and lactating mothers and malnourished children. Malnutrition rates are increasing drastically. In some areas, there are reports of under-5 malnutrition rates as high as 50% and 50% of in pregnant/lactating mothers suffering from acute anemia due to poor nutrition. The consortium will undertake programs to: maintain access of poor to essential health services; provide nutrition surveillance; provide special supplemental feeding; support community-based delivery of essential health and nutrition care; and, strengthen the capacity of Indonesian community-based NGO's to promote health, nutrition, and food security.

Conflict Resolution, Peace Building, and Strengthening Civil Society Structures

An underlying concern of the current situation is the potential for ethnic and/or inter-religious violence. In addition to the recent anti-Chinese violence, there have been outbreaks of religious/ethnic violence in East and Central Java, Sumba, Flores, West Kalimantan, Ache, and East Timor. The need for increased efforts in the areas of inter-faith dialogue and collaboration, conflict mitigation and civil society strengthening in is crucial. The economic and social/political crisis is straining the social fabric of Indonesia. Education and health systems are deteriorating; communities and smaller social units are experiencing new conflicts and tensions as they attempt to cope with the effects of job loss, exploding prices, economic uncertainty, and political instability. The consortium proposes a variety of civil society strengthening, inter-faith collaboration and conflict mitigation projects. These activities will focus on local leaders and selected NGOs to reduce social tensions before they escalate into violence, and to find ways of channeling negative energy into positive action that will address the country's needs.

Monetization

The consortium proposes to monetize 300,000 MT of wheat at +/- $150/MT or 200,000 MT of wheat flour at +/- $290/MT. The current buying price for wheat grain is $150 per metric ton. Currently wheat flour is selling at the same rate due to the government subsidy but the wheat subsidies will end in October.

There is a monopoly on the flour milling in Indonesia. One company, PT Bogasari (also known as PT Indofood) controls the three mills in Indonesia. The only other mill in Cilicap, owned by Suharto's oldest daughter, is temporarily inoperative. Although this company provides for the country's needs at a subsidized rate (until October, it also a large noodle exporting operation. The quickest, easiest approach would be to sell 300,000 mt of grain directly to PT Bogasari.

The second option would be to sell wheat flour directly to the smaller distributors. The consortium could arrange sales agreements with buyers in the main distribution cities of Jakarta, Surabaya, Medan, Unjang Pandang, Semarang, Lampung, and Bandung. The buyers would be medium size wholesalers who supply the bakeries. The advantage of this option is that it ensures usage in the country. It would also open the possibilities for future purchases from the US flour market. With the lifting of the subsidies, PT Bogsasari/BULOG will no longer have monopoly on the importation of wheat products. Any buyer will be able to directly import. The flour would be either directly consigned to the buyer or to CRS (who will manage the monetization for the consortium). There would also be a need for a sample shipment (100kg) for the buyers to test the quality and taste.

The amount of 200,000 MT equals about 6.5% of the annual flour requirements in Indonesia. Since there is only one supplier at this time, PT Bogasari, there would be no commercial displacement. In fact, it would help to open up the market to more competition.

The Consortium

The core group currently consists of CARE, CRS, PCI, and WVRD. Other Cooperating Sponsors will also be invited to join – ADRA, CWS. The final proposal will include program plans for consortium members on how they will program funds in concordance with the programming sectors. The block grant for NGO grants will be managed by one of the consortium members with the assistance of a Consortium committee, which will establish programming and funding criteria and selection procedures. One consortium will manage the monetization (CRS). An audit plan will be built into all programs.

I. Problem Statement

Indonesia is currently experiencing a major drought which is seriously affecting the food security of its poorest populations. While drought is recurrent in many areas of Indonesia, the 1997-98 El Nino Southern Oscillation (ENSO) is one of the strongest on record and has resulted in as little as 30% of average rainfall for the Oct. '97-Jan. '98 period in the hardest hit eastern islands of the province of Nusa Tenggara Barat (islands of Lombok, Sumbawa) and the province of Nusa Tenggara Timur (islands of Sumba, Flores, Timor). In these islands, which are food deficit even in good years, failed and delayed harvests have caused food shortages, taxed traditional coping mechanisms and are threatening food and livelihood security of its populations Similar situations exist in other parts of the country as well --including Java, Sumatra, Kalimantan -- where the chronically poor traditionally the most fragile coping mechanisms and least access to assistance during times of crisis.

At the same time, Indonesia's economic crisis has caused the price of staples to soar; further price increased can be expected as subsidies are removed to comply with the terms of the IMF bail-out. There is no doubt that outside assistance will be required to enable some families to survive the next twelve months, even assuming successful harvests in 1999 and stabilization of the economy. Listed below is sample data from some of the hardest hit drought affected areas.[1] crisis. Unfortunately, GOI resources and coverage are limited and ultimately insufficient to meet the immediate and imminent needs of the poorest families.

Assessment visits by USAID/FFP, CRS and CARE staff over the period Feb. 18-25, 1998 to Timor, Flores and Central Java documented the following affects of the drought on the most vulnerable rural families. These affects are only expected to worsen as the drought continues with the peak coming in June 1998.

- Failed harvest and/or delayed planting of rice crops, and uncertainty of sufficient rainfall for next harvest
- Multiple failed or substandard harvests of corn and soybean
- Family stocks depleted
- Number of meals per day reduced from 3x/day to 2x/day, and in some areas 1x/day
- Reduced in-take of animal products (eggs, chicken, milk)
- Selling of assets (animals, land)
- Inability to purchase staples such as oil and rice as well as some vegetables, due to lack of cash crops to sell and reduced remittances from family member working outside of village.

II. Project Purpose

The primary purpose of the proposed CRS/Indonesia Emergency Program is to increase food availability to the neediest rural populations to ensure maintenance of minimal family consumption needs until the next viable harvest, prevent the sale of livelihood assets, facilitate the ability to restock family food supplies, and prevent the most vulnerable populations (children under 5, pregnant/lactating mothers) from slipping into malnourished states.

Recognizing that drought is a recurring event in Indonesia and that vulnerable populations need longer term solutions to drought impacts, CRS' intervention strategies will be designed, to the extent possible, to contribute to longer term food and livelihood security and provide a foundation for longer term development programming. This will primarily be accomplished through activities which enhance rural infrastructure, promote improved farming practices, increase access to water for farming and consumption, and/or improve nutritional knowledge and monitoring.

All proposed activities involve a take-home ration which will effectively act as an income transfer to the family while directly increasing food availability. CRS will coordinate with other donors engaged in labor-intensive food-for-work or cash-for-work activities to ensure compatibility and appropriateness of rations.

III. Targeting, Timing and Intervention Strategies

Targeting

CRS will target approximately 125,000 beneficiaries or 25,000 families per month focusing on the drought affected areas of the eastern islands of Nusa Tenggara Timor -- West Timor, Flores and Sumba, and Nusa Tenggara Barat -- Lombok and Sumbawa. CRS will also monitor conditions in other drought affected areas in central Java, Southern Sumatra and Kalimantan and be prepared to provide resources to these areas if viable local counterparts exist.

Within the proposed geographic regions the need will obviously be greater than CRS alone can meet. CRS will further refine it's targeting based on:

1. the presence of a capable local Counterpart (see Appendix 1 for initial proposed counterparts and locations)
2. extent of community need, defined in conjunction with CRS local counterpart[2]
3.. the appropriateness of the proposed CRS interventions -- FFW and Supplemental Feeding -- to meet needs;
4. no overlap or conflict with other donor or GOI interventions

CRS will not be the only actor in the region and is actively involved in coordination with other NGO donors such as CARE and World Vision, as well as the World Bank, UN (UNDP, WFP) and local church networks to ensure compatibility and maximum effectiveness of targeted interventions. The GOI is also preparing a priority list of villages/sub-districts in the drought affected provinces and CRS will work with other donors to try to ensure maximum coverage of areas in need. CRS does not anticipate cumbersome data collection systems will be necessary for targeting since CRS' local counterparts have current and detailed knowledge of the areas which they serve.

Finally, to the extent possible, CRS will promote joint collaboration between religious and ethnic communities in responding to the drought situation. CRS counterparts are Christian, Muslim and secular and work in both Christian and Muslim communities. The promotion of religious harmony and acceptance is part of CRS/Indonesia's strategic vision and on-going programming efforts (through the USAID funded Endowment Fund and Microenterprise Innovation Project,) and will be carried into the emergency programming as well.

Timing

CRS proposes a twelve month intervention for the emergency program based on the following factors:

---

[2]. Need criteria could include such factors as: 1. number of families dependent on agricultural production, 2. percentage of crop failure, 3. level of existing community food stocks, 4. indications of threatened livelihood security (ie. selling of assets), 5. indications of malnutrition, 7. anticipated duration of food security crisis, 8. lack of GOI or other local response.

- in areas with only one planting season, the next harvest will not take place until March 1999
- projected continuation of the drought through June 1998 makes successful harvests doubtful in areas attempting delayed or second cropping this year
- the need to ensure that people do not deplete all of their livelihood assets during the crisis
- the need to ensure families have sufficient resources and energy to plant next year
- the limited resources of the GOI to meet the country's food import needs due to the fiscal crisis

The intervention strategies described below will be employed in the proposed program. CRS anticipates it will be ready to begin program implementation in at least some of the targeted areas by the time food arrives in Indonesia (call forward anticipated the beginning of April 1998). Prior to the arrival of the food, CRS will further refine its targeting and program interventions by conducting detailed community assessments with counterparts in priority areas. This process should begin by the beginning of April 1998. Actual project details will be developed at the local level through a participatory process which will actively engage community members in identifying priority needs and designing interventions.

Intervention Strategies

A. Food For Work

CRS' primary intervention strategy will be labor-intensive Food For Work projects targeting families in the poorest villages of drought affected regions. These projects will provide work/income opportunities for rural subsistence farmers whose crops have failed and who have little to no other income opportunities. Beyond providing employment opportunity, prioritization will be given to FFW projects which will be of longer term benefit to the food security of the area by addressing issues related to access to markets (roads and bridges), improved farming capacity (irrigation, land reclamation) and increased access to potable water (wells, water catchments).

In community-based Food For Work projects all families in a village are given the opportunity to participate; however, the neediest are most likely to participate since the ration will be valued at less than minimum wage and families with other options would likely choose other cash-based employment opportunities. CRS' past experience with FFW activities also indicates they do not discriminate against women. In any given project there exist activities which involve lighter labor and are appropriate for women and past CRS FFW projects have often employed up to 50% women. While women have been involved in work, they have had less involvement in planning. During this project, the participation of women in planning will be encouraged, aided by use of Rapid Rural Appraisal methodologies.

The proposed grain ration of rice will provide approximately 45% of the total caloric needs for a family of five.

Target Population	Ration (Rice)	Methodology
One able-bodied household member per family	2 kg/person/day x 20 work days/month = 40kg/month	Take Home Ration

B. Supplemental Feeding

CRS will provide extra protection for the most vulnerable members in the same targeted population, namely children under five and pregnant and lactating women. A ration of 4kg/month/individual of wheat soy blend (WSB) will be provided through the local health post (Posyandu). The ration will serve as income transfer to the family, an incentive to keep targeted children and mothers coming to the Posyandu to ensure monitoring of their condition, and make an important contribution to maintaining the quality of the diet of these vulnerable individuals.. Also incorporated into the program will be health education messages aimed at increasing the likelihood the ration will be consumed by the intended beneficiary, improving mother/child health practices and reducing the risk of related illness.

It is not considered feasible to provide wet feeding on a daily basis at the Posyandu since Posyandu health activities are only scheduled once monthly and most families do not have the time or resources to get there daily. Therefore, a take home ration that can be used throughout the month is considered the most appropriate means of distribution. While a take home ration has more chance to be shared within the family, in this case the likelihood is reduced because WSB is not a staple consumed by most adults and because recipes will be provided that are appropriate for children and pregnant/lactating women. (CRS' previous Posyandu food program utilized WSB and knows it is acceptable to the local population.) It is also less likely the WSB will be shared within the family because these same families will be receiving a rice ration through FFW activities.

If consumed by the targeted individual, the WSB ration will be sufficient to meet 100% of the protein needs of a child under five and 45% of the protein needs of pregnant or lactating women. Equally important, it will free up family cash resources to enable purchase of other key foods items such as eggs, soybean, and milk. CRS will evaluate the appropriateness of the ration during the upcoming field assessment and adjust if necessary.

Target Population	Ration (WSB)	Methodology
Children Under 5	4 kg/child/month	Take Home Ration
Pregnant/Lactating Mothers	4kg/woman/month	Take Home Ration

C. Targeted Emergency Distribution

CRS, in addition to the other strategies, as well proposes to maintain a contingency reserve of 500 MT of rice available for emergency distribution to targeted groups in locations where FFW or supplemental feeding interventions are not being implemented and where needs exist which can be ameliorated through a short-term general distribution. This will require some food stocks being kept in the storage, most likely in Surabaya, where they can be dispatched as quickly as possible for emergency distribution. Again, this modality would only be considered in areas where CRS is not implementing FFW or supplemental feeding programs and where viable counterparts exist for implementation.

IV. Management

CRS has a long history of Title II programming in Indonesia (1979-1995), most recently in the eastern islands. An April 1996 evaluation of the CRS Title II Food for Work and Health program indicated overall strong management and positive impact of the CRS Title II program. CRS will therefore draw heavily on its experience from this earlier program in terms of program interventions and use recommendations from the evaluation to enhance development impact. A number of CRS/Indonesia staff and counterparts maintain familiarity with Title II activities, and materials and systems for commodity import and management and project design and implementation remain available and appropriate.

Because of the rapid start-up and deployment of the proposed Emergency Program, and based on previous recommendations indicating the importance of strong support to counterparts and close monitoring of program implementation, CRS/Indonesia will set-up a separate office for the Emergency Program in the eastern part of Indonesia, most likely in Kupang, the capital of NTT. The Emergency Program Manager will be based in this office, with a full complement of logistics, monitoring, technical and administrative support staff reporting to him/her. Below is proposed staffing, for CRS.

1. Program Manager (1) - expatriate
2. Logistics Manager (1) - expatriate
3. Program Liaison (50%) - national (based in Jakarta)
4. Agricultural Specialist (1)) - national
5. Health Specialist (1) - national
6. FFW Engineer (1)- national
7. Project Officers (3) - national
8. Field Monitors (4) - national
9. Internal Auditor (1) - national
10. Logistics Officers (2) - national
11. Office Manager (1) - national
12. Finance Officer (1) - national
13. Finance Assistant (50%) - national (based in Jakarta)

14. Administrative Assistant (1) - national
13. Guard/Cleaning Staff/Driver (3) - national

CRS Counterparts will as well require staffing up in order to implement the emergency program. As mentioned, CRS has recent experience working with counterparts in food for work and supplement feeding programs and is familiar with the level of staffing necessary to carry-out these types of programs. CRS anticipates it will work with up to eight local counterparts and each counterpart will require dedicated staff comprised of:

1. Program Coordinator (1)
2. Food For Work Supervisor (1)
3. FFW Field Workers (6)
4. Health/Nutrition Supervisor (1)
5. Health Nutrition Field Workers (5)
6. Logistics Supervisor (1)
7. Logistics Field Worker (3)
8. Finance Supervisor (1)
9. Admin/Finance Officer (1)

V. Food Import Methodology

As it has done in the past, CRS proposes to have commodities delivered by through bill-of-lading to the ports closest to it's implementing partners and distribution sights. In the past this has involved commodities being first sent to the port of Surabaya, where they are stored pending transshipment to smaller islands. At times, delays have been experienced in Surabaya while ships wait to accumulate full loads.

One possibility which CRS will explore with the GOI commodity board responsible for rice imports (Bulog) is the possibility of swapping the imported rice for rice already available in local government stores (Dolog). This methodology has a number of advantages in terms of reducing CRS' cost and liability for losses during transport and storage and speeding up the time frame for rice being available at the local level. It is also potentially supportive of World Bank goals to improve Bulog logistics and distribution mechanisms by utilizing Bulog's system.

However it also has potential pitfalls such as the difference in the quality of the U.S. imported rice versus the quality of the rice in Dulog stocks and the uncertainty of future Dulog supplies at any given time or location. Nonetheless, CRS feels this is an option worth exploring and one that could possibly be tested in some of the targeted locations.

VI. Disincentive Analysis

Indonesian food production is expected to be 10% below normal this year due to the current drought, requiring an import of 6 million MT of food commodities compared with normal import requirements of 2 million MT.[3] Due to the monetary crisis, the country's ability to afford imported commodities is severely compromised and in fact an appeal to the World Food Program is anticipated to help the country meet it's food needs for the next 12 months.

Rural areas suffer the most in times of food shortages due to problems of accessibility and political factors which cause urban needs to be addressed first. Rural farmers whose crops have failed are further suffering from shortages in the market and skyrocketing prices for staple commodities. The 13,540MT of commodities proposed for the CRS program will not provide any disincentive for local production or marketing and could potentially help stabilize markets in rural areas thereby benefiting the larger community.

VII. Constraints

Indonesia has always proved a challenging environment for food aid programming, and the short time frame necessary for start-up and expansion of an emergency program will only magnify the inherent difficulties. CRS' experience shows that significant levels of staffing, monitoring and training are necessary to minimize risks, and that program design must be adaptable to operational realities and capacity constraints as they arise.

CRS/Indonesia will respond to these challenges by opening an office in Kupang to facilitate monitoring and troubleshooting of activities, by working with counterparts with whom it has an on-going relationship (many of whom have experience in food aid programming), and by investing private resources in training counterparts in commodity management, finance and accounting, and monitoring and evaluation. CRS will also draw on recommendations from past audits to strengthen its food monitoring and internal control systems. CRS has on-going institutional strengthening activities with many of the proposed counterparts, as well as existing Food for Work and commodity and finance management manuals, in Bahasa Indonesia, which will be used for the proposed emergency program.

CRS will make all efforts to program resources in a timely and effective manner, balancing the urgent needs of beneficiaries with prudence to assure proper use of resources. Problems which arise, especially those related to issues of corruption and unaccounted loses, will require the full support and understanding of USAID for effective problem solving.

VIII. Estimated Resource Requirements

A. Commodity Requirements

CRS will program approximately 13,540 MT of commodities over a 12 month period. for the proposed Emergency Program. While exact amounts will be determined based on the projects designed and implemented at the field level, it is anticipated the commodity make-up will breakdown as follows:

Commodity	Program Intervention	Targeted Beneficiaries	Total Tonnage	Estimated Value[4]
Rice	Food For Work	25,000 households	12,000 MT	$5,880,000
	Emergency Distribution	TBD	500 MT	245,000
WSB	Supplemental Feeding	child <5 = 15,462 preg. women = 3,000 lact. women = 2,250	1,040 MT	556,400
TOTAL		125,000 individuals	13,542 MT	$6,681400

B. Cash Requirements

The total cash budget of the proposed program is $1,780,890 (not including NICRA). Because Farm Bill 202(e) resources are not available to fund program administration, CRS will utilize ITSH resources to cover as much of program implementation as appropriate. USAID/Jakarta Development Assistance funds and CRS private resources will be requested to fund the remainder.

The proposed budget is consists of two components, one for CRS' operating expenses and one for counterpart operating expenses. CRS estimates it will have eight local counterparts for project implementation. For purposes of clarification, a prototype budget for one counterparts has been created which assumes one counterpart will program approximately 1/8th of the resources. Actual counterpart expenses will vary depending on the level of commodities they receive however, based on CRS past experience with Title II programming, the total for eight counterparts accurately reflects the total budget required to program 13,540 MTs of food commodities.

NOTE: For purposes of budgeting local currency expenses, CRS has used the exchange rate of $1 = 5,000 rph. This is the rate at which, if implemented, a proposed currency board) would fix the rupiah, and is the rate around which the rupiah was hovering before it collapse at the beginning of 1998. At the time of writing of the proposal, however, the exchange rate was approx. 10,000rupiah/dollar. Inflation for the month of February was 12%.

a. ITSH

All expense related to commodity transportation, storage and handling are allocated to ITSH, as are all travel and staff dedicated to commodity management activities (i.e. logistics officers, field monitors, and field monitoring trips). Significant management and administrative time and materials will be required to support commodity management activities. Therefore, general management, and administrative support expenses, as detailed in the attached budget, will be split 50/50 between ITSH and DA funds. Total ITSH resources requested are $988,762.

b. Development Assistance Funds

Funding for expenses related to the agricultural and health/nutrition content of the program --which includes dedicated staff, travel, and support materials and equipment -- will be requested from USAID/Jakarta Development Assistance Funds, as will 50% of the general management supervision and administration, in the total amount of $880,064 (which includes 22.45% for CRS NICRA).

c. Potential Monetization

At time of proposal preparation, CRS does not envision the need or desirability to monetize any food commodities as long as ITSH and USAID/Jakarta DA funds are available to support program implementation. Uncertainties surrounding the Indonesian economy -- continued devaluation of the rupiah and skyrocketing inflation, failed banks and lack of foreign reserves, doubtful liquidity of the government, propped up markets, change in government -- make it difficult to adequately assess the viability of monetization at this time . Even though the GOI Commodity Board (Bulog)would be the buyer if CRS were to attempt to monetize rice, it is doubtful they would be willing or able to pay the CIF rate at this point in time.

This being said, depending on the course the Indonesian economy takes over the next six month, monetization could become viable, especially in smaller amounts. Given the multiple levels of uncertainty in the operating environment at time of proposal writing which affect program design and budget preparation, CRS would like to keep open the option of conducting a small scale monetization (maximum 500MT). The purpose would be to generate cash to cover ITSH, program management/administration and/or project material support expenses if the need arose.. This would only be considered if a cost/benefit analysis indicated use of resources for monetization was not harmful to the emergency program goals, and any proposal to monetize would be accompanied by a Bellmon analysis. CRS has extensive experience with monetization in Indonesia with it's past Title II program.

d. CRS Contribution

Over the last six months, CRS has provided approximately $90,000 in private resources for emergency food aid for populations in the eastern part of Indonesia (Irian Jaya, Flores and W. Timor) and medical assistance in West Kalimantan. CRS will continue to identify other funding sources (ie. the Caritas International network) to complement or expand the proposed Title II emergency program.

CRS/Indonesia will cover the costs of the next phase of field assessments for purposes of program refinement, including hiring of technical consultants. This is anticipated at between $20,000. CRS/Indonesia will fund from private resources all costs related to training required for implementation of the Emergency Program, up to $83,000.

CRS will contribute $20,000 to cover expenses related to the development and production of health education materials which will accompany the supplemental feeding component of the proposed program.

And finally, CRS/Indonesia plans to invest another $50,000-$100,000 in post-emergency non-food activities which will build on the Emergency Program to enhance longer term food security in targeted areas. These activities will be identified during project development and implementation and be incorporated into CRS/Indonesia's longer term development agriculture and health programming.

Appendix 1 - Geographic Targeting, Counterparts and Potential Interventions

Geographic Region	Site	Counterpart Name	Potential Interventions

FFW = Food for Work; SF = Supplementary Feeding; ED = Emergency Distribution

BUDGET NOTES:

Budget A = Consolidated Budget
Budget B = CRS Operating Expenses
Budget B1 = CRS Personnel Expenses
Budget C = Counterpart Operating Expenses
Budget C1 = Counterpart Personnel Expenses

I. SALARIES

A. Expatriate - See Budget B1. Proposed salaries are mid-range in the established CRS salary scale for these positions. Actual salaries will depend on the individual hired.

Program Manager - 50% ITSH:	$42,000 per year
Logistics Manager - 100% ITSH:	$35,000 per year

B. CRS National Staff - see Budget B1. Salary expenses break out approximately 60% DA, 40% ITSH. Proposed salaries are in line with existing salaries paid by international PVO's in Kupang and with the exiting CRS/Indonesia salary structure. Salaries range from 500,000-2,500,000 rupiah per month.

C. Counterpart Staff - see Budget C1 -- Salary expenses break out approximately 40% DA and 60% ITSH (primarily because food monitor staff have lower salaries than project officer staff). Proposed salaries are in line with existing local NGO salaries and range from 200,00 - 600,000 rupiah per month..

II. FRINGE BENEFITS

A. Expatriate - See Budget B1.
Insurance - the standard CRS benefits package for expatriates is valued at $14,000 per year.
Housing - costs in Kupang are budgeted at $800 per month for the Logistics Manager and $1000 for the Program Manager.

B. CRS National Staff - See Budget B1.
Insurance/Benefits - are calculated at four times the monthly salary and include lebaron bonus, medical and health insurance, and travel allowance.
Severance - is calculated at equal to one month's salary.

C. Counterpart Staff - See Budget C1
Calculations are the same as CRS National Staff.

III. TRAVEL IN-COUNTY

A. CRS - See Budget B.
Field Monitoring/Audit - applicable 100% ITSH. Anticipates four field monitors will take two trips per month spending an average of 6 days per trip in the field.
Project Monitoring/Community Organizing - applicable 100% DA funds. Three project officers will take two trips per month spending an average of 6 days per trip in the field.

Project Manager/Supervisor Travel - applicable 100% to DA. Anticipates travel between Kupang and Jakarta for one person three times over the 12-month period for meetings with USAID and CRS/Jakarta staff.

B. Counterpart - See Budget C - 50% ITSH, 50% DA Funds
Counterpart travel is budgeted at approximately $375/counterpart/month. Each counterpart has approximately 15 field staff which allows $25/staff/month for local travel, including per diem.

IV. CONSULTANCIES - 100% DA Funds

A. CRS - See Budget 2 - anticipates engaging three technical specialist over the life of the project to assist in program design and training, for approximately 6 weeks each, in the areas of agriculture, health nutrition and logistics: Total monthly cost per consultant is:

Variable Costs for one month
Fee:	$250/day x 30 days =	$ 7,500
Per Diem:	$ 30/day x 30 days =	900
Hotel:	$ 50/day x 30 days =	1,500
TOTAL		$9,900 per consultant
Fixed Costs:
Travel:
Int'l Travel:	Wash.DC.-> Jakarta	$1,600
Local Travel:		$ 500
		$2,100 per consultant

Total 6 week cost per consultant = $16,950 x 3 consultants = $50,850

V. Office Administration

A. CRS/Kupang office - See Budget B -- Expenses will be shared 50% ITSH, 50% DA

a. Office rent for Kupang is budgeted between $1,500-$1,800 per month. CRS will also assign a reasonable portion of the $2000/month total to defray costs of housing Emergency Program Staff in the existing CRS/Jakarta office.
b. Office Furniture/Equipment - this is a one-time expense to furnish the CRS office in Kupang with items such as desks, chairs, tables, file cabinets, telephones, etc.
c. Office supplies/maintenance - based on actual expenses of the CRS/Jakarta office.
d. Communications - includes phone, fax, e-mail, expenses. CRS will also assign a reasonable portion to defray expenses incurred by the CRS/Jakarta office in management and supervision of the Emergency Program.
e. Vehicle Fuel/Maintenance - budgeted at $250/month per vehicle.

f. Vehicle Rental - CRS is aware that for a one-year emergency program it is preferable to rent vehicles. Currently rental costs are $200-$250/month with longer-term discounted agreements not an option. CRS remains concerned, however, about the actual availabiliy of rental cars and how costs may increase under the current economic crisis.

g. Representation - to be paid by CRS.

h. Miscellaneous - includes bank fees, subscriptions and other sundry operating items.

B. Counterparts - See budget C. Expenses will be shared 50% ITSH, 50% DA.

a. Office Equipment/Furniture -- for office furniture, telephones and typewriters needed to accommodate extra staff.

b. Office Administration/Supplies - includes a portion of the counterpart rent and utilities, plus supplies, bank fees and other miscellaneous items.

c. Vehicle Rental -- budgeted at $50/month per motorcylce. Four motorcycles per counterpart.

VI. TRAINING/TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE - 100% paid by CRS

A. CRS - See Budget B.

a. Needs Assessment -- CRS will conduct, and pay for, a 4-6 week detailed rapid rural appraisal to refine its targeting and interventions. This will involve 4-5 individuals, including expatriate staff, visiting all targeting geographic targeted areas to meet with counterparts and local communities, map the priority needs of the area, determine what project activities are most appropriate for that area, and decide how the food resources will be allocated.

b. Training Material - CRS will develop training materials for all trainings to be provided for its counterparts. This includes up-dating and reproduction of existing materials as well as any new materials.

c. Training - CRS plans to conduct 5 trainings for counterparts over the life of the project. 2 Commodity Management, 2 Finance and Reporting, 1 Monitoring and Evaluation. These trainings will be conducted in a central location -- Bali or Kupang -- and previous CRS experience indicates will cost between $12,000-$15,000 per training, depending on number of attendees.

B. Counterpart - See Budget C. All expenses paid by CRS.
Counterparts will conduct training with local Food For Work project holders and with local Posyandu health staff to increase the level of community participation in the projects.

VII. COMMODITY ITSH

A. CRS - Because commodities will likely be shipped from the States before RS has made final determination of their destination by counterpart, CRS expects that it will need to receive and store up to 1000 MT of commodities in Surabaya. These commodities will then be transshipped at a later date to their final destination, and costs therefore need to be included in the CRS budget. Based on estimates received from freight forwarders, commodity ITSH expenses are budgeted at:

NOTE: 1MT = 1.3 m3 Ton

		/m3 Ton	/MT	USD/MT
Customs Clearance	USD	10	13	13.00
Loading/Unloading	Rph	10,000	13,000	2.60
Storage	Rph	7,500	9,750	1.95
Transport (Surabaya->NTB)	Rph	80,000	104,000	20.80
TOTAL / MT				$ 38.35
Total 1000 MT				$38,350

B. Counterparts - See budget C. Prototype counterpart receives 1/8th of 13,450MT or approx $1,700 MT x $32/MT = $54,500 counterpart. Total for 8 counterparts = $435,200.

VIII. PROGRAM SUPPORT

A. Counterparts

a. Health Material - 100% CRS - CRS will cover the costs of the design, production and distribution of all health education material produced to complement the supplemental feeding program. Budgeted expense = $20,000.

b. FFW Project Material Support - 100% DA Funds. The cost of materials to support FFW activities is estimated based on the value of the project, which is measured in units, or mandays (one unit = approx. 8000 mandays). Past experience shows that each unit requires approximately $370 worth of material inputs. Past experience also indicates that 12000MT of commodities (the total allocated for FFW) will support approximately 656 units. Therefore 656 units x $370/unit = $242,720, which as been rounded up to $245,000.

IX. CAPITAL EQUIPMENT - 50% DA, 50% ITSH

A. CRS - see Budget B

a. Office Equip

- Computers - CRS will purchase 5 desk top printers for the Kupang office and one for the Jakarta office. Est. cost = $1,500/computer.
- Printers - CRS will purchase 2 dot matrix and one laser printer for the Kupang office. Est. cost = $300 for the dot matrix/ $600 for the laser.
- Fax Machine, Photocopier, Telephone PBS -- see budget.

B. Counterpart - 50% DA, 50% ITSH

b. Each counterpart will receive two computers and printers. Est. Cost = $1,500/computer; $300/dot matrix printer.

c. Each counterpart will receive one fax machine and/or e-mail capability. Est. Cost = $500.

X. AUDIT/EVALUATION - 100% DA Funds

A Audit - No separate resources are requested for audit of this program. The CRS/Indonesia Title II Emergency Program, as are all CRS Title II, Monetization and U.S. Government Grant activities, will be audited in accordance with CRS' agency-wide A-133 Audit Plan. Audits arranged under the A-133 plan will address audit recommendations from the previous country audits and report progress."

B. Evaluation - CRS will design and implement a post-program evaluation conducted by a team from CRS, USAID, Counterparts and other relevant participants.

DONORS AGREE TO BOLSTER HELP FOR INDONESIA'S URGENT SOCIAL NEEDS

Washington, April 1, 1998—International donors today agreed to work closely together in their efforts to help Indonesia overcome the urgent social consequences of the financial crisis and recover from its worst drought this century.

"We are pleased that the international community is responding so well to these important social needs at a time of crisis," Jean-Michel Severino, Vice President of the World Bank's East Asia and Pacific Region, said today as the meeting concluded. "Indonesia's Government and people have mobilized their resources in the face of crisis. This gathering demonstrates our commitment to helping Indonesia protect its most vulnerable, and is an important step towards future donor coordination efforts."

Senior representatives of Indonesia, the United States, Australia, Japan, the Netherlands, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, France, Italy, Belgium, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Sweden, Switzerland and Canada, as well as the International Monetary Fund, the Asian Development Bank, the European Commission, the United Nations agencies and other institutions, assessed Indonesia's needs at an all-day working-level session chaired by Mr. Severino.

They reviewed contributions, priorities and policy initiatives on poverty alleviation and drought relief and discussed ways of enhancing support for Indonesia. It was acknowledged that many activities were underway with many more to come, necessitating greater consultation and coordination. One important outcome of the meeting was a decision to develop a full coordination mechanism in Jakarta.

They acknowledged that Indonesia was experiencing critical short-term problems that call for an international response to ensure that the rural and urban poor secure adequate food, medicine and other basic social services until economic reforms take effect and the drought ends.

INDONESIA - FOOD SECURITY, FOOD MARKETS AND FISCAL COST OF FOOD SUBSIDIES

This note summarizes the food situation in Indonesia. Section I presents the evolution of food production and the expected outcome for 1998. Section II presents a balance of supply and demand of the commodities traded by BULOG, and the contribution of BULOG to meet the needs of Indonesia in these commodities. Section III presents the distribution of consumption of selected food products by income groups. Section IV discusses the implications on consumers real income of adjusting to international prices the price of the commodities traded by BULOG. V presents the fiscal implications of subsidizing the prices of certain foodstuffs.

I. Food Production

El Niño, the weather phenomenon behind this year's drought, caused a reduction in agricultural production (rice, corn, soybean, peanut, greenbean, cassava and sweet potato) of 4 percent in 1997. During 1998 El Nifio is expected to reduce agricultural production, food in particular, by another 3-5 percent. The total decline in food production over 1997 and 1998 represents a decline of about 10 percent relative to its trend value. Table 1, attached, presents the information on the actual production, area harvested and yield for the years 1995 and 1996, the estimated production for 1997 and the forecast for 1998. The government forecasts for 1998 a decline of 2 percent, but this seems to be an optimistic assessment of the prospects for food production. James Fox's report predicts a decline in rice production of about 4.0-4.4 percent for the first season of 1998.

II. Supply and Demand

This section discusses the situation of supply and demand for rice, soybean, sugar and wheat flour.

Rice. Table 2 presents the situation for rice. Information on consumption comes from the household expenditure surveys (SUSENAS) done by the Central Bureau of Statistics (BPS). The supply is constrained to meet the demand estimated by BPS (There are serious discrepancies between the consumption and production data which I do not address in this note.) Table 2 shows that total rice consumption equaled about 22 million tons in 1997, out of which the rural sector consumes 15 million tons, and the urban sector consumes the rest, 7 million tons. The total supply is met by the private sector (18 million tons) and by BULOG (4 million tons). As production declined in 1997, the marketed surplus from farmers fell from 5.4 million tons in 1996 to 4.7 million tons in 1997. In 1998 the same is expected to happen. As production declines, farmers will offer for sale a smaller amount of their lower production, as they try to keep their consumption of rice stable.

Source: SUSENAS 1996 and Bulog, direct information

BULOG meets the shortfall in food production by importing. The data in Table 2 show clearly that BULOG imports rice to meet the demand of urban consumers, as the marketed surplus left by domestic producers is clearly insufficient to meet that demand. BULOG also purchases rice from domestic producers, and the purchases vary by year. BULOG has two main customers: the government employees (Budget group) to which it sells about 1.7 million tons of rice, and the traders and its own stores through which it sold in 1997 about 2.3 million tons.

Soybean. Table 3 presents the situation in the soybean market. As in rice, the table presents data on consumption from SUSENAS. According to SUSENAS total direct consumption of soybeans and in the form of tempe and tahu equals about 1.1 million tons of soybean; soybean is also consumed as soybean sauce, but the table does not count for that consumption..

According to SUSENAS, rural houscholds consume about 60 percent of total consumption. The consumption from SUSENAS is lower than the consumption estimate obtained from adding production, net imports and change in stocks, which equals about 2.1 million tons. On a 2.2 million ton basis of total consumption, rural households consume about 1.2 million tons of soybean, while urban households consume about 0.8 million tons. Farmers, thus, keep 80 percent of their production for direct consumption and sell in urban markets the difference, about 0.3 million tons. BULOG, practically, meets with imports the needs of urban consumers.

Sugar. Table 4 presents the situation in the sugar market. From information on production (beverages, cookies and other food items.) Rural households consume about 0.36 million tons (60 percent of household consumption) and urban households consume about 0.24 million tons.

BULOG is the only distributor of sugar in Indonesia. BULOG buys all domestic production and imports all the sugar that enters the country. Domestic production supplies about 2/3 of total supply (about 2 million tons) and the rest is supplied by imports. BULOG sells the sugar throughout wholesale traders, and has very few retail operations.

Wheat Flour. BULOG holds the nominal monopoly for importing wheat. BOGASARI, the wheat milling company owned by the Salim group, holds the de-facto monopoly for such import. BOGASARI handles the importing for the two other wheat millers in Indonesia, PT Citra, owned by one daughter of the President, and PT Sri Boga, owned by B. Arifin, former head of BULOG. BOGASARI has 90 percent of the installed wheat milling capacity in the country. Indonesia imports the wheat it consumes.

Indonesia imports about 4 million tons of wheat, equivalent to 2.96 million tons of wheat flour. According to SUSENAS surveys, households consume about 0.55 million tons of actually take place, then the data on household consumption of wheat flour from SUSENAS indicate that the industrial sector consumes about 2.4 million tons for producing bread, pastas and cookies.

III. Distribution of Consumption

This section shows the relative importance of consumption of rice, wheat flour, soybean, sugar and cooking oil by expenditure class in the rural and urban sectors. The following discussion uses information from SUSENAS. [1]

Table 6 shows data on total consumption of rice, soybeans, wheat flour, sugar, poultry and cooking oil for each income class in the rural and urban sectors. According to these data Indonesians consume about 22 million tons of rice, 1 million tons of soybeans, 1.5 million tons of cooking oil, 0.5 million tons of wheat flour, 0.7 million tons of poultry and 0.6 million tons of sugar. Tables 7 and 8, show the distribution of consumption in the urban and rural sectors.

Low-income groups (those in expenditure class I-IV) consume rice, soybean, sugar and cooking oil in a proportion similar to their share in population, but consume a small proportion of the poultry and wheat flour consumed in Indonesia. Low income groups represent 11 percent of the urban population (about 6 million people) and 41 percent of the rural population (about 30 million people). Low-income groups consume 11 percent of the rice and 7 percent of cooking oil consumed in urban areas, and 36 percent of the rice and 30 percent of the cooking oil consumed in rural areas. By contrast, middle- and high-income groups consume almost 100 percent of the poultry and wheat flour consumed in urban areas and about 80 and 90 percent of the amount consumed in rural areas.

Low-income groups devote a large proportion of their expenditures to buy rice (about 10 percent) and a smaller share (between 2 and 3 percent each) to buying sugar, soybean and cooking oil (See Table 9 below). They spend little in buying poultry and wheat flour. Large changes in the prices of rice, soybeans, sugar and cooking oil would thus reduce the income of low-income groups sharply, while similar changes in the prices of poultry and wheat flour would affect their real incomes little.

IV. International Prices and Real Income Effects of Price Changes

The shortfall in production, the depreciation of the rupiah and the loose monetary policy of Bank Indonesia have increased substantially the prices of basic foodstuffs consumed by the lower income groups. Between February 1997 and February 1998 the consumer price index increased 32 percent, while the general food price index rose 47 percent; rice prices alone increased 51 percent. The consumer prices of rice, sugar, soybean and cooking oil have increased much less than the rate of depreciation of the rupiah, however. If they had increased by the depreciation of the rupiah, the real income of low income groups would have fallen sharply. Table 9 shows the share of rice and sugar, soybean and cooking oil in total expenditures by income groups. These shares imply that the 50 percent increase in the price of rice has reduced the real income of the lowest income groups by 15 percent. If in addition, the price of soybeans, sugar, and cooking oil had oil each represent a small share of the total expenditure of low income groups, the large changes in prices resulting from the depreciation of the rupiah can produce losses in real income larger than those associated with the increase in the price of rice.

V. Price Subsidies and Fiscal Cost of Subsidies

The government has tried to prevent large increases in the prices of rice, soybeans, sugar and cooking oil by selling them at subsidized prices through BULOG. The Treasury has paid for the subsidies in FY 1997/98 and it will pay for them in FY 1998/99. Besides subsidizing the price of rice, soybeans, sugar and wheat flour, the government also intends to subsidize the prices of corn, fish meal and soybean meal to protect the producers of poultry. The subsidies are estimated to cost the Treasury about 4.7 trillion rupiahs, equivalent to 0.5 percent of GDP (This is obtained with an exchange rate of Rp 6,000 per dollar and import estimates by BULOG, of which rice would count for 2.85 million tons)

CRS/Indonesia

Central Java Interfaith Emergency Distribution

Program Assessment

August 31 to September 11, 1998

PROGRAM BACKGROUND

CRS Interfaith Emergency Title II Program for Indonesia

I. Problem Statement

Indonesia's economic crisis continues to deepen. President B.J. Habibie, who replaced Socharto on May 21, 1998 has not been able to restore confidence and secure IMF assistance. The Rupiah has fallen to record lows, touching Rp. 17,000 this week. Inflation is now expected to reach between 80% and 100% this year, and the number of poor is expected to increase from 22.5 million to 58 million.

At the same time, Indonesia has experienced a major drought, which has seriously affected the food security of its poorest populations. Failed and delayed harvests have caused food shortages. According to an April FAO assessment mission, 1998 paddy output was forecast to decline by 3.6 percent below 1997 and 6 percent below the 1996 harvest. Rice importation requirements are expected to reach a record 3.5 million tons, assuming a normal secondary crop harvest in August. Indonesia's commercial import capacity to cover the expected deficit is seriously constrained due to the financial crisis. International assistance is required for the supply of 2 million tones of rice in the form of loans, grants, concessional imports and targeted food aid.

The current economic crisis, poor agricultural performance, and the recent rioting in many major cities, have caused a rise in unemployment throughout the country. Unemployment is expected to top 15.4 million by year-end, a figure representing 17% of the country's 90 million workforce. At the same time, the crisis has caused the price of staples to soar. In this last week alone, the basic price of rice from the government procurement agency, BULOG, has risen from Rp. 1,300 to 2,200 per kilo. The loss of employment and high inflation rates is now causing extreme hardship and hunger among the unemployed, landless laborers, and vulnerable groups. This is especially true in many of the densely populated districts of central Java where nearly 80% of the people are landless laborers and the recent harvest has yielded about 60% of the normal production. Outside assistance is required to enable the poorest families in these areas to survive for at least until the next main harvest in April of next year.

II. Program

With the support of USAID CRS has already initiated a 13,500 MT food program in the Provinces most severly affected by drought, the eastern islands of Nusa Tenggara Timor and Nusa Tenggara Barat. This program is being implemented through 7 counterparts with Food For Work and supplemental food for women and children under 3 years of age.

Now, in response to the growing economic and nation-wide food crisis, CRS, in collaboration with interfaith groups, proposes to conduct an emergency food distribution program in rural and urban areas of selected districts of central Java. Over the last two years CRS has promoted interfaith collaboration as part of its strategy of developing new and strengthening existing micro-finance institutions under a USAID\Washington support MIP grant. Also, under a USAID\Jakarta Endowment Grant, CRS has been promoting the establishment of an interfaith foundation or Yayasan. This foundation was legally established on June 5, 1998. One of the

Another distribution system would be through Pos Pelayanan Terpadu (Posyandu or Integrated Health Service Center). All under-five-year children and their mothers come to the Posyandu every month for family planning, weighing babies, hygienic sessions, and other health-related programs. Experience has shown that if there is a ration of rice, the attendance will reach almost 100%. If not, it is only about 50%. Volunteers at the centers will do the distribution activities. In this way, the Emergency Program would enhance the existing community health programs in the areas which are stressed by the lack of resources during these difficult times.

Assessment groups will survey all target areas to determine the number of recipients and to identify the most urgent areas to cover. Areas already being served by other programs, will be selected out to avoid any duplication of efforts. When the distribution takes place, the interfaith committees in cooperation with other local foundations will oversee the implementation of the emergency program carried out by one religious group or posyandu.

This program would require 27,000 MT of rice for a six-month distribution period from September/October to March/April, when the next harvest should be due. The life of the project is 12 months to include the organization of the interfaith committees and all closure activities. CRS will be responsible for the receipt and distribution of all commodities. This will be managed through Yayasan Sosial Bina Sejahtera (YSBS) of Cilacap on the south coast of Java. Cilacap has a deep-water port, where 12,000 DWT ships can berth. YSBS has extensive experience as a CRS Title II counterpart. It has warehouse facilities able to accommodate 7,000 MT of rice and a fleet of 30 trucks, which can reach any of the areas in 24 hours.

Every month 4,500 MT of rice would be provided to 360,000 beneficiaries in the 16 districts at a ration of 12.5 kg per month for a period of six months. The number of recipients will be limited to a maximum of two persons per family.

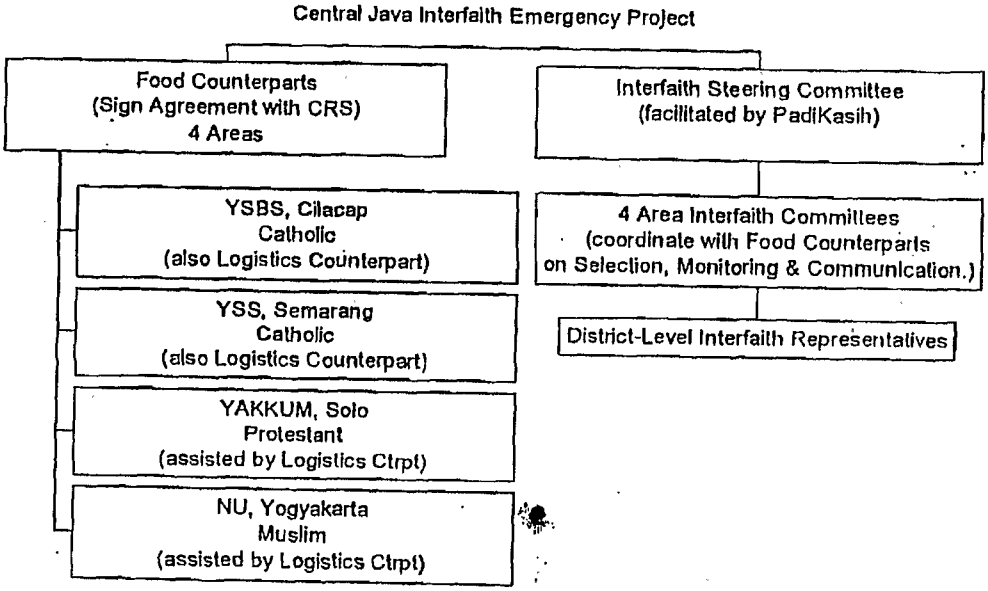
MEMORANDUM

TO : George Ropes
FROM: Michele F. Broemmelsick
RE : Response to Dave Garms Email "CRS Interfaith Proposal for Indonesia"
DATE : July 27, 1998

I. Interfaith Committee

a. There have been three meetings hosted by CRS to develop the Java Interfaith Emergency proposal – June 8th, June 18th, and July 14th. These meetings have included representatives from Muhammadiyah, NU, PGI (Protestant Churches of Indonesia), and the Catholic dioceses of Semarang and Purwokerto. During these meetings, agreement has been reached regarding the set-up of the Steering Committee and the relationship between the interfaith committees and the organizations doing the food distribution. As of the last meeting on July 14th, interfaith committee meetings have been held in two of the four target areas.

One critical decision made during these meetings was the form of the organizational structure for the project. There will be a parallel structure as seen below. The Food Counterparts will sign an agreement with CRS for the distribution of food commodities in the communities of Central Java. Central Java will be divided into four areas and each Food Counterpart will have one area of responsibility. In each area there will also be an Interfaith Committee. This committee will be responsible for assisting in desa selection, monitoring of distribution and communication to the communities regarding selection.



b. For each area, there will be an Interfaith Committee. At the district level, there will be Interfaith Committee Representatives. At this time, we are still assessing the most appropriate structure. It is unlikely that a sub-district representative will be necessary.

c. Please refer to the attached Implementation plan for the Interfaith infrastructure development plans. This process is already on-going and will be continuing through August and September. There should be no problem organizing these committees by the distribution date especially since it has been pushed back to December. At this point, CRS is not interested in a pilot project. Since the need is so great and the capacity of two of the four Food Counterparts is significant, we propose starting with the food arrival in November.

d. Two of the counterparts, YSBS and YSS, were CRS counterparts when CRS was distributing Title II commodities in Indonesia. Both YSBS and YSS are situated in port cities, Cilacap and Semarang. These ports have the capacity each to receive large consignments of commodities. YSBS and YSS are capable to receive, store and transport these commodities, either by their own means or by contracting the services of qualified partners such as PT VTP. PT VTP is capable of providing storage and trucks for the operation at reasonable costs.

In Cilacap, YSBS has warehousing capacity of 7,000 MTs in its office vicinity and PT VTP is able to provide about 7,000 MTs storage capacity at the port. While in Semarang, YSS owns a small warehouse with a capacity of 500 MTs. However, PT VTP is able to provide a warehouse with a capacity of 7,000 MTs at the port and another almost of the same size near the port area.

As for trucking, YSBS owns 40 x 10MT trucks and PT VTP has a large fleet with a capacity of 5 - 24 MTs for the movement of commodities. While in Semarang, YSS does not own any trucks. However, PT VTP has the capacity to provide the number of trucks needed to discharge the vessels and move commodities for distribution.

For YAKKUM and NU, there will be a need for more extensive training and preparation. This is one reason why the logistics capacities of YSBS and YSS were tapped for storage and distribution of the rice. There is a plan to provide all counterparts (including YSBS and YSS since they will have some new staff) on Proposal Writing, Financial Management, and Logistics. Other trainings will be added as necessary.

All Food Counterparts are expected to regularly attend the Interfaith Committee meetings in their area of responsibility. Attendance at the meetings will give regular avenues for communication and coordination.

e. The participation of the Interfaith Committee is ensured by a clear delineation of responsibilities. The Food Counterparts will handle the food distribution but the selection process depends on the involvement of the Interfaith Committees. It is also clearly in the best interest of all Food Counterparts that they work with the Interfaith Committees so that there can be no claims that they are simply assisting one religious group.

f. Central Java is easily accessible to Jakarta by both train and plane. It is expected that the Emergency Coordinator and the Project Officers as well as other CRS staff will regularly visit. If there is a need for a staff to be based in Central Java, that possibility will also be explored. Most of the activities will be handled by the Food Counterparts and Interfaith Committees with assistance from CRS.

g. The responsibilities of the different organizations are detailed below:

CRS/Jakarta

- will be responsible for the food commodities and will sign agreements with the four Food Counterparts for distribution at the desa level.
- will provide technical assistance in terms of training and monitoring to the Food Counterparts on project management and logistics.
- will oversee logistics, finances and accountabilities on the food commodities.
- will provide technical assistance to the Interfaith Committees as needed during their organizational development and during the planning for future activities.
- staffing: Emergency Coordinator (50%), Project Officers (2), Logistics Officer (1), Finance Officer (1).

Padikasih

- will facilitate the Interfaith Steering Committee meetings.
- will provide regular assistance to the Interfaith Committees to ensure timely organizational development.
- will regularly communicate to the Steering Committee members.
- will organize planning meetings for the Interfaith Committees to determine future activities.
- will access outside resources to assist in the development of the interfaith committees.
- staffing: 1-3 staff assigned as needed

Food Counterparts

- will select villages and beneficiaries in coordination with the Interfaith Committees.
- will have responsibility for the commodities either from the transit warehouse or if no warehouse from the point of distribution.
- will oversee and monitor distribution.
- will communicate regularly with the Interfaith Committees and encourage their involvement.
- submit timely financial and commodity distribution reports to CRS. Commodity Distribution reports also submitted to Logistics Organizations.
- staffing: approximately 8 staff per Food Counterpart

Logistics Organizations

(are already Food Counterparts, additional responsibilities include)

- oversee food commodities from food arrival at port of discharge
- monitor that food commodities are stored and managed properly

- arrange the logistics distribution plan for timely delivery of commodities to their desa list and the desa list of one other Food Counterpart
- make sure that all logistics arrangements are made such as agreements with Forwarding Agent, Surveyors report, etc.
- submit timely financial and commodity reports to CRS.
- staffing: approximately 5 – 8 staff per Logistics Organization (in addition to the Food Counterpart staff)

Interfaith Committees

- will select villages and beneficiaries in coordination with the Food Counterparts.
- will assist in communicating project plans to local desas and other local leaders.
- will monitor distribution on a regular basis.
- will develop a clear plan of action following the Emergency Distribution for other future projects.
- staffing: volunteers paid honorarium and travel expenses.

h. There are clear plans to add additional staff in CRS to handle the additional responsibilities of this project. CRS does have the advantage of being able to rehire former staff who have extensive experience in food programs. In addition, an Emergency Coordinator position will be added to oversee both Emergency Projects on a day-to-day basis. With the proposed addition of project staff, logistics staff and finance staff, there should be no capacity limitations handling this project.

II. Ration

a. The ration of 12.5 kg/month for a minimum of two persons per family would give at least each beneficiary family up to 25 Kg/month. This ration will cover the rice needs of an average family of 4 persons for 20 days per month. As this is a supplementary ration, we feel that it is an appropriate amount since it will be covering just over 66% of their daily rice needs.

b. We believe that rice is an appropriate commodity for an emergency supplemental ration. Rice is the main staple food of Indonesians. The rice distribution is not a therapeutic supplementary ration. ADRA, CRS and WFP use soy-fortified grains for therapeutic supplementary feeding in the cases of malnutrition. In this case, the emergency distribution of rice ration is to avoid beneficiaries dropping into a malnourished state due to food shortage and the economic crisis.

III. Beneficiaries

a. Continuous monitoring and assessment of the situation will enable CRS to target the neediest population. Therefore re-targeting may occur during the project if needier areas/populations are located.

There will be several ways that targeting is prioritized to choose eligible recipients. There is no doubt that this project will be unable to serve all of the needy population. To assist with logistics arrangements, desas will be chosen that have significant numbers of target beneficiaries. This will prevent serving a small number of beneficiaries being served in several spread out desas; thereby limiting the scope of the project. In addition, targeting will be informed by the government's statistics on the neediest members of a specific community. There are several local level government offices that can assist by providing their statistics on the areas and families with greatest need.

b. The Interfaith Committee will keep the local government authorities informed of their activities. However, their participation will be limited to providing the data on individual villages. A representative of the local village authority could be included in the team visiting the families to identify the neediest population in accordance with the proposed criteria. As always, the involvement of local leaders depends on their interest and capacity. As much as possible, involvement will be encouraged from local leaders.

The interfaith committees at the area level and at the district level will have members who are not religious leaders, per se. They may be local leaders who are associated with a religious group and who are known as committed to interfaith work. In this case, they may be business or NGO leaders. We expect that the members of the interfaith committees will be multi-sectoral in representation.

c. There will be no FFW component in this program. The FFW mentioned in the beginning of the proposal refers to the current Emergency Program for Eastern Indonesia. The total number of beneficiaries will fall under the supplementary distribution. There will be no "supplemental feeding" as we currently have in Eastern Indonesia. Supplemental rice rations will be provided for each family's consumption.

The Java Interfaith Emergency Project is proposed solely as an Emergency Distribution. CRS has proposed this approach due to the limited capacity of the four food counterparts and due to the large number of people being served (360,000 beneficiaries).

IV. Implementation

a. It is usually before harvest that communities are the hungriest. This project targets providing the majority of the supplemental rations before the March to April 1999 harvest. While this is an important target, the poorest part of the population in Central Java will still have need after harvest especially since they do not own land.

The possible disincentive to production is negligible when the population numbers are considered. The total population of Central Java is approximately 30 million persons out of a total population in Indonesia of approximately 220 million. The target group of this program is 360,000 beneficiaries, being 1.2% of the total population. Central Java is the most densely populated area of Indonesia.

There are about 10% of the Central Java population who own most of the rice fields. 75% of the population, who are farmers, own 0.25 hectares or less of rice fields each. The rest of the population, about 15%, is either engaged as farm laborers or other businesses, either trade or petty trade as well as those who do not have any work due to the economic crisis or other reasons. Those without land will soon be the poorest due to the economic crisis. In addition, the Government of Indonesia has declared that those living in poverty may increase to 50% of the total population by the end of the year.

b. With the first Call Forward of rice for our Drought Project, the food was Call Forwarded on April 4th and arrived at the Java port by July 5th. With this type of timeframe, it seems reasonable to expect that with an August 4th Call Forward the food might arrive as early as November 1998. If this is not possible, the workplan will be adjusted. Due to the inexperience of two counterparts in food distribution and the necessary organizational development needed, a delay of two months in distribution will only provide valuable time for capacity building. The impact on the target populations will be a further worsening of their condition, but the planned rice distribution will immediately assist them in improving their condition once it arrives.

c. In each of the areas for the project, the Interfaith Committees and the Food Counterparts (NU, YAKKUM, Dioceses of Semarang and Purwokerto) are coordinating with local organizations trying to assist during this crisis. CRS is currently handling most of the coordinating with organizations doing food distribution in Java – the Indonesian Government, World Food Program, Perdaki (milk distribution from the Japanese government) and the World Bank (cash for work). This is mainly because the coordination is being handled at the national level and because most of these programs are not yet started. The work on the national level coordination will insure that there is no duplication of beneficiaries. There may be some similarity in geographical targeting, but, due to the population density in Central Java, duplication of beneficiaries is unlikely. Once the programs are started, linkages between the Interfaith Committees and Food Counterparts in Central Java and other food program implementers will be facilitated by CRS.

d. Currently, the target areas are mainly rural areas. However, there are some target populations on the outskirts of urban areas too that will also be targeted with the food distribution. The determination of whether to target rural or urban areas is being continuously re-assessed based on current conditions by CRS and the Food Counterparts. Once the Interfaith Committees are formed, they will also contribute to the on-going assessment.

V. Monitoring

a. The assessment teams will be at two levels – the Counterpart level and the CRS level. The teams at the Counterpart level will be more informal and on-going. The teams at the CRS level will be formed to look at specific issues regarding the project. For example, CRS has just completed a logistics assessment looking at the best arrangement for shipment and distribution of food in Central Java. The team for this assessment was only two members – one from CRS/Jakarta and one logistics expert from the CRS/Liberia program. Their recommendations have been incorporated into the answers here. Future assessment teams may involve consultants and other (government/non-government) participants from outside CRS as appropriate.

b. In the first three months of the project, it is expected that the counterparts will be continuously visiting areas and gathering data. The assessment teams for this will initially start with the Food Counterpart staff but will expand to include the Interfaith Committee members as the project progresses.

In addition, CRS will also hold assessments for various aspects of the project. At this time, CRS staff have just returned from a logistics assessment for the project. It is expected that soon a more general assessment visit will follow to evaluate individual Food Counterpart's capacity and to verify the status of the formation of the Interfaith Committees. In the next two months, a more focused assessment will be held regarding the Interfaith Committees. The members of the CRS teams will vary depending on the specific purpose of the assessment.

c. In the beginning, the assessments will focus on verifying target criteria and determining the appropriateness of selected desas. After the distribution has begun, the assessments will focus on ways to improve distribution, retarget according to need, and improving project implementation.

d. Each Food Counterpart will be actively encouraged to involve Interfaith Committee members in all assessments. The involvement of the Interfaith Committee members is not seen as a difficult objective to achieve since their involvement will lend a sense of objectivity to the selection of desas.

VI. Supplementary Feeding

a. Supplementary feeding will be done through a center chosen by the village authorities. The mention of Posyandu in the proposal was as a possible distribution point. This program is more in line with an "enhanced food security distribution" and distribution will target families who fit the criteria and not individuals visiting posyandus.

b. This is not applicable to this program.

a. Not applicable to this project. It is hoped that further project ideas can be developed during the project by the Interfaith Committees. These projects may pursue such activities as infrastructure projects or urban revitalization. Future projects will depend on the capacity of the local interfaith committees to implement them.

b. Not applicable to this project.

VIII. Logistics

a. There has been a revision on logistics from our original proposal. We now propose that the food is shipped to two organizations – YSBS in Cilacap and YSS in Semarang. This would position the food on the north and south coasts of Java which would be more efficient for logistics operations.

YSBS and YSS will manage the two main warehouses where the bulk of the food is received. YSBS will store their commodity in their own warehouse. YSS will store their food at the PT VTP warehouse located at the Semarang port. Both warehouses have a capacity of 7,000 MT each.

YSS and YSBS will have a working coordination with PT VTP, a forwarding agent, and PT Sucofindo, the surveying company. It is unlikely that warehousing will be required in each district, but if the need arises, warehouses with adequate space are available at the district level. In the field, YSBS and YSS along with the other two partners (NU and YAKKUM) will manage the transit warehouses respectively (if they are needed). In case the warehousing capacity is not available to store the commodities, arrangement will be made to inform the population before the distribution and distribution will be made directly off the back of trucks.

b. YSBS and YSS, through YSBS and PT VTP have the capacity to transport the commodities to transit warehouses of other counterparts and/or to final distribution points. Food will be trucked on smaller trucks to distribution points in some cases where the bigger trucks are unable to go to. In case the counterpart is unable to move the food, YSBS and YSS will provide the transport vehicles required to move the food at the desa level.

IX. Budget

a. The exchange rate used in the original budget was Rp. 8,000 = $1 while the exchange rate today is approximately Rp. 14,000 = $1. At this time, we do not feel comfortable changing the original exchange rate since the rate here is still so volatile. Transportation costs have not been as dramatically affected by inflation to date due to the subsidies on fuel prices.

For transportation costs of ITSH, they will remain the same at this time. From the quotations provided by PT VTP, and discussions with YSBS and YSS, it does not seem that there is going to be a significant increase in the prices quoted in the original budget.

b. Warehouse and staff costs need to be added to the ITSH budget. We have listed a revised line item and amounts below. Both YSBS and YSS will need to rent warehouses to receive the food. PT VTP has already provided these costs in quotations to YSBS and YSS. With regards to transit warehouses, a small portion will be allocated to each counterpart. It is expected that most counterparts will use the amount to renovate the transit warehouse instead of renting.

Warehouse renovation is a cost that needs to be built in the budget. YSBS will need to renovate their warehouse to accommodate the food.

ITSH Revised Budget (original proposed budget = $675,000):

1.	Transport of 27,000 MT @ Rp. 200/kg	$ 675,000
2.	Processing of 27,000 MT @ Rp. 20,000/MT	$ 67,500
2.	Warehouse Expenses (Rentals/Renovations)	$ 60,000
2.	Logistics Staff (1 CRS, 20 Counterpart)	$ 50,000
Revised Total		$ 852,500

SCOPE OF WORK

SCOPE OF WORK

ASSESSMENT ON PROGRAM IMPLEMENTATION FOR CENTRAL JAVA EMERGENCY PROGRAM

AUGUST 31 - SEPTEMBER 11, 1998

I. BACKGROUND

The current drought in Indonesia has heavily impacted the islands in Nusa Tenggara, East Indonesia. In addition there is a crisis throughout Indonesia. The situation is drastically affecting the poverty level in Indonesia, which is presently increased from 21% to 50 % of the total population as declared by GOI. Based on the data received from CRS counterparts, Central Java is one of the critical areas in Java, due especially to the economic crisis. CRS intends to solve the problem, and has developed food distribution program with other institutions to assist the needy people in rural and urban areas of selected Kabupatens of Central Java. The committee consists of four Food Counterparts which will implement the food distribution. The service area is divided into four regions and managed by the Food Counterparts in the following :

1. Region I : YSS for Semarang area.
2. Region II : NU for Pekalongan area.
3. Region III : YSBS for Cilacap area.
4. Region IV : YAKKUM for Solo area

(see the attachment of list of Kabupaten included in each Region)

The Food Counterparts Committee is also supported by Interfaith Steering Committees which consist of various religious institutions in Indonesia. They are : Catholic, Moslem, Hindu, Buddhist and Protestant. The Interfaith committees are formed at the required levels, and they are responsible for assisting village selection, monitoring of distribution and communication to communities regarding selection. In some areas these Interfaith committees representative at the district level with similar responsibility.

With the assistance of the Interfaith committee, the food counterparts have been asked to prepare a strategic plan to select the target villages in their region, determine the number of beneficiaries and calculate the amount of food needed based on the selected number of beneficiaries.

CRS/ID proposal on emergency program in Central Java has been approved by USAID. The amount of Rice approved by USAID is 27,000 M/T, for a six (6) months of program. As the Call Forward has been prepared, the first shipment of food is expected to arrive in Indonesia in November 1998, through the ports of Semarang and Cilacap. Based on the experience of food program in the past, YSS Semarang and YSBS Cilacap will manage the clearance and handling of the commodity, as well as storage and transportation. They will also coordinate the reporting system. YSS and YSBS will arrange the work coordination with all involved parties, including VTP and Sucofindo.

In this program YSS and YSBS have the role as logistics coordinator among the food counterparts. For budgeting in the logistic aspects, YSS and YSBS have to prepare the details which begins from port of destination, on the discharge from ocean vessel, storage at the warehouse, transporting to the village level and ends at the distribution point.

The Food Counterparts have conducted meetings among the counterparts. YSS in Semarang, YSBS in Cilacap and YAKKUM in Solo. The meeting is attended by member of Interfaith committee at the regions. The result is that counterparts have collected the data from the field and submitted to CRS through YSS, YSBS or YAKKUM, in the following subject :

a. number of proposed beneficiaries
b. selected target areas
c. estimation of expenditures to be budgeted for the operational cost.

However, the data submitted by The Food Counterparts is still insufficient. The number of beneficiaries and selected target area are very large and it seems that based on that data, the program should cover the whole area of Central Java, while the amount of food which have been called forward will be unfeasible to cover the whole area.

To have a reliable data and get a clear picture of the program, CRS plan to conduct the assessment to obtain inputs to implement the program.

The team will recommend the selected areas, the certain number of beneficiaries calculation of the total tonnage for the food counterparts based on a cursory needs assessment and assessment of each organization capacity, which will distribute the ration a maximum of 25 kgs. rice per family per month.

As the result of the assessment, it is expected that we will have a clear picture of Central Java emergency program. It is deemed necessary to have the certain data of the above subjects, so that the program could be matched with the amount of commodity approved by USAID.

II. OBJECTIVES

1. To initially assess the impact of economic crisis occurring in some areas in Central Java.
2. To assess the targeted areas and certain number of beneficiaries, and to assist in further modifying selection criteria.
3. To assess the counterparts on the capacity of the organization on :
   a. capability to manage the emergency program on programmatic and logistic aspects.
   b. Human Resources (staffing, technical skill)
   c. program support availability (warehouse and transportation).
   d. capability to manage relationship with the forwarding agent (VTP) and surveying company (Sucofindo)

III. EXPECTED OUTPUT

1. Food Allocation Tonnage for four Food Counterparts.
2. List of findings for improving projects implementation.
3. Assessment of capability as the Food Counterparts, are :
   - able to manage the emergency program on programmatic and logistic
   - having enough staff and skill to handle the program
   - program support available
   - able to communicate with other related parties

IV. THE TEAM

The Assessment team will consist of 6 members, They are :

- 3 members from CRS/Indonesia and CRS/Baltimore
- 3 members from other organizations

I. THE ORGANIZATION

A. BEGINNINGS

The Yayasan Sosial Bina Sejahtera (YSBS) is a non-sectarian foundation whose purpose is to improve the quality of life for the impoverished of Indonesia. It is affiliated with the Roman Catholic Church and is based in Cilacap, Central Java. It was started in 1976 in response to starvation caused by drought. The immediate problem of starvation was averted by the distribution of 50 tons of soya fortified wheat given to Catholic Relief Services (CRS) by United States Agency for International Development (USAID). Out of this emergency was born YSBS which could devote its efforts over a long period of time toward alleviating the plight of the poorest of the poor (Picture pg. 8).

B. FOCUS OF RESOURCES

Over a 21 year period of time (1976-1997), the YSBS has focused its resources toward the alleviation of poverty through the following efforts:

1. FOOD FOR WORK (1976-1991): YSBS procured materials for infrastructure to be built in villages, and villagers were given food for their labor to build the needed infrastructure (dikes, dams, roads, culverts, temporary bridges, full bridges, irrigation systems, village meeting places, sports fields, fish ponds, land reclamation, and land preparation for schools and hospitals). 50,000 families participated in this program.

2. WORK FOR MONEY (1991 to date): YSBS pays villagers money for their labor to procure materials and to build the infrastructure needed (Audit Report pg. 9-11 and Project Summary pg.12).

3. NUTRITION PROGRAM (1979-1991): Food given by USAID/CRS and distributed to children under 5 years, pregnant women and nursing mothers. 45,000 recipients.

4. USAHA BERSAMA (Income Generation) (1986 to date): Grant of Rp.200.000.000, from CRS to finance revolving fund for small business co-operatives. Groups of 10-40 persons each take a collective loan and are responsible as a group to repay the loan. The original amount has revolved 8 times to date, making an effective loan of Rp.1.600.000.000. 94% of interest payments and 96% of loan repayments have been received. This is a self sufficient project which pays wages for 10 organizers and all overhead expenditures. The goal of this project is to assist people who have the skills and desire to start a business but lack the funds to do so. 90% of the loans are given to women and are repaid within 3 to 12 months. 3,000 families have participated. (Interview with Father Charles Burrows, July 8, 1997; The Jakarta Post, May 28, 1995; and Indonesia Program Evaluation for CRS/USAID Small Enterprise Development Sequel Matching Grant, April, 1996).

5. EDUCATION (1976 to date): Program began with building a senior high school in Cilacap and a junior high school each in Kawunganten and Sidareja. Four class rooms were built in each place. The YSBS now operates 25 educational institutions with an enrollment of 8,000 students. Schools were established with funds from Australia raised through YSBS efforts. At present, operating costs for the schools are from tuition (80%), government support (10%) and YSBS (10%) (Report for 22 Schools pg. 13).

6. HEALTH (1982 to date): Clinic in Majenang with substation in Carui, clinic in Sockeraja with substation in Banyumas area. Australian embassy contributed 2 million rupiah to start the clinics. Total cost of the clinics was Rp.80,000,000. They are now self-sufficient.

7. CHRISTIAN CHILDREN'S FUND (1982 to date): Money from CCF is given directly to children to pay for school fees and to village development for projects such as drinking water, public toilets, and income generation (chickens, ducks, goats, water buffalo, and pedicabs).

8. WATER DEVELOPMENT (1976 - date): YSBS has dug and put in concrete linings in approximately 500 village wells, built approximately 20 small dams and piped water to the villages. It has built one dam (1988) which created a 100 hectare lake which keeps the ground water relatively high for wells and pumps in the dry season for the whole town of Cilacap. Funding from CRS (50%), MISEREOR (25%) and Dutch Bishop Development Fund (25%).

9. HOUSES FOR HOMELESS (1973 - date): YSBS has built approximately 340 houses for the people who had been living on the streets, large families living in one room, for some old people who had no living relatives and for the blind. Funds for first 40 houses were donated mainly by the St. Vincent de Paul parish branch of Sorrento, Victoria, Australia, Missionary Association of Mary Immaculate, Australia and the Cilacap Lenten Appeal Collection. Last 300 houses were paid for from construction truck rental.

C. YSBS VALUES AND ITS ROLE IN THE COMMUNITY

The goal of YSBS is to reach the poorest of the poor. It is a broad based community level foundation which uses the vehicle of infrastructure to develop better income, education, health care, and nutrition. Although YSBS operates under the auspices of the Roman Catholic Church, it reaches out to all people in a given community. It co-operates with local government and with the military. Through its reputation for integrity and co-operation, it was able to serve as a vehicle for peace during the recent election unrest. In Tasikmalaya, a nearby town, riots occurred, lives were lost, businesses and churches were destroyed. When this occurred, the co-ordinator for the infrastructure projects in Majenang, a town near Tasikmalaya, was able to sponsor a meeting between government people, Islamic leaders, Protestants, Catholics and the business community.

They jointly stated that no such thing would happen in Majenang and set up a committee for quick communication between all groups. No such destruction occurred in Majenang!

X. ORGANIZATIONS WITHIN THE COMMUNITY

a. Local Government Partnership Project:
YSBS traditionally builds the road base over a period of years, adding layers of gravel and rock periodically until it becomes stable. When it is stable enough, the local government paves the road with asphalt donated by a local government oil refinery.

b. Armed Forces of Indonesia Partnership Project:
Each year ABRI goes into one village of this kabupaten and does a major infrastructure project. YSBS has been involved in this for the last nine years. The projects originate with a request from the village head man who goes to sub-district and district levels for project approval.

c. Local Felt Needs Partnership Projects:
Each project of the YSBS is first requested by the village people. The head of a village personally visits the YSBS director and requests assistance. A typical request is the following made by the village headman of Muara Dua, Pak Sugito :

i. Continue road construction to the other two hamlets
ii. Provide a junior high school staff and run the school
iii. Provide an electric generator

iv. Rebuild the health center as the roof was blown off by a recent storm
v. Provide a drinking water system
vi. Provide credit to buy rice seed, fertilizers, insecticides and fingerlings for fish ponds
vii. Build a permanent bridge to replace the temporary one viii. A motorcycle for memories because he has known Father Charlie for 20 years! Actually there are only 3 broken-down motorbikes available and the ride to Cilacap is Rp.15.000,00. Father Charlie is expected to pay for these transportation costs when village leaders come to see him. Meeting between Father Charlie and Pak Sugito, observed by CPE July 1997.)

The goal of ALL projects is alleviation of poverty and thus support is given to ALL groups of people. Indonesian national policy states that people of all religions must work together. An example is the AMD (ARBRI Masuk Desa/ARMED FORCES ENTER THE VILLAGE) road and village improvement program this year. The Indonesian Armed Forces, YSBS, the district government and the villagers worked together. In this community effort, a road was topped with asphalt, a mosque, sentry post and village pump were built. YSBS built the base for a mosque which is adjacent to a Catholic church (Picture pg.14).

II. THE PROBLEM

A. AREA PROFILE

The islands of Java and Madura account for 6.9 percent of the total land area of Indonesia while it contains 60 percent of the total population. (Indonesia Country Profile, 1992-93). "Around 77 percent or 21 million out of the estimated 27 million people still living beneath the poverty line in Indonesia reside in Java" (Jakarta Post, July 14, 1993). In August 1994, the Chief of Local Planning and Development Body stated that in the province of Central Java there are a total of 2,039 poverty stricken villages scattered in 252 sub-districts in 29 regencies (Jakarta Post). In the district of Cilacap, there are 270 villages, of these 81 are categorized as impoverished. Poverty is most acute in isolated villages of the coastal areas. "A poverty stricken village is one whose residents' income per capita, when converted to rice, is less than 360 kilograms." (Jakarta Post, August, 1994.

Although there are project sites throughout the kabupaten of Cilacap, the major sites are located in the Segara Anakan and other coastal areas. The Segara Anakan is a brackish water lagoon formed by the Citanduy and other smaller rivers of south Central Java. The rivers which empty into the Segara Anakan drain a total area of 4,460 square kilometers. As of 1984, the water surface (defined as high water without vegetation) area of the lagoon was 2,700 hectares. At the turn of the century the area was 6,898 hectares.

This rapid change in surface area is caused by sedimentation from the rivers of the Citanduy River basin. The lagoon is separated from the Indian Ocean by an island called Nusakambangan. The watershed lands of the Citanduy Basin has one of the highest population densities of the world (Schweithelm, James, "Watershed Land Use and Coastal Sedimentation: The Citanduy/Segara Anakan System," Tropical Coastal Area Management, Vol. 4, No. 1., Metro Manila, Philippines, 1989).

The Segara Anakan is an area of unusually fast sedimentation. It is estimated that 2.5 million tons of sediment settle in the lagoon each year. One result of this rapid sedimentation is the loss of water surface and the build up of land areas. Lagoon areas are slowly converted to mudflat, then to mangrove, then to low shrubs. As land reaches adequate height, it is converted to ricelands. Fishing area is lost and fishermen (about 80% of the population) must find other sources of income. By definition, the entire area is low and is affected by tides. This tidal activity brings brackish water into rice field where dikes are low or have been breached. The range for spring tides (highest water levels occurring during tidal cycle in Cilacap is 1.5 meters. The spring tides occur twice each lunar month. In addition to spring tides, flooding often occurs when heavy rains and spring tides occur at the same time. Flooding can reach up to 50 cm.

III. THE PROJECT

A. POVERTY ALLEVIATION

Poverty and population pressures force families to live in very isolated areas where survival is for the fittest. In the Segara Anakan, fishermen have to learn how to farm as fishing area is lost and farmers migrate into the area hoping to find just a few hundred square meters of land they can farm. Here access to basic necessities is limited and transportation is almost non-existent. Such conditions perpetuate cycles of poverty. This vicious cycle of poverty can only be broken by long term investment of money into infrastructure development which simultaneously gives access to markets, education, health care and better nutrition (See pgs 15 - 17 & Map of Coastal Project Area pg. 18).

B. DESA PANIKEL - A CASE STUDY OF NEED

Lura Muara Dua is one of eight hamlets collectively known as Kampung Laut (Sea Village). Kampung Laut is located in Segara Anakan, a quickly disappearing lagoon in Central Java, adjacent to the Indian Ocean. Lura Muara Dua is administratively under the village of Panikel and has 577 heads of family. Its educational facilities are limited to 1 primary school for grades 1-6. Approximately 240 children attend this school. There are 5 teachers (48 children/teacher) and one headmaster. There are no other schools. Men earn their living through fishing and rice cultivation. This year there has been no rice harvest, it was killed by salt water inundation. When rice crops are harvested, the yields average 2 tons/hectare. In contrast, the average for wet season harvest on the south coast of Java is 4.5 tons/hectare/harvest. North coast yield in wet season is 5-6 tons/hectare/harvest. Average income for Panikel is Rp/50.167, per capita per year, the lowest in the sub-district of Kawunganten (Table p. 24). Kampung Laut has a high incidence of diseases characterized by diarrhea, malaria, dengue hemorrhagic fever, and various skin ailments. Lura Muara Dua is an area which was once lagoon, but due to rapid sedimentation from the Citunduy water shed, it is now an area which is above water level most of the time. Because of its location, it suffers both from salt water inundation and fresh water flooding. There is no source of fresh water. Water is brought by canoe 4 kilometers at the cost of Rp.500 for 20 liters. In 1994, a road was built. Now a vendor can come to buy fish and rice. The trip to Cilacap which costs Rp.5.000, by boat is now available by motorcycle to the national road and then by bus at the total cost of Rp.1.500,! Dikes need to be built to prevent salt water inundation. Since Central Java has definite drought periods, an irrigation system would make year-round-rice cultivation possible. Photo pg.19).

C. DESA GRUGU - A CASE STUDY OF SUCCESS

A trip to this village gives an exciting lesson in what the infrastructure project has accomplished over the years. Upon leaving the national highway on the way to Grugu, one enters Bojong and then Brinkeng, both YSBS project areas. There is a narrow but good road winds through rice fields which stretch as far as the eye can see. Bicycles, motorcycles and small pick-up trucks make up the local transportation system. Twenty years ago there were only two inhabitants in this area. Now Grugu has 617 families with a total population 2884 persons. The total land area is 681.0896 hectares, giving a ratio of about 1 hectare of land per family. Through the government sponsored Citanduy project, 489 hectares are irrigated. In 1975-76 YSBS built the first dike, in 1989 ABRI and YSBS built a road 1860 meters long. Today there are 3 primary schools, 23 shops and a health center. Crops can easily be transported to market. Brown sugar from coconut flowers and tempe as well as rice are sold outside the village. The first migrants into the area were anti-government fugitives. They have now settled into the area and in the last election (May, 1997) 87% of the vote was for Golkar, the dominam party of Indonesian. (Personal Interview, July 10, 1997) (Photos pgs. 20-22 and map of work finished/projected p.23).

VIII. HASIL - HASIL KEGIATAN PELAYANAN.

Beberapa hasil kegiatan yang telah dapat dilaksanakan oleh Yayasan Sosial Soegiyapranata (YSS) Keuskupan Agung Semarang untuk para keluarga dan masyarakat penyandang masalah sosial, baik yang tinggal di Perkotaan maupun yang tinggal di Pedesaan, antara lain sebagai berikut :

1. Relokasi dan Pemukiman.

Hasil kegiatan ini dapat langsung dilihat dilokasi kegiatan Relokasi dan Pemukiman Tuna Wisma & Tuna Karya YSS. Semarang. Sampai saat ini, terdapat 10 Lokasi Relokasi dan Pemukiman Tuna Wisma & Tuna - Karya YSS yang tersebar di daerah pinggiran Wilayah Kodya Dati II Semarang. Luas seluruh pemukiman tersebut ± 26,637 Hektar, dengan - jumlah kapling bangunan rumah sebanyak ± 1.838 unit, dan dengan jumlah penghuni sebanyak ± 2.084 Kepala Keluarga (KK).

Seluruh lokasi Pemukiman tersebut di atas, saat ini sudah masuk dalam Tata Pemerintahan Pemda Dati II Kodya Semarang, yang terbagi dalam wilayah 'Rukun Warga (RW)' Kelurahan setempat, yaitu sebanyak : 13 (Tiga Belas) RW.

Manfaat secara langsung yang dapat dirasakan oleh para pemukim antara lain : mereka telah memiliki rumah hunian yang tetap dan dapat-ikut berperan dalam kegiatan pembangunan masyarakat dilingkungannya, (menjadi Pengurus RT, Pengurus RW, PKK, Karang Taruna, Posyandu, Kader Kesehatan & KB, dls).

2. Transmigrasi Swajarsa Mandiri.

Kegiatan program Transmigrasi Swakarsa Mandiri ini dilakukan dengan-menjalin kerjasama secara kemitraan dengan Departemen Trasnmigrasi , mulai dari Tingkat Pusat s/d Tingkat I & II terkait. Sudah cukup banyak jumlah keluarga yang ditransmigrasikan / ikut transmigrasi melalui program Transmigrasi YSS Semarang ini.

Berdasarkan daerah asal keluarga / masyarakat yang ikut transmigrasi serta daerah tujuan transmigrasi seperti tersebut di atas, antara lain sebagai berikut :

a. Dari daerah asal : Kab. Kendal, Cilacap, Banjarnegara, Wonosobo, Boyalali, Banyumas, Magelang.

b. Lokasi transmigrasi : Lampung, Bengkulu, Sumatra Selatan, Kalimantan Barat, Kalimantan Selatan, dan Timor Timur.

3. Bantuan Umum dan Bencana Alam.

Pelaksanaan kegiatan ini masih lebih banyak / cenderung dalam bentuk bantuan karitatif. Pelayanan dan bantuan diberikan kepada para keluarga kurang mampu dan tidak mampu dalam bentuk santunan biaya pendidikan anak, biaya rawat jalan dan inap, bantuan material / perbaikan rumah yang terkena musibah bencana, pemberian bahan makanan, dls.

Mereka yang membutuhkan bantuan seperti tersebut diatas, hampir sebagian besar mendatangi Kantor YSS Semarang. Bantuan yang diberikan , disesuaikan dengan kondisi dan kebutuhan yang ada / diperlukan. Bila memang membutuhkan kunjungan guna melihat secara langsung keadaannya , maka staff YSS Semarang akan meninjau ke rumah keluarga yang membutuhkan untuk konfirmasi keadaan yang dihadapi oleh pemohon bantuan.

Sedangkan untuk jenis bantuan bagi keluarga / masyarakat yang terkena Musibah Bencana Alam , dengan tanpa membatasi lokasi wilayah jangkauan, maka melalui Panitia / Posko / Dinas Sosial setempat, YSS Semarang akan mengirimkan bantuan untuk korban musibah tersebut. Jenis bantuan yang diberikan oleh YSS Semarang dapat berupa : pakaian pantas pakai, bahan makanan, Team Kesehatan dari Poliklinik YSS Semarang, dls.

4. Bantuan Peningkatan Sarana Umum Masyarakat.

Kegiatan bantuan ini sebagian besar ditujukan bagi Peningkatan Kebutuhan Sarana Umum Masyarakat yang tinggal di Pedesaan; khususnya bagi peningkatan sarana jalan dan jembatan sebagai transpotasi penghubung antar desa, disamping untuk masalah kebutuhan Air Bersih dan Bak penampungnya.

Kegiatan program semacam ini sudah cukup banyak dilaksanakan dan hasilnya dapat dirasakan secara langsung oleh masyarakat pengguna dipedesaan. Lokasi dan daerah yang telah mendapatkan bantuan melaluiprogram ini, antara lain : Kab. Cilacap, Wonogiri, Rembang, Pati , Banjarnegara, Batang, Pemalang, Kebumen, Demak, Boyolali, Purbalinga, Kab. Semarang, Gunung Kidul, dls.

Adapun jenis bantuan yang telah dilaksanakan di daerah-daerah seperti tersebut di atas, antara lain : Pengadaan Sarana Air Bersih, Peningkatan / pembuatan jalan dan jembatan, Bak Penampung Air Bersih serta perpipaannya, Pembangkit Listrik Tenaga Air (PLTA), dls.
Sistem pelaksanaan kegiatan, dilakukan bersama dengan masyarakat dan Pemerintah Daerah setempat, dan LKMD setempat.

5. Pengembangan Program Pelayanan Masyarakat.

Bagian Pengembangan program Pelayanan Masyarakat ini, secara langsung kegiatannya tidak begitu dikenal oleh masyarakat yang menerimabantuan dari YSS Semarang. Bagian pengembangan program disini berfungsi sebagai pengolah dan mencari peluang agar program kegiatan dilapangan dapat berjalan dengan baik sesuai dengan rencana dan tujuan yang ditetapkan.

6. Bantuan Pengadaan Sarana Air Bersih.

Sebagian besar kegiatan bantuan Pengadaan Sarana Air Bersih YSS Semarang dilakukan di daerah pedesaan di wilayah Propinsi Dati I Jawa Tengah dan Daerah Istimewa Yogyakarta. Jenis bantuan yang diberikan berupa pembuatan / pembangunan Sarana Air Bersih, Bak Penampung, dan Perpipaannya. Pembuatan saran air bersih yang dimaksud dapat berupa pembuatan Sumur (Galian / Pengeboran) , atau Bak penampung sumber mata air yang sudah ada sebelumnya.

Pada tahun-tahun terakhir ini, peogram Bantuan Pengadaan Sarana Air Bersih YSS Semarang, sudah mengembangkan daerah pelayanan ke wilayah Propinsi Timor Timur, yang berkaitan dengan hasil program kegiatan Transmigrasi (kerjasama Dep. Transmigrasi dengan YSS Semarang).

7. Bantuan Pelayanan melalui KK, KKS / CCF.

Ditujukan bagi para keluarga tidak mampu / kurang mampu bagi upaya peningkatan kesejahteraan keluarga, khususnya mereka yang tingkat sosial ekonomi rendah. Bantuan melalui kegiatan program ini berupa ; pemberian bantuan santunan untuk biaya pendidikan / sekolah anak (SD , SLTP dan SLTA), dan pembinaan hidup sehat dalam keluarga serta lingkungannya. Sebagian besar para keluarga yang mendapat bantuan dengan program ini adalah, para keluarga yang tinggal di tempat Relokasi & Pemukiman Tuna Wisma & Tuna Karya YSS Semarang. Walau demikian, sebagian lagi yang mendapat bantuan adalah mereka yang tinggal disekitar Pemukiman yang keadaan ekonominya memprihatinkan dan layak untuk dibantu.

8. Bantuan Modal Usaha Kecil (KCK).

Kegiatan bantuan ini lebih dikenal dengan istilah Kredit Candak Kulak (KCK). Diperuntukan bagi keluarga kurang mampu yang akan memulai atau mengembangkan usahanya, dengan tanpa ikatan pembinaan yang bersifat rutin.

Hampir sebagian besar yang datang dan membutuhkan KCK ini adalah para pedagang kecil / keliling (penjual es, tempe, sayuran, warungan), tukang becak, buruh bangunan, buruh / pembantu rumah tangga, dls. Besarnya pinjaman yang diajukan / diberikan pada mereka, berkisar antara Rp. 20.000,00 s/d Rp. 100.000,00 atau tergantung dari jenis usahanya maupun kemampuan untuk pengembaliannya. Sampai saat ini, jumlah keluarga yang dilayanan KCK sebanyak ± 1.000 orang KK yang sebagian besar tinggal di tempat Relokasi & Pemukiman Tuna Wisma dan Tuna Karya YSS Semarang (seperti : Pemukiman Deliksari, Mangunhardjo, Mayangsari, Langensari, dan Tenjungredjo).

9. Bantuan Usaha Peningkatan Pendapatan Keluarga, UP2K.

Bantuan bagi Usaha Peningkatan Pendapatan Keluarga (UP2K) ini dipe - runtukan bagi 'Ibu - ibu' di pedesaan guna membantu meningkatkan - penghasilan keluarga yang rata-rata masih tergolong rendah. Pelaksanaannya dengan menggunakan pendekatan pada sistem pembinaan rutin & kunjungan yang dilakukan oleh Petugas Lapangan YSS Semarang. Para kelompok sasaran program ini sebelumnya diberikan semacam Latihan untuk pengorganisasian kelompoknya, baik untuk latihan administrasi - maupun pengelolaan dana melalui kegiatan tabungan anggota (peserta).

Latihan yang diberikan seperti tersebut di atas, lebih dikenal dengan 'Kursus UP2K Usaha Bersama - Simpan Pinjam' selama 3 hari atau selama 24 Jam Efektif setiap angkatan kursus. Setelah selesai diberikan kursus, maka mereka akan membentuk Kelompok Usaha Bersama (UB) yang anggotanya berasal dari mereka yang tinggal di desa bersangkutan. Kegiatan pokok Kelompok Usaha Bersama adalah, menghimpun modal melalui kegiatan Tabungan Anggota dan melaksanakan Pinjaman kepada - para anggotanya.

Awal pelaksanaan program Bantuan UP2K ini, dimulai pada Tahun 1984 - sampai sekarang. Adapun lokasi kegiatan bantuan di luar Semarang, yaitu : di Kabupaten Dati II Pemalang (Kecamatan Pulosari, Kecamatan Belik, dan Kecamatan Watukumpul), serta di Kabupaten Dati II Batang (Kecamatan Wonotunggal dan Kecamatan Blado).
Jenis bantuan yang diberikan selain kunjungan pembinaan oleh Petugas Lapangan YSS secara rutin, juga berupa 'Modal Usaha' yang berupa - DANA secara tunai d a n Ternak Kambing. Kedua jenis bantuan modal usaha tersebut dikembalikan ke YSS Semarang dengan cara mengangsur.

10. Panti Asuhan / Asrama Anak SLB Ungaran.

Pengelolaan Panti Asuhan / Asrama Anak Sekolah Luar Biasa (SLB) YSS di Ungaran ini merupakan kegiatan yang tergolong masuh baru, dimulai tahun 1993 yang lalu. Panti tersebut sebelumnya dikelola oleh Dinas Sosial Kebupaten Dati II Semarang, dan YSS Semarang menjadi salah satu mitra-kerja yang memberikan bantuan tidak secara rutin.

Perkembangan selanjutnya, ditawarkan pada YSS Semarang melalui Bapak Kepala Dinas Sosial Kab. Dati II Semarang k e p a d a Bruder Servatius, FIC selaku Ketua Pelaksana YSS Semarang. Setelah mendapat persetujuan dari Instansi terkait (Pemda dan Dep. Sos), maka sejak itu secara resmi dikelola dan menjadi program baru di YSS Semarang.

11. Pelayanan Kesehatan dan Poliklinik.

Kegiatan pelayanan kesehatan untuk keluarga dan masyarakat, yang merupakan awal kegiatan YSS Semarang saat mulai berdiri tahun 1963, telah mengalami perkembangan yang cukup besar, baik jumlah yang dilayani maupun tempat -tempat pelayanannya.

Sampai saat ini perkembangan kegiatan pelayanan dibidang kesehatan , antara lain sebagai berikut :

a. Telah dimilikinya tempat - tempat pelayanan kesehatan masyarakay yang berupa Rumah Balai Pengobatan / Poliklinik & Rumah Bersalin yaitu ; 3 (Tiga) Poliklinik Balai Pengobatan, dan 2 (dua) Poliklinik Balai Pengobatan (BP) & Rumah Bersalin (RB). Balai Kesehatan tersebut telah mempunyai izin operasional dan dibina Dinas Kesehatan Kodya (DKK) Semarang.

b. Dengan telah dimilikinya Balai Kesehatan seperti tersebut diatas maka telah meningkat pula jumlah masyarakat yang dapat dilayani. Hal tersebut terlihat dari banyaknya jumlah kunjungan masyarakat (pasien) yang berobat setiap harinya dengan biaya yang dapat terjangkau oleh mereka yang tergolong kurang mampu ekonominya.

c. Telah dapat dilakukannya model pelayanan kesehatan 'Poliklinik - Keliling' seminggu sekali dimasing-masing daerah lokasi Relokasi & Pemukiman Tuna Wisma & Tuna Karya YSS Semarang, yaitu : Pemukiman YSS - Muktihardjo, Tanggungredjo, Tambak Dalem, dan - Tambak Lorok. Kegiatan ini bertujuan agar biaya yang diperlukan / dikeluarkan oleh mereka semakin terjangkau (Murah), karena tak dibutuhkan biaya transpotasi untuk berobat ke Balai Pengobatan.

12. Pelayanan Pendidikan bagi Anak Gelandangan / Terlantar.

Kegiatan pelayanan pendidikan bagi anak gelandangan / terlantar yang cukup banyak ditemui di sekitar Pasar Johar Semarang, dilaksanakan - mulai sekitar tahun 1986, dengan dibantu oleh para relawan yang menaruh kepedulian terhadap masalah pembinaan anak gelandangan oleh YSS Semarang ini.

Cara melaksanakan kegiatan tersebut adalah, mendatangi / mengunjungi tempat mereka biasa berkumpul dan mencari makan di area Pasar Johar. Mereka dikumpulkan dan mulai sedikit demi sedikit diarahkan, dibim - bing untuk bisa mempersiapkan diri dikehidupan mendatang yang lebih-baik / layak, mulai diperkenalkan dengan ketrampilan baca tulis dan lain sebagainya.

13. Panti Asuhan Anak Cacat Ganda Bhakti Asih.

Panti Asuhan Anak yang menderita Cacat Ganda Bhakti Asih - YSS dimaksudkan untuk membantu para keluarga yang mempunyai anak penderita Cacat Phisik dan Cacat Mental. Tentu saja dari para keluarga yang kurang dan tidak mampu secara ekonomi.

Anak cacat ganda tersebut 'tinggal dan asuh' di Panti, dengan usia antara 5 s/d 15 tahun (putra maupun putri). Saat ini baru dimiliki 1 (satu) unit Panti Asuhan Anak Cacat Ganda, yaitu : di Jl. Ismangil - Bongsari, Kodya Semarang.

14. Panti Jompo untuk Lanjut Usia (Lansia).

Sampai saat ini YSS Semarang telah memiliki 3 (tiga) Rumah Panti Jompo untuk lanjut usia.

Yaitu : Panti Werdha Rindang Asih I (Bongsari) , Panti Werdha Rindang Asih II (Ungaran) , dan Panti Werdha Rindang Asih III (Ngaliyan).

Adapun tujuan pengelolaan Panti Jompo tersebut, adalah sebagai sarana pelayanan bagi keluarga kurang mampu yang mempunyai anggota keluarga lanjut usia, dan kurang mampu dalam merawat dan membinanya.

15. Bantuan pelayanan bagi Usaha Peningkatan Gizi Keluarga (UPGK).

Kegiatan bantuan bagi Usaha Peningkatan Gizi Keluarga (UPGK) ini , dilakukan melalui pembinaan dan pendampingan secara terencana - rutin dan terarah / terpadu dengan program Pemerintah Daerah setempat melalui pelaksanaan program Posyandu & Penimbangan Balita.
Dan kegiatan UPGK tersebut, dilakukan dengan jalinan kerjasama kemitraan dengan Team Penggerak PKK Dati II / Pemda setempat.

Bentuk dan jenis kegiatan yang telah dilaksanakan yaitu : Posyandu Terpadu, Penimbangan Balita, Pemberian Makanan Tambahan untuk Balita dan Ibu hamil. Program tersebut dilaksanakan di Kabupaten Pemalang (Kec. Belik, Pulosari, dan Watukumpul) sampai dengan Th. 1988, dan di Kabupaten Batang (Kec, Wonotunggal dan Blado) sampai dengan tahun. 1991 (selama 3 tahun).

IX. P E N U T U P ,

JENIS kegiatan program dan hasilnya seperti yang di uraikan di atas, merupakan sebagian besar saja, baik yang telah dilaksanakan, masih dilaksanakan sampai saat ini, dan maupun yang telah tidak dilaksanakan lagi karena keterbatasan sumber dana pendukung yang membiayai kegiatan program yang dimaksud.

NAMUN demikian, sebagai usaha untuk merealisasi tujuan Dharma Bhakti Sosial yang telah ditetapkan sebagai 'karya dan misi' Yayasan (YSS Semarang) , maka sudah menjadi tekat untuk terus mengupayakan serta menguasahakan dengan membuka peluang baru secara positif guna terus mengembangkan kegiatan bantuan pelayanan bagi keluarga dan masyarakat kurang mampu yang membutuhkan / perlu bantuan.

DINAMIKA NU PASCA KHITTAH 26

Dari Gerakan Politik menuju Gerakan Sosial

Oleh : Elyasa KH Dharwis

Kembali ke Khittah NU 1926 merupakan titik awal perubahan artikulasi politik NU. Semula diimplementasikan dalam gerakan politik (political movement) dengan orientasi dan target kekuasaan di parlemen atau lembaga legislatif, beralih dan menjelma dalam format politik yang lebih berorientasi pada pembangunan bangsa untuk terciptanya kondisi sosial, ekonomi dan politik yang berkeadilan dan demokratis.

Dataran baru itu dengan sendirinya mengantarkan kiprah NU pada horison yang cukup luas dibanding ruang gerak yang tersedia sebelumnya. Dari hanya sebatas pada politik praktis dengan semua perhatian terkonsentrasi pada usaha memperoleh kekuasaan, maka setelah kembali ke khittah NU 1926 format perjuanganya tampak sebagai gerakan sosial (social movement) dengan artikulasi yang dapat dimainkan cukup luas dan membangsa. Tidak lagi memikirkan diri sendiri sebagai kelompok yang partikularistik, tetapi lebih dari itu melewati sekat-sekat primordialisme mengarahkan pada persoalan kebangsaan yang cukup universal dan tidak lagi bergerak dengan laju mobilitas vertikal.

Artikulasi dan gerak yang dilakukan ialah bagaimana melakukan transformasi sosial ekonomi dan politik lapisan masyarakat bawah pada satu sisi sebagai ikhtiar membangun basis guna meningkatkan kualitas partisipasi masyarakat dalam proses-proses politik yang sedang berlangsung.

Sementara pada sisi lain dilakukan usaha untuk mencairkan suasana monoton dalam atmosfir politik dengan isu-isu demokratitasi, pembangunan politik yang aspiratif dan menekankan aspek keadilan dalam sektor ekonomi; juga berusaha ikut berperan dalam menafsirkan ideologi negara yang sebelum itu sepertinya menjadi monopoli pemerintah saja.

Pilihan NU melakukan pemberdayaan masyarakat merupakan discourse (perbincangan) baru dalam kehidupan organisasi kemasyarakatan (ormas). NU yang sebelumnya oleh sementara pengamat diberi predikat oportunistik dan punya sikap akomodatif dalam ekspresi politiknya, pada saat terlihat kecenderungan elit politik membutuhkan dukungan untuk menegaskan eksistensi politiknya, NU justru meninggalkan politik praktis dan memilih kerja kebudayaan dan membangun kekuatan suatu lapisan masyarakat yang selama ini corpus dan sendi-sendinya kropos. Satu lapisan dalam struktur lapisan masyarakat Indonesia yang secara politik dan ekonomi jarang aspirasi dan opininya bisa bergulir dalam politik elit kecuali disebut-sebut sebagai atas nama. Sebagian besar lapisan ini jika dilihat socio geografisnya adalah warga NU.

Dalam iklim sekarang, langkah NU merupakan pemberdayaan masyarakat sipil (empowerment of civil society) memang suatu yang kurang populer karena hal itu berarti suatu kondisi politik yang lebih menghendaki adanya korporatisme dalam segala sektor strategis. Apalagi jika melihat kenyataan, dengan langkah semacam ini, NU tidak lain membangun suatu komunitas masyarakat yang memiliki kemandirian dalam sikap politik, ekonomi dan budaya.

Dilihat dari sini, maka upaya yang dilakukan NU sesungguhnya merupakan kerja yang sangat sulit tetapi sangat diperlukan.

Derasnya arus tantangan ekspoternal dari struktur makro yang policynya cukup dominan dalam mempertahankan stabilitas keamanan serta belum terbukanya iklim yang memungkinkan untuk menciptakan otonomi serta partisipasi yang bebas dari masyarakat, merupakan variabel utama yang menjadi kendala bagi upaya besar yang dilakukan NU ini. Belum lagi kondisi internal NU sendiri, yang tampaknya tidak sabar melihat kiprah dan gerakan sosial yang dilakukan, acapkali mengganggu jalannya garis keberpihakan NU.

Dua hal ini membuat upaya NU untuk menciptakan ruang publik (publik sphare) yang dinamis di mana masyarakat bisa memiliki akses penuh terhadap setiap kegiatan publik, melakukan kegiatan secara merdeka dalam menyampaikan aspirasi, pendapat, berserikat serta bebas menyiarkan opini masyarakat dalam bentuk lisan atau tulisan, sampai saat ini, masih merupakan utopi karena pemerintah menganggap dirinya sebagai penaggung jawab tunggal pembangunan.

Karena itu, maka dalam iklim politik yang muncul dalam paket-paket yang harus dilakukan oleh masyarakat, kebijakan dalam pembangunan diatur dalam sentralistik sehingga ruang gerak masyarakat untuk mengembangkan segala potensi dan kreatifitas tidak tersedia.

Implikasinya kemudian dalam kehidupan sosial politik, masyarakat tidak cukup memiliki daya tanggap (responsiveness), serta relatif rendah tingkat partisipasinya dalam masalah-masalah kehidupan sosial politik yang ada. Dan NU mencoba meretas kebekuan ini dengan mengajukan suatu discourse baru dengan mengutamakan kehendak warga negara dan penolakan terhadap pemusatan dan sifat totalitas kekuasaan, melalui ekspresi politik selama ini ditampakkan.

Dalam bidang politik, misalnya, NU cukup mengambil jarak dengan pusat kekuasaan meskipun dalam beberapa waktu ini berkembang politik akomodasi, ditambah lagi misalnya, dalam sektor ekonomi, NU mencoba memfasilitasi kalangan bawah dengan mendirikan BPR-BPR.
Akumulasi pilihan NU disinyalir banyak pengamat sebagai langkah untuk menemukan kembali kekuatan masyarakat sipil (the recovery and empowerment of civil society) yang selama ini lenyap dari wacana politik kita. Betulkah ? sejarahlah yang akan menjawab. (bulletin lakpesdam NU).

NAHDLATUL ULAMA JAWA TENGAH

Selayang pandang

Sebagai organisasi kemasyarakatan yang mempunyai banyak massa, Nahdlatul Ulama Jawa Tengah mencoba berbuat untuk berkiprah demi kemaslahatan ummat, khususnya warga nahdliyyin. Hal ini sesuai dengan garis perjuangan Nahdlatul Ulama, yaitu yang popu-ler dengan istilah kembali ke khitthah, maka orientasi Nahdlatul Ulama tidak lagi ke politik praktis, akan tetapi menjadi organi-sasi kemasyarakatan yang berkiprah di bidang sosial keagamaan. Sejak berdirinya, yaitu tanggal 16 Rajab 1344 H atau 31 Januari 1926 Nahdlatul Ulama mengalami pasang surut bidang garapnya, semula di bidang sosial keagamaan, kemudian di bidang politik yang ditandai dengan ikut pemilu pada tahun 1955 dan tahun 1971. Kemudian pada tahun 1984 (pada Muktamar Nu ke 27 Situbondo) NU kembali ke bidang garap semula, yakni sosial keagamaan.

Demikian juga halnya Nahdlatul Ulama yang ada di Jawa Te- ngah, mau tidak mau harus mengikuti keputusan PBNU mengenai bidang garapnya. Maka tidak heran jika pada awal NU menjadi partai politik, orientasi kerjanya hanya bagaimana memperbanyak kursi di lembaga Legislatif, bukan bagaimana mengurusi ummat. Sehingga tidak heran kalau tak sempat untuk berfikir bagaimana memiliki sekretariat yang tetap yang dapat menampung segala aktifitas untuk tingkat Jawa Tengah. Di awal ini pula kondisi NU Jawa Tengah mengalami beberapa kali pindah kantor, antara lain :

a. Masa khidmat : 1953 - 1955

Rais	: KH. Zubair
K e t u a	: KH. Choliq
Kantor	: Jalan Layur 70 A, Semarang

b. Masa khidmat : 1955 - 1957
Rais : KH. Zubair
K e t u a : KH. Choliq
Kantor : Wisma PHI Jawa Tengah
Jalan KH. Wahid Hasyim 125-127, Semarang

c. Masa khidmat : 1957 -1958
Rais . KH. Muslih
K e t u a : KH. Jalil
Kantor : Wisma PHI Jawa Tengah
Jalan KH. Wahid Hasyim 125-127, Semarang

d. Masa khidmat : 1958 - 1967
Rais : KH. Zubair
K e t u a : H. Imam Sofwan
Kantor : Jalan dr. Cipto 133, Semarang

agar lebih berkonsentrasi dalam berkhidmat, tidak perlu setiap ganti pengurus pindah kantor, maka pada akhir periode ini, Nah- dlatul Ulama Jawa Tengah membeli rumah beserta tanah dari Bapak drh Samsoe Poespo Soegondo yang terletak di jalan dr. Cipto 180, Semarang. Maka sejak itu pula dengan kepengurusan yang baru, yaitu pada masa khidmah 1967 - 1977 Nahdlatul Ulama Jawa Tengah bermarkas di Jalan dr. Cipto 180, Semarang. Berikut ini kami sampaikan periodesasi PWNU Jawa Tengah hingga sekarang.

a. Masa khidmat : 1967 - 1977

Data yang terkumpul sampai dengan tanggal 23 Juli 1998 ternyata melebihi target yang telah ditentukan sesuai dengan kesepakatan dalam pertemuan di Ambarukmo-Yogyakarta. Untuk ini korwil IV akan melakukan konfirmasi ulang kepada Kabupaten masing-masing apabila data tersebut tidak dapat disetujui oleh CRS.

Dampak program emergency yang terpantau sampai dengan hari ini :

- Antar umat beragama nampak menunjukkan kerjasama yang baik, kegiatan ini dapat dijadikan embrio kegiatan-kegiatan kerjasama antar umat beragama di Ex Karesidenan Surakarta. Hal ini perlu disampaikan karena selama ini kegiatan-kegiatan kerjasama semacam ini di wilayah ini nampaknya kurang responsif dan nampak mandeg.

Diusulkan untuk memasukkan wilayah Kabupaten Klaten sebagai target wilayah, karena melihat masing banyaknya kantong-kantong kemiskinan di wilayah tersebut.

Demikian laporan perkembangan proses persiapan kegiatan program emergency.
Terima kasih atas kerjasama CRS dg Korwil IV - Dijakini program ini akan sangat bermanfaat bagi masyarakat dalam kondisi keprihatinan akhir-akhir ini.

RE: FOI-240/05

Dear Mr. Simpson:

This serves as a final response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated July 12, 2005 requesting all documents from November 1, 1997 to November 1, 1998 relating in whole or in part to the decision that the United States would send food and medical emergency aid to Indonesia.

There are two documents responsive to your request. The first document which is enclosed and being released in its entirety is a copy of WFP EMOP 6006 "Emergency Assistance to Drought Victims Indonesia" dated August 1998. The second document is a USAID Transfer Authorization and is being withheld in it's entirety under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 5 U.S.C. §552 exemption (b)(5).

Exemption (b)(5) protects "inter-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than the agency in litigation with the agency. This document contains information that is part of the agency's decision-making process which is called the deliberative process privilege. The release could cause public confusion that might result from disclosure of reasons and rationales that were not in fact ultimately the grounds for an agency's actions.

You have a right to appeal the above exemption. You must submit your appeal in writing within 30 days from the date of this letter. To be considered an official appeal, your letter must be addressed as follows:

Director, Office of Administrative Services
U.S. Agency for International Development
Ronald Reagan Building, Room 4.06B

Both the appeal and the envelope should be plainly marked "FOI APPEAL." Please make reference to your assigned FOIA number [FOI-240/05] that we may identify your case promptly.

For this response, 1 document totaling 8 pages are released. Thank you for your interest in the USAID. There is no fee associated with this request.

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE TO DROUGHT VICTIMS

INDONESIA

Aug 98

WFP EMERGENCY OPERATION NO. 6006
"EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE TO DROUGHT VICTIMS"

In response to the request of the Government of the Republic of Indonesia for the provision of emergency food aid, the World Food Programme has agreed to provide an emergency food aid grant targeted at drought victims in Indonesia.

The overall objective of the WFP assistance under Emergency Operation (EMOP) 6006 is to prevent the present food shortage from developing into a famine situation, alleviating the hardship faced by the most vulnerable segments of the population in rural areas as the country is facing the combined impact of drought and economic crisis. More specifically, the intention is to:

- Distribute food free rations to the most seriously affected families who are unable to secure their daily food requirements;
- Agricultural rehabilitation and reconstruction through food-for-work (FFW) activities, enabling the beneficiary communities to re-establish their livelihoods;
- Maintain and/or improve the health/nutritional status of pregnant women, lactating mothers and underfives in selected areas which have been particularly affected by the drought and economic crisis.

The Emergency Operation will start in July 1998 with an overall duration of 395 days.

The following population groups are the direct target beneficiaries who will receive food assistance under this operation:

- Some 208,690 families (or 750,000 people) surviving on only one meal a day with no means of supporting themselves. This activity will use 30,000 MT of rice, with a daily ration of 400 gr/day/person and will be implemented by the Ministry of Social Affairs (Depsos) in 8 provinces of the country (see tables and maps attached).

- Workers participating in FFW activities, numbering about 771,000, will receive a family ration for themselves and four dependents; a total of 3.85 million beneficiaries would thus be assisted. The criteria for the selection of FFW schemes will be mutually agreed upon by the Government and WFP. This activity will use 160,000 MT of rice, with a daily family ration of 2.0 kg per worker and will be implemented by the Ministry of Agriculture in 12 provinces (see tables and maps attached).

- Pregnant women, lactating mothers and malnourished children aged under 5 years numbering some 708,000. This activity will use 17,000 MT of blended food, with a daily ration of 133 gr/day/person (4.0 kg/month) and will be implemented by the Ministry of Health (see tables and maps attached).

Commodities provided by WFP will be distributed free of charge to the beneficiaries and according to a distribution plan mutually agreed upon by the Government and WFP.

208,000 MT of cereals (rice, or rice equivalent)
17,000 MT of blended food or a total of 225,000 MT at an estimated total cost to WFP of US$ 90,540,000.

WFP will supply the commodities to the Government at agreed points of delivery which will be such that the food assistance can be most efficiently transported to the target groups once it enters the country. Anticipated ports of first delivery for cereals are Jakarta and Surabaya. Blended food will be delivered by WFP to provincial ports nearest to the distribution sites.

BULOG (the National Logistic Agency) has been designated by the Government to take delivery of cereals provided under this Emergency Operation and perform the transport from the port of first entry to staging points (i.e. Sub-Dolog warehouses at the district level).

In the 208,000 MT of rice, 18,000 MT have been considered for the use of NGOs in Food For Work activities, which should be ideally carried out in the East of Indonesia. The rice will be delivered at Sub-Dolog warehouses and transported by the NGOs up to subdistrict and village distribution points. WFP will reimburse NGOs for the Sub-Dolog to subdistrict transport cost (ITSH) up to a maximum of US$ 12.67 per MT. This is the only available assistance in addition to the grain. The same ITSH subsidy will be paid to the Ministry of Agriculture and Depsos as reimbursement for the rice transported in their respective activities. Also some funds have been considered for air lift operation, but limited to only 1,000 MT for the whole project.

Attached is the tentative distribution plan made with the Ministry of Agriculture (MoA) for FFW, Ministry of Social Affairs (Depsos) for relief food and Ministry of Health (MoH) for vulnerable group feeding (blended food).

Any FFW activity of NGOs that can be initiated or expanded with this rice is welcomed. Ideally it should be in districts not covered by EMOP 6006 in order o avoid overlapping and located in central or eastern Indonesia.

RESULTS. THE "GENERAL ELECTION INSTITUTE," FOR EXAMPLE, HAS THE POWER TO REJECT CANDIDATES NOMINATED BY THE PARTIES ON SUBJECTIVE GROUNDS. CURRENT CHARGES OF GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE IN THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF ONE OF THE THREE "OFFICIAL" PARTIES, THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OR PDI, WHICH HAS LED TO COMPETING PARTY LEADERSHIPS, HAS FURTHER COMPLICATED AND TAINTED THE ELECTION PROCESS THIS YEAR. THE FOLLOWING IS MEANT TO SERVE AS A PRIMER/REFERENCE REGARDING THE ELECTIONS, OFFERING A CALENDAR OF STAGES IN THE ELECTION PROCESS AND AN EXPLANATION OF SOME OF ITS KEY INSTITUTIONS AND INTRICACIES. END SUMMARY

THE ELECTION CALENDAR:

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 06 SEP 2006 200503235

2. (U) ELECTIONS FOR THE INDONESIAN NATIONAL PARLIAMENT (DPR) WILL BE HELD SOMETIME DURING THE WEEK OF MAY 23-JUNE 1, 1997 (THE EXACT DATE WILL BE ANNOUNCED THROUGH A PRESIDENTIAL DECREE). ALREADY, HOWEVER, THE FIRST OF 12 STAGES OF THE ELECTION PROCESS IS UNDERWAY. THE FOLLOWING PROVIDES A REVIEW OF THE COMPLICATED ELECTION PROCESS NOTING THE SEQUENCE OF PRE-BALLOTING STAGES. THIS REVIEW ALSO HIGHLIGHTS SOME OF THE UNUSUAL CONSTRAINTS ON THE THREE OFFICIAL PARTIES WHICH ARE AUTHORIZED TO COMPETE IN THE ELECTION.

3. (U) THE GENERAL ELECTION INSTITUTE (LPU) SUPERVISES THE ENTIRE ELECTION PROCESS SCHEDULES AND IMPLEMENTS EACH OF THE 12 STAGES OF THE ELECTION EXTENDING FROM REGISTRATION OF VOTERS TO THE SWEARING-IN OF THE VICTORS. THE ELECTION CALENDAR FOLLOWS:

-- REGISTRATION OF VOTERS: MAY 1 - 20, 1996 (WITH A PROVISIONAL LIST TO BE PREPARED BY THE LPU NO LATER THAN MAY 31, 1996.

THE LIST IS FINALIZED ON JULY 20, 1996)

-- DETERMINING THE NUMBER OF DEPUTIES TO BE ELECTED FROM EACH CONSTITUENCY: JULY 20 - 23, 1996

-- SUBMISSION OF PARTY NAMES AND SYMBOLS TO BE EMPLOYED IN THE ELECTION: MAY 1 - JUNE 29, 1996

-- NOMINATION OF CANDIDATES BY EACH OF THE THREE AUTHORIZED PARTIES: JULY 30 - SEPTEMBER 16, 1996 (NOTE: THIS YEAR THE LPU CONFRONTS THE PROSPECT OF COMPETING CANDIDATE LISTS FROM THE DIVIDED PDI. END NOTE)

-- EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES' CREDENTIALS: SEPTEMBER 27 - OCTOBER 31, 1996 (THE LPU CAN LEGALLY REJECT PROPOSED CANDIDATES ON SPECIFIC GROUNDS SUCH AS AGE AS WELL AS VAGUER GROUNDS SUCH AS NOT BEING "LOYAL TO PANCASILA.")

-- ACCEPTANCE OF THE CANDIDATES BY THE LPU AND PREPARATION OF CANDIDATE LISTS: DECEMBER 1, 1996 - FEBRUARY 18, 1997)

-- ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE CANDIDATE LISTS: FEBRUARY 19 - MARCH 31, 1997

-- ELECTORAL CAMPAIGNS: APRIL 29 - MAY 23, 1997 (NOTE: THE CAMPAIGNS ARE USUALLY ORGANIZED IN A MANNER WHICH PRECLUDES TWO PARTIES FROM CAMPAIGNING ON THE SAME DAY IN THE SAME LOCATION. THIS PRECAUTION IS TAKEN TO REDUCE THE PROSPECT OF CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE. FOLLOWING THE CAMPAIGN A PERIOD

KNOWN AS "THE WEEK OF SILENCE" IS OBSERVED, USUALLY A FIVE DAY PERIOD RESERVED FOR "POPULAR CONTEMPLATION" PRIOR TO THE

BALLOTING. END NOTE)

-- BALLOTING: TO BE SET BY PRESIDENTIAL DECREE (NOTE: BALLOTING WILL TAKE PLACE ONE DAY BETWEEN MAY 28 AND MAY 30, 1997. END NOTE)

-- COUNTING OF VOTES: MAY 30 - JUNE 17, 1997

-- VALIDATION OF GENERAL ELECTIONS RESULTS: JUNE 10 - 13, 1997 (NOTE: VALIDATION OF VOTES FOR REGIONAL AND LOCAL ELECTIONS WILL TAKE PLACE IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE NATIONAL RESULTS ARE VALIDATED. END NOTE)

-- OATH TAKING BY VICTORS: OCTOBER 1, 1997

AN OVERVIEW OF THE PROCESS:

---

4. (U) UNDER THE AUTHORIZATION OF THE LPU (WHICH IS HEADED BY THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS) EACH OF THE THREE RECOGNIZED POLITICAL PARTIES HAS BEGUN PREPARING CANDIDATE SLATES WHICH MUST BE TURNED INTO THE LPU FOR ITS REVIEW BY JULY 30. THE THREE OFFICIAL PARTIES ARE:

-- "GOLKAR" (THE PARTY, WHICH IN THE PAST WAS DESCRIBED BY THE GOVERNMENT AS A "FUNCTIONAL GROUP," COMPRISING GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY CADRE);

-- THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY OR "PDI:" (COMPRISING A GROUPING OF NATIONALIST AND CHRISTIAN PARTIES);

-- THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY OR "PPP:" (GROUPING ISLAMIC PARTIES)

THE LPU REVIEWS THE CANDIDATE LISTS SUBMITTED BY THE PARTIES AT EACH OF THE THREE LEVELS (CENTRAL, PROVINCIAL AND DISTRICT) TO SCREEN OUT INVALID PARTY NOMINEES. (COMMENT: GOLKAR, IN 1996, IMPOSED ADDITIONAL LIMITATIONS ON ITS CANDIDATES, PREVENTING CANDIDATES WHO ARE OVER 65 OR HAVE ALREADY SERVED 20 OR MORE YEARS IN THE DPR FROM SEEKING RE-ELECTION. END COMMENT)

5. (U) LPU'S REVIEW OF PARTY SLATES IS NOT NORMALLY A CONTENTIOUS PROCESS THOUGH IN THIS UNUSUAL POLITICAL YEAR, IT COULD BECOME SO IF THE DIVIDED PDI PRODUCES COMPETING CANDIDATE SLATES. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S MEETING WITH THE PDI LEADER SOERJADI, JULY 25 (REFTEL), APPEARS TO ENSURE THAT THE PDI CANDIDATE LIST SUBMITTED BY HIS PARTY WILL BE ACCEPTED BY THE LPU OVER ANY CONTENDING LIST SUBMITTED BY THE MEGAWATI-LED PDI FACTION.

6. (U) FOLLOWING APPROVAL OF THE THREE SLATES, EACH PARTY IS ALLOTTED CAMPAIGN PERIODS IN WHICH TO PRESENT ITS CANDIDATES TO THE PEOPLE. THE PERIODS ARE STRICTLY LIMITED TO SPECIFIC DATES AND ARE ARRANGED SO THAT NO TWO PARTIES ARE COMPETING ANYWHERE IN INDONESIA ON THE SAME DAY. TYPICALLY, THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD RUNS FOR LESS THAN TWO WEEKS OF ACTUAL CAMPAIGN TIME. GOLKAR, THE GOVERNMENT PARTY, HAS PROPOSED A FURTHER TIGHTENING OF CONSTRAINTS ON CAMPAIGNING, URGING THAT ALL CAMPAIGNS BE LIMITED TO INDOOR EVENTS. (COMMENT: IT IS NOT CLEAR THAT GOLKAR'S PROPOSAL WILL SUCCEED. END COMMENT)

7. (U) FOLLOWING THE LIMITED CAMPAIGN THERE IS A "SILENT" WEEK,

DURING WHICH THE POLITICAL PARTIES ARE BARRED FROM FURTHER CAMPAIGNING UNTIL THE DAY OF BALLOTING. TYPICALLY, THE PRESS ALSO DOES NOT REPORT ON POLITICAL STATEMENTS, NOR DOES IT EDITORIALIZE ON BEHALF OF ONE PARTY OR ANOTHER.

KEY INSTITUTIONS: THE DPR AND THE MPR:

8. (U) THE DPR, THE NATIONAL LEVEL PARLIAMENT, IS VERY CIRCUMSCRIBED IN ITS OFFICIAL DUTIES AND IN TERMS OF ITS PRACTICAL INFLUENCE. IT IS COMPRISED OF 500 MEMBERS, 425 OF WHOM ARE ELECTED ON A PROPORTIONAL BASIS FROM THE GOVERNMENT-APPROVED PARTY SLATES. THE REMAINING 75 ARE APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT FROM THE RANKS OF ABRI, THE INDONESIAN ARMED FORCES, WHO DO NOT VOTE IN THE ELECTION.

9. (U) EVERY FIVE YEARS, IN THE YEAR FOLLOWING THE ELECTION, THE NEWLY ELECTED DPR MEMBERS JOIN WITH ANOTHER 500 APPOINTED DELEGATES IN A CONVENING OF THE MPR, THE PRINCIPLE FUNCTION OF WHICH IS THE SELECTION A NEW PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT. THE MPR ALSO ESTABLISHES THE GENERAL OUTLINES OF STATE POLICY FOR THE NEXT FIVE YEARS. THUS, THE MPR WILL MEET SOME TIME IN 1998. DURING THE PERIOD OF PRESIDENT SUHARTO'S "NEW ORDER" GOVERNMENT, ALL MPR PRESIDENTIAL SELECTIONS HAVE BEEN BY CONSENSUS WITH ONLY PRESIDENT SUHARTO EMERGING AS A CANDIDATE.

THE GENERAL ELECTION INSTITUTE (LPU):

10. (U) THE GENERAL ELECTION INSTITUTE (LPU) FUNCTIONS AS A GENERAL SUPERVISORY BODY MONITORING ALL ASPECTS OF THE ELECTION

PROCESS AND IS EMPOWERED TO ACCEPT OR REJECT PARTY-NOMINATED CANDIDATES. GROUNDS FOR REJECTION INCLUDE OBJECTIVE CONSIDERATIONS SUCH AS ILLITERACY OR A CRIMINAL RECORD, AS WELL AS SUBJECTIVE CONSIDERATIONS SUCH AS BEING DISLOYAL TO THE NATIONAL IDEOLOGY OF PANCASILA. THE LPU ALSO DETERMINES THE NUMBER OF LEGISLATIVE MEMBERS TO BE ELECTED FOR EACH CONSTITUENCY. THE INSTITUTE, WHICH IS HEADED BY THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS, INCLUDES AN EXECUTIVE BOARD, A COMMITTEE CHARGED WITH MONITORING THE BALLOTING, AND ONE WHICH SUPERVISES THE EXECUTION OF ALL OTHER PHASES OF THE GENERAL ELECTION (THE "INDONESIAN ELECTORAL COMMITTEE" OR PPI).

11. (U) THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF THE LPU CONSISTS OF:
-- MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (CHAIRMAN);
-- MINISTER OF JUSTICE (DEPUTY CHAIRMAN);
-- MINISTERS OF INFORMATION, FINANCE, DEFENSE, TOURISM, FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND COMMUNICATIONS;
-- COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES.

INDONESIAN GENERAL ELECTION COMMITTEE (PPI):

10. (U) THE GENERAL ELECTION COMMITTEE (PPI) HAS THE RESPONSIBILITY TO ADMINISTER THE ELECTIONS. THE PPI CONSISTS OF

SUBJECT: MORE CLASHES AND PROPERTY DAMAGE, AS WELL AS SOME PEACEFUL GATHERINGS, ON THE LAST DAY OF ELECTION CAMPAIGN

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLITICAL COUNSELOR EDMUND MCWILLIAMS. REASON: 1.5 (D).

2. (SBU) SUMMARY: JAKARTA WAS IN A STATE OF ANXIETY MAY 23, THE LAST DAY OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN. MANY OFFICES CLOSED EARLY AND RUMORS OF RIOTS AND CONFRONTATIONS FLOWED FREELY THROUGHOUT THE DAY. AS OF 1800, WE HAVE RECEIVED ONE CONFIRMED REPORT OF A CONFRONTATION BETWEEN PPP AND GOLKAR SUPPORTERS IN THE CIPUTAT RAYA AREA OF SOUTHWEST JAKARTA, WITH STONES BEING THROWN AND PROPERTY DAMAGED. A CHURCH WAS BURNED IN KEBAYORAN LAMA (SOUTH CENTRAL JAKARTA). WE ALSO HAVE RELIABLE REPORTS OF SOME LARGE, PEACEFUL GATHERINGS OF PPP MEMBERS WHO DEFIED THEIR LEADERS' CALL NOT TO HOLD PUBLIC MEETINGS. THERE WERE UNCONFIRMED REPORTS OF FIRES AT A BANK AND A BUS STATION IN SOUTHWEST JAKARTA, AND PROPERTY DAMAGE AT A MCDONALDS' RESTAURANT IN THE SAME GENERAL AREA. AMCONSUL SURABAYA REPORTS THAT A LARGE PPP RALLY WAS TAKING PLACE IN A PARK ADJACENT TO THE U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE OFFICE, BUT AS OF 1630, THE CAMPAIGN EVENT WAS PROCEEDING PEACEFULLY. END SUMMARY.

PPP JAKARTA BRANCH CALLS OFF PUBLIC MEEETINGS MAY 23

3. (U) MAY 23 WAS THE FINAL DAY OF THE 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN, AND BY ROTATION, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY'S (PPP) TURN TO CAMPAIGN IN JAVA. IN VIEW OF INCIDENTS WHICH OCCURRED

DURING THE LAST SEVERAL ROUNDS OF THE CAMPAIGN IN JAKARTA, THE PPP EXECUTIVE BOARD ANNOUNCED MAY 22 THAT THE PARTY WOULD NOT HOLD PUBLIC MEETINGS IN JAKARTA, BUT WOULD SIMPLY DISTRIBUTE INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC "IN ORDER TO ELICIT THE SYMPATHY OF THE COMMUNITY." JAKARTA GOVERNOR SURJADI SOEDIRJA ISSUED HIS OWN APPEAL TO JAKARTA RESIDENTS NOT TO BE INCITED BY "IRRESPONSIBLE ISSUES" OR BY "GROUPS WHO WANT TO CAUSE THE ELECTIONS TO FAIL."

REPORTS OF TROUBLE IN SOUTHWEST JAKARTA AND WESTERN SUBURBS

4. (SBU) THE ONLY CONFIRMED REPORT OF LARGE-SCALE CROWDS AND INCIDENTS CAME FROM THE CIPUTAT RAYA OF SOUTHWEST JAKARTA--SITE OF DISTURBANCES DURING EARLIER PPP CAMPAIGN DAYS. THE RSO REPORTED FROM THE SCENE OF A CONFRONTATION BETWEEN SUPPORTERS OF PPP AND THE GOVERNMENT POLITICAL PARTY, GOLKAR, WITH CROWDS ESTIMATED AT 7,000. THE TWO SIDES WERE THROWING ROCKS AT EACH OTHER, BREAKING WINDOWS IN BUILDINGS ALONG THE STREET. THE CROWD ALSO SET TIRES ON FIRE. A PROTESTANT CHURCH IN KEBAYORAN LAMA, WHICH WAS STONED TWICE EARLIER THIS WEEK, WAS IN FLAMES AT 1800 LOCAL TIME.

5. (SBU) THE EMBASSY HAS ALSO HEARD UNCONFIRMED REPORTS OF FIRES AT THE LEBAK BULUS BUS STATION (A MAJOR TRANSPORT DEPOT) AND AT A BANK ON CIPUTAT RAYA STREET. LIKEWISE, THERE IS AN UNCONFIRMED REPORT THAT CROWDS RANSACKED A MCDONALD'S RESTAURANT IN CIPUTAT RAYA.

6. (C) THROUGHOUT THE DAY, THE EMBASSY HAS HEARD REPORTS FROM VARIOUS SOURCES THAT SECURITY AUTHORITIES BATTLED LARGE CROWDS IN THE WESTERN INDUSTRIAL SUBURB OF TANGERANG. AT 1700, THE DATT RECEIVED A REPORT FROM HIS AUSTRALIAN COUNTERPART THAT CROWDS HAD

BURNED CARS IN TANGERANG, AND A SEPARATE (UNCONFIRMED) REPORT INDICATED THAT BWO BUILDINGS HAD BEEN BURNED IN TANGERANG AS WELL. (NOTE: ASIDE FROM PROPERTY DAMAGE DURING A LABOR STRIKE IN TANGERANG IN LATE APRIL, TANGERANG HAS BEEN LARGELY FREE OF INCIDENTS IN THE CAMPAIGN UP TO NOW. END NOTE)

SOME LARGE PPP STREET CAMPAIGNS DESPITE PPP LEADERS' INSTRUCTION TO AVOID THEM

7. (SBU) AS DURING THE PREVOUS TWO ROUNDS OF THE CAMPAIGN, SOME PPP PARTISANS CHOSE TO IGNORE THEIR LEADERS' INSTRUCTION NOT TO HOLD STREET RALLIES OR OTHER PUBLIC MEETINGS. AT 1700, POLOFF WITNESSED A PEACEFUL GATHERING OF ABOUT 2,000 MOSTLY SCHOOL-AGE PPP SUPPORTERS IN FRONT OF A MOSQUE NEAR PPP HEADQUARTERS IN CENTRAL JAKARTA. SEVEN TRUCKLOADS OF INDONESIAN MARINES IN RIOT GEAR WERE PREPARING TO DISPERSE THE GROUP AT THE TIME, AND IT APPEARED THAT THE CROWD WOULD BREAK UP WITHOUT INCIDENT. OTHER RELIABLE

EYEWITNESSES SAW LARGE PPP GATHERINGS ON CASABLANCA STREET (CENTRAL JAKARTA), MAS MANSYUR STREET (EAST CENTRAL JAKARTA), AND KEBAYORAN LAMA (SOUTHWEST JAKARTA). POLICE WERE VISIBLE ON THE SCENE, AND WERE IN SOME INSTANCES VIDEOTAPING THE CROWD, BUT DID NOT INTERFERE.

RUMORS GALORE

8. (SBU) THROUGHOUT THE DAY JAKARTANS KEPT THE TELEPHONE LINES BUSY SHARING RUMORS OF INCIDENTS AROUND TOWN. THERE WERE MANY REPORTS OF PLANS FOR A MARCH ON THE NATIONAL MONUMENT (MONAS), BUT A HEAVY POLICE PRESENCE ON THE MAJOR ROADS LEADING TO MONAS INSURED

THAT THIS DID NOT TAKE PLACE. EMBASSY WAS UNABLE TO FIND ANY CORROBORATING EVIDENCE OF REPORTS OF VIOLENT INCIDENTS NEAR THE TANJUNG PRIOK PORT IN NORTH JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE AROUND TOWN. MANY BUSINESSES IN CENTRAL JAKARTA CLOSED EARLY BECAUSE OF CONCERNS THAT CROWDS WOULD GATHER AFTER FRIDAY PRAYERS AT MOSQUES. IRONICALLY, THE EARLY EXODUS FROM THE CENTER OF TOWN MADE TRAFFIC FLOW MORE SMOOTHLY THAN USUAL.

LARGE PPP MEETING IN SURABAYA

9. (U) AMCONSUL SURABAYA REPORTS THAT A LARGE PPP CAMPAIGN MEETING WAS TAKING PLACE DURING THE LATE AFTERNOON IN A PARK ADJACENT TO THE FORMER USIS OFFICE. OFFICES IN THE AREA CLOSED DOWN EARLY TO ALLOW EMPLOYEES TO DEPART BEFORE TRAFFIC BECAME CONGESTED BECAUSE OF THE CROWD, BUT NO INCIDENTS WERE REPORTED IN CONNECTION WITH THE GATHERING.

GATHERINGS, ON THE LAST DAY OF ELECTION CAMPAIGN

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLITICAL COUNSELOR EDMUND MCWILLIAMS.
REASON: 1.5 (D).

2. (SBU) SUMMARY: JAKARTA WAS IN A STATE OF ANXIETY MAY 23, THE LAST DAY OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN. MANY OFFICES CLOSED EARLY AND RUMORS OF RIOTS AND CONFRONTATIONS FLOWED FREELY THROUGHOUT THE DAY. AS OF 1800, WE HAVE RECEIVED ONE CONFIRMED REPORT OF A CONFRONTATION BETWEEN PPP AND GOLKAR SUPPORTERS IN THE CIPUTAT RAYA AREA OF SOUTHWEST JAKARTA, WITH STONES BEING THROWN AND PROPERTY DAMAGED. A CHURCH WAS BURNED IN KEBAYORAN LAMA (SOUTH CENTRAL JAKARTA). WE ALSO HAVE RELIABLE REPORTS OF SOME LARGE, PEACEFUL GATHERINGS OF PPP MEMBERS WHO DEFIED THEIR LEADERS' CALL NOT TO HOLD PUBLIC MEETINGS. THERE WERE UNCONFIRMED REPORTS OF FIRES AT A BANK AND A BUS STATION IN SOUTHWEST JAKARTA, AND PROPERTY DAMAGE AT A MCDONALDS' RESTAURANT IN THE SAME GENERAL AREA. AMCONSUL SURABAYA REPORTS THAT A LARGE PPP RALLY WAS TAKING PLACE IN A PARK ADJACENT TO THE U.S. INFORMATION SERVICE OFFICE, BUT AS OF 1630, THE CAMPAIGN EVENT WAS PROCEEDING PEACEFULLY. END SUMMARY.

3. (U) MAY 23 WAS THE FINAL DAY OF THE 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN, AND BY ROTATION, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY'S (PPP) TURN TO CAMPAIGN IN JAVA. IN VIEW OF INCIDENTS WHICH OCCURRED DURING THE LAST SEVERAL ROUNDS OF THE CAMPAIGN IN JAKARTA, THE PPP EXECUTIVE BOARD ANNOUNCED MAY 22 THAT THE PARTY WOULD NOT HOLD PUBLIC MEETINGS IN JAKARTA, BUT WOULD SIMPLY DISTRIBUTE INFORMATION

TO THE PUBLIC "IN ORDER TO ELICIT THE SYMPATHY OF THE COMMUNITY." JAKARTA GOVERNOR SURJADI SOEDIRJA ISSUED HIS OWN APPEAL TO JAKARTA RESIDENTS NOT TO BE INCITED BY "IRRESPONSIBLE ISSUES" OR BY "GROUPS WHO WANT TO CAUSE THE ELECTIONS TO FAIL."

REPORTS OF TROUBLE IN SOUTHWEST JAKARTA AND WESTERN SUBURBS

4. (SBU) THE ONLY CONFIRMED REPORT OF LARGE-SCALE CROWDS AND INCIDENTS CAME FROM THE CIPUTAT RAYA OF SOUTHWEST JAKARTA--SITE OF DISTURBANCES DURING EARLIER PPP CAMPAIGN DAYS. THE RSO REPORTED FROM THE SCENE OF A CONFRONTATION BETWEEN SUPPORTERS OF PPP AND THE GOVERNMENT POLITICAL PARTY, GOLKAR, WITH CROWDS ESTIMATED AT 7,000. THE TWO SIDES WERE THROWING ROCKS AT EACH OTHER, BREAKING WINDOWS IN BUILDINGS ALONG THE STREET. THE CROWD ALSO SET TIRES ON FIRE. A PROTESTANT CHURCH IN KEBAYORAN LAMA, WHICH WAS STONED TWICE EARLIER THIS WEEK, WAS IN FLAMES AT 1800 LOCAL TIME.

5. (SBU) THE EMBASSY HAS ALSO HEARD UNCONFIRMED REPORTS OF FIRES AT THE LEBAK BULUS BUS STATION (A MAJOR TRANSPORT DEPOT) AND AT A BANK ON CIPUTAT RAYA STREET. LIKEWISE, THERE IS AN UNCONFIRMED REPORT THAT CROWDS RANSACKED A MCDONALD'S RESTAURANT IN CIPUTAT RAYA.

6. (C) THROUGHOUT THE DAY, THE EMBASSY HAS HEARD REPORTS FROM VARIOUS SOURCES THAT SECURITY AUTHORITIES BATTLED LARGE CROWDS IN THE WESTERN INDUSTRIAL SUBURB OF TANGERANG. AT 1700, THE DATT RECEIVED A REPORT FROM HIS AUSTRALIAN COUNTERPART THAT CROWDS HAD BURNED CARS IN TANGERANG, AND A SEPARATE (UNCONFIRMED) REPORT INDICATED THAT TWO BUILDINGS HAD BEEN BURNED IN TANGERANG AS WELL. (NOTE: ASIDE FROM PROPERTY DAMAGE DURING A LABOR STRIKE IN TANGERANG IN LATE APRIL, TANGERANG HAS BEEN LARGELY FREE OF INCIDENTS IN THE CAMPAIGN UP TO NOW. END NOTE)

SOME LARGE PPP STREET CAMPAIGNS DESPITE PPP LEADERS' INSTRUCTION TO AVOID THEM .

7. (SBU) AS DURING THE PREVOUS TWO ROUNDS OF THE CAMPAIGN, SOME PPP PARTISANS CHOSE TO IGNORE THEIR LEADERS' INSTRUCTION NOT TO HOLD STREET RALLIES OR OTHER PUBLIC MEETINGS. AT 1700, POLOFF WITNESSED A PEACEFUL GATHERING OF ABOUT 2,000 MOSTLY SCHOOL-AGE PPP SUPPORTERS IN FRONT OF A MOSQUE NEAR PPP HEADQUARTERS IN CENTRAL JAKARTA. SEVEN TRUCKLOADS OF INDONESIAN MARINES IN RIOT GEAR WERE PREPARING TO DISPERSE THE GROUP AT THE TIME, AND IT APPEARED THAT THE CROWD WOULD BREAK UP WITHOUT INCIDENT. 1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLCOUNS ED MCWILLIAMS 1.5(D)

2. (C) ASMARA NABABAN, MEMBER OF THE INDONESIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (KOMNASHAM), TOLD EMBOFF MAY 23 THAT THE COMMISSION WILL MEET MAY 27 TO CONSIDER FORMAL APPEALS FROM TWO GROUPS WHICH CALLED FOR A POSTPONEMENT OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS NOW SCHEDULED FOR

REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 08 SEP 2006 200503235

MAY 29. THE TWO GROUPS INCLUDED A DELEGATION OF SENIOR CADRE REPRESENTING THE MEGAWATI FACTION OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, AND THE NATIONALITY FORUM OF THE YOUTH OF INDONESIA. THE YOUTH FORUM ALSO CALLED FOR KOMNASHAM TO ESTABLISH AN ELECTION COMMISSION WHICH WOULD SUPERVISE THE CONDUCT OF A RE-SCHEDULED ELECTION.

3. (C) NABABAN SAID THAT HE CONSIDERED IT HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT KOMNASHAM WOULD CALL FOR A POSTPONEMENT BUT THAT THERE APPEARED TO BE A CONSENSUS FOR A STATEMENT WHICH WOULD NOTE VIOLATIONS OF LAW, ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS AND HUMAN RIGHTS RELATED TO THE ELECTION. HE SAID THAT THE COMMISSION HAD BEEN "SHAKEN" BY A REPORT BY COMMISSION CHAIRMAN MUNAWIR SOURCED TO MUNAWIR'S BROTHER THAT ON MAY 21 IN JEPARA, CENTRAL JAVA, THE MILITARY HAD DETAINED 26 MEMBERS OF THE LOCAL HEADQUARTERS OF THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) AND SEVERELY MISTREATED THEM. COMMISSION CHAIRMAN MUNAWIR SAID THAT ELECTRIC SHOCK HAD BEEN ADMINISTERED BUT THAT HE WOULD NOT GO INTO DETAIL AS THERE WERE LADIES PRESENT AT THE COMMISSION MEETING. NABABAN SPECULATED THAT THE ACTION WAS POSSIBLY AIMED AT INTIMIDATION BUT THAT IT WOULD LIKELY HAVE THE IMPACT OF A PROVOCATION.

4. (C) COMMENT: WE SHARE NABABAN'S EXPECTATION THAT THE COMMISSION WILL NOT CALL FOR POSTPONEMENT. ROY

1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE FINAL DAY OF PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGNING IN INDONESIA SAW UNUSUALLY EXTENSIVE VIOLENCE IN MANY PARTS OF INDONESIA. IN THE MOST VIOLENT EPISODE, OVER 130 PEOPLE APPEAR TO HAVE DIED IN CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE IN BANJARMASIN, A TOWN OF 500,000 IN SOUTH KALIMANTAN. MOST WERE VICTIMS CAUGHT IN ONE OF FOUR SHOPPING CENTERS SET ABLAZE BY RIOTERS. SERIOUS VIOLENCE ALSO ERUPTED IN BANGIL IN EAST JAVA, IN JAKARTA AND ITS ENVIRONS AND IN OTHER LOCATIONS. DESPITE PARTY LEADERS AGREEMENT TO CALL OFF CAMPAIGNING IN SOME AREAS SUCH AS JAKARTA, PARTY ADHERENTS AND OTHERS TOOK TO THE STREETS ANYWAY. OBSERVERS ARE EXPRESSING CONCERN THAT ELECTION DAY, MAY 29 OR THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF ELECTION RESULTS COULD SPARK NEW VIOLENCE. END SUMMARY

BANJARMASIN, SOUTH KALIMANTAN:

3. (U) MAY 23, THE FINAL DAY OF THE PARLIAMENTARY CAMPAIGN IN INDONESIA BEFORE A FIVE DAY "COOLING OFF PERIOD" PRIOR TO ELECTION DAY MAY 29, SAW UNPRECEDENTED VIOLENCE ACROSS INDONESIA. BY FAR THE WORST VIOLENCE TOOK PLACE IN THE LARGE CITY OF BANJURMASIN IN SOUTH KALIMANTAN. SUPPORTERS OF THE MUSLIM ORIENTED UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY, PPP, CLASHED WITH SUPPORTERS OF GOLKAR, THE GOVERNMENT PARTY/ORGANIZATION WHICH WAS SCHEDULED TO CAMPAIGN THAT DAY. RESULTING RIOTS LED TO WIDESPREAD ARSON TARGETING GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS, COMMERCIAL ENTERPRISES AND CHURCHES. THE FIRES TOUCHED OFF OTHER FIRES IN ADJOINING NEIGHBORHOODS DESTROYING OVER 100 HOMES.

4. (U) AS OF MAY 27, DAMAGE AND DEATHS CAUSED BY THE RIOTING ARE STILL BEING COMPILED THOUGH THE MEDIA, QUOTING OFFICIAL SOURCES, CITE THE FOLLOWING:

HUMAN TOLL: POSSIBLY AS HIGH AS 164 ALTHOUGH THAT COUNT

IS FLUCTUATING WITH FIRMER ESTIMATES IN THE RANGE OF 130. MOST VICTIMS WERE KILLED IN A FOUR STORY DEPARTMENT STORE TORCHED BY RIOTERS. INITIAL CLAIMS BY OFFICIAL SOURCES ALLEGED THAT MOST OF THOSE KILLED WERE LOOTERS WHO HAD BROKEN INTO THE COMPLEX AFTER IT HAD BEEN CLOSED DUE TO THE RIOTING. OVER 100 LOCAL RESIDENTS, INCLUDING FIVE SECURITY OFFICIALS, ARE HOSPITALIZED. GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS CLAIM TO HAVE ARRESTED 181 ON SUSPICION OF RIOTING AND/OR LOOTING. THE MAYOR'S OFFICE IN BANJARMASIN, REACHED BY PHONE MAY 24, TOLD EMBOFF THAT TO THE BEST OF ITS KNOWLEDGE, NO FOREIGNERS WERE KILLED OR INJURED IN THE VIOLENCE.

PROPERTY DAMAGE: EIGHT MALLS AND DEPARTMENT STORES WERE BURNED, AS WERE FOUR HOTELS, FOUR GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS, TWO CHURCHES, TWO BUDDHIST TEMPLES, TWO CINEMAS, AND 130 HOUSES. SCORES OF CARS AND MOTORCYCLES WERE ALSO DESTROYED OR DAMAGED.

JAKARTA:
---

5. (U) AS NOTED REFTEL, JAKARTA AND ITS ENVIRONS ALSO SAW SIGNIFICANT RIOTING ON MAY 23. IN ADDITION TO DESTRUCTION REPORTED REFTEL, A BANK AND PART OF AN ISLAMIC SCHOOL WERE BURNED ON BUNCIT RAYA STREET IN SOUTH JAKARTA. IN SOUTHWEST JAKARTA, A CHURCH WAS BURNED AND BUSINESSES ALONG A KILOMETER-LONG STRETCH OF ONE STREET WERE DAMAGED, PRINCIPALLY BY STONE THROWING. PUBLIC FACILITIES WERE ALSO DESTROYED IN OUTLYING JAKARTA SUBURBS OF MEKARSARI AND CIPONDOH.

TANGERANG, WEST JAVA:

BANGIL, EAST JAVA:

7. (U) MEDIA REPORTS NOTE THAT IN BANGIL NEAR PASAURAN IN EAST JAVA, RIOTERS TORCHED A POLICE STATION AND VANDALIZED FOUR BANKS, A CHURCH, NUMEROUS SHOPS AND MOTOR VEHICLES. POLICE REPORTEDLY FIRED ON THE CROWD AT

2. (SBU) SUMMARY: IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) AND THE GOVERNMENT PARTY, GOLKAR, BOTH GOT A SUBSTANTIAL BOOST IN THIS YEAR'S ELECTION BY THE COLLAPSE OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY WHICH FELL TO 3.2 PER CENT OF THE EAST JAVA VOTE AND 2.6 PER CENT IN CENTRAL JAVA. THE PPP WON THE CENTRAL JAVA CITY OF PEKALONGAN AND THE EAST JAVA DISTRICT OF PASURUAN AGAIN. IT WON TWO OF THE THREE ELECTIONS IN THE CITY OF PASURUAN. IN EAST JAVA, THE NUMBER OF VOIDED BALLOTS SOMETIMES SIGNIFICANTLY OUT DISTANCED THE PDI TALLY. WHILE MOST OF EAST JAVA WAS CALM ON ELECTION DAY, SIGNIFICANT VIOLENCE BROKE OUT IN SAMPANG ON THE ISLAND OF MADURA. PPP OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT MAJOR FRAUD OCCURRED THROUGHOUT MADURA. THE SITUATION THERE REPORTEDLY IS TENSE. OUTSIDE JAVA, PROVINCES IN THE SURABAYA CONSULAR DISTRICT SEEM TO HAVE GONE GOLKAR OVERWHELMINGLY. END SUMMARY

3. (U) FOLLOWING ARE OUR FIRST STATISTICS FROM THE MAY 29 ELECTION IN INDONESIAN PROVINCES OF THE SURABAYA CONSULAR DISTRICT. ALL STATISTICS USED ARE STILL PRELIMINARY, ALTHOUGH FOR EAST JAVA WE ARE VERY CLOSE TO FINAL FIGURES. IN ALL CASES, EXCEPT WHERE NOTED, WE HAVE USED FIGURES FOR THE NATIONAL LEVEL RACE, STATISTICS FOR THE PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL ELECTIONS VARY INSIGNIFICANTLY FROM THE NATIONAL ONE.

4. (U) EAST JAVA: WITH MOST OF EAST JAVA COUNTED, ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL BUT NOT YET FINAL STATISTICS, THE PPP HAS WON 33.6 PER CENT OF THE VOTE (COMPARED WITH 25.3 PER CENT IN 1992), GOLKAR SAW ITS VICTORY RISE FROM 58.7 PER CENT IN 1992 TO 63.1 PER CENT, AND THE PDI FELL FROM 15.9 PER CENT TO 3.2 PER CENT. THE PPP APPARENTLY WON THE PASURUAN DISTRICT BY A CONVINCING MARGIN (IT WON PASURUAN IN 1992). IN THE PASURUAN CITY DISTRICT, THE PPP HAS BEEN

EDGED OUT BY GOLKAR FOR THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, BUT SQUEAKED BY THE GOVERNMENT PARTY AT THE PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL ELECTIONS.

5. (SBU) THE GOLPUT VOTE IN EAST JAVA. GIVEN THE FLAWED NATURE OF STATISTICS IN SOME EAST JAVA DISTRICTS, WE CANNOT YET GIVE AN ACCURATE ESTIMATE ON THE NUMBER OF VOTERS WHO EITHER CHOSE TO STAY AWAY OR VOID THE BALLOT (GOLPUT). HOWEVER, IT SEEMS THAT THE PERCENTAGES SWUNG WIDELY FROM DISTRICT TO DISTRICT. IN SURABAYA CITY, 19 PER CENT DID NOT VOTE OR VOIDED THEIR BALLOTS. LIKEWISE, 18 PER CENT IN MALANG, A UNIVERSITY TOWN, DID THE SAME. IN MORE

RURAL SETTINGS, SUCH AS TUBAN, 13 PER CENT COULD BE GROUPED AS GOLPUT, AND IN SITUBONDO, ONE OF THE MOST RURAL COASTAL DISTRICTS, ONLY 9 PER CENT. THE VAST MAJORITY OF GOLPUT SIMPLY STAYED AWAY FROM THE POLLS. WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO SEE SOME OFFICIAL, BUT NOT FINAL STATISTICS ON ACTUAL VOIDED BALLOTS, AND IN A FEW CASES THE VOIDS OUT-POLLED THE PDI (IN PROBOLINGGO CITY BY MORE THAN TWO TO ONE, IN PASURUAN CITY FIVE TO ONE).

6. (U) MADURA, DISTURBANCES, AND POSSIBLE FRAUD: ALTHOUGH THE ELECTION WAS GENERALLY CALM THROUGHOUT EAST JAVA, DISTURBANCES ERUPTED IN THE FOUR DISTRICTS ON MADURA ISLAND, AMID CHARGES OF MAJOR ELECTION FRAUD. (THERE WAS ALSO MINOR VIOLENCE ELSEWHERE IN EAST JAVA.) IN SAMPANG, CROWDS DAMAGED SEVERAL GOVERNMENT AND POLICE BUILDINGS IN ONE SUBDISTRICT AND ASSAULTED SAMPANG CITY. AFTER DESTROYING GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS AND ATTACKING THE POLICE STATION AND THE RESIDENCE OF THE BUPATI (DISTRICT HEAD), THEY WERE REPORTEDLY BEATEN BACK BY THE MILITARY. WE UNDERSTAND FOUR WERE WOUNDED BY RUBBER BULLETS. THE SITUATION IS TENSE.

7. (C) THE SAMPANG VIOLENCE WAS APPARENTLY A REACTION TO ELECTION OFFICIALS NOT ALLOWING PPP WITNESSES TO ENTER SEVERAL POLLING

PLACES AND NOT PROVIDING THEM WITH VOTING SUMMARIES. ONE OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT SOURCE INDICATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS STAGING A RE-VOTE IN HALF OF SAMPANG'S SUBDISTRICTS. WE HAVE ALSO HEARD THAT AUTHORITIES ARE HUNTING A WELL-KNOWN RELIGIOUS LEADER, ALAWI MUHAMMAD, SUSPECTED OF INCITING THE RIOTING. PPP OFFICIALS TELL US THAT FRAUD WAS COMMITTED IN THE OTHER THREE MADURA DISTRICTS AS WELL. AS AN EXAMPLE, ONE PPP CONTACT TOLD US THAT UPWARDS OF 1000 BALLOT BOXES IN SUMENEP (OUT OF 1600) HAD BEEN REPLACED. OFFICIAL RECORDS INITIALLY INDICATED ALL FOUR MADURA DISTRICTS WENT GOLKAR, WITH SUMENEP AT MORE THAN 90 PER CENT. PPP CONTACTS ALLUDED TO INSTANCES OF FRAUD AT OTHER DISTRICTS IN EAST JAVA, BUT NOT ON THE MADURA SCALE.

8. (U) CENTRAL JAVA. FIGURES FOR CENTRAL JAVA, WITH LESS THAN 50 PER CENT OF THE VOTES TALLIED, HAVE THE PPP TAKING 27.3 PER CENT (IN 1992, IT WAS 22.9 PER CENT), GOLKAR 70.1 PER CENT (THE 1992 FIGURE WAS 55.4 PER CENT), AND THE PDI 2.6 PER CENT (DOWN FROM 20.2 PER CENT IN 1992). THE PPP APPARENTLY HAS HELD ON TO THE CITY OF PEKALONGAN, THE ONE VOTING DISTRICT IT WON IN 1992 AND SCENE OF

MAJOR CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE THIS YEAR. IN SOLO, ONE OF THE BETTER PDI SHOWINGS IN 1992, THE PPP VOTE WENT FROM 15.2 PER CENT IN 1992 TO 39.2 PER CENT, GOLKAR INCREASED FROM 49 PER CENT TO 57.6 PER CENT, AND THE PDI DROPPED FROM 35.2 PER CENT TO 3.2 PER CENT. WE ARE UNAWARE OF MAJOR DISTURBANCES IN CENTRAL JAVA, OR ELSEWHERE IN THE DISTRICT.

9. (U) YOGYAKARTA. PRELIMINARY YOGYAKARTA RESULTS GIVE THE PPP 29.8 PER CENT, GOLKAR 66.9 PER CENT AND THE PDI 3.3 PER CENT FOR THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENT. WE HAVE NO FIGURES FOR THE DISTRICT/LOCAL RACE.

10. (U) BALI AND THE REST: BALI, WITH ABOUT HALF THE VOTES TABULATED, GIVES GOLKAR A 94.8 PER CENT WIN. WHILE STATISTICS FOR OTHER PROVINCES IN THE DISTRICT (EAST AND WEST NUSATENGGARA, MALUKU, AND THE FOUR PROVINCES OF SULAWESI) ARE STILL FRAGMENTARY, GOLKAR PREDICTABLY IS WINNING BY VERY LARGE MARGINS.

SUBJECT: LATEST NATIONAL ELECTION RESULTS

REF: A) JAKARTA 3193; B) JAKARTA 3188; C) JAKARTA 3154

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE VOTE COUNTS ARE COMPLETE IN MOST OF INDONESIA, AND GOLKAR CONTINUES TO HOLD A MASSIVE LEAD (74.27 PERCENT), LEAVING THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY VIRTUALLY A NON-ENTITY (3.07 PERCENT). THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (22.6 PERCENT) HAS CALLED FOR A REPEAT OF THE VOTE IN SEVERAL AREAS OF THE COUNTRY DUE TO ALLEGED ELECTORAL FRAUD, AND SO FAR THE GOVERNMENT HAS AGREED TO DO SO IN PARTS OF MADURA, EAST JAVA. AN ASIAN ELECTION MONITORING GROUP HAS JOINED THE INDONESIAN INDEPENDENT MONITORING GROUP IN SUPPORT OF ALLEGATIONS OF VOTE FRAUD. PRESIDENT SUHARTO CLAIMED PUBLICLY ON MAY 30 THAT A SMALL GROUP WHICH "CHAMPIONED DEMOCRACY" HAD TRIED TO MAKE THE ELECTION FAIL. WE ARE TOLD THAT MEGAWATI WILL MAKE A CAUTIOUSLY WORDED STATEMENT ABOUT THE ELECTION IN THE NEAR FUTURE. EMBASSY'S ANALYSIS OF THE ELECTION WILL FOLLOW SEPTEL. END SUMMARY

3. (U) THE INDONESIAN ELECTION INSTITUTE (LPU) HAS INFORMED THE EMBASSY THAT THE VOTE COUNT IS COMPLETE IN 24 OF INDONESIA'S 27 PROVINCES. JAKARTA, IRIAN JAYA, AND EAST JAVA ARE STILL IN PROCESS. OVERALL RESULTS WILL NOT BE FINALIZED UNTIL THE MIDDLE OF JUNE.

4. (U) ACCORDING TO THE LATEST PROVISIONAL RESULTS (AS OF

JUNE 1, PUBLISHED IN INDONESIAN DAILY KOMPAS AND OTHER MAJOR NEWSPAPERS ON JUNE 2), GOLKAR WON 74.27 PERCENT, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) 22.6 PERCENT, AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) JUST 3.07 PERCENT (SEE PARA. 11). THIS COMPARES TO 68.1 PERCENT, 17 PERCENT, AND 14.9 PERCENT IN 1992 FOR THE PARTIES, RESPECTIVELY. GOLKAR'S MARGIN OF VICTORY IS WELL OVER THE TARGET OF 70.02 PERCENT THAT IT HAD SET FOR THIS ELECTION. ACCORDING TO AN ESTIMATE IN KOMPAS, GOLKAR WILL LIKELY

HAVE 325 SEATS IN PARLIAMENT (UP FROM 282), PPP 90 SEATS (UP FROM 62), AND PDI 10 SEATS (DOWN FROM 56).

5. (U) IT WAS ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY THAT THE ELECTION WOULD BE REPEATED IN SAMPANG AND PAMEKASAN, WHICH ARE AREAS LOCATED IN MADURA, EAST JAVA, WHERE UNREST, DUE TO SUSPICION OF VOTE FRAUD, HAD OCCURRED ON ELECTION DAY (REFTEL B). OFFICIALS CLAIMED THAT THIS WAS BEING PERMITTED BECAUSE BALLOT BOXES IN THOSE AREAS HAD BEEN BURNED OR BECAUSE UNREST HAD PREVENTED CITIZENS FROM CASTING THEIR VOTES. PPP OFFICIALS ALSO CALLED FOR A RE-VOTE IN THREE DISTRICTS IN SOUTH SULAWESI (GOWA, SIDRAP, POLMAS), THE DISTRICT OF JEMBER IN EAST JAVA, AND DISTRICTS IN WEST SUMATRA, WHERE IT BELIEVED THAT WIDE-SPREAD VOTE-FRAUD HAD OCCURRED.

6. (U) PRESIDENT SUHARTO WAS QUOTED IN KOMPAS ON MAY 31 AS SAYING PUBLICLY THAT: "THERE WERE INDEED EFFORTS TO MAKE ALL THIS FAIL, BY A SMALL GROUP WHICH CHAMPIONED DEMOCRACY, BUT TURNED OUT IN FACT TO SHOW BEHAVIOR THAT WAS NOT DEMOCRATIC. BECAUSE IT WAS A SMALL GROUP, IT THEN WANTED TO FORCE ITS WISHES ON THE MAJORITY. TRULY IN THE FINAL INSTANCE IT IS THE PEOPLE WHO CAN EVALUATE WHAT IS RIGHT AND WHAT IS NOT. THEY HOPED THAT THE GENERAL ELECTIONS WOULD NOT RUN, FAIL OR AT LEAST BE TAINTED, THAT IS WHY THEY DISTURBED IT AND THE LIKE. BUT, THANKS BE, EVERYTHING WENT WELL. EXCEPT IN SOME PLACES WHICH THEY DID ON PURPOSE."

7. (C) A MEGAWATI ADVISER HAS INFORMED EMBOFFS THAT SHE WILL LIKELY MAKE A CAUTIOUSLY WORDED STATEMENT ON THE ELECTION BEFORE JUNE 10. THE ADVISER SAID THAT THE LOW VOTE FOR THE PDI WAS POSITIVE FOR MEGAWATI AS IT DEMONSTRATED THE EXTENT OF UNPOPULARITY OF THE GOVERNMENT INSTALLED PDI CHAIRMAN SURYADI.

8. (U) THE PPP ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY AT A PRESS CONFERENCE ON MAY 30 THAT, BASED ON REPORTS FROM ITS BRANCHES THROUGHOUT INDONESIA, IT HAD CONCLUDED THAT WIDESPREAD ELECTION VIOLATIONS HAD OCCURRED. IT WILL HOLD A LEADERS MEETING

ON JUNE 5 TO DECIDE WHAT FURTHER STEPS TO TAKE, INCLUDING THE POSSIBILITY OF REJECTING THE RESULTS OF THE ELECTION. SUPPORTING CLAIMS OF VOTE FRAUD, AN ASIAN GROUP OF MONITORS, THE "ASIAN FORUM FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEVELOPMENT," IN A STATEMENT MAY 31, SPOKE OF "GLARING IRREGULARITIES IN THE ELECTORAL PROCESS" AND THE ABSENCE OF TRANSPARENCY IN THE CANVASSING AND THE FINAL COUNTING OF VOTES." (NOTE: THE MONITORS WERE FROM THE PHILIPPINES, THAILAND AND CAMBODIA. SRI LANKAN MEMBERS WERE DENIED VISAS. END NOTE)

THE FOLLOWING INR ASSESSMENT WAS PRODUCED BY THE OFFICE OF EAST ASIA AND PACIFIC ANALYSIS AND IS PROVIDED FOR YOUR INFORMATION AND COMMENT.

1. CLASSIFIED BY PAULA CAUSEY, OFFICE DIRECTOR INR/EAP. REASON: 1.5 (D)

2. (C) GOVERNMENT EFFORTS AT UNDERMINING TWO OPPOSITION PARTIES RISK GIVING GREATER COHERENCE TO ANTI-REGIME SENTIMENT. INCREASING ACTIVITY BY STUDENTS, NGOS, AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS IN THE RUN-UP TO THE 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS MAY TEST THE PATIENCE OF THE SECURITY FORCES IN MAINTAINING ORDER.

3. (S/NF) NEXT SPRING ALMOST 120 MILLION INDONESIANS WILL GO TO THE POLLS TO ELECT MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT, WITH MORE

THAN 13 MILLION VOTING

FOR THE FIRST TIME. THE PARLIAMENTARY DEPUTIES PLUS SPECIAL APPOINTEES WILL MEET IN 1998 TO SELECT THE NEXT PRESIDENT, EXPECTED TO BE PRESIDENT SOEHARTO FOR A SEVENTH FIVE-YEAR TERM. SOEHARTO WANTS A LANDSLIDE VICTORY FOR GOLKAR, HIS GOVERNMENT PARTY, WITH NO LESS THAN 73OF THE VOTE. REPORTEDLY, IN 1987 GOLKAR WON BY

UNCLASSIFIED

A COMFORTABLE 73, THOUGH IT SLIPPED IN 1992 TO 68UNDER A RASH OF CRITICISM ABOUT THE AGING REGIME.

FOCUS ON THE PDI

4. (U) IN EARLY JUNE SEVERAL ARMY GENERALS CALLED IN LOCAL EDITORS TO DISCUSS THE PDI IN "MEDIA BRIEFINGS," A EUPHEMISM FOR INTIMIDATION SESSIONS. THE GENERALS REPORTEDLY WARNED THE PRESS ABOUT COVERAGE OF PDI CHAIRPERSON MEGAWATI SOEKARNOPUTRI, DAUGHTER OF THE LATE PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, AND URGED POSITIVE REPORTING OF A MOVE BY PDI "DISSIDENTS" TO UNSEAT HER. THE GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN PERMISSION FOR THE DISSIDENTS, WHO CLAIM THEY REPRESENT A MAJORITY OF PDI CHAPTERS, TO HOLD AN EXTRAORDINARY NATIONAL PARTY CONGRESS ON JUNE 20.

5. (C) IN A STATEMENT FOR THE FOREIGN PRESS RELEASED YESTERDAY, MEGAWATI SAID THE ARMED FORCES WERE ILLEGALLY INVOLVED IN THE OUSTER MOVE AND THAT THE PDI WOULD RECEIVE 80-85OF THE VOTE IN A FREE AND FAIR ELECTION. HER FOLLOWERS HAVE ANNOUNCED PLANS TO STAGE A LARGE RALLY IN JAKARTA IN HER SUPPORT IF THE CONGRESS IS HELD, BUT MEGAWATI CAREFULLY AVOIDED ENDORSING SUCH A RALLY IN HER STATEMENT.

SECRET

6. (S/NF) THROUGHOUT HIS LONG CAREER, SOEHARTO HAS EFFECTIVELY SIDELINED WOULD-BE RIVALS. HE SEES MEGAWATI, WITH HER NAME RECOGNITION AND APPEAL TO A SOCIETY INCREASINGLY QUESTIONING HIS EXTENDED TENURE, AS A SIGNIFICANT CHALLENGE AND BELIEVES HE CAN MANIPULATE PARTY STRUCTURES TO HIS ADVANTAGE, AS HE DID IN THE MID-1970S.

WAR OF THE WOMEN

7. (S/NF) SOEHARTO'S [redacted] DAUGHTER TUTUT IS ON THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF GOLKAR WITH OVERSIGHT FOR EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA. HAVING MADE HER EXTENSIVE FORTUNE [redacted] SHE IS SEEN AS EAGER TO ASSUME MORE POLITICAL POWER, ENGAGING ON ISSUES

B6

B6

8. (C) IN ADDITION TO CONCERNS ABOUT THE TWO OPPOSITION PARTIES, AUTHORITIES ARE NERVOUSLY WATCHING POTENTIAL WILD CARDS, INCLUDING DOZENS OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, HUNDREDS OF ISSUE-ORIENTED NGOS, AND A NEWLY FOUNDED INDEPENDENT ELECTION WATCHDOG COMMITTEE CALLED KIPP. THESE GROUPS ARE LARGELY ELITIST AND MOST ARE NOT AFFILIATED WITH A PARTICULAR PARTY, BUT THEY APPEAR TO BE OVERWHELMINGLY CRITICAL OF THE REGIME AND HOSTILE TO GOLKAR.

9. (C) THUS FAR THE GROUPS HAVE NOT FOUND A SINGLE ISSUE OR LEADER THAT CAN TURN GENERAL GRUMBLING ABOUT CORRUPTION OR FIRST-FAMILY EXCESS INTO A BROAD COALITION TO DENY SOEHARTO ANOTHER TERM. A CURRENT SPATE OF STUDENT ACTIVITY - IN SYMPATHY WITH STUDENTS KILLED DURING A RECENT ALTERCATION WITH SECURITY FORCES - HAS REVEALED A NETWORK OF STUDENT CONTACTS AND THE POTENTIAL VOLATILITY OF THIS LARGE POPULATION, BUT ALSO THE MILITARY'S SUCCESS IN KEEPING LARGE NUMBERS OFF THE STREETS.

10. (C) MEGAWATI MAY NOT BE THE CATALYST FOR A UNIFIED OPPOSITION, BUT SOME OF THE NEW GRASSROOTS ORGANIZATIONS AND STUDENTS MIGHT JOIN FORCES IN HER DEFENSE IF SHE IS PUSHED OFF-STAGE TOO BLATANTLY. THEY MIGHT EVEN FIND SOME SUPPORT FROM THE RUAAL MASSES, WHO NORMALLY VOTE DUTIFULLY FOR GOLKAR. RATHER THAN UNDERMINING THE OPPOSITION, THE AUTHORITIES MAY FIND THEY HAVE CREATED A MARTYR WHO HELPS ANTI-REGIME SENTIMENT TO COALESCE. A STREAM OF RALLIES AND DEMONSTRATIONS WOULD TEST THE PATIENCE OF THE SECURITY FORCES, RAISE THE RISK OF INJURIES OR ABUSE, AND CONTRIBUTE TO STRAINS WITHIN THE RULING ELITE, INCLUDING THE ARMED FORCES, OVER HOW TO MANAGE THE ELECTION PERIOD AND, ULTIMATELY, THE

SUCCESSION. (JBIRD) (SECRET/NOFORN)

THE FOLLOWING INR ASSESSMENT WAS PRODUCED BY THE OFFICE OF EAST ASIA AND PACIFIC ANALYSIS ON JULY 19. WE REGRET THE DELAY IN TRANSMITTING TO YOU BUT WELCOME YOUR COMMENT IN ANY CASE.

1. CLASSIFIED BY JUDY BIRD, DIVISION CHIEF INR/EAP/SEA. REASON: 1.5 (D)

2. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S POLITICAL MACHINE IS LOOKING INCREASINGLY OUTDATED AND ILL-EQUIPPED TO FACE GROWING DEMANDS FOR POLITICAL PARTICIPATION.

3. (C) JUST RETURNED FROM A HEALTH EXAMINATION IN GERMANY, WHERE HE WAS DECLARED MORE THAN FIT FOR HIS 75 YEARS, SOEHARTO IS POSITIONED TO RUN FOR A SEVENTH FIVE-

YEAR TERM IN 1998; THE ODDS ARE GOOD THAT HE WILL BE REELECTED BUT LONG THAT HE WILL REMAIN FIT UNTIL 2003.

CONFIDENTIAL

THOUGH HIS CHOICE OF A VICE-PRESIDENTIAL RUNNING MATE IS CRUCIAL, HE HAS BEEN TYPICALLY SPHINX-LIKE ON THE SUBJECT.

HERE TODAY, GONE TOMORROW

4. (C) IF SOEHARTO SHOULD DIE SUDDENLY, THE TRANSFER OF POWER TO VICE PRESIDENT TRY SUTRISNO WOULD PROBABLY BE

SMOOTH. A RETIRED GENERAL, SUTRISNO HAS PLAYED THE ROLE OF THE ULTIMATE LOYALIST SINCE THE ARMED FORCES (ABRI) FORCED SOEHARTO TO ACCEPT HIM AS RUNNING MATE IN 1993.

THE NEXT DANCE PARTNER

5. (C) SOEHARTO TRADITIONALLY HAS CHANGED DEPUTIES WITH EACH ELECTION; HIS CHOICES HAVE BEEN PREDOMINANTLY MILITARY FIGURES, THOUGH HE REWARDED CIVILIAN PARTNERS IN THE EARLY DAYS OF HIS NEW ORDER REGIME. INDONESIAN CULTURAL ATTITUDES PRECLUDE ACTIVE CAMPAIGNING FOR THE POST BY ANY FIGURE, MILITARY OR CIVILIAN.

6. (C) SOEHARTO'S RELATIONS WITH ABRI HAVE BEEN STRAINED

IN RECENT YEARS, BUT HE REMAINS IN A STRONG POSITION AND NOW BALANCES WOULD-BE RIVALS IN A JUGGLING ACT OF RAPID SHIFTS IN ASSIGNMENT. [redacted] B1

[redacted] OTHER IMPORTANT ABRI FIGURES ARE DISSATISFIED WITH SOEHARTO, THOUGH NOT OPENLY HOSTILE.

7. (C) IN THE CIVILIAN CAMP, SOEHARTO MAY FAVOR HIS PROTEGE AND ADVISER, TECHNOLOGY CZAR HABIBIE, BUT THE [redacted] BOTH PLANNING MINISTER GINANDJAR AND INFORMATION MINISTER HARMOKO FREQUENTLY ARE MENTIONED, BUT [redacted] B1 B1

8. (C) THIS HAS NOT BEEN A GOOD YEAR FOR SOEHARTO: HIS WIFE DIED SUDDENLY THIS SPRING; HIS OWN HEALTH CONCERNS LED TO THE MEDICAL CHECKUP IN GERMANY; AND HIS DECISION TO FAVOR ONE OF HIS SONS WITH A NATIONAL AUTOMOBILE DEAL LED TO A FIRESTORM OF FAMILY, NATIONAL, AND INTERNATIONAL REACTION.

CONFIDENTIAL

9. (C) INCREASING LABOR UNREST AND STUDENT PROTESTS, AND A SPATE OF SMALL-SCALE ANTI-CHINESE DISTURBANCES AND CHURCH FIRES, SHOW THE PRECARIOUSNESS OF STABILITY IN INDONESIA. ETHNIC AND RELIGIOUS OUTBURSTS ARE MORE LIKELY AS THE ELECTION PERIOD APPROACHES. THE ARMY TENDS TO REACT REPRESSIVELY TO SUCH CHALLENGES - EAST TIMOR REMAINS A SORE, AND IRIAN JAYA HAS BECOME ONE.

10. (C) SOEHARTO'S RECENT POLITICAL GAMESMANSHIP IS ALSO TROUBLESOME. IN SEEKING TO ENSURE THAT HIS RULING PARTY WINS AN OVERWHELMING MAJORITY IN THE 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS, SOEHARTO RECENTLY ORDERED THAT FORMER PRESIDENT SUKARNO'S DAUGHTER MEGAWATI BE PURGED AS CHAIRMAN OF ONE OF TWO 'OPPOSITION" PARTIES. 10. (C) MEGAWATI MAY NOT BE THE CATALYST FOR A UNIFIED OPPOSITION, BUT SOME OF THE NEW GRASSROOTS ORGANIZATIONS AND STUDENTS MIGHT JOIN FORCES IN HER DEFENSE IF SHE IS PUSHED OFF-STAGE TOO BLATANTLY. THEY MIGHT EVEN FIND SOME SUPPORT FROM THE RUAAL MASSES, WHO NORMALLY VOTE DUTIFULLY FOR GOLKAR. RATHER THAN UNDERMINING THE OPPOSITION, THE AUTHORITIES MAY FIND THEY HAVE CREATED A MARTYR WHO HELPS ANTI-REGIME SENTIMENT TO COALESCE. A STREAM OF RALLIES AND DEMONSTRATIONS WOULD TEST THE PATIENCE OF THE SECURITY FORCES, RAISE THE RISK OF INJURIES OR ABUSE, AND CONTRIBUTE TO STRAINS WITHIN THE RULING ELITE, INCLUDING THE ARMED FORCES, OVER HOW TO MANAGE THE ELECTION PERIOD AND, ULTIMATELY, THE

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE VOTE COUNTS ARE COMPLETE IN MOST OF INDONESIA, AND GOLKAR CONTINUES TO HOLD A MASSIVE LEAD (74.27 PERCENT), LEAVING THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY VIRTUALLY A NON-ENTITY (3.07 PERCENT). THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (22.6 PERCENT) HAS CALLED FOR A REPEAT OF THE VOTE IN SEVERAL AREAS OF THE COUNTRY DUE TO ALLEGED ELECTORAL FRAUD, AND SO FAR THE GOVERNMENT HAS AGREED TO DO SO IN PARTS OF MADURA, EAST JAVA. AN ASIAN ELECTION MONITORING GROUP HAS JOINED THE INDONESIAN INDEPENDENT MONITORING GROUP IN SUPPORT OF ALLEGATIONS OF VOTE FRAUD. PRESIDENT SUHARTO CLAIMED PUBLICLY ON MAY 30 THAT A SMALL GROUP WHICH "CHAMPIONED DEMOCRACY" HAD TRIED TO MAKE THE ELECTION FAIL. WE ARE TOLD THAT MEGAWATI WILL MAKE A CAUTIOUSLY WORDED STATEMENT ABOUT THE ELECTION IN THE NEAR FUTURE. EMBASSY'S ANALYSIS OF THE ELECTION WILL FOLLOW SEPTEL. END SUMMARY

3. (U) THE INDONESIAN ELECTION INSTITUTE (LPU) HAS INFORMED THE EMBASSY THAT THE VOTE COUNT IS COMPLETE IN 24 OF INDONESIA'S 27 PROVINCES. JAKARTA, IRIAN JAYA, AND EAST JAVA ARE STILL IN PROCESS. OVERALL RESULTS WILL NOT BE FINALIZED UNTIL THE MIDDLE OF JUNE.

4. (U) ACCORDING TO THE LATEST PROVISIONAL RESULTS (AS OF

JUNE 1, PUBLISHED IN INDONESIAN DAILY KOMPAS AND OTHER MAJOR NEWSPAPERS ON JUNE 2), GOLKAR WON 74.27 PERCENT, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) 22.6 PERCENT, AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) JUST 3.07 PERCENT (SEE PARA. 11). THIS COMPARES TO 68.1 PERCENT, 17 PERCENT, AND 14.9 PERCENT IN 1992 FOR THE PARTIES, RESPECTIVELY. GOLKAR'S MARGIN OF VICTORY IS WELL OVER THE TARGET OF 70.02 PERCENT THAT IT HAD SET FOR THIS ELECTION. ACCORDING TO AN ESTIMATE IN KOMPAS, GOLKAR WILL LIKELY

HAVE 325 SEATS IN PARLIAMENT (UP FROM 282), PPP 90 SEATS (UP FROM 62), AND PDI 10 SEATS (DOWN FROM 56).

5. (U) IT WAS ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY THAT THE ELECTION WOULD BE REPEATED IN SAMPANG AND PAMEKASAN, WHICH ARE AREAS LOCATED IN MADURA, EAST JAVA, WHERE UNREST, DUE TO SUSPICION OF VOTE FRAUD, HAD OCCURRED ON ELECTION DAY (REFTEL B). OFFICIALS CLAIMED THAT THIS WAS BEING PERMITTED BECAUSE BALLOT BOXES IN THOSE AREAS HAD BEEN BURNED OR BECAUSE UNREST HAD PREVENTED CITIZENS FROM CASTING THEIR VOTES. PPP OFFICIALS ALSO CALLED FOR A RE-VOTE IN THREE DISTRICTS IN SOUTH SULAWESI (GOWA, SIDRAP, POLMAS), THE DISTRICT OF JEMBER IN EAST JAVA, AND DISTRICTS IN WEST SUMATRA, WHERE IT BELIEVED THAT WIDE-SPREAD VOTE-FRAUD HAD OCCURRED.

6. (U) PRESIDENT SUHARTO WAS QUOTED IN KOMPAS ON MAY 31 AS SAYING PUBLICLY THAT: "THERE WERE INDEED EFFORTS TO MAKE ALL THIS FAIL, BY A SMALL GROUP WHICH CHAMPIONED DEMOCRACY, BUT TURNED OUT IN FACT TO SHOW BEHAVIOR THAT WAS NOT DEMOCRATIC. BECAUSE IT WAS A SMALL GROUP, IT THEN WANTED TO FORCE ITS WISHES ON THE MAJORITY. TRULY IN THE FINAL INSTANCE IT IS THE PEOPLE WHO CAN EVALUATE WHAT IS RIGHT AND WHAT IS NOT. THEY HOPED THAT THE GENERAL ELECTIONS WOULD NOT RUN, FAIL OR AT LEAST BE TAINTED, THAT IS WHY THEY DISTURBED IT AND THE LIKE. BUT, THANKS BE, EVERYTHING WENT WELL. EXCEPT IN SOME PLACES WHICH THEY DID ON PURPOSE."

7. (C) A MEGAWATI ADVISER HAS INFORMED EMBOFFS THAT SHE WILL LIKELY MAKE A CAUTIOUSLY WORDED STATEMENT ON THE ELECTION BEFORE JUNE 10. THE ADVISER SAID THAT THE LOW VOTE FOR THE PDI WAS POSITIVE FOR MEGAWATI AS IT DEMONSTRATED THE EXTENT OF UNPOPULARITY OF THE GOVERNMENT INSTALLED PDI CHAIRMAN SURYADI.

8. (U) THE PPP ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY AT A PRESS CONFERENCE ON MAY 30 THAT, BASED ON REPORTS FROM ITS BRANCHES THROUGHOUT INDONESIA, IT HAD CONCLUDED THAT WIDESPREAD ELECTION VIOLATIONS HAD OCCURRED. IT WILL HOLD A LEADERS MEETING

ON JUNE 5 TO DECIDE WHAT FURTHER STEPS TO TAKE, INCLUDING THE POSSIBILITY OF REJECTING THE RESULTS OF THE ELECTION. SUPPORTING CLAIMS OF VOTE FRAUD, AN ASIAN GROUP OF MONITORS, THE "ASIAN FORUM FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEVELOPMENT," IN A STATEMENT MAY 31, SPOKE OF "GLARING IRREGULARITIES IN THE ELECTORAL PROCESS" AND THE ABSENCE OF TRANSPARENCY IN THE CANVASSING AND THE FINAL COUNTING OF VOTES." (NOTE: THE MONITORS WERE FROM THE PHILIPPINES, THAILAND AND CAMBODIA. SRI LANKAN MEMBERS WERE DENIED VISAS. END NOTE)

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 08 SEP 2006 200503235

2. (SBU) SUMMARY: IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) AND THE GOVERNMENT PARTY, GOLKAR, BOTH GOT A SUBSTANTIAL BOOST IN THIS YEAR'S ELECTION BY THE COLLAPSE OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY WHICH FELL TO 3.2 PER CENT OF THE EAST JAVA VOTE AND 2.6 PER CENT IN CENTRAL JAVA. THE PPP WON THE CENTRAL JAVA CITY OF PEKALONGAN AND THE EAST JAVA DISTRICT OF PASURUAN AGAIN. IT WON TWO OF THE THREE ELECTIONS IN THE CITY OF PASURUAN. IN EAST JAVA, THE NUMBER OF VOIDED BALLOTS SOMETIMES SIGNIFICANTLY OUT DISTANCED THE PDI TALLY. WHILE MOST OF EAST JAVA WAS CALM ON ELECTION DAY, SIGNIFICANT VIOLENCE BROKE OUT IN SAMPANG ON THE ISLAND OF MADURA. PPP OFFICIALS BELIEVE THAT MAJOR FRAUD OCCURRED THROUGHOUT MADURA. THE SITUATION THERE REPORTEDLY IS TENSE. OUTSIDE JAVA, PROVINCES IN THE SURABAYA CONSULAR DISTRICT SEEM TO HAVE GONE GOLKAR OVERWHELMINGLY. END SUMMARY

3. (U) FOLLOWING ARE OUR FIRST STATISTICS FROM THE MAY 29 ELECTION IN INDONESIAN PROVINCES OF THE SURABAYA CONSULAR DISTRICT. ALL STATISTICS USED ARE STILL PRELIMINARY, ALTHOUGH FOR EAST JAVA WE ARE VERY CLOSE TO FINAL FIGURES. IN ALL CASES, EXCEPT WHERE NOTED, WE HAVE USED FIGURES FOR THE NATIONAL LEVEL RACE, STATISTICS FOR THE PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL ELECTIONS VARY INSIGNIFICANTLY FROM THE NATIONAL ONE.

4. (U) EAST JAVA: WITH MOST OF EAST JAVA COUNTED, ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL BUT NOT YET FINAL STATISTICS, THE PPP HAS WON 33.6 PER CENT OF THE VOTE (COMPARED WITH 25.3 PER CENT IN 1992), GOLKAR SAW ITS VICTORY RISE FROM 58.7 PER CENT IN 1992 TO 63.1 PER CENT, AND THE PDI FELL FROM 15.9 PER CENT TO 3.2 PER CENT. THE PPP APPARENTLY WON THE PASURUAN DISTRICT BY A CONVINCING MARGIN (IT WON PASURUAN IN 1992). IN THE PASURUAN CITY DISTRICT, THE PPP HAS BEEN

EDGED OUT BY GOLKAR FOR THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY, BUT SQUEAKED BY THE GOVERNMENT PARTY AT THE PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL ELECTIONS.

5. (SBU) THE GOLPUT VOTE IN EAST JAVA. GIVEN THE FLAWED NATURE OF STATISTICS IN SOME EAST JAVA DISTRICTS, WE CANNOT YET GIVE AN ACCURATE ESTIMATE ON THE NUMBER OF VOTERS WHO EITHER CHOSE TO STAY AWAY OR VOID THE BALLOT (GOLPUT). HOWEVER, IT SEEMS THAT THE PERCENTAGES SWUNG WIDELY FROM DISTRICT TO DISTRICT. IN SURABAYA CITY, 19 PER CENT DID NOT VOTE OR VOIDED THEIR BALLOTS. LIKEWISE, 18 PER CENT IN MALANG, A UNIVERSITY TOWN, DID THE SAME. IN MORE

RURAL SETTINGS, SUCH AS TUBAN, 13 PER CENT COULD BE GROUPED AS GOLPUT, AND IN SITUBONDO, ONE OF THE MOST RURAL COASTAL DISTRICTS, ONLY 9 PER CENT. THE VAST MAJORITY OF GOLPUT SIMPLY STAYED AWAY FROM THE POLLS. WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO SEE SOME OFFICIAL, BUT NOT FINAL STATISTICS ON ACTUAL VOIDED BALLOTS, AND IN A FEW CASES THE VOIDS OUT-POLLED THE PDI (IN PROBOLINGGO CITY BY MORE THAN TWO TO ONE, IN PASURUAN CITY FIVE TO ONE).

6. (U) MADURA, DISTURBANCES, AND POSSIBLE FRAUD: ALTHOUGH THE ELECTION WAS GENERALLY CALM THROUGHOUT EAST JAVA, DISTURBANCES ERUPTED IN THE FOUR DISTRICTS ON MADURA ISLAND, AMID CHARGES OF MAJOR ELECTION FRAUD. (THERE WAS ALSO MINOR VIOLENCE ELSEWHERE IN EAST JAVA.) IN SAMPANG, CROWDS DAMAGED SEVERAL GOVERNMENT AND POLICE BUILDINGS IN ONE SUBDISTRICT AND ASSAULTED SAMPANG CITY. AFTER DESTROYING GOVERNMENT BUILDINGS AND ATTACKING THE POLICE STATION AND THE RESIDENCE OF THE BUPATI (DISTRICT HEAD), THEY WERE REPORTEDLY BEATEN BACK BY THE MILITARY. WE UNDERSTAND FOUR WERE WOUNDED BY RUBBER BULLETS. THE SITUATION IS TENSE.

7. (C) THE SAMPANG VIOLENCE WAS APPARENTLY A REACTION TO ELECTION OFFICIALS NOT ALLOWING PPP WITNESSES TO ENTER SEVERAL POLLING

PLACES AND NOT PROVIDING THEM WITH VOTING SUMMARIES. ONE OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT SOURCE INDICATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS STAGING A RE-VOTE IN HALF OF SAMPANG'S SUBDISTRICTS. WE HAVE ALSO HEARD THAT AUTHORITIES ARE HUNTING A WELL-KNOWN RELIGIOUS LEADER, ALAWI MUHAMMAD, SUSPECTED OF INCITING THE RIOTING. PPP OFFICIALS TELL US THAT FRAUD WAS COMMITTED IN THE OTHER THREE MADURA DISTRICTS AS WELL. AS AN EXAMPLE, ONE PPP CONTACT TOLD US THAT UPWARDS OF 1000 BALLOT BOXES IN SUMENEP (OUT OF 1600) HAD BEEN REPLACED. OFFICIAL RECORDS INITIALLY INDICATED ALL FOUR MADURA DISTRICTS WENT GOLKAR, WITH SUMENEP AT MORE THAN 90 PER CENT. PPP CONTACTS ALLUDED TO INSTANCES OF FRAUD AT OTHER DISTRICTS IN EAST JAVA, BUT NOT ON THE MADURA SCALE.

8. (U) CENTRAL JAVA. FIGURES FOR CENTRAL JAVA, WITH LESS THAN 50 PER CENT OF THE VOTES TALLIED, HAVE THE PPP TAKING 27.3 PER CENT (IN 1992, IT WAS 22.9 PER CENT), GOLKAR 70.1 PER CENT (THE 1992 FIGURE WAS 55.4 PER CENT), AND THE PDI 2.6 PER CENT (DOWN FROM 20.2 PER CENT IN 1992). THE PPP APPARENTLY HAS HELD ON TO THE CITY OF PEKALONGAN, THE ONE VOTING DISTRICT IT WON IN 1992 AND SCENE OF

MAJOR CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE THIS YEAR. IN SOLO, ONE OF THE BETTER PDI SHOWINGS IN 1992, THE PPP VOTE WENT FROM 15.2 PER CENT IN 1992 TO 39.2 PER CENT, GOLKAR INCREASED FROM 49 PER CENT TO 57.6 PER CENT, AND THE PDI DROPPED FROM 35.2 PER CENT TO 3.2 PER CENT. WE ARE UNAWARE OF MAJOR DISTURBANCES IN CENTRAL JAVA, OR ELSEWHERE IN THE DISTRICT.

9. (U) YOGYAKARTA. PRELIMINARY YOGYAKARTA RESULTS GIVE THE PPP 29.8 PER CENT, GOLKAR 66.9 PER CENT AND THE PDI 3.3 PER CENT FOR THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENT. WE HAVE NO FIGURES FOR THE DISTRICT/LOCAL RACE.

10. (U) BALI AND THE REST: BALI, WITH ABOUT HALF THE VOTES TABULATED, GIVES GOLKAR A 94.8 PER CENT WIN. WHILE STATISTICS FOR OTHER PROVINCES IN THE DISTRICT (EAST AND WEST NUSATENGGARA, MALUKU, AND THE FOUR PROVINCES OF SULAWESI) ARE STILL FRAGMENTARY, GOLKAR PREDICTABLY IS WINNING BY VERY LARGE MARGINS.

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLCOUNS ED MCWILLIAMS 1.5(D)

2. (C) ASMARA NABABAN, MEMBER OF THE INDONESIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (KOMNASHAM), TOLD EMBOFF MAY 23 THAT THE COMMISSION WILL MEET MAY 27 TO CONSIDER FORMAL APPEALS FROM TWO GROUPS WHICH CALLED FOR A POSTPONEMENT OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS NOW SCHEDULED FOR

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 08 SEP 2006 200503235

MAY 29. THE TWO GROUPS INCLUDED A DELEGATION OF SENIOR CADRE REPRESENTING THE MEGAWATI FACTION OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, AND THE NATIONALITY FORUM OF THE YOUTH OF INDONESIA. THE YOUTH FORUM ALSO CALLED FOR KOMNASHAM TO ESTABLISH AN ELECTION COMMISSION WHICH WOULD SUPERVISE THE CONDUCT OF A RE-SCHEDULED ELECTION.

3. (C) NABABAN SAID THAT HE CONSIDERED IT HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT KOMNASHAM WOULD CALL FOR A POSTPONEMENT BUT THAT THERE APPEARED TO BE A CONSENSUS FOR A STATEMENT WHICH WOULD NOTE VIOLATIONS OF LAW, ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS AND HUMAN RIGHTS RELATED TO THE ELECTION. HE SAID THAT THE COMMISSION HAD BEEN "SHAKEN" BY A REPORT BY COMMISSION CHAIRMAN MUNAWIR SOURCED TO MUNAWIR'S BROTHER THAT ON MAY 21 IN JEPARA, CENTRAL JAVA, THE MILITARY HAD DETAINED 26 MEMBERS OF THE LOCAL HEADQUARTERS OF THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) AND SEVERELY MISTREATED THEM. COMMISSION CHAIRMAN MUNAWIR SAID THAT ELECTRIC SHOCK HAD BEEN ADMINISTERED BUT THAT HE WOULD NOT GO INTO DETAIL AS THERE WERE LADIES PRESENT AT THE COMMISSION MEETING. NABABAN SPECULATED THAT THE ACTION WAS POSSIBLY AIMED AT INTIMIDATION BUT THAT IT WOULD LIKELY HAVE THE IMPACT OF A PROVOCATION.

4. (C) COMMENT: WE SHARE NABABAN'S EXPECTATION THAT THE COMMISSION WILL NOT CALL FOR POSTPONEMENT. ROY

ELECTION OFFICIALS HAVE SAID PDI SURABAYA WILL NO LONGER CAMPAIGN SINCE SECURITY IS INADEQUATE AND PDI EVENTS SEEM UNDER A THREAT OF CONTINUED DISRUPTION BY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, BUT THE PDI WILL STAY ON THE BALLOT. PDI-SURYADI FACTION MORALE IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA WAS NEVER STRONG AND HAS BEEN ERODING. IF SURABAYA PDI DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN FURTHER CAMPAIGNING, WE SUSPECT OTHER PDI CHAPTERS IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA WILL FOLLOW SUIT. PROVINCIAL AUTHORITIES WILL LIKELY PRESS THE PDI TO RECONSIDER SINCE THE PRESENCE OF THE TWO MINORITY PARTIES IS IMPORTANT FOR THE IMAGE OF A SUCCESSFUL ELECTION. END SUMMARY

3. (U) ON THE SECOND DAY OF THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN (APRIL 28), THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) WAS ALLOTTED EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA FOR CAMPAIGNING. (NOTE: UNDER GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN REGULATIONS, RIVAL PARTIES CAN NOT CAMPAIGN ON THE SAME DAY IN THE SAME AREA. END NOTE) IN SURABAYA SUPPORTERS OF GOVERNMENT-OUSTED PDI CHAIRPERSON MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI, THROUGH HECKLING AND STONE THROWING, BROKE UP THE PDI-SURYADI FACTION EVENT QUICKLY AND DECISIVELY. ACCORDING TO PRESS AND WITNESS ACCOUNTS, DURING THE WARM UP TO THE RALLY IN THE CITY CENTER AS LOCAL SINGERS WERE PERFORMING JUST BEFORE THE PROGRAM, A MEGAWATI SUPPORTER TOOK OVER THE STAGE AND MICROPHONE, WARMING THE AUDIENCE TOWARD MEGAWATI, AND TURNING THE EVENT TEMPORARILY INTO A MEGAWATI RALLY. AFTER THE PDI'S OWN SECURITY TRIED TO BREAK UP THE SHOW, SEVERAL HUNDRED MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS PELTED THE STAGE WITH STONES AND CHASED AWAY THE PERFORMERS AND PDI-SURYADI FACTION OFFICIALS. (SOME PRESS ACCOUNTS NUMBER THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS AS HIGH AS 5000.) THE AREA WAS RANSACKED. MILITARY SECURITY RUSHED IN AFTER THE INCIDENT WAS OVER. THERE WERE MINOR INJURIES.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

4. (U) SHORTLY AFTERWARDS, SURABAYA'S PDI-SURYADI FACTION ELECTION COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN DECLARED THAT PDI SURABAYA WOULD NO LONGER BE CAMPAIGNING IN SURABAYA, SINCE SECURITY WAS INADEQUATE AND THE PDI WAS FACING PROSPECTS OF CONTINUOUS CLASHES WITH MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. HE NOTED THAT PDI SURABAYA WOULD STILL TAKE PART IN THE ELECTION, BUT CAMPAIGNING WAS OUT. HE WAS SUPPORTED BY THE VICE PDI CHAIRMAN FOR EAST JAVA. SURABAYA'S MILITARY COMMANDER UNSUCCESSFULLY TRIED TO CONVINCE HIM TO RESTART THE DAY'S EVENT AND STAY IN THE CAMPAIGN.

5. (U) NOWHERE ELSE IN CENTRAL AND EAST JAVA WERE THERE CLASHES AS VIOLENT AS IN SURABAYA, ALTHOUGH WE UNDERSTAND THE PDI SHOW IN NEARBY SIDOARJO WAS STRONGLY HECKLED, AND SECURITY WAS TIGHT AT OTHER PDI RALLIES. SEVERAL PDI-SURYADI EVENTS WERE REPORTEDLY CANCELED THROUGHOUT EAST JAVA (JEMBER, SAMPANG, SITUBONDO, AND BOJONEGORO) AND MANY IN YOGYAKARTA. OTHERS WERE ATTENDED BY CROWDS OF UP TO A FEW HUNDRED, USUALLY WITH HEAVY SECURITY. IN NGANDJUK, REPORTEDLY THE NUMBER OF SECURITY PERSONNEL WAS DOUBLE THE NUMBER OF ON-LOOKERS, WHO AMOUNTED TO 100.

6. (C) (COMMENT) MORALE WITHIN PRO-SURYADI PDI RANKS HAS NEVER BEEN HIGH IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA. MANY CHAPTERS ARE PLAGUED BY A LACK OF FINANCES AND INTERNAL REVOLT BY THOSE WHO MAINTAIN VARYING DEGREES OF LOYALTY TO MEGAWATI. PDI OFFICIALS' FUMBLING ATTEMPTS TO ORGANIZE HAVE BEEN AGGRAVATED BY THE PERSISTENT SPECTER OF VIOLENT DISRUPTION AND THE CHALLENGES IN THE COURTS DIRECTED AGAINST THEM BY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. THE EAST JAVA PDI WAS FURTHER DISHEARTENED EARLIER THIS MONTH WHEN ONE OF ITS VERY FEW PRO-SURYADI LEADERS WITH A STRONG PERSONAL FOLLOWING DIED ON HAJJ. IF SURABAYA PDI GETS OUT OF THE CAMPAIGN, OTHERS WILL LIKELY FOLLOW SUIT.

CONFIDENTIAL

7. (C) (FURTHER COMMENT) SINCE BOTH MINORITY PARTIES ARE AN ESSENTIAL COSMETIC FOR A SUCCESSFUL ELECTION CAMPAIGN AND THE GOVERNMENT WISHES TO SHOW THAT PRO-SURYADI PDI IS THE LEGITIMATE PDI REPRESENTATION, WE SUSPECT THAT PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY WILL PRESS STRONGLY FOR PDI SURABAYA TO RECONSIDER ITS DECISION. MOREOVER, PROVINCIAL MILITARY AUTHORITIES IN THE RUN-UP TO THE CAMPAIGN HAD MADE MUCH ABOUT THEIR INTENT TO KEEP ORDER AND DEAL HARSHLY WITH CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE. THIS INCIDENT AND THE PDI ACCUSATION OF A SECURITY LAPSE ARE UNDOUBTEDLY EMBARRASSING AND WILL DEEPEN THE MILITARY'S RESOLVE TO KEEP THE PDI IN THE CAMPAIGN AND REACT STRONGLY IF FURTHER VIOLENCE ERUPTS. WHETHER THE PDI STAYS IN OR GETS OUT, THE PARTY APPEARS WEAKER THAN EVER. MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS UNDOUBTEDLY WILL RECEIVE A MAJOR BOOST AND CONTINUE TO MAKE THEIR PRESENCE LOUDLY OBVIOUS.

CONVOYED, RALLIED OR SIMPLY STOOD ALONG THE STREETS OF THE CAPITAL MAY 11 WATCHING A RAUCOUS BUT GOOD NATURED SEA OF SUPPORTERS FOR THE MINORITY UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) STRUT ITS STUFF. GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS INTENDED TO LIMIT OR PREVENT CONVOYS AND RALLIES WERE SWEPT ASIDE BY THE LARGE EXUBERANT CROWDS. PPP'S NUMBERS IN THE STREETS MAY HAVE BEEN TWICE THE SIZE OF THOSE ATTRACTED ONLY THREE DAYS EARLIER, A MUSLIM HOLIDAY, WHEN PPP CROWDS IMMOBILIZED SOUTH JAKARTA. VIRTUALLY THE ENTIRE CAPITAL APPEARED IN GRIDLOCK MAY 11. THERE WAS SOME EVIDENCE OF MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS JOINING THE PPP BANDWAGON, DESPITE MISGIVINGS BY SENIOR MEGAWATI ADVISORS WHO SEE RELIGIOUS SPLITS IN HER PARTY AS ONE POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCE DERIVING FROM SUCH ACTIVITY. IT IS YET TO BE SEEN WHETHER PPP'S SURGING STRENGTH IN THE STREETS LEADS TO A LARGER HARVEST OF VOTES. DOUBTS ABOUT THE FAIRNESS OF GOVERNMENT VOTE COUNTING ARE COMMONPLACE. END SUMMARY

JAKARTA AWASH IN PPP GREEN:

3. (U) JAKARTA, MAY 11, WAS TRANSFORMED INTO A SEA OF GREEN AS HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF GREEN CLAD SUPPORTERS OF THE LARGELY ISLAMIC UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY SWARMED INTO THE CAPITAL'S STREETS IN IMPROMPTU PARADES AND GATHERINGS. THE SIZE OF THE CROWDS AND THEIR PENCHANT FOR MASSING AT INTERSECTIONS AND FORMING UP MOTORCADES ON ALL MAIN THOROUGHFARES CAUSED THE CITY OF 11 MILLION VIRTUALLY TO GRIND TO A HALT. THE NUMBERS IN SOUTH JAKARTA, ACCORDING TO ONE POLOFF, WERE APPROXIMATELY

DOUBLE THE SIZE OF PPP CROWDS WHICH TOOK TO THE STREET ON THE LAST SCHEDULED PPP CAMPAIGN DAY, MAY 8, AN ISLAMIC HOLIDAY. ONLY SELECTED AREAS WHERE POLICE AND MILITARY BARRED THE FESTIVE CROWDS REMAINED QUIET. ONE SUCH NEIGHBORHOOD WAS CENTRAL JAKARTA'S MENTENG WHERE THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY RESIDE. POLICE AND MILITARY UNITS WERE ABLE TO SCREEN OUT MOST PPP VEHICLES AS THEY SOUGHT TO ENTER MENTENG.

4. (U) MUCH OF THE REST OF THE CITY WAS FESTIVE GRIDLOCK. WHILE OFFICIAL SCHEDULED RALLIES ATTRACTED LARGE CROWDS IN NORTH AND SOUTH JAKARTA, THEY TENDED TO BE ONLY HUBS FOR MUCH MORE FRENETIC ACTIVITY OF MOSTLY TEENAGE YOUTHS WHO CLAMORED ABOARD ALL SORTS OF CONVEYANCES TO FORM CONVOYS WHICH SNAKED THROUGH THE CITY, OR MORE TYPICALLY BECAME TRAPPED BY OTHER PPP CELEBRANTS AT INTERSECTIONS. SOME YOUTHS THUMPED ON CARS TRYING TO WEAVE THEIR WAY THROUGH THE CROWDS DEMANDING THE INDEX FINGER PPP SALUTE FROM ALL PASSERSBY. ONE EXPATRIATE FAMILY WHICH OPENED ITS CAR DOORS SAW THE CAR BRIEFLY COMMANDEERED. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF SCUFFLES WITH SECURITY FORCES WHICH WERE OUT IN FORCE, MANY ARMED WITH SEMI-AUTOMATIC RIFLES.

5. (U) THE CROWDS WERE A CROSS BETWEEN MARDI GRAS AND A WELCOME GIVEN A TRIUMPHANT HOMECOMING SPORTS TEAM WITH VERY LITTLE POLITICAL FEEL. THE RALLIES TENDED TO BE MUSIC CONCERTS WITH FEW SPEECHES AND LITTLE PAMPHLETEERING. EVEN OFF THE MAIN STREETS IN THE DENSELY POPULATED BACK ALLIES GREEN BANNERS WERE IN ABUNDANCE AND PEOPLE OF ALL AGES APPEARED GENUINELY

CAUGHT UP IN THE ATMOSPHERE. YELLOW GOLKAR (GOVERNMENT PARTY) FLAGS WERE RELATIVELY RARE AND PDI RED FLAGS WERE NON-EXISTENT.

6. (U) SPOTTED AMONG THE CROWDS WERE SOME "FUSION" ENTHUSIASTS, SUPPORTERS OF THE GOVERNMENT-OUSTED CHAIRPERSON OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI WHO PLAN TO VOTE FOR PPP IN PROTEST OVER THE GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE IN THE PDI. WHILE A FEW "MEGA BINTANG" POSTERS WERE SPOTTED AT THE RALLIES IN NORTH JAKARTA, THE PHENOMENON APPEARED TO BE MORE COMMON IN SOUTH JAKARTA (BINTANG MEANS STAR, WHICH IS THE PPP SYMBOL). ONE EMBOFF WITNESSED AN HOURS LONG STREET RALLY IN WHICH THREE TO FIVE THOUSAND PPP SUPPORTERS DROVE AROUND AND AROUND. GREEN (PPP) AND RED (PDI) FLAGS AND PHOTOS OF MEGAWATI WERE PLENTIFUL, AND MANY WERE FLASHING THE MIXED HAND SIGNAL FOR BOTH THE PPP AND THE MEGAWATI BRANCH OF THE PDI. AT ONE INDONESIAN HIGH SCHOOL WITH WHICH EMBOFF WAS FAMILIAR, MANY OF THE YOUNG MEN, SOME OF WHOM HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN THE UNREST ON JULY 27, WERE CROSSING OVER TO SUPPORT PPP, AT LEAST TEMPORARILY.

CONFIDENTIAL

ABOUT THE "MEGA-BINTANG" MOVEMENT . HE NOTED THAT THERE ARE GENUINE AND DEEP POLICY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PPP AND PDI (HE NOTED PPP OPPOSITION TO FAMILY PLANNING AS ONE) AND, MOREOVER, THERE IS INCHOATE CONCERN THAT PPP COULD YET BE A VEHICLE WHICH ISLAMIST HARDLINERS MIGHT SEEK TO EXPLOIT. (NOTE: MOST OBSERVERS DO NOT SEE PPP AS FERTILE GROUND FOR ISLAMIST HARDLINERS. IN 1985 THE GOVERNMENT FORCED PPP AND ALL OTHER PARTIES AND SOCIO-POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS TO DECLARE THAT THEY WERE BASED ON THE STATE IDEOLOGY OF PANCASILA, I.E., NOT ISLAM. END NOTE)

8. (C) THE MEGAWATI LIEUTENANT ADDED THAT THE APPEAL OF "MEGA-BINTANG" IS STRONGEST AMONG MUSLIM PDI SUPPORTERS WHILE PDI'S SUBSTANTIAL CHRISTIAN CONSTITUENCY WOULD PREFER TO ABSTAIN FROM VOTING OR "GOLPUT." MEGAWATI AND HER ADVISORS REPORTEDLY FEAR POSSIBLE LONG TERM DAMAGE TO PDI UNITY IF THERE IS A DIVIDE BETWEEN SUPPORTERS WHO SUPPORT THE PPP AND THOSE WHO DO NOT.

8. (C) COMMENT: LOCAL OBSERVERS HAVE BEEN IMPRESSED WITH THE SIZE AND ENTHUSIASM OF PPP CROWDS IN JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE (SEE SEPTEL). MOREOVER, THE CROWDS APPEAR TO HAVE GROWN SIGNIFICANTLY OVER THE FIRST FIVE THREE-DAY ROUNDS OF CAMPAIGNING. WHETHER THIS SURGING PPP APPEAL TRANSLATES INTO SIGNIFICANTLY HIGHER VOTE NUMBERS FOR THE PPP REMAINS TO BE SEEN. NO ONE HERE

UNDERESTIMATES THE ABILITY OR WILLINGNESS OF THE GOVERNMENT TO MANIPULATE VOTE TOTALS ALTHOUGH SUCH ACTION THIS TIME AROUND, COULD LEAD TO SIGNIFICANT

PROTEST.

9. (C) COMMENT CONT: ONE OBSERVER (PDI), REFLECTING ON THE MEGA-BINTANG OR FUSION PHENOMENON, CONTENDED THAT BY MUTING PDI THROUGH OUSTER OF ITS POPULAR CHAIRPERSON, THE GOVERNMENT HAD TRANSFORMED THE ELECTION EFFECTIVELY INTO A TWO PARTY RACE (I.E., GOLKAR VS. PPP) WHICH, NOTWITHSTANDING A VERY UNEVEN PLAYING FIELD, HELD SOME NEW INTEREST. THE ELECTION, HE SUGGESTED, COULD TAKE ON THE APPEARANCE OF A REFERENDUM ON THE GOVERNMENT WITH THOSE VOTERS WHO ARE FED UP WITH CORRUPTION, SECURITY AUTHORITY ABUSE, ECONOMIC AND OTHER GAPS AND A FAILED JUSTICE SYSTEM SEIZING AN OPPORTUNITY TO REGISTER A SINGLE PROTEST VOTE. 2. (C) SUMMARY: MANY NEW, YOUNG UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) SUPPORTERS EVIDENT IN STREET RALLIES ARE "GOING WITH THE STREAM," ACCORDING TO A PPP CENTRAL BOARD MEMBER AND NATIONAL CAMPAIGNER. PPP WAS THEIR VEHICLE FOR BECOMING PART OF THE EXCITEMENT OF STREET RALLIES THIS YEAR IN JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE, JUST AS THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) WAS THE VEHICLE FOR MANY OF THEM IN THE 1992 ELECTION. AT A BASIC LEVEL, IT WAS A CHANNEL FOR THEM TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES. ALTHOUGH NOTING THE MARKEDLY INCREASED PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR PPP IN JAKARTA DURING THE CAMPAIGN, SHE DID NOT BELIEVE PPP WOULD BE PERMITTED TO WIN THE CAPITAL. IT WAS CLEAR AT A LARGE PPP RALLY ON MAY 14 THAT THE PPP CENTRAL LEADERSHIP HAD LITTLE CONTROL, IF ANY, OVER THE MASSES IN ATTENDANCE. THE EFFORTS TO PUBLICIZE AN ATTEMPTED FUSION BETWEEN THE PPP AND SUPPORTERS OF OUSTED INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI ("MEGA-BINTANG") WERE NOT AS EVIDENT ON MAY 14 AS ON THE PREVIOUS CAMPAIGN DAY. THIS FOLLOWED THE GOVERNMENT'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT MATERIALS CALLING FOR SUCH A FUSION WERE PROHIBITED. PPP HAS MADE SEVERAL PUBLIC ALLEGATIONS OF VOTER MANIPULATION AND FRAUD. END SUMMARY.

3. (SBU) UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) NATIONAL CAMPAIGNER LENA MARIANA MUKTI INVITED POLOFF TO ACCOMPANY HER TO A PPP PUBLIC RALLY ON MAY 14. SHE IS A MEMBER OF THE PPP NATIONAL BOARD, AND A CANDIDATE FOR PARLIAMENT FROM JAKARTA (ALTHOUGH TOO LOW RANKED ON PPP'S CANDIDATE LIST TO HAVE A REALISTIC CHANCE OF WINNING A SEAT).

LARGE PPP RALLY: WHOSE IN CHARGE?
---

4. (SBU) POLOFF AND PPP NATIONAL CAMPAIGNER LENA MARIANA MUKTI JOURNEYED TO TANJUNG PRIOK, A POOR, PREDOMINANTLY MUSLIM AREA IN THE FAR NORTH OF JAKARTA, ON MAY 14 TO OBSERVE A LARGE PPP RALLY. UPON ARRIVING AT NOON, THE SOCCER FIELD WAS VIRTUALLY EMPTY, EXCEPT FOR SOME POLICE

AND MILITARY. MUKTI WAS NOT SPEAKING AT THE CAMPAIGN EVENT HERSELF AS HER RESPONSIBILITY THAT DAY WAS TO MONITOR THE PPP RALLIES IN SEVERAL AREAS OF THE CITY FOR THE PPP CENTRAL BOARD.

5. (SBU) AS THE START TIME OF 1:00 PM DREW NEAR, WAVE AFTER WAVE OF MOSTLY YOUNG MEN ARRIVED IN THE PARKING LOT ON MOTORCYCLES AND OTHER VEHICLES, AND AFTER PARKING RAN ONTO THE FIELD. SEVERAL PPP CAMPAIGNERS ON THE STAGE BEGAN WARMING UP THE CROWD WITH MUSIC, BUT NOBODY FROM PPP APPEARED TO BE IN CHARGE IN THE PARKING LOT OR IN THE FIELD. MOREOVER, THE ARRIVING GROUPS OF MOTORCYCLES WERE NOT WELL-ORGANIZED AND WERE VIRTUALLY LEADERLESS. MUKTI EXPLAINED TO POLOFF THAT THE PEOPLE SIMPLY GATHERED TOGETHER IN THE "KAMPUNGS" (POOR NEIGHBORHOOD) SURROUNDING THE FIELD AND SET OFF FOR THE RALLY.

6. (SBU) MUKTI POINTED OUT THAT THE ATTENDEES WANTED TO JOIN THE STREET RALLIES AND WERE NOT INTERESTED IN THE SPEECHES. SHE ALSO DISAPPROVED OF THE OFFICIALS ON THE STAGE WHOSE PRIMARY FORM OF COMMUNICATING WITH THE CROWD

WAS TO YELL AND SHOUT THAT PPP WAS NUMBER ONE, THAT IT SHOULD BE SUPPORTED, ETC. SHE SAID THAT WHEN SHE SPOKE TO CAMPAIGN CROWDS SHE ALWAYS TRIED TO GIVE SOME SUBSTANCE. BUT IN GENERAL SHE WAS RESIGNED BECAUSE THE STREET RALLIES AND PARTY ATMOSPHERE WERE SO PERVASIVE.

7. (SBU) THE FEATURED SPEAKER, ALAWI MUHAMMAD, A "CHARISMATIC KIAI" (RELIGIOUS SCHOLAR) FROM MADURA ARRIVED AND THE EVENT KICKED INTO FULL GEAR. FIVE TO TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE WERE ON THE FIELD AND IN THE STANDS. HE SPOKE FOR ABOUT HALF AN HOUR AND HIS MAIN MESSAGE TO THE MASS OF PEOPLE WAS TO SUPPORT PPP AND TO CARRY OUT THE CAMPAIGN AND ELECTION SMOOTHLY. AS SOON AS IT WAS OVER, THE CROWD STREAMED OFF THE FIELD, ONTO MOTORCYCLES, SCOOTERS AND OTHER VEHICLES AND INTO THE NARROW STREETS OF TANJUNG PRIOK.

8. (SBU) POLOFF WATCHED THE EVENT FROM THE EDGE OF THE CROWD. THE VAST MAJORITY WERE TREATING THE EVENT LIKE A

PARTY RATHER THAN A POLITICAL SPEECH. HOWEVER, A FEW OF THE ATTENDEES WITH WHOM POLOFF SPOKE WERE INTENT ON TAKING A MORE SUBSTANTIVE APPROACH. ONE OLDER MAN, WITH HIS WIFE, SON, DAUGHTER-AND-LAW AND GRANDCHILDREN, TOLD POLOFF HOW GOLKAR WAS THE GOVERNMENT PARTY, THE PPP WAS THE ISLAMIC PARTY, AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI)

WAS THE "DEMOCRACY PARTY." HE AND HIS FRIEND EMPHASIZED THAT GOLKAR HAD BEEN IN POWER FOR MANY YEARS AND THAT THEY DID NOT BELIEVE THIS WAS RIGHT. THEY SEEMED ANNOYED BY

THE PACK OF YOUNG MEN HOVERING NEARBY WHO WERE MORE INTENT ON CAROUSING THAN ON LISTENING TO THE SPEECH.

9. (SBU) SEPARATELY, POLOFF SPOKE WITH A YOUNG MAN NOT WEARING THE PPP GREEN WHO SEEMED SOMEWHAT EMBARRASSED TO BE THERE. HE SAID HE WAS A STUDENT FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA (UI), AND THAT HE, ALONG WITH OVER FIFTY PERCENT OF THE STUDENTS AT UI, PLANNED TO BOYCOTT THE ELECTION. HE PROFESSED TO BE A SUPPORTER OF SRI BINTANG PAMUNGKAS, THE DISSIDENT RECENTLY ARRESTED FOR CALLING FOR AN ELECTION BOYCOTT, AND SAID THAT HE DID NOT PLAN TO STAY LONG AT THE RALLY.

"MEGA-BINTANG" MATERIALS BANNED BY THE GOVERNMENT

10. (U) THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED ON MAY 12 THAT CAMPAIGN MATERIALS SUCH AS BANNERS AND POSTERS THAT CALLED FOR A FUSION BETWEEN OUSTED PDI LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI AND THE PPP WOULD BE BANNED (NOTE: REFERRED TO AS "MEGA-BINTANG," BINTANG MEANS STAR IN INDONESIAN, THE PPP SYMBOL. END NOTE). MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS YOGIE REPORTEDLY SAID THAT "I DECLARE THAT PEOPLE ARE NOT TO USE THOSE BANNERS. WE NEVER RECOGNIZE ANY PARTY BUT THE THREE POLL CONTESTANTS." THE GOI ALSO BASED ITS MOVE ON REGULATIONS THAT REQUIRE ALL CAMPAIGN MATERIAL TO BE SCREENED BY THE POLICE.

11. (U) POLOFF DID NOT SEE MEGA-BINTANG SIGNS AT THE EVENT IN NORTH JAKARTA ON MAY 14. THIS COULD BE EXPLAINED IN PART BY THE GOVERNMENT BAN, BUT ALSO BY THE FACT THAT

TANJUNG-PRIOK IS A HEAVILY MUSLIM AREA AND NOT FERTILE

GROUND FOR OBTAINING SUPPORT FROM THE MORE NATIONALIST/ CHRISTIAN PDI. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, IN SOUTH JAKARTA MATERIALS CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION TO MOVE AGAINST "MEGA-BINTANG" WERE CIRCULATED ON MAY 14, AND LEAFLETS SUPPORTING THE FUSION APPEARED IN MANY AREAS OF JAVA ON THAT DAY.

WAVE OF SUPPORT FOR PPP: "GOING WITH THE STREAM"

12. (C) THE PPP CAMPAIGN OFFICIAL, MUKTI, WAS ENCOURAGED THAT THE PPP WAS ATTRACTING MORE SUPPORTERS AND INTEREST IN JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE IN THE COUNTRY. HOWEVER, POINTING TO THE MASSES ON THE SOCCER FIELD, SHE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THESE WERE NOT PPP'S TRADITIONAL SUPPORTERS, BUT RATHER YOUNG MEN "GOING WITH THE STREAM." SHE ASSESSED THAT IN THE LAST ELECTION IN 1992 MANY FROM THIS GROUP (NOTE: POOR YOUNG MEN. END NOTE) ENTERED THE STREETS FOR THE PDI. THIS TIME PPP WAS THE WAY FOR THEM TO BECOME PART OF THE EXCITEMENT OF STREET RALLIES AND AT A BASIC LEVEL TO "EXPRESS THEMSELVES." SHE HOPED THAT THEY WOULD REMAIN WITH PPP THROUGH MAY 29 WHEN THE ELECTION WOULD BE HELD, AND ACTUALLY CAST THEIR VOTES FOR THE PARTY.

13. (C) DESPITE PPP CHAIRMAN ISMAIL HASAN METAREUM'S PUBLIC STATEMENT ON MAY 5 THAT HIS PARTY WOULD PREVAIL IN THE CAPITAL AS IT HAD IN 1977, MUKTI DID NOT BELIEVE THAT "GOLKAR WOULD ALLOW PPP TO WIN THE ELECTION" IN JAKARTA. CURRENTLY, OF THE FOURTEEN PARLIAMENT SEATS FROM JAKARTA, GOLKAR HOLDS EIGHT, PPP THREE, AND PDI THREE. SHE THOUGHT

THAT PPP COULD CONCEIVABLY DOUBLE ITS TOTAL OF SEATS TO SIX, BUT NO MORE. EVEN IF IT APPEARED THAT PPP HAD IN REALITY WON THE VOTE IN JAKARTA BUT HAD BEEN CHEATED BY THE GOVERNMENT, SHE DOUBTED THAT THE PUBLIC REACTION WOULD BE STRONG. SHE NOTED WITH RESIGNATION THAT THE GOVERNMENT "WOULD HAVE SOME EXPLANATION" THAT THE PEOPLE WOULD HAVE TO ACCEPT.

PPP ALLEGES FRAUD AND VOTER MANIPULATION IN THE WORKS

14. (C) MUKTI SHOWED POLOFF A LETTER FROM THE PPP CENTRAL BOARD TO THE GOI ALLEGING THAT GOLKAR WAS PLANNING TO CARRY OUT "OPERATION DAWN" TO MANIPULATE VOTERS ON ELECTION DAY. THE PPP MADE THESE CHARGES PUBLIC ON MAY 13. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, PPP CLAIMED THAT IT HAD OBTAINED LETTERS FROM THE "COMMUNICATION FORUM FOR GOLKAR AFFILIATED ISLAMIC MASS ORGANIZATIONS" INSTRUCTING ITS BRANCH OFFICES TO GIVE FOOD AND MONEY TO PEOPLE EARLY IN THE MORNING ON MAY 29, WHEN THE VOTING WOULD BE HELD. ACCORDING TO PUBLIC STATEMENTS BY PPP'S SECRETARY GENERAL TOSARI WIJAYA, THIS "OPERATION" WOULD TARGET AREAS WHERE GOLKAR HAD LOST VOTES IN THE LAST ELECTION. ALL CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY IS SUPPOSEDLY BANNED AFTER MAY 23.

RESULTS INDICATING THAT GOLKAR WOULD WIN 86.29 PERCENT IN THE SUBDISTRICT, THE PPP 7 PERCENT, AND THE PDI 6.71 PERCENT. PPP'S GENERAL CHAIRMAN METAREUM ARGUED THAT THIS WAS EVIDENCE THAT THE RESULTS IN THE SUBDISTRICT WERE ALREADY DETERMINED. THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS RESPONDED THAT THE DOCUMENT CONTAINED THE "ESTIMATES" OF WHAT THE RESULTS WOULD BE.

ANECDOTAL EXAMPLES OF VOTER MANIPULATION

16. (C) THE EMBASSY PERIODICALLY RECEIVES CREDIBLE ACCOUNTS OF VOTER MANIPULATION OR FRAUD. ONE INVOLVES THE INDONESIAN FRIEND OF AN EMBOFF WHO WAS SELECTED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR (LURAH) IN HER SOUTH JAKARTA NEIGHBORHOOD TO BE THE LOCAL "GOLKAR ORGANIZER." EVEN THOUGH SHE WAS A SUPPORTER OF MEGAWATI, SHE FELT THAT IT WOULD BE A GOOD IDEA FOR HER TO ACCEPT THE POSITION OTHERWISE HER LIFE COULD BE MADE DIFFICULT. THE "LURAH" GAVE HER A TARGET NUMBER OF VOTES FOR GOLKAR IN HER AREA FOR HER TO OBTAIN, AND MONEY AND CAMPAIGN MATERIALS SUCH AS T-SHIRTS TO HAND OUT. IT WAS MADE CLEAR TO HER THAT AFTER THE ELECTION IT WOULD BE DETERMINED WHETHER THE NEIGHBORHOOD HAD ACHIEVED ITS TARGET, AND THAT IF NOT THE LURAH MIGHT LOSE HIS JOB.

17. (C) ANOTHER CREDIBLE ACCOUNT INVOLVES THE FRIEND OF A FOREIGN SERVICE NATIONAL WHO IS A CIVIL SERVANT WORKING FOR THE GOVERNMENT AIRPLANE COMPANY IPTN. THE FRIEND SAID THAT TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE ELECTION, ON MAY 19, HE AND HIS COLLEAGUES WOULD RECEIVE A FULL MONTH'S EXTRA PAYCHECK. THEY REFERRED TO THIS AS THEIR "GOLKAR SUBSIDY."

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

18. (C) A LOCAL CONTACT EXPLAINED THAT GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS JUST ABOVE VILLAGE LEVEL (CALLED SUB-SUB DISTRICT) IN THE JAKARTA AREA AND PRESUMABLY MORE WIDELY ARE ORGANIZING "EVENING MEETINGS" ON THE EVE OF GOLKAR CAMPAIGN DAYS AT WHICH PEOPLE ARE RECRUITED TO CAMPAIGN FOR GOLKAR THE FOLLOWING DAY. THEY ARE OFFERED MONEY, USUALLY ABOUT 10,000 RUPIAH (A PARALLEL REPORT INDICATED THAT WOMEN ARE OFFERED SUBSTANTIALLY MORE, UP TO 40,000 RUPIAH), PLUS GOLKAR T-SHIRTS OR LIGHT JACKETS AND FOOD. THE OTHER PARTIES ARE NOT PERMITTED TO MAINTAIN ORGANIZATIONS BELOW THE DISTRICT LEVEL AND MOREOVER DO NOT HAVE THE FINANCIAL RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO GOLKAR. SOURCE EXPLAINED THAT MOST PARTICIPANTS WERE YOUNG UNEMPLOYED MEN. ROY

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLCOUNS ED MCWILLIAMS 1.5(D)

2. (C) ASMARA NABABAN, MEMBER OF THE INDONESIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (KOMNASHAM), TOLD EMBOFF MAY 23 THAT THE COMMISSION WILL MEET MAY 27 TO CONSIDER FORMAL APPEALS FROM TWO GROUPS WHICH CALLED FOR A POSTPONEMENT OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS NOW SCHEDULED FOR

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN

MAY 29. THE TWO GROUPS INCLUDED A DELEGATION OF SENIOR CADRE REPRESENTING THE MEGAWATI FACTION OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY, AND THE NATIONALITY FORUM OF THE YOUTH OF INDONESIA. THE YOUTH FORUM ALSO CALLED FOR KOMNASHAM TO ESTABLISH AN ELECTION COMMISSION WHICH WOULD SUPERVISE THE CONDUCT OF A RE-SCHEDULED ELECTION.

3. (C) NABABAN SAID THAT HE CONSIDERED IT HIGHLY UNLIKELY THAT KOMNASHAM WOULD CALL FOR A POSTPONEMENT BUT THAT THERE APPEARED TO BE A CONSENSUS FOR A STATEMENT WHICH WOULD NOTE VIOLATIONS OF LAW, ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS AND HUMAN RIGHTS RELATED TO THE ELECTION. HE SAID THAT THE COMMISSION HAD BEEN "SHAKEN" BY A REPORT BY COMMISSION CHAIRMAN MUNAWIR SOURCED TO MUNAWIR'S BROTHER THAT ON MAY 21 IN JEPARA, CENTRAL JAVA, THE MILITARY HAD DETAINED 26 MEMBERS OF THE LOCAL HEADQUARTERS OF THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) AND SEVERELY MISTREATED THEM. COMMISSION CHAIRMAN MUNAWIR SAID THAT ELECTRIC SHOCK HAD BEEN ADMINISTERED BUT THAT HE WOULD NOT GO INTO DETAIL AS THERE WERE LADIES PRESENT AT THE COMMISSION MEETING. NABABAN SPECULATED THAT THE ACTION WAS POSSIBLY AIMED AT INTIMIDATION BUT THAT IT WOULD LIKELY HAVE THE IMPACT OF A PROVOCATION.

4. (C) COMMENT: WE SHARE NABABAN'S EXPECTATION THAT THE COMMISSION WILL NOT CALL FOR POSTPONEMENT. ROY

ELECTION OFFICIALS HAVE SAID PDI SURABAYA WILL NO LONGER CAMPAIGN SINCE SECURITY IS INADEQUATE AND PDI EVENTS SEEM UNDER A THREAT OF CONTINUED DISRUPTION BY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, BUT THE PDI WILL STAY ON THE BALLOT. PDI-SURYADI FACTION MORALE IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA WAS NEVER STRONG AND HAS BEEN ERODING. IF SURABAYA PDI DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN FURTHER CAMPAIGNING, WE SUSPECT OTHER PDI CHAPTERS IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA WILL FOLLOW SUIT. PROVINCIAL AUTHORITIES WILL LIKELY PRESS THE PDI TO RECONSIDER SINCE THE PRESENCE OF THE TWO MINORITY PARTIES IS IMPORTANT FOR THE IMAGE OF A SUCCESSFUL ELECTION. END SUMMARY

3. (U) ON THE SECOND DAY OF THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN (APRIL 28), THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) WAS ALLOTTED EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA FOR CAMPAIGNING. (NOTE: UNDER GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN REGULATIONS, RIVAL PARTIES CAN NOT CAMPAIGN ON THE SAME DAY IN THE SAME AREA. END NOTE) IN SURABAYA SUPPORTERS OF GOVERNMENT-OUSTED PDI CHAIRPERSON MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI, THROUGH HECKLING AND STONE THROWING, BROKE UP THE PDI-SURYADI FACTION EVENT QUICKLY AND DECISIVELY. ACCORDING TO PRESS AND WITNESS ACCOUNTS, DURING THE WARM UP TO THE RALLY IN THE CITY CENTER AS LOCAL SINGERS WERE PERFORMING JUST BEFORE THE PROGRAM, A MEGAWATI SUPPORTER TOOK OVER THE STAGE AND MICROPHONE, WARMING THE AUDIENCE TOWARD MEGAWATI, AND TURNING THE EVENT TEMPORARILY INTO A MEGAWATI RALLY. AFTER THE PDI'S OWN SECURITY TRIED TO BREAK UP THE SHOW, SEVERAL HUNDRED MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS PELTED THE STAGE WITH STONES AND CHASED AWAY THE PERFORMERS AND PDI-SURYADI FACTION OFFICIALS. (SOME PRESS ACCOUNTS NUMBER THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS AS HIGH AS 5000.) THE AREA WAS RANSACKED. MILITARY SECURITY RUSHED IN AFTER THE INCIDENT WAS OVER. THERE WERE MINOR INJURIES.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

4. (U) SHORTLY AFTERWARDS, SURABAYA'S PDI-SURYADI FACTION ELECTION COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN DECLARED THAT PDI SURABAYA WOULD NO LONGER BE CAMPAIGNING IN SURABAYA, SINCE SECURITY WAS INADEQUATE AND THE PDI WAS FACING PROSPECTS OF CONTINUOUS CLASHES WITH MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. HE NOTED THAT PDI SURABAYA WOULD STILL TAKE PART IN THE ELECTION, BUT CAMPAIGNING WAS OUT. HE WAS SUPPORTED BY THE VICE PDI CHAIRMAN FOR EAST JAVA. SURABAYA'S MILITARY COMMANDER UNSUCCESSFULLY TRIED TO CONVINCE HIM TO RESTART THE DAY'S EVENT AND STAY IN THE CAMPAIGN.

5. (U) NOWHERE ELSE IN CENTRAL AND EAST JAVA WERE THERE CLASHES AS VIOLENT AS IN SURABAYA, ALTHOUGH WE UNDERSTAND THE PDI SHOW IN NEARBY SIDOARJO WAS STRONGLY HECKLED, AND SECURITY WAS TIGHT AT OTHER PDI RALLIES. SEVERAL PDI-SURYADI EVENTS WERE REPORTEDLY CANCELED THROUGHOUT EAST JAVA (JEMBER, SAMPANG, SITUBONDO, AND BOJONEGORO) AND MANY IN YOGYAKARTA. OTHERS WERE ATTENDED BY CROWDS OF UP TO A FEW HUNDRED, USUALLY WITH HEAVY SECURITY. IN NGANDJUK, REPORTEDLY THE NUMBER OF SECURITY PERSONNEL WAS DOUBLE THE NUMBER OF ON-LOOKERS, WHO AMOUNTED TO 100.

6. (C) (COMMENT) MORALE WITHIN PRO-SURYADI PDI RANKS HAS NEVER BEEN HIGH IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA. MANY CHAPTERS ARE PLAGUED BY A LACK OF FINANCES AND INTERNAL REVOLT BY THOSE WHO MAINTAIN VARYING DEGREES OF LOYALTY TO MEGAWATI. PDI OFFICIALS' FUMBLING ATTEMPTS TO ORGANIZE HAVE BEEN AGGRAVATED BY THE PERSISTENT SPECTER OF VIOLENT DISRUPTION AND THE CHALLENGES IN THE COURTS DIRECTED AGAINST THEM BY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. THE EAST JAVA PDI WAS FURTHER DISHEARTENED EARLIER THIS MONTH WHEN ONE OF ITS VERY FEW PRO-SURYADI LEADERS WITH A STRONG PERSONAL FOLLOWING DIED ON HAJJ. IF SURABAYA PDI GETS OUT OF THE CAMPAIGN, OTHERS WILL LIKELY FOLLOW SUIT.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

7. (C) (FURTHER COMMENT) SINCE BOTH MINORITY PARTIES ARE AN ESSENTIAL COSMETIC FOR A SUCCESSFUL ELECTION CAMPAIGN AND THE GOVERNMENT WISHES TO SHOW THAT PRO-SURYADI PDI IS THE LEGITIMATE PDI REPRESENTATION, WE SUSPECT THAT PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY WILL PRESS STRONGLY FOR PDI SURABAYA TO RECONSIDER ITS DECISION. MOREOVER, PROVINCIAL MILITARY AUTHORITIES IN THE RUN-UP TO THE CAMPAIGN HAD MADE MUCH ABOUT THEIR INTENT TO KEEP ORDER AND DEAL HARSHLY WITH CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE. THIS INCIDENT AND THE PDI ACCUSATION OF A SECURITY LAPSE ARE UNDOUBTEDLY EMBARRASSING AND WILL DEEPEN THE MILITARY'S RESOLVE TO KEEP THE PDI IN THE CAMPAIGN AND REACT STRONGLY IF FURTHER VIOLENCE ERUPTS. WHETHER THE PDI STAYS IN OR GETS OUT, THE PARTY APPEARS WEAKER THAN EVER. MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS UNDOUBTEDLY WILL RECEIVE A MAJOR BOOST AND CONTINUE TO MAKE THEIR PRESENCE LOUDLY OBVIOUS.

A NUMBER OF THE ORGANIZATIONS LINKED TO THE PRD RECEIVE FOREIGN ASSISTANCE, INCLUDING US PRIVATE AND GOVERNMENTAL AID.

5. (C) THE GOVERNMENT'S TARRING OF THE PRD WITH THE COMMUNIST BRUSH EVOKES UNPLEASANT MEMORIES AMONG ELITES AND PEASANTRY ALIKE OF THE MASSIVE ANTI-COMMUNIST KILLINGS IN THE MID-1960S. ALTHOUGH THERE IS GROWING PRESSURE THROUGHOUT INDONESIA FOR MORE OPENNESS, THE PRD APPEARS TO HAVE A RELATIVELY SMALL FOLLOWING DOMESTICALLY. THE GROUP, WITH ITS "QUAINT MARXIST TRAPPINGS", AS ONE HUMAN RIGHTS OBSERVER NOTED, WAS NOT AN ORGANIZATION ABLE ON ITS OWN TO GALVANIZE OPPOSITION TO THE REGIME. MANY OF ITS 100-ODD MEMBERS HAVE GONE UNDERGROUND. ON AUGUST 7, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID THAT THE PRD "COMMITTED ACTIVITIES WITH THE CHARACTER OF TREASON", AND THE NEXT DAY A TRAVEL BAN WAS ANNOUNCED FOR FIVE MEMBERS.

6. (C) CRACKDOWN. IN ADDITION TO THE NATIONWIDE DRAGNET ON PRD, THE RGIME HAS STEPPED UP EFFORTS TO ELIMINATE "TROUBLEMAKERS" BEFORE NEXT YEAR' S PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, ESPECIALLY THOSE ASSOCIATED WITH NGOS OR

SUPPORTIVE OF THE MEGAWATT FACTION OF THE PDI. B1

7. (C) PDI SYMPATHIES. THE GOVERNMENT'S [redacted] B1
ORCHESTRATION OF THE PDI SPLIT AND USE OF FORCE TO OUST

CONFIDENTIAL

THE TRADITIONAL MEMBERS FROM THEIR HEADQUARTERS - THE PRECIPITATING EVENT FOR THE RIOT - HAVE BACKFIRED. DOMESTIC PRESS FLASHED PICTURES OF THE DISTURBANCES THROUGHOUT THE OUTER ISLANDS, AND THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS HAD A FIELD DAY LAMBASTING THE SOEHARTO REGIME. BY THE NEXT WEEK THE FOCUS HAD SHIFTED FROM THE STREET TO THE COURT, AS THE REGIME SOUGHT TO JUSTIFY ITS PREEMPTIVE ACTIONS. MEGAWATT WAS SUMMONED BEFORE JAKARTA POLICE HEADQUARTERS FOR A SIX-HOUR INTERROGATION ON AUGUST 9 AND HAS PROMISED TO RETURN AUGUST 15. AT THE SAME TIME, SHE HAS RESOLVED TO PLEAD HER CASE THROUGH LEGAL CHANNELS IN A SUIT AGAINST HER OUSTER FROM THE PDI, WITH THE FIRST SESSION RESCHEDULED TO AUGUST 22. HER CAUTIOUS AND NON CONFRONTATIONAL APPROACH HAS WIDENED SYMPATHY FOR HER, BUT IT HAS NOT YET REACHED THE STATUS OF A "PEOPLE POWER" MOVEMENT.

8. (C) THE REAL PROBLEM. EVEN IF THE GOVERNMENT SHOWS RESTRAINT, THE PDI ADOPTS LEGAL OR NON-CONFRONTATIONAL TACTICS, AND THE PRD REMAINS SUBTERRANEAN, INDONESIA WOULD NOT BE ANY CLOSER TO RESOLVING THE SUCCESSION ISSUE. MORE AND MORE INDIVIDUALS ARE PUBLICLY SAYING THAT IT IS TIME FOR A CHANGE, AND THE PRIVATE CRITICISM ABOUT SOEHARTO IS UNANIMOUS THAT HE STEP DOWN.

9. (C) SOEHARTO'S ACTIONS THUS FAR SUGGEST A DEFIANT,

TOUGH POSTURE IS LIKELY. IF SO, ADDITIONAL SECURITY MEASURES IMPOSED BEFORE EVERY ELECTION ARE LIKELY TO BE INTENSIFIED, INCLUDING BANS ON DEMONSTRATIONS. THE REGIME WILL USE THE PRD'S LEFTIST MANIFESTO TO JUSTIFY CLOSING DOWN "AFFILIATED" NGOS OR SEVERELY RESTRICTING

THEIR OPERATIONS. PRESSURE COULD BE EXERTED ON THE LEGAL AID FOUNDATION (LBH), WHICH THE US HAS SUPPORTED FOR YEARS.

B1

THE POSSIBILITIES FOR CONFRONTATION WILL REMAIN HIGH, WITH THE RISK OF AN INCIDENT OF POLICE BRUTALITY PLAYING ON THE EVENING NEWS.

10. (C) DIFFERENCES WITHIN THE MILITARY ELITE OVER TACTICS WILL PROBABLY INTENSIFY, AS DIEHARD BACKERS OF SOEHARTO MEET INCREASING CRITICISM. THE INNER CIRCLE, ALREADY FILLED WITH INDIVIDUALS OF NARROW INTERESTS AND PEEVISH TEMPERAMENTS, COULD ABSORB EVEN MORE OF SOEHARTO'S ATTENTION AND LEAD TO A QUARRELSOME AND INEFFECTIVE LEADERSHIP. HOW TO AVOID THIS SCENARIO IS THE CHALLENGE FACING THE MILITARY LEADERS WHO ULTIMATELY WILL DETERMINE THE PACE OF THE TRANSITION, AND TRY TO KEEP IT AN ORDERLY ONE. (JBIRD) (CONFIDENTIAL)

2. (C) SUMMARY: [redacted] B1 DISMISSED THE UPCOMING ELECTION FOR THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AS A MERE "FORMALITY," WITH GOLKAR'S VICTORY A FOREGONE CONCLUSION,

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 06 SEP 2006 200503235

DURING A SEPTEMBER 9 MEETING WITH POLOFF. HE CITED RECENT PROPOSALS TO LIMIT MASS CAMPAIGNING, IN ADDITION TO THE PRACTICE OF SCREENING HOUSE CANDIDATES BY THE GOVERNMENT, AS EXAMPLES OF A SYSTEM HEAVILY SLANTED TOWARD RULING PARTY GOLKAR. HE BELIEVED STRONGLY IN THE NEED FOR FUNDAMENTAL POLITICAL CHANGE, BUT DID NOT THINK IT COULD OCCUR UNTIL AFTER PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION, AND DID NOT WANT TO WASTE TIME STRUGGLING FOR IT UNTIL THAT FUTURE DATE. HOWEVER, HE WAS APPRECIATIVE OF MEGAWATI'S EFFORTS AND EXPRESSED PRIVATE SYMPATHY FOR HER. END SUMMARY.

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS A MERE FORMALITY

[redacted] B1

AS AN EXAMPLE OF THE SLANTED SYSTEM, HE CITED GOLKAR AND PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S RECENT TALK OF CHANGING CAMPAIGN LAWS TO LIMIT, OR EVEN BAN, MASS RALLIES DURING THE RUN UP TO THE ELECTION.

4. (C) GOLKAR HAD DISCUSSED THIS PROPOSAL TO LIMIT MASS CAMPAIGNING AS EARLY AS LAST OCTOBER. HOWEVER, THE ISSUE RECEIVED FRESH ATTENTION OVER THE PAST WEEK WHEN PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SIGNALLED PUBLICLY THAT DURING THE CAMPAIGN THE PARTIES SHOULD "TRY NOT TO STRESS MASS POWER, BUT AIM MORE

FOR PROGRAM PROPOSALS AND THESE CAN BE DONE INDOORS." THE CHAIRMAN OF THE PPP, ISMAIL HASAN METAREUM, PUBLICLY OBJECTED TO THIS PROPOSAL, ARGUING THAT "THE BUILDUP OF MASSES CANNOT AND SHOULD NOT BE STOPPED." [redacted] EXPLAINED THAT THIS PROPOSAL WAS AN ATTEMPT BY GOLKAR TO SHUT DOWN CAMPAIGNING. THIS COULD ONLY BENEFIT GOLKAR, HE SAID, WITH ITS ALREADY EXISTING OVERWHELMING MAJORITY, BY MAKING IT EVEN MORE DIFFICULT FOR PPP AND PDI TO CARRY OUT B1

CAMPAIGNS THAT HAD ANY CHANCE OF ATTRACTING INCREASED SUPPORT.

5. (C) ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF THE WEAKNESS OF THE POLITICAL SYSTEM, [redacted] IS THE SCREENING OF LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES BY THE GOVERNMENT. OSTENSIBLY, THIS IS INTENDED TO ELIMINATE CANDIDATES WITH PAST LINKS TO THE OUTLAWED INDONESIAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PKI). HOWEVER, [redacted] ARGUED THAT IT IS ALSO A TOOL USED IN AN ATTEMPT TO ELIMINATE CANDIDATES WHO MIGHT BE CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT. B1 B1

FUNDAMENTAL POLITICAL CHANGE MUST OCCUR, BUT POST SOEHARTO

6. (C) MAKING CLEAR HIS DISGUST WITH THE FEEBLENESS OF THE EXISTING SYSTEM, [redacted] WAS ADAMANT THAT THE POLITICAL SYSTEM IN INDONESIA MUST BE FUNDAMENTALLY RESTRUCTURED. HOWEVER, HE WAS CAREFUL TO HEDGE AND SAY THAT THIS CHANGE COULD ONLY OCCUR AFTER SOEHARTO LEFT OFFICE AND A NEW PRESIDENT TOOK POWER. B1

7. (C) DRAWING A DISTINCTION BETWEEN HIS APPROACH TO

REFORM AND THAT OF THE PRO-MEGAWATI PEOPLE, HE SAID THAT HE AND HIS FRIENDS WERE CONSERVING THEIR ENERGY NOW AS THEY LOOKED TOWARD THE FUTURE, AND NOT WASTING THEIR TIME STRUGGLING AGAINST AN IMPOSSIBLE SITUATION. WHILE SPEAKING ADMIRINGLY OF MEGAWATI AND HER SUPPORTERS, HE SAID HE DID NOT THINK THEY HAD "STAYING POWER."

8. (C) [redacted] ACKNOWLEDGED THE OBVIOUS FACT THAT SIMPLY CHANGING PRESIDENTS AT SOME TIME IN THE FUTURE WOULD IN NO WAY INSURE A TRANSFORMATION OF THE SYSTEM. HE THOUGHT THAT CHANGE WOULD BE DETERMINED BY BARGAINING BETWEEN THE MILITARY AND CIVILIAN POWER HOLDERS, WHICH HE BROADLY IMPLIED WAS BEGINNING EVEN NOW (NOTE: WITHOUT OFFERING ANY SPECIFICS. END NOTE.). [redacted] B1 B1

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE VOTE COUNTS ARE COMPLETE IN MOST OF INDONESIA, AND GOLKAR CONTINUES TO HOLD A MASSIVE LEAD (74.27 PERCENT), LEAVING THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY VIRTUALLY A NON-ENTITY (3.07 PERCENT). THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (22.6 PERCENT) HAS CALLED FOR A REPEAT OF THE VOTE IN SEVERAL AREAS OF THE COUNTRY DUE TO ALLEGED ELECTORAL FRAUD, AND SO FAR THE GOVERNMENT HAS AGREED TO DO SO IN PARTS OF MADURA, EAST JAVA. AN ASIAN ELECTION MONITORING GROUP HAS JOINED THE INDONESIAN INDEPENDENT MONITORING GROUP IN SUPPORT OF ALLEGATIONS OF VOTE FRAUD. PRESIDENT SUHARTO CLAIMED PUBLICLY ON MAY 30 THAT A SMALL GROUP WHICH "CHAMPIONED DEMOCRACY" HAD TRIED TO MAKE THE ELECTION FAIL. WE ARE TOLD THAT MEGAWATI WILL MAKE A CAUTIOUSLY WORDED STATEMENT ABOUT THE ELECTION IN THE NEAR FUTURE. EMBASSY'S ANALYSIS OF THE ELECTION WILL FOLLOW SEPTEL. END SUMMARY

3. (U) THE INDONESIAN ELECTION INSTITUTE (LPU) HAS INFORMED THE EMBASSY THAT THE VOTE COUNT IS COMPLETE IN 24 OF INDONESIA'S 27 PROVINCES. JAKARTA, IRIAN JAYA, AND EAST JAVA ARE STILL IN PROCESS. OVERALL RESULTS WILL NOT BE FINALIZED UNTIL THE MIDDLE OF JUNE.

4. (U) ACCORDING TO THE LATEST PROVISIONAL RESULTS (AS OF

JUNE 1, PUBLISHED IN INDONESIAN DAILY KOMPAS AND OTHER MAJOR NEWSPAPERS ON JUNE 2), GOLKAR WON 74.27 PERCENT, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) 22.6 PERCENT, AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) JUST 3.07 PERCENT (SEE PARA. 11). THIS COMPARES TO 68.1 PERCENT, 17 PERCENT, AND 14.9 PERCENT IN 1992 FOR THE PARTIES, RESPECTIVELY. GOLKAR'S MARGIN OF VICTORY IS WELL OVER THE TARGET OF 70.02 PERCENT THAT IT HAD SET FOR THIS ELECTION. ACCORDING TO AN ESTIMATE IN KOMPAS, GOLKAR WILL LIKELY

HAVE 325 SEATS IN PARLIAMENT (UP FROM 282), PPP 90 SEATS (UP FROM 62), AND PDI 10 SEATS (DOWN FROM 56).

5. (U) IT WAS ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY THAT THE ELECTION WOULD BE REPEATED IN SAMPANG AND PAMEKASAN, WHICH ARE AREAS LOCATED IN MADURA, EAST JAVA, WHERE UNREST, DUE TO SUSPICION OF VOTE FRAUD, HAD OCCURRED ON ELECTION DAY (REFTEL B). OFFICIALS CLAIMED THAT THIS WAS BEING PERMITTED BECAUSE BALLOT BOXES IN THOSE AREAS HAD BEEN BURNED OR BECAUSE UNREST HAD PREVENTED CITIZENS FROM CASTING THEIR VOTES. PPP OFFICIALS ALSO CALLED FOR A RE-VOTE IN THREE DISTRICTS IN SOUTH SULAWESI (GOWA, SIDRAP, POLMAS), THE DISTRICT OF JEMBER IN EAST JAVA, AND DISTRICTS IN WEST SUMATRA, WHERE IT BELIEVED THAT WIDE-SPREAD VOTE-FRAUD HAD OCCURRED.

6. (U) PRESIDENT SUHARTO WAS QUOTED IN KOMPAS ON MAY 31 AS SAYING PUBLICLY THAT: "THERE WERE INDEED EFFORTS TO MAKE ALL THIS FAIL, BY A SMALL GROUP WHICH CHAMPIONED DEMOCRACY, BUT TURNED OUT IN FACT TO SHOW BEHAVIOR THAT WAS NOT DEMOCRATIC. BECAUSE IT WAS A SMALL GROUP, IT THEN WANTED TO FORCE ITS WISHES ON THE MAJORITY. TRULY IN THE FINAL INSTANCE IT IS THE PEOPLE WHO CAN EVALUATE WHAT IS RIGHT AND WHAT IS NOT. THEY HOPED THAT THE GENERAL ELECTIONS WOULD NOT RUN, FAIL OR AT LEAST BE TAINTED, THAT IS WHY THEY DISTURBED IT AND THE LIKE. BUT, THANKS BE, EVERYTHING WENT WELL. EXCEPT IN SOME PLACES WHICH THEY DID ON PURPOSE."

7. (C) A MEGAWATI ADVISER HAS INFORMED EMBOFFS THAT SHE WILL LIKELY MAKE A CAUTIOUSLY WORDED STATEMENT ON THE ELECTION BEFORE JUNE 10. THE ADVISER SAID THAT THE LOW VOTE FOR THE PDI WAS POSITIVE FOR MEGAWATI AS IT DEMONSTRATED THE EXTENT OF UNPOPULARITY OF THE GOVERNMENT INSTALLED PDI CHAIRMAN SURYADI.

8. (U) THE PPP ANNOUNCED PUBLICLY AT A PRESS CONFERENCE ON MAY 30 THAT, BASED ON REPORTS FROM ITS BRANCHES THROUGHOUT INDONESIA, IT HAD CONCLUDED THAT WIDESPREAD ELECTION VIOLATIONS HAD OCCURRED. IT WILL HOLD A LEADERS MEETING

ON JUNE 5 TO DECIDE WHAT FURTHER STEPS TO TAKE, INCLUDING THE POSSIBILITY OF REJECTING THE RESULTS OF THE ELECTION. SUPPORTING CLAIMS OF VOTE FRAUD, AN ASIAN GROUP OF MONITORS, THE "ASIAN FORUM FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEVELOPMENT," IN A STATEMENT MAY 31, SPOKE OF "GLARING IRREGULARITIES IN THE ELECTORAL PROCESS" AND THE ABSENCE OF TRANSPARENCY IN THE CANVASSING AND THE FINAL COUNTING OF VOTES." 9. (U) IN JAKARTA, WHERE THERE HAD BEEN A STRONG SHOW OF POPULAR SUPPORT FOR PPP DURING THE CAMPAIGN, GOLKAR WON 59.19 PERCENT, PPP 38.85 PERCENT AND PDI 1.96 PERCENT (ACCORDING TO PROVISIONAL BASED ON 73.57 PERCENT OF THE REGISTERED VOTERS). HOWEVER, ACCORDING TO A VOTE BREAK-OUT PUBLISHED IN THE JAKARTA POST JUNE 2, PPP WAS NARROWLY OUTPACING GOLKAR IN ONE AREA OF THE CITY, SOUTH JAKARTA, WITH A TOTAL OF 49.3 PERCENT, COMPARED TO GOLKAR'S 49 PERCENT.

THE FOLLOWING INR ASSESSMENT WAS PRODUCED BY THE OFFICE OF EAST ASIA AND PACIFIC ANALYSIS AND IS PROVIDED FOR YOUR INFORMATION AND COMMENT.

1. CLASSIFIED BY PAULA CAUSEY, OFFICE DIRECTOR INR/EAP. REASON: 1.5 (D)

2. (C) GOVERNMENT EFFORTS AT UNDERMINING TWO OPPOSITION PARTIES RISK GIVING GREATER COHERENCE TO ANTI-REGIME SENTIMENT. INCREASING ACTIVITY BY STUDENTS, NGOS, AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS IN THE RUN-UP TO THE 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS MAY TEST THE PATIENCE OF THE SECURITY FORCES IN MAINTAINING ORDER.

3. (S/NF) NEXT SPRING ALMOST 120 MILLION INDONESIANS WILL GO TO THE POLLS TO ELECT MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT, WITH MORE

THAN 13 MILLION VOTING

FOR THE FIRST TIME. THE PARLIAMENTARY DEPUTIES PLUS SPECIAL APPOINTEES WILL MEET IN 1998 TO SELECT THE NEXT PRESIDENT, EXPECTED TO BE PRESIDENT SOEHARTO FOR A SEVENTH FIVE-YEAR TERM. SOEHARTO WANTS A LANDSLIDE VICTORY FOR GOLKAR, HIS GOVERNMENT PARTY, WITH NO LESS THAN 73OF THE VOTE. REPORTEDLY, IN 1987 GOLKAR WON BY

UNCLASSIFIED

A COMFORTABLE 73, THOUGH IT SLIPPED IN 1992 TO 68UNDER A RASH OF CRITICISM ABOUT THE AGING REGIME.

FOCUS ON THE PDI

4. (U) IN EARLY JUNE SEVERAL ARMY GENERALS CALLED IN LOCAL EDITORS TO DISCUSS THE PDI IN "MEDIA BRIEFINGS," A EUPHEMISM FOR INTIMIDATION SESSIONS. THE GENERALS REPORTEDLY WARNED THE PRESS ABOUT COVERAGE OF PDI CHAIRPERSON MEGAWATI SOEKARNOPUTRI, DAUGHTER OF THE LATE PRESIDENT SOEKARNO, AND URGED POSITIVE REPORTING OF A MOVE BY PDI "DISSIDENTS" TO UNSEAT HER. THE GOVERNMENT HAS GIVEN PERMISSION FOR THE DISSIDENTS, WHO CLAIM THEY REPRESENT A MAJORITY OF PDI CHAPTERS, TO HOLD AN EXTRAORDINARY NATIONAL PARTY CONGRESS ON JUNE 20.

5. (C) IN A STATEMENT FOR THE FOREIGN PRESS RELEASED YESTERDAY, MEGAWATI SAID THE ARMED FORCES WERE ILLEGALLY INVOLVED IN THE OUSTER MOVE AND THAT THE PDI WOULD RECEIVE 80-85OF THE VOTE IN A FREE AND FAIR ELECTION. HER FOLLOWERS HAVE ANNOUNCED PLANS TO STAGE A LARGE RALLY IN JAKARTA IN HER SUPPORT IF THE CONGRESS IS HELD, BUT MEGAWATI CAREFULLY AVOIDED ENDORSING SUCH A RALLY IN HER STATEMENT.

6. (S/NF) THROUGHOUT HIS LONG CAREER, SOEHARTO HAS EFFECTIVELY SIDELINED WOULD-BE RIVALS. HE SEES MEGAWATI, WITH HER NAME RECOGNITION AND APPEAL TO A SOCIETY INCREASINGLY QUESTIONING HIS EXTENDED TENURE, AS A SIGNIFICANT CHALLENGE AND BELIEVES HE CAN MANIPULATE PARTY STRUCTURES TO HIS ADVANTAGE, AS HE DID IN THE MID-1970S.

WAR OF THE WOMEN

7. (S/NF) SOEHARTO'S [redacted] DAUGHTER TUTUT IS ON THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF GOLKAR WITH OVERSIGHT FOR EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA. HAVING MADE HER EXTENSIVE FORTUNE [redacted] SHE IS SEEN AS EAGER TO ASSUME MORE POLITICAL POWER, ENGAGING ON ISSUES

B6

[redacted]

8. (C) IN ADDITION TO CONCERNS ABOUT THE TWO OPPOSITION PARTIES, AUTHORITIES ARE NERVOUSLY WATCHING POTENTIAL WILD CARDS, INCLUDING DOZENS OF STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, HUNDREDS OF ISSUE-ORIENTED NGOS, AND A NEWLY FOUNDED INDEPENDENT ELECTION WATCHDOG COMMITTEE CALLED KIPP. THESE GROUPS ARE LARGELY ELITIST AND MOST ARE NOT AFFILIATED WITH A PARTICULAR PARTY, BUT THEY APPEAR TO BE OVERWHELMINGLY CRITICAL OF THE REGIME AND HOSTILE TO GOLKAR.

SECRET

9. (C) THUS FAR THE GROUPS HAVE NOT FOUND A SINGLE ISSUE OR LEADER THAT CAN TURN GENERAL GRUMBLING ABOUT CORRUPTION OR FIRST-FAMILY EXCESS INTO A BROAD COALITION TO DENY SOEHARTO ANOTHER TERM. A CURRENT SPATE OF STUDENT ACTIVITY - IN SYMPATHY WITH STUDENTS KILLED DURING A RECENT ALTERCATION WITH SECURITY FORCES - HAS REVEALED A NETWORK OF STUDENT CONTACTS AND THE POTENTIAL VOLATILITY OF THIS LARGE POPULATION, BUT ALSO THE MILITARY'S SUCCESS IN KEEPING LARGE NUMBERS OFF THE STREETS.

10. (C) MEGAWATI MAY NOT BE THE CATALYST FOR A UNIFIED OPPOSITION, BUT SOME OF THE NEW GRASSROOTS ORGANIZATIONS AND STUDENTS MIGHT JOIN FORCES IN HER DEFENSE IF SHE IS PUSHED OFF-STAGE TOO BLATANTLY. THEY MIGHT EVEN FIND SOME SUPPORT FROM THE RUAAL MASSES, WHO NORMALLY VOTE DUTIFULLY FOR GOLKAR. RATHER THAN UNDERMINING THE OPPOSITION, THE AUTHORITIES MAY FIND THEY HAVE CREATED A MARTYR WHO HELPS ANTI-REGIME SENTIMENT TO COALESCE. A STREAM OF RALLIES AND DEMONSTRATIONS WOULD TEST THE PATIENCE OF THE SECURITY FORCES, RAISE THE RISK OF INJURIES OR ABUSE, AND CONTRIBUTE TO STRAINS WITHIN THE RULING ELITE, INCLUDING THE ARMED FORCES, OVER HOW TO MANAGE THE ELECTION PERIOD AND, ULTIMATELY, THE

GOLKAR, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP), AND THE GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZED FACTION OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) SUBMITTED THEIR PRELIMINARY LISTS OF LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES TO THE INDONESIAN ELECTION COMMITTEE ON THE MORNING OF SEPTEMBER 16. MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS IN THE PDI WAITED UNTIL LATER IN THE DAY TO SUBMIT THEIR CANDIDATE LIST, BUT, AS THEY EXPECTED, WERE REBUFFED AND THE LIST WAS NOT EVEN ACCEPTED FOR CONSIDERATION. ON A SEPARATE BUT RELATED ISSUE, THE ABRI CHIEF OF SOCIOPOLITICAL AFFAIRS, SYARWAN HAMID, STEPPED UP HIS CONDEMNATION OF THE OPENING OF MEGAWATI'S NEW HEADQUARTERS. HE WAS QUOTED SEPTEMBER 16 AS SAYING THAT ABRI WAS PREPARED TO "PUT IN ORDER" MEGAWATI'S NEW HEADQUARTERS, AND REITERATED HIS EARLIER STATEMENT THAT THE OFFICE'S EXISTENCE WAS ILLEGAL. WITHIN THIS CONTEXT, [redacted] THAT LOCAL B1
COMMUNITY AUTHORITIES HAD RECENTLY OBJECTED TO THE EXISTENCE OF THE NEW PDI OFFICE. END SUMMARY.

THREE PARTIES SUBMIT LISTS AT GENERAL ELECTION INSTITUTE

3. (C) SEPTEMBER 16 WAS THE DEADLINE FOR THE THREE RECOGNIZED POLITICAL PARTIES TO SUBMIT THEIR PRELIMINARY CANDIDATE LISTS FOR THE UPCOMING 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION (NOTE: EACH LIST WILL THEN BE SCREENED BY THE GOI). THE CHAIRMEN OF THE GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZED PARTIES,

CONFIDENTIAL

HARMOKO (GOLKAR), ISMAIL HASAN METAREUM (PPP), AND SOERJADI (PDI) SUBMITTED THEIR LISTS TO THE INDONESIAN ELECTION COMMITTEE THAT MORNING AT A CEREMONY ATTENDED BY HOME AFFAIRS MINISTER YOGIE MEMET, DEFENSE MINISTER SUDRADJAT, ARMED FORCES COMMANDER FEISAL TANJUNG, AS WELL AS OTHER GOVERNMENT MINISTERS. GOLKAR AND PPP SUBMITTED 850 NAMES EACH (EACH ONE PROVIDING TWO CANDIDATES FOR THE 425 CONTESTED PARLIAMENT SEATS), AND PDI SUBMITTED 903

NAMES. SOERJADI'S LIST DID NOT INCLUDE MEGAWATI OR ANY OF HER CLOSE SUPPORTERS.

MEGAWATI'S LIST IS SUMMARILY REJECTED

4. (C) SIX PDI MEGAWATI MEMBERS, LED BY SOETARDJO SOERJOGOERITNO AND ALEXANDER LITAAY, WENT TO THE GENERAL ELECTION INSTITUTE LATER ON SEPTEMBER 16 AND ATTEMPTED TO SUBMIT THEIR ALTERNATIVE PDI LIST OF 750 NAMES. TWO LOWER LEVEL OFFICIALS AT THE NATIONAL ELECTION INSTITUTE MET WITH THEM, BUT REFUSED TO ACCEPT THEIR LIST.

GOVERNMENT STEPS UP PRESSURE ON NEW MEGAWATI HEADQUARTERS

6. (C) [redacted] MENTIONED THAT THE PRO-MEGAWATI PDI FACTION RECENTLY RECEIVED WORD, FROM THE LOCAL COMMUNITY HEAD WHERE THE NEW HEADQUARTERS WAS LOCATED, THAT IT HAD NOT OBTAINED THE PROPER PERMIT TO OPERATE A POLITICAL OFFICE. THE ABRI CHIEF OF SOCIOPOLITICAL AFFAIRS, SYARWAN HAMID, WAS QUOTED AS SAYING SEPTEMBER 16 THAT ABRI WAS PREPARED TO "PUT IN ORDER" MEGAWATI'S NEW HEADQUARTERS, AND HE REITERATED HIS EARLIER STATEMENT THAT THE OFFICE'S EXISTENCE WAS ILLEGAL. 7. (C) [redacted] CONCLUDED THAT THIS MEANT THAT ABRI WANTED THE OFFICE CLOSED. HOWEVER, HE OPINED THAT IT WOULD BE VERY FOOLISH OF THE GOVERNMENT TO REPEAT THE VIOLENT APPROACH USED TO CLOSE THE OLD PDI HEADQUARTERS ON

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE GOVERNMENT IS BEHIND RECENT DISCUSSION REGARDING THE CONVENING OF ANOTHER INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) CONGRESS, [redacted] THE MEGAWATI CAMP IS NOT INTERESTED IN THE IDEA, THE CONGRESS WILL NOT HAPPEN, AND THE GOI INITIATED IT BECAUSE IT IS CONFUSED OVER WHAT TO DO ABOUT THE CONTINUING POPULARITY OF MEGAWATI AND THE FAILURE OF GOVERNMENT-BACKED PARTY CHAIRMAN SURJADI TO "CONSOLIDATE" HIS CONTROL OVER THE PARTY. SPECIFICALLY, IT IS FEARFUL ABOUT THE POTENTIAL DISRUPTIONS THE ONGOING RIFT WITHIN THE PDI COULD CREATE DURING THE RUN UP TO THE MAY PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, ESPECIALLY GIVEN THE FACT THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO HAS MADE IT CLEAR THAT HE WANTS TO HAVE A "SMOOTH" ELECTION. THE 124 MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS TRIED IN CONNECTION WITH THE JULY 27 TAKEOVER OF PDI HEADQUARTERS BELIEVED THAT 10-20 OF THEIR FRIENDS WERE KILLED IN THE BUILDING RAISING THE POSSIBILITY THAT THEY MIGHT SEEK RETRIBUTION AGAINST SURJADI AND HIS SUPPORTERS. END SUMMARY. B1

GOI DESPERATE FOR A SMOOTH ELECTION

3. (C) IT WAS THE GOVERNMENT THAT STARTED THE DISCUSSION ABOUT HOLDING ANOTHER "EXTRAORDINARY" CONGRESS IN THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) TO REPLACE CHAIRMAN SURJADI, [redacted] (REFTEL B). DURING A MEETING WITH POLOFF NOVEMBER 27, HE WAS ADAMANT THAT MEGAWATI HAD NO INTEREST IN EITHER HOLDING SUCH A CONGRESS OR IN EVER NEGOTIATING WITH SURJADI, AS BOTH WOULD IMPLY THAT SHE B1

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

RECOGNIZED THE CONGRESS HELD JUNE 20 THAT OUSTED HER. [redacted] B1

4. (C) INSTEAD, HE BLAMED A CONFUSED GOVERNMENT THAT DID NOT KNOW HOW TO DEAL WITH MEGAWATI'S CONTINUED POPULARITY, AND SURJADI'S FAILURE TO CONSOLIDATE HIS CONTROL OF THE

[redacted] (NOTE: THE GOI'S PUBLIC STATEMENTS CERTAINLY HAVE BEEN CONFUSING. AFTER A HIGH LEVEL HOME AFFAIRS MINISTRY OFFICIAL PUBLICLY URGED A CONGRESS LAST WEEK, THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS HIMSELF TOLD THE PRESS NOVEMBER 26 THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD NOT ISSUE A PERMIT FOR SUCH A CONGRESS. END NOTE.) [redacted] BELIEVED THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WAS "OBSESSED" WITH THE DESIRE TO SEE THE MAY PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS GO SMOOTHLY, AND HAD GIVEN HIS USUAL CRYPTIC INSTRUCTIONS TO HIS SUBORDINATES TO THAT EFFECT. (NOTE: [redacted] SPECIFICALLY REFERRED TO TWO RECENT PUBLIC STATEMENTS MADE BY THE PRESIDENT CALLING FOR A "SMOOTH ELECTION." END NOTE.) NOW, THE PRESIDENT'S UNDERLINGS WERE SCARED THAT THE PRESIDENT'S WISHES COULD NOT BE FULFILLED GIVEN SURJADI'S RECENT DIFFICULTIES. THE FACT THAT SURJADI WAS BEING SHOUTED AT, SUFFERED AN ATTACK ON HIS MOTORCADE AND COULD NOT EVEN SPEAK DURING MANY OF HIS APPEARANCES MADE THE GOI APPREHENSIVE THAT A SURJADI-LED PDI COULD FACE REAL PROBLEMS ON THE CAMPAIGN TRAIL. B1 B1 B1

5. (C) [redacted] DID NOT THINK THAT A CONGRESS WOULD ACTUALLY BE HELD, BUT THAT, IN ADDITION TO CONFUSION, THIS PUBLIC TALK REPRESENTED A KIND OF WARNING TO SURJADI THAT HE MUST B1

GET HIS ACT TOGETHER AND FIND A WAY TO CONSOLIDATE THE PARTY. [redacted] BELIEVED THIS WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE FOR SURJADI TO ACCOMPLISH GIVEN MEGAWATI'S GRASS ROOTS POPULARITY. ACCORDING TO [redacted] THE GOVERNMENT WAS ALSO ANGRY WITH SURJADI IN GENERAL BECAUSE HE HAD PROMISED THAT HE, NOT MEGAWATI, WAS THE POPULAR FIGURE IN THE PDI, SO IT WOULD BE NO PROBLEM FOR HIM TO TAKE CONTROL AFTER THE JUNE MEDAN CONGRESS. IN ADDITION TO HIS FAILURE TO BE EFFECTIVE AS PARTY LEADER, SURJADI HAD ALSO ANGERED THE GOVERNMENT BECAUSE HE HAD TRUMPETED PUBLICLY THAT HE WOULD REFUSE TO TAKE ORDERS. B1 B1

WHY SURJADI CANNOT "CONSOLIDATE" CONTROL OVER THE PDI

6. (C) [redacted] ACKNOWLEDGED THAT SURJADI HAD BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN GAINING CONTROL OF THE FORMAL PARTY APPARATUS, MEANING THE LEADERSHIP OF THE PROVINCIAL AND BRANCH BOARDS, IN B1

MOST PARTS OF THE COUNTRY. THIS WAS BECAUSE THE LOCAL POLITICIANS WANTED TO KEEP THEIR JOBS. HOWEVER, HE CLAIMED THAT OF THE ROUGHLY 12 MILLION PEOPLE WHO HAD CAST THEIR VOTES FOR THE PDI IN THE 1992 ELECTION, A FIGURE HE ARRIVED AT BASED ON THE 56 PARLIAMENTARY SEATS NOW HELD BY

FOR ANY PARTICULAR PARTY.

7. (C) THE MEGAWATI CAMP SENSED ITS SUPPORT IN THE COUNTRY BECAUSE IT HAD A NETWORK OF PEOPLE THROUGHOUT ALL 27 PROVINCES WITH WHICH IT WAS IN CONSTANT CONTACT. MOREOVER, MEGAWATI HAD RECENTLY BEEN TRAVELLING AROUND THE COUNTRY, WHICH SHE WOULD CONTINUE TO DO. THUS, WHILE SURJADI MIGHT BE ABLE TO USE HIS GOVERNMENT-RECOGNIZED POSITION TO ESTABLISH A FORMAL PARTY STRUCTURE, HE DID NOT HAVE THE POPULARITY TO ATTRACT VOTES. MOREOVER, EVEN SOME "OFFICIAL" LOCAL PARTY CADRE WERE BEGINNING TO TURN AWAY FROM HIM. [redacted] B1

MEGAWATI GROUP WAITING IN THE WINGS

8. (C) "NOBODY KNOWS WHAT TO DO WITH THE FUTURE OF OUR COUNTRY," NOT EVEN CURRENT DEFENSE MINISTER EDI SUDRADJAT OR FORMER DEFENSE MINISTER BENNY MURDANI, [redacted] CONTENDED. B1 FOR THIS REASON, MEGAWATI AND HER GROUP WERE WORKING HARDER THAN EVER SINCE HER OUSTER IN JUNE. IN ADDITION, TO THE ONGOING COURT CASES AND COMMUNICATION AMONG THEIR NATION-WIDE NETWORK, THEY PLANNED TO COMPLETE A COMPREHENSIVE POLICY PLATFORM WITHIN THE NEXT THREE MONTHS.

9. (C) [redacted] EXPLAINED THE IMPORTANCE OF THIS EFFORT BY LOOKING WELL PAST THE UPCOMING ELECTIONS. HE SAID THAT IF THE TIME COMES THAT THE MEGAWATI GROUP WAS "INVITED TO PARTICIPATE IN GOVERNMENT," IT WOULD HAVE THE PLATFORM, THE CONCEPT OF GOVERNMENT, AND THE POPULAR SUPPORT NECESSARY. IN OTHER WORDS, THEY WOULD KNOW WHAT TO DO WITH THE FUTURE OF THE COUNTRY. HE ALSO THOUGHT THAT THEY WERE NOT ALONE, AND THAT OTHER "GROUPS" WERE ENGAGED IN SIMILAR PLANNING.

B1

10. (C) AT THIS TIME, MORE THAN THE CURRENT EFFORT WAS "USELESS" AND IMPOSSIBLE BECAUSE IT WOULD BE DECLARED "UNCONSTITUTIONAL" OR A "REBELLION" BY THE GOVERNMENT. THE PRESIDENT HAD THE POWER TO DESTROY THE CAREERS AND REPUTATIONS OF ANYONE, AND NOBODY WANTED TO TAKE THIS RISK.

FATE OF 124 SUPPORTERS IN JULY 27 TRIAL

11. (C) [redacted] THE 124 MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WHO STOOD TRIAL IN CONNECTION WITH THE JULY 27 TAKEOVER OF PDI HEADQUARTERS. MOST, IF NOT ALL, WERE SENTENCED ON NOVEMBER 27 (REFTEL A), AND WERE ABOUT TO BE FREED. HE SAID THAT THESE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS BELIEVED THEY HAD SEEN 10-20 OF THEIR FRIENDS KILLED IN THE VIOLENT TAKEOVER OF PDI HEADQUARTERS ON JULY 27 BY GOVERNMENT BACKED ELEMENTS, INCLUDING BY INDIVIDUALS POSING AS SURJADI SUPPORTERS. (NOTE: MANY OF THE WOUNDED COULD HAVE BEEN MISTAKEN FOR DEATHS. END NOTE) THESE EX-DETAINEES TENDED TO BE A MORE MILITANT GROUP OVERALL BECAUSE THEY WERE THE ONES THAT HAD STAYED IN THE HEADQUARTERS BUILDING UNTIL THE END. MOVEOVER, THEY HAD ALREADY BEEN IN JAIL AND KNEW WHAT IT WAS LIKE. HE HAD

B1

HEARD TALK THAT THEIR VIEW WAS THAT "ONE LIFE SHOULD BE PAID FOR WITH ONE LIFE." THUS THERE WAS A POSSIBILITY THEY MIGHT SEEK RETRIBUTION [redacted] B1

12. (C) COMMENT: THE ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF THE PDI DETAINEES AT THE MAIN COURT HOUSE OVER RECENT WEEKS HAS GENERATED VERY EMOTIONAL DEMONSTRATIONS OF SUPPORT FROM MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS AT THE CROWDED COURTHOUSE SCENE. THEIR RELEASE FROM DETENTION BACK INTO THE PDI-FOLD NOVEMBER 27 COULD INFLUENCE SOME PDI SUPPORTERS, NOTABLY YOUTH, TOWARD A MORE CONFRONTATIONAL POSTURE VIS-A-VIS THE GOVERNMENT AND SURJADI, PARTICULARLY AS THEIR CHARGES OF MURDERED COMPATRIOTS (SEPTEL) AND POLICE ABUSE WHILE IN DETENTION CIRCULATE.

13. (C) COMMENT CONT: THE INDONESIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION REPORT ON JULY 27 HAS ALSO PRODUCED PRESSURE ON THE GOI TO ACCOUNT FOR THOSE MISSING AND TO TAKE ACTION AGAINST SURJADI AND THOSE WHO ATTACKED THE PDI HEADQUARTERS. END COMMENT

CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI), IT HAS FAILED TO REMOVE HER FROM INDONESIAN POLITICS. SHE GAVE A FEISTY POLITICAL SPEECH JANUARY 10 TO COMMEMORATE THE 24TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PDI'S FORMATION. THIS UNAUTHORIZED CELEBRATION WAS ATTENDED BY HUNDREDS OF GRASS ROOTS PDI MEMBERS AND SYMPATHIZERS, HIGH-LEVEL ADVISORS, AND THE INTERNATIONAL AND DOMESTIC PRESS CORPS (INCLUDING CNN, AFP, AP, AND REUTERS). THE EVENT ALSO RECEIVED SUBSTANTIVE COVERAGE IN THE LOCAL INDONESIAN AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE PRINT MEDIA. MOREOVER, IN RECENT WEEKS HER SUPPORTERS IN THE HUNDREDS HAVE BEEN IN THE STREETS OF JAKARTA, SURABAYA, SEMARANG AND OTHER CITIES TO PROTEST HER EXCLUSION FROM THE UPCOMING ELECTIONS. ALTHOUGH MEGAWATI REPEATED MANY FAMILIAR THEMES, SHE DEMONSTRATED HER POTENTIAL TO CALL INTO QUESTION THE LEGITIMACY OF ANY ELECTIONS THAT EXCLUDED HER. HOWEVER, IN THIS SPEECH SHE INSTRUCTED HER SUPPORTERS TO OBEY THE LAW.

3. (C) [redacted] SHE EXPLAINED HER CONCERN THAT HER FRUSTRATED SUPPORTERS MIGHT GET OUT OF CONTROL DURING THE RUN-UP TO THE ELECTION. SHE HOPED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD SOLVE THE PROBLEM BY RETURNING HER TO THE PDI CHAIRMANSHIP AND ALLOWING HER TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTORAL PROCESS. ALTHOUGH THIS IS UNLIKELY, IT IS CLEAR THAT SHE WILL NOT GO AWAY, AS THE GOVERNMENT HAD HOPED. HER REFUSAL TO BACK DOWN AND EXIT THE POLITICAL SCENE MIGHT MAKE IT DIFFICULT FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO CARRY OUT A SMOOTH, TROUBLE-FREE ELECTION. END SUMMARY. B1

MEGAWATI'S CELEBRATION: BACKGROUND

---

4. (C) MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI CELEBRATED THE 24TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY AT HER HOME IN SOUTH JAKARTA ON JANUARY 10. BILLED AS A COMBINATION ANNIVERSARY PARTY AND "BREAKING OF THE FAST" (IT WAS THE FIRST DAY OF RAMADAN), THE EVENT WAS IN FACT POLITICAL. SHE HAD ORIGINALLY SOUGHT TO HOLD IT IN BALI, ONE OF HER STRONGEST BASES OF SUPPORT, BUT WAS

DENIED PERMISSION BY THE POLICE. SHE DID NOT HAVE PERMISSION FOR THE EVENT IN JAKARTA EITHER. A FOREIGN JOURNALIST TOLD POLOFF AT THE SPEECH THAT HE UNDERSTOOD THAT ARMED FORCES COMMANDER FEISAL TANJUNG HAD THREATENED THAT THE EVENT WOULD BE CLOSED DOWN. HOWEVER, THERE WERE NO OBVIOUS SECURITY FORCES PRESENT, AND THE CELEBRATION PROCEEDED PEACEFULLY. (NOTE: THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED LEADER OF THE PDI, SOERJADI, CELEBRATED THE PDI ANNIVERSARY IN SOUTH SULAWESI, JOINED BY FEISAL TANJUNG AND MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR YOGIE MEMET. END NOTE)

5. (C) ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, MEGAWATI USED THE FACT THAT IT WAS AT HER HOME, AND THAT IT WAS AT LEAST PARTIALLY A DINNER OR "BREAKING OF THE FAST," TO SKIRT THE RULES ON HOLDING POLITICAL EVENTS WITHOUT PERMISSION. ON JANUARY 13, BISNIS INDONESIA REPORTED THAT THE POLICE WOULD INVESTIGATE WHETHER MEGAWATI'S CELEBRATION WAS A "CAMPAIGN" EVENT OR JUST A "SYUKURAN" (EVENT TO EXPRESS THANKS TO GOD). THE POLICE REPORTEDLY SAID THAT PERMISSION FOR A CAMPAIGN EVENT HAD NOT BEEN REQUESTED AND WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN GRANTED. MOREOVER, IF THE INVESTIGATION SHOWED THAT IT WAS A CAMPAIGN EVENT, FIRM

ACTION WOULD BE TAKEN IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAW.

THE RESPONSE TO MEGAWATI'S CELEBRATION

6. (C) HUNDREDS OF PDI MEMBERS AND MEGAWATI SYMPATHIZERS IN RED SHIRTS ATTENDED THE SPEECH AND DINNER. THEY WERE ENTHUSIASTIC AND VOCAL BUT PEACEFUL DURING HER REMARKS. IN ADDITION, KEY MEGAWATI ADVISORS SUCH AS ECONOMIST KWIK KIAN GIE AND PDI PARLIAMENTARIANS SUKOWALUYO, SOPHAN SOPHIAAN AND SABAAM SIRAIT WERE PRESENT. AT LEAST FIVE TELEVISION CAMERAS RECORDED THE EVENT, WHICH TOOK PLACE ON THE FRONT LAWN OF HER COMPOUND; THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS CORPS ON THE SCENE INCLUDED CNN, AP, AFP AND REUTERS. IN ADDITION TO POLOFF, THE CANADIAN POLITICAL COUNSELOR ATTENDED.

7. (U) LOCAL INDONESIAN AND ENGLISH LANGUAGE MEDIA GAVE

KOMPAS WAS MORE CONSERVATIVE, RUNNING A FRONT PAGE STORY THAT FOCUSSED MOSTLY ON THE SOERJADI EVENT, BUT THAT COVERED MEGAWATI'S SPEECH IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE STORY. SOME IN THE PRESS CONTINUED TO DESCRIBE HER ROLE IN A WAY THAT GAVE HER EQUALITY WITH SOERJADI AND A DEGREE OF LEGITIMACY. THE JAKARTA POST CALLED HER AND SURJADI "RIVAL LEADERS" OF THE PDI. BISNIS INDONESIA'S HEADLINE SAID THAT THE CENTRAL BOARDS OF MEGAWATI AND SOERJADI CELEBRATED THE 24TH ANNIVERSARY SEPARATELY, AND SUARA PEMBARUAN RAN ONE FRONT PAGE HEADLINE MENTIONING MEGAWATI'S CELEBRATION ALONE. KOMPAS REFERRED TO A PDI CENTRAL BOARD FOR 1993-1998 UNDER HER LEADERSHIP.

MEGAWATI'S SPEECH

8. (U) MEGAWATI'S SPEECH WAS FEISTY, BUT FOR THE MOST PART DID NOT DEPART FROM THE BASIC MESSAGES THAT SHE HAS RAISED IN THE PAST. SOUNDING A FAMILIAR THEME, SHE FOCUSSED ON THE ILLEGALITY OF HER OUSTER FROM THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE PDI. PUTTING A SHARPER POINT ON HER MESSAGE, SHE EMPHASIZED THAT SHE ALONE HAD THE RIGHT TO LEAD THE PDI IN THE 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION. IN THIS WAY SHE IMPLICITLY DEMONSTRATED HER CAPACITY TO CALL INTO QUESTION THE LEGITIMACY OF ANY ELECTION THAT DID NOT INCLUDE HER AND HER FOLLOWERS.

9. (C) HOWEVER, SHE AVOIDED STEPPING OVER ANY RHETORICAL LINES THAT WOULD GET HER IN BIG TROUBLE WITH THE GOVERNMENT, BY EMPHASIZING THE IMPORTANCE OF CARRYING OUT A "BETTER QUALITY" ELECTION IN 1997. SHE ALSO INSTRUCTED ALL PDI MEMBERS AND SYMPATHIZERS TO OBEY THE LAW AND ALSO TO TAKE CARE OF THEIR "YELLOW" OR VOTING CARDS. IN THE (NOTE: SHORT FOR "NEUTRAL GROUP," MEANING THAT THE VOTER ABSTAINS FROM VOTING OR SPOILS THE BALLOT. END NOTE).

10. (U) MEGAWATI ALSO TOUCHED UPON THE VIOLENCE THAT OCCURRED IN INDONESIA IN 1996, SPECIFYING EAST JAVA, CENTRAL JAVA, WEST JAVA, JAKARTA, NORTH SUMATRA, IRIAN JAYA, EAST TIMOR, AND WEST KALIMANTAN AS THE AFFECTED AREAS. SHE ARGUED THAT WHETHER THIS VIOLENCE WAS CAUSED BECAUSE OF SOCIO-ECONOMIC "GAPS" OR BECAUSE OF THIRD PARTY MANIPULATION, THE DISORDER WAS EVIDENCE THAT "DISORDER" AND INJUSTICE EXISTED IN SOCIETY. SHE ALSO CALLED ON THE "APPARATUS" ASSIGNED TO THE FIELD AND THE GROUPS OF COMMANDERS WHO MADE DECISIONS TO CONTINUE TO WORK FOR THE STATE AND NOT TO BE THE TOOLS OF SPECIFIC GROUPS.

16. (C) ALTHOUGH MEGAWATI REMAINS A FACTOR IN INDONESIAN POLITICS, HER ROLE IS STILL EVOLVING. BEFORE HER OUSTER FROM THE PDI CHAIRMANSHIP, SHE WAS BECOMING A RALLYING POINT FOR THE POLITICAL OPPOSITION. ALTHOUGH THE VIOLENT GOVERNMENT-BACKED TAKEOVER OF PDI HEADQUARTERS FROM HER SUPPORTERS ON JULY 27 ELEVATED HER STATUS AND PROFILE IN INDONESIA AND ABROAD, THE ENSUING CRACKDOWN PUT A SEVERE DAMPER ON EMBRYONIC OPPOSITION FORCES AND SIDELINED ANY IMMEDIATE POLITICAL ASPIRATIONS SHE MIGHT HAVE HAD. IT APPEARED THAT SHE WOULD FADE AWAY FROM THE POLITICAL SCENE.

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE OFFICIAL INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) REPRESENTATIVES CLAIMED INTERNAL PARTY CONFLICT WAS NOTHING NEW FOR PDI, AND ALL THE PUBLICITY MIGHT EVEN INCREASE VOTES FOR PDI. HOWEVER, "CHAIRMEN" FROM DISTRICTS ALL OVER NORTH SUMATRA MEETING AT THE SHADOW PDI OFFICE SUPPORTING MEGAWATI WERE PASSIONATE IN THEIR CLAIMS THAT THE ELECTION WOULD BE ILLEGAL IF MEGAWATI COULD NOT PARTICIPATE. MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, CLAIMING THEY NUMBERED 60 TO 70 PERCENT OF PDI SUPPORTERS IN NORTH SUMATRA, WOULD NOT VOTE IF MEGAWATI WAS NOT REINSTATED AS PARTY CHAIRPERSON BEFORE THE MAY ELECTION. GOLKAR INTERNAL PROBLEMS WERE BEING AIRED IN THE PRESS, AS THE OFFICIAL FINAL CANDIDATE LIST WAS PUBLISHED APRIL 1, INCLUDING THE OUSTED CHAIRMAN EFFENDI RITONGA AS NUMBER EIGHT ON THE PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT LIST. THE MUSLIM-ORIENTED DEVELOPMENT UNITY PARTY (PPP) ACCUSED GOLKAR OF PLANNING TO "STEAL THE ELECTION AGAIN" AND WAS TRAINING ITS 15,000 ELECTION OBSERVERS TO BE BRAVER AND TO "USE THEIR EYES BETTER." END SUMMARY

3. (SBU) POLOFF MET WITH NORTH SUMATRA PROVINCIAL POLITICAL PARTY LEADERS IN MEDAN, NORTH SUMATRA APRIL 1-3. THE FINAL CANDIDATE LISTS FOR THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS WERE PUBLISHED APRIL 1. PARTY LEADERS DISCUSSED ACTIVITIES FOR TRAINING ELECTION OBSERVERS/WITNESSES. AS IN PREVIOUS ELECTIONS, EACH POLLING STATION, INCLUDING 2400 IN MEDAN, WOULD BE RUN BY THE "PIMIMPIN KPPS" (POLLING ORGANIZING GROUP, WHICH GIVES OUT BALLOTS AND CONDUCTS THE VOTE COUNT), AND EACH PARTY COULD HAVE ONE OBSERVER PRESENT. IN 1992, THE ELECTION RESULTS FOR THE NORTH SUMATRA PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT (DPRD I) WERE 29 SEATS FOR THE GOVERNMENT SUPPORTED GOLKAR, SEVEN FOR THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI), AND FOUR FOR THE DEVELOPMENT UNITY PARTY (PPP).

OFFICIAL PDI: TRYING TO SEE A BRIGHT SIDE

4. (C) DURING A MEETING WITH A VICE CHAIRMAN AND THREE OTHER PROVINCIAL EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS OF THE OFFICIAL PDI OFFICE, POLOFF WAS TOLD THAT PDI HAD A TRADITION OF INTERNAL SPLITS, AND THUS HAVING "TWO CHAIRMEN" (SOERJADI AND MEGAWATI) WAS NOT A PROBLEM. THEY WENT SO FAR AS TO SAY THAT THE SPLIT IN PDI HAD HELPED THE PARTY GAIN PUBLICITY, WHICH MIGHT RESULT IN MORE SUPPORT

FOR PDI DURING THE ELECTION, ALTHOUGH THEY DID NOT APPEAR CONVINCED OF THIS LOGIC. THE VICE CHAIRMAN STRESSED THAT PDI SUPPORTERS HAD BEEN PDI SUPPORTERS FOR A LONG TIME, AND THEY SHOULD, AND WOULD, SUPPORT THE PARTY NOT AN INDIVIDUAL. WHILE SOME PEOPLE STILL SUPPORTED MEGAWATI, LOYALTY TO THE OFFICIAL SOERJADI PDI IN NORTH SUMATRA WAS STRONG, AND THE ELECTION WOULD RUN SMOOTHLY WITH PDI SUPPORTERS VOTING FOR PDI AS USUAL. PDI REPRESENTATIVES WERE IN THE PROCESS OF TRAINING ELECTION OBSERVERS THROUGHOUT NORTH SUMATRA.

5. (SBU) THEY EXPLAINED THAT IT WAS A NORMAL PRACTICE FOR EACH PARTY TO SEND PARTY REPRESENTATIVES TO THE HOUSES OF VILLAGERS WHO HAD NOT YET VOTED TO "REMIND" THEM TO VOTE. HOWEVER, FORCE OR CAMPAIGNING COULD NOT BE USED TO CONVINCE PEOPLE TO VOTE. REMINDERS COULD ALSO BE GIVEN BY PARTY REPRESENTATIVES DURING THE WEEK BEFORE THE ELECTION, ALTHOUGH CAMPAIGNING WAS PROHIBITED.

6. (C) THE SOERJADI PDI REPRESENTATIVES WOULD NOT DISCUSS THE PDI CAMPAIGN PLATFORM, SAYING THAT IT WAS DECIDED IN JAKARTA, AND HAD NOT BEEN RELEASED. THEY ALSO SAID THEY WERE NOT AT LIBERTY TO DISCUSS POSSIBLE VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES. ONE YOUNG CANDIDATE FOR PARLIAMENT SAID, IN A SEPARATE MEETING, THAT HE THOUGHT MOST PDI SUPPORTERS WOULD VOTE FOR PDI. HE SAID THAT ANYONE WHO WANTED

TO STAY IN THE PARTY HAD TO SUPPORT SOERJADI, EVEN IF "IN HIS HEART" HE FELT DIFFERENTLY. THE PDI OFFICE HAD BEEN CLEANSED OF LARGE MEGAWATI PHOTOS AND POSTERS, WHICH WERE STILL UP IN SEPTEMBER 1996. THERE WERE NO PHOTOS OF SEORJADI POSTED.

WAITING FOR MEGAWATI

---

7. (C) POLOFF VISITED THE UNMARKED MEGAWATI NORTH SUMATRA PROVINCIAL PDI OFFICE IN MEDAN, ALTHOUGH THE OFFICIAL PDI LEADERS HAD NOT ADMITTED THAT ONE EXISTED. THERE WERE ABOUT 30 PDI ACTIVISTS IN THE OFFICE, ALMOST ALL OF WHOM WERE MEN IN THEIR FORTIES OR FIFTIES. THE OFFICE WAS IN A LARGE UNMARKED HOUSE OFF A MAIN ROAD. [redacted] INTRODUCED HIMSELF AS THE CHAIRMAN, AND EXPLAINED THAT 60 TO 70 PERCENT OF PDI SUPPORTERS IN NORTH SUMATRA WERE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WOULD REFUSE TO PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTION (NOT VOTE) IF MEGAWATI WAS NOT ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE AS THE LEGAL PDI CHAIRMAN. PDI MEMBERS

WERE AWAITING INSTRUCTIONS FROM MEGAWATI.

8. (C) AFTER CONFIRMING THAT POLOFF HAD NO TAPE RECORDER, THE CHAIRMAN GAVE AN IMPASSIONED SPEECH ON THE HISTORY OF THE PDI, EXPLAINING THAT THE SOEHARTO REGIME HAD DESIGNED AND MANAGED THE CURRENT THREE PARTY SYSTEM TO PRESERVE GOVERNMENT CONTROL AND

REMOVED MEGAWATI AND PUT IN A "PUPPET" (SOERJADI) WHO ARMED FORCES COMMANDER FEISEL TANJUNG HAD FORMERLY CALLED A CRIMINAL. (NOTE: SOERJADI WAS REMOVED FROM THE PDI CHAIRMANSHIP IN 1993, AFTER LEADING A RAMBUNCTIOUS 1992 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN DURING WHICH HE SURFACED THE ISSUE OF PRESIDENTIAL TERM LIMITS. END NOTE) THE MEDAN CONGRESS WAS ILLEGAL, [redacted] SAID. HE AND HIS COLLEAGUES HAD BEEN PDI ACTIVISTS BEFORE THE MEDAN CONGRESS, AND HAD REFUSED TO ATTEND THE CONGRESS. THOSE WHO ATTENDED WERE PRESSURED AND PAID TO ATTEND, HE ADDED. THE CURRENT ELECTION WOULD BE ILLEGAL UNLESS MEGAWATI WAS ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE. B1

9. (C) REPRESENTATIVES SAID THAT MEGAWATI WOULD VISIT MEDAN ON APRIL 8, IN ORDER TO APPEAL THE VERDICT FROM HER COURT CASE WHICH CLAIMED THAT THE JUNE 1996 MEDAN CONGRESS WHICH OUSTED HER WAS ILLEGAL. THE CASE WAS RECENTLY THROWN OUT OF COURT, AS AN INTERNAL PARTY MATTER THAT SHOULD BE DECIDED OUT OF COURT. THE FORMER HEAD [redacted] TOLD POLOFF THAT SEVERAL HUNDRED MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS CAME TO THE COURTHOUSE FOR THE FINAL COURT SESSION, AND CLAIMED THAT MANY OTHERS FROM OUTSIDE MEDAN HAD BEEN BLOCKED BY THE MILITARY FROM ENTERING THE CITY. HE SAID THAT INDEPENDENT ELECTION MONITORING COMMITTEE (KIPP) WAS ACTIVE IN MEDAN AND WAS HELPING PPP AND PDI WITH THEIR TRAINING OF ELECTION OBSERVERS. B1

10. (C) AS POLOFF WAS DEPARTING, AT LEAST FIVE OF THE PDI REPRESENTATIVES INTRODUCED THEMSELVES AS CHAIRMEN FROM DIFFERENT NORTH SUMATRA DISTRICT MEGAWATI PDI OFFICES. THEY SAID MEGAWATI PDI HAD BRANCHES "IN ALL DISTRICTS (KABUPATEN)" IN NORTH SUMATRA.

PPP CALLS GOLKAR OFFICIALS "THIEVES WITH TIES"

12. (C) NORTH SUMATRA [redacted] EXPLAINED B1
TO POLOFF THAT GOLKAR "STEALS" THE ELECTIONS, AND THAT CHEATING TECHNIQUES WERE USED TO OBTAIN THE MANDATED TARGETS. INDICATING THAT PPP WOULD NO LONGER TOLERATE THIS, HE NOTED THE NEW IMPORTANCE PLACED ON THE OFFICIAL PARTY ELECTION OBSERVERS/WITNESSES. HE HAD JUST RETURNED FROM A TRIP TO A NORTH SUMATRA DISTRICT TO TRAIN SEVERAL HUNDRED ELECTION OBSERVERS, AND WAS PLANNING TO DEPART FOR ANOTHER DISTRICT THAT AFTERNOON. HE SAID THAT 15,000 PPP ELECTION OBSERVERS WOULD BE TRAINED, NOTING THAT A NEW TRAINING BOOK HAD BEEN PREPARED. THE TRAINING WOULD TEACH OBSERVERS "TO USE THEIR EYES BETTER" AND TO BE BRAVER THAN IN PAST ELECTIONS. OTHER ELECTIONS HAD REVEALED GOLKAR "CHEATING" BUT NOTHING COULD BE DONE ABOUT IT. ONCE THE PARTY CHAIRMEN FROM EACH PARTY SIGNED THE ELECTION RESULTS, THE DEBATE WAS SILENCED.

13. (C) [redacted] SHOWED POLOFF DIAGRAMS OF WHERE THE OFFICIAL PARTY B1
OBSERVERS (ONE FROM EACH PARTY) WOULD SIT IN RELATION TO THE "PIMIMPIN KPPS" DURING THE VOTING AND THE VOTE COUNTING. HE POINTED OUT THAT THE MEMBERS OF THE KPPS WERE WORKING FOR THE GOVERNMENT, AND THUS HAD TO SUPPORT GOLKAR. HE NOTED THAT THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PLACEMENT OF OBSERVERS WAS THAT DURING VOTING, THEY WERE NEAR THE KPPS OFFICIALS, BUT DURING COUNTING, THEY WERE MOVED TO THE OTHER SIDE OF THE ROOM. HE SAID THAT DURING COUNTING IN THE PREVIOUS ELECTION, IN CERTAIN POLLING STATIONS ESPECIALLY IN
CONFIDENTIAL

VILLAGES, ELECTION OFFICIALS PUT NAILS IN THEIR TABLES WITH WHICH TO SPOIL (PUNCH HOLES IN) BALLOTS THAT THEY SAW WERE FOR PDI OR PPP. THIS COULD BE DONE SUBTLY BEFORE THE INDIVIDUAL VOTE WAS ANNOUNCED, AND WAS DIFFICULT FOR THE OBSERVERS TO CATCH IF THEY WERE NOT LOOKING FOR IT. HE CALLED GOLKAR OFFICIALS "THIEVES WITH TIES," NOTING THAT THEY HAD TO USE SUCH METHODS TO GET THE TARGETS REQUIRED BY GOLKAR LEADERS FROM JAKARTA.

14. (C) [redacted] PREDICTED THAT PPP WOULD GAIN VOTES BECAUSE OF THE INTERNAL GOLKAR DISPUTES IN NORTH SUMATRA. HE PREDICTED THAT FOR THE PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT, GOLKAR WOULD KEEP THE SAME NUMBER OF SEATS AT 29, PDI WOULD DROP FROM SEVEN TO FIVE, AND PPP WOULD RISE FROM FOUR TO NINE SEATS. (NOTE: THE ADDITIONAL THREE SEATS WOULD BE GAINED FROM ABRI SEATS, WHICH WERE BEING REDUCED BY THREE. END NOTE.) [redacted] SAID THAT FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY, THE KEY WAS TO CHOOSE A CIVILIAN AND NOT A MILITARY CANDIDATE. [redacted] POINTED TO A CONFLICT BETWEEN THE PROVINCIAL MILITARY COMMANDER AND THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR AS SIGNIFICANT. (COMMENT: [redacted] WAS THE FIRST TO BRING TO OUR ATTENTION THE INTERNAL GOLKAR CONFLICT, WHICH PROVED LATER TO BE SERIOUS. END COMMENT) CORRUPTION WOULD BE A CENTRAL THEME OF THE PPP CAMPAIGN PLATFORM, AND WOULD BE SPOKEN OF OPENLY. PPP WAS NOT HAPPY WITH NEW RESTRICTIVE CAMPAIGN REGULATIONS, AND [redacted] COULD NOT GUARANTEE THAT THERE WOULD NOT BE CLASHES BETWEEN PPP AND GOLKAR DURING THE CAMPAIGN EVEN THOUGH FACTORS: THE POLITICAL FRUSTRATIONS FELT BY THE POPULATION AND THEIR ANGER ABOUT CORRUPTION; THE ECONOMIC GAP BETWEEN RICH AND POOR, WHICH WAS WIDENING; AND THE MILITARY'S NEED FOR CONFLICT IN INDONESIA TO JUSTIFY ITS ROLE.

GOLKAR: OUT OF TOWN

16. (C) GOLKAR SENT AN OFFICIAL LETTER TO POLOFF TO DECLINE THE REQUEST FOR A MEETING, EXPLAINING THAT ALL PROVINCIAL OFFICIALS WERE OUT OF TOWN MEETING WITH DISTRICT LEVEL OFFICIALS IN PREPARATION FOR THE GOLKAR CAMPAIGN. THE DISMISSAL IN OCTOBER OF NORTH SUMATRA GOLKAR CHIEF EFFENDI RITONGA WAS STILL CAUSING PROBLEMS FOR THE PARTY. THE SPLIT WAS REFLECTED IN THE PUBLICATION OF THE FINAL GOLKAR CANDIDATE LIST ON APRIL 1, WHICH INCLUDED RITONGA AS THE NUMBER EIGHT CANDIDATE DESPITE THE PROTESTS FROM THE NEW GOLKAR LEADERSHIP IN MEDAN. THE PRESS WAS CLOSELY FOLLOWING AND REPORTING ON THE CONFLICT. IN SIANTAR, NORTH SUMATRA, THE GOLKAR CHAIRMAN WAS DISMISSED ON APRIL 2, SHOWING A LACK OF UNITY IN ANOTHER NORTH SUMATRA DISTRICT.

17. (C) ACCORDING TO THE PRESS, PPP CHAIRMAN AND OTHERS, GOLKAR'S "GROUP OF 29," MADE UP OF 29 OUT OF 51 NORTH SUMATRA GOLKAR BOARD MEMBERS, WAS PLANNING TO GO TO COURT TO TRY TO HAVE THE FINAL GOLKAR LIST CHANGED. (NOTE: RITONGA WAS OUSTED IN OCTOBER 1996 FOR "NOT MEETING EXPECTATIONS," INCLUDING ISSUING THE TEMPORARY GOLKAR LIST WITHOUT THE REQUIRED SIGNATURE OF THE PARTY SECRETARY. REFTELS. END NOTE) ACCORDING TO ONE GOLKAR SUPPORTER, RITONGA'S LIST BECAME FINAL BECAUSE THE GOVERNOR, A GOLKAR ADVISOR, WAS ANGRY THAT HE WAS NOT CONSULTED WHEN THE COMPLAINTS WERE LODGED ABOUT RITONGA'S LIST. SINCE HE WAS NOT CONSULTED ABOUT THE DESIRE TO CHANGE THE LIST, THE LIST REMAINED THE SAME. MOST CONTACTS DID NOT BELIEVE THAT THE LIST WOULD BE CHANGED.

18. (C) POLOFF MET WITH A JOURNALIST WHOSE FATHER WAS A GOLKAR REPRESENTATIVE IN THE PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT. THE JOURNALIST THOUGHT THAT GOLKAR WAS "STRONG ENOUGH" DESPITE INTERNAL CONFLICTS, AND THAT GOLKAR HAD "PROVIDED A LOT" TO THE PEOPLE. HE PREDICTED A SECURE ELECTION, CALLING NORTH SUMATRA A SPECIAL AREA WHICH WAS "MORE VOLATILE AND MORE CONTROLLED." WHILE OPTIMISTIC ABOUT GOLKAR PROSPECTS FOR THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, HE NOTED THAT THE PARLIAMENT IN INDONESIA AT ALL LEVELS WAS "WORSE THAN A RUBBER STAMP" AND DID NOTHING.

B1

THAT HE WAS STILL SUPPORTING GOLKAR EVEN THOUGH CHRISTIANS WERE BEING MARGINALIZED OUT OF POLITICS. HE SAID THAT HE HAD NO CHANCE TO BECOME A CANDIDATE FOR PARLIAMENT WITHIN GOLKAR FOR THIS REASON. (SEPTEL ON CHRISTIAN VIEWS IN MEDAN TO FOLLOW)

20. (C) ANOTHER MEMBER OF THE CHRISTIAN YOUTH GROUP, AN OFFICIAL PDI CANDIDATE FOR PARLIAMENT, SAID THAT GOLKAR WAS STILL ENGAGED IN INTIMIDATING PEOPLE IN RURAL VILLAGES INTO VOTING GOLKAR. HE GAVE AN EXAMPLE FROM HIS OWN VILLAGE WHERE THE PRINCIPAL OF A SCHOOL TOLD STUDENTS TO ENSURE PARENTS VOTED FOR GOLKAR. ONE STUDENT, THE SON OF A PDI SUPPORTER, WAS TOLD THAT IF HIS FATHER CHOSE PDI, THE CHILD WOULD BE HELD BACK A GRADE. HE CLAIMED THAT THE TACTIC OF TELLING VILLAGERS THAT CHOOSING PDI OR PPP MEANT SUPPORT FOR THE PKI (FORMER COMMUNIST PARTY OF INDONESIA) WAS STILL USED IN VILLAGES. HE COMMENTED THAT THESE TACTICS WORKED IN THE PAST, BUT HE THOUGHT POLITICAL AWARENESS WAS GROWING EVEN IN RURAL VILLAGES.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

HE NOTED THAT IN HIS DISCUSSIONS ABOUT PDI IN HIS VILLAGE HE SAW A GROWING WILLINGNESS TO CONSIDER SUPPORTING PDI EVEN THOUGH PEOPLE HAD BEEN TOLD THAT THEY COULD BE ACCUSED OF SUPPORTING THE COMMUNISTS IF THEY DID NOT SUPPORT GOLKAR.

21. (C) [redacted] B1
COMMENTED THAT AT THE SUB-DISTRICT LEVEL AND BELOW, GOLKAR FALSIFICATION OF RESULTS HAD BEEN COMMON IN THE LAST ELECTION. HE SAID RESULTS FROM VILLAGES COULD BE ALTERED WHEN THE RESULTS WERE TAKEN TO THE SUBDISTRICT LEVEL. DURING TALLYING AT THIS LEVEL, THERE WERE NO OBSERVERS/WITNESSES, AND IT WAS EASY TO MAKE A NEW REPORT OF RESULTS BASED ON THE TARGET. THERE WAS PRESSURE ON VILLAGE CHIEFS TO BRING IN THE GOLKAR VOTE, AND SOME WERE TOLD THEY WOULD LOSE THEIR JOBS IF THEY DID NOT. ROY

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: INDONESIA'S THREE CONTESTANTS IN THE GENERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN, SET TO BEGIN APRIL 27, PLAN TO ADDRESS SUBJECTS RANGING FROM THE GOVERNMENT'S SUCCESSFUL DEVELOPMENT EFFORTS (GOLKAR), REFORM OF THE POLITICAL PARTY LAWS (GOVERNMENT RECOGNIZED INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY), TO IMPROVED POVERTY ALLEVIATION (UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY). THE MORE RESTRICTIVE RULES PUT FORWARD BY THE GOVERNMENT FOR THIS CAMPAIGN WILL BE A KEY FACTOR IN DETERMINING HOW IT IS CARRIED OUT. GOLKAR ENVISAGES A MORE EDUCATIONAL, LESS VIOLENCE PRONE "DIALOGUE" CAMPAIGN THAT DOWNPLAYS THE MASS STREET RALLIES POPULAR IN THE PAST. THE MINORITY PARTIES FEAR THAT THE NEW RESTRICTIONS WILL REMOVE THEIR OPPORTUNITIES TO REACH OUT TO MASS VOTERS, MAKING THEM EVEN MORE UNCOMPETITIVE THAN BEFORE. THE MINORITY PARTIES BELIEVE THAT FRAUD WILL PLAY A MAJOR ROLE IN THE VOTING, ESPECIALLY OUTSIDE JAVA. SPORADIC, BUT LIMITED, POLITICAL VIOLENCE HAS ALREADY OCCURRED IN THE PRE-CAMPAIGN PERIOD. GIVEN THE INTERNAL DIVISIONS WITHIN THE PDI, AS WELL AS THE TENSIONS THAT HAVE ALREADY COME TO THE SURFACE BETWEEN GOLKAR AND PPP, SIMILAR INCIDENTS COULD RECUR DURING THE CAMPAIGN. END SUMMARY

3. (U) POLOFF ON APRIL 22 DISCUSSED THE UPCOMING ELECTION CAMPAIGN WITH ABDUL GAFUR, ONE OF GOLKAR'S EIGHT NATIONAL CHAIRPERSONS AND THE HEAD OF ITS ELECTION EFFORT. GAFUR

WAS ACCOMPANIED BY TWO OTHER GOLKAR OPERATIVES. EARLIER, POLOFF HELD SIMILAR DISCUSSIONS WITH NATIONAL LEVEL OFFICIALS FROM GOLKAR, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP), AND THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED FACTION OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI). LABATT DISCUSSED THE CAMPAIGN WITH PPP SECRETARY GENERAL TOSARI WIDJAJA, AND POLCOUNS AND POLFF MET WITH SURYADI, THE CHAIRMAN OF THE GOVERNMENT BACKED FACTION OF THE PDI, ON APRIL 18 (REFTEL A). A MEETING WITH OUSTED PDI LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI WAS COVERED IN A SEPARATE MESSAGE (REFTEL E).

GOLKAR CLAIMS TO WANT "SUBSTANTIVE" CAMPAIGN: OUTLINES

APPROACH TO CAMPAIGNING AND THEMES

4. (C) ABDUL GAFUR, ONE OF EIGHT GOLKAR NATIONAL CHAIRPERSONS AND THE HEAD OF ITS ELECTION EFFORT, DESCRIBED FOR POLOFF ON APRIL 22 GOLKAR'S CAMPAIGN PREPARATIONS. HE WAS ACCOMPANIED BY TWO OTHER CENTRAL BOARD MEMBERS, ABUDLLAH ALATAS FAHMI AND DIN SYAMSUDDIN, THE CHIEFS OF GOLKAR'S COMMUNICATIONS AND RESEARCH OFFICES RESPECTIVELY. THE MEETING WAS HELD AT GOLKAR NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS IN GAFUR'S OFFICE, WHICH HE DESCRIBED AS THE HEART OF THE CAMPAIGN "WAR ROOM."

5. (C) GAFUR EMPHASIZED THE ENORMOUS LOGISTICAL CHALLENGE OF ORGANIZING AND DEPLOYING GOLKAR'S THOUSAND-PLUS NATIONAL LEVEL CAMPAIGNERS, WHO WOULD BE LINKED UP WITH REPRESENTATIVES AT LOCAL LEVELS, THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY DURING THE CAMPAIGN. ALL OF THE NATIONAL CAMPAIGNERS

WOULD GATHER IN JAKARTA ON APRIL 24 FOR A FINAL MEETING BEFORE THE BEGINNING OF THE CAMPAIGN. THEMATICALLY, GOLKAR WOULD FOCUS ON ITS FUTURE VISION OF WHAT INDONESIA SHOULD BE IN THE YEAR 2018, CURRENT ISSUES FACING THE COUNTRY, AND OBJECTIVES ALREADY ACHIEVED. GAFUR OFFERED NO DETAILS ON GOLKAR'S IDEAS OR PROGRAMS, BUT PRESENTED POLOFF WITH SIX BOOKS THAT WERE BEING USED TO PREPARE THE CAMPAIGNERS. THE BOOKS ARE TITLED:

BOOK ONE: "RESULTS OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT"

BOOK TWO: "RESULTS OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, LEVEL TWO" (PROFILES EACH PROVINCE)

BOOK THREE: "GOLKAR'S STANDPOINT ON CURRENT PROBLEMS"

BOOK FOUR: "VISION OF NEW ORDER DEVELOPMENT WITHIN SECOND LONG TERM TIMEFRAME: PICTURE OF INDONESIAN SOCIETY IN 2018"

BOOK FIVE: "MAIN THEMES, THEMES, SUB-THEMES AND SLOGANS FOR GOLKAR'S 1997 ELECTION CAMPAIGN"

BOOK SIX: "IMPLEMENTATION GUIDELINES FROM GOLKAR CENTRAL BOARD"

6. (SBU) BOOKS ONE AND TWO ARE FULL OF STATISTICS. THE

FIRST IS DIVIDED INTO SECTIONS ON THE ECONOMY, THE PEOPLE'S PROSPERITY, AND POLITICS, GOVERNMENT APPARATUS, LAW AND INFORMATION. THE SECOND HAS STATISTICS AND INFORMATION FOR EACH OF INDONESIA'S 27 PROVINCES. THE THIRD PROVIDES SUGGESTED ANSWERS FOR CAMPAIGNERS TO USE TO DIFFICULT QUESTIONS THAT MIGHT BE ASKED IN THE DIALOGUES. FOR EXAMPLE, THERE ARE SECTIONS ON "GOLPUT" (ELECTION BOYCOTT), DUAL FUNCTION OF THE MILITARY, PARLIAMENT'S ROLE, FREEDOM OF THE PRESS, COLLUSION/CORRUPTION, THE ROLE OF NGOS, THE ANTI-SUBVERSION LAW, ETC. BOOK FOUR IS A "VISION STATEMENT," AND BOOK FIVE FLESHES OUTS SLOGANS AND SUB-THEMES TO ACCOMPANY BROADER THEMES.

7. (C) GAFUR DESCRIBED A THREE PRONGED SYSTEM FOR CONDUCTING THE NEW STYLE "DIALOGUE" CAMPAIGN PLANNED FOR THIS ELECTION. CAMPAIGNERS WOULD STILL ADDRESS VOTERS IN "MONOLOGUES" (SPEECHES), COMPLETE WITH ENTERTAINMENT, WHICH COULD TAKE PLACE IN PUBLIC OUTDOOR SPACES. HOWEVER, THESE GATHERINGS WOULD BE MORE CONTROLLED AND NOT AS LARGE AS IN THE PAST. THERE WOULD ALSO BE "DIALOGUE" EVENTS INSIDE BUILDINGS HIRED BY GOLKAR WHERE CAMPAIGNERS WOULD HAVE EXCHANGES WITH GOLKAR MEMBERS AND "SYMPATHIZERS." FINALLY, THERE WERE NINE TELEVISION SPOTS FOR EACH PARTY THAT WOULD BE BROADCAST NATION WIDE ON THE GOVERNMENT TELEVISION STATION "TVRI." TWO OF THE NINE WOULD BE "MONOLOGUES," ONE BY PARTY GENERAL CHAIRMAN HARMOKO AND ONE BY GAFUR.

8. (C) ONE OF THE MAIN OBJECTIVES WOULD BE TO STOP THE LARGE MASS STREET RALLIES THAT HAD BEEN POPULAR IN PAST CAMPAIGNS. EACH PARTY WOULD HAVE TO REGISTER ITS VEHICLES

WITH THE POLICE AND PROVIDE INFORMATION ON THE ROUTES THAT WOULD BE USED TO ARRIVE AT PUBLIC CAMPAIGN EVENTS. HOWEVER, GAFUR EXPECTED THAT IMPLEMENTATION OF THIS NEW SYSTEM WOULD NOT BE SMOOTH, AND IMPLIED THAT THERE WOULD BE SOME FLEXIBILITY, AT LEAST AT THE OUTSET, IN ITS ENFORCEMENT. HE SAID THAT ALTHOUGH THERE WAS A WHOLE NEW SYSTEM OF RULES AND REGULATIONS ON THE BOOKS, IT REMAINED TO BE SEEN HOW THE NEW SYSTEM WOULD BE "PRACTICED IN THE FIELD." THE GOVERNMENT WOULD HAVE TO "WAIT AND SEE." FOR EXAMPLE, IT WOULD BE A PROBLEM IF AFTER A CAMPAIGN EVENT THE PARTICIPANTS BOARDED THEIR VEHICLES AND PARADED AROUND THE CITY.

9. (C) GAFUR DESCRIBED GOLKAR'S BIGGEST ELECTION CHALLENGE AS "WINNING OVER YOUNG PEOPLE" WHO, AS A RESULT OF SUCCESSFUL DEVELOPMENT POLICES, NOW "TAKE THINKS FOR GRANTED." MOVEOVER, THEY WERE BETTER EDUCATED AND HAD ACCESS TO MORE EDUCATION WHICH MADE THEM MORE CRITICAL. (NOTE: IT IS WIDELY EXPECTED THAT, GIVEN THE YOUTH OF THE INDONESIAN POPULATION, FIRST-TIME VOTERS WILL PLAY A MAJOR ROLE IN THIS ELECTION. END NOTE.)

10. (C) BESIDES BEING THE [redacted] B1

HE SAID THAT GOLKAR'S VOTE TARGET IN JAKARTA WAS SIXTY PERCENT (UP FROM THE 54.4 IT OFFICIALLY SECURED IN 1992) AND 72 PERCENT IN WEST JAVA (ACHIEVED 70.4 IN 1992). HE SAID THAT EVERYONE WANTED TO WIN THE CAPITAL, [redacted] B1

DOWNPLAYED THE RESTRICTIVENESS OF THE NEW RULES (NOTE: IN ADDITION TO SEVERELY CIRCUMSCRIBING MASS STREET RALLIES IN FAVOR OF A "DIALOGUE CAMPAIGN" IN CONTROLLED AREAS, THESE INCLUDED RULES THAT WOULD EFFECTIVELY REDUCE THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD TO NINE DAYS IN EACH AREA OF THE COUNTRY, REQUIRE PRE-SCREENING BROADCAST CAMPAIGN SPEECHES ON OTHER MATERIAL, ETC. END NOTE.). SHE CONTENDED THAT THE CONCEPT OF MOVING FROM A MASS BASED EFFORT TO A MORE CONTROLLED "DIALOGUE" CAMPAIGN WAS INTENDED TO PREVENT THE VIOLENCE THAT HAD OCCURRED IN THE PAST, AS WELL AS TO MAKE THE CAMPAIGN MORE "SUBSTANTIVE." IN THE PAST, PEOPLE HAD ATTENDED CAMPAIGN EVENTS SIMPLY TO LISTEN PASSIVELY OR TO BE ENTERTAINED. IN THE NEW CAMPAIGN, THEY WOULD BE ABLE TO ENGAGE WITH THE CANDIDATES AND THE CAMPAIGN REPRESENTATIVES. SHE DID ACKNOWLEDGE THAT IT WOULD BE

12. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT GOLKAR HAD BEEN SERIOUSLY PREPARING ITS REPRESENTATIVES TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS NEW CAMPAIGN FRAMEWORK. THE TRAINING ADDRESSED PROCESS ISSUES SUCH AS HOW TO ORGANIZE THE CAMPAIGN EVENTS. IT ALSO SERVED TO FAMILIARIZE THE CAMPAIGNERS WITH THE CONCERNS OF PEOPLE IN

SPECIFIC AREAS OF THE COUNTRY. CAMPAIGNERS WERE BRIEFED ON ISSUES THAT THEY WOULD BE ASKED ABOUT, SUCH AS THE PROBLEMS OF THE BUREAUCRACY, BANKING, ETC.

13. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT GOLKAR'S TELEVISION CAMPAIGN WOULD FOCUS ON "WHERE INDONESIA WOULD BE BY THE YEAR 2018." GOLKAR WOULD USE SEVEN OF THE NINE TELEVISION SPOTS PERMITTED BY THE RULES TO FOCUS ON A "STRATEGIC TARGET GROUP." SHE SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED WOMEN, FARMERS AND THE FISHING INDUSTRY, AND YOUTH. ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL APPROACHES IN THIS AND OTHER PARTS OF THE CAMPAIGN WOULD BE TO FOCUS ON THE RELATIVE IMPROVEMENTS IN PEOPLE'S LIVES. FOR EXAMPLE, IN THE TELEVISION SESSION ON FARMERS AND THE FISHING INDUSTRY, THE GOLKAR REPRESENTATIVES WOULD USE STATISTICS TO SHOW WHERE PEOPLE HAD STARTED FROM ECONOMICALLY, WHERE THEY WERE NOW, AND WHERE THEY WERE GOING. SHE THOUGHT THAT ALL CAMPAIGN SESSIONS INVOLVING YOUTH GROUPS WERE ESPECIALLY DIFFICULT BECAUSE THEY ASKED THE TOUGHEST QUESTIONS. B1

14. (C) [redacted] IS RESPONSIBLE FOR GOLKAR'S OVERALL CAMPAIGN EFFORT IN THE FOUR PROVINCES OF SULAWESI. SHE MENTIONED THAT GOLKAR TRADITIONALLY WON 90 PERCENT OF THE VOTE IN SULAWESI, AND ACKNOWLEDGED THAT HER JOB WAS FAR EASIER THAN THAT OF PRESIDENTIAL DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI B1

(TUTUT), WHO WAS IN CHARGE OF THE CAMPAIGN IN CENTRAL AND EAST JAVA WHERE GOLKAR'S SECURED RELATIVELY LESS VOTES IN 1992 (55.4 AND 58.8 PERCENT RESPECTIVELY). SHE SAID MORE REGIONAL AUTONOMY WAS A MAJOR INTEREST OF CITIZENS IN SULAWESI [redacted]. A MAJOR OBJECTIVE WAS TO LISTEN TO THEIR CONCERNS AND TO RECEIVE THEIR INPUT. B1

16. (C) [redacted] TOLD B1
POLCOUNS APRIL 19 THAT GOLKAR WOULD INCLUDE AMONG ITS THEMES FOR THE CAMPAIGN "OPENNESS," "EMPOWERMENT OF THE PEOPLE" AND "DEMOCRATIZATION. HE WAS NOT PREPARED TO OFFER SPECIFIC POLICY IDEAS WHICH WOULD ADVANCE THESE OBJECTIVES, BUT ADDED THAT BY "EMPOWERMENT," GOLKAR AIMED TO INCREASE BOTH THE ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL POWER OF THOSE OUTSIDE THE MIDDLE CLASS. [redacted] SAID THAT IT WOULD BE B1 WRONG TO THINK THAT GOLKAR WAS ONLY EMPLOYING THESE OBJECTIVES RHETORICALLY, ADDING THAT GOLKAR CANDIDATES LIKE HIMSELF WOULD BE WORKING DIRECTLY AMONG THE PEOPLE IN THEIR ASSIGNED DISTRICTS AND WOULD THEREFORE NEED TO RESPOND TO VOTERS' QUESTIONS ABOUT SPECIFICS.

THAT ALL OF THE NEW RESTRICTIVE CAMPAIGN RULES WERE DETRIMENTAL TO HIS PARTY'S EFFORTS. HE BELIEVED THE RULES CUT OFF THE OPPORTUNITY OF THE MINORITY PARTIES TO "REACH OUT" TO FOLLOWERS AND POTENTIAL NEW SUPPORTERS, ESPECIALLY THE YOUNG. THE DEGREE TO WHICH THE GOVERNMENT WOULD TRY TO ENFORCE THE NEW RULES WAS A KEY QUESTION, ACCORDING TO [redacted] IT WAS NOT CLEAR B1
WHETHER PEOPLE THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY WOULD BE FULLY AWARE OF THE NEW SITUATION. HE ALSO CITED THE LACK OF CAMPAIGN FUNDS TO BE SUPPLIED BY THE GOVERNMENT TO EACH PARTY AS A MAJOR IMPEDIMENT. FUNDS WERE REQUIRED ESPECIALLY FOR TRANSPORTATION AND TO PREPARE AREAS FOR THE CAMPAIGN (SUPPLYING T-SHIRTS IN THE PDI COLOR RED, FOR EXAMPLE). B1

18. (C) [redacted] EXPRESSED PARTICULAR CONCERN ABOUT THE PROSPECT OF ELECTION FRAUD. THE GOVERNMENT ALLOWED EACH PARTY TO SEND A REPRESENTATIVE TO EACH OF THE THOUSANDS OF POLLING STATIONS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY TO OBSERVE THE

VOTING AND THE VOTE COUNTING. [redacted] EXPLAINED THAT THIS B1

SOUNDED GOOD IN THEORY, BUT IN PRACTICE THE MECHANISM BY WHICH THE WITNESSES WERE SELECTED AND APPROVED WAS DEEPLY

FLAWED. THE LOCAL DISTRICT HEAD (OR "BUPATI," A GOLKAR MEMBER) HAD APPROVAL AUTHORITY OVER THE ENTIRE LIST FOR HIS AREA AND COULD BLOCK CHOICES PROPOSED BY THE MINORITY PARTIES. IN ADDITION, THERE WAS A SIGNIFICANT LOGISTICAL PROBLEM. IN MANY CASES, THE PROPOSED PARTY WITNESS HAD TO JOURNEY FROM THE VILLAGE WHERE HE OR SHE LIVED, AND WOULD WITNESS THE ELECTION, TO THE LOCATION OF THE DISTRICT HEAD TO GET APPROVAL. IF THE DISTRICT HEAD WAS UNAVAILABLE OR FOR ONE REASON OR ANOTHER, THE PROPOSED WITNESS WOULD NOT BE INCLUDED ON THE LIST. IN THIS WAY, THE MINORITY PARTIES DID NOT HAVE THE WITNESSES THEY WANTED, OR ANY WITNESSES AT ALL, AT MANY POLLING STATIONS.

19. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT IN AN EFFORT TO REMEDY THIS SITUATION, PDI HAD WRITTEN TO THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS PROPOSING THAT ALL PARTIES BE PERMITTED TO CHOOSE THEIR OWN ELECTION WITNESSES (TWO FOR EACH POLLING STATION) WITHOUT APPROVAL FROM THE DISTRICT HEAD. THEY HAD NOT YET RECEIVED A RESPONSE. [redacted] ALSO MENTIONED THAT WHILE IN PRINCIPLE THE WITNESSES WERE SUPPOSED TO BE PERMITTED TO SEE CLEARLY EACH BALLOT AS IT WAS PUBLICLY COUNTED, IN PRACTICE THIS WAS OFTEN NOT THE CASE. THE WITNESSES WERE PLACED FAR ENOUGH AWAY FROM THE COUNTING AREA SO THAT THEY COULD NOT SEE IF THE BALLOT THAT WAS HELD UP HAD BEEN MARKED FOR GOLKAR, THE PPP, OR PDI. (NOTE: IRONICALLY, FRAUD AND RESTRICTIONS ON MASS CAMPAIGNING COULD HELP THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED PDI. IT FEARS DISRUPTIONS FROM SUPPORTERS OF OUSTED PDI LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI. ALSO, SOME OBSERVERS SUSPECT THAT THE GOI WILL BE FORCED TO HELP THE PDI THROUGH FRAUD IF THAT PARTY IS TO HAVE A RESPECTABLE SHOWING, GIVEN THE ANGER OF MEGAWATI'S SUPPORTERS AT THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED LEADERSHIP OF THE PDI. END NOTE.)

20. (C) PPP HAS BEEN SIMILARLY FOCUSSED ON A FLAWED CAMPAIGN PROCESS AND THE LIKELIHOOD OF ELECTION FRAUD. [redacted] AND A PARLIAMENTARIAN, EXPRESSED CONCERNS SIMILAR TO [redacted] HE TOLD POLOFF THAT THE NEW CAMPAIGN RULES "MADE IT VERY HARD FOR THE PPP TO COMPETE" AGAINST GOLKAR. HE QUESTIONED GOLKAR'S MOTIVES FOR PUSHING A "DIALOGUE" CAMPAIGN. PPP HAD SUGGESTED THAT THESE DIALOGUES BE HELD BETWEEN THE THREE PARTIES, BUT HAD BEEN REBUFFED BY GOLKAR WHO HAD INSISTED THAT THE PUBLIC DISCUSSIONS BE HELD STRICTLY WITHIN EACH PARTY. [redacted] BELIEVED THAT GOLKAR WANTED A "SCRIPTED" DIALOGUE ONLY. GIVEN THE CONSTRAINTS OF THE OFFICIAL CAMPAIGN RULES, THE HEAD PPP'S "WINNING THE ELECTION" COMMITTEE HAD EARLIER TOLD POLOFF THAT THE PARTY WOULD ATTEMPT TO CIRCUMVENT THE RULES BY HOLDING SMALL, NON-OFFICIAL MEETINGS WITH EXISTING AND NEW SUPPORTERS.

21. (C) [redacted] EMPHASIZED HIS BELIEF THAT ELECTION FRAUD WOULD PLAY A SIGNIFICANT ROLE, IN SOME PARTS OF THE COUNTRY, IN GOLKAR'S INEVITABLE VICTORY. HE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE ELECTION WAS RELATIVELY COMPETITIVE IN JAVA BECAUSE OF MEDIA EXPOSURE AND A RELATIVELY HIGHER DEGREE OF CULTURAL SOPHISTICATION (NOTE: HE IS FROM CENTRAL JAVA. END NOTE.) HOWEVER, HE CONTENDED THAT OUTSIDE OF JAVA, THE RULING PARTY GOLKAR HAD "RELATIVELY MORE CONTROL" THROUGH FRAUD, AND HE HAD NO IDEA WHAT PPP'S PROSPECTS MIGHT BE IN THOSE PARTS OF THE COUNTRY. HE HAD EMPHASIZED TO THE

22. (C) PPP'S SECRETARY GENERAL TOSARI WIDJAJA WAS SIMILARLY FOCUSSED ON THE CERTAINTY OF CAMPAIGN VIOLATIONS AND ELECTION FRAUD, AND WAS DISCOURAGED ABOUT THE PROSPECTS FOR PPP TO BE ABLE TO COMPETE EFFECTIVELY, IN A DISCUSSION WITH LABATT ON APRIL 10. HE HAD JUST RETURNED FROM MEDAN, WHERE PPP HAD BEEN TRAINING IT CAMPAIGNERS TO SPOT PROBLEMS IN THE CAMPAIGN PROCEDURES AND VOTING (REFTEL B). HE SAID THAT PPP WAS MAKING A SPECIAL EFFORT TO COMPILE A RECORD OF VIOLATIONS IN THE CAMPAIGN AND VOTING, AND THAT IT PLANNED TO SHARE THIS INFORMATION WITH THE EMBASSY AFTERWARD. LIKE [redacted] HE WAS ESPECIALLY CONCERNED ABOUT AREAS OUTSIDE OF JAVA (SPECIFICALLY SOUTH SUMATRA, LAMPUNG, KALIMANTAN, AND NUSA TENGGARA), WHICH HE SAID WERE BEYOND THE REACH OF MONITORS AND WERE COMPLETELY CONTROLLED BY LOCAL GOVERNMENT POLITICAL APPARATUS. EDUCATION, MANPOWER, AND ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL GAPS AS EXAMPLES. IN TERMS OF SOLUTIONS, HE BELIEVED THAT THE PRIORITIES OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS SHOULD BE CHANGED. WITHIN THE NATION'S DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM, THE ECONOMY HAD BEEN EMPHASIZED AT THE EXPENSE OF POLITICAL LIFE, EDUCATION, CULTURE AND MORAL CHARACTER BUILDING.

24. (C) DISCUSSING POLITICAL REFORM, SURYADI SAID THAT INDONESIA HAD "THE STRUCTURE AND INSTITUTIONS THAT A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT NEEDED." HOWEVER, IT DID NOT YET HAVE THE "SUBSTANCE OF DEMOCRACY," AND THIS WAS A PRINCIPAL PDI OBJECTIVE. FOR EXAMPLE, PDI AND PPP SHOULD

NOT JUST "EXIST AS POLITICAL PARTIES," BUT SHOULD ACT AS THE CONSTITUTION PROMISED. HE SAID THE PDI WOULD PROPOSE REVIEW OF FOUR OF THE FIVE "POLITICAL LAWS." (NOTE: THESE ARE WIDELY SEEN AS PROVIDING PART OF THE BASIC FOUNDATION OF THE POLITICAL STRUCTURE THAT GUARANTEES GOLKAR DOMINANCE AND WEAKENS THE MINORITY POLITICAL PARTIES. CALLING FOR REPEAL OF THESE LAWS HAS BEEN A PLATFORM ITEM OF THE DEMOCRATIC PEOPLE'S PARTY OR PRD, AND ONE OF THE REASONS CITED BY THE GOI FOR CHARGING IT WITH SUBVERSION. END NOTE.) HE ALSO WANTED TO CHANGE THE SYSTEM SO THAT THE LEADERSHIP OF THE PARLIAMENT (DPR) AND THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) WERE NO LONGER THE SAME, AND HE REPEATED HIS PUBLIC CALL FOR THE GOVERNMENT TO ALLOW MINORITY PARTY MEMBERS INTO THE CABINET.

25. (C) REGARDING SOCIAL JUSTICE, PDI DID NOT SEEK TO STOP THE GROWTH OF THE RICH, BUT INSTEAD BELIEVED THERE SHOULD BE MORE PRIORITY ON HELPING POOR, WEAK, AND REMOTE AREAS OF INDONESIA. SURYADI SAID THAT HE FULLY SUPPORTED

PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S STATE BUDGET FOR 1997-98 WHICH PLACED MORE EMPHASIS ON REMOTE AREAS AND THE POOR.

EXAMPLES OF PPP CAMPAIGN THEMES

26. (C) [redacted] OUTLINED B1
SEVERAL ISSUES THAT HIS PARTY WOULD BE FOCUSSING ON DURING THE CAMPAIGN AND AFTERWARD. PPP WANTED "FULL IMPLEMENTATION OF PANCASILA DEMOCRACY" BY ALLOWING REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE MINORITY PARTIES INTO THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH (NOTE: THE RULING PARTY GOLKAR COMPLETELY CONTROLS THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH. END NOTE.) HE POINTED OUT THAT THE CURRENT SYSTEM ALLOWED NO OPPOSITION, AND ALL POLITICAL PLAYERS WERE SUPPOSED TO WORK TOGETHER TO PROMOTE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT. THE MINORITY PARTIES, PPP AND PDI, WERE PERMITTED A ROLE IN FORMULATING THE STATE GUIDELINES APPROVED EVERY FIVE YEARS BY THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY. HOWEVER, ONCE THAT WAS COMPLETE, THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH CARRIED OUT THE IMPLEMENTATION AND THE MINORITY PARTIES WERE COMPLETELY EXCLUDED. IN ADDITION TO SOME REPRESENTATION IN THE CABINET, THE MINORITY PARITIES SHOULD BE REPRESENTED AS VICE-GOVERNORS AND VICE-REGENTS. IF THIS WAS NOT PERMITTED, THEN PPP WOULD CONSIDER BECOMING A TRUE OPPOSITION. THE MINORITY PARTIES WERE REPRESENTED AND GIVEN LEADERSHIP ROLES WITHIN THE PARLIAMENT, BUT THE PARLIAMENT WAS FOR THE MOST PART AN "OBSERVER," IN SOME CASES A "CONTROLLER," BUT NEVER AN IMPLEMENTER.

27. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THE PPP'S ECONOMIC THEMES B1
CONFIDENTIAL

WOULD FOCUS ON POVERTY ALLEVIATION, AND MAKING SURE THAT MANY WHO WERE NOT COVERED NOW WERE INCLUDED IN GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS. THE PARTY WOULD SPOTLIGHT THE PROBLEM OF THE RULING PARTY'S "NEPOTISM," ESPECIALLY IN ITS SELECTION OF CAMPAIGN CANDIDATES FOR THE ELECTION. HE CLAIMED THAT PPP DID NOT ENGAGE IN ANY NEPOTISM. HE SAID THAT ANOTHER THEME WOULD BE THE "POLITICS OF TAXPAYERS." THE GOVERNMENT ONLY RECOGNIZED THE IFLUENCE OF THE COUNTRY'S LARGEST TAXPAYERS, INORING TAXES PAID BY REGULAR CITIZENS IN EVERY DAY LIFE. THIS SHOULD MAKE THE GOVERNMENT MORE RESPONSIVE TO THE PEOPLE. FOR EXAMPLE, HE CITED THAT 70 PERCENT OF THE MILITARY BUDGET WAS PAID FOR BY TAXPAYERS. OTHER ISSUES THAT THE PARTY WOULD ADDRESS WOULD INCLUDE CLEAN GOVERNMENT AND EDUCATION.

GOI'S CONCERNS ABOUT CAMPAIGN AND ELECTION

[redacted] B1

RECENTLY OUTLINED HIS VIEW OF THE GOVERNMENT'S CONCERNS ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN AND ELECTION AT A SMALL PRIVATE BRIEFING FOR THE U.S.-ASEAN BUSINESS COUNCIL. [redacted] B1 POINTED OUT THAT WHILE THE RULING PARTY GOLKAR ALWAYS WON, IT LOST SEVENTEEN SEATS IN PARLIAMENT IN THE 1992 ELECTION

(PDI GAINED SIXTEEN AND PPP ONE). HE BELIEVED THIS LOSS WAS EXTRAORDINARY GIVEN THE "RESOURCES AND BACKING" THAT

THE GOVERNMENT PARTY RECEIVED FROM THE "BUREAUCRACY" (REFTEL H). THIS OUTCOME, HE CONTENDED, SHOWED THAT THE HIGHLY CONSTRAINED ELECTION SYSTEM COULD "REGISTER PUBLIC MOODS" AND ACT AS "SOMETHING OF A POLLING MECHANISM." GOLKAR WAS DETERMINED TO GAIN BACK THE LOST SEATS IN THIS ELECTION, AND HAD SET A GOAL OF WINNING 70 PERCENT OF THE VOTE.

29. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT INDONESIA TYPICALLY HAD A VOTING TURNOUT OF 95 PERCENT (NOTE: OTHER OBSERVERS HAVE ESTIMATED THE NUMBER TO BE 90 PERCENT. END NOTE.) HE CHARACTERIZED THIS AS VOTER "INVOLVEMENT" NOT "PARTICIPATION," DUE TO ITS OBLIGATORY NATURE. ALTHOUGH THERE WAS NO LAW REQUIRING A CITIZEN TO VOTE, THE GOVERNMENT STRONGLY "ENCOURAGED" PEOPLE TO DO SO. MOREOVER, HE SAID, VOTING WAS SEEN AS A "MORAL OBLIGATION" AND A SOCIAL AND POLITICAL EVENT, AND IF THE LOCALS GATHERED AROUND THE VOTING STATION ON ELECTION DAY NOTICED THAT ONE OF THEIR NEIGHBORS WAS NOT PRESENT, THEY WOULD GO LOOKING FOR THAT PERSON. B1

30. (C) [redacted] EXPLAINED THAT THE GOI WANTED TO "PERFECT" THE ELECTION. THE "REPUTATION" OF THE ELECTION HINGED MORE ON THE PERCENTAGE OF NON-VOTERS THAN ON ITS ORDERLY IMPLEMENTATION. [redacted] BELIEVED THAT THIS ELECTION HAD BEEN COLORED BY "MORE VISIBLE VOICES OF DISSENT." THERE WERE THOSE WHO QUESTIONED WHETHER THEY SHOULD VOTE OR WHETHER THE ELECTION WOULD BE "FAIR AND EVEN-HANDED." THE GOVERNMENT WAS "APPREHENSIVE" AND WORRIED THAT THERE WOULD BE A HIGH PERCENTAGE OF NON-VOTERS ("GOLPUT" WHICH MEANS "GOLONGAN PUTIH" OR WHITE/NEUTRAL GROUP). B1 B1

31. (C) REPEATED PUBLIC STATEMENTS BY PRESIDENT SOEHARTO, AS WELL AS OTHER HIGH LEVEL GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY OFFICIALS, IN THE RUN UP TO THE ELECTION HAVE UNDERSCORED THE GOI'S CONCERNS ABOUT VOTER PARTICIPATION AND POTENTIAL DISRUPTIONS TO THE CAMPAIGN. SOEHARTO WAS QUOTED IN THE PRESS ON MARCH 14 AS WARNING PUBLICLY THAT "WHOEVER ATTEMPTS TO PREVENT THE PEOPLE FROM GOING TO THE POLLS ON ELECTION DAY AND DISTURBS THE COURSE OF THE EVENT WILL BE DEALT WITH SEVERELY." THIS CAME TWO WEEKS AFTER HE SAID PUBLICLY THAT ALL CITIZENS SHOULD VOTE BECAUSE IT WAS THEIR OPPORTUNITY TO INFLUENCE THE COURSE OF DEVELOPMENT. AT THE BEGINNING OF APRIL, IT WAS WIDELY REPORTED IN THE MEDIA THAT THE PRESIDENT TOLD TOP MILITARY LEADERS TO ENSURE THAT THE ELECTION WAS "SMOOTH."

PROSPECTS FOR VIOLENCE DURING THE CAMPAIGN

32. (C) THERE IS WIDESPREAD CONCERN THAT POLITICAL VIOLENCE WILL OCCUR DURING THE CAMPAIGN, ESPECIALLY IN CENTRAL JAVA. THERE HAVE ALREADY BEEN SPORADIC INCIDENTS DURING THE PRE-CAMPAIGN IN CENTRAL JAVA, BALI, JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE (REFTELS C, D, G AND F). GAFUR, THE HEAD OF GOLKAR'S ELECTION EFFORT, OFFERD HIS VIEW TO POLOFF THAT THERE WAS "GREAT EMOTION" IN THE COUNTRY AT THE MOMENT. THIS COULD BE SEEN FROM THE RIOTS IN SITUBONDO, TASIKMALAYA, AND MORE RECENTLY IN PEKALONGAN. THIS MEANT THAT GOLKAR HAD TO BE VERY CAREFUL DURING THE CAMPAIGN. GAFUR SPECIFIED THAT ACEH WAS CALM (NOTE: HAS BEEN A TROUBLE SPOT FOR GOLKAR IN THE PAST. END NOTE), BUT THAT

"JAVA WAS ANOTHER THING."

33. (C) SURYADI, THE CHAIRMAN OF THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED FACTION OF THE PDI, DIRECTLY ACKNOWLEDGED TO POLCOUNS AND POLOFF THAT HIS OPERATION WAS UNDER THREAT FROM MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS IN CENTRAL JAVA. HE SAID THAT THEY HAD BEEN TRYING TO INTIMIDATE HIS PEOPLE, EVEN THROUGH "PHYSICAL POWER." IF HIS SUPPORTERS TRIED TO PUT UP A PDI FLAG, WITHIN TWO TO THREE HOURS IT WOULD BE REMOVED BY THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. HE CLAIMED THAT THEY WOULD EVEN COME TO THE PDI OFFICES TO DESTROY THE BUILDINGS. IN A FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF SURYADI'S WEAK POSITION, PDI CENTRAL BOARD MEMBER ANWAR DATUK TOLD POLOFF THAT IT WAS HIS HOPE THAT TRADITIONAL PDI VOTERS, ESPECIALLY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, WOULD SIMPLY "SEE THE NAME PDI" AND GIVE THEIR VOTES TO THE PARTY.

B1

34. (C) [redacted] MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT, TOLD POLOFF HE WAS HOPEFUL, BUT NOT OPTIMISTIC, THAT THERE WOULD BE NO MORE VIOLENCE DURING THE CAMPAIGN SIMILAR TO THE CLASHES BETWEEN GOLKAR AND THE PPP THAT HAVE OCCURRED SINCE THE END OF MARCH IN CENTRAL JAVA. HE BELIEVED THERE WAS A GREAT DEAL OF ANGER IN THE POPULATION THAT WAS BEING FOCUSSED ON SUCH ISSUES AS A POPULAR ENTERTAINMENT FIGURE AND CAMPAIGNER, WHO USED TO

2. (C) SUMMARY: A "MORAL MESSAGE" IN THE NAME OF EIGHT YOUTH AND EDUCATIONAL GROUPS OF THE "BIG FAMILY OF NAHDLATUL ULAMA" (NU IS INDONESIA'S LARGEST MUSLIM ORGANIZATION) RELEASED APRIL 25 HAS INDIRECTLY CALLED FOR AN ELECTION BOYCOTT. THE CHAIRMAN OF NU, ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, QUICKLY DISTANCED HIMSELF FROM THE MESSAGE, CALLING THE YOUTH "IMPUDENT" AND SAYING HE WAS NOT INFORMED ABOUT IT IN ADVANCE. ON OF HIS CHIEF POLITICAL DEPUTIES REITERATED TO US PRIVATELY THAT NU DID NOT AGREE WITH THE PARTS OF THE STATEMENT THAT INDIRECTLY CALLED FOR AN ELECTION BOYCOTT. THE SPONSORS, HOWEVER, SAID ABDURRAHMAN WAHID "HAD TO BE ANGRY" TO PROTECT THE ORGANIZATION. THEY SAID THAT THEY HAD CONSULTED WITH HIM AND OTHER NU LEADERS MANY TIMES PRIOR TO DRAFTING THE MESSAGE, AND THEY BELIEVED THAT HE AGREED WITH THE SUBSTANCE OF IT. AT THE SAME TIME, THE GROUPS ARE ALSO REMINDING WAHID THAT THEIR POLITICAL VIEWS CANNOT BE TAKEN LIGHTLY AND OF THEIR INFLUENCE WITHIN NU. END SUMMARY.

3. (SBU) ON APRIL 25, SEVERAL NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU) YOUTH AND STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, AND THREE NU INSTITUTES, ISSUED THE FOLLOWING MORAL MESSAGE CONCERNING THE MAY PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS:

TEXT OF THE MESSAGE (INFORMAL EMBASSY TRANSLATION):

TITLE: MORAL MESSAGE OF THE BIG FAMILY OF THE NU IN THE RUN-UP TO THE 1997 GENERAL ELECTION

THE GENERAL ELECTION IS AN IMPORTANT TOOL WHEREBY TO GAUGE WHETHER POWER IN A COUNTRY IS GAINED THROUGH PUBLIC CONSENT OR SEIZED BY AN ILLEGITIMATE FORCE, WHETHER POWER CAN BE CIRCULATED

PERIODICALLY, OPEN TO ANYBODY, OR WHETHER IT HAS BECOME A VESTED INTEREST FOR A CERTAIN CLAN, WHETHER POWER IS BEING ADMINISTERED IN A DEMOCRATIC MANNER, OR WHETHER IT HAS BECOME AN "INTERNAL" AFFAIR OF A PRIVILEGED GROUP, WHETHER POWER IS ADMINISTERED IN A "NORMAL" MANNER OR BASED ON EMERGENCY MEASURES.

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE, WE CONSIDER THE GENERAL ELECTION IMPORTANT.

THE GENERAL ELECTION IS A RIGHT, NOT AN OBLIGATION TO EVERY INDONESIAN CITIZEN. IT IS A RIGHT BECAUSE EVERY CITIZEN HAS FULL FREEDOM TO EXPRESS OR RESCIND HIS APPROVAL OF THE EXISTING "SYSTEM." IT IS NOT AN OBLIGATION, SINCE IT IS CONTRARY TO SUCH FREEDOM. IN LINE WITH THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK DESIRED BY THE NU'S 1926 ORIGINAL LINE, EVERY NU MEMBER HAS THE FULL RIGHT TO VOTE FOR ANY OF THE THREE PARTIES WITH NO ORGANIZATIONAL COMMITMENT TO ANY OF THEM. THE POLITICAL LINE OF THE NU REQUIRES THAT EVERY NU MEMBER USES HIS/HER RIGHT IN A FULLY RESPONSIBLE MANNER.

BUT WE DO NOT WANT TO PRETEND TO OVERLOOK THE REALITY THAT SOME SEGMENTS OF SOCIETY FEEL THAT IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO USE THEIR RIGHTS FOR SOME REASONS OR OTHER. THERE IS A STRONG DISSATISFACTION AMONG MEMBERS OF SOCIETY WITH THE EXISTING "SYSTEM," WHILE THEY THINK THAT THE ELECTION ITSELF IS UNABLE TO FULLY ENSURE IMPROVEMENTS OF THE SYSTEM. THERE IS A FEELING THAT THE GENERAL ELECTION HAS BECOME A "TOOL" IN ORDER TO MAINTAIN THE EXISTING POWER, NOT TO ENSURE CIRCULATION OF POWER OPEN TO EVERY CITIZEN. THERE IS A FEELING THAT THE ELECTION IS A MERE "TRICK" WHEREBY TO SHOW TO THE PEOPLE THAT THE CURRENT POWER IS LEGITIMATE. THERE IS A FEELING THAT THE "RULING" POLITICAL PARTY SEEKS TO WIN VICTORY BY ANY MEANS, SO POLITICAL DECORUM IS NO LONGER HEEDED. THERE IS A FEELING THAT THE RIGHT TO SUPERVISE THE GENERAL ELECTION HAS BECOME THE MONOPOLY OF A CERTAIN GOVERNMENT AGENCY, AS A RESULT, AN AUTONOMOUS PUBLIC CONTROL IS BECOMING DIFFICULT TO EXERCISE. THERE IS A FEELING THAT A CERTAIN POLITICAL PARTY HAS BEEN DELIBERATELY "PARALYZED" IN SUCH A WAY, SO THAT ITS MEMBERS LOSE A PLACE TO TAKE SHELTER UNDER AND ARE THUS LEFT IN THE LURCH.

OBVIOUSLY, SUCH FEELING DOES EXIST AMONG SOME SEGMENTS OF SOCIETY. IT IS THIS KIND OF FEELING THAT UNDERLIES THE STANCE OF SOME PEOPLE NOT TO USE THEIR VOTING RIGHTS. WE DO UNDERSTAND SUCH A FEELING AND STANCE, AND REGARD IT AS ONE OF THE POLITICAL MANIFESTATIONS WHICH CAN BE JUSTIFIED.

THE GENERAL ELECTION IS A WAY WHEREBY TO BUILD A CIVILIZED POLITICAL LIFE. THEREFORE, ALL FORMS OF IMPOLITE AND IMPROPER METHODS IN TRYING TO SECURE VICTORY IN A GENERAL ELECTION ARE CONTRARY TO THE WISHES OF THE PEOPLE OF THE LAND IN BUILDING A CIVILIZED LIFE.

END TEXT OF MESSAGE.

4. (U) THE "MORAL MESSAGE" FROM THE "BIG FAMILY OF NU" (KELUARGA BESAR NAHDLATUL ULAMA) WAS ISSUED ON FRIDAY APRIL 25 ON BEHALF OF EIGHT OF ITS AUTONOMOUS BODIES AND INSTITUTES, MOST OF THEM

CONFIDENTIAL

CONSIDERED TO BE NU YOUTH, STUDENT, AND EDUCATIONAL GROUPS. ACCORDING TO NU'S LITERATURE, THE ORGANIZATIONS'S NATIONAL LEVEL EXECUTIVE BOARD, "RELIGIOUS BODY," ADVISERS, AND 279 LOCAL BRANCHES ARE SUPPLEMENTED BY TEN "AUTONOMOUS BODIES," 12 INSTITUTES, AND FIVE COMMITTEES. THE AUTONOMOUS BODIES ARE UNDER THE EXECUTIVE BOARD, BUT THEIR LEADERS ARE ELECTED IN A SEPARATE "NU AUTONOMOUS BODY NATIONAL CONFERENCE." THE PURPOSE OF THE AUTONOMOUS BODIES IS TO "HELP IMPLEMENT THE NU POLICIES RELATED TO CERTAIN TARGET GROUPS (IN THE) COMMUNITY."

5. (U) THE EIGHT GROUPS LISTED AS SPONSORS OF THE MESSAGE ARE:
-YOUNG MEN STUDENT ASSOCIATION (IPNU);
-YOUNG WOMEN STUDENT ASSOCIATION (IPPNU);
-YOUNG WOMEN OF NU (FATAYAT);
-YOUNG MEN OF NU (ANSOR);
-THE INSTITUTE OF FAMILY WELFARE OF NU (LKKNU);
-THE INSTITUTE OF HUMAN RESOURCES STUDIES AND DEVELOPMENT (LAKPESDAM NU);
-EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTE MA'ARIF NU (SAID TO MANAGE 4114 KINDERGARTENS, 780 JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOLS, 299 SENIOR HIGH SCHOOLS, 26 ACADEMIES AND 19 UNIVERSITIES).

6. (U) THE MESSAGE WAS SIGNED BY ONLY SEVEN OF THE EIGHT GROUPS LISTED AS SPONSORS OF THE MESSAGE. ANSOR DECLINED TO SIGN.

7. (U) ABDURRAHMAN WAHID (ALSO KNOWN AS GUS DUR), THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF NU, REACTED QUICKLY AND NEGATIVELY IN PUBLIC TO THE
CONFIDENTIAL

STATEMENT. ACCORDING TO ONE PRESS REPORT HE SAID "THIS IS IMPUDENT OF THEM. THEY ARE OVERSTEPPING THE BOUNDARY. THE EXECUTIVE BOARD OF NU KNEW NOTHING OF THEIR MESSAGE." ACCORDING TO ANOTHER PRESS REPORT HE ADDED THAT IF THE STATEMENT DID NOT PURPORT TO BE ON BEHALF OF THE EXECUTIVE BOARD, AND ONLY REPRESENTED THE VIEWS OF "THE BIG FAMILY OF NU YOUTH," THEN "BE MY GUEST."

8. (C) [redacted] TRIED TO DISTANCE NU AS FAR AS POSSIBLE FROM THE POTENTIALLY MORE CONTROVERSIAL PARTS OF THE "MORAL MESSAGE" AND TO DOWNPLAY THE DEGREE TO WHICH IT REPRESENTED NU SENTIMENT. HE TOLD POLOFF THAT THERE WERE SPECIFIC PARTS OF THE STATEMENT THAT "WERE NOT NU AND THAT NU DID NOT AGREE WITH." HE SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED THE SECTIONS THAT INDIRECTLY CALLED FOR AN ELECTION BOYCOTT, AND EMPHASIZED THAT NU DID NOT SUPPORT SUCH A MOVE. HE ALSO QUESTIONED WHETHER THE STATEMENT TRULY REPRESENTED THE VIEWS OF ALL OF THE ORGANIZATIONS LISTED AS SPONSORS, OR WHETHER ITS CREATION HAD BEEN DRIVEN BY CERTAIN "ARCHITECTS," AND OTHERS HAD FOLLOWED ALONG TO EXPRESS WHAT THEY BELIEVED WAS NU SOLIDARITY. HE SPECULATED THAT SOME OF THOSE WHO JOINED MIGHT NOT HAVE KNOWN THE "INTERNAL ESSENCE" OF THE DOCUMENT. B1

9. (C) [redacted] SPECULATED THAT THE "ARCHITECTS" OF THE MORAL MESSAGE MIGHT HAVE BEEN TWO OF ITS SIGNATORIES, [redacted] HE BELIEVED THAT BOTH WERE INFLUENCED BY THOSE IN THE NGO MOVEMENT SEEKING AN ELECTION BOYCOTT. HE ALSO SAID THE PERSON WHO SIGNED FOR SEVERAL OF THE B1 B6

GROUPS WAS NOT THE ORGANIZATIONS'S CHAIRMAN, BUT INSTEAD ITS SECOND IN COMMAND, AND CALLED ATTENTION TO THE FACT THAT ONE OF THE EIGHT ORGANIZATIONS, ANSOR, HAD NOT SIGNED.

10. (C) [redacted] EMPHASIZED THAT NU COULD "TOLERATE DIFFERENT OPINIONS." IT WAS NOT SEEKING TO BRING SANCTIONS AGAINST THE SIGNATORIES OF THE "MORAL MESSAGE" AND WAS NOT EVEN ENGAGING IN DISCUSSION WITH THE GROUPS ON THE MATTER AT THIS TIME. B1

THE YOUTH MESSAGE: DON'T BE TOO SERIOUS ABOUT THE ELECTION

---

11. (C) ACCORDING TO LEADERS OF THE NU UNIVERSITY STUDENT ORGANIZATION (PMII), AND YOUNG WOMEN STUDENTS ASSOCIATION OF NU (IPPNU), THE MESSAGE SERVED TO REMIND PEOPLE THAT THE ELECTION SHOULD NOT BE JUST A "RITUAL OF A POLITICAL GAME." THEY WANTED TO REMIND "PEOPLE AND GUS DUR" THAT GIVEN THE CURRENT POLITICAL SITUATION, "DON'T BE TOO SERIOUS ABOUT THIS ELECTION." THEY WANTED TO SERVE AS A "MORAL FORCE" TO SHOW THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST BE QUESTIONED. THEY BELIEVED THAT THE CURRENT POLITICAL SYSTEM INVOLVED "NO PARTICIPATION" AND "NO TRUE LOYALTIES."

[redacted] B1

THEY WERE FOLLOWING WAHID'S PHILOSOPHY FOR THIS ELECTION, WHICH WAS THAT VOTING WAS A RIGHT AND NOT AN OBLIGATION. (NOTE: THE PAMPHLETS AND NOTEPADS FROM THE PMII NATIONAL CONFERENCE IN YOGYAKARTA IN MID-APRIL CONTAINED A HINT OF AN ELECTION BOYCOTT WITH CARTOONS INCLUDING A WHITE BOX READING "FREE TO MOVE, FREE TO READ, FREE TO SPEAK AND FREE WHITE" (A REFERENCE TO THE WHITE VOTE, OR NEUTRAL GROUP, USED TO INDICATE NON-PARTICIPATION IN THE ELECTION. END NOTE) LEADERS FROM THESE GROUPS HAVE CONSISTENTLY EXPRESSED SUPPORT FOR WAHID, AND HAVE TRIED TO EXPLAIN AND JUSTIFY HIS STRATEGIES TO POLOFF, INCLUDING HIS RECENT ALLIANCE WITH PRESIDENTIAL DAUGHTER SITI "TUTUT" HARDIYANTI, WHICH HAS DRAWN SOME CRITICISM INSIDE NU. ACCORDING TO THEM, THERE WAS A DANGER THAT INDONESIA WOULD FACE A CRISIS WITHIN SEVERAL YEARS DUE TO A LEADERSHIP TRANSITION. TUTUT WAS, THEY WERE ALMOST SURE, BEING GROOMED FOR LEADERSHIP. GUS DUR'S STRATEGY WAS TO WORK WITH HER SO THAT NU COULD END YEARS OF POLITICAL MARGINALIZATION.

15. (C) [redacted] B1

THE MORAL MESSAGE WAS NOT A REFLECTION OF ANY SPLITS IN NU, AND THAT THEY CONTINUED TO BE "GUS DURIANS." THEY ADMITTED THAT THEY HAD NOT SHOWN THE "FINAL DRAFT" TO GU DUR, AND THAT HE WAS SURPRISED BY THEIR PRES CONFERENCE TO RELEASE THE MESSAGE. HE WAS ASKD BY THE PRESS TO COMMENT ON THE MESSAGE BEFORE HE HAD SEEN IT. THIS MADE HIM ANGRY, THEY SAID, BUT ONLY BECAUSE OF THE TECHNICAL ASPECT OF THEM PRESENTING HIM WITH A "FAIT ACCOMPLI." THEY SAID HE DID NOT OBJECT TO THEM USING THE NAME OF THE BIG FAMILY OF NU YOUTH, BUT DID OBJECT TO THE USE OF THE BIG FAMILY OF NU.

16. (C) THE STUDENT LEADERS WERE NOT CONCERNED ABOUT WAHID'S ANGER, BECAUSE "HE HAS TO EXPRESS ANGER ABOUT IT IN ORDER TO PROTECT NU." RELATIONS INSIDE NU AND BETWEEN THE DIFFERENT NU ORGANIZATIONS WERE GOOD, AND WOULD NOT SUFFER ROM THE MESSAGE PUT OUT BY THE YOUTH, THEY BEIEVED. THEY INTERPRETED THE SITUATION AS POLTICALLY CLEVER, BECAUSE IT ALLOWED FOR AN NU MESSAGE ABOUT THE ELECTION WHILE PROTECTING WAHID AND THUS THE ORGANIZATION AS A WHOLE. IT WAS "GOOD FOR THE GAME." THEY SAID THAT "MANY WITNESSES" HAD HEARD WAHID SAY AT AN APRIL 28 DEMOCRACY FORUM MEETING, "I AM HAPPY WITH THE CHILDREN OF NU BECAUSE THEY HAVE BECOME SMARTER AND BRAVER."

17. (C) THE STUDENT LEADERS SAID THAT THEIR MESSAGE COULD HELP NU

BY SHOWING MEMBERS THAT THEY SHOULD NOT TAKE THE ELECTION TOO SERIOUSLY. UNTIL TWO ELECTIONS AGO, NU MEMBERS WERE ALL SUPPOSED TO SUPPORT THE MUSLIM ORIENTED UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) OF WHICH NU HAD BEEN PART. OVER THE PAST YEAR, WAHID WAS SEEN AS CLOSE TO OUSTED DEMOCRATIC PARTY CHAIRMAN MEGAWATI, AND MOST RECENTLY AS CLOSER TO RULING PART GOLKAR THROUGH PRESIDENTIAL DAUGHTER TUTUT. WITHINNU THEE WAS NO UNITY ABOUT WHICH OF THE THREE PARTIES TO SUPPORT, THEY EXPLAINED, WHICH COULD CAUSE INTERNAL CONFLICTS IN NU. THE SOLUTION WAS TO DOWNPLAY THE ELECTION AND THUS AVOID SPLITS IN NU.

18. (C) [redacted] B1

WHO WORKS CLOSELY WITH SEVERAL NU YOUTH AND STUDENT GROUPS, WAHID DID NOT DISAGREE WITH THE SUBSTANCE OF THE STATEMENT, BUT HAD TO DISTANCE HIMSELF FROM IT TO PROTECT HIMSELF AND HIS ORGANIZATION. IF HE HAD ENDORSED THE STATEMENT, THE GOVERNMENT WOULD REACT AGAINST NU AS A WHOLE AND WAHID AS ITS LEADER. BY APPEARING TO BE ANGRY THAT HE WAS NOT CONSULTED ABOUT IT, WAHID HAS ENABLED NU TO SPEAK OUT WITHOUT PUTTING THE ORGANIZATION AT RISK. HE CLAIMED THAT WAHID HAD DISTRIBUTED "TO MANY NU MEMBERS" THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS STATEMENT, WHICH INCLUDED THE CONTROVERSIAL STATEMENT THAT IT WAS NOT A SIN NOT TO VOTE.

19. (SBU) ON MAY 1, ACCORDING TO A PRESS REPORT, ABOUT 20 NU YOUTH FROM AN ORGANIZATION CALLED "COMMUNICATION FORUM YOUTH GENERATION OF NU" (FKGMNU), MET WITH NATIONAL COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS MEMBERS TO REQUEST ASSISTANCE IN FIGHTING FOR DEMOCRACY. THE CRITICISM FROM THESE YOUNG PEOPLE WENT TO THE HEART OF THE ELECTORAL SYSTEM, CLAIMING THAT THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS HAMPERED DEMOCRACY. THIS GROUP IS RELATIVELY UNKNOWN, AND ACCORDING TO A SECRETARIAT MEMBER OF IPPNU, IS AN ORGANIZATION CREATED THREE YEARS AGO TO ACCOMMODATE ALL YOUTH WHO WERE NOT MEMBERS OF NU YOUTH OR STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS. IT IS NOT AN OFFICIALLY RECOGNIZED NU YOUTH GROUP AND HAS NO OFFICE IN THE NU BUILDING, BUT MEMBERS ARE SAID TO BE KNOWN TO THE NU OFFICIAL YOUTH GROUPS.

COMMENT

20. (C) [redacted] B1

THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEEN EXTREMELY CONCERNED ABOUT THE POTENTIAL FOR DECREASED VOTER PARTICIPATION IN THE ELECTION. GIVEN THE POLITICAL COURSE WAHID HAS APPARENTLY SET FOR NU AT THE MOMENT, IT IS UNLIKELY THAT HE COULD BE PLEASED ABOUT A LARGE BLOCK WITHIN HIS ORGANIZATION ISSUING A STATEMENT INDIRECTLY CALLING FOR AN ELECTION BOYCOTT. HOWEVER, NU HAS NEVER BEEN A UNIFIED ORGANIZATION, AND WAHID HAS MANY DIFFERENT INTEREST GROUPS TO ACCOMMODATE. HE CANNOT AFFORD TO ANTAGONIZE THE YOUNG PEOPLE WITHIN HIS ORGANIZATION WHO WANTED TO MAKE KNOWN THEIR VIEWS ON THE ELECTION. THIS COULD HELP EXPLAIN WHY HE HAS GIVEN THEM SOME SPACE ON THE ISSUANCE OF THE

"MORAL MESSAGE," APPARENTLY BOTH BEFORE AND AFTER IT WAS RELEASED.

21. (C) THE MESSAGE DOES NOT APPEAR TO BE THE ACTION OF ONLY ONE OR TWO "INTELLECTUAL ACTORS," BUT THE RESULT OF A PROCESS THAT INVOLVED MOST IF NOT ALL THE GROUPS LISTED, AND POSSIBLY OTHER NU LEADERS. WHILE THE GROUPS DID SURPRISE WAHID WITH THE RELEASE OF THEIR MESSAGE, THEY APPEAR TO GENUINELY (IF NAIVELY) BELIEVE THAT THEY ARE SERVING THE INTERESTS OF NU AND EVEN OF WAHID. AT THE SAME TIME, THEY ARE ALSO "REMINDING" HIM OF THEIR POLITICAL BELIEFS AND THEIR INFLUENCE WITHIN NU.

22. (C) AS IMPORTANT IS THE SUBSTANCE OF THE MESSAGE, WHICH CONTAINS STRONG LANGUAGE AND INDIRECTLY ADVOCATES AN ELECTION BOYCOTT, NOT SOMETHING THE GOVERNMENT LOOKS UPON LIGHTLY. WE HAVE SEEN NO REACTIONS FROM GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS IN THE PRESS. PERHAPS THE GOVERNMENT IS TAKING THE SAME POSITION AS THE NU LEADERSHIP IN DOWNPLAYING THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE MESSAGE. AT A MINIMUM, THE MESSAGE PROVIDES ANOTHER CLEAR INDICATION THAT THE "YOUTH" GENERATION IS INCREASINGLY UNWILLING TO ACCEPT THE STATUS QUO FOR THE ELECTION AND FOR POLITICS IN GENERAL. WHETHER THEIR STATEMENTS WILL TURN INTO MASS ACTIONS, SUCH AS ELECTION BOYCOTTS, REMAINS TO BE SEEN. ROY

2. (SBU) SUMMARY: LOCAL GOVERNMENT, MILITARY, AND POLITICAL PARTY OFFICIALS PREDICTED A SMOOTH AND SECURE CAMPAIGN PERIOD AND ELECTION IN ACEH PROVINCE. NO ONE DOUBTED THAT GOLKAR WOULD WIN THE ELECTION. THERE WAS NO VISIBLE SIGN OF PRO-MEGAWATI DEMOCRATIC PARTY ACTIVITY IN BANDA ACEH. THE ISLAMIC UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) CAMPAIGN WOULD FOCUS ON UPHOLDING THE CONSTITUTION. THE PPP CHAIRMAN SAID THE LINE BETWEEN GOLKAR AND THE GOVERNMENT HAD BECOME LESS CLEAR. END SUMMARY.

3. (U) DURING AN APRIL 23-26 VISIT TO ACEH PROVINCE (ALSO KNOWN AS THE SPECIAL REGION OF ACEH), POLOFF MET WITH THE CHAIRPERSONS OF PDI AND PPP IN PROVINCIAL CAPITAL BANDA ACEH. GOLKAR OFFICIALS WERE UNAVAILABLE. THE DCM AND POLOFF ALSO MET WITH THE GOVERNOR OF ACEH PROVINCE, THE MAYOR OF BANDA ACEH, AND MILITARY COMMANDERS IN LHUKSEUMAWE AND BANDA ACEH. (SEPTEL)

UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY

4. (SBU) [redacted] B6 TOLD POLOFF THAT THE CENTRAL THEME OF HIS PARTY'S CAMPAIGN WOULD BE "UPHOLDING THE CONSTITUTION." HE SAID THAT INCLUDED PROMOTION OF JUSTICE AND HUMAN RIGHTS. IF ONLY THE CONSTITUTION WERE UPHELD, HE SAID, MANY OF THE CURRENT PROBLEMS IN SOCIETY WOULD BE SOLVED.

5. (C) HE COMPLAINED THAT RULING PARTY GOLKAR HAD BECOME "MORE BRAVE" TO DROP THE DISTINCTION BETWEEN GOLKAR AND GOVERNMENT ACTIVITY. THE PEOPLE NOW WERE MORE AWARE OF THE UNFAIR ELECTION PROCEDURES. RASYIDI COMPLAINED THAT GOLKAR GOT A HEAD START IN THE CAMPAIGN, AND HAD THE BENEFIT OF MONEY AND HELP FROM GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. PPP WAS THE PARTY FOR THE POOR, HE SAID.

6. (C) PPP OBTAINED A MAJORITY OF VOTES IN ACEH PROVINCE IN 1977 AND 1982, BUT [redacted] B6 DID NOT EXPRESS ANY HOPE THAT HIS PARTY WOULD OBTAIN A MAJORITY IN THE MAY 29 ELECTION. PPP WOULD HAVE ELECTION WITNESSES/OBSERVERS IN AS MANY POLLING STATIONS AS

INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY

7. (SBU) THERE APPEARED TO BE ONLY ONE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) OFFICE IN BANDA ACEH, AND NO VISIBLE OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED SOERJADI PDI FACTION. MEGAWATI POSTERS THAT WERE ON DISPLAY AT THE PDI OFFICE IN BANDA ACEH IN SEPTEMBER 1996, HAD BEEN REMOVED. PROVINCIAL PDI CHAIRMAN NAZARUDDIN ABDULLAH TOLD POLOFF THAT MEGAWATI HAD MANY SUPPORTERS IN THE PROVINCE, BUT HE HOPED THAT THEY WOULD STILL SUPPORT THEIR PARTY AND VOTE FOR PDI IN THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS. HE SAID THAT SOERJADI HAD VISITED THE PROVINCE APRIL 15, INCLUDING A STOP IN PIDIE DISTRICT (KABUPATEN), AND HAD ENCOUNTERED NO PROBLEMS. HE SAID THAT GOLKAR WOULD WIN THE ELECTION, BUT THAT HE HOPED PDI COULD INCREASE THEIR NUMBER OF SEATS IN THE REGIONAL PARLIAMENT.

8. (C) GOLKAR OFFICIALS WERE TOO BUSY TO MEET WITH POLOFF, AS EVIDENCED BY GOLKAR VISITORS FROM JAKARTA AND A LARGE GOLKAR GATHERING HOSTED BY THE GOVERNOR ON APRIL 24 (PRIOR TO THE START OF THE CAMPAIGN ON APRIL 28). THE MAYOR OF BANDA ACEH, SAYED HUSSAIN AL-HAJ, TOLD THE DCM THAT "GOLKAR HAS TO WIN" AND THAT A "CALM" ELECTION WAS NEEDED IN ACEH. HE SAID THAT GOLKAR GOT 52

PERCENT IN THE LAST ELECTION IN BANDA ACEH, AND GOLKAR'S TARGET FOR THE CURRENT ELECTION WAS 80 PERCENT. ONE LOCAL UNIVERSITY PROFESSOR BELIEVED THAT GOLKAR WOULD HAVE A "LANDSLIDE VICTORY" IN NORTH ACEH BECAUSE OF WHAT HE CALLED "THE SECURITY VOTE." HE SAID THAT OLD MILITARY POSTS IN TOWNS IN NORTH ACEH, WHICH HAD BEEN LEFT UNOCCUPIED FOR SEVERAL YEARS, HAD BEEN RE-OCCUPIED SINCE THE FEBRUARY BANK ROBBERY AND SUBSEQUENT DISCOVERIES OF WEAPONS CACHES. HE SAID THAT THE MILITARY PRESENCE IN TOWNS WOULD INTIMIDATE PEOPLE INTO CHOOSING GOLKAR. (COMMENT: SECURITY IN ACEH HAD BECOME TIGHTER SINCE THE FEBRUARY BANK ROBBERY. HOWEVER, SOURCES TOLD DCM AND POLOFF THAT THE NUMBER OF MILITARY CHECK-POINTS HAD DECREASED IN RECENT WEEKS AND THE SITUATION WAS RETURNING TO NORMAL. SEPTEL. END COMMENT)

9. (SBU) THE GOVERNOR HOSTED A LARGE GATHERING FOR GOLKAR ON THE

EVENING OF APRIL 24, AS A PRE-CAMPAIGN EVENT, AND MEETINGS WITH THE GOVERNOR AND ALL THREE PARTIES TOOK PLACE APRIL 25 FOR ELECTION PREPARATIONS. THERE WERE FEW POLITICAL PARTY FLAGS FLYING IN BANDA ACEH JUST BEFORE THE START OF THE CAMPAIGN. A

10. (C) COMMENT: TRADITIONALLY A STRONGHOLD FOR THE ISLAMIC PARTY PPP, THE TRAUMA SUFFERED IN THE REGION DURING THE 1989-91 INSURGENCY AND SUBSEQUENT CRACK-DOWN ON THE FREE ACEH MOVEMENT, WILL PROBABLY HAVE AN IMPACT ON THE ELECTION. THE SECURITY

ENVIRONMENT IN ACEH, STILL CONSIDERED A "TROUBLED AREA" ALONG WITH IRIAN JAYA AND EAST TIMOR, MAY INDIRECTLY SERVE GOLKAR BECAUSE PEOPLE WILL PROBABLY NOT WANT TO BE VIEWED IN ANY WAY AS SUPPORTING AN "OPPOSITION." END COMMENT. ROY

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) IN WEST JAVA BOASTED THAT IT WAS ATTRACTING THREE TIMES MORE POPULAR SUPPORT IN THIS CAMPAIGN THAN DURING THE 1992 ELECTION. LARGE STREET RALLIES IN THE PROVINCE'S CAPITAL OF BANDUNG ON MAY 8, AS WELL AS THE NUMBER OF ENTHUSIASTIC ONLOOKERS THROUGOUT THE CITY, GAVE SOME CREDIBILITY TO THIS CLAIM. THE PPP ARGUED PRIVATELY TO POLOFF THAT PEOPLE WANTED FASTER POLITICAL CHANGE, AND THAT THE AGGRESSIVE DISREGARD BY THE YOUNG FOR THE RESTRICIVE CAMPAIGN RULES INTENDED TO STOP STREET CAMPAIGING WAS IN PART A REACTION TO A POLITICAL SYSTEM THAT WAS FUNDAMENTALLY UNFAIR. THE PPP WELCOMED VOTES FROM THE SUPPORTERS OF OUSTED INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI, AND BELIEVED THAT MANY OF THESE VOTERS WERE ALREADY MOVING TOWARD THE PPP.

3. (C) YOUNG SUPPORTERS OF RULING PARTY GOLKAR ENJOYED SIMILARLY AGGRESSIVE STREET RALLIES IN THE TOWN OF CIANJUR ON MAY 9. GOLKAR HAD THE ADDED BENEFIT OF ATTRACTING INTEREST BY HOLDING A "DANGDUT" CONCERT BILLED AS A "PUBLIC MEETING." FEW SUBSTANTIVE POLITICAL ISSUES WERE DISCUSSED DURING THIS "CAMPAIGN EVENT." HUNDREDS OF MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS OPENLY CAMPAIGNED IN THE STREETS OF BOGOR ON MAY 10, WHICH LED TO AT LEAST ONE CONFRONTATION WITH SECURITY FORCES THAT ENDED PEACEFULY. AN OBSERVER CHARACTERIZED ALL OF THIS STREET ACTIVITY BY YOUTH AS "MOBILIZATION WITHOUT PARTICIPATION," UNDERSCORING THE ABSENCE OF POLITICAL CONTENT. END SUMMARY

4. (U) POLOFF TRAVELLED BY CAR THROUGH WEST JAVA FROM MAY 8 TO MAY 10 TO OBSERVE THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN AND MEET WITH LOCAL POLITICAL LEADERS. THE ROUTE COVERED SUBANG, BANDUNG, CIRANJANG, CIANJUR, SUKABUMI, AND BOGOR.

UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY OWNS BANDUNG STREETS ON ITS CAMPAIGN DY

5. (U) LARGE YELLOW GOLKAR FLAGS DOMINATE WEST JAVA'S CAPITAL OF BANDUNG, BUT THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) OWNED THE CITY'S STREETS ON MAY 8, ITS FOURTH TURN TO CAMPAIGN IN THAT AREA. AS POLOFF ENTERED THE CITY, A HUGE OUTDOOR PPP CAMPAIGN RALLY FEATURING NATIONAL CHAIRMAN ISMAIL HASAN METAREUM ("BUYA") WAS BREAKING UP. TRUCKLOADS OF ATTENDEES WERE STREAMING INTO THE CITY, FROM THE FIELD ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF THE CITY WHERE IT HAD BEEN HELD, AND SNARLING TRAFFIC. LOCAL PRESS REPORTED THE FOLLOWING DAY THAT TENS OF THOUSANDS OF PPP SUPPORTERS HEARD BUYA'S SPEECH, AND LOCAL PARTY LEADERS CLAIMED TO POLOFF THAT 100,000 HAD BEEN IN ATTENDANCE.

6. (SBU) AT THE IMMENSE, CAMPAIGN-DEBRIS LITTERED FIELD WHERE THE EVENT TOOK PLACE, POLOFF SPOKE WITH ONE OF THE PPP'S SECURITY OFFICIALS WHO SAID THAT ALL HAD PROCEEDED SMOOTHLY. HOWEVER, A GROUP OF PPP STRAGGLERS WAS AT THE MOMENT LEAPING INTO THE BED OF A LARGE TRUCK ABOUT TO HEAD INTO TOWN TO JOIN THE STREET CONVOYS. ON THE WAY, THEY PULLED DOWN A LARGE GOLKAR BANNER STRETCHED OVER THE ROAD, AND ONE OF THE YOUNG MEN FELL OUT OF THE TRUCK, APPARENTLY

WITHOUT ANY SERIOUS INJURY. DURING THE CAMPAIGN THUS FAR, MANY CLASHES BETWEEN THE PARTIES ERUPTED BECAUSE ONE SIDE

DESTROYED THE CAMPAIGN BANNERS OR FLAGS OF THE OTHER, AND MANY PEOPLE HAVE BEEN INJURED IN TRAFFIC-RELATED MISHAPS.

7. (SBU) GOING TO AND FROM APPOINTMENTS ON MAY 8, POLOFF OBSERVED THE PPP SUPPORTERS CAREENING THROUGH THE CITY ON MOTORCYCLES, SCOOTERS, OPEN TRUCKS AND ON TOP OF JEEPS. TRUCKS FULL OF RIOT POLICE AND MILITARY AS WELL AS AN ANTI-RIOT ARMORED VEHICLE COULD BE OBSERVED IN THE STREET, BUT THEY SEEMED UNABLE OR UNWILLING TO TAKE ANY ACTION TO STOP THIS ACTIVITY WHICH HAD BEEN BANNED AS IMPROPER CAMPAIGN PROCEDURE.

8. (SBU) THE STREETS OF BANDUNG WERE LINED WITH PEOPLE ENTHUSIASTICALLY WATCHING THE PPP STREET CONVOYS. THEY WOULD FLASH BACK THE PPP'S SIGN OF A RAISED FOREFINGER. STREET CAMPAIGNERS FROM ALL PARTIES AGGRESSIVELY FLASH THEIR SIGNS, ONE FINGER FOR PPP, TWO FOR GOLKAR, AND THREE FOR PDI, AND ONLOOKERS ARE EXPECTED TO RESPOND IN KIND.

HIS SPEECH, AND THEY WERE UPBEAT ABOUT HIS APPEARANCE AND THE POPULAR RESPONSE THE PPP WAS RECEIVING TO DATE. (NOTE: GOLKAR HAS BEEN DOMINANT IN WEST JAVA AND WON 70.4 PERCENT OF THE VOTE IN 1992. PPP RECEIVED 14.9 PERCENT AND PDI RECEIVED 14.5 PERCENT. END NOTE.)

10. (C) [redacted] ESTIMATED THAT THEY WERE SEEING B1
THREE TIMES MORE MASS SUPPORT FOR PPP THAN IN THE LAST CAMPAIGN. HE HOPED THAT THIS WOULD TRANSLATE INTO REAL VOTES AND INCREASED SEATS IN THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE. HE SAID THAT OUT OF 100 SEATS IN THAT BODY (DPRD-I), PPP CURRENTLY HELD 12, PDI 12, THE ARMED FORCES 20 AND GOLKAR THE REMAINING 56.

11. (C) [redacted] CONTENDED THAT THE INCREASED B1
MASS SUPPORT FOR PPP WAS BECAUSE PEOPLE WANTED CHANGE. THEY WERE BETTER INFORMED, AND KNEW ABOUT ALL OF THE "IMBALANCES" IN INDONESIAN SOCIETY. FOR EXAMPLE, THEY KNEW THAT A SMALL PERCENTAGE OF PEOPLE CONTROLLED A VAST MAJORITY OF THE WEALTH. THEY KNEW THAT "130,000 RUPIAH" PER MONTH WAGE (NOTE: A REFERENCE TO THE PREVIOUS YEAR'S MINIMUM WAGE EQUAL TO APPROXIMATELY $55.00. END NOTE) WAS INADEQUATE, AND THEY KNEW THAT INDONESIA'S RESOURCES WERE BEING EXPLOITED WITHOUT ANY BENEFIT GIVEN TO THE AVERAGE PERSON. HE SAID THAT THE "ALI MURTOPO SYSTEM OF DEVELOPMENT" HAD BEEN USEFUL THIRTY YEARS AGO AT THE BEGINNING OF THE NEW ORDER, BUT TIMES HAD CHANGED. (NOTE: A REFERENCE TO ONE OF THE ARCHITECTS OF THE SUHARTO GOVERNMENT'S STRATEGY OF EMPHASIZING ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT AND RESTRICTING POLITICAL PARTICIPATION. END NOTE.) HE CONTENDED THAT POLITICAL CHANGE WAS OCCURRING, BUT "NOT FAST ENOUGH."

12. (C) [redacted] ALSO ARGUED THAT THE REFUSAL B1
OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE TO ABIDE BY THE CAMPAIGN RULES DESIGNED TO STOP STREET RALLIES WAS A REACTION TO THE UNFAIR SYSTEM. AVERAGE PEOPLE FELT "PROVOKED AND INTIMIDATED." FOR EXAMPLE, HE SAID IT WAS WELL-KNOWN THAT THE "BUREAUCRACY" BACKED RULING PARTY GOLKAR IN THE ELECTION. IT TOLD VILLAGES THAT IF THEY DID NOT SUPPORT GOLKAR, THEY WOULD NOT RECEIVE ELECTRICITY, NEW ROADS, ASSISTANCE WITH FARMING SUPPLIES, AND ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT SUCH AS MARRIAGE LICENSES. ALL THREE PPP OFFICIALS BELIEVED THAT THE STREET RALLIES WERE BEYOND THE EFFECTIVE CONTROL OF THE SECURITY AUTHORITIES. ONE EXPLAINED THAT IF IT WERE ONLY TEN PEOPLE CONVOYING IN THE STREETS, THE POLICE OR MILITARY COULD STOP THEM. BUT ONCE IT REACHED "FIFTY PEOPLE OR MORE" THE IT BECAME MORE DIFFICULT.

13. (C) ALL THREE PPP OFFICIALS AGREED THAT MOST OF THE PDI IN WEST JAVA WERE SUPPORTERS OF MEGAWATI AND THAT THEY WERE MOVING TOWARD THE PPP (REFTEL B). ACCORDING TO THE [redacted] THE "FLOATING MASS" POLITICAL SYSTEM MEANT THAT B1
THERE WAS NOTHING WRONG OR ILLEGAL ABOUT MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS CHOOSING TO SIDE, IF ONLY TEMPORARILY, WITH THE PPP (NOTE: A REFERENCE TO THE THEORY THAT MOST VOTERS ARE NOT FORMAL PARTY MEMBERS AND CAN THUS VOTE, THEORETICALLY, FOR WHOM THEY CHOOSE ON ELECTION DAY. 14. (C) ALL THREE PPP OFFICIALS SAID THAT, ASIDE FROM ISOLATED INCIDENTS, THE TYPE OF CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE SEEN IN CENTRAL AND EAST JAVA WAS NOT OCCURRING IN WEST JAVA. THE B1

STILL VOTE FOR THE PDI EVEN THOUGH MOST LIKED MEGAWATI. OUT OF THE REMAINDER, TEN PERCENT WOULD VOTE FOR PPP AND TEN PERCENT WOULD VOTE GOLKAR.

16. (C) PRIOR TO DEPARTING ON TRIP, REQUESTS HAD BEEN MADE VIA FAX AND PHONE FOR A MEETING WITH THE WEST JAVA PROVINCIAL GOLKAR CHAIRMAN. UPON ARRIVING IN BANDUNG AND CALLING TO CONFIRM THE MEETING, POLOFF WAS INFORMED THAT NEITHER THE CHAIRMAN NOR ANY OTHER REPRESENTATIVE WAS AVAILABLE TO MEET DUE TO CAMPAIGN RESPONSIBILITIES. EMBASSY HAS RECEIVED SIMILAR RESPONSES WHEN IT ATTEMPTED TO MEET WITH LOCAL GOLKAR OFFICIALS IMMEDIATELY PRIOR TO THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD IN SOLO, ACEH, AND MEDAN.

GOLKAR CAMPAIGN EVENT IN CIANJUR: MOSTLY ENTERTAINMENT

17. (C) IN CIANJUR ON MAY 9, POLOFF ATTENDED THE MAIN GOLKAR CAMPAIGN EVENT, A LARGE OUTDOOR PUBLIC MEETING WHICH TURNED OUT TO BE A "DANGDUT" CONCERT (NOTE: DANGDUT IS INDIAN INFLUENCED POPULAR MUSIC WITH A LARGE FOLLOWING IN INDONESIA. END NOTE.) IT IS FREQUENTLY ADVERTISED THAT GOLKAR HAS A STABLE OF HUNDREDS OF PERFORMERS THAT IT USES TO ENTERTAIN PEOPLE AT CAMPAIGN EVENTS. THIS EVENT WAS ALMOST PURE ENTERTAINMENT WITH VIRTUALLY NO POLITICAL CONTENT.

18. (C) HUNDREDS OF LOCALS DRESSED IN YELLOW GOLKAR T-SHIRTS ATTENDED, INCLUDING MANY WOMEN AND CHILDREN. AS THE CONCERT WAS BEGINNING, TRUCKLOADS OF YOUNG MEN ROARED UP AND WENT UP TO THE AREA NEAR THE STAGE TO JOIN IN THE DANCING (IN WHICH GOLKAR CAMPAIGNERS ALSO PARTICIPATED ON THE STAGE). THERE WAS VERY LITTLE SPEECH-MAKING BY THE CAMPAIGN SPOKESMEN DURING THE SHORT BREAKS IN THE CONCERT, MOST CONSISTING OF YELLING "LONG LIVE GOLKAR."

19. (C) WITHIN A HALF HOUR, MANY OF THE YOUNG MEN ON THE FIELD WERE BECOMING BORED WITH THE EVENT AND BEGAN CONGREGATING IN THE BACK OF THE FIELD. A FIST-FIGHT BROKE-OUT BETWEEN TWO GROUPS. SOON THEY WERE BOARDING THEIR VEHICLES, OBVIOUSLY INTENDING TO BEGIN THE STREET CONVOYS THAT ARE PROHIBITED. TWO LOCAL MILITARY AND POLICE OFFICIALS LOOKED ON WITHOUT TAKING ACTION, AND SOME OF THE OLDER GOLKAR CADRE MADE INEFFECTUAL STABS AT TRYING TO CONTROL THE YOUNG MEN, BUT SOON GAVE UP.

20. (C) PRIOR TO THE START OF THE CAMPAIGN EVENT/CONCERT, POLOFF SPOKE AT LENGTH TO A LOCAL WHO WAS SITTING WITH THE ORGANIZERS OF THE EVENT. HE WAS A SCHOOL TEACHER. ALL PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS ARE CIVIL SERVANTS AND THUS OBLIGATED TO SUPPORT GOLKAR. HE WAS CONCERNED ABOUT THE STREET RALLIES THAT WERE BEING CARRIED OUT BY ALL OF THE PARTIES, AND WAS APPREHENSIVE THAT NOT ENOUGH OF A CROWD WOULD SHOW UP AT THE EVENT.

21. (C) POLOFF LEFT THE CAMPAIGN CONCERT MIDWAY THROUGH AND WENT OUT TO THE NEARBY MAIN ROAD. TRUCKLOADS OF GOLKAR SUPPORTERS WERE CIRCLING THE CITY. THEY WERE JUST AS RAUCOUS, IF NOT AS NUMEROUS, AS THE PPP STREET RALLIERS THE DAY BEFORE IN THE MUCH LARGER CITY OF BANDUNG.

MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS ON THE STREETS OF BOGOR
---

22. (C) ON MAY 10 POLOFF PULLED INTO BOGOR JUST AS A CONFRONTATION WAS BREWING BETWEEN SEVERAL HUNDRED MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS OPENLY CAMPAIGNING IN THE STREETS AND A

TRUCKFUL OF SECURITY FORCES. THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WERE IN LARGE TRUCKS AND ON MOTORCYCLES STREWN WITH PICTURES OF MEGAWATI. THEY WERE CHANTING "LONG LIVE MEGA" AND FLASHING THE MEGAWATI VERSION OF THE PDI SIGN.

23. (C) APPROXIMATELY TWENTY SOLDIERS ARMED WITH AUTOMATIC WEAPONS JUMPED OUT OF THEIR TRUCK AND FOLLOWED THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS DOWN A MAJOR, CROWDED THOROUGHFARE. THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS MADE SEVERAL LOOPS AROUND THIS ROAD, UNTIL FINALLY THEY MASSED THEIR TRUCKS AND MOTORCYCLES TOGETHER AND BEGAN ADVANCING TOWARD THE CENTER OF THE CITY.

24. (C) THE MILITARY FORCES LINED UP TO STOP THE ADVANCE, AND THEN MOVED THEIR LARGE TRUCK ACROSS THE ROAD CREATING A BLOCKADE. THE PRESSURE BUILT AS THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS HONKED THEIR HORNS, YELLED, AND CHANTED. SEVERAL YOUNG MEN STANDING ON TRUCKS TURNED THEIR BACKS TO THE SECURITY FORCES AND MADE RUDE GESTURES. A LARGE CONTINGENT OF RIOT POLICE ARRIVED, AND THE CROWD BEGAN CHANTING "LONG LIVE THE ABRI." ONE SECURITY OFFICIAL WAS OBSERVED TALKING WITH THE DRIVER OF ONE OF THE DEMONSTRATORS' TRUCKS. JUST AS IT SEEMED THAT THE PRESSURE HAD BUILT TO A POINT WHERE THE SITUATION WOULD GET OUT OF CONTROL, THE MILITARY TRUCK WAS

WITHDRAWN AND THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WERE PERMITTED TO PASS. WHILE ISOLATED MEGAWATI VEHICLES COULD BE SEEN IN THE STREETS FOR SOMETIME AFTER, IT APPEARED THAT SOME KIND

OF AN AGREEMENT MUST HAVE BEEN REACHED TO CALL OFF THE RALLY.

25. (SBU) ON THE WAY TO BOGOR ON MAY 10, POLOFF HAD ENCOUNTERED HUNDREDS OF PDI CAMPAIGNERS FROM THE GOVERNMENT BACKED FACTION (SURYADI). THEY WERE ON THEIR WAY TO AN EVENT IN THE OTHER DIRECTION IN THE TOWN OF SUKABUMI.

"MOBILIZATION WITHOUT PARTICIPATION"

26. (C) POLOFF ON MAY 8 MET WITH THE [redacted] B1

YOUNG ACTIVIST FROM THE AREA WHO WAS WORKING FOR THE NATIONAL LEVEL LBH IN JAKARTA. THE YOUNG ACTIVIST CHARACTERIZED THE CAMPAIGN AS "MOBILIZATION WITHOUT PARTICIPATION." YOUTH WERE INVOLVED IN STREET RALLIES, BUT WERE NOT EXPECTED TO DRAW A CONNECTION BETWEEN THEIR CAMPAIGN ACTIVITIES AND SUBSTANTIVE POLITICS. THEY WERE NOT POLITICAL PARTICIPANTS, BUT RATHER INTENT ON ATTENDING THE ENTERTAINMENT EVENTS AND ROLLICKING THROUGH THE STREETS BLOWING OFF STEAM. PEOPLE WERE BRAVER THAN BEFORE, BUT NOT IN A POLITICAL WAY. HE CHARACTERIZED THOSE WHO RALLIED IN THE STREETS, AT LEAST IN THE CITIES, AS THE "URBAN POOR," AND HE AND HIS MORE EDUCATED FRIENDS HAD LITTLE INTEREST IN BECOMING INVOLVED.

27. (C) COMMENT: IT IS WIDELY KNOWN THAT THE PARTIES PROVIDE MATERIAL INCENTIVES TO PEOPLE TO JOIN IN THE CAMPAIGN FESTIVITIES WHICH CONTRIBUTES TO THE DISCONNECT BETWEEN "MOBILIZATION" AND REAL POLITICAL PARTICIPATION.
CONFIDENTIAL

IT IS SAID THAT SOME PEOPLE ACCEPT INDUCEMENTS FROM MORE THAN ONE PARTY. ALTHOUGH THE OVERALL PICTURE OF WHAT PERCENTAGE OF THE CAMPAIGNERS IS PAID IS DIFFICULT TO PIN DOWN, THERE IS AMPLE ANECDOTAL EVIDENCE OF THE PRACTICE. FOR EXAMPLE, THE JAKARTA POST QUOTED A MOTORCYCLE TAXI DRIVER AS CLAIMING THAT "THE PPP USUALLY GIVES 15,000 RUPIAH, AND A T-SHIRT, WHILE GOLKAR, BESIDES THE MONEY, GIVES US A SNACK." END COMMENT.

RANGE OF LOCAL OPINION ABOUT THE ELECTION

28. (SBU) SOME OF THE RANDOM CONVERSATIONS WITH PEOPLE MET DURING THE THREE DAY TRIP THROUGH WEST JAVA, WHILE OF COURSE ANECDOTAL, DEMONSTRATE A RANGE OF OPINIONS ABOUT THE PARTIES, THE CAMPAIGN, AND THE ELECTION. AT THE MEGAWATI RALLY IN BOGOR ON MAY 10, A YOUNG MAN GUARDING A KENTUCKY FRIED CHICKEN NEAR THE RALLY WAS WEARING A RED PDI SHIRT AND A PDI HEAD BAND. HE TOLD POLOFF HE WAS DRESSED THAT WAY TO HELP PROTECT HIM FROM CAMPAIGNERS AS HE CARRIED OUT HIS GUARD DUTIES, BUT THAT HE SUPPORTED GOLKAR. WHEN ASKED WHY HE SUPPORTED GOLKAR, HE REPLIED THAT HE "WAS NOT SURE." HE ELABORATED THAT THIS WAS THE FIRST TIME THAT HE WOULD BE VOTING, AND HE ACTUALLY DID NOT KNOW WHO HE WOULD CHOOSE.

29. (SBU) ANOTHER BYSTANDER AT THE BOGOR RALLY HD LITTLE USE FOR ANY OF THE PARTIES, BUT LIKED MEGAWATI BECAUSE SHE WAS THE DAUGHTER OF INDONESIA'S FIRST PRESIDENT SUKARNO.

ANOTHER CONFESSED THAT BECAUSE SHE WAS A CIVIL SERVANT (WORKED FOR THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT BANK) SHE HAD TO VOTE FOR GOLKAR, BUT PRIVATELY SHE SUPPORTED MEGAWATI.

CONFIDENTIAL

30. (SBU) POLOFF'S LOCAL DRIVER IN BANDUNG SAID HE DID NOT CARE ABOUT ANY OF THE PARTIES BECAUSE HE WAS STILL GOING TO HAVE TO WORK HARD NO MATTER WHO WON. HOWEVER, HE POINTED TO THE CROWDS WATCHING THE PPP CAMPAIGN AND CONTENDED THAT SEVENTY PERCENT SUPPORTED MEGAWATI. SEVERAL SHOPKEEPERS AT A BUSY MARKET IN A VILLAGE OUTSIDE BANDUNG HAD NO IDEA WHO WAS CAMPAIGNING ON MAY 9 (GOLKAR). THE ONE WHO DID KNEW THAT A "DANGDUT" CONCERT WAS PLANNED WHICH HE WAS EXCITED ABOUT.

31. (SBU) AT THE GOLKAR RALLY/DANGDUT CONCERT IN CIANJUR ON MAY 9, ONE YELLOW-SHIRTED TTENDEE TOLD POLOFF HE SUPPORTED GOLKAR, AND ALWAYS HAD, BECAUSE IT WAS GOOD FOR "DEVELOPMENT." HE TOOK POLOFF TO MEET HIS FRIEND, A SIDEWALK FOOD VENDOR, WHO HEARTILY AGREED ABOUT GOLKAR AND DEVELOPMENT. ROY

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE INDONESIAN YOUTH COUNCIL CLAIMS TO BE ACTIVELY APPEALING TO MEMBERSHIP ORGANIZATIONS, POLITICAL PARTIES AND THE MILITARY TO KEEP THE PEACE DURING THE CAMPAIGN AND TO ENSURE A SMOOTH ELECTION. KNPI HAS OFFICIALLY ENDORSED PRESIDENT SOEHARTO FOR ANOTHER TERM, BUT CLAIMS THAT IT IS NOT ENDORSING A PARTICULAR POLITICAL PARTY. [redacted] SAID B1

THAT THE MOST RECENT YOUTH CONGRESS SHOWED THAT THE ORGANIZATION WAS BECOMING MORE INDEPENDENT, BY ITS REJECTION OF MILITARY-SPONSORED CANDIDATES FOR CHAIRMANSHIP. WE HAVE YET TO SEE CLEAR INDICATIONS OF GREATER INDEPENDENCE FROM KNPI, BUT THE NEWLY ELECTED CHAIRMAN HAS INSPIRED CAUTIOUS OPTIMISM FROM SOME OF THE MORE INDEPENDENT-MINDED YOUTH AND STUDENT GROUPS. END SUMMARY.

3. (C) POLOFF MET WITH THE [redacted] B1
ON APRIL 30. KNPI IS THE OFFICIAL UMBRELLA ORGANIZATION FOR INDONESIAN YOUTH AND STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, AND IS MADE UP OF APPROXIMATELY 66 GROUPS, 39 OF WHICH ARE VOTING MEMBERS. KNPI CONSIDERS YOUTH MEMBERSHIP TO BE FROM AGE 17 TO 40. [redacted] SAID THAT KNPI WAS B1

MEMBERS WHO WERE CAMPAIGNING DID SO AS INDIVIDUALS AND NOT AS REPRESENTATIVES OF KNPI.

4. (SBU) THE PRESS REPORTED IN APRIL THAT KNPI HELD MASS RALLY IN JAKARTA TO MOBILIZE YOUTH TO ASSIST WITH SECURITY FOR THE ELECTION (REF A). KNPI CLAIMED TO REPRESENT ALL YOUTH GROUPS IN THESE ACTIONS TO SECURE THE ELECTION, ALTHOUGH SOME OF THE MEMBER GROUPS PROTESTED THE CLAIM, AND TOLD POLOFF THAT ONLY GOLKAR AND ABRI-AFFILIATED GROUPS PARTICIPATED. THE PRESS REPORTED ON APRIL 22 THAT THOUSANDS OF LOCAL MEMBERS OF KNPI IN EAST TIMOR HAD PLEDGED TO ENSURE A SMOOTH GENERAL ELECTION, AND THE CHAIRMAN OF THE EAST TIMOR CHAPTER SAID THAT YOUTH "WILL SUPPORT THE ARMED FORCES' LEGAL ACTION TO DEAL WITH THOSE SEEKING TO FOIL THE ELECTION AND THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY."

5. (C) WHEN POLOFF ASKED [redacted] ABOUT KNPI ASSISTANCE IN SECURING THE ELECTION, HE SAID THAT KNPI WAS IN THE PROCESS OF MAKING APPEALS TO YOUTH TO SUPPORT THE ELECTION AND USE THEIR B1

VOTING RIGHT IN A RESPONSIBLE MANNER. HOWEVER, HE LSO NOTED THAT FORCE WAS NOT USED, BECAUSE VOTING WAS A RIGHT AND NOT AN OBLIGATION. HE SAID THAT HE DID NOT BELIEVE MANY YOUNG PEOPLE WOULD BOYCOTT THE ELECTION. KNPI WAS APPEALING TO YOUTH, THE POLITICAL PARTIES AND THE MILITARY TO KEEP THE PEACE DURING THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD.

6. (SBU) ON APRIL 1, KNPI LEADERSHIP MET WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AND OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED SUPPORT FOR HIS NOMINATION FOR ANOTHER TERM. THE MEETING WAS BROADCAST ON NATIONAL TELEVISION. KAHARUDDIN SAID THAT THE ORGANIZATION'S ENDORSEMENT OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO DID NOT REPRESENT SUPPORT FOR GOLKAR BUT REPRESENTED THEIR WISHES TO AVOID UPHEAVAL AND PRESERVE CONTINUITY. THEY SAW NO ONE ELSE CAPABLE OF LEADING THE COUNTRY AT THIS TIME.

KNPI MORE INDEPENDENT?

7. (C) [redacted] COMMENTED ON THE MOST RECENT KNPI CONGRESS HELD IN NOVEMBER 1996, AND SAID IT WAS THE MOST "DEMOCRATIC" CONGRESS KNPI HAS EVER HAD. B1

[redacted] B1

B1

[redacted]

MAULANA ISMAN, BROTHER OF THE YOUTH AND SPORTS MINISTER, WAS THE FOURTH CANDIDATE AND WINNER. [redacted] SAID THAT THE SUCCESS OF ISMAN PROVED KNPI WAS MORE INDEPENDENT, SINCE THE PRESSURES FROM ABRI FAILED. (NOTE: DURING THE CONGRESS, NINE YOUTH GROUPS THREATENED TO RESIGN FROM KNPI IF IT DID NOT BECOME MORE INDEPENDENT. MANY PARTICIPATING YOUTH GROUPS AGREED THAT ALTHOUGH MAULANA ISMAN WAS FROM A GOLKAR YOUTH GROUP, HIS ELECTION REPRESENTED A SIGNIFICANT SHIFT THAT COULD MEAN MORE INDEPENDENCE. REF B. END NOTE)

B1

8. (C) COMMENT: WHEN POLOFF FIRST TRIED TO OBTAIN AN APPOINTMENT WITH KNPI LEADERSHIP, POLASSISTANT WAS TOLD BY THE KNPI OFFICE THAT THE LEADERS WERE UNAVAILABLE BECAUSE THEY WERE OUT CAMPAIGNING, PRESUMABLY FOR GOLKAR. KNPI CLAIMS OF INDEPENDENCE ARE CONTRADICTED BY THE REALITY OF THE HISTORY OF KNPI AS A GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED YOUTH GROUP THAT HAS HAD A DEFACTO CONNECTION TO GOLKAR. WE HAVE YET TO SEE CLEAR INDICATIONS OF GREATER INDEPENDENCE FROM KNPI, BUT THE NEWLY ELECTED CHAIRMAN

"RIGHT TO VOTE," AND WILL URGE HER FOLLOWERS TO MAKE UP THEIR OWN MINDS ABOUT WHETHER OR NOT TO VOTE. SHE WILL REMIND THEM THAT VOTING IS A RIGHT NOT AN OBLIGATION. SHE WILL NOT ATTEMPT TO SWING VOTES TO THE OTHER MINORITY PARTY. NEITHER WILL SHE CALL FOR POSTPONEMENT OF THE ELECTIONS AS URGED BY SOME OF HER SENIOR LIEUTENANTS. SHE WILL MAKE HER STATEMENT AT A SMALL PRESS CONFERENCE, AWARE THAT THE PRESS CONFERENCE FORMAT ITSELF COULD DRAW GOVERNMENT IRE. SHE WILL CONSIDER CALLING FOR INVALIDATING OF THE ELECTION RESULTS IF THERE IS BLATANT FRAUD. ONE SUPPORTER SEES THE BEGINNINGS OF "PEOPLE POWER" IN THE FRUSTRATION FELT COMMONLY BY HER SUPPORTERS AND SUPPORTERS OF THE OTHER MINORITY PARTY, WHICH IN HIS VIEW WILL LIKELY BE THE VICTIM OF VOTE RIGGING. THE POLITICAL SITUATION REMAINS FLUID AND RATHER VOLATILE. END SUMMARY

3. (C) A MEMBER OF THE NATIONAL CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY FROM THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI), [redacted], B1
TOLD EMBOFF MAY 21 THAT GOVERNMENT OUSTED LEADER PDI CHAIRPERSON MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI WILL ANNOUNCE MAY 22 THAT SHE WILL NOT USE HER "RIGHT TO VOTE." THE PHRASING IS SPECIFIC AND INTENDED TO REMIND HER FOLLOWERS THAT VOTING IS A RIGHT NOT A DUTY. SHE WILL MAKE THE ANNOUNCEMENT AT A SMALL PRESS CONFERENCE. MEGAWATI IS AWARE THAT THE PRESS CONFERENCE MIGHT BE REGARDED AS AN ACTIVITY BANNED DURING THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD AND THEREFORE COULD ANGER THE GOVERNMENT. SHE WILL ISSUE HER ANNOUNCEMENT AS A HAND WRITTEN STATEMENT TO PRECLUDE THE GOVERNMENT POSSIBILITY OF ALTERING THE TEXT OF HER STATEMENT, A PROBLEM SHE HAS ENCOUNTERED IN THE PAST. [redacted] NOTED THAT SHE WILL CONSIDER CALLING FOR THE INVALIDATION OF THE ELECTION RESULTS IF THERE IS TOO MUCH VOTE RIGGING. B1

4. (C) SEPARATELY, [redacted] A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT FROM THE B1
CONFIDENTIAL

INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (MEGAWATI FACTION) TOLD EMBOFF MAY 19 THAT AT A MEETING SEVERAL DAYS AGO WITH HER SENIOR ADVISORS, MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI DECIDED THAT SHE WOULD ANNOUNCE HER INTENTION NOT TO VOTE IN THE UPCOMING ELECTION. AT THE SAME TIME SHE INFORMED HER KEY LIEUTENANTS THAT SHE WOULD ADVISE HER FOLLOWERS THAT IF THEY DECIDE TO VOTE, THEN THEY SHOULD VOTE FOR A "LEGAL" PARTY, A BROAD HINT THAT THEY SHOULD NOT VOTE FOR THE PDI NOW UNDER WHAT SHE AND HER FOLLOWERS CLAIM IS AN ILLEGAL LEADERSHIP IMPOSED BY THE GOVERNMENT.

5. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT MEGAWATI WAS CONCERNED THAT WERE SHE TO URGE PEOPLE TO VOTE FOR THE OTHER MINORITY PARTY, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP), SHE WOULD DIVIDE HER OWN SUPPORTERS. MUSLIMS WHO BACK HER WOULD LIKELY FOLLOW HER ADVICE AND VOTE FOR THE MUSLIM ORIENTED PPP. CHRISTIANS IN THE PDI, NOTABLY THOSE IN THE OUTER ISLANDS, BEDING STRESSED, WOULD BE "LEFT VERY CONFUSED." B1

6. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT HE AND OTHERS HAD URGED MEGAWATI TO CONSIDER CALLING FOR A POSTPONEMENT OF THE ELECTIONS BECAUSE COURT CONSIDERATION OF HER SUIT AGAINST HER OUSTER AS CHAIRPERSON WAS STILL PENDING. THIS WAS A POSITION TAKEN BY [redacted] AND 16 OTHER PDI PARLIAMENTARIANS MAY 12 WHO PETITIONED THE PARLIAMENTARY SPEAKER TO CALL FOR A POSTPONEMENT. [redacted] SAID THAT MEGAWATI HAD REJECTED A CALL FOR POSTPONEMENT AND HAD DISPLAYED HER "IRON WILL" ABOUT FOLLOWING THE LAW. SHE ALSO REPORTEDLY FEARED THAT SUCH A CALL COULD LEAD SOME OF HER FOLLOWERS INTO VIOLENCE AIMED AT STOPPING THE ELECTION. B1 B1 B1

7. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT HE AND SOME OTHER MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS EXPECT THAT THE ELECTION OUTCOME COULD SOW THE SEEDS OF "REAL PEOPLE POWER." HE ARGUED THAT PPP SUPPORTERS WILL LIKELY FEEL B1

CHEATED IF, AS IN THE PAST, THE GOVERNMENT ENGAGES IN VOTE RIGGING TO HELP GOLKAR IN JAKARTA AND CENTRAL JAVA. HE SAID THAT ANGERED PPP SUPPORTERS WOULD SHARE THE SAME FRUSTRATION NOW FELT BY SUPPORTERS OF MEGAWATI INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE PDI. [redacted] NOTED THAT THERE IS ALREADY BROAD SYMPATHY IN PPP FOR MEGAWATI. B1

8. (C) SEPARATELY A POLITICAL ACTIVIST IN CENTRAL JAVA TOLD EMBOFF MAY 20 THAT PRO-MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS PLAN TO STAGE PUBLIC DISPLAYS OF SUPPORT THE SAME DAY IN THE PROVINCE -- MAY 22, THE DAY ALLOCATED TO THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED PDI FACTION FOR CAMPAIGNING, INTER ALIA, IN JAKARTA AND CENTRAL JAVA. EMBOFF ALSO LEARNED THAT AT LEAST ONE PDI MEGAWATI BRANCH ALREADY INSTRUCTED ITS MEMBERS NOT TO VOTE FOR PDI.

9. (C) COMMENT CONTINUED: MEGAWATI'S REPORTED DECISION TO ANNOUNCE SHE WOULD NOT VOTE AND URGE OTHERS TO FOLLOW THEIR CONSCIENCE WOULD SERVE THE PURPOSE OF DEMONSTRATING HER PROTEST OVER THE ELECTION AND HER EXCLUSION FROM IT. AT THE SAME TIME SHE WOULD PRECLUDE GOVERNMENT ACTION AGAINST HERSELF AND HER SENIOR

LIEUTENANTS, AS SHE WILL NOT BE URGING PEOPLE NOT TO VOTE, WHICH IS AN ILLEGAL ACT. ROY

(C) POLITICAL PARTY OFFICIALS IN LAMPUNG PROVINCE WERE WARNED BY THE GOVERNMENT NOT TO SPEAK TO FOREIGNERS ABOUT THE ELECTION, AND ALL SCHEDULED MEETINGS WITH PARTY OFFICIALS ARRANGED BY EMBOFF, FROM JAKARTA AND THROUGH THE CENTRAL PARTY BOARDS, DID NOT TAKE PLACE AS PLANNED DURING A THREE DAY VISIT TO THE PROVINCE MAY 19 THROUGH 21. REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE INDEPENDENT ELECTION MONITORING COMMITTEE AND THE LEGAL AID INSTITUTE ALSO DID NOT ATTEND SCHEDULED MEETINGS WTIH EMBOFF. DESPITE SUCH OFFICIAL BARRIERS TO OBTAINING INFORMATION ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN IN LAMPUNG PROVINCE, A PICTURE OF A TIGHTLY CONTROLLED, REPRESSIVE AND SECURE ELECTION ENVIRONMENT EMERGED.

GOLKAR: THE COLD SHOULDER

4. (C) A TOUR OF LAMPUNG PROVINCE (THE SOUTHERN TIP OF SUMATRA) FROM SOUTH TO NORTH REVEALED ONLY GOLKAR FLAGS IN SIGNIFICANT NUMBER, AND MANY OF THOSE WERE NO LONGER VISIBLE ON A NON-GOLKAR CAMPAIGN DAY. ON PPP AND PDI DAYS, ALMOST NO FLAGS OF ANY COLORS WERE SEEN. SCHEDULED AND CONFIRMED MEETINGS WITH GOLKAR

OFFICIALS IN BANDAR LAMPUNG AND KOTA BUMI DID NOT TAKE PLACE, DUE TO THE ABSENCE OF ALL OFFICIALS AUTHORIZED TO SPEAK ON BEHALF OF THE PARTY. IN BANDAR LAMPUNG, OFFICIALS WERE "OUT OF TOWN," AND THE OFFICE WAS OCCUPIED BY YOUTH IN PARA-MILITARY SATGAS (ELECTION SECURITY) UNIFORMS. THE CHAIRMAN OF YOUTH GROUP AMPI (INDONESIAN DEVELOPMENT YOUTH) AGREED TO MEET EMBOFF OUTSIDE GOLKAR OFFICES AS A YOUTH LEADER AND NOT A GOLKAR OFFICIAL. HE SAID THAT MEMBERS FROM ALL GOLKAR YOUTH GROUPS (INCLUDING AMPI, PEMUDA PANCASILA (WHICH POSTURES AS BEING INDEPENDENT), AND ABRI YOUTH) WERE SERVING AS ELECTION SECURITY FORCES FOR THE GOLKAR CAMPAIGN. HE ASKED WHY EMBOFF HAD NOT MET WITH THE MILITARY COMMANDER, IMPLYING THAT ONE COULD NOT CONDUCT MEETINGS IN TOWN WITHOUT BLESSINGS FROM THE COMMANDER.

5. (C) THE AMPI CHAIRMAN SAID LAMPUNG WAS STRONG GOLKAR TERRITORY AND WAS "VERY SECURE." HE SAID THAT ALL POLITICAL PARTIES WERE "INSTRUCTED" NOT TO SPEAK TO FOREIGNERS ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN OR ELECTION. IN ADDITION, LOCAL PARTY LEADERS WERE AFRAID TO SPEAK BECAUSE ALL AUTHORITY CAME FROM JAKARTA AND NO ONE WANTED TO TAKE RESPONSIBILITY AND RISK MAKING A MISTAKE. IN GENERAL, GOVERNMENT/GOLKAR YOUTH GROUPS ALSO HAD TO DEFER TO JAKARTA AND LACKED THE AUTHORITY TO SPEAK FOR THEIR ORGANIZATIONS. HE SAID THE GOVERNMENT FELT THREATENED BY FOREIGNERS COMING TO SEE THE CAMPAIGN, BECAUSE TO THEM THERE WAS NO LINE BETWEEN "OBSERVING" AND "ENTERING," WHICH TO THEM MEANT INTERFERING. HE SAID THAT A MALAYSIAN DIPLOMAT WHO HAD BEEN IN LAMPUNG SINCE BEFORE THE BEGINNING OF THE CAMPAIGN "HAD NOT LEARNED ANYTHING" YET BECAUSE NO ONE WOULD TALK TO HIM.

6. (C) WHILE WAITING FOR THE CANCELLATION OF THE MEETING WITH GOLKAR VICE CHAIRMAN IN KOTA BUMI, EMBOFF SAT IN THE CHAIRMAN'S

OFFICE, AND STUDIED A "POLITICAL MAP" WHICH CONTAINED TWO PARTS, ELECTION 1992 AND ELECTION 1997. EACH TOWN IN THE NORTH LAMPUNG DISTRICT WAS LISTED WITH PERCENTAGES AND WHAT APPEARED TO BE VOTE NUMBERS. IT WAS NOT POSSIBLE TO DETERMINE IF THEY WERE ELECTION PREDICTIONS OR RESULTS. EMBOFF WAS RECEIVED BY THE SECRETARY OF THE "SECTION FOR WINNING THE ELECTION," THOUGH HE WAS NOT AUTHORIZED TO SPEAK ABOUT THE ELECTION. HE DID SAY THAT GOLKAR HAD NO TARGETS FOR THE ELECTION, AND TOLD EMBOFF TO CHECK THE MEDIA FOR INFORMATION ABOUT THE GOLKAR CAMPAIGN. HE SAID THAT GOLKAR CAMPAIGNS WERE LIMITED TO TWO HOURS FOR SECURITY REASONS.

7. (SBU) PARTICIPATING IN THE MAY 19 GOLKAR CAMPAIGN IN LAMPUNG WERE PRESIDENTIAL DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI (TUTUT), MINISTER OF COOPERATIVES SOEBYAKTO, AND FORMER MINISTER OF RELIGION ALAMSYAH. GOLKAR CHAIRMAN AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION HARMOKO HAD BEEN IN LAMPUNG MAY 16 FOR THE GOLKAR CAMPAIGN. EMBOFF TRIED TO GO TO A GOLKAR CAMPAIGN IN BANDAR LAMPUNG WHICH BEGAN AT 1300, BUT IT HAD ALREADY BROKEN UP BY 1500. SEVERAL PARTY REPRESENTATIVES NOTED

THAT ALL CAMPAIGNS IN THE PROVINCE WERE LIMITED TO TWO HOURS, SO THAT THE CAMPAIGN WOULD NOT GET "TOO HOT." EMBOFF SAT IN TRAFFIC LEAVING THE CAMPAIGNS FOR OVER AN HOUR AND OBSERVED BETWEEN 5,000 AND 10,000 PEOPLE LEAVING THE RALLY. MANY VEHICLES HAD SIGNS INDICATING THEY WERE FROM CERTAIN SUB-DISTRICTS. MANY PARTICIPANTS INSIDE VEHICLES APPEARED TO BE CIVIL SERVANTS, AND

8. (SBU) ARRIVING AT A SCHEDULED MEETING WITH THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY VICE CHAIRMAN IN BANDAR LAMPUNG, THE CAPITAL OF THE PROVINCE, EMBOFF WAS GREETED BY A VIDEO-CAMERA AND APPROXIMATELY 12 MEN WHO SAID THEY WERE NOT PDI OFFICIALS BUT PDI MEMBERS ONLY, "GUESTS" AT THE PDI OFFICE. THEY SAID NO ONE PRESENT COULD MEET WITH EMBOFF, AND THEY WERE ALSO UNABLE TO PROVIDE INFORMATION ABOUT WHERE THE CAMPAIGN EVENTS WERE SCHEDULED TO BE HELD THE FOLLOWING DAY. PDI OFFICIALS WERE "OUT OF TOWN" PREPARING FOR THE CAMPAIGN THE NEXT DAY. THEY TOLD EMBOFF TO GO TO THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFFICE TO GET INFORMATION ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN SCHEDULE.

9. (C) A SCHEDULED MEETING WITH THE PDI CHAIRMAN IN KOTA BUMI, CAPITAL OF NORTH LAMPUNG DISTRICT, ALSO DID NOT TAKE PLACE. EMBOFF WAS RECEIVED "UNOFFICIALLY" BY A PARTY SECRETARY NAMED KADIR. HE SAID THAT PDI HAD NO PROBLEMS FROM THE PARTY SPLIT. HE ESTIMATED THAT PDI HAD 3000 MEMBERS IN THE DISTRICT. HE SAID MANY YOUNG PEOPLE CAME TO THE OFFICE EVERY DAY ASKING FOR MEMBERSHIP CARDS, BUT MOST COULD NOT RECEIVE THEM BECAUSE THEY WERE TOO YOUNG TO VOTE.

10. (C) DURING A TWO-HOUR DRIVE TO KOTA BUMI ON A PDI CAMPAIGN DAY, EMBOFF SAW ONLY A FEW PDI FLAGS, NO CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY, AND NO PEOPLE WEARING PARTY COLORS. ACCORDING TO A PPP SECRETARY WHO OBSERVED THE PDI CAMPAIGN IN AGUNG, THERE WERE ABOUT 1,000 PEOPLE IN ATTENDANCE, AND NO DISTURBANCES. THE GOLKAR YOUTH

REPRESENTATIVE SAID THAT PDI CAMPAIGNS WERE HARD TO LOCATE BECAUSE THEY WERE SMALL AND QUICK. HE SAID THAT MOST PDI SUPPORTERS IN LAMPUNG SUPPORTED MEGAWATI.

CONFIDENTIAL

11. (C) PDI CURRENTLY HOLDS TWO OUT OF THE 45 SEATS IN THE PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT. IT APPEARED THAT PDI WAS ALMOST COMPLETELY FINISHED IN THE PROVINCE, AND HAD BEEN INTIMIDATED BY PDI MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS INTO HALTING ALMOST ALL CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY. ON MAY 14, ACCORDING TO SEVERAL OBSERVERS, PDI MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS HAD DISRUPTED A PDI CAMPAIGN DIALOGUE BEING HELD IN BANDAR LAMPUNG, AND FIGHTING HAD BROKEN OUT BETWEEN THE TWO SIDES.

UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY DOING WELL BUT CAN'T WIN, FOR NOW

12. (C) IN BANDAR LAMPUNG, THE CHAIRMAN OF PPP WAS UNAVAILABLE, BUT EMBOFF WAS RECEIVED BY THE VICE CHAIRMAN FOR SOCIAL WELFARE WHO SAID HE WAS NOT AUTHORIZED TO DISCUSS THE ELECTION. HE WAS WILLING TO TALK TO EMBOFF AND GAVE SOME IMPRESSIONS. HE SAID THAT PPP WAS DOING WELL AND DRAWING A LOT OF SUPPORTERS FOR ITS CAMPAIGNS IN LAMPUNG. THERE WERE PDI SUPPORTERS WHO WERE JOINING PPP CAMPAIGNS IN SUPPORT OF THE UNOFFICIAL FUSION BETWEEN PPP AND MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. THE PARTY DECIDED TO LIMIT CAMPAIGNS TO TWO HOURS BECAUSE PEOPLE GET RESTLESS AND THE PARTY WANTED TO PREVENT CLASHES. PPP, WHICH CURRENTLY HAD ONLY ONE SEAT OUT OF 45 IN THE REGIONAL PARLIAMENT, WAS HOPING FOR 10 SEATS FROM THIS ELECTION. THEY LAST HAD 10 SEATS IN 1982. HE SAID THAT "WE DON'T PAY OUR PEOPLE (TO CAMPAIGN)" SO THE PPP CROWDS WERE MORE GENUINE THAN OTHERS.

13. (C) DURING AN UNPLANNED STOP AT THE PPP OFFICE IN KOTA BUMI, EMBOFF WAS RECEIVED BY THE CHAIRMAN AND A PPP OFFICIAL FROM BANDAR LAMPUNG ASSIGNED TO KOTA BUMI FOR THE ELECTION PERIOD.

CONFIDENTIAL

THEY WERE ENTHUSIASTIC ABOUT THE SUCCESS OF THE PPP CAMPAIGN IN NORTH LAMPUNG, AND SHOWED EMBOFF PICTURES OF LARGE PPP RALLIES. THEY SAID IN 1992 THERE WERE 4300 CARD-CARRYING PPP MEMBERS (CADRE) IN THE DISTRICT, AND 49,000 VOTES FOR PPP. AS OF MAY 1997, THE NUMBER OF CARD-CARRYING MEMBERS HAD RISEN TO 21,000, AND PPP WAS PREDICTING OVER 200,000 VOTES OUT OF 847,250 REGISTERED VOTERS IN NORTH LAMPUNG. (NOTE: THEY WERE PROBABLY BEING OVERLY OPTIMISTIC GIVEN THAT THEIR ARITHMETIC WAS SIMPLY TO USE THE SAME RATIO OF CADRE TO VOTES FROM 1992 FOR 1997. END NOTE) ACCORDING TO THE PPP CHAIRMAN, DURING THE LAST PPP CAMPAIGN DAY IN NORTH LAMPUNG, THERE WERE 1,000 TO 1,500 PEOPLE IN ATTENDANCE WHO WERE OF THE MEGA-BINTANG GROUP OF PDI SUPPORTERS.

14. (C) PARTY PRIORITIES FOR THE DISTRICT WERE TO WORK TO "DIVIDE THE CAKE EQUALLY." PPP WANTED TO HELP FARMERS, ESPECIALLY IN THE CONTEXT OF THE LOSS OF LAND TO CONGLOMERATES. LAND ISSUES WERE MOST SIGNIFICANT TO THEIR PLATFORM. THEY SAID THAT THERE WERE LOTS OF GOVERNMENT SLOGANS ABOUT RULE BY ALL THREE PARTIES, BUT THEY WERE NOTHING MORE THAN SLOGANS. IN THE DISTRICT LEVEL LEGISLATURE, PPP CURRENTLY HELD THREE OF 36 SEATS. THEY HOPED TO GAIN MORE SEATS, AND "KNEW" PPP WOULD SOMEDAY WIN AGAIN IN THE PROVINCE, THOUGH IT COULD NOT HAPPEN THIS TIME. GOLKAR WAS THE "SINGLE MAJORITY" ONLY FOR NOW. THE PPP OFFICIAL FROM BANDAR

15. (C) WHEN ASKED ABOUT ELECTION WITNESSES (ONE PERSON FROM EACH PARTY IS ALLOWED TO SERVE AS A WITNESS IN EACH POLLING STATION), THEY SAID PPP WOULD BE REPRESENTED IN 91 PERCENT OF THE POLLING STATIONS IN NORTH LAMPUNG. THE OTHER NINE PERCENT WERE IMPOSSIBLE SINCE THE STATIONS WERE WITHIN TWO STRONG COMPANIES, BETASENA AND D.BASENA (PHONETIC). THE COMPANIES AND THE LOCAL BUREAUCRACY WERE BARRING PPP FROM SENDING WITNESSES TO THEIR POLLING STATIONS. THE DISTRICT CHIEF HAD TOLD PPP THEY NEEDED SPECIAL PERMISSION FROM JAKARTA TO ENTER. THE PPP CHAIRMAN CLAIMED THAT HE HAD BEEN ASKED TO COLLUDE WITH THE CURRENT DISTRICT CHIEF, BUT HE DECLINED BECAUSE SOMEDAY PPP WOULD CONTROL THE AREA AND PICK THEIR OWN DISTRICT CHIEF AND GOVERNOR.

16. (C) [redacted] B1 THEY WERE BOTH ACTIVISTS OF THE NATIONALIST STUDENT ORGANIZATION (GMNI) WHILE THEY WERE STUDENTS. THEY RUN THE OFFICES OUT OF THEIR HOME, WHICH THEY CLAIM IS MONITORED 24 HOURS A DAY. THEY CLAIMED THAT MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS NUMBERED 85 TO 87 PERCENT OF PDI SUPPORTERS IN THE PROVINCE AND SUPPORTERS GATHERED AT THE OFFICE EVERY AFTERNOON. THEY CLAIMED THAT PDI MEGAWATI HAD BRANCHES IN ALL SUB-DISTRICTS AND ALSO HAD PEOPLE WORKING IN EVERY VILLAGE IN THE PROVINCE. SOME MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WERE CAMPAIGNING FOR PPP.

17. (C) [redacted] SAID PDI WON THE PROVINCE IN 1982, AND B1

STARTING IN 1987, THE ELECTION WAS RIGGED AND THE RESULTS WERE PLANNED IN ADVANCE AND KEPT IN GOLKAR DISTRICT OFFICES. STATEMENTS OF ELECTION RESULTS SIGNED AT THE SUB-DISTRICT LEVEL WERE PREPARED BEFORE ELECTION DAY, THEY CLAIMED, AND IT WAS AT THIS LEVEL THAT THE CHANGES IN RESULTS WERE MADE. WITNESSES WERE ONLY PRESENT AT POLLING STATIONS, AND NOWHERE ELSE UP THE CHAIN FOR REPORTING RESULTS. SRIE SAID THEY HAD EVIDENCE THAT WHOLE BALLOT BOXES FULL OF VOTES WERE "THROWN IN THE RIVER" AFTER THE 1992 ELECTION, ONLY TO BE REPLACED WITH NEW BOXES FILLED WITH THE "CORRECT" NUMBERS OF GOLKAR VOTES.

18. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT PDI SURYADI WAS TOO AFRAID TO B1
CAMPAIGN ANY MORE IN THE CAPITAL BECAUSE THEY WOULD BE ATTACKED BY PDI MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. [redacted] SAID THAT SHE HAD ORDERED "THE B1 KIDS OF PDI" TO DISRUPT THE PDI SURYADI CAMPAIGN. SHE SAID SHE HAD COMPLAINED TO REGIONAL MILITARY COMMANDER BIBIT WALUYO THAT THE MILITARY AND GOVERNMENT WAS CONDUCTING THE CAMPAIGN FOR SURYADI PDI SINCE THEY WERE TOO AFRAID TO CAMPAIGN. SHE SAID THAT THE MILITARY WAS DISTRIBUTING PDI T-SHIRTS AND TRYING TO MAKE PEOPLE CAMPAIGN FOR PDI TO SHOW THAT THE ELECTION WAS NORMAL IN THE PROVINCE. THE AUTHORITIES WERE ALSO TRYING UNSUCCESSFULLY TO PAY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS TO JOIN THE CAMPAIGN FOR PDI SURYADI.

19. (C) THE STUDENTS OF THE PROVINCE WERE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, AND HAD HELD DEMOCRACY MEETINGS, ACCORDING TO [redacted] A CATHOLIC STUDENT ACTIVIST IN BANDAR LAMPUNG TOLD EMBOFF THAT STUDENTS IN THE PROVINCE WERE NOT GENERALLY POLITICALLY ACTIVE, BUT MOST SUPPORTED MEGAWATI. THE LAST STUDENT DEMONSTRATION IN THE PROVINCE WAS APRIL 10, CALLING FOR AN ELECTION POSTPONEMENT IN CONNECTION WITH UNFAIR TREATMENT FOR MEGAWATI. THE NEXT PLANNED ACTIVITY HAD FAILED, ACCORDING TO HIM, BECAUSE OF NEW INFORMERS B1

WITHIN THE GROUPS. STUDENTS HAD STOPPED THEIR ELECTION-RELATED ACTIVITY AFTER THAT. STUDENTS HAD BEEN CALLED TO A MEETING THE WEEK OF MAY 12 WITH THE REGIONAL MILITARY COMMANDER AND TOLD NOT TO DO ANYTHING RELATED TO THE ELECTION. THEY WERE ALSO TOLD NOT TO MEET FOREIGNERS BECAUSE THEY SHOULD "NOT REVEAL THEIR WEAKNESSES OR DEFAME THEIR COUNTRY." STUDENTS WERE INTIMIDATED BECAUSE "THE SECURITY FORCES KNOW EVERYTHING." MOST STUDENTS WERE NOT PARTICIPATING IN ANY CAMPAIGNS.

20. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT SHE BECAME CONCERNED ABOUT PDI UNDER MEGAWATI BEGINNING IN OCTOBER 1995, BECAUSE GOVERNMENT HARASSMENT BEGAN THEN. SHE SAID SHE HAD BEEN CALLED IN FOR QUESTIONING BY THE MILITARY MANY TIMES, AND DESCRIBED EXTREME ARROGANCE FROM THE MILITARY COMMANDER. SHE DESCRIBED HIM AS CONTROLLING THE PROVINCE AND OF FREQUENTLY SAYING THAT HE SERVED IN EAST TIMOR FIVE TIMES AND THAT HIS "BOOTS WERE STILL THICK" SO "IF HE KICKS YOU HE WILL HURT YOU." (NOTE: THE STUDENT ACTIVIST, IN A SEPARATE MEETING, GAVE THE SAME QUOTE FROM THE MILITARY COMMANDER, WHO HE ALSO DESCRIBED AS ARROGANT AND MAINTAINING TIGHT SECURITY IN THE REGION. END NOTE) [redacted] SAID BIBIT WAS ASSIGNED TO THE PROVINCE FROM KOPASSUS (SPECIAL FORCES), AND WAS "ONE OF PRABOWO'S MEN." AN ILLUSTRATION OF SENSITIVITIES

21. (C) AS AN ILLUSTRATION OF THE SENSITIVITIES IN THE PROVINCE, EMBOFF FACED MONITORING WHICH PROGRESSED INTO HARASSMENT. ALTHOUGH THE EMBASSY HAD INFORMED THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFFICE OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS (SOSPOL) THAT EMBOFF WOULD VISIT THE PROVINCE AND HAD BEEN TOLD WE WERE "WELCOME," THE EMBASSY WAS CALLED ON MAY 19 BY THE SOSPOL OFFICE, AFTER DEPARTURE OF EMBOFF, AND TOLD THAT PERMISSION FROM THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS WAS NEEDED FOR TRAVEL TO LAMPUNG. EMBOFF CALLED THE SOSPOL OFFICE UPON ARRIVAL IN LAMPUNG, AND AFTER A DISCUSSION ABOUT THE UNUSUAL NATURE OF THE REQUEST FOR PERMISSION FROM THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS, IT WAS AGREED THAT SINCE EMBOFF WAS ALREADY IN THE PROVINCE, THE VISIT COULD GO ON AS SCHEDULED. HOWEVER, EACH POLITICAL PARTY OFFICE WAS VISITED BY INTEL SEEKING INFORMATION ABOUT EMBASSY VISIT AND ASSURANCES THAT NO ONE WOULD SPEAK TO EMBOFF.

22. (C) DURING THE FIRST TWO DAYS OF VISIT, EMBOFF NOTICED TWO SUSPICIOUS LOOKING MEN IN THE HOTEL LOBBY, ONE OF WHOM WAS LATER SEEN OUTSIDE THE PDI OFFICE IN KOTA BUMI, A CITY TWO HOURS FROM THE HOTEL, AND ANOTHER IN A RESTAURANT WHERE EMBOFF ATE DINNER. THE MAN WHO FILMED EMBOFF IN THE PDI OFFICE WAS ALSO SEEN IN THE RESTAURANT. AT 8:30 PM ON DAY TWO A MAN CALLED EMBOFF'S HOTEL ROOM TO ASK FOR THE NEXT DAY'S SCHEDULE, SAYING HE WAS "ASSIGNED" TO MONITOR AND PROTECT EMBOFF, AND THAT HE WAS IN THE HOTEL ANY TIME EMBOFF WAS IN THE HOTEL. WHEN PUSHED FOR HIS IDENTITY, HE SAID HE WAS FROM THE REGIONAL GOVERNMENT. FOUR INTEL OFFICERS IN REGIONAL GOVERNMENT UNIFORMS HAD VISITED THE MEGAWATI PDI OFFICE ON THE DAY BEFORE EMBOFF'S VISIT AT 6:00 AM AND AGAIN FROM 7:00 PM UNTIL 11:00 PM, ACCORDING TO PDI MEGAWATI CHAIRPEOPLE, WANTING INFORMATION ABOUT IF AND WHEN EMBOFF WOULD VISIT THEM. ON DAY

THREE, EMBOFF MET WITH THE PDI MEGAWATI CHAIRPERSON AND WAS FOLLOWED FROM THERE TO THE HOTEL BY TWO CARS CONTAINING EIGHT MEN. ONE OF THE CARS AND AT LEAST ONE OF THE MEN HAD BEEN SEEN IN KOTA BUMI THE DAY BEFORE, AND ONE OF THE MEN HAD EARLIER APPEARED TO BE WORKING IN THE HOTEL. SEVERAL OF THE MEN TRIED TO ELICIT INFORMATION FROM THE EMBASSY DRIVER.

23. (C) ONE CAN ONLY CONCLUDE THAT THE AUTHORITIES IN LAMPUNG WERE CONCERNED THAT EMBOFF MIGHT LEARN ABOUT THE TRUE NATURE OF THE ELECTION IN THE PROVINCE, WHICH APPEARS TO BEAR LITTLE RESEMBLANCE TO A REAL COMPETITION BETWEEN POLITICAL PARTIES.

MOMENTUM IN CENTRAL JAVA AND YOGYAKARTA. NONETHELESS, GOLKAR, THE GOVERNMENT PARTY, SHOULD MANAGE A STRONG WIN. THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN DEFLATED BY LOYALISTS OF OUSTED PDI LEADER MEGAWATI AND IN CENTRAL JAVA IT COULD SEE A 70 PER CENT DROP IN ITS VOTE FROM THE 1992 ELECTION. THE PHENOMENON OF MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS VOTING FOR THE PPP (MEGA-BINTANG) SEEMS TO HAVE MIXED SUPPORT FOR THE WHILE. MANY DOUBT MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WOULD VOTE FOR THE PPP IN LARGE NUMBERS, ALTHOUGH THEY MAY IN SOLO. PPP LEADERS NOTE YOUNG PEOPLE ARE PREVALENT AT PARTY RALLIES, MANY ARE UNAWARE OF THE PPP IN ANY DEPTH BUT ARE DRAWN TO IT BY OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT. LENGTHY, COLORFUL DEMONSTRATIONS AND HIGHWAY PROCESSIONS MARKED CAMPAIGNING BY THE PPP AND GOLKAR. THE MILITARY MONITORED THEM CLOSELY. PDI RALLIES WERE VIRTUALLY INVISIBLE. LOCALIZED INCIDENTS OF VIOLENCE DID NOT SPREAD. IN YOGYAKARTA, SULTAN HAMENGKUBUWONO, GOLKAR CHAIRMAN, SPOKE OF THE CRITICAL NEED TO KEEP A HEALTHY PDI PRESENCE IN THE YOGYAKARTA DISTRICT GOVERNMENT IF IT IS TO REMAIN BALANCED AND NOT UNDER THE CONTROL OF THE ABRI FACTION. ---REMBANG, CENTRAL JAVA--

4. (SBU) REMBANG, A DISTRICT LOCATED IN THE FAR NORTHEASTERN CORNER OF CENTRAL JAVA, IS NOTORIOUSLY POOR AND VERY DRY. WITH NO INDUSTRY TO SPEAK OF, REMBANG'S SOCIETY RESTS ON SMALL FARMING,

LOCAL FISHING, SHOPKEEPING, AND A PERVASIVE GOVERNMENT BUREAUCRACY. AS PART OF THE NORTH CENTRAL COAST HISTORICALLY TIED TO THE INTRODUCTION OF ISLAM INTO JAVA, REMBANG HAS A POPULATION LARGELY DEVOUT MUSLIM, PREDOMINANTLY NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU). IT WENT FOR GOLKAR TWO FOR ONE OVER THE PPP IN 1992. THE PDI TOOK 13 PERCENT. PASSING THROUGH THE AREA ON MAY 19, A PDI CAMPAIGN DAY, PO SAW NO SIGN OF CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY AND WAS TOLD THAT THE PDI HAD NOT CAMPAIGNED THERE AT ALL, NO PDI BANNERS VISIBLE. GOLKAR AND THE PPP HAD BEEN ACTIVELY CAMPAIGNING

5. (SBU) A LOCAL KIAI (ISLAMIC LEADER) IN REMBANG CITY SAID THAT GOLKAR WOULD INVARIABLY WIN THE DISTRICT AGAIN, THE BUREAUCRACY WAS TOO STRONG, AND MANY RESIDENTS WITH OLD TIES TO THE NATIONALIST PARTY FELL UNDER THE GOLKAR ORBIT. HOWEVER, ENTHUSIASM FOR THE PPP WAS GROWING. PEOPLE HAD BEGUN TO LOSE THEIR FEAR OF GOVERNMENT PRESSURE TO VOTE GOLKAR. THE PHENOMENON OF MEGAWATI PDI SUPPORTERS EMBRACING THE PPP (THE MEGA-BINTANG CAMPAIGN) WAS INVISIBLE THERE. NO VIOLENT CAMPAIGN INCIDENTS HAD OCCURRED IN REMBANG.

---SEMARANG, A MEGAWATI SUPPORTER---

6. (C) IN SEMARANG, CENTRAL JAVA'S CAPITAL, A MEGAWATI PDI SUPPORTER TOLD PO ON MAY 19 THAT MEGAWATI LOYALISTS' INITIATIVE TO WRECK THE PDI CAMPAIGN HAD SUCCEEDED. PDI RALLIES WERE CONSISTENTLY UNDER-ATTENDED, WITH BARE HANDFULS OF SPECTATORS. HE STATED THAT SOME 2.7 MILLION PDI MEMBERS IN CENTRAL JAVA WOULD NOT VOTE PDI THIS TIME. THE PDI, WITH 3.4 MILLION VOTES IN THE LAST ELECTION, WOULD LOSE 70-80 PER CENT OF ITS VOTERS.

7. (C) ACCORDING TO THE MEGAWATI LOYALIST, SOME 60 PER CENT OF THOSE ATTENDING PPP RALLIES WERE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. MEGA-

BINTANG, HOWEVER, AS A VOTING PHENOMENON, WAS A PASSING PHASE. THE MESSAGE HAD GONE OUT TO MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS TO SUPPORT THE PPP IN STREET RALLIES, IF THEY WISHED, BUT TO WAIT FOR GUIDANCE FROM MEGAWATI ON WHAT TO DO ON ELECTION DAY. IN HIS OPINION, MEGAWATI WOULD ADVISE HER SUPPORTERS TO ABSTAIN OR VOID THE BALLOT (GOLPUT). IT WAS INCONCEIVABLE THAT ANYONE FROM THE PDI, A MEGAWATI SYMPATHIZER OR NOT, COULD VOTE FOR THE PPP, WHICH WAS TOO IMMERSED IN ISLAMIC POLITICS. THE PHILOSOPHIES OF THE PPP AND PDI WERE IRREVOCABLY FAR APART. (NOTE: THIS CONVERSATION TOOK PLACE BEFORE MEGAWATI ANNOUNCED HER INTENTION TO ABSTAIN IN THE ELECTION.)

8. (C) THE MEGAWATI ORGANIZER SAID THAT IN SEMARANG THE MILITARY HAD BEEN USING EXCESSIVE FORCE TO COMBAT MEGAWATI FOLLOWERS. IN HIS VIEW, THE MILITARY, AT LEAST IN CENTRAL JAVA, WANTED TO LEND AS MUCH SUPPORT AS POSSIBLE TO THE PDI AND ITS CHAIRMAN SOERJADI, SINCE, HE SAID, PANGAB FEISAL TANJUNG AND SOSPOL SYARWAN HAMID HAD BEEN MAJOR PLAYERS IN INSTALLING SOERJADI AS PDI CHAIRMAN AND UNSEATING MEGAWATI. THE MILITARY WAS NOW WORRIED THAT THE DRAMATIC DEFEAT AWAITING THE PDI IN CENTRAL JAVA WOULD WEAKEN SOERJADI'S

PRETENSIONS OF LEGITIMACY AND THUS EMBARRASS THE ABRI. HE FEARED A MILITARY CRACKDOWN ON MEGAWATI ACTIVISTS IN CENTRAL JAVA. IRONICALLY, HE NOTED, CENTRAL JAVA'S CONTROVERSIAL GOVERNOR, SOEWARDI, AND SEMARANG'S MAYOR WISHED TO SEE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS CONTINUE TO LAME THE PDI, SINCE IT WOULD HELP INCREASE THE GOLKAR

TOTALS IN CENTRAL JAVA. (COMMENT: WE UNDERSTAND THAT THE CENTRAL JAVA MILITARY COMMANDER, MAJOR GENERAL SOEBAGIO, HAS BARELY CONCEALED HIS DISLIKE FOR THE GOVERNOR'S BLATANT, EXAGGERATED

SUPPORT FOR GOLKAR AND OTHER EXCESSES. END COMMENT)

9. (C) OUR CONTACT NOTED THAT STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS WERE TRYING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF CAMPAIGN EVENTS TO STAGE THEIR OWN PROTEST MARCHES. HE WAS AWARE OF A DEMONSTRATION PLANNED FOR THE FOLLOWING DAY (MAY 20). THE DEMONSTRATION WAS TO CALL FOR AN END TO DWI-FUNGSI (THE MILITARY'S ROLE IN CIVILIAN AFFAIRS), A LOWERING OF BASIC FOOD PRICES, AND THE TRIAL OF THE SUHARTO CHILDREN FOR CORRUPTION. ORGANIZED BY THE SOLIDARITY OF INDONESIAN STUDENTS FOR DEMOCRACY (SMID), IT WOULD COINCIDE WITH A LARGE MAY 20 PPP RALLY IN SEMARANG. (NOTE: WE ARE NOT AWARE WHETHER A SMID-INSPIRED DEMONSTRATION OCCURRED. SEE EMBASSY JAKARTA SEPTEL FOR AN ACCOUNT OF PPP ACTIVITIES IN SEMARANG ON MAY 20.)

---SEMARANG PPP---

10. (C) [redacted] DOWNPLAYED A MEGA-BINTANG ALLIANCE. OBVIOUSLY NOT INTERESTED HIMSELF IN TRYING TO ENLIST MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, HE SAID THE PPP HAD LITTLE IN COMMON WITH THE POLITICS OF MEGAWATI. BESIDES, WHEN MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS DID ATTEND PPP RALLIES, THEY OCCASIONALLY SMELLED OF ALCOHOL AND WERE A LITTLE TIPSY--NOT VIRTUOUS CONDUCT IN THE EYES OF THE PPP. MEGA-BINTANG AS A MOVEMENT HAD LITTLE CHANCE IN CENTRAL JAVA, EXCEPT PERHAPS IN SOLO, WHERE THE PPP WAS SMALL AND ITS CHAIRMAN, MUDRICK, WAS ACTIVELY COURTING MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. [redacted] B1

B1

11. (C) ACCORDING TO [redacted] THE PPP WAS VERY STRONG ALONG THE NORTHERN COAST OF JAVA, BUT FARTHER SOUTH INTO JAVA'S HEARTLAND, B1

SUPPORT WANED AS THE POPULATION WAS INCREASINGLY ABANGAN (I.E. NOT
CONFIDENTIAL

STRONGLY INCLINED TOWARDS ORTHODOX ISLAM). HE THOUGHT THAT 75 PER CENT OF PPP VOTERS WERE NU. MORE YOUTH WERE BECOMING ATTRACTED TO THE PPP CALL. AT RALLIES, HE SAID, FULLY 70-80 PER CENT OF THE PARTICIPANTS WERE YOUNG, THEY WANTED CHANGE AND REFORM. HE CAUTIOUSLY VENTURED THAT THE PPP WOULD LIKELY MAKE SOME GAINS IN CENTRAL JAVA. HE CONCURRED IN THE VIEW THAT THE MILITARY HAD BEEN USING EXCESSIVE FORCE DURING THE CAMPAIGN, BUT STILL NOTED THAT THE PROPENSITY FOR VIOLENCE HAD HEIGHTENED. MANY YOUTHS HAD PICKED UP A HABIT COMMON TO EAST JAVA OF CARRYING THEIR SICKLES AND OTHER SHARP INSTRUMENTS. SEVERAL STABBING INCIDENTS HAD OCCURRED.

12. (U) IN DRIVING SOUTH FROM SEMARANG TO THE SPECIAL DISTRICT OF YOGYAKARTA MAY 20 (A PPP DAY), PO SAW SEVERAL PPP CONVOYS IN THE PROCESS OF ORGANIZING, PARTICULARLY AT MAGELANG, SITE OF THE MILITARY ACADEMY. POLICE AND MILITARY WERE SEEN FREQUENTLY ALONG THE MAJOR NORTH-SOUTH HIGHWAY.

---PPP RALLY IN YOGYAKARTA---

13. (SBU) IN THE MID-AFTERNOON OF MAY 20, PO AND ECONOFF WITNESSED WHAT HAS BECOME THE HALLMARK OF PPP RALLIES IN YOGYAKARTA AND CENTRAL JAVA, THE RALLY-MUFFLER CONCERT. FOR ABOUT TWO HOURS, MAJOR STREETS THROUGHOUT YOGYAKARTA (EXCEPT THE VERY CENTER OF TOWN AND THE MAIN COMMERCIAL STREET) WERE FILLED WITH THOUSANDS OF PPP ADHERENTS ON MOTOR BIKES, MOSTLY IN GROUPS OF TWENTY TO FIFTY SLOWLY PROCEEDING DOWN THE STREETS IN A LOOSE DISCIPLINE, SHOUTING SUPPORT FOR THE PPP, AS WELL AS OUTLAWED MEGA-BINTANG SLOGANS. THESE TROUPES HAD ALMOST ALL CUT OFF THEIR MOTORCYCLE MUFFLERS AND REVVED THE ENGINES TO A BEAT WHICH WAS ACCOMPANIED BY DANCING AND SWAYING. POLICE AND SECURITY STOOD AT STREET CORNERS AND OFTEN DIRECTED THE GROUPS. MOST PARTICIPANTS WERE YOUTHS, SOME WERE
CONFIDENTIAL

MIDDLE AGED. BANNERS OF GREEN (THE PPP COLOR), EVEN AN OCCASIONAL PROSCRIBED MEGA-BINTANG FLAG, WERE EVERYWHERE. IT WAS CHAOTIC FESTIVENESS. AT SUNSET, THE PROCESSIONS BROKE UP. WHILE WE SAW NO HINT OF VIOLENCE, APPARENTLY AT YOGYAKARTA'S MUHAMMADIYAH UNIVERSITY, MILITARY CLASHED WITH STUDENTS, TWO-THREE WERE REPORTEDLY INJURED WHEN THE MILITARY FIRED WARNING SHOTS.

---GOLKAR RALLY IN CENTRAL JAVA---

14. (SBU) GOLKAR PLANNED ITS LAST DAY OF CAMPAIGNING IN CENTRAL JAVA (MAY 21) AS A MAJOR EVENT. PO AND ECONOFF DROVE THROUGH THE BOYOLALI DISTRICT, SITE OF A MAJOR GOLKAR VICTORY IN 1992, TO SALATIGA. SECONDARY AND MAJOR HIGHWAYS WERE PARALYZED WITH CONVOYS OF MOTOR BIKES AND TRUCKS, DECKED IN YELLOW, THE GOLKAR COLOR, PROFUSE WITH BANNERS WITH SLOGANS SUCH AS "GOLKAR. MY LIFE, MY BLOOD." VILLAGERS, HOLDING NEW, YELLOW TEE-SHIRTS, LINED THE ROADS. MANY BIKERS WERE YOUNG, BUT THERE WAS A SUBSTANTIAL MIX OF MIDDLE AGED. WHILE MANY OF THE CONVOY MEMBERS WERE IN A FESTIVE MOOD, THERE WAS A NOTICEABLE PRESENCE OF SOMBER FACES, AS THOUGH THEY CAME BECAUSE THEY HAD TO. ONE SALATIGA CONTACT TOLD US THAT EARLIER A MILITARY INTELLIGENCE OFFICER, EXHORTING PEOPLE TO GET TO THE ROADS TO CHEER PASSING CONVOYS, HAD PASSED THROUGH HIS NEIGHBORHOOD,

FOR SECURITY REASONS. WE SAW TWO INCIDENTS WHERE ANTI-RIOT POLICE STOPPED GOLKAR TRUCKS AND HIT A SUPPORTER ON THE HEAD WITH THICK WOODEN POLES. WE PASSED A LOCATION WHERE A STONETHROWING INCIDENT HAD JUST OCCURRED, PRESUMABLY AN ANTI-GOLKAR REACTION BY LOCAL VILLAGERS. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, IN ONE VILLAGE NEAR YOGYAKARTA, LOCAL RESIDENTS HAD THROWN STONES AT A GOLKAR CONVOY WHOSE MEMBERS HAD PULLED UP PPP FLAGS. WHEN PURSUED BY THE MILITARY, VILLAGERS APPARENTLY FOUGHT BACK WITH SHARPENED BAMBOO STAKES, STABBING FIVE. THE MILITARY LATER FOUND A CACHE OF FORTY

SHARPENED BAMBOO STAKES NEARBY. (PRESS REPORTS INDICATE BAMBOO STAKES WERE ALSO DISCOVERED IN JEPARA, NEAR SEMARANG.)

16. (SBU) ON RETURN TO YOGYAKARTA, WE NOTICED SEVERAL CAKRA UNITS (ABOUT TEN MEN IN EACH) DEPLOYING ON STREET CORNERS ABOUT THE CITY. THE CAKRA, WE WERE TOLD BY SEVERAL CONTACTS, WERE PARA-MILITARY BANDS FROM A NUMBER OF YOGYAKARTA'S GOLKAR GROUPS, PRIMARILY PEMUDA PANCASILA. THEY HAVE BEEN ACCUSED BY PPP OFFICIALS AND OTHERS OF STONETHROWING AND ATTACKS AGAINST PPP BUILDINGS, MEMBERS, AND MOSQUES. A CONTACT AT YOGYAKARTA'S LEGAL AID SOCIETY (LBH) CONCURRED, MUSING ON HOW STRANGE TO HAVE THESE GANGS UNDER GOLKAR AUSPICES ATTACKING MOSQUES EVEN AS GOLKAR WAS SUPPOSEDLY COURTING THE ISLAMIC VOTE.

17. (U) MAY 22 WAS THE FINAL PDI DAY IN YOGYAKARTA. PRESS REPORTS NOTED A FEW SMALL EVENTS ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF THE DISTRICT. WE SAW ONE PDI MOTORBIKER DRIVING THROUGH THE CITY.

---YOGYAKARTA PPP---

18. (C) ACCORDING TO [redacted] B1
PPP SUPPORT IS SWELLING IN THE DISTRICT, WITH WELL OVER 90 PER CENT

OF ITS RALLIES COMPOSED OF YOUTHS. HE ADMITTED THAT MANY WHO ATTENDED HAD NO KNOWLEDGE OF THE PPP BUT WERE ATTRACTED TO ITS CALLS FOR HONESTY IN GOVERNANCE AND IN REACTION AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT. HE BELIEVED THAT IN YOGYAKARTA A LARGE NUMBER OF MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WOULD SIDE WITH THE PPP IF ONLY IN OPPOSITION TO THE REGIME (A VIEW WE HAD HEARD ELSEWHERE). THEY WILL REMAIN UNITED WITH US IN OPPOSITION, IF NOT IN POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY, HE MUSED. IN HIS VIEW, THE PPP COUNT, WHICH HAD GATHERED JUST OVER 20 PER CENT IN 1992, WOULD INCREASE BY A THIRD. (TWO MONTHS AGO [redacted] TOLD US THAT THE PPP TALLY WOULD BE ABOUT THE SAME AS IN 1992.) GOLKAR WOULD WIN COMFORTABLY, ESPECIALLY SINCE THE MILITARY HAD SUPPORTED THE PARTY SO OPENLY. (AS PROOF OF MILITARY SUPPORT, HE RECALLED THAT A NUMBER OF WIVES OF GENERALS WERE ON THE NATIONAL GOLKAR SLATE. HOW COULD THEIR HUSBANDS BE NEUTRAL, [redacted] WONDERED.) B1 B1

19. (SBU) [redacted] AGREED THAT A SIGNIFICANT NUMBER AT THE LARGE PPP RALLIES IN YOGYAKARTA, A UNIVERSITY TOWN, WERE STUDENTS WHO WOULD B1

NOT BE VOTING IN THE DISTRICT. SOME WOULD RETURN HOME TO VOTE. MORE IMPORTANTLY, HOWEVER, THEY WERE A CONDUIT FOR CONVEYING SUPPORT FOR THE PPP TO THEIR HOME AREAS. AS A VISUAL EXAMPLE OF HIS ARGUMENT, HE NOTED THAT PPP BANNERS EARLY IN THE CAMPAIGN WERE DARK GREEN. YOGYAKARTA STUDENTS BEGAN USING LIGHT GREEN, WHICH HAD THEN SUDDENLY BECOME THE PREFERRED COLOR THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

[redacted] B1

21. (C) THE [redacted] LAID OUT HIS VIEWS IN A MAY 23 MEETING. HE SAID THAT HE HAD BEEN CAMPAIGNING AS NEVER BEFORE, GOING FROM VILLAGE TO VILLAGE. WHILE IN SUPPORT OF GOLKAR, HE WAS ALSO RELAYING THE MESSAGE TO THE VOTERS NOT TO DESSERT THE PDI AT THE LOCAL AND DISTRICT LEVEL. IN HIS VIEW, PDI VOTERS NEED NOT VOTE FOR THE PDI AT THE NATIONAL LEVEL, BUT IT WAS IMPERATIVE TO MAINTAIN A STRONG PDI PRESENCE IN THE YOGYAKARTA GOVERNMENT. A BALANCE HAD TO BE KEPT, OR GOLKAR WOULD WIN OVERWHELMINGLY, A SITUATION THAT WOULD PUT THE ABRI FACTION (THE MILITARY BLOCK OF SEATS) AT THE DISTRICT LEVEL IN A POSITION TO DOMINATE THE LEGISLATURE. (COMMENT: HE WAS UNCLEAR AS TO HOW ABRI DOMINATION WOULD HAPPEN, BUT PRESUMABLY THE ABRI FACTION CAN EASILY INTIMIDATE GOLKAR MEMBERS. END COMMENT) [redacted] NOTED A LOCAL GOLKAR STATEMENT THAT HE ENGINEERED ANNOUNCING THAT GOLKAR ESTIMATED IT WOULD TAKE ONLY 66 PER CENT OF THE VOTE, IN CONTRAST TO THE

STANDARD 70 PER CENT THAT GOLKAR WAS PREDICTING NATIONWIDE. WE DID THIS, HE SAID, TO SEND A SIGNAL THAT WE DO NOT WANT TO WIN AS MUCH

AS POSSIBLE, BUT RATHER PREFER TO KEEP A BALANCE. IF GOLKAR WERE TO WIN 70 PER CENT, IT WOULD ATTAIN AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY AND THE BALANCE WOULD BE UPSET. DEMOCRATIZATION IN YOGYAKARTA WOULD BE SET BACK. (NOTE: CURRENTLY THE PPP HAS SEVEN SEATS, GOLKAR 21, AND THE PDI EIGHT.)

22. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT HE HAD ALSO TRIMMED THE GOLKAR PREDICTION TO BLUNT PPP CHARGES THAT HE WAS ARROGANT, A LAMBAST USED BY THE PPP AGAINST GOLKAR IN CENTRAL JAVA, WHERE THE GOVERNOR WANTS GOLKAR TO WIN THE MAXIMUM. IN ADDITION, HE HAD LET IT BE KNOWN THAT NATIONAL GOLKAR PROMOTERS COULD COME TO YOGYAKARTA FOR OPEN RALLIES AT HIS INVITATION ONLY. MINISTERS WOULD WANT TO VISIT TO PUMP UP THE VOTE. HE FEARED THAT THEY WOULD EXPECT RESIDENTS TO LINE THE STREETS AND APPLAUD THEM IN WELCOME. THEY WOULD MAKE EXALTED PROMISES OF A LIFE THAT WOULD BE BETTER AFTER ANOTHER GOLKAR VICTORY. THE LEVEL OF POLITICAL AWARENESS IN YOGYAKARTA IS TOO SOPHISTICATED, HE REFLECTED. B1

23. (C) CLEARLY UNHAPPY WITH ANY CHANCE OF PPP GAINS IN YOGYAKARTA, [redacted] SAW THE MAIN PPP SUPPORT IN YOGYAKARTA AS COMING FROM STUDENTS, MORE THAN TWO THIRDS OF WHOM, FORTUNATELY IN HIS VIEW, DID NOT VOTE IN THE DISTRICT. MOREOVER, HE SAID, THE MEGA-BINTANG MOVEMENT WOULD NOT PERSUADE MANY VOTERS. PDI MEMBERS IN YOGYAKARTA KNEW THAT THE PPP WAS A DICTATORIAL MINORITY THAT WOULD NEVER LOOK AFTER THEIR INTERESTS. [redacted] REPEATEDLY STRESSED THAT THE TRUE INHABITANTS OF YOGYAKARTA WERE JAVANESE WHO WERE MUSLIMS, NOT THE OTHER WAY AROUND. WE HAVE A SPECIAL CULTURE THAT WE WILL PRESERVE, HE AVERRED. HE SAID THAT THE YOGYAKARTA NU HAD RECENTLY TRIED TO WEAN THE LOCAL KIAIS TO SUPPORT THE PPP AND UNDERMINE NU CHAIRMAN ABDURRAHMAN WAHID. HE HAD SUMMONED THE KIAIS AND REMINDED THEM OF THE CONTINUED STRONG BACKING THAT [redacted] B1 B1

HAD GIVEN THEM SINCE THE 1950'S. [redacted] NOTED THAT ONLY TWO PROMINENT PESANTREN (ISLAMIC SCHOOLS) IN YOGYAKARTA WERE TRADITIONALLY SUPPORTIVE OF THE PPP AND THEY WERE TRANSPLANTS, ALBEIT SOME TIME AGO.) B1

24. (C) [redacted] TOLD US THAT LEAFLETS HAD BEEN CIRCULATING THE CITY PROMISING THAT A REBELLION WOULD START IN YOGYAKARTA THAT DAY (MAY 23) TO COINCIDE WITH THE FINAL PPP RALLY. OVER THE PREVIOUS NIGHT, MILITARY UNITS HAD BEEN DEPLOYED TO YOGYAKARTA FROM JAKARTA, BANDUNG, AND ELSEWHERE. HE SAID THAT A MASSIVE FINANCING EFFORT (500 MILLION RUPIAHS) HAD BEEN SPENT TO BACK THE CAMPAIGN WITH BUSES AND POSTERS, FOR EXAMPLE. WHILE [redacted] WAS VAGUE AT THIS POINT, HE SEEMED TO BE REFERING TO THE PPP CAMPAIGN. (COMMENT: WE ARE UNAWARE OF ANY MAJOR SECURITY PROBLEMS HAPPENING IN YOGYAKARTA ON MAY 23. END COMMENT) [redacted] AGREED THAT CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE IN YOGYAKARTA WAS COMPARATIVELY LOWER THAN IN THE PAST. B1 B1 B1

---SOLO PPP---

25. (C) WE MET WITH [redacted] MAY 22. AN UNCONVENTIONAL POLITICIAN, [redacted] OVER RECENT MONTHS HAS AGGRESSIVELY ASSAILED GOLKAR AND THE CENTRAL JAVA GOVERNMENT OVER SEVERAL ISSUES. MOST PROMINENT HAS BEEN HIS ATTACK ON THE GOVERNOR'S YELLOWIZATION PROGRAM (WHEREBY THE GOVERNMENT HAS HAD TRESS, POLES, BRIDGES, ROAD CROSSINGS THROUGHOUT THE PROVINCE PAINTED YELLOW. [redacted] HAD PPP CADRES REPAINT MANY OF SOLO'S YELLOWED SITES WHITE, WHICH CAUSED SEVERAL FIGHTS). HE TOLD US TWO MONTHS AGO THAT HE WAS CONSTANTLY SEEKING WAYS TO KEEP THE LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT OFF-BALANCE. [redacted] HAS MADE POLITICAL ENEMIES. IN MID-MAY, A BOX WAS DELIVERED TO HIS DOOR. IT CONTAINED THE SEVERED HEAD OF A DOG WITH A KNIFE IN ITS MOUTH--AN B1 B1 B1 B1

INCIDENT [redacted] BRUSHED OFF AS TRIVIAL. B1

26. (C) [redacted] IS AT THE FOREFRONT OF THE MEGA-BINTANG CAMPAIGN, ALTHOUGH HE DECLARES THAT MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS IN SOLO, ADMIRING HIS ATTACK ON YELLOWIZATION, URGED HIM TO IT. HE SPOKE OF HIS MEETING WITH MEGAWATI IN JAKARTA EARLIER THIS MONTH. ALTHOUGH THE PRESS B1 B1

CONSIDERED IT A MEGAWATI BLESSING OF MEGA-BINTANG, HE SAID THAT SHE HAD SIMPLY LISTENED SYMPATHETICALLY TO HIS POINTS. CONVINCED THAT HER SUPPORTERS WOULD STAY WITH THE PPP, [redacted] SAID THAT THE PPP COULD WIN IN SOLO. TWO MONTHS AGO HE HAD SAID THAT THE PARTY MIGHT MAKE SOME SMALL GAIN, BUT HE NOTED THAT WAS BEFORE THE MASSIVE SUPPORT FOR THE PPP. (IN 1992, THE PPP HELD 16 PER CENT OF THE VOTE, COMPARED WITH THE PDI'S 36 PER CENT SHARE AND GOLKAR'S 48 PER CENT.) IF THE PPP LOSES FROM VOTE FRAUD, [redacted] STATED A SEVERE POPULAR REACTION WOULD OCCUR. [redacted] HELD LITTLE ESTEEM FOR CENTRAL JAVA'S GOVERNOR, BUT THOUGHT HIGHLY OF THE PROVINCIAL COMMANDER, MAJ GEN SOEBAGIO, WHOSE FORCES HAD NOT BEEN INTRUSIVE IN SOLO. B1 B1 B1

27. (C) POLITICAL OBSERVERS IN CENTRAL JAVA SEE [redacted] AS A POPULIST. A NATURAL POLITICIAN WITH HIS OWN POWER BASE, HE SEIZES ISSUES OF INTEREST TO THE PEOPLE AND NOT TO THE ELITES, AN LBH CONTACT NOTED. NOT AN ELECTED OFFICE HOLDER IN GOVERNMENT, BUT A BUSINESSMAN WITH HIS OWN ENTERPRISE, HE IS NOT BEHOLDEN TO THE B1

28. (U) ON MAY 23, THE LAST DAY OF THE CAMPAIGN, A PPP DAY IN JAVA, WE DROVE FROM YOGYAKARTA THROUGH SOLO TO SURABAYA. IN SOLO, CONVOYS OF THOUSANDS OF MOTOR CONVOYS IN MUFFLER CONCERT CHOKED THE STREETS, ALTHOUGH POLICE WERE ABLE TO CHART PATHS FOR TRAFFIC THROUGH TOWN. THE MOOD WAS FESTIVE ON THE MAIN STREETS, ALTHOUGH A NEWS REPORT INDICATED THAT MILITARY UNITS FIRED A WARNING VOLLEY OVER THE HEADS OF ONE CONVOY TO TURN THEM AROUND. SMALLER TOWNS ALONG THE WAY, KLATEN AND SLEMAN, WERE FILLED WITH CONVOYS. CROSSING INTO EAST JAVA, A PPP CONVOY OF SEVERAL HUNDRED MOTOR BIKES AND TRUCKS, ACCOMPANIED BY MILITARY VEHICLES, MONOPOLIZED THE HIGHWAY AS IT ROLLED BY RETURNING FROM EAST JAVA AT SUNSET.

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE SMALL CITY OF PEKALONGAN, LOCATED ON THE NORTH COAST OF CENTRAL JAVA, WAS WON BY THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) IN 1992, AND WAS ONE OF ONLY TWO AREAS IN ALL OF INDONESIA LOST BY RULING PARTY GOLKAR IN THAT ELECTION. THE LOCAL PPP EXPECTS TO IMPROVE ITS PERFORMANCE IN THIS ELECTION, AND A STRONG NEGATIVE PUBLIC REACTION IS ANTICIPATED IF THE PARTY DOES NOT AT LEAST REPEAT ITS EARLIER VICTORY. HOWEVER, MANY OBSERVERS IN CENTRAL JAVA BELIEVE THAT THE GOVERNMENT AND GOLKAR HAVE BEEN PAYING SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE CAMPAIGN IN PEKALONGAN AS PART OF A DELIBERATE EFFORT TO MAKE SURE THAT GOLKAR WINS BACK THE CITY IN THIS ELECTION. THE CITY WAS TENSE BUT PEACEFUL DURING EMBOFF'S VISIT ON THE WEEKEND OF MAY 17-18. PPP AND GOLKAR HELD SMALL CAMPAIGN EVENTS IN A SUCCESSFUL EFFORT TO AVOID STREET RALLIES. THE PPP PROMISED THAT EVENTS DURING ITS FINAL TWO ROUNDS OF CAMPAIGNING WOULD BE MUCH LARGER, WHICH TURNED OUT TO BE TRUE AND REPORTEDLY LED TO SOME UNREST ON MAY 20 AFTER EMBOFF HAD DEPARTED. LOCAL PPP OFFICIALS CLAIMED THAT SECURITY AUTHORITIES TOOK HARSH ACTION AGAINST THE PARTY'S SUPPORTERS EARLY IN THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD. UNREST HAD ALSO ERUPTED THERE IN LATE MARCH AND EARLY APRIL OVER FRICTION WITH GOLKAR. VIOLENCE OCCURRED AGAIN AT THE END OF APRIL BECAUSE MANY PPP MEMBERS BELIEVED THEY HAD BEEN BLOCKED BY LOCAL OFFICIALS FROM REGISTERING TO VOTE. PPP OFFICIALS IN THE NEIGHBORING DISTRICT OF BATANG SAID THAT "THUGS" WERE TERRORIZING PPP SUPPORTERS.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

3. (C) LOCAL REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MEGAWATI BRANCH OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) CLAIMED THAT GOVERNMENT OUSTED PDI CHAIRPERSON MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI ENJOYED OVERWHELMING SUPPORT AMONG PDI MEMBERS AND SYMPATHIZERS IN PEKALONGAN. MOREOVER, THE LOCAL LEADERSHIP HAD INSTRUCTED PDI MEMBERS NOT TO VOTE FOR THE PDI, AND EXPECTED THAT MOST WOULD BOYCOTT THE ELECTION. IN CONTRAST, THE CHAIRMAN OF THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED FACTION OF THE PDI CLAIMED THAT THE PARTY'S LEADERSHIP RIFT WAS UNIMPORTANT

BECAUSE PDI MEMBERS WOULD VOTE FOR THE PARTY NO MATTER WHAT. OTHER MEGAWATI-PDI OFFICIALS IN SEMARANG ACKNOWLEDGED THAT SOME OF PDI'S MORE ISOLATED RURAL-BASED SUPPORTERS MIGHT BE CONFUSED, AND END UP VOTING FOR THE PDI AGAINST THE LEADERSHIP'S WISHES. THE MEGAWATI REPRESENTATIVES IN PEKALONGAN SAID THAT NO ORGANIZATIONAL DECISION HAD BEEN MADE TO ALLOW A LOCAL FUSION BETWEEN PPP AND MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, BUT IN PRACTICE MANY OF HER YOUNG SUPPORTERS WHO WANTED TO JOIN THE CAMPAIGNING WERE DOING SO THROUGH THE PPP. MINORITY PARTY CONTACTS IN PEKALONGAN ARGUED THAT POPULAR ENTHUSIASM FOR GOLKAR WAS WEAK AND THAT THE RULING PARTY RELIED ON MATERIAL INCENTIVES TO DRAW CROWDS TO EVENTS. GOLKAR OFFICIALS IN PEKALONGAN CLAIMED GENERALLY THAT THE CAMPAIGN WAS PROCEEDING SMOOTHLY, BUT WERE NOT RECEPTIVE TO AN IN-DEPTH DISCUSSION WITH EMBOFF ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN. END SUMMARY

4. (SBU) EMBOFF OBSERVED THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN AT POINTS ALONG THE NORTH COAST OF CENTRAL JAVA FROM MAY 17-20. IN ADDITION TO PEKALONGAN, EMBOFF STAYED IN SEMARANG, THE PROVINCIAL CAPITAL (SEE SEPTEL). MANY WESTERN JOURNALISTS, INCLUDING CNN AND BBC, WERE IN PEKALONGAN IN

THE DAYS AND WEEKS PRECEDING EMBOFF'S ARRIVAL.

CAMPAIGN IN PEKALONGAN

5. (C) ACCORDING TO MANY LOCAL OBSERVERS, THE CAMPAIGNING IN PEKALONGAN HAD BEEN CHARACTERIZED BY NOISY STREET RALLIES ON BEHALF OF GOLKAR AND THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP), AND VERY LITTLE VISIBLE SUPPORT FOR THE GOVERNMENT BACKED INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI). REPRESENTATIVES OF THE PPP AND BOTH BRANCHES OF THE PDI OFFERED SIMILAR VIEWS THAT POPULAR ENTHUSIASM FOR GOLKAR WAS WEAK AND THAT THE RULING PARTY WAS PAYING PEOPLE TO PARTICIPATE IN ITS CAMPAIGNS.

TENSE ATMOSPHERE IN PEKALONGAN

6. (SBU) MOST SHOPKEEPERS ALONG THE NORMALLY BUSY COMMERCIAL STREETS IN THE CENTER OF PEKALONGAN HAD LOWERED

THEIR PROTECTIVE GATES AND CLOSED UP TIGHT ON SATURDAY, MAY 17, PPP'S CAMPAIGN DAY. LOCAL SOURCES REPORTED THAT ON PPP'S PREVIOUS TURN TO CAMPAIGN, MAY 14, THOUSANDS PARTICIPATED IN OR WATCHED THE STREET RALLIES. IT WAS SAID THAT ALTHOUGH NO MAJOR INCIDENTS HAD OCCURRED RECENTLY IN THE CITY, THERE WAS FEAR THAT VIOLENCE COULD RIOT POLICE STATIONED AT STREET CORNERS, MANY ARMED WITH AUTOMATIC WEAPONS AND TEAR GAS.

7. (SBU) DESPITE EXPECTATIONS, STREET RALLIES DID NOT MATERIALIZE ON MAY 17 BECAUSE THE LOCAL PPP LEADERSHIP HAD DECIDED AGAINST BIG OUTDOOR MASS GATHERINGS THAT DAY. INSTEAD, SMALL EVENTS WERE HELD THROUGHOUT THE CITY. EMBOFF ATTENDED TWO OF THEM IN THE ALLEYWAYS OFF THE MAIN CITY STREETS, AND WAS WELCOMED AT BOTH. IN ONE, A GROUP OF MEN, WHO APPEARED TO BE LOCAL LEADERS, WERE SITTING ON PLASTIC CHAIRS IN A CIRCLE TAKING A BREAK FROM WHAT THEY SAID WAS THEIR ATTEMPT TO HOLD ONE OF THE DIALOGUE CAMPAIGN EVENTS ENCOURAGED BY THE GOVERNMENT. MANY WOMEN DRESSED IN TRADITIONAL MUSLIM CLOTHING, AS WELL AS CHILDREN, WERE MILLING ABOUT. ONE OF THE MEN ASKED EMBOFF IF THE POLICE AND MILITARY WERE ALREADY PATROLLING THE STREETS. WHEN EMBOFF REPLIED THAT CONTINGENTS OF RIOT POLICE WERE VISIBLE, THE MAN QUERIED WHETHER SECURITY FORCES WERE USED DURING U.S. CAMPAIGNS. HE THEN POINTEDLY SAID THAT THE AUTHORITIES ATTITUDE TOWARD THE CAMPAIGN WAS SIMILAR TO "WAGING WAR."

PREVIOUS UNREST IN PEKALONGAN

8. (C) PEKALONGAN HAS RECEIVED A GREAT DEAL OF ATTENTION BECAUSE OF PRE-CAMPAIGN UNREST IN MARCH AND APRIL (REFTELS) AND BECAUSE THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) PREVAILED IN THE CITY IN THE 1992 ELECTION WITH 42.5

PERCENT OF THE VOTE (GOLKAR 36.4 PERCENT, PDI 21 PERCENT). THIS WAS ONE OF ONLY TWO AREAS IN THE COUNTRY WHERE A PARTY OTHER THAN GOLKAR WAS PERMITTED TO WIN, THE OTHER

BEING PASURAN (CITY AND DISTRICT) IN EAST JAVA. IN THE LARGER SURROUNDING PEKALONGAN DISTRICT (KABUPATEN), GOLKAR WON WITH 49.7 PERCENT, AND PPP RECEIVED ONLY 25.3 (PDI 25).

9. (C) SEVERAL LOCAL SOURCES ATTRIBUTED THE MARCH UNREST IN PEKALONGAN TO GOVERNMENT AND GOLKAR "ARROGANCE" AND RESULTING LOCAL "DISCONTENT." ACCORDING TO ONCE SOURCE, THE PPP HAD PLANNED A LARGE PRE-CAMPAIGN EVENT, INVOLVING A LARGE GROUP OF KIAI (RELIGIOUS TEACHERS), ON MARCH 26. AT THE LAST MINUTE, A HIGH PROFILE GOLKAR DELEGATION, INCLUDING THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI (TUTUT), AND A POPULAR MUSICIAN AND A RELIGIOUS LEADER (BOTH WITH PREVIOUS TIES TO THE PPP), DECIDED TO COME TO PEKALONGAN TO HOLD A PRE-CAMPAIGN EVENT ON THE SAME DAY. THEY RECEIVED THE PERMIT, AND THE PPP WAS FORCED POSTPONE ITS EVENT.

PPP COMPLAINS OF INTIMIDATION AND VOTER MANIPULATION

10. (C) [redacted] TOLD EMBOFF ON MAY 18 THAT A SURGE IN POPULAR SUPPORT FOR PPP SHOULD LEAD TO A FIFTY PERCENT INCREASE IN ITS SEATS IN THE CITY'S LEGISLATURE. CURRENTLY, PPP HOLDS EIGHT, GOLKAR SEVEN, PDI FOUR AND ABRI FIVE. HE ESTIMATED THAT PPP'S TOTAL IN THE 1997 ELECTION COULD RISE TO 12 SEATS, AND THAT GOLKAR AND PDI COULD SPLIT THE REMAINING EIGHT SEATS (ABRI WOULD BE GIVEN 5 AUTOMATICALLY, AND THE OVERALL SEATS IN THE LEGISLATURE WOULD BE INCREASED FROM 24 TO 25). B1

11. (C) [redacted] BASED HIS OPTIMISM UPON A PERCEIVED "RISING UP" OF THE POPULARITY OF THE PPP AMONG MOST SECTORS OF SOCIETY, INCLUDING "LABOR, FARMERS, TRADERS, ULAMAS (RELIGIOUS LEADERS OR TEACHERS) AND SANTRI (RELIGIOUS STUDENTS)." HE CLAIMED THAT WITHOUT INSTRUCTIONS FROM THE PPP LEADERSHIP, MASSES OF PEOPLE WERE DONNING THE GREEN CLOTHING (OFFICIAL PPP COLOR) AND SUPPORTING THE PARTY AT PUBLIC EVENTS. HE SAID THAT IF THE PPP DID NOT AT LEAST WIN THE CITY OF PEKALONGAN AS IT HAD IN 1992, THERE WOULD BE A STRONG NEGATIVE PUBLIC REACTION AS PEOPLE WOULD KNOW THAT THE RESULTS WERE UNFAIR. B1

12. (C) ALTHOUGH THE PPP CAMPAIGN ON MAY 17 HAD BEEN KEPT RELATIVELY LOW KEY BY THE PARTY LEADERS, HE PROMISED MUCH LARGER EVENTS DURING THE FINAL TWO PPP ROUNDS CLOSING OUT THE CAMPAIGN. (NOTE: ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS AND A FOLLOW-UP PHONE CALL TO THE PPP IN PEKALONGAN, PROBLEMS DID OCCUR DURING PPP'S CAMPAIGN ON MAY 20. LOCAL MEDIA REPORTED THAT SEVERAL MOTORCYCLES WERE DESTROYED WHEN THEIR RIDERS DID NOT RESPOND TO THE PPP HAND SIGN, AND THAT A LOCAL LEGISLATOR'S CAR WAS DAMAGED. THE PPP CLAIMED THAT A SMALL LOCAL OFFICE OF THE GOVERNMENT-CONNECTED YOUTH GROUP "PEMUDA PANCASILA" HAD BEEN DAMAGED BY CROWDS, AND THAT TWO HOUSES BELONGING TO PPP SUPPORTERS

SECURITY FORCES DEALT HARSHLY WITH THE PPP EARLY IN THE CAMPAIGN DURING THE PARTY'S SECOND TURN IN PEKALONGAN (MAY 2). CONVOYING CAMPAIGNERS WERE FORCIBLY DISPERSED BY SECURITY FORCES AS THEY WERE RETURNING HOME FROM A RALLY. HE SAID THAT A COUPLE OF HUNDRED RIOT POLICE AND MILITARY

HAD BEEN SENT TO PEKALONGAN, MOSTLY FROM THE PROVINCIAL CAPITAL SEMARANG. IN ADDITION, HE DESCRIBED "NINJAS" DRESSED IN BLACK, WHO HE CLAIMED WERE CONNECTED TO GOLKAR, AS HAVING BEEN IN PEKALONGAN (NOTE: POLOFF OBSERVED RIOT POLICE ONLY AT THIS LATER TIME IN THE CAMPAIGN. END NOTE.)

14. (C) [redacted] DID NOT SPECIFY THE MIX OF SECURITY FORCES THAT HE BELIEVED TOOK PART IN THE MAY 2 INCIDENT WITH PPP CAMPAIGNERS. HOWEVER, HE SPECIFIED THAT MANY CAMPAIGNERS WERE INJURED, FOUR SERIOUSLY ENOUGH TO BE HOSPITALIZED, 10 WERE DETAINED OVERNIGHT, AND 28 MOTORCYCLES OR SCOOTERS WERE DAMAGED OR SEIZED. OFFICIALS FROM THE MEGAWATI BRANCH OF THE PDI ALSO REFERRED TO AN EARLY "SHOW OF FORCE" BY SECURITY OFFICIALS IN THE CITY, AND A SEPARATE LOCAL SOURCE ALSO TOLD EMBOFF ABOUT THE "NINJAS." B1

15. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THERE HAD NOT BEEN OTHER MAJOR INCIDENTS DURING THE CAMPAIGN (THIS WAS ECHOED BY SEVERAL LOCAL SOURCES). HOWEVER, HE DID MENTION THAT MATERIALS CALLING FOR A FUSION BETWEEN THE PPP AND OUSTED INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI HAD BEEN SEIZED BY SECURITY AUTHORITIES DURING PPP'S ROUND OF CAMPAIGNING ON MAY 14. B1

16. (C) [redacted] ALLEGED THAT MANY PPP SUPPORTERS IN B1

PEKALONGAN OF LEGAL VOTING AGE HAD BEEN BLOCKED FROM REGISTERING FOR THIS ELECTION. [redacted] ON MAY 20 TOLD EMBOFF THAT THIS HAD LED CITIZENS IN PEKALONGAN TO ATTACK THE HOME OF THE OFFICIAL RESPONSIBLE FOR ELECTION REGISTRATION AT THE END OF APRIL. ACCORDING TO LOCAL PRESS ARTICLES PROVIDED TO EMBOFF BY [redacted] CITIZENS FROM THE CITY OF PEKALONGAN HAD COMPLAINED TO THE PPP PROVINCIAL HEADQUARTERS IN SEMARANG THAT THEY HAD BEEN PREVENTED FROM REGISTERING TO VOTE. THE PROVINCIAL PPP VICE-CHAIRMAN WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT IT WAS POSSIBLE THAT THOUSANDS OF CITIZENS HAD EXPERIENCED THIS PROBLEM. B1

[redacted] B1

EMBOFF ON MAY 19 THAT "PREMAN" (HOODLUMS) WERE "TERRORIZING" PPP SUPPORTERS AND SYMPATHIZERS DURING THE CAMPAIGN PERIOD. ECHOING [redacted] CLAIMED PPP WAS "GROWING STRONGER," WAS THE "PARTY OF THE PEOPLE," AND THAT HE WAS OPTIMISTIC THAT IT WOULD IMPROVE ITS TOTALS IN THIS ELECTION. PEOPLE WANTED "CHANGE." (NOTE: PPP HAD ACHIEVED 23 PERCENT OF THE VOTE IN 1992 IN BATANG. END NOTE.) HOWEVER, ON PPP'S TURNS TO CAMPAIGN THE "PREMAN" WERE TAKING SUCH ACTIONS AS GOING TO THE HOMES OF PPP SUPPORTERS AND THROWING ROCKS THROUGH THE WINDOWS. HE SPECULATED THAT THE OBJECTIVE WAS TO "STOP PPP" FROM IMPROVING ITS PERFORMANCE. B1

GOVERNMENT-BACKED PDI ALSO COMPLAINS OF INTIMIDATION

18. (C) [redacted] B1

[redacted] (AS OPPOSED TO THE CITY) OF PEKALONGAN, ALLEGED TO EMBOFF ON MAY 18 THAT GOLKAR SUPPORTERS HAD ATTACKED PDI CAMPAIGNERS JUST DAYS BEFORE ON MAY 16. HE SAID THAT A VILLAGE HEAD, WITHIN THE PEKALONGAN DISTRICT, HAD GIVEN INSTRUCTIONS THAT THE ATTACK BE CARRIED OUT. HUNDREDS COMPLIED AS THE PDI CAMPAIGNERS WERE RETURNING HOME. EIGHTEEN PDI MEMBERS WERE INJURED AND FOUR PDI HOUSES WERE SMASHED. B1

19. (C) [redacted] CLAIMED THAT THE LEADERSHIP RIFT WITHIN THE PDI WAS UNIMPORTANT BECAUSE PDI MEMBERS WOULD VOTE FOR PDI NO MATTER WHAT. ALTHOUGH HE THOUGHT THERE WAS LITTLE SUPPORT FOR GOLKAR, HE SAID THAT THE RULING PARTY WOULD USE "DIRTY TRICKS," INCLUDING PAYING 10,000 RUPIAH (APPROXIMATELY 4 USD) FOR A VOTE, TO ENSURE ANOTHER VICTORY. (NOTE: IN THE DISTRICT OF PEKALONGAN IN 1992, GOLKAR SECURED 49.7 PERCENT OF THE VOTE, PPP 25.3 AND PDI 24.9. END NOTE.) B1

[redacted] WAS CLEARLY IN CHARGE. HE B1
TOOK EMBOFF, WITH THE OTHERS FOLLOWING LATER, FROM THE

PARTY'S HEADQUARTERS (THE BACKROOM OF A SMALL HOUSE NEXT TO A MOSQUE) IN A POOR NEIGHBORHOOD TO HIS RELATIVELY WELL-APPOINTED HOME ON THE OTHER SIDE OF TOWN. HE RAN HIS OWN BUSINESS AS [redacted] B1
[redacted] AND EMPHASIZED TO EMBOFF THAT HE WAS AN "INDEPENDENT MAN." HE MOVED THE MEETING BECAUSE HE BELIEVED THE LOCATION OF THE PDI OFFICE WAS NOT SECURE BECAUSE PPP WOULD BE CAMPAIGNING IN THE AREA AND PDI MEMBERS WOULD START DROPPING BY LATER IN THE DAY.

21. (C) [redacted] CLAIMED THERE B1
WAS OVERWHELMING SUPPORT FOR MEGAWATI AMONG PDI MEMBERS IN THE CITY OF PEKALONGAN. THEY SAID THAT AT THE VILLAGE LEVEL, PRACTICALLY ALL THE PDI SUPPORTED HER RATHER THAN THE GOVERNMENT-BACKED CHAIRMAN SURYADI. THEY FURTHER ESTIMATED THAT SHE ENJOYED 90 PERCENT SUPPORT AT THE SUB-DISTRICT LEVEL ("KECAMATAN"). THEY CALCULATED THAT THERE WERE 25,000 MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS IN TOTAL IN THE CITY OF PEKALONGAN (NOTE: ACCORDING TO GOVERNMENT FIGURES, 26,735 CITIZENS IN PEKALONGAN VOTED FOR THE PDI IN 1992. END NOTE.) [redacted] STRONGLY SUPPORTED MEGAWATI'S LEGAL B1
ARGUMENTS ABOUT WHY HER OUSTER FROM THE PARTY CHAIRMANSHIP AT THE JUNE MEDAN CONGRESS WAS ILLEGAL. HE WALKED EMBOFF PAGE BY PAGE THROUGH THE PARTY CONSTITUTION ADHERED TO BY THE MEGAWATI FACTION OF THE PDI TO MAKE HIS ARGUMENTS.

22. (C) [redacted] SHOWED EMBOFF A WRITTEN INSTRUCTION TO PDI MEMBERS SIGNED BY THE LOCAL MEGAWATI BOARD, DATED B1
MARCH 21, INSTRUCTING THEM NOT TO VOTE FOR THE PDI. HE SAID PDI MEMBERS WOULD WAIT FOR INSTRUCTIONS FROM MEGAWATI ABOUT WHAT ELSE COULD BE DONE WITH THEIR VOTE, WHICH THEY

CONFIDENTIAL

EXPECTED SHE WOULD ISSUE ON MAY 22 (NOTE: WHICH SHE DID. END NOTE). HE SAID THAT BOTH GOLKAR AND PPP WERE COURTING THE MEGAWATI PDI VOTE, EVEN WITH MONEY, BUT SO FAR HE THOUGHT THAT MEMBERS WERE WAITING. HE EXPECTED THAT MOST MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS IN THE AREA WOULD BOYCOTT THE ELECTION (NOTE: EITHER BY STAYING AWAY FROM THE POLLS OR BY INVALIDATING THE BALLOT BY CHOOSING ALL THREE PARTIES. BOTH ARE REFERRED TO IN INDONESIA AS "GOLPUT." END NOTE).

23. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO ORGANIZATIONAL DECISION MADE IN PEKALONGAN TO ALLOW A FUSION BETWEEN THEIR SUPPORTERS AND THE PPP (NOTE: KNOWN AS "MEGA-BINTANG," BINTANG IS INDONESIAN FOR STAR, THE SYMBOL OF THE PPP). HOWEVER, SOME OF THE YOUNG PEOPLE WHO WANTED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE CAMPAIGN WERE DOING SO BY JOINING PPP RALLIES. HE ESTIMATED THAT 10 PERCENT OF THE 24,000 MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS MIGHT BE PURSUING SUCH A COURSE. B1

ISSUE OF MEGAWATI'S POLITICAL MANIFESTO. THEY WANTED TO EMPHASIZE THAT IT WAS FULL OF "FREE-MARKET" IDEAS WITH WHICH THEY AGREED. [redacted] ARGUED THAT THE "NEW GENERATION OF PDI WANT DEMOCRACY LIKE IN THE UNITED STATES." MOREOVER, HE CONTINUED, THEY WERE PRAGMATIC PEOPLE WHO SOUGHT EDUCATION, GOOD JOBS, AND GOOD SALARIES. HE STRONGLY MADE THE PITCH THAT THIS "NEW GENERATION" OF MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS WERE NOT "SUKARNOIST" (SOCIALIST) IN THEIR ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHY. B1

THE MEETING WAS QUICKLY INTERRUPTED BY A DISPUTE INVOLVING SUNARIO AND AN UNNAMED OFFICIAL "FROM JAKARTA," ALSO IN ATTENDANCE, OVER WHETHER EMBOFF HAD "AUTHORIZATION" TO MEET WITH THE LOCAL GOLKAR OFFICE OR TO WITNESS THE LOCAL GOLKAR CAMPAIGN. UPON REQUESTING THE MEETING EARLIER IN THE WEEK, EMBASSY HAD BEEN ASKED TO INFORM THE NATIONAL GOLKAR OFFICE IN JAKARTA, WHICH IT DID BY LETTER.

26. (C) THE MEETING WAS ALSO MONITORED BY AN INDIVIDUAL WHO APPEARED TO BE SECURITY. HE SAT JUST BEHIND THE CHAIRS AND COUCH WHERE THE MEETING WAS TAKING PLACE. HE WAS NOT INTRODUCED, BUT WAS WATCHING THE PROCEEDINGS CLOSELY. HE HAD NO FRONT TEETH AND WAS BAREFOOT.

27. (C) THE [redacted] WANTED TO KNOW WHAT EMBOFF B1
NEEDED FROM THE GOLKAR BRANCH OFFICE. EMBOFF EXPLAINED THAT HE WAS ATTEMPTING TO GAIN A BETTER UNDERSTANDING OF CAMPAIGNED SAW ACTIVE STREET CAMPAIGNS, AND THE DAYS WHEN PDI CAMPAIGNED WERE MORE QUIET.

28. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT GOLKAR'S MAIN CAMPAIGN EVENT THE FOLLOWING DAY, SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE AT "LAPANGAN MINI" (SMALL FIELD), WOULD FOCUS ON YOUTH ISSUES. HE WAS HOPING THAT A NATIONAL CAMPAIGNER WHO WAS A MAJOR YOUTH FIGURE WOULD BE SENT IN FROM JAKARTA, BUT WAS STILL NOT SURE WHAT WOULD HAPPEN. POLOFF MENTIONED INTEREST IN ATTENDING THE EVENT, AND THE VICE-CHAIRMAN AGREED. B1

29. (C) THE OFFICIAL "FROM JAKARTA," WHO HAD SAID LITTLE TO THAT POINT, WANTED TO KNOW WHY POLOFF WAS IN PEKALONGAN. HE BEGAN DISCUSSING WITH [redacted] B1

CONFIDENTIAL

30. (C) [redacted] INTERVENED, ARGUING THAT HE DID NOT BELIEVE IT WAS A PROBLEM FOR EMBOFF TO BE THERE. HOWEVER, THE OTHER OFFICIAL WAS ADAMANT THAT THE "PROCEDURE" BE FOLLOWED. [redacted] SAID HE COULD TALK TO EMBOFF AS A "FRIEND AND VISITOR" BUT NOT ABOUT THE CAMPAIGN IN HIS CAPACITY AS A GOLKAR OFFICIAL. HE ALSO SUGGESTED THAT EMBOFF TALK TO THE GOI'S LOCAL ELECTION COMMITTEE IN PEKALONGAN IF HE WANTED TO SEE THE CAMPAIGN EVEN THE NEXT DAY. [redacted] WAS NOT ABLE TO PROVIDE A PHONE NUMBER. EMBOFF HAD SEVERAL OTHER MEETINGS SCHEDULED THE DAY OF THE GOLKAR CAMPAIGN (MAY 18), AND DID NOT ATTEMPT TO ATTEND THE EVENT.

B1

B1

B1

31. (C) EMBOFF LEARNED LATER THAT [redacted] HIMSELF, WHO HAD ORIGINALLY AGREED TO THE MEETING, HAD CALLED THE EMBASSY ON SATURDAY MAY 17 TRYING TO REVERSE HIMSELF. ACCORDING TO THE PHONE MESSAGE, HE SAID THE MEETING WAS NOT AUTHORIZED IN ACCORDANCE WITH REGULATIONS ISSUED BY THE GOLKAR NATIONAL LEVEL CENTRAL BOARD.

STRENGTH OF NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU) IN PEKALONGAN

32. (C) NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU) INDONESIA'S LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, ENJOYS GREAT STRENGTH IN PEKALONGAN AND OTHER AREAS ALONG THE NORTH COAST OF CENTRAL JAVA. ACCORDING TO ONE LOCAL ESTIMATE, NINETY PERCENT OF THE MUSLIMS IN THE CITY WERE NU MEMBERS. ACCORDING TO ANOTHER ESTIMATE, A LARGE MAJORITY OF ALL THE LOCAL INHABITANTS BELONGED TO THE ORGANIZATION. RANDOM CONVERSATIONS WITH LOCAL CITIZENS ILLUSTRATED THE EXTEND TO NU'S SUPPORT. FOR EXAMPLE, THE HOSTESS AND THE WAITER IN THE HOTEL RESTAURANT PROUDLY TOLD EMBOFF THAT THEY BELONGED TO NU.

33. (C) EMBOFF MET WITH THE LOCAL LEADERSHIP OF NU IN PEKALONGAN ON MAY 18 AT A SMALL ISLAMIC BOARDING SCHOOL (PESANTREN) ON THE OUTSKIRTS OF TOWN. THE MEETING WAS SUPPOSED TO BE FOCUSED ON NU'S RELIGIOUS ROLE AND THE OPERATION OF THE PESANTREN, HOWEVER, THE [redacted] B1
[redacted] WHO RAN THE PESANTREN, AND THE OTHERS WANTED TO TALK POLITICS. THEY EMPHASIZED THAT MOST NU MEMBERS WERE "INDEPENDENT PEOPLE," MEANING THAT THEY WERE NOT DEPENDENT ON THE GOVERNMENT STRUCTURE (E.G. WERE NOT CIVIL SERVANTS) TO MAKE A LIVING, BUT RATHER HAD INDEPENDENT SOURCES OF INCOME THROUGH TRADING, ETC. THUS, THEY WERE ABLE TO TAKE A MORE INDEPENDENT POLITICAL STANCE VIS A VIS THE GOVERNMENT. (COMMENT: MANY OBSERVERS IN CENTRAL JAVA BELIEVE THAT THE STRONG INDEPENDENCE OF PEKALONGAN'S RESIDENTS FROM THE GOVERNMENT IS THE PRIMARY REASON THAT THE CITY DID NOT FALL TO GOLKAR IN 1992. END COMMENT.)

34. (C) THE NU LEADERS WANTED TO KNOW IF THE UNITED STATES WOULD MAKE A PUBLIC REPORT ABOUT THE INDONESIAN ELECTION AND RAISED THE ISSUE OF U.S. POLICY REGARDING "HUMAN

2. (C) SUMMARY: MANY NEW, YOUNG UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) SUPPORTERS EVIDENT IN STREET RALLIES ARE "GOING WITH THE STREAM," ACCORDING TO A PPP CENTRAL BOARD MEMBER AND NATIONAL CAMPAIGNER. PPP WAS THEIR VEHICLE FOR BECOMING PART OF THE EXCITEMENT OF STREET RALLIES THIS YEAR IN JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE, JUST AS THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) WAS THE VEHICLE FOR MANY OF THEM IN THE 1992 ELECTION. AT A BASIC LEVEL, IT WAS A CHANNEL FOR THEM TO EXPRESS THEMSELVES. ALTHOUGH NOTING THE MARKEDLY INCREASED PUBLIC SUPPORT FOR PPP IN JAKARTA DURING THE CAMPAIGN, SHE DID NOT BELIEVE PPP WOULD BE PERMITTED TO WIN THE CAPITAL. IT WAS CLEAR AT A LARGE PPP RALLY ON MAY 14 THAT THE PPP CENTRAL LEADERSHIP HAD LITTLE CONTROL, IF ANY, OVER THE MASSES IN ATTENDANCE. THE EFFORTS TO PUBLICIZE AN ATTEMPTED FUSION BETWEEN THE PPP AND SUPPORTERS OF OUSTED INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI ("MEGA-BINTANG") WERE NOT AS EVIDENT ON MAY 14 AS ON THE PREVIOUS CAMPAIGN DAY. THIS FOLLOWED THE GOVERNMENT'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT MATERIALS CALLING FOR SUCH A FUSION WERE PROHIBITED. PPP HAS MADE SEVERAL PUBLIC ALLEGATIONS OF VOTER MANIPULATION AND FRAUD. END SUMMARY.

3. (SBU) UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) NATIONAL CAMPAIGNER LENA MARIANA MUKTI INVITED POLOFF TO ACCOMPANY HER TO A PPP PUBLIC RALLY ON MAY 14. SHE IS A MEMBER OF THE PPP NATIONAL BOARD, AND A CANDIDATE FOR PARLIAMENT FROM JAKARTA (ALTHOUGH TOO LOW RANKED ON PPP'S CANDIDATE

LIST TO HAVE A REALISTIC CHANCE OF WINNING A SEAT).

LARGE PPP RALLY: WHOSE IN CHARGE?
---

4. (SBU) POLOFF AND PPP NATIONAL CAMPAIGNER LENA MARIANA MUKTI JOURNEYED TO TANJUNG PRIOK, A POOR, PREDOMINANTLY MUSLIM AREA IN THE FAR NORTH OF JAKARTA, ON MAY 14 TO OBSERVE A LARGE PPP RALLY. UPON ARRIVING AT NOON, THE SOCCER FIELD WAS VIRTUALLY EMPTY, EXCEPT FOR SOME POLICE

AND MILITARY. MUKTI WAS NOT SPEAKING AT THE CAMPAIGN EVENT HERSELF AS HER RESPONSIBILITY THAT DAY WAS TO MONITOR THE PPP RALLIES IN SEVERAL AREAS OF THE CITY FOR THE PPP CENTRAL BOARD.

5. (SBU) AS THE START TIME OF 1:00 PM DREW NEAR, WAVE AFTER WAVE OF MOSTLY YOUNG MEN ARRIVED IN THE PARKING LOT ON MOTORCYCLES AND OTHER VEHICLES, AND AFTER PARKING RAN ONTO THE FIELD. SEVERAL PPP CAMPAIGNERS ON THE STAGE BEGAN WARMING UP THE CROWD WITH MUSIC, BUT NOBODY FROM PPP APPEARED TO BE IN CHARGE IN THE PARKING LOT OR IN THE FIELD. MOREOVER, THE ARRIVING GROUPS OF MOTORCYCLES WERE NOT WELL-ORGANIZED AND WERE VIRTUALLY LEADERLESS. MUKTI EXPLAINED TO POLOFF THAT THE PEOPLE SIMPLY GATHERED TOGETHER IN THE "KAMPUNGS" (POOR NEIGHBORHOOD) SURROUNDING THE FIELD AND SET OFF FOR THE RALLY.

6. (SBU) MUKTI POINTED OUT THAT THE ATTENDEES WANTED TO JOIN THE STREET RALLIES AND WERE NOT INTERESTED IN THE SPEECHES. SHE ALSO DISAPPROVED OF THE OFFICIALS ON THE STAGE WHOSE PRIMARY FORM OF COMMUNICATING WITH THE CROWD

WAS TO YELL AND SHOUT THAT PPP WAS NUMBER ONE, THAT IT SHOULD BE SUPPORTED, ETC. SHE SAID THAT WHEN SHE SPOKE TO CAMPAIGN CROWDS SHE ALWAYS TRIED TO GIVE SOME SUBSTANCE. BUT IN GENERAL SHE WAS RESIGNED BECAUSE THE STREET RALLIES AND PARTY ATMOSPHERE WERE SO PERVASIVE.

7. (SBU) THE FEATURED SPEAKER, ALAWI MUHAMMAD, A "CHARISMATIC KIAI" (RELIGIOUS SCHOLAR) FROM MADURA ARRIVED AND THE EVENT KICKED INTO FULL GEAR. FIVE TO TEN THOUSAND PEOPLE WERE ON THE FIELD AND IN THE STANDS. HE SPOKE FOR ABOUT HALF AN HOUR AND HIS MAIN MESSAGE TO THE MASS OF PEOPLE WAS TO SUPPORT PPP AND TO CARRY OUT THE CAMPAIGN AND ELECTION SMOOTHLY. AS SOON AS IT WAS OVER, THE CROWD STREAMED OFF THE FIELD, ONTO MOTORCYCLES, SCOOTERS AND OTHER VEHICLES AND INTO THE NARROW STREETS OF TANJUNG PRIOK.

8. (SBU) POLOFF WATCHED THE EVENT FROM THE EDGE OF THE CROWD. THE VAST MAJORITY WERE TREATING THE EVENT LIKE A

PARTY RATHER THAN A POLITICAL SPEECH. HOWEVER, A FEW OF THE ATTENDEES WITH WHOM POLOFF SPOKE WERE INTENT ON TAKING A MORE SUBSTANTIVE APPROACH. ONE OLDER MAN, WITH HIS WIFE, SON, DAUGHTER-AND-LAW AND GRANDCHILDREN, TOLD POLOFF HOW GOLKAR WAS THE GOVERNMENT PARTY, THE PPP WAS THE ISLAMIC PARTY, AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI)

WAS THE "DEMOCRACY PARTY." HE AND HIS FRIEND EMPHASIZED THAT GOLKAR HAD BEEN IN POWER FOR MANY YEARS AND THAT THEY DID NOT BELIEVE THIS WAS RIGHT. THEY SEEMED ANNOYED BY

THE PACK OF YOUNG MEN HOVERING NEARBY WHO WERE MORE INTENT ON CAROUSING THAN ON LISTENING TO THE SPEECH.

9. (SBU) SEPARATELY, POLOFF SPOKE WITH A YOUNG MAN NOT WEARING THE PPP GREEN WHO SEEMED SOMEWHAT EMBARRASSED TO BE THERE. HE SAID HE WAS A STUDENT FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA (UI), AND THAT HE, ALONG WITH OVER FIFTY PERCENT OF THE STUDENTS AT UI, PLANNED TO BOYCOTT THE ELECTION. HE PROFESSED TO BE A SUPPORTER OF SRI BINTANG PAMUNGKAS, THE DISSIDENT RECENTLY ARRESTED FOR CALLING FOR AN ELECTION BOYCOTT, AND SAID THAT HE DID NOT PLAN TO STAY LONG AT THE RALLY.

10. (U) THE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED ON MAY 12 THAT CAMPAIGN MATERIALS SUCH AS BANNERS AND POSTERS THAT CALLED FOR A FUSION BETWEEN OUSTED PDI LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI AND THE PPP WOULD BE BANNED (NOTE: REFERRED TO AS "MEGA-BINTANG," BINTANG MEANS STAR IN INDONESIAN, THE PPP SYMBOL. END NOTE). MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS YOGIE REPORTEDLY SAID THAT "I DECLARE THAT PEOPLE ARE NOT TO USE THOSE BANNERS. WE NEVER RECOGNIZE ANY PARTY BUT THE THREE POLL CONTESTANTS." THE GOI ALSO BASED ITS MOVE ON REGULATIONS THAT REQUIRE ALL CAMPAIGN MATERIAL TO BE SCREENED BY THE POLICE.

11. (U) POLOFF DID NOT SEE MEGA-BINTANG SIGNS AT THE EVENT IN NORTH JAKARTA ON MAY 14. THIS COULD BE EXPLAINED IN PART BY THE GOVERNMENT BAN, BUT ALSO BY THE FACT THAT

TANJUNG-PRIOK IS A HEAVILY MUSLIM AREA AND NOT FERTILE
CONFIDENTIAL

GROUND FOR OBTAINING SUPPORT FROM THE MORE NATIONALIST/ CHRISTIAN PDI. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, IN SOUTH JAKARTA MATERIALS CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION TO MOVE AGAINST "MEGA-BINTANG" WERE CIRCULATED ON MAY 14, AND LEAFLETS SUPPORTING THE FUSION APPEARED IN MANY AREAS OF JAVA ON THAT DAY.

12. (C) THE PPP CAMPAIGN OFFICIAL, MUKTI, WAS ENCOURAGED THAT THE PPP WAS ATTRACTING MORE SUPPORTERS AND INTEREST IN JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE IN THE COUNTRY. HOWEVER, POINTING TO THE MASSES ON THE SOCCER FIELD, SHE ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THESE WERE NOT PPP'S TRADITIONAL SUPPORTERS, BUT RATHER YOUNG MEN "GOING WITH THE STREAM." SHE ASSESSED THAT IN THE LAST ELECTION IN 1992 MANY FROM THIS GROUP (NOTE: POOR YOUNG MEN. END NOTE) ENTERED THE STREETS FOR THE PDI. THIS TIME PPP WAS THE WAY FOR THEM TO BECOME PART OF THE EXCITEMENT OF STREET RALLIES AND AT A BASIC LEVEL TO "EXPRESS THEMSELVES." SHE HOPED THAT THEY WOULD REMAIN WITH PPP THROUGH MAY 29 WHEN THE ELECTION WOULD BE HELD, AND ACTUALLY CAST THEIR VOTES FOR THE PARTY.

13. (C) DESPITE PPP CHAIRMAN ISMAIL HASAN METAREUM'S PUBLIC STATEMENT ON MAY 5 THAT HIS PARTY WOULD PREVAIL IN THE CAPITAL AS IT HAD IN 1977, MUKTI DID NOT BELIEVE THAT "GOLKAR WOULD ALLOW PPP TO WIN THE ELECTION" IN JAKARTA. CURRENTLY, OF THE FOURTEEN PARLIAMENT SEATS FROM JAKARTA, GOLKAR HOLDS EIGHT, PPP THREE, AND PDI THREE. SHE THOUGHT

THAT PPP COULD CONCEIVABLY DOUBLE ITS TOTAL OF SEATS TO SIX, BUT NO MORE. EVEN IF IT APPEARED THAT PPP HAD IN REALITY WON THE VOTE IN JAKARTA BUT HAD BEEN CHEATED BY THE GOVERNMENT, SHE DOUBTED THAT THE PUBLIC REACTION WOULD BE STRONG. SHE NOTED WITH RESIGNATION THAT THE GOVERNMENT "WOULD HAVE SOME EXPLANATION" THAT THE PEOPLE WOULD HAVE TO ACCEPT.

PPP ALLEGES FRAUD AND VOTER MANIPULATION IN THE WORKS

14. (C) MUKTI SHOWED POLOFF A LETTER FROM THE PPP CENTRAL BOARD TO THE GOI ALLEGING THAT GOLKAR WAS PLANNING TO CARRY OUT "OPERATION DAWN" TO MANIPULATE VOTERS ON ELECTION DAY. THE PPP MADE THESE CHARGES PUBLIC ON MAY 13. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, PPP CLAIMED THAT IT HAD OBTAINED LETTERS FROM THE "COMMUNICATION FORUM FOR GOLKAR AFFILIATED ISLAMIC MASS ORGANIZATIONS" INSTRUCTING ITS BRANCH OFFICES TO GIVE FOOD AND MONEY TO PEOPLE EARLY IN THE MORNING ON MAY 29, WHEN THE VOTING WOULD BE HELD. ACCORDING TO PUBLIC STATEMENTS BY PPP'S SECRETARY GENERAL TOSARI WIJAYA, THIS "OPERATION" WOULD TARGET AREAS WHERE GOLKAR HAD LOST VOTES IN THE LAST ELECTION. ALL CAMPAIGN ACTIVITY IS SUPPOSEDLY BANNED AFTER MAY 23.

RESULTS INDICATING THAT GOLKAR WOULD WIN 86.29 PERCENT IN THE SUBDISTRICT, THE PPP 7 PERCENT, AND THE PDI 6.71 PERCENT. PPP'S GENERAL CHAIRMAN METAREUM ARGUED THAT THIS WAS EVIDENCE THAT THE RESULTS IN THE SUBDISTRICT WERE ALREADY DETERMINED. THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS RESPONDED THAT THE DOCUMENT CONTAINED THE "ESTIMATES" OF WHAT THE RESULTS WOULD BE.

ANECDOTAL EXAMPLES OF VOTER MANIPULATION

16. (C) THE EMBASSY PERIODICALLY RECEIVES CREDIBLE ACCOUNTS OF VOTER MANIPULATION OR FRAUD. ONE INVOLVES THE INDONESIAN FRIEND OF AN EMBOFF WHO WAS SELECTED BY THE ADMINISTRATOR (LURAH) IN HER SOUTH JAKARTA NEIGHBORHOOD TO BE THE LOCAL "GOLKAR ORGANIZER." EVEN THOUGH SHE WAS A SUPPORTER OF MEGAWATI, SHE FELT THAT IT WOULD BE A GOOD IDEA FOR HER TO ACCEPT THE POSITION OTHERWISE HER LIFE COULD BE MADE DIFFICULT. THE "LURAH" GAVE HER A TARGET NUMBER OF VOTES FOR GOLKAR IN HER AREA FOR HER TO OBTAIN, AND MONEY AND CAMPAIGN MATERIALS SUCH AS T-SHIRTS TO HAND OUT. IT WAS MADE CLEAR TO HER THAT AFTER THE ELECTION IT WOULD BE DETERMINED WHETHER THE NEIGHBORHOOD HAD ACHIEVED ITS TARGET, AND THAT IF NOT THE LURAH MIGHT LOSE HIS JOB.

17. (C) ANOTHER CREDIBLE ACCOUNT INVOLVES THE FRIEND OF A FOREIGN SERVICE NATIONAL WHO IS A CIVIL SERVANT WORKING FOR THE GOVERNMENT AIRPLANE COMPANY IPTN. THE FRIEND SAID THAT TWO WEEKS BEFORE THE ELECTION, ON MAY 19, HE AND HIS COLLEAGUES WOULD RECEIVE A FULL MONTH'S EXTRA PAYCHECK. THEY REFERRED TO THIS AS THEIR "GOLKAR SUBSIDY."

CONFIDENTIAL

18. (C) A LOCAL CONTACT EXPLAINED THAT GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS JUST ABOVE VILLAGE LEVEL (CALLED SUB-SUB DISTRICT) IN THE JAKARTA AREA AND PRESUMABLY MORE WIDELY ARE ORGANIZING "EVENING MEETINGS" ON THE EVE OF GOLKAR CAMPAIGN DAYS AT WHICH PEOPLE ARE RECRUITED TO CAMPAIGN FOR GOLKAR THE FOLLOWING DAY. THEY ARE OFFERED MONEY, USUALLY ABOUT 10,000 RUPIAH (A PARALLEL REPORT INDICATED THAT WOMEN ARE OFFERED SUBSTANTIALLY MORE, UP TO 40,000 RUPIAH), PLUS GOLKAR T-SHIRTS OR LIGHT JACKETS AND FOOD. THE OTHER PARTIES ARE NOT PERMITTED TO MAINTAIN ORGANIZATIONS BELOW THE DISTRICT LEVEL AND MOREOVER DO NOT HAVE THE FINANCIAL RESOURCES AVAILABLE TO GOLKAR. SOURCE EXPLAINED THAT MOST PARTICIPANTS WERE YOUNG UNEMPLOYED MEN. ROY

CONVOYED, RALLIED OR SIMPLY STOOD ALONG THE STREETS OF THE CAPITAL MAY 11 WATCHING A RAUCOUS BUT GOOD NATURED SEA OF SUPPORTERS FOR THE MINORITY UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) STRUT ITS STUFF. GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS INTENDED TO LIMIT OR PREVENT CONVOYS AND RALLIES WERE SWEPT ASIDE BY THE LARGE EXUBERANT CROWDS. PPP'S NUMBERS IN THE STREETS MAY HAVE BEEN TWICE THE SIZE OF THOSE ATTRACTED ONLY THREE DAYS EARLIER, A MUSLIM HOLIDAY, WHEN PPP CROWDS IMMOBILIZED SOUTH JAKARTA. VIRTUALLY THE ENTIRE CAPITAL APPEARED IN GRIDLOCK MAY 11. THERE WAS SOME EVIDENCE OF MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS JOINING THE PPP BANDWAGON, DESPITE MISGIVINGS BY SENIOR MEGAWATI ADVISORS WHO SEE RELIGIOUS SPLITS IN HER PARTY AS ONE POSSIBLE CONSEQUENCE DERIVING FROM SUCH ACTIVITY. IT IS YET TO BE SEEN WHETHER PPP'S SURGING STRENGTH IN THE STREETS LEADS TO A LARGER HARVEST OF VOTES. DOUBTS ABOUT THE FAIRNESS OF GOVERNMENT VOTE COUNTING ARE COMMONPLACE. END SUMMARY

JAKARTA AWASH IN PPP GREEN:

3. (U) JAKARTA, MAY 11, WAS TRANSFORMED INTO A SEA OF GREEN AS HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS OF GREEN CLAD SUPPORTERS OF THE LARGELY ISLAMIC UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY SWARMED INTO THE CAPITAL'S STREETS IN IMPROMPTU PARADES AND GATHERINGS. THE SIZE OF THE CROWDS AND THEIR PENCHANT FOR MASSING AT INTERSECTIONS AND FORMING UP MOTORCADES ON ALL MAIN THOROUGHFARES CAUSED THE CITY OF 11 MILLION VIRTUALLY TO GRIND TO A HALT. THE NUMBERS IN SOUTH JAKARTA, ACCORDING TO ONE POLOFF, WERE APPROXIMATELY

DOUBLE THE SIZE OF PPP CROWDS WHICH TOOK TO THE STREET ON THE LAST SCHEDULED PPP CAMPAIGN DAY, MAY 8, AN ISLAMIC HOLIDAY. ONLY SELECTED AREAS WHERE POLICE AND MILITARY BARRED THE FESTIVE CROWDS REMAINED QUIET. ONE SUCH NEIGHBORHOOD WAS CENTRAL JAKARTA'S MENTENG WHERE THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY RESIDE. POLICE AND MILITARY UNITS WERE ABLE TO SCREEN OUT MOST PPP VEHICLES AS THEY SOUGHT TO ENTER MENTENG.

4. (U) MUCH OF THE REST OF THE CITY WAS FESTIVE GRIDLOCK. WHILE OFFICIAL SCHEDULED RALLIES ATTRACTED LARGE CROWDS IN NORTH AND SOUTH JAKARTA, THEY TENDED TO BE ONLY HUBS FOR MUCH MORE FRENETIC ACTIVITY OF MOSTLY TEENAGE YOUTHS WHO CLAMORED ABOARD ALL SORTS OF CONVEYANCES TO FORM CONVOYS WHICH SNAKED THROUGH THE CITY, OR MORE TYPICALLY BECAME TRAPPED BY OTHER PPP CELEBRANTS AT INTERSECTIONS. SOME YOUTHS THUMPED ON CARS TRYING TO WEAVE THEIR WAY THROUGH THE CROWDS DEMANDING THE INDEX FINGER PPP SALUTE FROM ALL PASSERSBY. ONE EXPATRIATE FAMILY WHICH OPENED ITS CAR DOORS SAW THE CAR BRIEFLY COMMANDEERED. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF SCUFFLES WITH SECURITY FORCES WHICH WERE OUT IN FORCE, MANY ARMED WITH SEMI-AUTOMATIC RIFLES.

5. (U) THE CROWDS WERE A CROSS BETWEEN MARDI GRAS AND A WELCOME GIVEN A TRIUMPHANT HOMECOMING SPORTS TEAM WITH VERY LITTLE POLITICAL FEEL. THE RALLIES TENDED TO BE MUSIC CONCERTS WITH FEW SPEECHES AND LITTLE PAMPHLETEERING. EVEN OFF THE MAIN STREETS IN THE DENSELY POPULATED BACK ALLIES GREEN BANNERS WERE IN ABUNDANCE AND PEOPLE OF ALL AGES APPEARED GENUINELY

CAUGHT UP IN THE ATMOSPHERE. YELLOW GOLKAR (GOVERNMENT PARTY) FLAGS WERE RELATIVELY RARE AND PDI RED FLAGS WERE NON-EXISTENT.

6. (U) SPOTTED AMONG THE CROWDS WERE SOME "FUSION" ENTHUSIASTS, SUPPORTERS OF THE GOVERNMENT-OUSTED CHAIRPERSON OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI WHO PLAN TO VOTE FOR PPP IN PROTEST OVER THE GOVERNMENT INTERFERENCE IN THE PDI. WHILE A FEW "MEGA BINTANG" POSTERS WERE SPOTTED AT THE RALLIES IN NORTH JAKARTA, THE PHENOMENON APPEARED TO BE MORE COMMON IN SOUTH JAKARTA (BINTANG MEANS STAR, WHICH IS THE PPP SYMBOL). ONE EMBOFF WITNESSED AN HOURS LONG STREET RALLY IN WHICH THREE TO FIVE THOUSAND PPP SUPPORTERS DROVE AROUND AND AROUND. GREEN (PPP) AND RED (PDI) FLAGS AND PHOTOS OF MEGAWATI WERE PLENTIFUL, AND MANY WERE FLASHING THE MIXED HAND SIGNAL FOR BOTH THE PPP AND THE MEGAWATI BRANCH OF THE PDI. AT ONE INDONESIAN HIGH SCHOOL WITH WHICH EMBOFF WAS FAMILIAR, MANY OF THE YOUNG MEN, SOME OF WHOM HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN THE UNREST ON JULY 27, WERE CROSSING OVER TO SUPPORT PPP, AT LEAST TEMPORARILY.

CONFIDENTIAL

ABOUT THE "MEGA-BINTANG" MOVEMENT . HE NOTED THAT THERE ARE GENUINE AND DEEP POLICY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN PPP AND PDI (HE NOTED PPP OPPOSITION TO FAMILY PLANNING AS ONE) AND, MOREOVER, THERE IS INCHOATE CONCERN THAT PPP COULD YET BE A VEHICLE WHICH ISLAMIST HARDLINERS MIGHT SEEK TO EXPLOIT. (NOTE: MOST OBSERVERS DO NOT SEE PPP AS FERTILE GROUND FOR ISLAMIST HARDLINERS. IN 1985 THE GOVERNMENT FORCED PPP AND ALL OTHER PARTIES AND SOCIO-POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS TO DECLARE THAT THEY WERE BASED ON THE STATE IDEOLOGY OF PANCASILA, I.E., NOT ISLAM. END NOTE)

8. (C) THE MEGAWATI LIEUTENANT ADDED THAT THE APPEAL OF "MEGA-BINTANG" IS STRONGEST AMONG MUSLIM PDI SUPPORTERS WHILE PDI'S SUBSTANTIAL CHRISTIAN CONSTITUENCY WOULD PREFER TO ABSTAIN FROM VOTING OR "GOLPUT." MEGAWATI AND HER ADVISORS REPORTEDLY FEAR POSSIBLE LONG TERM DAMAGE TO PDI UNITY IF THERE IS A DIVIDE BETWEEN SUPPORTERS WHO SUPPORT THE PPP AND THOSE WHO DO NOT.

8. (C) COMMENT: LOCAL OBSERVERS HAVE BEEN IMPRESSED WITH THE SIZE AND ENTHUSIASM OF PPP CROWDS IN JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE (SEE SEPTEL). MOREOVER, THE CROWDS APPEAR TO HAVE GROWN SIGNIFICANTLY OVER THE FIRST FIVE THREE-DAY ROUNDS OF CAMPAIGNING. WHETHER THIS SURGING PPP APPEAL TRANSLATES INTO SIGNIFICANTLY HIGHER VOTE NUMBERS FOR THE PPP REMAINS TO BE SEEN. NO ONE HERE

UNDERESTIMATES THE ABILITY OR WILLINGNESS OF THE GOVERNMENT TO MANIPULATE VOTE TOTALS ALTHOUGH SUCH ACTION THIS TIME AROUND, COULD LEAD TO SIGNIFICANT

PROTEST.

9. (C) COMMENT CONT: ONE OBSERVER (PDI), REFLECTING ON THE MEGA-BINTANG OR FUSION PHENOMENON, CONTENDED THAT BY MUTING PDI THROUGH OUSTER OF ITS POPULAR CHAIRPERSON, THE GOVERNMENT HAD TRANSFORMED THE ELECTION EFFECTIVELY INTO A TWO PARTY RACE (I.E., GOLKAR VS. PPP) WHICH, NOTWITHSTANDING A VERY UNEVEN PLAYING FIELD, HELD SOME NEW INTEREST. THE ELECTION, HE SUGGESTED, COULD TAKE ON THE APPEARANCE OF A REFERENDUM ON THE GOVERNMENT WITH THOSE VOTERS WHO ARE FED UP WITH CORRUPTION, SECURITY AUTHORITY ABUSE, ECONOMIC AND OTHER GAPS AND A FAILED JUSTICE SYSTEM SEIZING AN OPPORTUNITY TO REGISTER A SINGLE PROTEST VOTE. ELECTION OFFICIALS HAVE SAID PDI SURABAYA WILL NO LONGER CAMPAIGN SINCE SECURITY IS INADEQUATE AND PDI EVENTS SEEM UNDER A THREAT OF CONTINUED DISRUPTION BY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS, BUT THE PDI WILL STAY ON THE BALLOT. PDI-SURYADI FACTION MORALE IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA WAS NEVER STRONG AND HAS BEEN ERODING. IF SURABAYA PDI DOES NOT PARTICIPATE IN FURTHER CAMPAIGNING, WE SUSPECT OTHER PDI CHAPTERS IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA WILL FOLLOW SUIT. PROVINCIAL AUTHORITIES WILL LIKELY PRESS THE PDI TO RECONSIDER SINCE THE PRESENCE OF THE TWO MINORITY PARTIES IS IMPORTANT FOR THE IMAGE OF A SUCCESSFUL ELECTION. END SUMMARY

3. (U) ON THE SECOND DAY OF THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN (APRIL 28), THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) WAS ALLOTTED EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA FOR CAMPAIGNING. (NOTE: UNDER GOVERNMENT CAMPAIGN REGULATIONS, RIVAL PARTIES CAN NOT CAMPAIGN ON THE SAME DAY IN THE SAME AREA. END NOTE) IN SURABAYA SUPPORTERS OF GOVERNMENT-OUSTED PDI CHAIRPERSON MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI, THROUGH HECKLING AND STONE THROWING, BROKE UP THE PDI-SURYADI FACTION EVENT QUICKLY AND DECISIVELY. ACCORDING TO PRESS AND WITNESS ACCOUNTS, DURING THE WARM UP TO THE RALLY IN THE CITY CENTER AS LOCAL SINGERS WERE PERFORMING JUST BEFORE THE PROGRAM, A MEGAWATI SUPPORTER TOOK OVER THE STAGE AND MICROPHONE, WARMING THE AUDIENCE TOWARD MEGAWATI, AND TURNING THE EVENT TEMPORARILY INTO A MEGAWATI RALLY. AFTER THE PDI'S OWN SECURITY TRIED TO BREAK UP THE SHOW, SEVERAL HUNDRED MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS PELTED THE STAGE WITH STONES AND CHASED AWAY THE PERFORMERS AND PDI-SURYADI FACTION OFFICIALS. (SOME PRESS ACCOUNTS NUMBER THE MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS AS HIGH AS 5000.) THE AREA WAS RANSACKED. MILITARY SECURITY RUSHED IN AFTER THE INCIDENT WAS OVER. THERE WERE MINOR INJURIES.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

4. (U) SHORTLY AFTERWARDS, SURABAYA'S PDI-SURYADI FACTION ELECTION COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN DECLARED THAT PDI SURABAYA WOULD NO LONGER BE CAMPAIGNING IN SURABAYA, SINCE SECURITY WAS INADEQUATE AND THE PDI WAS FACING PROSPECTS OF CONTINUOUS CLASHES WITH MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. HE NOTED THAT PDI SURABAYA WOULD STILL TAKE PART IN THE ELECTION, BUT CAMPAIGNING WAS OUT. HE WAS SUPPORTED BY THE VICE PDI CHAIRMAN FOR EAST JAVA. SURABAYA'S MILITARY COMMANDER UNSUCCESSFULLY TRIED TO CONVINCE HIM TO RESTART THE DAY'S EVENT AND STAY IN THE CAMPAIGN.

5. (U) NOWHERE ELSE IN CENTRAL AND EAST JAVA WERE THERE CLASHES AS VIOLENT AS IN SURABAYA, ALTHOUGH WE UNDERSTAND THE PDI SHOW IN NEARBY SIDOARJO WAS STRONGLY HECKLED, AND SECURITY WAS TIGHT AT OTHER PDI RALLIES. SEVERAL PDI-SURYADI EVENTS WERE REPORTEDLY CANCELED THROUGHOUT EAST JAVA (JEMBER, SAMPANG, SITUBONDO, AND BOJONEGORO) AND MANY IN YOGYAKARTA. OTHERS WERE ATTENDED BY CROWDS OF UP TO A FEW HUNDRED, USUALLY WITH HEAVY SECURITY. IN NGANDJUK, REPORTEDLY THE NUMBER OF SECURITY PERSONNEL WAS DOUBLE THE NUMBER OF ON-LOOKERS, WHO AMOUNTED TO 100.

6. (C) (COMMENT) MORALE WITHIN PRO-SURYADI PDI RANKS HAS NEVER BEEN HIGH IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA. MANY CHAPTERS ARE PLAGUED BY A LACK OF FINANCES AND INTERNAL REVOLT BY THOSE WHO MAINTAIN VARYING DEGREES OF LOYALTY TO MEGAWATI. PDI OFFICIALS' FUMBLING ATTEMPTS TO ORGANIZE HAVE BEEN AGGRAVATED BY THE PERSISTENT SPECTER OF VIOLENT DISRUPTION AND THE CHALLENGES IN THE COURTS DIRECTED AGAINST THEM BY MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS. THE EAST JAVA PDI WAS FURTHER DISHEARTENED EARLIER THIS MONTH WHEN ONE OF ITS VERY FEW PRO-SURYADI LEADERS WITH A STRONG PERSONAL FOLLOWING DIED ON HAJJ. IF SURABAYA PDI GETS OUT OF THE CAMPAIGN, OTHERS WILL LIKELY FOLLOW SUIT.

CONFIDENTIAL

7. (C) (FURTHER COMMENT) SINCE BOTH MINORITY PARTIES ARE AN ESSENTIAL COSMETIC FOR A SUCCESSFUL ELECTION CAMPAIGN AND THE GOVERNMENT WISHES TO SHOW THAT PRO-SURYADI PDI IS THE LEGITIMATE PDI REPRESENTATION, WE SUSPECT THAT PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY WILL PRESS STRONGLY FOR PDI SURABAYA TO RECONSIDER ITS DECISION. MOREOVER, PROVINCIAL MILITARY AUTHORITIES IN THE RUN-UP TO THE CAMPAIGN HAD MADE MUCH ABOUT THEIR INTENT TO KEEP ORDER AND DEAL HARSHLY WITH CAMPAIGN VIOLENCE. THIS INCIDENT AND THE PDI ACCUSATION OF A SECURITY LAPSE ARE UNDOUBTEDLY EMBARRASSING AND WILL DEEPEN THE MILITARY'S RESOLVE TO KEEP THE PDI IN THE CAMPAIGN AND REACT STRONGLY IF FURTHER VIOLENCE ERUPTS. WHETHER THE PDI STAYS IN OR GETS OUT, THE PARTY APPEARS WEAKER THAN EVER. MEGAWATI SUPPORTERS UNDOUBTEDLY WILL RECEIVE A MAJOR BOOST AND CONTINUE TO MAKE THEIR PRESENCE LOUDLY OBVIOUS.

2. (C) SUMMARY: THERE ARE GROWING INDICATIONS THAT MANY STUDENTS THROUGHOUT INDONESIA PLAN TO BOYCOTT THE UPCOMING PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION. STUDENTS AT YOGYAKARTA'S GADJAH MADA UNIVERSITY DEMONSTRATED FROM APRIL 1-3 FOR MEGAWATI AND IN FAVOR OF AN ELECTION BOYCOTT. OVER 30 STUDENTS WERE DETAINED DURING THE COURSE OF THE DEMONSTRATIONS, WHICH WERE BROKEN UP BY SECURITY FORCES ON TWO OF THE THREE DAYS. MEANWHILE, THE OFFICIAL INDONESIAN YOUTH COUNCIL HELD A MASS RALLY TO PREPARE FOR ASSISTING WITH SECURITY FOR THE ELECTIONS. END SUMMARY.

STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS

3. (C) ON APRIL 1 AT GADJAH MADA UNIVERSITY (UGM) IN YOGYAKARTA APPROXIMATELY 200 STUDENTS, CALLING THEMSELVES "COMMITTEE FOR INDONESIAN DEMOCRACY," HELD A DEMONSTRATION IN SUPPORT OF OUSTED DEMOCRATIC PARTY LEADER MEGAWATI, AND CALLING FOR A BOYCOTT OF THE MAY ELECTION. THE DEMONSTRATION WAS BROKEN UP BY SECURITY PERSONNEL, AND 24 STUDENTS WERE DETAINED, AND THEN RELEASED ON APRIL SECOND. ON APRIL SECOND, STUDENTS HELD ANOTHER DEMONSTRATION, THIS TIME ALSO PROTESTING AGAINST THE "SECURITY AUTHORITIES' INVASION OF CAMPUS." USISOFF SAW THE DEMONSTRATION IN PROGRESS ON APRIL SECOND, ESTIMATING THAT THERE WERE ABOUT 70 DEMONSTRATORS AND ABOUT 200 ONLOOKERS. AT NOON, THE DEMONSTRATION WAS BROKEN UP AND EIGHT STUDENTS WERE DETAINED. THEY WERE RELEASED APRIL THIRD, FOLLOWING A STRONG STATEMENT FROM THE RECTOR OF THE UNIVERSITY. HE SAID THAT, "ACTIVITIES WHICH ARE CARRIED OUT BY THE STUDENT SENATE AND EXECUTIVE BODY OF STUDENTS OF UGM ARE OFFICIAL. WE REQUEST THAT ALL SIDES DO NOT DISTURB THEM AND ASK THE SECURITY APPARATUS NOT TO ENTER CAMPUS."

4. (C) ON APRIL THIRD, APPROXIMATELY 400 (ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS) STUDENTS DEMONSTRATED ON CAMPUS. THIS DEMONSTRATION WAS NOT DISPERSED BY SECURITY AUTHORITIES. USISOFF SPOKE WITH SEVERAL STUDENTS ON THE SCENE THAT DAY, WHO SAID THAT THEY WERE MORE NERVOUS ABOUT POLICE ACTION, AND THAT THE CALL FOR BOYCOTT OF THE ELECTION WAS SEEN AS THE MOST DANGEROUS FOR THEM. USISOFF WAS TOLD BY JOURNALISTS AT TWO OF THE MAJOR LOCAL NEWSPAPERS THAT THE AUTHORITIES HAD CALLED EACH DAY OF THE DEMONSTRATION TO TELL THEM TO DOWNPLAY THE ELECTION BOYCOTT ASPECT OF THE DEMONSTRATIONS. ON APRIL FIFTH, THERE WAS NO DEMONSTRATION.

5. (C) USISOFF WAS TOLD BY STUDENTS THAT THEY WERE AFRAID THE SECURITY RESPONSE WOULD BE STRONG IF THEY DEMONSTRATED AGAIN. IN A CONVERSATION APRIL FIFTH WITH SEVEN STUDENTS, USISOFF WAS TOLD THAT ALTHOUGH THEY HAD NOT DEMONSTRATED, THEY WERE UNITED WITH THE STUDENTS WHO DID. THEY SAID MANY STUDENTS DID NOT PLAN TO VOTE IN THE ELECTION. THEY EXPRESSED STRONG SUPPORT FOR MEGAWATI AND NONE FOR SURYADI OR GOLKAR. THEY SAID THERE WAS STILL STRONG SUPPORT FOR PPP, BUT NOT AS MUCH AS THERE WAS IN 1992. (NOTE: A CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATION STAFF MEMBER WHO WAS IN YOGYAKARTA MARCH 23, TOLD POLOFF SHE WITNESSED A CONVOY OF OVER 600 MOTORCYCLES AND CARS DECKED OUT IN PPP GREEN GO THROUGH TOWN. MOST OF THE PARTICIPANTS WERE YOUNG MEN. SHE SAID THE AREA WAS TENSE AND TRAFFIC CAME TO A STANDSTILL, BUT THERE WAS NO NOTICEABLE POLICE PRESENCE. END NOTE)

6. (C) STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS FOR MEGAWATI AND AGAINST THE ELECTION TENTATIVELY PLANNED FOR THE SECOND WEEK OF APRIL IN YOGYAKARTA, BANDUNG, JAKARTA, UJUNG PANDANG AND POSSIBLY SURABAYA DID NOT OCCUR. WHEN ASKED IF STUDENTS AT DIFFERENT UNIVERSITIES WERE IN CONTACT WITH ONE ANOTHER, THE NAHDLATUL ULAMA UNIVERSITY

STUDENT ORGANIZATION (PMII) LEADERS EXPLAINED THAT SOME STUDENT ACTIVITIES WERE PURELY LOCAL AND OTHERS HAD BROADER CONNECTIONS. ALTHOUGH POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS WERE BANNED FROM CAMPUSES, STUDENTS COULD STILL PARTICIPATE IN EXTRA-UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATIONS SUCH AS PMII AND OTHERS. THESE GROUPS HAVE A NATIONWIDE NETWORK, WITH BRANCHES IN MOST PROVINCES. SOME OF THE DEMONSTRATORS ARRESTED IN YOGYAKARTA WERE FROM PMII BUT WERE NOT DEMONSTRATING AS MEMBERS OF PMII. SUPPORT FROM PMII AND OTHER GROUPS COULD BE GIVEN ONLY INDIRECTLY, FROM BEHIND, THEY EXPLAINED.

7. (SBU) INTERNET REPORTS ARE CIRCULATING FROM A GROUP CALLING ITSELF THE WHITE GROUP STUDENT MOVEMENT (GEMA GOLPUT), WHICH CLAIMS TO BE COMPOSED OF STUDENT GROUPS FROM SURABAYA, MALANG, JOMBANG, YOGYAKARTA, BALI, PURWOKERTO, PROBOLINGGO, WONOSOBO, SEMARANG AND MADURA. THE GROUP WAS CREATED TO ADVOCATE STUDENT BOYCOTTS OF THE ELECTION. ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, STUDENTS AT AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY IN SURABAYA, BRAWIJAYA UNIVERSITY IN

MALANG, AND JEMBER UNIVERSITY IN JEMBER, AND DARUL ULUM UNIVERSITY IN JOMBANG HAVE STAGED DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE ELECTION IN RECENT DAYS.

MANY STUDENTS TO SIT OUT THIS ELECTION?

8. (SBU) ACCORDING TO A NUMBER OF SURVEYS AND CONVERSATIONS WITH STUDENT AND YOUTH LEADERS, THERE ARE CLEAR INDICATIONS THAT MANY STUDENTS INTEND TO BOYCOTT THE ELECTION. A SURVEY IN MALANG

CONDUCTED BY OFFICIAL YOUTH ORGANIZATION KNPI DETERMINED THAT 92.4 PERCENT OF THE STUDENTS SURVEYED DID NOT INTEND TO VOTE (REF B). A POLL CONDUCTED IN 1996 BY A LECTURER IN THE SCHOOL OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL SCIENCES AT YOGYAJARTA'S GADJAH MADA UNIVERSITY DETERMINED THAT 60 PERCENT OF 1000 STUDENTS SURVEYED PLANNED TO BOYCOTT THE ELECTION. A POLL CONDUCTED AT THE ISLAMIC INSTITUTE IN YOGYAKARTA CONCLUDED THAT 39.3 PERCENT OF THE STUDENTS THERE WOULD NOT PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTION. A POLL CONDUCTED BY A STUDENT CLUB AT THE UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA IN JAKARTA FOUND THAT 48.7 PERCENT OF 1000 RESPONDENTS DID NOT PLAN TO VOTE.

9. (C) A PROTESTANT STUDENTS MOVEMENT (GMKI) LEADER TOLD POLOFF HE THOUGHT HIS ORGANIZATION WOULD BE ISSUING A STATEMENT SIMILAR TO THAT PUT OUT BY THE CATHOLIC BISHOPS COUNCIL, WHICH SAID THAT IT WAS NOT A SIN NOT TO VOTE (REFTEL). THEY WERE GOING TO SAY THAT IT WAS OK TO VOTE OR NOT VOTE. HIS IMPRESSION OF STUDENT SENTIMENT WAS THAT SINCE MEGAWATI WAS NOT ALLOWED TO PARTICIPATE, THERE WERE NO REAL CANDIDATES AND THUS NO REAL CHOICE TO MAKE. HE SPECULATED THAT MANY STUDENTS WOULD NOT VOTE.

10. (C) THE NATIONALIST STUDENT (GMNI) LEADERS TOLD POLOFF THAT THEY THOUGHT STUDENTS WOULD NOT VOTE, BUT THAT THE ELECTION WOULD PROCEED AS USUAL, AND THE RESULTS WERE PREDETERMINED. THE YOUNG GENERATION WAS FRUSTRATED BECAUSE INDONESIA STILL REQUIRED A CHARISMATIC LEADER, AND NEEDED A MORE DEMOCRATIC LEADER. NO POSSIBLE CANDIDATES HAD EMERGED EXCEPT ABDURRAHMAN WAHID AND MEGAWATI, BOTH OF WHOM HAD BEEN EXCLUDED FROM PARTICIPATION.

11. (C) THE NU STUDENT LEADERS SHOWED POLOFF A BROCHURE FOR THEIR NATIONAL CONFERENCE IN YOGYAKARTA APRIL 15-17, WHICH HAD

ILLUSTRATIONS INCLUDING A WHITE SQUARE ON THE BOTTOM CORNER, SAYING "FREE TO MOVE, FREE TO READ, FREE TO SPEAK, FREE TO WHITE" (NOTE: THE SO-CALLED WHITE OR NEUTRAL GROUP, OR GOLPUT, IS A TERM USED FOR REFRAINING FROM VOTING OR FOR SPOILING THE BALLOT BY CHOOSING ALL THREE PARTIES. END NOTE) THEY SAID THAT THEIR STANCE ON THE ELECTION WAS NOT OFFICIAL YET, BUT WOULD PROBABLY BE IN SUPPORT OF THE WHITE VOTE. THEIR GROUP WOULD PROBABLY SUPPORT THE CONCEPT THAT "VOTING IS A RIGHT NOT AN OBLIGATION." (NOTE: EIGHT NU GROUPS, INCLUDING PMII, HAVE SINCE ISSUED A STRONG STATEMENT SAYING THAT VOTING IS A RIGHT NOT AN OBLIGATION. SEE SEPTEL. END NOTE) THE CHAIRMAN OF THE ORGANIZATION SAID THAT DURING A RECENT INTERVIEW WITH INDONESIAN PUBLICATION TERBIT, HE TOLD THE JOURNALIST THAT WHEN PRESIDENT SOEHARTO SAID TO CONSIDER HIS AGE WHEN THINKING ABOUT THE ELECTIONS, HE INTERPRETED IT TO MEAN THAT OTHER CANDIDATES COULD BE CONSIDERED. HE COMPLAINED THAT WHAT WAS PRINTED WAS INACCURATE AND QUOTED HIM AS SAYING THAT PMII OFFICIALLY GAVE THEIR SUPPORT FOR THE RENOMINATION OF SOEHARTO.

THE CHAIRMAN OF KNPI DID NOT ATTEND, ACCORDING TO THE PRESS, DUE TO ILLNESS. KNPI CLAIMED TO REPRESENT ALL YOUTH GROUPS IN THESE ACTIONS TO SECURE THE ELECTION.

13. (C) IN SUBSEQUENT CONVERSATIONS WITH LEADERS OF THE

NAHDLATUL ULAMA UNIVERSITY STUDENT ORGANIZATION AND THE PROTESTANT STUDENT ORGANIZATION, POLOFF WAS TOLD THAT THEIR GROUPS DID NOT PARTICIPATE AND HAD PROTESTED THE CLAIMS MADE BY KNPI. THEY ADDED THAT ONLY GOLKAR AND ABRI SPONSORED GROUPS, NAMING GOLKAR AFFILIATED INDONESIAN DEVELOPMENT YOUTH (AMPI) AND ARMED FORCES YOUTH GROUP FORUM FOR CHILDREN OF RETIRED SERVICEMEN (FKPPI), PARTICIPATED. THE PRESS REPORTED ON APRIL 22 THAT THOUSANDS OF LOCAL MEMBERS OF KNPI IN EAST TIMOR HAD PLEDGED TO ENSURE A SMOOTH GENERAL ELECTION, AND THE CHAIRMAN OF THE EAST TIMOR CHAPTER SAID THAT YOUTH "WILL SUPPORT THE ARMED FORCES' LEGAL ACTION TO DEAL WITH THOSE SEEKING TO FOIL THE ELECTION AND THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY." (NOTE: POLOFF TRIED TO MAKE AN APPOINTMENT TO MEET WITH KNPI REPRESENTATIVES, BUT WAS TOLD BY THEIR OFFICE THAT IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE UNTIL AFTER THE ELECTION, SINCE THE LEADERS HAD BEEN "DISBURSED TO DO CAMPAIGNING (FOR GOLKAR)."
ALTHOUGH IT IS WIDELY KNOWN TO HAVE AFFILIATIONS WITH GOLKAR, KNPI BILLS ITSELF AS AN "INDEPENDENT" YOUTH GROUP REPRESENTING ALL YOUTH AND STUDENT GROUPS. END NOTE)

COMMENTARY ON THE RESULTS OF ELECTION CAMPAIGN OBSERVATION 97 INDEPENDENT ELECTION MONITORING COMMITTEE
KIPP

RELEASED IN FULL

Based on the mandate which we decided together and because of our responsibility to society, KIPP would like to present some commentary based on our observations during 1997 election campaign. The commentary is based on the monitoring reports from KIPP participants in 47 cities, covering 17 provinces.

The comments below cover, among other issues, restrictions existing in the elections laws and regulations, the manifestation of these restrictions in a campaign which did not fulfill the function of a facility for people's political education, the lack of response by the election organizing institutions to the concerns of poll contestant, and unfair efforts to win the election.

I. The material of campaign which is limited by law & electorate system, caused the content of campaign material to tend to cover abstract concepts, which are sterile in relation to the realities of society, law, morality, ethics, politics, economy, security & defense and culture. There are no campaign material from the three poll contestants which criticize concrete and contextual realities. The strictness of the rules & regulations impacts the monologue campaign which tends to be simple & and appears to be engineered only for the sake of fulfilling legal formality, without even relating to strategic issues in those fields.

II. The format of the campaign, which still depends on mass mobilization which is advantageous for political education, is the logical consequence from the policy of floating mass, but this can cause negative excesses. Some destruction which was done by poll contestant supporters should to be seen as a problem caused by the limitation of political space, lack of socialization in the value of non-violence, inadequate anticipation by all sides involved of election activities, and accumulation of disappointments in society. The nature and extent of the collective violence and other destructive behaviors are very important to notice, as are the loss human lives and physical property. It is proper to question how far is the dimension of public accountability of the government, in this case the election organizing institutions, about the increase of frequency, and negative impact of various collective violence and mass destructive behavior. Despite this situations, the government, which has the mandate to hold the election, does not want to conduct an evaluation of the campaign.

III. Reports of electoral frauds and forms of political corruption forwarded by PPP, as well as "PDI congress", seemed not to be followed up legally as well as politically. Election organizing and supervising institution which should use these reports as preliminary material to conduct their own correction and investigation, did not respond appropriately, they even tended to neglect such findings.

IV. The efforts by a certain poll contestant to win the election by mobilizing various kinds of state resources, and in order to maintain a single majority, was an open phenomenon that appeared not only occasionally but as a general tendency. The principle of an honest and fair status confessionis is a must which must be recognized in Electoral laws. This is reflect in the result of KIPP monitoring which shows the following imbalance

2. GOLKAR given air-time duration of 143 minutes 33 second (the most)
3. "PDI congress" given 44 minutes 50 seconds.

TVRI World News (19.00 hours)
1. PPP given air time 39 minutes 50 seconds.
2. Golkar given air time 104 minutes 29 seconds (the most).
3. "PDI congress" given air time 44 minutes 50 seconds.

B. Power and authority abuse which an be classified as political corruption have taken place in various cases, among others, are the letter of Religious affair Office Head (Ka KUA) Tiga Dolok, Pematang Siantar (North Sumatra) on 1st May 1997, to organize the mass for Golkar's victory in churches and mosques.

C. Legal neglect by the government, in this case Indonesia Election Committee (PPI), of the justice institution□s verdict which has already had permanent legal status, of the verdict of Bekasi District court No.:166/Pdt.G/1997/PN.BKS, dated 19 March 1997, which acknowledged DPP-PDI Munas (National Concensus) under the Chairperson leadership of Megawati Sukarnoputri and Secretary General Alexander Litaay, as having the right to represent and to hold the name of PDI internally as well as externally (legitimate DPP-PDI). The neglect of this decision caused the loss of constitutional political rights to participate in General Election and the increase of those people who were pushed aside in formal political processes.

From its understanding of the political and legal context of the general election this year, KIPP recorded a number of phenomenon and is proposing the following recommendations:

Firstly, there have been political phenomenon which show political creativity, even grass-root political innovation, materialized in the form of "temporary political alliance such as mass grouping with "Mega-Bintang" attribute. Such political phenomenon must be responded to positively and constructively as the people's way to express themselves politically and to accommodate society's political dynamics in the context of the limited formal political process. Open political corridors must be realized in future political policy so that similar grass-root political innovations can be contained within the political system, in order that it will not explode in the form of destructive collective behavior.

Secondly, there are juridical weakness in handling the emergence of electoral frauds and political corruption phenomenon, considering the Articles of Law No. 1/1985 on General Election that there is no clear punitive threat against the criminal actors, therefore General Election Law must be as wide as possible and contain criminal articles toward the actors of electoral frauds and political corruptions during General Election period. For that purpose corrective steps are needed in this ongoing election process, and possibilities should be open for those who suffered to take the legal actions. Besides that, immediate steps are needed to increase society's access, especially for contestant witnesses, to information in order to prevent potential violations, such as multiple voting. Upholding of transparency principle must be functionalized to decrease the society's doubt about the result of the election.

Thirdly, there are political phenomenon which show the variety of open resistance against General Election, such as the statement of not to vote in General Election, the Evaluation on General Election as legally incorrect consequently it cannot be continued, etc., must be viewed as the extension of those who are outside the formal political processes which in turn, regardless the size, be it small or big, is very influential on political legitimacy of General Election. Against such various forms of political resistance, state power holder should not overreact, let alone conducting repression, because General Election constitutes the implementation of people's sovereignty which basically must acknowledge the diversity of selections of constitutional political rights.

Fourthly, Government, in this case Election Organizing and Supervising Institution must openly show its responsibility in General Election implementation, especially those cases involving violation, social, economic and physical loss/destruction because of political violence and riots related to General Election.

Fifthly, the future of national political life is greatly determined by how far the General Election fulfills democratic principles for general elections. Various problems taking place before and during General Election implementation such as deep intervention of state power holder in political party's affair (PDI case), problems of integrity of government institutions in upholding general election healthy and clean principle as well as other problems which cause the present general election has not yet fulfilled the above requirements.

Sixthly, KIPP calls on its participants and partners and all sides being involved in the implementation of the election to support the creation of peaceful and healthy election situations so that voters can exercise their constitutional political rights freely in accordance with democratic values. Citizens can participate in this process by conducting monitoring of the on going election process.

It is the correct place that future MPR/Parliament□s stipulations provide wider constitutional guarantee in achieving general election fundamental requirements which have been openly/generally prevailing/effective in the countries applying democracy

Further results of monitoring and further recommendations will be presented by KIPP beginning on 30 May, 1997.

Post Election Statement of KIPP
Issued 30 May, 1997
Jakarta, Indonesia

KIPP has received reports from 8000 volunteers in 47 cities spread over in the 17 provinces of Indonesia, including reports from the 20 priority cities. Based on these preliminary reports, KIPP has made the following evaluation of the election held on May 29, 1997:

First, although the election generally went smoothly and most of the country was calm, KIPP's volunteers reported several problems in the election process. These include instances of: multiple voting, intimidation of party witnesses, discrimination in the treatment of voters and various procedural irregularities. In some cases, the counting process was not transparent and there is uncertainty concerning the results of the counting.

KIPP's volunteers found that:

- unregistered persons were permitted to vote;
- party witnesses were forced to leave the polling stations, and as a result the counting process lacked transparency;
- there were incidents of violence and disruption near several polling stations; and
- some KIPP volunteers were not allowed to observe the election process.

Second, the election process is now conducted with sophisticated communications technology and is coordinated by several senior officials of the government. For example, the computerized election database is accessible to the President and Vice President, Chief of the Armed Forces, Minister of Home Affairs and Minister of Information. The party leaders, however, do not have access to the data base and therefore there is no independent check on its accuracy. There is generally a lack of transparency in all aspects of the election.

Third, the preliminary results of ballot counting show an overwhelming victory for GOLKAR. This is in part a reflection of one party's political strength, but it also reflects political and social influences that lie outside the formal political process. It may also reflect the fact that there were many ballots that may have been deliberately spoiled by individual voters. In addition, an organized boycott of the election was not allowed. Thus, there was no organized means by which people could indicate their discontent with the electoral system.

Fourth, there are still problems related to the attitude of some security personnel who do not allow citizens to openly express their political opinion. For example, there was an investigation of some of the 292 persons of Kedung Ombo Society who expressed their political option by returning their voting cards.

Fifth, since some voters still doubt and/or are dissatisfied with the official results of the ballot counting, KIPP insists that election authorities at the central and regional levels disclose the vote count honestly and openly, including the number of spoiled ballots.

The irregularities that have been reported must be rectified. This is essential if the principle of public accountability is to be upheld. This will demonstrate that there is political legitimacy and that the people's sovereignty has been respected.

Indonesia: Troubled Victory (U)

Indonesian President Soeharto doubtless is buoyed by the May 29 electoral triumph of the government party, GOLKAR, and will interpret it as a clear mandate for his candidacy for a seventh term next year, when his tightly controlled congress meets to elect a president and vice president. (C)

Wide margin. GOLKAR scored a clear win in the parliamentary election, easily surpassing its anticipated 70 percent of the vote, according to Embassy Jakarta and press reports. Home Affairs Minister Memed on May 30 announced Soeharto was "satisfied" with the polling; Memed claimed there was no fraud during vote counting. Both an independent election monitoring committee and the Muslim-dominated Development Unity Party, however, allege that significant violations occurred at polling time and during the campaign. (C)

Emboldened opposition? The violence-wracked campaign and the lopsided government win will be fodder for increasingly vocal public criticism about the methods used to keep the regime in power and will raise the chances that Muslim dissatisfaction will erupt into even greater unrest. Postelection violence broke out briefly on the strongly Muslim island of Madura after announcement of a GOLKAR win there. (C)

PGOV elections

TO: EAP - Mr. Roth

FROM: INR - Daniel C. Kurtzer, Acting

SUBJECT: Indonesia: Soeharto and Domestic Politics

President Soeharto is taking steps to ensure smooth sailing during the run up to his re-election in March 1998. He shows no signs of ending speculation about his choice for vice-president, preferring to let the Jakarta rumor mill roll on while he intermittently rewards and punishes the most obvious contenders. Economic problems—particularly a severe drought--could endanger the tranquillity of the period ahead.

Setting up the institutions. Since last May's parliamentary election, in which GOLKAR won an overwhelming victory, Soeharto has tightened control to guarantee validation of his 31-year rule and make next year's session of the MPR (The People's Consultative Assembly) a flawless production. All new members of parliament (DPR) were recently "offered" a special introductory course on the principles of government, the state philosophy, and general indoctrination--designed by GOLKAR chairman and former Minister of Information Harmoko to ensure that everyone is reading from the same political sheet of music. In addition, Soeharto has floated to the new parliamentarians the idea that an old decree (which lapsed in 1993) giving him extraordinary national security powers should be "reconsidered" by the MPR at its session next March. The head of the military and other prominent military figures quickly seconded the idea. Human rights activists and lawyers were strongly opposed.

Virtually the entire military and political establishment is now in Soeharto's pocket. Military commands at all levels were completely reshuffled in August, marking the most major turnover in the armed forces' history. Almost all of the military's highest echelons have served as adjutants to Soeharto; loyalty, not performance, is the key to their success. The PDI, the party which ousted its leader Megawati under government pressure last year, lies dismembered. An incipient rival grouping--the People's Democratic Party—found its leadership jailed and its members scattered underground after the July 1996 riots. Soeharto apparently is also gutting ICMI, an Islamic organization he set up in 1990 to become a quasi-official voice for social improvement. He has downgraded his former favorite, Dr. Habibi, who was its chairman, and inserted a favored retired general, Hartono, as a member and watchdog.

Setting up the people. Aspirants for the vice-presidency are, for the most part, an unappealing mix of sycophants and family members. Traditionally, the position has gone to a new person with each Soeharto administration. The current incumbent, former General Try Sutrisno, is known for his affability and low intelligence (Soeharto has called him a "leaky pot"). Recently retired General Hartono, the only declared military contender for the slot, has been made Minister of Interior to give him some cabinet-level experience. Hartono is not well-liked in the Army but has one outstanding advantage, his close personal links with Soeharto's powerful eldest daughter, Tutut. Tutut herself has been repeatedly mentioned as a new chairman of GOLKAR. Both Minister for Science and Technology Habibie and Minister "for special projects" Harmoko seem to be losing favor with Soeharto, although they both served as presidential lapdogs for so long that they could come back at the next whim. In the dark horse category is presidential son-in-law and commander of Indonesia's special commando forces, Major General Prabowo, at 45 the youngest and certainly the most intelligent of the candidates. Prabowo constantly denies any presidential ambitions, but he reportedly told the Japanese recently that he might make a run in 2003.

Soeharto does not have to make his choice until next March. An astute Indonesian political commentator has observed that it is in the nature of Javanese thinking on the exercise of power to withhold any decision until the last moment, or even to let Javanese cosmology influence the date. Soeharto has become more of a feudal Javanese sultan in his behavior as he ages; he has tightened control over his associates so thoroughly that no one contradicts him and in his decision-making has depended increasingly on his family, especially daughter Tutut. Tutut and her brother-in-law Prabowo apparently get along well, and have joined in some endeavors such as working the East Timor problem. But Soeharto must realize that propelling either one of them into the vice-presidency next March could bring charges of nepotism.

What could go wrong. At this point, Soeharto's stately re-installation at the presidential palace could be derailed only by his own demise or disability. He should be able to weather the current economic crisis, devaluation of the rupiah, and the Jakarta stock market's plunge, which basically affects the thin layer of elite and middle class Indonesians. But the el Nino's dreadful effects of prolonged drought could have politically negative fallout among the rural masses. In 1996 and early 1997, Indonesia had more civil strife than at any time in the New Order. The countryside remains a tinderbox of unsolved social, religious, and ethnic grievances. Even Soeharto cannot control the weather, and he may be tested in the months ahead to use his security forces to assist, as well as control, a disgruntled populace.

CIRCLING THE WAGONS

2. (C) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO MOVED TO CIRCLE THE WAGONS IN NAMING HIS SEVENTH CABINET IN A MARCH 14 NATIONALLY TELEVISED NEWS CONFERENCE. WITH NEWLY ELECTED VICE PRESIDENT HABIBIE (WHO HIMSELF WAS ACCORDED RESPONSIBILITIES IN SEVERAL INTERNATIONAL AND DOMESTIC AREAS) AT HIS SIDE, SOEHARTO CONFIRMED WIDESPREAD SPECULATION THAT FIRST-FRIEND MOHAMAD "BOB" HASAN WOULD BE TAPPED FOR THE INDUSTRY AND TRADE CABINET SLOT AND THAT FIRST DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI RUKMANA

("TUTUT") WOULD RECEIVE A MINISTERIAL POSITION (SOCIAL AFFAIRS) AS WELL. SOEHARTO NAMED ANOTHER CLOSE FAMILY FRIEND, FUAD BAWAZIER, TO THE FINANCE MINISTER JOB AND FORMER INFORMATION MINISTER HARTONO (AND TUTUT'S SIGNIFICANT OTHER) TO THE HOME AFFAIRS SLOT. FEISAL TANJUNG, THE FORMER MILITARY COMMANDER AND FERVENT HABIBIE SUPPORTER, COLLECTED THE POLITICS AND SECURITY COORDINATING MINISTER POSITION. PROMINENT SUPPORTERS OF THE "BERKLEY MAFIA" TECHNOCRATS THAT SPEARHEADED SOEHARTO'S GENERALLY ACCLAIMED MACRO-ECONOMIC POLICES IN RECENT DECADES FAILED TO MAKE THE NEW CABINET LIST.

A FEW GLIMMERS

3. (C) SOME INDIVIDUALS REMAIN FROM THE LAST CABINET WITH WHOM WE WERE ABLE TO WORK WELL. GINANDJAR KARTASASMITA WILL BE COORDINATING MINISTER FOR ECONOMICS, FINANCE AND INDUSTRY. AS SUCH, HE WILL HAVE NOMINAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR KEEPING BOB HASAN AND FUAD BAWAZIER ON TRACK IN THEIR NEW ECONOMIC DUTIES. (GINANDJAR IS HOSTING VISITING TREASURY UNDER SECRETARY LIPTON IN MEETINGS THIS AFTERNOON (MARCH 14) WITH THE NEW MINISTERIAL ECONOMIC TEAM). ALI ALATAS IS STAYING ON AS FOREIGN MINISTER AND GENERAL WIRANTO IS BEING DOUBLE-HATTED AS ARMED FORCES COMMANDER AND DEFENSE MINISTER. JUWONO SUDARSONO, A LONG-TIME INTERLOCUTOR FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA AND MILITARY THINK TANK LEMHANNAS, TAKES ON THE ENVIRONMENT PORTFOLIO. AND THEO SAMBUAGA, THE ONLY CHRISTIAN ON THE NEW LIST AND A HELPFUL CONTACT FROM THE GOLKAR RULING PARTY, WAS GIVEN THE LABOR/MANPOWER JOB.

OTHER INITIAL OBSERVATIONS

4. (C) THE CABINET COMPOSITION WAS ESSENTIALLY WHAT HAD BEEN PREDICTED IN A LIST WHICH CIRCULATED WIDELY IN RECENT DAYS (REFTEL). THE ANTICIPATED LINE-UP HAD ALREADY DRAWN CRITICISM AS A "FIRST-FAMILY CABINET," WITH MANY KEY POSTS BEING FILLED BY CRONIES AND ACOLYTES NOT NOTED FOR THEIR RECTITUDE OR COMPETENCE. MUSLIM GROUPS WHO HAVE BEEN STRONGLY SUPPORTIVE OF VICE PRESIDENT HABIBIE, NOTABLY THE ISLAMIC INTELLECTUALS ASSOCIATION ICMI, WILL BE PARTICULARLY DISAPPOINTED THAT FEW OF THOSE REGARDED AS FROM THE RANKS OF THE MUSLIM MODERNISTS WERE INCLUDED.

5. (C) ON THE OTHER HAND, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HABIBIE WOULD "ASSIST" THE PRESIDENT IN A NUMBER OF BROAD AREAS MAY ASSUAGE SOME OF THIS DISAPPOINTMENT. THE PRESIDENT NOTED THAT HABIBIE WOULD HAVE RESPONSIBILITIES IN "GLOBAL RELATIONS," IN "HARMONIZING" INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS AND IN DEVELOPING UNITY OF THE NATION THROUGH RELIANCE ON THE NATIONS'S RELIGIOUS LEADERSHIP.

6. (C) THE CABINET IS COMPOSED PRINCIPALLY OF JAVANESE WITH WHAT WILL BE SEEN AS THE USUAL UNDER-REPRESENTATION FROM EASTERN INDONESIA. THERE IS ONE SINO-INDONESIAN (BOB HASAN) AND ONE

CHRISTIAN (THEO SAMBUAGA) ON THE LIST. HASAN IS NOT LIKELY TO WIN PRAISE FROM THE SINO-INDONESIAN COMMUNITY WHO DO NOT REGARD HIM AS ONE OF THEIR OWN.

7. (C) IN INTRODUCTORY REMARKS THE PRESIDENT NOTED THAT HE HAD CONSULTED WITH VICE PRESIDENT HABIBIE ON THE CABINET SELECTION AND

1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WAS OFFICIALLY RE-NOMINATED FOR A SEVENTH TERM AS PRESIDENT BY RULING PARTY GOLKAR ON OCTOBER 19 AT ITS ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATION. HISTORICALLY, WHEN ASKED ABOUT HIS PLANS FOR THE FUTURE, SOEHARTO HAS TENDED TO RESPOND THAT IT WAS UP TO THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE AS EXPRESSED THROUGH THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) HELD EVERY FIVE YEARS. FOLLOWING A PREPARED SPEECH TO THE GOLKAR ANNIVERSARY GATHERING, SOEHARTO SPOKE OFF-THE-CUFF AND EXPANDED UPON THIS THEME. HE SAID THAT BETWEEN NOW AND THE MARCH MPR SESSION IT SHOULD BE DETERMINED IF THE PEOPLE STILL BELIEVED IN HIS LEADERSHIP. OTHERWISE, HE COULD STAND ACCUSED OF IMPEDING SUCCESSION. HE DESCRIBED HOW IN JAVANESE WAYANG FOLKLORE THE KING COULD STEP DOWN AND BECOME A "WISE ADVISER" (PANDITA) WHOSE MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES WERE TO BECOME CLOSER TO GOD AND TO MAKE SURE THAT HIS CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN BECAME USEFUL TO THE NATION. END SUMMARY

GOLKAR OFFICIALLY RENOMINATES SOEHARTO FOR PRESIDENT

3. (U) GOLKAR GENERAL CHAIRMAN HARMOKO ON OCTOBER 19 OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED THE RULING PARTY'S RENOMINATION OF SOEHARTO FOR PRESIDENT. HE MADE THE ANNOUNCEMENT AT AN OFFICIAL CEREMONY COMMEMORATING GOLKAR'S 33RD ANNIVERSARY WHICH WAS ATTENDED BY SOEHARTO, GOLKAR LEADERS, THE GENERAL CHAIRMEN OF THE TWO MINORITY PARTIES, REPRESENTATIVES OF THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS (INCLUDING EMBOFF), REPRESENTATIVES OF POLITICAL PARTIES FROM ASEAN COUNTRIES, AND SEVERAL THOUSAND GOLKAR CADRE. THE COMMEMORATION WAS HELD AT THE CLOSE OF GOLKAR'S LEADERSHIP MEETING WHICH HAD BEGUN ON OCTOBER 16. HARMOKO'S ANNOUNCEMENT CAME AS NO SURPRISE AND DREW A POLITE, BRIEF STANDING OVATION FROM THE GOLKAR FAITHFUL.

SOEHARTO COY IN OFF-THE-CUFF REMARKS

4. (U) FOLLOWING A SHORT PREPARED SPEECH (PARA. 5),

PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ADDRESSED THE ISSUE OF HIS RENOMINATION. HISTORICALLY, WHEN ASKED ABOUT HIS PLANS FOR THE FUTURE, SOEHARTO HAS TENDED TO RESPOND THAT IT WAS UP TO THE WILL OF THE PEOPLE AS EXPRESSED THROUGH THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) HELD EVERY FIVE YEARS. HE EXPANDED UPON THIS THEME IN HIS OFF-THE-CUFF REMARKS, SUMMARIZED BELOW (BASED ON INFORMAL EMBASSY TRANSLATION):

-- IS IT TRUE THAT THE PEOPLE BELIEVE IN ME?

-- ALTHOUGH MOST PEOPLE BELIEVE IN ME, I HOPE THIS SUPPORT IS NOT BEING FORCED UPON THEM. IF WE DO NOT KNOW ABOUT THE REAL STATE OF AFFAIRS, I COULD BE ACCUSED OF IMPEDING SUCCESSION, OR OF NOT UNDERSTANDING MY OWN SHORTCOMINGS AND WEAKNESSES. IN THE MONTHS BEFORE THE MARCH MPR, LET ALL OF US REFLECT UPON WHETHER THE PEOPLE REALLY TRUST IN ME.

-- IF THEY DO NOT, IT IS NOT A PROBLEM BECAUSE I CAN PROCEED WITHIN THE SUCCESSION PHILOSOPHY OF THE "WAYANG" (JAVANESE SHADOW PUPPET FOLKLORE). THE KING (SANG NATA BATARA SANG PRABU) IS ASSISTED BY THE EQUIVALENT OF A PRIME MINISTER (PATIH). IN ADDITION, THE WISE ADVISER (PANDITA OR PUNDIT) HELPS THE KING WITH SPIRITUAL MATTERS.

-- THE JAVANESE WAYANG PHILOSOPHY OF SUCCESSION IS THAT THE KING LEAVES THE THRONE TO BECOME A PANDITA. UPON LEAVING, HIS DUTIES ARE TO BRING HIMSELF CLOSER TO GOD AND TO LOOK AFTER HIS CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN SO THAT THEY CAN BECOME USEFUL TO THE NATION.

-- THE PANDITA WILL OFFER HIS SUGGESTIONS TO THOSE WHO NEED HIS ADVICE. TO THE NEW KING, HE WILL OFFER ENCOURAGEMENT AND GUIDANCE FROM BEHIND, AND A GOOD EXAMPLE UP FRONT (THE JAVANESE EXPRESSION "TUT WURI HANDAYANI") IN SUCH A WAY THAT THE NEW KING IS ABLE TO RUN THE COUNTRY IN A PEACEFUL MANNER.

-- THAT IS WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF IN THE END THE PEOPLE NO LONGER BELIEVE IN ME TO HOLD THE REIGNS OF GOVERNMENT. FOR THIS REASON, LET US MAKE USE OF THE FIVE MONTHS LEFT TO FIND OUT WHETHER THE PEOPLE STILL BELIEVE IN ME TO LEAD THIS NATION.

E.O. 12958: DECL: 10/20/16
TAGS: PGOV, PHUM, PINR, ID
SUBJECT: GOLKAR RE-NOMINATES SOEHARTO FOR SEVENTH TERM

ON OCTOBER 20 THAT SOEHARTO WAS ENGAGING IN PURE RHETORIC WHEN HE ASKED SOCIETY TO EXAMINE ITS SUPPORT FOR HIM. THE PRESIDENT KNEW THAT UNDER THE EXISTING SYSTEM IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE FOR SIGNIFICANT OBJECTIONS TO BE RAISED TO HIS CONTINUATION IN OFFICE. THOUGH THE SPECIFIC CONTENT OF THIS STATEMENT WAS DIFFERENT THAN BEFORE, SOEHARTO HAD MADE SIMILAR COMMENTS IN 1987 WHEN HE SAID THAT HE FELT "UNCOMFORTABLE" ABOUT BEING RENOMINATED.
CONFIDENTIAL

SOEHARTO'S PREPARED SPEECH

6. (U) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO CLAIMED IN HIS SHORT PREPARED SPEECH AT THE GOLKAR ANNIVERSARY THAT "THE SUCCESS OF THE LAST GENERAL ELECTION HAS TRULY MADE US PROUD AND ENCOURAGED." HE WAS PARTICULARLY PLEASED THAT 90 PERCENT OF ELIGIBLE VOTERS HAD PARTICIPATED. (NOTE: HE HAD MADE SIMILAR CLAIMS DURING HIS PRE-INDEPENDENCE DAY ADDRESS TO PARLIAMENT ON AUGUST 16, REFTEL B). HE REFERRED TO UPHEAVALS DURING THE CAMPAIGN, AND EXPRESSED HIS GRATITUDE THAT THE UNREST WAS "SATISFACTORILY PUT UNDER CONTROL" AND THAT THIS "VALUABLE EXPERIENCE SHOULD SERVE AS OUR PRIMARY ASSET IN SECURING THE SUCCESS OF THE" MPR.

7. (C) ALTHOUGH THE PRESIDENT AGAIN GLOSSED OVER WHAT ACTUALLY HAPPENED DURING THE ELECTION PERIOD, WHICH WAS THE MOST VIOLENT IN INDONESIAN HISTORY AND MARRED BY CREDIBLE ALLEGATIONS OF FRAUD, HE DID ACKNOWLEDGE THE GOVERNMENT'S NEED TO BECOME MORE ATTUNED TO SOCIETY. HE SAID THAT "THE WILLINGNESS TO LISTEN MORE TO THE PEOPLE'S COMPLAINTS AND TO ACT WISELY UPON THEM SHOULD BE THE KEY TO GOLKAR'S SUCCESS IN THE FUTURE.

COMMENT

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

8. (C) SOEHARTO'S REMARKS ABOUT THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION SHOULD BE UNDERSTOOD WITHIN THE CONTEXT OF HIS USUAL RHETORIC ABOUT THE "PEOPLE'S" ROLE IN HIS DECISIONS ABOUT CONTINUING ON AS PRESIDENT. THE WAY IN WHICH HE EXPRESSED HIMSELF, HOWEVER, WAS INTRIGUING. IN FORMAL SETTINGS, SUCH AS BEFORE THE GOLKAR FAITHFUL, SOEHARTO SELDOM STRAYS FROM HIS PREPARED TEXT. HE UTTERED THE WORD "SUCCESSION" AND GAVE A MODEL FOR HOW IT COULD OCCUR. PERHAPS COINCIDENTALLY, IN EXPLAINING WHAT A FORMER "KING" IS SUPPOSED TO DO, HE REFERRED TO THE MANAGEMENT OF HIS CHILDREN, WHICH IN THE POPULAR MIND IS ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL WEAKNESSES OF HIS REGIME. DATE/CASE ID: 13 SEP 2006 200503193

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY AMB. J. STAPLETON ROY; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: AMIEN RAIS, AN INFLUENTIAL AND PROVOCATIVE NATIONAL ISLAMIC LEADER, SAID PUBLICLY ON SEPTEMBER 25 THAT "GOD WILLING," HE WOULD BE "BRAVE" ENOUGH TO BECOME A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. HE CLAIMED TO THE AMBASSADOR THAT HIS STATEMENT WAS SIGNIFICANT BECAUSE

IT HAD "BROKEN THE MYTH" THAT ONLY SOEHARTO COULD BE A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT. MORE CONCRETELY, HE ALSO CLAIMED THAT HE WAS RECEIVING "AMAZING" SUPPORT FROM STUDENTS WHO WERE COLLECTING SIGNATURES ON BEHALF OF HIS CANDIDACY. HE BELIEVED THAT IF THEY GATHERED 100,000 SIGNATURES, IT WOULD CHANGE THE "PSYCHOLOGICAL BALANCE" OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION. RAIS FLOATED THE POSSIBILITY OF A SCENARIO WHERE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR HIM WOULD BE SO STRONG THAT HE WOULD HAVE TO STEP FORWARD AS A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. HE WOULD NEVER MAKE SUCH A MOVE, HOWEVER, WITHOUT THE SUPPORT OF THE "POWER STRUCTURE;" OTHERWISE, ANY "PEOPLE'S MOVEMENT" WOULD BE CRUSHED, RESULTING IN BLOODSHED. RAIS HOPED THAT A NATIONAL DIALOGUE WOULD BE HELD LEADING TO A CHANGE IN NATIONAL LEADERSHIP. HE BELIEVED THAT "POLITICAL TRUST" WAS DISINTEGRATING AND THAT THE CURRENT LEADERSHIP WAS OUT OF TOUCH WITH THE NATION'S PROBLEMS. THE MOST INTERESTING ASPECTS OF RAIS'S STATEMENT ABOUT THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION ARE THAT HE CONTINUES TO CRITICIZE THE REGIME AND THAT THE IDEA OF HIS CANDIDACY COULD BECOME A SYMBOL OF PROTEST. END SUMMARY

3. (SBU) AMIEN RAIS, THE LEADER OF INDONESIA'S SECOND

LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, MUHAMMADIYAH, HAD LUNCH WITH AMBASSADOR ROY ON OCTOBER 1. RAIS DISCUSSED HIS RECENT PUBLIC PRONOUNCEMENT THAT HE WOULD BE WILLING TO ACCEPT A PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION, AS WELL AS A WIDE RANGE OF OTHER SUBJECTS. POLCOUNS AND POLOFF (NOTETAKER) ALSO ATTENDED.

RAIS' PRESIDENTIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

4. (C) RAIS HAS BEEN TALKING PUBLICLY SINCE 1993 ABOUT THE NEED FOR PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION IN 1998. AT A SEPTEMBER 25 SEMINAR ON NATIONAL LEADERSHIP HELD BY THE LEGAL AID FOUNDATION (LBH), HE WENT FURTHER AND SAID THAT "GOD WILLING," HE WOULD BE "BRAVE" ENOUGH TO BECOME A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. HIS REMARK RECEIVED WIDE PRESS COVERAGE. RAIS TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT HIS STATEMENT HAD NOT BEEN PLANNED IN ADVANCE. HE EXPLAINED THAT PERMADI, THE WELL-KNOWN SOOTHSAYER AND DISSIDENT, CAUGHT HIM OFF GUARD AT THE SEMINAR BY DIRECTLY ASKING IF RAIS WOULD ACCEPT THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION.

5. (C) RAIS ARGUED THAT HE HAD "BROKEN THE ICE" AND "CHANGED THE PSYCHOLOGICAL MAP" WITH HIS AFFIRMATIVE ANSWER. BY "OUT OF NOWHERE" STATING THAT HE WOULD BE WILLING TO RUN, RAIS HAD "BROKEN THE MYTH" THAT SOEHARTO WAS THE ONLY ONE WHO COULD BE A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. IT WAS PREVIOUSLY SACROSANCT THAT ONLY SOEHARTO COULD BE CONSIDERED AS A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE AS THOUGH IT WERE HIS "EXCLUSIVE RIGHT." (NOTE: SRI BINTANG PAMUNGKAS, THE FORMER UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY LEGISLATOR, HAS PROCLAIMED HIMSELF A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT. BUT HE IS NOT IN THE SAME POLITICAL LEAGUE AS RAIS WHO IS THE LEADER OF A MULTI-MILLION MEMBER MASS ORGANIZATION, MUHAMMADIYAH. BINTANG IS IN JAIL HAVING BEEN CONVICTED OF "INSULTING THE PRESIDENT." END NOTE.)

6. (C) WHEN ASKED IF THERE WAS ANY REALISTIC POSSIBILITY THAT DIFFERENT GROUPS IN SOCIETY WOULD COME TOGETHER AS AN ALTERNATIVE TO SOEHARTO IN 1998, RAIS ANSWERED "AT AN OFFICIAL LEVEL, NO." HE CLAIMED TO HAVE NO DOUBT THAT AT THE MARCH SESSION OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR), SOEHARTO WOULD BE RE-ELECTED, THE BROAD GUIDELINES OF STATE POLICY WOULD BE ENDORSED, AND SOEHARTO WOULD SELECT A VICE PRESIDENT.

7. (C) AT THE SAME TIME, RAIS NOTED THAT A BROAD RANGE OF SOCIETY HAD REACTED FAVORABLY TO HIS STATEMENT. HE REFERRED TO THE "AMAZING" SUPPORT THAT HE WAS RECEIVING FROM STUDENT GROUPS. HE SAID THAT EARLIER IN THE DAY TWO PROMINENT NATIONALIST LEADERS HAD EXPRESSED THEIR MORAL

SUPPORT TO HIM. THE PREVIOUS WEEK HE MET FOR THREE HOURS WITH MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI AND HER ADVISER KWIK KIAN GIE. HE SAID THAT SHE SPOKE OF HER VISION, HE SPOKE OF HIS, AND THEIR PLATFORMS WERE SIMILAR. (NOTE: LATER IN THE CONVERSATION HE TOOK A DIFFERENT TACK, ARGUING THAT MEGAWATI HAD NO CLEAR VISION. SEE PARA. 14. END NOTE.)

RAIS CLAIMED THAT OVER THE PAST TWO OR THREE MONTHS HE HAD MET WITH THE LEADERS OF RELIGIOUS MINORITY GROUPS, INCLUDING PROTESTANTS AND CATHOLICS. HE ADDED THAT
CONFIDENTIAL

PROMINENT MILITARY LEADERS, SUCH AS ARMED FORCES COMMANDER FEISAL TANJUNG AND ARMED FORCES CHIEF OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS YUNUS YOSFIAH, WHILE NOT ENCOURAGING HIM, HAD NOT ATTACKED HIM FOR MAKING HIS PRONOUNCEMENT.

RAIS'S STATEMENT MORE THAN SYMBOLISM?
---

8. (C) ALTHOUGH RAIS WAS CAREFUL TO EMPHASIZE THAT THE IMPORTANCE OF HIS STATEMENT WAS LARGELY SYMBOLIC, I.E. HE HAD OPENED THE SUBJECT OF ALTERNATIVE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES FOR DISCUSSION, IT SEEMED THAT BIGGER POSSIBILITIES WERE ALSO IN THE BACK OF HIS MIND. HE SAID THAT STUDENTS WERE COLLECTING SIGNATURES ON BEHALF OF HIS CANDIDACY. HE CONTENDED THAT IF THEY COLLECTED MORE THAN 100,000 SIGNATURES, "IT WOULD CHANGE THE PSYCHOLOGICAL BALANCE" OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION. HE ALSO MENTIONED THAT SOME STUDENT LEADERS WERE "IMAGINING" THAT THEY WOULD LAUNCH A MASSIVE DEMONSTRATION ON THE FIRST DAY THAT THE MPR RECONVENED NEXT MARCH. (NOTE: LEADERS OF THE MUHAMMADIYAH STUDENT ORGANIZATION (IMM) TOLD EMBOFF RECENTLY THAT THERE WAS GREAT SUPPORT FOR RAIS, BUT MADE NO MENTION OF PETITIONS, SEE REFTEL A. IN FACT, THE CHAIRMAN WAS CAREFUL TO EXPLAIN THAT AS AN ORGANIZATION, IMM COULD NOT SUPPORT RAIS AS A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. ONE STUDENT LEADER TOLD EMBOFF THAT FORMALLY THE MUHAMMADIYAH YOUTH/STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS WOULD PROBABLY NOT BE BRAVE ENOUGH TO ACT ON BEHALF OF RAIS AS A CANDIDATE, BUT THAT INFORMALLY AND AT LOWER LEVELS, THERE MIGHT BE WIDESPREAD AND MORE OPEN SUPPORT FOR HIM. END NOTE.)

CONFIDENTIAL

9. (C) RAIS WENT AS FAR AS TO SAY THAT "PEOPLE POWER" MIGHT ARISE IN THE FUTURE. (NOTE: THIS WAS A CONCEPT THAT THE GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATED WITH MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI. THE IDEA THAT SHE MIGHT HAVE BEEN LEADING A MASS BASED MOVEMENT WAS ONE OF THE FACTORS THAT LED THE GOVERNMENT TO OUST HER FROM THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI). END NOTE.) RAIS SAID THAT THE MILITARY WAS "UNPRINCIPLED" AND WOULD ABANDON SOEHARTO IF IT SAW THAT "THE PEOPLE" WERE WINNING. HE DREW A COMPARISON TO 1965-66 WHEN STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS HELPED DRIVE INDONESIA'S FIRST PRESIDENT, SUKARNO, FROM OFFICE. HE REFERRED TO A CONVERSATION HE HAD TWO YEARS AGO WITH A GENERAL WHO SAID, RAIS CLAIMED, THAT THE ARMED FORCES WOULD NOT TAKE ACTION AGAINST THE PEOPLE OF INDONESIA IF THEY WERE "IN THE STREETS."

10. (C) PROVIDING MORE EVIDENCE THAT HE WAS TOYING WITH THE POTENTIAL CONCRETE IMPLICATIONS OF HIS STATEMENT ON BECOMING A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT, RAIS PRESENTED THE FOLLOWING SCENARIO, WITH THE CAVEAT THAT HE WAS "JUST IMAGINING THE POSSIBILITY" THAT IT COULD OCCUR, AND ASKED FOR FEEDBACK. HE SAID THAT IF THE STUDENTS OBTAINED A HUGE NUMBER OF SIGNATURES HE MIGHT BE FACING A NEW SITUATION. WHILE HE WAS NOW VERY "PASSIVE," HE COULD NEITHER HIDE NOR RUN AWAY FROM A LARGE SHOWING OF PUBLIC SUPPORT. HE MIGHT THEN HAVE TO MAKE A "REASONABLE AND CALCULATED" DECISION TO "STEP FORWARD," PRESUMABLY MEANING AS A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. HE WOULD NEVER CONSIDER MAKING SUCH A MOVE UNLESS HE HAD THE "FULL PERMISSION OF THE POWER STRUCTURE," SPECIFICALLY THE ARMY. WITHOUT THIS SUPPORT, A "PEOPLE'S MOVEMENT" WOULD BE "CRUSHED." IN

THIS HYPOTHETICAL SCENARIO, HE SAID, ANY CONFRONTATION OR BLOODSHED WOULD LEAD HIM TO STEP BACK.

11. (C) THE AMBASSADOR RESPONDED THAT AT A CERTAIN STAGE THE GOVERNMENT WOULD LIKELY INTERPRET RAIS' ACTIONS AS A THREAT TO NATIONAL STABILITY. IF THE UNITED STATES WERE ASKED FOR ITS POSITION ON THE POLITICAL PROSPECTS OF SOMEONE LIKE AMIEN RAIS, THE AMBASSADOR SAID THAT THE ANSWER WOULD BE THAT THIS WAS A MATTER FOR THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE TO DECIDE. THE UNITED STATES WOULD ALWAYS SUPPORT DEMOCRATIZATION GENERALLY, BUT NOT IN A WAY THAT WOULD INVOLVE THE UNITED STATES IN INDONESIAN DOMESTIC POLITICS.

NATIONAL DIALOGUE ON INDONESIA'S POLITICAL FUTURE

12. (C) RAIS HAS BEEN TALKING PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY ABOUT THE NEED FOR A NATIONAL DIALOGUE ON INDONESIA'S POLITICAL FUTURE. HE EXPLAINED THAT IT WOULD FOCUS ON THE NATION'S "NATIONAL AGENDA FOR THE NEXT MILLENNIUM," AND THAT IT HOPEFULLY WOULD CONCLUDE THAT THE TIME HAD COME FOR NEW LEADERSHIP. HE ENVISAGED THE DIALOGUE AS INCLUDING CIVILIAN AND MILITARY LEADERS. THE "GENERATION OF 1945" COULD BE REPRESENTED BY FIGURES SUCH AS PRESIDENT SOEHARTO, PROMINENT DISSIDENT AND RETIRED GENERAL ALI

MUHAMMAD, GOLKAR EXECUTIVE ABDUL GAFUR, AND ISLAMIC SCHOLAR NURCOLISH MADJID. IN ADDITION, THERE WOULD BE REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE "NEW GENERATION," RELIGIOUS GROUPS, BUSINESS AND THE MEDIA. HE THOUGHT THAT STUDENTS MIGHT BE THE APPROPRIATE GROUP TO HOLD SUCH A DIALOGUE. WHEN ASKED IF HE THOUGHT THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD ALLOW

THE EVENT TO TAKE PLACE, RAIS REPLIED THAT HE WAS NOT SURE, BUT THAT SOME OF HIS FRIENDS HAD CONTACTED INDONESIAN INTELLIGENCE AUTHORITIES AND THEY DID NOT THINK IT WOULD BE A PROBLEM.

RAIS COMMENTARY ON CURRENT POLITICAL SCENE

13. (C) RAIS MAINTAINED THAT "POLITICAL TRUST" WAS DISINTEGRATING AND THAT THE NATIONAL LEADERSHIP WAS OUT OF TOUCH WITH CURRENT PROBLEMS. RAIS SAID THAT ALL THE SPEAKERS AT THE SEPTEMBER 25 SEMINAR HAD LASHED OUT AT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO. ANIMOSITY AND HATRED TOWARD HIS REGIME WAS BECOMING STRONGER IN BOTH URBAN AND RURAL AREAS. PART OF THE CAUSE WAS THE GOVERNMENT MISHANDLING OF THE GENERAL ELECTION IN MAY. IN ADDITION, ALTHOUGH FORESTS WERE BURNING AND THE RUPIAH FALLING, THE PRESIDENT SHOWED "NO CONCERN" AND JUST "SMILED" IN HIS PUBLIC APPEARANCES.

14. (C) RAIS WAS CRITICAL OF MEGAWATI, SAYING THAT SHE DID NOT HAVE A STRATEGY, WAS NOT PREPARED, AND DID NOT HAVE A CLEAR VISION FOR THE FUTURE. WHEN HE ASKED MEGAWATI WHAT SHE HAD IN MIND FOR THE POST-SOEHARTO ERA DURING THEIR RECENT MEETING, SHE DID NOT HAVE A COMPREHENSIVE ANSWER. RAIS THOUGHT SHE RELIED TOO MUCH ON HER ADVISERS FOR HER

IDEAS, ESPECIALLY ECONOMIST KWIK KIAN GIE, THE HEAD OF HER INTERNAL "THINK TANK," AND COULD TURN OUT TO BE A "PUPPET LEADER." ACCORDING TO RAIS, HER WEAKNESS WAS THAT SHE HAD NO INDEPENDENT JUDGEMENTS; HER STRENGTH LAY ONLY IN THE CHARISMA SHE DERIVED FROM BEING THE DAUGHTER OF SUKARNO.

15. (C) RAIS WAS ALSO CRITICAL OF ABDURRAHMAN WAHID (GUS DUR), WHO -- AS THE LEADER OF INDONESIA'S LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU) -- IS A RIVAL. HE SAID THAT THE NGOS WERE NOT HAPPY WITH WAHID BECAUSE HE HELPED SOEHARTO'S ELDEST DAUGHTER, SITI HARDIYANTI (TUTUT), DURING THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN. ACCORDING TO RAIS, MEGAWATI HAD NOT MET WITH WAHID, WHO HAS BEEN HER POLITICAL FRIEND AND ALLY, SINCE BEFORE THE ELECTION WHEN HE WAS NOT

SUPPORTIVE OF HER POLITICAL STRATEGY. (NOTE: MEGAWATI HAD PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED THAT SHE WOULD NOT VOTE, BUT THAT HER FOLLOWERS WERE FREE TO DO AS THIS WISHED. END NOTE.) AT THE END OF THE DAY, HOWEVER, WAHID AND THE NU HAD NOT BEEN REWARDED BY SOEHARTO FOR SUPPORTING TUTUT. FOR EXAMPLE, WAHID HAD SUPPLIED A LIST OF 15 NAMES TO THE GOVERNMENT FOR CONSIDERATION AS MPR MEMBERS, BUT THE GOVERNMENT CHOSE ONLY ONE. RAIS CLAIMED THAT THE GOVERNMENT DID NOT TRUST WAHID BECAUSE IT HAD OBTAINED A TAPED SPEECH IN WHICH WAHID SAID THAT THE NEXT PRESIDENT WOULD NOT BE SOEHARTO, AND THAT WAHID WOULD BE "KING-MAKER," AND MAYBE EVEN PRESIDENT. THE TAPE HAD BEEN GIVEN TO SOEHARTO BY MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE, RAIS CLAIMED.

16. (C) RAIS THOUGHT IT WAS POSSIBLE THAT SOEHARTO WOULD CHOOSE HIS DAUGHTER TUTUT AS VICE PRESIDENT. HE HAD NOT

COME TO THIS CONCLUSION BECAUSE HE BELIEVED IT WAS A POLITICALLY SMART MOVE, BUT BECAUSE SOEHARTO WAS BECOMING "KIND OF SENILE." THE PRESIDENT BELIEVED THAT TUTUT WAS LOVED BY THE PEOPLE, AND DID NOT UNDERSTAND HOW MUCH THEY HATED NEPOTISM. RAIS SAID HE WOULD BE HAPPY TO SEE TUTUT NAMED VICE PRESIDENT BECAUSE IT WOULD "ACCELERATE SUHARTO'S BANKRUPTCY." HE MENTIONED THAT HE HAD HEARD THAT ALL THE MEMBERS OF THE CABINET, EXCEPT FOR HABIBIE AND MINISTER OF PLANNING GINANDJAR, HAD VISITED TUTUT IN HER HOME.

17. (C) RAIS ARGUED THAT ICMI WAS LESS POWERFUL SINCE HE HAD BEEN REMOVED FROM A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE ORGANIZATION LAST FEBRUARY. MINISTER OF INFORMATION HARTONO HAD BECOME AN ICMI MEMBER IN ORDER TO "DIRECT" ICMI (REFTEL B), RAIS SAID. HE SPECULATED THAT HABIBIE SOMETIMES WAS NOT OBEDIENT ENOUGH FOR SOEHARTO. NOW, ICMI WAS AT LEAST PARTIALLY IN THE "HANDS OF HARTONO," WHO WOULD CARRY OUT THE WILL OF THE PRESIDENT. HE BELIEVED THERE WAS A POSSIBILITY THAT HARTONO MIGHT REPLACE HABIBIE AS THE HEAD OF ICMI, BUT THAT HE WOULD HAVE TO BE ELECTED AT ICMI'S NEXT CONGRESS IN 2000.

SUBJECT: ISLAMIC LEADER FLOATS SUCCESSION SCENARIO

18. (C) AMIEN RAIS HAS BEEN ONE OF THE FEW VOICES BOLD ENOUGH TO CALL PUBLICLY FOR PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION TO

TAKE PLACE IN 1998. HE HAS BEEN CONSISTENT IN THIS POSITION SINCE JUST AFTER THE LAST PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION IN 1993, AND HAS ALSO BEEN PROMOTING THE NEED FOR A "NATIONAL DIALOGUE" ON INDONESIA'S POLITICAL FUTURE. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO REPORTEDLY HAS NEVER BEEN PLEASED THAT RAIS BECAME THE LEADER OF MUHAMMADIYAH, AND REMOVED RAIS FROM AN ICMI LEADERSHIP POSITION IN FEBRUARY AFTER RAIS WAS PUBLICLY CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT ON VARIOUS ISSUES. SPECULATION AT THE TIME THAT THE GOVERNMENT WOULD REMOVE RAIS FROM THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF MUHAMMADIYAH HAS BEEN REVIVED BY HIS RECENT BOLD STATEMENT ON A POSSIBLE PRESIDENTIAL BID.

19. (C) WHILE RAIS HAS BEEN PROVOCATIVELY CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT FOR YEARS, HE HAS NOW RAISED THE STAKES BY ANNOUNCING THAT HE MIGHT BE WILLING TO BE A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT. AT ONE LEVEL, THIS IS A SYMBOLIC GESTURE AND AN EXTENSION OF HIS EFFORTS TO STIMULATE EARLY DISCUSSION ABOUT PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION. BUT AT A DEEPER LEVEL, HE SEEMS TO BE GENERALLY INTRIGUED BY THE IDEA THAT HIS CANDIDACY MIGHT ACTUALLY CATCH FIRE. FEW DOUBT THAT RAIS ENJOYS SUBSTANTIAL SUPPORT AMONG MUHAMMADIYAH AND A BROAD RANGE OF ISLAMIC YOUTH. GIVEN HIS PROMINENT POSITION IN THE "MODERNIST" MUSLIM CAMP, HOWEVER, THERE ARE SERIOUS QUESTIONS AS TO WHETHER HIS SUPPORT COULD EXTEND BEYOND THESE SECTORS, ALTHOUGH SOME MIGHT COME ON BOARD WHO ARE SIMPLY LOOKING FOR A SYMBOLIC WAY TO EXPRESS OPPOSITION TO THE EXISTING REGIME. MANY LEADERS IN SOCIETY, INCLUDING ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, HAVE EXPRESSED CONCERN IN RECENT YEARS THAT A GREATER ROLE FOR ISLAM IN POLITICS, OF WHICH RAIS IS PERCEIVED TO BE A MAJOR PROPONENT, WOULD LEAD INDONESIA

IN A LESS RELIGIOUSLY TOLERANT DIRECTION.

20. (C) AT THE END OF THE DAY, RAIS'S PROSPECTS FOR MOUNTING A CHALLENGE FROM WITHIN THE SYSTEM TO SOEHARTO'S SELECTION FOR A SEVENTH FIVE-YEAR PRESIDENTIAL TERM HAVE TO BE JUDGED AS VIRTUALLY ZERO, GIVEN THE GOVERNMENT'S TIGHT CONTROL OF THE POLITICAL PROCESS. RAIS'S VIABILITY AS A SERIOUS POLITICAL CANDIDATE IS ALSO UNDERMINED BY THE WIDELY HELD VIEW THAT HE IS TOO OUTSPOKEN FOR THE INDONESIAN POLITICAL ENVIRONMENT. A SERIOUS CHALLENGE FROM OUTSIDE THE SYSTEM BEFORE MARCH SEEMS UNLIKELY IN ANY EVENT. AS RAIS ACKNOWLEDGED, ANY "PEOPLE'S POWER" MOVEMENT WOULD BE CRUSHED UNLESS THE MILITARY WERE SUPPORTIVE, AND THERE IS NO EVIDENCE OF SUCH SUPPORT AT THIS TIME. OF MORE IMMEDIATE INTEREST IS RAIS' CONTINUED CRITICISM OF THE REGIME (SEPTEL) AND THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE IDEA OF A RAIS CANDIDACY COULD BECOME A SYMBOL OF PROTEST. BOTH DEVELOPMENTS WOULD HAVE THE POTENTIAL TO DRAW A STRONG REACTION FROM THE GOVERNMENT. ROY

NOT DIRECTLY AFFILIATED WITH THE GOVERNMENT OR MILITARY APPEAR UNITED IN THEIR THINKING THAT IT IS TIME FOR INDONESIA TO ADDRESS THE SUCCESSION ISSUE AND THAT IT IS TIME FOR SOEHARTO TO BE REPLACED. HOWEVER, MOST ARE ALSO RESIGNED TO THE LIKLIHOOD THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WILL BE RE-ELECTED DURING THE MARCH GENERAL SESSION OF PARLIAMENT. THE NATIONALITY FORUM FOR INDONESIAN YOUTH, MADE UP OF NINE YOUTH AND STUDENT GROUPS, HAS THUS FAR BEEN MORE WILLING THAN OTHER GROUPS TO SPEAK CRITICALLY AND TO PUSH FOR CHANGE, BUT THEY HAVE NOT STEPPED SO FAR OUT OF LINE WITH THE GOVERNMENT TO BE SANCTIONED. GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY-AFFILIATED YOUTH GROUPS CAN BE EXPECTED TO CALL FOR THE NOMINATION OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO FOR RE-ELECTION OVER THE COMING MONTHS. END SUMMARY

INTER-RELIGIOUS YOUTH FORUM BUILDING "DEMOCRACY PLATFORM"

3. (C) THE NATIONALITY FORUM FOR INDONESIAN YOUTH (FKPI), WHICH REPRESENTS NINE MASS STUDENT AND YOUTH ORGANIZATIONS INCLUDING MUSLIM (NAHDLATUL ULAMA), PROTESTANT, CATHOLIC, AND HINDU YOUTH, HAS BEEN RELATIVELY QUIET SINCE THE MAY ELECTIONS. PRIOR TO THE MAY PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, THEY ISSUED A NUMBER OF STATEMENTS, INCLUDING ONE CALLING THE ELECTION INVALID WITHOUT THE PARTICIPATION OF MEGAWATI (REFTEL). LEADERS FROM SEVERAL GROUPS BELONGING TO FKPI TOLD EMBOFF THAT THERE WAS NO NEED TO MAKE A STATEMENT AFTER THE ELECTION, BECAUSE THEIR POSITION HAD NOT CHANGED. THEY EXPLAINED THAT AFTER THE ELECTION THEIR STRATEGY SHIFTED TO A LESS PUBLIC BUT NO LESS ACTIVE EFFORT TO BUILD DEMOCRATIC ALLIANCES. OFFICIALLY, FKPI WAS NOT ALLIED WITH OTHER GROUPS, BUT LEADERS SAID THAT THEY WERE IN COMMUNICATION WITH MEGAWATI, CERTAIN NGO'S, AND CERTAIN ACTIVE AND RETIRED MILITARY FIGURES.

4. (C) FKPI WAS CURRENTLY TRYING TO CONSOLIDATE THE VIEWS OF MEMBER GROUPS INTO ONE "DEMOCRACY PLATFORM," AND TO FORM MORE BRANCHES THROUGHOUT INDONESIA, LEADERS FROM FOUR OF THE NINE MEMBER ORGANIZATIONS TOLD EMBOFF IN SEPARATE DISCUSSIONS. ONE FKPI LEADER, FROM THE CATHOLIC STUDENT ASSOCIATION, TOLD EMBOFF THAT THE POLITICAL SITUATION IN INDONESIA WAS DANGEROUS BECAUSE THE PRO-DEMOCRACY FORCES DID NOT HAVE A UNIFIED AND COMMON

PLATFORM. THEY ONLY HAD "A COMMON ENEMY." IT WAS EASY TO COMPLAIN ABOUT THE CURRENT REGIME, BUT THE CRITICAL NEED WAS FOR AN ALTERNATIVE. FKPI LEADERS HOPED THAT THEIR PLATFORM WOULD BE READY BEFORE THE MARCH GENERAL SESSION OF PARLIAMENT. THEY PLANNED TO PRESENT THEIR PROPOSALS TO THE NEW PARLIAMENT PRIOR TO MARCH.

5. (C) TWO FKPI LEADERS FROM THE NATIONALIST STUDENT ORGANIZATION TOLD EMBOFF THAT FKPI INTENDED TO CONDUCT POLLING OVER THE NEXT SEVERAL MONTHS RELATING TO "THE SUCCESSION." IN THEIR VIEW, ALTHOUGH MEMBERS OF THE PEOPLES CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) DID NOT REPRESENT THE PEOPLE IN CHOOSING THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT AT THE MARCH SESSION, THE PEOPLE DID HAVE A ROLE TO PLAY, AND COULD APPLY PRESSURE TO TRY TO MAKE THE MPR RESPONSIVE. FKPI WAS PLANNING TO HOLD A SEMINAR TO PROMOTE EMPOWERMENT FOR MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT. FKPI SPONSORED A SEMINAR ON SEPTEMBER 26, DURING WHICH PARTICIPANTS ADVOCATED IMPLEMENTATION OF A 10-YEAR PRESIDENTIAL TERM LIMIT.

ISLAMIC STUDENT POLL ON SUCCESSION

6. (C) ONE OF THE LEADERS OF INDONESIA'S LARGEST AND OLDEST

STUDENT ORGANIZATION, THE ISLAMIC ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY STUDENTS (HMI), TOLD EMBOFF RECENTLY THAT "ALMOST ALL UNIVERSITY STUDENTS WANT SOEHARTO OUT OF THE PRESIDENCY." HMI STUDENTS WERE ALREADY DISCUSSING THE POST-SOEHARTO ERA. THIS LEADER, AN UNSUCCESSFUL CANDIDATE FOR THE HMI CHAIRMANSHIP DURING THE ORGANIZATION'S RECENT CONGRESS, PERSONALLY THOUGHT THAT STATE MINISTER FOR NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT PLANNING GINANJAR WOULD MAKE THE BEST VICE PRESIDENT BECAUSE HE "HAS VISION." MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE WOULD NOT BE THE BEST CHOICE BECAUSE HE WAS "A SCIENTIST" NOT A POLITICIAN, AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION HARTONO LACKED VISION. HE WORRIED THAT ECONOMIC JEALOUSIES CREATED A SITUATION IN WHICH VIOLENCE EASILY ERUPTS, AND PREDICTED MORE SOCIAL UNREST BEFORE THE MARCH GENERAL SESSION. HE SAID THAT THERE WOULD BE PEOPLE TRYING TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF DISSATISFACTIONS FOR POLITICAL GAIN. SEPARATELY ANOTHER LEADER OF HMI TOLD EMBOFF THAT THESE WERE THE "DAYS OF HARTONO," AND THAT HARTONO WAS POWERFUL AND WOULD HAVE TO HAVE A GOOD POSITION. DURING THE RECENT 31ST ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF THE HMI ALUMNI ORGANIZATION (KAHMI), HARTONO WAS THE KEYNOTE SPEAKER AND NOMINATED HIMSELF FOR AN HONORARY HMI ALUMNI MEMBERSHIP.

7. (C) LEADERS OF A JAKARTA CHAPTER OF HMI TOLD EMBOFF THAT HMI WOULD CALL FOR ALTERNATIVE CANDIDATES TO BE CONSIDERED BY THE MPR

IN MARCH. THEY FAVORED A CIVIL RATHER THAN A MILITARY LEADER FOR THE NEXT PRESIDENT, AND A RETURN TO A "MORE TRADITIONAL" ROLE FOR THE MILITARY IN PRESERVING AND PROTECTING THE COUNTRY. THEY SAID THAT HMI HAD CONDUCTED A POLL OF 2000 MEMBERS THROUGHOUT JAVA ASKING WHO THEY WANTED AS THE NEXT PRESIDENT. THE POLL GAVE 20

CHOICES FOR PRESIDENT. THE RESULTS, IN ORDER, WERE:
- HABIBIE
- TRY SUTRISNO (VICE PRESIDENT)
- AMIEN RAIS (LEADER OF ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION MUHAMMADIYAH)
- SRI BINTANG (FORMER PPP PARLIAMENTARIAN AND SELF-DECLARED CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT, CURRENTLY SERVING A PRISON SENTENCE FOR INSULTING THE PRESIDENT)
- NURCHOLIS MADJID (ISLAMIC SCHOLAR)
- MAR'IE MUHAMMAD (FINANCE MINISTER)
- ABDURAHMAN WAHID (GUS DUR, LEADER OF NAHDLATUL ULAMA)

(NOTE: THE STUDENTS DID NOT PROVIDE THE COMPLETE LIST OF CHOICES. THE PREFERENCE FOR GINANJAR NOTED BY THE HMI LEADER IN PARA 6 WAS A PERSONAL OPINION, AND DID NOT NECESSARILY REFLECT BROADER HMI VIEWS. END NOTE)

8. (C) HMI REPRESENTATIVES CLAIMED THAT THEY GAVE THEIR REPORT ON THE POLL TO THE PRESS, BUT NO ONE WAS WILLING TO PUBLISH IT. THEY SAID THEY DID NOT WANT DEMOCRACY "LIKE LIPSTICK," HAVING ONLY A FACADE AND STANDING FOR SOMETHING IN NAME ONLY. MORE DEMOCRACY MEANS MORE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES, ACCORDING TO THEM. (COMMENT: THE DESIRE FOR CHANGE EXPRESSED BY HMI REPRESENTATIVES IS INTERESTING BECAUSE HMI HAS BEEN VIEWED OVER THE PAST YEAR AS HAVING MOVED CLOSER TO THE GOVERNMENT. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO GAVE THE KEYNOTE SPEECH AT THE HMI 50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION EARLIER THIS YEAR. HMI IS ALSO SEEN AS CLOSE TO ICMI, AND HMI LEADERS CLAIM THAT MOST ICMI MEMBERS ARE HMI ALUMNI. END COMMENT)

MUHAMMADIYAH STUDENTS: AMIEN RAIS FOR PRESIDENT?

9. (C) ONE OF THE LEADERS OF THE MUHAMMADIYAH STUDENT MOVEMENT

(IMM), WHO CLAIMED TO BE "LIKE A RIGHT HAND MAN" TO AMIEN RAIS, TOLD EMBOFF THAT HE WAS WORRIED ABOUT SOCIAL UNREST PRIOR TO THE GENERAL SESSION OF PARLIAMENT, DUE IN PART TO THE FACT THAT PEOPLES ASPIRATIONS WERE NOT REFLECTED IN THE POLITICAL PROCESS OF THE MPR. HE SAID THAT IF PRESIDENTIAL DAUGHTER SITI "TUTUT" HARDIYANTI WERE CHOSEN AS VICE PRESIDENT, MUHAMMADIYAH CHAIRMAN AMIEN RAIS WOULD BE THE FIRST TO SPEAK OUT AND STAND UP AGAINST IT. SUCH A CHOICE WOULD NOT BE ACCEPTED BY MUHAMMADIYAH MEMBERS. HARTONO, SEEN AS CLOSE TO TUTUT, WAS STILL POWERFUL AND HAD HIS OWN CONSTITUENCY, HE ADDED. HE SAID THERE WAS TREMENDOUS SUPPORT FOR AMIEN RAIS AMONG MUHAMMADIYAH YOUTH, AND THAT MANY WOULD LIKE TO SEE AMIEN RAIS BECOME PRESIDENT OR VICE PRESIDENT. ON THE POSSIBILITY OF THE REMOVAL OF RAIS AS MUHAMMADIYAH CHAIRMAN, HE SAID THAT IT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE, AND THAT A "SPECIAL SESSION" OF MUHAMMADIYAH WAS HELD JULY 31 TO REAFFIRM HIS LEADERSHIP UNTIL THE YEAR 2000.

10. (C) THE CHAIRMAN AND THE TREASURER OF IMM, IN A SEPARATE MEETING WITH EMBOFF FOLLOWING RAIS' PARTICIPATION IN A SEMINAR ON NATIONAL LEADERSHIP IN WHICH HE SAID THAT IT WAS TIME TO SEEK A SUCCESSOR FOR THE PRESIDENCY, WERE CAREFUL TO DRAW A DISTINCTION BETWEEN AMIEN RAIS AS THE LEADER OF MUHAMMADIYAH AND AMIEN RAIS AS A POLITICAL FIGURE. ALTHOUGH MANY IF NOT MOST OF THEIR MEMBERS WERE STRONG RAIS SUPPORTERS, INCLUDING FOR PRESIDENT, THEY COULD NEVER ADVOCATE THIS IN THE NAME OF THE ORGANIZATION. IMM WAS "NON-POLITICAL" AND THE EXISTING POLITICAL PROCESS FOR SUCCESSION AND THE ELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT HAD TO BE RESPECTED. AMIEN RAIS WAS SPEAKING "OUTSIDE THE SYSTEM," AND MUHAMMADIYAH AS AN ORGANIZATION COULD NOT SUPPORT THIS.

11. (C) ONE HAD TO CONSIDER THE FACT THAT THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT

WAS STILL EXTREMELY STRONG, THEY EXPLAINED, AS EVIDENCED BY THE DECISION TO CONTROL EVEN MORE THAN USUAL THE COMPOSITION OF THE MPR BY ELIMINATING TRADITIONAL MEMBERS SUCH AS THE CHAIRMAN OF MUHAMMADIYAH AND THE CHAIRMAN OF NAHDLATUL ULAMA. NO CRITICS WOULD BE TOLERATED, AND THERE WAS NO REAL POSSIBILITY FOR CHANGE DURING THE 1998 SESSION. ALTHOUGH THEY WOULD LIKE TO SEE ALTERNATIVE CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENT, THEY WERE RESIGNED TO THE FACT THAT THERE WOULD BE ONLY ONE CANDIDATE, AND THEY WERE NOT PREPARED TO GO OUT ON A LIMB, EVEN TO SUPPORT RAIS, TO CALL FOR CHANGE AT THIS TIME. THEIR MESSAGE WAS THAT THEY HAD THEIR OWN HOPES FOR THE PRESIDENCY (IN RAIS), BUT HAD TO BE PRAGMATIC AND SAFE. THEY ALSO NOTED THAT THEY SUPPORTED DEMOCRATIZATION IN INDONESIA BUT THAT IT HAD TO BE "INDONESIAN-STYLE" DEMOCRACY WHICH WAS NOT THE SAME AS UNITED STATES DEMOCRACY.

OTHER GROUPS

12. (C) OVER THE COMING MONTHS, GOLKAR, GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY SPONSORED YOUTH GROUPS CAN BE EXPECTED TO NOMINATE PRESIDENT SOEHARTO FOR ANOTHER TERM. THE INDONESIAN NATIONAL YOUTH COUNCIL (KNPI), THE GOVERNMENT-SPONSORED UMBRELLA FOR ALL OFFICIAL YOUTH ORGANIZATIONS, NOMINATED PRESIDENT SOEHARTO DURING A TELEVISED MEETING BETWEEN KNPI LEADERS AND THE PRESIDENT IN APRIL. 1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLCOUNS ED MCWILLIAMS, REASON: 1.5(D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: PRESIDENT SOEHARTO ANNOUNCED HE WOULD WORK WITH THE PARLIAMENT AND A SPECIAL REFORM COMMISSION TO ORGANIZE NEW ELECTIONS IN WHICH HE WOULD NOT STAND FOR THE PRESIDENCY. THE ABSENCE OF A DATE SPECIFIC FOR THE ELECTIONS, AMONG OTHER CONCERNS, LED TO MIXED REACTIONS. OPPOSITION LEADER AMIEN RAIS TOLD US HE WILL LEAD A LARGE RALLY DEMANDING THE PRESIDENT'S RESIGNATION MAY 20. GUS DUR, LEADER OF INDONESIA'S LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, IS CALLING ON HIS FOLLOWERS TO AVOID THE DEMONSTRATIONS. NATION-WIDE DEMONSTRATIONS CALLING FOR THE PRESIDENT TO STEP DOWN ARE STILL EXPECTED ON MAY 20, THOUGH IT IS UNCLEAR TO WHAT EXTENT STUDENTS, WHO HAVE BEEN THE DRIVING REFORM/RESIGNATION FORCE, WILL PERSIST IN THEIR EFFORTS IN THE WAKE OF THE PRESIDENT'S PLEDGE TO STEP DOWN. MEANWHILE, FOOD PRICES ARE SOARING IN JAKARTA AND CASH RUNS ON ATMS AND BANKS CONTINUE. END SUMMARY

SOEHARTO OFFERS TO STEP DOWN

3. (U) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO, AFTER MEETING WITH "LEADERS OF SOCIETY," MOST OF WHOM REPRESENTED MUSLIM CONSTITUENCIES, SPOKE

LIVE TO A NATIONWIDE AUDIENCE AT APPROXIMATELY 1130 HOURS. AFTER LENGTHY COMMENTS MADE WITHOUT NOTES, THE PRESIDENT ANNOUNCED THAT HE WOULD INSTITUTE REFORM AS QUICKLY AS POSSIBLE BY ESTABLISHING A REFORM COMMISSION. THE COMMISSION WOULD WORK CLOSELY WITH THE PARLIAMENT TO ENSURE ADOPTION OF REFORM MEASURES, TO INCLUDE REFORM OF THE LAWS WHICH GOVERN THE ELECTION. HE SAID THAT HE WOULD HOLD A NEW GENERAL ELECTION AS SOON AS POSSIBLE BASED ON NEW ELECTION LAWS, THAT HE WOULD ORGANIZE A GENERAL SESSION OF THE MPR TO ESTABLISH NEW MPR MEMBERS, AND THAT HE WAS NOT PREPARED TO BE NOMINATED AGAIN AS PRESIDENT. HE ALSO REPEATED

HIS ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HE WOULD RESHUFFLE THE CABINET, FORMING A CABINET WHICH WILL BE CALLED THE "NEW REFORM CABINET." HE REPEATED HIS STATEMENT MADE LAST WEEK IN CAIRO THAT IT WOULD NOT BE A PROBLEM FOR HIM TO STEP DOWN AND BECOME A "PANDITO" (WISE MAN).

SOEHARTO HOLDS DIALOGUE WITH ISLAMIC LEADERS

4. (U) PRIOR TO THE SPEECH, SOEHARTO HELD A CLOSED DIALOGUE WITH MASS LEADERS, ALMOST ALL OF WHOM REPRESENTED MUSLIM CONSTITUENCIES. THE LEADERS INCLUDED ABDURAHHMAN WAHID (GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF NADHLATUL ULAMA), NURCHOLISH MADJID (RESPECTED MUSLIM SCHOLAR), ALI YAFIE (GOVERNMENT SPONSORED INDONESIAN COUNCIL OF ULAMAS), ANWAR HARYONO (DEWAN DAKWAY ISLAMIYAH INDONESIA OR THE ISLAMIC PROSELYTIZING COUNCIL), MALIK FAJAR (MUHAMMADIYAH), ACHMAD BAJA (SECRETARY GENERAL OF NU), YUSRIL MAHENDRA (PROFESSOR AT UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA), AND AINUN NAJIB (ISLAMIC PREACHER).

REACTION AMONG ISLAMIC AND OTHER LEADERS

5. (C) IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING THE SPEECH LOCAL MEDIA INTERVIEWED

CONFIDENTIAL

ABDURRAHMAN WAHID AND NURHCOLISH MADJID, TWO KEY RELIGIOUS LEADERS IN THE GROUP WHICH MET WITH THE PRESIDENT. WAHID SAID THAT HE THOUGHT THAT THE PRESIDENT'S OFFER WAS THE BEST POSSIBLE RESULT, AND ACCORDING TO MEDIA REPORTS, THAT THIS COMPROMISE SHOULD HELP CALM DOWN SOCIETY. HE WAS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT "IT WOULD BE BEST IF THE STUDENTS HAD NO NEED TO DEMONSTRATE AGAIN." NURCHOLISH MADJID SAID THAT EXPERTS WOULD BE UTILIZED FOR THE COMMISSION AND THAT THOSE WHO MET WITH SOEHARTO ASKED HIM NOT TO PICK ONE OF THEM. MADJID TOLD POLCOUNS THAT THE RELIGIOUS LEADERS HAD "COMMITTED TO NOTHING AND ENDORSED NOTHING," BUT "WERE GLAD HE LISTENED TO OUR VIEWS."

6. (C) [redacted] B1

TOLD POLOFF MAY 19 THAT NU AND WAHID WANTED SUCCESSION TO TAKE PLACE CONSTITUTIONALLY AND THAT THEY AGREED WITH SOEHARTO'S PLAN (THE TOP NU LEADERS HAD MET WITH WAHID AFTER HE RETURNED FROM THE DIALOGUE WITH SOEHARTO, AND WOULD BE MEETING WITH HIM AGAIN LATER THAT AFTERNOON). [redacted] MADE CLEAR THAT WHAT NU REALLY WANTED B1

WAS A SUCCESSION THAT LED TO A NEW LEADER THAT NU COULD SUPPORT. HE EMPHASIZED THAT IF SOEHARTO RESIGNED IMMEDIATELY WITHOUT CHANGES TO THE LAWS, THE NEW PRESIDENT WOULD BE HABIBIE WHO NU OPPOSES DUE TO THE NU'S PERCEPTION THAT HABIBIE'S ELITE CONSTITUENCY SEEKS A GREATER POLITICAL ROLE FOR ISLAM. HE THOUGHT THAT NEW ELECTIONS COULD BE CARRIED OUT WITHIN 3-6 MONTHS

SUBJECT: TFIDO1: MAY 19 SITUATION REPORT

IMMEDIATE SUCCESSION. AT LEAST 10,000 STUDENTS GATHERED PEACEFULLY AT THE DPR COMPLEX ON MAY 19, AND APPEARED ENERGIZED BY THEIR NUMBERS. STUDENTS CLAIM THEY WILL NOT STOP DEMONSTRATING UNTIL SOEHARTO STEPS DOWN, AND SAY THEY WILL REMAIN ON THE DPR COMPLEX. AS THE NEWS OF SOEHARTO'S STATEMENT SPREAD, MORE STUDENTS WERE MOBILIZING (SOME SAID IN REACTION TO THE STATEMENT) FROM CAMPUSES AND TAKING BUSES TO THE DPR TO JOIN THE PROTEST.

13. (C) STUDENTS FROM OTHER CITIES ARE ON THEIR WAY TO JAKARTA. STUDENTS BELIEVE THAT THOUSANDS WILL GO TO SPECIFIC LOCATIONS IN CITIES ACROSS INDONESIA TOMORROW TO PUSH FOR SOEHARTO TO STEP DOWN. LEAFLETS ARE CIRCULATING IN JAKARTA AND OTHER CITIES INVITING LOCAL PEOPLE TO PARTICIPATE. THE CHAIRMAN OF THE NAHDLATUL ULAMA UNIVERSITY STUDENTS, WHO HAS BEEN SUPPORTING DEMONSTRATIONS, SAID THAT HE AGREES WITH GUS DUR'S STATEMENT, AND THAT AN IMMEDIATE TRANSITION WOULD BE DANGEROUS BECAUSE HABIBIE WOULD BECOME PRESIDENT AND HE COULD NOT BE ACCEPTED BY THE PEOPLE. HIS ORGANIZATION IS TRYING TO CALL BACK THEIR PEOPLE, ANTICIPATING DISASTER IF STUDENTS TAKE TO THE STREETS TOMORROW TO BE MET WITH REPRESSIVE MILITARY MEASURES. LEADERS OF THE ASSOCIATION OF ISLAMIC STUDENTS (HMI) WERE HOLDING A MEETING ON

THE EVENING OF MAY 19 TO DISCUSS THE DEVELOPMENTS. LEADERS OF THE NATIONALIST STUDENTS SAID THAT WHAT SOEHARTO HAS SAID COMES TOO LATE AND THE STUDENTS DO NOT BELIEVE WHAT HE SAYS. IT IS OUR IMPRESSION THAT WHILE SOME STUDENTS MAY ACCEPT SOEHARTO'S STATEMENT, THE MAJORITY WILL NOT.

MEGAWATI REACTION

14. (C) A KEY AIDE TO [redacted] B1
FOCUSSED ON THE FAILURE OF THE PRESIDENT TO MENTION A DATE FOR THE ELECTION. THE AIDE, WHO WATCHED THE SPEECH WITH [redacted] B1
NOTED THAT WHILE THE PRESIDENT COULD BE SEEN AS SEEKING A GRACEFUL EXIT, ABSENCE OF A SPECIFIC TIME FRAME FOR THE ELECTION RAISED DOUBTS ABOUT SOEHARTO'S SINCERITY, ADDING, "HE IS PLAYING A JAVANESE GAME." THE AIDE ALSO NOTED THAT EVEN IF SOEHARTO WERE TO CONTINUE FOR ONLY A RELATIVELY BRIEF PERIOD, THAT TENURE WOULD FURTHER STALL ECONOMIC RECOVERY, AT A TIME WHEN THE ECONOMY IS ON THE VERGE OF COLLAPSE. [redacted] LEFT [redacted] HOME IN B1

SOUTH JAKARTA TO CONSULT WITH ABDURRAHMAN WAHID.

DEVELOPMENTS OUTSIDE OF JAKARTA

15. (U) AN AMCIT CALLER TO THE EMBASSY CRISIS LINE REPORTED THAT STUDENTS IN UJUNG PANDANG ARE GATHERING FOR A DEMONSTRATION AND THAT MANY OUTSIDERS ARE COMING INTO THE AREA. AUTHORITIES HAVE LIMITED PARTICIPATION TO PEOPLE WEARING SCHOOL UNIFORMS. ACCORDING TO THE CALLER, PEOPLE ARE CONFUSED BY THE ANNOUNCEMENTS BY SOEHARTO AND OTHERS AND ARE NOT SURE HOW TO REACT. THERE ARE REPORTS OF 20 TO 30 INJURIES IN CLASHES BETWEEN DEMONSTRATORS AND SECURITY FORCES IN SURABAYA MAY 19. IN MEDAN, AS ELSEWHERE, LEAFLETS ARE BEING DISTRIBUTED URGING PEOPLE TO JOIN

RECAPPING LATE MAY 18 EVENTS: MEETING IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

16. (U) THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES (DPR), HARMOKO, TOLD THE PRESS ON THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 18 THAT SOEHARTO SHOULD RESIGN FROM OFFICE. THE STATEMENT, WHICH WE OBTAINED DIRECTLY FROM THE PARLIAMENT'S PRESS OFFICE, WAS MADE ON BEHALF OF HIMSELF AND THE FOUR DEPUTY SPEAKERS OF THE HOUSE, EACH OF WHOM IS FROM ONE OF THE FOUR FACTIONS -- RULING PARTY GOLKAR, THE ARMED FORCES (ABRI), THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI). HARMOKO SAID THAT THE HOUSE LEADERS (SPEAKER AND DEPUTY SPEAKERS) MET MAY 18, AND DISCUSSED THE RECENT NATIONAL DEVELOPMENTS AND THE PEOPLE'S ASPIRATIONS FOR REFORM, INCLUDING HOLDING A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR AND THE RESIGNATION OF THE PRESIDENT. FOLLOWING DPR REGULATIONS FOR DECISION MAKING, HE SAID THAT THE HOUSE LEADERS WOULD MEET MAY 19 WITH THE LEADERS OF THE HOUSE FACTIONS. THE RESULTS OF THE MEETING WOULD BE FORWARDED TO THE PRESIDENT. HE SAID THAT HE AND THE DEPUTY SPEAKERS HOPED THAT SOEHARTO WOULD RESIGN FOR THE GOOD OF THE NATION. HE APPEALED TO THE PEOPLE TO STAY CALM AND MAINTAIN NATIONAL UNITY AND ORDER. THE PARLIAMENT FACTIONS WERE MEETING ON MARCH 19, BUT AS OF LATE AFTERNOON THERE HAD BEEN NO ANNOUNCMENT OF ANY DECISIONS.

17. (C) A MEMBER OF THE ARMED FORCES (ABRI) FACTION TOLD POLOFF LATE IN THE AFTERNOON ON MAY 18 THAT HIS FACTION HAD JUST FINISHED A MEETING TO FORMULATE ITS POSITION. HE SAID THAT THEY "SUPPORTED REFORMATION AND THERE WERE INDICATIONS THAT THEY WOULD REQUEST THAT SOEHARTO STEP DOWN." HARMOKO HAD NOT DISCUSSED HIS REMARKS WITH THE ABRI FACTION IN ADVANCE, SAID THE PARLIAMENTARIAN, THUS A COMMON POSITION HAD TO BE FORMALLY BLESSED AT THE MAY 19 MEETING WITH ALL FACTION LEADERS. WHILE THE ABRI FACTION AGREED THAT SOEHARTO SHOULD STEP DOWN, IT PREFERRED THAT HE DO IT FOR THE GOOD OF THE NATION, WITHOUT BEING PUSHED, SAID THIS PARLIAMENTARIAN.

18. (C) A MEMBER OF THE PPP FACTION IN PARLIAMENT TOLD POLOFF MAY 18 THAT HIS PARTY HAD ALREADY DECIDED TO ASK SOEHARTO TO RESIGN AND FOR A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR. HE THOUGHT THAT THE GOLKAR FACTION WAS HEADING IN THE SAME DIRECTION.

19. (U) GENERAL WIRANTO GAVE A PRESS CONFERENCE AT 2100 ON MAY 18 FOLLOWING A MEETING WITH TOP MILITARY BRASS REACTING TO THE STATEMENT MADE EARLIER THAT DAY BY HOUSE SPEAKER CALLING ON SOEHARTO TO STEP DOWN. HE SAID THAT HARMOKO'S CALL WAS AN INDIVIDUAL STATEMENT ALTHOUGH MADE IN A COLLECTIVE MANNER, AND HAD NO LEGAL BASIS. ABRI WOULD FORM A SPECIAL REFORM COUNCIL TO INCLUDE STUDENTS AND OTHER REFORM-MINDED PEOPLE. THERE SHOULD BE NO MASS ACTIONS THAT COULD LEAD TO ANARCHY. THE GENERAL'S PRESS CONFERENCE WAS DELAYED BY OVER AN HOUR BY THE ARRIVAL OF GENERAL PRABOWO. WITH PRABOWO ON THE SCENE ALL JOURNALISTS WERE USHERED OUT OF THE ROOM. WHEN THEY RETURNED, WIRANTO READ HIS UNSIGNED WRITTEN DOCUMENT.

ECONOMIC INDICATORS: MAY 19

20. (U) FOOD: OUR POLL OF SHOPPERS IN TRADITIONAL MARKETS INDICATED THAT PRICES HAVE BEGUN TO RISE STEEPLY. RICE, COOKING OIL, AND SUGAR PRICES HAD REMAINED STABLE BETWEEN MAY 13 AND MAY 18 IN SOME MARKETS. IN ONE MARKET, THE PRICE OF RICE DOUBLED, IN OTHERS THE PRICE WAS UP ABOUT 15 PERCENT. ONE MARKET SURVEYED EARLY THE MORNING HAD NO RICE OR INSTANT NOODLE STOCKS. COOKING OIL WAS UP BY A THIRD IN ONE MARKET, 10 PERCENT IN ANOTHER. IN A THIRD MARKET, THE PRICE OF COOKING OIL HAD ALMOST DOUBLED BETWEEN LAST NIGHT'S CLOSING PRICE AND THIS MORNING'S OPENING PRICE AND FINALLY STOCKS RAN OUT. SUGAR AND BEEF WERE UP ABOUT 10-15 PERCENT IN TWO MARKETS. EGGS WERE UP BY 50 PERCENT IN BEKASI AND BY 20 PERCENT IN A CENTRAL JAKARTA MARKET. VEGETABLE PRICES (WHICH TEND TO BE MORE VOLATILE) WERE UNIFORMLY REPORTED SHARPLY UP BY AS MUCH AS 50 PERCENT AND WERE LARGELY OUT OF STOCK BY AFTERNOON. ONE STALL OWNER TOLD US THAT SUPPLIERS ARE NOT COMING BECAUSE THEY FEAR THEIR TRUCKS WILL BE PLUNDERED. AN EMPLOYEE OF A GROCERY STORE NEAR JAKARTA'S CHINA TOWN EXPLAINED LAST NIGHT THAT SHELVES WERE EMPTY BECAUSE DISTRIBUTORS WERE NOT BRINGING MORE SUPPLIES.

21. (U) ATM'S: AT 9 A.M., HUNDREDS OF CUSTOMERS WERE QUEUED AT BCA BRANCHES AS BCA WAS RUSHED AGAIN TODAY. HOWEVER, OTHER BANKS' ATM'S DID NOT HAVE LONG LINES AND CUSTOMERS TOLD US THEY DID NOT HAVE TO WAIT LONG FOR THEIR TURN. BANKS CONTINUE TO LIMIT THE AMOUNTS THAT MAY BE WITHDRAWN.

22. (U) BANKS: MOST BANKS WERE OPEN TODAY, BUT MANY CLOSED AT 1 P.M. THE REPORT ON LAST WEEK'S DAMAGE TO BCA FACILITIES WAS: OF 800 BRANCHES, OVER 120 WERE DAMAGED AND 12 WERE DESTROYED; A LARGE NUMBER OF BCA'S ATM'S WERE PILLAGED. IN CONTRAST TO BCA'S RUSH, BANK LIPPO, BANK PAPAN, AND BANK BALI EXPERIENCED HEAVIER THAN USUAL BUT NOT UNMANAGEABLE CASH DEMAND FROM CUSTOMERS. INDONESIAN BANKS HAVE INSTRUCTED THEIR EMPLOYEES TO REPORT TO WORK TOMORROW, MAY 20.

23. (U) FUEL SUPPLIES: SEVERAL PURVEYORS IN A NEIGHBORHOOD MARKET QUOTED RP 600/LITER PRICE FOR KEROSENE. HOWEVER, THEY HAD NO STOCKS TO SELL AND HAD NOT RECEIVED DELIVERIES SINCE LAST FRIDAY WHEN THE PRICE ROLLBACK WAS ANNOUNCED.

24. (U) PUBLIC TRANSPORT: THE GOVERNMENT HAS ROLLED BACK THE PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION FARE HIKES ANNOUNCED AFTER THE MAY 4 FUEL PRICE INCREASES (WHICH HAVE ALSO BEEN ROLLED BACK). EFFECTIVE MAY 20, ECONOMY BUS FARES RETURN TO THEIR 1996 LEVELS; OTHER BUS AND RAIL FARE INCREASES HAVE BEEN REDUCED FROM THEIR POST-MAY 4

ANNOUNCEMENT LEVELS.

25. (U) EXCHANGE RATE: THE EXCHANGE RATE POSTED AT MONEY CHANGERS' WINDOWS IS RP 15,000-16,000/USD. HOWEVER, THE MONEY CHANGERS DO NOT HAVE ANY CASH DOLLARS TO SELL. THE TELETRAC RATE HELD STEADY TODAY AT RP 12,500. WE HEARD THAT THE CURBSIDE RATE AT THE AIRPORT WAS RP 25,000 AS DEPARTING TRAVELERS SOUGHT DOLLARS.

26. (U) STOCK MARKET: THE JSX WAS UP 18 POINTS TO 407 AT 2:30 AND CLOSED EVEN HIGHER AT 414, UP 6 PERCENT FROM MONDAY'S CLOSE. ONE BROKER CHARACTERIZED THE RISE AS "PHANTOM" AND EXPLAINED THAT STATE-OWNED MUTUAL FUND DANAREKSA HAD SOLD AND REPURCHASED TELKOM HOLDINGS TO LIFT THE MARKET. HE NOTED THAT THIS DIDN'T COST DANAREKSA MUCH SINCE IT HAD TO BUY LESS THAN 200 LOTS. THE MARKET WAS EXTREMELY THIN (ALTHOUGH NOT AS THIN AS IT WAS LAST FRIDAY WHEN 28 TRADES WERE REGISTERED). MOST TRADERS DID NOT SHOW UP FOR THE SECOND SESSION. ABOUT 80 PERCENT OF TRADERS HAVE INFORMED THE JAKARTA STOCK EXCHANGE THAT THEY WILL NOT COME TO WORK TOMORROW.

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY AMB. J. STAPLETON ROY; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (S) INDONESIA IS PASSING THROUGH TROUBLED TIMES. NERVES AND TEMPERS ARE WEARING THIN IN THE FACE OF THE RELENTLESS PRESSURE FROM POLITICALLY ACTIVE STUDENTS AND

THE ECONOMIC MELTDOWN. THE FUEL PRICE RISE,

PREDICTABLY, HAS TRIGGERED FURTHER MANIFESTATIONS OF DISCONTENT AND CREATED NEW UNCERTAINTIES. NEW VOICES ARE JOINING THE CHORUS OF DEMANDS FOR FUNDAMENTAL POLITICAL REFORMS. THE STAKES ARE IMMENSE. MISSTEPS COULD PROVE COSTLY, OR EVEN DISASTROUS.

UNANSWERABLE QUESTIONS

3. (S) THE MAIN QUESTIONS CANNOT BE ANSWERED:
-- WILL THE STUDENTS SPARK IRRESISTIBLE PRESSURES FOR FUNDAMENTAL POLITICAL CHANGE?
-- WILL THE SURGE OF DISSATISFACTION UNLEASHED BY THE RISE IN FUEL PRICES REPRESENT A TEMPORARY SPIKE OR WILL IT LAUNCH THE COMBINED POLITICAL/ECONOMIC CRISIS INTO A NEW PHASE?
-- IF PRESSURES KEEP MOUNTING, WILL SOEHARTO INVOKE HIS EMERGENCY POWERS, DECLARE MARTIAL LAW, AND TRY TO RULE THROUGH FIAT?
-- COULD SOEHARTO SUSTAIN SUCH A COURSE AND KEEP THE MILITARY UNITED AND LOYAL, ESPECIALLY IF HE FORFEITS IMF SUPPORT?
-- HOW LONG CAN INDONESIA REMAIN COMMITTED TO AN ECONOMIC REFORM PROGRAM THAT FUELS SOCIAL TENSIONS, HITS ORDINARY CITIZENS IN THE POCKETBOOK, AND WEAKENS THE PRESIDENT'S POWER BASE IN THE ABSENCE OF ANY RETURN OF MARKET CONFIDENCE OR STRENGTHENING OF THE RUPIAH?
-- WILL THE INDONESIAN MILITARY PROVE RELIABLE IF OPPOSITION TO THE POLITICAL STATUS QUO ASSUMES A MASS CHARACTER?

SECRET

4. (S) THE NUMBER OF SUCH QUESTIONS IS RISING. THE ONE QUESTION WE CANNOT AVOID, OF COURSE, IS: WHAT POSTURE SHOULD WE ADOPT AS THESE EVENTS UNFOLD? THE BROAD ANSWER IS EASY: WE SHOULD STAND BY OUR PRINCIPLES AND MAKE CLEAR BY WORD AND DEED OUR SUPPORT FOR REPRESENTATIVE AND RESPONSIVE GOVERNMENT, OPEN SOCIETIES, RESPECT FOR THE PEACEFUL EXERCISE OF THE RIGHTS OF FREE SPEECH AND ASSOCIATION, AND FOR ECONOMIC GROWTH THAT INCREASES THE WELL-BEING OF THE INDONESIAN

PEOPLE. THE DEVIL IS IN THE DETAILS. HERE CAUTION IS CALLED FOR. BEFORE RUSHING TO JUDGMENT, WE SHOULD STEP BACK AND TAKE A LONGER RANGE VIEW.

CRISIS OF LEGITIMACY

5. (S) THE UNDERLYING PROBLEM IS A CRISIS OF LEGITIMACY. AN AGING PRESIDENT HAS FORCED HIS OWN REELECTION THROUGH A PLIANT, HAND-PICKED, AND UNREPRESENTATIVE ASSEMBLY. WITH THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION BARELY CONCLUDED, SIGNIFICANT NUMBERS OF INDONESIANS ARE REFUSING TO RECOGNIZE THE LEGITIMACY OF THAT OUTCOME, AS SYMBOLIZED BY THE DEMAND OF THE STUDENTS THAT SOEHARTO STEP DOWN. INDONESIA'S FLAWED POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS DO NOT CONFER SUFFICIENT LEGITIMACY TO REMAIN CREDIBLE IN THE FACE OF STRONG POPULAR PRESSURES FOR CHANGE. THAT FACT IS SINKING IN. THE INDONESIAN PARLIAMENT IS NOW SCRAMBLING TO HOLD OUT THE HOPE OF POLITICAL REFORMS THAT WOULD HAVE BEEN UNTHINKABLE A FEW SHORT MONTHS AGO. THE STUDENTS VIEW

THESE AS SOPS, BUT OTHERS MAY SEE OPPORTUNITIES THAT SHOULD BE SEIZED. THE SINCERITY OF THESE REFORM OFFERS, AND THE WISDOM AND TENACITY OF THOSE SEEKING CHANGE, HAVE NOT YET BEEN TESTED.

6. (S) INDONESIA'S POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS HAVE BEEN FLAWED FROM THE START. THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE HALF CENTURY OF INDONESIA'S INDEPENDENCE, THE COUNTRY'S LEADERS HAVE GIVEN PRIORITY TO NATION BUILDING AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT, NOT TO STRENGTHENING INSTITUTIONS. THESE SHORTCOMINGS SEEMED LESS GLARING DURING THE THREE DECADES WHEN INDONESIA EXPERIENCED RAPID ECONOMIC GROWTH. SOEHARTO BASKED IN THE LEGITIMACY CONFERRED BY STABILITY AND RISING LIVING STANDARDS. MANY INDONESIANS WERE PREPARED TO WAIT FOR THE POST-SOEHARTO PERIOD TO PRESS FOR CHANGE. THE PROLONGED ECONOMIC CRISIS REMOVED THESE PROPS, EXPOSING THE UNDERLYING FRAGILITY OF THE PRESIDENT'S POLITICAL MANDATE. FORCING SOEHARTO FROM OFFICE WITHOUT ADDRESSING THESE INSTITUTIONAL WEAKNESSES

WILL NOT CORRECT THIS SITUATION. IT COULD SIMPLY SUBSTITUTE NEW LEADERS FOR OLD, WITH THE NEW MANDATES NO MORE VALID THAN THE FORMER ONES.

7. (S) BOTH THE STUDENTS AND INDONESIA'S POLITICAL

REFORMERS HAVE BEEN SLOW TO ADDRESS THESE INSTITUTIONAL WEAKNESSES THROUGH SYSTEMATIC ANALYSIS AND CONCRETE PROPOSALS FOR CHANGE. UNTIL RECENTLY, IDEAS FOR POLITICAL REFORM FROM WITHIN THE ESTABLISHMENT AMOUNTED TO LITTLE MORE THAN TINKERING. IN PART, THIS REFLECTED THE UNREALITY OF PROMOTING MEANINGFUL REFORM WHILE

SOEHARTO KEPT HIS IRON GRIP ON THE POLITICAL APPARATUS.

8. (S) NOW REFORMERS ARE BECOMING BOLDER IN THEIR THINKING AND ARE BEGINNING TO PUT FORWARD PROPOSALS THAT WOULD, IF IMPLEMENTED, GIVE INDONESIA'S POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS A MORE REPRESENTATIVE CHARACTER. NEVERTHELESS, FOR THE MOMENT THERE ARE PRECIOUS FEW WELL-FORMED IDEAS ON HOW TO TRANSFORM THE PRESSURES FOR CHANGE ARISING FROM THE STUDENTS INTO CONCRETE REFORMS THAT WOULD CONFER GREATER LEGITIMACY ON INDONESIA'S POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS. THIS INTELLECTUAL VACUUM INCREASES THE DANGER THAT THOSE SEEKING TO CURB OR BLOCK REFORM WILL SMOTHER CHANGE BY APPEARING TO PROMOTE IT.

OPPOSITION TO FIVE MORE YEARS
---

9. (S) PRESIDENT SOEHARTO IS PERCHED UNEASILY AT THE CENTER OF THIS MAELSTROM. THE COMPOSITION OF HIS CABINET SYMBOLIZED HIS INABILITY, OR PERHAPS UNWILLINGNESS, TO BROADEN HIS POLITICAL BASE AT THE CRITICAL MOMENT WHEN THIS WAS MOST NEEDED. THE BROAD OUTLINES OF NATIONAL POLICY THAT EMERGED FROM THE MARCH 1998 SESSION OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY CONTAINED NOT A GLIMMER OF NEW POLITICAL THINKING. ESSENTIALLY, ON THE POLITICAL FRONT, HE OFFERED THE COUNTRY FIVE MORE YEARS OF THE SAME STALE POLITICS THAT IS THE HALLMARK OF HIS "NEW ORDER" REGIME. THE STUDENTS ARE NOT BUYING IT. SOEHARTO'S MIND SET IS TO TOUGH IT THROUGH, AS HE HAS DONE SUCCESSFULLY IN THE PAST. TO

DATE, HE HAS DISPLAYED NO SIGNS OF RECOGNIZING THAT HIS TIME-TESTED METHODS OF MAINTAINING POLITICAL CONTROL MAY NOT FIT INDONESIA'S NEW CIRCUMSTANCES.

10. (S) WHAT IS NEW IS THE PERCEPTION OF THOSE AROUND SOEHARTO THAT THE COUNTRY IS ON THE EVE OF THE POST-SOEHARTO ERA AND THAT HOW THEY CONDUCT THEMSELVES WILL DEFINE THEIR OWN FUTURE PROSPECTS. EVEN LOYAL SUPPORTERS, BOTH MILITARY AND CIVILIAN, MUST NOW HEDGE THEIR BETS AGAINST THE FUTURE. THIS HAS SUBTLY ERODED HIS GRIP ON POWER. THE ONLY LOYALISTS HE CAN COUNT ON IN WORST CASE SCENARIOS ARE THOSE WHOSE FATES ARE INEXTRICABLY LINKED WITH HIS, SUCH AS HIS FAMILY. LTG PRABOWO, NOW COMMANDER OF THE STRATEGIC RESERVE FORCES, COULD FIT THIS PATTERN THROUGH HIS MARRIAGE TO ONE OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTERS. THIS COULD BE THE CRUCIAL FAULT LINE DETERMINING WHETHER THE MILITARY WILL REMAIN UNITED IN A HIGH STAKES POLITICAL CRISIS.

CONSTRAINTS ON CHANGE

11. (S) IT IS TOO EARLY TO WRITE OFF SOEHARTO. HE IS DETERMINED, EXPERIENCED, AND A FORMIDABLE PLAYER IN AN END GAME. THE OPPOSING FORCES DEMANDING POLITICAL CHANGE ARE FRAGMENTED, LEADERLESS, AND WITHOUT A COHERENT PROGRAM. AND YET THESE FORCES HAVE GRASPED BETTER THAN SOEHARTO THAT THE COUNTRY IS READY FOR A CHANGE IN LEADERSHIP. BY TAPPING INTO THAT SENTIMENT, THEY HAVE SEIZED THE INITIATIVE AND PUT THE GOVERNMENT ON THE DEFENSIVE. THEIR PROBLEM, AND POTENTIALLY THEIR WEAKNESS, IS THAT THEY LACK THE MEANS TO FORCE CHANGE

THROUGH PEACEFUL CHANNELS, PRINCIPALLY BECAUSE THESE CHANNELS ARE DESIGNED BY SOEHARTO TO PRECLUDE CHANGE NOT ORDAINED BY HIM. IF THEY OPT FOR VIOLENCE AND CONFRONTATION, THE MEANS WILL SHAPE THE ENDS AND THEY WILL LESSEN PROSPECTS THAT THE RIGHT SORT OF CHANGES WILL EMERGE FROM THE CATHARSIS, REGARDLESS OF WHO EMERGES ON TOP.

12. (S) FOR THE MOMENT, OPPORTUNISM IS STILL THE SAFE COURSE FOR INDONESIANS WATCHING THE UNFOLDING DRAMA WITH MIXED HOPES AND FEARS. AS LONG AS SOEHARTO CAN MAINTAIN THE APPEARANCE THAT HE HAS THE UPPER HAND, WE CAN EXPECT THAT THE INDONESIAN POWER ESTABLISHMENT WILL DO HIS BIDDING. IF HIS AUTHORITY SHOWS SIGNS OF ERODING, MATTERS COULD MOVE QUICKLY INTO A NEW PHASE.

OUTLOOK CLOUDY

13. (S) IT IS TOO EARLY TO REACH INFORMED JUDGMENTS ON WHAT LIES AHEAD. THE NEXT TWO WEEKS WILL OFFER IMPORTANT CLUES. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO HAS PUBLICLY COMMITTED HIMSELF TO ATTEND THE G-15 SUMMIT IN CAIRO. HE IS SCHEDULED TO LEAVE ON SATURDAY, MAY 9. THE TIMING IS NOT IDEAL. HIS ABSENCE COULD ENERGIZE THE STUDENTS.

MOVEMENT. THE ISSUE BEING PUT TO THE MILITARY BY THE STUDENTS, AND BY OPPOSITION LEADERS MEGAWATI AND AMIEN RAIS, IS: DO YOU SIDE WITH THE COUNTRY OR THE PRESIDENT? THAT ISSUE WILL PROVIDE THE EMOTIONAL BACKDROP FOR WHAT TRANSPIRES ON MAY 20 THIS YEAR.

RESTRAINTS ON RASH ACTIONS

14. (S) THE SECURITY AUTHORITIES ARE TREADING CAUTIOUSLY. THEY ARE AWARE OF THE VOLATILITY OF THE SITUATION AND DO NOT WANT TO SET OFF THE SPARK THAT LIGHTS A PRAIRIE FIRE. FOR THE MOMENT THEY ARE RELYING ON TEAR GAS, SHIELDS, AND RUBBER BULLETS AS THEIR PRIMARY MEANS OF CONTAINING THE STUDENTS, WITH ONLY SPORADIC RESORT TO LIVE AMMUNITION. THEY ARE NOT ACCUSTOMED, HOWEVER, TO KEEPING THEIR COOL IN THE FACE OF TAUNTING MOBS. SOME AMONG THE STUDENTS ADVOCATE MORE CONFRONTATIONAL TACTICS IN PRESSING THE STUDENT CAUSE. ALLEGATIONS, MANUFACTURED OR REAL, ARE BEING SPREAD BY THE AUTHORITIES THAT SINISTER THIRD FORCES (SOMETIMES IDENTIFIED AS "COMMUNISTS" OR MUSLIM EXTREMISTS FOR AMERICAN EARS) ARE SEEKING TO MANIPULATE THE STUDENTS FOR NEFARIOUS PURPOSES. SUCH CLAIMS WILL BE PUSHED MORE VIGOROUSLY TO JUSTIFY A CRACKDOWN, IF IT COMES TO THAT.

15. (S) INDONESIANS OF ALL STRIPES RECOGNIZE THAT THE COUNTRY IS IN AN INTERNATIONAL SPOTLIGHT AND IN NEED OF INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT IF THERE IS TO BE ANY HOPE OF SHORTENING THE TIME REQUIRED FOR ECONOMIC RECOVERY. THESE ARE POWERFUL BUT NOT ABSOLUTE DETERRENTS AGAINST

RASH REPRESSIVE ACTIONS. IF SOEHARTO IS FORCED TO THE WALL, HIS NATURE IS TO BECOME HARDER, MORE RUTHLESS, AND LESS SUSCEPTIBLE TO COMPROMISE. IN THE PAST, THIS WAS HIS ACE IN THE HOLE. IN INDONESIA'S CURRENT CIRCUMSTANCES IT COULD BE HIS ACHILLES HEEL.

SOEHARTO'S OPTIONS LIMITED

16. (S) CURRENT TENSIONS ARE UNLIKELY TO BE RESOLVED BY A SERENDIPITOUS SERIES OF GOOD BREAKS. NOR ARE OTHER OPTIONS ATTRACTIVE.

-- EVEN OPTIMISTS IN THE GOVERNMENT, A RARER BREED THESE DAYS, DO NOT SEE AN ECONOMIC UPTURN AS A NEAR TERM WAY OUT OF THE COUNTRY'S MOUNTING TROUBLES.

-- IN EXTREMIS, THE PRESIDENT COULD INVOKE HIS EMERGENCY POWERS, SHUT DOWN THE UNIVERSITIES, AND TRY TO SWEEP UP LEADING ACTIVISTS. HE PRESUMABLY IS EYEING SUCH MEASURES. THE RISKS WOULD BE IMMENSE. SUCH ACTION WOULD COMPROMISE HIS CLAIM ON INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT, HIGHLIGHT HIS LEGITIMACY PROBLEM, AND PERHAPS STRAIN THE LOYALTY OF THE MILITARY TO THE BREAKING POINT. IN SHORT, A CRACKDOWN COULD LAUNCH HIM ONTO A SLIPPERY DOWNWARD SLOPE.

-- SOEHARTO'S INSTINCTS ARE AGAINST SUPPORTING SERIOUS POLITICAL REFORM AS A WAY OF EASING THE PRESSURES FOR POLITICAL CHANGE, AND IT MAY BE TOO LATE FOR THAT COURSE.

17. (S) WITH RIOTERS IN THE STREETS, THE OUTLOOK CAN ONLY BE ONE OF MOUNTING UNCERTAINTY. A FEW DAYS OF

CALM, HOWEVER, WOULD ALTER THE PICTURE AND MAKE MORE CREDIBLE PROSPECTS FOR MUDDLING THROUGH. FOR THE MOMENT, WATCHFUL WAITING IS THE BEST POSTURE.

U.S. ROLE
---

18. (S) [redacted] B1

WE ARE POSITIONED ABOUT RIGHT:
-- WE ARE IN REGULAR TOUCH WITH ALL POLITICAL ELEMENTS, INCLUDING THE STUDENTS AND OUTSIDE LEADERS SUCH AS MEGAWATI AND AMIEN RAIS.
-- WE HAVE BEEN IN THE FOREFRONT OF THOSE DEMANDING AN END TO THE DISAPPEARANCES AND AN INVESTIGATION INTO THOSE RESPONSIBLE. THE QUICK REACTION OF OURSELVES AND OTHERS (INCLUDING THE INDONESIAN MEDIA AND INDONESIAN HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS WHO FOCUSED ATTENTION ON THE PROBLEM) WERE PROBABLY INSTRUMENTAL IN BRINGING A HALT TO THE PRACTICE AND IN THE RESURFACING OF THOSE ABDUCTED.
-- WE ARE SUPPORTING AND CONTRIBUTING TO HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE TO THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE.

2. (U) SUMMARY: GROWING CALLS FOR POLITICAL REFORM, TO ACCOMPANY AND SUPPORT ECONOMIC REFORM, FOCUS ON THE "FIVE POLITICAL LAWS" WHICH SET THE PARAMETERS OF POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN INDONESIA AND WHICH GOVERN THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE LEGISLATIVE AND EXECUTIVE BRANCHES. THE LAWS, AS AMENDED MOST RECENTLY IN 1985, PRECLUDE TRUE OPPOSITION POLITICAL PARTIES AND TIP THE PLAYING FIELD TO ENSURE VICTORY FOR THE RULING "PARTY" IN THE FIVE-YEAR ELECTION CYCLES. THE LAWS ALSO EFFECTIVELY PREVENT THE EVOLUTION OF AN INDEPENDENT LEGISLATIVE BRANCH BY ENSURING ALL PARLIAMENT MEMBERS, EVEN THOSE REPRESENTING THE MINOR PARTIES, ARE ACCEPTABLE TO THE GOVERNMENT. UNDER THESE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS, THE GOVERNMENT CONTROLS THE MEMBERSHIP AND ORIENTATION OF ALL NON-POLITICAL "MASS ORGANIZATIONS" BY DEMANDING THAT ALL SIMILAR ORGANIZATIONS BE GROUPED INTO A SINGLE UNIT AND REQUIRING THAT MASS ORGANIZATIONS ADHERE TO THE VAGUELY DEFINED STATE IDEOLOGY OF "PANCASILA," A GOVERNING PHILOSOPHY WHICH PROMOTES CONSENSUS POLITICS AND STRONGLY DISCOURAGES DISSENT. SOME CRITICS CONTEND THAT RATHER THAN REDUCING DIVISIVE CONFLICTS ARISING FROM COMPETING POLITICAL INTERESTS, THE HEAVY CONTROLS AND ABSENCE OF DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS HAVE REDIRECTED THE CONFLICTS IN SOCIETY INTO ULTIMATELY MORE DAMAGING CHANNELS. RECENTLY, THERE HAVE BEEN HINTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT BE CONSIDERING SOME REVISIONS IN THE LAWS, THOUGH OBSERVERS DOUBT IT IS READY TO ENTERTAIN FUNDAMENTAL CHANGES. END SUMMARY

THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

3. (U) IN RECENT WEEKS AT CAMPUSES ACROSS INDONESIA, A COMMON THEME HAS BEEN A CALL TO REFORM OR SIMPLY ABOLISH THE "FIVE POLITICAL LAWS." DEMANDS FOR THE ABOLITION OR SIGNIFICANT REVAMPING OF THESE LAWS HAVE ALSO FIGURED PROMINENTLY IN CRITIQUES OF THE REGIME OVER THE PAST DECADE, INCLUDING THOSE OFFERED BY IMPRISONED LABOR LEADER MUCHTAR PAKPAHAN, FORMER PARLIAMENTARIAN SRI BINTANG PAMUNGAS, AND THE BANNED PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PRD). THE AUSTRALIAN EMBASSY AND WE HAVE RECEIVED INDICATIONS THAT THE GOVERNMENT, PARTICULARLY THE ABRI FACTION IN THE PARLIAMENT, MIGHT BE CONSIDERING SOME CHANGES TO

UNCLASSIFIED

THE LAWS BUT MOST HUMAN RIGHTS OBSERVERS DOUBT THIS WILL RESULT IN FUNDAMENTAL REVISIONS.

4. (U) THE LAWS, DATING TO 1975 AND 1985, FORM THE LEGAL FRAMEWORK WHICH SIGNIFICANTLY RESTRICTS POLITICAL ACTIVITY IN INDONESIA AND ASSURES VICTORY AT THE NATIONAL AND PROVINCIAL LEVEL TO THE GOVERNMENT POLITICAL ORGANIZATION, GOLKAR, IN THE FIVE-YEAR ELECTION CYCLE. THE FIVE LAWS HAVE BEEN MODIFIED OVER THE YEARS, MOST RECENTLY IN 1985.

5. (U) THE ORIGINAL "POLITICAL PARTIES AND GOLKAR" LEGISLATION, PASSED IN 1975, LEGALIZED THE GOVERNMENT'S CONTROL OVER THE TWO MINORITY PARTIES (PDI AND PPP) AS WELL AS GOLKAR. IT GAVE THE PRESIDENT THE POWER TO "FREEZE" POLITICAL PARTIES, PREVENTING THE CREATION OF ANY NEW PARTIES WHICH MIGHT EVOLVE INTO REAL OPPOSITION PARTIES. GOLKAR AND THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS WERE ACCORDED AUTHORITY TO SUPERVISE IMPLEMENTATION OF THE LAW. THE LEGISLATION MANDATED THAT POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS COULD NOT ESTABLISH BRANCHES AT THE VILLAGE LEVEL, WHERE MOST INDONESIANS LIVED, THEREBY INSTITUTIONALIZING THE "FLOATING MASS" PRINCIPLE WHEREIN NO PARTY CAN BUILD MASS-BASED MEMBERSHIP BUT MUST INSTEAD

COMPETE IN THE FIVE-YEAR PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CYCLE FOR SUPPORT. GOLKAR DOES NOT NEED TO ESTABLISH BRANCHES AT THE VILLAGE LEVEL IN ORDER TO OPERATE; ITS OFFICIALS ARE ALREADY THERE. THIS ARRANGEMENT WAS FORMALIZED IN 1981 WHEN ALL VILLAGE HEADMEN BECAME MEMBERS OF THE CIVIL SERVANTS CORPS (KORPRI), WHICH HAS BECOME AN INTEGRAL COMPONENT OF GOLKAR.

6. (U) THE 1975 LAW WAS A MAJOR STEP IN THIS PROCESS OF LINKING CIVIL SERVANTS POLITICALLY TO GOLKAR AND THE GOVERNMENT. IT REQUIRED CIVIL SERVANTS TO INFORM (IN PRACTICE GAIN THE PERMISSION OF) THEIR SUPERVISORS BEFORE JOINING ANY OF THE THREE POLITICAL GROUPS. GIVEN THE GOVERNMENT'S CONTROL OF GOLKAR, THIS MADE IT DIFFICULT FOR ANY STATE EMPLOYEE TO JOIN A MINORITY PARTY. IN 1981 CIVIL SERVANTS WERE REQUIRED TO SIGN A STATEMENT PROMISING THAT THEY WOULD GIVE THEIR SUPPORT TO GOLKAR. WHEN GOLKAR ESTABLISHED A FORMAL MEMBERSHIP SYSTEM IN 1984, MANY MEMBERS OF THE ELITE FELT OBLIGATED TO JOIN. IN 1997 KORPRI REQUESTED THAT EACH OF ITS MEMBERS SECURE TEN VOTES FOR GOLKAR, AND THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS PUBLICLY REAFFIRMED THE

KORPRI-GOLKAR CONNECTION, SAYING THAT WHILE THE LAW ALLOWED KORPRI MEMBERS TO VOTE FOR ANY OF THE THREE POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS, KORPRI STATUTES REQUIRED ITS MEMBERS TO VOTE FOR GOLKAR.

7. (U) THE GOVERNMENT FURTHER TIGHTENED THE SYSTEM AND WEAKENED THE MINORITY PARTIES WHEN IT AMENDED THE "POLITICAL PARTIES AND GOLKAR" LEGISLATION IN 1985 TO FORCE ALL THREE POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS TO DECLARE THAT THEY WERE BASED SOLELY ON THE GOVERNMENT IDEOLOGY OF PANCASILA. THE "MASS ORGANIZATIONS LAW," PASSED AT THE SAME TIME, IMPOSED THE SAME REQUIREMENT ON OTHER NON-POLITICAL GROUPS SUCH AS THE LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU). WHILE GOLKAR ALREADY CONFORMED TO THIS REQUIREMENT, IT MEANT THAT PPP LOST MUCH OF ITS UNDERLYING ISLAMIC IDENTITY AND THAT THE PDI WAS LESS DIRECTLY IDENTIFIED WITH ITS NATIONALIST AND CHRISTIAN ORIGINS.

IMPACT OF THE LAWS ON THE POLITICAL SYSTEM
---

8. (U) UNDER THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS, GOLKAR REPRESENTS "FUNCTIONAL GROUPS" AND THEORETICALLY COVERS MOST SEGMENTS OF SOCIETY. IT IS DELIBERATELY NOT DEFINED AS A POLITICAL PARTY; AT THE OUTSET OF THE NEW ORDER POLITICAL PARTIES WERE BLAMED BY THE MILITARY AND OTHERS FOR CAUSING INSTABILITY DURING THE SUKARNO PERIOD (NOTE: NEVERTHELESS, GOLKAR IS OFTEN REFERRED TO AS THE "RULING PARTY." END NOTE). IN 1973, THE NINE EXISTING POLITICAL PARTIES WERE CONSOLIDATED INTO TWO NEW POLITICAL PARTIES, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP, ISLAMIC) AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI, NATIONALIST AND CHRISTIAN). AS NOTED ABOVE, THE MINORITY PARTIES ARE SUPPOSED TO BE THE "POLITICAL PARTNERS" OF GOLKAR, THE GOVERNMENT, AND THE STATE, RATHER THAN COMPETITORS, OPPONENTS OR CRITICS.

8. (U) THE ELECTORAL SYSTEM, SHAPED BY THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS, WAS ALSO DELIBERATELY DESIGNED TO REMOVE THE CITIZENRY FROM POLITICS. VOTERS WOULD CONSTITUTE A "FLOATING MASS," DIVORCED

FROM POLITICAL ACTIVITY, TO BE ACTIVATED ONCE EVERY FIVE YEARS TO

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIRM THE RULE OF THE REGIME. AT THE SAME TIME, THE GENERAL ELECTION FOR PARLIAMENT, OR THE "FESTIVAL OF DEMOCRACY," AS IT IS CALLED BY THE GOVERNMENT, WOULD IN THEORY PROVIDE A LIMITED OUTLET FOR OTHERWISE CONTAINED POLITICAL ASPIRATIONS. DIFFERENT INTEREST GROUPS, FOR EXAMPLE, COMPETE FOR SLOTS IN THE NATIONAL, PROVINCIAL, AND DISTRICT LEVEL LEGISLATURES.

9. (U) GOLKAR DEVELOPED OUT OF AN ORGANIZATION OF "FUNCTIONAL GROUPS" ESTABLISHED UNDER MILITARY AUSPICES IN 1964 TO COUNTER THE INDONESIAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PKI) AND ITS AFFILIATED ORGANIZATIONS. WHEN THE NEW ORDER GOVERNMENT DECIDED THAT HOLDING AN ELECTION WOULD GIVE IT INTERNATIONAL, AND NATIONAL, LEGITIMACY, IT TURNED TO GOLKAR AS ITS VEHICLE. FROM THE START, A SUCCESSFUL ELECTION WAS DEFINED AS A GOLKAR VICTORY.

10. (C) AS A GOVERNMENT CREATION, GOLKAR HAS AT ITS DISPOSAL ALL OF THE POWER OF THE STATE TO SECURE VOTES FOR ITSELF AND TO DISCOURAGE SUPPORT FOR THE MINORITY PARTIES. [redacted] B1 [redacted] GAVE POLOFF SEVERAL EXAMPLES OF THE TECHNIQUES EMPLOYED:
-- GOLKAR OPERATES ON AN ESPECIALLY UNEVEN PLAYING FIELD IN RURAL AREAS WHERE SEVENTY PERCENT OF INDONESIANS LIVE. MOST RURAL INHABITANTS ARE FARMERS OR LABORERS, AND ARE THUS MOST DIRECTLY AFFECTED BY, AND VULNERABLE TO, CHANGES IN BASIC DEVELOPMENT POLICIES. THEREFORE, IT IS NOT DIFFICULT FOR GOVERNMENT/GOLKAR OFFICIALS (DOWN TO THE VILLAGE HEADMAN) TO REMIND RURAL VOTERS PRIOR TO ELECTION TIME, EITHER IMPLICITLY OR EXPLICITLY, OF THE "DEBT" THEY OWE TO THE RULING PARTY FOR IMPROVEMENTS THAT OCCURRED OR THAT THEY HOPED WOULD OCCUR IN THEIR AREAS, AND OF THE PENALTIES THAT WOULD FOLLOW IF THEY WERE

CONFIDENTIAL

NOT COOPERATIVE.

-- A LESS SUBTLE GOLKAR TECHNIQUE INVOLVED TARGETING AREAS WHERE IT KNEW IT WAS WEAK AND PAYING VOTERS TO SIT OUT THE ELECTION. SEVERAL WEEKS BEFORE THE ELECTION, A VOTER KNOWN NOT TO SUPPORT GOLKAR WOULD BE GIVEN 10,000 RUPIAH (APPROXIMATELY 4 USD AT THE TIME) OR TEN KILOS OF RICE TO LEAVE TOWN ON THE DAY OF THE ELECTION AND REFRAIN FROM VOTING. [redacted]CITED AS A MORE EXTREME CASE OF GOLKAR MANIPULATION THE INTIMIDATION BY "PREMAN" (HOODLUMS) OF PPP AND PDI SUPPORTERS IN POORER URBAN AREAS SUCH AS TANAH ABANG, JAKARTA SO THAT THEY WOULD VOTE FOR GOLKAR. B1

11. (U) ALTHOUGH A FORMAL GOLKAR PARTNER IN THE 1987 AND 1992 ELECTIONS, ABRI, UNDER GENERAL BENNY MURDANI, PLAYED A LESS PARTISAN ROLE THAN IT DID IN THE 1997 ELECTIONS. WHILE ALWAYS CHARGED WITH ENSURING SECURITY AND ORDER FOR THE ELECTION, IN 1997 THE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF GEN. HARTONO, NOW MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR, WENT SO FAR AS TO DECLARE THAT ABRI MEMBERS WERE GOLKAR CADRE. (NOTE: SEVERAL SENIOR MILITARY AND GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS DISTANCED THEMSELVES FROM HARTONO'S REMARKS. END NOTE)

12. (U) CURRENT GOLKAR PARTY LITERATURE, PUBLISHED BY ITS CENTRAL BOARD, ILLUSTRATES HOW THE RULING PARTY PERCEIVES ITS ROLE WITHIN THE SYSTEM:

GOLKAR "...WAS SET UP TO FIGHT AGAINST THE SUPPRESSION IMPOSED BY POLITICAL PARTIES, ESPECIALLY THE INDONESIAN COMMUNIST PARTY (PKI)... OTHER SOCIOPOLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS, NAMELY THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) AND THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP), ARE GOLKAR'S POLITICAL PARTNERS.

SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS ABOUT THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS
---

13. (U) OPPOSITION TO THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS (LAWS NO. 1, 2, 3, 5, AND 8/1985, ALL EXCEPT THE LATTER TWO BASED ON 1975 LAWS) FOCUSES ON A NUMBER OF SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS REGARDING THE LAWS' UNFAIRNESS AND INHERENTLY UNDEMOCRATIC CHARACTER. THE MOST COMMONLY CRITICIZED ASPECTS ARE HIGHLIGHTED BELOW:

LAW NO. 1/1985: (ON GENERAL ELECTIONS) (BASED ON LAW NO. 15/1969, AMENDED AS LAW NO. 4/1975):

-- ARTICLE 8 OF THAT LAW IDENTIFIES THE GOVERNMENT AS THE ORGANIZER OF THE GENERAL ELECTION. THERE ARE POPULAR CALLS FOR AN INDEPENDENT AND NEUTRAL BODY TO BE ESTABLISHED TO ORGANIZE THE ELECTIONS, WHICH ARE NOW UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR WHO SUPERVISES THE ELECTION COMMISSION. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO HAS ALWAYS APPOINTED AN EX-MILITARY OFFICIAL TO THAT POSITION.

-- ARTICLE 16 OF THIS LAW AUTHORIZES THE GOVERNMENT TO DETERMINE WHETHER A CANDIDATE FOR ANY PARTY WILL BE ALLOWED TO STAND FOR OFFICE.

-- ARTICLE 17 EMPOWERS PARTY LEADERS TO DISCIPLINE PARTY MEMBERS, INCLUDING MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT, WHO VIOLATE PARTY DECISIONS. PARLIAMENT MEMBERS ARE THUS RESPONSIBLE TO THEIR PARTY LEADERS AND NOT TO THE PEOPLE.

-- ARTICLE 19 REQUIRES THAT PARTIES ADHERE TO GOVERNMENT DIRECTIVES AND PRECEPTS WITH REGARDS TO SELECTION OF CANDIDATES. THIS REQUIREMENT IS IN ADDITION TO REQUIREMENTS THAT ALL CANDIDATES NOMINATED BY THE PARTIES BE VETTED THROUGH THE GOVERNMENT (ARTICLE 16 OF THIS LAW). THIS PROVISION WAS REINFORCED WITH THE 1990 PRESIDENTIAL REGULATION (NO. 16) WHICH UNDERSCORED THAT ALL PARLIAMENTARY CANDIDATES WERE TO BE SCREENED BY THE GOVERNMENT. TWO CANDIDATES SCREENED OUT BY THE GOVERNMENT, BRIG. GENERAL ROEMINI ASTUTI AND MARZUKI DARUSMAN, SUBSEQUENTLY BECAME MEMBERS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. INITIALLY, GOVERNMENT SCREENING SOUGHT TO IDENTIFY OPPONENTS FROM THE SEPTEMBER 1965 PERIOD BUT SINCE THAT TIME HAS EXPANDED TO PERSONS "INFLUENCED" BY THOSE EVENTS, INCLUDING PERSONS BORN

AFTER 1965.

-- ARTICLES 22 AND 23 EMPOWER THE GOVERNMENT TO SUPERVISE ALL BALLOTING AND THE COUNTING OF VOTES, ALTHOUGH PARTY REPRESENTATIVES ARE PERMITTED TO BE PRESENT DURING BALLOTING AND WHEN VOTES ARE TALLIED.

LAW NO. 2/1985 (ON THE COMPOSITION OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY AND THE PARLIAMENT) (BASED ON LAW NO 16/1969, AMENDED AS LAW NO. 5/1975):

-- ARTICLE 1 STIPULATES THAT THE SUPREME GOVERNMENT BODY, THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR), WHICH IS EMPOWERED INTER

ALIA TO SELECT THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT, IS TO BE COMPOSED OF 500 UN-ELECTED, PRESIDENTALLY-SELECTED MEMBERS, IN ADDITION TO THE 425 ELECTED MEMBERS OF THE PARLIAMENT (DPR). AN ADDITIONAL 75 MEMBERS OF THE PARLIAMENT AND THE MPR, REPRESENTING ABRI, ARE ALSO SELECTED BY THE PRESIDENT.

-- ARTICLES 2 AND 5 CITE SEVEN CONDITIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE MPR AND STIPULATE THAT DISMISSAL OF AN MPR MEMBER SHALL BE BY PRESIDENTIAL DECREE, RENDERING MEMBERS (WHO ARE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS) SUBJECT TO PRESIDENTIAL WILL.

-- ARTICLE 10 REQUIRES THAT ALL MEMBERS OF THE DPR BE THE APPOINTED REPRESENTATIVES OF EXISTING POLITICAL PARTIES OR ABRI AND GOLKAR (THE LATTER IS TECHNICALLY NOT REGARDED AS A PARTY). THIS EFFECTIVELY PRECLUDES "INDEPENDENT" MEMBERS OF THE DPR.

-- ARTICLES 11 AND 13 STIPULATE THAT THE INAUGURATION AND DISMISSAL OF THE DPR IS BY PRESIDENTIAL DECREE.

-- ARTICLE 17 DEFINES REGULATIONS FOR THE PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENTS (DPRD) WHICH ARE IDENTICAL TO THOSE GOVERNING THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENT, REPLICATING THE SAME PRESIDENTIAL POWER OVER THOSE PARLIAMENTS, EXERCISED THROUGH THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS.

-- ARTICLES 18 AND 20 STATE THE INAUGURATION AND DISMISSAL OF PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENTS WILL BE BY THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS ACTING AT THE BEHEST OF THE PRESIDENT.

-- ARTICLE 24 EMPOWERS EACH PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR, UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS, TO NOMINATE MEMBERS OF ABRI TO THE LOCAL PARLIAMENT (DPRD).

-- ARTICLES 25 AND 27 EMPOWER EACH GOVERNOR TO INAUGURATE AND DISMISS THE PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT AT THE BEHEST OF THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS.

-- ARTICLE 43 PERMITS REGULATION OF NATIONAL AND PROVINCIAL LEVEL ELECTIONS TO BE BY PRESIDENTIAL DECREE.

LAW NO. 3/1985 (ON POLITICAL PARTIES AND GOLKAR) (BASED ON LAW NO. 3/1975):

-- ARTICLE 1 RENDERS UNCONSITUTIONAL ANY PARTY OTHER THAN THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI), THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) OR GOLKAR. TWO RECENT ATTEMPTS TO CREATE POLITICAL PARTIES, SRI BINTANG PAMUNGAS'S "INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC UNITY PARTY" AND BUDIMAN SUDJAKMITO'S "PEOPLE'S DEMOCRATIC PARTY," WERE BLOCKED.

-- ARTICLE 8 REQUIRES THAT PUBLIC SERVANTS WHO WISH TO JOIN A POLITICAL PARTY (OTHER THAN GOLKAR) MUST INFORM THEIR SUPERVISORS, EFFECTIVELY PRECLUDING SUCH POLITICAL ACTIVITY.

-- ARTICLE 14 EMPOWERS THE PRESIDENT TO DISBAND THE DPR, THE POLITICAL PARTIES AND EVEN GOLKAR.

CONFIDENTIAL

LAW NO. 5/1985 (ON REFERENDA)

-- ARTICLE 2 STATES THAT THE 1945 CONSTITUTION CAN BE CHANGED ONLY THROUGH REFERENDA. THIS ARTICLE HAS BEEN USED TO PRECLUDE MEETINGS OR MOVEMENTS AIMED AT REFORMING ANY ASPECT OF THE 1945 CONSTITUTION. (NOTE: THIS LAW IS IN CONFLICT WITH ARTICLE 37 OF THE 1945 CONSTITUTION, WHICH PROVIDES THAT THE CONSTITUTION CAN BE AMENDED BY A TWO-THIRDS MAJORITY VOTE IF TWO-THIRDS OF THE MEMBERS ARE PRESENT.)
-- ARTICLES 8 AND 9 STIPULATE THAT ANY REFERENDUM MUST BE CARRIED OUT UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE PRESIDENT THROUGH AN INSTITUTION WHICH WOULD BE CHAIRED BY THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS AS IS THE GENERAL ELECTION COMMISSION. THUS, ANY FUNDAMENTAL REFORM NOT FAVORED BY THE PRESIDENT WOULD PROBABLY NOT SUCCEED EVEN IF IT WERE TO REACH THE STAGE OF A REFERENDUM.

LAW NO. 8/1985 (ON PUBLIC/SOCIAL ORGANIZATIONS)

-- ARTICLE 2 REQUIRES THAT ALL ORGANIZATIONS BE "BASED ON" THE STATE IDEOLOGY OF PANCASILA.

-- ARTICLE 8 REQUIRES THAT ALL ORGANIZATIONS PERTAINING TO MASS INTERESTS BE COMBINED UNDER A SINGLE LEADERSHIP WHICH UNITES "SIMILAR ORGANIZATIONS." IT IS ON THIS BASIS THAT ONLY ONE LABOR FEDERATION (SPSI) IS RECOGNIZED AND RIVAL ORGANIZATIONS, SUCH AS THE SBSI LABOR FEDERATION, ARE RESTRICTED TO NGO STATUS OR BANNED.

-- ARTICLES 12, 13, 14, 15 AND 16 EMPOWER THE GOVERNMENT TO ASSIST IN ORGANIZING ALL MASS ORGANIZATIONS. THESE ARTICLES ALSO EMPOWER THE GOVERNMENT TO SUSPEND A MASS ORGANIZATION'S BOARD OR

DISBAND THE ORGANIZATION.

14. (C) COMMENT: THE PUSH FOR POLITICAL REFORM, ESSENTIALLY A DEMOCRATIZING OF POLITICAL LIFE AND PROCESS IN INDONESIA, IS GAINING STRENGTH, WITH STUDENT DEMANDS NOW ECHOING THROUGH THE MEDIA INTO SOCIETY AT LARGE. OBSERVERS SUCH AS GOENAWAN MOHAMAD

MAINTAIN THAT ECONOMIC REFORM WITHOUT POLITICAL REFORM IS "LIKE TRYING TO WASH ONLY ONE HAND." [redacted] B1
[redacted] DESCRIBED HOPES OF INSTITUTING REAL ECONOMIC REFORM WITHOUT POLITICAL REFORM AS "A DREAM WHICH WILL NEVER COME TRUE," OFFERING AS AN EXAMPLE THE FUTILITY OF FORMULATING A NEW BANKRUPTCY LAW IF IT IS TO OPERATE IN A CORRUPT JUDICIAL SYSTEM CONTROLLED BY THE PRESIDENT. [redacted] B1
ARGUES THAT ECONOMIC REFORM WITHOUT AN EXPANSION OF LABOR RIGHTS AND POLITICAL REFORM IS MEANINGLESS, ADDING, "THAT IS WHAT YOU (SOEHARTO) HAVE TAUGHT US." POLITICAL REFORM, IF IT IS TO COME, WILL REQUIRE REVISION OR SCRAPPING OF THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS WHOSE OVERLAPPING AND REDUNDANT FEATURES COMPLICATE ANY EFFORT TO AMEND THEM.

1.5(D). DECLASSIFY ON 12/22/16. 1.6X6

2. (C) SUMMARY: IN A SURPRISE MOVE, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) DELAYED ITS ANNOUNCEMENT OF A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE AT THE END OF ITS LEADERSHIP MEETING ON DECEMBER 16. IN THE MIDST OF RUMORS ABOUT SOEHARTO'S HEALTH, THE PARTY'S GENERAL CHAIRMAN SAID HE WOULD MAKE THE ANNOUNCEMENT AT THE "APPROPRIATE TIME" BEFORE MARCH. ACCORDING TO PUBLIC ACCOUNTS OF THE MEETING, THERE WERE DIVISIONS AMONG THE PPP'S PROVINCIAL BRANCHES, WITH ONE BRANCH, YOGYAKARTA, OPTING FOR MUSLIM LEADER AMIEN RAIS AS THE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. [redacted] B1 [redacted] TOLD EMBOFFS THAT THE DECISION TO DELAY ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE PARTY'S PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE WAS AN ATTEMPT TO GAIN BARGAINING LEVERAGE IN AN EFFORT TO PUSH POLITICAL REFORM MEASURES THROUGH THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR). HE MADE CLEAR, HOWEVER, THAT IN THE END PPP WOULD LIKELY ENDORSE SOEHARTO FOR ANOTHER TERM. THE PARTY WOULD RELENT, AS USUAL, WHEN FACING GOVERNMENT PRESSURE. IN COMMENT WE NOTE THAT FRESH DOUBTS ABOUT SOEHARTO'S HEALTH COULD FURTHER COMPLICATE PPP'S DECISION-MAKING. END SUMMARY

PPP DELAYS ANNOUNCEMENT OF ITS PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

3. (U) THE MUSLIM-ORIENTED UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) ENDED ITS NATIONAL LEADERSHIP MEETING ON DECEMBER 16, AMIDST RUMORS ABOUT SOEHARTO'S HEALTH, WITHOUT ANNOUNCING ITS CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT. INSTEAD, IT SAID THAT THE PARTY'S GENERAL CHAIRMAN, ISMAIL HASAN METAREUM ("BUYA"), WOULD DO SO AT THE "APPROPRIATE TIME." METAREUM INSISTED,

SOMEWHAT UNCONVINCINGLY, THAT THE DELAY HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH THE PRESIDENT'S HEALTH. THE DAY BEFORE, DECEMBER 15, PPP SECRETARY GENERAL TOSARI WIDJAJA HAD PUBLICLY APOLOGIZED FOR SUSPENDING THE PRESS CONFERENCE SCHEDULED TO MAKE PUBLIC THE RESULTS OF THE MEETING, SAYING THAT THE MEETING HAD NOT YET REACHED ANY DECISIONS.

4. (C) RULING PARTY GOLKAR HAD ANNOUNCED ON OCTOBER 19, FOLLOWING ITS LEADERSHIP MEETING, THAT IT WOULD SUPPORT

SOEHARTO FOR A SEVENTH TERM AS PRESIDENT (REFTEL B). SINCE THE PPP'S NATIONAL LEADERSHIP SIGNED OFF IN JUNE ON THE RESULTS OF THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION (REFTEL C), DESPITE THE PROTESTS OF MANY OF ITS LOCAL BRANCHES ABOUT ELECTORAL FRAUD, THERE HAD BEEN LITTLE TO SUGGEST THAT THE NATIONAL PARTY LEADERSHIP MIGHT EXHIBIT INDEPENDENCE REGARDING THE PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION. AS HISTORICAL CONTEXT, THE PPP HAD PUBLICLY BACKED SOEHARTO'S RE-ELECTION LONG BEFORE THE LAST MPR IN 1993.

5. (C) THE MAJORITY (20) OF PPP'S 27 PROVINCIAL BRANCHES HAD OPTED AT THE LEADERSHIP MEETING TO DELEGATE THE ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING THE PARTY'S PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE TO THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN, ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS. THE YOGYAKARTA BRANCH WANTED AMIEN RAIS FOR PRESIDENT, AND SIX SUPPORTED SOEHARTO OUTRIGHT (IRIAN JAYA, WEST JAVA, SOUTH SUMATRA, BENGKULU, WEST NUSA TENGGARA). CONGEN SURABAYA HAS PICKED UP FROM LOCAL PPP CONTACTS THAT A GENUINE DESIRE TO PRESERVE THE PARTY'S OPTIONS WAS AT LEAST PARTLY BEHIND THE DECISION TO DELAY PPP'S ANNOUNCEMENT (SEE SEPTEL).

6. (C) DURING A MEETING WITH ACTING POLCOUNS AND POLOFF ON [redacted] SAID B1 THAT THE PPP CENTRAL BOARD WANTED TO USE AN EVENTUAL ANNOUNCEMENT OF ITS PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE AS LEVERAGE IN ITS "BARGAINING" FOR THE POLITICAL REFORM AND HUMAN RIGHTS PROPOSALS THAT IT WAS PURSUING WITHIN THE MPR WORKING COMMITTEE. THE COMMITTEE IS CURRENTLY PREPARING FOR THE MARCH GENERAL SESSION OF THE MPR (REFTEL A).

7. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THE PPP WAS SEEKING REFORM OF THE ELECTORAL PROCESS, TO BE INCORPORATED EITHER IN THE "BROAD OUTLINES OF NATIONAL POLICE" (GBHN) OR AN MPR DECREE ("KETETAPAN"). SPECIFICALLY, IT WANTED THE MINORITY PARTIES (NOT JUST THE GOVERNMENT/GOLKAR) TO BE INVOLVED IN VOTER REGISTRATION, THE CARRYING OUT OF THE ELECTION, AND VOTE COUNTING. IN THIS REGARD, ONE KEY CHANGE WHICH PPP B1

IS SEEKING IS RECEIPT BY PARTY REPRESENTATIVE OF A COPY OF THE FINAL VOTE TALLY IN EACH POLLING STATION -- A CHANGE WHICH COULD MAKE POSSIBLE AN INDEPENDENT TALLY OF VOTES. PPP WAS ALSO SEEKING REFORM OF THE POLITICAL PARTY SYSTEM THAT WOULD ALLOW PPP AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY

8. (C) [redacted] B1 INSISTED THAT THESE WERE REQUIREMENTS FOR PPP'S ENDORSEMENT OF SOEHARTO FOR PRESIDENT, HE MADE CLEAR THAT AT THE END OF THE DAY THERE WAS LITTLE DOUBT THAT PPP WOULD NOMINATE SOEHARTO (COMMENT: PRESUMABLY IF THE PRESIDENT WAS SUFFICIENTLY HEALTHY AND THE REGIME WANTED PPP TO DO SO. END COMMENT.) IN A CLASSIC EXPRESSION OF THE CURRENT PPP NATIONAL LEADERSHIP'S SUBSERVIENCE TO THE GOVERNMENT, HE CANDIDLY SAID "I WILL USE MY FREEDOM UNTIL I'M PRESSURED."

9. (U) A PROMINENT POLITICAL ANALYST FROM THE INDONESIAN INSTITUTE OF SCIENCES (LIPI), INDRIA SAMEGO, PUBLICLY CONCLUDED THAT PPP WAS PLAYING FOR TIME AND PUTTING OFF THE INEVITABLE BY DELAYING ITS ANNOUNCEMENT OF A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. HE WAS QUOTED IN THE PRESS AS SAYING THAT "IT HAS BEEN WIDELY KNOWN THAT PPP WILL RENOMINATE PAK HARTO (SOEHARTO) AS IT DID IN THE PAST, THOUGH SOME MEMBERS DISAGREE WITH THE DECISION." PPP WAS TRYING TO DELAY MAKING A DECISION THAT WOULD BE CONTROVERSIAL AMONG SOME OF ITS MEMBERS, HE CONTENDED. SAMEGO CONCLUDED, MOREOVER, THAT THE PPP LEADERSHIP HAD CALCULATED THAT ONCE IT ANNOUNCED ITS NOMINATION OF SOEHARTO, THE PARTY'S "POPULARITY AND IMAGE" WOULD DECLINE.

[redacted] PREPARING FOR THE MPR'S GENERAL SESSION IN MARCH, EMPHASIZED THAT THE PRESIDENT'S CHILDREN, SITI HARDIYANTI RUKMANA (TUTUT) AND BAMBANG TRIHATMODJO WERE PROVING TO BE VERY ACTIVE MEMBERS IN THE MPR. [redacted] B1
HE OBSERVED THAT SHE WOULD GO STRAIGHT TO HER FATHER TO RESOLVE ISSUES AND GET DECISIONS, AND CLAIMED THAT THIS WAS IN FACT A USEFUL ROLE. HE SAID THAT MEMBERS OF THE RULING PARTY GOLKAR WERE PREPARED TO "DIALOGUE" WITH THE OTHERS THIS YEAR, BUT ALSO CONTENDED THAT KEY POSITIONS IN THE MPR WERE DOMINATED BY THE MILITARY, AS EVEN THE RULING PARTY GOLKAR WAS FIELDING MANY RETIRED OFFICERS.

COMMENT

11. (C) PPP'S DECISION TO POSTPONE THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF ITS PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE HAS BEEN EXPLAINED AS A BID TO GAIN BARGAINING LEVERAGE OR AN ATTEMPT TO MAINTAIN PARTY UNITY BY DELAYING A DECISION THAT COULD BE UNPOPULAR WITH SOME OF ITS MEMBERS. IN EITHER CASE, THE RUMORS ABOUT SOEHARTO'S HEALTH COULD HAVE BEEN A FACTOR THAT PROMPTED AND EMBOLDENED THE PARTY TO POSTPONE THE ANNOUNCEMENT. IT SEEMS CLEAR, HOWEVER, THAT THE NATIONAL PARTY LEADERSHIP WILL IN THE END ENDORSE SOEHARTO IF HE IS PERCEIVED TO BE SUFFICIENTLY HEALTHY, ALTHOUGH FRESH DOUBTS ABOUT HIS HEALTH COULD AGAIN THROW THE DECISION INTO QUESTION. 1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: UNCERTAINTY OVER WHOM WILL BE CHOSEN AS VICE PRESIDENT IN MARCH, ADDED TO THE LACK OF TRANSPARENCY IN THE SELECTION PROCESS AND THE ENORMITY OF WHAT IS POTENTIALLY AT STAKE, GENERATES TREMENDOUS INCENTIVE FOR BACKSTAGE COMPETITION AND POLITICAL INTRIGUE AMONG THE ASPIRING NOMINEES AND THEIR SUPPORTERS. SPECULATION WITHIN THE POLITICAL ESTABLISHMENT ABOUT THE UPCOMING VICE PRESIDENTIAL CHOICE IS MORE INTENSE THAN BEFORE PREVIOUS SESSIONS OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR). DESPITE SOEHARTO'S REFUSAL TO ADDRESS THE SUCCESSION ISSUE OPENLY, IT IS WIDELY ASSUMED THAT THE NEXT VICE PRESIDENT COULD BECOME PRESIDENT IF FOR NO OTHER REASON THAN SOEHARTO'S ADVANCING AGE. CURRENT CONVENTIONAL WISDOM IS THAT SOEHARTO ALONE WILL DECIDE WHO WILL BECOME VICE PRESIDENT, AND THAT HE PROBABLY HAS NOT MADE UP HIS MIND YET. SOEHARTO'S PERCEIVED IRON-TIGHT CONTROL OVER THE VICE PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION THIS TIME AROUND CONTRASTS WITH THE WIDELY HELD BELIEF THAT IN 1993 THE ARMED FORCES JUMPED THE GUN BY ANNOUNCING THEIR CHOICE PREMATURELY, EFFECTIVELY PRESENTING SOEHARTO WITH A FAIT ACCOMPLI.

3. (C) FIVE HIGH-LEVEL GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS ARE REPEATEDLY MENTIONED IN PUBLIC AND PRIVATE AS THE MAIN CONTENDERS FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY: THE INCUMBENT TRY SUTRISNO, MINISTER

OF INFORMATION HARTONO, MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE, STATE PLANNING MINISTER GINANDJAR, AND SPEAKER OF THE PARLIAMENT (DPR) AND PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) HARMOKO. OTHERS ALSO RECEIVE SERIOUS MENTION, INCLUDING ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF WIRANTO, COORDINATING MINISTER OF INDUSTRY AND TRADE HARTARTO, DEFENSE MINISTER SUDRADJAT, AND FORMER VICE PRESIDENT SUDHARMONO. ON THE OTHER HAND, ALL OF THE SUPPOSED FRONT RUNNERS HAVE POTENTIAL FLAWS WHICH COULD PREVENT THEM FROM

GETTING THE NOD IN 1998. ONE INFLUENTIAL ANALYST PUBLICLY REMARKED THAT CIVILIANS WERE NOT READY TO ASSUME NATIONAL LEADERSHIP, REFLECTING A BELIEF THAT THE NEXT VICE PRESIDENT WOULD BE CONNECTED TO THE MILITARY. MOST COMMENTATORS ARE CAREFUL TO POINT OUT THAT A DARK HORSE COULD YET EMERGE. THE PRESIDENT'S ELDEST DAUGHTER, SITI HARDIYANTI RUKMANA, LOOMS OVER THE ENTIRE FIELD. ALTHOUGH FEW ARE WILLING TO PREDICT THAT SHE COULD BE NAMED VICE PRESIDENT IN 1998, THE ESTABLISHMENT SEES HER AS AN ASCENDING POLITICAL FIGURE WHO COULD PLAY A MAJOR LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE FUTURE, AND BELIEVES THAT AT THE LEAST SHE WILL BECOME THE GOLKAR GENERAL CHAIRPERSON IN OCTOBER. END SUMMARY

4. (U) THE FOLLOWING REPORT IS BASED ON POLOFF'S RECENT MEETINGS AND CONVERSATIONS WITH REPRESENTATIVES FROM A BROAD RANGE OF GROUPS, INCLUDING: THE RULING PARTY GOLKAR, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP), THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI), INDONESIA'S TWO LARGEST MASS ISLAMIC ORGANIZATIONS, NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU) AND MUHAMMADIYAH, THE ASSOCIATION OF INDONESIAN MUSLIM INTELLECTUALS (ICMI), ITS THINK TANK, THE CENTER FOR INFORMATION AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES (CIDES), THE MILITARY'S NATIONAL RESILIENCE INSTITUTE (LEMHANNAS), AND THE CENTER FOR STRATEGIC AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES (CSIS).

ASSUMPTIONS WITHIN POLITICAL ESTABLISHMENT ABOUT SUCCESSION

5. (C) GIVEN THE OPAQUE AND MANIPULATIVE NATURE OF THE SOEHARTO REGIME, THE POLITICAL ESTABLISHMENT HAS DIFFICULTY ASSESSING AND REACHING A CONSENSUS ON THE STATE OF POLITICAL PLAY AT ANY GIVEN TIME. SOEHARTO KEEPS THEM GUESSING, WHICH - AS HAS OFTEN BEEN OBSERVED THROUGHOUT THE HISTORY OF THE NEW ORDER - IS A MAJOR SOURCE OF HIS POWER AND CONTROL. THIS UNCERTAINTY IS PARTICULARLY ACUTE NOW IN THE RUN-UP TO THE MARCH SELECTION OF A PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT BY THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR). POLITICAL PLAYERS IN JAKARTA AGREE ON ONLY THE MOST BASIC AND OBVIOUS POINTS. THE CONSENSUS IN MOST

QUARTERS IS THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WILL BE SELECTED FOR A SEVENTH TERM IF HE REMAINS HEALTHY AND IF THAT IS HIS DESIRE, DESPITE HIS RECENT CALL FOR A REAFFIRMATION OF THE PEOPLE'S BELIEF IN HIS LEADERSHIP (REFTEL B).

6. (C) THERE IS EVEN STRONGER AGREEMENT THAT SOEHARTO ALONE WILL DETERMINE WHO WILL BECOME THE NEXT VICE PRESIDENT. FOR EXAMPLE, GOLKAR CENTRAL BOARD MEMBER AND

THAT "ONLY THE PRESIDENT KNOWS WHO WILL BE THE CHOICE,"
AND QUESTIONED WHY "ANY ONE MAN HAD SO MUCH POWER." [redacted] B1
AGREED THAT "EVERYTHING DEPENDS ON SOEHARTO." HAROLD CROUCH, THE WELL-KNOWN AUSTRALIAN ANALYST OF INDONESIAN POLITICAL AND MILITARY AFFAIRS, WAS QUOTED BY THE POLITICAL JOURNAL FORUM KEADILAN AS CONTENDING THAT "EVERYONE IS WAITING FOR PAK HARTO'S (SOEHARTO) DECISION" ON THE VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. SOEHARTO'S DOMINANCE OVER THE VICE PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION PROCESS THIS TIME AROUND IS LARGELY INTERPRETED AS DESIGNED TO PREVENT A REPETITION OF 1993 EVENTS, WHEN IT WAS WIDELY BELIEVED THAT THE ARMED FORCES FACTION AND OTHER POLITICAL PLAYERS PREMATURELY ANNOUNCED THEIR CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT, TRY SUTRISNO, AND THUS EFFECTIVELY PRESENTED SOEHARTO WITH A FAIT ACCOMPLI (REFTEL A).

7. (C) DISCUSSION OF THE VICE PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION SUBSTITUTES FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION DEBATE THAT, AT LEAST IN OFFICIAL CIRCLES, IS NOT PERMITTED TO OCCUR OPENLY. THE ISSUE OF THE VICE PRESIDENCY, AND EVEN ITS CONNECTION TO POSSIBLE PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION, HAS BEEN A HOT TOPIC OF GOSSIP BEFORE PREVIOUS MPR'S. THE QUESTION OF WHO WILL BE VICE PRESIDENT HAS TAKEN ON NEW URGENCY THIS TIME, HOWEVER, AS THE PRESIDENT'S AGE (76) AND TENURE IN OFFICE (30 PLUS YEARS) MAKE THE EXPECTATION THAT HE WILL LEAVE OFFICE SOONER RATHER THAN LATER EVER MORE TANGIBLE. EVEN THOUGH THE PRESIDENT HAS SAID VIRTUALLY

NOTHING ON THE MATTER OF WHO WILL SUCCEED HIM, POLITICAL PLAYERS AND ANALYSTS PRESUME THERE IS A STRONG POSSIBILITY THAT WHOMEVER IS CHOSEN VICE PRESIDENT IN MARCH COULD

SUCCEED SOEHARTO, IF FOR NO OTHER REASON THAN THE CONSTITUTION REQUIRES THAT THE VICE PRESIDENT BECOME PRESIDENT IF THE INCUMBENT DIES OR STEPS DOWN DURING HIS TERM (NOTE: ALTHOUGH THERE IS AN INFLUENTIAL INTERPRETATION THAT ASSERTS THAT THE MPR WOULD STILL HAVE TO MEET TO GIVE ITS MANDATE TO THE NEW PRESIDENT, REFTEL I. END NOTE).

8. (C) IT IS POSSIBLE THAT SOEHARTO WANTS TO SEE HOW THE VARIOUS POTENTIAL CANDIDATES BEHAVE OVER THE NEXT SEVERAL MONTHS, AND WILL CHOOSE THE ONE MOST ADVANTAGEOUS TO HIS POLITICAL POSITION. [redacted] B1 RECENTLY CONTENDED TO POLOFF THAT SOEHARTO PROBABLY HAD NOT DECIDED YET WHOM HE WANTED FOR VICE PRESIDENT. THIS UNCERTAINTY OVER WHOM WILL BE CHOSEN, ADDED TO THE LACK OF TRANSPARENCY IN THE SELECTION PROCESS AND THE ENORMITY OF WHAT IS POTENTIALLY AT STAKE, BREEDS TREMENDOUS INCENTIVE FOR BACKSTAGE COMPETITION AMONG THE POTENTIAL NOMINEES AND THEIR SUPPORTERS, AND AMPLE GROUNDS FOR SUSPICIONS OF POLITICAL INTRIGUE. ACCORDING TO THIS INTERPRETATION, THE CONTENDERS ARE ATTEMPTING TO BE SELECTED FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY BY COMPETING FOR SOEHARTO'S FAVOR WHILE AT THE SAME TIME TAKING ACTIONS TO DISCREDIT THEIR OPPONENTS.

9. (C) FOR EXAMPLE, POLITICAL PLAYERS AND ANALYSTS FROM ACROSS THE SPECTRUM HAVE REPEATEDLY CHARGED THAT THE WAVE OF RIOTS IN INDONESIA OVER THE PAST 18 MONTHS HAS BEEN CAUSED, OR AT LEAST EXPLOITED, BY "THIRD PARTIES" OR ELITES COMPETING OVER THE VICE PRESIDENCY AND FUTURE LEADERSHIP. THESE THEORIES ARE MOST OFTEN ASSOCIATED WITH

HARTONO, HABIBIE, AND ICMI. DESPITE THE DEARTH OF SUPPORTING EVIDENCE, THE PERSISTENCE OF THIS ARGUMENT INEVITABLY COLORS PERCEPTIONS OF ACTUAL MANEUVERING. MOST RECENTLY, ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, THE LEADER OF NU AND A LONGTIME CRITIC OF ICMI, REFERRED TO POLITICAL CONSPIRACIES AND WAS QUOTED IN THE JAKARTA POST ON OCTOBER 7 AS SAYING THAT IN THE RUN-UP TO THE MPR "THERE WILL BE CERTAIN PRESSURE GROUPS WAGING A CAMPAIGN FOR THEIR OWN VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES." HE STATED FURTHER THAT "I'M NOT SURE THAT THE PEOPLE'S VIOLENT ACTIONS IN THE RIOTS IN THE PAST WERE SPONTANEOUS. I BELIEVE THEY WERE PROVOKED."

10. (C) WAHID, ON THE SAME DAY, WAS QUOTED IN THE INDONESIAN LANGUAGE DAILY KOMPAS AS SAYING THAT NU WOULD USE "MASS ACTIONS" TO STOP ANY "UNCONSTITUTIONAL STEPS" IN ADVANCE OF THE MPR. HE FEARED THAT VARIOUS GROUPS WERE SEEKING TO FORCE THEIR CANDIDATES ON THE PRESIDENT AND WOULD ATTEMPT TO PRESENT HIM WITH A "FAIT ACCOMPLI." (NOTE: THIS IS THE SAME TERMINOLOGY THAT IS USED BY LOCAL ANALYSTS TO REFER TO THE VICE PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION IN 1993. END NOTE.) ONE [redacted] EXPLAINED TO B1
POLOFF THAT THE CONTESTANTS WERE COMPETING TO GET THE NOD FROM SOEHARTO AND THAT WAHID MEANT THAT SOMEONE MIGHT

THE PLAYING FIELD AND PLAYERS

11. (C) MANY OF INDONESIA'S TOP SITTING GOVERNMENT AND

MILITARY OFFICIALS HAVE BEEN OPENLY DISCUSSED AS POTENTIAL VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES OVER THE PAST YEAR. A GROUP OF FIVE HAS CONSISTENTLY BEEN MENTIONED IN THE PRESS FOR MANY MONTHS, AND IT INCLUDES SITTING VICE PRESIDENT TRY SUTRISNO, MINISTER OR RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE, INFORMATION MINISTER HARTONO, STATE PLANNING MINISTER GINANDJAR, AND PARLIAMENT SPEAKER HARMOKO. THIS SAME GROUP IS REFERRED TO IN MANY PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS, THOUGH AS OF LATE HARMOKO IS OFTEN DISMISSED OUT OF HAND, WHILE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF WIRANTO, COORDINATING MINISTER FOR INDUSTRY AND TRADE HARTARTO AND DEFENSE MINISTER SUDRADJAT RECEIVE MORE SERIOUS MENTION (NOTE: THOUGH NEITHER WIRANTO, RUMORED TO BE IN LINE FOR COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES, NOR HARTARTO RECEIVE MUCH, IF ANY, PUBLIC ATTENTION AS POTENTIAL CANDIDATES. END NOTE)

12. (C) MANY ANALYSTS ARE CAREFUL TO NOTE THAT THE SELECTION COULD ALWAYS TURN OUT TO BE A DARK HORSE AS HAS HAPPENED IN THE PAST. THE PRESS OFTEN ADDS A SECOND TIER OF GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS AND MILITARY OFFICERS AS POSSIBILITIES TO THE GROUP MENTIONED ABOVE, INCLUDING ARMED FORCES COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF FEISAL TANJUNG AND STATE MINISTER MOERDIONO. FORMER VICE PRESIDENT SUDHARMONO AND SPECIAL FORCES COMMANDER MAJOR GENERAL PRABOWO ARE SOMETIMES MENTIONED AS WELL IN PRIVATE CONVERSATIONS AS POSSIBLE CONTENDERS.

13. (C) OPINIONS DIVERGE WIDELY OVER WHO HAS THE BEST CHANCE TO BE TAPPED. IN MANY CASES, NOT SURPRISINGLY, THE CANDIDATE PROMOTED DEPENDS ON THE POLITICAL AFFILIATION OF THE COMMENTATOR. IN RECENT CONVERSATIONS WITH POLOFF, [redacted] B1
[redacted] THOUGHT THAT SUTRISNO MIGHT BE RETAINED, [redacted] B1
NAMED GINANDJAR AS A STRONG CANDIDATE WHO COULD POSSIBLY EMERGE AS A COMPROMISE CHOICE BETWEEN THE MILITARY AND CIVILIANS. [redacted] B1
[redacted] OFFERED SUTRISNO, SUDHARMONO, AND SUPREME ADVISORY BOARD (DPA) CHAIRMAN SUDOMO AS THE THREE STRONGEST CANDIDATES. [redacted] B1
WAS CONFIDENT THAT HABIBIE WAS IN LINE FOR THE POSITION, AND

MILITARY AND POLITICAL ANALYST, [redacted] THOUGHT B1
THAT WIRANTO MIGHT HAVE A GOOD SHOT. [redacted] B1
[redacted] TOLD POLCOUNS AND POLOFF THAT THE RACE WAS BETWEEN HARTONO AND HABIBIE. AN NU STUDENT LEADER TOLD POLOFF THAT THE ONLY TWO FIGURES WHO COULD BE ACCEPTED BY ALL SIDES WERE SUTRISNO OR SUDRADJAT.

RISE OF SOEHARTO'S DAUGHTER: "FUTURE LEADERSHIP FIGURE"

14. (C) LOOMING OVER THIS FIELD OF OFT MENTIONED VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES IS THE PRESIDENT'S ELDEST DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI RUKMANA (TUTUT). WITH THE BACKING OF HER FATHER, SHE HAS BECOME ONE OF THE WEALTHIEST PEOPLE IN THE COUNTRY AND A POLITICAL OPERATOR IN HER OWN RIGHT AS ONE OF THE EIGHT CHAIRPERSONS OF THE GOLKAR CENTRAL BOARD. THOUGH SHE NOW FIGURES PROMINENTLY IN MANY CURRENT

PROJECTIONS OF THE FUTURE POLITICAL PICTURE, FEW ARE WILLING TO GO AS FAR AS TO SAY THAT SHE COULD BE NOMINATED AS VICE PRESIDENT IN 1998. [redacted] TOLD THE B1
AMBASSADOR, HOWEVER, THAT HE THOUGHT THE PROBABILITY WAS HIGH (REFTEL C), AND [redacted] TOLD POLOFF THAT SHE B1
COULD BE A DARK HORSE. ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, THE LEADER OF NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU), PROVIDED HER A PLATFORM TO REACH OUT TO THE NU MASSES IN THE RUN-UP TO THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, OPENLY CALLING HER A "FUTURE LEADERSHIP FIGURE." IN JUNE WAHID OUTLINED SEVERAL SCENARIOS TO EMBOFFS IN WHICH SHE COULD ASSUME LEADERSHIP OF THE COUNTRY WITHIN THE NEXT FIVE YEARS (REFTEL G). [redacted] B1
[redacted] TOLD AMBASSADOR ROY THERE WAS A STRONG CHANCE THAT TUTUT WOULD BE SELECTED, [redacted] B1

15. (C) CURRENT CONVENTIONAL WISDOM IS THAT TUTUT WILL BE ELECTED AS THE NEXT GENERAL CHAIRPERSON OF GOLKAR IN OCTOBER 1998, REPLACING HARMOKO. A WIDE RANGE OF SOURCES HAVE COMMENTED TO POLOFF THAT TUTUT SEEMS TO STAND IN A CATEGORY BY HERSELF, APART FROM THIS FIELD OF VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES. [redacted] B1

TO POLOFF THAT WHILE INDONESIANS WERE ACCUSTOMED TO "BAPAK-ISM," (GENERAL TITLE OF RESPECT, DERIVING FROM INDONESIAN WORD FOR "FATHER"), THEY WERE NOW MOVING TOWARD THE ERA OF "MBAK-ISM" (GENERAL TITLE OF RESPECT DERIVED FROM "OLDER SISTER," MEANING TUTUT). FORMER [redacted] B1
[redacted] TOLD POLOFF THAT TUTUT'S INFLUENCE WAS ALREADY HEAVILY FELT IN THE JOCKEYING OVER THE NEXT CABINET. [redacted] B1
[redacted] TOLD POLCOUNS AND POLOFF THAT TUTUT WAS "GAINING MORE AND MORE POLITICAL INFLUENCE." (NOTE: IT HAS BEEN SAID THAT [redacted] ON HIS NEW POSITION WITH THE BACKING OF TUTUT. END NOTE.) SOURCES HAVE REPORTED TO THE EMBASSY THAT PRESENT CABINET MEMBERS HAVE BEEN PAYING CALLS ON TUTUT AT HOME, AND THAT IT IS NOW HER NAME, NOT HARMOKO'S, THAT CARRIES WEIGHT AT MEETINGS OF GOLKAR POLITICOS. B1

16. (C) AS POLITICAL PLAYERS AND ANALYSTS THEORIZE ABOUT FUTURE SUCCESSION SCENARIOS, THEY RECOGNIZE THAT SOEHARTO SEEK A WAY TO PROTECT HIMSELF AND HIS FAMILY FROM RETRIBUTION. FOR EXAMPLE, [redacted] B1
[redacted] THEORIZED TO POLOFF THAT THE PRESIDENT WAS SEEKING AN EQUATION THAT WOULD ALLOW HIM TO STEP DOWN, AVOID THE "SOUTH KOREA" SCENARIO, AND PROTECT HIS FAMILY AND ITS ENORMOUS WEALTH. HE INTERPRETED THE PRESIDENT'S AUGUST REQUEST FOR THE REINSTITUTION OF AN MPR DECREE GIVING HIM EXTRAORDINARY, EXTRA-CONSTITUTIONAL POWERS WITHIN THIS CONTEXT. (NOTE: THE DECREE HAD BEEN IN FORCE FROM 1966 TO 1993 WHEN IT WAS PERMITTED TO LAPSE. END

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

NOTE.) [redacted] ADVANCED THE THEORY THAT SOEHARTO COULD TAKE THESE EXTRAORDINARY POWERS AND SOMEHOW ENABLE TUTUT TO USE THEM TO BOLSTER THE FAMILY'S POSITION WHEN SOEHARTO HAD STEPPED DOWN. SHE WOULD NOT BE NAMED VICE PRESIDENT OR PRESIDENT, BECAUSE THAT WOULD BE TOO BLATANTLY "NEPOTISTIC," SAID [redacted] HE THOUGHT THAT A CANDIDATE SUCH AS ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF WIRANTO MIGHT BECOME THE SUCCESSOR, IMPLYING THAT WIRANTO WOULD BE ABLE TO PROTECT THE FAMILY'S INTERESTS. HE SPECULATED THAT THIS COULD OCCUR AS EARLY AS 1999. B1 B1

THE "RED AND WHITE CANDIDATE": INCUMBENT TRY SUTRISNO

17. (C) [redacted] CONTENDED TO POLOFF THAT THE "RED AND WHITE" OFFICERS (NATIONALIST, OFTEN CONTRASTED WITH THE ISLAMIC, SANTRI OR "GREEN" GENERALS SUCH AS FEISAL TANJUNG), A GROUP WITHIN WHICH HE INCLUDED ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF GENERAL WIRANTO, ARMED FORCES CHIEF OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS LT. GENERAL YUNUS YOSFIAH, AND YOSFIAH'S ASSISTANT MAJ. GENERAL BAMBANG YUDHOYONO, WANTED ONE OF THEIR OWN AS VICE PRESIDENT. B1

[redacted] ACCORDING TO [redacted] THESE "RED AND WHITE" OFFICERS LIKED TRY SUTRISNO (NOTE: WHO IS BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN BACKED BY BENNY MOERDANI IN 1993. END NOTE) AND MINISTER OF DEFENSE EDI SUDRADJAT. HOWEVER, THEY KNEW THAT SOEHARTO DID NOT LIKE SUDRADJAT, SO HE WAS A LESS REALISTIC POSSIBILITY. B1

18. (C) [redacted] B1

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

[redacted] RECENTLY TOLD POLOFF THAT SUTRISNO STILL HAD STRONG SUPPORT WITHIN NU AND WAS CONSIDERED A "GOOD B1

MUSLIM" IN NU'S SENSE OF THE TERM. [redacted] ALSO POINTED B1
OUT THAT SUTRISNO'S SELF-EFFACING BEHAVIOR WHEN ACCOMPANYING THE PRESIDENT IN PUBLIC WAS A STRONG FACTOR IN HIS FAVOR. FOR EXAMPLE, SUTRISNO SELDOM WAVED TO CITIZENS WHEN APPEARING WITH SOEHARTO. ACCORDING TO [redacted] SOEHARTO DISTRUSTED ANYONE WHO APPEARED TO BE B1
OVERLY AMBITIOUS, AS HE ALWAYS SUSPECTED THAT SUCH AMBITIONS COULD BE DIRECTED AGAINST HIM.

19. (C) THE USUAL ARGUMENT MADE AGAINST SUTRISNO REMAINING IN HIS JOB IS THAT THIS WOULD VIOLATE THE TRADITION OF THE NEW ORDER IN WHICH VICE PRESIDENTS HAVE NOT SERVED MORE THAN ONE TERM (THOUGH SRI SULTAN HAMENGKUBUWONO X WAS OFFERED AND DECLINED A SECOND TERM). A MORE SERIOUS OBSTACLE, HOWEVER, COULD BE PRECISELY THE SUPPORT THAT MOERDANI, THE FORMER ARMED FORCES COMMANDER AND DEFENSE MINISTER, WAS SUPPOSED TO HAVE GIVEN SUTRISNO IN 1993. MOERDANI WAS WIDELY BELIEVED TO HAVE PLAYED A CENTRAL ROLE IN PROMPTING THE ABRI FACTION TO ANNOUNCE PUBLICLY THAT SUTRISNO WAS ITS CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT BEFORE THE 1993 MPR, THEREBY PRESENTING THE PRESIDENT WITH A FAIT ACCOMPLI ON THE VICE PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION.

20. (C) MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE'S SUPPORTERS, THE CORE OF WHOM ARE MEMBERS OF THE ASSOCIATION OF INDONESIAN MUSLIM INTELLECTUALS (ICMI) WHICH HE LEADS, POINT TO HIS CLOSE RELATIONSHIP TO THE PRESIDENT, AND HIS POSITION WITHIN THE MUSLIM COMMUNITY, AS REASONS WHY HE WILL BE CHOSEN AS VICE PRESIDENT. ONE [redacted] B1 /ARGUED TO POLOFF RECENTLY THAT HABIBIE WAS STILL THE "CLOSEST MAN TO THE PRESIDENT" AND THAT THERE WAS "ALMOST A MYSTICAL CONNECTION" BETWEEN THE TWO MEN.

21. (C) [redacted] ADDED THAT HABIBIE'S LOYALTY TO THE PRESIDENT MEANT THAT THE MINISTER WAS "THE LEAST DANGEROUS" PERSON IN THE MUSLIM COMMUNITY FROM SOEHARTO'S STANDPOINT. BECAUSE OF THIS LOYALTY, [redacted] CONTENDED, SOEHARTO KNEW THAT HABIBIE WOULD NOT MOBILIZE MUSLIMS AGAINST HIM. HE CLAIMED THAT SOEHARTO, RECALLING THE ROLE THAT GROUPS LIKE THE INDONESIAN MUSLIM STUDENT ASSOCIATION (HMI) HAD PLAYED IN PRESSURING SUKARNO OUT OF POWER IN 1966-67, RECOGNIZED THE POTENTIAL DANGER OF THE ISLAMIC COMMUNITY TO HIM AND THUS NEEDED SOMEONE TO CONTROL IT.

22. (C) AS CONCRETE PROOF THAT HABIBIE WAS ON THE RISE, [redacted] SAID THAT SOEHARTO WANTED "NO CONTACT WITH THE FACTION LEADERS AT THE MPR" AND INSTEAD WOULD HANDLE EVERYTHING THROUGH HABIBIE, [redacted] HE ARGUED THAT HABIBIE WAS THE FUTURE LEADER WHO COULD CARRY OUT DEMOCRATIZATION IN INDONESIA, BUT THAT HE COULD ONLY

ATTAIN POWER THROUGH SOEHARTO. HE DISAGREED WITH HIS "FRIEND" AMIEN RAIS ABOUT THE TIMING OF SUCCESSION, BELIEVING THAT IF IT HAPPENED TOO QUICKLY, SUCH AS IN 1998 AS CALLED FOR BY RAIS, THE MILITARY WOULD FORCEFULLY OBJECT. (DATT NOTE: THE MILITARY WOULD DEFINITELY NOT LIKE TO SEE HABIBIE AS VICE PRESIDENT IN 1998, BUT WOULD ACCEPT IT IF SOEHARTO PICKED HIM.)

23. (C) HABIBIE'S DETRACTORS HAVE POINTED OUT THAT HE IS DISLIKED BY MANY IN THE ARMED FORCES AND IS NOT JAVANESE. MORE SPECIFICALLY, HABIBIE IS THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN POLITICALLY DAMAGED BY PROBLEMS WITH HIS AIRPLANE COMPANY IPTN, MOST RECENTLY A STRIKE BY HIS COMPANY'S WORKERS IN BANDUNG AND SURABAYA, BY HIS FAILURE TO CARRY THE DAY WITH HIS PLANS FOR NUCLEAR ENERGY IN INDONESIA, AND BY THE PRESIDENT'S ANGER OVER THE CRITICAL POSTURE TAKEN BY SOME OF HABIBIE'S UNDERLINGS IN ICMI SUCH AS AMIEN RAIS, ADI SASONO, AND DAWAM RAHARDJO. ADDITIONALLY, MINISTER OF INFORMATION HARTONO'S MUCH PUBLICIZED ENTRY INTO ICMI WAS INTERPRETED BY SOME AS AN INCURSION INTO HABIBIE'S POLITICAL TURF, AND FURTHER EVIDENCE THAT ALL WAS NOT WELL BETWEEN HABIBIE AND THE PALACE.

24. (C) HABIBIE'S ICMI SUPPORTERS POINT TO HIS CLOSE CONNECTION TO SO-CALLED ISLAMIC OR "GREEN GENERALS" IN THE ARMED FORCES LEADERSHIP, SUCH AS WITH FEISAL TANJUNG AND SYARWAN HAMID, AS EVIDENCE THAT HE CAN PREVAIL WITHIN THE MILITARY. OTHERS, HOWEVER, SUCH AS [redacted] B1 ACKNOWLEDGE HABIBIE'S ALLIANCE WITH TANJUNG, BUT ARGUE IT IS NOT ENOUGH "AS THE REST OF THE MILITARY DOES NOT FEEL THE SAME WAY." (COMMENT: IN ADDITION, IT IS RUMORED THAT

CONFIDENTIAL

TANJUNG COULD BE REPLACED BEFORE THE MPR BY ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF WIRANTO. SYARWAN HAMID IS NOW THE ABRI FACTION LEADER IN THE MPR AND OUT OF DAY-TO-DAY ARMY POLITICS. EVEN TANJUNG HAS NOT PUBLICLY SUPPORTED HABIBIE. END COMMENT.) IT IS ALSO ARGUED THAT ICMI'S CLOUT WITH THE PRESIDENT IS ON THE WANE BECAUSE THE ORGANIZATION HAS ALREADY SERVED ITS INTENDED POLITICAL PURPOSE OF SHOWING THE ARMED FORCES THAT SOEHARTO COULD TURN TO OTHER POLITICAL ALLIES.

TUTUT'S CANDIDATE?: HARTONO

25. (C) HARTONO'S MAIN POLITICAL STRENGTH IS HIS CLOSE RELATIONSHIP WITH TUTUT. HE HAS BEEN GIVEN AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE MPR AS THE CHAIRMAN OF THE COMMITTEE FORMULATING THAT "BROAD OUTLINES OF NATIONAL POLICY" (REFTEL A). TELEVISION NEWS COVERAGE OF THE SESSIONS OF THE MPR'S WORKING COMMITTEE SHOWS HIM SEATED IN THE FRONT ROW NEXT TO TUTUT. AFTER HIS RETIREMENT FROM THE ARMY THIS YEAR, HE EMERGED FORCEFULLY AS THE NEW MINISTER OF INFORMATION, REPLACING THE HUMILIATED HARMOKO (REFTEL H). HE MADE HEADLINES AGAIN IN AUGUST WHEN HE BECAME A MEMBER OF ICMI, IN AN APPARENT REBUKE TO THE EXISTING ICMI LEADERSHIP, ESPECIALLY HABIBIE (REFTEL F). WHILE HIS RELATIONSHIP WITH TUTUT IS A FORMIDABLE ASSET IN THE PRESENT POLITICAL PICTURE, IT IS FAR FROM CLEAR WHETHER IT

WOULD BE ENOUGH TO PROPEL HIM ALL THE WAY TO THE VICE PRESIDENCY. HARTONO IS INTENSELY AMBITIOUS AND ACCORDING

CONFIDENTIAL

TO MANY ACTIVE AND RETIRED GENERALS HE COVETS THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

26. (C) WITH THE NOTABLE EXCEPTION OF TUTUT, CONTENDED [redacted] HARTONO'S ACTIVE ELITE CIVILIAN SUPPORT WAS LIMITED TO THE CENTER FOR POLICY AND DEVELOPMENT STUDIES (CPDS), RUN BY UP-AND-COMING GOLKAR OPERATIVES AMIR SANTOSO AND DIN SYAMSUDDIN. [redacted] IN DESCRIBING HARTONO'S FUTURE TO POLOFF IN AUGUST, FELT MORE COMFORTABLE WITH THE CONVENTIONAL WISDOM THAT HARTONO WAS IN LINE TO ASSUME THE POWERFUL JOB OF HOME AFFAIRS MINISTER, AND WAS ONLY WILLING TO INCLUDE HARTONO AS A "DARK HORSE" CANDIDATE FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY. B1 B1

27. (C) WHILE CONSIDERED TO BE ONE OF THE ISLAMIC OR "GREEN" GENERALS (HE IS NOW RETIRED), HARTONO DOES NOT APPEAR TO ENJOY STRONG SUPPORT FROM EITHER THE ISLAMIC ACTIVIST COMMUNITY AND EVEN LESS WITHIN THE MILITARY. HE TRIGGERS A STRONG RESPONSE FROM A RANGE OF COMMENTATORS, AND SOME HAVE GONE AS FAR AS TO ALLEGE THAT HE WAS THE "MASTERMIND" BEHIND SOME OF THE UNREST THAT HAS OCCURRED IN INDONESIA OVER THE PAST EIGHTEEN MONTHS, INCLUDING IN SITUBONDO. HE MAKES CHRISTIANS NERVOUS, AS THEY WORRY THAT HE WOULD BRING MORE ISLAM INTO POLITICS. [redacted] TOLD POLOFF THAT HARTONO COULD NOT BE CONSIDERED AS A CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT BECAUSE HE SIMPLY "WAS NOT APPROPRIATE." SOME SOURCES HAVE INFORMED AMBASSADOR ROY THAT HARTONO IS NO LONGER IN THE RUNNING FOR VICE PRESIDENT, AND THAT HE WILL BE SELECTED AS HOME AFFAIRS MINISTER. B1

THE OTHERS
---

28. (C) GIVEN HIS LEADERSHIP OF RULING PARTY GOLKAR, AND HIS SUCCESS IN SECURING ITS BIGGEST WIN EVER IN THE MAY PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, IT HAD BEEN WIDELY EXPECTED THAT HARMOKO WAS IN THE RUNNING FOR VICE PRESIDENT. HIS FORTUNES, HOWEVER, TOOK A PRECIPITOUS TUMBLE AFTER THE ELECTION, AND MOST COMMENTATORS NOW PRIVATELY DISMISS HIM AS A POTENTIAL CANDIDATE, THOUGH HIS NAME STILL APPEARS REGULARLY IN THE PRESS AS A CONTENDER. THIS LONG-SERVING INFORMATION MINISTER AND SOEHARTO LOYALIST WAS HUMILIATED IN JUNE WHEN SOEHARTO SUDDENLY REMOVED HIM FROM HIS POST AND PLACED HIM INTO A HASTILY CREATED JOB OF MINISTER OF SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS. ALTHOUGH HE WAS ELECTED TO THE PRESTIGIOUS, IF LARGELY POWERLESS, POST OF MPR/DPR SPEAKER IN OCTOBER, HE FACED SOME ROUGH SPOTS ALONG THE WAY AS THERE WAS CONSIDERABLE PUBLIC SPECULATION THAT THE ARMED FORCES WOULD RUN ITS NEW DPR LEADER, LT. GENERAL SYARWAN HAMID, AGAINST HIM.

29. (C) NUMEROUS EXPLANATIONS ARE OFFERED FOR HARMOKO'S SLIDE. [redacted] TOLD THE EMBASSY IN JUNE THAT HARMOKO WAS SEEN BY THE PALACE TO HAVE BECOME TOO CONFIDENT AND AMBITIOUS FOLLOWING THE BIG GOLKAR WIN, AND THAT HE HAD BEEN CUT DOWN TO SIZE. OTHERS POINT TO THE PRESIDENT'S DISPLEASURE WITH THE ORIGINALLY-PASSED BROADCAST BILL THAT HARMOKO HAD OVERSEEN AS MINISTER OF INFORMATION. THE PRESIDENT REFUSED TO ACCEPT IT, AND IN AN UNPRECEDENTED AND POSSIBLY UNCONSTITUTIONAL MOVE, SENT IT BACK TO PARLIAMENT TO BE AMENDED AND RE-APPROVED, A TASK HARTONO WAS ONLY TOO WILLING TO COORDINATE. B1

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

30. (C) THE MOST PERSUASIVE EXPLANATION, HOWEVER, FOR HARMOKO'S DECLINING FORTUNES LIES IN THE RIFT THAT MANY HAVE REFERRED TO BETWEEN HARMOKO AND TUTUT. FOR EXAMPLE, [redacted] SPECULATED THAT HIS OWN PROBLEMS WITH THE GOVERNMENT WERE PARTLY A RESULT OF THE PERCEPTION THAT HE WAS PART OF THE "HARMOKO GROUP" IN GOLKAR, AND THUS TUTUT AND HER ALLIES HAD MOVED AGAINST [redacted] B1 B1

[redacted] EXPLAINED THAT TUTUT, IN A RARE INSTANCE WHEN SHE DID NOT PREVAIL IN A POLITICAL MANEUVER, UNSUCCESSFULLY ATTEMPTED TO BLOCK HARMOKO'S ELECTION AS DPR/MPR SPEAKER. [redacted] ONE OF THE NEW GROUP OF 25 EXPERT STAFF THAT HARMOKO BROUGHT INTO THE PARLIAMENT TO ADVISE GOLKAR ON SUBSTANTIVE ISSUES, TOLD POLOFF THAT HARMOKO WAS A LAME DUCK AS GOLKAR GENERAL CHAIRMAN. B1 B1

31. (C) [redacted] SPECULATED TO POLOFF THAT GINANDJAR KARTASASMITA, THE STATE MINISTER FOR PLANNING, COULD EMERGE AS A COMPROMISE CANDIDATE BETWEEN THE MILITARY AND CIVILIANS. GINANDJAR IS A RETIRED AIR VICE MARSHALL, BUT HAS BEEN CLOSELY IDENTIFIED WITH THE CIVILIAN SECTOR THROUGHOUT HIS CAREER. HE WAS A PROTEGE OF SUDHARMONO, THE FORMER GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF GOLKAR AND B1

WHEN PRESIDENT SOEHARTO LEAVES THE SCENE. THE GROUP UNDER ARMED FORCES DEPUTY CHIEF AND DEPUTY OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS (SOSPOL) BAMBANG YUDHOYONO WILL EXAMINE HOW TO DEAL WITH PRESS FREEDOM, CORRUPTION, NEPOTISM, AND ENHANCING THE POWER OF THE LEGISLATURE. WIRANTO SHOULD BECOME INDONESIA'S MILITARY COMMANDER NEXT YEAR. [redacted] SAW YUDHOYONO AND BRIG GEN SHAMSUL MU'ARIF, BRAWIJAYA, MILITARY REGION CHIEF OF STAFF, AS THE TWO MOST PROMISING MILITARY THINKERS. HE THOUGHT LESS OF MAJ GEN PRABOWO SUBIANTO. [redacted] VIEW, SOEHARTO'S NEXT VICE PRESIDENT WOULD BE AS POWERLESS AS HIS PREDECESSORS. [redacted] SAW A LARGE SCALE TURNOVER IN THE CABINET AFTER SOEHARTO'S ELECTION IN MARCH. [redacted] SAID THAT MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI HAD LITTLE POTENTIAL FOR LEADERSHIP. HE BELIEVED THAT ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, LEADER OF THE NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU), HAD LOST GROUND SINCE THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION CAMPAIGN LAST MAY. END SUMMARY. B1 B1 B1 B1

3. (C) [redacted] MET WITH THE AMBASSADOR AND CG [redacted] NOVEMBER 2. [redacted] IS KNOWN AS AN INTELLECTUAL CLOSE TO NATIONAL MILITARY, ISLAMIC, AND POLITICAL CIRCLES. HE TALKED ABOUT THE PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION AND A WIDE RANGE OF OTHER POLITICAL ISSUES. B1 B1

4. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THE CHIEF CONCERN AMONG MILITARY CIRCLES WAS HOW THE POLITICAL AND GOVERNMENTAL STRUCTURE OF INDONESIA SHOULD CHANGE AFTER PRESIDENT SOEHARTO LEAVES THE SCENE. ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF GENERAL WIRANTO HAD RECENTLY DECIDED TO FORM AN INFORMAL, UNPUBLICIZED BRAIN TRUST, UNDER DEPUTY SOSPOL MAJ GEN BAMBANG YUDHOYONO, TO FOCUS ON THE SUBJECT. BAMBANG [redacted] DR. RASYID (OF THE INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION IN JAKARTA), AND A YET-TO-BE-DETERMINED ECONOMIST FROM GADJAH MADA WOULD MAKE UP THE B1 B1

GROUP. [redacted] WHEN WIRANTO HAD MET [redacted] TO DISCUSS FORMING THIS GROUP, THE GENERAL HAD INDICATED HE HAD THE AUTHORITY TO PLAN (AND ULTIMATELY EXECUTE) NECESSARY CHANGES DURING A TRANSITION AND SUCCESSION. B1

5. (C) WIRANTO'S GROUP [redacted] WOULD WORK ON THE CENTRAL ISSUES THAT HAD TO BE ADDRESSED IN THE SUCCESSION PERIOD. ITS MEMBERS WOULD LOOK AT HOW TO RELAX PRESS CONTROLS. WHILE THE STUDY COULD NOT RECOMMEND A TOTALLY UNFETTERED MEDIA, THE PRESS SHOULD B1

HAVE CONSIDERABLY MORE LEEWAY THAN IT NOW ENJOYS. BANNING THE PRESS WOULD BE ELIMINATED. THE GROUP WOULD EXPLORE HOW TO DEAL WITH CORRUPTION AND NEPOTISM IN GOVERNMENT. (AT THIS POINT, [redacted] B1 WRYLY POINTED OUT THE INTRACTABLE DIFFICULTY OF NEPOTISM SINCE WIRANTO HIMSELF HAD TWO FAMILY MEMBERS IN THE CURRENT MPR WHICH WOULD BE ELECTING THE PRESIDENT NEXT SPRING.) AS TO THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCH, WAYS HAD TO BE DEVISED TO GIVE LEGISLATORS MORE POWER. ANOTHER ISSUE WAS HOW TO PROTECT INDONESIA'S CITIZENS OF CHINESE DESCENT FROM DISCRIMINATION. WITH SO MANY OF THEM SMALL SHOPKEEPERS, THEY WERE ALWAYS THE FIRST TARGETS DURING CIVIL UNREST. THEY WERE PAYING FOR THE EXCESSES OF A HANDFUL OF SUPER-RICH CLOSE TO POWER. THERE MUST BE A MEANS TO STOP THIS. WHEN ASKED, [redacted] SAID THAT PRESIDENTIAL TERM LIMITS WOULD NOT BE ON THE B1 FORMAL AGENDA. NONETHELESS, PRESIDENTIAL TERM LIMITS WOULD LIKELY BECOME THE PRACTICE IN FUTURE GOVERNMENTS.

6. (C) LATER IN THE CONVERSATION, [redacted] EXPANDED ON CHANGES IN THE B1 LEGISLATIVE ROLE. HE THOUGHT THAT THE DPR REPRESENTATION SHOULD REMAIN AS IT WAS. MEMBERS OF THE MPR, HOWEVER, SHOULD BE DISTRICT-BASED. THIS WAS ONE IDEA HE WOULD BE DISCUSSING AT A SEMINAR FOR DIVISION COMMANDERS AND OTHER MILITARY LEADERS THAT WOULD SHORTLY BE HELD IN BANDUNG.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

7. (C) [redacted] BELIEVED THE NEXT VICE PRESIDENT WOULD BE JUST AS B1 POWERLESS AS HIS PREDECESSORS. A SOEHARTO VICE PRESIDENT WOULD NEVER HAVE VIABILITY, HE SAID, SINCE THIS WOULD MEAN THAT THE PRESIDENT HAD GIVEN AWAY SOME OF HIS POWER--WHICH HE WOULD NOT DO. SUCCESSION/TRANSITION THUS BECAME THAT MUCH MORE DIFFICULT TO MANAGE.

8. (C) WHEN ASKED HOW REFORMS COMING OUT OF THIS GROUP WOULD ACTUALLY BE ADOPTED, [redacted] REPLIED THAT WIRANTO WOULD HAVE THE POWER B1 TO MAKE THEM HAPPEN. HE WOULD BECOME ABRI COMMANDER, REPLACING GENERAL FEISAL TANJUNG, IN APRIL OF NEXT YEAR, JUST AFTER THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, [redacted] PREDICTED. (TANJUNG MIGHT BECOME B1 MINISTER OF DEFENSE.) IF, AS SOME THOUGHT, WIRANTO BECAME COMMANDER IN DECEMBER, IT COULD WELL MEAN THAT HE WOULD BECOME THE NEXT VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE. AS ABRI COMMANDER, [redacted] SAID, B1 WIRANTO'S VIEWS WOULD BECOME THE MILITARY POSITION.

9. (C) [redacted] HE DESCRIBED MAJ GEN BAMBANG AS B1
THE MOST INTELLECTUAL LEADER WITHIN THE SENIOR INDONESIAN MILITARY.
BAMBANG COULD DEAL WITH THE TASK OF ADAPTING THE INDONESIAN MILITARY ROLE TO THE POST-SOEHARTO ERA AND BEGIN A DEMOCRATIZATION PROCESS.
HE DID NOT FIT THE MOLD OF TRADITIONAL INDONESIAN MILITARY THINKING

WHICH WAS AT ODDS WITH GREATER CIVILIAN PARTICIPATION IN POLITICS. (COMMENT. [redacted] TOLD US OVER A YEAR AGO THAT BAMBANG HAD LONG BEEN B1 VOICING CONCERN OVER THE COMPLETE LACK OF PLANNING WITHIN THE MILITARY AND THE GOVERNMENT OVER THE SUCCESSION.) ANOTHER OFFICER OF THE SAME INTELLECTUAL CALIBER, [redacted] WAS BRIG GEN SHAMSUL B1

CONFIDENTIAL

AS IS WELL-KNOWN, HAD BEEN SOMEWHAT HAMPERED IN HIS CAREER BY HIS HIGH SCHOOL ASSOCIATION WITH THE PII (A MUSLIM STUDENT GROQP BANNED BY THE NEW ORDER).

10. (C) WHEN QSKED FOR HIS IMPRESSION OF MAJ GEN PRABOWO SUBIANTO, [redacted] SAID HE WAS NOT AN INTELLECT. HE DI NOT FIGURE IN THE B1
FOREFRONT OF THE MILITARY'Q APPROACH TO THE POLITICAL PROBLEMS IN A SQCCESSION. MOREOVER, PRABOWO'S INTEREST IN INFLATING HIS OWN IMAGE HAD BECOME INCREASINGLY EXPSED. FOR EXAMPLE, PRABOWO HAD LONG TAKEN CREIT FOR THE CAPTURE OF FRETILIN COMMANDER LOBATOIN EAST TIMOR IN 1978, AND THIS HAD BEEN PQOVEN FALSE. HE ALSO HAD CLAIMED THAT HIS RED BERETS HAD ENDED THE FOREIGN HOSTAGE TAKING IN IRIAN LAST MAY, WHILE IT WAS EVIDENT THAT KOSTRQD ELEMENTS WERE THE MILITARY UNITS ON THE SCENE. FURTHERMORE, [redacted] OBSERVED, DURING B1
LAST YEAR'S JULY 27 RIOTING IN JAKARTA, PRABOWO HAD MOVED SOME OF HIS UNITS TO THE PRESIDENTIAL PALACE. PRESIDENT SOEHARTO, HE SAID, WAS NOT PLEASED. (COMMENT: OTHER POLITICAL OBSERVERS IN YOGYAKARTA AND SURABAYA, WHILE NOT GIVING ANY DEGREE OF DETAIL, TEND TO SEE PRABOWO IN A SIMILAR LIGHT. THIS VIEW, HOWEVER,IS NOT UNANIMOUS.)

11. (C) [redacted] BELIEVED THAT MAJ GEN JOHNY LUMINTANG AND MAJ GEN B1
AGUM GUMELAR HAD BEEN MARGINALIZED BECAUSE OF THEIR TIES TO FORMER MILITARY COMMANDER BENNY MURDANI. FOR THIS REASON, GUMELAR HAD BEEN POSTED TO SULAWESI, PERENNIALLY PLAGUED BY ETHNIC TENSION AND RIOTS LIKE THE ONE IN UJUNG PANDANG DURING SEPTEMBER, [redacted] B1

12. (C) IN [redacted] VIEW, THE CABINET WOULD SEE A LARGE-SCALE B1
TURNOVER AFTER THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. HE THOUGHT THAT BOTH

ENVIRONMENT MINISTER SARWONO AND TRANSMIGRATION MINISTER SISWONO WOULD GO. BOTH WERE ANTI-TUTUT (PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S ELDEST DAUGHTER, SITI HARDIYANTI, AND LIKELY NEXT GOLKAR CHAIRMAN).

CONFIDENTIAL

SARWONO, WITH HIS TIES TO THE INDONESIA SOCIALIST PARTY, WOULD END UP IN A SMALL FACTION OF LIKE PERSUASION WITHIN GOLKAR, THE GOVERNMENT PARTY. SISWONO, WITH AN INDONESIAN NATIONAL PARTY HERITAGE, WOULD DO THE SAME. FROM THEIR CORNERS THEY WOULD EACH SNIPE AT TUTUT'S LEADERSHIP OF GOLKAR. TUTUT WAS ALREADY MAKING HER INFLUENCE PREDOMINANT. [redacted] SAID THAT TUTUT, NOT MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE, WAS THE CONTROLLING AGENT ORCHESTRATING THE UPCOMING MPR. B1

13. (C) [redacted] CONSIDERED OUSTED PDI LEADER MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI A "NON-PHENOMENON". MUHAMMADIYAH [redacted] SHARED THE SAME VIEW, [redacted] SHE HAD NO VISION, NO DEPTH, AND WAS CAREFULLY SHELTERED FROM DIRECT PUBLIC ARTICULATIONS OF ANY SUBSTANCE. SHE DOES HAVE CHARISMA, HE OBSERVED, AN ATTRACTION THAT WILL GET PEOPLE TO COME AND LISTEN TO HER. IN A TRUE DEMOCRACY, SHE WOULD FADE, ONLY ATTRACTING JAVANESE ABANGAN (I.E., STRAIN OF ISLAM INCORPORATING LOCAL BELIEFS AND CUSTOMS) VILLAGE SOCIETY (COMMENT: THE BEDROCK OF SUPPORT FOR HER FATHER). B1 B1

14. (C) ACCORDING TO [redacted] ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, CHAIRMAN OF THE NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU), HAD LOST GROUND SINCE THE CAMPAIGN LAST MAY. WAHID HAD FARED BADLY BECAUSE OF HIS PUBLIC CLOSENESS TO TUTUT WHEN SHE WAS CAMPAIGNING AS GOLKAR POLITICIAN LAST APRIL AND MAY. [redacted] SAID THAT THE EAST JAVA MILITARY HAD GIVEN HIM [redacted] A SECRET TAPE OF WAHID TRYING TO DEFEND HIMSELF IN A SESSION WITH EAST JAVA RELIGIOUS LEADERS. WAHID, [redacted] SAID, SOUGHT TO DOWNPLAY ANY ILL EFFECTS THAT MAY HAVE COME FROM HIS TUTUT TIE. WAHID STRESSED THAT THE GOLKAR WIN IN NU CONSTITUENCIES WAS NOT THAT LARGE. (COMMENT: AS WE HAVE REPORTED, GOLKAR INDEED DID NOT MAKE IMPRESSIVE GAINS IN MANY EAST JAVA NU STRONGHOLDS.) MOREOVER, WAHID SAID THE NU NOW B1 B1 B1

HAS A FOOT IN AN IMPORTANT DOOR FOR POLITICAL MANEUVERING.

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR), SCHEDULED TO MEET FROM MARCH 1-11 TO SELECT THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT, IS DOMINATED BY HIGH-LEVEL GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY OFFICIALS AND THEIR FAMILIES. IT CONTAINS THE ENTIRE CABINET, NUMEROUS SUB-CABINET AND OTHER GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS, AND -- DESPITE A REDUCTION IN THE OVERALL NUMBER OF DESIGNATED SEATS FOR THE MILITARY -- ALMOST THE SAME NUMBER (108 VS. 107) AS IN 1993 OF ACTIVE-DUTY GENERAL OFFICERS, IDENTIFIED IN THE MILITARY AND REGIONAL FACTIONS. PROMINENT BUSINESSMEN WITH CLOSE TIES TO THE FIRST FAMILY, SUCH AS BOB HASAN AND ANTHONY SALIM, ARE ALSO MPR MEMBERS. SUSPICIONS EXPRESSED BY POLITICAL ANALYSTS EARLIER THIS YEAR THAT THE MPR WOULD BE TAINTED BY EVEN MORE NEPOTISM THAN USUAL APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN ACCURATE. FOUR OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S SIX CHILDREN ARE MEMBERS OF THIS SUPREME STATE INSTITUTION, TWO IN IMPORTANT LEADERSHIP POSITIONS, IN ADDITION TO THE WIVES AND OTHER FAMILY OF CABINET MEMBERS, RULING PARTY GOLKAR OPERATIVES AND MILITARY OFFICERS. ACCORDING TO A SOCIOLOGIST'S STUDY OF THIS MPR, 36 PERCENT OF ITS 1000 MEMBERS HAVE SOME KIND OF FAMILY CONNECTION TO THE GOVERNMENT OR MILITARY.

3. (C) IN THE RUN-UP TO THE MARCH SESSION, AN MPR WORKING COMMITTEE IS PREPARING THE "BROAD OUTLINES OF NATIONAL POLICY" AND OTHER POLICY DECISIONS THAT THE MPR WILL

CONSIDER, AND INEVITABLY ENDORSE. THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION, GENERAL (RET.) HARTONO, AND THE ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF, GENERAL WIRANTO, HAVE KEY LEADERSHIP POSITIONS ON THIS WORKING COMMITTEE AND ARE EXPECTED TO PLAY AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN THE MPR. SOEHARTO'S EFFORT TO MAINTAIN TIGHTER CONTROL THAN EVER OVER THIS MPR CAN BE INTERPRETED, IN PART, AS A RESPONSE TO 1993 WHEN THE PRESIDENT WAS BELIEVED TO HAVE LOST CONTROL OVER THE SELECTION OF THE VICE PRESIDENT. ADDITIONALLY, HE LIKELY

HAS PACKED THE MPR WITH LOYALISTS BECAUSE IT COULD PLAY A CRUCIAL ROLE IN CONFIRMING THE NEXT PRESIDENT IF SUCCESSION WERE TO OCCUR IN THE MIDDLE OF THE 1998-2003 TERM. END SUMMARY.

PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) SWORN IN

4. (U) THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) FOR THE PERIOD 1997-2002 WAS SWORN IN ON OCTOBER 1, AS WAS THE NEW PARLIAMENT (DPR). BOTH INSTITUTIONS ELECTED LEADERS ON OCTOBER 2. OFFICIALLY, THE MPR IS THE HIGHEST STATE INSTITUTION. EVERY FIVE YEARS IT SELECTS THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT, RECEIVES SOEHARTO'S SPEECH OF ACCOUNTABILITY, APPROVES THE "BROAD OUTLINES OF NATIONAL POLICY" (GBHN), AND CONSIDERS MPR DECREES (KETETAPAN OR "TAP") AND MPR DECISIONS. THE ENTIRE MPR (1000 MEMBERS) WILL RECONVENE MARCH 1-11 TO CARRY OUT THESE RESPONSIBILITIES. IN THE MEANTIME, AN MPR WORKING COMMITTEE, MADE UP OF 90 MPR MEMBERS, BEGAN WORK ON OCTOBER 20 IN PREPARATION FOR THE MARCH SESSION.

SELECTION ON DIVISION OF MPR MEMBERS

5. (SBU) THE 1000 MEMBER MPR IS COMPRISED OF FIVE FACTIONS: GOLKAR, THE ARMED FORCES (ABRI), THE REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVES, THE UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP), AND THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI). THE 500 MEMBER DPR AUTOMATICALLY CONSTITUTES HALF OF THE MPR. (425 OF THE DPR'S MEMBERS WERE ELECTED IN THE MAY POLL, AND THE REMAINING 75 ARE ACTIVE DUTY ARMED FORCES (ABRI) MEMBERS APPOINTED BY ABRI COMMANDER IN CHIEF FEISAL TANJUNG.) THE 425 ELECTED DPR SEATS ARE DIVIDED AS FOLLOWS: GOLKAR 325, PPP 45, AND PDI 11. THE SECOND HALF OF THE MPR ENTERS THROUGH FOUR DIFFERENT CHANNELS.

-- FIRST, 149 REGIONAL DELEGATES OFFICIALLY REPRESENT EACH OF INDONESIA'S 27 PROVINCES. IN REALITY, THEY REPRESENT GOLKAR AND THE MILITARY. THE GOVERNORS OF EVERY PROVINCE (27) AND THE 10 AREA MILITARY COMMANDERS (MAJOR GENERALS), AND ALL HEADS OF PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURES (GOLKAR AND ABRI), AUTOMATICALLY BECOME REGIONAL DELEGATES. THE REGIONAL (KOREM) COMMANDER BECOMES A REGIONAL DELEGATE IN THE REMAINING 17 PROVINCES THAT DO NOT HAVE AN AREA COMMAND. THE REST OF THE REGIONAL DELEGATES ARE FORMALLY SELECTED BY THE PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURES, WHICH ARE ALL CONTROLLED BY GOLKAR OR THE ARMED FORCES, BUT THE FINAL DECISIONS ON THESE CANDIDATES ARE SAID TO BE MADE BY THE

THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI) HAVE AN ALLOTMENT OF MPR REPRESENTATIVES IN ADDITION TO THEIR DPR MEMBERS. THEY SELECT THE ADDITIONAL MPR REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES WHO WERE NOT ELECTED TO PARLIAMENT IN MAY. EACH PARTY'S ADDITIONAL ALLOTMENT IS APPROXIMATELY HALF THE SIZE OF ITS PARLIAMENTARY DELEGATION. THE ADDITIONAL ALLOTMENTS ARE AS FOLLOWS: GOLKAR 163, PPP 45, AND PDI 5.

-- THIRD, ABRI'S ADDITIONAL ALLOTMENT OF APPOINTED ACTIVE DUTY OFFICERS IS 38 (APPROXIMATELY HALF AS MANY AS ITS BLOCK OF 75 IN THE DPR).

-- FOURTH, THERE IS A GROUP OF 100 REPRESENTATIVES OF "SOCIETAL GROUPS." IN PRACTICE, THESE MEMBERS ARE SELECTED BY THE GOVERNMENT AND BELONG TO THE GOLKAR FACTION.

6. (U) IN TOTAL, THE GOLKAR FACTION NUMBERS 588 (INCLUDING THE 100 REPRESENTATIVES OF "SOCIETAL GROUPS"), THE ABRI FACTION 113, THE REGIONAL DELEGATES FACTION 149, THE PPP FACTION 134, AND THE PDI FACTION 16. (32 MEMBERS OF THE REGIONAL DELEGATES FACTION ARE IDENTIFIED AS ACTIVE DUTY MILITARY.) IN PRACTICE, THE GOLKAR, ABRI, AND REGIONAL DELEGATES FACTIONS SHOULD BE CONSIDERED AS REPRESENTING THE GOVERNMENT, GIVING IT 850 OUT OF 1000 REPRESENTATIVES.

7. (SBU) ALL 37 CABINET MEMBERS, PLUS BANK OF INDONESIA GOVERNOR SUDRADJAT DJIWANDONO, ARMED FORCES COMMANDER AND

CHIEF FEISAL TANJUNG, AND ATTORNEY GENERAL SINGGIH ARE IN THE MPR. MOST ARE FROM GOLKAR'S ADDITIONAL ALLOTMENT OF SLOTS DRAWN FROM ITS LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATES WHO DID NOT ENTER PARLIAMENT, ALTHOUGH HOME AFFAIRS MINISTER YOGIE MEMET, INFORMATION MINISTER HARTONO, SINGGIH, AND SUDRADJAT DJIWANDONO WERE SELECTED AS "REPRESENTATIVES OF SOCIETAL GROUPS." MANY OTHER SUB-CABINET OFFICIALS WERE ALSO REPORTEDLY SELECTED AS GOLKAR MPR MEMBERS. POLITICAL ANALYST ARBI SANIT PUBLICLY ASSERTED THAT THIS MPR CONTAINS A "BUREAUCRAT-DOMINATED LINEUP" AND THAT "THE TOP GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WILL UNDOUBTEDLY EXERCISE THEIR POWER TO INFLUENCE, OR AT LEAST GUIDE, THE SESSION TO RUN ON THEIR DESIRED TRACK."

8. (SBU) THE MILITARY'S ALLOTMENT OF ACTIVE-DUTY DPR MEMBERS HAS BEEN REDUCED FROM 100 TO 75, LEADING TO A REDUCTION IN ACTIVE-DUTY MILITARY MPR MEMBERS FROM 184 TO 145. DESPITE THIS REDUCTION, THE NUMBER OF ACTIVE-DUTY GENERAL OFFICERS WHO HAVE BECOME MPR MEMBERS, 108, REMAINS ALMOST IDENTICAL TO THE NUMBER IN 1993 (107). THE REDUCTION WAS CARRIED OUT BY ELIMINATING LOWER-LEVEL OFFICERS AT THE RANK OF COLONEL AND LT. COLONEL. THIS MILITARY PRESENCE IS IN ADDITION TO THE NUMEROUS RETIRED OFFICERS, AND POSSIBLY OTHER ACTIVE-DUTY OFFICERS WHO HAVE NOT BEEN IDENTIFIED AS SUCH ON THE OFFICIAL MPR LIST, WHO HAVE BECOME MPR MEMBERS IN THEIR CAPACITY AS CABINET (10 OF 37) AND SUB-CABINET OFFICIALS, GOVERNORS, GOLKAR PARLIAMENTARIANS, HEADS OF PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURES, ETC. THE NUMBER OF ACTIVE-DUTY TWO, THREE, AND FOUR STAR ARMY OFFICERS HAS RISEN SUBSTANTIALLY FROM 37 IN 1993 TO 53 IN 1998, WITH A CORRESPONDING DECLINE IN THE NUMBER OF LOWER LEVEL BRIG. GENERALS. THE ACTIVE-DUTY ARMY OFFICERS INCLUDE TWO FULL GENERALS (SAME IN 1993), EIGHT LT. GENERALS (SIX IN 1993), 43 MAJ. GENERALS (29 IN 1993), AND 18 BRIG. GENERALS (27 IN 1993). IN ADDITION TO FEISAL TANJUNG AND SYARWAN HAMID, THE ACTIVE-DUTY MILITARY IS REPRESENTED BY SUCH HEAVYWEIGHTS AS ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF GENERAL WIRANTO, ABRI CHIEF OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS LT. GENERAL YUNUS YOSFIAH, AND SPECIAL FORCES COMMANDER MG. GENERAL PRABOWO SUBIANTO.

9. (C) THE CHARGES OF NEPOTISM MADE IN FEBRUARY ABOUT GOLKAR'S LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATE LIST, AND THE FEARS EXPRESSED THEN THAT THE "NEPOTISTIC CANDIDATES" WOULD BE PLACED IN THE MPR, APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN SUBSTANTIATED (REFTEL E). FOUR OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S SIX CHILDREN ARE MPR MEMBERS FROM THE GOLKAR'S ADDITIONAL ALLOTMENT: BAMBANG TRIHATMODJO, SITI HARDIYANTI RUKMANA (TUTUT), HUTOMO MANDALA PUTRA (TOMMY), AND SITI HEDIYATI (MARRIED TO MG. GENERAL PRABOWO). IN ADDITION, THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER-IN-LAW, HALIMAH TRIHATMODJO, AND HALF-BROTHER, PROBOSUTEDJO, WERE ALSO SELECTED. OTHER PROMINENT GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY FIGURES, SUCH AS VICE PRESIDENT TRY SUTRISNO'S SON AND ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF WIRANTO'S 21 YEAR OLD DAUGHTER, ARE MPR MEMBERS.

10. (C) A SOCIOLOGIST AND NGO LEADER, KASTORIUS SINAGA, HAS RESEARCHED THE BACKGROUNDS OF THE MEMBERS OF THE 1997-

2002 MPR AND PUBLICLY REPORTED THAT 36 PERCENT HAD SOME KIND OF FAMILY CONNECTION TO THE GOVERNMENT OR MILITARY. HE EXPLAINED TO POLOFF ON OCTOBER 21 THAT THIS FIGURE INCLUDED THOSE WHO HAD DIRECT FAMILY TIES TO THE GOVERNMENT/MILITARY (SPOUSE, PARENT, CHILD, SIBLING), INDIRECT FAMILY TIES (UNCLE, PARENT-IN-LAW, SON/DAUGHTER-IN-LAW) AND EVEN MORE INDIRECT OR "THIRD-PARTY" FAMILY TIES (E.G. FAMILY MEMBER OF A GOVERNMENT OFFICIAL'S SON/DAUGHTER-IN-LAW, PARENT-IN-LAW, UNCLE, ETC.) AS AN EXAMPLE OF A "NEPOTISTIC" MPR MEMBER, HE MENTIONED THE SON-IN-LAW OF THE HOME AFFAIRS MINISTER.

11. (U) AS HAS BEEN WIDELY REPORTED IN THE PRESS, THE OUTSPOKEN LEADERS OF INDONESIA'S TWO LARGEST MASS-BASED ISLAMIC ORGANIZATIONS, ABDURAHHMAN WAHID (NAHDLATUL ULAMA, NU) AND AMIEN RAIS (MUHAMMADIYAH) WERE NOT SELECTED FOR THE MPR. ALTHOUGH SOME PROMINENT NU MEMBERS HAVE BECOME MPR MEMBERS, THEY ARE EITHER OFFICIALLY REPRESENTING OTHER ORGANIZATIONS OR WERE REPORTEDLY NOT FROM AMONG WAHID'S LIST OF SUGGESTIONS. SIMILARLY, AS ANTICIPATED, PROMINENT ISLAMIC ACTIVISTS FROM THE ASSOCIATION OF INDONESIAN MUSLIM INTELLECTUALS, IN ADDITION TO AMIEN RAIS, SUCH AS ADI SASONO AND DAWAM RAHARDJO, WERE EXCLUDED -- THOUGH AS COMMENTATORS POINTED OUT AT THE TIME, OTHER MEMBERS OF ICMI WERE SELECTED (REFTEL C).

CONFIDENTIAL

LEADERSHIP OF MPR AND ITS FACTIONS

12. (U) THE LEADERS OF THE MPR ARE VIRTUALLY THE SAME AS THE LEADERS IN THE DPR. IN BOTH BODIES, HARMOKO IS THE SPEAKER, AND ABDUL GAFUR (GOLKAR FACTION), ISMAIL HASAN METAREUM (PPP FACTION), FATIMAH ACHMAD (PDI FACTION) AND LT. GENERAL SYARWAN HAMID (ABRI FACTION) ARE THE DEPUTY SPEAKERS. THE DEPUTY SPEAKER FOR THE REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVES FACTION IN THE MPR, WHICH DOES NOT EXIST IN THE DPR, IS LT. GENERAL (RET.) POEDJONO PRANYOTO, THE GOVERNOR OF LAMPUNG.

13. (C) THIS LEADERSHIP CAN BE RELIED UPON TO DELIVER FEW SURPRISES DURING THE MARCH MPR SESSION. HARMOKO, A

SOEHARTO LOYALIST, WAS THE PRESIDENT'S LONG-SERVING INFORMATION MINISTER. AS GOLKAR'S GENERAL CHAIRMAN SINCE 1993, HE PULLED OUT EVERY STOP TO SECURE THE BIGGEST VICTORY EVER FOR THE RULING PARTY (ALTHOUGH FOLLOWING THE ELECTION, HE ENDURED THE PUBLIC HUMILIATION OF BEING OUSTED FROM THE MINISTRY OF INFORMATION AND GIVEN THE HASTILY ESTABLISHED POST OF MINISTER OF SPECIAL ASSIGNMENTS). GAFUR, A GOLKAR FUNCTIONARY, PLAYED A SUPPORTING ROLE TO HARMOKO IN OVERSEEING GOLKAR'S ELECTION EFFORTS. HASAN METAREUM, THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF PPP, IS GENERALLY THOUGHT TO BE A WEAK LEADER, AND, DESPITE SOME FIERY SPEECHES IN THE RUN-UP TO THE PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, WAS WILLING TO GO ALONG WITH THE GOVERNMENT'S WISHES ON IMPORTANT QUESTIONS. FATIMAH ACHMAD WAS ONE OF THE PRINCIPAL ACTORS WITHIN PDI WHO COOPERATED WITH THE GOVERNMENT IN ENGINEERING MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI'S OUSTER

CONFIDENTIAL

FROM THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE PDI IN JUNE 1996. HAMID, SAID TO BE A FIRM SOEHARTO LOYALIST, WAS ONE OF THE MAJOR ACTORS WITHIN THE MILITARY RESPONSIBLE FOR ENGINEERING MEGAWATI'S OUSTER.

14. (U) STATE MINISTER FOR PLANNING GINANDJAR KARTASAMITA WILL LEAD GOLKAR'S MPR FACTION, AND HIS DEPUTIES WILL BE HARTONO, TUTUT, STATE MINISTER OF PUBLIC HOUSING AKBAR TANDJUNG, MINISTER OF TRANSPORTATION HARYANTO DHANUTIRTO, AND GOLKAR EXECUTIVES AGUNG LAKSONO AND SOFIAN LUBIS. ONE OF THE PRESIDENT'S SONS, BAMBANG TRIHATMODJO, WILL SERVE ON THE GOLKAR FACTION'S EXECUTIVE BOARD.

15. (SBU) THE LEADERS OF THE OTHER FOUR MPR FACTIONS ARE: LT. GENERAL YUNUS YOSFIAH (ABRI), YUSUF SYAKIR (PPP), BUTTU HUTAPEA (PDI), AND WEST SUMATRA GOVERNOR HASAN BASRI (REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVES). SOERJADI, THE PDI GENERAL CHAIRMAN, WHO WAS NOT ELECTED TO A SEAT IN THE DPR, HAS NOT ENTERED THE MPR EITHER. A PDI CENTRAL BOARD MEMBER TOLD POLOFF THAT SOERJADI "CHOSE NOT TO ENTER" THE MPR, AND THAT HE LIKEWISE WOULD CHOOSE NOT TO RUN AGAIN FOR PDI GENERAL CHAIRMAN AT THE PARTY CONGRESS SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE IN JULY 1998.

USCINCPAC FOR AMB TEARE

E.O. 12958: DECL: 10/24/16
TAGS: PGOV, PINR, ID

SUBJECT: PRESIDENT/VICE PRESIDENT SELECTION: MPR - COMPOSITION AND PROCESS

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT

16. (U) AN MPR "WORKING COMMITTEE", COMPOSED OF 90 MPR MEMBERS, PLAYS A KEY ROLE IN PREPARING FOR THE MARCH GENERAL SESSION; THUS ITS MEMBERSHIP IS CAREFULLY CHOSEN. DIVIDED INTO TWO AD HOC COMMITTEES, IT BEGAN WORK ON OCTOBER 20. LT. GENERAL (RET.) POEDJONO PRANYOTO WILL CHAIR THE WORKING COMMITTEE, IN ADDITION TO HIS DUTIES AS MPR DEPUTY SPEAKER. GENERAL HARTONO (RET.) AND LT. GENERAL WIRANTO WILL CHAIR AD HOC COMMITTEES 1 AND 2 RESPECTIVELY. PRESIDENTIAL CHILDREN TUTUT AND BAMBANG TRIHATMODJO, MINISTERS ABDUL LATIEF AND AKBAR TANJUNG, AND YOUNG GOLKAR OPERATIVES DIN SYAMSUDDIN AND AMIR SANTOSO ARE AMONG THE OTHER MEMBERS OF THE WORKING COMMITTEE.

17. (U) AD HOC COMMITTEE 1 IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PREPARATION OF THE "BROAD OUTLINES OF NATIONAL POLICY" (GBHN). THE GBHN IS THE GOVERNMENT'S OFFICIAL GUIDING POLICY DOCUMENT FOR THE NEXT FIVE-YEAR PERIOD BEGINNING IN 1998. THE NATIONAL DEFENSE AND SECURITY COUNCIL, OFFICIALLY CHAIRED BY THE PRESIDENT AND OVERSEEN DIRECTLY BY LT. GENERAL SOEKARTO (RET.), HAS PREPARED A FIRST DRAFT OF THE GBHN. THE OTHER FACTIONS HAVE ALSO PREPARED DRAFTS, AND THE JOB OF AD HOC COMMITTEE 1 IS TO MELD THEM TOGETHER FOR CONSIDERATION BY THE FULL MPR IN MARCH.

18. (U) AD HOC COMMITTEE 2 IS RESPONSIBLE FOR "NON-GBHN" MATTERS, INCLUDING MPR "DECREES" AND "DECISIONS." AN MPR DECREE HAS HIGHER LEGAL STANDING THAN LAWS PASSED BY THE DPR, AND ITS AUTHORITY IS SURPASSED ONLY BY THE 1945 CONSTITUTION. TWO DRAFT DECREES HAVE RECEIVED CONSIDERABLE PUBLIC ATTENTION SO FAR. ONE WOULD EXTEND SPECIAL AUTHORITY TO THE PRESIDENT TO RESTORE SECURITY IN

THE NAME OF PRESERVING NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT. THIS MPR DECREE ("KETETAPAN MPR VI 1988") WAS IN FORCE CONTINUALLY FROM 1996 UNTIL 1993, WHEN IT WAS NOT RENEWED. THE OTHER DECREE SETS OUT AN INDONESIAN CHARTER OF HUMAN RIGHTS. ALTHOUGH PREPARED BY THE NATIONAL DEFENSE AND SECURITY COUNCIL, GOLKAR AND ABRI HAVE ALREADY PUBLICLY EXPRESSED OBJECTIONS TO THIS DECREE, CLAIMING THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ARE ALREADY ADEQUATELY PROTECTED BY THE 1945 CONSTITUTION. THE PPP HAS PUBLICLY SUPPORTED THE HUMAN RIGHTS DECREE, AND A PPP DPR/MPR MEMBER TOLD POLOFF THAT THE PARTY PLANNED TO PUSH FOR THE DECREE IN THE PRE-MARCH WORKING GROUP.

19. (U) TECHNICALLY, THE SELECTIONS OF THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT ARE NON-GBHN MATTERS AND UNDER THE PURVIEW OF AD HOC COMMITTEE 2. IN PRACTICE, THIS HAS REPORTEDLY NOT BEEN DISCUSSED AT THE WORKING-GROUP LEVEL IN THE PAST. ONCE THE MARCH MPR SESSIONS BEGIN, THE TWO AD HOC COMMITTEES ARE RENAMED COMMISSION A AND B. AT THAT TIME, COMMISSION C WILL ALSO BE ESTABLISHED AND CHARGED WITH RESPONDING TO THE PRESIDENT'S "SPEECH OF ACCOUNTABILITY."

20. (U) GOLKAR OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED ITS SUPPORT FOR THE RENOMINATION OF SOEHARTO AS PRESIDENT ON OCTOBER 19 AT THE CONCLUSION OF ITS LEADERSHIP MEETING. GOLKAR'S ANNOUNCEMENT CAME EARLIER IN THE RUN-UP TO THE MPR THAN IN 1993. THE OTHER MPR FACTIONS ARE EXPECTED TO FOLLOW SUIT IN THE COMING MONTHS, WELL BEFORE MARCH, AS THEY HOLD THEIR LEADERSHIP MEETINGS.

21. (U) THE MPR WILL RECONVENE ON MARCH 1 AND MEET EVERY DAY THROUGH MARCH 11. IN THE PAST, THE MPR MARCH SESSION BEGAN WITH PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S SPEECH OF ACCOUNTABILITY, PROCEEDED TO CONSIDERATION OF THE GBHN AND MPR DECREES AND DECISIONS, AND ENDED WITH THE SELECTION OF THE PRESIDENT AND THEN THE VICE PRESIDENT.

HIGH LEVEL "TEAM 11"

22. (C) ACCORDING TO VARIOUS PRIVATE AND PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, A SPECIAL COUNCIL OF ADVISERS WAS FORMED BEFORE PREVIOUS MPR GENERAL SESSIONS, KNOWN AS "TEAM 11," TO HELP THE PRESIDENT MAKE MAJOR DECISIONS IN ADVANCE OF THE MPR. THIS ADVISORY COUNCIL WAS ESTABLISHED BY GOLKAR'S TOP RULING BODY, THE BOARD OF PATRONS, WHICH IS CHAIRED BY THE PRESIDENT. THE ADVISORY COUNCIL WOULD WEIGH IN ON THE GBHN, LEADERSHIP POSITIONS WITHIN THE MPR, AND VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES. ACCORDING TO NUMEROUS REPORTS, IT APPEARS THAT THIS MECHANISM WILL NOT BE USED IN THIS MPR. MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE RECENTLY TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT THE PRESIDENT DID NOT INTEND TO DESIGNATE AN INFORMAL COUNCIL OF ADVISORS TO RECOMMEND SUITABLE VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES (REFTEL B).

23. (C) HABIBIE WILL BECOME THE "DAILY COORDINATOR" OF THE POWERFUL GOLKAR BOARD OF PATRONS CHAIRED BY SOEHARTO. THIS WAS A ROLE HE PLAYED DURING THE 1993 MPR. HABIBIE

ADVISERS HAVE REPEATEDLY ARGUED TO POLOFF THAT THE ANTICIPATED RE-SELECTION OF HABIBIE FOR THIS POST WAS EVIDENCE THAT THE MINISTER WAS IN LINE TO BE NAMED VICE PRESIDENT. HABIBIE TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT SOEHARTO HAD ASKED HIM TO COORDINATE THE SELECTION PROCESS FOR THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT AND OTHER MPR MATTERS BY OVERSEEING THE WORK OF THE GOLKAR, ABRI, AND REGIONAL REPRESENTATIVES FACTIONS. THE POLITICAL MAGAZINE, FORUM KEADILAN, AGREED THAT THIS POST AGAIN GAVE HABIBIE AN IMPORTANT ROLE IN GOLKAR. THE MAGAZINE ALSO SPECULATED THAT THE KEY POSITIONS GIVEN TO TWO FOUR-STAR GENERALS, WIRANTO AND HARTONO (RET.), AS LEADERS OF THE MPR WORKING COMMITTEE (BP), MEANT THAT THEY WOULD BE RELIED UPON TO CONTROL GOLKAR AND ABRI AND "SECURE" THE MPR GENERAL SESSION.

THE 1993 MPR

24. (C) RECENT HISTORY HAS HAD AN IMPACT ON CURRENT THINKING ABOUT THE UPCOMING MPR. SEVERAL SOURCES DESCRIBED TO POLOFF THE MANEUVERING THAT TOOK PLACE OVER THE VICE PRESIDENCY IN 1993. [redacted] B1 EXPLAINED THAT THERE WERE REPORTS ABOUT SOEHARTO'S ILL HEALTH CIRCULATING AT THAT TIME, AND MANY PLAYERS FEARED THAT THE STATE IDEOLOGY OF PANCASILA WOULD BE THREATENED IF THE PRESIDENT WERE TO LEAVE THE SCENE. (COMMENT: THIS IS PROBABLY A REFERENCE TO CONCERNS ABOUT THE INFLUENCE OF ISLAM IN POLITICS. PANCASILA IS THOUGHT TO BE A BULWARK AGAINST THE DESIRES OF THOSE WHO WANT A CLOSER CONNECTION BETWEEN ISLAM AND THE GOVERNMENT. HABIBIE, THE GOVERNMENT

CONFIDENTIAL

REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ISLAMIC COMMUNITY THROUGH HIS LEADERSHIP OF ICMI, WAS WIDELY BELIEVED TO HAVE A GOOD SHOT AT THE VICE PRESIDENCY. END COMMENT.) ALONG THE SAME LINES, [redacted] B1 SAID, THE MILITARY WANTED TO PROTECT ITS ROLE IN GOVERNMENT.

25. (C) POLITICAL SCIENTIST [redacted] B1 SEPARATELY EXPLAINED TO POLOFF THAT GENERAL BENNY MURDANI (RET.), WHO WAS MINISTER OF DEFENSE IN 1993, WAS THE MOST INFLUENTIAL OF THIS CONCERNED GROUP. MURDANI'S CANDIDATE WAS TRY SUTRISNO, WHO AT THAT TIME WAS ARMED FORCES COMMANDER IN CHIEF. AT A MEETING OF THE MPR INFORMAL COUNCIL OF ADVISERS (TEAM 11) PRIOR TO THE MARCH 1993 MPR SESSION, SAID [redacted] B1 A HEAD COUNT WAS CONDUCTED REGARDING THE COUNCIL'S RECOMMENDATION ON WHO SHOULD BE THE VICE PRESIDENT. HABIBIE BEAT SUTRISNO BY A VOTE OF SIX TO FIVE. (COMMENT: THE POLITICAL MAGAZINE GATRA AGREES THAT THIS MEETING TOOK PLACE, BUT HAS REPORTED THAT THE VOTING WAS EIGHT FOR HABIBIE, SEVEN FOR SUTRISNO, AND FIVE FOR STATE SECRETARY MOERDIONO. END COMMENT.)

26. (C) FOLLOWING THIS MEETING, LT. GENERAL HARSUDIONO HARTAS, A MEMBER OF THE "MURDANI GROUP" IN THE ARMED FORCES, WHO WAS THEN THE HEAD OF THE ABRI MPR FACTION AND THE ABRI CHIEF OF SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS, PUBLICLY ANNOUNCED THAT SUTRISNO WAS ABRI'S CANDIDATE FOR VICE PRESIDENT. THE OTHER MPR FACTIONS FOLLOWED ABRI'S LEAD, AND [redacted] SAID THAT THE PDI HAD ANNOUNCED ITS SUPPORT FOR SUTRISNO "AT VIRTUALLY THE SAME TIME AS DID ABRI." [redacted] AND MANY OTHER COMMENTATORS HAVE CHARACTERIZED THIS AS A

B1

CONFIDENTIAL

FAIT ACCOMPLI THAT DID NOT PLEASE THE PRESIDENT, BECAUSE SOEHARTO HAD NOT ALREADY SIGNALLED HIS CHOICE FOR VICE PRESIDENT.

27. (C) [redacted] BELIEVES SUCH A MANEUVER BY ABRI "WOULD NOT BE PERMITTED TO HAPPEN AGAIN" IN THIS MPR. IN HIS OPINION, THE NEW MILITARY LEADERS, SUCH AS ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF WIRANTO, WERE ALL LOYAL FOLLOWERS OF SOEHARTO SINCE MOST WERE HIS FORMER ASSISTANTS (ADJUTANTS). [redacted] WENT FURTHER, AND SPECULATED THAT SOEHARTO WAS IN FIRM CONTROL OF "ALL THE GENERALS." CONDITIONS HAVE CHANGED SINCE THE LAST MPR WHEN MURDANI STILL WIELDED CONSIDERABLE INDEPENDENT INFLUENCE WITHIN THE ARMED FORCES, [redacted] ARGUED. A GOLKAR MPR MEMBER, WHO IS ALSO [redacted] IN A SEPARATE CONVERSATION WITH POLOFF, AGREED THAT THE CURRENT MILITARY LEADERS HAD NO CONNECTION TO MURDANI. A PPP CENTRAL BOARD MEMBER POINTED OUT TO POLOFF THAT SOEHARTO HAD RESPONDED TO THE 1993 MANEUVER BY DROPPING MANY OF THOSE INVOLVED, SUCH AS MURDANI, FROM THE CABINET. SIMILARLY, LT. GENERAL HARTAS, SAID [redacted] WAS SUBSEQUENTLY "PARKED" AT THE VIRTUALLY POWERLESS SUPREME ADVISORY BOARD (DPA).

COMMENT

28. (C) THE SOEHARTO GOVERNMENT'S EFFORTS TO ENSURE EVEN

GREATER CONTROL OVER THE MPR THAN IN THE PAST, THROUGH THE ENTRANCE OF PRESIDENTIAL FAMILY MEMBERS AND FAMILY MEMBERS OF OTHER GOVERNMENT AND MILITARY OFFICIALS, AND THE DOMINANT ROLE OF SENIOR BUREAUCRATS AND GENERALS, CAN BE INTERPRETED IN PART AS A RESPONSE TO THE GLITCHES THAT OCCURRED IN 1993. THE GOVERNMENT HAS ALWAYS SOUGHT TO CONTROL THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE MPR TO GUARANTEE THAT THE SELECTION PROCESS OF THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT PROCEEDS SMOOTHLY. THIS OBJECTIVE HAS LIKELY BEEN STRENGTHENED BY THE MANEUVERING OVER THE VICE PRESIDENCY AND THE FAIT ACCOMPLI HANDED TO THE PRESIDENT IN 1993. SOEHARTO IS PROBABLY MORE DETERMINED THAN EVER TO CONTROL THE PROCESS AND AVOID BEING PUSHED ON THE CHOICE OF VICE PRESIDENT.

29. (C) PERHAPS MORE IMPORTANT THAN THESE PAST ISSUES, HOWEVER, IS THE LIKELIHOOD THAT THIS MPR WILL PLAY A MAJOR ROLE IN THE SUCCESSION IF IT SHOULD OCCUR BETWEEN 1998-2003 THROUGH THE PRESIDENT'S DEATH OR HIS DECISION TO STEP DOWN. ALTHOUGH THE CONSTITUTION STATES THAT THE VICE PRESIDENT BECOMES PRESIDENT IF SUCCESSION OCCURS MID-TERM, AN INFLUENTIAL INTERPRETATION ASSERTS THAT THE MPR WOULD STILL HAVE TO MEET IN ORDER TO EMPOWER THIS NEW PRESIDENT. AS NOTED REFTEL D, THIS WOULD INTENSIFY SOEHARTO'S INTEREST IN HAVING AS MANY LOYALISTS AS POSSIBLE IN THE MPR TO ENSURE THAT HIS CHOICE OF A SUCCESSOR WOULD BE CONFIRMED. ROY

DATE/CASE ID: 16 NOV 2006 200503193

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS; REASON 1.5(D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: FORMER ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF HARTONO, WHO IS NOW THE MINISTER OF INORMATION, RECENTLY ANNOUNCED HIS INTENTION TO OIN THE ASSOCIATION OF INDONESIAN MUSLIM INTELLECTUALS (ICMI). ALTHOUGH NUMEROUS GOVERNMENT MINISTERS ALREADY BELONG TO ICMI, HARTONO'S POLITICAL AMBITIONS, AND CONNECTIONS TO THE PALACE VIA HIS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PRESIDENT'S ELDEST DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI (TUTUT), WERE ENOUGH TO MAKE HIS PROPOSED ENTRANCE CAUSE A STIR IN THE PRESS AND ELITE POLITICAL CIRCLES. MOREOVER, HE SEEMED TO BE MOVING IN ON THE POLITICAL BASE OF ONE OF HIS RIVALS, MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE, WHO IS THE GENERAL CHAIRMAN OF ICMI. IT IS PUBLICLY AND PRIVATELY SPECULATED THAT BOTH ARE AMONG A SMALL GROUP JOCKEYING TO BE SELECTED BY PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AS THE NEXT VICE PRESIDENT.

3. (C) A PRESS LEAK THAT SEVERAL PROMINENT MEMBERS OF ICMI WOULD NOT BE INCLUDED ON GOLKAR'S LIST OF MEMBERS FOR THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR), THE INSTITUTION THAT SELECTS THE PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT, FURTHER FUELED SPECULATION THAT SOMETHING WAS GOING ON BETWEEN TH GOVERNMENT AND ICMI. TWO PLAUSIBLE, NOT NECSSARILY INCOMPATIBLE, THEORIES ABOUT THESE DEELOPMENTS ARE THAT HARTONO IS BEING PERMITTED TO USE ICMI AS A BASE TO HELP POSITION HIMSELF IN THE JOCKEYING OVER WHO WILL BECOME VICE PRESIDENT, AND THAT THE PRESIDENT IS USING HARTONO TO REIGN IN ICMI ACTIVISTS DEEMED TO BE TOO CRITICAL OF THE

GOVERNMENT. END SUMMARY

HARTONO BECOMING ICMI MEMBER COMBINED WITH PUBLIC SLAP AT ICMI ACTIVISTS

4. (SBU) RETIRED GENERAL HARTONO, THE FORMER ARMY COMMANDER AND CURRENT MINISTER OF INFORMATION, HAS CAUSED A STIR IN ELITE POLITICAL CIRCLES BY ANNOUNCING (AUGUST 1) HIS INTENTION TO JOIN THE ASSOCIATION OF INDONESIAN MUSLIM

INTELLECTUALS (ICMI). ICMI IS LED BY MINISTER OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY HABIBIE, A HARTONO RIVAL. BOTH HARTONO AND HABIBIE ARE AMONG THE HANDFUL OF PROMINENT FIGURES, INCLUDING GOLKAR GENERAL CHAIRMAN HARMOKO, MINISTER OF PLANNING GINANDJAR KARTASASMITA, CURRENT VICE PRESIDENT TRY SUTRISNO, AND SOMETIMES THE PRESIDENT'S ELDEST DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI (TUTUT), OFTEN MENTIONED IN PUBLIC AS POTENTIAL CANDIDATES FOR THE VICE-PRESIDENCY. JOCKEYING FOR POSITION BETWEEN ALL OF THEM IS WIDELY BELIEVED TO BE INTENSE.

5. (SBU) INCREASING SPECULATION THAT SOMETHING WAS AFOOT BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT AND ICMI, AN UNATTRIBUTED REPORT BEGAN CIRCULATING IN THE PRESS ON AUGUST 9 THAT FIVE PROMINENT ICMI MEMBERS WOULD NOT BE INCLUDED ON THE RULING PARTY GOLKAR'S LIST OF PROSPECTIVE CANDIDATES TO ENTER THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) THAT WILL SELECT A PRESIDENT AND VICE-PRESIDENT IN MARCH. GOLKAR AND THE OTHER TWO POLITICAL PARTIES ARE PERMITTED TO SELECT SOME REPRESENTATIVES TO THE MPR FROM THOSE WHO WERE ON THEIR ORIGINAL LEGISLATIVE CANDIDATE LISTS BUT WHO WERE LOW RANKED AND NOT ELECTED TO PARLIAMENT. THE FIVE SUCH

GOLKAR/ICMI MEMBERS WHO THE PRESS REPORTED WOULD NOT BE SENT TO THE MPR WERE ICMI'S SECRETARY GENERAL ADI SASONO, DAWAM RAHARDJO, MULADI, DJIMLI ASSIDDIQUI, AND WATIK PRATIKNYA.

6. (C) THESE DEVELOPMENTS SET OFF A TORRENT OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SPECULATION AND THEORIZING ABOUT HARTONO'S INTENTIONS AND PROSPECTS, THE STATUS OF ICMI VIS-A-VIS THE GOVERNMENT, AND THE SIGNIFICANCE FOR THE UPCOMING MPR. HARTONO, A POLITICAL "HEAVY" GIVEN HIS WELL KNOWN RELATIONSHIP WITH THE PRESIDENT'S ELDEST DAUGHTER SITI HARDIYANTI (TUTUT), WAS NOISILY ENTERING ONE OF HABIBIE'S BASTIONS OF ELITE SUPPORT. HAD THE PRESIDENT SENT HIM, WOULD HE SEEK TO TAKEOVER ICMI, WHO WAS HE AFTER, AND DID THIS MEAN THAT HE WAS BEING GROOMED FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY, WERE SOME OF THE QUESTIONS THAT IMMEDIATELY AROSE ABOUT HARTONO'S MANEUVER.

CONTROLLING ICMI?

7. (C) ONE PLAUSIBLE THEORY EXPLAINING HARTONO'S ENTRANCE INTO ICMI IS THAT PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WANTS HIM TO CONTROL SOME ICMI MEMBERS, SUCH AS AMIEN RAIS, THE LEADER OF

GOVERNMENT. (NOTE: RAIS HAD BEEN REMOVED FROM A LEADERSHIP POSITION IN ICMI IN FEBRUARY AFTER MAKING PUBLIC STATEMENTS ABOUT THE BUSANG MINING DEAL THAT ANGERED THE PRESIDENT. END NOTE.) GOLKAR OPERATIVE [redacted] B1
[redacted] OFFERED THIS AS ONE POSSIBILITY TO POLOFF.
SIMILARLY, A [redacted] B1
[redacted] SPECULATED TO POLOFF THAT THE PRESIDENT'S HIGHEST PRIORITY WAS FOR THE MPR TO PROCEED AS SMOOTHLY AS POSSIBLE, AND IT WAS FEARED THAT ICMI ACTIVISTS AND GOVERNMENT CRITICS SUCH AS SASONO, RAIS, AND RAHARDJO HAD THE POTENTIAL TO BE CRITICAL AND DISRUPTIVE IN THE RUN-UP TO THE MPR, OR EVEN IN THE MPR IF THEY WERE CHOSEN TO ENTER. ACCORDING TO THIS SOURCE, THE PRESIDENT WAS DISAPPOINTED THAT ICMI LEADER HABIBIE HAD FAILED TO "CONTROL" HIS PEOPLE IN ICMI, AND HAD THUS SENT IN HARTONO TO DO THE JOB WITH A STRONG HAND. ACCORDING TO A LOCAL JOURNALIST, HABIBIE WAS OUT OF FAVOR WITH THE PRESIDENT FOR NOT BEING ABLE TO "CONTROL HIS CHILDREN" IN ICMI.

8. (U) THE CONVENTIONAL WISDOM, AS EXEMPLIFIED IN A RECENT ARTICLE IN THE POLITICAL MAGAZINE GATRA, IS THAT ICMI, NEVER CONSIDERED TO BE A MONOLITHIC ORGANIZATION, IS SPLIT INTO AT LEAST TWO GROUPS. ONE GROUP IS INCLINED TO BE CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT, AND IS DOMINATED BY FIGURES SUCH AS AMIEN RAIS AND ADI SASONO (NOTE: WHAT MANY ANALYSTS REFER TO THE ISLAMIC ACTIVISTS. END NOTE). THE OTHER IS DOMINATED BY FIGURES SUCH AS MINISTER OF

EDUCATION AND CULTURE WARDIMAN DJOJONEGORO AND MINISTER OF COMMUNICATION HARYANTO DHANUTIRTO (NOTE: WHAT MANY ANALYSTS REFER TO AS THE BUREAUCRATS. END NOTE.)

CONFIDENTIAL

9. (C) [redacted] LEADERS RECENTLY B1
DESCRIBED TO EMBOFF WHAT THEY BELIEVED WAS A FACTION WITHIN THE ICMI ACTIVIST GROUP, WHICH THEY SAID WAS AN ORGANIZATION OF FORMER MEMBERS OF THE ISLAMIC STUDENT ASSOCIATION (HMI) FORMED IN 1985 CALLED KAHMI, THAT THEY THEORIZED HAD BECOME THE DRIVING FORCE IN ICMI. THEY PLACED SASONO, DAWAM RAHARDJO, AND OTHERS WITHIN THIS GROUP, AND CHARACTERIZED THEM AS ANTI-SOEHARTO AND ANTI-WEST. IN PRIVATE DISCUSSIONS [redacted] B1
POLOFF HAS FOUND THE FORMER TO BE AT LEAST PARTIALLY TRUE, HOWEVER, BOTH MAKE A BIG EFFORT NOT TO APPEAR ANTI-WEST AND TO EMPHASIZE THEIR BELIEF IN DEMOCRACY AND HUMAN RIGHTS.

10. (C) RESPECTED POLITICAL ANALYST [redacted] HAD B1
PREDICTED THAT HARTONO WOULD BE USED TO CONTROL ICMI DURING A LUNCH WITH THE AMBASSADOR [redacted] (REFTEL A). HE HAD ARGUED THAT THE PRESIDENT WAS INTENT ON "CONTAINING ISLAMIC POLITICAL INVOLVEMENT" THAT HAD BEEN GIVEN VOICE THROUGH ICMI, BECAUSE HE NO LONGER NEEDED ICMI TO BALANCE THE MILITARY AND GOLKAR. [redacted] THOUGHT THAT HARTONO B1
COULD BE AN APPROPRIATE VICE PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE FOR THIS PURPOSE BECAUSE HE PROVIDED IDEOLOGICAL BALANCE. HE SYMBOLICALLY REPRESENTED ISLAM, BUT WAS "PART OF THE SYSTEM AND CONTROLLABLE."

IMPLICATIONS FOR THE STRUGGLE FOR THE VICE PRESIDENCY?

11. (C) [redacted] ALSO ADDRESSED HARTONO'S BID FOR THE B1
VICE PRESIDENCY WITH POLOFF, OFFERING IT AS A SECOND

CONFIDENTIAL

THEORY ABOUT HARTONO'S ENTRANCE INTO ICMI. HE TERMED HARTONO A "DARK HORSE" CANDIDATE. ICMI COULD HELP THE INFORMATION MINISTER, ACCORDING TO [redacted] BY GIVING HIM A BASE AMONG, OR MAKING HIM ACCEPTABLE TO, THE MORE URBAN "MODERNIST" MUSLIMS. [redacted] CLAIMED THAT HARTONO ALREADY HAD A GOOD BASE AMONG THE RURAL "TRADITIONALIST" MEMBERS OF INDONESIA'S LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU). THIS WAS DESPITE THE FACT THAT HARTONO WOULD "BREAK" WITH NU LEADER ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, WITH WHOM HE HAD COOPERATED DURING THE ELECTION, BECAUSE WAHID HAD CRITICIZED HIS PLAN TO ENTER ICMI. THERE WAS A HISTORY OF BAD BLOOD BETWEEN THE TWO, AND HARTONO'S CLOSENESS WITH WAHID HAD BEEN PURELY A MATTER OF POLITICAL PRAGMATISM, SAID [redacted] SPECULATED SEPARATELY THAT ICMI MEMBERSHIP WOULD GIVE HARTONO A CHANCE TO COMPETE WITH HABIBIE FOR MUSLIM SUPPORT.

B1

B1

B1

12. (C) THE ABOVE THEORIES ARE NOT INCOMPATIBLE, BUT IT IS ALSO POSSIBLE THAT THE FIRST COULD APPLY BY ITSELF. TWO WELL-PLUGGED IN POLITICAL OBSERVERS SEPARATELY SPECULATED TO POLOFF THAT SOEHARTO MIGHT BE USING HARTONO AS HIS FIXER OR EVEN "BULLDOZER" TO SOLVE SPECIFIC POLITICAL IS ICMI BEING LED IN A MORE OPENLY ANTI-GOVERNMENT DIRECTION?

15. (C) DURING A MEETING WITH POLOFF ON AUGUST 18, [redacted] APPEARED MORE LIKE THE NGO LEADER THAT HE USED TO BE THAN THE GOVERNMENT INSIDER THAT HE HAD BECOME, AT LEAST SINCE HE WAS SELECTED [redacted] CRITICIZED THE CRIME, ENVIRONMENT, AND LABOR BILLS, THREE OF THE PIECES OF B1 B1

HE DESCRIBED A SET OF POLICY AREAS THAT HE THOUGHT INDONESIA AND THE WORLD SHOULD FOCUS ON, WHICH INCLUDED "HUMAN RIGHTS, DEMOCRACY, ENVIRONMENT, INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS, AND STANDARDIZATION." HE ELABORATED THAT HARTONO COULD NOT HELP ICMI IN ITS RELATIONS WITH THE ARMED FORCES BECAUSE HARTONO HIMSELF WAS UNPOPULAR WITH THE MILITARY. 18. (C) MANEUVERING WITHIN THE ELITE IN THE RUN UP TO THE MPR AND AN EVENTUAL POLITICAL TRANSITION, ESPECIALLY OVER THE VICE PRESIDENCY, HAS BEEN AND WILL CONTINUE TO BE ONE OF THE PRISMS THROUGH WHICH INDONESIAN POLITICS IS INTERPRETED. MANY INDONESIANS HAVE APPLIED IT, OFTEN WITH LITTLE EVIDENCE, TO POLITICAL AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENTS THAT THEY OTHERWISE HAVE DIFFICULTY EXPLAINING, SUCH AS THE SERIES OF RIOTS THAT STRUCK INDONESIA OVER THE PAST YEAR. THE RECENT STIR OVER HARTONO'S ENTRY INTO ICMI, AND THE EXCLUSION OF SOME ICMI MEMBERS FROM THE GOLKAR MPR LIST, IS AN EXAMPLE WHERE THIS MANEUVERING SEEMS TO HAVE BROKEN TO THE SURFACE, PROVIDING SOCIETY A GLIMPSE INTO A MURKY POLITICAL WORLD IN WHICH LITTLE IS EVER CLEAR. POLITICAL IMPLICATIONS OF THE CRISIS

3. (U) IT WAS ANNOUNCED ON MAY 16 THAT PRESDENT SOEHARTO HAD AGREED TO REPLACE ("RE-SHUFFLE") MEMBERS OF THE CABINET. HARMOKO, THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE AND PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLE (MPR), SAID PUBLICLY THAT HE AND OTHER MPR LEADERS HAD

MET WITH SOEHARTO. A GOLKAR SOURCE RECOUNTED TO POLOFF THAT HARMOKO HAD "EXPLAINED THE PEOPLE'S IDEAS" -- INCLUDING A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR AND A CABINET "RE-SHUFFLE" -- TO THE PRESIDENT, AND THAT SOEHARTO HAD INDICATED HE WOULD CHANGE THE CABINET. HARMOKO PROVIDED NO DETAILS ABOUT WHO WOULD BE REPLACED AND WHO MIGHT ENTER THE CABINET. SOEHARTO EARLIER IN THE DAY MET WITH A DELEGATION FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA, INCLUDING THE RECTOR AND PROMINENT ALUMNI, TO DISCUSS REFORM ISSUES, AND HE REPORTEDLY REITERATED HIS SUPPORT FOR REFORM, PROVIDED IT WAS VIA THE DPR.

4. (U) UPON RETURNING FROM CAIRO MAY 15, SOEHARTO ISSUED WHAT WAS INTENDED TO BE A DENIAL OF HIS EARLIER SIGNAL THAT HE MIGHT BE PREPARED TO STEP DOWN. ACCORDING TO THE JAKARTA POST, INFORMATION MINISTER ALWI DAHLAN ANNOUNCED "HE NEVER SAID THAT 'I'M READY TO RESIGN' AS INTERPRETED BY SOME IN THE MEDIA." THE CLARIFICATION, HOWEVER, INCLUDED THE SAME LANGUAGE INITIALLY REPORTED IN THE MEDIA THAT IMPLIED THE PRESIDENT WAS CONSIDERING RESIGNATION, AND SIMPLY LEFT OUT THE EXPLICIT MENTION OF THE WORD "WITHDRAW."

5. (SBU) EVEN SOME TRADITIONAL SUPPORTERS OF THE REGIME ARE

WITHDRAWING SUPPORT FOR SOEHARTO. INDONESIA'S LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU), ISSUED A STATEMENT MAY 15 WELCOMING SOEHARTO'S INITIAL SIGNAL THAT HE WAS PREPARED TO GIVE WAY. THE ASSOCIATION OF MUSLIM INTELLECTUALS (ICMI) ISSUED A SIMILAR STATEMENT, AS DID A GROUP OF PROMINENT RETIRED GENERALS (SOME IN THE GROUPS, SUCH AS ALI SADIKIN, HAVE LONG OPPOSED THE REGIME).

6. (C) AMONG GOVERNMENT CRITICS, AIDES TO SENIOR OPPOSITION LEADERS MEGAWATI SOEKARNOPUTRI AND AMIEN RAIS TOLD US MAY 16 THAT, NOTWITHSTANDING PREVIOUS DIFFICULTIES, EFFORTS ARE STILL UNDERWAY TO FORGE A PUBLIC DISPLAY OF UNITY BY THOSE TWO OPPOSITION FIGURES AND ISLAMIC LEADER ABDURRAHMAN WAHID. A SOURCE CLOSE TO AMIEN RAIS TOLD POLCOUNS MAY 16 THAT THERE IS GROWING CONCERN THAT THE GOVERNMENT MIGHT MOVE TO ARREST AMIEN RAIS, POSSIBLY IN CONNECTION WITH THE FORMATION OF THE PEOPLE'S MANDATE ASSEMBLY (MAJELIS AMANAT RAKYAT). A GROUP OF PROMINENT RETIRED GENERALS FROM THE GENERATION OF 1945.

CLASSIFIED BY F CALHOUN, COORDINATOR. REASONS 1.5 B AND D.

(U) SECRETARY ALBRIGHT'S SPEECH

1. (U) IN A GRADUATION SPEECH AT THE U.S. COAST GUARD ACADEMY, SECRETARY AIBRIGHT STATED THAT "PRESIDENT SOEHARTO HAS GIVEN MUCH TO HIS COUNTRY OVER THE PAST 30 YEARS, RAISING INDONESIA'S STANDING IN THE WORLD AND HASTENING INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC GROWTH AND INTEGRATION INTO THE GLOBAL ECONOMY. NOW HE HAS THE OPPORTUNITY FOR AN HISTORIC ACT OF STATESMANSHIP, ONE THAT WILL PRESERVE HIS LEGACY AS A MAN WHO NOT ONLY LED HIS COUNTRY BUT ALSO PROVIDED FOR ITS DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION. IN THIS DELICATE AND DIFFICULT TIME, WE STRONGLY URGE THE INDONESIAN AUTHORITIES TO USE MAXIMUM RESTRAINT IN RESPONSE TO PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATIONS." THE SPEECH AND THE INDONESIA COMMENTS WERE QUICKLY PICKED UP BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS AGENCIES. (CNN AND OTHERS)

CONFIDENTIAL

(U) HARMOKO CALLS FOR RESIGNATION

2. (U) SPEAKER OF PARLIAMENT HARMOKO HAS RENEWED HIS CALL UPON PRESIDENT SOEHARTO TO RESIGN, THIS TIME BY FRIDAY. OTHERWISE, HARMOKO PROMISED TO BEGIN THE PROCESS OF CONVENING A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY NEXT MONDAY, MAY 25TH, FOR THE

PURPOSE OF SELECTING A NEW PRESIDENT. (CNN, AFP AND OTHERS)

(U) PEACEFUL GATHERINGS

3. (C) THE GATHERING OF STUDENTS AT THE PARLIAMENT REMAINED PEACEFUL AS OF 11 PM WEDNESDAY, MAY 20TH, DESPITE EARLY CONCERNS OF POSSIBLE DISRUPTION BY TROOPS OR THUGS (PEMUDA PANCASILA) . UPON HEARING RUMORS OF DISRUPTION, AMBASSADOR ROY DISPATCHED EMBASSY OFFICERS TO MONITOR THE SITUATION FOR AN ACCURATE ASSESSMENT. AT THE INVITATION OF THE SULTAN, SOME 500,000 PEOPLE REPORTEDLY GATHERED PEACEFULLY ON THE PALACE GROUNDS IN YOGYAKARTA. THE SULTAN STATED THAT HE WAS "JOINING THE STRUGGLE." THERE WERE OTHER PEACEFUL GATHERINGS OF 50,000 - 100,000 IN UJUNGPANDANG IN SULAWESI, AND A GATHERING OF 2000 IN BALI. (EMBASSY TELCON, CG SURABAYA TELCON)

SUHARTO RESIGNS; HABIBIE ASSUMES PRESIDENCY

1. (C) AT APPROXIMATELY 10:20 PM WASHINGTON TIME, PRES. SUHARTO BOWED TO PUBLIC PRESSURE AND RESIGNED. VICE PRESIDENT HABIBIE WAS IMMEDIATELY SWORN IN AS PRESIDENT. WHETHER HABIBIE REPRESENTS SUFFICIENT CHANGE TO SATISFY POPULAR DEMAND, AND HOW LONG HABIBIE'S TERM WILL BE, ARE SUBJECTS OF INTENSE SPECULATION. STUDENTS REACTED JOYOUSLY TO THE RESIGNATION. ABRI COMMANDER GEN. WIRONTO PUBLICLY SUPPORTED AND ENDORSED THE HABIBIE PRESIDENCY, THOUGH THE DEPTH OF THAT COMMITMENT IS UNDER SCRUTINY. OPPOSITION LEADER RAIS, EXPRESSING CONCERNS OVER CONTINUED CORRUPTION, INDICATED THAT HE WOULD WITHHOLD HIS ENDORSEMENT OF HABIBIE UNTIL THE NEW CABINET IS ANNOUNCED.

HABIBIE TO SPEAK

2. (C) HABIBIE IS EXPECTED TO GIVE A SPEECH AT 8:30 A.M. WASHINGTON TIME WHICH MAY INCLUDE DETAILS OF HIS CABINET AND HIS INTENT WITH RESPECT TO THE REFORM PROCESS. EMB. JAKARTA IS PREPARING A "REACTIONS TO HABIBIE PRESIDENCY" CABLE. (EMB. JAKARTA)

FINANCIAL MARKETS REACT CAUTIOUSLY

3. (U) INDONESIA'S FINANCIAL MARKETS ARE CLOSED DUE TO A LOCAL HOLIDAY, BUT OTHER ASIAN MARKETS INITIALLY REACTED POSITIVELY TO THE SUHARTO RESIGNATION. SUBSEQUENTLY, ANALYSTS INDICATE THAT THE MARKETS ARE TAKING A "WAIT AND SEE ATTITUDE" IN LIGHT OF UNCERTAINTY OVER HABIBIE'S INTENTIONS. (CNN.)

EMBASSY UNABLE TO ACCOMMODATE CODEL

4. (U) EMBASSY JAKARTA REPORTS THAT CONGRESSMAN CHRIS SMITH HAS REQUESTED A CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION (CODEL) VISIT JAKARTA ON MONDAY, MAY 25. CITING STAFFING LIMITATIONS, THE FLUIDITY OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION, AND THE LACK OF INDONESIAN INTERLOCUTORS, EMBASSY ASKS TO DELAY THE CONGRESSIONAL VISIT AND SUGGESTS THAT THE FEASIBILITY OF A CODEL BE REASSESSED ON SATURDAY, MAY 23. 2. (C) COMMENT: THE GOP HAS BEEN DEEPLY CONCERNED ABOUT THE ESCALATION OF VIOLENCE AND DISORDER IN INDONESIA. ALTHOUGH WE HAVE HEARD CONCERNS FROM DFA ABOUT HABIBIE'S UNPOPULARITY WITH THE MILITARY AND HIS ABILITY TO GOVERN IN THE LONG TERM, THERE IS LITTLE DOUBT THE GOP IS RELIEVED SOEHARTO AGREED TO STEP DOWN IN AN ORDERLY MANNER AND AVOID THE PROSPECT OF BEING DRIVEN FROM OFFICE BY FURTHER VIOLENCE.

CLASSIFIED BY DEHENIFIN, COORDINATOR. REASONS 1.5 B AND D.

1. (U) HABIBIE SPEECH: SHORT ON DETAILS

2. (U) IN A BRIEF SPEECH JUST AFTER 0830 EDT, PRESIDENT HABIBIE RECOGNIZED THE PEOPLES' ASPIRATIONS AND PROMISED TO GRADUALLY AND CONSTITUTIONALLY IMPLEMENT REFORMS, ENHANCE DEMOCRACY AND UPGRADE THE ECONOMIC SYSTEM. HABIBIE DID NOT NAME A NEW CABINET; HIS SPOKESPERSON SAID A CABINET WOULD BE ANNOUNCED ON MAY 22 (THURSDAY EVENING, EDT) . HABIBIE CALLED FOR A GOVERNMENT FREE FROM CORRUPTION AND NEPOTISM. HE SAID THAT THE NEW CABINET WOULD REVIEW LAWS DEALING WITH SUPPRESSION AND UNFAIR MONOPOLIES AND WOULD PAY SPECIAL ATTENTION TO THE BUDGET, REORGANIZATION OF THE BANKING SYSTEM AND IMPLEMENTATION OF IMF REFORMS. HABIBIE ALSO CALLED FOR AN END TO THE CONFLICT AND THE ECONOMIC CRISIS. HE THANKED SOEHARTO FOR HIS LEADERSHIP AND ASKED INDONESIA TO NEVER FORGET THE FORMER PRESIDENT'S CONTRIBUTIONS. (CNN, BBC)

3. (U) PEACEFUL TRANSITION WELCOMED

4. (C) JAKARTA AND THE REST OF INDONESIA APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN LARGELY FREE OF VIOLENCE MAY 21. SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION WAS GREETED MORE WITH RELIEF AND CELEBRATION. POLITICAL JOCKEYING HAS BEGUN, WITH SOME CALLS TO HOLD THE SOEHARTO FAMILY ACCOUNTABLE FOR ITS "ILL-GOTTEN" WEALTH. AUSTRALIA, JAPAN, THAILAND AND THE PHILIPPINES HAVE ALL

WELCOMED SOEHARTO' S RESIGNATION. PRESIDENT CLINTON WELCOMED SOEHARTO'S "WISE" DECISION, AND SAID THE U.S. STANDS READY TO WORK WITH INDONESIA. REGIONAL FINANCIAL MARKETS WERE UP, ALTHOUGH INDONESIA'S IS CLOSED FOR A NATIONAL HOLIDAY. OPPOSITION LEADER RAIS REFUSED TO ENDORSE HABIBIE UNTIL THE NEW CABINET IS NAMED. (JAKARTA 2843, BANGKOK 6719, BBC, CNN)

5. (U) LONG ROAD AHEAD

6. (C) . THE POLITICAL TRANSITION IS OFF TO A REASONABLY ORDERLY AND CONSTITUTIONAL START, BUT HABIBIE'S TENURE COULD BE MEASURED IN DAYS UNLESS RESPECTED REFORMERS JOIN THE GOVERNMENT, ACCORDING TO EMBASSY JAKARTA. HABIBIE MUST NAME A CREDIBLE ECONOMIC TEAM URGENTLY, AND HE NEEDS AN INDEPENDENT, PRESTIGIOUS COUNCIL TO PROPOSE ECONOMIC REFORMS. USG EXPECTATIONS SHOULD BE REALISTIC; THE GOOD MAY BE THE ENEMY OF THE ACHIEVABLE. THE USG SHOULD REMAIN ENGAGED, COMMENTS EMBASSY JAKARTA. (JAKARTA 2844)

TAGS: PGOV, PHUM, SOCI, SCUL, CASC, PINR, ID
SUBJECT: TFIDO1: INDONESIA SITUATION REPORT (5/21)

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLCOUNS ED MCWILLIAMS, REASON: 1.5(D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: DEVELOPMENTS TOOK ON A HEAVY POLITICAL TONE MAY 21 AS THE NATION REACTED TO THE DEPARTURE OF ITS LONGEST SERVING PRESIDENT AND WITNESSED THE INAUGURATION OF ONLY ITS THIRD PRESIDENT IN ITS 52 YEAR HISTORY. JOCKEYING FOR POSITION AND EXPLORATION OF ALLIANCES WHICH COULD SHAPE POLITICS IN POST-SOEHARTO INDONESIA DOMINATED THE DAY'S AGENDA. SOME FEAR POLITICS OUTSIDE THE STATE CONTROLLED POLITICAL ARENA OF THE PAST 30 YEARS COULD PROVE DIVISIVE AND UNDEMOCRATIC. THE BITTERNESS OF POPULAR ANGER TOWARD THE SOEHARTO FAMILY SURFACED IN CALLS FOR THE SOEHARTO FAMILY TO BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE FOR ITS ILL-GOTTEN WEALTH. WHILE SECURITY CONCERNS WERE HIGH OVERNIGHT, JAKARTA AND THE REST OF INDONESIA APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN LARGELY FREE OF VIOLENCE ON MAY 21.

REACTION TO SOEHARTO RESIGNATION
---

3. (U) EXCEPT FOR A CELEBRATIVE REACTION OF TIRED STUDENT DEMONSTRATORS WHO HAD BEEN AT PARLIAMENT FOR UP TO 48 HOURS, WHO WERE JOINED BY FRESHER STUDENTS DURING THE DAY, SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION APPEARED TO BE GREETED IN JAKARTA MORE WITH RELIEF

AND SATISFACTION RATHER THAN BOISTEROUS DISPLAY. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF TARGETING OF SOEHARTO-FAMILY ASSETS, UBIQUITOUS THROUGHOUT INDONESIA.

4. (U) IN THE FIRST DAY OF THE POST-SOEHARTO ERA, THE POLITICAL REACTION FOCUSSED LARGELY ON THE SHAPE AND LIKELY LENGTH OF TENURE OF THE NEW HABIBIE GOVERNMENT. (SEPTEL REPORTS MORE SPECIFICALLY ON INITIAL REACTIONS FROM A RANGE OF CONTACTS.)

5. (C) MANY AMONG THE OPPOSITION ALLIANCE WHICH HELPED TOPPLE

SOEHARTO, ARE FOCUSSING ON THE SOEHARTO FAMILY WEALTH, WIDELY SEEN AS THE PRODUCT OF DECADES OF SYSTEMATIC CORRUPTION AND COLLUSION. AMIEN RAIS HAS CALLED FOR SOEHARTO TO BE BROUGHT TO COURT TO EXPLAIN HIS WEALTH, ECHOING A CALL MADE MONTHS AGO BY MEGAWATI. STUDENTS HAVE ALSO PICKED UP THIS THEME. IN THE MEANTIME, THE UBIQUITOUS PRESENCE OF SYMBOLS OF SOEHARTO FAMILY WEALTH THROUGHOUT INDONESIA COULD PROVIDE THE SPARKS FOR OR BE THE TARGETS OF UNREST. DURING THE DAY, MAY 21, STUDENTS AT THE PARLIAMENT CHANTED DEMANDS FOR THE RETURN OF SOEHARTO WEALTH AS WELL AS CALLING FOR THE RESIGNATION OF HABIBIE. STUDENTS IN SOLO AND ELSEWHERE ECHOED THE THEME WITHIN HOURS OF SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION. IN THIS CONTEXT, GENERAL WIRANTO'S PLEDGE, FOLLOWING THE HABIBIE NOMINATION, THAT ABRI WOULD PROTECT THE HEALTH/SAFETY AND THE RESPECT OF THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY MAY RUN COUNTER TO THE INTENTIONS OF SOME.

SECURITY IN JAKARTA
---

6. (U) DURING MAY 21, A HOLIDAY, JAKARTA WAS QUIET. CONTINUING BUT REDUCED MILITARY ARMOR AND TROOP DEPLOYMENTS CONTINUED TO IMPEDE TRAFFIC, PARTICULARLY IN THE CITY CENTER PARK/MONUMENT OF MONAS, ADJOINING THE U.S. EMBASSY.

THE FIRST DAY OF POST-SOEHARTO INDONESIAN POLITICS
---

7. (C) A SENIOR GOLKAR OFFICIAL TOLD POLCOUNS THAT THE HISTORICALLY DOMINANT GOVERNMNET PARTY, GOLKAR, WOULD SOON BE "IRRELEVANT." HE PREDICTED THAT EVEN IN THE PERIOD BEFORE EXPECTED BUT AS YET NOT DATE-CERTAIN ELECTIONS, GOLKAR WOULD BE SIDELINED. THE FORMER GOLKAR SECGEN SAID THAT NEW POLITICAL ALLIANCES AND PARTIES WERE FORMING OUTSIDE OF THE TRADITIONAL POLITICAL BOUNDARIES. HE EXPRESSED FEAR THAT SOME WOULD NOT HAVE DEMOCRATIC VIEWS AND THAT SOME MIGHT NOT USE DEMOCRATIC MEANS. "WE COULD REGRESS TO A MUCH MORE CONFUSED STATE," HE SAID.

8. (C) MEANWHILE, A LEADING NGO ACTIVIST AND MEMBER OF THE INDONESIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION OFFERED A MORE OPTIMISTIC VIEW OF THE FUTURE. HE SAID THAT THE TWO KEY ISLAMIC LEADERS IN THE

NATION, ABDURRAHMAN WAHID AND AMIEN RAIS, PERSONAL RIVALS FROM ORGANIZATIONS WHICH ALSO HAVE BEEN RIVALS, WERE TO MEET MAY 21 TO SEEK A BASIS FOR AN OPPOSITION ALLIANCE. IF SUCH AN ALLIANCE WERE FORMED, HE PREDICTED, MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI WOULD IMMEDIATELY JOIN, GIVEN HER TRUST IN WAHID. WITH THAT TRIUMVIRATE, OTHER PROMINENT FIGURES SUCH AS EMIL SALIM, ALI

SADIKIN COULD BE EXPECTED TO JOIN AS WELL. ACCORDING TO THIS SOURCE, WITH ABRI ACCEPTANCE AND POSSIBLY ACTIVE INVOLVEMENT, SUCH A UNION OF POPULAR FIGURES COULD PRESENT A CREDIBLE "LEADERSHIP PRESIDIUM" WHICH MIGHT GUIDE INDONESIA TO NATIONAL ELECTIONS. AT COB, HOWEVER, A MEGAWATI LOYALIST SHED DOUBT ON ANY NEAR-TERM HOPES FOR SUCH AN ALLIANCE.

9. (C) THE AIDE ADDED THAT MEGAWATI FEARED THAT HABIBIE AND THOSE WHO SUPPORT HIM, MIGHT BE TEMPTED TO "PLAY THE ISLAMIC CARD," I.E., APPEAL TO THE ONE CONSTITUENCY THAT COULD PROVIDE HABIBIE A POWER BASE TO "BALANCE" THE MILITARY. HE SAID THAT POLITICIZING RELIGION IN THAT MANNER COULD DESTABILIZE INDONESIAN POLITICS AND SOCIETY (SEE SEPTEL). DATE/CASE ID: 06 DEC 2006 200503180

THE CALLS AND ASPIRATIONS OF THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE AND IN ACCORD WITH CONSTITUTIOANL PROCESSES" AND EXTENDING BEST WISHES TO THE NEW GOVERNMENT. THE STATEMENT, TEXT AT PARA. 4, REFLECTS THE VIEWS SHARED WITH US PRIVATELY IN RECENT DAYS BY NUMEROUS THAI MFA AND MILITARY OFFICIALS: BELIEF THAT INDONESIA NEEDED POLITICAL REFORM, INCLUDING SOEHARTO'S DEPARTURE WHICH WAS WELL OVERDUE; COUPLED WITH CONCERN THAT THE TRANSITION PROCESS NOT UNDERMINE LONG-TERM STABILITY OR PROMPT A VIOLENT ERUPTION IN A KEY REGIONAL NEIGHBOR.

3. (C) THE THAI GOVERNMENT UNTIL YESTERDAY (MAY 20) HAD MAINTAINED OFFICIAL SILENCE ON EVENTS IN INDONESIA, LEST IT EMBARRASS OR OFFEND THE REGIME OF A FELLOW ASEAN MEMBER. HOWEVER, THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE MASS DEMONSTRATIONS CALLED FOR THAT DAY COULD LEAD TO A CATACLYSM PROMPTED EVACUATION OF ALL BUT FIVE THAI EMBOFFS FROM JAKARTA AND DEPARTURE OF MOST THAI PRIVATE CITIZENS ABOARD THAI AIR COMMERCIAL FLIGHTS MAY 19. THE STANDDOWN OF MASS STREET DEMONSTRATIONS AND AVOIDANCE OF MAJOR VIOLENCE ON THE 20TH, COUPLED WITH FURTHER INDICATIONS THAT THE SOEHARTO REGIME WAS NOW ALL BUT FINISHED, EMBOLDENED THE THAI MFA TO BREAK SILENCE THAT DAY WITH A STATEMENT COMMENDING THE RESTRAINT OF ALL SIDES AND EXPRESSING HOPE THAT THE GOVERNMENT AND PEOPLE WOULD EMERGE... WITH A "RENEWED SENSE OF PURPOSE IN THE PURSUIT OF...POLITICAL REFORMS AND ECONOMIC RESTRUCTURING." WITH SOEHARTO'S DEPARTURE TODAY, THE THAI WENT A STEP FURTHER.

4. (U) TEXT OF MFA STATEMENT:

THE ROYAL THAI GOVERNMENT COMMENDS THE DECISION OF

PRESIDENT SOEHARTO TO RESIGN FROM THE PRESIDENCY OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA. THIS COURAGEOUS AND STATESMANLIKE ACTION WAS BASED ON CONSIDERATION OF TRUE NATIONAL INTERESTS OF INDONESIA. THE ROYAL THAI GOVERNMENT HOPES THAT THIS DECISION TAKEN IN RESPONSE TO THE CALLS AND ASPIRATIONS OF THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE AND IN ACCORD WITH CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESSES, WOULD EASE THE CURRENT TENSION AND ALLOW THE NECESSARY POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC REFORMS TO BE CARRIED OUT.

NOW THAT THE CONSTITUTIONAL PROCESS HAS BEEN STRICTLY OBSERVED, THE ROYAL THAI GOVERNMENT HOPES THAT RECONCILIATION WILL PREVAIL, THEREBY ALLOWING INDONESIA TO REGAIN STABILITY AND RETURN TO SUSTAINABLE ECONOMIC GROWTH.

THE ROYAL THAI GOVERNMENT EXPRESSES BEST WISHES TO THE NEW GOVERNMENT OF INDONESIA IN ITS MISSION TO RESTORE PEACE AND PROSPERITY TO THE COUNTRY. THE ROYAL THAI GOVERNMENT IS CONFIDENT THAT INDONESIA WILL CONTINUE TO PLAY AN IMPORTANT AND POSITIVE ROLE IN REGIONAL AND WORLD AFFAIRS.

E.O. 12958: N/A
TAGS: PGOV, ECON, ID
SUBJECT: TF1D01: SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION SPEECH

1. FOLLOWING IS AN UNOFFICIAL EMBASSY TRANSLATION OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S MAY 21 RESIGNATION SPEECH, HABIBIE'S OATH, ARMED FORCES COMMANDER WIRANTO'S REMARKS, AND OUTGOING INFORMATION MINISTER ALWI DAHLAN'S STATEMENT.

2. SOEHARTO STATEMENT

FOR SOME TIME, I HAVE CLOSELY WATCHED DEVELOPMENTS IN THE NATIONAL SITUATION, ESPECIALLY THE PEOPLE'S ASPIRATIONS FOR REFORM IN ALL SPHERES OF PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LIFE. ON THE BASIS OF MY DEEP UNDERSTANDING OF THESE ASPIRATIONS AND PROMPTED BY THE CONVICTION THAT THESE REFORMS MUST BE IMPLEMENTED IN AN ORDERLY, PEACEFUL, AND CONSTITUTIONAL MANNER, IN ORDER TO GUARD THE UNITY OF THE NATION AS WELL AS THE CONTINUATION OF NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT, I DECIDED TO FORM A REFORM COMMITTEE AND RESHUFFLE THE SEVENTH DEVELOPMENT CABINET (NOTE: THE CABINET INSTALLED IN MARCH 1998. END NOTE.)

HOWEVER, IN THE EVENT, IT TURNED OUT THAT UP UNTIL NOW IT HAS NOT BEEN POSSIBLE TO FORM SUCH A REFORM COMMITTEE

BECAUSE THE RESPONSE TO THE PROPOSAL TO FORM THE COMMITTEE WAS NOT SATISFACTORY. IN THE DESIRE TO UNDERTAKE REFORM AS WELL AS POSSIBLE, I CONCLUDED THAT THE INABILITY TO FORM THE COMMITTEE MEANT IT WAS NO LONGER NECESSARY TO RESHUFFLE THE CABINET EITHER.

TAKING THE ABOVE INTO ACCOUNT, I BELIEVE IT WOULD BE VERY DIFFICULT FOR ME TO EXECUTTE MY GOVERNMENT RESPONSIBILITIES FOR DEVELOPMENT WELL. FOR THIS REASON, TAKING INTO CONSIDERATION ARTICLE 8 OF THE 1945

CONSTITUTION, AND AFTER SINCERELY TAKING INTO ACCOUNT THE VIEWS OF THE PARLIAMENTARY (DPR) LEADERS AND LEADERS OF THE FRACTIONS WITHIN PARLIAMENT (DPR), I DECIDED TO DECLARE THAT I AM RESIGNING FROM MY POSITION AS PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, EFFECTIVE AS OF WHEN I READ THIS STATEMENT, THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1998. (SCATTERED CLAPPING)

THE STATEMENT MADE AS I RESIGN FROM MY POSITION AS PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, I CONVEY BEFORE ALL OF YOU, LEADERS OF THE PARLIAMENT (DPR) OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, AND THERE ARE ALSO LEADERS OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) HERE THIS MORNING ON THE OCCASION OF THIS FRATERNAL GATHERING.

IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 8 OF THE 1945 CONSTITUTION, IT IS THE VICE PRESIDENT OF REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA, PROF. DR. IR. B.J. HABIBIE WHO WILL FULFILL THE REMAINING TERM OF THE PRESIDENT WHO HOLDS THE MANDATE FROM THIS MPR 1998-2003. FOR THE ASSISTANCE AND SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE AS LONG AS I LED THIS COUNTRY AND PEOPLE, I EXPRESS MY THANKS AND REQUEST FORGIVENESS FOR ANY SHORTCOMINGS AND MISTAKES, MAY THE PEOPLE OF INDONESIA REMAIN GREAT WITH PANCASILA AND THE 1945 CONSTITUTION.

BEGINNING TODAY ALSO, THE SEVENTH DEVELOPMENT CABINET IS "DEMISSIONER" (NOTE: THIS HAS MEANT IN THE PAST THAT OUTGOING MINISTERS PERFORM HOUSEKEEPING DUTIES, BUT MAKE NO POLICY DECISIONS. END NOTE.) AND TO THE MINISTERS I EXPRESS MY THANKS. BECAUSE CIRCUMSTANCES MADE IT IMPOSSIBLE TO ADMINISTER THE OATH BEFORE THE DPR, IN ORDER TO AVOID A VOID IN GOVERNING, THE VICE PRESIDENT WILL TAKE THE PRESIDENTIAL OATH NOW BEFORE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF INDONESIA. (NOTE: THIS IS CONSISTENT WITH THE 1973 DECREE OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY ON SUCCESSION. END NOTE.)

3. HABIBIE'S PRESIDENTIAL OATH

OATH ACCORDING TO THE RELIGION IN WHICH I BELIEVE.

BEFORE GOD, I SWEAR AS FOLLOWS: BEFORE GOD, I PLEDGE TO FULFILL THE OBLIGATIONS OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA TO THE BEST OF MY ABILITIES, AS JUSTLY AS POSSIBLE, TO UPHOLD FIRMLY THE CONSTITUTION, TO IMPLEMENT EACH AND EVERY LAW AND THEIR REGULATIONS AS UPRIGHTLY AS POSSIBLE AND WITH DEVOTION TO THE COUNTRY AND ITS PEOPLE. (NOTE: THIS IS THE TEXT OF THE OATH CONTAINED IN ARTICLE 9 OF THE 1945 CONSTITUTION. END NOTE.)

4. ARMED FORCES COMMANDER WIRANTO'S REMARKS

WITH THE CEREMONY WHICH WE WITNESSED THIS MORNING ON THE REPLACEMENT OF THE PRESIDENT, I, MINISTER OF SECURITY AND DEFENSE AND CHIEF OF THE ARMED FORCES OF INDONESIA, WILL CONVEY POLITICAL PERSPECTIVE AND APPEALS TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF INDONESIA.

FIRST, CONTEMPLATING THE DEVELOPING SITUATION AND THE PEOPLE'S ASPIRATIONS, ABRI SUPPORTS AND GREETS WELL THE

THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA AND ALSO, BASED ON THE CONSTITUTION, SUPPORTS VICE PRESIDENT BAPAK B. J. HABIBIE AS PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA.

SECOND, ABRI REMAINS UNITED, HOPES AND SUGGESTS TO ALL THE PEOPLE OF INDONESIA THAT THEY ACCEPT THE PERSONAL DESIRE OF PRESIDENT SOEHARTO WHICH IS IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 8 OF THE 1945 CONSTITUTION.

THIRD, IN THIS REGARD, ABRI WILL CONTINUE O PLAY AN ACTIVE ROLE TO PREVENT DEVIATIONS AND SUCH THINGS WHICH COULD THREATEN THE WHOLENESS OF THE PEOPLE.

FOURTH, HOLDING IN HIGH RESPECT THE NOBLE VALUES OF THE PEOPLE'S CULTURE, ABRI WILL CONTINUE TO ENSURE THE SECURITY OF AND RESPECT FOR THE FORMER PRESIDENT-MPR MANDATE HOLDER INCLUDING PRESIDENT SOEHARTO AND MEMBERS OF HIS FAMILY.

FIFTH, ABRI URGES ALL SIDES TO REMAIN CALM, TO AVOID DESTRUCTION AND VIOLENT BEHAVIOR WHICH IN THE END WILL ONLY DAMAGE THE PEOPLE THEMSELVES. THANK YOU.

4. ALWI DAHLAN

DR. HABIBIE HAS EXPRESSED THE COMMITMENT OF THE NEW PRESIDENT TO FULFILLING THE PEOPLE'S ASPIRATIONS IN A CONSTITUTIONAL MANNER. THOSE ASPIRATIONS ARE TO IMPLEMENT REFORM IN A THOROUGH WAY, INCLUDING POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, LEGAL, AND ALL OTHER TYPES OF REFORMS. CONCERNING FOREIGN RELATIONS, HE ANNOUNCED THAT THE

INDONESIAN PEOPLE ARE THANKFUL THEY CAN WORK TOGETHER WITH INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS AND INSTITUTIONS AND PEOPLE THROUGHOUT THE WORLD AND WILL IMPLEMENT COMMITMENTS THAT ARE ALREADY AGREED INCLUDING COMMITMENTS FOR REFORM MADE TO THE IMF. THANK YOU.

SUBJECT: TFIDOI:SITUATION IN EASTERN INDONESIA MAY 20

1. SUMMARY: STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS CONTINUED MAY 20 IN SURABAYA AT SURABAYA UNIVERSITY (UBAYA), THE NOVEMBER 10TH INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY (ITS), AND THE TEACHER TRAINING COLLEGE (IKIP). DEMONSTRATIONS HAVE BEEN MOSTLY PEACEFUL, THE STUDENTS DID NOT LEAVE CAMPUS. POLICE AND MILITARY IN SURABAYA LATER SOUGHT TO CHECK UNAUTHORIZED CONVOYS OFF CAMPUS. IN YOGYAKARTA, THOUSANDS GATHERED AT THE SULTAN'S PALACE FOR AN ADDRESS AND DEMONSTRATION. CONTACTS REPORTED CROWDS GATHERING IN THE MALIOBORO AREA AND WERE WARNED BY POLICE TO EXPECT VIOLENCE LATER IN THE DAY. IN UJUNG PANDANG, MASSIVE CROWDS GATHERED IN THE CITY CENTER FOR A DEMONSTRATION CALLING ON PRESIDENT SUHARTO TO RESIGN. AS OF 1500 DEMONSTRATORS WERE CIRCLING THE CITY IN CONVOYS BUT THERE HAD BEEN NO VIOLENCE. THE SEMARANG AIRPORT MAY BE CLOSED. THOUSANDS DEMONSTRATED PEACEFULLY IN SOLO. 1000 LABORERS DEMONSTRATED MAY 19 IN FRONT OF THE SURABAYA OFFICE OF THE SPSI. DEMONSTRATING STUDENTS WERE BEATEN BY MILITARY FORCES OUTSIDE AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY IN SURABAYA THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 19. TWENTY FOUR WERE INJURED, THREE OF THEM SERIOUSLY. END SUMMARY.

2. IN SURABAYA ON MAY 19 STUDENT DEMONSTRATORS WERE BEATEN BY MILITARY FORCES AS THEY ATTEMPTED TO CONTINUE STREET PROTESTS. TWENTY-FOUR STUDENTS WERE INJURED, THREE OF THEM SERIOUSLY. STUDENTS HAD REPORTEDLY RECEIVED POLICE PERMISSION TO CIRCLE THE AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY (UNAIR) CAMPUS ON MOTORCYCLES AS THEY DEMONSTRATED. AFTER SEVERAL TRIPS AROUND THE CAMPUS THE POLICE ASKED THE STUDENTS TO RETURN TO CAMPUS. WHEN THE STUDENTS REFUSED THEY WERE AMBUSHED BY KOSTRAD TROOPS WHO IMMEDIATELY BEGAN BEATING THE DEMONSTRATORS WITH RATTAN STAFFS. STUDENTS

FLED INTO THE UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL AND WERE NOT PURSUED. THREE STUDENTS RECEIVED SERIOUS HEAD INJURIES THAT REQUIRED THEM TO BE ADMITTED TO INTENSIVE CARE, FOURTEEN WERE TREATED AND RELEASED. ONE SOLDIER WHO WAS SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN HE FELL OUT OF HIS TRUCK WAS JEERED BY STUDENTS WHEN HE WAS BROUGHT TO THE UNIVERSITY HOSPITAL FOR TREATMENT. HE HAS NOT REGAINED CONSCIOUSNESS.

3. WE DROVE THROUGH THE SCENE OF THE ATTACK SOON AFTERWARDS. WE SAW A SIZEABLE MILITARY PRESENCE WAITING NEAR CAMPUS, INCLUDING

TWO TRUCKS FULL OF SOLDIERS AND ANOTHER GROUP ON MOTORCYCLES, BUT TRAFFIC WAS MOVING SMOOTHLY. WE HAVE HEARD REPORTS THAT STUDENT DEMONSTRATORS WERE PUSHED BY MILITARY TRUCKS ON MAY 18. NO SERIOUS INJURIES WERE REPORTED.

4. ALSO ON MAY 19, CLOSE TO 1000 LABORERS DEMONSTRATED AT THE OFFICE OF THE OFFICIAL LABOR UNION (SPSI). THE WORKERS, LED BY THE PROVINCIAL CHAIRMAN OF THE SPSI, DEMANDED SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION AND AN END TO COLLUSION, CORRUPTION, AND NEPOTISM. THE DEMONSTRATION BROKE UP PEACEFULLY. AT ONE SHOE FACTORY IN THE RUNGKUT INDUSTRIAL AREA, THE OWNERS WERE REPORTEDLY HELD FOR TEN HOURS BY SCORES OF MOSTLY FEMALE WORKERS DEMANDING UNPAID WAGES. POLICE FREED THE OWNERS WITHOUT VIOLENCE.

5. ON MAY 20, DEMONSTRATIONS CONTINUED AS STUDENTS FROM AROUND SURABAYA GATHERED ON THE CAMPUSES OF UBAYA, ITS, AND IKIP. THE HUNDREDS OF THOUSANDS EXPECTED DID NOT MATERIALIZE AS MANY STUDENTS, FRIGHTENED BY THE INCIDENT AT UNAIR THE PREVIOUS DAY, STAYED AWAY. STUDENT LEADERS AT UBAYA TOLD US THAT THE RECTOR HAD REQUESTED THEY REMAIN ON CAMPUS. AT EACH CAMPUS A FEW THOUSAND DEMONSTRATORS HELD FREE SPEECH FORUMS AND SANG

NATIONALIST SONGS THROUGH THE EARLY AFTERNOON. AT IKIP, A SMALL GROUP OF RADICAL STUDENTS ATTEMPTED TO MOVE OFF CAMPUS. THEY WERE CONFRONTED BY POLICE AND RETURNED TO CAMPUS. THROUGHOUT THE CITY, SANCTIONED DEMONSTRATIONS BROKE UP IN THE EARLY AFTERNOON AND STUDENTS LEFT CAMPUS IN SMALL GROUPS. MILITARY UNITS ARE BEING REENFORCED, WE UNDERSTAND, AND ANTI-AIRCRAFT UNITS FROM SINGOSARI ARE IN SURABAYA. PEMUDA PANCASILA (PROFESSIONAL THUGS CLOSE TO THE GOVERNMENT) AND PEMUDA PANCA MANGGA UNITS (YOUTH GROUPS TIED TO THE ABRI), AND BANSER (THE PARAMILITARY WING OF THE NU) ARE ALSO SUPPORTING THE MILITARY.

6. CONVOYS OF STUDENTS AND YOUTH BEGAN FORMING MID-AFTERNOON FROM CAMPUSES SUCH AS AIRLANGGA, IKIP, AND UBAYA. THE CONVOYS WERE JOINED BY OTHERS FROM SOCIETY IN GENERAL. MILITARY FORCES ACTED QUICKLY TO BREAK UP THESE SMALL GROUPS AND PURSUED THEM AT HIGH SPEED WITH TRUCKS AND SHOOTING INTO THE AIR. A SIMILAR INCIDENT WAS REPORTED AT 1420 AT UBAYA. AT 1530 WE RECEIVED A REPORT OF A CONVOY OF 1000 STUDENTS, YOUTHS, AND LOCAL RESIDENTS HEADING AWAY FROM ITS AND UNAIR TOWARDS THE CENTER OF TOWN. WE

SAW ONE CONVOY OF MORE 3000 PEOPLE PASS THE CONSULATE AT 1615 THROUGH THE MAIN CITY STREET NORTH AND TURN BACK SOUTH. THE MAIN BANNER SAID: STRUGGLE FOR REFORMATION AND SOVEREIGNTY OF THE PEOPLE. THE ATMOSPHERE WAS CELEBRATIVE. THE MILITARY APPEARED TO BE ATTEMPTING TO CHANNEL IT ONTO THE MAIN STREETS. WE HEARD WARNING SHOTS. (COMMENT: THE CONVOYS RESEMBLED THE BOISTEROUS DEMONSTRATIONS DURING LAST MAY'S ELECTION CAMPAIGN.)

7. IN YOGYAKARTA, TWO MAJOR DEMONSTRATQONS WERE HELD, ONE IN THE MORNING OF ABOUT 5000 AT THE GADJAH MADA UNIVERSITY DURING WHICH THE SULTAN SPOKE, AND ONE LATER AT THE KRATON (SULTAN'S PALACE) THAT SWELLED TO ABOUT 500,000. STUDENTS FROM ALL REGIONAL UNIVERSITIES GATHERED AT THE SULTAN'S PALACE, WHERE THE SULTAN GAVE AN ADDRESS IN SUPPORT OF REFORM. BY 1330 THOUSANDS OF STUDENTS WERE GATHERING IN THE MALIOBORO DISTRICT. POLICE WERE WARNING FACTORY AND SHOP OWNERS THAT STUDENT CONVOYS WOULD ATTACK NON-PRIBUMI PLACES OF BUSINESS. AN ACADEMIC CONTACT DISMISSED THIS AS SCARE-MONGERING. NO VIOLENCE WAS REPORTED DURING THE DAY.

8. SOLO CONTACTS REPORTED THOUSANDS OF STUDENTS DEMONSTRATED IN FRONT OF THE MAYOR'S OFFICE. STUDENTS RETURNED TO THEIR UNIVERSITIES IN THE AFTERNOON. CAR LOADS OF PROTESTORS PASSING THROUGH THE STREETS OF THE BUSINESS DISTRICT WERE CLOSELY FOLLOWED BY THE MILITARY. STREETS INTO MOST RESIDENTIAL AREAS WERE BARRICADED AND GUARDED BY CIVILIANS. ALL BANKS HAVE BEEN DAMAGED AND ARE NOT EXPECTED TO REOPEN BEFORE MAY 25. ONE AMERICAN TOLD US TWENTY OF HIS WORKERS WERE LIVING WITH HIM AND HIS BALINESE WIFE IN ORDER TO ASSURE HIS SAFETY. FIFTY WORKERS GUARDED HIS FACTORY. HIS BUSINESS HAD BEEN SPARED EARLIER IN THE

WEEK WHEN HIS STAFF WAS ABLE TO PROVE TO LOOTERS THAT IS WAS OWNED BY A NON-CHINESE INDONESIAN. THERE HAVE BEEN NO REPORTS OF BURNING ORLOOTING IN SOLO SINCE SATURDAY.

9. IN UJUNGPANDANG, LOCAL SOURCES REPORTED THAT MORE THAN NE HUNDRED THOUSAND GATHERED AT 0800 IN THQ CENTER OF THE CITY TO PROTEST. (NOTE: THIS UPDATES THE SITREP WHICH REPORTED NO MASSIVE CRWDS. END NOTE). AT 1100 DEMONSTRATORS BEGAN TO CONVOY AROUND THE CITY. BY 1330 THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF VIOLENCE OR DESTRUCTION. A RELIABLE HUMAN RIGHTS CONTACT TOLD US CHINESE-INDONESIANS WERE ENCOURAGED TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS DEMONSTRATION, CLOSE TO 1000 DID SO. IN PALU, CENTRAL SULAWESI, 5000 STUDENTS DEMONSTRATED AND MARCHED OFF CAMPUS TO TVRI AND THE DPRD. MILITARY UNITS TIGHTLY GUARDED TVRI BUT ALLOWED THE DEMONSTRATORS TO ENTER THE DPRD. MANADO WAS CALM AND REPORTED NO DEMONSTRATIONS.

10. CONAGENT BALI REPORTS THAT A FEW THOUSAND DEMONSTRATED AT UDAYANA, THE LARGEST UNIVERSITY IN DENPASAR, BUT THAT STUDENTS REMAINED ON CAMPUS. A SMALL GROUP PROTESTED AT THE DPRD WITHOUT INCIDENT. MILITARY IS GUARDING KEY BUILDINGS AND INTERSECTIONS BUT TOURIST AREAS ARE CALM AND INCIDENT FREE.

11. AS OF 1630 LOCAL TIME, WE ARE AWARE OF NO INJURIES OR DIRECT CLASHES ON MAY 20 BETWEEN DEMONSTRATORS AND AUTHORITIES IN THE SURABAYA CONSULAR DISTRICT. CONVOYS, HOWEVER, ARE STILL CONTINUING HERE AND MOST LIKELY IN YOGYAKARTA, AND POSSIBLY UNJUNG PANDANG AND ELSEWHERE. PIERCE/ROY

1. (U) PRIME MINISTER GOH CHOK TONG ISSUED THE FOLLOWING PRESS RELEASE ON SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION:

BEGIN TEXT

STATEMENT FROM THE PRIME MINISTER OF SINGAPORE, 21 MAY 1998

I AM RELIEVED THAT POLITICAL TRANSITION IN INDONESIA HAS TAKEN PLACE PEACEFULLY AND CONSTITUTIONALLY. IN DECIDING TO STEP DOWN IN THE INTEREST OF THE NATION AND THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE, PRESIDENT SOEHARTO HAS ACTED IN A RESPONSIBLE, DIGNIFIED MANNER. HE HAS MADE GREAT CONTRIBUTIONS TO INDONESIA AND TO ASEAN.

INDONESIA FACES FORMIDABLE CHALLENGES AHEAD. WE HOPE THAT THE NEW GOVERNMENT UNDER PRESIDENT B.J. HABIBIE WILL BE ABLE TO RESTORE POLITICAL AND SOCIAL STABILITY, A PREREQUISITE FOR ECONOMIC RECOVERY. SINGAPORE LOOKS FORWARD TO CONTINUING ITS CLOSE AND FRIENDLY RELATIONS WITH INDONESIA.

END TEXT OF PRESS RELEASE.

2. (U) NON-OFFICIAL PUBLIC REACTION HAS BEEN CAUTIOUSLY POSITIVE. ON A SPECIAL EDITION OF TV'S "INSIGHT," INDONESIA WATCHERS LEONARD SEBASTIAN (SINGAPOREAN; INSTITUTE OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES) AND FARID ALATAS (INDONESIAN; SOCIOLOGIST; NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF SINGAPORE) VIEWED HABIBIE AS A TRANSITION FIGURE WHO, IF HE MADE THE RIGHT MOVES, COULD FACILITATE ORDERLY POLITICAL REFORM AND A CONSTITUTIONAL TRANSFER OF POWER. SEBASTIAN ESPECIALLY EMPHASIZED THE IMPORTANCE OF A STABLE, CONSTITUTIONAL TRANSFORMATION. THE THIRD PARTICIPANT, BRUCE GALE, (AUSTRALIAN; POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC RISK CONSULTANCY) EMPHASIZED THE POTENTIAL FOR INSTABILITY AND THE DAUNTING CHALLENGES OF POLITICAL REFORM.

3. (U) EDITORIALS IN THE MAY 22 PRESS WERE MORE CAUTIOUS THAN POSITIVE ABOUT THE FUTURE, PRAISED SOEHARTO'S HISTORICAL RECORD, BUT FRANKLY ASSESSED THE WEAKNESSES THAT BROUGHT HIS DOWNFALL. THE MAY 22 "STRAITS TIMES" EDITORIAL EMPHASIZED THE FORCE OF POPULAR OPINION IN SOEHARTO'S DOWNFALL AND THE MANY UNPREDICTABLE POLITICAL FORCES UNLEASHED. IT SAID IT IS TOO EARLY TO TELL WHETHER HABIBIE

WILL DO WHAT IS NEEDED, BUT EMPHASIZED NEGATIVE REACTIONS TO HABIBIE FROM THE FORCES THAT BROUGHT DOWN SOEHARTO. A CRUCIAL FIRST TEST WOULD BE THE QUALITY OF HIS NEW CABINET. THE MAY 22 "BUSINESS TIMES" EMPHASIZED THE SOEHARTO LEGACY: THREE DECADES OF GOOD YEARS FOR INDONESIANS, WITH RISING INCOME, LOWERED ILLITERACY, AND IMPROVEMENTS IN HEALTH; AN END TO AN ERA OF HOSTILITY IN THE REGION AND A KEY ROLE IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF ASEAN. HOWEVER, SOEHARTO DID NOT ALLOW ANY LEGITIMATE POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS TO DEVELOP, PROVIDED FOR NO SUCCESSION, AND, WITH HIS OWN LEGITIMACY BASED SOLELY ON RISING PROSPERITY, BECAME THE VICTIM OF HIS OWN POLITICAL MACHINATIONS WHEN PROSPERITY ENDED.

4. (U) OTHER ARTICLES IN THE MAY 22 PRESS REFLECTED THE THEMES OF CAUTIOUS WAITING AND PRAISE FOR SOEHARTO'S PAST. THE "STRAITS TIMES" CARRIED A SERIES OF NOSTALGIC PHOTOGRAPHS OF SOEHARTO'S CAREER, INCLUDING ONE OF A FLOWER-BEDECKED LEE KUAN YEW WITH SOEHARTO DURING A 1973 VISIT TO JAKARTA. BUSINESS LEADERS, INTERVIEWED IN THE "BUSINESS TIMES," WERE MILDLY ENCOURAGED THAT INDONESIANS DID NOT APPEAR TO HAVE STRONG OBJECTIONS TO HABIBIE, THOUGH THEY RECOGNIZED THE FORCE OF STUDENT OPINION. THEY WERE UNANIMOUS ON THE IMPORTANCE OF HABIBIE'S SENDING POSITIVE SIGNALS

TO THE WORLD BUSINESS AND FINANCIAL COMMUNITY.

5. (U) THE "STRAITS TIMES" INTERVIEWED 40 INDONESIANS WHO HAD FLED THE UNREST IN INDONESIA. MOST OF THEM, THE "STRAITS TIMES" REPORTED, SAID THAT NEW PRESIDENT HABIBIE WOULD NOT BE ACCEPTED AND THAT THE UNREST IN INDONESIA WOULD CONTINUE. SOME SAID THEY WOULD APPLY FOR VISAS TO THE U.S. OR AUSTRALIA, AND OTHERS WERE PLANNING TO REGISTER THEIR CHILDREN AT THE INDONESIAN SCHOOL IN SINGAPORE. THE "STRAITS TIMES" REPORTED THAT 120 INDONESIANS APPLIED FOR AUSTRALIAN VISAS ON MAY 21. 130 INDONESIANS, VIRTUALLY ALL ETHNIC CHINESE, APPLIED FOR VISAS AT THE U.S. EMBASSY THIS WEEK, A SIGNIFICANT UPSURGE.

SUMMARY
---

1. (C) CHINESE OFFICIAL REACTION TO INDONESIAN PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION HAS BEEN MUTED. ON MAY 21, THE MFA SPOKESPERSON EXPRESSED CHINA'S DESIRE FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF INDONESIA'S SOCIAL STABILITY BUT REFUSED TO COMMENT ON THE LEADERSHIP TRANSITION. CHINESE PRINT AND BROADCAST MEDIA HAVE REPORTED EVENTS IN INDONESIA EXTENSIVELY, BUT APPEAR TO HAVE AVOIDED ANY MENTION OF STUDENT PROTESTS THERE. CNN RECEPTION IN BEIJING HAS BEEN PERIODICALLY INTERRUPTED OVER THE PAST 24 HOURS. CNN BEIJING HAS NOT YET BEEN ABLE TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE SERVICE BREAKS ARE DUE TO CHINESE CENSORSHIP OR A GENUINE TECHNICAL PROBLEM. END SUMMARY.

MFA REACTION
---

2. (C) CHINESE OFFICIAL REACTION TO INDONESIAN PRESIDENT SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION HAS BEEN MUTED. DURING A REGULARLY SCHEDULED MFA PRESS BRIEFING ON THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 21, MFA SPOKESPERSON ZHU BANGZAO SAID CHINA HOPED FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF SOCIAL STABILITY AND THE RESTORATION OF NORMAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN INDONESIA FOLLOWING SOEHARTO'S ANNOUNCEMENT. HE REFUSED TO COMMENT ON THE LEADERSHIP TRANSITION, CALLING IT AN INDONESIAN INTERNAL AFFAIR. (NOTE: MFA OFFICIALS HAVE NOT YET RESPONDED TO OUR REQUESTS FOR MEETINGS ABOUT THE SITUATION IN INDONESIA. THE EMBASSIES OF AUSTRALIA, MALAYSIA AND SINGAPORE HAVE SIMILAR APPOINTMENT REQUESTS PENDING WITH THE MFA.)

CHINESE MEDIA REACTION

3. (U) CHINESE PRINT AND BROADCAST MEDIA HAVE REPORTED EVENTS IN INDONESIA EXTENSIVELY, BUT APPEAR TO HAVE AVOIDED ANY MENTION OF STUDENT PROTESTS THERE. ON MAY 21, CHINESE STATE-RUN TELEVISION'S LATE EVENING CHINESE-LANGUAGE NEWS RAN AS ITS LEAD STORY SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION. IT DID NOT INCLUDE ANY FILM FOOTAGE OF STUDENT PROTESTERS. THE REPORT INDICATED THAT THE CAUSE OF THE LEADERSHIP TRANSITION WAS THE ECONOMIC DIFFICULTIES FACED BY INDONESIA AS A RESULT OF THE ASIAN FINANCIAL CRISIS.

4. (C) ON MAY 22, THE CHINESE-LANGUAGE "PEOPLE'S DAILY" CARRIED THREE BRIEF FRONT-PAGE REPORTS: ON SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION, ON THE MFA PRESS BRIEFING, AND ON EXPRESSING THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT'S CONCERN FOR THE SAFETY AND SECURITY OF OVERSEAS CHINESE, INCLUDING THOSE FROM TAIWAN, HONG KONG, AND MACAO. THE ARTICLE NOTED THAT THE CHINESE EMBASSY IN JAKARTA WOULD DO EVERYTHING IT COULD TO PROTECT OVERSEAS CHINESE IN INDONESIA AND ASSIST THOSE WHO WISHED TO DEPART INDONESIA. OTHER LENGTHIER ARTICLES ON INDONESIA WERE RELEGATED TO PAGES SIX AND SEVEN OF THE PAPER. THESE INCLUDED STORIES ON THE NEGATIVE IMPACT OF INDONESIA'S TURMOIL ON THE REGION'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY, THE RIOTS AND FIRES, AND THE INDONESIAN MILITARY'S SUPPORT FOR THE LEADERSHIP TRANSITION. NONE OF THE ARTICLES WE HAVE SEEN THUS FAR HAVE MENTIONED STUDENT PROTESTS. XINHUA'S ENGLISH-LANGUAGE REPORTING ON INDONESIA FOCUSED ON THE CONSTITUTIONAL BASIS FOR THE TRANSFER OF POWER FROM SOEHARTO TO HABIBIE.

CNN CENSORED?

5. (C) CNN RECEPTION AT SEVERAL BEIJING DIPLOMATIC COMPOUNDS WAS INTERRUPTED THROUGHOUT THE EVENING OF MAY 21 AND MORNING OF MAY 22. TECHNICAL PERSONNEL IN CNN'S BEIJING OFFICE SAID THEY HAVE NOT YET BEEN ABLE TO DETERMINE THE CAUSE OF THE RECEPTION PROBLEMS AND ARE PURSUING THE MATTER WITH CHINESE AUTHORITIES. WHILE THEY FIRST SUSPECTED IT MIGHT BE A CENSORSHIP BY THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT, THEY HAVE NOT RULED OU
T TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES.

COMMENT

6. (C) THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT'S LOW-KEY REACTION TO THE SOEHARTO RESIGNATION DOES NOT SURPRISE US. THROUGHOUT THE TURMOIL OF THE PAST FEW WEEKS AND MONTHS, THE CHINESE

NEIGHBOR. DURING THE CAREFULLY TIMED APRIL 12-13 VISIT TO JAKARTA OF FOREIGN MINISTER TANG JIAXUAN, FOR EXAMPLE, THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT ANNOUNCED A USD 200 MILLION PACKAGE OF EXPORT CREDITS AND USD 3 MILLION IN FREE FOOD AND MEDICINES. WHILE MFA OFFICIALS HAVE INDICATED TO US PRIVATELY THAT THEY ARE NOT PARTICULARLY ENAMORED OF NEWLY INSTALLED PRESIDENT HABIBIE (REF B), IT IS EXTREMELY UNLIKELY THAT THEY WOULD PUBLICLY VOICE THESE SENTIMENTS. EVEN IF POLITICAL AND SOCIAL INSTABILITY WERE TO CONTINUE IN INDONESIA, THE CHINESE WOULD BE UNLIKELY TO TAKE ANY STRONG ACTIONS SUCH AS A MILITARY-ASSISTED EVACUATION OF ETHNIC CHINESE CITIZENS. AS ONE SINGAPORE DIPLOMAT IN BEIJING TOLD US YESTERDAY, CHINA WOULD "NEVER" TAKE ANY ACTION WHICH MIGHT "CONFIRM THE WORST FEARS OF ITS ASIAN NEIGHBORS."

7. (C) WHILE CHINESE MFA OFFICIALS HAVE PRIVATELY EXPRESSED TO US ANXIETY ABOUT THE IMPACT AND INFLUENCE OF STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS IN INDONESIA (REF A), OFFICIAL CHINESE STATEMENTS AND MEDIA REPORTS APPEAR TO HAVE SCRUPULOUSLY AVOIDED ANY MENTION OF INDONESIA'S "PEOPLE POWER." THIS IS TO BE EXPECTED GIVEN THAT THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE 1989 TIANANMEN PROTESTS IS JUST TWO WEEKS AWAY.

DATE/CASE ID: 06 DEC 2006 200503180

IS THAT CALM AND ECONOMIC RECOVERY RETURN TO INDONESIA AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. END SUMMARY.

KING AND GOVERNMENT OFFER CONGRATULATIONS

---

3. (U) AS MALAYSIA'S HEAD OF STATE, THE KING OFFERED CONGRATULATIONS TO HABIBIE WITH PREDICTABLE EXPRESSIONS OF CONFIDENCE AND CALLS FOR EVEN BETTER RELATIONS BETWEEN MALAYSIA AND INDONESIA. PM MAHATHIR SAID HE WAS PLEASED THAT THE TRANSITION HAD BEEN CONDUCTED PEACEFULLY AND ACCORDING TO THE CONSTITUTION. THE PM SAID HE HOPES THAT "INDONESIA WILL SPEEDILY RECOVER ... A CALM AND PEACEFUL SITUATION." THE PM SAID HE IS CONFIDENT THAT INDONESIANS WILL GIVE HABIBIE THEIR FULL SUPPORT "TO LEAD THE COUNTRY INTO THE NEXT MILLENNIUM." THE PM ALSO SAID HE HOPED THE SPECIAL FRIENDSHIP BETWEEN INDONESIA AND MALAYSIA WOULD CONTINUE. DEPUTY PM ANWAR SAID SEPARATELY THAT THE PM (WHO IS RECOVERING IN THE HOSPITAL FROM A MINOR OPERATION) HAD FURTHER INSTRUCTED HIM TO ANNOUNCE THAT THE GOM IS "HAPPY THAT THE TRANSFER OF POWER WAS DONE IN PEACE ACCORDING TO THE INDONESIAN CONSTITUTION." FOREIGN MINISTER ABDULLAH, SPEAKING AT THE NAM SESSION IN CARTAGENA, MADE SIMILAR REMARKS.

NGOS CALL FOR REFORM

---

4. (U) HUMAN RIGHTS AND PUBLIC INTEREST NGOS EXULTED OVER SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION AND CALLED ON HABIBIE TO IMPLEMENT SWIFT REFORMS. POLICY RESEARCH INSTITUTE DIRECTOR ABDUL RAHMAN ADNAN SAID PUBLICLY THAT HE HOPED SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION WOULD ALLOW FOR FACTIONS TO "CALM DOWN" AND BRING ABOUT "POLITICAL REFORM AND ECONOMIC RECOVERY." CENPEACE SENIOR COORDINATOR NOR AZMI ABDUL KADIR CALLED EVENTS IN INDONESIA A "TRIUMPH OF DEMOCRACY." OTHER NGO LEADERS MADE SIMILAR PUBLIC REMARKS.

ACADEMICS AND BUSINESSMEN
---

5. (U) MOST ACADEMICS AND BUSINESS LEADERS CALLED FOR A QUICK RETURN TO CALM. CHINESE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DEPUTY SECRETARY GENERAL DAVID CHUA SAID THE MAIN CONCERN OF THE MALAYSIAN BUSINESS COMMUNITY IS THAT "NORMALCY" SHOULD RETURN AND INVESTOR CONFIDENCE BE RESTORED. ACADEMICS MADE MEASURED ASSESSMENTS OF THE DIFFICULTIES FACING HABIBIE, THE DAUNTING TASK OF RECONSTRUCTING THE INDONESIAN ECONOMY, AND THE PRESSING NEED FOR RESTORING ECONOMIC GROWTH AND ALLEVIATING POVERTY.

THE SYMBOLISM

6. (C) SOME COMMENTATORS ARE ALREADY NOTING THE SYMBOLISM OF SUHARTO'S FALL FROM POWER AND ITS APPLICABILITY--OR LACK THEREOF--TO MALAYSIA. WITH SUHARTO GONE, PRIME MINISTER

MAHATHIR IS NOW THE LONGEST SERVING RULER IN SOUTHEAST ASIA (WITH THE POSSIBLE EXCEPTION OF THE KING OF BRUNEI, WHO IS OBVIOUSLY IN A DIFFERENT CLASS. AND MAHATHIR ALSO FACES A DECLINING ECONOMY AND CHARGES OF CRONYISM. A SENATOR FROM THE RULING BARISAN NASIONAL (FROM ONE OF THE SMALLER BORNEO-BASED PARTIES, NOT FROM UMNO) TOLD US AFTER SUHARTO RESIGNED THAT HE WAS SURE THIS WOULD HAVE AN EFFECT WITHIN UMNO. MAHATHIR WOULD BE MORE ANXIOUS ABOUT HIS POSITION, HE SAID, AND ANWAR'S MEN WOULD BE MORE ASSERTIVE ABOUT THE NEED FOR A CHANGE. STILL, HE WAS NOT TALKING ABOUT IMMEDIATE CHANGE, BUT MORE ABOUT WHAT MIGHT HAPPEN AT THE UMNO GENERAL ELECTIONS IN MID-1999.

---

7. (C) THE VARIOUS STATEMENTS OF MALAYSIAN COMMENTATORS (PM, DPM, FM, NGO, BUSINESSMEN, ACADEMICS) WERE SO PREDICTABLE

THAT THEY COULD HAVE BEEN SCRIPTED. THE ONLY REMARKABLE ITEM WAS THE PM'S BEING "CONFIDENT" THAT HABIBIE WOULD LEAD INDONESIA "INTO THE NEXT MILLENNIUM." IN OUR VIEW HOWEVER, THIS STATEMENT IS SIGNIFICANT MAINLY AS EVIDENCE THAT THE PM DOES NOT CAREFULLY WEIGH EVERY WORD OF HIS PUBLIC REMARKS.

CONCERN FOR STABILITY

IN SUM, MALAYSIA'S VIRTUALLY SOLE CONCERN IS THAT INDONESIA GET BACK ON ITS FEET AGAIN. MALAYSIANS HOPE THAT INDONESIA WILL QUICKLY AND BY WHATEVER MEANS RESTORE A CALM SOCIAL ENVIRONMENT AND BEGIN AN ECONOMIC RECOVERY.

8. (C) WITH REGARD TO THE EFFECT ON MAHATHIR AND UMNO, WE WOULD CAUTION NOT TO MAKE TOO MUCH OF THIS OR TO EXPECT ANY IMMEDIATE CHANGES. NONETHELESS, THE SYMBOLISM IS REAL, AND

COULD PLAY OUT IN A SUBTLE WAY AS THE POLITICAL PROCESS GATHERS STEAM TOWARD 1999-2000. IN THE SHORT RUN, MAHATHIR HAS COMMENTED RECENTLY THAT OUTSIDE FORCES WERE TRYING TO BRING SUHARTO DOWN, AND THAT THE SAME FORCES WERE AFTER HIM. THIS PERSECUTION COMPLEX WILL NO DOUBT BE REINFORCED BY SUHARTO'S FALL. CERTAINLY DR. M. WILL BE CONFIRMED IN HIS OWN CONVICTION THAT THE IMF IS DANGEROUS TO THE HEALTH OF LONG-TERM RULERS.

DATE/CASE ID: 06 DEC 2006 200503180

DEMONSTRATORS MAY 20 IN SURABAYA, MORE THAN 30 WERE INJURED. DEMONSTRATIONS OCCURRED IN OTHER MAJOR CITIES IN EAST AND CENTRAL JAVA AS WELL, INCLUDING A GATHERING OF MORE THAN 100,000 IN SEMARANG. ALL APPEARED PEACEFUL. DEMONSTRATORS IN SOUTHEAST SULAWESI REPORTEDLY FORCED THE GOVERNOR TO LOWER THE INDONESIAN FLAG. SOME SURABAYA STUDENT LEADERS, UNPREPARED FOR SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION MAY 21, RUSHED TO CAMPUSES TO CONFER WITH COLLEAGUES. BY AFTERNOON, A PEACEFUL STUDENT DEMONSTRATION SUPPORTING REFORM HAD OCCURRED NEAR THE GOVERNOR'S MANSION. ANOTHER, CALLING FOR HABIBIE'S RESIGNATION, WAS PLANNED FOR 1600 AT THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE. END SUMMARY.

SURABAYA SITUATION MAY 21

2. SECURITY WAS TIGHT AROUND THE CENTER OF SURABAYA BEFORE SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION. TROOPS HAD SET UP CHECKPOINTS NEAR THE NATIONAL RADIO STATION (RRI) BUILDING NEAR A POPULAR SHOPPING CENTER. IN OTHER PLACES TROOP DEPLOYMENTS REMAINED NORMAL. SOME STUDENT GROUPS APPEARED SURPRISED BY SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION AND MANY STUDENTS TOLD US THEY WERE TRYING TO DECIDE WHAT TO DO NEXT. WE HEARD OF MEETINGS ON MANY SURABAYA CAMPUSES AS STUDENTS SOUGHT TO DETERMINE THE PROPER RESPONSE TO THE NEW PRESIDENT.

3. BY NOON, A GROUP OF MUSLIM AIRLANGGA STUDENTS HAD BEGUN A PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION ACROSS FROM THE GOVERNOR'S MANSION. BANNERS CALLED FOR PEACEFUL REFORM. FEMALE STUDENTS, ALL IN TRADITIONAL MUSLIM DRESS, WERE BROUGHT BACK TO CAMPUS BY MILITARY VEHICLES, ONE OF WHICH SPORTED A BANNER READING "WE THIRST FOR THE GOALS OF REFORM!" ABOUT 100 MILITARY AND POLICE GUARDED THE 500 DEMONSTRATORS UNTIL THE DEMONSTRATION BROKE UP ABOUT 1330.

4. WE UNDERSTAND SOME STUDENT GROUPS HAVE REJECTED PRESIDENT HABIBIE, AND ARE DEMANDING HIS IMMEDIATE RESIGNATION AND THE SCHEDULING OF A SPECIAL SESSION. SURABAYA UNIVERSITY STUDENTS AND OTHERS WERE PLANNING TO DEMONSTRATE AT THE LOCAL LEGISLATIVE BUILDING AT 1600.

5. LATE AFTERNOON MAY 20 IN SURABAYA, A CONVOY OF CLOSE TO 3000 CIRCLED THE CITY. THEY WERE STOPPED BY MILITARY AS THEY TRIED TO PASS INTO THE CENTER OF TOWN. THE CONVEYERS THEN STONED THE OLYMPIC HOTEL BEFORE THEY WERE CHASED BY MILITARY PERSONNEL IN TRUCKS. TENS OF MOTORCYCLES WERE WRECKED AFTER THEY WERE HIT BY TRUCKS. STUDENTS WERE CHASED BY MILITARY INTO THE SIDE STREETS. MORE THAN 30 WERE REPORTED INJURED, AT LEAST ONE BYSTANDER BY A RUBBER BULLET. BY EVENING SURABAYA WAS QUIET.

6. IN MALANG, BANYUWANGI, AND JEMBER THOUSANDS OF STUDENTS TOOK TO THE STREETS MAY 20 IN MOTORCYCLE CONVOYS TO DEMAND REFORM. HUNDREDS RALLIED AT UNIVERSITIES IN GRESIK AND SITUBONDO. IN JOMBANG, THOUSANDS OF STUDENTS, LABORERS, AND RELIGIOUS SCHOLARS TOOK TO THE STREETS BUT WERE PREVENTED FROM ENTERING THE CENTER OF THE CITY BY MILITARY. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF INJURIES, BUT 15 PEOPLE WERE ARRESTED IN MALANG AS THEY TRIED TO ENTER A SHOPPING AREA.

7. IN SEMARANG MAY 20, MORE THAN 100,000 STUDENTS AND PROFESSORS TOOK TO THE STREETS IN VARIOUS LOCATIONS THROUGHOUT THE CITY TO DEMAND REFORM AND CALL FOR A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR. THE DEMONSTRATION WAS PEACEFUL, THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF VIOLENCE. PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION IN AND AROUND THE CITY WAS COMPLETELY SHUT DOWN. THE DIPONEGORO UNIVERSITY RECTOR REPORTEDLY DELIVERED A STATEMENT CALLING FOR A NEW GOVERNMENT BY JUNE 1 AND ELECTIONS BY DECEMBER 1998.

OUTSIDE JAVA

---

8. MORE THAN 10,000 STUDENTS IN MATARAM, LOMBOK MAY 20 HELD A LONG MARCH FROM MATARAM UNIVERSITY TO THE DPRD TO DEMAND SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION AND PROSECUTION, AS WELL AS AN ACCOUNTING OF HIS FAMILY WEALTH. IN KENDARI, SOUTHEAST SULAWESI, MORE THAN 7000 STUDENTS GATHERED MAY 20 TO DEMAND SUHARTO'S RESIGNATION AND A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR. AFTER THEIR DEMONSTRATION THEY MOUNTED TRUCKS FOR A PROCESSION AROUND THE CITY. UPON SEEING THE INDONESIAN FLAG AT THE GOVERNOR'S OFFICE FLYING AT FULL STAFF, THE CONVOY HALTED AND CALLED UPON GOVERNOR KAINUDIN TO COME OUT AND LOWER HIS FLAG TO HALF MAST. INITIALLY RELUCTANT, THE GOVERNOR FINALLY ADDRESSED THE STUDENTS AS THEY STOOD IN THE RAIN, THEN WENT OUT AND LOWERED HIS FLAG. WE HAVE ALSO HEARD THAT AS MANY AS 10,000 DEMONSTRATED IN KUPANG, EAST NUSATENGGARA.

ONE CONTACT REPORTS THAT IT WAS PEACEFUL. PIERCE/ROY

THE BETTER." DINI EXPRESSED ITALY'S HOPE THAT INDONESIA WILL PASS FROM AN "AUTHORITARIAN REGIME" TO "GREATER DEMOCRACY...ACCORDING TO THE RULES OF WESTERN DEMOCRACIES." DINI CHARACTERIZED INDONESIA'S FINANCIAL CRISIS AS THE "FIRST MAJOR POLITICAL CRISIS CAUSED BY GLOBALIZATION." ACCORDING TO DINI, THE CRISIS WAS "PARTLY THE RESULT OF ERRORS IN INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC POLICIES," AND PARTLY THE RESULT OF "TOO MANY LOANS FROM THE INTERNATIONAL BANKING AND FINANCIAL SYSTEMS, WITHOUT TAKING DUE PRECAUTIONS." DINI RECOGNIZED, HOWEVER, THAT "ALTHOUGH SUHARTO WAS AUTHORITARIAN," HE HAD "OBTAINED RESULTS" FOR INDONESIA'S ECONOMY.

2. IN RESPONSE TO A SPECIFIC QUESTION ON INDONESIA'S NEW PRESIDENT YUSUF HABIBIE BEING SUHARTO'S "GODSON" AND THUS TOO CLOSE TO THE EX-PRESIDENT, DINI RESPONDED, "I KNOW HABIBIE PERSONALLY. YES, IT IS TRUE, BUT EACH COUNTRY MAKES ITS OWN DECISIONS REGARDING ITS LEADERS. AS MINISTER (OF RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY), HABIBIE HAS SHOWN GREAT QUALITY. WE SHALL SEE."

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20036

No. 042/KD/V/98

The Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia presents its compliments to the Department of State of the United States of America, and has the honor to inform the latter that on 21 may 1998, President Soeharto resigned as the President of the Republic of Indonesia. Immediately thereafter, Vice President B.J. Habibie took his oath of office as the Third President of Indonesia before Supreme Court Chief Justice Sarwata.

In accordance with Article 8 of the 1945 Constitution, in case of the President's death, resignation or incapacity to carry out the duties of his office, the Vice President shall assume the Presidency and serve out the rest of the terms of office.

In order to carry out his new responsibilities, President B.J. Habibie has formed a new cabinet, the Development Reform Cabinet. The Cabinet was installed on 23 May 1998.

The Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Department of State of the United States of America the assurances of its highest consideration.

POTENTIAL CHANGE WOULD BE WHEN LARGE GROUPS OF NON-STUDENTS (HOUSEWIVES AND UNEMPLOYED MEN, PARTICULARLY) JOINED THE DEMONSTRATIONS; THIS WOULD LIKELY OCCUR, THOUGHT [redacted] B1 WHEN THAT HAPPENED, THE DEMONSTRATIONS COULD QUICKLY REACH A CRITICAL MASS THAT WOULD PROMPT SOEHARTO TO ORDER THE ARMY TO CLAMP DOWN. THIS WOULD FORCE THE ARMED FORCES LEADERSHIP, ALREADY SHOWING SIGNS OF A SPLIT ON HOW TO DEAL WITH THE CURRENT SITUATION, TO DECIDE HOW COMMITTED IT WAS TO SOEHARTO.

2. (C) THE ARMED FORCES LEADERSHIP WAS SHOWING SIGNS OF A BASIC SPLIT ON HOW TO HANDLE THE CURRENT DEMONSTRATIONS, SAID [redacted] COMMANDER IN CHIEF WIRANTO, ALREADY INSTRUCTED BY B1 SOEHARTO TO CLAMP DOWN ON THE DEMONSTRATORS, WAS WALKING A TIGHTROPE. WIRANTO HAD SENT WARNINGS TO THE STUDENTS NOT TO TAKE THEIR DEMONSTRATIONS TO THE STREET, BUT AT THE SAME TIME HE WAS TELLING THEM THE ARMED FORCES WERE NOT HOSTILE. [redacted] SAID HE HAD RECEIVED TODAY AN E-MAIL FROM JAKARTA REPORTING THAT WIRANTO'S DEPUTY, ARMED FORCES CHIEF FOR SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AFFAIRS SUSILO BANBANG, HAD COMMENTED (NOT PUBLICLY) THAT IT WOULD BE A GOOD IDEA TO CONVENE THE NATIONAL CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY TO DECIDE THE COUNTRY'S FUTURE (PRESUMABLY, BY REPLACING SOEHARTO). IF TRUE, PERHAPS THIS SIGNALED THE INTENTIONS OF THE "WIRANTO WING" OF THE ARMED FORCES, THOUGHT [redacted]

3. (C) ON THE OTHER HAND, ARMY STRATEGIC RESERVE COMMANDER (AND SOEHARTO SON IN LAW) PRABOWO WAS DOING HIS BEST TO PREVENT DEMONSTRATIONS FROM GETTING OUT OF CONTROL IN JAKARTA, WHERE ANY "FINAL SHOWDOWN" WOULD TAKE PLACE. PRABOWO WAS ALSO ENGAGED IN A POWER STRUGGLE WITH WIRANTO, WHICH WOULD REACH A

"MOMENT OF TRUTH" WHEN SOEHARTO ORDERED AN ARMY CRACKDOWN IN THE FACE OF MASS DEMONSTRATIONS. THE QUESTION WAS NOT IF THIS MOMENT WOULD COME, BUT WHEN, THOUGHT [redacted]

[redacted] B1

[redacted] THE GROUP HAD CONCLUDED RECENTLY THAT SOEHARTO'S REGIME WOULD NOT SURVIVE THE SERIES OF DEMONSTRATIONS THAT

WOULD CONTINUE TO BUILD AND EXPAND IN COMING WEEKS AND MONTHS. THIS DID NOT MEAN SOEHARTO WOULD BE OVERTHROWN OR FORCED TO STEP DOWN IN THE NEXT MONTH OR TWO. BUT HE WOULD MOST LIKELY NO LONGER BE INDONESIA'S LEADER BY THE END OF THIS YEAR, THE GROUP CONCLUDED.

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY PRINCIPAL OFFICER. REASON 1.5 (D)

2. (C) SUMMARY: ON MAY 8, AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY HELD A MASSIVE REFORMATION DEMONSTRATION ON CAMPUS. THE MAIN THEME WAS SUHARTO'S REPLACEMENT. STUDENTS, PROFESSORS, AND UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS SPOKE. LATER DOCTORS AND MEDICAL PERSONNEL AT NEARBY DR SUTOMO HOSPITAL ALSO DEMONSTRATED. CROWDS OF DEMONSTRATORS LATER CIRCULATED THROUGH PARTS OF TOWN. THE PROVINCIAL MILITARY COMMANDER HAD GIVEN HIS PERMISSION FOR THE AIRLANGGA DEMONSTRATION. ORGANIZERS CONSIDER THIS A MAJOR VICTORY. THEY SEE AIRLANGGA AS THE FIRST STATE-RUN EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION TO CALL OPENLY FOR PRESIDENT SUHARTO TO BE REPLACED. END SUMMARY.

3. (SBU) THE ADMINISTRATION OF AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY (UNAIR) HAS OPENLY HOSTED A MASSIVE CAMPUS DEMONSTRATION FOR REFORMATION AND SUHARTO'S SUCCESSION. ON MAY 8, SOME 5000-7000 STUDENTS AND FACULTY, AS WELL AS SOME FROM THE GENERAL POPULATION, STAGED A THREE HOUR RALLY ORGANIZED WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE AIRLANGGA ADMINISTRATION. EXAMS WERE POSTPONED, THE DEAN OF STUDENTS WENT AROUND CAMPUS ENCOURAGING STUDENTS AND FACULTY TO ATTEND. PERHAPS A THOUSAND FROM OTHER UNIVERSITIES JOINED IN.

4. (SBU) A PARADE OF ACADEMIC LEADERS--STUDENTS, PROFESSORS, ALUMNI, AND ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS--SPOKE BEFORE A HIGHLY MOTIVATED CROWD AGAINST A BACKDROP OF POSTERS AND PLACARDS DEMANDING THAT A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE PEOPLE'S CONSULTATIVE ASSEMBLY (MPR) BE HELD IMMEDIATELY TO REPLACE PRESIDENT SUHARTO. THE BANNER BEHIND THE PODIUM READ "STEP DOWN SUHARTO AND FACE TRIAL." IN FRONT, A LARGE BANNER STATED: "THE UNIVERSITY OF AIRLANGGA DEMANDS A SPECIAL SESSION." SPEAKERS CALLED FOR THE WITHDRAWAL OF THE FIVE POLITICAL LAWS (REF). THEY REJECTED THE 1997 PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION RESULTS AS ILLEGAL AND UNDEMOCRATIC AND THE 1998 SESSION OF THE MPR (WHICH REELECTED PRESIDENT SUHARTO). THEY CALLED FOR THE ABOLISHMENT OF THE MILITARY'S DWI-FUNGSI ROLE (WHEREBY MILITARY OFFICIALS HOLD CIVILIAN POSITIONS) AND FOR THE LOWERING OF PRICES.

5. (SBU) STUDENTS HAD SOME SUCCESS IN GETTING PARTICIPATION FROM OTHER GROUPS OF SOCIETY. FORTY LABORERS, NOW STRIKING AGAINST THEIR COMPANY, CAME, AS DID OTHERS. A NUMBER OF DOCTORS FROM NEAR-BY DR. SUTOMO HOSPITAL WANDERED THROUGH.

6. (SBU) OUTSIDE THE UNIVERSITY GROUNDS NEAR ALL EXITS ONE COULD SEE DOZENS OF RIOT POLICE. MORE WERE FARTHER DOWN THE STREETS. PLAINCLOTHES SECURITY WERE OBVIOUS AMONG THE CROWDS INSIDE.

7. (SBU) AIRLANGGA'S RECTOR WAS SCHEDULED TO READ THE PROCLAMATION CALLING FOR IMPLEMENTATION OF SUCCESSION AND OTHER THEMES (LOWER PRICES, APPEAL TO THE ARMY TO UNITE WITH THE PEOPLE, ETC). THE RECTOR ULTIMATELY DECIDED NOT TO. (WE DO NOT BELIEVE HE CAME.) THE DEAN OF STUDENTS FILLED IN.

8. (U) LATER IN THE DAY, AS MANY AS 2500 DOCTORS, STAFF, AND STUDENT NURSES FROM DR. SUTOMO HOSPITAL AND UNAIR HELD THEIR OWN DEMONSTRATION IN THE STREETS STRETCHING AROUND THE HOSPITAL AND UNAIR. REPORTEDLY, THE HOSPITAL'S DIRECTOR JOINED IN. SECURITY, APPARENTLY SURPRISED, WERE RELUCTANT TO TAKE ACTION AGAINST THE GROUP.

9. (U) THE PRESS REPORTED OTHER GROUPS OF STUDENTS SUCCESSFULLY

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

GOT INTO THE CITY CENTER TO DEMONSTRATE IN FRONT OF THE LOCAL ASSEMBLY. THERE WERE NO REPORTS OF CLASHES.

10. (C) ACADEMICS AND STUDENTS BELIEVE THE UNAIR DEMONSTRATION A MAJOR SUCCESS. PROFESSOR MARSETIO DONOSEPUTRO, INDONESIA'S FORMER AMBASSADOR TO UNESCO AND A FORMER UNAIR RECTOR, WAS AT THE PODIUM. [redacted] TOLD PO THAT THIS WAS THE FIRST OPEN SUPPORT BY A STATE EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTION FOR A CHANGE IN LEADERSHIP. [redacted] BELIEVED THAT PRESIDENT SUHARTO WOULD STEP DOWN IN A FEW MONTHS, PROBABLY UNDER THE GUISE OF HEALTH REASONS. THE PRESSURE AND MOMENTUM WAS TOO GREAT TO WITHSTAND.) ONE ACADEMIC, WHO HAD COMPOSED THE DEMONSTRATION'S MAIN DEMANDS SAID THAT THE ACADEMICS AND DEANS WHO HAD ORGANIZED THIS HAD REALIZED THAT THEY COULD BE FIRED IN THE DAYS TO COME. BUT, IN THE END, WE JUST DECIDED TO GO AHEAD, HE REMARKED. (COMMENT: RECTORS AT OTHER UNIVERSITIES HAVE BRIEFLY JOINED IN DEMONSTRATIONS, AS HAS UNAIR'S RECTOR EARLIER. BUT, WE DO NOT BELIEVE EARLIER SUPPORT FOR REFORMATION BY UNIVERSITIES HAS BEEN AS GREAT AS AT THE AIRLANGGA EVENT.)

B1

B1

11. (C) SEVERAL SOURCES TOLD US THAT THE DEMONSTRATION HAD BEEN APPROVED BY EAST JAVA MILITARY COMMANDER DJADJA SUPARMAN. AS THEY WERE ORGANIZING THE EVENT, THEY HAD DECIDED TO ASK HIM INFORMALLY. HE TOLD THEM TO REQUEST PERMISSION IN ACCORD WITH PROCEDURE. WHEN THEY DID, HE APPROVED IT. HE PUNCTUATED HIS APPROVAL BY AN ADMONITION NOT TO TAKE THE DEMONSTRATION TO THE STREETS. DEMONSTRATION LEADERS WERE EXTREMELY PLEASED. THEY TAKE IT TO MEAN

SUBJECT: SURABAYA STUDENTS COORDINATED, NON-VIOLENT

1. CLASSIFIED BY ECON/POLOFF. REASON 1.5 (B) AND (D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: A COMMITTEE HAS BEEN FORMED TO HELP COORDINATE THE ACTIVITIES OF STUDENT PROTESTORS IN SURABAYA. THE GROUP HAS BEEN INVOLVED IN EDUCATIONAL AND FUND-RAISING EFFORTS ON BEHALF OF THE STUDENTS. MEMBERS OF THE GROUP HAVE A CLOSE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE REGIONAL MILITARY COMMANDER AND ATTRIBUTE THE RELATIVE LACK OF VIOLENCE IN SURABAYA IN PART TO THIS RELATIONSHIP. STUDENT LEADERS ARE COMMITTED TO NON-VIOLENT PROTESTS BUT LEADERLESS NON-STUDENTS WILL LIKELY PUSH THE DEMONSTRATIONS TOWARD DESTRUCTIVE ACTS. END SUMMARY

3. (C) THE EVENING OF MAY 14 AND THE MORNING OF MAY 15 ECON/POLOFF MET WITH TWO MEMBERS OF THE AIRLANGGA UNIVERSITY FACULTY WHO HAVE BEEN CLOSELY INVOLVED WITH STUDENT ACTIVITIES. ACCORDING TO THESE SOURCES, A COORDINATING COMMITTEE, MADE UP OF 54 ACADEMICS AND INTELLECTUALS, HAS BEEN CREATED TO DIRECT AND COORDINATE STUDENT ACTIVISTS IN SURABAYA. THIS GROUP OPERATES IN UNISON WITH THE CITY-WIDE NETWORK OF STUDENT ORGANIZERS TO EDUCATE THE STUDENTS, COORDINATE DEMONSTRATION SCHEDULES, AND RAISE MONEY. THE COMMITTEE GREW FROM A SMALL GROUP OF AIRLANGGA PROFESSORS WHO HAVE BEEN ACTIVELY ADVISING STUDENTS SINCE BEFORE THE PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION. THEY HAVE BEEN GIVING COURSES TO INTERESTED STUDENT LEADERS AT NIGHT ON SUBJECTS RANGING FROM MILITARY OPERATIONS TO INDONESIAN HISTORY. STUDENT LEADERS HAVE COME TO THEM FOR ADVISE AND FINANCIAL SUPPORT. THE COMMITTEE MEMBERS ARE NOW TAKING AN ACTIVE ROLE IN ASSISTING AND COORDINATING THE DEMONSTRATORS, INCLUDING RAISING SIX MILLION

RUPIAH FROM PRIVATE DONORS (INCLUDING [redacted] TO FUND AN AIRLANGGA CAMPUS NEWSLETTER. (EMBASSY NOTE: [redacted] IS ALSO CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH AND FINANCIALLY SUPPORTIVE OF STUDENTS IN THE JAKARTA, BANDUNG AND OTHER AREAS. IN A MAY 15 MEETING WITH HIM IN JAKARTA, HE SAID THAT STUDENTS WOULD RESUME DEMONSTRATIONS MAY 18 IN THE JAKARTA AREA. END NOTE) B1 B1 B1

4. (C) COMMITTEE MEMBERS ARE ALSO BEGINNING TO THINK ABOUT WHAT MIGHT COME AFTER A SUHARTO REGIME. TO DATE, STUDENTS AND OTHERS

WORKING FOR REFORM HAVE NOT SPOKEN ABOUT THEIR GOALS BEYOND THE RESIGNATION OF THE SUHARTO GOVERNMENT AND THE REDUCTION OF PRICES. EVEN THE LAST HAS BEEN LOST IN RECENT DAYS AS THE CROWDS HAVE BECOME MORE BOLD IN CALLING FOR SUHARTO'S OUSTER. THE COMMITTEE IS PLANNING TO ADDRESS THESE ISSUES DURING A THREE DAY SEMINAR TO BE HELD MAY 25-27 AT SURABAYA UNIVERSITY. AMIEN RAIS, KWIK KIAN GEE, RIZAL RAMLI AND OTHERS ARE SCHEDULED TO ATTEND.

5. (C) SURABAYA HAS YET TO SEE THE WIDE SCALE DESTRUCTION, LOOTING, AND BURNING EVIDENT IN JAKARTA, SOLO, YOGYAKARTA AND OTHER PLACES. (NOTE: SEPTEL, COMPLETED AFTER THIS MESSAGE WAS PREPARED REPORTS SOME LATE MAY 15 DESTRUCTION IN SURABAYA, THOUGH APPARENTLY WITHOUT STUDENT INVOLVEMENT. END NOTE) ACADEMIC LEADERS ATTRIBUTE THIS TO TWO FACTORS: A STUDENT LEADERSHIP COMMITTED TO NON-VIOLENT PROTEST AND ACADEMICS WITH A CLOSE WORKING RELATIONSHIP WITH THE REGIONAL MILITARY COMMANDER DJADJA SUPARMAN. STUDENT LEADERS IN SURABAYA HAVE EMBRACED A NON-VIOLENT PHILOSOPHY ESPOUSED BY THEIR PROFESSORS AND ARE MAKING REAL EFFORTS TO AVOID DIRECT CONFRONTATION WITH THE MILITARY. THESE EFFORTS HAVE BEEN SUPPORTED BY ACADEMIC ADVISORS WHO HAVE NEGOTIATED SOLUTIONS WITH MILITARY UNIT COMMANDERS WHEN

DEMONSTRATIONS THREATENED TO SPILL OUT OF CONTROL.

6. (C) IN ADDITION, SOME MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE HAVE A CLOSE PERSONAL RELATIONSHIP WITH GENERAL [redacted] AND HAVE KEPT HIM B1
INFORMED OF PLANS FOR STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS. THIS KNOWLEDGE ALLOWS THE REGIONAL MILITARY A MEASURE OF FLEXIBILITY AND HAS ALLOWED THE STUDENTS MORE ROOM TO PROTEST. [redacted] IS WIDELY B1
REGARDED AS A WIRANTO PROTEGE. ONE NOTED THAT PROTESTORS IN UJUNG PANDANG ALSO HAD ORGANIZED LARGE DEMONSTRATIONS BUT THAT THESE HAD BEEN MOSTLY PEACEFUL. [redacted] B1

[redacted]

7. (C) THE CHARACTER OF DEMONSTRATIONS IS EXPECTED TO CHANGE DRAMATICALLY AS LARGE NUMBER OF NON-STUDENTS BEGIN TO JOIN IN THE ACTION. THE STUDENTS ARE COORDINATED AND HAVE A CERTAIN DEGREE OF POLITICAL KNOWLEDGE. MANY OF THOSE WHO ARE NOW PARTICIPATING IN DIFFERENT TYPES OF PROTESTS ARE NON-STUDENTS, LEADERLESS, LACKING IN CRITICAL THOUGHT, AND IMPOSSIBLE TO CONTROL. IT IS LIKELY THAT ENOUGH OF THESE LEADERLESS MASSES COULD SPARK THE KIND OF RIOTING AND VIOLENCE SEEN IN OTHER PARTS OF THE COUNTRY. (NOTE: THESE ACADEMICS ATTRIBUTED THE BURNING OF SHOPS LAST NIGHT TO THIS GROUP.) THIS COULD BREAK THE UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN THE MILITARY AND THE STUDENTS.

8. (C) COMMENT: THESE ACADEMICS WERE CLEARLY AFRAID THAT UNCONTROLLABLE ELEMENTS WOULD PROVOKE THE SECURITY FORCES TO RESPOND VIOLENTLY. THEY WERE VERY PROUD THAT SURABAYA HAD THUS FAR BEEN SPARED THE VIOLENCE RAVAGING OTHER CITIES. GENERAL WIRANTO WAS SOMEONE THEY FELT MIGHT BE SYMPATHETIC TO CALLS FOR REFORM, BUT THEY WERE VERY CRITICAL OF GENERAL PRABOWO, AND FEARED THAT HE MIGHT ASSUME A POSITION FROM WHICH HE WOULD HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO BEGIN MASS ARRESTS (A RECONSTITUTED KOKAMTIB WAS RUMORED). WHILE OUR CONTACTS ARE BEGINNING TO THINK BEYOND THE NEXT DEMONSTRATION, THERE IS NO REAL CONSENSUS EVEN AMONG ACADEMICS WHAT REFORM MEANS ONCE SUHARTO IS OUT OF THE PICTURE.

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLCOUNS ED MCWILLIAMS, REASON: 1.5(D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: THE ARMED FORCES MET ON THE MORNING OF MAY 17 TO RESOLVE TENSIONS BETWEEN THE FACTIONS LED BY DEFENSE MINISTER/CINC WIRANTO AND STRATEGIC RESERVE COMMANDER PRABOWO, ACCORDING TO A SENIOR GOLKAR FIGURE. THE SOURCES SAID THAT ABRI WAS FACED WITH TWO ALTERNATIVES: TO BROADEN WIRANTO'S MANDATE (UNCLEAR EXACTLY HOW) OR TO CHOOSE A NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF WHO WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE TO BOTH FACTIONS. BY THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 17, LOCAL JOURNALISTS WERE REPORTING THAT WIRANTO HAD BEEN REMOVED AS CINC BUT WOULD RETAIN HIS DEFENSE MINISTER PORTFOLIO. THERE ARE ALSO INCREASINGLY RELIABLE REPORTS THAT A POWERFUL INTERNAL SECURITY AGENCY WOULD BE RE-CREATED, POSSIBLY UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF PRABOWO. WE HAVE HEARD THAT THE CABINET RESHUFFLE COULD BE ANNOUNCED ON THE MORNING OF MAY 18. THE ARMED FORCES AND AN ELITE MUSLIM ORGANIZATION (ICMI) APPEAR TO AGREE THAT THE PRESIDENT'S ELDEST DAUGHTER "TUTUT", CRONY BOB HASAN, AND RETIRED GENERAL HARTONO SHOULD BE REPLACED. WE HAVE ALSO HEARD THAT ICMI

ACTIVISTS ADI SASONO, AMIEN RAIS AND NURCHOLISH MADJID HAVE BEEN OFFERED SPOTS IN THE CABINET, BUT THAT ICMI TURNED THE DEAL DOWN BECAUSE OF OBJECTIONS FROM RAIS.

REPLACEMENT OF COMMANDER IN CHIEF

3. (C) A SENIOR GOLKAR FIGURE [redacted] TOLD POLOFF MAY 17 THAT ABRI MET ON THE MORNING OF MAY 17 TO RESOLVE TENSIONS WITHIN ABRI OVER RIVAL PRABOWO AND WIRANTO FACTIONS. THE SOURCE

B1

SAID THAT ABRI WAS FACED WITH TWO ALTERNATIVES: TO BROADEN WIRANTO'S MANDATE IN ORDER TO END FACTIONALISM WITHIN ABRI (UNCLEAR EXACTLY HOW), OR TO CHOOSE A NEW COMMANDER IN CHIEF WHO WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE TO BOTH FACTIONS. LOCAL JOURNALIST SOURCES REPORT AS OF LATE MAY 17 THAT WIRANTO HAS BEEN REMOVED AS COMMANDER IN CHIEF BUT THAT HE RETAINS HIS POSITION AS MINISTER OF DEFENSE. A SOURCE WITH CLOSE TIES TO THE ARMED FORCES REPORTED THAT THE ABRI LEADERSHIP ISSUE WOULD BE RESOLVED WHEN SOEHARTO ANNOUNCED THE CABINET "RESHUFFLE," WHICH COULD COME AS EARLY AS THE MORNING OF MONDAY MAY 18.

CABINET RESHUFFLE

4. (C) THE SENIOR GOLKAR SOURCE ALSO NOTED THAT MINISTER OF TOURISM, ARTS AND CULTURE ABDUL LATIEF RESIGNED MAY 17. LATIEF WAS ONE OF EIGHT CURRENT CABINET MEMBERS THAT ABRI SUPPOSEDLY WANTED PURGED, ACCORDING TO DIPLOMATS. IN ADDITION TO LATIEF, THEY INCLUDED MINISTER OF SOCIAL AFFAIRS SITI RUKMANA HARDIYANTI (TUTUT, THE PRESIDENT'S ELDEST DAUGHTER), MINISTER OF TRADE BOB HASAN, MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS HARTONO, MINISTER OF EDUCATION WIRANTO ARISMUNANDAR, STATE MINISTER FOR FOOD, DRUGS, AND HORTICULTURE HARYANTO DHANUTIRTO, AND MINISTER OF INFORMATION

ALWI DAHLAN. ANOTHER SOURCE REPORTED THAT UP TO 20 MEMBERS COULD BE REPLACED, AND THAT IT WAS ALSO POSSIBLE THAT SOME WOULD SIMPLY SWITCH MINISTRIES.

5. (U) SOEHARTO'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT HE WAS PREPARED TO RE-SHUFFLE HIS CABINET CREATED SCANT ENTHUSIASM IN MOST POLITICAL CIRCLES. FORMER ENVIRONMENT MINISTER SARWONO SAID PUBLICLY THAT HE WAS "NOT IMPRESSED," SOEHARTO SHOULD HAVE ANNOUNCED A GOOD CABINET FROM THE BEGINNING. THIS MOVE WOULD NOT SOLVE ANY PROBLEMS. HE RECOMMENDED THAT SOEHARTO STEP DOWN INSTEAD, SAYING "AS A FORMER AIDE OF HIS, I WILL BE SAD AND I PITY HIM IF HE STAYS FOR HIS OWN INTERESTS BECAUSE WE ALREADY KNOW THAT HE'S INCREASINGLY BECOMING PART OF THE PROBLEM." FORMER MINISTER FRANS SEDA SAID "IT'S TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE," AND ANOTHER FORMER MINISTER, SUBROTO, SAID THAT AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT, INCLUDING THE PRESIDENT, WAS NEEDED. AMIEN RAIS SAID THAT A CABINET RESHUFFLE WAS NOT SUFFICIENT BECAUSE THE PEOPLE WERE DEMANDING THAT SOEHARTO STEP DOWN.

B1

[redacted] TOLD POLOFF MAY 17 THAT MINISTER OF DEFENSE/ARMED FORCES COMMANDER WIRANTO HAD BEEN PUT IN CHARGE OF THE CABINET RE-SHUFFLE, AND WAS PREPARED TO OFFER SPOTS TO THREE ICMI MEMBERS, SECRETARY GENERAL ADI SASONO, AMIEN RAIS, AND

NURCHOLISH MADJID. ADI SASONO WAS ALSO TOLD HE COULD GIVE AS MUCH INPUT AS HE WANTED ON OTHER SPOTS. IN ADDITION TO SEVERAL OF THE MEMBERS THAT BRI WAS TRYING TO HAVE REPLACED (PARA. 4), ICMI ALSO SOUGHT THE REMOVAL OF MINISTER OF FINANCE FUAD BAWAZIER.

7. (C) SASONO WAS PREPARED TO TAKE THIS DEAL, ACCORDING TO THIS SOURCE, AS A WAY TO ACHIEVE A COMPROMISE (COMMENT: AND OF COURSE TO GAIN THE INFLUENCE IN THE GOVERNMENT THAT BELIEVED IT WAS DENIED BY THE FIRST FAMILY DOMINATED CABINET FORMED IN MARCH. END COMMENT) BUT ONLY WITH AMIEN RAIS' ENDORSEMENT. ALSO, SASONO THOUGHT THAT RAIS SHOULD ENTER THE SUPREME ADVISORY COUNCIL (DPA) RATHER THAN THE CABINET. AT FIRST, IT SEEMED THAT RAIS WOULD GO ALONG, BUT ON THE MORNING OF MAY 17, AFTER MEETING WITH HIS ADVISORS IN YOGYAKARTA, RAIS INFORMED SASONO THAT HE DID NOT WANT

TO ENTER THE GOVERNMENT AND REJECTED THE DEAL. AFTERWARD, SASONO COMMUNICATED TO WIRANTO, VIA SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES HARMOKO, THAT ICMI WOULD NOT GO ALONG WITH THIS

CONFIDENTIAL

PROPOSAL.

8. (C) SOEHARTO COULD HAVE DIFFICULTY PERSUADING SERIOUS PEOPLE TO ENTER HIS CABINET AT THIS POINT. FOR EXAMPLE, SOURCE SAID THAT SASONO HAD CALLED THE RECTOR OF THE UNIVERSITY OF GADJA MADAH IN YOGYAKARTA TO SEE IF HE WOULD BE INTERESTED IN BEING CONSIDERED FOR THE POST OF MINISTER OF EDUCATION. THE RECTOR REFUSED, SAYING THAT HE DID NOT WANT THE STUDENTS TO "BURN HIS HOUSE DOWN."

9. (C) SOURCE ALSO SAID THAT SASONO, WHO HAD A GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH KOSTRAD COMMANDER LT. GENERAL PRABOWO, HAD "OPENED HIS EYES" AFTER THE REPORTS CIRCULATING THAT PRABOWO WAS CONNECTED TO THE KIDNAPPING OF ACTIVISTS AND THE SHOOTING OF STUDENTS AT TRISAKTI UNIVERSITY. PRABOWO AND MUSLIM LEADER AMIEN RAIS WERE SUSPICIOUS OF EACH OTHER, ESPECIALLY SINCE RAIS HAD FORMED THE PEOPLE'S COUNCIL (MAR), WHICH PRABOWO VIEWED AS EXTRA-CONSTITUTIONAL AND A THREAT TO HIS OWN LEADERSHIP ASPIRATIONS.

POSSIBLE RECREATION OF POWERFUL INTERNAL SECURITY APPARATUS

10. (C) RUMORS HAVE BEEN RUNNING THROUGH JAKARTA FOR DAYS THAT SOEHARTO MIGHT RECREATE THE POWERFUL INTERNAL SECURITY AGENCY KNOWN AS KOPKAMTIB ("LAW AND ORDER RESTORATION COMMAND"). A SOURCE [redacted] TOLD POLOFF MAY 16 THAT SOEHARTO MIGHT BE PLANNING TO RECREATE THE KOPKAMTIB UNDER THE LEADERSHIP OF GENERAL PRABOWO. ON MAY 17, POLCOUNS LEARNED FROM THE [redacted] THAT THIS WOULD HAPPEN. B1 B1

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLCOUNS ED MCWILLIAMS, REASON: 1.5(D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: THOUSANDS OF STUDENTS GATHERED AT THE PARLIAMENT IN JAKARTA MAY 18 TO PRESS FOR A PRESIDENTIAL RESIGNATION. THE GATHERING WAS BILLED AS A PRECURSOR TO NATION-WIDE RALLIES CULMINATING WEDNESDAY WITH WHAT STUDENTS AND OTHER FORCES IN OPPOSITION TO THE PRESIDENT CLAIM WILL BE MASSIVE DEMONSTRATIONS. THE JAKARTA PROTESTS MAY 18 (AND ELSEWHERE) APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN PEACEFUL WITH THE MILITARY COOPERATING IN THE MOVEMENT OF STUDENTS TO THE PARLIAMENT BY BUS. DEBATE CONTINUES OVER SOEHARTO'S INTENTIONS VIS-A-VIS A RE-SHUFFLED CABINET AND POSSIBLE MILITARY SHAKEUP. THIS MAY ALL BE OVER TAKEN BY EVENTS AS PRESSURE MOUNTS FOR THE PRESIDENT'S RESIGNATION. A LATE REPORT (SEPTEL) INDICATES THE PARLIAMENT IS PREPARED TO ASK FORMALLY FOR THE PRESIDENT'S RESIGNATION (SEPTEL). THE ARMY HAS GIVEN NO PUBLIC SIGN THAT IT IS PREPARED TO WITHDRAW SUPPORT FOR THE PRESIDENT ALTHOUGH THE ARMY FACTION IN PARLIAMENT APPEARS READY TO SUPPORT THE PARLIAMENT CALL FOR HIM TO STEP DONW. IN UNJUNG PANDANG, INDONESIA'S FOURTH LARGEST CITY, EXPATRIATES ARE TRYING TO LEAVE THE CITY BEFORE THE MASS DEMONSTRATIONS SCHEDULED FOR MAY 20. IN MEDAN, AS OF LATE MAY 18, STUDENTS WERE AGAIN GATHERING FOR DEMONSTRATIONS. OVER 20,000 STUDENTS GATHERED IN

BANDA ACEH FOR A PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION AT THE PROVINCIAL PARLIAMENT. JAKARTA WAS QUIET MAY 18 ALTHOUGH LONG LINES AT BANKS, SKYROCKETING PRICES FOR BASIC FOODS IN SOME MARKETS AND CONTINUED TENSION INDICATED THAT THE CITY IS BY NO MEANS BACK TO BUSINESS AS USUAL. FOOD AVAILABILITYSUPPLY WAS SPOTTY IN JAKARTA WITH MANY OUTLETS STILL CLOSED. BANKS REPORTED HEAVY WITHDRAWALS TODAY WITH CUSTOMERS WITHDRAWING BOTH DOLLARS AND RUPIAH. SOEHARTO CRONY AND CHILDREN'S BANKS WERE RUSHED. BUSINESSES AND GOVERNMENT OFFICES OPENED MAY 18 BUT MOST CLOSED EARLY. THE RUPIAH HOVERED BETWEEN 12,000 AND 13,000 BUT WAS TRADING IN THE

15,000'S AT MONEY CHANGERS. END SUMMARY

THOUSANDS HOLD PEACEFUL RALLY AT DPR

3. (U) A FREE SPEECH FORUM WAS HELD AT THE UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA (UI) SALEMBA. FOLLOWING THE FORUM, SEVERAL THOUSAND STUDENTS LEFT BY BUS FOR THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENT (DPR). ABOUT TEN BUSES (SOME WITH PROFESSORS VISIBLE IN FRONT) WERE ALLOWED TO ENTER THE COMPLEX, AND SOME STUDENTS WERE ALLOWED TO ENTER ON FOOT. AFTER THE BUSES ENTERED, THE GATE WAS SHUT AND THE STUDENTS STILL ARRIVQTHE GATES. POLOFFS SAW STUDENTS FROM BETWEEN TEN AND TWENTY UNIVERSITIES THERE, MANY WEARING THEIR UNIVERSITY JACKETS. ALSO PRESENT WERE AMIEN RAIS, UI ALUMNI AND REPRESENTATIVES OF SEVERAL MASS STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS, AND A GROUP OF 15 RETIRED GENERALS FROM THE GENERATION OF 1945. THERE WAS A LARGE PRESS PRESENCE. SEVERAL CARS FROM THE NATIONAL SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY INSTITUTE (ISTN) WITH RED CROSS SIGNS AND MEDICAL SUPPLIES WERE PRESENT TO ASSIST STUDENTS.

4. (U) THE DPR COMPLEX WAS HEAVILY GUARDED BY TROOPS FROM VARIOUS DIVISIONS OF ABRI, INCLUDING KOSTRAD CAVALRY BATTALION SEVEN AND PARACHUTE BATTALION 502. THERE WERE TWO ARMORED PERSONNEL CARRIERS AT THE GATE. HEAVILY ARMED TROOPS WERE STATIONED ALONG THE FENCE NEAR THE ENTRANCE, AND OTHERS WERE STATIONED INSIDE THE FENCE AROUND THE COMPLEX. TWO MORE APC'S WERE AT THE BACK ENTRANCE TO THE DPR.

5. (U) A STUDENT FROM ATMA JAYA TOLD POLOFF TODAY WAS A TEST TO SEE THE RESPONSE OF THE SECURITY FORCES. HE SAID "WE ARE NOT AFRAID BECAUSE WE ARE RIGHT." HE THOUGHT THAT ABRI SUPPORTED THE STUDENTS, AND MENTIONED WIRANTO'S RECENT STATEMENTS WHICH, HE CLAIMED, WERE SUPPORTIVE OF STUDENTS. A LARGE BANNER PUT UP ON THE FENCE IN THE MAIN ROAD OUTSIDE THE DPR READ, "DOWN WITH SOEHARTO, DOWN WITH PRICES." MANY STUDENTS WERE CARRYING SMALL WHITE FLAGS READING "PEACEFUL REFORMATION." THERE WERE ABOUT 1000 STUDENTS INSIDE THE COMPLEX. THE STUDENT REPRESENTATIVES WERE MET BY HARRY SABARNO OF THE ABRI FRACTION, WHO RECEIVED THEIR STATEMENT DEMANDING SOEHARTO IMMEDIATELY STEP DOWN AND DEMANDING A SPECIAL MPR, BUT DID NOT MAKE A STATEMENT. AS OF 1400, NEGOTIATIONS WERE ONGOING TO MEET WITH OTHER REPRESENTATIVES AND STUDENTS WERE STILL ARRIVING AT THE DPR. AS OF 1530, STUDENTS WERE NEGOTIATING FOR PERMISSION TO REMAIN ON THE COMPLEX AND SET UP TENTS. IF THE ANSWER WAS NO, THEY WANTED THE MILITARY TO SECURE THEIR RETURN TO CAMPUSES.

DEBATE OVER SOEHARTO'S INTENTIONS

10. (U) AMIEN RAIS SPOKE AT A COMMISSION SESSION AT THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON THE MORNING OF MAY 18. ACCORDING TO A MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT FROM THE GOLKAR FACTION WHO WAS THERE, HE REPEATED HIS CALL FOR SOEHARTO TO STEP DOWN AND THAT AT MOST SOEHARTO HAD WEEKS LEFT.

11. (C) THE PARLIAMENTARIAN TOLD POLOFFS THAT MOST OF THE MEMBERS AT THE COMMITTEE MEETING AGREED WITH RAIS'S BASIC POINT, BUT BELIEVED THAT TIME WAS NECESSARY IN ORDER TO CREATE INSTITUTIONS AND RULES TO INSURE A SMOOTH TRANSITION. THE LEGISLATOR ALSO REITERATED THE REPORTS THAT SOEHARTO WAS PREPARING TO RE-ESTABLISH THE INTERNAL SECURITY AGENCY KOPKAMTIP, THOUGH PERHAPS UNDER A DIFFERENT NAME, AND CONTENDED THAT SOEHARTO WOULD NOT BE PLANNING TO STEP DOWN IF HE WAS RESHUFFLING HIS CABINET AND CREATING THIS NEW SECURITY MECHANISM. THE PARLIAMENTARIAN SPECULATED THAT SOEHARTO MIGHT BE PLANNING TO BAN RALLIES AND DEMONSTRATIONS, BUT ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE CRUCIAL QUESTION WAS WHETHER HE COULD SUCCEED IF HE CHOSE TO GO THAT ROUTE.

12. (C) NEVERTHELESS, [redacted] HAS SHARED WITH US B1
A REPORT THAT CLAIMS THAT SOEHARTO HAS ALREADY AGREED TO RESIGN AND THAT AS OF MID-DAY MAY 18, DISCUSSIONS WERE FOCUSSED ON CREATING A TRANSITION MECHANISM ACCEPTABLE TO ALL. WE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO FIND CONFIRMATION FOR THIS REPORT WHICH [redacted] [redacted] BELIEVE IS PROBABLY TRUE.

13. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT HE MET WITH WIRANTO ON MAY 17. (NOTE: WE HAVE HAD OTHER INDICATIONS THAT NU HAS BEEN IN CONTACT WITH WIRANTO. END NOTE) HE SAID HE TOLD WIRANTO THAT STUDENTS WANT HIM TO STAND BEHIND THE PEOPLE AND TO SUPPORT THEIR DEMANDS FOR SOEHARTO TO STEP DOWN. HE SAYS THAT WIRANTO ANSWERED THAT HE WAS NOT CONFIDENT THAT IF HE SUPPORTED EFFORTS TO PUSH SOEHARTO OUT, AND IF HE HIMSELF TOOK POWER, THAT THE SITUATION WOULD IMPROVE. THIS CONTACT [redacted] TOLD POLOFF THAT THEY THINK THAT IN THE CHOICE BETWEEN SUPPORTING THE PEOPLE OR THE PRESIDENT, WIRANTO IS LEANING TOWARDS THE PRESIDENT BUT HIS FINAL POSITION IS NOT YET CLEAR. BOTH SAID HE WOULD BE PUT IN CHARGE OF THE NEW VERSION OF KOPKAMTIP. B1

15. (C) UJUNGPANDANG: A CANADIAN UN EMPLOYEE IN UJUNGPANDANG TOLD US THAT EXPATS WERE TRYING TO GET OUT OF TOWN BEFORE MAY 20, WHEN A MASSIVE DEMONSTRATION WAS PLANNED. HE SAID SEIMENS HAD CHARTERED A PLANE TO GET ITS PEOPLE OUT, AND ALL INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS WERE SENDING PEOPLE OUT. ON MAY 20, ALL LOCAL UNIVERSITIES, HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, WORKERS UNIONS INCLUDING FISHERMEN AND STEVEDORES, AND OTHERS WOULD GATHER AT A CENTRAL PARK FOR A RALLY. MANY PEOPLE THERE FEAR THAT WHEN GROUPS HEAD INTO TOWN AFTER THE RALLY, RIOTS COULD ERUPT. THE NEW MILITARY COMMANDER ARRIVED ON MAY 15, AND IT IS NOT CLEAR IF HE WILL BE AS ACCOMMODATING TO STUDENTS AS THE PREVIOUS COMMANDER, GUMALAR (SEEN AS A WIRANTO MAN).

16. (U) MEDAN: STUDENTS IN MEDAN HELD A DEMONSTRATION OF ABOUT 500 PEOPLE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH SUMATRA. AS OF 1530, THEY WERE BEGINNING TO BURN TIRES IN THE ROAD OUTSIDE THE GATE. THE MILITARY COMMANDER HAS SAID PUBLICLY THAT HE KNOWS ABOUT PLANS FOR MAY 20 AND HE IS READY TO KEEP MEDAN SECURE. ONE NGO SOURCE

IN MEDAN SAID HE SAW A LOCAL GOLKAR AFFILIATED YOUTH GROUP (IPK, MOST KNOWN AS PREMAN, HOOLIGANS AND EXTORTIONISTS) BEING TRAINED BY THE MILITARY. OUR MEDAN FSN SAID THAT LOCAL GOLKAR AFFILIATED YOUTH GROUPS INCLUDING IPK AND PEMUDA PANCASILA WERE USED DURING THE RIOTS AS SECURITY GUARDS. 52 NGO'S WERE PLANNING TO MEET ON MAY 19 TO DISCUSS STRATEGY FOR MAY 20, WHEN THEY WOULD JOIN THE STUDENTS ON A LONG MARCH TO THE MEDAN FREEDOM FIELD.

17. (U) PADANG AND BANDA ACEH: 2000 STUDENTS IN PADANG HAVE REPORTEDLY TAKEN OVER THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING, WITH NO RESISTANCE FROM ABRI. AS OF 1600 MAY 18, UP TO 20,000 STUDENTS WERE HOLDING A PEACEFUL DEMONSTRATION AT THE DPR, ACCORDING TO A SOURCE IN BANDA ACEH.

ECONOMIC INDICATORS

18. (U) FOOD AVAILABILITY: ACCORDING TO INDONESIANS LIVING IN VARIOUS PARTS OF JAKARTA, FOOD SUPPLIES IN STORES AND STALLS WERE ADEQUATE THROUGH THE WEEKEND. MANY STORES/STALLS WERE CLOSED, THEY SAID, ADDING THAT IT DIDN'T MATTER IF THE OWNER WERE CHINESE-INDONESIAN OR PRIBUMI -- THEY DIDN'T OPEN BECAUSE THEY WERE AFRAID. THROUGH THE WEEKEND, IT WAS DIFFICULT TO FIND COOKING OIL, VEGETABLES, AND MILK IN SCATTERED LOCATIONS; RICE WAS GENERALLY AVAILABLE ACCORDING TO THOSE WE POLLED. CONTACTS WHO HAD BOUGHT BASIC FOODSTUFFS OVER THE WEEKEND IN MARKETS IN EAST, SOUTH, WEST, AND CENTRAL JAKARTA INDICATED THAT FOOD PRICES THROUGH THE WEEKEND REMAIN AT LAST WEEK'S HIGH LEVELS, BUT THEY REPORTED NO PRICE SPIKES. POLOFFS NOTED SIGNIFICANTLY HIGHER PRICES IN SOME AIR MARKETS HE VISITED LATE ON SUNDAY, MAY 17.

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

19. (U) ON MONDAY, MAY 18, GROCERY STORES WERE SEVERELY CROWDED, BUT BASIC FOODSTUFFS WERE AVAILABLE. BABY FORMULA/POWDERED MILK APPEARED TO BE SCARCE.

20. (U) OUR MINI-POLL INDICATED THAT FOODSTUFFS WERE AVAILABLE IN MARKETS AND STALLS AT WHICH OUR CONTACTS HAD SHOPPED AND THAT PRICES HAD NOT RISEN ON MONDAY, MAY 18. WE WILL CONTINUE TO TRACK FOOD AVAILABILITY AND PRICES. WE DO NOT KNOW IF TODAY'S HEAVY SHOPPING WAS PANIC BUYING. IF IT WAS OR IF IT BEGINS, THE VOLUMES WILL OVERWHELM NORMAL DISTRIBUTION CHANNELS AND SHORTAGES AND PRICE GOUGING WILL SURELY EMERGE. MORE BASICALLY, WE ARE TRYING TO ASCERTAIN IF DISTRIBUTION SYSTEMS ARE FUNCTIONING NORMALLY ENOUGH TO GET BASIC COMMODITIES TO THE RETAIL LEVEL.

21. (U) ATM'S: THERE WERE LONG LINES AT ATM MACHINES. MILITARY PERSONNEL WERE OBSERVED ENSURING THAT PEOPLE STAYED IN ORDERLY LINES AND MAINTAINING ORDER WHEN THE CASH IN THE MACHINE RAN OUT.

22. (U) BANKS: BANKS REPORTED HEAVY CASH WITHDRAWALS STARTING AT OOB. CUSTOMERS WERE WITHDRAWING BOTH DOLLARS AND RUPIAH. ONE U.S. BANK REPORTED THAT BANK INDONESIA HAD PLACED A USD 100,000 DAILY LIMIT ON THE AMOUNT OF CASH DOLLARS A BANK COULD BUY FROM THE CENTRAL BANK. ANOTHER CONFIRMED THAT DOLLARS WERE IN SHORT SUPPLY. BANKS REPORTED THAT BANK INDONESIA HAD BEEN SLOW PROVIDING CASH RUPIAH. BANK DANAMON REPORTED THAT CUSTOMER

BUSINESS WAS FAIRLY NORMAL. A DANAMON BANK EMPLOYEE TOLD US THAT THE BANK HAD CLOSED AT 2:00 "IN ANTICIPATION" (OF TROUBLE IN THE CITY). BANK CENTRAL ASIA, OWNED BY LIEM SIOE LIONG (SUDONO SALIM) AND TWO OF SOEHARTO'S CHILDREN, WAS RUSHED TODAY, ACCORDING TO SEVERAL SOURCES.

23. (U) FUEL SUPPLIES: STATE-OWNED OIL COMPANY PERTAMINA TOLD US TODAY THAT FUEL SUPPLIES IN REFINERIES AND IN PERTAMINA DEPOTS AROUND THE COUNTRY WERE ADEQUATE FOR A MONTH. PREMIUM GASOLINE AND KEROSENE SUPPLIES ARE SUFFICIENT FOR 35 DAYS, PERTAMINA SAID. PERTAMINA CONFIRMED NEWSPAPER REPORTS THAT IT PLANS TO IMPORT MORE PRODUCT, INCLUDING HIGH OCTANE MOTOR GASOLINE COMPONENT (THIS PRODUCT'S IMPORT REQUIRED BECAUSE OF CONTINUING PROBLEMS WITH THE BALONGAN REFINERY).

24. (U) BUSINESS: MANY BUSINESSES REOPENED ON MONDAY. HOWEVER, BY EARLY AFTERNOON, WE HAD RECEIVED SEVERAL REPORTS THAT EMPLOYEES HAD BEEN SENT HOME. GOVERNMENT EMPLOYEES WERE LEAVING THEIR OFFICES EARLY AS WELL AS INDIVIDUALS' SECURITY CONCERNS MOUNTED. MANY FIRMS ARE CONSIDERING CLOSING ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 20.

25. (U) EXCHANGE RATE: BANKERS COMMENTED THAT THE RUPIAH DROPPED AT OOB TO THE 12,00-13,000 RANGE AND STAYED THERE MOST OF THE DAY IN VERY LIGHT TRADING. REUTERS AND TELETRAC REPORT THAT THE RUPIAH WAS TRADING AT ABOUT 12,500 AT COB. THE MARKET WAS VERY THIN AND DID NOT REFLECT THE COST ON THE STREET. DOLLARS FROM AUTHORIZED MONEY CHANGERS STARTED IN THE MID-15,000'S.

26. (U) STOCK MARKET: THE JSX CLOSED DOWN 4.2 PERCENT (17 POINTS) TO 388.9, ITS FIRST TIME BELOW 400 IN MONTHS.

STUDENTS FROM UP TO 35 JAKARTA CAMPUSES BEGAN TO ARRIVE IN THE MORNING OF MAY 19 AND BUSES CONTINUED TO ENTER THE COMPLEX THROUGH THE DAY. BUSES FROM ONE UNIVERSITY OUTSIDE JAKARTA, IKIP BANDUNG, ALSO ENTERED. 15 RETIRED GENERALS FROM THE GENERATION OF 1945 RETURNED TO PARLIAMENT FOR A SECOND DAY. BY 1400, AT LEAST 10,000 STUDENTS HAD ENTERED THE DPR COMPLEX. THEY FILLED THE LOBBY WITH CHANTING AND SOME WERE ON THE ROOF WITH BANNERS. THE CLEAR THEME OF THE DEMONSTRATION WAS FOR SOEHARTO TO STEP DOWN IMMEDIATELY. SOME BANNERS AND CHANTS CALLED FOR SOEHARTO TO BE TRIED IN COURT, A THEME THAT HAS EMERGED RECENTLY. MANY OF THE STUDENTS WE SPOKE TO SAID THAT THEY AND THE OTHER STUDENTS INTENDED TO CAMP OUT AT THE DPR UNTIL SOEHARTO STEPS DOWN. A GROUP OF NGO'S IN JAKARTA IS COLLECTING DONATIONS TO FEED THE STUDENTS. THEY ESTIMATE THAT THERE ARE 65,000 STUDENTS IN JAKARTA WHO NEED SUPPORT.

PEMUDA PANCASILA AT PARLIAMENT

4. (C) [redacted] REPORTED FROM A HOTEL NEAR B1

PARLIAMENT THAT HE WATCHED A LARGE GROUP OF PEMUDA PANCASILA "YOUTH" IN ORANGE CAMOUFLAGE FORMING UP IN THE STADIUM. (NOTE: PEMUDA PANCASILA IS A MASS ORGANIZATION AFFILIATED WITH GOLKAR AND KNOWN FOR THUGGISH BEHAVIOR. END NOTE). HE SAID IT LOOKED LIKE THEY WERE BEING ORGANIZED BY MILITARY PERSONNEL. (NOTE: IN MEDAN, MEMBERS OF IPK (A LOCAL GOLKAR YOUTH GROUP KNOWN FOR EXTORTION ACTIVITIES IN THE CITY) WERE BEING TRAINED BY THE MILITARY TO SECURE DEMONSTRATIONS AND RIOTS, ACCORDING TO AN NGO SOURCE THERE. END NOTE). WHEN POLOFFS ARRIVED AT THE DPR, THERE WERE SEVERAL HUNDRED MEMBERS OF PEMUDA PANCASILA HOLDING A COUNTER DEMONSTRATION. THE ATMOSPHERE WAS TENSE AS STUDENTS ASSUMED THE GROUP HAD COME TO START A FIGHT. THE PEMUDA PANCASILA WERE CLEARLY OUTNUMBERED AND EVENTUALLY RETREATED AND LEFT. LATER IN THE DAY, POLOFFS WITNESSED STUDENTS CHECKING ID'S OF PEOPLE ENTERING THE GATE, PRESUMABLY TO PREVENT PROVOCATEURS FROM ENTERING.

REACTION TO WIRANTO'S AND SOEHARTO'S STATEMENTS

5. (C) STUDENTS ARE INCREASINGLY WORRIED ABOUT THEIR SECURITY IN THE WAKE OF ABRI COMMANDER WIRANTO'S MAY 18 STATEMENT THAT IMPLIED THAT THEIR MAY 20 ACTIONS WOULD BE STOPPED. HE DID NOT DIRECTLY MENTION STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS BUT SAID THAT CERTAIN PEOPLE WERE TRYING TO PROVOKE OTHERS TO MASS ON MAY 20, WHICH COULD LEAD TO ANARCHY. ABRI WOULD NOT ALLOW THIS. ON TUESDAY, STUDENTS HELD DISCUSSIONS THROUGHOUT INDONESIA TO DECIDE HOW TO PROCEED ON MAY 20. MANY EMPHASIZED THAT THEY DO NOT WANT VIOLENCE. SOME STUDENT CONTACTS HAVE TOLD US THAT PLANS FOR MAY 20 CANNOT BE CALLED OFF, AND THAT THE STUDENTS WOULD CONTINUE WITH THEIR PROTESTS. HOWEVER, THEY ARE CLEARLY AWARE THAT GREATER REPRESSION IS IMMINENT, AND THIS MAY CONVINCE SOME NOT TO MOVE TO THE STREETS ON MAY 20.

BITTERLY OF GEN. PRABOWO, SAYING HE HAD BEEN PREPARED TO LAUNCH A TIANANMEN-TYPE MASSACRE. THEY THOUGHT HABIBIE MIGHT STAY ON A FEW MONTHS. COMMENDING THE BRAVERY OF AMIEN RAIS, THEY THOUGHT RAIS "SHOULD BE ON THE TEAM." [redacted] SAID THAT HE WAS SHOCKED AT EXTENT OF THE RIOTING (WORSE THAN IN 1966). THE ETHNIC CHINESE WHO HAVE FLED TO SINGAPORE WILL SEE IF OVER THE NEXT ONE TO TWO WEEKS THE SITUATION STABILIZE AND WATCH WHAT HABIBIE DOES BEFORE RETURNING. END SUMMARY. B1

2. (C) [redacted] AND MET LATE ON THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 21 WITH THE AMBASSADOR. THE MEETING WAS BROKERED BY [redacted] ECON/POL COUNSELOR ALSO PARTICIPATED. B1

3. (C) [redacted] TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT HE HAD COME TO SINGAPORE FROM JAKARTA LAST WEEK AFTER BEING WARNED AT 10:00 PM ON MAY 14 BY [redacted] ESTIMATED THAT 10-20,000 ETHNIC CHINESE HAD FLED INDONESIA, MANY OF THEM WAITING AND WATCHING IN SINGAPORE.

4. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT HE COULD NOT BELIEVE THE EXTENT OF THE RIOTING IN JAKARTA. SO MANY CHINESE HAD EVERYTHING THEY OWNED DESTROYED OR LOOTED. HE SAID THAT THE RIOTING WAS MUCH WORSE THAN IN 1966, IN PART BECAUSE THE CHINESE THEN DID NOT HAVE AS MUCH AS THEY DID NOW.

CONFIDENTIAL

5. (C) [redacted] WHO HAVE BEEN IN REGULAR PHONE CONTACT WITH JAKARTA, HAD HIGH PRAISE FOR GEN. WIRANTO, WHOM THEY CALLED A STABILIZING FACTOR. THEY DESCRIBED HIS PERFORMANCE OVER THE LAST FEW DAYS AS "INCREDIBLE," NOTING THAT HE HAD STRESSED HIS LOYALTY TO SOEHARTO (AND "SAVED" SOEHARTO) WHILE MANAGING TO CONTROL THE VIOLENCE. [redacted] STATED THAT, ACCORDING TO HIS INFORMATION, ON THE EVENING OF MAY 20 WIRANTO ARRANGED FOR A SERIES OF GENERALS AND EX-VICE PRESIDENTS TO MEET WITH SOEHARTO TO CONVINCE HIM THAT IT WAS NOW TIME TO STEP DOWN. B1

6. (C) THEY SPOKE BITTERLY OF GEN. PRABOWO. THEY SAID THAT THE DAY BEFORE THE PLANNED DEMONSTRATIONS ON MAY 20, PRABOWO HAD WARNED AMIEN RAIS AGAINST DEMONSTRATING, SAYING THAT HE DID NOT CARE IF THERE WAS A BLOODBATH LIKE THAT AT TIANANMEN SQUARE. [redacted] B1 SUGGESTED THAT ETHNIC CHINESE WILL BE WATCHING CLOSELY WHAT HAPPENS WITH PRABOWO IN DETERMINING WHEN THEY MIGHT RETURN TO INDONESIA.

7. (C) ASKED WHAT THEIR BEST CASE SCENARIO FOR NEW LEADERSHIP WOULD BE, [redacted] SAID THAT HIS "DREAM TEAM" WOULD BE SOME KIND OF GEN. WIRANTO/EMIL SALIM COMBINATION. THEIR WORST CASE: HABIBIE STAYS ON AND LINKS WITH PRABOWO. ASKED IF THEY THOUGHT THEIR WORST CASE SCENARIO WAS A POSSIBILITY, THEY REPLIED THAT IT WAS NOT IMPOSSIBLE. MORE PROBABLE, THEY THOUGHT, WAS THAT HABIBIE WOULD STAY ON FOR A FEW MONTHS. [redacted] SUGGESTED THAT THE ARMY WOULD BACK HIM FOR AT LEAST A FEW DAYS, NOT OUT OF SUPPORT FOR HABIBIE, WHOM THE ARMY DOES NOT LIKE, BUT OUT OF RESIDUAL SUPPORT FOR SOEHARTO, WHO HAD ASKED THE ARMY TO SUPPORT HABIBIE. THERE WERE TWO SCENARIOS FOR REPLACING HABIBIE, THEY SAID. ONE WAS THROUGH A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE DPR. THE OTHER WAS THROUGH A GENERAL ELECTION, WHICH COULD TAKE AS LONG AS A YEAR TO ARRANGE.

CONFIDENTIAL

8. (C) [redacted] NOTED THAT INDONESIAN ECONOMISTS HATED BOTH B1 HABIBIE AND AMIEN RAIS, BUT [redacted] THOUGHT THAT RAIS "SHOULD BE ON THE TEAM." HE SAID THAT ONE CANNOT DENY THAT RAIS HAS BEEN BRAVE, STICKING HIS NECK OUT IN OPPOSITION TO SOEHARTO.

9. (C) [redacted] SPECULATED THAT MUCH OF SOEHARTO'S FAMILY MAY HAVE ALREADY FLED INDONESIA, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF TUTUT AND BAMBANG. THEY ALSO WONDERED IF BOB HASAN HAD LEFT, NOTING THAT HE WAS CONSPICUOUSLY ABSENT AMONG THE ECONOMIC MINISTERS TENDERING THEIR RESIGNATIONS. THEY SPECULATED THAT ONE WAY TO DEAL WITH THE PROBLEM OF ILL-GOTTEN FAMILY WEALTH MIGHT BE TO FOLLOW THE METHOD B1 USED AFTER SUKARNO AND SIMPLY NATIONALIZE WHAT IS IN INDONESIA.

10. (C) THEY SAID THAT THE ETHNIC CHINESE WHO HAVE FLED INDONESIA WILL WAIT TO SEE IF THE SITUATION IN INDONESIA STABILIZES. [redacted] SAID THAT THE CHINESE WILL WAIT ONE TO TWO WEEKS TO SEE WHAT HABIBIE DOES, ALTHOUGH THEY FELT THAT THEY COULD NOT BE SURE OF THEIR SECURITY AS LONG AS HABIBIE WAS PRESENT. BUT THEY CANNOT STAY AWAY TOO LONG, BECAUSE THEY WILL LOSE THEIR FACTORIES IF THEY DO NOT RETURN. THEY THOUGHT THE MIDDLE RANK ETHNIC CHINESE WOULD GO BACK FIRST.

2. (C) SUMMARY: POLITICIANS, ACTIVISTS, AND STUDENTS QUICKLY MOVED BEYOND SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION TO DISCUSS HABIBIE'S ASSUMPTION OF THE PRESIDENCY AND THE DIFFICULT ISSUES THAT MUST NOW BE TACKLED. ONE INFLUENTIAL HABIBIE OPPONENT, THE MUSLIM LEADER ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, HELD HIS FIRE AND PUT OUT THE WORD THAT HABIBIE WAS A TRANSITIONAL FIGURE THAT WOULD BE ACCEPTABLE TO HIS ORGANIZATION, AT LEAST FOR THE MOMENT. AMIEN RAIS, MAJOR ISLAMIC ACTIVIST AND SOMETIME HABIBIE SUPPORTER, BACKED HABIBIE, PROVIDED HE FORMED AN ACCEPTABLE CABINET. MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI WAS NOT HEARD FROM BY DAY'S END BUT REPORTEDLY TOLD AIDES SHE FEARED THAT HABIBIE MIGHT "PLAY THE ISLAMIC CARD" IN AN ATTEMPT TO CREATE WHAT IS NOW A NON-EXISTENT POWER BASE. AS FOR THE STUDENTS, WHO WERE THE DRIVING FORCE IN PRESSURING SOEHARTO TO STEP DOWN, INITIAL INDICATIONS ARE THAT THE DEMONSTRATIONS WILL CONTINUE, IN EFFORTS TO KEEP UP PRESSURE ON THE GOVERNMENT AND FOR A HABIBIE

RESIGNATION AS WELL. HQWEVER, BECAUSE SOME ARE WILLING TO GIVE HABIBQE A CHANCE, THEY WILL NOT BE AS LARGE AS THOSE IN RECENT DAYS. THE MANEUVERING WITHIN THE LITE THAT ENDED SOEHARTO'S REIGN AND ALLOWED ABIBIE TO ASSUME OFFICE REMAINS MURKY. THOUGH THE GOLKAR FACTION IN PARLIAMENT VOTED TO ASK SOEHARTO TO STEP DOWN, THE PARTY OVERALL IS FAR FROM UNITED BEHIND HABIBIE. DEMOCRATIC ACTIVISTS HAVE ALREADY BEEN FORMULATING PLANS FOR BRINGING ABOUT FUNDAMENTAL POLITICAL CHANGE. END SUMMARY

MASS ISLAMIC ORGANIZATIONS AND OPPOSITION FIGURES

3. (C) ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, THE LEADER OF INDONESIA'S LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, NAHDLATUL ULAMA (NU), HAS INDICATED THAT HE COULD ACCEPT HABIBIE AS A TRANSITIONAL FIGURE. ONE OF WAHID'S TOP POLITICAL ADVISORS IN NU TOLD POLOFF THAT NU CONSIDERS THIS A TRANSITION PERIOD, AND WILL INSIST THAT REAL REFORM BE CARRIED OUT. AMCONSUL SURABAYA HAS HEARD FROM LOCAL NU CONTACTS THAT THEY ACCEPT THEIR ORGANIZATION'S POSITION THAT PHASE ONE OF A LONGER PROCESS HAS BEGUN. WAHID AND NU LEADERS EARLIER THIS WEEK BACKED SOEHARTO'S GRADUAL REFORM PLAN BECAUSE THEY BELIEVED IT WOULD ALLOW A PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION THAT WOULD NOT LEAD TO NU OPPONENT HABIBIE TAKING POWER.

4. (C) AMCONSUL SURABAYA WAS TOLD BY A MADURESE KIAI CONTACT THAT HE HAD RECEIVED GUIDANCE FROM EAST JAVA NU THAT, ACCORDING TO THE WISHES OF ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, NU ULAMA (RELIGIOUS LEADERS) FOR THE INTERIM SHOULD ACCEPT HABIBIE. THE NU HAD TO DO THIS, HE SAID, TO GUARD AGAINST DISSENSION WITHIN THE ISLAMIC COMMUNITY. THIS SURABAYA CONTACT ADDED THAT THE SITUATION NEEDED TO COOL OFF, BUT LATER A SPECIAL SESSION TO REPLACE HABIBIE WOULD BE DEMANDED. AT ABOUT THE SAME TIME, EAST JAVA GOVERNOR BASOFI HAD TELEPHONED A

SENIOR NU KIAI IN MADURA AND ASKED THE KIAIS TO ENDORSE HABIBIE.

5. (C) AMCONSUL SURABAYA ALSO CONTACTED [redacted] HAD JUST PRIOR TO SUHARTO'S ANNOUNCEMENT B1
MADE KNOWN TO US HIS VIEW THAT A HABIBIE PRESIDENCY WOULD BE DISASTROUS FOR THE COUNTRY.) [redacted] HAD NOT BEEN CONTACTED BY B1
GOVERNOR BASOFI. HE READ TO US A DRAFT STATEMENT THAT EAST JAVA
NU WOULD SOON GET OUT. THE STATEMENT WELCOMED THE PEACEFUL REPLACEMENT OF SUHARTO. IT SAID THAT THE NU WOULD HELP MAINTAIN PUBLIC TRANQUILLITY AND URGED THE GOVERNMENT TO TAKE REFORMATION
SERIOUSLY. THE NU HOPED THAT REFORMISTS WOULD PRODUCE BETTER RESULTS THAN SUHARTO AND CAUTIONED THAT THE MAIN ISSUE WAS NOT ONE OF SIMPLY REPLACING A MAN BUT OF REPLACING A POLITICAL STRUCTURE. THE STATEMENT ASSERTED THAT THE PEOPLE EXPECT
RESULTS. [redacted] UNDERLINED THAT HABIBIE'S NAME WAS NOT MENTIONED B1
AT ALL IN THE STATEMENT. HE SAID THAT THE STATEMENT WAS REALLY DIRECTED TO HABIBIE WITH THE MESSAGE THAT "NU KIAIS WILL NOW SIT
BY THE SIDE AND WATCH YOUR EVERY MOVE." [redacted] HAS BEEN IN B1
CONSTANT CONSULTATION WITH KIAIS, AS WELL AS CHRISTIAN LEADERS

SINCE EARLY THIS MORNING--ALL VERY ALARMED.

6. (C) AMIEN RAIS, THE LEADER OF INDONESIA'S SECOND LARGEST ISLAMIC ORGANIZATION, MUHAMMADIYAH, MADE A STATEMENT THIS MORNING IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE PRESIDENT'S RESIGNATION IN WHICH HE SAID, ACCORDING TO MEDIA REPORTS AND OUR SOURCE, THAT HE WOULD SUPPORT THE HABIBIE GOVERNMENT UNTIL THE FORMATION OF A NEW CABINET. IF THE CABINET WAS FREE FROM COLLUSION, CORRUPTION AND NEPOTISM, HE WOULD SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT ON A PROVISIONAL BASIS UNTIL IT HELD NEW ELECTIONS IN SIX TO EIGHT MONTHS. RAIS HAS, UP UNTIL THE SELECTION OF A NEW CABINET MARCH 14, BEEN WILLING TO WORK WITH HABIBIE IN AN EFFORT TO GAIN MORE ISLAMIC INFLUENCE IN GOVERNMENT. BUT RAIS HAS HAD MULTIPLE AGENDAS AND HAS ALSO BEEN A STAUNCH CRITIC OF GOVERNMENT "CORRUPTION, COLLUSION AND NEPOTISM," AND A MAJOR OPPOSITION FIGURE. HE APPEARED TO WALK A LINE BETWEEN THESE POSITIONS IN THE STATEMENT ISSUED TODAY.

7. MEGAWATI SUKARNOPUTRI WAS MEETING WITH HER ADVISERS ON THE AFTERNOON OF MAY 21 AND NO READ-OUT WAS AVAILABLE BY COB.

STUDENT REACTIONS

8. (C) INDICATIONS ARE THAT STUDENT DEMONSTRATIONS WILL CONTINUE IN ORDER TO KEEP UP PRESSURE ON THE GOVERNMENT, BUT BECAUSE SOME STUDENTS ARE WILLING TO GIVE HABIBIE A CHANCE, THEY WILL NOT BE AS BIG AS THOSE OF RECENT DAYS. MANY STUDENTS IN JAKARTA AND OTHER CITIES ARE NOT SATISFIED THAT A HABIBIE PRESIDENCY REPRESENTS THE TOTAL CHANGE THEY WERE DEMANDING. MANY CALL HABIBIE CORRUPT AND BELIEVE HE IS STILL ANSWERING TO SOEHARTO. A SIGNIFICANT PROPORTION OF STUDENTS ARE STILL CALLING FOR A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR. HABIBIE HAS LONG BEEN SEEN BY MANY STUDENT GROUPS AS REPRESENTING POLITICAL ISLAM, WHICH WORRIES STUDENTS FROM CHRISTIAN, NATIONALIST, AND NAHDLATUL ULAMA (TRADITIONAL MUSLIM) GROUPS. STUDENTS ARE DIVIDING ALONG POLITICAL ISLAMIC VS. NATIONALIST/CHRISTIAN LINES, WITH THE TRADITIONAL MUSLIMS UNDER NAHDLATUL ULAMA TAKING A CAUTIOUS POSITION THAT THEY WILL WATCH TO SEE HOW REFORMS ARE CARRIED OUT. ISLAMIC STUDENTS WILL NOT SPEAK WITH ONE VOICE ON HABIBIE. THE ISLAMIC STUDENTS CLOSE TO ICMI MAY GO ALONG WITH THE HABIBIE PRESIDENCY. THOSE ISLAMIC STUDENTS WHO ARE MORE FOCUSED ON THE DEMOCRACY/REFORM AGENDA WILL CONTINUE TO PUSH FOR A SPECIAL SESSION BECAUSE THEY DO NOT SEE HABIBIE AS A DEPARTURE FROM THE STATUS QUO. ONE JAKARTA STUDENT LEADER SAID THAT DIVISIONS AMONG STUDENTS WERE EMERGING BECAUSE WHAT WAS A MORAL MOVEMENT WITH A UNIFIED POSITION HAS NOW BECOME POLITICAL, MORE COMPLEX AND SUBJECT TO SPECIAL INTERESTS.

NGO AND LABOR ACTIVISTS
---

9. (C) A PROMINENT HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST TOLD POLOFF THAT SOEHARTO'S RESIGNATION WAS A GOOD FIRST STEP BUT THAT THE REFORM PROCESS WAS FAR FROM OVER. HABIBIE'S PRESIDENCY PRESENTED TWO PROBLEMS, HE BELIEVED. ON THE ONE HAND, IT WAS LIKELY THAT THE ARMED FORCES (ABRI) WERE THE REAL POWER BEHIND THE SCENES. ON THE OTHER, TO THE EXTENT THAT HABIBIE DID WIELD POWER (UNLIKELY IN OUR VIEW), HE COULD BE DIVISIVE AS IT WAS LIKELY THAT AN INCREASE IN ISLAMIC INFLUENCE WOULD BE PART OF HIS AGENDA.

10. (C) [redacted] INDONESIA, IS "GLAD" THAT SOEHARTO STEPPED DOWN. HE WAS IMMEDIATELY IN CONTACT WITH ABDURRAHMAN WAHID AND THEY AGREED THAT HABIBIE WAS ACCEPTABLE AS A TRANSITIONAL FIGURE. [redacted] B1

WAS DISCUSSING TWO SCENARIOS FOR CARRYING OUT A REFORM PROCESS. THE FIRST WOULD INVOLVE HOLDING A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR AS SOON AS POSSIBLE THAT WOULD ESTABLISH THE OUTLINES OF REFORM MACHINERY, INCLUDING REVAMPING THE ELECTION LAWS SO THAT A NEW ELECTION COULD BE HELD. THE SECOND ENVISAGED HOLDING A "REFORM" SESSION OF THE MPR, MADE UP OF LEADING UNIVERSITY AND NGO FIGURES, TO ELECT A NEW PRESIDENT, AFTER WHICH WHOLESALE REFORM

WOULD BE CARRIED OUT.

ELITE ORGANIZATIONS
---

11. (C) THOUGH THE GOLKAR FACTION IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AGREED TO ASK SOEHARTO TO WITHDRAW AND HAND OVER POWER TO HABIBIE, THE PARTY AS A WHOLE IS STILL DIVIDED BETWEEN FIGURES INCLUDING HABIBIE, HARMOKO, HARTONO AND GINANDJAR (WITH THE CLOUT OF THE PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER TUTUT, PREVIOUSLY THOUGHT TO BE THE NEXT GOLKAR CHAIRMAN, EVAPORATING WITH HER FATHER'S RESIGNATION).

[redacted] B1

WITH GOLKAR, TOLD POLOFF THAT THERE WAS NO OTHER CHOICE BUT TO HOLD A SPECIAL SESSION OF THE MPR. THE MPR SHOULD BE CONVENED IN ORDER TO HOLD ACCOUNTABLE BOTH SOEHARTO AND HABIBIE. KOSGORO IS AN IMPORTANT CIVILIAN COMPONENT IN THE GOLKAR CONSTELLATION THAT GREW INCREASINGLY CRITICAL OF THE GOVERNMENT, DUE IN PART BECAUSE

REF: JAKARTA 2807

ITS ALLOCATION OF GOLKAR'S SEATS IN THE PARLIAMENT WAS VASTLY REDUCED IN THE LAST ELECTION. KOSGORO AND ITS LEADER WERE ALSO UNUSUALLY VOCAL IN OPPOSITION TO THE SELECTION OF HABIBIE AS VICE PRESIDENT JUST THREE MONTHS AGO.

13. (C) ADI SASONO, THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF THE ASSOCIATION OF MUSLIM INTELLECTUALS (ICMI), WHICH IS A HABIBIE POLITICAL BASE, APPEARED AT MUHAMMADIAYAH HEADQUARTERS WITH AMIEN RAIS

IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE PRESIDENT'S SPEECH. HE ASSOCIATED HIMSELF IN CONDITIONALLY BACKING HABIBIE, DEPENDING ON THE QUALITY OF THE NEW CABINET. ACCORDING TO A SOURCE CLOSE TO HIM, SASONO WILL PROBABLY NOT GET THE POSITION THAT HE IS SEEKING IN THE CABINET, THE POWERFUL STATE SECRETARY JOB (COULD GO TO AKBAR TANJUNG), BUT INSTEAD WILL HAVE TO SETTLE FOR MINISTER OF COOPERATIVES. WE HAVE HEARD FROM [redacted] THAT HE AND SASONO, THOUGH STILL INFLUENTIAL, HAVE BEEN PUSHED OUT OF HABIBIE'S INNER CIRCLE BY PRESENT CABINET MEMBERS AKBAR TANJUNG AND TANRI ABENG. B1

14. (C) ANOTHER INFLUENTIAL MEMBER [redacted] TOLD POLOFF THAT HE DID NOT SUPPORT THE POSITION

TAKEN BY SASONO AND RAIS, AND WANTED TO SEE HABIBIE SERVE UNTIL 2003, THE END OF SOEHARTO'S TERM. HE ARGUED, AS HAVE MANY OTHERS, THAT CALLING AN EARLY ELECION (OUTSIDE THE AEGIS OF AN MPR) WOULD BEUNCONSTITUTIONAL. HE WANTED TO SEE MORE GRADUAL REFORM OVER THE NEXT FIVE YEARS, AND THEN HAVE A NEW ELECTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE CHANGED SYSTEM. MORE IMPORTANT, HE THOUGHT, INDONESIA NEEDED TO FOCUS ON PULLING ITSELF OUT OF THE ECONOMIC CRISIS. [redacted] BELIEVED THAT HABIBIE MIGHT PICK VICE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE LT. GEN. SYARAWAN HAMID AS THE NEW VICE PRESIDENT, AND THAT THE SECULAR/NATIONALIST CAMP WOULD SOON BE COUNTERING HABIBIE'S RISE TO THE TOP WITH A TICKET LED BY FORMER VICE PRESIDENT GENERAL (RET.) TRY SUTRISNO AND FORMER GOVERNMENT MINISTER EMIL SALIM. B1

15. (C) A CIVILIAN ACADEMIC WITH CLOSE TIES TO THE ARMED FORCES (ABRI) TOLD POLOFF THAT HABIBIE WOULD BE SUPPORTED NOW, EVEN WITHIN ABRI, FOR CONSTITUTIONAL REASONS. IT WAS THE MAXIMUM THAT THE SYSTEM COULD HANDLE, HE ARGUED. HE BELIEVED, HOWEVER, THAT HABIBIE'S CABINET WAS THE KEY, AND THAT THE NEW PRESIDENT WOULD BE POLITICALLY DEAD UNLESS HE CHOSE A GOOD LINEUP.

16. (C) A SENIOR MEGAWATI AIDE TOLD POLOFF (AND A GATHERING OF STUDENTS AT PARLIAMENT) ON MAY 21, THAT SOEHARTO ALONE COULD NOT BE HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DESTRUCTION OF INDONESIA'S ECONOMY, CONTENDING THAT HABIBIE WAS ONE OF SOEHARTO'S MOST CORRUPT CRONIES AND SHARED IN THE BLAME. TO US, THE AIDE ALSO ARGUED THAT ANY ATTEMPT BY HABIBIE TO RETAIN POWER WITHOUT RESORTING TO

A FORMAL MPR SESSION WOULD AMOUNT TO PREEMPTING POPULAR WILL. HE ADDED, MOREOVER, THAT BY NOT ORGANIZING AN MPR TO OUST SOEHARTO, THE NATION HAD BEEN ROBBED OF ITS DEMAND FOR SOEHARTO'S OWN ACCOUNTABILITY FOR "KILLINGS, DISAPPEARANCES AND ECONOMIC COLLAPSE." THE AIDE ALSO CLAIMED THAT HE BELIEVED SOEHARTO SON-IN-LAW GENERAL PRABOWO WAS NOW ATTEMPTING TO ORGANIZE ISLAMIC SUPPORT AND EXPRESSED FEAR THAT HABIBIE WOULD BEGIN TO PLAY TO AN ISLAMIC AUDIENCE, NOTABLY ABOUT THE "RIGHT" OF ISLAMIC PEOPLES TO HAVE A SHARE OF THE NATIONAL WEALTH IN PROPORTION WITH THEIR NUMBERS. "WE WILL SEE THE RISE OF THE ULTRA RIGHT ISLAMICS IN INDONESIA," HE WARNED. THIS COULD BE THE BEGINNING OF RELIGIOUS POLITICS. (COMMENT: ALTHOUGH RELIGIOUS POLITICS COULD EVOLVE OVER TIME, WE DO NOT BELIEVE HABIBIE ENJOYS THE KIND OF SUBSTANTIAL SUPPORT AMONG MAJOR POWER GROUPS THAT WOULD ALLOW HIM TO PLAY THAT CARD SUCCESSFULLY AT THIS TIME. END COMMENT)

Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply refer to Archive# 20051137DOS359

Dear Ms. Grafeld :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request disclosure of the following documents for inspection and possible copying:

All documents from 1 January 1999 to 1 January 2000 relating in whole or in part to Assistant Secretary of State Stanley Roth's February 1999, April 1999, and July 1999 visits to Indonesia and East Timor. Please include, but not limit, your search to Roth's meetings with the following people during these visits:
-Indonesian President Bacharuddin Jusuf Habibie
-Defense Minister and Armed Forces Chief Wiranto
-Foreign Minister Ali Alatas
-Megawati Sukarnoputri
-Xanana Gusmao (born Jose Alexandre Gusmao)

If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable non exempt portions of documents. To permit me to reach an intelligent and informed decision whether or not to file an administrative appeal of any denied material, please describe any withheld records (or portions thereof) and explain the basis for your exemption claims.

As you know, the National Security Archive qualifies for a waiver of search and review fees as a representative of the news media. This request is made as part of a scholarly and news research project and not for commercial use. For details on the Archive's research and publication activities, please see our Web site at the address above. Please notify me before incurring in photocopying costs over $100.

To expedite the release of the requested documents, please disclose them on an interim basis as they become available to you, without waiting until all the documents have been processed. If you have any questions regarding the identity of the records, their location, the scope of the request or any other matters, please call me at (202) 994-7000. I look forward to receiving your response within the twenty day statutory time period.

Dear Mr. Simpson:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, dated August 1, 2005, for copies of documents occurring between January 1, 1999 and January 1, 2000 concerning Secretary of State, Stanley Roth's February 1999, April 1999, and July 1999 visits to Indonesia and East Timor.

We will begin the processing of your request based upon the information provided in your letter. As soon as responsive material has been retrieved and reviewed, we will notify you.

We wish to advise you that the cut-off date for retrieving records is either the date you have given the Department by specifying a particular time frame or the date the search is initiated. Only existing records are subject to the Freedom of Information Act.
Please review the fee information provided below.

Fee Information: The Freedom of Information Act requires agencies to access fees to recover the direct costs of processing requests, unless a fee waiver has been granted

Based upon the information that you have provided, this request will be processed in accordance with the fees schedule designated for the "representative of the news media" category of requesters (pays duplication costs after first 100 pages).

Copy costs are assessed at the rate of $0.15 per page.

You have stated your willingness to pay the fees incurred in the processing of this request up to $100.00.

We will notify you of the costs incurred in processing your request as soon as the search and review actions have been completed.

While we will make every effort to meet the time limits cited in the FOIA (5 USC § 552), unusual circumstances may arise for extending the time limit.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We can provide faster service if you include the case number of your request in your communications with us.

We are pleased to be of service to you.

Case No. 200503302 ER1

Mr. Brad Simpson
The George Washington University
Gelman Library, Suite 701

Washington, DC 20037

JUL 17 2006

Dear Mr. Simpson:

I refer to your request of August 1, 2005, Archive File No. 20051137DOS359, for the release of information under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5 USC Section 552). To retrieve those documents, we initiated a search of the following record systems under the control of the Department of State: the Central Foreign Policy Records (the Department's principal record system), and the retired files of the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs.

The search of the records of the Central Foreign Policy Records has been completed, resulting in the retrieval of 34 documents that appear responsive to your request. These documents have been grouped together as segment number ER1. After reviewing them, we have determined that 17 may be released in full, six may be released with excisions, and 11 may not be released. All released documents are enclosed.

The material in the excised portions of six of the documents released in part and in nine of the documents withheld in full is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958 in the interest of national defense or foreign relations. As such, it is exempt from release under subsection (b)(1) of the Freedom of Information Act.

Subsection (b)(5) of the Freedom of Information Act exempts from disclosure inter-agency or intra-agency communications containing deliberative process, attorney-client, or attorney work product information. The information in the excised portions of one of the documents released in part is exempt from release under exemption 5 because it consists of pre-decisional deliberative process material.

RECNO:31696 SEQCOR:122970
7/20/2006 FOISG: Simpson, Brad
Roth visits Indonesia and East Timor, 1999

The material in one of the documents released in part and one withheld in full is of such a nature that its release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. As such, it is exempt from release under subsection (b)(6) of the Freedom of Information Act.

In some cases, two or more exemptions may apply to the same document.

With respect to material we have withheld under the Freedom of Information Act, you have the right to appeal our determination within sixty days. Appeals should be addressed to: Chairman, Appeals Review Panel, c/o Appeals Officer, A/ISS/IPS/PP/LC, U.S. Department of State, SA-2, Room 8100, Washington, D.C. 20522-8100. The letter of appeal should refer to the case and segment numbers shown above. A copy of the appeals procedures is enclosed.

In addition, the search of the retired files of the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs remains in progress. Additional information will be provided as soon as it becomes available.

If you have any questions with respect to the processing of your request, you may write to: Office of Information Programs and Services, U.S. Department of State, SA-2, Room 8100, Washington, D.C. 20522-8100. You also may telephone (202) 261-8314. Please refer to the case and segment numbers shown above in all communications about this case.

Your continuing cooperation is appreciated.

Sincerely,

for Margaret P. Grafeld

1. (U) SOR AT DAVOS

CONFIDENTIAL

WE HOPE YOU'VE BEEN NOTIFIED FORMALLY THAT STANLEY ROTH, LIKE LARRY SUMMERS, HAS CANCELLED HIS TRIP TO INDONESIA. (IF NOT, CONSIDER IT DONE.) SOR WILL GO TO DAVOS AT THE END OF THE MONTH FOR THE WORLD ECONOMIC FORUM. HE'D LIKE TO SCHEDULE A MEETING WITH AMIEN RAIS ON THE MARGINS OF DAVOS (JANUARY 29-31). CAN YOU GIVE AMIEN RAIS A HEADS-UP? DEBBIE BOYER (647-9596) WILL COORDINATE SEEKING UP ACTUAL APPOINTMENTS, BUT STANLEY WANTED TO BE SURE THAT HE WAS ALERTED TO HIS INTEREST.

2. (SBU) HARMON BRIEFING

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
DATE/CASE ID: 16 JUN 2006 200503302

A/S ROTH CONDUCTED A BRIEFING FOR EXIM CHAIRMAN HARMON TODAY. THE BRIEFING WAS DRIVEN BY HARMON'S DESIRE TO GATHER SUFFICIENT INFORMATION TO MAKE AN EDUCATED DECISION ON WHETHER TO MOVE FORWARD ON MORE THAN $1.5 BILLION IN EXIM FINANCING (INCLUDING THE CARUDA FUNDS). ROTH, EB A/S LARSON, DAVID WOFFORD OF OPIC, LAURE REDIFER OF TREASURY, INR'S JUDY BIRD, COMMERCE, AND USDA ALL PARTICIPATED. HARMON IS CONSIDERING A VISIT TO JAKARTA IN THE COMING WEEKS. HE ALSO INTENDS TO PLACE INDONESIA ON THE AGENDA OF THE MARCH MEETING OF C-7 EXPORT CREDIT AGENCIES TO WORK OUT A UNIFIED POSITION.

[redacted] B1

P

3. (C) ELECTIONS ASSISTANCE - I

[redacted] B1

THE BRITS INTEND TO PROVIDE ONE MILLION POUNDS (APP. $1.6 MILLION) TO THE ELECTION EFFORT. THEY SHARE OUR CONCERN ABOUT THE EU'S READINESS TO HELP, ARE DISAPPOINTED IN THE EU'S RESPONSE, AND ARE TRYING TO SQUEEZE THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION TO PROVIDE MORE. EUROPEAN COMMISSION PLANNING IS BASED ON UNDP ESTIMATES THAT $45 MILLION IN OUTSIDE ASSISTANCE WILL BE NEEDED FOR THE ELECTION, WITH THE GOI PONYING UP A MATCHING $45 MILLION. (WE HAVE NO IDEA WHERE THIS ESTIMATE COMES FROM, BUT IT FLIES IN THE FACE OF OUR MUCH LARGER ESTIMATES, BOTH OF

WHAT WILL BE REQUIRED OF THE DONOR COMMUNITY AND WHAT THE GOI HAS BUDGETED.) BASED UPDN THESE NUMBERS, THE EC

PROJECTS A SHORTFALL OF $10 TO $15 MILLION. THE COMMISSION'S DG FOR SOUTH ASIA HAD HOPED TO SET ASIDE 10 MILLION EUROS FOR INDONESIAN ELECTION ASSISTANCE, BUT COMMISSION MEMBERS OPPOSED SUCH A HIGH FIGURE, PARTICULARLY IF THE MONEY WERE TO BE FUNNELED THROUGH THE UNDP. INSTEAD, THE EC IS NOW PROPOSING TWO TRANCHES OF ONE MILLION EUROS EACH, OR APPROXIMATELY $3.5 MILLION TOTAL. THE EC MAY ALSO CONSIDER CONTRIBUTING TO THE COST OF PROJECTS THAT MEMBER STATES HAVE UNDERWAY. THE KICKER IS THAT FOR BUDGETARY OR BUREAUCRATIC REASONS, THE MONEY WOULDN'T BE PROVIDED UNTIL MAY, FAR TOO LATE TO BE OF REAL HELP.

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION DG, NAMED MORGAN WE BELIEVE, MAY ACTUALLY STILL BE IN JAKARTA, WHERE HE HAS BEEN DOING SOME INFORMATION GATHERING. [redacted] IT MIGHT BE WORTH THE TIME TO TRACK HIM DOWN AND TOUCH BASE WITH HIM. WE PROVIDED SOR WITH THE NAME AND PHONE NUMBER OF HIS DEPUTY IN BRUSSELS, BUT HAVE BEEN TOLD THE DG WILL HAVE THE MOST INFLUENCE. SOR WILL TALK TO A/S GROSSMAN TO GET HIS THOUGHTS ON GENERATING A MORE SUBSTANTIAL RESPONSE FROM THE EUROPEANS. HE'LL ALSO SEEK TREASURY'S HELP IN GETTING A STRONGER GERMAN COMMITMENT. B1

N.B.: [redacted] B1

4. (SBU) ELECTIONS ASSISTANCE, PART II

UNDER SECRETARIES PICKERING AND EIZENSTAT ARE SCHEDULED TO HAVE A CONFERENCE THIS WEEK (TODAY? TOMORROW?) AT WHICH THEY WILL ANNOUNCE THE FOUR COUNTRIES IN TRANSITION STATUS THAT THE SECRETARY HAS DETERMINED ARE PRIORITY COUNTRIES: INDONESIA, UKRAINE, COLUMBIA, AND NIGERIA. THE SECRETARY WILL INSTRUCT BUREAUS TO ALLOCATE AND SQUEEZE RESOURCES

APPROPRIATELY. THE TIMING IS SERENDIPITOUS, AS IT COINCIDES WITH OUR PUSH TO GET ANOTHER $10 MILLION IN ELECTION ASSISTANCE. STANLEY ROTH HOSTED A MEETING OF S/RPP, S/P, DRL, USIA, USAID, AND PIMBS TODAY TO TRY AND MAKE THIS HAPPEN. S/RPP THINKS THEY MAY BE ABLE TO COME UP WITH MORE RESOURCES (THOUGH NOT ALL $10 MILLION) TO BE USED IN SUPPORT OF THE ELECTIONS. S/RPP WILL FIND IT EASIER TO MAKE THIS RECOMMENDATION IF WE CAN POINT TO CONTRIBUTIONS FROM OTHER AGENCIES AS WELL.

KAREN TURNER GAVE A TERRIFIC PRESENTATION ON WHAT OUR PRIORITIES ARE, AND HOW WE ARE USING AVAILABLE FUNDS TO ADDRESS AREAS CRITICAL TO SUCCESS OF THE ELECTIONS. WHAT THE GROUP NEEDS, HOWEVER, AND WHAT WE HOPE YOU CAN PRESS AID TO SEND TO WASHINGTON BY NEXT WEEK, IS A BETTER DEFINED SENSE OF OUR $33 MILLION ELECTION BUDGET; WHAT WE ARE DOING WITH THE $23 MILLION ALREADY ALLOCATED FOR DEMOCRATIZATION ACTIVITIES; AND WHERE EXACTLY THAT OTHER $10 MILLION WOULD BE USED. S/RPP ALSO SUGGESTED THAT AID LOOK CLOSELY AT WHERE USIA OR DRL OR ESF FUNDS MIGHT BE USED TO FUND ALREADY BUDGETED ACTIVITIES, ALLOWING AID TO

REALLOCATE MONEY TO OTHER DEMOCRATIZATION PRIORITIES. WE CAN'T UNDERSCORE HOW CRITICALLY USEFUL A TOOL THIS SPECIFIC BUDGET OUTLINE WOULD BE.

THE MEETING ENERGIZED USIS AT A WORKING LEVEL (GRETA MORRIS) TO PROMISE TO DEVELOP A DETAILED ACTION PLAN WITH BUDGET TO DESCRIBE SPECIFIC ACTIVITIES (PREPARING VOTER EDUCATION PAMPHLETS, VOA CAMPAIGNS, ETC.) THAT USIA CAN CONTRIBUTE TO THIS ASSISTANCE PROGRAM. USIA MADE A PITCH FOR CLOSER COORDINATION BETWEEN USIS AND USAID, NOTING THAT YOU (RICHARD GONG) HAD APPROACHED USAID EARLIER THIS WEEK.

DRL WAS MORE CAUTIOUS ABOUT ITS WILLINGNESS TO ADD MONEY TO THE POT, AND WILL RESERVE A DECISION UNTIL IT SEES AID'S BUDGET PROJECTIONS ON HOW THE ADDITIONAL $10 MILLION WOULD BE USED.

5. (C) ELECTION ASSISTANCE - PART III

WITH SOR HAVING GOTTEN CAUTION SIGNS FROM ALATAS TUESDAY AFTERNOON AND AMBASSADOR ROY A MIRROR IMAGE MESSAGE FROM GINANDJAR THE FOLLOWING MORNING (WE WOULD APPRECIATE AN OI ACCOUNT OF THAT DISCUSSION IF IT IS NOT COMING SEPTEL), IT IS LOOKING INCREASINGLY LIKE THE INDONESIANS ARE NOT QUITE READY FOR OUR EMBRACE ON THE JANUARY 25-26 AROUND THE CGI.

SOR HAS NOT THROWN IN THE TOWEL, BUT WE ARE REALISTIC. ON THE PLUS SIDE, IT IS OUR IMPRESSION HERE THAT WE HAVE GOTTEN SEVERAL COUNTRIES' ATTENTION REGARDING THE CHALLENGE WHICH WE WILL NEED TO FACTOR INTO A FALL BACK STRATEGY. SOR HAS LEANED PRETTY HEAVILY ON THE JAPANESE

AND THEY HAVE BEGUN TO WAKE UP TO DOING MORE. (FYI, SOR LEARNED FROM THEM THAT GINANDJAR IS HEADED TO TOKYO ON JANUARY L7 SO WILL PROBABLY NOT LINK UP WITH ALATAS UNTIL LATER RE DISCUSSING INTL ELECTIONS ASSISTANCE.) THE AUSSIES ARE NOT PLEDGING AND STILL SOUND CAUTIOUS, BUT WILL COME AROUND. FINALLY, THE EUROPEANS WILL NEED SERIOUS

WORK AND WE WILL BE TALKING TO EUR HERE TO SEE WHAT CAN BE DONE.

I'M NOT SURE HOW ALL OF THIS TALLIES WITH WHAT YOU PERCEIVE TO BE THE SITUATION ON THE GROUND THERE, BUT WE'D APPRECIATE YOUR VIEWS ON THE ABOVE AND YOUR THOUGHTS ON NEXT STEPS. A POSSIBLE INTERNATIONAL GATHERING OUTSIDE INDONESIA MAY BE AN OPTION WE WILL WANT TO CONSIDER AS WELL A SWING BY SOR TO EUROPE ON HIS WAY BACK FRO~ DAVOS (WHERE HE'LL MEET WITH LEE KUAN YEW, SIAZON, AND OTHERS) ANYWAY, STAY TUNED. IN THE MEANTIME, WE AT THE DESK STILL FEEL LARGELY IN THE DARK ABOUT WHAT THE UNDP COORDINATORS ARE DOING ON THE GROUND IN JAKARTA. WOULD YOU GIVE US AN UPDATE?

6. (U) ACEH/SIDNEY JONES VISIT

JUST TO GIVE YOU A HEADS UP: SIDNEY JONES, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH ASIA, INTENDS TO VISIT INDONESIA IN EARLY FEBRUARY, WITH AN EYE TO FINDING OUT MORE ABOUT WHAT'S GOING ON IN ACEH. SHE WILL SEEK TO MEET WITH IAN MCCARY AT SOME POINT DURING HER STAY.

7. (U) IPP LETTER

CONFIDENTIAL

WE'VE FAXED TO YOU A COPY OF THE SIGNED LETTER ON IPPS FROM TREASURY UNDER SECRETARY GEITHNER TO THE SECRETARY GENERAL OF FINANCE. YOU MIGHT HELP OUT TREASURY BY MAKING SURE THE APPROPRIATE GOL OFFICIALS HAVE SEEN IT (AND YOU CAN EXPLAIN AWAY THE LAST PARAGRAPH BY NOTING THAT IT WAS SIGNED BEFORE SUMMERS DECIDED TO CANCEL HIS TRIP, BUT THAT WE DO HOPE HE'LL MAKE IT TO INDONESIA SOON.)

A/S ROTH HAS REVIEWED THE NOTIONAL SCHEDULE FOR HIS FEBRUARY 2-4 VISIT CONTAINED IN JAKARTA 3~3. HE THANKS ALL FOR THEIR EFFORTS. AS ALREADY CONVEYED TO AMBASSADOR ROY, HE APPRECIATES, BUT DECLINES, THE INVITATION TO STAY AT THE RESIDENCE. HE WOULD LIKE A COUNTRY TEAM MEETING EARLY IN HIS STAY. CONCERNING THE PROPOSED 2/3 1800 HRS GENERAL ELECTRIC "LIGHTING UP" EVENT, ROTH ASKED WHETHER IT WOULDN'T BE BEST TO INSTEAD RETURN TO JAKARTA THAT EVENING FOR FURTHER SUBSTANTIVE WORK, SUCH AS A WORKING DINNER. HE REQUESTS A FULL 60 MINUTES WITH FM ALATAS ON 2/4. HE WOULD ALSO LIKE A MEETING WITH THE UNDP

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
DATE/CASE ID: 16 JUN 2006 200503302

REPRESENTATIVE, AS WELL AS A PRESS CONFERENCE ON DEPARTURE, WORKED INTO THE SCHEDULE.

2. (C) A/S ROTH TRIP PLANNING MEETING

A/S ROTH MET WITH DAS BOYCE, KAREN BROOKS, AND EAP/PIMBS THIS MORNING TO CONTINUE PRELIMINARY DISCUSSION ON THE SECRETARY'S INDONESIA VISIT. HE STARTED OFF BY NOTING THAT HE HAD SPOKEN WITH AMBASSADOR ROY ABOUT THE OPPOSITION "ELECTION-FOCUSED MEET-AND-GREET WITH THREE `PULL-ASIDES'" AND ON A SPEECH, AND THAT THE AMBASSADOR WAS CHECKING FURTHER ON THEIR FEASIBILITY. ROTH CONTINUES TO FAVOR BOTH IDEAS. WE AWAIT YOUR INPUT. ALTHOUGH THERE IS SOME PRESSURE TO MOVE THE FINAL ACTION MEMO WITH PROPOSALS FOR THE JAKARTA SCHEDULE TO THE SEVENTH FLOOR TOMORROW, ROTH PLANS TO HOLD IT UNTIL THE AMBASSADOR'S FURTHER COMMENTS ARE RECEIVED.

3. (SBU) DRL PLEASED WITH HRR; FLAGS SEVERAL POINTS

DRL WAS PLEASED WITH THE SUBSTANTIAL UPDATES TO V-1 OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT PROVIDED IN JAKARTA 258, AND ASKED US TO CONVEY THEIR GRATITIUDE FOR YOUR IMPRESSIVELY THOROUGH WORK. WE ECHO THE SENTIMENT, AND THINK WE SEE THE LIGHT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL. WE SEE NO SIGNIFICANT PROBLEM WITH MOST OF DRL'S LARGELY FORMAL COMMENTS AND COUNTER-SUGGEST IONS (WHICH WE WILL RESOLVE AT THIS END), BUT DO WISH TO FLAG SEVERAL MORE IMPORTANT SUBSTANTIVE POINTS FOR YOUR FURTHER ATTENTION AND/OR COMMENT.

-- YOUR SUGGESTED REWRITE TO PARA 7 OF THE INTRODUCTION DOES NOT PASS THE DRL TEST. IN ORDER TO KEEP ALL COUNTRY REPORTS FORMALLY CONSISTENT, AND TO AVOID TRYING TO MASSAGE OR "CONTEXTUALIZE" PROBLEMS AWAY, DRL INSISTS ON THE ORIGINAL "BAD NEWS BEFORE GOOD" ORDER.

-- YOUR SUGGESTED ADDITION TO THE FIRST SENTENCE OF PART B (DISAPPEARANCES), NAMELY THE PHRASE "WERE ACCUSED OF", WILL NOT GET A GREEN LIGHT FROM DRL. DRL INSISTS ON A RETURN TO THE INITIAL LANGUAGE, WHICH CORRESPONDS TO THE EVIDENCE AND MAKES EXPLICIT OUR UNDERSTANDING THAT SECURITY FORCES DID IN FACT DO WHAT THEY WERE ACCUSED OF DOING.

-- IN PART C, PARAGRAPH 15 (REGARDING TROOP WITHDRAWALS IN EAST TIMOR) OF THE INITIAL VERSION, DRL WOULD PROPOSE A

REDRAFT. IN THE SECOND SENTENCE, REPLACE EVERYTHING AFTER THE PHRASE "EAST TIMOR, BUT..." WITH: "SUBSEQUENT EVIDENCE

CONFIDENTIAL

STRONGLY SUPPORTS ALLEGATIONS THAT TROOP LEVELS WERE ACTUALLY INCREASED". IF THIS LANGUAGE SEEMS TOO STRONG, DRL IS WILLING TO NEGOTIATE.

-- THE LAST (SINGLE SENTENCE) PARAGRAPH OF THE INTRODUCTION EXPRESSES, UNAMBIGUOUSLY, THAT INSURGENTS CARRIED OUT SIX EXECUTIONS. DRL WONDERS WHETHER WE CAN BE SO CATEGORICALLY SURE THAT "INSURGENTS", AND NOT SOME OTHER TYPE OF GROUP OR GROUPS, WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THESE EXECUTIONS. TO THAT END, PLEASE DETAIL WHICH SIX EXECUTIONS YOU ARE REFERRING TO. IT MAY BE THAT OUR INTELLIGENCE ACTUALLY SUPPORTS YOUR UNAMBIGUOUS STATEMENT.

-- PLEASE EXPLAIN WHAT GOING FROM A "MILITARY OPERATIONS AREA" TO A "CRITICAL CONTROL AREA" MEANS BY PROVIDING BRIEF DEFINITIONS OF BOTH TERMS.

-- DRL RECEIVED A LETTER FROM THE OVERSEAS PRESS CLUB OF AMERICA ALLEGING THAT A JOURNALIST FROM THE [redacted] B6
[redacted] BY THE NAME OF [redacted] WAS REFUSED ENTRY B6
INTO INDONESIA ON NOVEMBER 10. [redacted] WAS B6 B6
ALLEGEDLY ON A GOVERNMENT BLACKLIST FOR PREVIOUS WRITINGS ON EAST TIMOR. IF THIS IS TRUE (AND SUBSTANTIATED), IT MAY MERIT INCLUSION INTO THE REPORT. HAVE YOU HEARD ANYTHING?

THERE IS VERY KEEN INTEREST IN THE JANUARY 24 GATHERING AT GENERAL WIRANTO'S RESIDENCE. CONFIDENTIAL

A/S ROTH AGREES WITH YOUR RECOMMENDATION THAT HE STAY IN JOGJA OVERNIGHT AND ATTEND THE DANCE CEREMONY. HE WOULD LIKE A SEPARATE MEETING WITH THE UNDP, AND WE THINK IT WOULD BE WORTHWHILE IF CORRINA PERELLI FROM UN'S ELECTORAL ASSISTANCE DIVISION COULD BE INCLUDED (SEE READOUT OF MY TRIP TO NEW YORK FOR MORE; SHE SHOULD BE VISITING AT THAT TIME.) HOW TO HANDLE THE PRESS WILL DEPEND ON TIMING OF THE HABIBIE MEETING. IF ROTH MEETS WITH HABIBIE EARLY IN THE VISIT, HE WOULD LIKE A SEPARATE PRESS EVENT WHEN HE LEAVES JAKARTA, SO THAT HE CAN COMMENT ON THE FULL RANGE OF HIS MEETINGS, NOT JUST MEETINGS WITH SENIOR GOI

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
DATE/CASE ID: 16 JUN 2006 200503302

OFFICIALS. IF THE MEETING WITH HABIBIE TAKES PLACE NEARER THE END OF ROTH'S STAY, HE'LL BE ABLE TO MAKE HIS POINTS ABOUT CONSULTATIONS WITH NGOS AND OPPOSITION AT THE SAME TIME HE COMMENTS ON HIS MEETING WITH HABIBIE. FINALLY, IS THERE ANY WAY TO SHAKE THE BUSHES AND FIND SOMEBODY TO TALK ABOUT ACEH AT THE LUNCH MIKE OWENS' IS HOSTING?

2. (SBU) MEETINGS AT THE UN

[redacted] MADE CLEAR TUESDAY THAT THE UNDP IS BUSY COORDINATING INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE AT THE GOI'S REQUEST BUT INFERRED IT IS LESS DIRECTLY CONCERNED WITH RALLYING ADDITIONAL INTERNATIONAL ELECTION AID. UNDP WILL NOT PLAY A ROLE AT THIS POINT IN THE INTERNATIONAL OBSERVER EFFORT -- TOO POLITICAL. THEY MAY OFFER LOGISTICAL SUPPORT TO OBSERVERS, BUT NOTHING MORE. WHILE CLEARLY AWARE OF TIME CONSTRAINTS IN PREPARING FOR ELECTIONS, UNDP OFFICIALS IN NEW YORK SEEMED MORE B1

CONCERNED ABOUT THE APPEARANCE OF REMAINING "NEUTRAL" AND SUPPORTIVE IN THE EYES OF THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT THAN OF THE NEED TO MOVE QUICKLY. [redacted] SPOKE OF A LATE FEBRUARY/EARLY MARCH TIME FRAME FOR A POSSIBLE DONORS PLEDGING CONFERENCE, AN IDEA WHICH UNDP RESREP RAJAN WOULD BROACH WITH THE GOT FOLLOWING CONSULTATIVE MEETINGS THIS WEEK IN JAKARTA (WHICH HATTIE BABBITT WAS EXPECTED TO ATTEND). SUCH A PLEDGING SESSION WOULD BEST FOLLOW COMPLETION OF THE MOU (ALMOST DONE) AND A DETAILED ELECTION WORKPLAN STILL TO BE NEGOTIATED (OPTIMISTICALLY TWO WEEKS OFF) TO GUIDE INTERNATIONAL EFFORTS. OUR FEELING IS THAT IT WILL BE DIFFICULT TO GET FIRM PLEDGES OF ASSISTANCE FROM OTHER DONORS UNTIL THIS WORKPLAN IS READIED. SOR WILL MAKE THIS POINT IN HIS DISCUSSIONS NEXT WEEK IN JAKARTA. ANY INFORMATION THAT YOU OR AID CAN GLEAN ON HOW THAT TECHNICAL PLAN IS SHAPING UP, WHAT THE GOT WILL BUDGET FOR ELECTIONS, WHAT ACTIVITIES THE GOT WILL HANDLE ITSELF, AND WHERE THEY WILL NEED OUTSIDE HELP WOULD BE APPRECIATED. B1

[redacted] SHE HAS EXTENSIVE KNOWLEDGE OF ELECTIONS PREPARATIONS, AND HAS A GENERAL UNDERSTANDING OF WHAT STEPS -AND PITFALLS -- THE GOT AND THE DONOR COMMUNITY MUST CONSIDER. AT RAJAN'S REQUEST AND DESPITE GOT AMBIVALENCE, SHE PLANS A ~-LO DAY TRIP TO JAKARTA

"NEXT WEEK" (ON HER WAY TO NIGERIA) TO LEND SUPPORT TO UNDP'S INCREASINGLY STRESSED COORDINATION EFFORT. SHE

FELT THAT INDONESIA WAS ENTERING THE "DANGER ZONE" OF TRANSITION ELECTIONS WHERE THE REAL STAKES ARE BECOMING CLEAR TO ALL POLITICAL PLAYERS WITHIN AND OUTSIDE THE GOVERNMENT. SHE ARTICULATED THE NEED TO GET THE PUBLIC (INCLUDING OPPOSITION, STUDENTS, AND NGOS) TO BUY IN TO THE ENTIRE ELECTION PROCESS, PERHAPS THROUGH A PUBLIC DIALOGUE. POTENTIAL "DISENFRANCHISED" ELEMENTS NEEDED TO BE A PARTICULAR FOCUS OF ATTENTION.

SHE MADE THE POINT THAT THE GOI'S DESIRE FOR TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE IS AT ODDS WITH ITS DESIRE FOR A LOW INTERNATIONAL PROFILE IN THE ASSISTANCE EFFORT. EVENTUALLY, THE GOI WILL HAVE TO ACCEPT MONETARY DONATIONS. FINALLY, SHE MADE THE SENSIBLE OBSERVATION THAT INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY DONORS NEED TO ENSURE THAT THEY COMPLEMENT ONE ANOTHER IN THE VARIOUS TASKS THEY TAKE ON, NOT COMPETE. THIS, SHE SAYS, IS A COMMON STUMBLING BLOCK AS COUNTRIES GENERALLY HOPE TO TAKE ON THE EASIER TASKS (E.G., PROVIDING BALLOT BOXES) LEAVING THE HARDER BUT MORE IMPORTANT TASKS (E.G. UPDATING VOTER REGISTRATION) TO THE OVERWHELMED GOVERNMENT.

ON FUNDING, BASED ON HER EXPERIENCE IN NIGERIA, [redacted] B1
WAS NOT OPTIMISTIC THAT THE EU WOULD BE ABLE TO DONATE SIGNIFICANT SUMS OF MONEY TO THE GOL, GIVEN THE EU'S MADDENING BUREAUCRACY AND ONGOING KICKBACK SCANDAL INVESTIGATION. WITH THIS IN MIND, WE WILL WANT TO ENCOURAGE EUROPEAN DONORS TO CONTRIBUTE BILATERALLY AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE.

3. (SBU) WORKING GROUP ON ELECTIONS ASSISTANCE

BILLING IT AS THE FIRST FOLLOW UP MEETING IN THE WAKE OF THE 4 PRIORITY EMERGING DEMOCRACY COUNTRIES, SKIP BOYCE CHAIRED A MEETING ON ELECTIONS ASSISTANCE WITH DRL, USIA, AID, S/RPP, AND INR IN ATTENDANCE. WE'LL MEET ON A WEEKLY BASIS TO EXCHANGE INFORMATION AND AGREE ON ACTIONS ON THE WEEK AHEAD. DRL'S DAVID YANG HAS AGREED TO CALL SOME OF HIS EUROPEAN CONTACTS TO PRESS FOR MORE ATTENTION TO THE ELECTION RESOURCE ISSUE. AND WE WILL BE FOLLOWING UP SEPARATELY TO THE EU AND ASIA ON THE RESOURCE SHORTAGE

ISSUE. FINALLY, SO THAT WE CAN HELP ADDRESS PERSISTENT QUESTIONS HERE ABOUT JUST WHAT IS A "CREDIBLE ELECTION" WE'D LIKE YOUR INPUT ON HOW WE WOULD OPERATIONALIZE (SORRY FOR THE JARGON) A REASONABLE TEST/BENCHMARK FOR FREE AND FAIR ELECTIONS IN INDONESIA.

FINALLY, WE NEED TO KNOW HOW AID WOULD SPEND AN ADDITIONAL $10 MILLION IN ELECTION ASSISTANCE THAT HAS BEEN THE SUBJECT OF VARIOUS MEETINGS FOR WEEKS. I CAN'T TELL YOU HOW EXASPERATED DRL AND S/RPP HAVE BECOME WITH AID'S FAILURE TO PROVIDE THIS INFORMATION, OVER A MONTH AFTER IT WAS FIRST REQUESTED. POOR KAREN TURNER JUST HAD TO SIT THER AND APOLOGIZE SINCE SHE HAD NOTHING NEW TO OFFER. WE REGOCOGNIZE THAT BABBITT'S VISIT HAS COMPLICATED THINGS A BIT BUT IT IS DRAGGING ON TOO LONG. OTHER OFFICES ARE CLAMORING FOR THE RESOURCES; IF AID CAN'T PROVIDE AN ANSWER BY THE END OF THE WEEK, DRL AND S/RPP ARE QUITE PREPARED TO PUT THEIR MONEY ELSEWHERE (NIGERIA, FOR EXAMPLE).

WHAT BECOMES CLEAR, BOTH FROM OUR MEETINGS HERE AND IN NEW YORK, IS THAT WE IN WASHINGTON NEED BETTER ACCESS TO REAL TIME INFORMATION ON A LOT OF THE DISCUSSIONS THAT YOU, AID, OR PERHAPS THEIR CONTRACTORS, ARE HAVING ABOUT THEIR ELECTION PROCESS. NOW I KNOW THAT THE AMBASSADOR MAY ROLL HIS EYES AND RIGHTLY COMPLAIN THAT WE TOO OFTEN DON'T READ WHAT WE ARE ALREADY BEING SENT, BUT BELIEVE ME, WE NEED MORE E-MAIL TYPE INFO ABOUT ELECTION PREPS -- WHAT THE GOL IS DOING, WHAT UNDP IS DOING, WHAT WE HEAR OTHER DONORS DOING OR CONSIDERING DOING. WE WILL TRY HARDER TO SHARE WITH YOU ALL WHAT IS HAPPENING ON OUR END (AS YOU SEE FORM ABOVE)

4. (C) THE SECRETARY'S VISIT

A/S ROTH HAS DEPARTED FOR DAVOS THIS AFTERNOON. I KNOW THIS IS A FUNNY QUESTION, BUT WE ARE UNSURE IF AMBASSADOR ROY, AFTER FURTHER CHECKING OUT THEIR FEASIBILITY, SPOKE WITH HIM AGAIN ABOUT THE OPPOSITION "ELECTION-FOCUSED MEET-AND-GREET WITH THREE `PULL-ASIDES'" IDEA AND AN S SPEECH ON U.S.-INDONESIAN RELATIONS. IF HE HAS, OR DOES, WE'D APPRECIATE THE EMBASSY DOUBLE-TRACKING THAT COMMUNICATION WITH PIMBS. WE ARE UNDER INCREASING PRESSURE TO MOVE THE FINAL ACTION MEMO WITH PROPOSALS FOR THE JAKARTA SCHEDULE TO THE SEVENTH FLOOR BY TOMORROW AND SIMPLY DON'T KNOW THE OUTCOME IF ANY OF THAT DISCUSSION.

5.. (SBU) HARMON VISIT

EXIM CHAIRMAN HARMON IS PLANNING A TWO DAY TRIP TO JAKARTA. HE'LL ARRIVE ON THE 15TH, AND SEEK MEETINGS EITHER FEB 15-16 OR FEB 16-17. HARMON HAS ALREADY SPOKEN

CONFIDENTIAL

TO AMBASSADOR DORODJATUN, AND HAS SAID HE WILL ONLY GO IF HE CAN GET MEETINGS WITH PRESIDENT HABIBIE, MINISTER OF

FINANCE SUBIANTO, AND GINANDJAR. HE'LL ALSO WANT MEETINGS WITH TANRI ABENG AND THE MINISTER OF TRANSPORTATION. ANY OTHER SUGGESTIONS YOU HAVE WOULD BE WELCOME. LET US KNOW IF THESE DATES WILL WORK (WE'VE ALREADY POINTED OUT TO EXIM THAT FEB 15 IS A HOLIDAY.)

WE APPRECIATE EMBASSY'S EXCELLENT CABLE (JAKARTA 1809) ON NEXT STEPS ON EAST TIMOR. DRAWING ON IT, PIMBS PREPARED A CABLE INSTRUCTING JAKARTA TO DELIVER A STRONG MESSAGE TO HIGH-LEVELS OF THE GOT AND TNT. WE ARE WORKING ON GETTING U/S PICKERING TO CALL IN AMBASSADOR DORODJATUN TOMORROW TO MAKE THE SAME POINTS. WE HAVE LEARNED THAT A/S ROTH APPROVES THE PICKERING-DORODJATUN IDEA, BUT PREFERS TO DELIVER THE MESSAGE HIMSELF DURING HIS APRIL 14-16 VISIT. THEREFORE, FYI, AND FOR PASSING TO A/S ROTH WHEN HE ARRIVES, WE PROVIDE THE TEXT OF U/S PICKERING'S TALKING POINTS, WHICH HAS BEEN WIDELY CLEARED, INCLUDING BY THE

2. (U) E-MAIL COMMUNICATIONS

WE RECEIVED THE TEST MESSAGE FROM DCM/OMS THIS MORNING, BUT GOT THE FOLLOWING ERROR MESSAGE WHEN WE SENT A REPLY:

"THE FOLLOWING RECIPIENTS HAVE NOT YET BEEN SYNCHRONIZED AND CANNOT BE DELIVERED TO: PCM:VINESGATE/STDA/ST (DCMOMS@DCM@JAKAR EMBA)." HOPE YOU CAN USE THIS INFORMATION TO CORRECT THE PROBLEM.

3. (C) AI, EAST TIMOR, AND DEWI FORTUNA ANWAR

[redacted] WITH DEWI FORTUNA ANWAR, WHO CLAIMS TO HAVE PERSUADED PRESIDENT HABIBIE TO ALLOW AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL INTO EAST TIMOR TO INVESTIGATE THE VIOLENCE AND KILLINGS IN LIQUICA ON APRIL 5-6 (JAKARTA 1808). WE HAVE NOT YET BEEN ABLE TO CONFIRM DIRECTLY WITH AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL. ANWAR TOLD [redacted] THAT SHE AGREED WITH THE NEED TO REDUCE TENSIONS BUT THAT THE BLAME ON CURRENT TROUBLES SHOULD NOT BE "ONE WAY" (I.E. PRO-INDEPENDENCE ELEMENTS SHARE THE BLAME, TOO). SHE AGREED THAT THE UN-LED PROCESS OF CONSULTATION NEEDED TO MOVE FORWARD BUT THAT INDONESIA COULD NOT PERMIT NON-INDONESIAN

SECURITY PERSONNEL TO PROVIDE SECURITY ON INDONESIAN (EAST TIMOR) SOIL. SHE ALSO CHARACTERIZED XANANA'S STATEMENTS OF LAST WEEK AS "EXTREMELY PROVOCATIVE."

4. (C) KOFI ANNAN CALLS HABIBIE

TAMRAT SAMUEL IN MARKER'S UNDPA OFFICE THIS MORNING CONFIRMED THAT THE SECRETARY GENERAL DID CALL PRESIDENT HABIBIE OVER THE WEEKEND. SAMUEL LACKED FULL DETAILS OF THE EXCHANGE, BUT DID SAY THAT ANNAN WAS NOT SATISFIED WITH THE RESPONSES THAT HE RECEIVED FROM HABIBIE, AND THAT A "FOLLOW UP" CALL MIGHT BE NECESSARY IN THE NEAR FUTURE. ROSE LIKINS SAID THE SECRETARY WAS INVOLVED WITH PLACING CALLS TO ALL 18 NATO FOREIGN MINISTERS OVER THE WEEKEND AND WAS UNABLE TO CALL ANNAN.

5. (U) HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH

MIKE JENDRZEJCZYK OF HUMAN RIGHTS WATCH ASIA WILL BE TRAVELLING TO JAKARTA EARLY NEXT WEEK AND HOPES TO CALL ON THE EMBASSY. WE'VE FAXED TO YOU A COPY OF HRW'S FRIDAY PRESS RELEASE, IN WHICH CALL ON CGI GOVERNMENTS TO MAKE A JOINT DEMARCHE URGNING THE DISARMING OF ARMY-BACKED MILITIAS IN EAST TIMOR.

6. (SBU) RESCHEDULING EIZENSTAT

U/S EIZENSTAT'S OFFICE IS MAKING TENTATIVE PLANS TO RESCHEDULE HIS TRIP TO ASIA FOR THE SECOND HALF OF 1999, AVOIDING SEPTEMBER BECAUSE OF APEC. INDONESIA, CHINA, JAPAN, AND POSSIBLY THAILAND OR KOREA WOULD BE KEY STOPS.

THE CHOICE WILL COME DOWN TO WHICH APPROACH THE HILL WILL ACCEPT. WE WILL UNDOUBTEDLY GET A CLEAR SENSE OF THAT TOMORROW WHEN WE MEET CAROLYN BARTHOLOMEW, ET AL. (C) A/S ROTH NOTED THAT ONLY SIX WEEKS AGO, DURING THE VISIT OF SECRETARY ALBRIGHT, PROSPECTS FOR A SOLUTION TO THE EAST TIMOR PROBLEM HAD APPEARED "PRETTY POSITIVE," BUT THAT WITH THE NEW FIGHTING, THE "TERRIBLE INCIDENT IN LIQUICA" AND THE SLOWING OF PROGRESS ON THE AUTONOMY PACKAGE THE SITUATION HAD BECOME "FAR MORE ALARMING." THE INTERNATIONAL REACTION TO GOI POLICY WAS NOW NEGATIVE WHEREAS IT HAD RECENTLY BEEN POSITIVE, PRIMARILY BECAUSE OF ABRI'S FAILURE TO DISARM PARAMILITARY GROUPS. US

CONGRESSIONAL CONCERN WAS AGAIN BEING EXPRESSED AND UNSYG KOFI ANNAN RECENTLY HAD CALLED PRESIDENT HABIBIE TO EXPRESS HIS CONCERN. THERE WAS ALSO AN EFFORT TO GENERATE A STATEMENT ABOUT EAST TIMOR AT THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION IN GENEVA. SEVERAL COUNTRIES WERE CONSIDERING REQUESTING A SECURITY COUNCIL BRIEFING ON EAST TIMOR, WHICH MIGHT THEN RESULT IN A RANGE OF FOLLOWUP ACTIONS, INCLUDING A PRESS STATEMENT, A PRESIDENTIAL LETTER, OR EVEN A RESOLUTION. IN SUM, EAST TIMOR WAS AGAIN BECOMING A MAJOR NEGATIVE ISSUE FOR INDONESIA.

15. (C) A/S ROTH THANKED THE MINISTER FOR HIS DETAILED ACCOUNT, ADDING THAT HE WOULD HAVE NOTED A FEW OTHER POINTS, INCLUDING THAT "A LOT OF WEAPONS FOUND THEIR WAY FROM THE MILITARY TO PARAMILITARY GROUPS." "THERE WERE JUST TOO MANY REPORTS OF THE TNI COOPERATING WITH THE MILITIAS." THIS WAS NOT TO SAY THAT GENERAL WIRANTO OR PRESIDENT HABIBIE WERE DIRECTLY INVOLVED, HOWEVER. ROTH SAID THAT SEVERAL STEPS WERE ESSENTIAL: THE AUTNOMY PACKAGE HAD TO BE COMPLETED; IT WAS NECESSARY TO GET ALL SIDES TALKING; AND THERE NEEDED TO BE DISARMAMENT OF BOTH SIDES. IN REGARD TO THE LATTER, XANANA'S WILLINGNESS TO SEE THE FALINITL DISARMED WITH ARMS SURRENDERED TO THE UN WAS AN IMPORTANT OPPORTUNITY. IT MIGHT BE POSSIBLE TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS PROPOSAL WITH SOME CREATIVE DIPLOMACY, ROTH SUGGESTED. PERHAPS IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE FOR ARMED GROUPS TO SURRENDER THEIR ARMS BEFORE (BUT NOT TO) UN OBSERVERS PRESENT IN EAST TIMOR AS PART OF THE UN TEAM PREPARING THE AUTONOMY BALLOTING.

16. (C) THE USG WAS NOT ADVOCATING A PEACE KEEPIING OPERATION BUT RATHER WAS CALLING FOR AN "INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE." THIS WOULD POSE NO THREAT TO INDONESIAN SOVREIGNTY. WITH REGARD TO PEACEKEEPING, IT MIGHT BE POSSIBLE TO HAVE POLICE ADVISORS WORKING IN ASSOCIATION

WITH THE UN PRESENCE AND ASSISTING IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF AN EAST TIMROESE POLICE FORCE. THERE WERE MANY POSSIBILITIES. IT WAS NECESSARY TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF XANANA'S PROPOSAL ON DISARMING AND GENERAL WIRANTO'S STATED WILLINGNESS TO DISARM SOME OF THE PRO-INTEGRATION MILITIAS. IT WAS ESENTIAL THAT "WE NOT GO BACKWARDS."

17. (C) WITH REGARD TO A HUMANITARIAN PRESENCE, THERE WERE TWO ISSUES. ONE INVOLVED ENABLING THE ICRC TO INVESTIGATE THE LIQUICA INCIDENT. MORE IMPORTANTLY, THERE WAS THE SITUATION ON THE GROUND, REPRESENTED IN PART BY NEED FOR A SURGICAL CAPACITY, NOTABLY AMONG THE LIQUICA WOUNDED. THERE WAS ALSO THE LARGER ISSUE OF MEDICAL CARE THROUGHOUT THE ISLAND, INCLUDING SHORTAGES OF DOCTORS, NURSES, AND MEDICAL SUPPLIES.

18. (C) ALATAS RESPONDED THAT THE UNDP WOULD BE HEADING UP A MULTI-AGENCY ASSESSMENT TEAM THAT WOULD GO TO EAST TIMOR NEXT WEEK. IT WOULD INCLUDE REPRESENATIVES FROM WHO, WFP AS WELL AS UNDP. ALTATAS SAID HE WAS COUNTING ON THE UNDP TO PROVIDE AN "OBJECTIVE, NON-POLITICIZED REPORT." ROTH RECALLED PRESIDENT HABIBIE'S CONCERN ABOUT THE FINANCIAL COST OF EAST TIMOR FOR THE NATIONAL BUDGET AND NOTED THAT THE GOI WOULD BE WISE TO ACCEPT OFFERS OF HUMANITARIAN HELP WHICH REDUCED ITS OWN FINANCIAL BURDEN IN EAST TIMOR.

19. (C) CONCLUDING HIS REMARKS, ALATAS CLAIMED THAT THE LAST THING THAT THE AMRED FORCES OR THE GOVERNMENT IN GENERAL WANTED WAS A CIVIL WAR, ALLEGDING THAT THIS WAS WHAT CAUSED INDONESIA TO ENTER EAST TIMOR IN 1975. THE NOTION THAT THE GOI SOUGHT MORE FIGHTING AS PROPOGATED ON THE INTERNET WAS WRONG. IN THIS REGARD, ALATAS OFFERED WHAT HE SAID WAS THE VERSION OF WHAT TRANSPIRED IN LIQUICA AS TOLD TO HIM BY THE POLICE AND MILITARY COMMANDERS IN EAST TIMOR. HE CLAIMED THAT TWO PLATOONS OF MOBILE POLICE BRIGADE TROOPS HAD BEEN ATTEMPTING TO NEGOTIATE WITH FATHER RAFAEL (A "POLITICAL PRIEST") FOR THE SURRENDER OF FIVE INDIVIDUALS WHO HAD TAKEN REFUGE IN HIS HOUSE. AS NEGOTIATIONS WERE UNDERWAY, HE SAID, A SINGLE SHOT RANG OUT WHICH WOUNDED ONE POLICEMEN SUPERFICIALLY IN THE LEG. SUBSEQUENT BALISTICS TESTS AND THE ANGEL OF HE SHOT, HE CLAIMED, PROVED THAT THE SHOT HAD COME FROM THE PRIEST'S HOUSE.

20. (C) THE SHOT IGNITED A CROWD OF APPROXIMATELY 1,000 PRO-INTEGRATIONISTS WHO ATTACKED THE PRIEST'S HOUSE (AND HUNDREDS OF LOCAL PEOPLE WHO HAD SOUGHT REFUGE NEAR THE ADJOINING CHURCH). ALATAS QUOTED THE SECURITY FORCE COMMANDERS AS CLAIMING THAT THE SITUATION WAS OUT OF CONTROL AND SECURITY FORCES WERE NOT SUFFICIENT TO STOP

THE BLOODSHED.

21. (C) ROTH RETURNED TO HIS PREVIOUS POINT THAT THERE NEEDED TO BE DISARMING OF BOTH SIDES. ROTH NOTED THAT HE HAD SENT A MESSAGE TO XANANA AFTER THE LATTER'S CALL FOR EAST TIMORESE TO DEFEND THEMSELVES, IN WHICH HE TOLD XANANA THAT THIS HAD BEEN UNHELPFUL. IT WAS TIME TO FOCUS ON STEPS TO IMPROVE THE SITUATION ON THE GROUND. HE CONCLUDED BY NOTING THAT SECRETARY ALBRIGHT RETAINED INTENSE PERSONAL INTEREST IN THE SITUATION.

22. (C) THE AMBASSADOR URGED THAT THE MINISTER ASSIST DIPLOMATS TRAVEL TO EAST TIMOR WHICH IN RECENT WEEKS HAD BEEN BLOCKED. ALATAS SAID THAT HE WAS CONCERNED ABOUT THE CONSEQUENCES WERE A DIPLOMAT TO BE INJJURED OR KILLED IN EAST TIMOR BUT UNDERTOOK TO TRY TO BE HELPFUL.

23. (C)

B1

ELECTIONS

24. (C) IN A BRIEF DISCUSSION OF THE ELECTIONS, ROTH SAID THAT EXCEPT FOR SOME TECHNICAL DIFFICULTIES INCLUDING TIMELY WORK ON COMPLETING REGULATIONS AND QUESTION ABOUT WHAT LEVEL MONITORS WOULD WORK AT, THE ELECTION PREPARATIONS APPEARED TO BE PROCEEDING ACCEPTABLY. MOREOVER, HE HAD HEARD NO SUPPORT FOR A POSTPONEMENT OF THE ELECTIONS (WHICH WOULD BE POLITCALLY COSTLY). ROTH RAISED THE MATTER OF VISAS FOR FOREIGN TECHNICAL EXPERTS ASSISTING WITH ELECTION PREPARATION NOTING THAT THEY CURRENTLY MUST WORK ON TOURIST VISAS BECAUSE THE APPROPRIATE VISAS ARE NOT AVAILABLE. ALATAS UNDERTOOK TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEM WITH "IN DEPTH" DIRECTIVES ENSURING THE PROPER VISAS WITH APPROPRIATE DURATION WOULD BE ISSUED.

THANKS FOR THE UPDATE ON NGO'S. WE KNOW YOU'RE SHORT-HANDED NOW AND APPRECIATE THE HARD WORK. WE'VE ASKED THAT JERRY HARPER MAKE SURE THAT EMBASSY JAKARTA IS FULLY APPRISED IN ADVANCE OF THE NEEDS AND EXPECTATIONS OF THE POLICE TRAINERS -- FROM INTERPRETERS TO COMMUNICATIONS EQUIPMENT. HE PLANS TO E-MAIL MARK HUNTER WITH ALL QUESTIONS AND QUERIES AS THEY COME UP, CC-ING ICITAP AND THE DESK (ALEXIS LUDWIG). THIS WILL HELP AVOID UNPLEASANT LAST-MINUTE SURPRISES. PLEASE LET US KNOW IF YOU HAVE QUESTIONS THAT AREN'T GETTING ANSWERED. BY THE WAY, ICITAP SAYS IT SENT OUT A MESSAGE LAST WEEK WITH THE

ON ANOTHER TOPIC, WE FORWARDED ROTH'S REQUEST FOR THE AMBASSADOR'S THOUGHTS ON ANOTHER ISSUE IN OUR O/I 112. ROTH WOULD APPRECIATE THE AMBASSADOR'S VIEWS ON A POTENTIAL ROTH VISIT TO EAST TIMOR IN MID-JULY, PERHAPS ACCOMPANIED BY CINCPAC ADMIRAL BLAIR, LTGEN EDWARD SMITH, COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE U.S. ARMY PACIFIC REGION, OR ANOTHER COMPARABLY RANKED OFFICIAL.

4. (C) EAST TIMOR MONEY

I LED A TEAM THAT DISCUSSED THE REPROGRAMMED $3.5 MILLION FOR UNAMET WITH SFRC STAFFER (LATIN AMERICA SUBCOMMITTEE) NORIEGA AND OTHERS TODAY. HIS CONCERN WAS THE SOURCE OF THE $3.5 MILLION FOR EAST TIMOR INCLUDED $600 THOUSAND ORIGINALLY DESTINED FOR A HAITI SECURITY DETAIL AND $1.53 MILLION IN UNALLOCATED FUNDS (WHICH MIGHT ALSO POTENTIALLY BE USED FOR HAITI). NORIEGA REQUESTED WRITTEN ANSWERS. WHILE NOBODY HAS PUT A HOLD FOR THESE EXTRANEOUS REASONS ON THE $3.5 MILLION FOR EAST TIMOR (FOR WHICH THE 15-DAY NOTIFICATION PERIOD EXPIRES JUNE 30), IT POTENTIALLY COULD HAPPEN, WHICH WOULD REQUIRE A/S ROTH'S INTERVENTION. WE'LL KEEP YOU APPRISED.

5. (U) PRESS CLIPS

WE KNOW IT IS A BURDEN, BUT WE REALLY MISS THOSE PRESS

CLIPS THAT SUDDENLY STOPPED A FEW WEEKS AGO. INR AND WE READ THEM RELIGIOUSLY. ANY CHANCE WE CAN RE-INSTITUTE THEM? INTERNET ACCESS IS QUITE SPOTTY, UNFORTUNATELY.

United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

JUL 13 1999

Dear Mr. Wolf:

Thank you for your letter of June 23 to Assistant Secretary Stanley Roth concerning the situation in East Timor. We share your deep interest and that of your congressional colleagues in ensuring that the United Nations has every opportunity to conduct a credible referendum in August to determine the views of East Timorese on their future. We also agree that the international community must insist that Indonesia live up to its obligations to ensure security and create a climate for the vote that is free of coercion and intimidation.

The United States has a critical role to play in helping bring about peaceful resolution of this long-standing issue. In close collaboration with Congress, we are providing more than $10 million in support to the United Nations Assistance Mission in East Timor (UNAMET), and Americans are participating in the civilian police and military liaison officer components of the mission. Assistant Secretary Roth is personally in frequent contact with the UNAMET Mission directly and with the Secretary General's Personal Representative on East Timor Ambassador Jamsheed Marker.

In response to the unacceptable security situation in East Timor, we have publicly and privately pressed the Indonesian government to rein in and disarm the militias. As you know, Secretary Albright, Defense Secretary Cohen, and other senior USG and military officials have repeatedly raised the issue of human rights abuses by the Indonesian military and pro-integration militias with senior officials of the Indonesian government. We will continue these efforts.

I thank you for your constructive suggestion that Assistant Secretary Roth visit East Timor, perhaps accompanied by a senior U.S. military officer. He is seriously considering such a trip in the immediate future.

The Honorable
Frank R. Wolf,
House of Representatives.

1. ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS POSED IN REF A:

-- UNDP MEETING: THE MEETING WITH UNDP RESREP RAVI RAJAN IS ON APRIL 16 RATHER THAN APRIL 14 BECAUSE RAJAN IS OUT OF TOWN APRIL 13-15. A MEETING WITH UNDP STAFF WITHOUT

HIM WOULD NOT BE ALL THAT USEFUL.

-- DEWI FORTUNA ANWAR: WE THINK THE PROTOCOL QUESTION CAN BE FINESSED IF THE MEETING WITH HER TAKES PLACE AFTER A POSSIBLE HABIBIE MEETING. WE ARE EXPLORING THE POSSIBILITY OF A MEETING WITH HER THURSDAY OR FRIDAY AFTERNOON.

-- ACEH/IRIAN: WE HAVE ALERTED ACEHNESE AND IRIANESE INTERLOCUTORS ABOUT A/S ROTH'S INTEREST IN MEETING BUT HAVE NOT YET SUGGESTED SPECIFIC TIMES UNTIL WE HAVE A BETTER SENSE WHEN THE GOVERNMENT, POLITICAL LEADERS, AND EAST TIMOR MEETINGS WILL BE. WE HOPE TO HAVE A BETTER IDEA BY TOMORROW.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 16 JUN 2006 200503302

-- BAMBANG YUDHOYONO: FOR PROTOCOL REASONS, BAMBANG WOULD BE UNLIKELY TO AGREE TO A SEPARATE MEETING IF A WIRANTO MEETING COMES THROUGH. BAMBANG MIGHT JOIN A WIRANTO MEETING, HOWEVER. IF WIRANTO CANNOT MEET ROTH, THEN BAMBANG CAN BE PURSUED AS A SUBSTITUTE.

-- INDONESIAN ELECTION-MONITORING ORGANIZATIONS: WE BELIEVE THIS WOULD BE A USEFUL OPPORTUNITY TO HEAR WHAT THESE ORGANIZATIONS ARE FACING AS THEY PREPARE FOR THE ELECTIONS AND TO URGE THEM TO INTENSIFY THEIR ORGANIZING EFFORTS. THIS MEETING COULD TAKE PLACE IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE ONE-HOUR SESSION WITH U.S. ELECTION ASSISTANCE GROUPS.

-- AMIEN RAIS OUT OF TOWN: AMIEN'S STAFF TOLD US TODAY THAT AS IT TURNS OUT HE WILL BE IN MANADO APRIL 14-15 AND GOES DIRECTLY TO YOGYAKARTA APRIL 16. IF A/S ROTH WISHES, WE COULD PURSUE A MEETING WITH PAN SECRETARY GENERAL FAISAL BASRI, WHO IS ALSO GOOD VALUE.

2. SUMMARY: REF A CONVEYS A NOTIONAL SCHEDULE FOR A/S ROTH'S UPCOMING VISIT TO INDONESIA. THANK YOU FOR YOUR EFFORTS IN SO SHORT A TIME PERIOD. ON THE WHOLE, THE SCHEDULE LOOKS LIKE IT IS SHAPING UP NICELY. WE DO, HOWEVER, HAVE THE FOLLOWING COMMENTS AND QUESTIONS. END

SUMMARY.

UNDP MEETING

3. IN ORDER TO HAVE THE MOST ACCURATE AND TIMELY INFORMATION WITH WHICH TO PRESS THE FOREIGN AMBASSADORS, A/S ROTH WOULD LIKE TO MEET WITH THE UNDP PRIOR TO MEETING WITH THE AMBASSADORS. PRESENTLY THE UNDP MEETING IS AT THE END OF A/S ROTH'S SCHEDULE. UNLESS THERE IS A COMPELLING REASON FOR THIS PLACEMENT, WE SUGGEST THE UNDP MEETING PRECEDE THE MEETING WITH THE AMBASSADORS.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 15 JUN 2006 200503302

MEETING PRIORITIES

4. FROM THE PRELIMINARY SCHEDULE, WE DO NOT SEE INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS WITH DEWI ANWAR, BAMBANG YUDHOYONO, AND GINANDJAR, OR GROUP MEETINGS ON THE THEMES OF ACEH OR IRIAN. IF POSSIBLE, ACKNOWLEDGING THE INHERENT PROTOCOL PROBLEMS, A/S ROTH IS PARTICULARLY KEEN TO MEET INDIVIDUALLY WITH DEWI ANWAR. IS THERE A SPECIFIC REASON WHY NEITHER THE ACEH NOR IRIAN FOCUSSED MEETINGS CAN BE ACCOMMODATED IN THE SCHEDULE? BAMBANG AND GINANDJAR REMAIN LESSER PRIORITIES.

5. WE NOTE SUGGESTIONS FOR A MEETING WITH INDONESIAN ELECTION MONITORING ORGANIZATIONS AND A DINNER WITH SENIOR INDONESIANS. A/S ROTH IS VERY PLEASED WITH THE SUGGESTED PARTICIPANTS FOR THE DINNER WITH SENIOR INDONESIANS AND LOOKS FORWARD TO THAT EVENT. HOWEVER, THE UTILITY OF A MEETING WITH INDONESIAN ELECTION MONITORING ORGANIZATIONS

SHOULD BE WEIGHED AGAINST THE PRIORITIES NOTED ABOVE. ALSO, IN ORDER TO BETTER ACCOMMODATE AS MANY MEETINGS AS POSSIBLE, WE ASSUME THAT THE INITIAL EMBASSY BRIEFING WILL BE NO LONGER THAN ONE HOUR.

PRESS ARRANGEMENTS

6. WE CONCUR WITH YOUR SUGGESTIONS ON PRESS ARRANGEMENTS, INCLUDING A BRIEF PRESS AVAILABILITY AFTER MEETING WITH THE ELECTIONS COMMISSION, AND PRESS CONFERENCE NEAR CONCLUSION OF VISIT.

SUBJECT: NOTIONAL SCHEDULE FOR A/S ROTH'S VISIT TO INDONESIA

COMMISSION AND ANSWERING A FEW QUESTIONS WHILE MOVING TOWARD DEPARTURE VEHICLE; OR 2) HAVING A BRIEF PRESS AVAILABILITY IN A ROOM MADE AVAILABLE BY THE COMMISSION. WE RECOMMEND THE LATTER.

PRESIDENTIAL MEETING: THE PALACE PRESS CORPS STAKES OUT VISITORS TO PRESIDENT HABIBIE UNLESS PRIOR ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR A PRESS AVAILABILITY IN THE PALACE PRESS ROOM. WE RECOMMEND THAT ROTH NOT/NOT HAVE A PRESS BRIEFING THERE, BUT RATHER WAIT UNTIL THE END OF HIS VISIT FOR A FULL-SCALE PRESS CONFERENCE (SEE BELOW). WE WOULD INFORM PRESS WHO STAKE OUT THE PALACE ABOUT THE PRESS CONFERENCE SO THAT ROTH NEED NOT ANSWER QUESTIONS AT THE PALACE.

PRESS CONFERENCE: IN ORDER TO DRAW MAXIMUM LOCAL AND INTERNATIONAL COVERAGE NEAR THE END OF HIS VISIT, WE RECOMMEND THAT ROTH HOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE AT THE USIS AUDITORIUM LATE MORNING OF FRIDAY, APRIL 16. THIS WILL INSURE LOCAL BROADCAST COVERAGE AS WELL AS PRINT COVERAGE.

3. ACTION REQUESTED: PLEASE ADVISE A/S ROTH'S REACTION TO SCHEDULE AND PRESS ARRANGEMENTS PROPOSED ABOVE.

1. (SBU) MULADI/MADJID VISIT UPDATES

A/S ROTH IS SCHEDULED TO MEET WITH MINISTER MULADI THURSDAY. SO TOO IS JOHN HARRIS, DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE'S OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS.

WE'LL PUT TOGETHER SOME BACKGROUND INFORMATION FOR HARRIS. ATTORNEY GENERAL JANET RENO WILL DROP BY THAT MEETING FOR A FIVE-MINUTE PHOTO OP. EB INVITED AMBASSADOR DORODJATUN TO SIT ON ONE OF THE CORRUPTION CONFERENCE PANELS, BUT THE AMBASSADOR SUGGESTED THAT MINISTER MULADI MIGHT BE WILLING TO DO IT. WE'RE WAITING TO HEAR FROM EB WHETHER THEY'VE ISSUED THAT INVITATION, AND WHETHER MULADI HAS ACCEPTED.

MADJID IS NOW ON FOR TOMORROW, WEDNESDAY AT 11AM, USINDO ON THURSDAY.

2. (SBU) LARSON MEETINGS

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 16 JUN 2006 200503302

ASSISTANT SECRETARY LARSON IS WILLING TO MEET WITH THE INDIVIDUALS YOU SUGGEST (BOEDIONO AND KUNTORO.) HOWEVER, IN LIGHT OF THE FACT THAT HE PROBABLY WON'T JOIN THREE OF THE SECRETARY'S EVENTS (GUSMAO, POLITICAL LEADERS GATHERING, HUMAN RIGHTS AND DEMOCRACY ROUNDTABLE) HE WONDERS WHETHER YOU MIGHT BE ABLE TO ARRANGE ONE ADDITIONAL MEETING, WITH COORDINATING MINISTER GINANDJAR. HE COULD FOLLOW UP ON SOCIAL SAFETY NET AND STRUCTURAL ISSUES AS APPROPRIATE, OR ON ISSUES THAT DEPSEC SUMMERS WAS NOT ABLE TO COVER IN HIS MEETINGS IN JAKARTA. A/S LARSON SAID HE IS WILLING TO FOLLOW AMBASSADOR ROY'S ADVICE ON WHETHER THERE IS VALUE TO HIS MEETING GINANDJAR.

3. (SBU) LEGAL ADVISER APPOINTMENTS

THE LEGAL ADVISER, DAVID ANDREWS, WILL ALSO BE ACCOMPANYING THE SECRETARY ON HER TRIP TO CHINA, THAILAND AND INDONESIA. HE HAS ASKED WHETHER IT WOULD BE POSSIBLE

AND APPROPRIATE TO SET UP SIDE MEETINGS WITH HIS COUNTERPART(S). IN THIS CONNECTION, WHO WOULD HIS COUNTERPART(S) BE? IS THERE A LEGAL ADVISER TO THE MFA? WOULD YOU SUGGEST HE MEET WITH MINISTER MULADI OR THK ATTORNEY GENERAL? HOW SHOULD WE PROCEED?

4. (U) EXIM APPOINTMENTS

FAHMILA IMAM AT EXIM HAS ASKED FOR A COPY OF THE SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS THAT BRUCE PARASOL HAS ARRANGED FOR THE EXIM TEAM TRAVELLING TO JAKARTA. COULD YOU PLEASE FAX THEM TO HER?

5. (U) SFRC HEARING RESCHEDULED - SORT OF

THE EAP SUBCOMMITTEE OF THE SFRC WILL HOLD ITS HEARING ON INDONESIA EITHER 18 OR 25 MARCH. A/S ROTH WILL TESTIFY.

6. (U) RAIS VISIT

COULD YOU PLEASE PROVIDE A CONTACT NUMBER IN JAKARTA FOR AMIEN RAIS THAT WE COULD PASS ALONG TO THE FRONT OFFICE? THEY'D LIKE TO ARRANGE A TIME FOR RAIS TO MEET WITH A/S

ROTH THE SECOND WEEK IN MARCH. WE PROMISE WE'LL HOLD ON TO THE NUMBER THIS TIME...

7. (U) HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT

DRL HAS ACCEPTED YOUR MOST RECENT COMMENTS/SUGGESTIONS.

8. (U) UNDP AND PLEDGING CONF

IN HIS ABSENCE, I CALLED UNDP ASST ADMINISTRATOR NAY THUN'S DEPUTY MAXINE OLSON AT UNDP NEW YORK TO PRESS HER ON AN PLEDGING CONFERENCE UPDATE. SHE WAS NOT PARTICULARLY UP TO DATE ON NAY THUN'S/ RAVI RAJAN'S LATEST EFFORTS IN JAKARTA. I TOLD HER WE WERE STILL KEEN ON A CONFERENCE, THAT AMB ROY HAD GOTTEN A GREEN LIGHT FROM HABIBIE, THAT WE WERE MAKING SOME PLEDGING PROGRESS ELSEWHERE (EU'S RECENT INCREASE TO 6 MILLION), BUT WE NEEDED UNDP TO GIVE AN ORGANIZATIONAL PUSH TO LAUNCH THIS BABY. SHE PROMISED TO UPDATE HERSELF WITH RAVI AND GET BACK TO ME, PROBABLY TOMORROW. I E-MAILED TERRY WITH THE SAME MESSAGE.

9. (U) INR TRAVEL

FOR GARY GRAY: KATHY KERR'S TRAVEL PLANS ARE COMING TOGETHER. AS THINGS NOW STAND, SHE PLANS TO BE IN MANILA MARCH 22-25, TRAVEL TO SINGAPORE FOR A DAY, THEN BE IN JAKARTA FROM MARCH 27 THROUGH 30. SHE ASKS WHETHER YOU FORESEE ANY PROBLEMS WITH THE DATES (WE THINK ID AL ADHA MAY FALL IN THERE SOMEWHERE.) SHE WILL SEND A COUNTRY CLEARANCE CABLE AT A LATER DATE.

NEEDLESS TO SAY, AS THE TRIP DATE APPROACHES EVER NEARER, WE'RE PREDICTING A EXPLOSION OF URGENCY FROM THE SEVENTH FLOOR ON GETTING ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS ABOUT SPECIFIC EVENTS. THE FIRST SALVO CAME TODAY. S/S DEPUTY EXEC SEC ROSE LIKINS SAID THAT ALL OF THE "ROUNDTABLE" EVENTS FOR THE SECRETARY'S UPCOMING TRIP TO CHINA, THAILAND AND INDONESIA NEED TO HAVE THEIR PROPOSED GUEST LISTS CAREFULLY CLEARED IN THE BUILDING (WITH EB, DRL, L ETC.). SHE ASKS THAT POSTS PROVIDE PROPOSED INPUT NLT MONDAY.

FOR YOUR PURPOSES THAT WOULD MEAN THE POLITICAL LEADERS' RECEPTION AND THE DEMOCRACY/HUMAN RIGHTS ROUND TABLE. WE OF COURSE HAVE YOUR OL SUGGESTIONS (BUT NO SOR REACTION) BUT NOW WOULD LIKE THE `FOR REAL' PROPOSED GUESTLISTS.

ROSE ALSO SAID THAT S STAFF IS LOOKING TO GET A SENSE OF WHAT HIGH-LEVEL VISITORS (BOTH US AND FOREIGN) WILL BE IN THE COUNTRIES SHORTLY BEFORE, DURING, AND SHORTLY AFTER THE TRIP. WE'VE ALERTED THEM TO THE SUMMERS AND DOWNER/ AUSTRALIAN MINISTERS' TRIPS NEXT WEEK. IS THERE ANYTHING ELSE WE SHOULD BE AWARE OF?

2. (SBU) NAMRU ISSUES

PM PROMISES TO TAKE CARE OF GETTING YOU A RESPONSE EARLY NEXT WEEK. THEY SUGGEST THAT THE AMBASSADOR TAKE THE NAMRU COMMANDER WITH HIM TO ISSUE AN INVITATION TO MIN HEALTH AND HIS STAFF AS WELL AS ANY OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES TO VISIT THIS FACILITY.

3. (U) POLITICAL FSN TRAINING

THOUGH FSI WILL NOT MAKE ITS DECISION ON NOMINEES FOR A FEW MORE WEEKS, PEG WILLINGHAM SEEMS FAVORABLY DISPOSED TO INCLUDING KUS WAHYUNI IN THE CLASS ON THE BASIS OF THE VERY STRONG RECOMMENDATION YOU SENT IN. JIM SEEVERS SHOULD HAVE RECEIVED AN E-MAIL FROM HER WITH THE SAME MESSAGE.

4. (SBU) AUSSIE TALKS

YOU WILL RECALL THAT AUSTRALIAN FOREIGN SECRETARY ASHTON CALVERT WILL LEAD A SMALL DELEGATION TO THE STATES NEXT WEEK FOR BILATERAL DISCUSSIONS ON, PRIMARILY, INDONESIA. HE HAS A MEETING WITH AMBASSADOR NANCY SODERBERG AT THE UN ON MONDAY AFTERNOON TO TALK EAST TIMOR. A/S ROTH WILL ATTEMPT TO BRIEF HER BY PHONE IN ADVANCE OF THAT MEETING. ROTH WILL HOST A LUNCH FOR THE DELEGATION WEDNESDAY, THEN LEAD A 3 HOUR DISCUSSION ON THURSDAY AFTERNOON. WE UNDERSTAND THAT YOU AND A/S ROTH MAY HAVE DISCUSSED THIS LAST NIGHT(YOUR FRIDAY MORNING), BUT HE WANTED TO ME TO REITERATE THAT AS FAR AS HE WAS CONCERNED BASED UPON HIS RECENT CONVERSATIONS WITH FM DOWNER, THAT THE AUSSIES WERE FULLY ON BOARD WITH A PLEDGING CON~ERENCE IN THE NEAR FUTURE.

WE HAVE GONE AROUND A FEW TIMES TODAY ABOUT MADJID'S BUSINESS TRAVEL DEMANDS AND LEARNED FROM EX TODAY THAT IF YOU WISH TO PURCHASE A BUSINESS CLASS TICKET WITH THE INL FUND CITE, AND ASSUMING THERE IS ENOUGH MONEY TO DO SO, IT IS WITHIN DEPARTMENT REGULATIONS SINCE THE FLIGHT IS OVER 14 HOURS. IF THERE ISN'T ENOUGH MONEY, IT BECOMES STICKIER SINCE INL AND SOMEONE ELSE HAVE TO AGREE TO SHARE THE COST. I KNOW THAT USIS HAS BEEN WORKING OVERTIME TO GET THIS TO HAPPEN TO GET MADJID HERE. IN THE MEANTIME, A/S ROTH STILL WOULD VERY MUCH LIKE TO GET AN APPOINTMENT CONFIRMED WITH HIM DURING HIS VISIT HERE.

6. (U) MULADI APPTS.

THE INDONESIAN EMBASSY HAS REQUESTED AN APPOINTMENT WITH S TODAY FOR MULADI BUT WILL GET A/S ROTH WHO IS KEEN TO GET TOGETHER. WE WILL PUT A MEMO FORWARD TO THE 7TH FLOOR BUT DO NOT EXPECT MUCH RESONANCE. WE WILL WORK YOUR ECON PIECES INTO BRIEFING MATERIAL FOR SOR AS WELL AS FARM IT AROUND TOWN FOR MULADI'S OTHER MEETINGS.

7. (U) SOR'S CONTROL OFFICER

CAN YOU LET US KNOW WHO WILL BE STANLEY'S CONTROL OFFICER ON THE TRIP, AND PROVIDE CONTACT INFO? SPECIAL ASSISTANT JASON HYLAND ALSO ASKS THAT YOU ARRANGE TO HAVE AN EAP CONTROL ROOM THAT STANLEY AND JASON CAN USE DURING THE VISIT.

4. THREAT ASSESSMENT: INDONESIA HAS EXPERIENCED A DOWNTURN IN ITS ECONOMY THAT HAS HAD A NEGATIVE IMPACT ON THE STANDARD OF LIVING OF MOST INDONESIANS. LARGE NUMBERS OF WORKERS HAVE LOST THEIR JOBS, WHICH HAS CONTRIBUTED TO AN OVERALL INCREASE IN CRIMINALITY. MOST CRIMES ARE THOSE OF OPPORTUNITY SUCH AS PICKPOCKETS, THEFT OF UNATTENDED PROPERTY, AND OTHER MINOR THEFTS. THERE HAVE ALSO BEEN SPORADIC REPORTS OF MORE SERIOUS CRIME WITHIN THE EXPATRIATE COMMUNITY. MOST CRIMES AGAINST THE EXPATRIATE COMMUNITY HAVE BEEN NON-VIOLENT, HOWEVER. IF PLANNING TO TRAVEL BY TAXI, VISITORS ARE ADVISED NOT TO HAIL CABS ON THE STREET, BUT TO USE TAXIS FROM THE QUEUES AT MAJOR HOTELS. ROY

MAR 19 2007

Dear Mr. Simpson:

I refer to your FOIA request dated August 1, 2005 regarding the release of certain Department of State material under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5 USC Section 552).

The search of the retired files of the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs has been completed, and has resulted in the retrieval of 45 documents responsive to your request. We reviewed these documents and determined that 16 may be released in full, 12 may be released with excisions, and 17 must be withheld in full. All released material is enclosed.

An enclosure provides information on Freedom of Information Act exemptions and other grounds for withholding material. Where we have made excisions, the applicable exemptions are marked on each document. Of the documents withheld in full, 15 were withheld under exemption B1 and two under exemption B5.

In some cases, two or more exemptions may apply to the same document. In the case of a document released in part, all non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released.

With respect to material withheld by the Department of State, you have the right to appeal our determination within 60 days. A copy of the appeals procedures is enclosed.

We have now completed the processing of your case.

If you have any questions, you may write to the Office of Information Programs and Services, SA-2, Department of State, Washington, DC 20522-8100, or telephone us at (202) 261-8484. Please be sure to refer to the case number shown above in all correspondence about this case.

The Freedom of Information Act provides for the recovery of the direct cost of duplicating records requested for non-commercial use by a representative of the news media. No charge is made for the first one hundred pages of duplication. Total fees due in this case are $9.00, representing an additional 60 pages duplicated @ $0.15 per page. Please make your check or money order payable to the Treasurer of the United States, and mail it to the Office of Information Programs and Services, Room 8100, SA-2, Department of State, Washington, D.C., 20522-8100. Please be sure to write the case number on your check or money order.

We hope that the Department has been of service to you in this matter.

Sincerely,

for Margaret P. Grafeld, Director
Office of Information Programs and Services

OFFICIAL INFORMAL - FOR EAP/PIMBS D. HARTWICK FROM DCM M. OWENS

SUBJECT: OFFICIAL INFORMAL JAKARTA TO PIMBS NO. 20

JAKARTA 01 OF 02 544

1. CLASSIFIED BY MICHAEL P. OWENS, DEPUTY CHIEF OF MISSION.
REASON: 1.5 (D).

2. (C) UN PRESENCE IN EAST TIMOR

[redacted] HE SAYS THAT IN FACT B1
HIS "HOME OFFICE" HAS BEEN GIVING THOUGHT TO EAST TIMOR RECENTLY. IT IS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT UNHCR INVOLVEMENT MAY BE TRIGGERED IN THE FORESEEABLE FUTURE BY AN OUTFLOW OF REFUGEES (I.E., FROM THE STATE OF EAST TIMOR TO THE STATE OF INDONESIA). MOREOVER, UNHCR DOES GIVE CONSIDERATION TO DISPLACED PERSONS WITHIN STATES AND UNHCR IS AWARE OF RELIABLE REPORTS OF SOME THOUSANDS OF DISPLACED AS A RESULT OF RECENT UNREST IN EAST TIMOR. SEPARATELY, WE HAVE ALSO TALKED WITH [redacted] WHO SHARES OUR CONCERN B1, B6
THAT FURTHER DETERIORATION OF THE SECURITY CONDITION AS WELL AS FOOD, WATER AND MEDICAL NEEDS COULD WARRANT CONSIDERATION OF AN INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN INTERVENTION. [redacted] IS PARTICULARLY B1
CONCERNED ABOUT THE WEEK-LONG CLOSING OF THE DILI CIVILIAN HOSPITAL (SINCE JANUARY 27.) [redacted] BELIEVES THE CLOSING WAS FOR B1
POLITICAL AS WELL AS SECURITY REASONS. (THIS MATTER DID NOT B1, B6 ARISE IN POL'S DISCUSSION FEBRUARY 2 WITH [redacted])
OUR INTERLOCUTORS AND WE BELIEVE THAT THE PRESENCE OF INTERNATIONAL (UN AND OTHER) PRESENCE COULD HAVE A CALMING/REASSURING EFFECT. MOREOVER, IN THE EVENT THAT THERE IS A TRANSITION IN EAST TIMOR'S POLITICAL STATUS, THERE WOULD BE ADVANTAGE IN LAYING SOME OF THE GROUNDWORK FOR THE INEVITABLE NEW HUMANITARIAN AND OTHER ASSISTANCE REQUIREMENTS WHICH WILL FOLLOW.

3. (C) INFORMAL INTERAGENCY ON EAST TIMOR

WE WOULD SUGGEST DISCUSSION OF THE FOLLOWING ISSUES:

-- WE ARE GETTING CONFLICTING SIGNALS ON HOW THE EAST TIMORESE WILL BE "CONSULTED" REGARDING THEIR ACCEPTANCE/REJECTION OF THE AUTONOMY OFFER. DEPLU SEEMS TO BE INDICATING THAT JUNE ELECTIONS FOR THE LOCAL ASSEMBLY IN EAST TIMOR COULD BE SEEN AS A SORT OF SELF-DETERMINATION EXERCISE (ALATAS STILL SEEMS DEAD SET AGAINST A REFERENDUM). OBVIOUSLY FOR THIS TO HAVE ANY VALIDITY XANANA AND THE VARIOUS EAST TIMORESE PARTIES WOULD HAVE TO PARTICIPATE IN A FREE AND FAIR PROCESS, A BIG ORDER GIVEN THE SHORT TIME FRAME. WE NEED TO PUSH THE GOI TO ESTABLISH, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, A CLEAR PROCESS WHICH CAN BE APPROVED BY ALL THE MAJOR PLAYERS. IF THE UN PROCESS IS TO REMAIN RELEVANT, THE REAL EAST TIMORESE LEADERS WILL HAVE TO BE BROUGHT IN MORE DIRECTLY AS SOON AS POSSIBLE. AT THE END OF THE DAY, THE REALITY MAY SIMPLY BE

THAT NEITHER JAKARTA NOR THE EAST TIMORESE ARE PREPARED TO MAKE THE KIND OF COMPROMISES THAT WOULD GIVE AUTONOMY A CHANCE. MINDSETS IN DILI AND JAKARTA ARE HARDENING FAST. MANY OBSERVERS BELIEVE INDEPENDENCE IS A DONE DEAL.

-- THE SECURITY SITUATION ON THE GROUND IN EAST TIMOR IS MURKY BUT MOST AGREE (INCLUDING DEPLU, IT APPEARS, [redacted] REMARKS BEFORE THE HABIBIE MEETING TODAY) THAT ABRI'S ARMING OF CIVILIANS IS A MAJOR PROBLEM. AS YET WE HAVE NO REACTIONS FROM OUR DEMARCHES ON THIS ISSUE, ALTHOUGH WIRANTO'S DENIAL THAT ARMING OF RATIH ELEMENTS IS TAKING PLACE AT LEAST SHOWS THAT HE IS NOW AWARE OF THE CONCERN OVER THIS ISSUE. IT MAY ULTIMATELY BE HARDER TO CONVINCE ABRI TO STOP ARMING AND START DISARMING NOW THAT WIRANTO HAS TAKEN SO DISINGENUOUS A POSITION. XANANA HAS PROPOSED A CEASEFIRE ON THE PART OF THE GUERRILLAS ALONG WITH A MORATORIUM ON PRO-REFERENDUM DEMONSTRATIONS IN EXCHANGE FOR DISARMING THE CIVILIAN MILITIAS. THIS WOULD GIVE ABRI SOME FACE. B1

-- THE RECENT CONFLICTS HAVE CREATED A POTENTIAL HUMANITARIAN CRISIS. BASED ON THE EXPERIENCE OF THE ICRC, THE PRESENCE OF UNHCR AND/OR OTHER INTERNATIONAL AGENCIES COULD PLAY A POSITIVE ROLE IN REDUCING ABUSES. WE MAY NEED TO BEGIN THINKING ABOUT THE SHAPE OF AND PARTICIPANTS IN AN INTERNATIONAL HUMANITARIAN INTERVENTION. QUIET CONSULTATIONS AND PLANNING SEEM TO BE IN ORDER AT THIS STAGE. GOI REACTION IS HARD TO ANTICIPATE: WHILE RESIDUAL RESISTANCE TO INTERNATIONAL INVOLVEMENT IN EAST TIMOR MAY BE A FACTOR, THE DESIRE TO END THE FINANCIAL OUTLAYS AND DESIRE TO BE SEEN TO BE DOING THE RIGHT THING MIGHT OVERRIDE THIS.

4. (U) FREE, FAIR AND CREDIBLE ELECTIONS

WE THINK THAT YOU HAVE MADE A VERY GOOD BEGINNING ON THE DIFFICULT QUESTION OF WHAT CONSTITUTES A FREE, FAIR AND CREDIBLE ELECTION. AT THIS EARLY STAGE, WE STILL HAVE NOT HAD A CHANCE TO COME UP WITH WHAT WE WOULD REGARD AS A COMPLETE ANSWER, BUT HERE ARE SOME ADDITIONAL THOUGHTS THAT MOST INDONESIANS WILL REGARD AS KEY, SOME OF WHICH ELABORATE UPON WHAT YOU HAVE ALREADY LISTED.

PRE-ELECTION

-- DOES ABRI REFRAIN FROM INTERFERING IN THE ELECTION? (E.G. MOBILIZING VOTERS FOR A PARTICULAR PARTY

* Missing section 2 *

GOVERNMENT'S ABILITY TO HOLD EITHER NATIONAL OR PROVINCIAL ELECTIONS IN EAST TIMOR IS PROBLEMATIC.) THERE ARE OTHER IMPORTANT PROBLEMS: E.G., HOW TO PROVIDE FOR PRO-INDEPENDENCE PARTIES TO FORM, CAMPAIGN, AND PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTIONS. THE INDONESIANS RECOGNIZE THE PROBLEM, BUT THEIR THINKING HAS NOT YET JELLED ON THE RIGHT SOLUTION.

-- PRESIDENT HABIBIE OUTLINED FOR A/S ROTH A TIME TABLE PROVIDING FOR SEPARATION OF EAST TIMOR FROM INDONESIA ON JANUARY 1, 2000 IF AUTONOMY IS REJECTED. FOREIGN MINISTER ALATAS TOLD A/S ROTH THAT HE HAD CAUTIONED THE PRESIDENT THAT SUCH A COMPRESSED TIME TABLE WAS UNREALISTIC. ALATAS RECOGNIZES THAT A TRANSITION PROCESS IS NEEDED, BUT CLEARLY THERE IS STILL NO INTERNAL INDONESIAN CONSENSUS ON THIS MATTER.
-- UN ROLE. THE INDONESIANS HAVE OPENLY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE UNITED NATIONS MUST PLAY A ROLE IN ANY TRANSITION TO INDEPENDENCE FOR EAST TIMOR, INCLUDING BY HAVING A PRESENCE ON THE GROUND (E.G. PRESS REPORTS QUOTE ALATAS AS SAYING THAT THE UN SHOULD MAKE SURE THAT PRO-INDONESIAN EAST TIMORESE ARE NOT ATTACKED IF THE TERRITORY SECEDES). THEY HAVE NOT AS YET DISPLAYED ANY WILLINGNESS TO AGREE TO INTRODUCING A UN PRESENCE INTO EAST TIMOR TO HELP STABILIZE THE SITUATION THERE NOW, WHICH THEY REJECT AS INCOMPATIBLE WITH THEIR POSITION THAT EAST TIMOR IS STILL PART OF INDONESIA. THEY MAY DISPLAY MORE FLEXIBILITY ON THIS QUESTION OVER TIME, BUT FOR THE MOMENT THEY ARE STILL ADHERING TO THE POSITION THAT A UN PRESENCE CAN ONLY BE INTRODUCED AFTER AUTONOMY IS REJECTED.

7. (C) THESE ARE VITAL ISSUES. THE LACK OF CLARITY ON HOW TO APPROACH THEM ILLUSTRATES BOTH THE SUDDENNESS OF THE SHIFT IN INDONESIAN THINKING ON EAST TIMOR, AND THE COMPLEXITY OF THE PROBLEM.

8. (C) STABILIZING THE SITUATION ON THE GROUND: THE RECENT ABRI ARMING OF UNDISCIPLINED PRO-JAKARTA CIVILIAN ELEMENTS IN EAST TIMOR HAS WORSENED AN ALREADY BAD SECURITY SITUATION THERE AND ALARMED MODERATE LEADERS SUCH AS [redacted] B1, B6

[redacted] B1

HE FAVORED FORMATION OF A COUNCIL REPRESENTING ALL SHADES OF OPINION AIMED AT REACHING AGREEMENT TO HALT FIGHTING, DISARM CONTENDING FACTIONS, AND FACILITATE PEACEFUL DISCUSSION. [redacted] B1, B6

[redacted] IS THINKING ALONG SIMILAR LINES BY CALLING FOR EVERYBODY TO SIT AND TALK RATHER THAN TAKING UP ARMS.

[redacted] B1

CLEARLY, A TOP PRIORITY MUST BE TO FIND A MECHANISM TO CALM THE SITUATION IN EAST TIMOR AND GET THE ARMS AWAY FROM IRRESPONSIBLE ELEMENTS. OTHERWISE, POSSIBILITIES FOR PEACEFUL TRANSITION TO EITHER AUTONOMY OR SEPARATION WILL BE DEGRADED OR DESTROYED.

9. (C) NEED FOR A CREDIBLE PROCESS: [redacted] B1
ALONG WITH MANY OTHERS, BELIEVES THAT NOW THAT INDEPENDENCE HAS BEEN HELD OUT AS AN OPTION, AUTONOMY WILL NOT BE GIVEN SERIOUS CONSIDERATION AS AN OPTION. THIS DOES NOT ALTER THE NEED FOR A CREDIBLE PROCESS OF DETERMINING THE PREFERENCES OF THE PEOPLE OF EAST TIMOR.

Printed By: Robert J. Clarke

THUS FAR, EARLY INDONESIAN REACTIONS TO THE GOVERNMENT'S SHIFT IN POLICY HAVE BEEN BROADLY SUPPORTIVE. AN EXCEPTION HAS BEEN [redacted] THE PDI-P, THE INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY - PERJUANGAN, WHICH IS GIVEN STRONG CHANCES OF MAKING A GOOD SHOWING IN THE B1

JAKARTA 03 OF 03 598

ELECTIONS.

10. (C) MEGAWATI'S POSITION HAS BEEN THAT THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT LACKS SUFFICIENT LEGITIMACY TO MAKE SUCH A FAR-REACHING POLICY SHIFT INVOLVING INDONESIA'S TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY. [redacted] B1

11. (C) GENERAL WIRANTO HAS STATED [redacted] PUBLICLY [redacted] THAT THE MILITARY WILL DUTIFULLY SUPPORT THE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION, BUT MANY SUSPECT THE MILITARY'S SUPPORT IS LUKEWARM AT BEST. GIVEN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES, THE POSSIBILITY OF A SHIFT IN INDONESIAN ATTITUDES CANNOT BE EXCLUDED, ESPECIALLY IF THE PROCESS OF DETERMINING EAST TIMORESE ATTITUDES IS PERFUNCTORY. FOR THAT REASON, IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT THE PROCESS HAVE INTEGRITY AND CREDIBILITY. THIS REQUIRES THAT THERE BE A MEANINGFUL AUTONOMY OPTION ON THE TABLE. B1 B1

12. (C) THE SENSITIVITY OF THIS ISSUE CANNOT BE OVEREMPHASIZED. BOTH ACEHNESE AND IRIANESE HAVE ACKNOWLEDGED TO US THAT INDEPENDENCE HOPES IN THOSE AREAS HAVE BEEN SPURRED BY DEVELOPMENTS RELATING TO EAST TIMOR. A BROAD AUTONOMY OPTION FOR EAST TIMOR COULD ALSO BECOME THE STARTING POINT FOR AUTONOMY DEMANDS BY OTHER PARTS OF INDONESIA. IF THE INDONESIANS FALTER IN THEIR EFFORTS TO HANDLE EAST TIMOR SEPARATELY FROM THE LARGER ISSUES INVOLVING THE INTEGRITY OF INDONESIA ITSELF, A COMPLEX SITUATION WILL BE RENDERED EVEN MORE DIFFICULT.

13. (C) INDONESIA AND PORTUGAL CLEARLY ARE STILL IN THE PROCESS OF RETHINKING THEIR APPROACHES IN THE WAKE OF THE SUDDEN GOI POLICY SHIFT. FOR THAT REASON, A CRITICAL GOAL OF THE MEETINGS BETWEEN ALATAS AND HIS PORTUGUESE COUNTERPART IN THE NEXT FEW DAYS SHOULD BE TO SMOOTH THE PROCESS OF READJUSTING THINKING ON BOTH SIDES SO THAT THE FOCUS CAN BE ON THE NEW OPPORTUNITIES AND NOT ON THE OLD DIFFERENCES. THERE IS NOW LIGHT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL, BUT THERE ARE NUMEROUS PITFALLS ALONG THE WAY. ROY

5. (C) A/S ROTH SAID THE GOI DESERVED MUCH CREDIT FOR ITS TWO DIPLOMATIC INITIATIVES ON EAST TIMOR (BROAD-BASED AUTONOMY OR INDEPENDENCE), BUT THAT THE NEW OPPORTUNITY TO REACH A SOLUTION ALSO PRESENTED DANGERS. EVEN WITH THE BEST OF INTENTIONS, VIOLENCE COULD RESULT, PARTICULARLY IF INDONESIA WITHDREW PRECIPITOUSLY WITHOUT LEAVING ADEQUATE TIME TO PUT TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS IN PLACE. THE GOI WOULD THEN EMERGE WITH A BLACK EYE INTERNATIONALLY IF A CIVIL WAR ERUPTED. ROTH SAID IT WAS DIFFICULT TO SEE HOW EAST TIMORESE LEADERS COULD ACCEPT AUTONOMY NOW THAT INDEPENDENCE HAD BEEN PUT ON THE TABLE. WITH EAST TIMOR TOTALLY UNPREPARED FOR QUICK INDEPENDENCE, THE HOPE WAS THAT LOGIC WILL PREVAIL IF AN AGREEMENT WERE REACHED THAT PROVIDED FOR AN ADEQUATE TRANSITION PERIOD.

6. (C) ROTH STRESSED THE IMPORTANCE OF GETTING THE EAST TIMORESE DIRECTLY INVOLVED IN THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS, EITHER CONCERNING AUTONOMY OR INDEPENDENCE. ROTH EMPHASIZED THAT ANY AGREEMENT NOT ACCEPTABLE TO EAST TIMOR WOULD NOT WORK AND IT WAS THEREFORE ESSENTIAL TO INVOLVE THE TIMORESE IN ANY NEGOTIATING PROCESS.

UNDER SUCH AN OPTION, IT WOULD BE CLEAR FROM THE BEGINNING THAT THE OUTCOME WOULD BE INDEPENDENCE, MAKING A REFERENDUM UNNECESSARY, BUT DURING THE TRANSITION PERIOD THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY WOULD ASSUME MUCH OF THE FINANCIAL AND SECURITY BURDEN FOR EAST TIMOR. ROTH SAID MUCH MORE ATTENTION MUST BE GIVEN TO CALMING THE SITUATION ON THE GROUND, AND A PACKAGE OF CONFIDENCE BUILDING MEASURES WAS URGENTLY NEEDED. THESE SHOULD INCLUDE DISARMING THE MILITIAS, TROOP REDUCTIONS WITH AN INTERNATIONAL VERIFICATION MECHANISM, AND IN GENERAL A GREATER SENSE OF INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE IN EAST TIMOR. ROTH OBSERVED THAT THE UNHCR COULD PLAY A ROLE, AND THAT THERE WERE OTHER CREATIVE POSSIBILITIES, INCLUDING OPENING AN OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY GENERAL'S SPECIAL REPRESENTATIVE, ALATAS, THE AMBASSADOR AND A/S ROTH BRIEFLY DISCUSSED PUERTO RICO, QUEBEC, AND OTHER AREAS OF THE WORLD WITH AUTONOMY/INDEPENDENCE ISSUES AND THEIR POSSIBLE RELEVANCE TO EAST TIMOR. 3. (U) A/S ROTH ON FEBRUARY 3 MET WITH RAVI RAJAN, THE UNDP'S RESIDENT REPRESENTATIVE, ON ELECTION ASSISTANCE TO INDONESIA. AMBASSADOR ROY AND USAID DIRECTOR ACCOMPANIED A/S ROTH, AND THE UNDP DEPUTY RESIDENT REPRESENTATIVE AND POLOFF (NOTETAKER) WERE ALSO PRESENT. ROTH ALSO DISCUSSED ELECTION ASSISTANCE DURING HIS FEBRUARY 3 MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTER ALATAS.

INDONESIA'S POLITICAL FUTURE AND THAT THE INDONESIAN'S WILL NEED SUBSTANTIAL AND TIMELY ASSISTANCE FROM THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY IN ORDER TO HOLD A GOOD ELECTION. HE SAID THAT THE UNITED STATES WAS PREPARED TO ANNOUNCE A CONTRIBUTION OF BETWEEN 30-33 MILLION USD. ROTH SAID THAT AS OF YET OTHER COUNTRIES WERE NOT VIEWING THIS SITUATION WITH SUFFICIENT URGENCY AND WERE "IN SLOW MOTION," THEREFORE, HE WAS TRYING TO ARRANGE AN INTERNATIONAL PLEDGING CONFERENCE. ROTH EXPLAINED THAT BASED ON A MEETING HE HAD A FEW DAYS EARLIER IN DAVOS WITH COORDINATING MINISTER GINANDJAR, THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT HAD NOW TURNED AROUND AND FULLY ACCEPTED THE NEED FOR INTERNATIONAL ASSISTANCE. GINANDJAR HAD REQUESTED THAT THE PLEDGING CONFERENCE BE HELD IN JAKARTA (TO AVOID ANY COMPARISONS TO THE CAMBODIA EXPERIENCE), BE COORDINATED BY UNDP, AND BE ATTENDED AT THE VICE MINISTER LEVEL. THE MINISTER HAD ALSO EMPHASIZED THAT THE CONFERENCE MUST SUCCEED.

5. (C) RAJAN SAID THAT THE MOU BETWEEN THE GOVERNMENT OF INDONESIA AND UNDP ON ELECTION ASSISTANCE HAD BEEN SIGNED THAT MORNING, AND A FRAMEWORK AGREEMENT WAS ALSO COMPLETE. HE CHARACTERIZED FOREIGN MINISTER ALATAS'S STATEMENT AT THE SIGNING CEREMONY AS "VERY GOOD," WITH "NO CAVEATS." HE BELIEVED THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS BEING "VERY FORTHCOMING," AND WAS NOT "RESTRICTING" UNDP.

[redacted] B1

6. (C) RAJAN EXPRESSED ENTHUSIASM ABOUT THE IDEA OF HOLDING A PLEDGING CONFERENCE, EXPRESSING A DESIRE THAT IT SHOULD BE HELD BEFORE THE END OF FEBRUARY AT THE VICE MINISTER LEVEL, AS SUGGESTED BY COORDINATING MINISTER GINANDJAR.

SUBJECT: ACEH VILLAGE TOUCHED BY VIOLENCE PAST AND PRESENT

JAKARTA 01 OF 02 596

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLITICAL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS, REASONS 1.5 (B) AND (D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: AN EARLY FEBRUARY VISIT TO A SMALL VILLAGE IN NORTH ACEH ILLUSTRATED HOW RECENT VIOLENCE IN THE PROVINCE HAS TOUCHED RURAL ACEH, AND ALSO REVEALED THE LINGERING IMPACT OF THE INDONESIAN MILITARY'S 1989-98 ANTI-SEPARATIST MILITARY OPERATION (DOM). VILLAGERS HAVE FOUND FIVE CORPSES DUMPED IN THE NEARBY WOODS IN THE PAST SIX WEEKS, AND SEVERAL VILLAGE YOUTHS WERE AMONG THOSE DETAINED AND BEATEN BY SECURITY FORCES IN A JANUARY 14 INCIDENT THAT LEFT FOUR OTHER PRISONERS DEAD. THE VILLAGE IS HOME TO 12 WIDOWS WHOSE HUSBANDS WERE TAKEN AWAY BY SECURITY FORCES IN 1990 AND NEVER SEEN AGAIN. THE VILLAGERS SUFFER FROM POVERTY EXACERBATED BY A SHORTAGE OF MALE HEADS OF HOUSEHOLD, AND COMPLAIN THAT THEIR GRIEVANCES HAVE YET TO BE ADDRESSED. THE VILLAGERS DISPLAYED ALIENATION AND ANTIPATHY TOWARD THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND MILD ENTHUSIASM FOR ACEHNESE INDEPENDENCE, BUT DISAVOWED SUPPORT FOR ARMED RESISTANCE. END SUMMARY.

VIOLENCE PAST AND PRESENT

3. (C) ON FEBRUARY 2, POLOFF VISITED THE VILLAGE OF ALOERAMBE, A SMALL, RURAL VILLAGE ABOUT 30 KILOMETERS SOUTH OF LHOKSEUMAWE, THE SEAT OF NORTH ACEH REGENCY ON THE NORTHERN TIP OF SUMATRA. POLOFF MET WITH THE VILLAGE HEAD ("KEPALA DESA") AND ABOUT 30 RESIDENTS OF THE VILLAGE OF 180. THE VILLAGERS TALKED ABOUT HOW THEY HAVE BEEN PERSONALLY AFFECTED BY THE CONFLICT IN ACEH, BOTH IN THE RECENT AND THE MORE DISTANT PAST: ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS IN 1990, SECURITY FORCES (ABRI) ENTERED THEIR VILLAGE AND DETAINED SOME RESIDENTS, ALL MALE, SUSPECTED OF SEPARATIST ACTIVITY. ALL BUT ONE OF THOSE TAKEN AWAY, WHO TOTALED 13, WERE NEVER HEARD FROM AGAIN. (NOTE: ONE OF THE GROUP WAS RELEASED BUT DIED OF DISEASE SHORTLY THEREAFTER. END NOTE.) NINE OF THE WIDOWS ATTENDED THE FEBRUARY 2 MEETING WITH POLOFF. THE VILLAGERS ADAMENTLY DENIED THAT ANY OF THOSE DETAINED WAS AN ACTIVE OF PASSIVE SUPPORTER OF THE ELUSIVE "ACEH MERDEKA" SEPARATIST MOVEMENT.

4. (C) THE MEN WHO DISAPPEARED LEFT BEHIND DOZENS OF CHILDREN, WHOSE MOTHERS SUFFERED, AND CONTINUE TO SUFFER, FROM SEVERE ECONOMIC HARDSHIP CAUSED BY THE ABSENCE OF A BREAD-WINNING MEMBER OF THE FAMILY. VILLAGERS NOTED THAT 4 OF THE 12 WIDOWS IN THE VILLAGE STILL HAD NOT QED THE ONE MILLION RUPIAH (ABOUT 130 USD) GRANT TO WHICH EACH IS ENTITLED UNDER THE PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT'S COMPENSATION PROGRAM, AND INDICATED THAT IN ANY CASE THEY DID NOT CONSIDER THE SUM ADEQUATE.

5. (C) ALOERAMBE HAS ALSO BEEN TOUCHED BY THE MOST RECENT SPASM OF VIOLENCE TO STRIKE THE AREA. THREE VILLAGE TEENAGERS WERE PICKED UP IN EARLY JANUARY BY AN ABRI PATROL DURING A SWEEP OF THE LARGER VILLAGE OF MAKMURA, ABOUT 5 KILOMETERS TO THE NORTH. THE SWEEP WAS PART OF "OPERATION WIBAWA 99" (FORCE 99), A CRACK-DOWN OPERATION LAUNCHED IN RESPONSE TO THE BRUTAL ABDUCTION AND MURDER OF SEVEN ABRI ENLISTED PERSONNEL ON DECEMBER 29, 1998. THE TEENAGERS CLAIMED THEY WERE HELD FOR SEVERAL DAYS IN A GYMNASIUM TURNED INTO A MAKESHIFT DETENTION CENTER NEXT TO THE MILITARY HEADQUARTERS IN LHOKSEUMAWE. THERE, THEY CLAIMED, THEY WERE BADLY BEATEN ON JANUARY 14. (NOTE: ON JANUARY 14, A GROUP OF ABRI PERSONNEL ENTERED THE GYMNASIUM AND CONDUCTED A MASS BEATING OF DETAINEES, WHICH RESULTED IN THE DEATHS OF FOUR. INVESTIGATORS ARRESTED 30 ABRI PERSONNEL FOLLOWING THE INCIDENT, AND HAVE ALREADY CONVICTED ONE OFFICER, WHO WAS SENTENCED TO SIX YEARS. SEE REFTELS. END NOTE.) THE VILLAGE TEENAGERS SUFFERED NO PERMANENT INJURIES FROM THE BEATING, ALTHOUGH ONE STILL HAD A LARGE GASH ON HIS CHEEK.

CORPSES
---

6. (C) ON DECEMBER 22, 1998, VILLAGERS FOUND THREE CORPSES DUMPED IN THE FOREST NEAR ALOERAMBE. THEY BURIED THEM WITHOUT MAKING A FORMAL REPORT TO AUTHORITIES, POSSIBLY OUT OF FEAR. ON DECEMBER 25, THEY FOUND TWO MORE CORPSES AT A SEPARATE LOCATION AND BURIED THEM AS WELL. THE VILLAGERS DID NOT HAVE ANY IDEA AS TO THE INDENTITIES OF THE DECEASED. WORD OF THE CORPSES LATER REACHED POLICE, AND THE VILLAGE CHIEF WAS SUMMONED FOR QUESTIONING, BUT NOT DETAINED. AN ABRI TEAM CAME ON JANUARY 3 AND EXHUMED THE BODIES.

[redacted] B1

SUPPORT FOR SEPARATISM
---

7. (C) THE VILLAGERS EXPRESSED DISDAIN FOR ABRI AND THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND SAID THEY SUPPORTED CALLS FOR ACEHNESE INDEPENDENCE. HOWEVER, THEY WERE QUICK TO ADD THAT THEY WOULD ONLY SUPPORT A PEACEFUL INDEPENDENCE MOVEMENT AND NOT AN ARMED REBELLION. THE VILLAGERS SAID THEY DID NOT KNOW IF AN ACTIVE ARMED SEPARATIST MOVEMENT EXISTED BUT ADDED THEY DID NOT BELIEVE THERE IS ANY ARMED SEPARATIST ACTIVITY IN THEIR AREA.

[redacted] B1

ELECTIONS, BOYCOTTS, AND POLITICS
---

8. (C) ASKED ABOUT THE NATIONAL PARLIAMENTARY ELECTIONS SCHEDULED FOR JUNE, THE VILLAGERS WERE DECIDEDLY AMBIVALENT. THEY DISPLAYED A SENSE OF ALIENATION FROM THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND DISINTEREST

Printed By: Robert J. Clarke

IN POLITICS IN JAKARTA. THE VILLAGERS INDICATED THEIR MAIN PRIORITIES WERE AN ACCOUNTING OF PAST EXCESSES BY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND PAYMENT OF APPROPRIATE COMPENSATION, NOTING THEY DID NOT CONSIDER THE CURRENT COMPENSATION PACKAGE (SEE PARA 4) ADEQUATE. ASKED WHETHER THEY WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE UPCOMING ELECTIONS, THE VILLAGERS INDICATED THEY WOULD TAKE THEIR CUES FROM COMMUNITY LEADERS SUCH AS THE DISTRICT CHIEF (CAMAT) AND LOCAL ISLAMIC CLERGY (ULEMA). ASKED ABOUT PARTY AFILIATION, THE VILLAGERS NAMED THE PPP (UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY), BUT NOTED THAT WHAT THEY CONSIDERED MOST IMPORTANT WAS A POLITICAL PARTY'S IDENTIFICATION WITH ISLAM.

USAID BENEFICIARIES
---

9. (C) THE VILLAGE OF ALOERAMBE IS A BENEFICIARY OF A PROGRAM ADMINISTERED BY A LOCAL NGO, FUNDED BY USAID, TO PROVIDE SCHOLARSHIPS AND FINANCIAL ASSISTENCE TO THE RELATIVES OF DOM VICTIMS. THE NGO ALSO RUNS CIVIC EDUCATION SESSIONS AND HELPS WIDOWS AND ORPHANS APPLY FOR THE LIMITED BENEFITS CURRENTLY MADE AVAILABLE BY THE GOVERNMENT TO DOM VICTIMS.

COMMENT:

10.(C) ALOERAMBE'S EXPERIENCE IN MANY WAYS TYPIFIES THE EXPERIENCE OF RURAL COMMUNITIES IN THE THREE STRIFE-RIDDEN REGENCIES (KAPUBATEN) OF ACEH PROVINCE: NORTH ACEH, EAST ACEH, AND PIDIE. ALOERAMBE'S RESIDENTS SUFFER FROM GRINDING POVERTY, EXACERBATED BY THE LOSS OF A DOZEN HEADS OF HOUSEHOLD, AND FEEL CONTINUING ANGER AND RESENTMENT OVER THE DISAPPEARANCES. IF TIME HAD DONE ANYTHING TO HEAL THE SCARS LEFT BY THE 1990 DISAPPEARANCES, THE RECENT DETENTION AND BEATING OF THE THREE VILLAGE TEENS, AS WELL AS THE DISCOVERY OF FIVE CORPSES NEAR THE VILLAGE, SERVED AS GRIM REMINDERS THAT ACEH'S TROUBLES HAVE NOT YET BEEN PUT TO REST. IN SPITE OF ALL THIS, THE VILLAGERS DID NOT GIVE THE IMPRESSION OF BEING FANATIC ON THE INDEPENDENCE ISSUE. PROGRESS ON THE ISSUE OF AUTONOMY AND FURTHER COMPENSATION FOR PAST EXCESSES COULD GO A LONG WAY TOWARD DISSIPATING SEPARATIST SENTIMENTS. ROY

3. (C) DARUSMAN, ALSO A TOP GOLKAR OFFICIAL, CHARACTERIZED THE NEW POLITICAL LAWS AS "REASONABLE," BUT FEARED THE POSSIBILITY OF A BACKLASH AFTER THE ELECTION IF THE HOPES OF MAJOR POLITICAL PARTIES WERE NOT REALIZED. HE UNABASHEDLY PREDICTED A GOLKAR VICTORY IN THE ELECTION, PREDICTING THAT IT WOULD TAKE 30-40 PERCENT OF THE VOTE, GIVEN "THE AMOUNT OF MONEY BEING MOBILIZED" AND THE PARTY'S PREPAREDNESS FOR THE CONTEST RELATIVE TO OTHER NEW PARTIES. HE SUPPORTED THE CONCEPT OF AN INTERNATIONAL

GOVERNMENT WAS IN THE PROCESS OF STRENGTHENING THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. A MPR DECREE PASSED IN NOVEMBER CALLED FOR THE COMMISSION TO BE ESTABLISHED IN LAW (NOT JUST BY PRESIDENTIAL DECREE), AND SUCH LEGISLATION WAS IN PROCESS, AND THE COMMISSION WOULD RECEIVE EXPANDED POWERS. THE GOVERNMENT HAD ALSO HAD ADOPTED A FIVE YEAR HUMAN RIGHTS ACTION PLAN THAT INCLUDED THE RATIFICATION OF INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS CONVENTIONS.

10. (C) HE CONCLUDED THAT THE GOVERNMENT'S "RHETORIC" ON HUMAN RIGHTS WAS "VERY GOOD," B1

B1

MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS CASES

12. (C) B1

13. (C) REGARDING THE FINDINGS OF THE JOINT FACT FINDING TEAM AND THE MAY RIOTS, DARUSMAN SAID THAT THE GOVERNMENT FINALLY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THE RAPES TOOK PLACE. HE WAS ENCOURAGED THAT GOVERNMENT POSITION HAD BEEN MADE CLEAR, BUT ANTICIPATED THAT THE PROSECUTION OF THE CASES WOULD BE A VERY SLOW PROCESS.

14. (C) B1

EAST TIMOR

15. (C) DARUSMAN ACKNOWLEDGED THAT INDONESIA'S ANNOUNCEMENT ON EAST TIMOR WAS POPULAR WITH THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY, BUT HE WAS CONCERNED THAT IT HAD THE POTENTIAL TO "BACKFIRE." IT WAS NOT NECESSARY TO MAKE THE PROPOSAL AT THIS TIME, AND GAVE THE IMPRESSION THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS TRYING TO FOCUS ATTENTION AWAY FROM THE MOST PRESSING PROBLEMS PLAGUING THE REST OF THE COUNTRY. HE QUESTIONED WHETHER THE GOVERNMENT EVEN HAD THE INDEPENDENT AUTHORITY TO MANDATE UNILATERALLY THAT EAST

UNCLASSIFIED

Printed By: Robert J. Clarke

TIMOR COULD BECOME INDEPENDENT, AND WORRIED THAT IT WAS A SPUR OF THE MOMENT DECISION (PROMPTED BY THE AUSTRALIAN LETTER) MADE IN AN ATTEMPT TO PROP UP HABIBIE'S PRESIDENCY.

JAKARTA 03 OF 04 592

16. (C) ASKED WHAT COULD BE DONE ON THE GROUND TO STOP VIOLENCE IN EAST TIMOR, DARUSMAN SAID THAT PEOPLE COULD BE SENT IN TO "MEDIATE" AND REINFORCE THOSE WHO SOUGHT COMPROMISE. THE QUESTION OF WHETHER ABRI COULD DISARM PARAMILITARY GROUPS RAISED THE SAME ISSUES ON WHETHER ABRI WAS PREPARED TO TAKE ACTION ON OTHER OUTSTANDING HUMAN RIGHTS PROBLEMS. SPECIFICALLY, DISARMING GROUPS IN THE FIELD RAISED THE QUESTION OF "WHERE WERE THESE PEOPLE GETTING THEIR ARMS FROM IN THE FIRST PLACE."

POLITICAL LAWS

17. (C) DARUSMAN ASSERTED POLITICAL LAWS RECENTLY APPROVED BY THE PARLIAMENT WERE "REASONABLE." HE CLAIMED THAT THEY HAD BEEN "THOROUGHLY DEBATED" AND THAT THERE HAD BEEN "MULTIPLE MEETINGS WITH THE OPPOSITION." HE BELIEVED IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT THE PUBLIC UNDERSTAND THAT THE CONTENTIOUS ISSUES RELATED TO THE LAWS HAD BEEN RESOLVED. REGARDING SOME ISSUES INCLUDING THE TYPE OF ELECTION SYSTEM AND THE ROLE OF CIVIL SERVANTS, HE ASSERTED THAT "IF GOLKAR HAD ITS WAY, IT WOULD NOT HAVE ACCEPTED" THE AGREEMENTS THAT WERE ULTIMATELY REACHED. HE SAID THAT BOTH SIDES (MEANING PRESUMABLY GOLKAR AND PPP) GAVE GROUND. HE CHARGED THAT BECAUSE THE POLITICAL PARTIES DO NOT HAVE A "REAL PLATFORM," THEY WERE CONTINUING TO ATTACK THE BILLS AS THOUGH THE STALEMATE HAD CONTINUED. (NOTE: HE WAS PRESUMABLY REFERRING TO SOME OF THE SMALLER PARTIES WHO HAVE BEEN VOCAL. THE BIG PARTIES HAVE NOT OFFERED MUCH CRITICISM THIS WEEK.) HE THOUGHT THAT THIS CRITICISM WOULD DIE DOWN IN A COUPLE OF MONTHS. THE BOTTOM LINE WAS THAT THE GOVERNMENT AND THE POLITICAL PARTIES NEEDED THE ELECTION. THE FORMER BECAUSE HABIBIE WANTED TO BE RE-ELECTED, AND THE LATTER BECAUSE THAT IS WHY THEY HAD BECOME PARTIES.

DANGER OF A BACKLASH AFTER THE ELECTION

18. (C) DARUSMAN FORESAW THE POSSIBILITY OF A BACKLASH AFTER THE JUNE 7 ELECTION BY SOME OF THE BIG PARTIES WHO HAD WHAT HE VIEWED COULD BE UNREALISTIC EXPECTATIONS ABOUT THE PERCENTAGE OF THE VOTE THEY WERE GOING TO WIN. FOR EXAMPLE, HE SAID THAT MEGAWATI AND HER CAMP WERE CONVINCED THEY WOULD WIN 25-30 PERCENT OF THE VOTE, GIVING THEM UP TO 140 SEATS IN THE NEW PARLIAMENT. THIS WAS NOW VIEWED BY THEM AS A NON-DEBATABLE, NON-NEGOTIABLE BENCHMARK. HE QUESTIONED WHAT WOULD HAPPEN IF THESE EXPECTATIONS WERE NOT TO BE REALIZED.

19. (C) A/S ROTH RESPONDED THAT SUCH A SCENARIO WOULD DEPEND ON THE TYPE OF CAMPAIGN AND ELECTION THAT WERE RUN. IF IT WERE A VIOLENT AND CORRUPT CAMPAIGN, IF SUFFICIENT INTERNATIONAL OBSERVERS WERE NOT PRESENT, AND ESPECIALLY IF RULING PARTY GOLKAR WON UNDER SUCH CIRCUMSTANCES, THERE COULD BE REASONABLE GROUNDS FOR AN OPPOSITION PARTY TO PROTEST.

GOLKAR PREDICTED TO WIN THE ELECTION

UNCLASSIFIED

Printed By: Robert J. Clarke

20. (C) [redacted] B1

21. (C) A/S ROTH RESPONDED THAT THIS SEEMED TO CONTRADICT THE USUAL ELECTORAL PATTERN WORLD-WIDE, WHERE A PARTY IDENTIFIED WITH A FALLEN, DISCREDITED LEADER WAS UNABLE TO MAINTAIN ITS PREVIOUS HOLD ON POLITICAL POWER. DARUSMAN COUNTERED THAT IF GOLKAR COULD "TRANSFORM ITSELF" IN THE NEXT 2-3 MONTHS (HOW IT IS GOING TO DO THIS HE DID NOT SPECIFY), THIS ASSUMPTION WOULD NOT NECESSARILY HOLD. GOLKAR'S SELLING POINT WOULD BE ITS ABILITY TO PROVIDE STABILITY. IF SOCIAL DISRUPTIONS CONTINUED TO OCCUR, ALL PARTIES WOULD HAVE TO ANSWER THE QUESTION IN THE PUBLIC MIND OF WHICH COULD PROVIDED THE MOST STABILITY. HE ALSO PREDICTED THAT GOLKAR BE HELPED IF A SIZABLE PORTION OF THE POPULATION REMAINED UNDECIDED AND DID NOT VOTE AND IF THE ECONOMY BEGAN TO TURN AROUND.

22. (C) DARUSMAN PREDICTED THAT GOLKAR WOULD WIN 30-40 PERCENT OF THE VOTE. ON PAPER, THE PARTY HAD 30 MILLION CARD CARRYING MEMBERS. IN THE PAST, 2.5 TIMES THAT NUMBER VOTED FOR GOLKAR, MANY BEING MOBILIZED BY THE ARMED

JAKARTA 04 OF 04 592

FORCES. DURING THIS ELECTION GOLKAR WAS AIMING TO SECURE 50 MILLION VOTES FROM 110 TO 115 MILLION ELIGIBLE VOTERS.

DARUSMAN EXPRESSES SUPPORT FOR WASHINGTON INITIATIVES

23. (C) A/S ROTH EXPLAINED THAT THE U.S. WAS PURSUING AND INTERNATIONAL PLEDGING CONFERENCE TO SUPPORT THE INDONESIAN ELECTION. IT WAS CLEAR THAT THE ELECTION WAS GOING TO BE VERY EXPENSIVE, AND WOULD NEED TENS OF MILLIONS OF DOLLARS AND LOTS OF TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE.

24. (C) DARUSMAN RESPONDED THAT THIS WAS A "VERY GOOD" IDEA. IT WOULD EVEN BE APPROPRIATE FOR DOMESTIC MONITORS TO RECEIVE SUCH ASSISTANCE.

25. (C) A/S ROTH ALSO EXPLAINED WASHINGTON'S INTEREST IN HELPING INDONESIA'S POLICE IMPROVE THEIR CROWD CONTROL CAPABILITIES, GIVEN THEIR POOR RECORD OF HANDLING DEMONSTRATIONS IN JAKARTA AND ELSEWHERE OVER THE PAST YEAR.

26. (C) DARUSMAN RESPONDED THAT THIS ISSUE WAS EVEN ARISING AS THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT SET UP "MILITIAS" TO HELP THE SECURITY FORCES. THE QUESTION WAS WHETHER THEY WERE BEING WELL-TRAINED, AND THE WORRY WAS THAT SUCH MILITIAS WOULD BE RECRUITED FROM THE YOUTH PARA-MILITARY GROUPS THAT HISTORICALLY HAVE BEEN USED BY THE MILITARY. DARUSMAN BELIEVED THAT INDONESIAN NGO'S COULD ACCEPT THE PROVISION OF CROWD CONTROL TRAINING AND THAT IT WAS A GOOD IDEA. HE OFFERED TO SET UP A MEETING BETWEEN A U.S. ASSESSMENT TEAM, THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION AND NGOS.

27. (U) A/S ROTH CLEARED THIS MESSAGE. ROY

JAKARTA 01 OF 03 616

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLITICAL COUNSELOR ED MCWILLIAMS, REASONS 1.5 (B) AND (D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: THERE IS A RISING CHORUS OF CALLS FOR FEDERALISM, AUTONOMY, AND EVEN SEPARATISM IN THE LONG-TROUBLED PROVINCE OF ACEH ON THE NORTHERN TIP OF SUMATRA. THE CALLS ARE NOW BEING LED BY ACEH'S GOVERNOR, SYAMSUDDIN MAHMUD, WHO IS STRONGLY RUMORED TO BE SLATED FOR REPLACEMENT BY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT. RECENT DISCUSSIONS WITH A BROAD RANGE OF CONTACTS IN ACEH INDICATES THAT GRIEVANCES AGAINST THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT ARE REAL AND DEEPLY FELT. THE PERCEPTION AMONG MANY, OR EVEN MOST, ACEHNESE IS THAT THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT IS EXTRACTING WEALTH FROM THE PROVINCE BUT GIVING NOTHING BACK IN RETURN OTHER THAN MILITARY SUPPRESSION. NONETHELESS, MOST CONTACTS CONCUR THAT RECENT CALLS FOR A REFERENDUM ON ACEHNESE INDEPENDENCE ARE BASED MORE ON ANGER AND FRUSTRATION WITH THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT RATHER THAN ON A SENSE OF SEPARATE NATIONAL IDENTITY OR A COHERENT NATIONALIST IDEOLOGY. GENUINE REFORMS, INCLUDING A REALLOCATION OF THE PROVINCE'S REVENUES, AND GREATER AUTONOMY WOULD PUT MOST SEPARATIST SENTIMENTS TO REST. END SUMMARY.

ACEH GOVERNOR IN OPEN CONFLICT WITH CENTRAL GOVERNMENT

3. (C) DURING A FEBRUARY 1 SPEECH BEFORE AN ACEHNESE STUDENT CONGRESS IN THE PROVINCIAL CAPITAL OF BANDA ACEH, GOVERNOR SYAMSUDDIN MAHMUD OPENLY CRITICIZED THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT FOR BEING UNRESPONSIVE TO THE ASPIRATIONS OF THE ACEHNESE PEOPLE AND CALLED FOR GREATER AUTONOMY FOR THE PROVINCE AND A GREATER SHARE IN THE REVENUES GENERATED BY LUCRATIVE ENERGY OPERATIONS BASED IN THE LHOKSEUMAWE AREA, SOUTHEAST OF BANDA ACEH. IN OTHER PUBLIC FORA, THE GOVERNOR HAS PROPOSED THAT INDONESIA BE TRANSFORMED INTO A FEDERAL STATE, DEVOLVING GREATER POLITICAL POWER AND AUTONOMY TO OUTLYING PROVINCES LIKE ACEH.

4. (C) THE GOVERNOR'S INCREASINGLY BOLD STATEMENTS HAVE DRAWN ANGRY PUBLIC RESPONSES FROM CABINET MINISTERS LIKE JUSTICE MINISTER MULADI, WHO WAS QUOTED IN THE JAKARTA PRESS ON FEBRUARY 8 AS DEEMING MAHMUD'S COMMENTS INAPPROPRIATE FOR SOMEONE WHO "TOOK HIS OATH AS AN OFFICIAL OF THE UNITARY STATE OF INDONESIA." AT THE CONGRESS, THE STUDENTS OVERWHELMINGLY AGREED TO DEMAND THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT HOLD A REFERENDUM ON WHETHER ACEH SHOULD BECOME AN INDEPENDENT STATE. AS THE CONGRESS WAS UNDERWAY, ON FEBRUARY 2, [redacted] B1

THAT ACEHNESE STUDENTS WERE SPLIT BETWEEN THOSE THAT WANT TO BOYCOTT THE JUNE ELECTIONS AND PUSH FOR INDEPENDENCE AND THOSE THAT WILL SETTLE FOR MORE AUTONOMY. ALL PRESENT AT THE MEETING WERE THAT THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT WAS AT FAULT FOR IMPOSING ITS WILL ON THE COMMUNITY AND RESPONDING TO LOCAL GRIEVANCES WITH BRUTE MILITARY FORCE. ON FEBRUARY 8, IN BANDAR ACEH, TENTS HAD BEEN SENT UP WHERE PETITIONS CALLING FOR A REFERENDUM ON ACEH'S POLITICAL STAUTS WERE BEING SIGNED.

6. (C) [redacted] HE SAW ABRI AS BEHAVING LIKE AN ARMY OF OCCUPATION THAT WAS INSENSITIVE TO LOCAL FEELINGS. HE CITED SOLDIERS OPENLY SMOKING CIGARETTES ON THE STREETS DURING THE FASTING MONTH OF RAMADHAN, AND ENTERING MOSQUES WITHOUT REMOVING THEIR BOOTS, AS EXAMPLES OF ARROGANT AND INSENSITIVE BEHAVIOR. (NOTE: AS A PEOPLE, ACEHNESE ARE AMONG THE MOST STRICTLY OBSERVANT MUSLIMS IN INDONESIA. WHILE IT IS NOT UNUSUAL FOR MUSLIMS IN THE REST OF INDONESIA TO SMOKE DURING RAMADAN, WE FIND IT UNLIKELY THAT ANY MUSLIMS, FROM JAVA OR ELSEWHERE, WOULD FAIL TO REMOVE FOOTGEAR BEFORE ENTERING A MOSQUE. END NOTE.) B1

[redacted] B1

LIKE THEIR COMPATRIOTS IN JAKARTA, ACEHNESE STUDENTS HAVE TAKEN TO THE STREETS TO VOICE THEIR VIEWS, DOING SO ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS IN BANDA ACEH IN DECEMBER AND JANUARY, BUT NOT RECENTLY IN LHOKSEUMAWE. ACEHNESE STUDENTS HAVE ALSO BEEN ABLE TO CASH IN ON SOME OF THE CLOUT THE NATIONAL STUDENT MOVEMENT HAS DEVELOPED:

JAKARTA 02 OF 03 616

STUDENT COMMUNIQUES AND POLITICAL POSITIONS HAVE RECEIVED WIDE COVERAGE IN THE LOCAL AND NATIONAL MEDIA.

ACTIVISTS SEE GOVERNMENT AS INSINCERE, NON-RESPONSIVE

7. (C) NGO REPRESENTATIVES AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS IN ACEH, MANY OF WHOM ARE WORKING TO DOCUMENT PAST MILITARY EXCESSES AND ASSIST VICTIMS, HAVE ALSO BEEN STRIDENT IN VOICING GRIEVANCES AND CRITICISM AGAINST THE MILITARY AND THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT. COMMON THEMES IN POLOFF'S RECENT DISCUSSIONS WITH NGO'S IN THE AREA HAVE BEEN A PERCEIVED "LACK OF SINCERITY" ON THE PART OF THE GOVERNMENT TO RIGHT PAST WRONGS, AND A PERCEIVED DESIRE TO PAPER OVER DEEP WOUNDS BY DISTRIBUTING BASIC FOOD TUFFS (SEMBAKO) AND MAKING SMALL CASH PAYMENTS (ABOUT 1 MILLION RUPIAH/120.00 USD) TO VICTIMS OR THEIR WIDOWS. BACKLASH AGAINST MIITARY OPERATIONS

8. (C) THE CURRENT ROUND OF CALLS FO A REFERENDUM ON INDEPENDENCE, TALK OF AN ELECTION BOYCOTT, AND STRONG CRITICISM OF THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT WAS TRIGGERED BY OPERATION WIBAWA '99 (FORCE '99) A CRACKDOWN OPERATION LAUNCHED BY THE SECURITY FORCES FOLLOWING THE BRUTAL ABDUCTION/MURDER OF SEVEN ABRI PERSONNEL AT THE END OF DECEMBER. BETWEEN 17 AND 22 CIVILIANS WERE KILLED DURING THE CRACKDOWN, INCLUDING A NUMBER OF DETAINEES BEATEN TO DEATH BY THEIR CAPTORS. MANY MORE SUFFERED SEVERE BEATINGS AND OTHER MISTREATMENT, BUT ESCAPED DEATH. ABRI COMMANDERS HAVE RESPONDED TO SUCH EXCESSES PROMPTLY - ARRESTING 27 TROOPS, ONE OF WHOM, A MAJOR, HAS ALREADY BEEN CONVICTED AND SENTENCED TO SIX YEARS IN PRISON. OUR CIVILIAN INTERLOCUTORS IN ACEH WELCOMED THE COURT MARTIAL AS A STEP IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION, BUT WERE QUICK TO POINT OUT THAT THIS IS ONE OF THE FIRST TIMES ABRI HAS HELD TROOPS ACCOUNTABLE AFTER YEARS OF EXCESSES.

9. (C) BAD BLOOD BETWEEN LOCALS AND THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT GOES BACK MUCH FURTHER THAN THE LAST FEW WEEKS. FOLLOWING A SERIES OF ATTACKS CARRIED OUT BY A SMALL ARMED GROUP SEEKING NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE FOR ACEH IN THE 1980'S, THE INDONESIAN MILITARY (ABRI) DECLARED THE PROVINCE A MILITARY OPERATIONS AREA (DOM) IN 1989. THE DOM REMAINED IN PLACE UNTIL THE FALL OF SOEHARTO IN MAY, 1998. DURING THE DOM, THOUSANDS OF ACEHNESE MEN WERE KILLED OR DISAPPEARED, THOUSANDS MORE WERE IMPRISONED WITHOUT DUE PROCESS AND TORTURED. HUNDREDS OF HOMES WERE BURNED, AND MANY WOMEN WERE RAPED, ALTHOUGH DUE TO THE STGMA FACTOR, THIS LAST CATEGORY IS BELIEVED TO BE GREATLY UNDERDOCUMENTED. MORE FACTS AND STATISTICS ARE COMING OUT ABOUT THE DOM PERIOD, AND WHILE MOST AGREE A FULL ACCOUNTING IS AN ESSENTIAL STEP TOWARDS HEALING, NEW AND OFTEN GRUESOME DISCLOSURES ALSO HAVE THE AT LEAST SHORT TERM EFFECT OF REOPENING OLD WOUNDS AND REVIVING LATENT ANGER.

DEMANDS FOR REALLOCATION OF RESOURCES

10. (C) THE CURRENT SURGE IN EMOTIONS AMONG ACEHNESE IS ALSO FUELED BY LONG-STANDING COMPLAINTS THAT THE GOVERNMENT ABSORBS ALL OF THE REVENUE FROM LUCRATIVE NATURAL GAS OPERATIONS IN THE LHOKSEUMAWE AREA AND RETURNS LITTLE TO THE PROVINCE. MANY WHO SPOKE TO POLOFF VOICED THEIR (MISPLACED) ANGER AT MOBIL OIL AND P.T. ARUN, THE CONCESSIONAIRES, AS WELL AS THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT, OVER THIS ISSUE. THE PERCEPTION THAT ACEH IS NOT GETTING ITS DUE FROM THE ENERGY OPERATIONS IS A COMMON DENOMINATOR AMONG ACEHNESE FROM ALMOST ALL WALKS OF LIFE. [redacted] B1

COMMENT

11. (C) THERE IS NO QUESTION THAT ACEHNESE HAVE MANY GRIEVANCES AGAINST THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND FEEL THEM DEEPLY. RECENT VIOLENCE IN THE AREA AND A PERCEPTION THAT JAKARTA IS NOT MOVING ON ADDRESSING ACEH'S LONG STANDING GRIEVANCES HAS CONTRIBUTED TO THE

E.O. 12958: DECL: 02/03/04
TAGS: PGOV, PINR, PHUM, MILI, PREL, ID
SUBJECT: A/S ROTH MEETS WITH ACEH HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS

1. (U) CLASSIFIED BY POLITICAL COUNSELOR EDMUND MCWILLIAMS. REASON: 1.5 (D).

2. (C) SUMMARY: A/S ROTH MET WITH TWO NGO OFFICIALS LONG ACTIVE IN ACEHNESE AFFAIRS ON FEBRUARY 4. THEY DESCRIBED VIEWS IN ACEH AS DIVIDED AMONG GROUPS FAVORING THE STATUS QUO, A FEDERATED STATUS, BROAD AUTONOMY AND INDEPENDENCE. THE LATTER SENTIMENT WAS GAINING SUPPORT IN THE WAKE OF RECENT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE CASES PERPETRATED BY THE ARMY. ANGER OVER ABUSES, UNFAIR DISTRIBUTION OF RESOURCES AND REVENUES BY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND INADEQUATE ACEHNESE REPRESENTATION AT THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT LEVEL HAS PERSISTED FOR MANY YEARS. ACEHNESE DO NOT TRUST THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND HAVE LITTLE FAITH IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, WHOSE RECOMMENDATIONS ARE IGNORED BY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT. ACEHNESE LACK THE UNITY TO APPROACH THE GOVERNMENT FOR FORMAL DIALOGUE ABOUT GRIEVANCES AND ASPIRATIONS. THE NGO OFFICIALS CALLED FOR GREATER INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE IN ACEH AND PRESSURE ON THE GOVERNMENT TO END ABUSES. THE ISLAMIC PARTIES WILL RUN WELL IN ACEH, AS WILL AMIEN RAIS'S NATIONAL MANDATE PARTY (PAN). SOME STUDENTS AND OTHERS FAVOR A BOYCOTT OF THE JUNE NATIONAL ELECTIONS. END SUMMARY

3. (C) [redacted]

---

4. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THE ACEH POPULATION CURRENTLY IS DIVIDED INTO FOUR GROUPINGS:

-- THOSE WHO ARE "LOYAL REPUBLICANS" (WHO SUPPORT CONTINUED INTEGRATION WITH THE REPUBLIC OF INDONESIA);

-- FEDERATIONISTS SEEKING A FEDERATED RELATIONSHIP WITH INDONESIA;

-- THOSE FAVORING AUTONOMY;

-- SEPARATISTS.

[redacted] SAID THAT IN RECENT MONTHS, SUPPORT FOR THE SEPARATIST POSITION HAS GROWN, THOUGH IT WAS NOT POSSIBLE TO ASSESS ITS CURRENT STRENGTH. B1

BEHIND THE SUPPORT FOR SEPARATISM

6. (C) [redacted] HE HAD FOUND SYMPATHY FOR ONLY TWO OPTIONS: BROAD AUTONOMY OR INDEPENDENCE. PEOPLE GENERALLY WERE VERY ANGRY, WITH ESPECIALLY STRONG FEELING AGAINST CENTRAL GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS FROM JAVA AND THOSE IN MEDAN (SEAT OF THE MILITARY REGION RESPONSIBLE FOR ACEH). RECENT KILLINGS OF ALLEGED COLLABORATORS (CUAK) AND SECURITY FORCE PERSONNEL BY CIVILIANS WAS A MEASURE OF THIS NEW AND GROWING ANGER, AS WAS THE BURNING OF MILITAY INSTALLATIONS. B1

7. (C) RECENT DEVELOPMENTS HAD EXACERBATED ACEHNESE ANGER. THE "WIBAWA" SECURITY OPERATIONS, SAID BY THE GOVERNMENT TO BE A POLICE OPERATION, WAS IN FACT CONDUCTED BY THE MILITARY. DESPITE CLAIMS THAT SPECIAL FORCES (KOPASSUS) PERSONNEL HAD BEEN WITHDRAWN, 60 OF THEM REMAINED, MOST OF THEM IN LHOKSEUMAWE DISTRICT, WEARING CIVILIAN CLOTHES AND SPECIALIZING IN INTELLIGENCE FOR THE "WIBAWA" OPERATION, ACCORDING TO THE ACEHNESE INTERLOCUTORS.

8. (C) EXPLAINING THE ATTITUDE OF THE PEOPLE, [redacted] SAID THAT OLDER ACEHNESE ARGUED THAT THEY HAD STRONGLY SUPPORTED SOEKARNO WHEN HE DECLARED THE REPUBLIC BUT HAD RECEIVED LITTLE FOR THEIR LOYALTY. THEY ALSO SUPPORTED B1

THE SOEHARTO GOVERNMENT WHEN IT CAME TO POWER, BUT WERE REWARDED WITH MILITARY OPERATIONS WHICH, HASBALLAH CLAIMED, LEFT OVER 6,000 DEAD IN A DECADE (1989 TO PRESENT) AND EXPLOITATION OF ACEH'S NATURAL RESOURCES B1

WITH LITTLE RETURN FOR LOCAL PEOPLE. BASED ON THIS EXPERIENCE, PEOPLE WERE RELUCTANT TO OFFER SUPPORT TO A THIRD INDONESIAN PRESIDENT. MOREOVER, RECENT PROMISES BY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT OF REFORMS, ACCOUNTABILITY BY ABRI AND GREATER AUTONOMY HAVE LITTLE CREDIBILITY AT THIS POINT.

9. (C) [redacted] ECHOED THESE VIEWS, SAYING THAT "BASICALLY, THE PROBLEM IS TRUST," WHICH IS LACKING AS A RESULT OF THE PERSONAL EXPERIENCE OF MANY ACEHNESE WITH THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT OR ITS REPRESENTATIVES. OFFERS BY THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT OF A FAIRER SHARE OF REVENUES FOR B1 B1

ACEHNESE, FOR EXAMPLE, WOULD NOT BE SUFFICIENT TO CHANGE ATTITUDES BECAUSE THE OFFERS WOULD NOT BE BELIEVED. MOREOVER, PROMISES OF ABRI REFORM AND FUTURE ACCOUNTABILITY WOULD NOT BE SUFFICIENT TO DISSIPATE THE REAL HATRED FELT BY ACEHNESE TOWARD THE MILITARY. EVEN ACEHNESE OFFICIALS EXPRESS ANGER OVER WHAT THEY CLAIM IS "UNFAIR TREATMENT" BY JAKARTA, HE SAID.

10. (C) [redacted] AGREED THAT ACEHNESE GRIEVANCES OVER HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES WERE MORE IMPORTANT IN SHAPING CURRENT ATTITUDES THAN THE RESOURCE SHARING ISSUE. THE GROWING POSSIBILITY THAT JAKARTA MAY ALLOW EAST TIMOR TO BECOME INDEPENDENT HAD GIVEN ACEHNESE CONFIDENCE BUT WAS NOT A SIGNIFICANT FACTOR IN SHAPING OPINIONS AMONG ACEHNESE. OVER THE YEARS, ACEHNESE ALSO RESENTED THE FACT THAT RELATIVELY FEW ACEHNESE HAD BEEN APPOINTED TO SENIOR POSITIONS; THERE IS NO NATIVE-BORN ACEHNESE IN THE CURRENT CABINET. HASBALLAH CLAIMED THAT THE SUPREME ADVISORY COUNCIL HAS NEVER HAD AN ACEHNESE

AMONG ITS 45 MEMBERS. MOREOVER FOUR OF EIGHT DISTRICT PARLIAMENTS ARE CHAIRED BY NON-ACEHNESE.

11. (C) WHILE AGREEING THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES CONSTITUTED THE MOST IMPORTANT GRIEVANCE, [redacted] ADDED THAT THE ABUSES HAD GROWN OUT OF PROTESTS WHICH WERE LARGELY OVER ECONOMIC ISSUES. "WHEN WE COMPLAINED ABOUT ECONOMIC ISSUES, JAKARTA ACCUSED US OF BEING SEPARATISTS AND ANSWERED US WITH MILITARY FORCE," HE SAID.

B1

HOW TO DEAL WITH ACEH-CENTRAL GOVERNMENT PROBLEMS

12. (C) [redacted] BELIEVED IT WOULD BE PREMATURE FOR THE ACEHNESE TO HOLD A DIALOGUE WITH THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT BECAUSE ACEHNESE WERE NOT YET UNIFIED ON KEY QUESTIONS, SUCH AS THE POLITICAL STATUS OF THE PROVINCE. ONLY WHEN THE FOUR PERSPECTIVES NOTED ABOVE HAD ACHIEVED A CONSENSUS COULD ACEHNESE APPROACH THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT FOR DIALOGUE. MOREOVER, ATTEMPTS AT DIALOGUE THUS FAR HAD ONLY TAKEN PLACE AMONG JAVANESE OF THE SAME GENERATION (ABDURRAHMAN WAHID, AMIEN RAIS, MEGAWATI, WIRANTO, AND SULTAN HAMENGKUBUWONO X). THESE PEOPLE DID NOT SPEAK FOR NON-JAVANESE, NOR FOR STUDENTS AND OTHER YOUTHS. HABIBIE, AS A NATIVE OF SULAWESI, APPEARED MORE SENSITIVE TO THE NON-JAVANESE, HOWEVER.

B1

13. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT SEVERAL NATIONAL FIGURES APPEARED TO UNDERSTAND AND BE SYMPATHETIC TO THE ACEHNESE PERSPECTIVE. [redacted] CLAIMED THAT

B1

RAIS HAD ATTRACTED A CROWD OF 300,000 RECENTLY WHEN HE SPOKE IN ACEH -- THE LARGEST CROWD HE HAS ATTRACTED ANYWHERE TO DATE. MINISTER OF COOPERATIVES AND SMALL AND MEDIUM ENTERPRISES ADI SASONO HAS VISITED THE PROVINCE AND, MOREOVER, WORKED ON ACEH-RELATED PROBLEMS WHEN HE WAS AN NGO ACTIVIST IN THE 1980'S. FORMER CHIEF OF GENERAL STAFF; LTG FACHRUL RAZI, THOUGH FROM ACEH, IS NOT SEEN SYMPATHETICALLY BY ACEHNESE.

14. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THE PROBLEM OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSE, ESPECIALLY THOSE ASPECTS INVOLVING THE MILITARY, WARRANTED GREATER INTERNATIONAL ATTENTION, TO INCLUDE A GREATER INTERNATIONAL PRESENCE. [redacted] NOTED THAT IN THE EARLY JANUARY VIOLENCE INVOLVING MILITARY SWEEPS OF VILLAGES OUTSIDE LHOKSEUMAWE, SEVERAL HUNDRED PEOPLE FLED TO THE ICRC OFFICE FOR PROTECTION REFLECTING TRUST IN THAT INSTITUTION. (NOTE: THE ICRC TELLS US THAT ON FEBRUARY 5 IT SECURED A TWO-MONTH EXTENSION FOR ITS PRESENCE IN ACEH. END NOTE) "WE NEED INTERNATIONAL EYES TO STOP THE ARMY AND TO SEE WHAT IS GOING ON," AND TO PUT PRESSURE ON THE GOVERNMENT TO STOP IT, [redacted] SAID.

B1

B1

15. (C) [redacted] THE IMPACT OF

B1

THE INDONESIAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (KOMNASHAM), CLAIMING THAT ITS GENERALLY GOOD REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS INVARIABLY SAW NO GOVERNMENT FOLLOW-UP. IN JANUARY, ON ITS FOURTH VISIT SINCE THE SUMMER OF 1998, THE COMMISSION WAS TOLD BY LOCAL ACEHNESE THAT UNLESS THE COMMISSION COULD PRODUCE TANGIBLE CHANGES IN THE SITUATION, IT SHOULD NOT MAKE ANY MORE VISITS.

16. (C) [redacted] DISCOUNTED THE IMPORTANCE OF RECENT PROSECUTIONS AND SENTENCING OF ABRI MEMBERS WHO HAD COMMITTED HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. HE DESCRIBED THE STRATEGY AS AIMED AT FOCUSSING ATTENTION ON INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF ABRI WHO WERE CHARGED WITH "DISOBEDIENCE." [redacted] INSISTED THAT ABRI AS AN INSTITUTION WAS TO BLAME, NOT SIMPLY INDIVIDUAL ABRI PERSONNEL. THE INSTITUTION NEEDED FUNDAMENTAL REFORM AND, MOREOVER, SHOULD BE HELD ACCOUNTABLE.

B1

B1

THE ELECTIONS

17. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT MANY ACEHNESE STUDENTS WITH WHOM HE IS IN CONTACT BELIEVE THAT THE JUNE 7 ELECTIONS WOULD BE "USELESS." "THE ACEHNESE WENT THROUGH SEVEN ELECTIONS AND NOTHING CHANGED." MANY, THEREFORE, OPENLY ARGUE FOR BOYCOTTING THE ELECTION. [redacted] ACKNOWLEDGED THE LIKELIHOOD THAT THIS ELECTION COULD BE FAR MORE FREE AND FAIR THAN IN THE PAST AND THAT SUPPORT FOR PARTICIPATION IN IT WOULD DEPEND ON THE ABSENCE OF VIOLENCE IN ACEH IN THE MONTHS LEADING UP TO JUNE.

B1

B1

18. (C) [redacted] SAID THAT THE ISLAMIC UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY (PPP) WAS STRONG IN ACEH AND THAT NEW PARTIES LIKE THE JUSTICE PARTY (KEADILIAN) AND THE CRESCENT MOON AND STAR PARTY (BULAN BINTANG) WOULD DO WELL. ALTHOUGH NOT AN ISLAMIC PARTY, AMIEN RAIS'S PAN WOULD RUN STRONGLY, AS ACEHNESE SAW IT AS A PARTY THAT COULD "CHANGE THE SITUATION." PAN'S SUPPORT FOR A

B1

FEDERAL SYSTEM IN INDONESIA WAS POPULAR IN ACEH.

SUBJECT: TREASURY UNDER SECRETARY GEITHNER'S JAKARTA MEETINGS: SUPPORT FOR CONTINUATION OF IMF-SUPERVISED REFORM PROGRAM

1. (U) Classified by DCM Michael P. Owens. Reason 1.5 (d).

Summary
---

2. (C) Under Secretary of the Treasury Tim Geithner met with opposition party advisors, civil society representatives, GOI officials and U.S. business representatives during a July 13 visit to Jakarta. Among the topics discussed were:

The current economic reform program -- generally accepted as on the right track, but with additional (and more difficult) legal and institutional reform seen as necessary;

The July 27-28 CGI meeting -- generally supported, though some civil society representatives oppose the meeting;

Economic conditions -- confidence improving, but little evidence of real sector recovery;

Economic prospects that will face a new government -- fiscal difficulties, in light of large domestic and foreign debts; and,

The ongoing political transition -- uncertainty about dates and outcomes.

End Summary.

PDI-P Economic Advisors: Need Transparency and Law Enforcement
---

3. (C) PDI-P Economic Advisors Laksamana Sukardi and Kwik Kian Gie discussed the ongoing economic reform program, PDI-P's goals for a new government, Indonesia's external economic relations, the upcoming CGI meeting, and the independent power projects (IPPs):

Lunch Discussion: Money Politics and Future Economic Policy

---

10. (SBU) The Ambassador hosted lunch for U/S Geithner, A/S Roth, and former cabinet ministers Mohammad Sadli (Manpower, 1971-73, Mines and Energy, 1973-78, now Chairman of Indonesia Forum economists' association), Emil Salim (Environment, 1978-83), and Tunky Ariwibowo (Industry and Trade, 1993-98). Others attending were agriculture specialist and [redacted] H.S. Dillon, Bank Indonesia Senior Deputy Governor-select Anwar Nasution, Director of economic consulting agency "Econit" Rizal Ramli, World Bank economist Vikkram Nehru, Merrill Lynch Country Director Richard Fischer, Asia Foundation representative Douglas Ramage, Treasury's Saeger, and emboffs.

B6

11. (SBU) MONEY POLITICS: [redacted] SAID THAT THE MPR'S PRESIDENTIAL SELECTION PROCESS WOULD BE MONEY-DRIVEN. PRESIDENT HABIBIE, HAVING PAID OFF GOLKAR MEMBERS TO SUPPORT HIM INSTEAD OF PARTY CHAIRMAN AKBAR TANDJUNG, HAD SET ASIDE RP 2 BILLION (ABOUT US$ 300,000) EACH TO BRIBE MEMBERS OF THE MPR WHOSE SUPPORT HE NEEDED. OTHERS ACKNOWLEDGED THAT MONEY WOULD PLAY A ROLE, BUT DID NOT SECOND [redacted] SPECIFIC ALLEGATIONS. SALIM SAID THERE WAS POLITICAL CONSENSUS FOR MEGAWATI AS PRESIDENT, AND THAT THE DEBATE NOW WAS OVER VICE PRESIDENT. SEVERAL PARTICIPANTS SAW THE POSSIBILITY OF STREET ACTIVITY PICKING UP BEFORE THE SELECTION PROCESS IS SETTLED.

B6

B6

12. (SBU) ECONOMIC CONDITIONS: RAMLI SAID THERE WAS NOW STABILITY BUT NOT RECOVERY. SALIM AGREED THAT IT WAS INCORRECT TO TALK ABOUT A REAL SECTOR RECOVERY BECAUSE THE ONLY POSITIVE GROWTH SO FAR WAS IN AGRICULTURE. NASUTION SAID THAT A "NEW GUARD" OF ECONOMISTS FROM UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA AND YOGYAKARTA'S GADJAH MADAH UNIVERSITY WOULD DOMINATE ECONOMIC POLICYMAKING IN A NEW GOVERNMENT. THIS NEW GROUP WAS WELL-TRAVELED, PRO-MARKET, AND READY TO ADOPT POLICIES THAT HAD PROVEN SUCCESSFUL IN OTHER COUNTRIES SO THAT INDONESIA COULD "BENEFIT FROM GLOBALIZATION." THERE WAS DISAGREEMENT ON WHETHER PROGRESS WAS BEING MADE ON TACKLING CORRUPTION. SADLI SAID THAT THERE WAS IMPROVEMENT IN THE SENSE THAT POWERFUL INTERESTS COULD NOT SIMPLY SIEZE LAND FOR CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS AS THEY HAD IN THE PAST. SALIM SAID THAT LACK OF ACTION ON ATTORNEY GENERAL GHALIB'S CASE SHOWED THE GOI'S LACK OF SERIOUSNESS. TUNKY SAID THAT IT WAS ESSENTIAL TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF CIVIL SERVANTS BY CONTRACTING MORE WORK TO THE PRIVATE SECTOR, AND THEN TO IMPROVE THE REMAINING CIVIL SERVANTS' PAY STRUCTURE. THERE WAS GENERAL AGREEMENT THAT IT WOULD BE HARDER TO REACH CONSENSUS ON ECONOMIC POLICIES UNDER A MORE PLURALISTIC GOVERNMENT.

---

2. (C) IN A JUNE 15-17 VISIT TO EAST TIMOR, A/S ROTH AND THE AMBASSADOR HEARD UNAMET OFFICIALS AT ALL LEVELS PRESENT A GRIM ASSESSMENT OF THE OVERALL SECURITY SITUATION. THEY SAID

027052,2

INTIMIDATION BY PRO-INTEGRATION MILITIAS HAD NOT ABATED AND NO POLITICAL SPACE HAD OPENED FOR THE PRO-INDEPENDENCE SIDE. UNAMET OFFICIALS WERE GREATLY CONCERNED BY BOTH THE HUMANITARIAN AND LOGISTICAL PROBLEMS POSED BY 40 TO 60 THOUSAND DISPLACED PERSONS, WHOM THEY CHARACTERIZED AS "POLITICAL HOSTAGES." WHILE UNAMET CIVPOL AND MILITARY LIAISON OFFICERS DESCRIBED THEIR COOPERATION WITH THEIR INDONESIAN COUNTERPARTS AS GOOD, THE ASSURANCES GIVEN BY INDONESIAN AUTHORITIES HAD NOT TRANSLATED INTO IMPROVEMENS ON THE GROUND. UNAMET INTERLOCUTERS STRESED THAT THE MILITIAS WERE MERELY SYMPTOMS OF HE LARGER PROBLEM OF THE TNI'S OVERALL STRATEY. UNAMET OFFICIALS REFUTED GOI ACCUSATIONS THAT THEIR INTERNATIONAL PERSONNEL AND LOCAL STAFF WERE PRO-INDEPENDENCE, AND THEY PRESENTED VIDEO TAPE EVIDENCE TO COUNTER GOI CLAIMS THAT CIVPOL HAD "RANSACKED" A HOUSE. A/S ROTH CONVEYED STRONG USG SUPPORT FOR THE UNAMET MISSION. END SUMMARY.

3. (C) A/S ROTH, ACCOMPANIED BY THE AMBASSADOR, EAP CONGRESSIONAL RELATIONS OFFICER, AND POLOFF, VISITED EAST TIMOR JUNE 15-17. AT UNAMET'S HEADQUARTERS IN DILI, ROTH MET ON JUNE 15 WITH UNAMET [redacted] MILITARY LIAISON OFFICERS, AND SEVERAL UNAET POLITICAL OFFICERS. HE ALSO MET [redacted] ON JULY 16, THE FIRST DAY OF VOTER REGISTRATION, ROTH AND PARTY ACCOMPANIED [redacted] UNAMET OFFICIALS ON HELICOPTER TRIPS TO MALIANA AND SUAI, WHERE THEY MET WITH UNAMET PERSONNEL ASSIGNED TO THOSE SITES AND VISITED VOTER REGISTRATION CENTERS. THIS WAS FOLLOWED BY A MEETING WITH DILI-BASED AMCIT UNAMET PERSONNEL AND AN OVERLAND TRIP TO LIQUICA. ROTH'S MEETINGS IN DILI WITH INDONESIAN AUTHORITIES AND EAST TIMORESE POLITICAL FIGURES ARE REPORTED SEPTEL. B1 B1

SECURITY ISSUES

4. (C) UNAMET WAS FOCUSING ON THREE SECURITY CONCERNS: THE SAFETY OF UNAMET'S OWN PERSONNEL AND THE ESTABLISHMENT OF SUFFICIENTLY SECURE CONDITIONS TO CARRY OUT THE REGISTRATION PROCESS; THE WIDESPREAD INTIMIDATION WHICH WAS CORRUPTING THE PROCESS; AND THE INTERNALLY DISPLACED PERSONS PROBLEM. [redacted] DESCRIBED THE SITUATION AS "ABYSMAL ALL OVER," ADDING THAT IT WAS BEYOND DISPUTE THAT TNI WAS ORCHESTRATING THE MILITIA ACTIVITY. HE CHARACTERIZED THE MILITIA AS "NOTHING MORE THAN THUGS" AND SAID THERE WAS EVIDENCE MANY HAD BEEN CONSCRIPTED AGAINST THEIR WILL. HE AND OTHER UNAMET OFFICIALS REPEATEDLY STRESSED THAT THEIR CONCLUSIONS WERE NOT BASED SOLELY ON RUMORS OR PRO-INDEPENDENCE SOURCES BUT ON FIRSTHAND OBSERVATIONS AND A LARGE VOLUME OF HARD EVIDENCE FROM THE FIELD. [redacted] RECALLED THAT UNAMET PERSONNEL HAD STUMBLED ACROSS "SOCIALIZATION" GATHERINGS IN WHICH LOCAL OFFICIALS, MILITIAS, AND TNI PERSONNEL WERE JOINTLY INVOLVED IN THREATENING THE LOCAL RESIDENTS. UNAMET OFFICIALS ALSO HAD DIRECTLY OBSERVED JOINT TNI-MILITIA OPERATIONS AND SAID THEY HAD ASSEMBLED EXTENSIVE DOSSIERS OF EVIDENCE REGARDING PUBLIC FUNDING FOR THE PRO-INTEGRATION EFFORT AND ON THE NEXUS OF PUBLIC OFFICALS, TNI, AND THE MILITIAS. B1 B1

5. (C) [redacted] SAID CIVPOL'S STRATEGY WAS TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO ENHANCE THE ROLE OF THE INDONESIAN POLICE VIS-A-VIS TNI AND TO FOCUS QUICKLY ON "HOTSPOTS" WHEN THEY DEVELOP. CIVPOL'S RELATIONS WITH ITS INDONESIAN POLICE (POLRI) COUNTERPARTS WERE DESCRIBED AS GOOD, [redacted] WAS PLEASED THAT B1 B1

POLRI RECENTLY HAD AGREED TO JOINT NIGHT PATROLS WITH CIVPOL. IN RESPONSE TO THE MOST SERIOUS INCIDENTS, MILLS WAS FLYING TO THE AREAS INVOLVED WITH INDONESIAN POLICE COMMANDER TIMBUL SILAEN. IN MANUTUTO, THE LOCAL DISTRICT CHIEF HAD PUBLICLY THREATENED THE LIVES OF UNAMET PERSONNEL, BUT HAD SHOWN A MORE COOPERATIVE ATTITUDE WHEN CONFRONTED BY SILAEN AND MILLS ON JULY 14. IN ISOLATED DELORI, WEST OF VIQUEQUE, THE LOCAL MILITARY CHIEF, A SERGEANT, HAD ORGANIZED A MILITIA AND INSTITUTED A

REIGN OF TERROR. WHEN [redacted] AND SILAEN ARRIVED TO INVESTIGATE ON JULY 14, THE SERGEANT HAD DISAPPEARED, BUT IT WAS FEARED THAT HE WOULD RETURN TO EXACT RETRIBUTION AGAINST THE LOCAL POPULATION. [redacted] BELIEVED THAT THE EXTENSION OF UNAMET ACTIVITY TO 200 REGISTRATION CENTERS WAS CERTAIN TO REVEAL MANY MORE PROBLEM LOCALITIES. B1 B1

IN SHEEP'S CLOTHING

6. (C) TNI HAD FORMED ITS OWN LIAISON OFFICE CONSISTING OF 60 OFFICERS. UNAMET OFFICALS COMPLAINED THAT THESE PERSONNEL WERE ATTEMPTING TO DRESS LIKE UNAMET CIVPOL PERSONNEL IN ORDER TO CONFUSE THE POPULATION. WHILE THE UNAMET MLO'S DESCRIBED THEIR RELATIONS WITH THE TNI LIAISON OFFICERS AS COOPERATIVE AND FRIENDLY, THEY SAID THESE OFFICERS WERE ATTEMPTING TO ACT AS A BUFFER BETWEEN THEM AND THE LOCAL MILITARY. ONE MLO NOTED THAT "WE HAVE TO KEEP TRYING TO SHOVE THEM ASIDE TO GET TO THE RELEVANT OFFICERS." [redacted] SAID THAT BECAUSE THE INDONESIAN MILITARY HAD LITTLE RESPECT FOR THEIR OWN POLICE FORCES AND PERHAPS FOR POLICE IN GENERAL, IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT UNAMET'S CIVPOL BE AUGMENTED BY SOME MILITARY PERSONNEL WHO COULD MORE EFFECTIVELY INTERACT WITH THEIR TNI COUNTERPARTS. B1

DISPLACED PERSONS A MAJOR OBSTACLE TO PROCESS

7. (C) UNAMET OFFICIALS ESTIMATED INTERNALLY DISPLACED PERSONS TOTALED 40 TO 60 THOUSAND. [redacted] SAID THE IDP SITUATION IN EAST TIMOR DIFFERED SIGNIFICANTLY FROM ELSEWHERE IN THE WORLD BECAUSE THE EAST TIMORESE WERE BEING DISPLACED FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE BALLOT AND WERE ESSENTIALLY "POLITICAL HOSTAGES." UNAMET [redacted] ARGUED THAT THE DISPLACED WERE NOT A PURELY HUMANITARIAN ISSUE BUT PART OF A WELL-FUNDED AND WELL-COORDINATED PROCESS TO COMPEL THE POPULATION TO VOTE FOR AUTONOMY. HE STRESSED THAT THE MODE OF OPERATIONS DID NOT DIFFER FROM AREA TO AREA, ESSENTIALLY INVOLVING CLOSE MILITARY-MILITIA COOPERATION IN "KILLING A FEW PEOPLE AND BURNING SOME HOUSES" TO INSTILL A CLIMATE OF FEAR AND DRIVE PEOPLE FROM THEIR HOMES. [redacted] ARGUED THAT BECAUSE THE THREATS (SUCH AS THAT A PRO-INDEPENDENCE VOTE WOULD LEAD TO A BLOODBATH WORSE THAN 1975) WERE THE SAME IN EVERY LOCALE, IT SEEMED LIKELY THAT THE INSTRUCTIONS WERE EMANATING FROM A CENTRAL SOURCE. B1 B1 B1

8. (C) IN A SUBSEQUENT MEETING, [redacted] LARGELY ECHOED THE POINTS MADE BY THE UNAMET OFFICIALS. HE SAID GOOD COOPERATION WITH GOI OFFICIALS AND MILITARY OFFICERS AT THE B1

TOP LEVELS HAD NOT TRANSLATED INTO DEEDS IN THE FIELD. [redacted] SAW THE POPULATION AS DISTRESSED AND LACKING FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT. [redacted] CURRENT EFFORTS TO AID THE DISPLACED WERE DESCRIBED AS AN ULTIMATELY HOPELESS AND UNSUSTAINABLE ENDEAVOR BECAUSE ONLY AN ADEQUATE SECURITY SITUATION WOULD RESOLVE THE ISSUE. [redacted] SAID THE SITUATION HAD ENTERED THE STAGE OF A LESS DRAMATIC WAR OF ATTRITION. B1 B1 B1

LOSING THE HEARTS AND MINDS BATTLE

9. (C) [redacted] POLOFF AND VISITING IO/PHO OFFICER IN EARLIER MEETINGS) UNAMET WORKING-LEVEL PERSONNEL GENERALLY GAVE A MORE NEGATIVE ASSESSMENT OF PROSPECTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL CONSULTATION THAN THAT PRESENTED BY [redacted] IN NEW YORK (REFTEL). THEY SAID UNAMET SECTION CHIEFS HAD UNANIMOUSLY JUDGED THAT CURRENT CONDITIONS WOULD NOT PERMIT A FREE AND FAIR BALLOT. [redacted] SAID "WE ARE LOSING THE HEARTS AND MINDS BATTLE" TO CONVINCE THE POPULATION THAT THEY COULD SAFELY VOTE THEIR CONSCIENCE. [redacted] STRESSED THAT THE INTIMIDATION MECHANISMS ALREADY WERE IN PLACE, THAT "THE PLAY IS SET, THEY DO NOT REALLY NEED TO MAKE MORE ATTACKS." UNAMET POLITICAL OFFICERS POINTED OUT THAT THE MILITIAS ARE INCREASINGLY INSTITUTIONALIZED AND EXERCISING REAL AUTHORITY AS A LAW UNTO THEMSELVES. (COMMENT: THIS PARALLELS OUR REPORTS FROM OTHER CONTACTS. IN MAUBISSE, FOR EXAMPLE, [redacted] REPORT THAT THE "MAHIDI" MILITIA HAS OPENED A NEW HEADQUARTERS IN THE MIDDLE OF TOWN, AND THE LOCAL MAHIDI LEADER HAS INFORMED [redacted] PERSONNEL THAT ALL THE CUTOMARY PAYOFFS MUST BE DIRECTED THROUGH HIM RATHER THAN THROUGH TNI OR POLICE AUTHORITIES AS PREVIOUSLY. END COMMENT.) B1 B1 B1 B1

PRESSURE NOT WORKING

JAKARTA 03 OF 05 3610

10. (C) UNAMET POLITICAL OFFICERS STRESSED AS THE UNAMET OPERATION EXTENDED ITS REACH IT WAS DISCOVERING THAT THE LEVEL OF INTIMIDATION HAD NOT DECLINED, I.E., THE FUNDAMENTALS DID NOT APPEAR TO BE CHANGING DESPITE UNAMET'S MORE PERVASIVE PRESENCE. SOME UNAMET OFFICIALS EXPRESSED EXASPERATION THAT EFFORTS OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY TO INFLUENCE THE GOI WERE INEFFECTIVE. "WHATEVER PRESSURE YOU ARE PUTTING ON THESE GUYS, IT IS NOT WORKING," [redacted] COMPLAINED. THESE UNAMET OFFICIALS WERE NOT ENTIRELY REASSURED BY THE ABSENCE OF ATTACKS ON UNAMET SINCE THE JULY 4 LIQUICA INCIDENT, ASSERTING THAT TNI'S APPROACH HAD NOT CHANGED AND "AT ANY MOMENT THE PUPPET MASTERS CAN RILE THINGS UP AGAIN." DESPITE THESE UNIFORMLY NEGATIVE ASSESSMENTS OF CURRENT CONDITIONS, UNAMET OFFICIALS WERE NOT READY TO RULE OUT THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE SITUATION COULD BE TURNED AROUND IN TIME FOR THE CONSULTATION TO TAKE PLACE BY LATE AUGUST. THEY SAID THAT, FOR THIS TO OCCUR, "WINDOW DRESSING" ADJUSTMENTS SUCH AS ARRESTING A FEW MILITIA MEMBERS WOULD NOT SUFFICE. THEY STRESSED THAT IT MUST BE RECOGNIZED THAT "THIS SHOW IS VERY MUCH BEING RUN BY TNI" AND THAT NO FREE AND FAIR PROCESS WOULD BE POSSIBLE UNLESS SUFFICENT PRESSURE WERE BROUGHT ON TNI TO CHANGE ITS OVERALL STRATEGY, WITHDRAW ITS FORCES TO AT LEAST THE DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS LEVEL, STOP MOBILIZING THE MILITIAS, AND STOP TAKING AN ACTIVE ROLE IN THE CAMPAIGNING. B1

GOI ACCUSATIONS OF "BIAS"

11. (C) A/S ROTH TOLD [redacted] OF [redacted] CONTENTIONS (SEPTEL) THAT SOME UNAMET PERSONNEL WERE BIASED AND THAT UNAMET FAVORED PRO-INDEPENDENCE EAST TIMORESE IN ITS LOCAL HIRING. [redacted] SAW GOI/TNI CONCERN ABOUT UNAMET'S GROWING BODY OF EVIDENCE ON GOI/TNI SUPPORT OF THE MILITIAS AS BEHIND THESE GOI COUNTERATTACKS ON UNAMET'S CREDIBILITY. [redacted] TOOK EXCEPTION TO PROPOSALS THAT UNAMET REPLACE PERSONNEL WHO HAVE BEEN ACCUSED OF "BIAS." HE DENIED THAT ANY OF THOSE ACCUSED HAD DONE ANYTHING OUT OF LINE. MARTIN SAID [redacted] HAD RECEIVED SERIOUS DEATH THREATS AND BEEN GIVEN SECURITY PROTECTION, BUT EXPRESSED HOPE THAT THIS SITUATION NOW WAS UNDER CONTROL, AS THE GOI HAD NOT SAID ANYTHING PUBLICLY ABOUT SPECIFIC UNAMET PERSONNEL FOR SOME TIME. (COMMENT: NEVERTHELESS, TNI OFFICERS AND PRO-INTEGRATION LEADERS CONTINUED TO LEVEL THESE ACCUSATIONS IN THEIR MEETINGS WITH ROTH. END COMMENT.)

B1 B1 B1 B1

12. (C) [redacted] STRONGLY ASSERTED THAT UNAMET'S PERSONNEL WERE EXPERIENCED PROFESSIONALS FROM 90 COUNTRIES, NOT POLITICIZED PEOPLE WHO WERE ENEMIES OF INDONESIA. HE ARGUED THAT IT WOULD BE A BAD PRECEDENT TO BOW TO GOI PRESSURE TO REMOVE SPECIFIC UNAMET PERSONNEL.

B1

13. (C) ROTH ALSO ASKED ABOUT GOI/TNI CHARGES, WHICH HAD BEEN REPEATED BY ALATAS, THAT UNAMET PERSONNEL HAD EXCEEDED THEIR MANDATE BY ALLEGEDLY RANSACKING A HOUSE IN MAUBARA ON JUNE 19 WHILE SEARCHING FOR WEAPONS. [redacted] SAID THAT, IN REALITY, CIVPOL HAS ACCOMPANIED INDONESIAN POLICE IN A ROUTINE SEARCH OF A HOUSE. NO WEAPONS HAD BEEN FOUND, AND THE POLICE/CIVPOL TEAM HAD DEPARTED WITHOUT INCIDENT. ACCORDING TO UNAMET'S INVESTIGATION, TNI SOLDIERS HAD RANSACKED THE SAME HOUSE TWO DAYS LATER, AND CALLED IN AN INDONESIAN TELEVISION CREW TO FILM THE SCENE AND INDUCED ONE OF THE INHABITANTS TO CLAIM THAT UNAMET WAS RESPONSIBLE. UNAMET OFFICIALS PRESENTED A VIDEO TAPE OF THE CIVPOL VISIT TO THE HOUSE ON JUNE 19 THAT CLEARLY INDICATED NOTHING UNUSUAL HAD OCCURRED AND THAT THE SEARCH HAD TAKEN PLACE IN A FRIENDLY ATMOSPHERE.

B1

LOCAL STAFF RECRUITMENT

14. (C) [redacted] SAID RECRUITMENT OF LOCAL STAFF HAD BEEN A "NIGHTMARE," SINCE FINDING PEOPLE WITH EVEN MINIMAL SKILLS WAS EXTREMELY DIFFICULT. RECENT UNIVERSITY GRADUATES WERE ONE OF THE FEW POSSIBILITIES, AND THEY TENDED TO BE MORE PRO-INDEPENDENCE THAN THE POPULATION AS A WHOLE. MOST QUALIFIED PRO-INTEGRATION PEOPLE ALREADY HAD GOOD JOBS WITH THE GOVERNMENT, [redacted] POINTED OUT. [redacted] SAID APPLICANTS WERE NOT ASKED ABOUT THEIR POLITICAL VIEWPOINTS BUT UNAMET SHIED AWAY

B1

B1 B1

FROM HIRING ANY KNOWN ACTIVISTS FROM EITHER SIDE. ALL LOCAL EMPLOYEES WERE REQUIRED TO SIGN A DECLARATION OF NEUTRALITY. HE SAID UNAMET HAD ENCOURAGED THE PRO-INTEGRATION FPDK EARLY ON TO RECOMMEND POTENTIAL APPLICANTS, BUT FPDK HAD NOT RESPONDED FOR A MONTH, WHILE MOST SLOTS WERE BEING FILLED. UNAMET FINALLY HAD RECEIVED A LIST OF NAMES FROM FPDK THE PREVIOUS WEEK (PRE-DATED JUNE 19) AND WAS NOW EXAMINING IT.

THE VIEW FROM MALIANA

15. (C) IN MALIANA, SITE OF THE JUNE 29 ATTACK ON UNAMET'S OFFICE, [redacted] SAID CONDITIONS IN THE AREA WERE NOT CONDUCIVE FOR A FREE AND FAIR VOTE. WHILE UNAMET'S OWN SECURITY POSITION HAD IMPROVED FOLLOWING ASSURANCES FROM THE LOCAL MILITIA LEADER, TNI AND THE POLICE, [redacted] SAID SECURITY FOR THE LOCAL POPULATION WAS CURRENTLY "MINIMAL" AND VERY DIFFICULT TO UPGRADE, GIVEN THE INABILITY OF THE POLICE TO EXERT JURISDICTION OVER THE MILITIA GROUPS AND THE RESULTANT CLIMATE OF IMPUNITY. AS A RESULT, THERE WAS "ZERO POLITICAL SPACE FOR THE PRO-INDEPENDENCE SIDE." THE THREE OVERTLY PRO-INDEPENDENCE ACTIVISTS IN MALIANA HAD BEEN UNDER POLICE PROTECTION SINCE APRIL AND MILITIA LEADER JOAO TAVERES HAD SAID OPENLY THAT HE WOULD NOT TOLERATE A CNRT PRESENCE. BARTU ADDED THAT "THERE IS A LARGE GAP BETWEEN THE AUTHORITIES' PERCEPTION OF WHAT CONSTITUTED MINIMAL REQUIREMENTS FOR A FREE AND FAIR PROCESS AND OUR OWN, AND WE ARE UNABLE TO BRIDGE THAT GAP IN OUR DISCUSSIONS WITH LOCAL OFFICIALS AND TNI OFFICERS." HE SAID LOCAL AUTHORITIES CLEARLY COULD NOT MOVE ON THESE ISSUES WITHOUT INSTRUCTIONS FROM DILI OR HIGHER. IN MALIANA, ACCORDING TO [redacted] THE MILITIAS CONTINUED TO TRAIN DAILY WITH MOCK WEAPONS FOR "POST-CONSULTATION ACTIVITIES," SENDING A CLEAR SIGNAL TO THE POPULATION.

B1
B1
B1

16. (C) [redacted] SAID HE HAD MET FALINTIL COMMANDERS IN THE REGION ON JULY 12. THEY HAD SAID THEIR FIGHT WAS WITH TNI AND THE POLICE AND THEY WOULD NOT SURRENDER WEAPONS UNLESS THESE TWO GROUPS LEFT EAST TIMOR, REGARDLESS OF WHETHER THE MILITIAS DISARMED OR NOT. [redacted] SAID IT WAS CLEAR THAT THE FALINTIL MEMBERS WOULD NOT OPENLY PARTICIPATE IN ANY ASPECT OF THE PROCESS UNLESS THE ENVIRONMENT IMPROVED. NEVERTHELESS, FALINTIL WAS CARRYING OUT ITS OWN "CAMPAIGN" BY TALKING TO VILLAGE CHIEFS, AND THIS WAS PROVOKING TNI/MILITIA RESPONSES. [redacted] PREDICTED THAT THIS WOULD INCREASE TENSION AS THE PROCESS UNFOLDED AND CREATE "GREAT DIFFICULTIES" SINCE THERE WERE AT BEST AMBIGUOUS SECURITY RELATIONS IN THE MORE URBANIZED AREAS WHILE IT WAS IMPOSSIBLE TO REGULATE ARMED GROUPS IN THE MORE RURAL REGIONS. MALIANA-BASED CIVPOL PERSONNEL SAID THAT HALF THE TNI PERSONEL IN BOBONARO DISTRICT WORE PLAIN CLOTHES. THEY CITED NUMEROUS REPORTS THAT REGULAR TNI PERSONNEL FORMED THE CORE OF THE MILITIA GROUPS. UNAMET OFFICIALS IN MALIANA EXPRESSED CONCERN ABOUT THE DISPLACED POPULATIONS TO THE NORTH AROUND CAILACO WHERE "PEOPLE ARE DYING ON A DAILY BASIS." THEY HAD COUNTED 366 MALES ABOVE THE AGE OF 17 WHO WERE TAKING REFUGE IN THE FORESTS IN THE BOBONARO/CAILACO SUBDISTRICT BORDER AREA.

B1
B1
B1

SUAI

17. (C) IN SUAI, LOCAL OFFICIALS WERE DEALING WITH THE CONSEQUENCES OF PRO-INTEGRATION MILITIA MAHIDI'S EFFORTS TO EXTEND ITS INFLUENCE OVER THE LOCAL POPULATION. ACCORDING TO THE LOCALLY BASED UNAMET POLITICAL OFFICER, MAHIDI AND LOCAL OFFICIALS WERE ATTEMPTING TO BLOCK UNAMET REGISTRATION SITES IN

THE HILLS NEAR ZUMELAI, INSISTING THAT THE STATIONS SHOULD BE LOCATED ONLY ALONG THE MAIN ROAD, WHICH MAHIDI CONTROLLED. IN THE PREVIOUS DAYS, MAHIDI'S ATTEMPT TO MOVE INTO VILLAGES NORTH OF ZUMELAI HAD PROVOKED THE LOCAL POPULATION AND RESULTED IN CLASHES WHICH LEFT ONE MAHIDI MEMBER DEAD. AS A RESULT, ZUMELAI WAS TENSE ON JULY 16 AND UNAMET OFFICIALS WERE UNABLE TO OPEN REGISTRATION IN THE AREA. IN LATE JUNE/EARLY JULY UNAMET OFFICIALS IN SUAI HAD PERSUADED TWO GROUPS OF PRO-INDEPENDENCE RESIDENTS WHO HAD FLED TO THE FOREST TO RETURN TO SUAI, WHERE SEVERAL HUNDRED NOW WERE TAKING REFUGE IN THE CHURCH AND BEING PROVIDED FOOD BY CARITAS. A THIRD GROUP REMAINED IN THE HILLS NEAR THE AREA WHERE MAHIDI HAD CARRIED OUT RECENT ATTACKS.

A/S ROTH EXPRESSES SUPPORT FOR UNAMET

18. (C) IN HIS MEETINGS WITH UNAMET PERSONNEL, A/S ROTH ASSURED THEM OF STRONG U.S. SUPPORT FOR THE MISSION AND APPRECIATION FOR

THEIR INDIVIDUAL EFFORTS. HE STRESSED THAT THE EAST TIMOR PROCESS WAS RECEIVING ATTENTION AT THE HIGHEST LEVELS IN WASHINGTON AND ASSURED UNAMET OFFICIALS OF CONTINUING U.S. PRESSURE ON THE GOI TO ACHIEVE A SECURE ENVIRONMENT FOR A FREE AND FAIR VOTE. IN REGARD TO [redacted] CHARGES OF UNAMET BIAS, ROTH PLEDGED TO CONVEY TO [redacted] HIS OWN FINDINGS THAT THIS WAS NOT THE CASE. B1

Doug, can you ask the Embassy to reserve and get tickets for Stanley and for David Keegan who will travel with him. He wants to fly the Thursday to Saturday route and return via best connection back to Washington on Saturday. No need to return to Jakarta after E. Timor. I will get fiscal data to you as soon as I get orders. I'll copy you on the outgoing portion of the itinerary I have with AMEX. Did you get the ticket all the way to the US via the Embassy on the return or should I be reserving the Denpasaar to Washington portion with AMEX?

Debbie, below is what the OI had in it today that should guide you. when I did this last month, I left the jakarta-dili ticketing to the embassy (gave them the fiscal data ahead of time so they could purchase the ticket).

READ the OI portion below and then come back to this part: From what I know of it, the merpati flight from Jakarta which leaves quite early Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays to Denpasar (Bali) , one hour layover, then to Dili. That is the most efficient way. The return flight is the same flight which leaves the following Thursday at around noon, back to Denpasar and on to Jakarta arriving fairly late. If Stanley wanted to do what I did, he could visit Dili and then get off at Denpasar and catch a flight directly to Singapore or other places (Hong Kong, possibly Tokyo) bound back to the U.S. without returning to Jakarta. This obviously means he has to get his Jakarta work finished BEFORE he leaves for Dili. DH

SOR travel to Dili.

UNFORTUNATELY, THE DAO AIRCRAFT IS ALREADY SCHEDULED TO RETURN TO THE U.S. FOR MAINTENANCE IMMEDIATELY UPON ITS RETURN FROM ACEH (TONIGHT). IT WILL NOT BE AVAILABLE FOR SOR TRAVEL TO EAST TIMOR IN MID-JULY. FLIGHTS TO DILI FROM DENPASAR REMAIN AT THREE PER WEEK: MERPATI FLIES IN AND OUT ON TUESDAYS, THURSDAYS AND SATURDAYS. (IT IS THE ONLY CARRIER SERVICING DILI.) (TRAVELERS CAN FLY DIRECT FROM JAKARTA AT 0600 OR CAN OVERNIGHT THE PREVIOUS EVENING AT DENPASAR AND PICK UP THE FLIGHT THE NEXT MORNING EN ROUTE TO DILI.) THE FLIGHTS DEPART DILI MID-DAY, ARRIVING BACK IN JAKARTA MID-EVENING.

LOOKING AT THE CALENDAR, IF SOR WERE TO ARRIVE IN JAKARTA BY EVENING JULY 12, HE COULD TAKE THE 0600 TO DILI ON TUESDAY, JULY 13, RETURNING JULY 15. (HE COULD ALSO FLY DIRECTLY TO DENPASAR AND CATCH THE SAME FLIGHT AS IT TRANSITS DENPASAR AT APPROXIMATELY 0900.) ALTERNATIVELY, HE COULD PLAN TO TRAVEL TO DILI VIA THE THURSDAY - SATURDAY FLIGHT (JULY 15 - 17), RETURNING TO JAKARTA (VIA DENPASAR) MID-EVENING SATURDAY.

Meeting with Coordinating Minister for Economics Ginandjar

East Timor

- Economic recovery, and the international community's willingness to help, could be jeopardized if Indonesian government is blamed for a failure of the effort to conduct a referendum on East Timor.

- Deterioration in East Timor could have an impact on the international community's generosity; perhaps even a topic at upcoming CGI at the end of the month.

- Example: The Senate voted 98-0 to link U.S. votes at the IFIs for Indonesia with developments in East Timor. Similar amendment being considered in the House. While not yet law, momentum for such measures will build if GOI not perceived as backing up its words with actions. Could ultimately make it difficult for U.S. to support Indonesia in international financial institutions.

Meeting with Opposition Leaders/PDI-P Leader Megawati

Elections

- Congratulations; enthusiastic participation of the great majority of Indonesian voters. Clear that people voted for a change. The elections themselves were a hugely important first step, but the road ahead is more difficult.

- Important for the credibility of the election process that remaining steps in the transition proceed in transparent fashion and reflect the will of the people.

- Almost countless number of potential stumbling blocks ahead could undermine chances for a peaceful transition acceptable to majority of the Indonesian people.

- KPU has decisive role in maintaining transparency on many outstanding issues: how MPR delegates representing functional groups and regional parliaments are chosen; when the MPR meets; whether the presidential selection is conducted by open or closed ballot.

- Opposition needs to be responsible in its behavior. Small parties must get message that selfish efforts to obstruct vote count and obtain DPR seats they did not win legitimately undermine broader national interest in clean election outcome.

East Timor

- International community deeply concerned. Militias are undermining the security environment in Timor. Government and military need to move beyond rhetoric and provide security they insisted on being responsible for.

- Political parties likely to play role in next government need to know that international support -- and with it Indonesia's economic recovery -- could be jeopardized if effort to conduct a referendum on East Timor fails.

- Genuine potential for a backlash if referendum does not take place in a secure environment. U.S. Senate already voted to link U.S. votes at the IFIs for Indonesia with developments in East Timor. Similar amendment being considered in the House. While not yet law, momentum for such measures will build if GOI not perceived as acting in good faith on its commitments.

- It would be tragic if the next government comes to power through a commendable electoral process, only to inherit international ill will because of East Timor.

- Believe that TNI needs to understand the potential damage to Indonesia's image that will result if current deterioration in the situation in East Timor is not turned around. Can you get this message to General Wiranto?

A/S Roth July 13-14 Meetings in Indonesia R52B

Meeting with CNRT Leader Xanana Gusmao

- Visiting to assess situation and consider next steps. Your views essential. Deep concern; need to keep UNAMET on track.

- How do you assess DARE II and what are the next steps on reconciliation?

- Can voter registration go forward given militia activities?

- Are there circumstances under which you would argue that the UN not proceed with the consultation process?

- Would like your views on your meetings with FM Alatas and General Wiranto.

(If asked about UN PKO)

- At this point there is little appetite in UN for a peacekeeping operation. Would require GOI invitation.

Elections:

- Congratulations; elections free, fair, democratic. Enthusiastic participation of the great majority of Indonesian voters. The elections themselves were a hugely important first step, but the road ahead is more difficult.

- TNI played important supportive, neutral role. World took notice. TNI contribution to Indonesia's democratization key to establishing more normal military-military ties with U.S.

East Timor

- Deeply concerned about developments in East Timor. Indonesia has not lived up to May 5 obligations to provide an environment of security in East Timor to permit a credible ballot in August.

- Welcome assurances on security to international community and UN, and your work with Xanana Gusmao and personal role in peace brokering and reconciliation among East Timorese.

- However, situation for UNAMET sharply deteriorating: attacks, compounded by unhelpful GOI spokesmen claiming that UNAMET is pro-independence and part of problem.

- International opinion supports UN and views militias as unrestrained; cannot understand why TNI and police presence of over 15 thousand cannot bring them under control; provide adequate protection.

- Over long period of time, overwhelming multi-source evidence of continuing close cooperation with militias by elements of TNI. Although we know that orders have come from you directing that TNI be neutral in East Timor, there are elements on the ground not obeying that direction. Need effective TNI steps on security: arrests; disarming bad militia elements. Unless turned around, entire UNAMET operation at risk. Not now question of blame but results.

Elections

- Congratulations; your leadership key. Elections free, fair, democratic. Enthusiastic participation of the great majority of Indonesian voters. The elections themselves were a hugely important first step, but the road ahead is more difficult.

- Equally vital is that the appointment of the remaining MPR representatives and the selection of the president be made in a free and transparent manner so as to preserve and build on the initial gains of the elections.

East Timor

- Deeply concerned about developments in East Timor. Indonesia has not lived up to May 5 obligations to provide an environment of security in East Timor to permit a credible ballot in August.

- UNAMET cannot be blamed for this failure. You cannot win this fight against the UN. Information coming to us from a wide variety of sources clearly indicates that UNAMET activity is not the problem. The pro-integration militias are. These militias must be brought under control.

- International pressure on Indonesia over East Timor is growing and will continue to grow unless the GOI delivers on its responsibility. The same holds for pressure from the U.S. Congress. This could bode ill for Indonesia's relations with the international community and for U.S. - Indonesia relations. Tremendous good will following elections is evaporating. We do not wish to see this happen.

- Indonesia up against time-table dilemma. You agreed to provide the security environment needed for a credible ballot in August, but such an environment does not presently exist and UN will not proceed without it.

- We welcome initial steps taken, such as the introduction of more police in East Timor. But real improvements, not mere rhetoric, is needed to create an environment conducive to a credible ballot.

Secretary's Weekly Report
Week of July 12-19, 1999

(C) Indonesia-Roth Travel: EAP A/S Roth will be in Indonesia July 13-17. Two topics top his agenda: the post-election political transition and East Timor. On the political transition, he will engage the government and those political leaders whose parties had strong showings in the June national elections on next steps, urging transparency in the final stages of the vote count and in the selection of the President in the upcoming Peoples Consultative Assembly (MPR). On East Timor, he will press for the GOI to provide immediately for an intimidation-free autonomy consultation vote in late August, including credible actions to curb pro-integration militia violence against UNAMET and pro-independence East Timorese. He will also travel to East Timor to assess the situation first hand and emphasize the importance of this issue in our bilateral relationship.

In Jakarta, Roth will meet with President Habibie, FM Alatas, Defense Chief General Wiranto, jailed East Timorese Resistance leader Xanana Gusmao, Megawati and other major political leaders. While in East Timor July 15-17, Roth will meet with UNAMET officials, Bishop Belo, Indonesian government and military representatives, and pro-integation and pro-independence East Timorese leaders.)

Carter Center Weekly Report on East Timor, No. 2 July 19 – 25, 1999: Registration Continues to Run Smoothly, Security Issues Remain Key Concern

(Background: Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter and The Carter Center are closely monitoring the public consultation process on autonomy in East Timor through neutral, nonpartisan observers assessing preparations for the vote, the security environment, and the fairness of the campaign. Following is the second in a series of weekly reports to be issued by The Carter Center observer mission before and after the consultation).

Dili, East Timor... During the past week, registration for the public consultation in East Timor continued with strong turnout of potential voters, and few reported incidents of violence. UNAMET operations are in full swing, but no date has been set for the consultation vote. While registration and other UNAMET activities are now proceeding well, The Carter Center is concerned that an atmosphere of fear and intimidation continues to prevail in many parts of East Timor.

The Center is particularly concerned about persistent reports of Indonesian military involvement in the activities of pro-integration militia groups. In direct interviews with local residents, self-proclaimed members and commanders of armed pro-integration groups, Indonesian soldiers and senior military personnel in Baucau district, Carter Center observers were told that one Timorese pro-integration group known as Saka is being armed, trained, equipped, directed and paid by the Indonesian military.

This report is based on field visits to Baucau and Manatuto districts during the past several days, and on meetings in Dili with senior Indonesian Government, military, and police officials; members of the Indonesian Government Task Force for the Implementation of the Popular Consultation; the Commission for Peace and Stability; Timorese nongovernmental organizations; UNAMET officials; representatives of international organizations; diplomats; and members of groups which favor integration into Indonesia as well as pro-independence groups.

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 16 MAR 2007 200503302

The Carter Center is very encouraged by the following developments in East Timor and believes that the continuation of such conditions will further enhance the opportunity for the fair conduct of the consultation.

- Voter Registration: Large numbers of people are registering at centers across East Timor. Carter Center observers witnessed long lines at all registration centers visited. Numerous interviews with potential voters indicate that the majority are satisfied with the conduct of registration and remain committed to participating in a peaceful, fair, and democratic consultation. Carter Center observers received no complaints about the identification requirements for registration, but many people are unaware of the availability of a UNAMET Affidavit of Birth for those who do not have the required identification. With the notable exception of internally displaced persons, it appears that the large majority of eligible voters will have the opportunity to register for the upcoming consultation.

- The Pre-Consultation Role of UNAMET. UNAMET has nearly completed deployment of its personnel to East Timor. The mission was fully ready for registration to begin and registration is proceeding smoothly. The UN deployed rapidly for this mission. Indonesian police have provided good security for UNAMET personnel during the registration period.

The Center continues to have serious concern, however, about continuing intimidation of the East Timorese, violations of the New York agreements and the issue of redeployment of the Indonesian military. These concerns were noted in our weekly report released July 20, 1999. To date, these issues have not been adequately addressed.

The Carter Center remains particularly concerned about reports of Indonesian military support of armed pro-integration groups and the plight of internally displaced persons. Both of these issues must be addressed to ensure conditions established by the May 5 New York Agreements for the popular consultation are met.

- Military Support of Pro-Integration Groups. The Carter Center has received numerous reports of Indonesian military (TNI) involvement in the activities of militias over the past several weeks, but until now has been unable to independently confirm a direct link between armed pro-integration groups and the military. Carter Center observers recently visited a number of camps in several districts that local residents claim are militia posts, and in several cases observers found evidence of Indonesian military involvement in these camps. Carter Center observers have now identified at least one group in Baucau district known as Pusaka or Saka that is being armed, trained, equipped, directed, and its members paid by the military. The existence of this group and its ties to the Indonesian military have been confirmed through interviews with local residents, members of Saka, and local senior military personnel.

- Harassment and Intimidation Continues. Local residents in several different areas in Bacau complained of harassment and intimidation by pro-integration groups. Residents identified Saka and Rajawali as militia groups that work in cooperation with the TNI, and say armed members visit them at night, threatening violence and bloodshed after the vote if autonomy is rejected. Members of the militia groups who were interviewed described Saka and Rajawali as Timorese military groups that fight for autonomy and reported that they work with local TNI units to provide security and promote the autonomy option.

- Internally Displaced Persons. Poor security conditions continue to prevent tens of thousands of internally displaced persons in East Timor from returning to their homes. For internally displaced persons to be able to participate in the consultation as provided in the New York Agreements, adequate security conditions must exist for them to return to their homes immediately and to ensure that no others are driven from their homes by intimidation or violence.

  Note: Paragraph 4 of the Security Agreement states that the Indonesian police are solely responsible for the maintenance of law and order during the consultation process. Paragraph 1 of the same agreement states that the Indonesian police and military must be absolutely neutral throughout the consultation process. It is essential that all support for Timorese groups of any description by the military cease at once and that all security functions are handed over to the police.

- Post-Consultation Security. Many of those interviewed by Carter Center observers fear that UNAMET will leave East Timor immediately after the vote, and are concerned about their safety. It is important, therefore, that UNAMET clearly explains the role the UN will play in East Timor after the consultation.

Evidence of Military Support for Armed Pro-Integration Groups in Baucau District

Carter Center observers recently visited Quelicai sub-district in Baucau to observe registration activities and the overall security climate in the area. Local residents in several different areas complained of harassment and intimidation by pro-integration groups known as Saka and Rajawali, as well as by TNI soldiers. Subsequent investigations over the following days, including extensive interviews with local residents, members, former members and leaders of Saka and Rajawali, military personnel and district military commanders, revealed the following:

- Residents of Quelicai sub-district report widespread and persistent harassment and intimidation by Saka, Rajawali and the TNI. Residents identify Saka and Rajawali as militia groups that work in cooperation with the TNI, and say armed members visit them at night, threatening violence and bloodshed after the vote if autonomy is rejected. They also say that militia members and TNI officers are actively explaining and promoting the autonomy option through public meetings.

- Saka and Rajawali operate out of a post in the area that is within sight of a UNAMET registration center. Carter Center observers witnessed large amounts of military equipment and personnel wearing military fatigues within the post. Members and former members of Saka and Rajawali both within the post and in surrounding villages claim that both groups are part of the TNI and are funded, equipped, trained, directed, armed and their members paid by the DANDIM (district military commander) in Baucau. Members describe Saka and Rajawali as Timorese military groups that fight for autonomy and say that they work with local TNI units to provide security and promote the autonomy option.

- TNI personnel in Quelicai sub-district report to Carter Center observers that Saka and Rajawali are part of the TNI and that they work together to provide security and promote the autonomy option. Local TNI personnel claim that Saka and Rajawali are funded, directed, equipped, trained, armed and their members paid by the DANDIM in Baucau.

- An individual who claimed to be the commander of the Saka group met with Carter Center observers in Baucau town and claimed that Saka, Rajawali and several other groups under his control in Baucau and neighboring districts are funded, directed, equipped, trained, and their members paid by the DANDIM in Baucau, and that Saka is armed by the TNI. The commander described all of these groups as Timorese military organizations that support autonomy. The commander claimed to be a KOPASSUS (Indonesian Army Special Forces) officer. The commander confirmed that Saka and other groups are providing security but denied that they are promoting the autonomy option.

- The DANDIM for Baucau stated that Saka is part of the TNI and is composed of two parts: one official and one militia. He stated that both components are funded, directed, equipped, trained, and their members paid by his office and the official component is armed. The DANDIM denied that the TNI or pro-integration groups are providing security or promoting autonomy.

Carter Center Weekly Report on East Timor, No.1 July 11 - 17, 1999:
Large Turnout for Registration despite Continuing Security Concerns

RELEASED IN FULL

(Background: Former U.S. President Jimmy Carter and The Carter Center are closely monitoring the public consultation process on autonomy in East Timor. The Center opened an office with two observers in Dili on July 4. They will be joined next week by eight long-term observers who will travel throughout East Timor to assess preparations for the vote, the security environment, and the fairness of the campaign, while remaining strictly neutral and nonpartisan. The following is the first of a series of weekly reports to be issued by The Carter Center observer mission before and after the consultation).

Dili, East Timor...The past week saw a significant decrease in the level of intimidation and violence directed at personnel of the United Nations Mission in East Timor (UNAMET) who are supervising the upcoming popular consultation. However, the security situation for the people of East Timor does not seem to have improved significantly.

Initial reports on voter registration, which began on July 16, indicate potential voters flooded registration centers all across East Timor during the first few days of voter registration. The Carter Center is greatly encouraged by the opening of registration and the high turnout so far. Clearly, the large majority of the people of East Timor are committed to participating in a peaceful, fair and democratic consultation.

However, this commitment is being severely tested by an atmosphere of violence, intimidation, and insecurity that continues to pervade most areas of East Timor. Information gathered in direct interviews during field visits by Carter Center observers and from other independent reports from all parts of East Timor, indicate that pro-integration militias in many areas are threatening to harm or kill those who do not vote for autonomy. Similar reports indicate that the militias also are largely responsible for creating tens of thousands of internally displaced persons and preventing them from returning to their homes to participate in the consultation.

This report is based on field visits to Liquica and Ermera districts during the past several days, including observation of the opening of registration, and on meetings in Jakarta and Dili with senior Indonesian Government, military, and police officials; members of the Indonesian Government Task Force for the Implementation of the Popular Consultation; the Commission for Peace and Stability; Timorese non-governmental organizations; UNAMET officials; representatives of international organizations; diplomats; and members of pro-autonomy groups (which favor integration into Indonesia) and pro-independence groups.

The Carter Center is particularly concerned about the following problems, which must be addressed to ensure that conditions established by the May 5 New York Agreements for the popular consultation are met:

- Intimidation of Voters. While all sides must accept some responsibility for the hostile climate that now prevails, our interviews and other independent reports indicate that responsibility for the large majority of incidents of intimidation and violence lies with pro-integration militias. These groups are subjecting potential voters to an intense and systematic campaign of intimidation in an attempt to influence the outcome of the consultation. Individuals interviewed by The Carter Center observers spoke uniformly about widespread harassment and intimidation by the militia, and described similar incidents of militia visiting people at their homes at night and threatening

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: MURRAY D ZINOMAN
DATE/CASE ID: 16 MAR 2007 200503302

violence after the poll if autonomy is rejected. Similar reports from other independent groups indicate such incidents are occurring throughout East Timor.

According to paragraph 1 of the Security Agreement, the appropriate Indonesian security forces are responsible for ensuring a secure environment devoid of violence and intimidation. In addition, paragraph 4 provides that the Indonesian police are solely responsible for the maintenance of law and order during the consultation process. Unfortunately, there is little evidence that the Indonesian Police have been successful in improving the security situation. In order for the conditions of the New York Agreements to be fulfilled, the activities of violent militia groups must be curtailed.

- Internally Displaced Persons. The United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees has documented the existence of more than 32,000 internally displaced persons in East Timor, most of whom report having been driven from their homes in the past six months by pro-integration militias as a direct result of their presumed political beliefs. It appears little is being done to facilitate their safe return to their homes. Some militia leaders have openly stated that they will not permit internally displaced persons to return home until after the completion of the consultation.

  For internally displaced persons to be able to participate in the consultation as provided in the New York Agreements, it is essential that adequate security conditions exist for all of them to return to their homes immediately and to ensure that no others are driven from their home by violence and intimidation.

- Active Campaign for Autonomy. According to many credible observers, elements of the Indonesian Government and military continue to campaign for the autonomy option in violation of the New York Agreements. One senior army leader in Dili admitted that the military is actively promoting the autonomy package and distributing food and services to people to encourage votes for autonomy.

  Such practices are in violation of paragraph 1 of the Security Agreement, which establishes that the absolute neutrality of the Indonesian armed forces and the Indonesian police is essential. Similarly, the "Agreement on Modalities for the Popular Consultation" provides that officials of the Indonesian Government will not participate in the campaign in support for either option. It is imperative that all sides abide by these commitments.

- Need for Redeployment. Although senior military commanders indicated to Carter Center observers that all military forces in East Timor will be confined to their barracks in advance of the consultation, no timetable for this redeployment has been established and military units continue to operate throughout the territory. To improve the current climate of fear, a timetable for completion of the redeployment of the Indonesia military should be established and implemented.

1. CLASSIFIED BY MICHAEL P. OWENS, DEPUTY CHIEF OF MISSION.
REASON: 1.5 (D).

2. (SBU) ELECTION SUPPORT

TO FOLLOW UP ON A/S ROTH'S DISCUSSIONS IN DAVOS, TOKYO, AND JAKARTA ON SUPPORT FOR THE INDONESIAN ELECTIONS, THE AMBASSADOR HAS DETECTED A MORE POSITIVE ATTITUDE ON THE PART OF THE EU AMBASSADORS IN SUPPORTING THE INDONESIAN ELECTIONS. APPARENTLY, THERE WILL BE A MEETING OF THE EU POLITICAL COMMITTEE (OR SOMETHING OF THAT ILK) ON FEBRUARY 11 AT WHICH SUPPORT FOR THE INDONESIAN ELECTIONS WILL BE DISCUSSED. THE FINNISH AMBASSADOR SEPARATELY TOLD THE AMBASSADOR THAT HIS GOVERNMENT HAS COMMITTED ROUGHLY 1 MILLION USD FOR INDONESIAN ELECTION SUPPORT AND MAY USE PART OF THESE FUNDS TO BRING AN INDONESIAN DELEGATION -- DRAWN FROM TEAM 11, THE POLITICAL PARTIES, AND ELECTION MONITORING GROUPS -- TO OBSERVE THE MARCH 21 FINNISH ELECTIONS. SEPARATELY, THE UNDP HERE IS PLANNING TO HOST AN AMBASSADORIAL LEVEL BRIEFING HERE ON MARCH 12 TO DISCUSS ELECTION SUPPORT.

WE HAVE NOT YET HEARD BACK FROM THE INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT ON THE QUESTION OF A DONORS CONFERENCE AND DOUBT WE WILL DO SO UNTIL FOREIGN MINISTER ALATAS GETS BACK FROM NEW YORK. WE WILL DO EVERYTHING WE CAN TO GET A QUICK ANSWER ON THAT QUESTION BUT SUGGEST WE PROCEED ON TWO TRACKS: TO GIN UP SUPPORT FOR A DONORS CONFERENCE AND GENEROUS PLEDGES IF THE INDONESIANS GIVE THEIR BLESSING TO THE CONCEPT; AND A PARALLEL EFFORT TO GAIN BROADER SUPPORT FOR GENEROUS ELECTION SUPPORT FROM POTENTIAL DONORS WHETHER OR NOT A PLEDGING CONFERENCE TAKES PLACE. THE EU MEETING ON FEBRUARY 11 MIGHT BE A CRUCIAL EVENT IN THAT RESPECT.

3. (U) ADDITIONAL FACTUAL CLARIFICATION ON HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT COMMENTS

WE WOULD LIKE TO OFFER ADDITIONAL CLARIFICATION ON ONE POINT IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT FOR ACCURACY'S SAKE. WE ORIGINALLY SAID THAT "AT LEAST NINE DEMONSTRATORS, MOSTLY STUDENTS, DIED AS A RESULT OF GUNSHOT WOUNDS AND SEVERE BEATINGS" IN SECTION ONE (C), AND USED THE "AT LEAST NINE" FORMULATION IN SECTION 1 (A). WE'VE NOTED IN RECENT PRESS REPORTS REFERRING BACK TO THE NOVEMBER 13 INCIDENT THAT THERE HAS BEEN A TENDENCY TO USE THE NUMBER "THIRTEEN" IN REFERRING TO DEATHS FROM THAT DAY. WE WENT BACK AND CHECKED REPORTS IN KOMPAS, AND IT CITED 14 DEATHS OF DEMONSTRATORS, NINE OF WHOM WERE STUDENTS AND LOCAL PEOPLE (SEVEN OF WHOM WERE SHOT AND TWO DIED OF OTHER VIOLENCE) AND FOUR "PAM SWAKARSA" (THE BAMBOO WIELDING, GOVERNMENT-CONNECTED PRO-MPR DEMONSTRATORS). IF IT IS DECIDED TO INCLUDE THE FOUR "PAM SWAKARSA," WE BELIEVE IT IS IMPORTANT THAT THE REPORT CLARIFY

THAT THEY DID NOT DIE AT THE HANDS OF SECURITY FORCES DURING THE ATMA JAYA INCIDENT, BUT WERE BEATEN TO DEATH BY CIVILIANS AT ANOTHER LOCATION.

4. (C) POLITICAL LAWS

YOUR OI NO 21 (2/4/99) RAISES SOME IMPORTANT ISSUES CONNECTED TO THE POLITICAL LAWS. A FRONT CHANNEL BASED ON AN EXAMINATION OF THE TEXT OF THE LAWS THAT WILL BE GOING OUT SHORTLY COVERS ALL OF THESE MATTERS.

YOU MENTIONED THAT YOUR RECENT DISCUSSION PIQUED INTEREST IN AREAS THAT HAVE "NOT BEEN PREVIOUSLY TREATED," INCLUDING THE FACT THAT ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD ON THREE LEVELS IN JUNE AND THAT ELECTION ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS HAVE BEEN RELAXED.

WE WOULD REFER YOU TO JAKARTA 6582 (DECEMBER 30, 1998). THE SUMMARY SAID "IN CONTRAST, THE DECISIONS TO HOLD NATIONAL, PROVINCIAL AND LOCAL ELECTIONS AT THE SAME TIME, AND TO RELAX RESTRICTIONS ON THE PARTICIPATION OF POLITICAL PARTIES IN THE ELECTION, WILL LIKELY BE RECEIVED FAVORABLY." THERE WAS AN ENTIRE SUB-SECTION ON "TIMING OF THE NATIONAL, PROVINCIAL, AND LOCAL ELECTIONS" AS WELL AS ONE ON "REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTY PARTICIPATION IN ELECTION LOOSENED."

5. (U) GINANDJAR VISIT OQ----------

TO CONFIRM EARLIER E-MAIL NOTIFICATIONS, COORDINATING MINISTER GINANDJAR WILL NOT BE VISITING WASHINGTON ON SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 13, AFTER ALL.

6. (U) NURCHOLISH MADJID/CORRUPTION CONFERENCE

DR. NURCHOLISH MADJID, CHAIR OF "TEAM 11" WHICH IS VETTING POLITICAL PARTIES TO DETERMINE WHICH QUALIFY TO PARTICIPATE IN THE JUNE 7 ELECTION, WILL BE IN WASHINGTON FEBRIARY 23-26 TO ATTEND THE VICE PRESIDENT'S CONFERENCE ON FIGHTING CORRUPTION, TAKING PLACE AT STATE. MADJID WILL PARTICIPATE IN A FEBRUARY 25 PANEL DISCUSSION WITH REPRESENTATIVES OF WORLD RELIGIONS ON THE ROLE OF RELIGIOUS VALUES IN FIGHTING CORRUPTION. THAT PANEL IS TENTATIVELY SCHEDULED TO BEGIN AT 1145 (LUNCH FOLLOWS AT 1330). AT 1515 THE SAME DAY, THE PANEL OF RELIGIOUS LEADERS WILL SPEAK AT AMERICAN UNIVERSITY'S SCHOOL OF PHILOSOPHY AND RELIGION. IF YOU WANT TO TRY TO SCHEDULE AN APPOINTMENT WITH HIM, PLEASE ADVISE. THE USIA CONTACT OFFICER WHO IS ARRANGING THE VISIT IS

RICHARD WERKSMAN, 202/619-6983. USIA'S INDONESIA DESK OFFICER, BRUCE BYERS, 202/619-5836, IS ALSO AWARE OF THIS VISIT.

IN THE MEANTIME, WE'RE DOING WHAT WE CAN TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE GOI PLANS TO SEND AN OFFICIAL DELEATION TO THE VP'S CONFERENCE.

7. (U) STREEB VISIT

STREEB MIGHT USEFULLY SEE THE FOLLOWING:

-- NURCHOLISH MAJID AND OTHER MEMBERS OF TEAM 11, CHARGED WITH THE EARLY PHASE OF ELECTION PREPARATION. THIS IS A TEAM OF NOTABLES WHICH WILL FUNCTION UNTIL THE OFFICIAL ELECTION COMMISSION FORMS.

-- MULIYA LUBIS, HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYER AND ACADEMIC WHO IS PUTTING TOGETHER A STUDENT-BASED ELECTION MONITORING EFFORT WHICH, IF IT GETS OFF THE GROUND, WILL LIKELY BE THE LARGEST SINGLE MONITORING EFFORT.

-- RYAAS RASHID, KEY MAN IN THE HOME AFFAIRS MINISTRY WHO HAS DONE MUCH OF THE DRAFTING AND NEGOTIATING ON THE ELECTION LAWS.

-- U.S. NGO EXPERTS ALREADY WORKING ON THE ELECTION (E.G., IFES, NDI, IRI, ETC).

-- UNDP OFFICIALS

-- HE WOULD PRESUMABLY ALSO WISH TO TOUCH BASE WITH AID AND THE POL SECTION.

SEPARATELY, ABDURRAHMAN WAHID HAS TOLD A/S ROTH HE INTENDS TO FORM A TRUTH COMMISSION AND HOPES THAT THE FORMER PRESIDENT WOULD BE AMONG PROMINENT INTERNATIONAL FIGURES WHO WOULD PARTICIPATE. THIS MAY BE A NON-STARTER, BUT IT MIGHT BE USEFUL FOR STREEB TO SEE GUS DUR -- ALTHOUGH AS WE EXPECT HE MAY BE HAVING EYE SURGERY IN EUROPE AND LEAVING HERE O/A FEBRUARY 13, THIS MIGHT NOT BE POSSIBLE. STREEB COULD MEET WITH SOMEONE FROM HIS STAFF, HOWEVER. WE WILL EXPLORE THIS IF STREEB IS INTERESTED IN SUCH A MEETING.

8. (C) EAST TIMOR

AT PRESS TIME WORD WAS JUST REACHING JAKARTA OF THE GOI'S REPORTED AGREEMENT TO A VOTING EXERCISE IN EAST TIMOR ON THE AUTONQ THE LOCAL TV NEWS IS REPORTING IT AS GOI AGREEMENT TO A "REFERENDUM," BUT GOI OFFICIALS MAINTAIN THAT THIS WILL NOT BE A REFERENDUM BUT A "PUNGUTAN SUARA" OR "TAKING OF THE VOTE" (SEEMINGLY A MINOR DISTINCTION). A SPOKESMAN FOR MEGAWATI'S PDI HAS REACTED TO THE AGREEMENT BY REITERATING THE PDI'S OPPOSITION TO EAST TIMOR INDEPENDENCE, ARGUING THAT HABIBIE DOES NOT HAVE THE LEGITIMACY TO MAKE SUCH A DECISION. MEANWHILE, THE NEW PORTUGUESE INTEREST SECTION HERE TELLS US THE FOLLOWING: LISBON AND JAKARTA HAVE AGREED THAT THE UN WILL PRESENT AN AUTONOMY PROPOSAL FOR A "BALLOT CONSULTATION" IN AUGUST IN EAST TIMOR, WHICH WILL BE CONDUCTED BY THE UN. THE LISBON DIPS INSIST THAT LISBON HAS NOT AND WILL NOT APPROVE THE PROPOSAL UNLESS AND UNTIL IT IS APPROVED BY THE EAST TIMORESE IN THE AUGUST "CONSULTATION."

WE HAVE NOT HAD A CHANCE TO RUN THIS BY DEPLU AND SALVADOR SOARES WAS UNAWARE OF THE GOI POSITION IN NEW YORK (HE HAS BEEN IN DILI DURING THE LAST WEEK TRYING, IN VAIN, TO SAVE HIS POSITION IN PARLIAMENT). RECOMMEND YOU AWAIT A FORMAL USUN ACCOUNT BUT WANTED TO SHARE INFORMALLY WHAT WE ARE HEARING AS THIS VERSION HAS BEEN PASSED TO A NUMBER OF EMBASSIES.

SUBJECT: Indonesian Electoral Assistance and the EU

Stan,

Our Mission in Brussels reports that the European Commission will make the maximum contribution it is administratively able to at this time, 2 million euro (roughly $2.3 million), in support of the Indonesian elections. Commission reps. have indicated that their hands are administratively tied in terms of the amount they can independently authorize because bilateral financial/technical assistance with less than 12 months advance preparation must come from the Commission's "emergency" fund. The maximum the Commission can contribute from this fund for any one purpose is 2 million euros. The Indonesia folks at the Commission have informally voiced their frustration with this policy, and the way in which it is tying the Commission's hands vis-a-vis Indonesia.

The European Commission's Human Rights and Asia Committees met today to further discuss these issues. We understand that, in addition to the 2 million euro contribution, the Commission has proposed that member states consider authorizing an additional 2-3 million euro ($2.3-3.46 million) contribution out of the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) budget. This would require member

CLOSED DOOR NEGOTIATIONS AMONG THE MAJOR PLAYERS CONTINUED, HOWEVER. AMIEN RAIS ACCOMPANIED BY SEVERAL HUNDRED MEMBERS OF HIS NATIONAL MANDATE PARTY (PAN) HELD A "DIALOGUE" WITH MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT ON JANUARY 25 AT WHICH HE RAISED CONCERNS ABOUT THE THREE MAJOR OUTSTANDING CONTENTIOUS ISSUES -- THE NUMBER OF APPOINTED MILITARY SEATS IN THE DPR, THE TYPE OF ELECTION SYSTEM TO BE USED, AND THE POLITICAL ROLE OF CIVIL SERVANTS -- AS WELL AS THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE ON THE FUTURE ELECTION COMMISSION AND "MONEY POLITICS." PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTION, BUT WOULD SIMPLY "GIVE ADVICE," WITH THE GOVERNMENT MAKING THE DECISION ABOUT WHAT PARTIES MAY PARTICIPATE IN THE ELECTION. END SUMMARY

PPP EXPRESSES ITS DISPLEASURE WITH POLITICAL BILLS

3. (U) THE PARLIAMENT (DPR) WAS SET TO RESUME ITS FORMAL DELIBERATION OF THE POLITICAL BILLS IN THE "SPECIAL COMMITTEE" (PANSUS) ON JANUARY 25, BUT WAS FORCED TO PUT OFF THE SESSION AFTER THE ISLAMIC "UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY" (PPP) MEMBERS REFUSED TO ENTER THE MEETING ROOM. ACCORDING TO ONE PPP MP QUOTED IN THE INDONESIAN LANGUAGE DAILY KOMPAS, PPP DID NOT WANT TO ENTER BECAUSE IT FEARED THAT A VOTE WOULD BE TAKEN IN THE PANSUS ON THE OUTSTANDING CONTENTIOUS ISSUES, AND IT DID NOT WANT TO BEAR ANY RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE OUTCOME OF THIS VOTE. WHILE PPP MEMBERS ASSERTED PUBLICLY THAT THIS MOVE HAD THE BLESSING OF PARTY LEADER HAMZAH HAZ, THEY ALSO WERE CAREFUL TO INSIST THAT PPP HAD NOT CARRIED OUT A "WALK OUT" BECAUSE THEY HAD NEVER ENTERED THE ROOM. THE PANSUS MEETING WAS QUICKLY ADJOURNED, BUT WAS FOLLOWED BY A CLOSED MEETING OF THE GOVERNMENT REPRESENTATIVES, INCLUDING MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS LT. GENERAL SYARWAN HAMID, AND DPR FACTION LEADERS (INCLUDING PPP FACTION LEADERS).

AMIEN RAIS AND PARTY RAISE CONCERNS AT THE PARLIAMENT

4. (U) AS ANTICIPATED (REFTEL), AMIEN RAIS LED A DELEGATION OF SEVERAL HUNDRED NATIONAL MANDATE PARTY (PAN) MEMBERS TO PARLIAMENT ON JANUARY 25 TO RAISE CONCERNS ABOUT THE PENDING POLITICAL BILLS. SOURCES IN THE DPR HAVE DESCRIBED IT TO US AS A "DIALOGUE," RATHER THAN A DEMONSTRATION. THE GROUP WAS RECEIVED BY MEMBERS OF THE PANSUS, INCLUDING THE CHAIRMAN ABU HASAN SADZIL (GOLKAR) AND REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ABRI, INDONESIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDI, GOVERNMENT FACTION) AND UNITED DEVELOPMENT PARTY.

5. (U) RAIS AND HIS GROUP FOCUSSED ON THE THREE OUTSTANDING CONTENTIOUS ISSUES (REFTEL) -- THE NUMBER OF APPOINTED SEATS IN THE DPR, THE BASIS OF THE ELECTION SYSTEM, AND THE POLITICAL ROLE OF CIVIL SERVANTS -- AS WELL AS THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE ON THE ELECTION COMMISSION AND "MONEY POLITICS."

-- ABRI IN THE DPR: PAN CONTENDED THAT ABRI SHOULD RECEIVE NO MORE THAT 15 APPOINTED SEATS IN THE DPR, AND THAT THESE MEMBERS SHOULD NOT HAVE VOTING RIGHTS BECAUSE THEY WERE NOT ELECTED. THE PARTY ARGUED THAT ABRI SHOULD RECEIVE NO APPOINTED SEATS IN THE PROVINCIAL AND DISTRICT LEVEL LEGISLATURES.

-- NEUTRALITY OF CIVIL SERVANTS: PAN URGED THAT A SEPARATE GOVERNMENT REGULATION MANDATING THE NEUTRALITY OF CIVIL SERVANTS BE ISSUED PRIOR TO PASSAGE OF THE POLITICAL LAWS. (NOTE: ACCORDING PRESS REPORTS, IT WAS POSSIBLE THAT THIS WOULD BE CARRIED OUT AS EARLY AS SOON AS JANUARY 26)

-- ELECTION SYSTEM TO BE USED: PAN URGED THAT A PROPORTIONAL ELECTION SYSTEM BE BASED ON PROVINCES (PPP POSITION) RATHER THAN THE REGENCIES (GOLKAR/ABRI POSITION) BE USED.

Printed By: Robert J. Clarke

-- GOVERNMENT ROLE ON ELECTION COMMISSION: PAN INSISTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD SERVE ONLY AS A FACILITATOR OF THE ELECTION AND THAT THE ELECTION PARTICIPANTS SHOULD BE IN CHARGE. THIS IS IN CONTRAST TO THE CURRENT PLAN THAT ENVISAGES THE GOVERNMENT AND POLITICAL PARTIES SHARING AN EQUAL ROLE ON THE NEW ELECTION COMMISSION.

-- MONEY POLITICS: PAN URGED THAT TOUGH SANCTIONS BE PUT INTO EFFECT TO COMBAT THE USE OF MONEY TO INFLUENCE THE ELECTION.

5. (U) RAIS WAS QUOTED IN THE PRESS AS SAYING THAT "IF THE HOUSE REFUSES TO INSERT OUR RECOMMENDATION INTO THE POLITICAL BILLS, THAT MEANS WE ARE DEFEATED POLITICALLY, BUT PEOPLE WILL KNOW THAT WE WON A MORAL VICTORY."

FORMATION OF ELEVEN-MEMBER ELECTION TEAM

6. (U) AS REPORTED REFTEL A, THE GOVERNMENT IS FORMING AN ELEVEN-MEMBER TEAM WHOSE MANDATE WILL BE RELATED TO THE FORMATION OF THE NEW ELECTION COMMISSION TO BE ESTABLISHED BY THE POLITICAL LAWS. A MEMBER OF THE HOME AFFAIRS MINISTRY'S GROUP THAT DRAFTED THE GOVERNMENT'S VERSION OF THE POLITICAL LAWS WAS REPORTED WIDELY IN THE PRESS ON JANUARY 25 AS SIGNALLING THAT THE TEAM'S MAJOR RESPONSIBILITY WOULD BE TO DETERMINE WHICH POLITICAL PARTIES MET THE REQUIREMENTS FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE UPCOMING ELECTION (ONLY SUCH PARTIES CAN BECOME MEMBERS OF THE PERMANENT NEW ELECTION COMMISSION.) NUMEROUS PROMINENT, INDEPENDENT FIGURES WERE FLOATED IN THE PRESS AS TEAM MEMBERS, INCLUDING HUMAN RIGHTS LAWYERS MULYA LUBIS AND ADNAN BUYUNG NASUTION, FORMER HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION MEMBER MIRIAM BUDIARDJO, MUSLIM INTELLECTUAL NURCHOLIS MADJID, FORMER SUPREME COURT JUSTICE ANDI ANDOYO, INDEPENDENT ELECTION MONITORING COMMITTEE LEADER MULYANAH KUSUMAH, NGO LEADER KASTORIUS SINAGA, ACADEMIC AFFAN GAFAR (PART OF GOVERNMENT TEAM THAT DRAFTED LAWS), ASSOCIATION OF MUSLIM STUDENTS LEADER ANA URBANINGRUM, AND UNIVERSITY OF INDONESIA STUDENT LEADER RAMA PRATMA.

7. (U) SEVERAL OF THESE INDIVIDUALS HAVE CONFIRMED TO US THAT THEY WILL BE MEMBERS OF THE TEAM. THEIR MANDATE, HOWEVER, REMAINS UNCLEAR. HOME AFFAIRS MINISTER SYARWAN HAMID WAS QUOTED PUBLICLY BY THE JANUARY 26 INDONESIAN OBSERVER AS SAYING THAT "THE TEAM (OF ELEVEN) HAS NOT AUTHORITY TO DECIDE WHICH POLITICAL PARTIES WILL BE PERMITTED TO PARTICIPATE IN THE NEXT GENERAL ELECTION. IT WILL MERELY GIVE ADVICE ABOUT WHICH OF THE NATIONAL POLITICAL PARTIES FULFILL (ELECTION) REQUIREMENTS STATED IN THE POLITICAL LAWS NOW BEING DISCUSSED BY THE PARLIAMENT...THE GOVERNMENT WILL MAKE THE FINAL DECISIONS."

REGISTRATION FOR THE CONSULTATION APPEARS TO HAVE GONE RELATIVELY SMOOTHLY SO FAR. HOWEVER, BRIEFINGS PROVIDED TO A/S ROTH BY UNAMET OFFICIALS AND OTHER CONTACTS PAINT A GRIM PICTURE OF THE EXTENT TO WHICH INTIMIDATION AND FEAR HAVE MADE AN IMPACT ON THE POPULACE, AND UN

OFFICIALS ON THE GROUND HAVE EXPRESSEO RESERVATIONS AND UNCERTAINTY REGARDING THE CONSULTATION PROCESS. THERE ARE PARTICULAR FEARS THAT DISTURBANCES MAY EMERGE FROM COMMEMORATIONS OF "INTEGRASI (INTEGRATION) DAY" ON JULY 17. END SUMMARY.

FIRST OAY OF REGISTRATION

3. (C) EAP A/S ROTH, AMBASSADOR, EAP CONGRESSIONAL LIAISON, AND POLOFF ARE CONDUCTING A THREE OAY VISIT TO EAST TIMOR (JULY 15-17). CONVERSATIONS WITH A/S ROTH'S PARTY, CURRENTLY IN DILI, INDICATE THAT JULY 16, THE FIRST DAY OF REGISTRATION FOR UN-ADMINISTERED CONSULTATION ON THE FUTURE POLITICAL STATUS OF THE TERRITORY, SET FOR LATE AUGUST, HAS GONE RELATIVELY SMOOTHLY. ON JULY 16, A/S ROTH AND PARTY TRAVELED BY UNAMET HEIJCOPTER TO SUAI IN SOUTHEAST EAST TIMOR AND MALIANA ON THE EASTERN FRINGE OF THE TERRITORY. A/S ROTH AND PARTY ALSO TRAVELED BY ROAD TO LIQUICIA, SITE OF SOME OF THE WORST VIOLENCE IN EAST TIMOR IN RECENT MONTHS. IN EACH PLACE, REGISTRATION OPERATIONS APPEARED TO BE GOING RELATIVELY SMOOTHLY, WITH 50-150 CITIZENS OBSERVED REGISTERING AT DESIGNATED SITES. WHILE IT IS TOO EARLY TO PROCLAIM A "GOOD TURNOUT" FOR REGISTRATION, EARLIER TALK OF A SIGNIFICANT BOYCOTT NOW APPEARS UNFOUNDED, POLOFF OPINED. A/S ROTH AND PARTY ORSERVED SOME SIGNS OF INTIMIDATION: A SKULL AND CROSS BONES WERE PAINTED ON THE DOOR OF ONE REGISTRATION STATION IN LIQUICIA, AND THERE WERE VARIOUS REPORTS OF MILITIA MEMBERS LOITERING IN THE VICINITY OF THE REGISTRATION SITES, AS WELL AS OTHER ACCOUNTS OF MINOR OBSTRUCTIONISM. POLOFF TRAVELLING WITH A/S ROTH OPINED THAT THE DOMINANT THEME WAS THE RELATIVE NORMALITY OF THE FIRST DAY OF REGISTRATION AND THE LACK OF ANY SERIOUS VIOLENT INCIDENTS, PARTICULARLY IN PROBLEMATIC SPOTS LIKE LIQUICIA, SUAI, AND MALIANA.

GRIM MOOD AMONG UNAMET STAFF

4. (C) A/S ROTH ANO PARTY WERE BRIEFED JULY 15 BY SENIOR UNAMET STAFF IN DILI. THE OVERALL MOOD OF THE UN OFFICIALS WAS GRIM. THE STAFF INDICATED THAT UN OFFICIALS ENJOY GOOD FORMAL RELATIONSHIPS WITH THEIR INDONESIAN COUNTERPARTS BUT THAT ASSURANCES OF SECURITY AND COOPERATION THEY RECEIVE ARE STILL NOT BEING FULLY TRANSLATED INTO DEEDS. CONTRARY TO INDONESIAN CLAIMS, UN STAFFERS SAID, LOGISTICAL ISSUES ARE NOT IMPEDING PREPARATIONS FOR THE CONSULTATION. THE PROBLEM, ACCORDING TO UNAMET'S ANALYSIS, IS THE DEGREE TO WHICH GOI-SPONSORED MILITIAS HAVE SUCCEEDED IN INTIMIDATING THE GENERAL PUBLIC. PRO-INDEPENDENCE SUPPORTERS HAVE BEEN TOO AFRAID TO CAMPAIGN, OR EVEN TO COME OUT OF HIDING. UNAMET PERSONNEL MEETING WITH A/S ROTH AND PARTY PRIVATELY EXPRESSED UNCERTAINTY OVER WHETHER THE CONSULTATION COULD BE CARRIED OUT UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES. ALTHOUGH UNAMET STAFF STATED THEY WERE SOMEWHAT MORE CONFIDENT ABOUT THEIR OWN SECURITY THAN THEY HAD BEEN LAST WEEK, UNAMET CONTINUES TO RECEIVE THREATS FROM PRO-INTEGRATIONISTS VIA TELEPHONE, RADIO, AND IN PERSON.

FEARS ABOUT "INTEGRASI DAY"

5. (SBU) FEARS ARE WIOESPREAD OF UNREST ASSOCIATED WITH COMMEMORATIONS OF "INTEGRASI (INTEGRATION) DAY" SET FOR JULY . UNAMET STAFF STATED THEY MAY NEED TO POSTPONE REGISTRATION IN BALIBO, AN INTEGRATIONIST STRONGHOLO, AND ELSEWHERE IN EAST TIMOR, IF THE MILITIA-ORGANIZED COMMEMORATIONS APPEAR TOO ROWDY OR AGGRESSIVE.

MILITIA MEMBER KILLED

6. (SBU) A MEMBER OF THE "MAHIDI" PRO-INTEGRATION MILITIA WAS KILLED JULY 15, APPARENTLY AS HE WAS PARTICIPATING IN A MAHIDI ATTACK ON THE VILLAGE OF ZUMALAI. POLOFF PREDICTED THAT THE DEATH WILI, RE DEPICTEO BY MAHIDI AS AN ATTACK BY ARMED PRO-INDEPENDENCE SUPPORTERS, ALTHOUGH OTHER REPORTS SUGGEST THAT THE INDIVIDUAL WAS KILLED BY OTHER PRO-INTEGRATIONISTS, AS PART OF AN INTRA-MILITIA DISPUTE.

7. (SBU) SINCE OUR CONVERSATION WITH A/S ROTH'S PARTY IN DILI, WE HAVE RECEIVEO MEDIA REPORTS OF SEVERAL ATTACKS AGAINST REGISTRATION STATIONS CARRIED OUT BY THE "MAHIDI" PRO-INTEGRATION MILITIA (NFI).

Press Conference by Stanley O. Roth
Assistant Secretary of State for East Asia and Pacific Affairs
Wednesday, July 14, 1999
U.S. Embassy, Jakarta, Indonesia

Good evening. Let me apologize in advance for my voice. I appear to be in the early stages of a cold, but we will do the best that we can. I am delighted to be back in Indonesia. I believe it's now the 13th trip, although I'm starting to lose count, since I was appointed Assistant Secretary almost two years ago. Not surprisingly, I had two primary topics on my mind when I came here. One was to update myself on the status of the elections, and the second was to get a better understanding of the situation in East Timor, and in fact to visit East Timor for the first time in 18 or 19 years. I haven't been there since the early 1980s and thought that this was a good moment to get updated on that situation.

In a sense, I'm doing this press conference at the halfway point, because I have not yet been to East Timor. I've only been here for about two days and completed my government meetings in Jakarta. And so, I will be less than definitive in my conclusions about East Timor since I have not yet seen the situation for myself. But while I've been here, I have been very fortunate to have had excellent access to senior officials within the Indonesian Government. I had a long session of more than two hours yesterday with President Habibie. I had a lengthy discussion today with Foreign Minister Alatas. I had a discussion with General Wiranto, the Defense Minister, spent some time with Coordinating Minister Ginandjar yesterday, and I have had several good conversations as well with leaders of the opposition including Megawati and Gus Dur. So, even though I've been here a brief time, I think I have had a pretty good start. In terms of my trip to East Timor, the schedule is still in some flux in terms of the precise meetings, but it is my intent to meet a range of individuals reflecting the many different viewpoints on the island itself and not just to see one element, and my hope is to get out of Dili as well and see at least one or two other points on the island, so that I can make the best possible assessment of the situation there.

Let me make a general observation and then comment on each of the two topics that I have highlighted. I think, first, that there is a relationship between the two issues in one sense -- elections and East Timor. I think the electoral situation is one which has brought great credit thus far to the government and to the people of Indonesia because the elections have been conducted peacefully and thus far have gone very well, although obviously they have not yet been brought to conclusion, which I will discuss. But I think that the fact that there was such a large turnout and such an expression for democracy, and the fact that it was achieved with so little violence, were very positive steps. And this has enhanced Indonesia's stature worldwide and has been a credit to everyone involved.

The issue of East Timor, I think, is related in this sense: If, after more than 20 years of conflict, it can be brought to a successful conclusion, and if the parties, including the Government of Indonesia, can implement the UN agreement successfully and in a credible fashion, then I think that, too, will reflect very well on Indonesia, and that Indonesia's international stature will be enhanced. So I think there is a major incentive for the government to try to make this agreement work. Now, let me comment a little bit more on the two issues that I have flagged.

With respect to the election, there has been significant change even since I left the United States last week. When I left the United States, I was concerned because the count appeared to be frozen somewhere in the 60% range where it had been for many weeks. And it was unclear to me what steps were necessary to get the count completed and to move on with the process. I am pleased that by the time that I actually arrived here, a fact that has absolutely nothing to do with me, that procedures have been worked out to proceed with the count. And I have been informed that in 24 of 27 provinces basically the count is completed. There is almost 90% of the vote in, and that the general breakdowns are basically the same as we've seen all along suggesting that the delay has not in fact been an opportunity for tampering with the vote or changing the outcome in any way, but rather due, as was suggested all along, to technical factors relating to the procedural difficulties rather than to malfeasance. I've been informed also by General Rudini, with whom I met with today, that he hopes the election results will be finalized next week, on the 21st, as has been previously stated. Although that was not an absolute commitment, he did express his strong desire, and so I think that is a positive development.

Obviously, it is a two-step process, and the election process is not over even though a significant milestone has been passed. One of the issues I wanted to discuss was the question of how do we proceed from here. And I had extensive discussions about some of the crucial procedural issues. Obviously, given the fact that no candidate or no party received a majority, or even close to a majority, there is going to have to be some type of coalition arrangement in order to form a government. And, under the circumstances, the 200 appointed seats -- the 65 functional seats and the 135 seats from the local legislatures -- will be very crucial in helping to put together a coalition.

I wanted to get a better understanding of that process and how it would take place. I received assurances from government officials that this would be an impartial process subject to criteria, that it would not be used simply to have 200 seats fall into the lap of one particular party so as to somehow change the outcome of the election, that the individual legislatures at the provincial level be allowed to select their own people, that the KPU will select functional groups but the groups will select their own representatives, and so the procedures seem designed to allow for impartiality and to ensure that the 200 seats will not be a bloc. But we have a saying in English, that the proof of the pudding is in the eating. So, obviously we have to see the actual arrangements and who these 200 people are before anything can be said authoritatively about the process. But I think there is widespread recognition within the government of the significance of these seats and how they are allocated. I believe that the government is aware that both the people of Indonesia and the international community are scrutinizing this closely, and the opposition figures are, of course, highly seized of the importance of this issue and watching the process, although they did not register complaints with me at this stage about the process.

With respect to East Timor, as I've indicated on many previous occasions in Indonesia, I think there is an historic process underway, which after more than 20 years holds out the possibility of a resolution through the UN agreement and through the voting process or consultation that will hopefully take place in August. And this, of course, is a major change from where the situation has been in past years. At the same time, I must say that I also came to express my concerns about some of the difficulties that have emerged, some very serious difficulties, including the attacks which you are all familiar with on three different UNAMET facilities in East Timor, including the failure thus far to establish a secure environment for the people of East Timor and the fact that there have been numerous reports of support for militia groups by elements of the military, and that thus far it has not been possible to state that a secure environment exists. I obviously come here shortly after the decision was taken by the United Nations to temporarily delay by several weeks the holding of the election to try to obtain a more secure environment. Of course, there have been many developments just within the past week, including Ambassador Marker's trip here, Ian Martin, the head of UNAMET, meeting with General Wiranto, and the very important meeting in which, I think, 13 or 14 members of the Indonesian cabinet visited Dili this past Monday, which I think was an important demonstration of the government's concern about the situation.

While these developments are in themselves encouraging and suggest that the government wants to see the agreement work, which is all the officials assured me, obviously what matters is the situation on the ground itself. Is there an improvement in the security situation? We're going to have to wait and see, and, in fact, this is one of the reasons I am going there myself for the next two days, because I want to make my own assessment about the situation on the ground so that I can report to senior U.S. officials. So, I think we are at a moment where the United Nations is about to make an important decision. And that decision is whether or not the registration process can begin on Friday of this week. That is, I emphasize, the United Nations' decision and not an American decision. And so I cannot make any pronouncement on that point, although I do wish to state that I thought it quite significant that when I met with Xanana Gusmao today, he indicated his own hope that the registration process would begin on schedule this week, so that if possible a delay in the process could be avoided, although I should add, he made it very clear that this beginning of registration should not be interpreted as a final decision that all is well on East Timor, and that the process could continue to conclusion, but rather was an effort to keep the process moving while an effort was made to improve the situation on the ground. There would have to be a later determination in his view as to whether the conditions existed to finish the process and hold the referendum or vote as scheduled. This again is a UN decision, and I cannot speak for the United Nations as to what decision will be made later this week. I think the decision is relatively imminent.

Why don't I stop at this point and open it up to your questions.

Q: I just wanted to get your views about the sincerity of the Indonesian Government in relation to restoring the security situation and having a fair and free ballot, especially your view about the military's sincerity following your meeting with General Wiranto.

Roth: Well, I haven't come here to give a report card nor to point fingers. I have come here to look for results. And the question is quite clear, what is the situation on the ground? Are there any, you know, any additional attacks on UNAMET facilities or does the situation become more secure? Is UNAMET able to move out of the eight regional centers to open up the 200 registration centers across East Timor so that they can begin the process of registration, coming up with an accurate list? Is there a cessation of violent activity by the militia groups and an end to the climate of intimidation? Are the IDPs, the internally displaced people, allowed to return home, allowed to register, allowed to participate without fear? I think one has to look at the question of results. One has to look at where the people are punished for some of the intimidation that has taken place, whether all parties are able to campaign equally so that there is a fair process. There are many concrete indicators and, as I said, since I haven't gone there yet, it is a little premature for me to share my impressions with you or pass judgment at this point. But those are the types of things I will be looking at.

Q: I have two questions. The first question is, is it right that you bring a letter from Madeleine Albright and Kofi Annan and what is it about? And is there any special message from Kofi Annan and Albright, especially on East Timor? Second question: Is there any plan, after the attacks on UNAMET, or any US Government plan or recommendation to send peacekeeping troops to East Timor? Thanks.

Roth: First, let me state categorically, I have brought no letters, not from the Secretary of State, not from the United Nations, or any official of the U.S. Government. I came here in my stature as Assistant Secretary of State as part of a regular process, as I mentioned. But I am not bearing special letters and I am not here as an emissary. In terms of the attacks on UNAMET, I think my government has spoken very clearly expressing our sharp disapproval of what happened. We have emphasized the point that the Government of Indonesia insisted in the negotiations in New York on having responsibility for the security of the consultation that was going to take place; therefore, it has to live up to the obligation it asked for. And that's what we are looking for. But it is an Indonesian job to provide for the security. The United Nations is there as advisors; that is their role. They are not conducting the peacekeeping. Indonesia is responsible for security, and there is no American plan to introduce peacekeepers.

Q: If Indonesia fails to guarantee security in East Timor, what kind of action can we expect from the U.S. and the international community against Indonesia if the vote has to be delayed again?

Roth: As always it's difficult for me to respond to a hypothetical question except in the most general of terms. What I tried to say in my opening remarks was that East Timor represents a potential opportunity for Indonesia to demonstrate just how much Indonesia has changed from the government of the past, and that, you know, if Indonesia can demonstrate that it is committed to a fair resolution of this issue, that that will redound to the government's credit and to the credit of the people of Indonesia and there will be positive consequences. If the opposite is the case, and the agreement falls apart, and it is viewed to be the failure of the Government of Indonesia, I think it will obviously have consequences too in terms of Indonesia's reputation and in terms of the closeness in the relationship between Indonesia and a number of countries around the world including my own. But without having the specifics and without wanting getting into different scenarios, I can't get into any greater detail.

Q: Was the issue of disbanding the militias been discussed in your talks with General Wiranto? What seems to be the problem there, in not disbanding the militias?

Roth: Yes, I did discuss that topic extensively both with General Wiranto, also with Xanana Gusmao. In one sense, the problem is, who goes first? You know, each side is concerned that if it surrenders its arms and the other side doesn't, that they will be placed at a comparative disadvantage. There are also the complex details of surrender arms to whom. Is it surrendering arms, or laying down arms, which is something different. There is a question of, does either side have total control of forces, and can they speak for all people, and so, who would implement such an agreement? So, there are many details to be worked out. But each of them expressed an interest in seeing this take place, indicating that it was an important part of the process, and it's certainly something that the United States would support. It seems to me that this is something that needs to be worked on by the Commission for Peace and Stability, or by some other mechanism, maybe through the Dare process, but that there are lots of creative opportunities for carrying this out if the two parties want to see it happen.

Q: Did you discuss the situation in Aceh with General Wiranto?

Roth: No, not this time. The discussion today focused overwhelmingly on East Timor, although I must say that the situation in Aceh remains of significant concern to the United States. We are concerned about the increasing violence that has been witnessed there, increasing in tension, and I believe one of the challenges that will face the next government of Indonesia, regardless of who is at the top, will be to try to bring the situation in Aceh to a peaceful resolution without a major loss of life. That will be a significant effort, but I believe it is essential that it be undertaken.

Q: What is your response to Mr. Alatas' statement yesterday that UNAMET seems to be biased, and that it recruited some local staff from pro-independence (groups)? Any comments on this?

Roth: I have been very candid in all my conversations with officials here to indicate that it is simply not acceptable to blame the United Nations or UNAMET for the problems; that the United Nations has great experience in many places and many continents around the world in carrying out operations of this type; that the people involved are overwhelmingly professionals who have been in many difficult situations before; and that, leaving aside the question of whether or not UNAMET has behaved perfectly, it is clear that the primary problem does not relate to the activities of UNAMET, and that that should not be the focus of concern. The real focus of concern should be getting the violence under control. And that, primarily, at this stage means the militias. Although, again, I emphasize the United States has condemned violence by all parties.

Q: Can you give us any details of your meeting with Megawati, and particularly whether she feels entitled to the presidency, and what she makes of the campaign that suggests a woman cannot be president in Indonesia?

Roth: No, I think that she has spoken for herself and doesn't need me to speak for her. Obviously, our conversation focused primarily on the electoral process itself. She obviously believes that she received a very significant mandate by virtue of the plurality where she was far ahead of the next largest candidate. And, you know, she has made public statements to this effect and I would rather let her speak for herself.

Q: In your talks with Megawati did you get a sense that there was going to be a policy reversal on East Timor should she become president? Secondly, in all your talks, to what did you get a sense that there is a twin track being pursued in East Timor between the military on the one hand and what President Habibie is hoping to achieve in East Timor?

Roth: On the first point, my clear impression from my conversation was that if the UN process had played itself out prior to the point at which, you know, if she were selected, chosen, through the MPR process as president, that she would abide by the results. And so, there is not an intent to reverse the process.

On the second, I would say definitely not: no sense that there was a two-track policy with a split between the military and other officials. And, in fact, there were very similar comments from all the people I spoke with: the president, the foreign minister, the defense minister, about Indonesian policy, identical commitments by all of them in terms of their commitment to the process working out, to wanting to see the agreement enforced. I did not pick up a sense of differences.

INFORMAL MEETING ON NOVEMBER 10, 11 OR 12. I UNDERSTAND THAT THIS TIME FRAME MAY FIT THE PRESIDENT'S SCHEDULE.

3. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID (GUS DUR) HAS DEMONSTRATED THAT HE IS WELL-DISPOSED TOWARD THE UNITED STATES AND WILLING (EAGER) TO SEEK AND TAKE OUR ADVICE. I HAVE BEEN SUCCESSFUL IN REORIENTING HIM, FOR EXAMPLE, AWAY FROM HIS INITIAL IDEA OF MAKING CHINA HIS FIRST FOREIGN TRIP. INSTEAD, HE IS FIRST MEETING WITH HIS ASEAN COUNTERPARTS AND PLANS TO VISIT THE U.S. -- BEFORE VISITING JAPAN, CHINA, AND THE MIDDLE EAST. EVEN A SHORT, INFORMAL MEETING IN WASHINGTON WOULD REINFORCE HIS SOUND INSTINCTS AND SEND A STRONG SYMBOLIC MESSAGE OF SUPPORT AND COOPERATION BETWEEN THE WORLD'S SECOND AND THIRD LARGEST DEMOCRACIES. IT WOULD PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY TO SHOWCASE GUS DUR AND INDONESIA TO THE AMERICAN PEOPLE AND CONGRESS. HE IS OPEN TO ADDITIONAL

4. (C) AND THERE ARE MANY GOOD THINGS TO SAY ABOUT WAHID'S ADMINISTRATION IN ITS FIRST FEW WEEKS: THE IMF TEAM LEFT HERE HAPPY WITH PROGRESS ON ECONOMIC RECOVERY MEASURES, INCLUDING THE RELEASE OF THE BANK BALI SCANDAL DOCUMENTS AND COMMITMENTS TO PROSECUTE THOSE INVOLVED IN CRIMINAL ACTIVITIES. AS WE HAVE REPORTED SEPARATELY, NEISS WILL GIVE A POSITIVE PRESENTATION ON MONDAY TO THE IMF BOARD. WAHID HAS CALLED FOR INVESTIGATIONS INTO HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES IN EAST TIMOR AND ACEH, AND WITH MARZUKI DARUSMAN AS ATTORNEY GENERAL THERE IS EVERY EXPECTATION THAT THESE WILL BE SERIOUS. AS WE HAVE REPORTED, THE INDONESIAN INVESTIGATION INTO EAST TIMOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES IS PROCEEDING ON THE GROUND WITH THE EXPECTATION OF DEVELOPING CASES FOR PROSECUTION BY THE END OF DECEMBER.

CONFIDENTIAL

OFFICE OF THE SPOKESMAN

UNCLASSIFIED

STATEMENT BY JAMES P. RUBIN, SPOKESMAN

INDONESIA/EAST TIMOR -- HOLBROOKE/ROTH TRAVEL

SECRETARY OF STATE MADELEINE K. ALBRIGHT HAS ASKED U.S. AMBASSADOR TO THE UNITED NATIONS RICHARD HOLBROOKE AND ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR EAST ASIAN AND PACIFIC AFFAIRS STANLEY ROTH TO GO TO JAKARTA, WEST TIMOR, AND EAST TIMOR, NOVEMBER 18-22, TO MEET WITH INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT AND UN OFFICIALS AND TO DISCUSS ISSUES RELATED TO THE SITUATION IN EAST TIMOR, INCLUDING UN OPERATIONS IN EAST AND WEST TIMOR.

AMBASSADOR HOLBROOKE AND ASSISTANT SECRETARY ROTH WILL DEPART ON NOVEMBER 18 FOR JAKARTA, WHERE THEY WILL MEET WITH INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS. IN WEST TIMOR THEY WILL VISIT CAMPS FOR DISPLACED PERSONS AND MEET WITH UNHCR REPRESENTATIVES DEALING WITH THAT ISSUE. IN EAST TIMOR, IT IS ANTICIPATED THEY WILL MEET WITH UN TRANSITIONAL ADMINISTRATOR SERGIO DE MELLO, AS WELL AS INTERFET COMMANDER GEN. COSGROVE, AND EAST TIMORESE LEADER XANANA GUSMAO. DETAILS OF THE SCHEDULE ARE STILL BEING WORKED OUT.

4. U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE
OFFICE OF THE SPOKESMAN

STATEMENT BY JAMES P. RUBIN, SPOKESMAN

TIMOR/CHECHNYA: U.S. CONTRIBUTES $40 MILLION TO HUMANITARIAN EMERGENCIES

TODAY THE PRESIDENT HAS AUTHORIZED THE BUREAU OF POPULATION,

UNCLASSIFIED

REFUGEES AND MIGRATION (PRM) THE USE OF $40 MILLION FROM HIS EMERGENCY REFUGEE AND MIGRATION ASSISTANCE FUND (ERMA) TO RESPOND TO THE HUMANITARIAN EMERGENCIES IN NORTH CAUCASUS REGION OF THE RUSSIAN FEDERATION AND TIMOR.

WE WILL PROVIDE $10 MILLION TO RESPOND TO UNEXPECTED URGENT NEEDS ASSOCIATED WITH THE SITUATION IN RUSSIA'S NORTH CAUCASUS REGION. RUSSIA BEARS PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY FOR ADDRESSING HUMANITARIAN NEEDS CREATED BY THE CONFLICT IN CHECHNYA AND MUST ENSURE THAT ALL BORDERS BETWEEN CHECHNYA AND NEIGHBORING REGIONS REMAIN OPEN TO DISPLACED PERSONS. AS MANY AS 200,000 HAVE BEEN DISPLACED BY FIGHTING IN CHECHNYA AND DAGESTAN, AND RUSSIA'S MILITARY RESPONSE TO INSURGENT ATTACKS HAS LED LARGE NUMBERS OF CIVILIANS TO FLEE TO INGUSHETIYA AND OTHER NEIGHBORING AREAS. $3,000,000 OF THESE FUNDS WILL BE PROVIDED IMMEDIATELY TO THE INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE OF THE RED CROSS (ICRC) TO HELP ADDRESS THE MOST URGENT NEEDS. THE BALANCE OF THE FUNDS WILL BE PROVIDED TO OTHER HUMANITARIAN ORGANIZATIONS, MOST NOTABLY THE UN HIGH COMMISSIONER FOR REFUGEES (UNHCR), ABLE TO PROVIDE ASSISTANCE AND PROTECTION TO REFUGEES AND DISPLACED PERSONS IN THE NORTH CAUCASUS.

THE WHITE HOUSE WILL RELEASE A STATEMENT LATER TODAY ON THE REMAINING $30 MILLION THAT WILL BE USED TO RESPOND TO THE NEEDS OF DISPLACED PERSONS IN EAST AND WEST TIMOR.

THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY'S EFFORTS, PRIMARILY THROUGH ICRC AND UNHCR, ARE AN IMPORTANT SUPPLEMENT. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS ESPECIALLY GRATEFUL TO ICRC AND UNHCR FOR THEIR COURAGEOUS EFFORTS IN THE NORTH CAUCASUS AND TIMOR.

THE U.S. GOVERNMENT IS DEEPLY CONCERNED ABOUT THE WELFARE OF THE MANY FAMILIES DISPLACED BY THESE CONFLICTS. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT CALLS ON ALL PARTIES TO SEEK POLITICAL RESOLUTIONS TO THESE CONFLICTS AND TO CEASE THE USE OF FORCE THAT HAS PRODUCED MANY CASUALTIES AND CAUSED PEOPLE TO FLEE.

5. THE FOLLOWING PRESS GUIDANCE WAS PREPARED ON 11/12/1999. STATE DEPARTMENT SPOKESMAN JAMES RUBIN USED THE ANSWER TO THE FIRST QUESTION AT THE PRESS BRIEFING THAT DAY. POSTS MAY DRAW FROM THE REMAINDER ON AN IF ASKED BASIS.

6. NORTHEAST ASIA SECURITY: COMMENTS BY CINCPAC ADM BLAIR

CONTEXT: IN AN INTERVIEW THAT APPEARS IN TODAY'S WASHINGTON TIMES, CINCPAC ADMIRAL BLAIR COMMENTS ON A NUMBER OF NORTHEAST ASIA SECURITY ISSUES. THE STORY SAYS THAT BLAIR CALLED FOR DEPLOYMENT OF THEATER MISSILE DEFENSE (TMD) TO PROTECT U.S. TROOPS FROM A GROWING THREAT FROM NORTH KOREAN AND CHINESE MISSILES, STATED THAT THE U.S. SHOULD HELP TAIWAN BUILD MISSILE DEFENSES, AND REPORTEDLY DISMISSED CHINESE CONCERNS ABOUT SUCH U.S. ASSISTANCE. HE ALSO IS SAID TO HAVE INDICATED THAT WE HAVE INFORMED THE PRC THAT WE WILL DEFEND TAIWAN AGAINST AGGRESSION BY BEIJING, THAT CHINA IS STEALING WEAPONS KNOW-HOW AS PART OF ITS MILITARY MODERNIZATION PROGRAM, THAT THE PRC HAS REPORTEDLY GIVEN A "HEAD-NOD" TO THE RESUMPTION OF MILITARY-TO-MILITARY TALKS, AND THAT HE WANTS TO TALK TO CHINESE MILITARY LEADERS ABOUT A RECOMMENDATION BY TWO PLA COLONELS THAT CHINA SHOULD USE

"UNRESTRICTED WARFARE," INCLUDING BIOLOGICAL AND CHEMICAL WEAPONS, IN ANY CONFLICT WITH THE U.S.

Q. ADMIRAL BLAIR REPORTEDLY CALLS FOR DEPLOYMENT OF TMD IN NORTHEAST ASIA. IS THIS THE ADMINISTRATION POSITION?

A. TO PROTECT U.S. FORCES AGAINST THEATER BALLISTIC MISSILES (TBM), THE UNITED STATES EMBARKED ON PROGRAMS TO DEVELOP AND DEPLOY IMPROVED DEFENSES AGAINST THEATER BALLISTIC MISSILES.

-- TMD IS A RESPONSE TO THE GLOBAL PROLIFERATION OF THEATER BALLISTIC MISSILES. WE HAVE BEEN CONSULTING WITH OUR ALLIES AND FRIENDS ON THIS TOPIC. HOWEVER, NO DECISIONS ON DEPLOYMENT HAVE BEEN MADE OTHER THAN FOR PROTECTING FORWARD-DEPLOYED U.S. FORCES IN THE REGION.

-- WE WILL CONTINUE TO ASSIST TAIWAN IN MEETING ITS LEGITIMATE SELF-DEFENSE NEEDS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE TAIWAN RELATIONS ACT AND CONSISTENT WITH THE 1982 JOINT COMMUNIQUE WITH THE PRC.

-- AMONG THE ITEMS TAIWAN ALREADY HAS PURCHASED HAS BEEN TECHNOLOGY FOR TAIWAN'S MODIFIED AIR DEFENSE SYSTEM (MADS), WHICH HAS ANTI-AIRCRAFT AND ANTI-MISSILE CAPABILITIES.

-- THE TAIWAN AUTHORITIES ARE ASSESSING THEIR OWN CAPABILITIES AND NEEDS FOR MISSILE DEFENSE.

-- AS I SAID, NO U.S. DECISIONS ON DEPLOYMENT OF TMD SYSTEMS, OTHER THAN FOR THE PROTECTION OF U.S. FORCES, HAVE BEEN MADE.

-- THE ADMINISTRATION DOES NOT PRECLUDE THE POSSIBLE SALE OF TMD SYSTEMS TO TAIWAN IN THE FUTURE. OUR INTEREST IS IN

PRESERVING PEACE AND STABILITY IN THE REGION. TMD IS A SYSTEM STILL UNDER DEVELOPMENT. IT IS PREMATURE TO MAKE THAT DECISION NOW.

Q. WHAT ABOUT HIS COMMENT ON DEFENDING TAIWAN? HAVE WE TOLD THE PRC WE WILL DEFEND TAIWAN AGAINST PRC AGGRESSION?

A. AS WE'VE STATED MANY TIMES, WE REMAIN FIRMLY COMMITTED TO FULFULLING THE SECURITY AND ARMS TRANSFER PROVISIONS OF THE TAIWAN RELATIONS ACT. UNDER THE TRA, WE PROVIDE TAIWAN WITH DEFENSE ARTICLES AND SERVICES TO ENABLE TAIWAN TO MAINTAIN A SUFFICIENT SELF-DEFENSE.

-- THE TAIWAN RELATIONS ACT PROVIDES THAT IT IS THE POLICY OF THE U.S. TO, "CONSIDER ANY EFFORT TO DETERMINE THE FUTURE OF TAIWAN BY OTHER THAN PEACEFUL MEANS... A THREAT TO THE PEACE AND SECURITY OF THE WESTERN PACIFIC AREA AND OF GRAVE CONCERN TO THE UNITED STATES."

-- UNDER THE TRA, THE PRESIDENT, IN CONSULTATION WITH CONGRESS, WILL DETERMINE ANY APPROPRIATE ACTION BY THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE CIRCUMSTANCES.

Q. WHAT IS YOUR REACTION TO PRC CONCERNS ABOUT POSSIBLE DEPLOYMENT OF TMD IN THE REGION?

A. TMD IS A DEFENSIVE SYSTEM AND SHOULD NOT BE PERCEIVED AS A THREAT TO ANY COUNTRY'S SECURITY.

-- WE BELIEVE THE FOCUS SHOULD BE ON WHAT GIVES RISE TO INTEREST IN TMD--I.E., THE REGIONAL AND GLOBAL PROLIFERATION

OF MISSILES. AS THE SECRETARY HAS NOTED, THE THREAT OF MISSILE PROLIFERATION IS AN ISSUE THAT THE U.S. AND CHINA HAVE TO WORK TOGETHER ON.

IF ASKED:
Q. ARE THE U.S. AND CHINA NEAR AN AGREEMENT ON RESUMING MILITARY TIES? WILL YOU DISCUSS THEIR MILITARY MODERNIZATION AND THE TOPIC OF WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION?

A. AS WE HAVE SAID BEFORE, THE U.S. REMAINS READY TO ENGAGE WITH CHINA ON OUR FULL RANGE OF BILATERAL ISSUES, INCLUDING MILITARY-TO-MILITARY TIES.

-- WE LOOK FORWARD TO HOLDING THIS DIALOGUE AND HAVE BEEN IN CONTACT WITH CHINA ABOUT CONTINUING OUR DISCUSSIONS. WE FEEL THAT MILITARY-TO-MILITARY CONTACTS WITH CHINA ARE IMPORTANT TO MAINTAINING PEACE AND STABILITY IN THE PACIFIC, AS IT LOWERS THE PROBABILITY OF MISCALCULATION ON BOTH SIDES.

7. THE FOLLOWING PRESS GUIDANCES WERE PREPARED ON 11/12/1999. POSTS MAY DRAW FROM THESE GUIDANCES ON AN IF ASKED BASIS.

8. TAIWAN: MAJORS LIST

CONTEXT: IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 490 (H) OF THE FOREIGN ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1961, TAIWAN CONTINUES TO BE LISTED AS A MAJOR DRUG-TRANSIT TERRITORY. THE U.S.

GOVERNMENT DOES NOT CONSIDER TAIWAN TO BE A MAJOR ILLICIT DRUG PRODUCER. TAIWAN HAS BEEN ON THE MAJORS LIST SINCE 1995.

Q. WHY IS TAIWAN STILL LISTED ON THE MAJORS LIST? WHAT EVIDENCE DO YOU HAVE THAT SUGGESTS TAIWAN SHOULD STILL BE LISTED AS A MAJOR ILLICIT DRUG-PRODUCING OR MAJOR DRUG-TRANSIT CENTER?

A. THE MAJOR'S LIST IS DEVELOPED THROUGH AN INTER-AGENCY PROCESS LED BY THE STATE DEPARTMENT AND INCLUDING INPUT BY LAW ENFORCEMENT AND OTHER EXECUTIVE AGENCIES INVOLVED IN COMBATING NARCOTICS TRAFFICKING. THE LIST INCLUDES BOTH ILLICIT DRUG-PRODUCING AND DRUG-TRANSIT CENTERS. THE U.S. GOVERNMENT HAS NEVER CONSIDERED TAIWAN TO BE A MAJOR ILLICIT DRUG-PRODUCING AREA. HOWEVER, TAIWAN'S CLOSE GEOGRAPHICAL PROXIMITY TO AREAS WHERE DRUGS ARE CULTIVATED, AS WELL AS ITS WELL-DEVELOPED COMMERCIAL TRANSPORT INFRASTRUCTURE, HAVE HISTORICALLY MADE IT A NATURAL TRANSIT POINT FOR DRUGS MOVING FROM SOUTHEAST ASIA TO THE U.S.

Q. DOES TAIWAN'S CONTINUED PRESENCE ON THE MAJORS LIST MEAN THAT THE U.S. GOVERNMENT DOES NOT VIEW TAIWAN AS BEING HELPFUL IN ITS ANTI-NARCOTICS EFFORTS?

A. NO. THIS IS JUST THE FIRST STEP OF A TWO-STEP PROCESS. THE SECOND STEP, THE CERTIFICATION PROCESS, WILL EXAMINE THE VARIOUS COUNTRIES' AND ECONOMIES' COOPERATION WITH THE U.S. IN THE FIGHT AGAINST DRUGS. EVERY YEAR THAT TAIWAN HAS APPEARED ON THE MAJORS' LIST, IT HAS SUBSEQUENTLY BEEN CERTIFIED AS FULLY COOPERATING IN THIS EFFORT. IN HIS LETTER TO CONGRESS ON THE MAJORS' LIST, PRESIDENT CLINTON STATED THAT TAIWAN HAS AN EXCELLENT COUNTER-DRUG RECORD AND COOPERATES CLOSELY WITH THE UNITED STATES ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES THROUGH THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE IN TAIWAN.

9. CHINA -- WTO TALKS

CONTEXT: U.S. TRADE REPRESENTATIVE CHARLENE BARSHEFSKY, NATIONAL ECONOMIC COUNCIL ADVISOR GENE SPERLING AND AN INTERAGENCY TEAM ARE CURRENTLY IN BEIJING TO CONTINUE BILATERAL DISCUSSIONS ABOUT CHINA'S ACCESSION TO THE WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION. THEY HELD MEETINGS WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 10-12 WITH SENIOR CHINESE TRADE OFFICIALS, INCLUDING MINISTER OF TRADE SHI GUANGSHENG AND

VICE MINISTER OF TRADE LONG YONGTU. A NOVEMBER 12 WASHINGTON POST ARTICLE QUOTES AMBASSADOR BARSHEFSKY AS SAYING WE ARE "DISCOURAGED THAT PROGRESS HAS NOT BEEN MADE AT THIS POINT. THE CLOCK HAS NEARLY RUN OUT." ACCORDING TO THE POST, SOME SOURCES SPECULATE THAT CHINESE LEADERS ARE SERIOUSLY DIVIDED ON SUBSTANTIVE ISSUES RELATED TO CHINA'S ENTRY INTO THE WTO AND ARE UNABLE TO MADE FINAL DECISIONS REGARDING WTO COMMITMENTS. NEITHER U.S. NOR CHINESE NEGOTIATORS HAVE PROVIDED ANY DETAILS ON THE NEGOTIATIONS.

Q. WHAT CAN YOU TELL US ABOUT THE CURRENT TALKS IN BEIJING?

A. USTR BARSHEFSKY, NEC ADVISOR SPERLING AND AN INTERAGENCY TEAM HAVE BEEN IN BEIJING FOR THREE DAYS OF TALKS WITH CHINESE OFFICIALS REGARDING CHINA'S ACCESSION TO THE WORLD TRADE ORGANIZATION.

-- AS AMBASSADOR BARSHEFSKY SAID, "THERE ARE NO POSITIVE DEVELOPMENTS TO REPORT AT THIS TIME."

(IF ASKED)
Q. IS THE U.S. DISCOURAGED AT THE LACK OF PROGRESS?

A. YES. WE ARE DISAPPOINTED THAT WE HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO MAKE MORE PROGRESS.

Q. ARE THERE PLANS TO MEET AGAIN?

A. NO FURTHER MEETINGS HAVE BEEN SCHEDULED AT THIS TIME.

Q. WHEN WILL THE U.S. DELEGATION RETURN TO THE U.S.?

A. THEY CURRENTLY PLAN TO LEAVE ON SATURDAY MORNING, BEIJING TIME. THEY ARE SCHEDULED TO ARRIVE IN THE U.S. OVER THE WEEKEND.

10. CHINA: FORMAL U.S. INQUIRY ABOUT PANCHEN LAMA

CONTEXT: REPORTS HAVE APPEARED ON THE INTERNET THAT THE BOY IDENTIFIED BY THE DALAI LAMA AS THE PANCHEN LAMA IS DEAD AND THAT HIS BODY HAS BEEN CREMATED IN A GANSU PROVINCE PRISON. THESE REPORTS HAVE BEEN PICKED UP BY HONG KONG'S SOUTH CHINA MORNING POST, WHICH ALSO REPORTED AN OFFICIAL DENIAL BY THE PRC. AT THIS POINT, WE HAVE NO CONFIRMATION OF THE REPORT AND TIBET EXPERTS HAVE EXPRESSED SKEPTICISM ABOUT THE REPORT'S ACCURACY. MEMBERS OF CONGRESS HAVE EXPRESSED CONCERN ABOUT THIS UNCONFIRMED REPORT TO THE DEPARTMENT OF

STATE. THE USG HAS REPEATEDLY INQUIRED WITH CHINESE AUTHORITIES ABOUT THE BOY'S WHEREABOUTS. HE AND PARENTS HAVE BEEN HELD INCOMMUNICADO BY CHINESE AUTHORITIES SINCE MID-1995.

Q. WHEN DID WE LAST MAKE A FORMAL INQUIRY ABOUT THE WELFARE

AND WHEREABOUTS OF THE BOY IDENTIFIED AS THE PANCHEN LAMA BY THE DALAI LAMA?

A. WE REMAIN DEEPLY CONCERNED BY THE CONTINUED INCOMMUNICADO DETENTION OF THE BOY BY CHINESE AUTHORITIES. OUR EMBASSY IN BEIJING HAS MADE REPEATED FORMAL REPRESENTATIONS EXPRESSING CONCERN ABOUT THE WHEREABOUTS AND WELFARE OF THE BOY. OUR EMBASSY LAST EXPRESSED OUR CONCERN TO CHINESE AUTHORITIES ON OCTOBER 22.

-- THE ISSUE HAS ALSO BEEN RAISED REPEATEDLY AND AT HIGH LEVELS IN MEETINGS ON HUMAN RIGHTS SINCE THE ISSUE AROSE IN MID-1995. ASSISTANT SECRETARY HAROLD HONGJU KOH RAISED THIS ISSUE IN THE FORMAL HUMAN RIGHTS DIALOGUE LAST JANUARY AND REITERATED OUR LONG-STANDING REQUEST THAT THE CHINESE PERMIT AN INTERNATIONAL OBSERVER TO MEET WITH THE BOY TO VERIFY HIS WELL-BEING.

(IF ASKED)
-- WE HAVE NO INFORMATION TO CONFIRM THE REPORT THAT THE BOY IDENTIFIED BY THE DALAI LAMA AS THE PANCHEN LAMA IS DEAD. THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT HAS PUBLICLY DENIED THE STORY OF HIS DEATH.

11. CHINA: UPDATE ON WESTERN LAND POVERTY REDUCTION PROJECT

BACKGROUND: THE WORLD BANK EXECUTIVE BOARD APPROVED THE 'CHINA-WESTERN POVERTY REDUCTION' PROJECT JUNE 22 OVER U.S. OBJECTIONS. U.S. CONCERNS CENTERED ON THE BANK'S FAILURE TO SATISFY ITS OWN CRITERIA; THERE WAS INSUFFICIENT DOCUMENTATION ON THE ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT OF THE LOAN AND ON

THE POTENTIAL IMPACT OF THE RESETTLEMENT OF 58,0000 IMPOVERISHED FARMERS FROM EASTERN QINGHAI TO A MONGOL-TIBETAN AUTONOMOUS PREFECTURE IN CENTRAL QINGHAI. THE PROJECT WAS WIDELY CRITICIZED ON THE HILL AND IN THE NGO COMMUNITY, WITH OPPONENTS WARNING THAT CONGRESSIONAL CONSIDERATION OF WORLD BANK FUNDING WOULD BE ADVERSELY AFFECTED IN THE FY2000 FOREIGN OPERATIONS APPROPRIATIONS BILL. IN AN UNUSUAL MOVE,

THE BANK ANNOUNCED THAT FUNDING AND IMPLEMENTATION OF THE QINGHAI COMPONENT WOULD BE WITHHELD, PENDING REVIEW BY THE BANK'S INDEPENDENT INSPECTION PANEL OF WHETHER THE PROJECT VIOLATED BANK RULES. THE BANK BOARD APPROVED THE PANEL'S RECOMMENDATION FOR A FULL INVESTIGATION ON SEPTEMBER 9, AND AN INSPECTION TEAM VISITED CHINA IN OCTOBER. IT HAS NOT YET COMPLETED ITS REPORT TO THE BOARD.

THE CHINESE INDICATED THAT THEY WOULD FACILITATE ACCESS TO THE PROJECT SITES FOR OTHER INTERESTED PARTIES. A LARGE PRESS CONTINGENT VISITED THE AREA IN EARLY AUGUST. HOWEVER, TWO INDIVIDUALS (ALONG WITH THEIR LOCALLY-HIRED INTERPRETER) CONDUCTING AN INDEPENDENT INVESTIGATION WERE DETAINED IN AUGUST. ONE, AN AUSTRALIAN, WAS DEPORTED, WHILE THE AMERICAN (OF TIBETAN ANCESTRY) DAJA MESTON, WAS MEDEVAC-ED AFTER SUFFERING SERIOUS INJURIES FROM A FAILED ATTEMPT TO ESCAPE INTENSIVE INTERROGATION BY CHINESE AUTHORITIES BY JUMPING FROM HIS 3RD-FLOOR HOTEL ROOM.

Q: WHY DID THE U.S. OPPOSE THE WORLD BANK WESTERN POVERTY ALLEVIATION PROJECT LOAN?

A: -- WE OPPOSED THE LOAN WHEN IT WAS PRESENTED TO THE BOARD ON JUNE 22. THROUGHOUT THE PROCESS, WE CLEARLY STATED OUR CONCERNS REGARDING THE BANK'S FAILURE TO PROVIDE ADEQUATE DOCUMENTATION ABOUT THE CONSEQUENCES OF THE RESETTLEMENT PLAN AND THE PROJECT'S ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT.

-- WE APPRECIATED THE ASSURANCES OF THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT THAT ACCESS TO THE PROJECT AREAS WOULD BE FACILITATED.

Q: HAVE YOU RECEIVED A REPORT FROM THE WORLD BANK INSPECTION TEAM WITH REGARD TO ITS RECOMMENDATIONS ON THE QINGHAI PORTION OF THE WESTERN LAND POVERTY REDUCTION LOAN?

A: -- NO. THE TEAM HAS NOT YET ISSUED ITS FINDINGS.

Q: WHAT IS THE CURRENT CONDITION OF THE AMERICAN CITIZEN WHO WAS INJURED IN A FALL WHILE BEING DETAINED BY CHINESE PUBLIC SECURITY OFFICIALS.

A: -- BECAUSE OF PRIVACY CONCERNS, WE ARE NOT ABLE TO PROVIDE FURTHER INFORMATION REGARDING MR. MESTON. FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, WE WOULD DIRECT YOU TO THE MESTON FAMILY.

12. INDONESIA: WAHID VISIT

CONTEXT: NEWLY-ELECTED INDONESIAN PRESIDENT ABDURRACHMAN WAHID IS VISITING WASHINGTON NOVEMBER 11-12, PRIOR TO RECEIVING MEDICAL TREATMENT IN SALT LAKE CITY. IN ADDITION TO HIS MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT ON FRIDAY MORNING AT 11:00 AM, HE IS MEETING WITH BUSINESS LEADERS AND TOP OFFICIALS OF THE WORLD BANK, THE IMF AND EX-IM BANK. THE SECRETARY WILL PARTICIPATE IN THE PRESIDENT'S MEETING, AND WILL MEET SEPARATELY WITH FM SHIHAB.

Q. ANY FUTHER DETAILS ON THE VISIT TO WASHINGTON BY NEWLY-ELECTED INDONESIAN PRESIDENT ABDURRACHMAN WAHID? ANY MEETINGS WITH STATE DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS?

A. PRESIDENT WAHID WILL MEET WITH THE PRESIDENT LATE ON FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 12. THE SECRETARY WILL PARTICIPATE IN THIS MEETING.

-- THE MEETING WAS AN OPPORTUNITY TO CONGRATULATE THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE ON A SUCCESSFUL POLITICAL TRANSITION, WHICH CULMINATED IN WAHID'S ELECTION LAST MONTH. THE DISCUSSIONS INCLUDED THE BILATERAL RELATIONSHIP, THE CONTINUING DEMOCRATIC AND ECONOMIC REFORMS IN INDONESIA, AND THE SITUATION IN EAST TIMOR.

-- THE SECRETARY WILL MEET SEPARATELY WITH HER NEW COUNTERPART, FOREIGN MINISTER ALWI SHIHAB, FOLLOWING THE MEETING WITH THE PRESIDENT.

13. INDONESIA -- SECRETARY'S MEETING WITH FM ALWI SHIHAB

CONTEXT: SECRETARY ALBRIGHT HELD HER FIRST MEETING THIS AFTERNOON WITH INDONESIA'S NEW FOREIGN MINISTER, ALWI SHIHAB, FOLLOWING THE MEETING EARLIER TODAY AT THE WHITE HOUSE BETWEEN PRESIDENTS CLINTON AND WAHID.

Q: CAN YOU GIVE US A READ-OUT OF SECRETARY ALBRIGHT'S MEETING WITH FOREIGN MINISTER ALWI SHIHAB?

A: -- SECRETARY ALBRIGHT MET WITH HER INDONESIAN COUNTERPART,

FOREIGN MINISTER ALWI SHIHAB, ON FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12. THIS WAS THEIR FIRST MEETING, AND THE SECRETARY AND FM SHIHAB DISCUSSED WIDE-RANGING ISSUES OF SHARED CONCERN. FIRST AMONG THESE WAS THE IMPORTANCE OF A STABLE AND PROSPEROUS INDONESIA AND A SOUND U.S.-INDONESIA RELATIONSHIP. SECRETARY ALBRIGHT

REAFFIRMED THAT DEMOCRATIC CONSOLIDATION AND ECONOMIC RECOVERY IN INDONESIA WAS AN IMPORTANT U.S. INTEREST, AND THAT WE WOULD ASSIST THE NEW INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT TO MEET THESE CHALLENGES ANY WAY WE COULD.

-- FM SHIHAB WELCOMED U.S. ASSISTANCE, AND UNDERLINED THE IMPORTANCE OF THE U.S. TO INDONESIA'S INTERESTS--EXEMPLIFIED BY THE PRESENT VISIT OF PRESIDENT WAHID AND HIMSELF TO WASHINGTON AT THIS EARLY STAGE. FM SHIHAB ALSO ADDRESSED INDONESIA'S OTHER FOREIGN POLICY PRIORITIES, AMONG THESE CREATING STRONG RELATIONSHIPS WITH ITS ASIAN NEIGHBORS, EXPANDING INDONESIA'S DIPLOMATIC CONTACTS BEYOND ASIA--INCLUDING THE MIDDLE EAST --, AND THE CONTINUED IMPORTANCE TO INDONESIA OF STRONG TIES TO THE WEST.

-- SECRETARY ALBRIGHT ALSO ADDRESSED ISSUES OF CONTINUED U.S. CONCERN. THESE INCLUDED THE NEED TO RESOLVE CONTINUING PROBLEMS RELATING TO EAST TIMOR, ESPECIALLY FACILITATING THE RETURN OF REFUGEES FROM WEST TIMOR. SHE EMPHASIZED THAT RESUMING OUR MILITARY RELATIONSHIP WOULD DEPEND ON MILITARY COOPERATION IN WEST TIMOR, SEPARATING REFUGEES FROM THE GRIP OF THE MILITIAS, CREDIBLE STEPS TO BRING ACCOUNTABILITY FOR ABUSES, AND DEMONSTRATED COMMITMENT TO MILITARY REFORM IN THE CONTEXT OF CIVILIAN CONTROL.

14. US-JAPAN CENTRAL AMERICAN CHIEF OF MISSION MEETING

Q. WHY ARE THE U.S. AND JAPANESE AMBASSADORS TO THE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES MEETING IN EL SALVADOR ON NOVEMBER 18? WHAT ARE THE U.S. AND JAPAN PLANNING?

A. THE US AND JAPANESE AMBASSADORS TO NICARAGUA, HONDURAS, GUATEMALA, COSTA RICA, BELIZE, PANAMA AND EL SALVADOR ARE HOLDING A ONE-DAY CONFERENCE ON NOVEMBER 18 TO DISCUSS WAYS TO PROMOTE COOPERATION AND DISCUSSION ON ISSUES OF MUTUAL INTEREST TO BOTH COUNTRIES IN THE REGION. ALSO PRESENT WILL BE POLICY-LEVEL OFFICIALS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE IN WASHINGTON (SUSAN WOOD, THE DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF STATE RESPONSIBLE FOR CENTRAL AMERICA AND THE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS IN TOKYO (DEPUTY DIRECTOR GENERAL MITSUO SAKABA).

Q. WILL ANY AGREEMENTS BE SIGNED BETWEEN THE U.S., JAPAN, AND ANY OF THE CENTRAL AMERICAN COUNTRIES?

A. NO. THE PURPOSE OF THE MEETING IS FOR U.S. AND JAPANESE TO DISCUSS THEIR EXPERIENCES AND EXCHANGE IDEAS. NO BILATERAL

OR MULTILATERAL ACCORDS WILL BE SIGNED.

Q. WILL THE U.S. AND JAPANESE AMBASSADORS MEET WITH SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS?

A. WE ENVISION THAT THERE WILL BE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE U.S. AND JAPANESE AMBASSADORS TO MEET SALVADORAN GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS WHILE THEY ARE HERE.

15. THE FOLLOWING STATEMENTS AND LETTER WERE ISSUED BY THE WHITE HOUSE ON 11/12/1999.

16. THE WHITE HOUSE

OFFICE OF THE PRESS SECRETARY

STATEMENT BY THE PRESIDENT

I AM VERY PLEASED THAT THE SENATE HAS CONFIRMED CAROL MOSELEY-BRAUN TO BE OUR NATION'S AMBASSADOR TO NEW ZEALAND. THE SENATE'S OVERWHELMING BIPARTISAN VOTE IS A STRONG ENDORSEMENT OF HER OUTSTANDING EXPERIENCE AND CREDENTIALS FOR THIS POSITION. I APPRECIATE HER WILLINGNESS TO TAKE ON THIS RESPONSIBILITY, AND I EXPECT HER TO DO A SUPERIOR JOB REPRESENTING OUR COUNTRY'S VERY SIGNIFICANT INTERESTS IN NEW ZEALAND.

17. THE WHITE HOUSE

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

STATEMENT BY THE VICE PRESIDENT

I AM VERY PLEASED THAT THE SENATE TODAY VOTED ON A BIPARTISAN BASIS TO CONFIRM CAROL MOSELEY-BRAUN AS OUR NATION'S NEW AMBASSADOR TO NEW ZEALAND AND SAMOA.

DURING HER TIME IN THE SENATE, CAROL WAS NOT JUST A PATH-BREAKER--THE FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN WOMAN TO SERVE IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE--SHE WAS A STRONG VOICE FOR THE PEOPLE OF ILLINOIS AND INDEED THE NATION.

I BELIEVE THAT STRONG VOICE, HER DEDICATION TO PUBLIC SERVICE AND HER WEALTH OF EXPERIENCE WILL SERVE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

WELL IN HER NEW POSITION AS A REPRESENTATIVE OF OUR NATION.

18. THE WHITE HOUSE

OFFICE OF THE PRESS SECRETARY

TEXT OF A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT TO THE CHAIRMEN OF THE SENATE COMMITTEES ON FOREIGN RELATIONS AND APPROPRIATIONS AND THE CHAIRMEN OF THE HOUSE COMMITTEES ON INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS AND APPROPRIATIONS

DEAR CHAIRMAN:

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROVISIONS OF SECTION 490(H) OF THE FOREIGN ASSISTANCE ACT OF 1961, AS AMENDED, I HAVE DETERMINED THAT THE FOLLOWING ARE MAJOR ILLICIT DRUG PRODUCING OR DRUG TRANSIT "COUNTRIES" (INCLUDING CERTAIN ENTITIES THAT ARE NOT SOVEREIGN STATES): AFGHANISTAN, THE BAHAMAS, BOLIVIA, BRAZIL, BURMA, CAMBODIA, CHINA, COLOMBIA, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC, ECUADOR, GUATEMALA, HAITI, HONG KONG, INDIA, JAMAICA, LAOS, MEXICO, NIGERIA, PAKISTAN, PANAMA, PARAGUAY, PERU, TAIWAN, THAILAND, VENEZUELA, AND VIETNAM.

THIS YEAR I HAVE REMOVED ARUBA AND BELIZE FROM THE MAJORS LIST; ADDED BELIZE AS PART OF THIS YEAR'S CENTRAL AMERICA REGION OF CONCERN; ADDED THE ENTIRE EASTERN AND SOUTHERN CARIBBEAN, INCLUDING THE LEEWARD AND WINDWARD ISLANDS, ARUBA, AND THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES, AS A REGION OF CONCERN; AND ALSO ADDED NORTH KOREA AS A COUNTRY OF CONCERN.

I WISH TO MAKE CLEAR THAT THE INCLUSION OF A COUNTRY OR ENTITY ON THE MAJORS LIST DOES NOT REFLECT AN ASSESSMENT OF ITS GOVERNMENT'S COUNTER-DRUG EFFORTS OR EXTENT OF COOPERATION WITH THE UNITED STATES. FOR EXAMPLE, AMONG THE REASONS THAT A TRANSIT COUNTRY OR ENTITY IS PLACED ON THE MAJORS LIST IS THE COMBINATION OF GEOGRAPHICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND/OR ECONOMIC FACTORS THAT ALLOW DRUG TRAFFICKERS TO OPERATE DESPITE THE MOST ASSIDUOUS ENFORCEMENT MEASURES OF THE GOVERNMENT CONCERNED. IN THE CASE OF HONG KONG AND TAIWAN, FOR INSTANCE, BOTH ENTITIES HAVE EXCELLENT COUNTER-DRUG RECORDS AND COOPERATE CLOSELY WITH THE UNITED STATES.

ARUBA. ARUBA WAS DESIGNATED AS A MAJOR TRANSIT COUNTRY IN 1997. WHILE GEOGRAPHY MAKES ARUBA, LIKE MOST OF THE OTHER ISLAND COUNTRIES IN THE EASTERN AND SOUTHERN CARIBBEAN, A POTENTIAL DRUG TRANSIT POINT, AT THIS TIME WE DO NOT HAVE

EVIDENCE THAT IT IS A MAJOR TRANSIT COUNTRY FOR DRUGS BOUND FOR THE UNITED STATES. RATHER, THE DRUG TRADE THERE APPEARS DIRECTED TOWARD EUROPE. WE WILL CONTINUE, HOWEVER, TO KEEP ARUBA UNDER OBSERVATION TOGETHER WITH THE REST OF THE ISLANDS IN THE REGION.

BELIZE. BELIZE'S GEOGRAPHICAL POSITION NEXT TO MEXICO ON THE YUCATAN PENINSULA OFFERS WOULD-BE DRUG SMUGGLERS AN ATTRACTIVE CORRIDOR FOR MOVING DRUGS INTO MEXICO AND ON TO THE UNITED STATES. TRAFFICKERS HAVE USED BELIZEAN TERRITORY IN PREVIOUS YEARS, WHEN ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES ELSEWHERE ENHANCED THE VALUE OF THIS ROUTE. RECENTLY, HOWEVER, WE HAVE DETECTED SIGNIFICANTLY REDUCED DRUG FLOWS TO AND THROUGH BELIZE.

THEREFORE, I HAVE DECIDED TO REMOVE BELIZE FROM THE MAJORS LIST. IF FUTURE MONITORING OF CENTRAL AMERICA INDICATES A RESUMPTION OF IMPORTANT DRUG FLOWS THROUGH BELIZE BOUND FOR THE UNITED STATES, I WILL AGAIN PLACE THE COUNTRY ON THE MAJORS LIST.

CENTRAL AMERICA. CENTRAL AMERICA'S LOCATION BETWEEN SOUTH AMERICA AND MEXICO, TOGETHER WITH ITS THOUSANDS OF MILES OF COASTLINE, SEVERAL CONTAINER-HANDLING PORTS, THE PAN-AMERICAN HIGHWAY, AND LIMITED LAW ENFORCEMENT CAPABILITY MAKE THE ENTIRE REGION A LOGICAL CONDUIT AND TRANSHIPMENT AREA FOR ILLICIT DRUGS BOUND FOR MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES. THE VARIANCE IN SEIZURE STATISTICS FROM COUNTRY TO COUNTRY, AND THEIR FLUCTUATION FROM YEAR TO YEAR, UNDERSCORE MY CONCERN WITH CENTRAL AMERICA'S POTENTIAL AND VOLATILE ROLE AS A TRANSIT REGION. FOR INSTANCE, PANAMA AND GUATEMALA CONTINUE TO REPORT MORE SEIZURES THAN OTHER COUNTRIES IN THE REGION, WHILE SEIZURES TO DATE BY COSTA RICA, HONDURAS, AND NICARAGUA ARE BELOW LEVELS DURING THE SAME PERIOD IN PREVIOUS YEARS AND FLOW LEVELS IN EL SALVADOR REMAIN LOW. TAKEN TOGETHER, THESE CIRCUMSTANCES INDICATE A NEED TO CONTINUE TO MONITOR THE SITUATION IN CENTRAL AMERICA.

CUBA. WHILE THERE HAVE BEEN SOME REPORTS THAT TRAFFICKING SYNDICATES USE CUBAN LAND TERRITORY FOR MOVING DRUGS, WE HAVE YET TO RECEIVE ANY CONFIRMATION THAT THIS TRAFFIC CARRIES SIGNIFICANT QUANTITIES OF COCAINE OR HEROIN TO THE UNITED STATES. IN PARTICULAR, THE INTELLIGENCE AND LAW ENFORCEMENT COMMUNITIES REVIEWED THE INFORMATION CONCERNING WHETHER THE

7.2 METRIC TON SHIPMENT OF COCAINE SEIZED IN COLOMBIA IN DECEMBER 1998, IN A CONTAINER REPORTEDLY HEADED TO CUBA, WAS DESTINED FOR THE UNITED STATES. THEIR JUDGMENT REMAINS THAT SPAIN, AND NOT THE UNITED STATES, WAS THE INTENDED FINAL DESTINATION.

WE ALSO LOOKED CLOSELY AT THE USE OF CUBAN WATERS AND AIRSPACE FOR TRANSIT OF DRUGS TO THE UNITED STATES, AS THE TERM "MAJOR DRUG TRANSIT COUNTRY" IS UNDERSTOOD TO APPLY TO THE LAND, WATERS, AND AIRSPACE OF A COUNTRY OVER WHICH SOVEREIGNTY MAY BE EXERCISED, CONSISTENT WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW AND UNITED STATES PRACTICE. ALTHOUGH WE HAVE DETECTED WHAT APPEARS TO BE SOME AIR AND SEA ACTIVITY CONSISTENT WITH TRAFFICKING PATTERNS, THIS ACTIVITY HAS DECREASED SIGNIFICANTLY SINCE LAST YEAR AND INDICATES A CORRESPONDING DECREASE IN DRUG FLOW. WE CONTINUE TO KEEP TRAFFICKING IN THE AREA UNDER CLOSE OBSERVATION AND WILL ADD CUBA TO THE MAJORS LIST IF THE EVIDENCE WARRANTS.

EASTERN AND SOUTHERN CARIBBEAN. THE LEEWARD AND WINDWARD ISLANDS, TOGETHER WITH ARUBA AND THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES, CONSTITUTE A BROAD GEOGRAPHICAL AREA THROUGH WHICH DRUGS BOUND FOR THE UNITED STATES MAY PASS EN ROUTE FROM LATIN AMERICA. WE HAVE NO EVIDENCE AT THIS TIME, HOWEVER, THAT ANY OF THESE EASTERN CARIBBEAN NATIONS IS A MAJOR DRUG TRANSIT COUNTRY UNDER THE STATUTORY DEFINITION. THE INFORMATION WE DO HAVE INDICATES THAT DRUGS MOVING THROUGH THE AREA ARE OVERWHELMINGLY DESTINED FOR EUROPE. WE ARE, THEREFORE, KEEPING THE REGION UNDER OBSERVATION, AND I WILL ADD THE RELEVANT COUNTRIES TO THE MAJORS LIST SHOULD CONDITIONS WARRANT.

IRAN. ALTHOUGH IRAN IN THE PAST HAD BEEN A TRADITIONAL OPIUM PRODUCING COUNTRY, OVER THE PAST FEW YEARS THE GOVERNMENT OF IRAN REPORTED SUCCESS IN ERADICATING ILLICIT OPIUM POPPY CULTIVATION. A SURVEY OF THE COUNTRY THIS YEAR REVEALED NO DETECTABLE POPPY CULTIVATION IN THE TRADITIONAL GROWING AREAS. WHILE ONE CANNOT RULE OUT SOME CULTIVATION IN REMOTE PARTS OF THE COUNTRY, IT IS UNLIKELY THAT THERE WOULD BE ENOUGH TO MEET THE THRESHOLD DEFINITION OF A MAJOR DRUG PRODUCING COUNTRY. IMPORTANT QUANTITIES OF OPIATES REPORTEDLY CONTINUE TO TRANSIT IRAN EN ROUTE TO EUROPE, BUT WE HAVE NO EVIDENCE THAT THESE DRUGS SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT THE UNITED STATES, A REQUIREMENT FOR DESIGNATION AS A MAJOR DRUG TRANSIT COUNTRY UNDER CURRENT LEGISLATION.

MALAYSIA. MALAYSIA WAS REMOVED FROM THE MAJORS LIST LAST YEAR BECAUSE DRUG FLOW ESTIMATES DID NOT INDICATE THAT DRUGS TRANSITING THE COUNTRY HAD REACHED THE UNITED STATES IN SIGNIFICANT QUANTITIES.

NORTH KOREA. OUR OBSERVATIONS TO DATE HAVE BEEN UNABLE TO CONFIRM REPORTS THAT SIGNIFICANT QUANTITIES OF OPIUM POPPY MAY BE UNDER CULTIVATION IN NORTH KOREA OR THAT HEROIN ORIGINATING IN THE COUNTRY MAY BE ENTERING THE INTERNATIONAL DRUG TRADE. WE CONTINUE, HOWEVER, TO MONITOR THE SITUATION. IF WE CONFIRM THAT THERE IS INDEED SIGNIFICANT POPPY CULTIVATION, OR THAT NORTH KOREA IS A TRANSIT POINT FOR DRUGS SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECTING THE UNITED STATES, I WILL ADD THE COUNTRY TO THE MAJORS LIST.

SYRIA AND LEBANON. WE REMOVED SYRIA AND LEBANON FROM THE MAJORS LIST 2 YEARS AGO AFTER WE DETERMINED THAT THERE WAS NO SIGNIFICANT OPIUM POPPY CULTIVATION IN LEBANON'S BIQA' VALLEY. RECENT SURVEYS HAVE CONFIRMED THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO DETECTABLE REPLANTING OF OPIUM POPPY, AND WE HAVE NO EVIDENCE THAT DRUGS TRANSITING THESE COUNTRIES SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT THE UNITED STATES. WE CONTINUE, HOWEVER, TO KEEP THE AREA UNDER OBSERVATION.

TURKEY AND OTHER BALKAN ROUTE COUNTRIES. WE REMAIN CONCERNED ABOUT THE LARGE VOLUME OF SOUTHWEST ASIAN HEROIN MOVING THROUGH TURKEY AND NEIGHBORING COUNTRIES TO WESTERN EUROPE ALONG THE BALKAN ROUTE. WE HAVE NO CLEAR EVIDENCE, HOWEVER, THAT THIS HEROIN SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECTS THE UNITED STATES AS REQUIRED FOR A COUNTRY TO BE DESIGNATED A MAJOR TRANSIT COUNTRY. IN THE EVENT THAT WE DETERMINE THAT HEROIN TRANSITING TURKEY, BULGARIA, GREECE, SERBIA-MONTENEGRO, BOSNIA, CROATIA, THE FORMER YUGOSLAV REPUBLIC OF MACEDONIA, OR OTHER EUROPEAN COUNTRIES ON THE BALKAN ROUTE SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECTS THE UNITED STATES, I WILL ADD THE RELEVANT COUNTRIES TO THE MAJORS LIST.

MAJOR CANNABIS PRODUCERS. WHILE KAZAKSTAN, KYRGYZSTAN, MOROCCO, THE PHILIPPINES, AND SOUTH AFRICA ARE IMPORTANT CANNABIS PRODUCERS, WE HAVE NOT INCLUDED THEM ON THE MAJORS LIST SINCE IN ALL CASES THE ILLICIT CANNABIS IS EITHER CONSUMED LOCALLY OR EXPORTED TO COUNTRIES OTHER THAN THE UNITED STATES. I HAVE DETERMINED THAT SUCH ILLICIT CANNABIS PRODUCTION DOES NOT SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT THE UNITED STATES.

CENTRAL ASIA. WE HAVE CONDUCTED PROBES IN UZBEKISTAN AND

TAJIKISTAN, TRADITIONAL OPIUM POPPY GROWING AREAS OF THE FORMER SOVIET UNION. THESE PROBES HAVE NOT SHOWN SIGNIFICANT OPIUM POPPY CULTIVATION. IF ONGOING ANALYSIS REVEALS CULTIVATION OF 1,000 HECTARES OR MORE OF POPPY, I WILL ADD THE RELEVANT COUNTRIES TO THE MAJORS LIST.

SINCERELY,

WILLIAM J. CLINTON
ALBRIGHT

CONFIDENTIAL
DECL: 11/10/09

TO: The Secretary

FROM: EAP - Stanley O. Roth

SUBJECT: Your Participation in POTUS' Meeting with Indonesian President Wahid

I. OBJECTIVES

1. Support POTUS in welcoming President Wahid and underscoring the desire of the United States to work closely with the new Indonesian administration on democratic transition and economic reform and recovery.

2. Ensure that the message is conveyed on what the Wahid Administration must do in West Timor (on disbanding the militias, facilitating refugee repatriation, supporting human rights accountability inquiries). GOI follow through will be crucial to restoration of our suspended military-to-military relations.

3. Raise and strongly argue against Wahid's notion of meeting with Iraqi President Saddam Hussein.

II. APPROACH

We have provided extensive briefing material (enclosed at Tab C) to the White House for President Clinton's use in his November 12 meeting with Indonesian President Abdurrahman Wahid. The overriding theme is our desire to engage the new reformist Indonesian government at every level and help promote a democratic, stable, prosperous, and unified Indonesia. The key areas we expect will be discussed are: a) Supporting Democratic Transition; b) Economic Reform and Recovery; c) Military-to-Military Relations; and d) Aceh. The talking points for the "Military-to-Military" agenda item fully outline our concerns about militia activities in West Timor, their impact on the international refugee repatriation process, and their implications for Indonesia's credibility and relations with the international community and new East Timorese state. It is crucial that this message be conveyed effectively to Wahid if East Timor is not to remain a serious obstacle to improving relations with Indonesia.

[redacted] B1

Providing that Clinton delivers the right message on Timor, we think you should use your opportunity to make an intervention with Wahid to invite him to send his Minister for Human Rights and his Attorney General to a multinational conference that State and USIP will host on Justice and Reconciliation in Democratic Transitions in December. Prior to becoming President, Wahid had repeatedly expressed interest in learning how other countries in transition to democracy have dealt with justice and reconciliation. Last year, in the wake of the rapes and riots which accompanied Suharto's downfall, he even toyed with the idea of getting international leaders such as Nelson Mandela together to discuss these issues.

With this in mind, and knowing how important the accountability issue will be for the new government, State is interested in hosting a conference in conjunction with USIP to examine the role of accountability in Indonesia's democratic transition. The goal will be to bring the relevant players from Indonesia together with prominent individuals from other democracies - notably Chile, Argentina, Salvador, South Africa and South Korea - to examine the various mechanisms through which their societies addressed these questions and to learn from the successes and failures of other processes in other places. Indonesia's new Minister for Human Rights has been approached and is eager to participate, and funding has already been secured. We anticipate that Wahid will be pleased with the initiative.

We have provided President Clinton with a "Must Do" point regarding the possibility of his meeting with Saddam Hussein.

SUBJECT: Your November 12 Meeting with Indonesian Foreign Minister Alwi Shihab

I. OBJECTIVES

1. Underscore the importance of our bilateral ties and our desire to have an active and constructive relationship.

2. Solicit Shihab's views on Indonesia's foreign policy goals, including in Asia and the Middle East.

3. Address domestic Indonesian issues of continued concern, namely East/West Timor, Aceh, economic reform, and military reform.

4. Offer to help arrange reconciliation conference.

II. APPROACH

Your first meeting with new Indonesian Foreign Minister Alwi Shihab will follow President Clinton's meeting with President Wahid. It is the perfect opportunity for you to get acquainted with Shihab, who, not limited to his foreign policy portfolio, serves as one of President Wahid's closest advisors on all political and governmental matters. reinforce President Clinton's message that we attach importance to a stable, prosperous, and secure Indonesia and see a sound U.S.-Indonesia relationship as an important national interest.

Since starting out with potentially contentious domestic issues such as East/West Timor could provoke an unnecessarily defensive response, I recommend that you first solicit Shahib's views on the Wahid administration's foreign policy priorities. There may be "less than meets the eye" in Wahid's public statements concerning Indonesia's interest in establishing an "Asian Axis" (China, India, and ASEAN) to counterbalance the power of the West, but you should nonetheless inquire about its significance. You also could ask that he amplify on the GOI's intentions with regard to APEC and ASEAN, which would segue into a discussion on Burma, and the useful role the new democratically elected government of Indonesia could play in supporting democracy in that country. Shahib may also bring up Wahid's overtures toward Israel, which you should praise as courageous, and President Wahid's desire to meet with Saddam Hussein, which you should strongly discourage as the wrong message for a nascent democracy to send to the world.

You should also engage Shihab on a number of "domestic" Indonesian issues of continued concern to the U.S. First among these is Indonesian military behavior in West Timor. You should stress that this is not strictly an Indonesian issue. Rather, it has the continued attention of the international community and will significantly affect the ability of the United States to reengage fully with Indonesia. You can stress that we are looking for progress on the return of refugees from West Timor, active cooperation to disarm militias and to prevent militia incursions into East Timor, and credible movement on military accountability for abuses. You should underline the importance of having full Indonesian cooperation on getting the UN International Commission of Inquiry (ICOI) to East Timor as soon as possible.

You should also address the issues of Aceh, military reform, and economic reform. On Aceh, you should emphasise U.S. support for Indonesia's territorial integrity, commend the new GOI for refraining from using violence and repression, and solicit Shihab's thoughts on whether a political solution short of a referendum remains viable.

On military reform, you should make clear that our ability to resume defense ties will depend on: progress in West Timor, decisive movement on military accountability for past abuses, restraint in hotspots like Aceh and Irian Jaya, and a demonstrated commitment to the principle of civilian supremacy. On a positive note, you can extend an offer to help arrange a reconciliation conference, which responds to a request of the new government for assistance in learning from the experience of others in this regard.

Meeting with Shihab

R3 A

1. Importance of Bilateral Relations: Pleased to exchange views; U.S. interest in Indonesia's stability, prosperity; bilateral relationship crucial to regional stability, strengthening ties clearly in U.S. interest.

2. Foreign Policy Issues: Interested in views on other foreign policy priorities, Asian Axis? GOI intentions with ASEAN? Welcome overture to Israel, deeply concerned about possible Saddam meeting, bad message at wrong time.

3. Timor: Hope situation resolved soon, look for GOI to encourage TNI cooperation with repatriation from West Timor, disarm and disband militias; Hope GOI will act to prevent incursions into East Timor, provide accountability for past abuses, cooperate with ICOI.

4. Other "Internal" Indonesia Issues: U.S. supports Indonesian territorial integrity, Wahid's effort to resolve Aceh by political means; military reform must occur before defense ties resumed; IMF-backed economic reform urgent, corporate debt, anti corruption efforts key to recovery.

5. Reconciliation Conference: Would like to organize multinational conference, hopefully in December, at which new GOI ministers could learn how other emerging democracies handled justice and reconciliation issues.

1. Importance of Bilateral Relations

- Enjoyed our phone call a few weeks back.
- Pleased to have the opportunity to meet with you, and of course with President Wahid, so soon.
- Like to reinforce President Clinton's message - that U.S. attaches great importance to a stable, prosperous, and unified Indonesia; U.S. interest in Indonesia's stability, prosperity; strengthening ties clearly in U.S. interest.
- Seek to assist Indonesia realize democratic aspirations and recover economic prosperity in any way we can; interested in your views on how we can help do this.

2. Foreign Policy Issues

- Am interested in your views on new government's foreign policy priorities.

- Have heard public statements concerning Indonesia's interest in "Asian Axis (China, India, Indonesia, Japan, Singapore)"; your views? What is purpose of such an axis? My fear - many in U.S> see it as somehow "anti-American."

- U.S. values key Indonesian role in APEC, ASEAN; how does GOI plan to reactivate its leadership in these fora, the region?

- Regret President Wahid did not meet ASSK in Burma, good opportunity to support democratic opening there; hope that as icons of democratic struggle both you and President will take leadership role in trying to foster change in Burma; your views?

- Pleased to hear of your overtures to Israel, sends positive message on political, religious tolerance of your government.

- Deeply concerned that Wahid might consider meeting with Saddam Hussein; the choice is yours, but meeting would send disturbing message about Indonesia -- a new democracy -- associating with Saddam's dictatorship; would undermine international efforts to isolate Saddam.

3. Timor

- U.S. interest in Indonesia comprehensive and vast; hope not to have to mention East Timor in future conversations, but must do so now.

- International community still focused on problems in East and West Timor; U.S. ability to reengage fully with Indonesia depends on further progress in West Timor; GOI actions extremely important.

- Role of military in West Timor especially important; specifically need to see active military cooperation to facilitate return of refugees from West Timor, disarm and disband militias, and prevent militia incursions across the East Timor border.

- Further, crucial to see demonstrable progress on accountability for military abuses in East Timor

- Call on you to do all possible to ensure the International Commission of Inquiry dispatched to East Timor as soon as possible.

4. Other "Internal" Indonesian Issues

Aceh

- Developments in Aceh of great concern; U.S. supports territorial integrity of Indonesia; encouraged byWahid's efforts to resolve situation by political means.

- Want to encourage continued restraint and offer any U.S. assistance you believe useful toward peaceful result.

Military Reform

- Military reform of paramount importance, key to resumption of our defense ties.

- In addition to Timor points I made earlier, also entails restraint in other disputed territories (Aceh, Irian Jaya) and demonstrated commitment to principle of civilian supremacy.

Economic Reform

- Economic reform also crucial, applaud steps taken thus far release of Bank Bali report, window of opportunity for further progress is now.

- Sound IMF-backed economic program key; move ahead with corporate debt restructuring and resolve all contract disputes; tackling corruption essential

5. Accountability Conference (If not adequately addressed in President's Meeting with Wahid)

- Am told that in past President Wahid has expressed interest in learning how other countries in transition to democracy have dealt with issues of justice and reconciliation.

- We could help organize multinational conference on justice and reconciliation so that some of your new ministers can sit down with key figures from Chile, Argentina, Salvador, South Africa and South Korea to examine various mechanisms through which their socieities have addressed these questions.

- While Indonesia will need to choose path that fits its unique cultural and political circumstances, such a gathering would provide opportunity for some of your new ministers to learn from successes and failures of other processes in other places.

- If you agree, would be very pleased to host your new Minister for Human Rights, your Attorney General, and other senior officials who will have to manage these issues to come to a conference here in Washington, perhaps in December. They could also use the opportunity to hold consultations with their relevant counterparts in government, members of our Congress, and NGOs.

- A/S Roth, my Policy Planner Mort Halperin, and my A/S for Human Rights Harold Koh have all expressed interest in participating. I understand that your Minister for Human Rights has been approached about this and is also enthusiastic.

For Immediate Release November 12, 1999

REMARKS BY PRESIDENT CLINTON AND INDONESIAN PRESIDENT WAHID
IN PHOTO OPPORTUNITY
The Oval Office

12:20 P.M. EST

PRESIDENT CLINTON: Let me say, it's a great honor for me and for all of our team to welcome President Wahid here, with the members of his government. He is now the leader of the world's third-largest democracy, and we are very encouraged by that. We have seen this peaceful transition in Indonesia; we've seen a resolution in East Timor, even though there's still the problem of refugees in West Timor. And I'm looking very much forward to this visit.

I think the American people know that a strong and stable and prosperous and democratic Indonesia is very much in our interest. That's the sort of partnership we're interested in pursuing, and I hope I can be helpful in that regard.

So I'm delighted to have you here, Mr. President. And if you'd like to make any public comment to the press while you're here --

PRESIDENT WAHID: Well, thank you for putting a little time for me today to visit you, Mr. President, because you know that I come from Indonesia just to make sure that we are still great friends of the United States, that we are still in good touch with you. And I think that in the future, we meet you more than before. So also that you know that although there is a shift in policy, but not at the expense of the American-Indonesian relationship. This is very important to know, since you understand that this is one world, so we have to create that kind of one world.

And I'm interested in the comment you made about our religious dialogue, which goes toward one world, in that sense. You see, from far away we heard that you made very nice comments on those inter-religious dialogues in Indonesia. And I hope that two months to come, in January, we'll have a discussion initiated by the Americans from Philadelphia, with the Foreign Minister to be a participant there, to be on the organizing committee. We will invite, of course, chief rabbi of Israel as well as the -- former chief rabbi. And from here, from the Catholic side and so forth, I don't know who will come. But anyway, around 50 people will come there, of the three Abrahamic traditions.

And since, you know, that kind of thing is special for us in Indonesia, I would like to use this occasion to inform you about this, before anything else -- economic things. Those are the troubles there.

So I'm very glad. Today I met people from the World Bank and the IMF and then from the Ex-Im Bank, in which we see the possibility of having more hands extended towards us, to help us to overcome the difficulties in the economic shape, now.

Well, you mentioned about East Timor. I think that, of course, we still have trouble, and we would like the United States to take attention to this kind of problem as well. But I would like to inform you, Mr. President, that -- will come to Jakarta, and I'll meet him. So I hope that will ease a little bit the situation in that area, because East Timor is, you know, our brothers.

PRESIDENT CLINTON: Thank you very much. That's very good news.

Q President Wahid, sir, President Wahid, sir, why are you inclined to be willing to pardon your predecessor, President Soeharto? And President Clinton, what do you think of the possibility of a pardon for him?

PRESIDENT WAHID: I think if we -- we will use law, of course. And we would like to know whether he is guilty or not, according to the law. But after that, we will pardon him because of two reasons. First is that he was our President, so we have to be careful about this for the future generations. Second thing is that, you know, that it's not easy, because Mr. Soeharto still has big followers. So we have to be careful not to, let's say, topple the cart.

PRESIDENT CLINTON: I think the decision, first of all, is one for the Indonesian people and government to make. And I think every country has to decide how to resolve the tension between the pursuit of a particular case and the desire for the reconciliation of people, and to go forward. And I think that that's a decision that the President has to make, and we ought to support his -- anything that he's trying to do to build democracy and to take Indonesia into the future.

Yes, you had a question?

Q Mr. President, after this meeting will you resume military assistance to Indonesia?

PRESIDENT CLINTON: Well, we're going to talk about that, and about what kinds of things that we both can do, over a period of time, to strengthen our relationships, including the issue of military-to-military ties. And I look forward to talking to the President about that.

Q How important is the structural integrity -- the territorial integrity of Indonesia? And is it more important than the self-determination of the peoples of Indonesia?

PRESIDENT CLINTON: Well, I don't think it has to be an either-or thing. I think the -- I said, at the time when Indonesia supported giving the East Timorese a vote, that I would support that, and that having given them the vote, that the vote had to be respected.

On the other hand, we support the territorial integrity of Indonesia. And I think we have to acknowledge that it's quite a challenging task to preserve a democracy so widespread and so diverse. And I hope we can be somewhat helpful in the President dealing with this challenge.

Q Sir, are you willing to compromise on the abortion funding issue in order to get the U.N. dues paid? And where is the status of those talks concerning the budget matter?

PRESIDENT CLINTON: Well, I think it's very important that we pay our United Nations arrears. We can hardly ask others to do their part unless we do ours. And it's a big national security issue for us.

And it's related to this whole idea of whether we're going to fulfill our responsibilities in the world. And we have negotiations ongoing. They haven't been resolved yet. And I think I should follow the same admonition I try to give others when they're involved in negotiations around the world: the less we say, the better -- until we have an agreement that we think we can all stick by. But we're working on it, and I hope we can work it out.

MR. SIEWERT: Thank you, pool.

Q -- Mrs. Barshefsky coming back tomorrow? Have you given up hope of any deal, a WTO deal before the end of the year?

PRESIDENT CLINTON: No. You know, they're actually -- I have committed not to talk about the details of the talks, and I won't. But there are a finite and limited number of issues over which there are still differences, and they're working on them. And I have not given up.

I think it would be a very good thing for the world, and a very good thing for the Chinese if China were in the WTO. But the reason it would be a good thing is that it would give them participation in a rule-based system, where you could have more and more open trade on fair and balanced terms. So the entry has to be a decision that has some real integrity to it, and it makes sense in terms of everybody else's membership and everybody else's responsibilities. And we're just trying to work through that. I hope we can.

But I think it's a very, very important objective. And I'm certainly glad we've pursued it, and we will continue to do so. And I hope we'll be successful, but I don't really have anything to say. I wouldn't read too much one way or the other into developments so far. Let's wait and see where we are when we've actually run out of time.

Q On Pakistan, do you have any information?

PRESIDENT CLINTON: Not yet.

ARE ALSO GROWING, AND WAHID HIMSELF HAS SHOWN A TENDENCY IN ADDRESSING THIS MAJOR CHALLENGE TO NATIONAL UNITY TO TRY TO APPEASE EVERYONE, SUPPORTING THE PRINCIPLE OF A REFERENDUM BUT FORECLOSING THE OPTION OF INDEPENDENCE. HIS CONFLICTING STATEMENTS LEAVE EVERYONE UNCERTAIN OF HIS TRUE INTENTIONS. IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS, ALTHOUGH WAHID HAS SAID ALL THE RIGHT THINGS ABOUT THE IMF AND THE NEED FOR INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT, HE OCCASIONALLY RETURNS TO THE IDEA THAT INDONESIA, CHINA, AND INDIA NEED TO WORK TOGETHER SO THAT THEY CAN DEAL WITH THE WEST ON THE BASIS OF EQUALITY. SIMILARLY, ALTHOUGH HE IS COMMITTED TO CLOSER TIES WITH ISRAEL, HIS RUMINATIONS (AND OLD SCHOOL TIES IN EGYPT AND IRAQ) ABOUT A LARGER ROLE FOR INDONESIA IN PROMOTING MIDDLE EAST PEACE HAVE LED HIM TO CONSIDER (BUT PROBABLY REJECT) THE IDEA OF ENGAGING SADDAM HUSSEIN.

HE WELCOMES OUR ADVICE, AS DOES HIS CLOSE CONFIDANT AND FOREIGN MINISTER, ALWI SHIHAB. BUT HE IS GOING TO NEED OUR HELP (ALONG WITH THAT OF THE REST OF THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY) IF HE IS TO SUCCEED IN TACKLING INDONESIA'S STILL DAUNTING POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, AND SOCIAL PROBLEMS.

U.S SUPPORTS A STRONG, STABLE, PROSPEROUS, AND UNIFIED INDONESIA AND WANTS TO WORK WITH WAHID AND HIS GOVERNMENT TOWARD THAT OUTCOME.

ECONOMIC RECOVERY:

-- THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY IS EAGER TO SUPPORT INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY PROGRAM. WAHID'S DECISION TO RELEASE THE BANK BALI REPORT SENT AN EXCELLENT FIRST SIGNAL OF HIS ADMINISTRATION'S WILLINGNESS TO TAKE THE ACTIONS THAT ARE NECESSARY TO ALLOW THE INTERNATIONAL COMMUNITY TO HELP. WE AWAIT CONCRETE FOLLOW-UP TO EARLY STATEMENTS OF HIS GOVERNMENT'S INTENTION TO COMPLETE THE BANK BALI INVESTIGATION AND PROSECUTE WRONG-DOERS. MIDDLE EAST POLICY:

-- IN SETTING FOREIGN POLICY DIRECTIONS, THE NEW GOVERNMENT NEEDS TO BE MORE COGNIZANT OF THE IMPACT ITS ACTIONS WILL HAVE ON INTERNATIONAL CONFIDENCE AND SUPPORT FOR INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION. WE APPRECIATE WAHID'S INCLUSIVE APPROACH TO FOREIGN POLICY, PARTICULARLY HIS WILLINGNESS TO OPEN TRADE AND COMMERCIAL RELATIONS WITH ISRAEL, DESPITE OPPOSITION FROM SOME INDONESIAN MUSLIM ELEMENTS. THIS WILL SEND POSITIVE SIGNALS. WAHID ALREADY IS PLAYING A PERSONAL ROLE IN INTERFAITH PEACE AND RECONCILIATION EFFORTS IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND WOULD LIKE INDONESIA TO PLAY A ROLE IN THE MIDDLE EAST PEACE PROCESS, EVEN IF ONLY SYMBOLIC. (WAHID IS A MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF THE SHIMON PERES FOUNDATION AND ONE OF THE ORGANIZERS OF THE WORLD CONFERENCE ON PEACE AND RECONCILIATION, SCHEDULED TO MEET IN AMMAN IN JANUARY.) IT WOULD HELP WAHID TO "SELL" HIS ISRAELI POLICY AT HOME IF INDONESIA WERE INVITED TO PLAY A ROLE, EVEN IF ONLY SYMBOLIC, IN THE MIDDLE EAST PEACE PROCESS. WAHID SHOULD BE CAUTIOUS, HOWEVER, ABOUT OVER-ESTIMATING INDONESIA'S INFLUENCE ON A PROCESS ALREADY UNDERWAY AND HE SHOULD BE CAREFUL NOT TO EXTEND HIS INTERMEDIARY APPROACH TO SITUATIONS WHERE IT IS UNWARRANTED AND UNWELCOME. FOR EXAMPLE, HIS INTENTION TO MEET WITH SADDAM HUSSEIN IS SERIOUSLY MISPLACED AND HE SHOULD REFRAIN FROM MEETING WITH SADDAM. SUCH A MEETING WOULD BE A MAJOR SET-BACK FOR BOTH HIS MIDDLE EAST POLICY AND FOR HIS EFFORTS TO GENERATE INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR INDONESIA'S ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND DEMOCRATIC TRANSITION.

ACEH:

-- THE UNITED STATES STRONGLY SUPPORTS THE TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY OF INDONESIA. WE ARE CONCERNED THAT UNREALISTIC

EXPECTATIONS OF INDEPENDENCE FOR ACEH HAVE BEEN RAISED BY STATEMENTS MADE BY WAHID AND OTHER SENIOR OFFICIALS AND THAT, AS A RESULT, THE SITUATION IN ACEH IS BECOMING MORE, NOT LESS, VOLATILE. WE APPRECIATE WAHID'S GESTURES -- CALL FOR INVESTIGATION INTO TNI'S PAST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND FOR WITHDRAWAL OF NON-TERRITORIAL COMBAT MILITARY UNITS -- AND HIS PROMISE OF A POLITICAL DIALOGUE AND GREATER POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC AUTONOMY. EXPEDITIOUS IMPLEMENTATION AND CONCRETE PROGRESS ARE REQUIRED TO TURN THE SITUATION AROUND AND WILL PROBABLY REQUIRE THE ACTIVE PERSONAL INVOLVEMENT ON WAHID HIMSELF.

MILITARY REFORM:

-- WE WELCOME STEPS TAKEN TO PLACE THE MILITARY UNDER CIVILIAN CONTROL AND THE REALIZATION BY SOME IN THE GOVERNMENT (AND ELEMENTS OF TNI) OF THE NEED TO ACCOUNT FOR PAST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND TO UNDERTAKE INTERNAL REFORMS THAT WILL EVENTUALLY ABOLISH THE "DUAL FUNCTION" AND REORIENT THE MILITARY AWAY FROM INTERNAL SECURITY AND TOWARD EXTERNAL DEFENSE. WE SUPPORT THE THRUST OF WAHID'S INTENTION TO BEEF UP THE NAVY AND AIR FORCE TO SECURE INDONESIA'S BORDERS AND SHOULD FOCUS OUR PHASED RESUMPTION OF MILITARY-TO-MILITARY PROGRAMS ON THESE SERVICES.

THE U.S. VALUES A FRIENDLY AND COOPERATIVE DEFENSE RELATIONSHIP WITH INDONESIA AND, IN THE PAST, HAD A ROBUST PROGRAM OF EQUIPMENT SALES, TRAINING, AND JOINT EXERCISES. SERIOUS AND CONCRETE ACTIONS BY THE INDONESIAN MILITARY TO ACCOUNT FOR ITS HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND TO UNDERTAKE REFORM WILL PERMIT US TO RESUME MILITARY-TO-MILITARY COOPERATION.

6. (U) PUBLIC AFFAIRS THEMES: INTERNATIONAL AND INDONESIAN MEDIA WILL GIVE EXTENSIVE COVERAGE TO THE VISIT. INDONESIA MEDIA WILL FOCUS CLOSELY ON THE TREATMENT ACCORDED TO THEIR PRESIDENT, LOOKING SIGNS OF RESPECT AND RECOGNITION. IN PUBLIC STATEMENTS ASSOCIATED WITH THE VISIT, WE SHOULD NOTE THAT, IN DECEMBER 1999, THE U.S. AND INDONESIA ARE CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS. THE U.S. AMBASSADOR WAS THE FIRST FOREIGN AMBASSADOR TO PRESENT HIS CREDENTIALS TO THE NEW INDONESIAN GOVERNMENT IN 1949. DESPITE THE VAST DISTANCES AND CULTURAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN OUR TWO COUNTRIES, BOTH ARE LARGE (GEOGRAPHICALLY AND DEMOGRAPHICALLY), MULTI-ETHNIC AND MULTI-CULTURAL SOCIETIES WHICH EMERGED FROM COLONIALISM TO TAKE LEADING ROLES ON THE WORLD STAGE. WE CONGRATULATE INDONESIA FOR ITS RAPID TRANSFORMATION OVER THE PAST 17 MONTHS FROM AUTHORITARIANISM TO OPEN, PLURALISTIC, PARTICIPATORY DEMOCRACY. TODAY, THE U.S. AND INDONESIA ARE THE WORLD'S

SECOND AND THIRD LARGEST DEMOCRACIES. WE WANT TO BE HELPFUL TO THE NEW GOVERNMENT AND TO THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE. WE RECOGNIZE INDONESIA'S PROUD HISTORY AS A LEADER AMONG DEVELOPING COUNTRIES AND A MODERATE AND RESPONSIBLE VOICE IN ASEAN, THE ARF, APEC, THE OIC, THE G-77 AND THE UNITED NATIONS. WE RESPECT INDONESIA'S SOVEREIGNTY AND OFFER OUR SUPPORT FOR CONTINUED REFORMS AS INDONESIA DECIDES HOW BEST TO ADDRESS ITS POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, AND SOCIAL CHALLENGES. WE SEEK RESUMPTION OF MILITARY-TO-MILITARY COOPERATION WHEN CONDITIONS PERMIT. IN SUM, WE LOOK FORWARD TO A HEALTHY AND MUTUALLY BENEFICIAL RELATIONSHIP IN THE NEW MILLENNIUM. GELBARD

3. (U) THE PRESIDENT: I WANT TO ASSURE YOU THAT THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF SYMPATHY FOR INDONESIA IN THE UNITED STATES.

4. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: THANK YOU. INDONESIA NEEDS HELP FROM ALL OF ITS FRIENDS. WHEN I GO BACK HOME, I WILL TELL THE INDONESIAN PEOPLE THAT ALL IS SAFE CONCERNING OUR TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY.

5. (C) THE PRESIDENT: IT IS. THIS IS AN ISSUE WE ARE VERY CONCERNED ABOUT. ALL OVER THE WORLD, THERE ARE CASES OF OPPRESSION, SOME VERY INTENSE. YOU KNOW I SUPPORTED THE KOSOVAR MUSLIMS. THE DIFFICULTY IS IN HOW TO DEAL WITH BIG, COMPLEX COUNTRIES IN WAYS THAT RESPECT RELIGIOUS AND OTHER DIFFERENCES. NOT EVERY GROUP SHOULD HAVE TO SET UP ITS OWN COUNTRY TO RESOLVE DIFFERENCES.

6. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: IN INDONESIA, I WANT EVERYTHING

TO BE CLEAR; TO BE TRANSPARENT. WE NOW WILL PRACTICE TRANSPARENCY, ALTHOUGH SINCE INDEPENDENCE WE HAVE NOT. I

CONFIDENTIAL

HOPE WE CAN DO SO AND, WITH HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS, SUCCEED. ESTABLISHING A DEMOCRACY IS NOT EASY.

7. (C) THE PRESIDENT: NO, IT IS NOT EASY. YOU ARE OFF TO A GREAT START, THOUGH. I VERY MUCH ENJOYED WATCHING THE WAY YOU HAVE BEEN ABLE TO AFFIRM YOUR OWN RELIGIOUS CONVICTIONS BUT IN A WAY THAT DOES NOT SUGGEST THAT THOSE WITH DIFFERENT CONVICTIONS WILL BE OPPRESSED.

8. (U) PRESIDENT WAHID: INDONESIA SHOULD LOOK AT THE PREAMBLE OF ITS CONSTITUTION TO SEE IF A BILL OF RIGHTS IS INCLUDED. WE HAVE MUCH WE CAN LEARN FROM YOU.

9. (C) THE PRESIDENT: ONE OF THE TOUGH PROBLEMS IS THE BALANCE BETWEEN MAJORITY RULE AND MINORITY RIGHTS. I BELIEVE IT IS IMPORTANT TO SEEK AVENUES TO STRENGTHEN MINORITY RIGHTS, NOT UNDERMINE THEM. IF YOU LOOK AT WHAT CHINA IS DOING TO THE FALUN GONG, THEY ARE AFRAID DISSENT WILL WEAKEN THEIR SYSTEM. INSTEAD, I BELIEVE IT IS THEIR REACTION THAT WILL WEAKEN IT. INDONESIA IS A COUNTRY OF ENORMOUS POTENTIAL. IF YOU CAN CONVINCE MINORITIES TO REMAIN IN INDONESIA, YOU WILL HAVE YOUR BEST OPPORTUNITY TO EXPAND YOUR INFLUENCE IN THE REGION AND THE WORLD. THIS IS A GOAL WORTH PURSUING.

10. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: YOU KNOW I WAS THE CANDIDATE OF THE "AXIS" GROUP OF MUSLIM PARTIES. THEIR MEMBERS ARE NOT FANATICS OR TERRORISTS. THEY WANT TO CONTRIBUTE TO INDONESIA. I WOULD LIKE TO HELP ACHIEVE THE MATURITY OF THE ISLAMIC MOVEMENT, AND I BELIEVE THIS IS ACCEPTABLE TO INDONESIANS AS A WHOLE. HOWEVER, THIS COURSE IS ALSO

FRAUGHT WITH SOME DANGER. FOR THIS REASON, I ASKED ALWI SHIHAR, A PROFESSOR OF DIVINITY, TO BE FOREIGN MINISTER AND HELP EXPLAIN WHAT IT MEANS TO BE AN INDONESIAN AND A MUSLIM.

11. (U) THE PRESIDENT: THAT WAS A GOOD IDEA FOR THE WORLD AT LARGE.

12. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: YOU KNOW THAT HE (ALWI SHIHAB) FACES DEMONSTRATIONS EVERY DAY BECAUSE OF MY STANCE ON ISRAEL.

13. (C) THE PRESIDENT: YOU MADE A VERY GOOD DECISION THAT WILL HELP THE CAUSE OF PEACE. ISRAEL IS CONCERNED THAT IT DOES NOT HAVE NORMAL RELATIONS WITH ENOUGH MUSLIM COUNTRIES. PEACE IS MORE THAN THE ABSENCE OF WAR. WHEN COUNTRIES REFUSE TO DO BUSINESS WITH ISRAEL OR DEAL WITH THEM, ISRAEL FEELS ISOLATED. IT WAS VERY POSITIVE FOR YOU TO SAY YOU WOULD BEGIN TO ESTABLISH TIES.

14. (C) RESIDENT WAHID: THIS WILL BE STEP-BY-STEP, BEGINNING WITH COMMERCIAL RELATIONS, THEN CULTURAL, AND FINALLY DIPLOMATIC. THIS COULD TAKE PERHAPS FIVE YEARS.

15. (U) THE PRESIDENT: I WOULD LIKE TO ASK YOU ABOUT YOUR PRIORITIES FOR THE ECONOMY.

16. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: PUTTING DOWN CORRUPTION IS THE FIRST PRIORITY. THIS IS NECESSARY TO ENCOURAGE NEW INVESTMENT. WE MUST SHOW PEOPLE THAT INDONESIA HAS GREAT

POTENTIAL, AND I HOPE YOU WILL ASSIST IN PERSUADING PEOPLE OF THIS. I AM SEEKING TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE FROM THE IMF AND WORLD BANK. I ALSO SPOKE WITH YOUR EX-IM BANK. I NEED THEIR HELP TO SETTLE OUR PROBLEMS, ESPECIALLY FOOD SHORTAGES BUT ALSO INCREASING THE INCOME OF PEOPLE. THIS RELATES ALSO TO MILITARY REFORM AND ENDING THE MILITARY'S "DUAL FUNCTION." THE MILITARY'S "DUAL FUNCTION" ROLE IS IN PART RELATED TO PROVIDING INCOME FOR INDIVIDUALS. IF SOLDIERS CANNOT LIVE ON THEIR SALARIES, IT IS DIFFICULT TO GET THEM OUT OF THEIR "DUAL FUNCTION" ROLE. WE NEED TO RAISE THEIR INCOME SO THIS ROLE CAN BE ENDED. I WOULD LIKE TO FINISH THIS IN PERHAPS SIX YEARS. I CANNOT DO IT NOW. I COULD SHOUT ABOUT THIS BUT IT WOULD DO NO GOOD.

17. (C) THE PRESIDENT: THE UNITED STATES WANTS TO BE AS HELPFUL AS POSSIBLE. A QUICK RECOVERY IN INDONESIA WOULD BENEFIT ALL OF ASIA. I WAS AMAZED AT WHAT I SAW WHEN I VISITED BOGOR FOR THE APEC SUMMIT. I WILL DO ALL I CAN TO HELP. AS A PRACTICAL MATTER, THOUGH, INVESTORS HAVE TO WANT TO PUT THEIR MONEY SOMEWHERE; YOU CANNOT MAKE THEM DO SO. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOU ADDRESS BANK RESTRUCTURING AND SHOW SERIOUS, EARLY PROGRESS IN THIS AREA. THAT WOULD BOOST CONFIDENCE; AGAIN, I AM PREPARED TO HELP IN THIS.

18. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: I INTEND TO PURSUE THREE

PRINCIPLES: OBJECTIVITY, FAIR TREATMENT, AND RULE OF LAW IN THIS REGARD. I HAVE TAKEN MEASURES TO SHOW THAT IF THERE ARE VIOLATIONS OF LAW, ACTION WILL BE TAKEN. I LEARNED THE DAY I LEFT OF DEVELOPMENT LOANS FROM JAPAN GOING TO A COMPANY OWNED BY A MINISTER. I TOLD MY CABINET THAT EVERY

MINISTER IS ACCOUNTABLE. IF FOUND GUILTY, HE WILL HAVE TO RESIGN. I ASKED OUR NATIONAL POWER COMPANY NOT TO SIGN THE CONTRACT AND HAVE ASKED THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO INVESTIGATE. IF THERE IS EVIDENCE, THE MINISTER WILL BE ASKED TO STEP ASIDE AND WILL BE REMOVED IF GUILTY. THERE MUST BE A PROCESS OF RULE OF LAW. ERADICATING CORRUPTION CAN ONLY BE DONE FROM THE TOP, DOWN. DEMOCRACY, ON THE OTHER HAND, IS BUILT FROM THE BOTTOM UP. IF THESE TWO COUNTERVAILING PROCESSES CAN BE MADE TO WORK, INDONESIA WILL ENJOY A RENAISSANCE.

19. (C) THE PRESIDENT: I WOULD LIKE TO TURN TO WHAT CAN BE DONE ABOUT THE MILITIAS IN WEST TIMOR.

20. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: YES, THE MILITIAS ARE A PROBLEM. THE ARMY HAS ITS OWN ELEMENTS IN THE MILITIA AND SOME USE ARMS TO CREATE OBSTACLES. I HAVE ASKED THE NATIONAL POLICE CHIEF TO PREPARE CONDITIONS TO ALLOW PEOPLE TO GO BACK FREELY. SOME 40 THOUSAND HAVE GONE BACK BUT WE NEED TO SEND MORE HOME. BY AIR IS BETTER THAN BY LAND. I ALSO ORDERED THE MINISTER OF SECURITY TO PREPARE PLANS.

21. (C) THE PRESIDENT: THE SPEED AND EFFECTIVENESS OF HOW THE SITUATION IS DEALT WITH WILL HAVE AN IMPACT ON INVESTMENT TOO. IT WOULD SHOW THE CAPACITY OF YOUR GOVERNMENT TO SOLVE PROBLEMS. WEAK GOVERNMENTS DRIVE AWAY INVESTORS. TIMOR MAY NOT BE AN ECONOMIC ISSUE BUT IT IS AN OPPORTUNITY TO SHOW YOUR CAPACITY TO FULFILL YOUR INTENTIONS. IF YOU SUCCEED, PEOPLE WILL BELIEVE IN YOU AND WILL WANT TO FOLLOW YOU. INVESTORS INTERESTED IN REFORM

WILL BE LOOKING AT TIMOR AS AN INDICATOR OF YOUR CAPACITY. THERE ARE MANY EXAMPLES AROUND THE WORLD OF THIS. IN AFRICA, FOR EXAMPLE, WHERE AIDS IS A HUGE PROBLEM, UGANDA HAS SHOWN A CAPACITY TO ADDRESS IT AND THAT HAS HELPED ATTRACT INVESTMENT. IN ANY CASE, THE RIGHT THING TO DO IS TO ALLOW THE REFUGEES TO GO HOME.

22. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: I EXPECT THAT WITHIN TWO TO

THREE MONTHS, ALL WILL RETURN. XANANA GUSMAO WILL BE IN JAKARTA THIS MONTH. I HOPE TO WORK WITH HIM ON A FRAMEWORK FOR COOPERATIVE RELATIONS BETWEEN EAST TIMOR AND INDONESIA.

23. (C) THE PRESIDENT: I AM PLEASED YOU ARE WILLING TO RECEIVE HIM.

24. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: HE AND I ARE "BROTHERS." WHEN I MET HIM WHILE HE WAS STILL IN PRISON, I TOLD HIM I HOPED THE PLEBISCITE WOULD KEEP EAST TIMOR IN INDONESIA SO IF I BECAME THE PRESIDENT HE COULD BECOME FOREIGN MINISTER. HE SAID, "NO, NO. I WANT INDEPENDENCE." WE CAN JOKE WITH EACH OTHER.

25. (C) THE PRESIDENT: THAT IS IMPORTANT. IT IS HARD TO DEHUMANIZE PEOPLE IF YOU KNOW THEM AS PEOPLE.

26. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: I WANT TO EXPLAIN TO YOU ABOUT MY VISIT TO ASEAN COUNTRIES. I KNEW THAT YOU WOULD BE RATIONALISTIC ABOUT MY DECISIONS ON FOREIGN TRAVEL BUT NOT SO ASEAN LEADERS. I NEEDED TO GIVE THEM ATTENTION.

27. (C) THE PRESIDENT: GOOD, YOU WERE RIGHT. I CAN SEE

THEY MIGHT BE HAPPY FOR INDONESIA BUT ALSO A BIT JEALOUS OF THE ATTENTION IT IS RECEIVING. YOU DID THE RIGHT THING. I WONDER IF SECRETARY SUMMERS WOULD LIKE TO SAY SOMETHING?

28. (C) SECRETARY SUMMERS: THANK YOU FOR RECEIVING MY COLLEAGUES FROM TREASURY. THEY HAD GOOD DISCUSSIONS. I WOULD POINT OUT THAT THE MOST IMPORTANT SOURCE OF CAPITAL IS THE FINANCIAL RESOURCES OF YOUR OWN CITIZENS. TENS OF BILLIONS OF DOLLARS HAVE LEFT YOUR COUNTRY. THE OWNERS WERE NOT CONFIDENT THEIR MONEY WOULD BE PROTECTED BY THE RULE OF LAW. RULE OF LAW, PROPERTY RIGHTS, BANK RESTRUCTURING ARE NECESSARY TO BRING THIS CAPITAL BACK. I HOPE YOU WILL MOVE FORWARD AS FAST AS YOU POSSIBLY CAN. WE ARE PREPARED TO PROVIDE TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE. DURING THE DECADES OF THE 70S THROUGH THE 90S, INDONESIA BY SOME MEASURES WAS THE WORLD'S MOST SUCCESSFUL ECONOMY. I HOPE YOU CAN ENJOY THAT STATUS ONCE AGAIN.

29. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: IT IS VERY REASSURING TO HEAR THIS FROM YOU. THE BANKING SECTOR SHOULD BE FREE AND INDEPENDENT. THE GOVERNMENT WILL ASSURE THEM OF THIS.

30. (C) THE PRESIDENT: I WOULD LIKE TO FOLLOW UP ON THE DISCUSSION OF TERRITORIAL INTEGRITY. I HAVE SPENT A LOT OF

TIME ON THIS IN OTHER CONTEXTS. WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS? IF THERE IS ANYTHING YOU BELIEVE WE CAN DO, WE WILL HELP. WE DO NOT WANT TO MEDDLE OR INTERVENE BUT I AM CURIOUS TO KNOW WHAT YOU INTEND TO DO IN ACEH.

31. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: THANK YOU FOR YOUR OFFER OF A HELPING HAND. I INTEND TO HOLD OUT THE OLIVE BRANCH AND

CONFIDENTIAL

PAGE 10 STATE 223111 242314Z

WILL NEGOTIATE WITH THOSE WHO ARE PREPARED TO BE CONSTRUCTIVE. FOR THOSE WHOSE ONLY MOTIVE IS SEPARATION, WE WOULD BE PREPARED TO USE THE STICK. SO, I AM OFFERING A CARROT AND STICK APPROACH. THERE ARE SOME WHO WANT TO CREATE DIFFICULTIES IN ACEH, AND I NEED TO KNOW WHICH ONES THEY ARE. I CANNOT RISK GETTING THIS WRONG. I AM PLEASED THE U.S. IS INTERESTED IN HELPING US FIND A RESOLUTION.

32. (C) THE PRESIDENT: I AM INTERESTED IN THE QUESTION THE INDONESIAN REPORTER ASKED ABOUT MILITARY-TO-MILITARY TIES. WHAT ARE YOUR PLANS FOR DEALING WITH THE MILITARY?

33. (C) PRESIDENT WAHID: WE MUST USE ALL OUR WITS TO "DISARM" THEM. FIRST, I HAVE TRIED TO PUT THE POLITICALLY MINDED GENERALS IN CHARGE OF MINISTRIES SO THE MILITARY CAN BE RUN BY COMPETENT OFFICERS WHO HAVE MILITARY CONSIDERATIONS, NOT POLITICAL ONES, IN MIND. I CAN DO THIS OVER TIME. SECOND, I WOULD LIKE TO SEPARATE THE INTERNAL INTELLIGENCE FUNCTION FROM THE MILITARY. I PLAN TO PHASE THEM OUT OF THIS ROLE IN A FEW MONTHS. THIRD, I HAVE TO ALLOW SOLDIERS TO DEVELOP ACTIVITIES THAT WILL ENSURE THEIR OWN WELFARE. IT IS IMPORTANT TO INCREASE THEIR INCOMES. AS TO THE QUESTION PUT BY THE REPORTER, I WOULD LET THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT DO WHAT IT THINKS BEST. I BELIEVE WE CAN FIND A COMMON ANSWER. I KNOW IT IS NOT EASY FOR YOU AND THAT CONGRESS HAS VIEWS. IT IS ALSO NOT EASY FOR US BUT WE CAN WORK TOGETHER.

34. (U) THE PRESIDENT: THAT APPROACH SOUND GOOD TO ME. WILL YOU SEE OTHERS IN WASHINGTON?

CONFIDENTIAL

35. (U) PRESIDENT WAHID: FROM HERE I WILL GO TO SALT LAKE CITY. MY FOREIGN MINISTER WILL STAY AND HAS A LIST OF REQUESTS HE WILL RAISE WITH THE SECRETARY OF STATE.

36. (U) THE PRESIDENT: THANK YOU. AGAIN, I ASSURE YOU THAT THE UNITED STATES WANTS TO BE A GOOD FRIEND.

Annotated Checklist of Issues for Participation in POTUS' Meeting with Indonesian President Wahid November 12, 1999

1. Reinforcing the Welcome
2. Underscoring the Timor and Indonesian Military Messages
3. (Must Do) Wahid Meeting with Saddam

1. Reinforcing the Welcome: Want to do everything possible to help with democratic transition and economic recovery; will work closely with FM Shihab; invite participation in multinational conference on justice and reconciliation in democratic transition.

2. Underscoring the Timor and Indonesian Military Messages: ~~East Timor does not drive our Indonesia policy. In your~~ interest to help solve problems in East Timor. Hope new GOI moves to disband militias, end TNI support for them, facilitate repatriation, and cooperate with human rights investigations.

3. (Must Do) Wahid Meeting with Saddam: Concerned about report of possible Wahid-Saddam meeting. Saddam has made Iraq pariah state; meeting him would damage Indonesia's reputation, create unwillingness in U.S. Congress to assist. Hope you won't associate democratic Indonesia with Saddam's dictatorship.

Reinforcing the Welcome; Proposing Conference

- Fully support what President Clinton has said. Indonesia important country; your election an historic opportunity for us to help Indonesian people realize democratic aspirations and recover economic prosperity.

- Pledge to do all I can, working with Foreign Minister Shihab, to improve relations on basis of common interests and mutual respect.

- Previously you expressed interest in how other countries in transition to democracy dealt with issues of justice and reconciliation.

- We could host multinational conference on justice and reconciliation allowing some of your ministers to explore these issues with key figures from Chile, Argentina, Salvador, South Africa and South Korea.

- While Indonesia must choose path that fits its unique cultural and political circumstances, a conference would provide opportunity to learn from successes and failures of others.

- Would be pleased to host your Minister for Human Rights, your Attorney General, and others at a conference here, perhaps in December. Participants could also meet with government counterparts, members of our Congress, and NGOs.

Underscoring the Timor and Indonesian Military Messages

- Hope in near future, we no longer have to talk about East Timor.
- Want to reassure you that United States recognizes the enormous strategic importance of Indonesia, and does not formulate policy toward your country on the basis of the situation in East Timor.
- Must also emphasize that actions in East Timor critical in persuading American people that there has been a real change in Indonesia; that Indonesia deserves strong U.S. support.
- Progress on problems in East Timor in the interest of better U.S.-Indonesian relations.
- Must underscore seriousness of our concerns about the militias in West Timor, role of the Indonesian military (TNI).
- Hope your government can disband and disarm the militias, facilitate refugee repatriation, and prevent any effort to destabilize East Timor from the West Timorese side of the border.

(Must Do) Wahid Meeting with Saddam

- Hear you may consider meeting with Saddam Hussein.
- Understand you studied in Iraq and have a special attachment to the Iraqi people.
- Share your concerns about welfare of Iraqi people; doesn't justify meeting with Saddam, who made Iraq pariah state, subject to UN sanctions.
- Meeting him would severely damage Indonesia's reputation; could impact willingness of U.S. Congress to provide assistance to your country.
- Concerned this would associate you -- the democratic leader of a new Indonesian government -- with Saddam's dictatorship; undermine international efforts to isolate Saddam's regime.

MEETING WITH INDONESIAN PRESIDENT WAHID R2B

I. KEY OBJECTIVES

- Supporting Democratic Transition: Underscore our long term commitment to working closely with and aiding Wahid and his government to promote a democratic, stable, prosperous, and unified Indonesia. Emphasize our commitment to Indonesia's territorial integrity.

- Economic Reform and Recovery: Stress our support for Indonesia's economic recovery program, while indicating that our ability to help Indonesia will be heavily influenced by the economic policies adopted by the new government.

- Military-to-Military Relations: Emphasize that we want to get bilateral relations back on track, but must see credible evidence of military reform, including improved military behavior in East Timor (disarming military, expediting repatriation of refuges, securing the border with East Timor against militia raids), some form of accountability for the abuses in East Timor, military restraint in other territorial disputes (Aceh, Irian Jaya) and a demonstrated commitment to the principle of civilian supremacy.

- Aceh: Express our concern about the deteriorating situation in Aceh, emphasize need to manage situation carefully, both to preserve Indonesia's territorial integrity and to avoid human rights abuses. Support Wahid's use of political dialogue over military options and ask if the international community can be helpful.

- (Watch Out For): If Wahid raises a possible meeting with Saddam Hussein, explain this would severely damage Indonesia's reputation. Not in the interest of new, democratic Indonesia to be seen as supporting dictator who is international pariah.

II. CONTEXT OF MEETING

Abdurrahman Wahid exemplifies the strengths and weaknesses of Indonesia's still imperfect transition from Soeharto's legacy of a centrist-authoritarian regime a more promising democratic future. His reputation for tolerance and his reform instincts on most key issues are sound, but he and his new cabinet are short on experience and appear prone to occasional stumbles when addressing challenges that require careful handling. Moreover, his broad-based cabinet itself is a mixed bag and unproven. Wahid, frail and almost blind, will need to exercise strong leadership from the top to keep things on course.

Barely two weeks in office, Wahid has racked up an impressive record with selection of a human rights activist as his attorney general, creation of a new human rights ministry headed by a respected Acehnese figure, and support for investigations into East Timor human rights abuses among the most prominent achievements. Release of the full Bank Bali audit report (a controversial corruption symbol from the Habibie Administration) demonstrated Wahid's commitment to fight corruption.

B1

Separatist pressures in Aceh and Irian Jaya threaten to undermine Indonesia's territorial integrity, and Wahid, with his innate tolerance of competing views must be careful not to heighten expectations that could undermine Indonesian unity.

Thus far, Wahid and his key foreign policy advisors have demonstrated a surprising willingness to seek our counsel on issues of importance to us, such as relations with Israel. Your meeting will be Wahid's first with a non-ASEAN leader. It should serve to strengthen a sense of cooperation, and to create the momentum and goodwill necessary to deal with the difficult bilateral issues we face without letting them come to dominate the overall bilateral relationship. Wahid will see his meeting with you as U.S. recognition of Indonesia's important role in the region, and an opportunity to enhance his own image as a leading Asian democrat of this huge emerging democracy.

CONFIDENTIAL

III. AGENDA/POINTS

Supporting Democratic Transition. Indonesia has undergone a tumultuous but steady transition to democracy since the fall of Soeharto in May 1998, a transition process we strongly supported. The election of reformists President Wahid and Vice President Megawati last month sets the stage for consolidating these hard-earned democratic gains. But U.S.-Indonesia ties have been strained over Indonesia's handling of East Timor. Engaging the Wahid Administration offers the U.S. an historic opportunity to repair the damage and help Indonesia rebuild its democratic institutions.

- The American people welcome your historic election as president and are honored by your early visit to the U.S. I want to work closely with you and your government to support a democratic, stable, prosperous, unified Indonesia.

- Our nations have much in common. We are both large and diverse multi-ethnic and multi-cultural societies. And, ~~with Indonesia's rapid transformation from~~ authoritarianism to an open, pluralistic, and participatory system, we are both democracies.

- I am aware of the personal role you have played in the political democratization process and your personal reputation for tolerance and reconciliation. I hope you will let us know if there are ways we can help you move Indonesia toward greater respect for human rights, and deeper reform, including of the Indonesian military.

- Ambassador Gelbard has spoken to you of our desire for close engagement. I have asked UN Ambassador Holbrooke to visit Indonesia next week to explore ways we can be helpful and, in the next few weeks, we will dispatch an interagency assessment team to flesh out priorities where our close cooperation might be most effective.

- Indonesia's quick recovery and political stability is important to the United States. Our two countries have enjoyed good relations in the past and I sincerely hope to see these relations strengthen and deepen in the period ahead. I pledge my government to this goal and look forward to working with you toward that end.

Economic Reform and Recovery. Although inexperienced and a product of political compromise, the new GOI economic cabinet seems willing to break with bad past practices.

Wahid and Coordinating Economic Minister Kwik Kian Gie have stated their intention to pursue economic recovery and reform in close cooperation with the international community and the IMF.

- We strongly support Indonesia's economic recovery, which is key to political stability. It is for this reason that we have already dispatched a team of senior economic experts to Indonesia to engage your new economic team.

- Release of the Bank Bali report sent an excellent first signal of willingness to take necessary actions to allow the international community to help with Indonesia's economic recovery program.

- From our experience, the confidence of markets and foreign and domestic investors depends on consistent economic policy signals. The most important of these will be to reach early agreement with the international financial institutions on a convincing economic program and to implement it faithfully.

- Our experience tells us that the markets and investors will monitor several key areas. Transparency, fairness, and a commitment to contracts and the rule of law will be key. I understand that your financial markets, corporate sector, and power industry damaged severely during the Asian financial crisis, still require much hard work. My government is committed to helping you put these challenges behind you.

Military-to-Military Relations. The Indonesian military (TNI) remains the biggest hurdle to further political reform and closer bilateral relations. Military to military relations remain suspended. While we would like to be in a position to resume this relationship, it will depend on clear evidence of military reform, including better behavior in West Timor, accountability for past abuses, restraint in other territorial disputes (Aceh) and a demonstrated commitment to civilian supremacy.

- Mr. President, my government applauds your initial efforts to place the military (TNI) under civilian control and support for internal military reforms that could reorient the military away from internal security and politics toward external defense. We also commend your intention not to use TNI to try to solve the latest problems in Aceh by violence and repression. These are bold, constructive steps that bode well for your country:

- Mr. President, please allow me to be direct with you as a friend of Indonesia and one who is deeply committed to helping our relationship grow.

- As Secretary Cohen indicated to General Wiranto in his trip to Indonesia just before your selection as President, the United States desires closer military-to-military ties, but the future of these ties rests squarely on TNI's willingness to reform.

- In assessing TNI's commitment to reform, we will be looking for evidence of changed behavior on the ground, including: 1) cooperation on Timor issues, including expediting the repatriation of refugees, disarming the militias and securing the border against militia raids into East Timor; 2) restraint in other territorial disputes, including Aceh; 3) some form of accountability for past abuses; and 4) a demonstrated commitment to the principle of civilian supremacy.

- Taking these steps would be powerful signals to the international community and to the U.S. Congress that Indonesia's military has embarked on new path consistent with the democratic transition that you, Mr. President, personally represent.

Aceh. There is no problem facing the new GOI more serious or urgent than the future of Aceh. Outrage over past TNI human rights abuses has combined with economic grievances to fuel growing separatist sentiments. A relatively small minority less than two years ago, pro-independence Acehnese are probably in the majority today. It is unclear that Wahid will be able to resolve the problem by political means short of a referendum. However, at a minimum, he must take quick and credible steps to account for and pursue justice for grave abuses perpetrated by TNI over the past decade. He must also carry out his pledge to draw down the military presence in the province and probably will have to provide Aceh with greater control over its considerable oil and gas resources.

- I want to commend your bold initiatives to begin real political dialogue in Aceh, without resorting to a military crackdown.

- Like you, the U.S. is deeply concerned by recent developments in Aceh and the questions they pose for Indonesia's future given the existence of other separatist movements in Irian Jaya and elsewhere.

- As you know, the U.S. strongly supports the territorial unity of Indonesia, but, like you, believes these problems must be addressed through dialogue, not force.

- Peaceful resolution of the Aceh situation clearly will require your continuing deep personal involvement. I would appreciate a sense of how you plan to deal with rising demands for a referendum.

- Let me say that the U.S. stands ready to support your efforts in any way possible. Is there anything the international community can do to help?

Watch Out For. President Wahid, who is Iraqi-educated, hopes that Indonesia can play a mediating role between Iraq and the U.S. and he is toying with the idea of meeting quietly with Saddam Hussein later this month. He may raise this notion in the context of his willingness to open commercial and trade ties with Israel.

- (If Saddam meeting raised) Understand that you studied in Iraq and so have a special attachment to the Iraqi people.

- We share your concerns about welfare of Iraqi people. But that doesn't justify meeting with Saddam, who has made Iraq into a pariah state, subject to UN sanctions. Meeting him would severely damage Indonesia's reputation and could impact the willingness of the U.S. Congress to provide assistance to your country.

- Holding such a meeting is, of course, your decision to make. But I am concerned that this would associate you -- the democratic leader of a new Indonesian government -- with Saddam's dictatorship and undermine international efforts to isolate Saddam's regime.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: Strobe Talbott, Acting

SUBJECT: Your Meeting with Indonesian President Wahid

Wahid's trip presents an unexpected opportunity to influence the new president of the world's fourth largest nation in his first weeks in office. Despite indications that he planned to make Asia his diplomatic priority and, by default, relegate the United States and the West to secondary priority, Wahid, in his eagerness to see you, revealed the obvious importance he places on the bilateral relationship. He cut his ASEAN tour short to accommodate his White House meeting, which will come before much-heralded visits to Tokyo and Beijing.

Wahid is a difficult leader to assess. There is much good news. He comes to the presidency with a lifetime reputation for tolerance, just what Indonesia needs at this juncture. While inexperienced at governance, he has skillfully led an organization of 40 million Muslims for over a decade, sometimes in courageous opposition to the authoritarian rule of former President Soeharto. Unlike Habibie, he has made resolution of the dangerous territorial issues (Aceh, Irian Jaya, and the Moluccas) a high priority.

Wahid, who studied in Iraq, also has toyed with the idea of meeting Saddam Hussein during an upcoming Middle East visit to signal his love for the Iraqi people.

[redacted] B1

To the extent possible, I think you should steer the discussion away from potentially contentious foreign policy issues and toward domestic challenges Wahid faces at home (including East Timor). You should underscore our support for his government's efforts to further Indonesia's democratic transition, which we see as strongly in our own interest and that of the entire region, and ask what the U.S. can do to help. On economic matters, you must emphasize that our ability to help Wahid and his government rests on his ability to work out arrangements with the World Bank and the IMF. On East Timor, you should tell Wahid that if he can get the Indonesian military (TNI) to rein in the militias, expedite repatriation, and prevent raids from West Timor into East Timor, he will be in a position to recover much of the ground Indonesia lost with the international community. He also needs to manage the accountability issue, both in terms of a credible Indonesian investigation and by cooperating with UN-sanctioned international investigations.

The restive province of Aceh will be on Wahid's mind. Wahid appears to have altered his schedule to travel to Aceh immediately before coming to Washington. Massive demonstrations there -- with as much as one quarter of Aceh's population in the streets earlier this week -- demonstrate the volatility of the situation. If mishandled, Aceh has the potential to dwarf East Timor as a security issue and a challenge to Indonesia's territorial integrity. In addition to asking for Wahid's assessment of the situation, you should stress our serious concerns about the dangerous situation and the need to manage it expeditiously. You should also reassure him that we strongly support his efforts for reconciliation, and ask if there is anything the United States or the international community can do to help.

MEETING WITH INDONESIAN PRESIDENT WAHID

R5A

I. KEY OBJECTIVES

- Supporting Democratic Transition: Underscore our long term commitment to working closely with and aiding Wahid and his government to promote a democratic, stable, prosperous, and unified Indonesia. Emphasize our commitment to Indonesia's territorial integrity.

- Economic Reform and Recovery: Stress our support for Indonesia's economic recovery program, while indicating that our ability to help Indonesia will be heavily influenced by the economic policies adopted by the new government.

- Military-to-Military Relations: Emphasize that we want to get bilateral relations back on track, but must see credible evidence of military reform, including improved military behavior in East Timor (disarming military, expediting repatriation of refuges, securing the border with East Timor against militia raids), some form of accountability for the abuses in East Timor, military restraint in other territorial disputes (Aceh, Irian Jaya) and a demonstrated commitment to the principle of civilian supremacy.

- Aceh: Express our concern about the deteriorating situation in Aceh, emphasize need to manage situation carefully, both to preserve Indonesia's territorial integrity and to avoid human rights abuses. Support Wahid's use of political dialogue over military options and ask if the international community can be helpful.

- Wahid-Saddam Hussein Meeting: Explain that this planned meeting would severely damage Indonesia's reputation. Not in the interest of new, democratic Indonesia to be seen as supporting dictator who is international pariah.

II. CONTEXT OF MEETING

Soeharto's legacy of a centrist-authoritarian regime a more promising democratic future. His reputation for tolerance and his reform instincts on most key issues are sound, but he and his new cabinet are short on experience and appear prone to occasional stumbles when addressing challenges that require careful handling. Moreover, his broad-based cabinet itself is a mixed bag and unproven. Wahid, frail and almost blind, will need to exercise strong leadership from the top to keep things on course.

Barely two weeks in office, Wahid has racked up an impressive record with selection of a human rights activist as his attorney general, creation of a new human rights ministry headed by a respected Acehnese figure, and support for investigations into East Timor human rights abuses among the most prominent achievements. Release of the full Bank Bali audit report (a controversial corruption symbol from the Habibie Administration) demonstrated Wahid's commitment to fight corruption. B1

Separatist pressures in Aceh and Irian Jaya threaten to undermine Indonesia's territorial integrity, and Wahid, with his innate tolerance of competing views must be careful not to heighten expectations that could undermine Indonesian unity.

Thus far, Wahid and his key foreign policy advisors have demonstrated a surprising willingness to seek our counsel on issues of importance to us, such as relations with Israel. Your meeting will be Wahid's first with a non-ASEAN leader. It should serve to strengthen a sense of cooperation, and to create the momentum and goodwill necessary to deal with the difficult bilateral issues we face without letting them come to dominate the overall bilateral relationship. Wahid will see his meeting with you as U.S. recognition of Indonesia's important role in the region, and an opportunity to enhance his own image as a leading Asian democrat of this huge emerging democracy.

III. AGENDA/POINTS

Supporting Democratic Transition. Indonesia has undergone a tumultuous but steady transition to democracy since the fall of Soeharto in May 1998, a transition process we strongly supported. The election of reformists President Wahid and Vice President Megawati last month sets the stage for consolidating these hard-earned democratic gains. But U.S.-Indonesia ties have been strained over Indonesia's handling of East Timor. Engaging the Wahid Administration offers the U.S. an historic opportunity to repair the damage and help Indonesia rebuild its democratic institutions.

- The American people welcome your historic election as president and are honored by your early visit to the U.S. I want to work closely with you and your government to support a democratic, stable, prosperous, unified Indonesia.

- Our nations have much in common. We are both large and diverse multi-ethnic and multi-cultural societies. And, with Indonesia's rapid transformation from authoritarianism to an open, pluralistic, and participatory system, we are both democracies.

- I am aware of the personal role you have played in the political democratization process and your personal reputation for tolerance and reconciliation. I hope you will let us know if there are ways we can help you move Indonesia toward greater respect for human rights, and deeper reform, including of the Indonesian military.

- Ambassador Gelbard has spoken to you of our desire for close engagement. I have asked UN Ambassador Holbrooke to visit Indonesia next week to explore ways we can be helpful and, in the next few weeks, we will dispatch an interagency assessment team to flesh out priorities where our close cooperation might be most effective.

- Indonesia's quick recovery and political stability is important to the United States. Our two countries have enjoyed good relations in the past and I sincerely hope to see these relations strengthen and deepen in the period ahead. I pledge my government to this goal and look forward to working with you toward that end.

Economic Reform and Recovery. Although inexperienced and a product of political compromise, the new GOI economic cabinet seems willing to break with bad past practices. Wahid and Coordinating Economic Minister Kwik Kian Gie have stated their intention to pursue economic recovery and reform in close cooperation with the international community and the IMF.

- We strongly support Indonesia's economic recovery, which is key to political stability. It is for this reason that we have already dispatched a team of senior economic experts to Indonesia to engage your new economic team.

- Release of the Bank Bali report sent an excellent first signal of willingness to take necessary actions to allow the international community to help with Indonesia's economic recovery program.

- From our experience, the confidence of markets and foreign and domestic investors depends on consistent economic policy signals. The most important of these will be to reach early agreement with the international financial institutions on a convincing economic program and to implement it faithfully.

- Our experience tells us that the markets and investors will monitor several key areas. Transparency, fairness, and a commitment to contracts and the rule of law will be key. I understand that your financial markets, corporate sector, and power industry which were damaged severely during the Asian financial crisis, still require much hard work. My government is committed to helping you put these challenges behind you.

Military-to-Military Relations. The Indonesian military (TNI) remains the biggest hurdle to further political reform and closer bilateral relations. Military to military relations remain suspended. While we would like to be in a position to resume this relationship, it will depend on clear evidence of military reform, including better behavior in West Timor, accountability for past abuses, restraint in other territorial disputes (Aceh) and a demonstrated commitment to civilian supremacy.

- Mr. President, my government applauds your initial efforts to place the military (TNI) under civilian control and your support for internal military reforms that could reorient the military away from internal security and politics toward external defense. We also commend your intention not to use TNI to try to solve the latest problems in Aceh by violence and repression. These are bold, constructive steps that bode well for your country.

- Mr. President, please allow me to be direct with you as a friend of Indonesia and one who is deeply committed to helping our relationship grow.

- As Secretary Cohen indicated to General Wiranto in his trip to Indonesia just before your selection as President, the United States desires closer military-to-military ties, but the future of these ties rests squarely on TNI's willingness to reform.

- In assessing TNI's commitment to reform, we will be looking for evidence of changed behavior on the ground, including: 1) cooperation on Timor issues, including expediting the repatriation of refugees, disarming the militias and securing the border against militia raids into East Timor; 2) restraint in other territorial disputes, including Aceh; 3) some form of accountability for past abuses; and 4) a demonstrated commitment to the principle of civilian supremacy.

- Taking these steps would be powerful signals to the international community and to the U.S. Congress that Indonesia's military has embarked on new path consistent with the democratic transition that you, Mr. President, personally represent.

Aceh. There is no problem facing the new GOI more serious or urgent than the future of Aceh. Outrage over past TNI human rights abuses has combined with economic grievances to fuel growing separatist sentiments. A relatively small minority less than two years ago, pro-independence Acehnese are probably in the majority today. It is unclear that Wahid will be able to resolve the problem by political means short of a referendum. However, at a minimum, he must take quick and credible steps to account for and pursue justice for grave abuses perpetrated by TNI over the past decade. He must also carry out his pledge to draw down the military presence in the province and probably will have to provide Aceh with greater control over its considerable oil and gas resources.

- I want to commend your bold initiatives to begin real political dialogue in Aceh, without resorting to a military crackdown.

- Like you, the U.S. is deeply concerned by recent developments in Aceh and the questions they pose for Indonesia's future given the existence of other separatist movements in Irian Jaya and elsewhere.

- As you know, the U.S. strongly supports the territorial unity of Indonesia, but, like you, believes these problems must be addressed through dialogue, not force.

- Peaceful resolution of the Aceh situation clearly will require your continuing deep personal involvement. I would appreciate a sense of how you plan to deal with rising demands for a referendum.

- Let me say that the U.S. stands ready to support your efforts in any way possible. Is there anything the international community can do to help?

Iraq. President Wahid, who is Iraqi-educated, hopes that Indonesia can play a mediating role between Iraq and the U.S. and he is planning to meet quietly with Saddam Hussein later this month. He may raise this notion in the context of his willingness to open commercial and trade ties with Israel.

- Understand that you studied in Iraq and so have a special attachment to the Iraqi people.

- We share your concerns about welfare of Iraqi people. But that doesn't justify meeting with Saddam, who has made Iraq into a pariah state, subject to UN sanctions. Meeting him would severely damage Indonesia's reputation and could impact the willingness of the U.S. Congress to provide assistance to your country.

- Holding such a meeting is, of course, your decision to make. But I am concerned that this would associate you -- the democratic leader of a new Indonesian government -- with Saddam's dictatorship and undermine international efforts to isolate Saddam's regime.

INDONESIA'S FOREIGN POLICY

R5 C

I. OBJECTIVES

Encourage President Wahid to keep a moderate course in foreign policy with constructive and positive U.S.-Indonesia relations. Thank Wahid for his interest in playing a positive role in the Middle East. Discourage him from meeting with Saddam Hussein.

II. BACKGROUND

The new Indonesian administration is inexperienced in foreign policy. However, Wahid and his Foreign Minister, Alwi Shihab, are both well-traveled and appear surprisingly responsive to U.S. views. In fact, they have asked for U.S. thoughts on a number of topics - Middle East peace; Iran/Iraq; Burma - which we are preparing to share. Wahid's decision to invite the U.S. Ambassador to make the first official foreign call on him demonstrates the President's sense of the importance of the United States to Indonesia's interests.

This contrasts somewhat with Wahid and Shihab's initial public emphasis on Indonesia's ties with Asia. Wahid's first trip as President was to his ASEAN neighbors, starting with Singapore and Malaysia, countries he sees as sources of aid and investment. Prior to arriving in Burma, Wahid publicly indicated he would seek to meet with opposition leader Aung San Suu Kyi, but the encounter did not take place. However, it is unlikely that Indonesia will reclaim its full ASEAN role, simply because the Wahid government will have to focus on Indonesia's economic recovery and political rebirth.

In addition to the United States and the ASEAN countries, Wahid sees China, Japan and India as very important for Indonesia. [redacted] B1

[redacted] Wahid seems determined to pursue a course of engagement with Israel, beginning with the opening of trade and cultural relations. Wahid and Shihab have sought our assistance in selling ties with Israel to the Indonesian people via a symbolic role in the Middle East peace process. Potentially most troubling is Wahid's interest in meeting with Saddam Hussein. Educated in Iraq, Wahid most likely wishes to demonstrate his empathy for the Iraqi people. He may even want to mediate between the United States and Iraq. We should emphasize to Wahid that associating himself with Hussein could well taint the fledgling Indonesian democracy in the eyes of the world. [redacted] B1

III. POINTS TO BE MADE

- We have a strong interest in maintaining a deep and broad bilateral relationship. We look forward to working with Indonesia on a host of issues of mutual concern.

- We hope that as a newly democratic country, Indonesia will work to foster democratic values abroad. This could include meeting with the democratic opposition in Burma and pressing the SPDC to begin a meaningful dialogue with democracy leaders, including Aung San Suu Kyi.

- We appreciate Indonesia's offer to be a moderating influence in the Middle East, and we encourage Indonesia to build on early contacts with Israel toward eventual normalization of relations.

- I was very concerned to learn that you are proposing to meet with Iraqi President Saddam Hussein during your Middle East tour at the end of this month. A meeting with Saddam Hussein would be a very grave mistake:

  -- Iraq is in flagrant violation of UNSC Resolutions. International isolation of the Iraqi regime is an important means to maintain pressure on Iraq to comply with its obligations.

  -- Given Indonesia's international standing and its weight in the Islamic world, a meeting between you and Saddam would severely undermine that effort. It would tarnish Indonesia's reputation in the process and make it more difficult for the U.S. to be helpful.

  -- The timing of such a meeting would be particularly unfortunate. A new UN Security Council Resolution on Iraq is imminent and may be adopted during your trip. It will be critical at that time not to suggest, as a meeting between you and Saddam would do, that Iraq has any alternative to complying with its obligations.

- I urge you not to go forward with this meeting.

- (If raised: mediating role between Iraq and the U.S.): We are not seeking any mediation between Iraq and the U.S. The issue is between Iraq and the UNSC, and its only resolution must be full Iraqi compliance with UNSC Resolutions.

EAST TIMOR

R5D

I. CORE OBJECTIVES

Emphasize the need to facilitate quick repatriation of East Timorese who wish to return home by providing secure overland routes and protection from militia intimidation.

Urge the GOI to move quickly to have the Indonesian military (TNI) disarm and disband militias, and prevent creation of a base in West Timor from which militias might attack INTERFET, UNTAET, or an independent East Timor.

Highlight the importance of GOI cooperation with international and national human rights inquiries into violations in East and West Timor.

II. BACKGROUND

The August 30 consultation vote in East Timor and the October 19 decision of the People's Consultative Assembly (MPR) to rescind the decree annexing East Timor set the stage for a UN-administered Phase III transition in East Timor toward independence. In the interim, the Australian-led INTERFET multi-national force has quelled the militia violence that erupted after the consultation. The UN has authorized creation of UNTAET, including a follow-on PKO force and named Sergio Vieira de Mello as the UNTAET Transition Administrator. He is overseeing international preparations to help East Timor become a fully independent, viable nation. The U.S. plans to participate actively in Phase-III.

The new GOI has an opportunity to reverse international condemnation of Indonesian military-sponsored militia violence in East Timor during the last Indonesian administration. To do so, it must move decisively against militias in West Timor so as to facilitate repatriation of refugees to East Timor and prevent the more radical militia from pursuing a guerrilla operation. It must cooperate with international and national accountability investigations into human rights abuses. It must also take strong, unambiguous steps to lay to rest concerns that elements of the Indonesian government will act to destabilize UN efforts or the new East Timorese state.

REVIEW AUTHORITY: CHARLES E LAHIGUERA

UNCLASSIFIED

III. POINTS TO BE MADE

- We seek your help to facilitate repatriation of refugees in West Timor, which is proceeding much too slowly. The problem is intimidation by militia members, who are endangering refugees and international humanitarian workers.

- Militia activities in areas along parts of the border with West Timor make it dangerous for organized overland conveys to repatriate refugees and for refugees to return spontaneously to their homes in East Timor.

- President Wahid's Administration has issued forthcoming declarations of positive intentions toward East Timor and indicated willingness by the Indonesian military (TNI) to control the militias. However, the TNI has not actually acted to end militia activities.

- We believe the GOI must disarm and disband the militias in West Timor, and disavow any pro-integration agenda. This could resolve the immediate repatriation concerns by providing protection for refugees and international workers and could secure overland repatriation routes.

- GOI action would also demonstrate seriousness about preventing the militias -- with support from elements of TNI -- from converting West Timor into a base from which to launch attacks against INTERFET, UNTAET, or an independent East Timor.

- In addition, the UN has appointed an international Commission of Inquiry (COI) to investigate allegations of gross human rights violations against East Timorese by the militias and elements of the TNI. The Indonesian National Human Rights Commission is conducting its own investigations. We believe it important that the GOI support the quest for accountability and justice by cooperating fully with the international and national inquiries.

MILITARY REFORM

I. OBJECTIVES

Welcome steps taken to place the military under civilian control and encourage a redirection of a military role away from "dual function" toward external defense.

Emphasize the value the U.S. attaches to a cooperative defense relationship while underscoring that this will be possible as the Indonesian military takes credible action to account for its past human rights abuses and undertakes real reform.

II. BACKGROUND

Soeharto's departure in May 1998 opened the door to an era of democratic and military reform. Revelations of past human rights abuses and military heavy-handedness incited a popular backlash against the security forces, which provided serious momentum to military reform efforts. At the same time, separatist crosscurrents and inter-ethnic tensions placed the military under extreme stress, in a kind of damned-if-you-do and damned-if you-don't position. East Timor brought out the worst of the Indonesian military, revealing a scorn for civilian policies with which it disagreed and brutality that further tainted the reputation of the entire institution.

[redacted] B1

President Wahid and Vice-President Megawati both support gradual military reform, including the eventual abolishment of the military's "dual function" role, and the phasing out over five years of the military's 38 seats in parliament. Wahid appointed the first civilian defense minister in over four decades and named a Navy Admiral as Commander of the Armed Forces. We support these steps [redacted] B1 abuses, and to demonstrate its commitment to the principle of civilian supremacy.

III. POINTS TO BE MADE

- We support initial steps you've taken to place the military under civilian control. We encourage you to continue your efforts to consolidate civilian control and to convert the military into a modern, professional force.

- We would like to resume our defense cooperation. But we will only be able to do so as the Indonesian military shows concrete action to cooperate in West Timor, to provide accountability for abuses in East Timor, to exercise restraint in other disputed territories (Aceh, Irian Jaya) and to undertake concrete institutional reform in accord with the principle of civilian supremacy. We urge you to help make this happen.

ACEH

I. OBJECTIVES

Solicit President Wahid's views on developments in Aceh, especially whether he believes a political solution short of a referendum remains possible.

Encourage Wahid's efforts to resolve the Aceh problem with quick and credible steps to address Acehnese grievances and aspirations within the framework of a unitary Indonesia.

II. BACKGROUND

Aceh is one of the new Indonesian government's most serious problems. Unlike East Timor, events in Aceh will have ramifications across the archipelago. Aceh has been part of Indonesia since the nation's first day; it is staunchly Islamic; and its fate will inevitably influence political developments in other provinces.

~~Outrage over past human rights injustices has combined~~ with economic grievances and the precedent set by East Timor to fuel growing separatist sentiments in the province. A small minority less than two years ago, pro-independence Acehnese are probably in the majority today. It is unclear that President Wahid's government will be able to resolve the problem by political means short of a referendum. Still, he must take quick and credible steps to do just that. First, he must bring justice for the grave abuses perpetrated by Indonesian security forces over the past decade. He will also need to carry out his pledge to draw down the military presence in the province, and provide Aceh with greater control over its political destiny and its considerable oil and gas resources. The situation in Aceh has been made more volatile, not less, by Wahid's recent public statements in support of a referendum, which have only heightened expectations.

The U.S. supports Indonesia's territorial integrity, and encourages Wahid's efforts to bring a peaceful, political solution to the province within this framework. Nonetheless, should the situation go from bad to worse, we would have serious problems with the human rights consequences of the military crackdown that would likely result. In short, Aceh may become to Indonesia - and to U.S. relations with Indonesia - what the Kurds are to Turkey.

- We support your efforts to address Acehnese grievances and aspirations by means of political negotiations in the context of a unitary Indonesia.

- Especially urgent is to heed Acehnese calls of justice for the serious abuses that occurred during the period of special military rule.

We also encourage you to act on your pledge to draw down the military presence in Aceh, and offer greater political autonomy and economic control to the Acehnese people. We stand ready to support you in any way we can.

INDONESIA: ECONOMIC ISSUES

I. OBJECTIVE

To encourage Wahid to implement economic reforms, resume relations with international financial institutions (IFIs), and tackle corruption.

II. BACKGROUND

Indonesia was the country hit hardest by the Asian financial crisis and, with severe political turmoil exacerbating its economic difficulties, it has yet to recover. Capital flight, a bankrupt financial sector, huge private sector debt and arrears, major foreign investment disputes, endemic corruption, and a post-July suspension of most IFI loans pending progress in handling a bank scandal are among the problems the new government must address.

Among his first acts as President, Wahid's direct request convinced Parliament to release the Bank Bali report which, if followed by full investigation and prosecution of wrong-doers, will allow essential IFI lending to resume. Wahid also gave the go-ahead for talks with the IMF on a new economic program (he wants to focus on agriculture and small and medium enterprises). Speaking to a business audience in Singapore November 6, he emphasized the rule of law, market forces and free trade. However, Wahid's economic team is untested and not yet cohesive. Lenders and investors, both at home and abroad, want to see a convincing reform program that enjoys unified government support and is implemented consistently.

Legal system reforms to provide reliable and objective justice will be a key element of economic recovery. The new government must reenergize the Indonesian Bank Restructuring Agency (IBRA), which controls a huge share of the country's assets, and revive the corporate debt restructuring process. To reassure investors, the government needs to resolve outstanding contract issues such as those involving independent power producer projects and telecommunications service providers. (On November 15, OPIC will pay MidAmerican (CalEnergy) a $217 million claim on a power project, giving OPIC a claim on the GOI. OPIC and EXIM are both involved in another serious power project dispute now under negotiation.)

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: CHARLES E LAHIGUERA
DATE/CASE ID: 31 MAR 2008 200503352

Coordinating Minister Kwik has suggested the GOI, which has foreign debt of about $80 billion, will request debt rescheduling and/or debt reduction. The U.S. normally supports Paris Club debt rescheduling for countries on IMF programs when IMF analysis shows a balance of payments financing gap. Indonesia does not qualify for debt reduction under current rules, and would require far more money than Congress would be likely to fund.

III. POINTS TO BE MADE

- Your government has a window of opportunity to put Indonesia back on the road to economic growth and prosperity.

- A sound economic reform program backed by the IMF, resumed strong relations with the IFIs, and a determined fight against corruption will attract investment and stimulate growth.

- Strengthening IBRA, moving ahead with corporate debt restructuring, and resolving outstanding contract disputes are also essential.

- (If asked) In the context of an IMF program of economic reform, the U.S. would support a GOI request for debt rescheduling through the Paris Club, if needed.

Re: Request under the FOIA, in reply refer to Archive# 20051148DOS366

Dear Ms. Grafeld :

Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), I hereby request disclosure of the following documents for inspection and possible copying:

All documents from 1 May 1998 to 1 January 1999 relating in whole or in part to United States Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright's July 1998 attending of the ASEAN (Association of Southeast Asian Nations) Regional Forum and Post Ministerial Conference in Manila, Philippines.

If you regard any of these documents as potentially exempt from the FOIA's disclosure requirements, I request that you nonetheless exercise your discretion to disclose them. As the FOIA requires, please release all reasonably segregable non exempt portions of documents. To permit me to reach an intelligent and informed decision whether or not to file an administrative appeal of any denied material, please describe any withheld records (or portions thereof) and explain the basis for your exemption claims.

As you know, the National Security Archive qualifies for a waiver of search and review fees as a representative of the news media. This request is made as part of a scholarly and news research project and not for commercial use. For details on the Archive's research and publication activities, please see our Web site at the address above. Please notify me before incurring any photocopying costs over $100.

To expedite the release of the requested documents, please disclose them on an interim basis as they become available to you, without waiting until all the documents have been processed. If you have any questions regarding the identity of the records, their location, the scope of the request or any other matters, please call me at (202) 994-7000. I look forward to receiving your response within the twenty day statutory time period.

Sincerely yours,

Brad Simpson

Dear Mr. Simpson:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, dated August 3, 2005, for copies of documents occurring between May 1, 1998 and January 1, 1999 concerning United States Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright's July 1998 attending of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) Regional Forum and Post Ministerial Conference in Manila, Philippines.

We will begin the processing of your request based upon the information provided in your letter. As soon as responsive material has been retrieved and reviewed, we will notify you.

We wish to advise you that the cut-off date for retrieving records is either the date you have given the Department by specifying a particular time frame or the date the search is initiated. Only existing records are subject to the Freedom of Information Act.

Please review the fee information provided below.

Fee Information: The Freedom of Information Act requires agencies to access fees to recover the direct costs of processing requests, unless a fee waiver has been granted

Based upon the information that you have provided, this request will be processed in accordance with the fees schedule designated for the "representative of the news media" category of requesters (pays duplication costs after first 100 pages).

Copy costs are assessed at the rate of $0.15 per page.

You have stated your willingness to pay the fees incurred in the processing of this request up to $100.00.

We will notify you of the costs incurred in processing your request as soon as the search and review actions have been completed.

While we will make every effort to meet the time limits cited in the FOIA (5 USC § 552), unusual circumstances may arise for extending the time limit.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us. We can provide faster service if you include the case number of your request in your communications with us.

We are pleased to be of service to you.

MAY 10 2006

Dear Mr. Simpson:

I refer to your request of August 3, 2005 for the release of information under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5 USC Section 552). To retrieve those documents, we initiated a search of the following record systems under the control of the Department of State: Two searches of the Central Foreign Policy Records (the Department's principal record system), the retired files of the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs, the retired files of the Office of the Secretariat, and the retired files of the American Embassy in Manila.

The two searches of the records of the Central Foreign Policy Records have been completed, resulting in the retrieval of 30 documents that appear responsive to your request. These documents have been grouped together as segment numbers ER-1 and ER-2. After reviewing them, we have determined that 26 may be released in full, three may be released with excisions, and one may not be released. All released documents are enclosed.

The material in the excised portions of two of the documents released in part and in the document withheld in full is currently and properly classified under Executive Order 12958 in the interest of national defense or foreign relations. As such, it is exempt from release under subsection (b)(1) of the Freedom of Information Act.

The material in the excised portions of one of the documents released in part is of such a nature that its release would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. As such, it is exempt from release under subsection (b)(6) of the Freedom of Information Act.

In the case of a document released in part, all non-exempt material that is reasonably segregable from the exempt material has been released.

With respect to material we have withheld under the Freedom of Information Act, you have the right to appeal our determination within sixty days. Appeals should be addressed to: Chairman, Appeals Review Panel, c/o Appeals Officer, A/ISS/IPS/PP/, U.S. Department of State, SA-2, Room 8100, Washington, D.C. 20522-8100. The letter of appeal should refer to the case and segment numbers shown above. A copy of the appeals procedures is enclosed.

Still in progress are the searches of the records of the retired files of the Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs, the retired files of the Office of the Secretariat, and the retired files of the American Embassy in Manila.

Additional information will be provided as soon as it becomes available.

If you have any questions with respect to the processing of your request, you may write to: Office of Information Programs and Services, U.S. Department of State, SA-2, Room 8100, Washington, D.C. 20522-8100. You also may telephone (202) 261-8314. Please refer to the case and segment numbers shown above in all communications about this case.

Your continuing cooperation is appreciated.

---

4. (C) SUMMARY: DURING A THIRTY-MINUTE MEETING AT MALACANANG PALACE ON JULY 28, THE SECRETARY AND PRESIDENT ESTRADA AGREED ON THE IMPORTANCE OF CLOSE COOPERATION BETWEEN THE U.S. AND THE PHILIPPINES, INCLUDING IN THE SECURITY AREA. ESTRADA STRESSED HIS COMMITMENT TO SECURING SENATE RATIFICATION OF THE VISITING FORCES AGREEMENT. HE POINTED TO THE AUSTERITY PROGRAM ANNOUNCED IN HIS JULY 27 "STATE OF THE NATION" MESSAGE AND DISCUSSED IN GENERAL TERMS HIS PROGRAMS TO ALLEVIATE RURAL POVERTY AND TO COMBAT CRIME. END SUMMARY.

SUPPORT FOR VFA
---

5. (C) PRESIDENT ESTRADA NOTED THAT HIS "STATE OF THE NATION" MESSAGE THE PREVIOUS DAY HAD OUTLINED A SEVERE

PROGRAM OF AUSTERITY, WHICH NONETHELESS HAD BEEN PRAISED BY PRESS AND PUBLIC. HE ASKED IF WE HAD NOTICED HIS STRONG SUPPORT FOR THE VISITING FORCES AGREEMENT (VFA) IN THE SPEECH. THE SECRETARY SAID WE HAD INDEED NOTICED AND APPRECIATE HIS SUPPORT FOR THIS AGREEMENT WHICH WOULD SERVE THE INTERESTS OF BOTH COUNTRIES. EXECUTIVE SECRETARY ZAMORA ADDED THE VFA WOULD BE SUBMITTED TO THE SENATE BY OCTOBER 1. HE HOPED IT WOULD BE RATIFIED BY THE TIME OF THE APEC LEADERS' MEETING IN KUALA LUMPUR. NOTING THAT HE HAS MANY CLOSE FAMILY MEMBERS IN THE U.S., ESTRADA SAID HE WAS COMMITTED TO MAINTAINING CLOSE U.S.-PHILIPPINE TIES.

STRONG PHILIPPINE SUPPORT ON TRANSNATIONAL ISSUES
---

6. (C) THE SECRETARY CONGRATULATED ESTRADA ON HIS ELECTORAL VICTORY. ESTRADA SAID HE HOPED TO EMULATE PRESIDENT REAGAN, THE "GREAT COMMUNICATOR," BY EFFECTIVELY COMMUNICATING HIS GOALS AND POLICIES TO THE PEOPLE. AGREEING ON THE IMPORTANCE OF COMMUNICATION TO GOVERNMENT, THE SECRETARY SAID WE HAD ALSO READ HIS SPEECH TO THE ASEAN MINISTERS WITH

GREAT INTEREST. HE HAD TOUCHED UPON ALL OF THE ISSUES OF CONCERN TO US IN THE REGION, INCLUDING TRANSNATIONAL ISSUE LIKE CRIME AND ABUSE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN. ESTRADA NOTED THAT HE HAD BEEN CHAIRMAN OF AN ANTI-CRIME COMMISSION AS VICE PRESIDENT. [redacted] B1 [redacted] HE PLANNED TO CHANGE THIS FACT, IN PART BY PROVIDING ADEQUATE HOUSING TO SEPARATE THE POLICE FROM CRIMINALS. REFERRING TO THE ASEAN PMC DISCUSSION OF NARCOTICS, SIAZON SAID THERE WOULD HENCEFORTH BE AN ANNUAL ASEAN REPORT ON THE ISSUE. THE SECRETARY SAID WE WANTED TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE TO COMBAT DRUGS THROUGH EXCHANGE OF INFORMATION AND LAW ENFORCEMENT COOPERATION.

STRONG NGO ROLE

---

7. (C) THE SECRETARY LAUDED ESTRADA FOR HIS ANTI-CORRUPTION PROGRAM AND STRESSED OUR CONCERN OVER ABUSE OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN PARTICULARLY DURING THE ECONOMIC DOWNTURN. NOTING THAT SHE HAD JUST MET WITH AN IMPRESSIVE GROUP OF FEMALE ENTREPRENEURS, LABOR LEADERS, AND NGO REPRESENTATIVES, THE SECRETARY ASKED WHY THE SITUATION OF WOMEN SEEMED TO BE BETTER IN THE PHILIPPINES THAN ELSEWHERE IN THE REGION. ESTRADA ATTRIBUTED IT TO THE STRENGTH OF NGOS. NOTING HER WORK WITH MRS. CLINTON, THE SECRETARY STRESSED HER VIEW THAT THE EMPOWERMENT OF WOMEN MAKES DEMOCRACY MORE STABLE. HER FILIPINO INTERLOCUTORS AGREED. ZAMORA ADDED THAT, IN PART DUE TO A RELATIVELY STRONG BANKING SYSTEM, THE PHILIPPINES STILL EXPECTS SOME POSITIVE ECONOMIC GROWTH IN THIS YEAR OF ECONOMIC CRISIS IN THE REGION. THE SECRETARY NOTED THAT THE DEMOCRACIES IN THE REGION, INCLUDING THE PHILIPPINES AND THAILAND, WERE PROVING MORE RESILIENT THAN THE OTHERS DURING THE ECONOMIC DOWNTURN. DURING A DISCUSSION OF ESTRADA'S PLANS FOR REFORMING THE AGRICULTURAL SECTOR, THE PRESIDENT NOTED THE NEED TO IMPROVE LAND REFORM PROGRAMS ADOPTED DURING THE AQUINO ADMINISTRATION TO ENSURE THAT THOSE RECEIVING LAND HAD THE CAPABILITY AND MEANS TO DEVELOP IT.

Case Number: 199901819

DEMOCRACY SUPPORTS DEVELOPMENT

---

8. (C) ESTRADA STRESSED HIS COMMITMENT TO DEMONSTRATE THAT DEVELOPMENT AND DEMOCRACY GO HAND-IN-HAND. CITING THE IMPORTANCE OF CLOSE U.S.-PHILIPPINE RELATIONS, ESTRADA SAID HE LOOKED FORWARD TO SEEING PRESIDENT CLINTON AT APEC.

ON BEHALF OF THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BOARD OF DIRECTORS, I WOULD LIKE TO INVITE YOU TO BE OUR GUEST SPEAKER AT A GENERAL MEMBERSHIP BREAKFAST MEETING ON EITHER MONDAY, 27 JULY OR TUESDAY, THE 28TH. WE PLAN TO INVITE OTHER FOREIGN CHAMBERS AND PHILIPPINE BUSINESS GROUPS TO CO-SPONSOR THIS EVENT AS SOON AS AN APPROPRIATE DATE HAS BEEN DETERMINED.

YOUR AUDIENCE WILL BE A MIXTURE OF SENIOR AMERICAN AND FILIPINO CORPORATE CHIEF EXECUTIVES REPRESENTING MAJOR U.S. AND PHILIPPINE COMPANIES OPERATING IN THE PHILIPPINES. AS TO TOPIC, WE LEAVE IT UP TO YOUR DISCRETION. AFTER YOUR SPEECH, WE WOULD APPRECIATE AN OPEN FORUM.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO HAVING YOU WITH US.

SINCERELY YOURS,

CARLOS A. CONTRERAS

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

CABINET-LEVEL OFFICIAL IN ALMOST TWO YEARS. THE

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF STATE
REVIEW AUTHORITY: CHARLES E LAHIGUERA
DATE/CASE ID: 09 MAY 2006 200503343

EMBASSY BELIEVES THERE WILL BE SIGNIFICANT PUBLIC AND MEDIA INTEREST IN HER VISIT AND IS THEREFORE RECOMMENDING THAT SECRETARY ALBRIGHT'S SCHEDULE INCLUDE AT LEAST TWO PUBLIC AFFAIRS ACTIVITIES. THE FIRST AND MOST IMPORTANT IS A PRESS CONFERENCE WHICH WOULD BE OPEN TO PHILIPPINE, LOCAL AMERICAN AND THIRD COUNTRY MEDIA, AS WELL AS THE TRAVELING PRESS. THE SECOND IS A SPEECH BEFORE AN ORGANIZATION SUCH AS THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WHICH HAS ALREADY INVITED THE SECRETARY (REFTELS). IN ADDITION, ONE OF THE TWO MAJOR PRIVATE TV NETWORKS IN THE PHILIPPINES, GMA, HAS REQUESTED A 15-30 MINUTE INTERVIEW WITH SECRETARY ALBRIGHT DURING HER VISIT TO THE PHILIPPINES. THE INTERVIEW WOULD BE FOR GMA'S FLAGSHIP PUBLIC AFFAIRS AND NEWS PROGRAM "FIRING LINE," CONDUCTED BY LEADING PRINT AND BROADCAST JOURNALIST TEODORO BENIGNO. IF HER SCHEDULE PERMITS, THE EMBASSY RECOMMENDS THAT THE SECRETARY GRANT THIS INTERVIEW. EACH PROPOSAL IS OUTLINED BELOW. END SUMMARY.

2. PRESS CONFERENCE:

EMBASSY PROPOSES THAT SECRETARY ALBRIGHT HOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE DURING HER VISIT WHICH WOULD BE OPEN TO FILIPINO, LOCAL AMERICAN AND THIRD COUNTRY JOURNALISTS AS WELL AS MEDIA TRAVELING WITH THE SECRETARY. THIS COULD BE DONE AT THE MANILA HOTEL, IN EITHER THE INTERNATIONAL PRESS CENTER OR IN ANOTHER FUNCTION ROOM. EMBASSY BELIEVES THAT A PRESS

CONFERENCE (AS WELL AS A POSSIBLE TV INTERVIEW) WOULD SUPPORT OUR REGIONAL INTERESTS AND BE VERY USEFUL IN ENCOURAGING THE PHILIPPINES TO STAY THE COURSE ON ECONOMIC LIBERALIZATION AND IN PERSUADING THE PHILIPPINE SENATE TO RATIFY THE VISITING FORCES AGREEMENT. AT THE TIME OF THE ASEAN MEETINGS THE NEW GOVERNMENT OF PRESIDENT JOSEPH ESTRADA WILL HAVE BEEN IN OFFICE FOR LESS THAN A MONTH.

3. AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE SPEECH:

EMBASSY CONTINUES TO RECOMMEND THAT THE SECRETARY ACCEPT THE INVITATION TO ADDRESS THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (REFTELS). IF THE SECRETARY AGREES, EMBASSY WILL RECOMMEND THAT AMCHAM ALSO INVITE IMPORTANT FILIPINO GUESTS FROM GOVERNMENT, THE BUSINESS SECTOR AND ACADEMIA. SELECTED MEDIA COULD ALSO BE INVITED. EMBASSY SUGGESTS THAT THIS SPEECH FOCUS ON ECONOMIC ISSUES, PARTICULARLY ON THE LINK BETWEEN GOOD GOVERNANCE AND ECONOMIC STRENGTH, AND THE IMPORTANCE OF CONTINUED ECONOMIC REFORM AND CONTINUING U.S. PRIVATE BUSINESS SECTOR INVOLVEMENT IN THE PHILIPPINES.

4. TV INTERVIEW REQUEST:

THE EXECUTIVE PRODUCER OF "FIRING LINE," THE LEADING PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAM OF THE GMA NETWORK, ONE OF THE TWO MAJOR PRIVATE TV NETWORKS IN THE PHILIPPINES, HAS REQUESTED AN INTERVIEW WITH SECRETARY ALBRIGHT DURING HER VISIT TO MANILA. THE INTERVIEW WOULD BE

UNCLASSIFIED

CONDUCTED BY TEODORO "TEDDY" BENIGNO, THE ANCHOR OF FIRING LINE. THE INTERVIEW WOULD TAKE 15-30 MINUTES AND COULD BE CONDUCTED AT SECRETARY ALBRIGHT'S HOTEL AT A TIME CONVENIENT TO HER. PREVIOUSLY ON HIS PROGRAM, MR. BENIGNO HAS INTERVIEWED MARGARET THATCHER, BENAZIR BHUTTO, ZBIGNIEW BRZENZINSKI AND HENRY KISSINGER. "FIRING LINE" HAS RECEIVED HONORS FROM THE NEW YORK INTERNATIONAL TV FESTIVALS. IN ADDITION TO HOSTING FIRING LINE, MR. BENIGNO WRITES A REGULAR COLUMN IN ONE OF THE MAJOR MANILA PAPERS. HE WAS BUREAU CHIEF OF AGENCE FRANCE PRESSE AND A FOUNDING MEMBER OF THE FOREIGN CORRESPONDENTS ASSOCIATION OF THE PHILIPPINES. HE SERVED AS PRESS SECRETARY IN THE CABINET OF FORMER PRESIDENT AQUINO. IF TIME PERMITS, THE EMBASSY RECOMMENDS THAT SECRETARY ALBRIGHT AGREE TO DO THIS INTERVIEW.

NOTE: THIS IS THE ONLY REQUEST FOR A ONE-ON-ONE INTERVIEW WHICH EMBASSY HAS RECEIVED THUS FAR. IF

OTHER TV NETWORKS REQUEST INTERVIEWS AS WELL, EMBASSY WILL PRIORTIZE REQUESTS OR RECOMMEND THAT TV NETWORKS COVER THE PRESS CONFERENCE IN LIEU OF SEPARATE

5. (SBU) THE CHINESE EMBASSY ASKED IF THE U.S. SIDE PLANS ANY PRESS ACCESS FOR THE BILATERAL BREAKFAST MEETING ON JULY 27. ACCORDING TO THE EMBASSY, FOREIGN MINISTER TANG WILL BE JOINED IN THE MEETING BY 10-11 OFFICIALS. THE EMBASSY TOLD US THEY DO NOT HAVE ANTICIPATED NUMBERS FOR THE JULY 29 TRILATERAL MEETING. WE UNDERSTAND DEPARTMENT DESIRES MINISTER PLUS ONE PLUS INTERPRETER. WE ALSO UNDERSTAND DEPARTMENT WILL PROVIDE SIMULTANEOUS INTERPRETER

EQUIPMENT.

FLIGHT CLEARANCE AND MANIFEST

6. (U) DFA HAS ASKED US TO SUBMIT A FLIGHT CLEARANCE REQUEST FOR THE SECRETARY'S AIRCRAFT. THE GOP GENERALLY REQUIRES FLIGHT CLEARANCE REQUESTS FOR FOREIGN AIRCRAFT BE SUBMITTED 15 DAYS BEFORE ARRIVAL.

7. (U) PLEASE PROVIDE THE MANIFEST FOR THE SECRETARY'S PLANE AS SOON AS POSSIBLE IN ORDER TO COORDINATE WITH PHILIPPINE IMMIGRATION.

MILITARY PERSONNEL

8. (SBU) DOD REQUIRES ALL DEFENSE DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL OBTAIN A SPECIAL ADMINISTRATIVE AND TECHNICAL (A&T) STATUS FROM THE GOP BEFORE THEY ENTER THE PHILIPPINES. THE EMBASSY MUST SUBMIT REQUESTS FOR A&T STATUS TO DFA IN ADVANCE TO ENSURE THE ISSUANCE OF THE PROPER VISAS IN WASHINGTON. PLEASE ADVISE DOD PERSONNEL IN THE SECRETARY'S PARTY (INCLUDING FLIGHT CREW) TO CONSULT THE DOD'S FOREIGN COUNTRY CLEARANCE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PHILIPPINES AND SUBMIT THE REQUIRED INFORMATION PROMPTLY.

PHOTOGRAPHS

9. (U) PLEASE ADVISE ALL ARRIVING PERSONNEL TO BRING TWO 2X2 PHOTOGRAPHS FOR THE ISSUANCE OF HOTEL AND MEETING CREDENTIALS. EAP OFFICIALS APPLICATIONS WERE CARRIED BY THE DCM.

SECRETARY'S SPEECH ON US-RP RELATIONS

10. (SBU) WE HAVE RESERVED THE MAYNILA ROOM AT THE MANILA HOTEL FOR THE SECRETARY'S SPEECH ON THE STATE OF US-RP RELATIONS. INVITEES WOULD BE SEATED BY 0730, WITH THE SECRETARY JOINING THE FUNCTION AT 0740 AND GIVING A TWENTY MINUTE SPEECH, WITH NO Q AND A'S. SHE WOULD LEAVE AT 0810 FOR THE TRILATERAL MEETING WITH THE RUSSIAN AND CHINESE FOREIGN MINISTERS ELSEWHERE IN THE MANILA HOTEL.

11. (SBU) FOR LOGISTICAL AND SECURITY REASONS, WE BELIEVE THE AUDIENCE SHOULD BE LIMITED TO A MAXIMUM OF ONE HUNDRED FIFTY PEOPLE. WE ENVISION HAVING EIGHTY GUESTS FROM THE AMERICAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE IN THE PHILIPPINES (AMCHAM) AND ANOTHER TWENTY PROMINENT FILIPINOS. THIS WOULD ALLOW SEATING FOR

THE SECRETARY'S PRESS PLUS THE SECRETARY'S STAFF, AS WELL AS POSSIBLE PARTICIPATION FROM A FEW LEADING FOREIGN JOURNALISTS BASED IN MANILA. THE ROOM CAN COMFORTABLY FIT THAT NUMBER, AND WOULD HAVE FIFTEEN

OVERVIEW

IN 1998, THE PHILIPPINES MARKED ITS CENTENNIAL AS ASIA'S FIRST DECLARED REPUBLIC AND REAFFIRMED ITS DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS THROUGH A NATIONAL ELECTION AND SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION TO A NEW ADMINISTRATION. NEWLY INAUGURATED PRESIDENT ESTRADA HAS ENDORSED STRONG U.S.-PHILIPPINE RELATIONS. HE HAS PUBLICLY SUPPORTED PHILIPPINE SENATE RATIFICATION OF THE VISITING FORCES AGREEMENT (VFA). RETENTION OF FOREIGN SECRETARY SIAZON DEMONSTRATES THE CONTINUITY OF PHILIPPINE FOREIGN POLICY. ALTHOUGH THE REGIONAL FINANCIAL CRISIS HAS HIT THE PHILIPPINES LESS SEVERELY THAN ITS NEIGHBORS, THE NEW ADMINISTRATION FACES A DAUNTING BUDGET DEFICIT CAUSED BY REVENUE SHORTFALLS. NEVERTHELESS, EXPORT GROWTH REMAINS STRONG, THE BANKING SECTOR IS STILL SOUND, AND THE ECONOMY SHOULD SEE GROWTH OF 1% IN 1998.

DEMOCRACY AFFIRMED

OVER THE PAST THREE MONTHS, THE PHILIPPINES HAS MARKED THE CENTENNIAL OF THE COUNTRY'S DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE FROM SPAIN BY REAFFIRMING THE STRENGTH OF ITS DEMOCRATIC INSTITUTIONS. A PEACEFUL, FREE AND FAIR NATIONAL ELECTION MAY 11 (WITH AN 80TURNOUT), THE SUCCESSFUL TRANSITION TO A NEW PRESIDENT AND ADMINISTRATION JUNE 30, AND OPENING A NEW CONGRESS JULY 27, ARE THE LATEST MILESTONES IN THE DEMOCRATIC HISTORY OF THE PHILIPPINES. THIS WAS THE SECOND DEMOCRATIC

TRANSFER OF POWER SINCE THE FALL OF FERDINAND MARCOS IN 1986. IN A FIELD OF TEN CANDIDATES, VICE PRESIDENT JOSEPH ESTRADA, A ONE-TIME MOVIE ACTOR, MAYOR AND SENATOR, WON THE PRESIDENCY WITH ALMOST 40OF THE VOTE AS THE "UNITED OPPOSITION'S" CANDIDATE. SENATOR GLORIA MACAPAGAL-ARROYO, DAUGHTER OF A FORMER PRESIDENT AND GEORGETOWN CLASSMATE OF PRESIDENT CLINTON, WON THE VICE-PRESIDENCY WITH ALMOST 50OF THE VOTE AS THE CANDIDATE OF THE THEN-RULING PARTY.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

THE TRANSITION TO THE ESTRADA ADMINISTRATION WENT SMOOTHLY, WITH A RESPECTED CABINET SWORN IN THE SAME DAY AS THE PRESIDENT. (PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTEES TAKE OFFICE IMMEDIATELY IN THE PHILIPPINES, BEFORE CONFIRMATION BY THE HOUSE-SENATE COMMITTEE ON APPOINTMENTS.) PRESIDENT ESTRADA REASSURED THE BUSINESS COMMUNITY BY NAMING MAINSTREAM ECONOMISTS AND BUSINESS LEADERS TO THE KEY ECONOMIC PORTFOLIOS AND RETAINING THE GOVERNOR OF THE CENTRAL BANK FOR THE TIME BEING (HIS TERM EXPIRES IN 1999). HE ANNOUNCED HE WOULD CONTINUE THE RAMOS ADMINISTRATION'S OPEN MARKET ECONOMIC POLICIES, WHILE ADDRESSING THE PROBLEMS OF THE POOR AND STRENGTHENING THE AGRICULTURAL SECTOR. HE ALSO PROMISED A CRACKDOWN ON CRIME AND CORRUPTION AND CONTINUATION OF NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE COMMUNIST NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC FRONT AND THE MORO ISLAMIC LIBERATION FRONT TO END THEIR LONG-RUNNING INSURGENCY CAMPAIGNS.

THE SMOOTH TRANSITION NOTWITHSTANDING, INITIAL MISSTEPS BY THE NEW ADMINISTRATION ON BURIAL OF FORMER PRESIDENT MARCOS, THE REPLACEMENT OF SUBIC BAY ECONOMIC ZONE

CHAIRMAN RICHARD GORDON, AND NOMINATION OF DUBIOUS INDIVIDUALS TO SOME SENSITIVE POSITIONS HAVE LED TO A SOMEWHAT ROCKY START FOR THE NEW ADMINISTRATION.

FOREIGN POLICY

FOREIGN POLICY ISSUES WERE VIRTUALLY NON-EXISTENT DURING THE ELECTION CAMPAIGN. THE RETENTION OF FOREIGN SECRETARY DOMINGO "JUN" SIAZON (A HIGH SCHOOL CLASSMATE OF ESTRADA AND THE ONLY RAMOS CABINET SECRETARY KEPT IN OFFICE) IS A STRONG SIGN OF CONTINUITY. SIAZON IS LIKELY TO HAVE EVEN GREATER INFLUENCE IN THE ESTRADA ADMINISTRATION BECAUSE OF THE PRESIDENT'S LACK OF INTEREST IN FOREIGN AFFAIRS AND THE ABSENCE OF A STRONG NATIONAL SECURITY ADVISOR.

ASEAN AND THE REGION ARE THE FOCUS OF PHILIPPINE FOREIGN POLICY INTERESTS. THE PHILIPPINES HAS BEEN A

DEMOCRACY IN CAMBODIA, AND MORE RECENTLY, BURMA. AS THIS YEAR'S ASEAN CHAIR, THE PHILIPPINES IS HOSTING THE ANNUAL ARF MINISTERIAL, ASEAN MINISTERIAL AND POST-MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE (PMC). PHILIPPINE SECURITY CONCERNS IN THE REGION ARE FOCUSED PRIMARILY ON THE ROLE OF CHINA IN THE SOUTH CHINA SEA. TIES WITH BEIJING HAVE BEEN STRAINED BY THE SPRATLY ISSUE AND PHILIPPINE CONTACTS WITH TAIWAN. THE PHILIPPINES HAS MADE A SUSTAINED EFFORT TO IMPROVE BILATERAL RELATIONS WITH BEIJING IN ALL AREAS, AND ISOLATE TERRITORIAL DISPUTES FROM OTHER ASPECTS OF THE RELATIONSHIP.

U.S.-PHILIPPINE RELATIONS

BEYOND ASIA, THE MOST IMPORTANT BILATERAL PARTNER OF THE PHILIPPINES IS THE UNITED STATES. PRESIDENT ESTRADA HAS TAKEN SEVERAL OPPORTUNITIES TO HIGHLIGHT THE IMPORTANCE HE PLACES ON A CLOSE RELATIONSHIP WITH THE U.S. ALTHOUGH HE WAS AN ANTI-U.S. BASES ACTIVISTS EARLIER IN HIS CAREER, ESTRADA WENT OUT OF HIS WAY DURING THE CAMPAIGN TO ASSURE THE U.S. OF HIS SUPPORT FOR STRONG U.S.-PHILIPPINE TIES AND THE VISITING FORCES AGREEMENT (VFA). HE HAS SINCE COME OUT PUBLICLY IN SUPPORT OF THE VFA, WHICH THE PHILIPPINE SENATE IS LIKELY TO TAKE UP IN LATE SEPTEMBER OR OCTOBER. SIAZON AND DEFENSE SECRETARY MERCADO WILL LEAD THE ADMINISTRATION'S CAMPAIGN FOR SENATE RATIFICATION. MERCADO MAY PLAY A PARTICULARLY PIVOTAL ROLE SINCE HE VOTED AGAINST THE 1991 MILITARY BASES AGREEMENT AS A SENATOR (AS DID ESTRADA) AND HAS AN ESTABLISHED REPUTATION IN THE SENATE AS AN EXPERT ON MILITARY AFFAIRS. ESTRADA'S VIEWS WILL WEIGH HEAVILY WITH THE SENATORS FROM HIS LAMP PARTY, WHO MAKE UP NINE OF THE 23 MEMBERS OF THE INCOMING SENATE. APPROVAL WILL REQUIRE 16 VOTES OUT OF 23.

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

WHILE INDICATIONS ARE POSITIVE, TANGENTIAL ISSUES, LIKE THE CLARK TOXIC WASTE ISSUE OR THE PHILIPPINE

CONSTITUTION'S ANTI-NUCLEAR PROVISIONS, WILL LEAD TO LENGTHY SENATE DEBATE ON THE AGREEMENT. WE HAVE STRESSED THAT THE VFA IS SIMILAR TO OUR SOFA'S WITH 77 OTHER COUNTRIES, THAT NONE OF ITS PROVISIONS ARE UNIQUE TO THE PHILIPPINES, NOR PREDICATED ON ANY CONDESCENSION TO THE PHILIPPINES.

THE ECONOMIC SITUATION

THE PHILIPPINES HAS BEEN WHIPSAWED BY THE REGION'S CRISIS BUT ITS ECONOMY IS NOT AS TROUBLED AS THOSE OF ITS NEIGHBORS. WHILE GROWTH ESTIMATES FOR 1998 HAVE BEEN SCALED BACK REPEATEDLY AS THE REGION'S DIFFICULTIES MOUNTED, THE PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT AND MOST OUTSIDERS STILL EXPECT GDP GROWTH OF AT LEAST 1 IN 1998 AND AN IMPROVEMENT IN 1999. PART OF THE PHILIPPINES' RESILIENCE IS THE RESULT OF SOUND ECONOMIC POLICIES IMPLEMENTED EFFECTIVELY DURING THE RAMOS YEARS; PART IS DUE TO THE CLOSE COOPERATION OF THE IMF OVER THREE DECADES OF ECONOMIC CRISES; AND PART IS DUE TO THE FACT THAT THE PHILIPPINES DID NOT ENJOY THE DECADE OF HIGH GROWTH EXPERIENCED, IN PARTICULAR, BY MALAYSIA AND THAILAND.

THE PHILIPPINE ECONOMY IS KEEPING ITS HEAD ABOVE WATER LARGELY ON THE STRENGTH OF EXPORTS. DOMESTIC CONSUMER DEMAND HAD BEGUN TO WEAKEN IN THE SECOND QUARTER ON 1997 (CAR SALES PEAKED IN MARCH 1997), WELL BEFORE THE CRISIS HIT. EXPORTS DURING THE FIRST FIVE MONTHS OF 1998 WERE UP 21OVER THE SAME PERIOD IN 1997 -- A MAJOR DIFFERENCE FROM ITS ASEAN PARTNERS. MOST OF THE

DECONTROLLED/UNCLASSIFIED

GROWTH HAS COME FROM ELECTRONICS, MAINLY PRODUCED BY AMERICAN FIRMS LIKE INTEL, TEXAS INSTRUMENTS AND MOTOROLA, WHICH ARE GROWING 45PER YEAR AND ARE THE COUNTRY'S LEADING EXPORT. THERE ARE SIGNS THAT THIS GROWTH WILL SLOW IN THE COMING MONTHS, DUE TO SLOWING GROWTH OF DEMAND FOR COMPUTERS. EXPORTS OF AUTOMOTIVE COMPONENTS HAVE ALSO BEEN STRONG, BECOMING THE SECOND LEADING EXPORT THIS YEAR, AHEAD OF GARMENTS.

THE GREATEST SHOCKS TO THE PHILIPPINE ECONOMY HAVE BEEN REFLECTED IN THE CURRENCY AND STOCK MARKETS. AFTER REACHING A LOW OF P45.3/US$, A DEPRECIATION OF ABOUT 42FROM ITS JUNE 1997 LEVEL OF P26.4/US$, THE PESO REBOUNDED AND STABILIZED AT ABOUT P38-40/US$ UNTIL THE YEN'S WEAKNESS AFFECTED ALL SOUTHEAST ASIAN CURRENCIES IN JUNE. THE PESO NOW TRADES IN THE P41-42/US$ RANGE. THE STOCK MARKET ALSO RECOVERED ABOUT A THIRD OF ITS VALUE IN THE FIRST TWO MONTHS OF THE YEAR, BUT HAS RECENTLY WEAKENED ALONG WITH OTHER ASIAN MARKETS AND STANDS 50DOWN FROM THE JANUARY 1997 LEVEL. MAIN PROBLEM HAS BEEN A DRAMATIC FALL IN BOTH INCOME

WORKING ON A TAX AMNESTY PROGRAM BUT INSISTS THAT ITS

REAL PURPOSE IS TO STRENGTHEN LONGER-TERM REVENUE COLLECTION BY IDENTIFYING HIDDEN WEALTH.

SO FAR, THE IMF, WORLD BANK, AND ADB HAVE GENERALLY GIVEN THE PHILIPPINE GOVERNMENT CREDIT FOR THE WAY IT HAS HANDLED THE CRISIS. IN THE SPRING, THE PHILIPPINES "GRADUATED" FROM ITS THREE DECADES-LONG IMF PROGRAM, FULFILLING A KEY OBJECTIVE OF THE RAMOS ADMINISTRATION. USED TO ADVERSITY, PHILIPPINE BANKS AND INDUSTRIES ARE PROBABLY IN BETTER SHAPE TO RIDE OUT THE CRISIS THAN THEIR REGIONAL COUNTERPARTS.

ECONOMIC POLICY UNDER ESTRADA

PRESIDENT ESTRADA DOES NOT APPEAR TO DIFFER FROM THE PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATION ON THE BASIC COURSE OF MARKET-ORIENTED ECONOMIC REFORM. DURING THE CAMPAIGN AND SINCE THE ELECTION, HE HAS PLEDGED TO CONTINUE THE REFORMS INITIATED BY THE AQUINO AND RAMOS ADMINISTRATIONS, THOUGH WITH A GREATER EMPHASIS ON IMPROVING THE WELFARE OF THE POOR AND ON STRENGTHENING THE AGRICULTURAL SECTOR.

THE ADMINISTRATION IS EXPECTED TO DECLARE A NUMBER OF ECONOMIC REFORM BILLS AS "PRIORITY MEASURES" FOR EARLY

ACTION BY CONGRESS. THESE INCLUDE REFORM OF THE ELECTRICITY SECTOR, LEADING TO PRIVATIZATION OF THE NATIONAL POWER CORPORATION, AND OPENING UP THE RETAIL TRADE SECTOR, CLOSED TO FOREIGN EQUITY FOR FOUR DECADES. SENIOR OFFICIALS HAVE TALKED OF ALLOWING FOREIGN BANKS TO BUY 100OF LOCAL BANKS (THE CURRENT LIMIT -- 60IS STILL THE HIGHEST IN ASEAN). ADMINISTRATION OFFICIALS HAVE ALSO CALLED FOR LIBERALIZING RESTRAINTS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDUSTRIAL PROPERTY, ALTHOUGH CHANGING THE BAN ON FOREIGN LAND OWNERSHIP WOULD REQUIRE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

Dear Mr. Gilman:

Thank you for your letter of July 22 urging Secretary Albright to take a leadership role on Burma at the ASEAN Regional Forum and Post Ministerial Conference in Manila.

While in Manila Secretary Albright vigorously condemned the Burmese military government's mistreatment of Nobel laureate Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and also successfully forged an international consensus among nations deeply concerned by the Burmese junta's actions. During the conference Secretary Albright pulled together a group of like-minded Foreign Ministers to voice concern with the political situation in Burma, in particular protesting the roadside standoff between Aung San Suu Kyi and the government to Burmese Foreign Minister Ohn Gyaw. Later that day the Secretary convened a group of concerned Foreign Ministers to discuss further options with regard to Burma.

One direct result of Secretary Albright's action was an initiative by ten countries, coordinated by the U.S., to deliver a joint demarche to the Burmese government. This formal statement, delivered on August 10, deplores the government's mistreatment of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi; urges the government to address the underlying cause of the problem; and voices concern for imprisoned National League for Democracy (NLD) Members of Parliament-elect.

As Secretary Albright said in Manila, Burma is a country in great and growing distress and dialogue is the only way to resolve this. We share your concern with the actions of the State Peace and Development Council (SPDC) and will continue to work vigorously to press for a meaningful dialogue between the SPDC and the democratic opposition, in particular Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and the NLD.

Dear Mr. Lewis:

Thank you for your letter of July 22 urging Secretary Albright to take a leadership role on Burma at the ASEAN Regional Forum and Post Ministerial Conference in Manila.

While in Manila Secretary Albright vigorously condemned the Burmese military government's mistreatment of Nobel laureate Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and also successfully forged an international consensus among nations deeply concerned by the Burmese junta's actions. During the conference Secretary Albright pulled together a group of like-minded Foreign Ministers to voice concern with the political situation in Burma, in particular protesting the roadside standoff between Aung San Suu Kyi and the government to Burmese Foreign Minister Ohn Gyaw. Later that day the Secretary convened a group of concerned Foreign Ministers to discuss further options with regard to Burma.

One direct result of Secretary Albright's action was an initiative by ten countries, coordinated by the U.S., to deliver a joint demarche to the Burmese government. This formal statement, delivered on August 10, deplores the government's mistreatment of Daw Aung San Suu Kyi; urges the government to address the underlying cause of the problem; and voices concern for imprisoned National League for Democracy (NLD) Members of Parliament-elect.

As Secretary Albright said in Manila, Burma is a country in great and growing distress and dialogue is the only way to resolve this. We share your concern with the actions of the State Peace and Development Council (SPDC) and will continue to work vigorously to press for a meaningful dialogue between the SPDC and the democratic opposition, in particular Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and the NLD.

The Honorable
John Lewis,
House of Representatives.
